SUMMER CAMP OF BOY SCOUTS WELL PLANNED

Adult Leaders Directing Activities of All Kinds

PROGRAM IS WELL FILLED

Pampa Lads Learning to Swim and Float Efficiently

CAMP CARL FREEMAN, July 20.—(Special)—With 90 boys sitting down to a wholesome lunch in the airy mess hall, the summer camp of the Adobe Walls council is a cheerful place, indeed.

The Scouts, who came from all parts of the territory, but principally from Canadian, Pampa, Puhlanville, and Borger, spent the early part of the week in camping, horse-riding, fishing, getting tents pitched, and otherwise preparing for ten days of real Scout-ing and recreation.

The camp, held under the direction of E. D. Melver, executive of the Adobe Walls council, is located on a beautiful site on Wolf Creek, 25 miles northwest of Canadian. This place was selected because of its almost perfect natural setting. It grades 100 per cent when measured by the standards laid out by the national council of the Boy Scouts of America. Nearly 2,000 acres of beautiful, rolling country, traversed by running streams and known as the Carl Freeman ranch, has been thrown open to the Scouts, and the Freeman family has graciously offered every facility the ranch affords for the convenience of the boys.

The daily program is arranged to give every Scout instruction in Scoutcraft, swimming, camping, and the like, with plenty of wholesome food, rest, recreation, and supervised play. Seven boys who could not swim a stroke upon coming to camp demonstrated their ability to swim several yards on the afternoon of the second day in camp.

Boys who have mastered the art of keeping afloat include James Stuebe, Vernell Stevens, Tom Sweetman, Eugene Davis, and Turney Muffinax, of Pampa, and Obin Sweeney and Frank Berry of Borger.

The camp staff is composed of E. D. Melver, executive, who is director of the camp; Miss Teresa Bomer, secretary to Mr. Melver, who is acting as camp clerk, dietitian, camp nurse, and camp banker; Jim D. Miller of Borger who is acting as assistant camp director and instructor in campcraft; J. D. Sackett of Pampa, who is in charge of the grounds and commissary department and instructor in certain phases of scouting; Laverne Langen of Borger, who is in charge of transportation and is assistant in water front activities; and Mr. Meeks, who is the camp chef.

With something doing every hour of the pleasant day and with the campfire in the evenings ending the day's activity, every boy apparently is enjoying the thrills that only a Boy Scout camp can give.

The following Boy Scouts enrolled in the camp's opening day:

Hundred Epworth League Members in Pampa Session

A hundred or more members of the Epworth League from the Northern part of Clarendon district assembled in Pampa Thursday evening for the regular monthly meeting.

Representatives were present from Claude, Goodnight, Alanreed, Clarendon, Lella Lake, Ashtola, Clarendon circuit, and Groom, in addition to twenty members of the local league. Regular meetings of the regional union are held for purposes of inspiration and instruction. At Thursday night's meeting of the Union, plans were laid for competition between the various leagues, with a more constructive program of work as the objective. A committee was appointed to outline a program and make plans for the contest. Those who will serve on the committee are: Miss White of Groom, Miss Nellie Hardin of Pampa, and Lester Schull of Clarendon, with the Rev. Tom W. Brabham as general advisor.

A social meeting preceded the business sessions, and a buffet supper was served at the church at 7 o'clock. During the recreational hour the forming of acquaintanceships was stressed. At 8:30 o'clock a program was presented in the auditorium of the church. Rev. Brabham led the devotional. The welcome address was made by J. C. Strother, and the response was made by Lester Schull of Clarendon. A singing was led by R. B. Fisher. Songs and readings gave the program variety.

Eastern Hikers Eager to Tell of Alma Mater

Two trans-continental "hikers" who have walked thus far just ten miles of their trip to Los Angeles, Cal., spent last night in Pampa. They were Ralph W. Pasick and Oliver K. Loer, 1928 graduates of Bethany college, who are out to see a bit of the world before they start their careers as school teachers next fall.

While they were willing enough to answer any questions about themselves, both young men were much more interested in talking about their alma mater, Bethany college, they said, is the oldest college in America maintained by the Christian church. It was founded by Alexander Campbell in 1840. The school gives two degrees, the B. A. and the B. S. and has an enrollment of 325 students.

Pasick and Loer were stopping at a local hotel when they met the Rev. James Todd, Jr. by accident. He was much interested in their story about the school and the account of their trip, and invited the young men to his home to be his guests for the night. They started from Bethany last Wednesday morning, and expect to be in Los Angeles a week from today, if their luck holds in picking up rides.

Before September 1, they will return to the East. Pasick will be a teacher and athletic coach in the high school of Bentleyville, Penn., and Loer will teach in the high school of Charlottesville, S. C. Each received the B. A. degree from Bethany college.

Senator Love Loses Appeal for Rehearing of Ballot Suit

SAN ANTONIO, July 20.—(P)—State Senator Thomas B. Love of Dallas lost another round in his fight to place his name on the Democratic ballot in Cameron county when Justice W. S. Fry of the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals today overruled Love's motion for a rehearing on the case.

HOUSTON, July 20.—(P)—Hearing of an injunction suit brought by Harris county negroes to enjoin the Harris county Democratic executive committee from excluding them and other members of the negro race from the Democratic primary of July 28 was concluded at noon today before Federal Judge J. C. Hutchison.

LEFORS CROSSING BAD

Several LeFors citizens and at least one Pampa motorist are in favor of a bridge across the Red river south of LeFors. Apparently a heavy truck in crossing the ford became stuck and in getting out made a pit in the sand. Unsuspecting motorists making the crossing have been sliding into the hole, and falling to get out without help.

Several cars became mired yesterday afternoon and last night before the place was filled in.

Crowd Greet Hoover in Superior

SEWER SYSTEM PUT INTO USE

New Extensions Being Given the Final Tests

The new disposal plant was put into operation yesterday for the first time when the lines from the north part of the city were turned into the plant. Tests have been made on the lines and the entire line will soon be in use. Men are at work today laying the distribution pipes in the filter bed for the sprinkler system.

Before this extension to the sewer system, Pampa had only five miles of sewer lines. An additional fifteen miles were laid, including a 15-inch disposal line to the new and modern disposal plant three miles west of the city, and 6, 8, 10, and 12-inch lines in the city. The modern disposal plant and filter bed are large enough to accommodate a city of 20,000 population. The sewer extension work was started last December by the Jordan Construction company of Pampa and Childress. It is being completed at a cost of approximately $110,000.

Four Engine Men Are Missing After Train Accident

OMAHA, Neb., July 20.—(P)—Engineers D. D. Tucker and George Wilson and Fireman Jesse Davis and John Butts were reported missing after a double-header Wabash freight train plunged into Dry Creek near Minnsola, Iowa east of here, about 2 o'clock this morning.

A trestle had been washed out by a heavy rainfall. The missing men are from Stanberry, Mo. Five cars are reported on top of the two submerged locomotives.

Texarkana Honors Carranza Today

TEXARKANA, July 20.—(P)—The funeral train of Captain Emilio Carranza, Mexico's good will flier who was killed when his plane crashed in New Jersey last week, passed through here at 3:20 o'clock this morning on the last lap of its long trip to Mexico City.

Texarkana legionaires placed a wreath on the casket while a Boy Scout blew taps for the gallant Mexican ace who gave his life in cementing relations between the United States and Mexico.

Plans to drop flowers on the train from an airplane were abandoned due to the early hour of arrival.

FORTUNE IN LIQUOR SEIZED

NEW YORK, July 20.—(P)—A cargo of alleged pre-war rye whiskey, estimated to be worth $1,000,000 at retail prices, was seized today by customs agents on the Red Cross liner Nerissa.

Missionary From South China Will Speak on Sunday

Dr. J. Walton Moore, returned missionary formerly stationed in South China, will speak at the First Baptist church at 11 o'clock Sunday, August 1. Dr. Moore has been in Missionary work in China for 7 years, and is now in this country on his furlough. He is known as one of the leading young missionaries of the Baptist denomination, and is a forestal speaker. Members of the local church predict that those who hear him will receive a message worthwhile.

Athletics Group Created to Work With Schools

An athletic association for the schools of the Pampa Independent district was created by the board of trustees in a business meeting last night. The association, comprised of Supt. R. C. Campbell, R. P. Fisher, Coach Odus Mitchell, and Joe M. Smith, will determine the policies to be followed in intramural and extramural games and contests, arrange schedules for games and meets and take charge of the financial problems connected with athletics.

Another important transaction of the meeting was the purchase of ten acres of land north of the Cook-Adams addition, for an athletic field. Grand stands and bleachers will be provided, Mr. Smith said. It is probable that bleachers now on the site will be purchased. The board expects to make the field equal to the best in the Panhandle.

Five teachers were elected at the meeting. They are Miss Emma Searley of Amarillo, for an undesignated position in the high school faculty; Joe L. Gray of Austin, chemistry and general science; Mr. Fox of Independence, Kan., mathematics and history; Miss Mary Stocking of Clarendon for work in the grades; and Miss Nettie Sims, also of Clarendon, for work in the grades.

Lone Bandit Robs Bank in Oakland

OAKLAND, Calif., July 20.—(P)—A bandit, held up the Broadway branch of the American Trust company in the heart of the city today, took $3,432, leaped over the counter into the street and escaped in a commandeered automobile which he stopped by brandishing his pistol. The car, containing a man and a woman, as well as the bandit, sped away toward Berkeley.

ROBERT KELLY PASSES TODAY

Death Comes at Pampa Hospital After Short Illness

Robert Kelly, 62 years old, died at the Pampa hospital this morning at 1:30 o'clock following a short illness. He was well known and respected here where he has been in the wholesale and retail poultry business since his arrival here two years ago from Sheffield, Ala.

He had his retail department with DeSpain and Son and later with Clarence Saunders. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Miss Mattie Sue, with the Gordon Stores company since its opening here, and one son, William, with the Santa Fe. Funeral services will be conducted at the Malone funeral chapel by the Rev. Tom Brabham, pastor of the First Methodist church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be at Fairview cemetery.

Mystery of Death of Lowenstein Still Unsolved in France

CALAIS, France, July 20.—(P)—Finding of the body of Captain Alfred Lowenstein, Belgian financier, today revived the mystery which surrounds his death.

It was believed the French government would begin an official inquiry into the death and whether any of his fellow passengers on the fatal plane trip share responsibility for his death. Discovery of the body definitely set at rest rumors that the mystery man of European finance had perpetrated a gigantic hoax and was still alive.

Authorities still have to determine whether he fell accidentally from his plane in crossing the channel or deliberately wrenched open the exit door and plunged to his death.

Dr. Bouffroy, who examined the body found he was drowned or killed by the shock of the fall from a height of 4,000 feet.

Nine Persons Killed in Illinois Storms

CHICAGO, July 20.—(P)—An electrical storm accompanied by a 64-mph gale, centered upon Chicago and Northwestern Illinois late yesterday causing the deaths of nine persons and property loss estimated at thousands of dollars. Numerous homes and buildings were struck by lightning, grain was destroyed, streets and basements flooded and electrical power lines short circuited.

WANT THREE MILLION

WASHINGTON, July 20.—(P)—J. E. Nutt, treasurer of the Republican national committee, is making plans for raising at least $3,000,000 to meet the cost of the Hoover presidential campaign.

This figure, he believes, cannot be considered excessive.

Twelve Nations Have Agreed to Kellogg Project

WASHINGTON, July 20.—(P)—At two of the fourteen nations to which Secretary Kellogg submitted his treaty for the renunciation of war have formally approved the Washington agreement of their willingness to join in the compact.

Japan and Czechoslovakia alone remain to be heard from and the state department has learned through diplomatic channels that they, too, are favorably inclined that their acceptance may be expected within a few days.

It is a source of particular gratification to Secretary Kellogg that none of the nations have suggested changes in the text of the draft treaty as revised and submitted together with his explanatory note on June 23.

The number of countries approving the pact was brought to an even dozen by the acceptance of Great Britain and her dominions, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and India, replies from whom were made public last night.

For the London government, foreign Secretary Sir Austen Chamberlain set forth the interpretation placed upon the provisions of the treaty and declared that "his majesty's government in Great Britain is glad to join the United States and with all other governments similarly disposed in signing a definite treaty for the renunciation of war."

The note specifically stated the British understanding of the terms of the treaty. Taking note of the provision relieving the signatory nations of all obligations under the pact to any state violating the covenant, and of Secretary Kellogg's understanding that "the right of self defense is implicit in every treaty whether specifically alluded to or not."

Rotarians to Be Guests of Lions in Banquet Soon

Pampa Lions have issued an invitation to local Rotarians and Rotary clubs to be guests of the former at a banquet to be held soon. The tentative date has been set for August 2.

This will be a return banquet, since Lions and their ladies were thus complimented by the Rotary club some time ago.

The Rev. Tom W. Brabham was in charge of yesterday's Lions club luncheon in the absence of President Ivy Duncan, who is away on a fishing trip. The club is preparing for a busy fall and winter. Music will be especially stressed at meetings, and several quartets will be organized.

J. A. Holmes, candidate for district attorney of the 84th district, made a brief address at the luncheon. A newly initiated Lion is Roy Harris.

Thousands on Way to Obregon Funeral

NOGALES, Ariz., July 20.—(P)—The agricultural village of Navajo in Southern Sonora today temporarily became the heart of Mexico, and trails and roads leading into it became the nation's veins along which flowed Mexicans of all stations in life.

Reens afoot, caballeros, business men and government officials made their needs the little town on the bank of the Mayo river where General Alvaro Obregon, assassinated president-elect of Mexico, will be buried.

Friends and followers of Obregon throughout northern Mexico and great numbers of workers who live on his huge ranch holdings streamed into Navajo long before the scheduled hour of arrival of the funeral train bearing the slain leader's body from Mexico City.

SON TO MCCAYS

William (Red) McCay of the Gulf Production company here is receiving the congratulations of his many friends upon the receipt of telegram from Cottonwood Falls, Kas., stating that he is the father of an 8-pound son born Wednesday night, Mrs. McCay, formerly Miss Daphne Underwood of the Postoffice staff, and baby are doing nicely.

Miss Leora May of Amarillo, former Society editor of the Pampa Daily News, is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Corson and other friends here today.

CALLES LIKELY TO REMAIN IN OFFICE LONGER

Congress to Meet Soon Will Large Be Favorable

REVENGE IS HEARD NOW

Stringent Restrictions on Worship Cited in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, July 20.—(P)—A congress made up mainly of supporters of Alvaro Obregon will meet in special session on July 30 presumably to settle the question of presidential succession raised by his assassination.

It is expected that a way will be found to continue President Calles in office. A nine-day period of mourning will be observed throughout Mexico in the meantime for the slain president-elect, whose body today was traveling on a special train to his native state of Sonora for burial.

General Antonio Rios Zertuche, installed as chief of police to handle the investigation into the killing, announced "that responsibility for the crime lies with the Catholic clergy."

Police were continuing their investigation in an effort to find those "intellectually responsible" for the assassination. Many Names Arrested. Twenty Catholic nuns from the town of Villa Guadalupe, where the shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, patron saint of Mexico, is situated, were arrested and the convent was closed. Police charged that they were operating secretly in violation of the religious laws. They were held at police headquarters where the slayer, Jose de Leon Toral, is in a dungeon.

A phony hearing of the words "you are avenged" was found on the tomb of the priest Miguel Pro Jaurea, who was executed last November for being involved in the attempt to assassinate General Obregon with bombs. Police said a picture of the priest was found on the assassin.

Calles Closely Guarded. President Calles today was under a heavy military guard. The precautions were taken at the behest of his friends, although Calles has rejected any idea that his personal safety was in danger.

The slayer was paraded before reporters today. His left eye was black and swollen, there were a few bruises on his face but all traces of blood had been washed away. It was intimated that the bruises had been sustained in the scuffle which followed the assassination.

Local Gas System Will Be Improved

Thomas Danielson of Chicago, chief engineer of the Central States Power and Light corporation, and W. F. Heber of Tulsa, Southwestern superintendent of construction of the same company, were here yesterday making a survey of the city distribution system. They plan to enlarge and improve the entire system in the near future to meet the growing demands of the city.

In speaking about Pampa, Mr. Danielson remarked, "It is the best town in our entire system. There is more building going on in Pampa than any place I have visited in Texas or Oklahoma."

Hoover Back on Stanford Campus

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., July 20.—(P)—Herbert Hoover, Republican presidential nominee, arrived at his home on Stanford campus today at 11:15, completing a trip from Washington.

His coming was without ceremony, elaborate receptions planned for him at San Francisco and Palo Alto having been postponed because of the death of Mrs. Hoover's father, C. D. Henry, funeral services for whom were to be held this afternoon in the university chapel.

Miss Juanita Lankford of Sherman is the guest of Miss Louise Miller for a few days.

VOLCANO CAUSES TERROR

MANILLA, July 20.—(AP)—A violent eruption of Mayo, the volcano in Al-bay province which recently became unusually active, today terrified the populace for miles around. Business in Legaspi and smaller towns near the base of the volcanic mountain was paralyzed.

Lava shot from a crater in a dense column of smoke, which cast a pall over much of the populace.

TWINKLES

Estranged husbands of Texas must support their wives until a divorce is obtained. That court decision ought to crystallize sentiment for easier divorce, on one side of the house at least.

Where there's smoke there's fire, but most of the candidates we observe are raising more dust than smoke, and mud is pretty scarce.

Real horses are not fond of indoors, but if tractors could talk they would appear effeminate in this regard.

The beauty of having a 24-hour-a-day job is that you don't have to watch the clock.

Now if the bolters would drag out Claude Bowers' keynote speech against the Republicans they could think up more things to call Al Smith.

Some of these summer hats compete mightily closely in yardage with the other part of the costumes.

Fame is fleeting, but Aimee Semple McPherson gets back into the headlines by stopping an investigation to determine whether Mrs. Minnie Kennedy is her real mother. A group of her followers think perhaps she is a daughter by her father's prior marriage. She denied the allegation in typically warm fashion. Few newspapers gave much attention to the incident; Aimee is news, but little short of death is apt to make her big news.

Publicity is a great thing, but it backfires. When people have exhausted their curiosity in a thing, they lay it aside forever as far as any real further interest is concerned. As many ex-students look upon their old school books, they have "already seen it." In the former case it usually well and good; in the latter, it is regrettable that most of us relegate so many good things to the college or high school age. Great literature, too largely, lives in the class room.

Expecting great things of a presidential candidate is not as prevalent as it used to be. We can now know what time the gentlemen arose; how hot their bath water was, what brand of shaving cream they used, whether they wear a belt or suspenders, and any other personal details that might be of interest. Reporters used to ask political questions, and get answers that made headlines. Now one or two dangerous issues before the discussions and are avoided. Smith talks about his resignation when prohibition is mentioned; Hoover keeps many when asked about the equalization fee. And well they may. Smith pulled a political bone-head in his reply to the Houston convention, while Hoover is puzzled over the maze of conflicting advice he is getting on agriculture. The nominees are like even most statesmen—they need time to study the matters over and work out plans—they are not miracle men.

Dr. Cook met disdain soon after he touched civilization while returning from his alleged polar triumph. General Noble also was momentarily a hero, yet as "the truth" leaks out to the North his calibre diminishes and criticism grows. The world has slowly learned the facts—so slowly that one wonders why. Soviet Russia has been making capital over her claim that no other nation has made as sincere an effort at rescue. Now, say her spokesmen, she will continue almost alone. The Swedish Spitzbergen relief expedition yesterday was sent orders to return to Stockholm. Much explaining remains to be done from many quarters.

Buying at home is argued from so many angles that to use the kaiser as an example should not be surprising. This x-person is a big economic factor in the prosperity of the 4,000 citizens of Doorn through his policy of buying all his necessities within the city. His example was followed by many of the aristocratic Dutch citizens who formerly did much buying elsewhere. In many American communities there also is an "aristocracy" which is too uppish to buy many articles at home. The kaiser is of more importance to the community, economically, than they. There is a sensible happy medium in all things, but the average community of today meets most of the needs of even its high brow citizens.

The navy is investigating to find out whether or not married sailors should receive more pay than single ones. It is perfectly obvious they should—being more skilled in the way of battle.

Secretary Work "inaction" is the big issue in this presidential campaign. We thought most of the bootleggers already were being pretty well taken care of.

With Ford for Hoover, most of the General Motors are said to be for Smith. Here's a chance for the roller skate people to get some publicity. France, Germany and Great Britain all like Secretary Kellogg's proposed pact of outlaw war. Wonder what's wrong with it?

Action is asked by cemetery associations to prevent couples petting there. It seems to be a grave problem.

CAPITOL News

WASHINGTON — If the state of Texas doesn't do its stuff, the Seventy-first Congress will start off without a woman in the Senate just as every other Congress has done.

All other women who had senatorial thoughts or candidacies have been led or pushed off to one side, and the only remaining candidate is Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, who is competing with several large, leather-lunged men in Texas for the Democratic nomination which so surely means election.

No one can say Mrs. Cunningham hasn't a chance of becoming the first woman senator, owing to the somewhat unusual Texas election system. Under that system the senatorial candidate will be voted upon July 28 in the first primary, after which the two candidates with the highest vote will settle everything in a run-off primary on August 2. There are so many candidates that the vote will be divided over the field and history has shown that almost anyone is consequently likely to land in the run-off.

If Mrs. Cunningham happens to land first or second place she will have earned it. She has been flitting from 12 to 200 miles a day for several weeks, addressing the voters as often as she can get a crowd. She has been as far west as El Paso, as far south as Brownsville, as far north as the Panhandle and has lately been leaving clouds of dust along the roads of East Texas with the intention of winding up her campaign in Galveston.

One or two other women, volunteers, are generally with her to do special talks on particular issues dear to Mrs. Cunningham. Mrs. Dorothy Kirchwey Brown of Boston, the wife of former Assistant Attorney General La Rue Brown, went on the road with Mrs. Cunningham after the Democratic convention and was kind enough to tell your correspondent about the Cunningham campaign while returning through Washington.

Owing to illness in the family, Mrs. Cunningham had to make a late start. She found her opponents making mean remarks about each other, as political opponents sometimes do, and decided there was little nourishment for her in such tactics. But as she mounts improvised platforms, court house steps and other promontories, she generally begins her talks with reference to the abusive ways of the other candidates, illustrated by the hydrophobia story.

Ruth's Homers Win Two Games in Two Contests

BY HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sport Writer) Babe Ruth is nothing if not obliging. He has slugged three homers in the past two days and they have won two ball games for the New York Yankees.

On Wednesday Wilky Moore needed three runs in the last inning if he was to save himself from defeat at the hands of the up and coming Chicago White Sox. The Yanks got two men on base and they scored ahead of Babe when he slammed homer No. 36 high and dry in the right field stands.

Against the same White Sox Thursday Herb Pennock was unsteady most of the way but the Babe pulled him through to a six to four victory by propelling his thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth circuit clouts into the stands, each time with Earle Combs on base.

These two Ruthian drives put the "Big Bam" twenty-seven games, twenty-nine days and eight home runs ahead of his 1927 schedule when he slammed 60 for a new record.

Alphonse Thomas pitched well for the Sox but the Yanks are a jinx to him. He's been beaten by the champions eleven times in the last two seasons. By the way, eleven times in exactly the number of times he's faced them.

The Athletics shaved half a game off the champions' lead by turning back the St. Louis Browns in both ends of a double bill, 2 to 0 and 4 to 3, the latter in 11 innings. Both games were pitchers' battles.

Owen Carroll pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 9 to 3 triumph over the Washington Senators in the first game of a double header but Milt Gaston reversed matters in the second, the Senators walking off with an easy 7 to 2 win.

Ed Morris registered his 13th pitching victory of the year as the Boston Red Sox evaded the series with Cleveland, 9 to 2 in 11 innings. Rollins' double, a sacrifice fly by Ken Williams and Tatt's single accounted for the winning margin.

In the national league the St. Louis pace-setting Cardinals added more woes to the unlucky Phillies. The Cards just barely nosed out a 6 to 5 verdict that marked the Phils' eleventh straight defeat. Hafey and Harper of the Cards and Hurst of the Phils each hit their twelfth home run of the season.

Meantime the Brooklyn Dodgers snapped a nine-game winning streak rolled up by the defending league champions, the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3 to 0. Doug McWeeny had a slight edge on the Young Pirate southpaw. Fred Fussel, the Dodger hurler, accounting for the last two of his team's runs in the ninth when he drove in two men with a single.

Boston finally managed to end a

Heeney Decides to Sit Out Heat in His Training Camp

FAIR HAVEN, N. J., July 20.—(AP)—New Zealand may have its hot moments, but none, Thomas Heeney contends, which can compare with some he has experienced in this vicinity since the weather really warmed up to its task. For this reason and because the heat took five pounds off his ample frame yesterday, the challenger for Gene Tunney's crown was at ease today, ready to sit out the heat even if it lasts until he enters the ring with the champion.

Te New Zealand blacksmith has been accused by some of being ready and willing to sit out any of his training periods at the slightest provocation, but there seems to be some sense to his decision to do no work today.

91 Runs Made in 13 Innings Is Record Of Illinois Team

DECATUR, Ill., July 20.—(AP)—Babe Ruth's "murderer's row" on the New York Yankees never scored 91 runs in 13 innings.

But that was the achievement of the "sack, run and slide" team in the A. C. boy's baseball league here yesterday and they claim to have set a record.

In a doubleheader, they shut out their opponents, 80 to 0 in the first then scored 41 markers in the first four innings of the second game. When the onslaught had gone that far, both teams agreed to quit.

Every member of the winning nine hit at least one home run, and Payne of the winners pitched all 13 scoreless innings.

American Olympic Team Lands at Amsterdam and Immediately Goes Into Workouts—Warmly Welcomed

AMSTERDAM, Holland, July 20.—(AP)—The American Olympic team, in fine fettle and ready for the historic games at the Amsterdam stadium, arrived aboard the steamship President Roosevelt at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon.

The President Roosevelt was sighted entering Amsterdam harbor about 1:30 p. m., and at ten minutes of 2 the vessel was in the dock amid the cheers of many spectators who crowded the pier to welcome the American athletes.

The American colony turned out in full force to greet the Olympic team as the President Roosevelt docked.

The official welcome party included Consul General Charles L. Hoover. The girl swimmers immediately were taken to the Shell Oil company's tank and the men to the Marine natatorium for practice. The track athletes went to the stadium practice grounds and to the gymnasium of the Amsterdam police.

Arrangements also were made to give the various crews a practice run on the Sloten canal later in the day.

Houston Buffs Are Stopped Short By Dallas Steers

(By The Associated Press.)

The winning streak of the Houston Buffs that had reached six games was shattered Thursday when Dallas won 2 to 1, before 5,758 cash customers. The game was a pitcher's duel between Barnes and Blankenship with the Steer hurler having a slight edge. Blankenship allowed six safeties while Barnes was nicked for eight.

Wichita Falls, runner-up, kept pace in the fight for first honors, however, by defeating Waco, 7 to 4, in a game featured Jenkins two homers and Fitzgerald's circuit clout. Both clubs hit the ball hard, but the Spudgers showed the way in hitting, getting 14 safeties to the Cubs 11.

Shreveport broke its losing streak of 11 games, by defeating Beaumont, 8 to 6. Estrada, Cuban hurler, was the big show for the Sports, as he held the Exporters to 3 safeties and had them eating out of his hand the whole route.

Pampa Grays to Assemble Sunday in Amarillo Game

Ed Gober and his Pampa Grays will invade Amarillo Sunday afternoon for their first game of the season. They will play at Metro park against George Westbrook's Metros, the game to be called at 3:15 o'clock.

The Grays are just organizing in the hopes of entering the Amarillo tournament again this year and with prospects of a trip to Denver. Gober has some last material about him that he thinks readily beat the Metros, ancient rivals of Pampa.

Behind the bat will be the veteran Tom Clayton, with last year's team. In the box Gober will use either Powell or Terry, both newcomers, one a left-hander and the other a right-hander.

Of last year's team Lew Hunter, the fleetest man in the garden, will again hold down his old place, while in the infield Johnnie Weeks, Rusty Cahill and Ed Gober will be in the line-up.

New men to appear in a Grays uniform will be Munns, last year with Berger; Newasha, ancient Indian ball player known over the entire Southwest; Seitz, the White Deer flash; Boyland, another oldtimer and formerly with Philadelphia Athletics; and Moore and Erwin two fast outfielders.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ellison and small son, Jack, Jr., left today for Tulsa, where they will make their home.

Two Good Fights in Chicago Tonight

CHICAGO, July 20.—(AP)—Unless rain interrupts, Chicago fight fans will have to choose between two good fight cards tonight.

In one, Joey Medill of Chicago and Mike Dundee, the Rock Island bouncer, will meet for a promised chance at Todd Morgan's junior lightweight title; in the other, W. L. "Young" Stribling of Georgia will trade punches with Tom Kirby of Boston. Both matches are billed for ten rounds.

The Medill-Dundee fight, originally billed for last night, was postponed because of rain.

American Singles Players Take Two Matches Today

AUTEUIL, France, July 20.—(AP)—America's Davis cup tennis players, minus Tilden, produced a great surprise today by winning the first two singles matches of the inter-zone final contest with Italy, both in straight sets.

After Francis T. Hunter had defeated Placido Gaslini in the first match by scores of 6-1, 6-1, John Hennessey downed the Italian ace, Baron Humbert de Morpurgo, 6-4, 7-5, 6-2.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Wells Smith will spend the week-end in Wichita Falls.

Tunney Feels in Best Condition of His Fistic Career

SPECULATOR, N. Y., July 20.—(AP)—Gene Tunney today entered upon the last stage of his training for his heavyweight title bout. Gene Tunney is in better physical shape than he has ever been before in his career.

Later this afternoon he was slated to go through the first of his last three sessions with his sparring partners, Harold Mayo and Billy Vidabek. The champion is on the verge of fighting edge and the encounters were expected to be the most savage of the campaign.

During the morning he planned to hike about six miles, stopping often to get in his shadow boxing.

Flyweights to Try Again for Battle

NEW YORK, July 20.—(AP)—Ezzy Schwartz, world's flyweight champion in the eyes of the New York State Athletic commission, and Prisco Grandé, Buffalo Filipino, will attempt for the fourth time tonight to put on their 12-round titular battle at the Rockaway stadium.

The affray had been scheduled on three preceding Friday nights but rain interfered each time. Schwartz is an odds-on favorite to retain his crown.

Bomb Figures in Domestic Triangle, Husband's Death

ROCKFORD, ILL., July 20.—(AP)—A bomb, an electrical current and an automobile combined to dissolve a domestic triangle through the death of the husband, but found the wife and her alleged suitor in jail today.

Vernon Plager, 32, Rockford radio expert, was the victim yesterday of a bomb wired in his automobile so as to explode when he stepped on the starter. He was thrown into the air, struck an overhead cable and died within 30 minutes.

"Paul Reed did it," he whispered on his death bed.

Reed, 30, a draftsman, surrendered at Oregon, Ill., maintaining his innocence.

Mrs. Plager, 22, mother of a five-year-old daughter, also held by police supported her husband's accusation against Reed.

Last year, police said, Mrs. Plager and Reed ran away to a Southern Illinois city, where they were arrested and returned. In police court they were fined a reconciliation followed between husband and wife for the sake of their child.

Coolidge Catching Two Fish at Time

SUPERIOR, Wis., July 20.—(AP)—

President Coolidge not only is catching fish every time he goes out on the Brule but, on an average of every other day, he is performing the unusual feat of getting two trout on one cast.

He thrilled newspapermen and photographers July 4, his fifty-sixth birthday, by pulling from the river two good sized fish on one throw of his line, but it was not known until today that he is repeating that stunt regularly by putting one fly on the line's dropper and the other on the end of the line.

The president made a double catch yesterday, getting a 1 1/2-pound brook trout and a 1 3/4-pound lochlaven. He did the same thing the previous day.

Earl Stuckey returned Wednesday from a business visit in Austin.

HOME BREW FOUND

One hundred bottles of home brewed beer and two ten-gallon kegs, ready for bottling, rewarded officers of the Sheriff's department for raiding a residence South Pampa last night. LOVE FOR TWO by RUTH DEWEY GROVES © 1928 By NEA Service Inc.

THIS HAS HAPPENED

BERTIE LOU WARD, on the eve of her wedding to RODNEY BRYEN, feels troubled at receiving a dagger-like paper knife from LILA MARSH, an ex-sweetheart of Rodney. She resolves not to be jealous, but a second blow to her pride comes when she accidentally overhears one of her bridesmaids ask another if she thought the bride liked being second choice.

The pain in her heart vanishes when Rod tells her how much he loves her. They spend an ideal honeymoon and Bertie Lou forgets about Lila until they return and find her playing dictator in their apartment because she "knows what Rod likes."

Too much hospitality in the new home upsets their financial budget. This worries Bertie Lou as does the persistent annoyance of Lila. So she is happy when Rod accepts a position in New York with TOM FRASER.

Anxious to make a good impression, they go to an expensive hotel until they can find an apartment. The cost of things amazes Bertie Lou and she is embarrassed when MOLLY FRASER urges her to buy more clothes than she can afford. She is also worried at Rod's playing poker with Tom. After winning some high stakes, he foolishly invites the crowd to a night club. Bertie Lou buys a new evening dress and charges it against Rod's wallet. Lila arrives in the affair and Molly Fraser arranges to throw Rod and Lila together as much as possible. The night club party lasts till dawn and Rod is presented with a check for more than $100 and he has only $70 with him.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Rod fumbled with the piece of paper with its distressing figures, reached uncertainly for his billfold, and then withdrew his hand from his inside coat pocket, empty.

CHAPTER XV

BERTIE LOU could not see the check as it lay before Rod but she knew that something was wrong, of course. Rod fumbled with the piece of paper with its distressing figures, put it down, reached uncertainly for his billfold, and then withdrew his hand from his inside coat pocket, empty.

Molly chirped impatiently: "Well, aren't we ever going to leave?"

Something had to be done about it. Plainly, Rod hadn't yet formulated an idea. "What's the matter?" Bertie Lou said, and leaned over the table to reach for the check which he had dropped. He tried to stop her from her purpose but she had it.

One quick glance at its terrifying contents and she laughed, a rippling little expression of consternation. "Oh dear," she said, "I forgot to give you the money I got from the bank today, didn't I? I'm sorry, because now you'll have to ask Tom to lend you some."

Mr. Loree tore his gaze away from Lila's pretty, eager countenance and looked across at Bertie Lou. Her voice had been distinct. "Let me in on this," he pleaded. "I'd rather like to make it my party, if you don't mind. Enjoyed it immensely."

Tom was half awake now. "Nonsense," he mumbled, hardly knowing what it was all about. "No, indeed," Rod refused. "I'm obliged to make a loan, however. It seems we left the money on the piano." He laughed. "Let me have a fifty, Tom."

Tom dug out the amount and added five for half the tip. "Leave ten," he suggested, half fearing that Rod would probably underestimate the importance of generously satisfying the waiter.

Chances were he wouldn't know the amount expected to make him contented. As a matter of fact

$10 was the minimum for a hundred plus check. Surprisingly Tom took care of the captain. Rod might never come again but he was sure he would. Liked the place. And good tables weren't to be held for "lightwads."

BERTIE LOU was pleased when they reached the street to learn that Mr. Loree had his car there and would drive Lila home. There was room for two more, he said, looking questioningly at them. Molly jumped at the chance. The car was a sumptuous cabriolet, an odd car for a man's use. Its rear seat would accommodate two and there were two drop seats.

Bertie Lou was perfectly willing to go home alone with Rod in a taxicab. As a matter of fact she had been groping about in her mind the last five minutes for a plausible reason to avoid going to the Fraser apartment. Tom had said something about bacon and eggs but the thought of food sickened her.

Lila could have choked Molly for her impetuous acceptance of Mr. Loree's courtesy. At least she might have had sense enough to realize that he offered them room in his car merely as a gesture born of good breeding, she thought angrily.

As Loree's car drove off and Rod turned to look for a taxicab Bertie Lou's mask of sociability fell off. She hadn't approved of the party in the first place. Rod was well aware of that even if she hadn't said much about it. And he'd been sorry he got into it the instant Molly had asked him to postpone it until Lila's arrival.

But hang it all, how was a fellow to know what these night clubs were like! At the most he'd thought $30 or $40 would be plenty.

He was beginning to realize what entertainment in New York cost. He had been one to laugh at stories he had heard of night club prices and had set them down as humor, akin to mother-in-law jokes and stories of rolling-pin throwing wives. He never really believed that it cost as much to entertain in a New York night club as it was reputed to cost—any more than he had believed that mothers-in-law

"I MIGHT have found some entertainment to fit a bookkeeper's income," Bertie Lou returned. It was the first belittling reference to Rod's position that she'd ever made. It stirred him to a touch of anger again.

"I don't know that I can't afford a real party once in a lifetime," he replied warmly. "And it won't cost you anything. Go ahead and charge everything you want to."

He was stung because she called him a bookkeeper when he felt very proud of having reached the dignity of an accountant's estate. The Wayville paper had carried quite a story about it. A whole column on the front page. It had made Rod feel like a general, to say the least, in the battlefield of business. And now Bertie Lou spoke of him as a buck private.

"Oh, you're just trying to make me feel extravagant and selfish to smoke-screen your own wild spending," she flamed back at him. "And I haven't done anything more than buy a dress I could have got along without if you hadn't tried to make Rockefeller look like a flop-house bum."

"For Pete's sake don't be a bar-nacle and stick forever to one idea," Rod begged. "I've told you I didn't know what a sucker I was making out of myself when I sprang that night club racket. Can't you add it up to experience and call it a day?"

Bertie Lou closed her lips in resentful silence. It was certainly unfair of Rod to try to make her appear as a nagging fault finder when she really had something to complain about, she thought bitterly.

And that "it won't cost you anything" smarted her sensitive pride. It was a reminder that Bertie Lou had nourished the thought that their marriage would be one of those fifty-fifty affairs in every way.

SHE drew away from him and sat stiffly upright in the far corner of the cab. It was the first time since their marriage that Rod had said anything to hurt her. Hurt her, that is, in the way you are hurt when a cherished illusion is suddenly destroyed. Bertie Lou had not believed she never would quarrel with Rod, but she had hoped they could at least postpone the inevitable for a long, long time.

And here they were, just a few months after their wedding day, the minister's words still fresh in their memories, saying bitter things to each other. The sensation that came to Bertie Lou was new to her. Her throat became tight and painful and a strange feeling as of a warm flood released in the region of her heart caused her real physical anguish. It was as though her heart had burst. Perhaps she was going to die of heart trouble!

It would serve Rod right. After she'd got him out of a pretty mess, too. Scared to death because he hadn't enough money to pay that check. His ingratitude bit deep and aching into Bertie Lou's soul. But the thing that went deeper still was Rod's going to sleep on their quarrel. Actually falling asleep, while Bertie Lou blinked her eyes fast in the dark and wondered if he really loved her after all. Lila had been stunning, as usual. Even dazzling in orange velvet and rhinestone-covered slippers. And Rod had enjoyed dancing with her. Anyone could see that.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic—Saul's Early Ministry.

Scripture Lesson—Acts 9:19-30: 11-25, 28.

Acts 9: 19. And he was certain days with the disciples that were at Damascus.

20. And straightway in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that He is the Son of God.

21. And all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that in Jerusalem made havoc of them, that called on this name? And he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them bound before the chief priests.

22. But Saul increased the more in strength and confounded the Jews that dwelt in Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

23. And when many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel together to kill him.

24. But their plot became known to Saul. And watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him.

25. But his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

26. And he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples; and they were all afraid of him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.

28. And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem.

29. Preaching boldly in the name of the Lord; and he spake and disputed against the Grecian Jews; but they were seeking to kill him.

30. And when the brethren knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

Acts 11:25. And he went forth to Tarsus to seek for Saul.

26. And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together with the church, and taught much people; and that the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

Time: Saul in Arabia, A. D. 36-38. Paul's escape from Damascus, A. D. 38, followed by his visit to Jerusalem. Paul in Cilicia and Syria, A. D. 38-42. Paul called to Antioch A. D. 43. Paul's relief taken to Jerusalem, A. D. 45. Return of Saul to Antioch A. D. 46.

Place: Damascus, Arabia, Jerusalem, Tarsus, Antioch of Syria.

Golden Text: Straightway in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that He is the Son of God.—Acts 9:20.

Introduction.

The conversion of Saul is certainly one of the most important events in church history. Acts recounts the early spread of the gospel, "beginning at Jerusalem;" and it was Saul-Paul, who first carried the good news all the long way to Rome, the world's center. Acts is a missionary book, and Paul is the missionary. Jesus had given the gospel to the world; Acts begins with his going away and with the descent of the Holy Spirit, the gospel's driving power. There follow in its earlier chapters the persecutions of the Jerusalem disciples, which resulted in a drive of the gospel out into the world. See how everything was being made ready for the divine enterprise! All that was needed now was a great leader, and him God sent by strange misrepresentations in the person of Saul of Tarsus.

How large this conversion loomed in the early church's estimation is shown by the fact it is related three times in Acts, once in the narrative, and twice in the apostle's addresses (Chaps. 9, 22, 26). We may suppose, indeed, that it was a story that he told hundreds of times.

Saul's Preaching in Damascus, v. 28 "In the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus that He is the Son of God." Christ constantly took advantage of the synagogue practice of inviting distinguished and able visitors to address the gathering, and Saul throughout his life, in all his extensive travels, began his work in the synagogue if the place where he was had a synagogue. In the synagogue and among the Jews he would find those who, by language, customs, training, history, and habits of thought would be the most likely to listen sympathetically to the gospel of the Jewish Messiah, Saul had brought letters to the synagogues of Damascus (Acts 9:2), but he never delivered them; instead he brought them a totally different message!

Saul a "Dynamo" of Spiritual Power "But Saul increased the more in strength." The verb used in the Greek is the word that has been taken over in English in "dynamite." Saul, as he meditated on the Scriptures, and prayed more, and learned more about Christ from those who had seen him and heard him, became a very dynamo of spiritual power. No true Christian convert will stand still. Progress growth, is the law of the new life which he has entered. "And confounded the Jews that dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ." Saul, the learned rabbi, was doubtless more familiar with the prophecies of the Messiah than any other person in Damascus.

Three Years of Preparation The "many days" of Acts 9:23, contrasted with the "certain days" of Acts 9:19 indicates that there is where we must place Saul's sojourn of three years in Arabia. (Gal. 1:17, 18), after which he returned again to Damascus, and the happenings of Acts 9:23 took place. The passage from Galatians contains all that is known about this stay in Arabia, nor is it even clear that all of the three years was spent there.

"Why did Paul go to Arabia? The soul of Paul craved solitude. He needed to face the problems which his new experience suddenly had thrust upon him. He must wrestle with them alone. In Arabia he prepared himself for his future ministry. He studied the Scriptures and waited upon God. He formulated his theology. He reasoned it all out. His system of thought was complete before he began to preach. Too many men go into the ministry today who are not clear upon many points of doctrine. Paul knew what he believed from the beginning to the end of his ministry."

The Jews Sought to Kill Saul, v. 23 "The Jews took counsel together to kill him, but their plot became known to Saul." Many of these Jews by this time had relatives and friends who were Christians. It would be difficult to hide the plot from them, and they would at once warn Saul. "And they watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him." They dogged Saul's footsteps, seeking an opportunity to spring out upon him from some dark doorway, and they kept up a systematic watch at the city gates, to slay him if he tried to leave the city. In 2 Cor. 11:32 Paul himself tells us that "the governor under Aretas, the king guarded the city of the Damascus" in order to take him.

"But his disciples" shows that on this second visit to Damascus Saul had remained long enough to win a number of followers to Christ. In 2 Cor. 11:33 down through a window. Ministry at Jerusalem, vs. 26-30 Three years had now passed since Saul's conversion, and he had not been back to Jerusalem. So he was with the Jerusalem believers for fifteen days, going in and out of the city. His presence in the city, and his preaching boldly in the name of the Lord, brought upon him the hatred of the Grecian Jews, and they were seeking to kill him. They had been unable to withstand the wisdom and the spirit with which Stephen was accustomed Saul himself says that he was let to speak, and now the young man who held their clothes at the stoning, of Stephen is speaking against them with that same power, and they are aroused to the same hatred and frenzy against him. When the brethren knew of Saul's danger, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him forth to his old home at Tarsus. Ministry at Antioch, Acts 11:25, 26 There have been "hidden years" (probably five or six) in the life of Saul since last we saw him, but from what we do know they must have been busy and eventful. Believers, who were scattered abroad by persecution, had traveled as far as Phenice and Cyprus and Antioch, preaching the word only to Jews. Some of these, who were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, came to Antioch and began preaching the Lord Jesus to the Grecians, and great numbers of them believed and turned to the Lord (Acts 11:21). Tidings of these things came to Jerusalem, and the church there sent Barnabas to Antioch. When he came and saw the manifestations of God's grace, he exhorted them to cleave unto the Lord with firm and holy purpose, and many people were saved under the ministry of Barnabas (Acts 11:24.) Saul comes at once into his mind as the one best fitted to carry on this work, and Barnabas goes to Tarsus to find him and to bring him to Antioch. Antioch was the metropolis of Syria, situated at the northeast corner of the Mediterranean Sea. It was founded about 300 B. C. by Seleucus Nicator, who named it after his father, Antiochus. In St. Paul's time Antioch contained five hundred thousand people, and was the third largest city in the Roman Empire. The seaport of Seleucia was a mighty fortress, comparable to Gibraltar or Sebastopol. A splendid road as well as a navigable river connected the port with the great city. As though the river and the road were not sufficient for the commerce of Antioch, a huge canal was cut from Seleucia to the capital through masses of solid rock. This was one of the greatest engineering feats of antiquity. Moreover the protecting breakwaters, and the great dock cut out of the solid rock at Seleucia, made the harbor the most famous in the world."

Amarillo Girl Is Drowned—Another Saved by Boy

AMARILLO, July 20.—(Special)—The efforts of Morris Gulledege, 11 years old, to save the lives of two girl playmates here late yesterday were partly successful, but Laura Josephine Goans, 10 years old, was drowned.

Fern Goans was pulled into shallow water and rescued by the lad, who would have saved both girls had they not clung to him. The girls had been wading in a water hole north of the city, when the younger of the sisters slipped into a deeper place. The elder girl went to her rescue and both were floundering in 8 feet of water when they were seen by the Gulledege boy. Efforts to revive the drowned girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Goans, were futile.

Mrs. W. D. Hight and children of Mexia, are guests at the home of Mrs. Hight's brother, T. J. May.

CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST (East Francis Street)

I have been here now the third Sunday since taking up the work with the church here. I have never seen a more encouraging and hopeful work. The members all seem ready to go forward. A decided increase has given us assurance that the work is to experience a healthy growth in every way. There has been but one Sunday out of the past four that there has not been from one to five additions to the church enrollment.

We are happy to see the Ladies' Bible class, which convenes each Thursday at 3 o'clock and Wednesday night meet with such encouragement.

Our Sunday morning Bible hour is a time of sunshine. Every face manifests that, and 9:45 is the time for all to be present. New classes are being formed and plans are being made to take care of the growth.

Sunday morning song service begins at 10:45 and the preacher is ready to begin his sermon at 11 promptly. Subject, "Luke-warm Laddies." Night services begin at 8:30 "The Good Man Barnabas." C. C. MERRITT, Minister.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY (First National Bank Bldg. Room 2) Services, Sunday 11 a. m. Subject—"Truth." Wednesday evening 8 p. m. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Dry Delegates to Carry Fight Home

ASHVILLE, N. C., July 20.—(P)—Having pledged themselves to defeat Governor Smith, delegates to the conference of dry southern Democrats separated today to carry their campaign against the nominee to their home states.

Before adjourning, the conference adopted a statement to its aims and principles attacking the New York governor for what was termed "his repudiation of the Houston platform on prohibition," his "selection of a wet Republican" as chairman of the Democratic national committee, his "wet records," and his relation to Tammany Hall.

TWO TRUCKS DAMAGED

Two trucks were badly damaged last night on the LeFors road in a head-on collision in which a woman was slightly injured.

A new International truck driven by Joe Babcock of LeFors struck a Ford truck, said to have been without lights. Mr. Babcock said he was blinded by the glare of a car approaching behind or beside the truck.

NOTED KANSAN DIES

WICHITA, Kan., July 20.—(P)—Richard M. Gray, 52, owner of the Hotel Lassen here and a member of the Kansas State Highway Commission, died today in Santa Barbara, Calif., after an illness of more than a year. Word of his death was received by Cy Seymour, manager of the Lassen.

"WATER FIGHT ENDS

ANGLETON, July 20.—(P)—Two factions, one seeking to construct a dam in the Colorado river and the other protesting against the dam on the ground that it would create a flood hazard, reached an agreement in district court here today.

The markham Irrigation company, which had filed suit to construct, without interference, a dam at Dry creek to supply water to its rice farming clients, accepted a non-suit and agreed to move a dredge at Dry creek until it paralleled the banks.

Al and Jim Talk It Over

The Democratic fight against Herbert Hoover and the Republican administration was being planned as this picture was snapped. It shows the meeting of Governor Al Smith and Senator James A. Reed, who had been rejected by his party as a presidential nominee, was expected to do the heavy bombarding of the Hoover camp.

HOLDUP MEN CAUGHT

DALLAS, July 20.—(P)—Three men arrested after a pistol fight at Shreveport Wednesday and brought to Dallas were identified by two holdup victims as the men who robbed them here on the night of July 15.

In addition two of the men were identified as the robbers who held up a grocery store at Marshall last Tuesday and escaped with $187.

STUDIES GRAPE CULTURE

EDINBURGH, July 21.—(P)—The Rio Grande Valley's women grape expert believes grape culture is destined to become the second ranking agricultural activity in this section.

Cotton, of course, will remain the most important crop, in the opinion of Mrs. Margaret McAllen Fairbanks, who owns a 60-acre "test" vineyard 20 miles from Edinburg.

"Grape culture will become important in this territory because grapes are easy to raise, the initial cost of a vineyard is small, and that vines bear within a short time," Mrs. Fairbanks said.

Mrs. Fairbanks has gathered about 100 pounds of grapes from her vines this season. She has netted approximately $50.

Markets

CHICAGO, July 20.—(P)—Unexpectedly sharp declines in Liverpool wheat quotations, together with word of liberal export business overnight, led to higher prices early today in the market here. Opening 3-8c to 7-8c up, wheat later scored additional gains. Corn and oats were also stronger, with corn starting unchanged to 1-2c higher and subsequently showing an advance all around. Provisions went lower.

CROWELL, July 20.—(P)—J. B. Lassater, Ford county farmer and his five-year-old daughter, Mary, are dead and five other members of the family are in a critical condition as the result of eating poisoned beans Wednesday night. The beans were left from a previous meal.

Bridge Party Given Thursday Honoring Bride

Mrs. Tom Henry, who was Miss Chleo Cox of Panhandle before her marriage, two weeks ago, was honored Thursday afternoon in a party of pretty appointment at the home of Miss Iva Cary. Miss Christine Campbell entertained with Miss Cary. Their guest list included: Mrs. Henry, honoree, Mrs. Tracy Cary, Mrs. Clarence Kennedy, Mrs. Weldon Wilson, Mrs. G. C. Edmundson and Mrs. Ralph Pauly.

Lovely bouquets of sweet peas established a color scheme of orchid and white, which was further developed in the bridge table appointments and refreshments. Five games of bridge were played. Mrs. Henry made high score and was awarded a pair of crystal ball vases. Low score favor was a framed motto, which was presented to Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Cox is a member of one of Panhandle's most prominent families and she enjoyed a wide popularity in that city. She will no doubt be a distinct addition to the social circles of Pampa.
