PRICE FIVE CENTS

SIX KILLED, MANY HURT IN WRECKS

Downpour of 1.48 Inches Falls at Pampa on Saturday

MUDDY ROADS HINDER TRAVEL IN TERRITORY

West and Central Parts of Texas Much Benefited

LOCAL RECORDS ARE REVEALED

25.10 Inches of Rain Received in Last Year

Rainfall of 1.48 inches Saturday night has made roads in all directions from Pampa almost impassable, but highway conditions are improving today.

Motorists tell of having to leave their cars in neighboring towns on account of the mud. The Glendon and Miami roads are reported as passable but rough. Oil field roads seriously hampered trucking, especially in the LeFors area.

When harvest, about 90 per cent complete, will be further delayed, and each delay means more loss as the grain falls to the ground.

FORT WORTH, July 23.—(P)—Crops were benefited by rains varying from one-half to more than three inches which fell in scattered sections of West and Central Texas Saturday and Sunday, according to reports here today.

Denton county reported 1.25 inches with cotton and all other crops in excellent conditions.

Siston reported .83 rainfall with heavier precipitation in the surrounding territory.

A 3-inch rain fell for 14 hours over Seagraves and vicinity.

Memphis reported a general rain totaling 2.15 inches, which will prove a great boon to the crops of this section.

Hale Center reported a 2 1/2 inch rainfall.

Other reports include: Lockney, general rain; Maverick, scattered showers; Stiles 1 inch rain; Haskell, one to two inches over county; Floydada, general rain; Lubbock 3.27 inches, Rankin 3.50 inches; Sweetwater, general rain. Big Spring, local showers; Electra, slow rain totaling .26 of an inch; Stanton, 1.50 inches, and Fort Stockton, more than 1 inch.

From July 15, 1927 to July 15, 1928 Pampa received 25.10 inches of rainfall records of the Daily News reveal. One year ago a member of The News opened a government observation bureau and obtained the approved rain measuring equipment.

If this year follows the trend at last season, August will bring the heaviest downpours of the remaining portion of 1928. The rain gauge recorded by months for the last fiscal year follow:

July 1.94; August 4.37; September 2.02; October .03; December .63; January .00; February 1.19; March 1.30; April 1.52; May 7.19; June 2.59; July 2.42.

Shamrock Golfers Coming Next Sunday

Because of the wet ground, the proposed golf tournament between Glendon and Pampa golf clubs, scheduled for yesterday afternoon, was postponed until a later date.

The course was reasonably dry yesterday afternoon, but was unsatisfactory for tournament play.

The Shamrock club will be the opposition of the local club next Sunday afternoon in a scheduled tournament.

Many Texas Candidates to Take the Air to Complete Campaign

AUSTIN, July 23.—(P)—With primary election only five days away, the political spotlight seemed to be focused Monday on Governor Moody and Louis J. Wardlaw, who will shell the woods with oratory tonight for the edification of two large blocks of the Texas metropolitan electorate.

Governor Moody, who seeks re-election, will hold forth in Fort Worth, Wardlaw's home town, speaking before a microphone of radio station KFOB at Capps Park, beginning at 8:30 p. m. Wardlaw, who spoke in Austin Saturday night within a stone's fling of the governor's mansion, will appear Monday night at San Antonio, beginning at 8 p. m. He seeks the governor's office.

The governors' headquarters promised here Sunday that he "will pay his respect to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and the Record-Telegram," critics of his administration, in their home ballwick. A majority of 2 to 1 over his nearest opponent is claimed for the governor by his headquarters in a statement forecasting the July 28 primary result.

Candidates for office refusing to support Governor Al Smith, Democratic presidential nominee, who are barred from the ballots in several counties for that reason, were left without legal recourse Monday. The Supreme Court Saturday refused to consider the appeal of one of them, Tom Love, candidate for lieutenant governor.

This means that Love's name, as well as those of Mrs. Edith Wilmons and William E. Hawkins, also candidates for governor, will be left off the ballot in Cameron, Val Verde, Webb, and possibly other counties, signifying intention of following Cameron's lead. The Supreme Court told Love's counsel that under the constitution, it did not have jurisdiction, during the current vacation prescribed by the constitution, to consider his application for a writ of error from the San Antonio civil appellate decision affirming the Cameron county committee's right to bar him from the ballot.

The senatorial candidates have a busy wind-up ahead. Alvin M. Owsley is scheduled to speak Monday night at San Antonio also.

Senator Earle B. Mayfield was to speak at Bryan Monday afternoon and Navasota Monday night, closing his campaign in Austin Friday night after other speeches in South and Central Texas.

Congressman Tom Connally, another aspirant for Mayfield's place, was to speak at Orange, Beaumont, and Port Arthur Monday and Lockhart and San Marcos Tuesday afternoon and night, respectively.

Tomorrow to Be Last Day to Cast an Absentee Vote

With 24 absentee votes cast up to Saturday night and many more to be received, Gray county will have its share in the number of early votes cast for the Democratic primary.

Midnight of July 24 is the final time for absentee votes to be cast. Necessary form may be secured from the county clerk up to that time.

Pampa and Gray county will without doubt cast the largest primary vote in the history of the county. In Pampa alone more than 3,000 poll taxes were paid and election judges anticipate a vote of more than 2,500. Election Judge J. M. Dodson has his army of assistants picked and ready for the opening of the polls at 8 o'clock. Voting will close at 7 p. m.

July Is Popular for Nuptials—June Records Outclassed

July gives promise of being the month of brides replacing the traditional month of June. The county clerk is being kept busy this month issuing licenses, not only on week days but Sundays and evenings.

Over the week-end licenses were issued to the following: Neal Landrup and Miss Hazel Mae Peck of LeFors; Myrl Archer and Miss Tommie Mae Bird of McLean; J. C. Huse and Miss Hazel Moe Peck of LeFors and Roulie Howton and Miss Pansy Burks.

Double Mourning Observed Today as Carranza Arrives

MEXICO CITY, July 23.—(P)—Captain Emilio Carranza, Mexico's god will fier, came back today to a capital in double mourning for his own untimely death and for the assassination of President-elect Obregon.

It was a cold rainy morning, extremely unfavorable for flying, but squadrons of Mexican army planes took off from Valbuena flying field and met the funeral train, while many school children gathered on the roads to Mexico City. Soldiers lined the streets of the capital, all wearing arm bands of mourning, and throughout the city flags were at half mast and most business offices were closed.

City to Settle Damage Suit on Terms of Verdict

Payment of the $500 judgment awarded Miss Della Todd in her recent damage suit against the City of Pampa is expected to be made tonight at a meeting of the city commission.

Time for appeal expired Friday, and attorney for Miss Todd Saturday placed a writ of execution in the hands of the sheriff. Settlement of the judgment according to the verdict is indicated through failure to appeal. Up to this morning the city had taken no steps in this direction, however.

Texas Company to Top Holdings With Electra Pipeline

A contract will be let soon by the Texas company for the building of an 8-inch pipe line from Gray county to Electra, a distance of 153 miles. A pump station, to cost approximately $30,000, will be erected at the gathering point on the Ama-Gray lease in section 9 block 26, about four miles southeast of LeFors.

The cost of the line will be about $6,000,000 and will be used to handle oil from LeFors territory, where the Texas company has large holdings. The installation of this pipeline will bring the total to four handling production from the Panhandle. The other company lines from the Panhandle are: The Prairie Pipe line to Ringling, Okla., the Humble Pipe line and the Magnolia Pipe line, both to the Gulf coast.

Following the order for the building of the pipe line from Gray county, the company purchased 4,265,000 barrels of steel tankage and 3,000,000 barrels of crude oil, with gathering lines and loading racks in Crane, Upton and Winkler counties. Undeveloped leases in those territories were also purchased with 27 wells and a daily production of 30,000 barrels of oil.

PORT ARTHUR BANK CLOSES

PORT ARTHUR, July 23.—(P)—The Seaboard State Bank and Trust company failed to open for business today. The bank was ordered closed by the board of directors and affairs of the institution placed in the hands of the state banking commission.

PRAIRIE WELL IN SECTION 61 BETTERS PAY

Swabs 350 Barrels of 44 Gravity Oil Friday

NEARBY TEST NOT SO GOOD

Travis-Smith Showing Is Regarded as Promising Producer

The Prairie Oil and Gas company placed its No. 1 Worley-Reynolds, in section 61, block 3, on the swab Friday and the first 24 hours it made 350 barrels of 44 gravity oil. The hole is bottomed in granite wash at 3,070 feet.

This well is an offset to the Wilcox Oil and Gas company's No. 28 Worley-Reynolds, in the same section, which was drilled in for a 125 barrel well at 2,955 feet, some time ago. This well will be drilled deeper to pick up the Prairie pay.

The Texas company's No. 3 Bowers in the southeast corner of section 91, block B-2, has been completed for a 125-barrel well, in granite wash at 3,130 feet. It is offset by the Gibson Oil company's well in section 92 and the Gulf Production company's well in section 93, block B-2.

The Prairie Oil and Gas company's No. 1 Thut in the Thut pre-emption survey, LeFors, is drilling ahead at 1,875 feet after cementing 10-inch casing.

The Texas company's No. 3 Chapman, in section 61, block 25, picked up a show of oil in granite wash at 2,897 feet and will drill in immediately. This location is a mile north of the Travis-Smith well just drilled in.

The Travis and Smith's No. 1 Chapman in section 50, block 25, H. and G. N. Survey, is preparing to drill ahead at 2,820 feet with the well spraying about 10 barrels an hour from granite wash. Pay was picked up Saturday afternoon unexpectedly and drillers believe heavy production will be encountered when the well is drilled deeper.

This location is a mile south of the Texas company's No. 1 Chapman in section 50, of the same block, which has been completed for 125 barrels.

The same company has a well on top of pay in section 43, block 25, on the L. H. Webb. It was bottomed at 2,612 feet and will be drilled in immediately.

Motorists Asked to Avoid Street Lights While Out Driving

Local motorists are asked to be more careful of street standards on Pampa's white way. During the last week three of the standards have been crashed into by motor cars and either smashed or bent.

"We really need those standards to keep our streets lighted," Bert Curry, manager of the Southwestern Public Service company, remarked this morning.

The first standard to meet disaster was in front of Bonney's cafe, the second in front of the Magnolia Service station, and the other on South Cuyler street.

BRITISH FLIER KILLED

SELKIRK, Scotland, July 23.—(P)—The body of G. N. Warwick, one of the contestants in an airplane race around Great Britain for the king's cup last week, was found by a shepherd in a lonely spot among the hills south of St. Mary's loch today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lewright visited Mrs. Lewright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Noble of Clarendon, Sunday.

YOUNG SLAYER HAS CONFESSED

Statement Is Withheld by Police Chief of Mexico City

MEXICO CITY, July 23.—(P)—General Antonio Rios Zertuche, chief of police of Mexico City, stated today that a full confession has been obtained from Jose de Leon Toral, accused assassin of President-elect Obregon, but that he was unable as yet to reveal its contents.

MEXICO CITY, July 23.—(P)—Resignation of Louis Monroes, secretary of labor, whose life has been in danger since the assassination of General Alvaro Obregon, today was believed to have lessened the general feeling against him by resigning.

Agrarian spokesmen, naming Morones as one of the "psychological authors" of the crime, had asserted that unless he withdrew from the government there would be civil warfare.

The central committee of the regional Federation of labor instructor Morones and two other labor leaders Celestino Gasca, chief of ordinance supplies, and Eduardo Moneba, chief of the government supplies, and Eduardo Moneba, chief of the government printing shops, to resign. President Calles promptly accepted their withdrawal from his government.

Colonel Ricardo Topete, acknowledged leader of the Obregon national party, said there was now little likelihood of civil war.

Either President Calles or Aaron Saenz, governor of Nuevo Leon will be named by congress as provisions president of Mexico, Colonel Topete said.

Jose de Leon Toral, slayer of General Obregon, is ready to pay for his crime with his life without trial, but the government continued firm today its decision to bring the young ar student before the civil court. Toral refused protection of the amparo or writ of habeas corpus issued in his behalf on Friday.

Public threats against the life of Morones have been so frequent that he is under constant guard. Solo Gam and Urelio Manrique, Agrarian leader, had denounced Morones and other labor leaders publicly as "psychological authors" of the murder.

Colonel Topete said the special session of congress called to meet on July 29 will discuss the general situation resulting from General Obregon's assassination and the problem of presidential succession but will not act on these matters. Action will be deferred until the regular session, which convenes September 1. At that session canvas of the vote of the recent presidential election will be made.

CRASHES ARE ASCRIBED TO MANY CAUSES

Scores Bruised When Chicago Trains Hit at Station

FREIGHT RUNS WILD TODAY

Four Lives Lost as Carnival Special Is Derailed

CHICAGO, July 23.—(P)—A dozen passengers were so seriously injured they were removed to hospitals and two score others were shaken up and bruised today when the crowded Illinois Central railroad passenger train, both bound down town, collided at the Van Buren street station.

One train was discharging passengers at the station when the second, slowing down for the stop, crashed into the rear of the standing train, throwing scores of passengers off their feet.

Wreck Kills Two BOSTON, July 23.—(P)—Two men were killed and more than a score of persons injured, several seriously, when a four car train of the Boston elevated railway was wrecked on a sharp curve last night.

The accident was ascribed to failure of brakes. The train was running at 40 miles an hour on a straightway just before the curve.

It was scarcely a third of the way around when the trucks of the leading car left the rails and tore into the abandoned Beach street station.

The second car jumped high into the air, fell on the street, carrying away the stone facing crushing the walls and dropping its heavy trucks to the street. The two rear cars remained on the elevated structure, but left the rails.

Freight Runs Wild PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—(P)—Sixty-one freight cars running wild down a mile of steep grade crashed into the West Philadelphia yards of the Pennsylvania railroad today injuring four trainmen and demolishing six locomotives.

Ten freight cars were destroyed by fire when oil tank cars burst into flames at the instant of the crash. Debris was piled high over four freight tracks.

FARMINGTON, N. H., July 23.—(P)—A broken drawbar which sent five cars of a 20-car circus train down a gravel bank was held responsible for the loss of four lives and injuries to eight other employees of Bernard's shows, a small traveling carnival.

The accident occurred yesterday at Place's crossing, two miles from here.

Pampa Pioneer Buys 2,000 Acres of Hansford Land

L. W. Chadwick, pioneer Gray county and Pampa resident, has completed the purchase of more than 2,000 acres of wheat land in the Kimball community, Hansford county, from A. C. Whit. The price paid was $50,000 in cash. The deal was made through the McNabb Land company of Spearman.

The Whit farms have produced record-breaking crops for several years; are conveniently located, and comprise very desirable pieces of property.

Two thousand acres of wheat is being harvested this season, but is not included in the deal. More than 2,500 acres of land is in cultivation.

Mr. Chadwick moved here more than 25 years ago and purchased land east of Pampa. At the present time he owns two sections of choice wheat land five miles east of here.

CAPITOL News

WASHINGTON—The Electoral College, which has no college yell, no faculty, no endowment and no campus, never was much of a college.

Each candidate will have his own set of electors on the ballot. Those receiving the highest vote automatically enter the college.

Under this law, the secretary of state, with whom certificates of the state voters are filed, is no longer required to publish them.

The nation knows the election result the next morning but the electoral college and the rest of the government act as if no one had the slightest idea what had happened.

They read the certificates from the states in alphabetical order, rotating from one teller to another.

Then they tabulate the result and pass it along to the presiding officer, who announces that So and So, the fellow who has received the most electoral votes, has been elected president of the United States, with somebody else as vice president.

Each state is permitted to elect an elector for each of its senators and each of the representatives. Thus there are two electors-at-large and one elector from each congressional district, all elected by statewide vote.

diplomacy. She discovered so many things to be careful about. There were other reasons why she found it possible to forgive Lila. One was her possession of the truth relating to Rod's real feeling toward Lila. Secondly, Molly was potentially capable of causing her considerable annoyance. And, most important, Lila would think she really was jealous ... call her a bad sport, too.

When Rod arrived at the Frasers' Bertie Lou was in Lila's room. "I'M AFRAID we won't have time to look at coats for you," Molly said to her finally, glancing at her wristwatch. Bertie Lou looked at her own timepiece. Great heavens, Rod must be home now! "I'll have to go," she told Molly, with a little, worried smile. "Why? You aren't doing your own cooking, are you?" "Of course, I am," Bertie Lou responded instantly. Molly always said such absurd things. Just as if she didn't know how much money Rod was making! "Well, you're a fool to do it," Molly answered evenly. "There are lots of nice little restaurants that aren't any more expensive than preparing food at home. Time's too valuable to waste in the kitchen."

Menus for the Family

BY SISTER MARY

BREAKFAST—Sliced watermelon, cereal cooked with figs, cream, broiled fresh fish, rye toast, milk coffee.

LUNCHEON—Vegetable salad, quick Parkerhouse rolls with cheese, egg lemonade.

DINNER—Baked fresh mackerel, scalloped potatoes, buttered new turnips, raspberry delight, milk coffee.

New turnips are unusually good out in dice and parboiled for ten minutes, then cooked slowly in butter and a few tablespoons water until almost dry and tender. Sprinkle with minced parsley before serving.

Raspberry Delight

Two cups red raspberries, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup granulated sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, few grains salt, 2 cups milk, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla, 4 tablespoons powdered sugar.

Mix and sift sugar, flour and salt. Add yolks of eggs and mix thoroughly. Heat milk over hot water and slowly add to egg mixture, stirring constantly. Cook over hot water until thick and smooth, stirring to prevent lumping. Let cool and add vanilla. Turn into a baking dish. Cover with an even layer of berries. Beat whites of eggs until stiff, gradually beating in powdered sugar. Pile roughly over berries. Bake twelve minutes in a moderate oven to color and bake the meringue. The oven should be hotter at the top than at the bottom or the baking dish

PARIS (AP)—Molre taffeta coats are shown for warm days. A Louiseboulanger model had an all over embroidered design of beige darts. The contrasting collars and cuffs of tiny flower crepe de chine in black and beige are pleated in a tube effect. Godets give the skirt a circular fullness.

LOVE FOR TWO

RUTH DEWEY GROVES © 1928 By NEA Service Inc.

THIS HAS HAPPENED

BERTIE LOU WARD married BOB BRYAN, who had previously been engaged to LILA BAKER. They spend an ideal honeymoon and the only shadow on the young bride's happiness is the fact she accidentally overheard a friend refer to her as Rod's second choice. This shadow deepens when they return and find Lila playing director in their apartment because she knows what Rod likes.

Too much hospitality in the new home sends their financial budget. This worries Bertie Lou as does the persistent coquetting of Lila. So she is happy when Rod accepts a position in New York with TOM FRASER. Anxious to make a good impression, they go to an expensive hotel until they can find an apartment. The cost of things amazes Bertie Lou and she is embarrassed when TOMMY FRASER urges her to buy more clothes than she can afford. She strives to change accounts—against Rod's wishes, because under social obligation to the Frasers, and after having won some money from Tom at poker, Rod recklessly invites the crowd to a night club. Lila arrives to visit Molly, who includes her in the party and seems to enjoy Bertie Lou's discomfort. The affair cost Rod more than $100 and he had to borrow from Tom. Bertie Lou takes $75 with him. Bertie Lou upbraids Rod about his extravagance and they quarrel for the first time. The strained relations continue until they received a check from home for the furniture which they had stored. Then Bertie Lou is so happy furnishing her new apartment that she doesn't see Molly for quite a time, and is surprised to have a phone call from her announcing Lila's engagement to MR. LOBEK.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XVII

BERTIE LOU was prepared for almost anything when she entered Molly's apartment. A maid admitted her and said that Mrs. Fraser was still in the dining room, adding: "She asked to have you shown in there, madam." Molly's servants were always well instructed in formality. Molly and Lila were still seated at table, lingering over sweets and coffee. Sheets of writing paper were spread out before Lila and she was busily engaged in scribbling on them when Bertie Lou walked in.

Molly arose and pulled out a chair for her. "Thank goodness you came," she said in greeting. "We couldn't have waited very long. We're going shopping."

Bertie Lou looked at Lila. "If you will," Lila said, in a sweetly coaxing tone that Bertie Lou never had heard her use before. "For my trossou, she added with a shyness most unbecoming to her. Bertie Lou felt like laughing. "But why in the world do you want me along?" she asked bluntly.

Lila turned to Molly. The latter got up quickly. "I think Lila has something confidential to say to you," she answered Bertie Lou. "I've got a few things to attend to before we go out if you will excuse me. You'll be more comfortable in the drawing room, I think." Lila gathered up the sheets of paper. "My shopping notes," she explained and led the way to the living room. Bertie Lou followed, wondering how Lila's father could afford to buy the sort of trossou for her that she obviously had in mind.

Molly arose and pulled out a chair. "Thank goodness you came," she said in greeting. "We couldn't have waited very long."

"Will it shock you to know that Cyrus is paying for my things?" Lila asked, astutely reading Bertie Lou's thoughts.

"Not a bit," the latter replied coolly. Lila made an impatient gesture with a well-manicured hand. "Oh, please don't begin by being sarcastic," she begged, with a touch of her natural temper.

"Was I?" Bertie Lou inquired innocently. "You asked me a question."

Lila sighed. "I don't suppose it has occurred to you that I'd like to be friends with you, Bertie Lou?"

"No, not any more than Mrs. Astor, maybe," Bertie Lou laughed. "Well, I think we ought to bury the hatchet now," Lila said. "Cyrus thinks we're friends. He's been wondering why he hasn't seen you here."

BERTIE LOU got a ray of light. So that was it? Cyrus might be inquisitive. What had happened to Lila's home town friends? "I dare say Lila's afraid Molly might tell him about Rod," Bertie Lou concluded. "They're two of a feather. But what difference would it make if he knew?"

Sharply the answer came to her. "That would cut Lila off from seeing Rod!"

"and I'm perfectly willing to forget the past if you are. After all, there isn't anything much to forget. You and Rod are happily married, I hope, and I expect to be."

She paused for breath and Bertie Lou eyed her admiringly. She was doing rather well.

"I know I've been a tremendous goose, Bertie Lou," she went on, effectively lowering her voice. "I'll admit I tried to make you unhappy and did a lot of foolish things. But I was never underhanded about it. And you know what it is to have everybody in a small town laughing at you."

Bertie Lou nodded before she realized that she had betrayed her self.

"I WAS silly enough to believe that I was the only girl Rod ever could love," Lila continued with a frankness that Bertie Lou did not thank her for.

Lila laughed, with tolerant amusement of her own credulity. "I thought if I pretended to be crazy over Rod after his marriage, and pretended it in a ridiculous way, people would know it was just a lot of rot, and think I never had meant anything I said about him."

Again she paused and this time waited for Bertie Lou to speak. "I don't suppose you believe a thing I say," Lila reproached her. "No, I don't," Bertie Lou admitted.

"Molly said you wouldn't." Lila's voice held more than a trace of disappointment. "I don't see why Molly should say that," she exclaimed. "I've never said anything to her about you and Rod."

"But I have," Lila owned. "I told her what an idiot I've been. Of course I know how hard it would be for you to forgive me." Lila went on: "But after all, Bertie Lou, we used to sit together in school and share our lunch and playhouse together. . . . her voice trailed off softly, reminiscently.

BERTIE LOU couldn't help looking back to school days. She had been very proud of Lila's friendship then. Lila was the leading spirit of the class room and immensely popular. They had many memories to share.

"Remember the time I cut off your curls?" Lila asked. "And your mother shut you up to your room and I brought the kids around with a ladder to climb through the window?"

Bertie Lou remembered that, and how she'd felt so lightheaded and comfortable all at once. She laughed. "I never enjoyed a bob so much," she said.

"But your hair is lovely now," Lila told her. "I mean it, Bertie Lou," she added suddenly. "And you have such good taste. I've always admired you for wearing just the right things, even if I have gone in for more display in my own wardrobe. It was a sort of frantic effort to express myself, I guess. Wayville was killing me."

"But everything is going to be wonderful now. Cyrus can give me the life I want. People who know how to live, and not dried up hummies who go around with their hands in the air in horror at the thought of anyone having a good time."

"We weren't so dead in Wayville," Bertie Lou differed. "We weren't? Say, Bertie Lou, wait until you've been out a few times with Cyrus and you'll know how dead you were in that one-horse dump."

"WELL, have you two made up your silly quarrel?" Molly cried, bursting in upon them. She did not wait for an answer. "Get your things on, Lila. The shops will soon be closing."

Molly was happy. She liked to have a hand in things. Other people's affairs particularly. To make a match, or patch up a quarrel, or start one, was all the same to her. The Frasers had a car but no chauffeur. Tom said he preferred to spend the money in "living," meaning night clubs and parties.

Molly had the doorman call a taxicab. Bertie Lou demurred about accompanying them on the shopping tour, but Molly bundled her unceremoniously into the cab and told her not to be silly. Bertie Lou had a feeling of having lost her grip on herself, of being swept along against her will.

"Maybe we'll have time to look at a fur coat for you," Molly told her. "You can't get through a winter in New York without one. Even the office girls have them. And I'm a good judge of furs."

Tunney Displays Terrific Punch for Brief Instant

Gene Tunney intends to defend his heavyweight crown like a true champion, by knocking out Tom Heenev in one of the early rounds of their 15-round bout at the Yankee stadium Thursday night.

Most experts consider Gene a much better boxer than the New Zealand blacksmith and should have a better chance outpointing the challenger.

But Tunney, who has signed a contract with Tex Rickard on a percentage basis, appears willing to gamble on being knocked out himself for the privilege of being a record breaking card in future fights.

Experts are now inclined to think he has been kidding them since he started training last May.

For half a minute yesterday he was a super boxer. He stilled through one round with Harold Mays, his favorite sparring partner, and then showed his true self for an instant. A left feint drew Mays out of position and Tunney quick as lightning, shot in three right hooks to the jaw with machine-gun rapidity. Though Tunney's fists were covered with heavy training gloves, Mays was staggered. These three blows according to the consensus of the newspapermen many of whom were fresh from Heenev's training quarters, would have leveled any heavyweight in the world if Tunney were wearing regulation gloves.

Wichita Falls in First Place After Doubleheader

(By the Associated Press)

With the Houston Buffs and Dallas Steers going after one another, Wichita Falls has slipped into first place in the Texas league standing.

It was not Houston's fault that Wichita Falls passed the Snydermen in the percentage column Sunday. The Buffs won their game with Dallas but Wichita Falls had a double header out of Waco and the Northwest Texas made the most of it.

The stampeding Steers, whose spurt had carried them to the top rung of the ladder, finally were halted at Houston and were pushed back into third place. Frank Barnes, subpar product of the Dallas sandlots, corralled the Thundering Herd and the Buffs won 3 to 1.

Wichita Falls relief hurlers proved better than those for Waco and the Spudders made off with both ends of the bargain bill, 9 to 8 and 5 to 4. The first game went 11 innings and the second had to be called at the end of the sixth on account of darkness.

San Antonio administered Fort Worth hopes for the first division berth a set back by mauling the Cats in a brace of games 7 to 2 and 5 to 0. Texas weather didn't seem too hot for Clauer, new Bear hurler, in the opener and Andy Messenger had the Feltnes well in hand in the second.

The Beaumont Exporters stopped their losing streak at 12 straight, barely in time to keep from going into the cellar, when they won the second tilt of a double header with Shreveport 2 to 2. The Sports had copped the first 10 to 3 with the aid of Beaumont fielders who contributed five boots.

Heenev's Showing Called Worst of Whole Training

FAIRHAVEN, N. Y., July 23.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey has come, gone, and conquered again—conquered the hearts of upwards of 2,000 spectators who flocked to Tom Heenev's training camp yesterday, turning the occasion into one of the greatest tributes ever paid this once great fighter.

In the scramble to pay homage to the man Gene Tunney has twice defeated, Heenev, challenger for the world's heavyweight championship, was completely overlooked. Dempsey unwillingly stole all the thunder. Presumably, the crowd was present to watch Heenev in action, but it was Dempsey who got the glory.

Perhaps the reception Dempsey received got on Heenev's nerves for his showing in four rounds of boxing, with the Manassa mauler intently watching from the ringside, was anything but impressive, nevertheless, Dempsey, after the workout, said the New Zealander had better than an even chance of winning from Tunney when they met in their title match in the Yankee stadium Thursday night.

"He can take a punch and he can give one," Dempsey said. "When a man can do these two things he always has a chance. Heenev is rugged and strong, with plenty of stamina."

The critics were unanimous today that Heenev's showing was the worst he has displayed since he started training.

Olympic Team Is Somewhat "Tippy" But Well Pleased

AMSTERDAM, Holland, July 23.—(AP)—Among all the athletes from every section of the world here for the Olympic games, the American contingent remains the most conspicuous.

Crowds of Dutch youngsters trail the athletes through the streets, the girls in particular attracting much attention. Police had to dispose of a crowd which gathered about two girls who appeared in the streets bare-legged, their rolled down stockings clinging about their ankles. Amsterdam is a staid and conservative city. Nothing like that ever has been seen here before.

The Americans, officials and athletes alike, are encountering an unexpected difficulty in knowing whom to tip in Holland. Having heard that Europeans expect tips for every service rendered, they preferred to err on the side of over-doing tipping and thereby have provoked several humorous incidents.

Thus the general manager of one cable company personally boarded the President Roosevelt as a courtesy to the Americans to deliver several dozen messages. He was surprised and embarrassed when well-meaning Americans tried to slip him silver "dobbeltjes" and "quartjes"—ten and twenty-five cent pieces. On another occasion five of the Americans, invited for a spin by auto about Amsterdam and its environs, liked the well-mannered English speaking chauffeur so well they raised ten guilders or four dollars among them and offered it at the end of the ride only to learn to mutual embarrassment that the supposed chauffeur was a high city official who out of veneration for things American had placed his car at their service.

Uncle Sam's athletic representatives have been surprised and pleased to find that every Dutchman speaks some English, many of them perfect Anglo-Saxon. Visitors go anywhere and everywhere without the slightest difficulty.

Veteran Pitchers Most Trouble to Yankee Batters

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

It's the pitchers with baseball brains that give the Yankees the most trouble—veterans like old Jack Quinn, "Sad Sam" Jones, George Uhle and Urban Faber, whose right arm has been puzzling American league swainsmiths for 15 years.

Urban's fast one may have lost most of its zip and that curve may not be what it was ten years ago, but backed by a brain that tells him where to put each ball and the control to obey his brain's directions, "Red" is doing very well.

After the Yankees had taken over the Sox in the first three games of the current series, Faber took up the task of stopping the champions Sunday saving something out of the wreckage.

He was equal to the emergency. The Yankees hit him hard and often but the veteran's courage and brain, as well as his bat, carried the Sox through to a 6 to 4 victory. Incidentally the champions saw an eight-game winning streak snapped as usual, "Red" pitched skillfully and successfully to Babe Ruth, who made four official trips to the plate and batted precisely nothing flat. To add insult to injury, it was a single by Faber that drove in the winning runs in the eighth.

After a disastrous visit to Philadelphia, the third-place St. Louis Browns got out of their slump with an 8 to 5 win over the Cleveland Indians.

Washington went into fifth place, two games back of the White Sox by taking Detroit's measure 8 to 2. Braxton pitched steady ball for the senators while Holloway was ineffective.

In the national league the Chicago Cubs strengthened their hold on second place when Charlie Root held the Giants to four hits and won, 4 to 2. The Cubs failed to gain any ground on the Cardinals, however, for the Phillies reverted to type and bowed to the league leaders, 8 to 7.

Root, showing further return to the form that made him the outstanding pitcher of the league last season, had the Giants shut out until the eighth, when Melvin Ott, the "Boy Wonder," hit a home run with one on base.

Doubles by Douthitt and Holm in the ninth enabled the Cards to nose out the Phillies. Hurst's thirteenth homer of the year in the first-half of the same inning tied the score.

For the third straight time, the Cincinnati Reds trimmed the Boston Braves by one run. The score this time was 5 to 4.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and Brooklyn Dodgers continued their battle for fifth place now held by the Dodgers. They split even in a double bill at Brooklyn.

Dazy Vance was in form in the first game allowing the Corsairs only four hits and fanning eight men, the Dodgers carrying off a 5 to 0 to a decision. Burleigh Grimes pitched great ball for the Pirates but he met his match in the dazler. Remy Kremer enabled the Pirates to make it an even break when he outpitched five Robin pitchers and won 6 to 5, in the night-cap.

New Sox Boss!

Here's Russell "Lena" Blackburne, who twice in his career was fired by the Chicago White Sox and is now their manager. Blackburne got the Sox in the first division by a winning streak a few days after Schalk "resigned" and they are now playing the best ball of the season under him.

Hooks and Slides

Different With Brains

Gene Tunney is just past 30 years of age, that mythical deadline in the career of an athlete that is supposed to mark the passing of his best day. Once past 30, they say, the athlete begins to fade, and fade quickly, and they hold up for examples the cases of Dempsey, Tilden, Mrs. Mallory and many others.

This age thing is being considered as a very important factor in judging the future of Gene Tunney and his form in the approaching heavy-weight championship fight. It is not consistent to keep harping upon the influence of age on Tunney when Tom Heenev is no spring chicken. In fact there is some opinion that Heenev is close to 35.

Bill Gibson, for one, doesn't think that Tunney is at the point where years will saddle him with a burden.

"Boys with the pure Irish strain in their blood are four years behind other nationalities in reaching their full physical development," Gibson, the champion's manager, says. "So while Tunney is actually 30 years old he is only 26 physically."

"My Jim Coffey wasn't getting in his prime until he was 34, and the careers of other great Irish athletes like Martin Sheridan, Pat Ryan, Pat McDonald, Matt McGrath, Mike Devaney and a hundred others prove that the Irish boys do not fall out as rapidly as other boys do."

"I don't know why this is," Gib says. "Maybe it's the air or the climate or something, but the Irish do not get old quickly and they stay young longer when they are old than any Dutchman or Swedes or Hunks."

Everybody Picks Our Gene

Promoter Tex Rickard is giving his opinions for publication upon the merits of two of his fighters.

"The judge went out on a limb with the forecast that Heenev would beat Tunney. Even if he meant it, it wasn't a damaging confession because no one believed he meant it."

Tunney is so sensitive, however, that it is quite possible he was pained to hear his employer rooting in public for the other fellow, and although the champion is familiar with the workings of the ballyhoo he perhaps feels that Rickard was saying more than words.

Those who know Rickard know that he regarded Dempsey as the greatest fighter that ever lived, and Tunney accused him several times of committing acts of favoritism for Dempsey.

Rickard no doubt would prefer to have Heenev win the approaching fight because there is more box office possibility in Heenev than in Tunney and Rickard is even now talking about staging the next battle for the title in London if Heenev wins the championship.

And with the Demps in there against Heenev any place it would be a match that wouldn't require all the Rickardian art of ballyhoo to put over.

SIX

VICTORIOUS MONTHS for THE VICTORY SIX

When the Victory Six was announced six months ago it was the talk of the town. What would it look like? What would it do? Would it be different from other cars? In what way? And so on.

Then the public saw the Victory Six! Its freshness of design was a revelation. It was different. Like no other car.

Rakish and trim—low and graceful—smart hued and colorful—it captured the eye. Immediately.

Look again. Wider seats—more leg space. Big! Roomy!

Then it proved, in operation and performance, the promise suggested by its beauty. Swift pick-up—smoothness—speed. Dodge Brothers dependability again!

It was a great car then; it is an even greater car now.

It has stood the test.

Each month has seen a substantial increase in Victory Six sales.

Not because of what we have been saying for six months. Or because of what we say now.

But because of what the Victory Six is. The snappiest, best looking, speediest car in its class.

A car you should try out—now—yourself at the wheel

Hiram Johnson Is With Hoover on Most of Issues

PALO ALTO, Calif., July 23.—(P)—Resuming his conference with Republican political leaders of California, Herbert Hoover today had invited Senator Hiram Johnson to his home on Stanford university campus for luncheon and a discussion of the general situation.

The senior California senator is up for re-election this year and expects to conduct a vigorous campaign in which national and state leaders look to him to materially assist the cause of the Hoover-Curtis ticket.

One chief point of contact between the nominee and the senator is the Boulder Canyon Dam issue. Secretary Hoover assisted in negotiating the seven-state compact and has been an ardent supporter of the legislation. Senator Johnson is co-author of the Boulder Dam bill which is the unfinished business of the Senate at the convening of the next session and which the senator believes cannot be stopped by a filibuster this time as it has been at the two preceding sessions.

Nationalists Are Routed in Shantung

CHEFOO, Shantung, China, July 23.—(P)—The recently hoisted Sun banner of the Chinese Nationalist was hauled down here today and replaced by the five-barred flag of North China. The Nationalist military commander took refuge aboard a British vessel bound for Shanghai. His soldiers have been disarmed.

These developments came after severe fighting which started at midnight between the Nationalists and 5,000 soldiers who had served under Chang Tsung-Chang, military governor of Shantung. The Changtsung-Chang had been recently incorporated into the Nationalist army. Bitterly renounced their new allegiance and gained control of the city.

While fighting was in progress foreign warships landed patrols and one American sailor was wounded in the hand by a stray bullet.

CANADIANS AMUSE

HAMILTON, Ont., July 23.—(P)—Residents of this city were chuckling today over an American tourist who passed through here equipped with heavy clothing, a toboggan and a sleigh. He asked a policeman how far north he could get before it would be necessary to put on his heavy underwear.

ITALIA PROBE CERTAIN

ROME, July 23.—(P)—Premier Mussolini told the council of ministers today that a complete investigation into all phases of the Italia disaster would be made by July and that any other proposed investigation would be immediately rejected.

Such inquiry, the premier stressed, "will naturally be made in Italy and by Italian personalities. Any other hypothesis is absurd and offensive and whatever it might be or wherever the proposition came from, it would immediately be rejected."

Last Portion of Record Trip One of Most Difficult

NEW YORK, July 23.—(P)—John Henry Mears, theatrical producer and writer, and Captain C. B. D. Collyer, flier today held the record for a circle of the globe—23 days, 15 hours, 21 minutes and 3 seconds. They broke the old record by 40 days and 23 hours.

They stepped from an automobile at Battery park last night at 8:21 o'clock completing a journey by boat and airplane which they began from the same place the morning of June 29.

With them, barking enthusiastically was a little Sealyram terrier, named Tailwind, who had sped with them over two oceans and three continents.

The last leg of their flight, from Minneapolis, they found one of the most difficult of the entire trip. They were forced to battle fog and low lying clouds for the last part of their flight, detouring by what aviators call the "scenic route" down the Susquehanna river to the Delaware river at Middletown, Pa., where they cut across New Jersey to Miller field, Staten Island.

Swooping out of the mist in their Fairchild cabin monoplane, they landed at 6:55. The journey from Miller field to the battery was made by automobile and ferry.

By his trip Mears again became co-holder of the record for circling the globe, breaking that of Linton Wells and Edward Evans set in 1926. The Wells-Evans expedition had broken the record of 35 days which Mears set in 1913.

Mears, Collyer, and Tailwind took off in a seaplane from the battery June 29. Off Long Island they overtook the Olympic aboard which was their plane. Landing at Cherbourg, France, July 5 they flew across Europe and Asia in six days. From Tokyo they traveled by steamer to Vancouver, B. C. landing there July 20. They flew from Vancouver to Spokane the same day. Saturday they flew from Spokane to Minneapolis and yesterday completed their journey.

"Tired but happy" was the way Mears expressed his feelings as he stepped from the plane. He and Collyer were tanned from the sun and a bit splattered with oil from their engine, but otherwise appeared little the worse for their endurance-testing moon race.

Noble Ship Now Leaving for Norway

OSLO, Norway, July 23.—(P)—The Italian legation received a telegram today stating that the base ship Clitta di Milano had left Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, for Narvik, Norway, with the Italian survivors.

It is expected General Noble and the other rescued members of the Italia will proceed by rail through Sweden in a special Italian coach avoiding Stockholm. It is stated that no interviews whatever will be granted during the journey.

Moses Is Expecting Bitter Campaigning

NEW YORK, July 23.—(P)—Expecting the most hotly-contested presidential campaign since 1892, Senator Geo. H. Moses of New Hampshire, eastern director of the Republican campaign, was here today for a conference with national chairman Hubert Work and the national committeemen from the Eastern states.

"This campaign is going to be the most warmly contested of any since 1892," Senator Moses said. "The Democrats are going to have more money this year than they have had since 1892. But of the outcome there is no doubt, Hoover is bound to win."

Moses added that he was not worried over the presidential election but that he was "concerned" about the election of a senator from Massachusetts.

He expressed confidence that Hoover would carry New York state.

"Thousands of persons who have voted for Smith for governor," he said, "will not vote for him for president I have been told."

CARD OF THANKS

In this hour of sadness and bereavement our hearts go out in gratitude to the many kind friends who did what they could to lighten the load of sorrow brought us by the death of our beloved husband and father, Robert Kelly. These words of love and sympathy and their beautiful floral offerings will not soon be forgotten.

Mrs. Robert Kelly, Miss Mattie Sue Kelly, William Kelly.

Chosen from among 16 candidates representing Michigan cities, Miss Helen Boughey of Traverse City was crowned cherry queen by Governor Fred W. Green in the cherry festival at Traverse City. She is 19 and a University of Michigan co-ed.

SAYS ONLY HIS WIFE NOW INTERESTS HIM

NORRISTOWN, Pa., July 23.—(P)—Lindley M. Hussey, Philadelphia novelist, today asserted that no woman except his wife, Dr. Virginia Alvarez Hussey, held any interest for him and that when she regained her normal mind he fully expected to re-establish their home life.

As for Mrs. Grace Sauveur, with whom he was found by police in a bungalow near Sargeantsville, N. J., three days after Mrs. Hussey said she had shot them both to death, Hussey declared she was only a good friend.

Last Monday Mrs. Hussey swore out warrants against her husband and Mrs. Sauveur, charging non-support and both with a statutory offense. Four days later she started the police by turning over to them a loaded revolver and announcing excitedly that she had shot and killed her husband and the "other woman." Hussey and Mrs. Sauveur, wealthy divorcees, were found in the Jersey bungalow late Saturday night.

Hearing on Santa Fe-Orient Proposal Now Under Way

WASHINGTON, July 23.—(P)—Consideration of the proposed purchase of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad by the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe systems, was begun today at a joint hearing conducted by the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Texas Railroad Commission. Chairman Clarence Gilmore of the Texas commission sat with Examiner N. C. Davis, representing the federal agency as the evidence concerning the proposed transaction was taken.

The records relating to the Orient sale, incorporated in an option contract taken by the Santa Fe were preliminary to the calling of witnesses.

The New Orleans joint traffic bureau, intervened with a petition asking that the commission forbid the transaction on the ground that the sale of the Orient to the Santa Fe would result in a combination of lines of road which are now competing. The interests public demand that the Orient line retain its present independent status, the New Orleans petition said. Two other interventions presented in behalf of the Missouri Pacific and the Fort Worth and Denver lines did not ask that the sale be stopped but urged that the commission require the Orient to maintain the present joint routes for handling traffic. The intervening railroads also asked that the commission revise existing joint rate schedules in which the Orient participates with them, on the ground that during recent years the Orient has obtained preferential divisions of joint rates because of its difficult earning status.

All the interventions were taken into consideration and the case slowed to proceed.

FLYING TOWARD U. S. A.

HORTA, Island of Fayal, Azores, July 23.—(P)—The French seaplane in Fregate (the Frigate-bird) arrived here early today from Brest, France, completing the first leg of its trans-Atlantic flight to New York by way of the Azores and Bermuda.

With Naval Lieutenant Paulin Paris in command the plane came down on the unfringed surface of the harbor at 7:20 a. m. (2:20 a. m. Eastern Standard time.) It was a bright sunny morning and there was no wind.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones, Mrs. John Crudginton, and the latter's small son, Jonathan, of Amarillo are visiting friends and attending to business in Pampa today.

LOCALS

Henry V. Baechler is in the Pampa hospital suffering from injuries received in an automobile accident of late Saturday night while driving on the LeFors road near the Magnolia carbon plant. No one else was injured.

V. L. Veach of Dodd City, Texas is visiting his step-son, Geo. Shuffield of this city. Mr. Shuffield sprained his left wrist in extricating his car from the mud Saturday night while returning from Clarendon, where he had gone to meet Mr. Veach.

Weldon Jolly and Richard Cooke have accepted positions with the Central States Power and Light company. Jolly has been on the post office force for several months, and Cooke has been with the Adams hotel as a clerk.

Markets

CHICAGO, July 23.—(P)—Much lower Liverpool quotations than looked for led to fresh early set backs today in wheat values here. Opening 7-8 off, Chicago wheat later underwent a further drop. Corn and oats went down with wheat, corn starting 1-4 to 1 5-8 off, and afterwards continuing to sag. Provisions were irregular.

CHICAGO, July 23.—(P)—Prices today for every kind of grain smashed the season's low price record. Bread grains suffered the worst collapse, wheat in some cases showing nearly six cents a bushel loss since Saturday's finish. Ultra optimistic reports concerning the Canadian wheat crop outlook had much to do with forcing values downward.
