Smiling Girl Leads Two Bandits In Series of Daring Robberies

JEWELRY AND MONEY TAKEN FROM VICTIMS

Drivers Are Forced To Stop Their Cars Near City

ARMED MEN GATHER LOOT

Pockets Ransacked To Tune of Much Chatter

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 27.—(P)—Led by a smiling, pretty and fashionably dressed girl, who directed their activities and searched the victims, two bandits in a series of daring robberies today secured $75.00 in cash, a valuable watch and a pair of ear rings.

The bandits first appeared near the city where they forced a car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hendricks and Miss Myrtle Cash and a man named Caldwell, from Catarina, Texas, into the ditch beside the road.

The girl bandit greeted her victims with a pleasant "Hello folks we won't disturb you long". A man, about 25, leaped from the bandit car to the running board of Hendricks' machine, and covered the occupants with a pistol.

While police deputy sheriffs were scouring roads for them, the bandits appeared in Denver Boulevard and held up M. Sotter.

This time the men who stepped from the car brandished two guns and trained them upon the victim while the girl, still laughing, ransacked his pockets to the tune of much chatter.

An hour later the trio held up a negro and negress as they drove on the Laverna road two miles from the city limits.

Famous Actress Is Dead at Age of Seventy-Four

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—(P)—Mrs. Helen Costigan Cohan, mother of Geo. M. Cohan and herself an actress for many years, died last night at her home in Monroe, N. Y. She was 74 years old.

Mrs. Cohan, her husband, Jeremiah J. Cohan, their daughter, the late Josephine Cohan, and their son, George M. played successfully for years as "the four Cohans."

She is survived only by her son who with his wife and a niece, was with her when she died.

The plays for which Mrs. Cohan and her husband are perhaps best remembered are "The Governor's son" and "Running for Office."

After the marriage of Josephine to Fred Niblo, actor and motion picture director, breaking up the four Cohan partnership, the parents continued to appear with their son. He had by that time, however, become more famous than they and they were content to let him present them under the billing "George M. Cohan and company."

Josephine died July 12, 1916 and a little over a year later Jere Cohan died at the home in Monroe, N. Y.

TWO KILLED AT TEXARKANA

TEXARKANA, Aug. 27.—(P)—Louise Ronsie, was killed instantly and Robert S. Campbell, 26, was fatally injured here last night when the automobile in which they were riding plunged over a deep embankment on the outskirts of the city. Campbell died within a few minutes after reaching a hospital.

Lucky Farmers

Otto Wenrich, above, and J. W. Prazier, two Kansas farmers, are still at the plow, but they don't think that implement for the riches they have struck. For Wenrich had made $100,000 in oil royalties, while Prazier is one of 50 heirs to a $100,000,000 estate.

Wink Garage Damaged By Blast Today

WINK, Aug. 27.—(P)—Gang warfare tactics were introduced to this western oil town today when a garage, the largest building in Wink, was damaged by a blast.

The explosion tore away a large corner of the structure but did little damage to several automobiles stored in the building. A man asleep in the rear was uninjured.

Police said half a box of dynamite had been used, after finding 30 feet of burnt fuse.

The garage was owned by two men under indictment at Pecos for operating organized gambling halls and a liquor ring at Wink.

Missing English Minister Found Working on Farm

MEDICINE HAT, Alta., Aug. 27.—The "mysterious disappearance" of the Rev. Rankin Hutchinson from his home in Dodinghurst, Essex, England, has been solved.

With a party of 22 harvest hands recently sent over from England, the Rev. Dr. Hutchinson is working as a field laborer on a farm near Brooks, Alberta. The party regarded him as their leader.

He is here to study farm conditions and to make a survey of educational matters and feels that the furrow over his "disappearance" is a "mountain made out of a mole hill."

The minister said he resigned his church office before leaving England, that his plans were known to his Bishop and the secretary of his religious division and that he has made no effort to keep his identity secret.

MURDER TRIAL TODAY

FORT DAVIS, Tex., Aug. 27.—(P)—Paul Mitchell, 27, charged with murder in the killing of Pat Murphy at Iraan, Texas, last September, was brought here yesterday from Fort Stockton. Trial was docketed for today, and Mitchell, brother of Paul, already has been tried and sentenced to 35 years imprisonment in the same case. His conviction has been appealed.

Two Killed In Auto Accidents

FORT WORTH, Aug. 27.—(P)—Two persons were killed instantly in two automobile accidents late Sunday night on the Fort Worth-Decatur highway, one near Rhome and another near Decatur. One woman, injured seriously in the wreck near Rhome, was brought to a hospital in Fort Worth.

Dewey Niven, 30, barber, Alford, died when the machine in which he and Estel Furlough, also of Alford, were en route from Decatur to Alford skidded and overturned into a deep embankment, plowing both men under the wreckage.

Russell Elbert Fritz, 25, of Wichita Falls, was killed, and Mrs. Margaret Siegler, Wichita Falls, was hurt badly when their automobile turned over when rounding a sharp curve near Alford.

The first accident occurred at about 9:30 o'clock and the second at 10:30 p. m.

Justice Court Opened Today

The regular monthly term of the Justice court, civil docket, was called this morning at 10 o'clock. Cases not represented by the plaintiffs or defendants or their attorneys were dismissed.

"In the future," Justice of the Peace C. E. Cary said this morning, "when representatives of cases are not present when Justice court is called the fourth Monday in each month the case will be dismissed or where only one side is represented they will be given judgment. I plan to run this court in a business like manner and will appreciate the support of all having cases in my court."

There are scores of outstanding cases on the books for many months back that must be cleared up and the only way to do so is for the plaintiff or the defendant to appear and ask to have a date set for the hearing of the cases in question, he continued.

El Hextor and nephew, George Hextor, left this morning to return to their home in Chicago, after spending two weeks here attending to elder Mr. Hextor's oil interests. They have been guests in the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. Purviance.

Harvesters Return After Weeks Training at Craterville Park

The Pampa Harvesters returned yesterday from Craterville Park, Okla., where they spent a week in preseason training for the football season. The boys would suit up and trot the mile and are lead in their practices of Odis Mitchell, the new Harvester coach.

Twenty-five boys attended the camp and worked hard and untiringly during their stay. The routine of the camp was up at 6 a. m., with breakfast a half hour later. At 8 a. m. the boys would suit up and trot the mile to the training field where practice and skirmishes would take place until 10:30 or 11 o'clock. Upon the return to camp all went in for a swim. Dinner was served at 12 noon.

The boys were free from dinner until 3 o'clock when another period of practice was in order. Afternoon practice was followed by another swim. After supper, at 6 o'clock, the boys were free until 9:30 o'clock which was bedtime.

Other teams present at the camp were Lawton, Okla., and Hinton, Okla. Challenges have been sent out to Wichita Falls, Childress and Lawton to play here September 14. The locals have a strong team and are ready for a pre-season game.

Only five of last year's letter men are missing this year and their places should be filled from among the following new men: Phelps Lawson from Stamford, John Todd from Comanche, Raymond Tracy from Sayre, Okla. Alfred Duncan from Miami, John Will's from Borger, John Hoper, Arkansas City, Don Tate from Burbank, Calif. J. Carson from Texhoma and A. Chestnut from Henrietta, Okla.

Robinson, wives of the candidates, are shown at a reception in a New York hotel. There they had their first taste of the social activity that the presidential election may bring them, for they met 2000 women who thronged the great ballroom.

Plot To Wreck Akron Home Is Unsuccessful

AKRON, O., Aug. 27.—(P)—An intensive round of all known members of Akron's underworld was underway today because of the second attempt in three days on the life of Kyle Ross, vice crusading councilman who engaged in a gun duel with gangsters after his home had been set afire last night.

Ross, recently appointed by the city council to investigate crime conditions, was fired on as he stood in the kitchen door of his home after being awakened by his wife, who had heard an intruder coming up the basement stairs. The bullet shattered one of the door panels.

The councilman switched on flood lights installed in his back yard when his life was first threatened, ran outside and exchanged shots with his assailant. A neighbor, Ed Hardesty, awakened by the firing, seized a gun and shot from his bedroom window at a second man who had appeared near the Ross home. Both attackers took flight. None of the bullets took effect.

In the meantime, the basement of the Ross home had become a mass of flames. Firemen quickly extinguished the blaze and found that all of the cellar walls had been sprayed with gasoline.

Police revealed yesterday that on Friday night at attempt was made to blow up Ross' home. The incident had been kept secret that a speedier investigation might be made. Officers said his home had been filled with natural gas and the electric current switched off, evidently in the idea that the councilman, finding his home dark would light matches. The plot failed, however, when a friend accompanying Ross home grabbed the accolyte as he was about to light the match and called his attention to the odor of gas.

Girl Killed When Hurlled From Car

DALLAS, Aug. 27.—(P)—Miss Bonnit Wayne Pennal, 18, was killed instantly this morning when her automobile struck a railing of a bridge near here. She was thrown from the car and her head hit a heavy piece of the railing.

Palmer Lawrence, Mesquite, driver of the car, was not hurt. He said lights from an approaching car blinded him and he did not see the narrow passage.

Miss Pennal had lived in Dallas for the last eight months, coming here from Nocona, Montague county. Her body will be sent to her former home for burial.

14 Countries Sign For Peace

PARIS, Aug. 27.—Fourteen leading statesmen of the old and new worlds assembled in Paris today to consecrate what many consider the greatest triumph of peace since the Hague conference nearly thirty years ago. They were here to sign a treaty evolved by two of their number, Kellogg and Briand—"to render war more difficult."

The magnitude of the act was enhanced by the simplicity of the ceremonies arranged, no flights of oratory dimming its impressiveness.

The suggestion that one of the visiting statesmen should reply to a few words of welcome by Aristide Briand, French foreign minister, was rejected on the grounds that the signature is an act of faith in future peace and no words are necessary to emphasize it.

Guastav Stresmann, German foreign minister, had the honor of being first to sign the treaty, since the signature of the nations, Germany (Allemagne) heading the list.

Frank B. Kellogg, American secretary of state, here to sign for the United States the treaty of which he is co-author, insists that chief credit for the accomplishment rightfully belongs to M. Briand whose suggestion on the tenth anniversary of the war led to its consummation.

Secretary Kellogg was awarded second place in the ceremony of signing the pact, his signature in behalf of the United States immediately following that of Stresmann. Representatives of the other thirteen signatory nations were placed in the following order:

Belgium, France, Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Ireland, India, Lord Cushendun signing for King George V as emperor of India, Italy, Japan, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

Flags of all nations, including those of the Russian Soviet and the Chinese Republics, flew today over the foreign office, the scene of the ceremony of signing. It was the first time since 1870 that the flag of Germany was raised there.

Colonel Charged With Beating of El Paso Farmer

EL PASO, Aug. 27.—(P)—District Attorney C. J. Vowell today caused a warrant to be issued for Colonel Norman L. King, commander of the New Mexico National Guard, charging him with compounding a felony.

Effects of peace officers to serve the warrant failed, Colonel King having left the camp for New Mexico in advance of the National Guard which broke up today.

The charge against the New Mexico Colonel grew out of an attack alleged to have been made on an El Paso county farmer at Yesleta, Texas, by a captain of the New Mexico militia. The Farmer, R. L. Tankersley, 55, is in an El Paso hospital, said to be seriously injured as a result of the captain's knocking him down when Tankersley complained to the officer New Mexico guardsmen were stealing watermelons from him.

Vowell accused King of sending the captain back to New Mexico to escape arrest, King saying, according to Vowell, he had been advised to do so by Attorney General Robert C. Dow denied he had given King that advice.

Vowell declared he would ask Governor Dan Moody to make requisition on the Governor of New Mexico, asking for the return of Colonel King and the captain of Texas.

Fair Committee Calls Meeting

"Business men, this is the last call to decide whether Pampa will have a fair or whether for the first time in the history of Pampa we have had to quit cold any proposition we started to put over," F. P. Reid remarked this morning after the fair committee had decided to call a meeting of the business men of Pampa for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

"This question is getting serious and we are going to make our final plea and I know that we will win out," J. L. Lester of the fair committee stated this morning.

"The time is short and we must get our catalogues ready and out and our grounds into shape for the event," J. G. Christie chairman of the committee said.

ROYLTY BRINGS $4,000

For a cash consideration of $4,000 Dr. A. P. Sawyer purchased a one-quarter royalty under all of section 17b, block B-3 O. H. Hendrix. The lease contains 320 acres.

Two wells are drilling in adjoining leases. This section is situated four miles west of production in the Bowers-McCles pool and near the wells on the Case lease.

Paul J. Certain returned Saturday evening from a week's business visit in Hutchinson, Kas.

EXACT DEPTH OF PRODUCTION UNDETERMINED

Oil Went Over Top of Derrick Yesterday Afternoon

CLEANING OUT AT 2,520 FEET

More Than Dozen a Wells Drilling in Territory

The Lefors area continues to be the surprise territory in the Panhandle-Oil field. The latest unlooked for development occurred in the Prairie Oil and Gas company's No. 2 That in the That pre-emption survey which threw oil over the top of the derrick yesterday afternoon when cleaning out mud and water at about 2,520 feet.

The well was drilled to a total depth of 2,617 feet with a rotary drill and then standardized. The Well had more than 100 feet of oil in the hole and cleaning out preparatory to drilling ahead was in progress when the oil was encountered.

Where the oil is coming from is not known. It may be at a higher depth and was stirred up while cleaning out or it may be breaking through from total depth.

Cleaning out will continue. The same company's No. 1 has 1,500 feet of oil in the hole at a total depth of 2,747 feet. A string of tools is stuck in the hole and as soon as released will be drilled deeper.

This well is an offset to the Lefors Petroleum company's 2,300 barrel gusher which came in at 2,675 feet. The well logged with its offset until after the big gas was encountered when it struck a hard formation and no oil at Lefors pay.

The oil is of high quality in the territory and may open a new pool. More than a dozen wells are drilling in the territory of the discovery well nearing the pay.

Girl Attacked On Way Home From Dance

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 27.—(P)—After a battle with a young man who attempted to kidnap her as she stepped from a street car near her home, Miss Selma Carbe was cared for by physicians at her home today.

Returning from a dance, Miss Carbe got off a street car and found herself facing a man about 25 years old. Pointing a pistol in her face, the man ordered her into his automobile, forcibly putting her into the machine when she refused to obey, she told police.

In the fight that followed, she said, her garments were torn, and she sustained several bruises.

Attracted by Miss Carbe's screams, persons in a house nearby telephoned the police and a mounted officer responded. He found Miss Carbe some blocks away hiding from her assailant. A squad of policemen did not find her assailant.

West Texas Oil Well Scores a New High Record

FORT WORTH, Tex., Aug. 27.—(P)—All records scored by any well in West Texas, or probably in the United States, have been broken by the Gulf Production Company number 13 Yates in the Yates pool of Pecos county, with a measured flow of 2,756 barrels of oil in 30 minutes. This is at the rate of 123,648 barrels per day. Following the test the well was pinched in, as a result of the proration in effect in the pool. Total allowance from all the Gulf's Yates pools is only approximately six percent of the rate of daily flow tested by this one well.

For the Public Good

Within a short time a scheme for numbering the houses of Pampa will be passed by the city commission. This plan is necessary if the present confusion is to be done away with.

But before the numbers may be made uniform and coherent, several key streets must be re-named. In other instances, bending streets with two names must be put under one designation.

Sentiment is attached to some of the names, particularly in the additions, yet in the interests of the public good these names must be sacrificed. The News believes the citizens involved will be glad to cooperate even to the extent of re-naming these parts of streets.

Pampa needs more uniform street names, house numbers, a city directory, and an industrial census. The ordinance to be put into effect probably tonight will start this procession of progress.

REPORTORIAL

Pampa Daily News: This section has just cause for indignation in the fact that nine Panhandle counties are listed in a States Department of Agriculture map as "grazing lands only".

Wheat, grain sorghums, corn and miscellaneous forage crops are grown extensively all through that belt. Cotton has become a principal crop in two of the counties. Four of them have a lively representation in the orchard industry. Oats do well in Cochran. Hockley has enough variety to gladden any State Fair exhibition arranger. And timber has attained proportions of an industry in two of these counties.

Each would have nine copies. The only thing that is superior to correct information is more correct information. Nine times a given amount of any correct information ought to be enough to assure the kind of map the counties of Bailey, Cochran, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Hockley, Lamb, Oldham, Parmer and Sherman have a right to find reporting their presence in the agricultural world.

WASHINGTON—The Tariff Commission will soon settle down to the task of preparing its report of findings following public hearings on a receipt of briefs on the proposed higher corn tariff and will make recommendations to President Coolidge.

The Department of Agriculture and the American Farm Bureau Federation insist that there is a need for greater protection for corn growers in the middle west and that the Argentine maize enters into direct competition with our own. The president has the power to raise or lower duties 50 per cent.

The Farm Bureau Federation says, using the year 1926, that there was a difference of between 35 and 36 cents a bushel between the Argentine and American production costs for corn.

The Argentines told the commission that Argentine corn didn't enter into competition with ours and pointed out that in no year under the present tariff had the price of corn in Chicago differed greatly from the price in Buenos Aires by the amount of the existing duty.

They produced evidence from grain importers who insisted that Argentine corn couldn't compete with domestic corn more than 200 miles inland because of present duties and high freight rates. It is used almost entirely by eastern farmers for feed, they said, and these farmers would suffer if higher duties caused higher prices.

In their brief, they held that their protest was largely a matter of principle—that the proposed duty boost would further aggravate the unfavorable position under which Argentine imports into this country had been placed.

Less than half of 1 per cent of Argentina's corn exports are sent to this country, but that amount represents 95 per cent of our corn imports. Corn imports from the Argentine dropped from 2,220,000 bushels in 1924 to 793,000 bushels in 1926.

Not publicly but privately the Argentines complain that most of the American witnesses before the commission were politically minded and shy on statistics to prove the need of an increase. These included Senator Howell of Nebraska and a representative of Iowa's governor.

They were shocked to hear the charge that many shipments of Argentine corn had contained weevils.

They are convinced that the agitation for increase was motivated by political considerations on the part of those seeking to give some semblance of relief, real or imaginary, to the American farmer.

But in the likely event that the commission finds itself sharply divided on the question it is believed that President Coolidge probably will take no action.

which will ultimately be increased to another mainline crew, composed of more than 100 men, has been organized and work is progressing rapidly on the construction of the 132-mile Wichita to Ottawa extension of the 20-inch natural gas pipeline of the Cities Service Gas company, 43 miles of main pipe having been laid to date.

The Emporia main line gang, working in a southwesterly direction, has cleared 36 miles of right-of-way, strung 35 miles to pipe, opened 15 1-2 miles of ditch, painted 16 miles of 20-inch pipe, laid 15 1-2 miles of pipe and backfilled 15 1-2 miles ditch.

The Wichita main line gang, working in a northeasterly direction, has cleared 23 miles of right-of-way, strung 23 miles of pipe, opened 16 miles of ditch, painted 16 miles of pipe, laid 15 1-2 miles of backfilled 15 1-2 miles ditch.

The Ottawa gang is working south-west and has cleared 16 miles of right-

The two river crossing crews have completed the Marais des Cygnes and Long Creek river crossings and are now working on the White Water and Neosho River crossings. Six streams will be crossed, including the East Walnut and West Walnut rivers. All of the river crossing pipe has been received and the balance of the main line pipe will be shipped this month.

The Wichita-Ottawa extension will link the Kansas City area with the Empire's vast gas reserves in the Panhandle of Texas through the 20-inch Pampa-Wichita line which was completed last year.

Convention of Legion Opens at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Ark., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Four cities drew their lines for a strenuous fight for the next Texas State American Legion Convention as the joint meeting of Texas and Arkansas legionnaires opened here today with an estimated attendance of 3,000.

Lobbies of the twin city principal hotels decided of furniture and packed with happy, shouting "Buddies," were strung with banners espousing the respective causes of Amarillo, Abilene, Waco and Fort Arthur. Representatives of each of the cities announced they would fight to the last ditch for the next meeting place.

The battle for state commander to succeed Walton D. Hood promised to be equally as spirited. A dozen Texas delegations prepared to present a candidate for the post.

The Arkansas delegates, wearing distinctive black overseas caps likewise were preparing to stage a vigorous campaign for the next meeting in the Bear state. Elytheville and Pine Bluff put in strong claims.

Although the convention was not scheduled to start until today, when delegations of the two states were to hold their first and only joint session of the three day meet, delegations started filtering into the city early Sunday and by night streets and hotel lobbies were teeming with legionnaires and members of the auxiliaries of the two states.

Almost every delegation brought its own band or drum corps and traffic was paralyzed as they paraded through the downtown streets or gave impromptu concerts. Streets strung with vari-colored lights and bunting added to the carnival spirit.

While a majority of the delegates gave Sunday over to getting acquainted with Texarkana and making their presents generally felt, the executive committee of the Texas legion met and received reports from state officers.

State Commander Walton D. Hood submitted a plan for the building of cottages for families of war veterans receiving treatment at the Legion hospital at Kerrville. He called that 100 new posts had been organized in Texas in the past year and the total membership in the state was 29,390.

A message of condolence was ordered sent to the widow of Thomas M. Campbell, Jr., who died Sunday morning at Austin.

Discussion of a project to install a children's playground at Legion, Texas, occupied most of the session of the executive committee of the Texas women's auxiliary last night. Mrs. F. M. Hardin, president of the Texas auxiliary reported $4,500 had been raised for the project. Mrs. Hardin explained that such a playground would enable wives of patients at the hospital to visit more often, as children are not permitted at the hospital at this time.

Plans to have the governors of three states, Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana, review the official convention parade Tuesday were partly disputed when Governor Harvey Parnell of Arkansas sent word Sunday he would be unable to attend. Governor Dan Moody of Texas arrived last night and Governor Huey P. Long of Louisiana was expected today. Mayor Ross L. Lawton of North Little Rock was appointed to represent the Arkansas Governor.

Senator Morris Sheppard, whose home is at Texarkana, was to address the joint gathering of delegates today.

Small Machine Does Big Work

Pictured in one of the modern inventions in the automotive industry in recent years, a device developed by the Packard Motor Car company is one of the most simple. It pales into insignificance, in size however, when compared with giant machines, sometimes weighing hundreds of tons, with which the automobile industry is continually reducing costs, increasing production and bettering quality.

The little machine is used to paint the stripes on automobile bodies. This was one job on a motor car which, it was considered, never could be done by machinery. In the Packard plant alone two girls armed with the device have taken the place of ten men and the finished work is asserted to be a big improvement over the results obtained through the old hand methods. The stripe itself is more perfect and will, it is believed, far outlast that put on by hand brushes, as it is laid on much thicker and more evenly. Only one application is needed also while, by the hand method, two coats were required for even the much thinner stripe.

Small as the mechanical paint stripper is, Packard had been at work on it for nearly three years before it finally was perfected. It consists of a small reservoir to hold the lacquer, hardly larger than a fountain pen. In many respects, say those who have seen the device used, it resembles a fountain pen. The lacquer is drawn from the reservoir by a small gear pump at the bottom.

Fire Insurance Commissioner of Texas Is Dead

AUSTIN, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The body of Thomas Mitchell Campbell, Jr., 40 year old state fire insurance commissioner who died Sunday after three days illness, was sent last night to Palestine, his home and the home of his father, the late former Governor T. M. Campbell for burial.

Funeral was expected to be Tuesday, depending on the arrival of the commissioner's mother from Michigan, his sister, Mrs. C. V. Dilley, from California and another sister, Mrs. R. R. Allen, from Washington.

These are the survivors of the immediate family besides Mrs. Campbell, Jr., and young sons, William B. and T. M., third. Mrs. Campbell and the boys arrived here Sunday about four hours after Campbell died. They had been riding day and night since Friday night at six o'clock from New Mexico where they reached on a vacation trip with friends with news of Campbell's serious illness.

The commissioner was stricken Thursday night with acute stomach trouble, complicated later by heart attacks and pneumonia.

He was appointed by Governor Moody about 19 months ago. Before that, he was engaged in the insurance and banking business at Palestine, having aided on organization of the Guaranty State Bank and Campbell state bank there. He was president and controlling stockholder in the Palestine baseball association of the Texas association.

Tornado Causes Loss of Life and Property in Iowa

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 27.—(AP)—With two persons dead and four others seriously injured, Southern Iowa today was checking the damage caused by a tornado which swept across Mills, Pottawatomie, Cas and Montgomery counties late yesterday.

All known casualties were reported from Elliott, Montgomery county, where James H. Jervis and his 5 year-old son were killed as the tornado demolished their farm home. Mrs. Jervis is in a critical condition from injuries received at the same time. Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and baby were also seriously injured at their home nearby.

The town of Oakland, Pottawatomie county is believed to have suffered the most damage, but with all telephone and telegraph lines down throughout the district, only meager reports filtered out.

Robbers Kill One and Escape with $724 in Coin

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Vacation is over for Chicago's bad men. Within a 24-hour period ended at 4 a. m., today, they had thrown two bombs and shot a man dead.

The man killed was Benjamin Benjamin, 33, owner and manager of the Standard Amusement company operating a carnival on the north side. Robbers in an automobile stopped the machine in which Benjamin was riding and shot him down. They escaped with a pouch containing $724 in coin.

The first bombing wrecked the front of the two-story brick plant in which Heights. Windows of the business district is published the Star, at Chicago strict of the suburb were shattered by a block around. This bombing was attributed by King Williams, editor of the Star, to the newspaper's editorial warfare against gambling.

A downtown Chicago bombing was just outside the loop and within a block of the hotel Sherman, many of whose guests were aroused by the report. The building bombed is used as an employment agency on the second floor, while on the street floor it is occupied by a saloon.

A negro porter was the only person in the place when the explosion occurred. He was unharmed. He could give police little information concerning a possible motive.

FORMER MINISTER TO PARAGUAY KILLED

RANGE CONDITION GOOD

OZONA, Tex., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Range conditions in the sheep and goat belt of Texas are excellent. T. Albert Kineld, president of the Sheep and goat raisers' association of Texas, says in some sections the grass is so high that ranchmen are planning to bale it for hay. Movement of approximately 500,000 lambs to feed lots of the corn belt has started, but the bulk will not be moved until the latter part of September and early October. There is some complaint of sore mouth and stomach worm among sheep, Mr. Kineld said.

SUFFERER BROKEN NECK

HOUSTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Attendants at the Baptist hospital said today that Rome Woodford, 23, member of a pioneer family of Port Arthur, had only a slight chance to live as a result of a broken neck suffered Saturday when he dived into a shallow pool of water at Sylvan Beach, near Houston.

Woodworth came to Houston from Port Arthur about six months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Briggs and sons Burnham and Preston and niece Miss Eileen Pengra spent yesterday in Lubbock.

Miss Francis McKenzie returned this morning from a vacation trip to Sving and other points in New Mexico.

Bill Feenberg was an Amarillo visitor yesterday.

Mrs. V. L. Hudson, her brother, William Best, and her son, Kenneth, of Okmulgee, Okla., spent the week-end here as guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed W. Jones. They attended to business matters while in the city.

Mrs. Ben Renshaw returned home last night, after spending a week at Hennessey, Okla., with her parents.

Where They Live
The eagerness of tourists to see everything that concerns the movies is being capitalized by two Beverly Hills high school boys. They hire themselves out as "movie guides," at $1 per half hour, to any visiting motorists who wish to be shown how to drive past the homes of Gloria Swanson, Mary Pickford, Emil Jannings, Harold Lloyd and all the other illustrious residents of Beverly Hills, the Mount Olympus of the movies. Having lived in the town for some years, the lads really know who lives where, and they say they have been making good vacation money.

SIMPLICITY IN RADIOS IS LATEST TREND SEEN

M. D. Oden, proprietor of the Oden Music Shoppe, and Frank Allidy, service manager of the store, returned last night from Oklahoma City where they have been attending the authorized R. C. A. dealers' school. Instructions on the new model radios were stressed at the school.

Mr. Oden says that the tendency of the latest model radios is toward simplicity. "Until recently," he states, "radios were so complicated that many parts had to be sent to the factories for repairs. With the newer types a complete service can be rendered by dealers."

Flashes of Life

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK—Marion Talley, whose golden voice has made her wealthy, is back from abroad and had to pay only $7.00 as duty on her purchases. Customs inspectors apparently had thought she would have much more, for they searched her twelve pieces of luggage diligently, but found only a $25 shawl dutiable. The opera star said diet had nothing to do with increased slimmness her friends noted.

WASHINGTON—Army fliers have determined by experiment that a man falling from a plane at a great altitude without a parachute will never travel downward faster than 118 miles an hour.

NEW YORK—Workers in New York's financial district, who know a great deal about money, have just learned that $3,000,000,000 in cash and securities was moved through the streets in broad daylight without their knowledge. The fortune was that of the Chase National Bank and its customers, going five blocks to the bank's new home in armored cars.

NEW YORK—Mrs. Charles A. Levine wife of the first trans-Atlantic air passenger, regards as "absurd" rumors growing out of the sale of her home at public auction. "I have never thought of filing a suit of any kind against Mabel Boll," she says, "she is my very dear friend." The property at Rockway, sold by the Levine corporation, brought $204,650. Mrs. Levine said there was no special significance to the sale.

ST. LOUIS—Barbara Stanwick took two hours and a half off to be married. Arriving from New York at 1:20 p. m., the 29-year-old star of "burlesque" was married to Frank Fay, vaudeville master of ceremonies, and at 4 o'clock was on her way back to New York for the reopening of the play.

OBSSINING, N. Y.—John Toakay, police said, was an excellent cabinet maker when he was not an expert safe-blower. After serving all but sixteen months of a twelve-year sentence for burglary, he has been sent to Syracuse as a trustee to exhibit at the state fair his wooden model of one of the cells in which he has spent more than ten years.

Miss Ethel Whitmeyer returned to her home in Shreveport, La., following a visit with her aunt and uncle—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pipes.

Screen Life in Hollywood

BY WADE WERNER

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—Song writers have been quick about adopting the talking screen as a medium through which to present their new ballads. Already Irving Berlin has written "Marie" as the theme song to be worked into the synchronization of Vilma Banky's new picture, and a song to be sung by Lupe Velez in D. W. Griffith's next film. Al Jolson is bringing out "Sonny Boy" as part of his new picture, "The Singing Fool," and Victor Schertzinger, whose outstanding hit a few years ago was "Marcheta," has written two songs for the screen voice of Nancy Carroll. She will sing them in a sound-picture of New York stage life, co-featuring herself and Richard Arlen.

Double Usefulness

Schertzinger, of course, is a motion picture director by profession and a song-writer by avocation. He is getting ready to start production on Richard Dix's new Indian picture, but meanwhile he will take time to help with the singing scenes featuring his songs.

Incidentally it should please the kiddies to know that one of the featured voices in the sound-film version of "Show Boat" will be that of an old steam calliope. It will shriek out the songs Mother and Father used to sing.

Wounded Pride

The argument over whether it will be possible to "double" stars' voices in talking pictures still rages around here, but in the few cases where voice doubles actually have been used. Due to completion of the picture and shipment to New York before addition of sound effects, the reaction of the players directly affected has been anything but favorable. The star fails to enjoy hearing someone else's voice issuing from his screen lips and, like the writer whose story is rewritten by another, takes the attitude that even if it

Hunting Licenses Placed on Sale

Hunters, do you realize that prairie chicken season is nearly here? Local hardware and sporting goods stores are receiving their hunting licenses and have them for sale. The season opens September 1 and continues until Sep. 10.

The following counties have a closed season on prairie chickens: Gray, Donley, Collingsworth and Wheeler.

With several flocks of wild ducks coming over, local hunters are wistful over the date set for duck hunting. The sensible season they think would be from September 15 instead of October 15. The season closes January 31.

Other open seasons of interest to local sportsmen are the quail season from December 1 to January 6. Dove from September 1 to October 30 and the deer season from November 16 to December 31.

COMMUNITIES AT WORK ON MAIL DELIVERY SERVICE

Chamber of Commerce committees are canvassing different sections of the city in connection with the free mail delivery service proposed for Pampa. They find that it is necessary and would be very beneficial to all.

In three areas of a block in the west portion of the city 28 families were receiving mail. In one house in the block six families were residing and in several others two and three families lived.

The housing problem in Pampa is serious as can be seen from this short survey and the large building program is really justified," George Briggs remarked this morning.

Dick Hughes is a business visitor in Spearman today.

...Social Calendar...

The Entre Neus bridge club will not meet this week, it has been announced.

The Baptist Women's Missionary Society will have a Labor Day party at the home of Mrs. L. Wells Smith, Wednesday afternoon, with members of the four circles representing four trades. The social meeting will begin at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Marion Howard will entertain the London Bridge club with a breakfast at her home at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning.

Miss Hazel Campbell will present her piano pupils in recital at the First Christian church, Friday evening. The program will be given at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Mildred Fahy Patton, reader, will assist Miss Campbell. An invitation is extended to the public.

Mrs. Dodson Entertains Formally in Honor of Mrs. J. D. Squires

Mrs. Jessie D. Squires of Dallas, house guest of her brother, J. M. Dodson, and Mrs. Dodson, was named as honoree at four enjoyable affairs of the week-end.

Foremost among these were two musicales given by Mrs. Dodson on Friday, at which programs of unusual interest were presented by a distinguished personnel. Among the guest artists were Mrs. Robert Wilson of Amarillo, one of the Panhandle's most gifted musicians and teachers and Mrs. D. B. Wilson, accomplished violinist of Claude. Miss Kerrick Warner, daughter of Mrs. Phoebe Kerrick Warner of Claude, who very recently returned from a year's sojourn in France, was also in the house party. She gave two very interesting short talks in her travels in Europe, to the delight of her audience.

Mrs. Landon Doak and Mrs. Florence Wilson of Claude were in the house party, as were the latter's little daughter, Minerva Anne, and Mrs. Robert Wilson's little girls, Wendene and Roberne. All three children took part in the program.

About one hundred and twenty guests enjoyed the hospitality of the Dodson home during the afternoon and evening and paid courtesy to the honoree. Cut flowers and garden flowers added their note of charm to the reception rooms. An ice course was served on each occasion.

One of the delightful features of the program was a skit presented by the "Gray Street Entertainers", a troupe which will doubtless become famous within the next few years. The players of this company are: Wendene and Roberne Wilson, Janet and Dorothy Anne York, Dona, Florence Sue, and Byron Dodson, Minerva Anne Wilson, Betty Anne and Catherine Cullerson.

Other numbers on the program were as follows: Vocal solo, "Dreamin' Time" by Strickland, Mrs. Robert Wilson; "My First Beau", a reading by Byron Dodson; violin solo, "The Spring" by Gregg, Mrs. D. B. Wilson; piano solo, "Etude" by Prime, Wendene Wilson; song, "The Pollywog" by Bilbro, Byron Dodson, accompanied by Florence Sue Dodson; Miss Warner's talk, "A Poor Girl in Paris"; vocal solo, "As the Dawn", by Cannon, Mrs. Robert Wilson.

Mrs. Marion Howard Compliments Visitors

Mrs. Marion Howard was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon at 1 o'clock Friday, at which she entertained members of the house party of Mrs. J. M. Dodson's musicale. Her guests were the following: Mrs. J. D. Squires of Dallas, Mrs. Robert Wilson of Amarillo, Mrs. Florence Wilson and Mrs. D. B. Wilson of Claude, and Miss Kerrick Warner also of Claude.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Howard entertained with four tables of bridge in compliment to Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. J. D. Squires. Her lovely new home was decorated with a profusion of colorful garden flowers.

High score was made by Mrs. Bill Faulkner, while low was made by Mrs. Walter Coffee. Exquisite favors were presented to them and to Mrs. J. D. Sugg, who made top cut. Each of the honorees received a gift. Guests other than those named above were: Mrs. J. M. Dodson, Mrs. Lee Woodward, Mrs. C. T. Hunka, Mrs. Otto Studer, Mrs. J. T. York, Mrs. L. N. McCullough, Mrs. Lynn Boyd, Mrs. H. H. Hicks, Mrs. Jack Gatton, Mrs. De Lea Vickers and Mrs. Clyde Fatheree.

Ochiltree Man Gets "Thinking" to Be Subject of Sermon

R. E. Moore, on trial at Miami for the murder of A. W. Cline, was given a 12-year penitentiary sentence Friday afternoon, according to Clifford Braly, district attorney. The case went to the jury last night.

The trial was originally to have been held in Ochiltree county, but a change of venue was granted. The prosecution was handled by District Attorney Braly, R. T. Correll, and J. M. Bull. The defendant was represented by H. E. Hoover, Jack Adkins, Allen and Tilen, and Kinney and Ritchey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Sewell had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Webb of Spearman.

THIS HAS HAPPENED
SYBILL THORNE, prettiest and most reckless of Boston society girls, confides the story of her romance with CRAIG NEWBELL, a wealthy bachelor, to her brother TAD.

Tad, an ex-soldier, wounded and decorated, is rather shocked when Sybill confesses that she likes to get Craig, but does not love him. She says that she does not intend ever to marry because she is still in love with JOHN LAWRENCE, who was sent to France from Camp Devens on the eve of their marriage—and never returned.

Tad scolds her in brotherly fashion, but seems to understand her unconventional code. He begs her to marry and settle down and then tells her that he has a great piece of news.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER III

"CHOOOT!"
Sybill regarded her brother with sisterly affection. Saw him flush boyishly and shift his own embarrassed gaze.

"Gosh Almighty, Tad, what have you done? Killed a cop? Or done a good girl wrong?"

"No kidding," he told her. And, standing, ground his heel in the sand like a small boy torn between impulses to talk and hold his tongue. "The truth is, Sib—hang it all, I wish you didn't feel—well, anyhow, Sis, I'm engaged."

"My Gawd!" Sybill threw herself back on the sands. "Everybody gets engaged, Tad. There's as much difference between getting engaged and married as there is between an I. O. U. and a promissory note. You don't mean you're thinking of getting married, darling?"

"Say! Cut that out, will you?" Tad surveyed his sister darkly. "You're darn right tootin'! I'm thinking of getting married. And the sooner the quicker."

VALERIE WEST was her name. In June she was graduated from finishing school. Tad met her shortly afterward and their engagement was announced the next month. Two weeks later her mother took her to France. It was quite the thing that season to sail on the heels of the announcement, to buy a trousseau in Paris, and be married in the spring.

Valerie was a faxen haired little creature with big violet eyes and baby ways. Wide-eyed innocence wasn't so much a pose with her as a fact.

Mrs. Thorne was delighted. It was high time, she thought, that Tad was settling down. The new generation was too much for her. "And Valerie was such a sweet little thing! Now if Sybill would only get a nice young man."

Mrs. Thorne sighed deeply. Sybill had been, of late, a source of much vexation to the family. She had insisted, in the first place, upon going to work.

"I don't see why not," she argued. "I don't want to hang round the house any more than Tad does. Maybe I could sell bonds, too. Anyhow, if you don't let me do something, I'll pull a breakdown. Complete collapse. Nervous prostration. You wait and see."

"I suppose," conceded her father finally, "I could find a place for you in the office."

"But Sybill declined vigorously. "Nothing doing," she informed him tartly. "I'll make my own way."

Boasting youthfully, she took an intensive course in shorthand and typewriting, which fitted her in three months for a stenographer's job in a publishing house on Beacon Hill.

A passion for work, and real aptitude for the business, promoted her to a secretarial position. Then she announced that she was going to buy all her own clothes. With the acquisition of what she termed

"Say! Cut that out, will you?" Tad surveyed his sister darkly. "You're darn tootin'! I'm thinking of getting married!"

"utter independence," her parents pronounced her "altogether unmanageable." The difference of opinion developed into family relations so strained that poor Mrs. Thorne spent most of her time in tears.

TAD became a Reformed Rake, and philosophized on the trend of the times.

"You know, Sis," he used to say, "there's something wrong with the kids today. They've no sense of values. Darn little appreciation of anything worth while. Pleasure is their little tin god. And they haven't any other. Thank the Lord Valerie's different stuff. Now there's a girl for you!"

Sybill smiled indulgently. "You sure know how to pick 'em," she conceded goodnaturedly. "But I think you're sort of hard on the rest of the kids, Tad. You see, they never knew the world we lived in—before the war, I mean. Customs, manners, conventions—everything's changed since you and I were 15. It took only four years to make America over."

"Why, Tad, I'd been kissed just twice when I was 15. The first time I felt as if I'd been desecrated, and cried about it. The second time, I thought I was in love."

"I had an awful crush on Sam Hedges and let him kiss me one night in the hammock on the piazza. And the very next day Mrs. Hedges came over and talked a lot to mother about 'self love.' I was listening to it all at the top of the stairs."

"And somehow I got associated with Sam, in my mind, with calves—you know the big, moony eyes he had and that nobody-home expression. Love's young dream perished on the spot."

"Girls don't wear shoe strings, Teddy. And every idiot in love talks like that. Adam felt the same way about Eve. And then the girl fell for a snake."

BUT that night she prayed for the first time in years. Not orthodox prayers at all.

"God," she remarked, on her knees, in conversational strain, "I don't take much stock in praying. I sort of think that supplicating in an awful waste of time. I'm not even sure if I believe in You, God. But if I'm all wrong, You'll understand, because, of course, if You ARE God, You know how it is.

"But if you DO answer prayers—and care a bit about us, down below—please, God, do anything You want to me, but DON'T let Valerie go back on Tad. It would kill him, God, if that girl's not as good as she looks. Please, PLEASE, keep Valerie all right for Tad."

Then, simply, in the fashion of her childhood, she recited prayers that she remembered:

"There are four corners to my bed, Four angels round my head, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, God bless the bed that I lie on."

And another that began:

"Jesus, Tender Shepherd, hear me. . . Bless Thy little lamb tonight. . . Through the darkness be Thou near me. . . Keep me safe till morning light."

Then, with her head on her outstretched arms, she whispered, "Now I lay me down to sleep"; and, when she had finished her eyes were wet with tears.

"Oh, God," she begged, "give me Faith. Please, please! I want to believe. Oh, touch my heart, and fill my soul with understanding."

THERE was to be a large wedding. Valerie's letters were full of glowing plans. . . "Sybill, dear, would you just as soon wear flame? I want all my bridesmaids to be in different colors. Rainbow effects are so lovely. . . Brides over here are wearing pink this season—awfully misty, you know. Sort of a shell pink. . . I think I shall. . . With a big bunch of Dorothy Perkins roses instead of the conventional valley-lilies. And I've a perfectly gorgeous headdress that's like a crown. I loathe the little Dutchy caps, and tulle figners, like nursemaids wear. Don't you? . . . I've my pumps all bought. High heels, studded with brilliants. . . The new gowns are dreadfully like bathing suits, but they're perfectly adorable. . . There was a wedding at the Embassy here the other day and the bride carried a swaggar stick right up to the altar. Really, it was awfully swanky. . . I'm getting so thrilled, just planning things."

"Valerie'll have you in silk stockings and satin panties, Tad," Sybill prophesied cheerfully. "That girl's going to have a knockout wedding. No squirming old bridegroom's gumming up her precious plans."

He grinned sheepishly. "Anything she says goes."

"You said it!" Sybill's slangy re-benewance was portentous.

That winter the Thornes became closer to one another than they had been since before the war.

For some years Mr. Thorne had been bothered with attacks to which he referred lightly as "my dizzy spells," and laid to indigestion.

Finally he persuaded him to see a famous specialist, who told him dreadful truths. And, when he was through, called a taxi and sent the wretched man home with a little bottle of digitalis and a horrible conviction of approaching death.

Sybill and her father grow very close to each other. "Don't leave me, dear," he begged. "I don't want to be alone." But Craig Newbell came one afternoon, and Sybill goes riding with him in the next chapter.

Grays Will Battle Erick for the Big Money Today in Amarillo

METROS SHUT OUT SUNDAY BY KETCHUM

Pampa Boys Step Up After Two Fast Games

SEITZ GETS A HOMER IN 7TH Closing Inning One of Most Exciting Of Tournament

Pampa is today proclaiming Gus Ketchum the best pitcher on her roster or in the Amarillo tournament. The veteran of the Grays went into the box yesterday afternoon and pitched a shut-out game against the Amarillo Metros after he had pitched a two-hit game against the All-Stars Saturday afternoon.

The local team took the field in a fighting mood because of a "dirty deal" handed them. The local boys were surprised to have third money cinched by their win Saturday afternoon but in the juggle of the teams the Grays were scheduled to play the first game yesterday afternoon and take a chance on elimination. They went after Left Fonken, Metro Ace, and four hits and two runs chased him to the showers in the first inning.

This afternoon the Grays battle Erick for the big money. It is likely the Goyer will send French against the Oklahoma team as he has defeated them four times this year playing for Ganges at Amsterdam, was Elizabeth Robinson, shown here as she arrived in New York. No, those are not the shoes in which she captured the 100-meter sprint for women. They're a pair of Dutch wooden ones, now well autographed, which were presented to her in Holland.

Williamson on third and Hines on second provided the fielding exhibitions of the day with two one handed stabs of line drives which cut off almost sure runs.

Fonken to the Showers
Lefty Fonken took the mound to oppose Ketchum. Williamson, first man up went out Gibson to Hayden Hines then singled to right and scored on a triple by Nell over the center fielders head. Seitz, next man up, singled through short and Nell came home Parkson advanced Seitz with a double down the first base line and Fonken went to the showers. Stockton took the mound for the Metros and Bell popped out to Collier and Clayton went out pitcher to first.

The third Pampa run came in the sixth inning when Bell was hit and advanced on an error by Stockton on Clayton's roller to the box. Bell scored on a sacrifice by Long. The next three men up were easy outs on fly balls.

The last Grays run came in the seventh when Seitz pulled his home run over the left fielders head.

During the entire game the Metro failed to get a man passed second base and only four got that far. The only time the Metros threatened was in the closing inning when Gibson singled over third. Collier went out but Bassett walked. It was then that Gus Ketchum stepped for himself the respect of Pampa baseball fandom. He proceeded to strike out Ravey and the great Sled Allen to end one of the greatest ball games ever played in Metro park.

Sprint Star, But Not In Those Shoes

The only American girl to win a title in track or field events at the Olympic Games at Amsterdam, was Elizabeth Robinson, shown here as she arrived in New York. No, those are not the shoes in which she captured the 100-meter sprint for women. They're a pair of Dutch wooden ones, now well autographed, which were presented to her in Holland.

TOURNAMENT BATTING

a purse at this afternoon's game in appreciation of his stellar work for the Pampa Grays. He holds the pitching record of the tournament. The local hurler has pitched 23 innings, has only allowed seven hits and has not been scored on.

In the opening game of the series Ketchum relieved Moe Batton and pitched a two hit game for four innings. He started the game against Texico and went four innings. He then entered the box Saturday afternoon against the All-Stars and hurled a two hit game. He duplicated that feat yesterday when he held the hard hitting Metros to three hits.

This afternoon the Grays are battling Erick for first money.

Wrathful Giants Seek Vengeance On Helpless East

By HERBERT BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer

With the National league's fifth sectional series virtually over, the fourth cutting each other's throats while the New York Giants, wrathful over their recent beatings at Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, seek to visit their vengeance on the more or less helpless east.

It's no secret that John McGraw hopes to win the pennant just by these means. While the Reds, Pirates, Cardinals, and Cubs are having it out west of the Alleghenies, McGraw hopes to get the Giants into first place, a strategic spot from which to view the third and final western invasion of the east, beginning September 14.

But John didn't start out very well yesterday. The Giants were outgamed by Brooklyn, 4 to 3. Bissonette picked the tenth inning as the spot for his 20th home run of the season.

Before Young Carl Hubbell, in a moment of weakness, grooved the ball for M'sieu Del, the Giants did the best they could to prevent the game to the Robins. Cohen and Jackson threw in errors at moments extremely inopportune for Mr Hubbell who saw a strategic spot from which to view the third and final western invasion of the east, beginning September 14.

The defeat was all the more costly for McGraw as the St. Louis cardinals again trimmed the Phillies, 6 to 1, and lengthened their lead to three and a half games over the Giants and the Chicago Cubs.

The Cubs, defeating the Boston Braves 6 to 3, for the fourth straight time, moved up to a tie with the Giants in games won and lost, although they are no better than third in percentage. This apparent contradiction lies in the fact that the Cubs have played more and lost more games than the Giants. With Kiki Cuyler and Woody English leading the offense, the Cubs batted Kent Greenfield for 13 hits while Hal Carlson was holding the Braves to five.

Finishing its hold on fourth place rather insecure, Cincinnati downed Pittsburgh, 4 to 3, and put two full games behind themselves and the 1927 pennant winners.

Braxton was the whole show as Washington defeated Cleveland, 5 to 1, in the only American league engagement of the day. The Senators' left hander, one of the few consistent pitchers Harris has right now, allowed only five hits and struck out seven men.

Young Dorothy Page enjoyed the distinction of being the best women golfer at the University of Wisconsin last year, but she has a real rival now in Jane Cannon, above sophomore at Wisconsin, who recently won the state title. She beat Miss Page to gain that honor.

Spudders Wallop Exporters In a Double Header

(By The Associated Press)

The fast-travelling Spudders made more certain a play-off for the Texas league title by walloping the down-trodden Exporters in a double header Sunday while the runner-up Buffs were beating Jake Atz' Cats in the best game of the day. The double victory gave Wichita Falls a clean sweep of the four game series with Beaumont and lengthened its lead to seven games with two weeks of the season left. The scores were 11- and 9-7.

Down by the ship channel, Hallahan, sick-out king, lived up to his reputation by breezing the third strike past eleven Feline batsmen, striking his record up to 236 for the season. This eclipsed the old record of 219 set by Harry Ables, big southpaw, several years ago. Hallahan's victim in the 2 to 1 victory was the veteran Wachtel, Texas league game.

Dallas and San Antonio retained their respective fourth and fifth positions in the standing by splitting a two-bill 3-1 and 7-8. The Bears had to overtake a six run lead to make the second game out of the fire.

Cox of the Sports had a big day with two homers in the Sports 14 to 3 victory over the Cubs in their first game. Pratt's men took the second, 7 to 2, aided by Sanguinet's second homer of the day, with two on and the score tied, in the fifth inning.

About the Game

ABOUT THE GAME BY HARRY E. HOARE

As per usual Pampa got the dirty end in the Amarillo tournament but they sprung the surprise by staying in and playing baseball. The local team showed real sportmanship when they took the field yesterday afternoon and played their second game for third money and won to take second money and a chance for first.

Gus Ketchum can have anything he desires in Pampa and I don't think anyone will object. The way he pulled the iron man stunt made him the hero of the tournament. After yesterday's game he said, "Well Goyer can I go again tomorrow. I'm ready to tame Sam Douglas and his wildcats."

Old Sled Allen was the most surprised individual on the ball diamond

When it comes to heady catching Tom Clayton can't be beaten. He figured his batters yesterday and had them eating out of his hands. He and Ketchum are without a doubt the greatest battery in the tournament.

Given support and runs like the Grays have given him during the tournament Ketchum would still be with the Broncs. They gave him two runs in 22 innings and expected him to win ball games. Holmes is getting the same deal at the present time.

July Ranks High in New Businesses

AUSTIN, Aug. 25.—New enterprises organized in Texas during July were above those in June and in July a year ago, according to Bernard Nichols, assistant in charge of index numbers in the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas. "During the month 214 corporations received charters from the Secretary of State," he said. "This compared to 205 in June and 195 in July, 1927. However, most of the companies were small; in fact, a number were capitalized at only $1,000. Total capitalization of the 214 corporations amounted to but $9,085,000, against $102,997,000 in June and $58,314,000 in July last year. Two building and loan associations were capitalized at $1,000,000 each, and a third at $4,000,000. Thirty-eight companies increased their capitalization by $10,557,000, and permits were granted to 45 outside corporations to operate in the State.
