Father of Mrs. Herbert Hoover Dies Today at California Home

DAUGHTER IS ON TRAIN IN MIDDLE WEST

Charles Henry Succumbs to Paralytic Stroke at 5:30

Nebraska Executive Is Expecting New Farm Statement

PLACEVILLE, Calif., July 18.—(AP)—Charles D. Henry, father-in-law of Herbert Hoover, Republican candidate for president, died here this morning. Mr. Henry died without having realized his late wish, that he might live to see Mrs. Hoover, his daughter, once more. The end came at 5:30 a. m. while the special train bearing the Republican standard bearer and his wife was racing westward across Iowa. Arrangements to speed up the schedule of the train, so Mrs. Hoover might reach Placeville to see her father alive were made yesterday, but at best they could not reach the west coast before Friday morning.

One Daughter Present At the bedside were Mrs. Catherine Large of Georgetown, Calif., another daughter, and Allan Henry Hoover, son of the presidential candidate. Mrs. Henry, who is 84 years old, suffered a paralytic stroke on July 4 while on a camping trip with Mrs. Large. Physicians said he would have died almost at once except for his remarkable vitality.

ABOARD HOOVER TRAIN, Omaha, July 18.—(AP)—A prediction that Herbert Hoover will offer a plan of farm relief more practical and intelligent than any heretofore advanced was made today by Governor John Hammill of Iowa after a conference with the Republican presidential candidate aboard the special train.

OMAHA, Neb., July 18.—(AP)—The train bearing Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover, en route from the Summer White House to Palo Alto, Calif., where the former commerce secretary is to receive his official notice as Republican presidential nominee, rolled into the union station at 8:37 a. m. today.

The first news to reach the party of the death of Mrs. Hoover's father was given to an aide of the presidential candidate by Fred Carey, a reporter. The word was then sent to Mr. Hoover. It was made known that Mrs. Hoover would not be told of her father's death until the train was well out of Omaha.

WHEAT BRINGS $1.08 Wheat brought to the local elevators today is bringing $1.08 a bushel according to elevator men. The grade is still continuing high, considering the weather conditions during cutting. The crop is also holding beyond pre-harvest estimates, and is practically all cut.

According to reports received here, the wheat crop in the United States is many million bushels short of the estimate and need, while Canadian wheat is reported to be a bumper crop. This will slightly effect the United States market, local elevator men say.

Local Post Commences Plans for Entertaining District Legion Meeting

Fifth Division Coming Here August 11 and 12—Marvin Jones Speaks to Members Last Night

Plans for the holding of the 5th Division convention of the American Legion to be held here August 11 and 12 were discussed at a well attended meeting at the Legion home last night. Various committees were appointed and preparations for the reception of several hundred delegates will commence at once.

An honored guest at the meeting was Congressman Marvin Jones, who made an enthusiastic talk to the members of the local post. Mr. Jones stressed the value of good citizenship and the need of stringent immigration laws. He also spoke of the American Legion as a body and the honor and prestige it brings a city.

"The American Legion typifies what America stands for," Mr. Jones declared, "and its requests are reasonable. The American Legion is part of our great citizenship that maintains the country and makes America what she is."

In answering questions asked by members of the local post in regard to the universal draft, Mr. Jones said that he was in favor of the measure and that he made the first speech in his favor in 1919 and he has been backing it ever since. He has spoken in nineteen states on the question.

"I am not a believer in making war millionaires overnight," Mr. Jones said. In connection with the cancellation of war debts to America, he said he was against that also because as long as finance ruled and war would be the result and America would be preyed upon if she cancelled her war collections.

A contract was let to the Oil Belt Flag and Decorating company of Breckenridge to decorate the store fronts and streets for the convention. James Haynie, manager of the company, is a legionaire and has been in business since the close of the world war.

Able speakers will be secured for the two days of the convention. Delegates will be here from the 17th and 18th districts, which includes all of West Texas. The local post plans to "put Pampa on the map" by its treatment of delegates at Pampa's first convention and through the co-operation of the citizens of Pampa.

Following the meeting, a dutch lunch was served.

Pampa to Have Epworth League Meeting Tomorrow

The Epworth League of the Pampa Methodist church will be host to the nine leagues comprising the Northern Union of the Clarendon district when representatives gather here Thursday evening for their regular quarterly meeting. A large group is expected and arrangements are now complete for entertainment, an educational feature, according to the Rev. Joe Strother, educational director of the First Methodist church.

A dinner will be given at the church for entertainment and educational Leaguers at 7 o'clock. A social hour will follow the dinner.

A program will be preserved by visitors and members of the local league in the auditorium of the church, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. The general public is invited to be present.

AUTO CATCHES FIRE

Very little damage was done to a Dodge coupe which caught fire this morning in front of the Pickering Lumber company. The fire department was called, but the flames had been extinguished before they arrived on the scene.

Speaks Here

MARVIN JONES, Congressman from Texas, arriving here last night, planned to speak this afternoon in front of the Chamber of Commerce building.

MARVIN JONES TALKS TO CLUB

Rotarians Hear Speech On Constitution of Nation

A plea to preserve to the minds and hearts of the American people the principles and ideals of the constitution was voiced by Congressman Marvin Jones today in an address to the Rotary club.

Modern inventions are wonderful, but are merely the manifestations of progress made possible by a government founded upon fundamental principles of democracy, the speaker declared. He interestingly sketched the founding of the Colonial government and the holding of the constitutional convention. The blending of youth and age and their qualities in that session has never been equaled since, he added.

The result of their labors were 89 sentences and about 4,000 words. These expressed principles which do not need changing because they have been recognized as basic since human beings started formation of social groups.

Mr. Jones alluded to no specific current problems, but argued that good citizens should combat the idea that the constitution should be altered as new material progress is accomplished.

Today's Rotary program was in charge of Scott Baruch, visiting Rotarians were C. H. McClintock of Wichita Falls, Fred Robert of Canadian, and Tom Hudspeth of El Paso. Other visitors included Mr. Jones, Kenneth Hudspeth of Ardmore, Okla., and Olin E. Hinkle. The name of Paul Shelby was announced as a proposed new local Rotarian. It was announced that no luncheon will be held next Wednesday, but that a picnic for Rotarians and Rotary Anns will be enjoyed in the evening instead.

Local Men at Berger Funeral

Dr. R. A. Webb, minister of the American Legion, post, and A. B. Allen represented the local body at the funeral of Joseph Berger, well known athletic director, at Berger yesterday afternoon. The man was given a full military funeral by the Legion post at Berger. He died Sunday morning following a short illness. The body was taken to the grave on a gun carriage, followed by more than 100 mourners. A salute was fired over the grave of the departed comrade.

BOLTERS PLAN CAMPAIGNS IN EVERY COUNTY

Claim Smith Repudiated National Platform of Party

REPUBLICANS TO OFFER IDEAS

Cooperation Intended to Defeat Tammany Hall

DALLAS, July 18.—(AP)—An organized movement of Texas Democrats to defeat the National Democratic ticket and carry the state for Herbert Hoover in the November elections was underway today.

It was born here yesterday at a meeting of Democrats who have said they will not support Governor Alfred E. Smith and who included some political leaders, college presidents and churchmen of the state. The meeting was called to order after several weeks of agitation which saw several candidates for high offices declare they would vote against the New York governor. Efforts of the regular Democratic organization to whip such candidates into line by barring their names from primary ballots, and announcement of leaders of a state Republican faction that they would bolt the Republican ticket and vote for Governor Smith.

Plans of the anti-Smith Democrats as laid at the meeting here call for the inauguration of a campaign that will carry the fight against the election of Governor Smith into every Texas county. Alvin S. Moody of Houston was chosen chairman of the organization committee and manager of the campaign. Authorization was given to a state campaign committee of 31 men and women, who are to be chosen from the 31 senatorial districts of the state. This committee will appoint officers and lay plans for an effective state-wide organization.

Action with regard to presidential electors was left to the decision of the committee after speakers told the meeting that it was likely the regular Republican organization would divide places on its electoral slate with anti-Smith Democrats. R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman, who was in Dallas but did not attend the meeting, stated that in the event of vacancies on the Republican electoral ticket he would welcome recommendations from the anti-Smith Democrats for appointment of representatives who would support Mr. Herbert Hoover for president.

Resolutions declaring that the purpose of the organization which took the name of anti-Smith Democrats of Texas, shall be to defeat Governor Smith and to wrest democracy from the grip of Tammany Hall.

They declared that "Governor Smith had bolted the national Democratic platform and thereby released every Texas Democrat who participated in the May primaries from voting for him."

All-South Group Meeting ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 18.—(AP)—An invited group of "Southern Dry Democrats" gathered here today to plan a campaign against Governor Smith of New York.

The meeting was called shortly after the nomination of the New York governor, by Bishop James Cannon of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, and Dr. A. J. Barton of Atlanta, a prominent Baptist, who appealed to the South to defeat what they termed "the wet, Tammany candidate." Formulation of plans for the election of supporters of prohibition to Congress also was included in the purpose of the meeting.

An open session will be held tonight, following an executive meeting called for 3 o'clock this afternoon. Bishop Cannon declined to say who would speak tonight. It was expected that this would be the only meeting of the two day session open to the public.

Here is one of the last photographs taken of President-elect Alvaro Obregon of Mexico, who was shot and killed yesterday afternoon by an assassin. He would have taken office in December.

NEW PASTOR COMING HERE

Rev. H. C. Schneider of Breckenridge to Serve Presbyterians

The Rev. Henry C. Schneider of Breckenridge has accepted the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Pampa and will begin his services August 5. Rev. Schneider preached at both services Sunday, and following the evening service it was unanimously decided a meeting of the members to call him.

Born in New Jersey, and graduated from high school there, Rev. Schneider then attended University of Dubuque, at Dubuque, Iowa, one of the oldest colleges in the states. It was founded in 1852, and still ranks with the best universities.

Upon leaving college, Rev. Schneider was called to El Paso, where he preached four years. He was then called to Eastland, where he served four years and built one of the best churches in the state. After leaving Eastland he went to Breckenridge to build that church. It has doubled its membership since he became its pastor.

Rev. and Mrs. Schneider and their son are now on a vacation trip thru Minnesota and other points, and upon their return will immediately move to Pampa to make their home. They are well known in this territory by people who formerly lived in Breckenridge and Eastland.

Brownwood Pastor Expelled on Charge of "Immorality"

BROWNWOOD, July 18.—(AP)—The Rev. G. E. Cameron, pastor of the first Methodist Episcopal church, South, Brownwood, was expelled from the West Texas conference of the church yesterday after a jury of 13 ministers found him guilty of charges of "gross immorality" said to have been preferred by a Brownwood woman.

Following a quiet investigation, the Rev. Cameron first was suspended by a committee of three Methodist pastors, and when he appealed from the committee's action Bishop John M. Moore of Dallas appointed a jury of ministers, headed by the Rev. Dr. Emmett Hightower of Breckenridge, to hear his case.

Details of the trial and events leading up to it were not available. The trial was conducted behind closed doors, and only the jury's verdict was announced. Neither the Rev. Cameron nor members of the jury would make detailed statements to newspapermen.

The Rev. and Mrs. Tom Brabham visited in Amarillo Tuesday.

WORLDWIDE SYMPATHY FOR STRICKEN NATION SHOWN TODAY IN MANY MESSAGES

Body of Assassinated President-Elect Is Enroute to His Home—Disorders Few but Feeling High

MEXICO CITY, July 18.—(AP)—The funeral train of President-elect Alvaro Obregon, who was assassinated yesterday afternoon, left Mexico City for his native state of Sonora at 1:10 o'clock this afternoon.

President Calles, bare-headed, walked behind the hearse as it carried the body to the railroad station. At his side was Aaron Saenz, governor of Nuevo Leon and close political friend of Obregon. Behind them were the highest officials of the government and officers of the Army and Navy.

On each side of the hearse were members of Congress and other political leaders who had been closely associated in the Obregon presidential campaign.

MEXICO CITY, July 18.—(AP)—Headed by President Calles, an impressive cortege today escorted from the national palace to the railroad station the body of General Alvaro Obregon, president-elect, assassinated yesterday by a man posing as a cartoonist.

The body had rested in state at the national palace all night, watched over by a special guard of army officers and viewed until a late hour by long lines of troops waiting for the funeral procession to pass to the railroad station. The highest dignitaries of the government and a large military escort prepared to board the special train which was routed to Guadalajara and thence up to Southern Pacific to Sonora, the home both of Obregon and Calles.

Crowds Sorrowful The funeral train this was retracing the route followed by the president-elect only a few days ago when he came from his home to receive the adulations of great crowds along the railroad and of the huge gathering which greeted him upon his arrival here on Sunday.

The crowds were vociferous. Now they are silent in respectful grief or in their deep indignation at the crime by which General Obregon's career was ended.

Immediately after the killing the slayer insisted that he alone was responsible. Whether he has amplified this in any way has not become known. His identity remains a mystery, too so far as the public is concerned.

Seek Real Instigators MEXICO CITY, July 18.—(AP)—A demand that the "intellectual authors" of the assassination of President-elect Obregon be sought was voiced in a statement issued today by Aaron Saenz, minister of foreign affairs and governor of Nuevo Leon and manager of the Obregon presidential campaign.

Jose Lopez Cortes, secretary-general of Crom, telegraphed President Calles on behalf of the organized workers of Mexico. The message said: "I send you condolences over the lamentable loss of General Obregon and request you to accept the respectful allegiance of the labor movement in this painful moment."

MEXICO CITY, July 18.—(AP)—As assassination of President-elect Alvaro Obregon caused stringent measures to day to curb disorder.

AIRPLANE USED IN SEARCH FOR BANK BANDITS

WICHITA FALLS, July 18.—(AP)—Wichita county officers were joining with those from nearby counties in searching for two men who shot and seriously wounded Charles McDaniel, deputy sheriff at Dundee, when they made an unsuccessful attempt to rob the Dundee bank today.

Reports stated the two men failed to gain entrance to the bank, which was closed for the noon hour. It was believed McDaniel was shot when he grappled with one of the men in front of the bank when they attempted to force him to open the door.

The two men escaped in an automobile and were believed to be heading for Wichita Falls.

Poland and Great Britain to Sign Kellogg Proposal

WARSAW, July 18.—(AP)—A note accepting the text of the Kellogg treaty (for the outlawry of war has been delivered by the Polish government to John B. Stetson, Jr., American minister to Poland.

Replying to a question, the foreign secretary said: "As regards the signature of the treaty, his majesty's government will be happy to sign it at such time and place as may be agreeable to the United States government."

The announcement was greeted with cheers. "The principles expressed in the project, being entirely in conformity with the aims which Poland steadfastly has adhered to in her foreign policies, I have the honor to inform you that the Polish government accepts the text of the aforesaid pact and declares itself ready to sign it," said the note which was delivered by M. Wysocki, under-secretary for foreign affairs.

LONDON, July 18.—(AP)—Sir Austen Chamberlain announced in the House of Commons today that British acceptance of the Kellogg proposals for the outlawry of war has been delivered to the American charge d'affaires.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(AP)—Belgium, the fifth of the fourteen nations invited by the United States to participate in the conclusion of a multilateral treaty for the renunciation of war has informed Secretary Kellogg that the treaty text is submitted meets its "full approbation."

OBSERVATION of the Eighteenth amendment, rather than obedience to its mandates, is advocated strongly by William Allen White in a recent editorial.

The injunction is timely. The prohibition laws are not being enforced, and cannot be enforced as long as the people look upon following the law as obedience, and something to be violated as long as law-breaking can be done safely.

We have too many hypocrites supporting the law by word of mouth and violating it to the knowledge of their neighbors. This applies to many laws. We have too many "dry" who have "wet" ice boxes; too many officers who do things for which they prosecute others.

A majority of the states favor prohibition and have supporting laws in their constitutions. Indeed, the enforcement of prohibition, to the extent that this is possible, rests largely with state and local governments.

Convictions for liquor violations in the 31st and 84th district courts have certainly not indicated observance, obedience, or effective enforcement. As long as modification of the Volstead act in fact is common in the so-called "best" homes, modification in theory will be unnecessary and respect for the prohibition laws will be lacking.

Will the making of national prohibition an issue result in more observance and better local enforcement of the dry laws? Hypocrisy is doing more damage than the anti-prohibitionists. A prospective officer, while nominally "dry", finds it convenient to let many of the other "drys" understand that he will not hunt too much for evidence.

Observance, not obedience, is the need in all law enforcement today. Think it over.

CAPITOL News

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON — For the very first time, the wets and drys are going to fight out their row on a national scale.

Prohibition is the big issue. Both parties stand for peace, happiness, prosperity and little else. The Democrats aren't out to destroy the tariff walls. But whereas the Republicans have an Eighteenth amendment enforcement plank and a candidate who stands on it and the Democrats are for enforcement of that one along with other laws, there is only one Al Smith, and he is the candidate who boldly reiterated his stand for modification.

Smith is his own platform. Both wets and drys are reminding everyone of that. Both have been asserting confidently that a national referendum would uphold them. This isn't a referendum, but it's the first time the issue has been allowed into a presidential campaign.

The election is not likely to decide anything. Plainly or otherwise, other factors may prove to have exerted the balance of power. Probably there will be an alibi for each side in case of defeat. Smith will win in a number of dry southern states; Hoover probably will carry some wet states elsewhere.

But Smith hopes for success are predicated on holding the dry solid south in the Democratic column. After that he must clean up in the east, where his modification views will do him some good. It's almost like starting a poker game with a pile of the other fellow's chips.

The Anti-Saloon League is not happy. The same league officials who predicted a very few months ago that Smith couldn't possibly be nominated now predict that he can't possibly be elected. They may be more confident in this second prediction—and with good reason—than in the first, but they can't afford to be wrong twice.

It isn't that Smith's election would mean a prompt change in the Volstead act. The voters will have to elect new congressmen or make the old ones see the light to effect that. But the league feels, perhaps correctly, that a Smith victory would be a great moral victory for the wets and a virtual repudiation of the prohibition principle.

Furthermore, though Smith is sworn to enforcement of the law if elected, the drys believe he would appoint wets to important enforcement posts.

The specter of a strong wet candidate with a chance of carrying the east along with the south has bothered some farseeing league men for a long time. One of them recently showed the writer a warning on the subject which he had published way back in Harding's administration. Naturally, he feels it isn't fair for such a candidate to count on the dry south, and this attitude is the league's excuse for its attempt to break up the Democratic party in its great stronghold.

Last Tribute to Carranza to Be Paid by Gotham

NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP)—New York pays final tribute to Mexico's good will filer whose visit to this country ended in a lonely death Thursday in a New Jersey woods.

The body of Captain Emilio Carranza will be taken from a funeral church on upper Broadway at 3 o'clock this afternoon and escorted to the Pennsylvania station by 10,000 troops marching to the beat of muffled drums. Twenty military planes will fly overhead. As the body is lifted from the casket on to the observation car of the special train three volleys will be fired outside the station and a bugler will sound taps.

Five officers and sixteen enlisted men of the United States army will accompany the body to Laredo, where at the center of the international bridge on Saturday morning it will be turned over to the Mexican government.

Amundsen Thought to Have Joined Missing Italians

MOSCOW, July 18.—(AP)—Soviet rescuers today continued efforts to clear up the fate of Roald Amundsen and his five missing companions. Preparations were also made to begin extensive search for the six men drifting off to the east over the ice field in the bag of the Italia after its crash north of Spitzbergen.

A special conference of scientists reiterated their belief that Amundsen had joined the balloon group. It was pointed out that Amundsen's pilot, Captain Rene Guilbaud, could easily have taken Amundsen to them in the French seaplane. It was thought possible that the chassis of the plane had been damaged in alighting on the ice and that Amundsen's party had been unable to return.

The scientists believed that the group of five survivors headed by Lieutenant Alfredo Viglieri would have perished but for the timely arrival of the Russian ice breaker Krassin, since the ice on which they were marooned was rapidly thinning.

Brownwood Oil Operator Is Killed in Auto Accident

BROWNWOOD, July 18.—(P)—C. C. Fredick, 45 former Brownwood oil operator, was instantly killed and his companion, Alfred Gooley, seriously injured early today when their automobile struck the iron railing on a bridge on the Cross Plains highway and plunged down a 15-foot embankment.

Smith Is Gathering Data for Acceptance

ALBANY, N. Y., July 18.—(P)—Although Governor Smith has not yet plunged into the actual preparation of his acceptance speech, he is assembling data for it. Already he has a complete background on fiscal operations of the federal government obtained first hand from representative Byrnes of Tennessee, ranking Democrat on the House appropriations committee, and in the next few weeks probably will discuss various phases of governmental policy with other congressional leaders.

If tentative plans of the Democrats are carried out Smith has more than a month to whip his acceptance speech into shape. It now is expected that he will be notified officially of his nomination during the week of August 19, with the ceremony for his running mate, Senator Robinson, probably coming in the last week of August.

Faster Men to Face Heeneey in Rest of Training

FAIRHAVEN, N. J., July 18.—(P)—New sparring mates in camp and others on the way, the process of developing Tom Heeneey's speed started today. From now on his trainers plan to send him against lighter and faster boxers.

Mickey Walker, world's middleweight title holder, lives in a nearby village and has promised to aid the challenger.

Heeneey starts his intense training period showing traces of nervousness and irritability, signs accepted by the old timers as unfailing evidence that he is getting on edge.

The next seven days will be extraordinarily tough for Heeneey because they have taken away his ale. He is one of the old-school fighters who believe that a couple of bottles of ale a day is just the thing for a fighter in training. He has been drinking one bottle daily, but has consented to forego it for the rest of his training period.

The challenger faced two new sparring partners yesterday and while they hit the old hard rock with everything they had, he kept charging in until he got within range and then let punches fly from all sides. The new mates were James J. Braddock, a 170-pounder from Jersey City, and James J. Lawless, weighing 190 pounds and hailing from Harrison, N. J. as Heeneey is preparing to fight a gentleman named James J. Tunney, nicknamed Gene, the new additions seemed to be quite in style.

Tunney to Train For Richard Byrd But None Other

SPECULATOR, N. Y., July 18.—(P)—If Gene Tunney is visited today by Commander Richard E. Byrd, trans-Atlantic and polar flyer, the heavyweight champion will take a workout to fit himself for the defense of his title against Tom Heeneey. Otherwise it will be a day of rest in the Tunney camp.

Gene is now down to almost the weight he will carry into the ring against the New Zealander. Therefore he cannot afford to take off any more poundage in the training ring but he is willing to risk this loss to entertain Commander Byrd, one of his intimate friends.

Tunney today was dangerously near the fighting edge and his handlers intend to give him just enough work to keep him from going stale. He is stronger than he has ever been and his punching, according to sparring partners, has been speedier and more vicious than ever before. Both Harold Mays and Billy Vidabek, who swap blows with the champion during the training bouts, have worked with him ever since he became prominent in the heavyweight ranks.

Tunney was greatly annoyed by a report, accredited to Tex Rickard, promoter of the titular bout, that he intended to retire from the ring after his fight with Heeneey.

"I have never discussed that subject with Rickard," Tunney said.

Trouble for Fair Helen?

Harlow Rotherth, who earned letters in football, basketball and track this year as a sophomore at Stanford, is one of the weight men to be employed by the United States in the Olympic games at Amsterdam this summer. He first came into prominence nationally when he placed second in the I. C. 4-A meet in the shot event at Harvard this year and again at the national intercollegiate when he won first place in the same event. He heaved the 16-pound shot 49 feet 8 1/4 inches in the final Olympic trials to gain a place on the squad.

Levine Cracks Up Columbia in Poor Landing Exhibition

NEW YORK, July 18.—(P)—Charles A. Levine's famous trans-Atlantic monoplane Columbia was a wreck today, and its owner had another spectacular landing to add to his flying record.

Levine crashed at Curtiss Field, Long Island, last night in his fourth attempt to make a landing after a twenty-minute flight. The landing gear, propeller, right wing and left wing tip were smashed, but neither Levine nor his passenger, Major A. L. Fleming, was injured.

The landing recalled a similar one Levine made in the same plane at Croydon, England, last fall, when on his first solo flight he flew over the English channel from LeBouquet field near Paris. At that time after four attempts he succeeded in bringing the plane to a safe but somewhat bumpy landing.

"It was my piloting," said Levine apologetically. "My take off was bad, but my landing was worse."

He said the plane in which he and Clarence D. Chamberlin flew to Germany would be rebuilt "as good as new." The plane had been rebuilt once before after a crash in Italy.

Cubs and Pirates Spurt Ahead to Trail Cardinals

BY HERBERT W. BAKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sensational spurts by the Cubs and Pirates have added spice to the National league pennant race just when it began to appear as though the St. Louis Cardinals were going to make it a one-club affair somewhat similar to the situation in the American league where the New York Yankees have distanced the field.

The Cubs and pirates each recorded their eighth successive victory Tuesday, with the Phils and the Boston Braves their victims.

Joe McCarthy's Chicago hopefuls upset the Phils, 4 to 3, only because Clyde Beck, usually weak with the stick, clubbed a home run with the bases filled in the fifth. This victory boosted the Cubs into second place in the standing and marked the Quakers' tenth successive defeat.

The Pirates needed to be on their toes the whole way against the Braves before they eked out a 7 to 6 decision. Fred Fussell, young southpaw, relieved Carmen Hill in the ninth with none out and a man on base and got out of the jam without a run being scored.

The Cardinals gained an even break with the Brooklyn Dodgers by taking the last game of a four-game series, 7 to 1. Dazzy Vance was removed from the box after the Cards had scored five runs on nine hits in the first five innings. Jess Haines pitched a strong game for the league leaders whose margin over their closest rivals, the Cubs, now stands at four games.

Bill Walker was knocked out of the box in the first inning as the Cincinnati Reds salvaged one game out of the series with the New York Giants, 5 to 4. Walker was removed after the Reds scored four times in the first frame. Vic Aldridge took up the burden and held the Reds scoreless until he was removed in turn for a pinch hitter.

The Boston Red Sox came out of a slump that had carried them into the American league cellar by sloping the Chicago White Sox streak, 9 to 6. A six-run rally in the first inning was a halcyon the White Sox couldn't overcome.

Detroit fell into the last place post by bowing before the fast ball prowess of Bob Grove, Athletics southpaw Ace, who turned in an easy 6 to 2 triumph.

Al Shealy pitched the New York Yankees to their fifth straight victory over the Cleveland Indians, 4 to 2, and contributed a home run to his own cause.

The St. Louis Browns swept the series with Washington when Stewart held the Senators to five hits and turned in a shutout, 5 to 0.

Negro's Pardon Is Revoked by Governor

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 18.—(P)—Governor Richards has revoked the pardon he gave Benn Bess on May 12 and the Negro is to be taken back to the penitentiary.

The action sets a precedent in South Carolina but the executive said he had been informed that similar action had been taken in other states. Bess sentenced to 30 years in prison on a charge of attacking a white woman, had served 13 years of his sentence when Gov. Richards received an affidavit, signed by the negro's assessor, in which she stated she had sworn falsely against Bess at his trial. The man was immediately paroled, was later pardoned and the governor recommended that the legislature take some action to compensate Bess for the years he spent in the penitentiary.

The woman, however, later declared that Bess was guilty of the charge against him. She said she had signed her name to what she was led to believe was a statement forgiving him the wrong he had done her.

BROWNS IN LONDON

A letter received here from Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Brown posted in London stated that they had just returned from an extensive trip on the continent, included in the cities visited were Paris, Rome, Lucerne, and Brussels. The trip from Brussels to London was made by air the plane landing at Croydon, England.

The couple were leaving on a motor trip through Scotland the letter said.

HARLOW ROTHERTH

After the brilliant form she showed in defending her world's tennis championship at Wimbledon, tennis critics feel sure that it will be some time before Miss Helen Wills will be in danger of losing her crown. Most prominent among the young players who may cause her trouble, however, is "Midge" Gladman, the charming 19-year-old Santa Monica miss, who is pictured above. Miss Gladman is the national girls' champion, the western woman's champion, the Southern California woman's champion, the Iowa State woman's champion, the Missouri Valley woman's champion, and just recently she started her summer campaign by winning the Tri-State (Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky) championship.

North Carolina Pledges Support

RALEIGH, N. C., July 18.—(P)—The State Democratic executive committee last night adopted a resolution pledging its support to the party ticket

from constable to President." After a heated discussion the measure was approved without a record vote. Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the Navy said he was in favor of the resolution.

Miss Ruth Ann Mitchell is visiting friends in Canadian today.

Houston Gains When San Antonio Beats Wichita Falls

(By The Associated Press)
Houston is rapidly building a lead over other cities in the Texas league that compares favorably with its advantage at the end of the first half of the season. By virtue of a 4 to 3 victory over Shreveport Tuesday the Buffs today led Wichita Falls, the runner-ups by two games. They have won five consecutive contests, three from Fort Worth and two from Shreveport.

The Sports outfit the Buffs, 9 to 7, but were handicapped by ragged fielding which resulted in 5 errors. After Houston had acquired a 2 to 1 lead in early frames, Shreveport forged to the front in the eighth round by scoring twice, but the Buffs sewed things up with a 2-run rally in the ninth.

San Antonio defeated Wichita Falls, 6 to 4, in a game featured by considerable extra base hitting. Goetz clouting a home run with two on and Boggess hit for the circuit when one was on base.

Mulvey of San Antonio and Benton of Wichita Falls also did good work at bat the former getting a double and two singles in five trips to the plate and the latter hitting two doubles and a single in five times up.

Behind the steady hurling of Leo Bartholomew, who worked his first full game for the Steers, Dallas defeated Beaumont.

Overcoming a six-run lead which the Panthers acquired in the third inning, Waco defeated Fort Worth, 9 to 7. Caldwell went the route for the Cubs while four pitchers worked for the Cats.

Fight Seven Times Postponed Will Be Tried Again Tonight

NEW YORK, July 18.—(P)—For the seventh time, Tod Morgan, Seattle junior lightweight champion, and Cannonball Martin of New York tonight will attempt to stage their 130-pound titular battle at Ebbets field.

Hubert Fugazy, promoter, is holding his fingers crossed in the hope of averting the rain that has interfered with the affair since it first was scheduled for June 2.

OLYMPIC HOPES

HERMAN BRIX

One of the pleasing surprises in the recent final trials for the Olympic squad at Boston was the performance of Herman Brix, giant University of Washington athlete, who threw the 16-pound shot within one-quarter inch of the world's record. Brix won the final test with a heave of 50 feet 11 3/4 inches. He proved superior to the favorites—Krens and Rotherth of Stanford and Knack of the Los Angeles Athletic Club—and had little trouble gaining a place on the team which will represent the United States at Amsterdam this summer.

Brownwood Oil Operator Is Killed in Auto Accident

BROWNWOOD, July 18.—(P)—C. C. Fosdick, 45 former Brownwood oil operator, was instantly killed and his companion, Alfred Gooley, seriously injured early today when their automobile struck the iron railing on a bridge on the Cross Plains highway and plunged down a 15-foot embankment.

The iron railing protecting Fosdick's chest.

Gooley had fallen asleep while Fosdick was driving and was awakened only when the machine struck the bridge and rolled down the embankment.

Fosdick had been in the oil business many years and had operated in Mexico and other fields. His widow and son, who were visiting in Fort Worth, were notified of his death today.

WHAT HAPPENED
... LOU WARD, on the eve of her wedding to ROD SILVER, feels troubled at receiving a dagger-like paper knife from LILA MARSH, an ex-sweet-heart of Rod's. She resolves not to be jealous, but a second blow to her pride comes when she accidentally overhears one of her bridesmaids ask another if she thought the bride liked being second choice. The pain in her heart vanishes when Rod whispers "My wife" with a world of affection in his eyes. They spend an ideal honeymoon and Bertie Lou forgets about Lila until they return and find her playing dice in their apartment because she "knew what Rod likes."

They settle down in the little home but too much hospitality upsets their financial budget. This worries Bertie Lou as does the persistent annoyance of Lila. So she is happy when Rod accepts a position in New York which has been offered him by TOM FRASER.

Anxious to make a good impression, they go to an expensive hotel until they can find an apartment. They are amused at the cost of everything, and Bertie Lou is embarrassed when MOLLY FRASER takes her to an exclusive good shop and urges her to buy more clothes than she can afford. Rod worries Bertie Lou by playing poker with Tom. One night, after winning the game, Rod feebly invites the crowd to a night club. Molly suggests that they have a party on Thursday night as Lila will be there then. Bertie Lou realizes that she must have a new evening gown and decides to change it.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XIII
ROD once had told Bertie Lou he didn't believe in charge accounts. She hadn't given the remark much thought at the time, but now it came back to her as a cause for apprehension. Rod might refuse to permit her to do her shopping on credit.

In Wayville he had always insisted on paying cash for everything. Bertie Lou knew that he would want to be even more particular now that they were in New York, away from the influences which young married people in their "home towns" have to fall back upon.

A bit nervously she waited for the operator to get the number she gave. There was a longer wait before Rod was called to the telephone in the office. It gave Bertie Lou time to decide that it would be unfair for him to withhold his consent. It was entirely his fault that she must have an evening dress.

She was not being extravagant, she felt. After all, Bertie Lou was not entirely convinced that it wasn't better to give the appearance of success, even if one did have to skip a little on the necessities.

"Hello, Rod," she said when she heard his voice. "I called you up to let you know I've applied for a charge account at Staley's. They'll probably send a man around to the office to see if it's all right."

She waited. Then, as she had feared, Rod objected. "I'd rather not do it," he said.

Bertie Lou's voice lost its smile. "It will be a great convenience," she told him. "I've simply got to have some clothes. You don't want me to look like a frump next Thursday, do you?"

"Good lord, you've got heaps of clothes."

Bertie Lou was exasperated. Rod was getting to be just like other husbands in some ways. Pokes, and absolutely no sense about clothes. Anybody ought to see that if he could afford to ask people to night clubs he ought to be able to buy his wife a decent dress to wear.

"Rod hates to go out," Bertie said.
"Well, it's a good way for thrifty young married people to be," Lila returned with an insight that infuriated Bertie Lou.

"Rod, don't be dumb," she begged. "I can't wait until Mums sells our stuff at home. And we must go completely broke. But of course if you'd rather risk it I can pay cash for my things and you can give me some more money for furniture."

Rod felt confused. He'd come to New York with more than $600 in the bank, his furniture paid for and a bright future ahead of him. And now, in less than two weeks he couldn't spare the money to buy Bertie Lou some new clothes.

TWO months rent for the apartment and $300 for new furniture had left very little cash in the bank. His salary had fallen even to meet their current living expenses. Bertie Lou had paid a good price for her sports coat and hat. And there had been a dinner for the Frasers to add to their expenditures.

"All right," he said, a trifle wearily. "But remember, Bertie Lou, we'll have monthly payments to make on the furniture. Don't get in too deep."

Bertie Lou breathed a sigh of relief. She had dreaded the possibility of having to argue with him... even remind him that he was willing to throw away money in a night club. What if he had made it in poker! He might have lost instead. He had gambled with money they needed... she'd have suffered if he had lost... why wasn't it fair to spend the money on her when he won?

It was the first time in his life that Rod had been away from home except on visits and it made him feel uneasy to be so close to the bottom of his bank balance. It was the breadwinner's worry... the white-collared man's worry.

Bertie Lou knew nothing about it. She believed he was afraid she might abuse their credit at Staley's and the thought spoiled her pleasure in shopping. But nothing short of an imminent financial crisis in their lives could have kept her from buying an evening gown.

The price tag caused her to hesitate, but she forgot all about that when, standing before her mirror in the new apartment, she took a last look at herself before turning to trust her arms into the wrap Rod held open for her.

"DON'T you think I look gorgeous?" she smiled up at him. He folded the wrap about her and turned her around to face him. His face was beaming with delight in her and Bertie Lou reached up to press her lips softly against his.

"Honey, you'll have all the women in New York begging for your beauty secrets," Rod told her.

Bertie Lou laughed, a soft tinkle of sheer happiness. Who could fear a rival when things like that were said? And when one was in a rippling, white jade satin gown? On the way to the Frasers, where they were to pick up their guests, she sat close to Rod in the cab... as close as they had that afternoon during their honeymoon when he had whispered for the first time, "I love you, Bertie Lou, more than anything else in the world" . . . he completely forgot about bank balances and rents . . . they were at their destination much too soon.

Bertie Lou entered Molly's living room without the slightest reluctance. She had not seen Lila in New York, but with the feel of Rod's arm still about her shoulders she did not fear her. Lila might, probably would, try to be a thorn in her side. But with only Molly to applaud her Bertie Lou had made up her mind not to suffer over it.

Lila was sitting crosslegged on an overstuffed davenport, revealing a length of shapely leg that had more power to express her character than anything in her vocabulary. Lila would be very sorry if short skirts went out.

"I see you've brought the prominent members of the family along," Bertie Lou greeted her with a wicked grin.

Lila crossed her knees the other way and looked down at her tapering ankles with unadulterated satisfaction. "I thought they might be a cure for homesick eyes," she said evenly. "Lo, Rod. Get the hat out of your whiskers yet?"

"Hello there, Lila," Rod greeted her pleasantly. She did not get up or offer her hand. Rod took a seat a few feet away.

"Molly'll be down in a twinkling," Lila volunteered. "Have you seen the 'Second Wife'?" she went on lazily. "Swell show. Standing room only tonight. Where've you two been?"

"Home," Rod answered before Bertie Lou could think of something more exciting.

"Rod hates to go out," she said, to pull the sting from Lila's inquiring smile.

"Well, it's a good way for thrifty young married people to be," Lila returned with an insight that infuriated Bertie Lou. That was the worst feature about a small town . . . everyone knew the date of every penny you owned . . . or didn't own.

AND Lila had touched on a sore spot when she mentioned "The Second Wife." Bertie Lou was dying to see the play. And this party Rod was giving would cost enough to buy seats for two or three shows, she thought indignantly.

"Where's Tom?" Rod asked. He sensed an innuendo in Lila's words that he did not like.

"The poor man's in the kitchen getting something to eat," Lila explained. "He said the food we'll get at a night club won't even go so far as to give us indigestion. Say, Bertie Lou, I nearly forgot," she added hastily. "Molly said to tell you she had something to show you."

Bertie Lou did not stir. "I'm too tired to get up," she murmured. A thin trick that Molly herself spoiled it by appearing in the hall doorway. But Bertie Lou didn't need anything more than her intuition to expose Lila's attempt to have a moment alone with Rod.

Molly must have heard what she said. "Tired?" she repeated; "so early in the evening? How about a pick-me-up?"

Bertie Lou declined.

There was a sly smile on Lila's face as she moved over and motioned Molly to sit beside her. "That's awfully considerate of Bertie Lou," she said. "To be tired, I mean. That gives Rod to me for the evening." She looked over at him. "I haven't had a real dance since you left Wayville," she added wistfully.

Faster Men to Face Heeney in Rest of Training

FAIRHAVEN, N. J., July 18.—(P)—New sparring mates in camp and others on the way, the process of developing Tom Heeney's speed started today. From now on his trainers plan to send him against lighter and faster boxers.

Mickey Walker, world's middleweight title holder, lives in a nearby village and has promised to aid the challenger.

Heeney starts his intense training period showing traces of nervousness and irritability, signs accepted by the old timers as unerring evidence that he is getting on edge.

The next seven days will be extraordinarily tough for Heeney because they have taken away his ale. He is one of the old-school fighters who believe that a couple of bottles of ale a day are just the thing for a fighter in training. He has been drinking one bottle daily, but has consented to forego it for the rest of his training period.

The challenger faced two new sparring partners yesterday and while they hit the old hard rock with everything they had, he kept charging in until he got within range and then let punches fly from all sides. The new mates were James J. Braddock, a 170-pounder from Jersey City, and James J. Lawless, weighing 160 pounds and hailing from Harrison, N. J., as Heeney is preparing to fight a gentleman named James J. Tunney, nicknamed Gene, the new additions seemed to be quite in style.

Tunney to Train For Richard Byrd But None Other

SPECULATOR, N. Y., July 18.—(P)—If Gene Tunney is visited today by Commander Richard E. Byrd, trans-Atlantic and polar flyer, the heavyweight champion will take a workout to fit himself for the defense of his title against Tom Heeney. Otherwise it will be a day rest in the Tunney camp.

Gene is now down to almost the weight he will carry into the ring against the New Zealander. Therefore he cannot afford to take off any more poundage in the training ring but he is willing to risk this loss to entertain Commander Byrd, one of his intimate friends.

Tunney today was dangerously near the fighting edge and his handlers intended to give him just enough work to keep him from going stale. He is stronger than he has ever been and his punching, according to sparring partners, has been speedier and more vicious than ever before. Both Harold Mays and Billy Vidabek, who swap blows with the champion during the training bouts, have worked with him ever since he became prominent in the heavyweight ranks.

Tunney was greatly annoyed by a report, accredited to Tex Rickard, promoter of the titular bout, that he intended to retire from the ring after his fight with Heeney.

"I have never discussed that subject with Rickard," Tunney said.

Trouble for Fair Helen?

Harlow Rotherth, who earned letters in football, basketball and track this year as a sophomore at Stanford, is one of the weight men to be employed by the United States in the Olympic games at Amsterdam this summer. He first came into prominence nationally when he placed second in the I. C. 4-A meet in the shot event at Harvard this year and again at the national intercollegiate when he won first place in the same event. He heaved the 16-pound shot 49 feet 8 1/4 inches in the final Olympic trials to gain a place on the squad.

Levine Cracks Up Columbia in Poor Landing Exhibition

NEW YORK, July 18.—(P)—Charles A. Levine's famous trans-Atlantic monoplane Columbia was a wreck today, and its owner had another spectacular landing to add to his flying record.

Levine crashed at Curtis Field, Long Island, last night in his fourth attempt to make a landing after a twenty-minute flight. The landing gear, propeller, right wing and left wing, tip were smashed, but neither Levine nor his passenger, Major A. L. Fleming, was injured.

The landing recalled a similar one Levine made in the same plane at Croydon, England, last fall, when on his first solo flight he flew over the English channel from Le Bourget field, near Paris. At that time after four attempts he succeeded in bringing the plane to a safe but somewhat bumpy landing.

"It was my piloting," said Levine apologetically. "My take off was bad, but my landing was worse."

He said the plane in which he and Clarence D. Chamberlin flew to Germany would be rebuilt "as good as new." The plane had been rebuilt once before after a crash in Italy.

HOME BREW FOUND

Officers of the sheriff's department last night swooped down on a residence west of Pampa and made a haul which netted them 225 pint bottles of home brew and a complete capping outfit. One arrest was made.

Cubs and Pirates Spurt Ahead to Trail Cardinals

BY HERBERT W. BAKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sensational spurts by the Cubs and Pirates have added spice to the National league pennant race just when it began to appear as though the St. Louis Cardinals were going to make it a one-club affair somewhat similar to the situation in the American league where the New York Yankees have distanced the field.

The Cubs and pirates each recorded their eighth successive victory Tuesday, with the Phils and the Boston Braves their victims.

Joe McCarthy's Chicago hopefuls upset the Phils, 4 to 3, only because Clyde Beck, usually weak with the stick, clubbed a home run with the bases filled in the fifth. The victory boosted the Cubs into second place in the standing and marked the Quakers' tenth successive defeat.

The Pirates needed to be on their toes the whole way against the Braves before they eked out a 7 to 6 decision. Fred Fussell, young southpaw, relieved Carmen Hill in the ninth with none out and a man on base and got out of the jam without a run being scored.

The Cardinals gained an even break with the Brooklyn Dodgers by taking the last game of a four-game series, 7 to 1. Dazzy Vance was removed from the box after the Cards had scored five runs on nine hits in the first five innings. Jess Haines pitched a strong game for the league leaders whose margin over their closest rival, the Cubs, now stands at four games.

Bill Walker was knocked out of the box in the first inning as the Cincinnati Reds salvaged one game out of the series with the New York Giants, 5 to 4. Walker was removed after the Reds scored four times in the first frame. Vic Aldridge took up the burden and held the Reds scoreless until he was removed in turn for a pinch hitter.

The Boston Red Sox came out of a slump that had carried them into the American league cellar by stopping the Chicago White Sox streak, 9 to 6. A six-run rally in the first inning was a hallday for the White Sox couldn't overcome.

Detroit fell into the last place post by bowing before the fast ball prowess of Bob Grove, Athletics southpaw Ace, who turned in an easy 6 to 2 triumph.

Al Shealy pitched the New York Yankees to their fifth straight victory over the Cleveland Indians, 4 to 2, and contributed a home run to his own cause.

The St. Louis Browns swept the series with Washington when Stewart held the Senators to five hits and turned in a shutout, 5 to 0.

Negro's Pardon Is Revoked by Governor

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 18.—(P)—Governor Richards has revoked the pardon he gave Benn Bess on May 12 and the Negro is to be taken back to the penitentiary.

The action sets a precedent in South Carolina but the executive said he had been informed that similar action had been taken in other states.

Bess sentenced to 30 years in prison on a charge of attacking a white woman, had served 13 years of his sentence when Gov. Richards received an affidavit, signed by the negro's assuser, in which she stated she had sworn falsely against Bess at his trial. The man was immediately paroled, was later pardoned and the governor recommended that the legislature take some action to compensate Bess for the years he spent in the penitentiary.

The woman, however, later declared that Bess was guilty of the charge against him. She said she had signed her name to what she was led to believe was a statement forgiving him the wrong he had done her.

BROWNS IN LONDON

A letter received here from Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Brown in London stated that they had just returned from an extensive trip on the continent. Included in the cities visited were Paris, Rome, Lucerne, and Brussels. The trip from Brussels to London was made by air the plane landing at Croydon, England.

The couple were leaving on a motor trip through Scotland the letter said.

Stanford Soph on Olympic Squad

HARLOW ROTHERTH

After the brilliant form she showed in defending her world's tennis championship at Wimbledon, tennis critics feel sure that it will be some time before Miss Helen Wills will be in danger of losing her crown. Most prominent among the young players who may cause her trouble, however, is "Midge" Gladman, the charming 19-year-old Santa Monica miss, who is pictured above. Miss Gladman is the national girls' champion, the western woman's champion, the Southern California woman's champion, the Iowa State woman's champion, the Missouri Valley woman's champion, and just recently she started her summer campaign by winning the Tri-State (Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky) championship.

North Carolina Pledges Support

RALEIGH, N. C., July 18.—(P)—The State Democratic executive committee last night adopted a resolution pledging its support to the party ticket

"from constable to President." After a heated discussion the measure was approved without a record vote. Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the Navy said he was in favor of the resolution.

Miss Ruth Ann Mitchell is visiting friends in Canadian today.

Houston Gains When San Antonio Beats Wichita Falls

(By The Associated Press)
Houston is rapidly building a lead over other cities in the Texas league that compares favorably with its advantage at the end of the first half of the season. By virtue of a 4 to 3 victory over Shreveport Tuesday the Buffs today led Wichita Falls, the runner-ups by two games. They have won five consecutive contests, three from Fort Worth and two from Shreveport.

The Sports outfit the Buffs, 9 to 7, but were handicapped by rugged fielding which resulted in 5 errors. After Houston had acquired a 2 to 1 lead in early frames, Shreveport forged to the front in the eighth round by scoring twice, but the Buffs served things up with a 2-run rally in the ninth.

San Antonio defeated Wichita Falls, 6 to 4, in a game featured by considerable extra base hitting. Goetz clouting a home run with two on and Boggess hit for the circuit when one was on base.

Mulvey of San Antonio and Benton of Wichita Falls also did good work at bat the former getting a double and two singles in five trips to the plate and the latter hitting two doubles and a single in five times up.

Behind the steady hurling of Leo Bartholomew, who worked his first full game for the Steers, Dallas defeated Beaumont.

Overcoming a six-run lead which the Panthers acquired in the third inning, Waco defeated Fort Worth, 9 to 7. Caldwell went the route for the Cubs while four pitchers worked for the Cats.

Fight Seven Times Postponed Will Be Tried Again Tonight

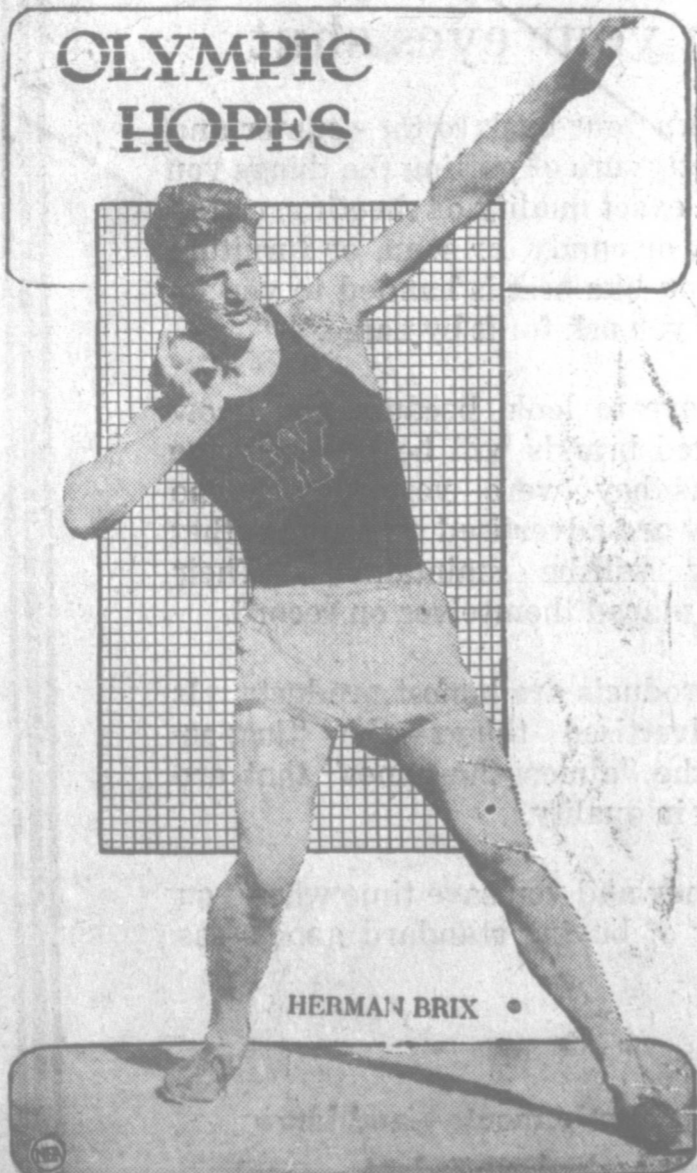

NEW YORK, July 18.—(P)—For the seventh time, Tod Morgan, Seattle junior lightweight champion, and Cannonball Martin of New York tonight will attempt to stage their 130-pound titular battle at Elberts field.

Hubert Fugazy, promoter, is holding his fingers crossed in the hope of averting the rain that has interfered with the affair since it first was scheduled for June 2.

OLYMPIC HOPES

HERMAN BRIX

One of the pleasing surprises in the recent final trials for the Olympic squad at Boston was the performance of Herman Brix, giant University of Washington athlete, who threw the 16-pound shot within one-quarter inch of the world's record. Brix won the final test with a heave of 50 feet 11 3/4 inches. He proved superior to the favorites—Krenz and Rotherth of Stanford and Kuuk of the Los Angeles Athletic Club—and had little trouble gaining a place on the team which will represent the United States at Amsterdam this summer.

Have you ever been DRESSED TO KILL?

Censorship was in force, Police and soldiers patrolled streets here and roads of the surrounding countryside.

There were innumerable rumors of uprisings and other killings, but all proved untrue. Intense excitement prevailed everywhere, but neither the newspapers nor government had any information of trouble anywhere in the republic.

President Calles was surrounded by a strong guard. Saloons were closed, as were theatres and other places of amusement.

Many of those known to be opposed to Obregon fled from Mexico City before the fury of his friends and supporters which was kept in bounds only by police precautions.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 18.—Gov. Franklin Roosevelt today sent the following telegram to President Calles of Mexico:

"With a feeling of horror I learned of the assassination of President-elect Obregon. May I prevail upon Your Excellency to convey to his family and to the Mexican people my sincere condolences with them in this great tragedy."

instance of President Calles, who feared that there might be some attempts at violence.

General Obregon's body rested in state in the great salon of the national palace which he had expected to occupy for a second time in December. It was surrounded by a guard of honor composed of members of the cabinet and the highest officers of the Army and Navy.

The one-armed warrior-President elect was slain yesterday afternoon at a banquet in his honor by a man who approached under the guise of showing Obregon some cartoons he had drawn of the dinner. He fired six bullets into the general from a gun concealed among the sketches. The assassin was badly beaten by maddened friends of the slain general. He was rescued by police and rushed to jail. There he confessed the crime, although his motive was not made known.

President Calles made a futile attempt to learn the motive of the crime from the assassin. "It is useless to force me to tell anything. If I was resolute enough to kill Obregon in the presence of several hundred of his supporters, knowing full well that it meant my death, I am resolute enough to say nothing."

Newspapers had an unconfirmed report which attributed this statement to the assassin:

"I killed Obregon because I wanted Christ the King to reign completely and not partially."

The assassin gave only the name of Juan. In rumors he was referred to as the Juan Escapulario. "Escapulario" is Spanish for Scapular, a religious emblem and is a term of derision used by anti-Catholics in Mexico.

Police said the slayer's shirt had on it initials, "J. J." They were investigating the theory that the assassin might be Juan Jose Gonzales, alleged to have been the driver of the automobile from which bombs were thrown last year in an attempt to kill Obregon.

Detective Alvaro Bastil, who investigated this attempt on Obregon's life, declared that the man had been among the previous plotters.

Bastil, who was arrested some months ago on a charge of blackmailing Catholics, was looking out from behind the bars of his cell as the slayer was brought into the jail. He exclaimed:

"I recognize that face. I have his picture among my collection of plotters against Obregon."

Police Heads Removed

President Calles issued an emergency order removing the heads of the Mexico City police department and putting in charge new officials who have been among Obregon's closest supporters. Apparently his purpose was to give the general's staunchest friends absolute control in handling developments following the assassination of their leader.

Police said the assassination was one of a series planned by which a number of statesmen were to have been removed.

The permanent congressional commission was called to meet today. This commission represents Congress when that body is not in session. It was thought that the commission would either continue Calles as president or pave the way for his continuance in office.

Slaying Very Sudden

The slaying came unexpectedly. Obregon was sitting at a banquet given him by political supporters at the little town of San Angel, near Mexico City, while he chatted with his hosts. A hand played Mexican music and a cartoonist drew sketches of the notable.

Suddenly the cartoonist rose and approached General Aaron Saen, governor of Nuevo Leon, who was seated on Obregon's left. He asked permission to show the cartoons to the guest of honor.

The man turned to Obregon, pretended to show him the sketches and then with a gun which he had concealed under the papers fired directly into the president-elect's body.

Obregon slumped back in his chair moaning. There was a dash for the slayer and guns and knives were pulled. He was in imminent danger but General Cruz jumped in front of him and held off the men who thirsted for his blood.

"Men let's keep him. We want to find out who's back of this," Cruz shouted.

Obregon was in the greatest agony as he was carried to his automobile. He died before he reached it. In a few moments the body had been taken to his home, which was already surrounded by a large force of soldiers and police.

Oats No. 2 white 53@54; No. 3, 52@53.

CHICAGO, July 18.—(AP)—Wheat prices eased downward today after upturns at the start. Initial firmness was ascribed to steadiness of Liverpool wheat quotations, but selling pressure here resulted from continued favorable crop conditions northwest and from the liberal arrivals Southwest.

Opening 1-8 off to 3-8 up. Chicago wheat later showed some setback all around. Corn developed strength, starting 1-8 to 7-8 higher and subsequently scoring additional gains. Oats were easy. Provisions showed an advance.

New Pay Found in Webb Well

Second pay was picked up in the Travis and Smith's No. 1 L. H. Webb in section 43, block 25, yesterday afternoon at 2,870 feet in granite wash and is drilling ahead. Depth is still 16 feet above Travis pay, about a mile west, and is logging with that well.

First pay was encountered at 2,800 feet with about 6,000,000 cubic feet of gas. Drilling is being done days only.

MUCH INTEREST IN CONTEST

The big closing-out sale of the Clark and Clausen Hardware store will end Saturday night, and with the closing a prize of $100 will be given away. For each purchase made votes are awarded the purchaser, 100 to the dollar, and these may be given to institutions or individuals.

Interest in the contest is keen and the leadership is changing hands each day. Today the Presbyterian church is leading with 157,043 votes and is followed by the Holy Souls church, Boy Scouts, Baptist church, Christian church, and Methodist church.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Hobart Smith and Miss Mary Louise Kline and to Allie Fairless and Miss Minnie Lucille Sessions.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—(AP)—Looking forward to constantly improving relations with Mexico under the administration of general Alvaro Obregon official Washington was deeply shocked to learn of his death at the hand of an assassin.

Disway and sorrow attended the rapidly spreading word of the tragedy.

All Reports Censored EAGLE PASS, July 18.—(AP)—General Cortinas, in charge of Mexican military operations at Piedras Negras, Mexico, informed an associated press correspondent today that he had received instructions from Mexico City to censor all reports coming out of Mexico that would be detrimental to the government or connected with government affairs in any way.

ROME, July 18.—(AP)—News of the death of president-elect Obregon of Mexico produced considerable impression at the vatican because only recently the congregation for extraordinary ecclesiastical affairs met several times to examine and discuss a possible modus vivendi concerning the status of the church in Mexico. This possible plan is supposed to have had Obregon's approval and it is understood would have been accepted once he became president.

Mad Dog Killed by City Officer

J. W. Turpin city officer, after a hard chase yesterday afternoon shot and killed a mad dog at the rear of a residence on North Somerville street. The day before, the dog was reported to have bitten two dogs, but it could not be found. Yesterday it bit another dog, before the officer finally cornered it.

"There are altogether too many dogs running about the streets," Chief Downs said this morning, "and now that hot weather is here there is danger of rabies. I would advise that all pet dogs be vaccinated. We plan to start a war on stray dogs immediately."

Near Tie Shown in Montana Primary

HELENA, Mont., July 18.—(AP)—Partial returns from yesterday's primary in Montana showed Governor Erickson 13 votes in the lead of Roy Ayers for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. The figures represented 343 of the state's 1,490 precincts and 38 of the 56 counties, among them about half the Silver Bow precincts, where Ayers piled up a big lead early. The vote stood: Erickson 9,128; Ayers 9,115.

For the Republican nomination as United States Senator, J. M. Dixon of Missoula, former governor, was increasing a lead which at this time stood at 10,179 votes to 7,095 for C. H. Williams of Deer Lodge and 456 for Charles F. Juttner of Butte. Senator Wheeler had an even greater lead over Sam V. Stewart, Montana's war governor, for the Democratic nomination. Wheeler's total at this time was 9,708 as against 3,397 for Stewart and 465 for Sam Teagarden of Denton.

DENTIST COMING HERE

Dr. E. L. Thomson of Cross Plains is a visitor here today securing a location here and will move here in the near future.

"I believe Pampa has a great future," Dr. Thomson said, "and with my old friend F. M. Gwin here I know I will like Pampa."

TEXAS MAN HONORED

PARSONS, Kan., July 18.—(AP)—W. N. Barringer of Wichita Falls, Texas, was elected president of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad Shop Employees association at a meeting of the general board here. H. W. Starns, Parsons, was elected vice-president, succeeding Barringer, and C. E. Crook, Parsons, was reelected secretary-treasurer.

Galveston, July 18.—(AP)—Sergeant Earl W. Criss' first enlisted man of the United States air corps to receive a foreign medal since the return of the air corps from France, was awarded the French Croix de Guerre at a special review today at Fort Crockett. Criss, a regimental runner with the First division during the world war, was cited for bravery twice by the French government and twice by his divisional commander.

LOCALS

S. M. Finney, former manager of the Adams Dry Goods store of Dalhart, arrived in Pampa Monday to take charge of the local Adams store.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Henry, who had been guests in the home of Mrs. Henry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pope, for several days, returned to their home at the J. A. ranch Monday afternoon. They were accompanied by Mrs. Henry's sister, Miss Claudine Pope, who will visit at the ranch for a few days.

Mrs. Jessie Larrimore of Kermit is attending to business affairs in this city.

Mrs. W. C. Mitchell and her niece, Miss Mary Jo Harmon, are visiting relatives in Cheyenne, Oklahoma, today.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Brown and family and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lawrence and family and H. W. Johns have returned from a fishing trip near Polson, N. M. They report a great catch and a wonderful time.

Obregon's Death Hurts Mexican Bonds

NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP)—Mexican government bonds opened 1 to nearly 2 points lower on the New York stock exchange today on selling caused by the assassination of President-elect Obregon. Mexican 4s, large, assessed of 1904, showed the largest loss by opening at 27, as against a previous close of 28 3-4, and then dipping to 26 1-2. National railways of Mexico 4 1-2s of 1957 sold at 13 1-4, nearly 6 points below the previous sale.

Despite a reassuring statement of Thomas W. Lamont, chairman of the International Committee of Bankers on Mexico, that the status of Mexico's foreign debts was not affected by Obregon's death, considerable uneasiness over the political and economic stability of the country was apparent in some quarters by the hasty liquidation of Mexican bonds.

GETS DELAYED HONORS

Galveston, July 18.—(AP)—Sergeant Earl W. Criss' first enlisted man of the United States air corps to receive a foreign medal since the return of the air corps from France, was awarded the French Croix de Guerre at a special review today at Fort Crockett. Criss, a regimental runner with the First division during the world war, was cited for bravery twice by the French government and twice by his divisional commander.

"CONTRIBUTIONS WELCOME"

NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP)—Contributions of "any amount from ten cents up" will be received "thankfully" by the promoters of the presidential campaign of Governor Smith.

This was announced by Col. Herbert H. Leman, finance director of the national Democratic national committee, asking them to suggest assistant financial directors in their states to accept contributions.

HIGH BISHOPS DISAGREE

DALLAS, July 18.—(AP)—Bishop John M. Moore of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, one of the Methodist churchmen opposed to Governor Smith, Democratic presidential candidate, in a statement here today took issue with the Rev. Warren A. Candler of Atlanta, Ga., senior bishop of the Methodist church, who had advised ministers to keep out of politics.

Usually, he said, Bishop Candler would be right in advising ministers not to take sides in politics, but he continued, "no minister can afford to remain quiet when a great moral issue, such as that of this election year, presents itself."

WORTMAN IS ACTIVE

One of the most energetic candidates for office in this district is Judge C. S. Wortman, candidate for district attorney of the 31st district under Judge Reese Ewing.

Thus far in his campaign Judge Wortman has made 25 speeches in various parts of his district. Saturday the energetic office seeker drove 250 miles and made four speeches. Today at noon he addressed a gathering at LeFors. Tonight he speaks in South Pampa from an open air platform.

CHAIN METHODS DISCUSSED

DALLAS, July 18.—(AP)—Alleged efforts of "chain" stores in the larger cities of the state to "turn public opinion away from the independent merchant" by selling fruits and vegetables at or below cost were discussed at today's session of the Texas Wholesale Fruit and Vegetable Dealers' association here.

Alvin Beyer, member of the association, recommended that the situation be reported to the Texas legislature or the federal trade commission. Mr. Beyer testified to instances where he said the "chain" concerns bought fruits and vegetables with the intention of "making no profit, but selling so cheaply that the little dealer will be run out of business."

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Duncan and family are vacationing in Solorado Springs.

J. S. Wynne is attending to business affairs in Amarillo today.

OIL MEETING CALLED

NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP)—A small group of oil company executives has set July 30 as the tentative date for a conference at which it is hoped to settle the disagreements preventing the calling of a general conference looking to control of petroleum production on a world-wide basis. It was learned today. Representatives of mid-continent producers who attempted to bring about a general discussion of the subject here recently were said to have met with little success. The difficulty appears to lie in a wide divergence of views held by heads of the large companies and as it was feared that few would attend the conference along the lines proposed; it was decided to make preliminary arrangements for a smaller meeting in the hope that some basis for agreement might be found.

There will be a special call meeting of the local chapter of the American Legion Auxiliary at the Legion home, at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. All members are urged to attend.
