Strike Affects Western Union Operation Here

Western Union activities came to a halt in Big Spring today as a nation-wide strike was called.

Two operators and a lineman were out here, said Grady Downing, manager. There would be no activity until the matter is settled, he said.

He said he was using the time "to catch up on book work and some other matters that have piled up."

The station here could send messages within a small area, provided there were operators at the other points to receive. But any message that had to go through a relay point would be stymied there.

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A nation-wide strike hit Western Union's vast telegraph system today but federal mediators managed to stall telephone strikes in three states.

There was no connection between the two disputes—both involving wages.

Only Western Union's New York City and San Antonio, Tex., operations were not immediately affected by the walkout called by Adolph Brungs, president of the AFL Commercial Telegraphers Union.

New York City employees belong to another union. In San Antonio, strike action was postponed for 24 hours. Observers felt the delay might be linked to the fact the San Antonio area has heavy Army and Air Force installations.

Of the company's 42,000 employees in some 3,000 offices, about 31,000 are directly involved in the job walkout. Supervisory workers were still on the job.

Brungs said telegram service was "cut to a dribble" by the strike. In some cities, supervisors attempted to keep offices open and telegrams moving. They concentrated their efforts in 15 key relay points, technically called repeater centers, where long-distance telegrams are received from nearby points and then relayed straight through to the relay center nearest destination.

The company said in a statement the strike would stop operations "for a temporary period" in all but "private wire and telemeter service." The statement said its cables between New York and Europe would not be affected.

The union said pickets would be on constant duty at all major offices. Efforts were made to picket the New York City offices by closing streets and reporters his pickets "will do everything they can to discourage" the crossing of picket lines.

The telephone situation eased early this morning with a postponement until Monday of walkouts by 40,000 CIO communications workers in Michigan, Ohio and Northern California.

Union officials said they postponed the strike to give federal mediators more time to work out settlement terms between the union and three Bell Telephone companies.

Joseph A. Belme, president of the CIO Communications Workers of America, flew to Detroit early today to take charge of the negotiations. Michigan is considered the pattern-setter in the dispute.

Another 16,000 telephone workers—installation and sales department employees of Western Electric, part of the Bell system—have also scheduled a Monday walkout which would have nation-wide repercussions.

An estimated 300,000 CWA phone workers are in the middle of new contract talks. Contracts are expiring for all these workers between now and August.

Striking Western Union employees have no strike fund, Brungs said, but have been "preparing" for the walkout for weeks. Brungs would not guess how long the strike might last. He said it was the first full-scale telegraph strike since 1919.

Just before the strike got underway, Federal Mediator J. B. Man-

McGrath Fires Morris As Corruption Sleuth; No Word On HST Okay

Questionnaire Is Basis Of Dispute

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Attorney General J. Howard McGrath today fired Newbold Morris as the administration corruption sleuth.

The Attorney General made public a curt letter to the New York Republican notifying him of the immediate termination of his services.

McGrath personally handed copies of the letter to reporters at the Justice Department, but declined to answer any questions as to whether President Truman had formally approved the action.

The firing followed a series of McGrath-Truman talks yesterday—including an apparently heated argument at National Airport here while the two were waiting to greet Queen Juliana of the Netherlands.

There had been some speculation that McGrath himself might be let out in the row over a financial questionnaire Morris posed for government officials.

McGrath himself on Feb. 1 appointed the 50-year-old Morris, former president of the New York City Council, to ferret out corruption in the government.

Last Monday, however, McGrath told a House investigating committee he did not know whether he would fill out his own questionnaire, and had not ordered any one else in his department to do so.

He also said that if he had the appointment to make again he would not pick Morris.

Morris, who asked McGrath and nearly 500 other top Justice Department officials to fill out detailed questionnaires about their personal finances, has been standing by saying nothing.

McGrath was flushed and looked indignant during yesterday's exchange at the airport, and the President was smiling.

They stood some distance away from other waiting dignitaries and newsmen and their words could not be overheard.

Truman's press secretary Joseph Short, joined in the discussion, punctuating his words by slapping his fist against his palm. After about five minutes the President, his lips forming a thin, severe line, turned on his heel and joined another group.

McGrath and Short continued talking. By the time Queen Juliana's plane arrived things had cooled off and McGrath was the third dignitary presented to the Queen by the President.

Instead of accompanying the parade downtown, however, McGrath returned immediately to his office. He said later he had no comment.

Last night McGrath and his wife were among the guests at the President's state dinner in honor of the visiting Queen.

McGrath had spent 15 minutes with the President at the White House earlier in the day and when he left he told reporters: "Anything that is to be said about our discussion will be said by the President or his staff."

One guess being tossed around on what happened at the airport was that McGrath may have become annoyed when the afternoon passed without the President or his staff saying anything.

Thus far McGrath has not filled out Morris' questionnaire. Nor has he instructed any of his subordinates to do so. He told a House Judiciary subcommittee which is investigating his department that he has not decided whether he is going to fill it out.

No Organized Crime Tie-Up In North Texas

U. S. Jury Finds Unusual Number Of Tax Evaders

FORT WORTH, April 3 (AP)—A special Federal Grand Jury reported to Judge T. Whitfield Davidson today it had found no connection between local criminals and an organized syndicate in the 100-county northern district of Texas.

The jury reported it had found some dishonest practices on the part of a few law enforcing officials and an unusual number of tax evaders.

The group recommended summons of a special grand jury annually to look into crime conditions.

Particular attention was given by the McGrath "Crime and Corruption" grand jury as to whether there was an affiliation in the district between criminals and an organized or affiliated syndicate located elsewhere on a national basis.

Jurors did find evidence of recent Dallas infiltration from Chicago, Kansas City and other points.

Those elements have established legitimate business in Dallas such as beer taverns and lounges "with the intent of using such places of business as a front for criminal activities" it was declared.

Confidence was expressed that the Dallas police, rated by the jury as among the best in the nation, could cope with the situation and had "such characters under strict surveillance."

Gangster and racketeering elements to some extent are also investing in oil and gas properties, in large cities, with money received from crime to cover up and place it beyond identification, the jury noted.

Chief R. R. Howerton was complimented for his endeavors to create a special police department narcotics squad in Fort Worth.

The federal narcotics set-up of two agents located here and covering 24 counties was termed "woefully inadequate" and the jury recommended increased congressional appropriations to provide more agents.

The comprehensive report on crime and law enforcement conditions also found that:

Narcotics violations have not noticeably increased in the past year but neither have they decreased.

Recommended that the Texas Legislature pass the "Blue Grass" law. Its main provision is that judges call prohibit criminal sentences of addicts and keep them confined in a narcotics hospital for the period of their sentence in order that a cure may be effected.

Every police department in cities of the district (Fort Worth, Dallas, Abilene, Lubbock, San Angelo, Wichita Falls and Amarillo) is understaffed and underpaid.

It is believed monies spent in securing high class, honest, efficient police departments will pay off handsomely well spent and will pay off in big returns to the citizenship.

In regard to official misconduct "We find culpable officers constitute only a small percentage" and "Believe there has been a vast improvement in the situation within the past few months."

The local Lions Club's membership drew the role of the "Prisoners" in the concentration camp.

Ward Lowe, publisher of the weekly Lampasas Dispatch, swung into the tenor of the play with a sign on his door:

"The noble Aggressor has graciously permitted us to shorten our working day to 22 hours a day."

Ballew said he considered the maneuver play tremendously important to the student.

"I think it would take us about six months to teach out of text books the things they will learn about the loss of democracy tomorrow," he said.

NETHERLANDS TO SUPPORT U. S.

Juliana Urges Congress Not To Allow Well-Being To Suffer

By RUTH COWAN

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Queen Juliana of the Netherlands today urged congress not to imitate from certain countries which place so much emphasis on defense that economic, social and cultural well-being suffer.

She also said in a speech before a joint session of congress less than 24 hours after her arrival yesterday:

1. The United States can count upon Netherlands support in the present divided world.

2. Her country, with the help of America, is able to "stand more on our own feet" economically.

3. She expressed thanks for the aid given.

4. She said European unity is growing and that "Political integration" may come "perhaps eventually."

5. The world is split into two parts, the positive (Democracy) and negative (slavery), and the negative pole will "Have to yield" in time.

Major emphasis of the queen's address, which she delivered in English, was on technical assistance. She said her country was helping to the best of its ability by exporting skills and experts to less developed countries.

"It is my earnest hope that one memorable day the enormous increase of production now demanded by rearmament will be converted to meet the needs of these enormous development projects.

"The circle of countries around the North Atlantic ocean should avoid imitating the example set by the countries behind the Iron Curtain, which have focused their minds so much on their defense, that they forget to focus as much attention on their economic, social and cultural well-being. . . .

"If they do neglect these aspects, some day they might find themselves isolated around their ocean before, for instance, technical assistance could get underway properly, and link them with the world at large."

The speech was part of a fast-paced program that includes shaking thousands of hands at three receptions and donning a diamond tiara tonight for a formal dinner party.

The queen and her husband, Prince Bernhard, are the first guests in the newly rebuilt White House. The President and Mrs. Truman moved back in only last Thursday after having lived across Pennsylvania Avenue at Blair House for three years.

There was a last-minute rush to get the place ready for the royal visitors. A small but formal luncheon will be given in the redecorated state dining room, but the White House staff, which includes many newcomers, was not considered ready to tackle the rigors of a formal state dinner last night, so it was held at the Carlton Hotel.

About 50 guests were invited to the dinner, given by the President and Mrs. Truman. For this event opinion would be handed down later.

Justices Douglas and Jackson dissented from the decision and Justices Black and Frankfurter qualified themselves.

The court normally hands down its decisions only on Mondays except when a matter of unusual importance is involved or the time element dictates immediate action.

Alabama's election law requires the secretary of state, on or before April 16 must notify the judges of the 67 counties in the state of the qualified candidates of all parties, so that the judges may order the primary election ballots printed.

Today's ruling means that Blair's name will not be certified as a candidate.

Four years ago Alabama State's Rightists kept President Truman's name off the ballot. The state's 11 electoral votes went to the Thurmond-Wright ticket. Last January the Democratic "Loyalists" set up the pledge requirements for candidates for Democratic electors.

Thirteen Elector candidates, including Blair, have filed qualifying papers without signing the pledge. Also in the field for Presidential Electors are 12 Democratic "loyalist" candidates who did sign the pledge.

LAMPASAS, April 3 (AP)—A make believe war came vividly alive here today shortly after dawn.

With fixed bayonets, big, green-clad Aggressor troops secured this little Central Texas ranch town of 5,000 persons and a military government took over.

To test military government as a part of a military maneuver and to find just what it means to lose your liberties is the reason Lampasas is in the hands of a "totalitarian" enemy.

With a hearty okeh from city officials, civic leaders and the plain residents, Maj. Alton Shipstead of Wilonga, Minn., set a coldly realistic problem.

Court Says Elector Must Support Party

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—The Supreme Court today ruled that Presidential elector candidates can be required to pledge loyalty to their national party.

The vote was 5 to 2.

The decision was given on an appeal by the State Democratic Committee of Alabama—dominated by national party "Loyalists"—from a ruling by the Alabama Supreme Court.

The Alabama court said a Democratic candidate for Presidential elector could not be barred from the state's May 6 primary ballot because he refused to promise to cast his electoral vote for the presidential and vice-presidential nominees of the Democratic National Convention.

The candidate, Edmund Blair, an Alabama weekly newspaper publisher, said he would not vote for President Truman "or for anyone who advocates the Truman-Humphrey Civil Rights Program."

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) has been a leading proponent of the Truman Administration's program for anti-lynching and anti-poll tax laws and a compulsory Fair Employment Practice Commission.

The Alabama litigation developed weeks before President Truman's announcement last Saturday that he would not be a candidate for reelection.

Senate Returns Tides To States

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate yesterday approved the controversial tidelands bill giving states, instead of the federal government, clear title to oil-rich lands in their coastal areas.

The House has passed a somewhat similar bill, but the measure is still far from becoming law.

First, differences between the Senate and House bills must be ironed out. Lawmakers do not believe this will be difficult.

The finally approved bill then goes to President Truman, who vetoed a similar measure in 1949 and may veto the new one.

Following the 50-35 Senate rollback vote yesterday, senators expressed conflicting opinions whether the legislation could be passed by the required two-thirds majority over the anticipated veto.

The Senate measure gives the states outright ownership to the lands beneath the marginal seas for a distance of three miles out from their shores, except in the cases of Texas and Florida, where the distance is 10 1/2 miles because of conditions under which they were admitted as states.

The House bill not only gives the states title to the marginal belt, but provides also that the states should receive 37 1/2 per cent of all revenues from oil and gas developments in the Continental Shelf out beyond the state seaward boundaries.

The Supreme Court has ruled that the federal government has paramount rights to submerged coastal areas. However, if Congress passes a law saying the states own such areas, the court ruling would not apply.

Rep. Walter (D-Pa.), author of the House bill, said after yesterday's Senate vote he would agree to the Senate changes.

"I don't think there's much possibility the House Judiciary Committee can get to the Senate bill before next Tuesday," Walter said.

Before passing the bill the Senate tabled by a 47-36 vote what has been popularly known as the Hill "oil for education" amendment.

Sponsored by Sen. Hill (D-Ala.), the amendment would have given all federal revenues from offshore submerged lands to the states for educational purposes.

DIES IN HOSPITAL

Gunshot Wound Is Fatal To Woman

A gunshot wound proved fatal to Mrs. Lois Marie Childers, 27, who was found beside her car parked on the Snyder highway near the City cemetery Thursday afternoon.

Officers from the sheriff's department said they found a .30-caliber bullet in the car. Apparently the bullet had passed through Mrs. Childers' body, entering a little left of center at the breast.

Investigating officers said the woman was found crumpled over a Winchester rifle. There was one empty shell in the gun.

Mrs. Childers was rushed to a hospital after passersby found her beside the road and called ambulances and peace officers. She died approximately 40 minutes after arrival at the hospital.

A billfold containing papers was found in the car. Officers said they also found a note in the car, presumably intended for her husband. Mrs. Childers came to Big Spring in September, 1951, with her husband, Bob Childers, when they purchased the Wyoming Hotel at First and Scurry Streets.

The body was transferred Thursday night from the Nalley Funeral Home here to the Griffin Funeral Home in Hobbs, N. M. Funeral rites have been set for 2 p.m. Friday in Hobbs.

Mrs. Childers is survived by her husband, Bob Childers; her father, J. B. Ramsey, Odessa; a brother, Frank Ramsey, Hobbs; two sisters, Patsy Ruth Speri, Midland and Maxine Kennick, Eunice, N. M.; a step-sister, Mrs. O. B. Watts, Odessa; a half-sister, Glenda Ramsey, Odessa.

One guess being tossed around on what happened at the airport was that McGrath may have become annoyed when the afternoon passed without the President or his staff saying anything.

Thus far McGrath has not filled out Morris' questionnaire. Nor has he instructed any of his subordinates to do so. He told a House Judiciary subcommittee which is investigating his department that he has not decided whether he is going to fill it out.

First Arrest Is Made Under New Bracero Measure

EL PASO, April 3 (AP)—The first arrest, has been made under the new Bracero Law signed March 20 by President Truman.

Adolfo Aguilar, 20, Chihuahua, Mexico, a truck laborer for the Texas & Pacific Railroad at Big Spring, was arrested yesterday and accused of bringing two other aliens into the U. S.

Joseph Minton, district director for the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, said he believed the prosecution is the first on either border under the new law.

It makes transportation of illegal immigrant workers across the border a felony punishable by a fine up to $2,000 and five years imprisonment.

APRIL TOLL SOARS

40 MIGs Downed In 3-Day Period

SEOUL, Korea, April 3 (AP)—American Sabre pilots destroyed or damaged eight Communist jets today running their box score to 40 for the first three days of April.

Today's toll was taken in three battles over Northwest Korea, including history's longest jet fight. It lasted 45 minutes. Eighteen F-86 Sabre jets tangled with 60 Russian type jets in that battle, fought as the sun was setting.

A new jet ace, America's ninth, came out of today's actions. He is Capt. Robert H. Moore of Houston, Tex. He shot down his fifth MIG-15 on his 26th flight over Korea.

The seldom-seen "Type 15" Communist jet showed up in "MIG Alley" Thursday. The U. S. Fifth Air Force said one was probably destroyed and another damaged.

The high-winged "Type 15s" were flying with the faster, low-wing MIG-15s. American air officers said the "Type 15s" apparently were designed as fighter-bombers rather than interceptors.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, top U. N. commander, spent two hours watching the Sabres and Australian Meteor jets taking off from their Korean bases. As the last of the jets sped northward, he remarked:

"That was really something." "The two greatest qualities in a military organization are confidence and enthusiasm," Ridgway said, "and both are certainly manifest here."

Ground action Wednesday was highlighted by a heavy Communist artillery barrage, mostly on the Western Front. An Eighth Army briefing officer said the Reds fired 4,693 rounds.

The Reds probed lightly at six points.

In Washington, the Defense Department said American battle casualties had reached 176,936, an increase of 182 in the last week. The increased included 63 killed.

RECORD NUMBER OF TEXANS TO VOTE Shivers And Daniel Gratified By Tides Victory In Senate

AP Special Washington, April 3.—A state-ownership landslide victory in the U. S. Senate, straw presidential preference polls in Texas, and comment from leaders were considered by more than two million qualified voters—a record number—in Texas today.

Supporters of Senator Robert Taft (R-Ohio) pointed to their candidate's victories in Nebraska and Wisconsin primaries, while Eisenhower backers shouted over the general's popularity as expressed in Texas municipal polls.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert announced in Austin that a record-breaking 2,337,618 Texans had qualified to vote in the 1952 elections.

Governor Allan Shivers and Attorney General Price Daniel expressed gratification that the Senate voted, 50-34, to give the states clear title to the oil-rich tidelands.

Said the Governor: "I'm very, very gratified I appreciate the fine work done by the Texas delegation in Congress and all others who have worked for it."

Daniel, a candidate for U. S. Senate opposing the re-election of Senator Tom Connally, urged an immediate rallying of strength to override a presidential veto, if necessary. He said such an override was possible because eight of the states' strongest supporters were absent from the Senate yesterday when the vote was taken.

Also in voting was Senator Robert Kerr (D-Okla.) who is reported strongly in favor of the measure.

Attorney General Daniel recently accused Senator Connally of making politics over the tidelands measure. Connally replied others might use the tidelands issue as a political device but that he, as far back as 1939, had been fighting for state ownership.

Oilmen generally were not excited over the Senate action. They figure it was too early to celebrate. A presidential veto seemed imminent.

Comptroller Calvert in announcing the record number of qualified voters said 2,337,618 paid poll taxes. Another 26,534 had poll tax exemptions. Exemptions are issued persons 21 years old and voting for the first time and persons 60 years old and over.

Calvert's figures were based on reports from county tax collectors. Supplemental reports may alter the figures slightly, he said, but no substantial change is expected. The comptroller called attention to a change in law which permits persons reaching the age of 21 since Jan. 1, 1951 to get their exemptions 30 days before an election held in 1952. It may swell the voting lists still more, Calvert said. Texas Republicans had varied

England Has A School For The Lazy Man

LONDON (AP)—A Government School for Lazy Men—it teaches Britain's habitual unemployed how to work and like it—set the House of Commons wondering today.

Gerald Nabarro, a manufacturer and Conservative member of the House, asked the government to explain what it's all about. He called for a report to the House next Monday.

The school is situated in the pleasant hills of Worcestershire. Its head man is a Scotsman, Hamilton Douglas, who told newsmen the nine-month-old project is designed to prod lazy men off relief.

Douglas explained the men all volunteered—after their local relief boards suggested they'd better learn to work or face prosecution.

"We have 20 at the moment—all volunteers—who for various reasons have been out of work so long they've lost the desire to start again," Douglas said. "It's our job to give them back that desire."

He said the school has been getting good results through constant, but subtle, prodding. But it doesn't plunge the lazy deep into work all at once. They learn in easy stages—first in the school grounds around the school, then gardening, and finally a job in a nearby factory.

HOUSTON, April 3 (AP)—The mother of America's ninth jet ace, Mrs. Charles Moore, says she supposes "he likes to think he's having fun now."

Over A Million New Men Must Don Uniforms

WASHINGTON (U)—Manpower officials say an increase of 110,000 men in the armed forces during the fiscal year starting July 1 means about 1,200,000 new men must don uniforms.

Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, defense manpower boss, told the House Appropriations Committee in testimony made public yesterday that the large majority of new recruits will merely replace those relieved from active duty.

"We are in effect running a revolving door," she said. "This is expensive and takes a great deal more manpower."

Of the 1,200,000 new men, all but 110,000 will replace 850,000 inducted and enlisted men whose terms are about to expire, and 230,000 reservists and National Guard personnel soon to be released.

The increase of 110,000 will build up the military forces to 3,700,000, Mrs. Rosenberg said in testimony supporting the 1953 defense budget.

Two States Restore Lost Taft Prestige

OMAHA (U)—They were still counting votes today in the Nebraska primary election but the prestige at stake in the Republican presidential battle and apparently the lion's share of the delegates had been bagged by Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio.

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee gained stature in the Democratic presidential popularity contest. But he wasn't likely to fare as well as his opponent, Sen. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, in a national convention delegates.

Delegates were elected independently and go to the conventions unpledged.

Of 18 Republican delegates, Taft apparently had 15, part of them on the basis of pre-election commitments. Others had agreed to abide by the primary results.

Only one was committed to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who mauled Taft in New Hampshire and Minnesota but took a solid beating at the hands of the Ohion in Tuesday's Nebraska primary.

Taft's victory over the general in Nebraska and his success in the Wisconsin primary the same day restored lost prestige to the senator in the Republican presidential scramble.

The delegate lineup on the Democratic side looked like four for Kefauver and five for Kerr. Of a total of 12, two were uncommitted and one was for Sen. Russell of Georgia.

The count of votes from 1,893 precincts of 2,058 gave Taft a 67,642 to 53,877 advantage over his write-in rival, Harold Stassen, former Minnesota governor, ran third with 46,112. His name was on the ballot. Mrs. Mary Kenny, favorite daughter candidate backing Gen. Douglas MacArthur, MacArthur himself and Gov. Earl Warren of California ran far back of the leaders. MacArthur and Warren were write-ins.

Taft, on the basis of the still incomplete returns, had swept 49 of Nebraska's 93 counties. His haul included industrial Douglas County (Omaha), which he took from Eisenhower by a 3-1 margin.

Eisenhower took only 19 counties, two less than Stassen.

Eisenhower won Lancaster County (Lincoln), second most populous in the state, by the same margin Taft took Douglas. The rest of his strength came mostly from the Western end of the state.

Kefauver's vote margin over Kerr with 1,836 precincts in was 54,457 to 36,104. President Truman, Sen. Douglas of Illinois, Sen. Russell of Georgia and Gov. Stevenson of Illinois each received less than 1,000 write-in votes.

The Tennessee senator's county margin over Kerr was heavier, 61 to 32. Kerr dominated mostly in Eastern Nebraska, where he had made an early and extensive stump tour.

Taft Has 19 Of 20 Tenn. Votes

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (U)—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio can count on 19 of Tennessee's 20 delegates to the Republican National Convention.

The Tennessee GOP Convention yesterday named four more Taft delegates to bring his total to 19. The Ohio senator in this state to 19. The twelfth delegates will be named when the Eighth Congressional District Convention is held May 2.

Included in the at-large delegates named yesterday was State Chairman Guy L. Smith, editor of the Knoxville Journal.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the convention keynoteer, declared that he was "heart and soul for Bob Taft. He's got what it takes."

He added that the country "is to be congratulated" by President Truman's decision not to seek reelection.

N. Y. Times Proves Germ Report False

NEW YORK (U)—The New York Times today published what it called conclusive evidence of the safety of Communist propaganda that the United States is waging germ warfare in North Korea and China.

The evidence consisted of statements by American experts on pictures which the Chinese Reds originally printed in the Peiping People's Daily March 15 as proof of the charges against the U.S.

These American experts said the pictures, identified in the Chinese captions as those of deadly bugs dropped by U.S. invaders, were actually photos of harmless insects incapable of carrying disease, the Times said.

The U.S. Army, furthermore, identified a bomb which the Chinese claimed was a germ carrier as an M162 used for spreading biological warfare agents, the Times said.

The newspaper devoted a column on Page 1 plus six more inside to the story, including reproduction of nine pictures from the Peiping paper.

The Times said experts consulted about the pictures were Dr. C. H. Curran, chief curator of insects and spiders at the American Museum of Natural History; Dr. Rene Dubos, bacteriologist of the Rockefeller Institute, and Army spokesmen.

The Chinese labeled one picture "poisonous insects which could fly, crawl and swim dropped on Chinese territory by U.S. invaders."

Dr. Curran said the picture actually shows several stone flies in a petri dish, a glass commonly used in laboratories.

"These perfectly harmless creatures are often found in large numbers within varying distances from water, in which the larvae live. Their flight is slow and because they are poor fliers they would be extremely poor at disseminating disease even if they could be inoculated."

Turbulent Weather Moving Over North Part Of State

By The Associated Press

Turbulent weather moved across the northern portions of Texas today.

Thunderstorms occurred during the night from the South Plains eastward to the Fort Worth-Dallas area.

A U. S. Weather Bureau official said the rough weather results from a low pressure system now moving into the Texas Panhandle—and, to use his words, "...is going to stir up things pretty good."

The low pressure system is bringing in some cooler air, he said, with thundershowers forming ahead of the front.

Showers of varying intensity were reported in the South Plains, Wichita Falls, Mineral Wells and northwest of Fort Worth.

Big Spring, Lubbock and Childress reported lightning and thunder in the distance before dawn today.

Increasing cloudiness was the prospect for tomorrow in Texas.

Spring Floods Hit Hard In A Six-State Area

By The Associated Press

Hundreds of persons in river communities in six Midwest and Western states were made homeless today by spring floods.

The most serious flood appeared in Havre, Mont., where the Milk River spilled over its banks and forced some 1,200 persons in the city of 8,000 population to leave their homes. Martial law was declared in the northern part of the city to protect homes and business houses from looting. Damage already has been estimated at more than $300,000.

About 10 residential blocks were flooded in Pierre, S. D., as the Missouri River climbed a half foot above flood stage. Small sections of nearby Ft. Pierre also were flooded by the Missouri and its tributary, Bad River.

The Missouri was overflowing in parts of North Dakota, including portions of the Buford-Trenton irrigation project near Williston.

Floods also have hit parts of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa, but no serious damage was reported.

Cooler weather was reported over most of the flooded area, with below freezing in most of the Western Plains states. It was cooler too in parts of New England, the Middle and South Atlantic states and the Ohio Valley. Mild weather continued along the Gulf Coast and Texas and Oklahoma westward to the Pacific Coast.

Snow flurries fell over most of the Great Lakes region and in the Upper Mississippi Valley early today. Rain and snow flurries were reported in the Northeastern states with snow in parts of Maine. Showers and thundershowers hit the Central Plains states and showers were reported in Montana.

BOCA RATON, Fla. (U)—Ninety per cent of bladder cancer can be cured if treated within two weeks of the first hemorrhage, Dr. Elmer Hess of Erie, Pa., said here today.

He told the southeastern section of the American Urological Association that if treatment is delayed until after the second hemorrhage, only 45 per cent can be cured, and that after the third hemorrhage none can be cured.

Myth That Big Oil Companies Are Behind Tideland Move Refuted

The myth that the "big oil companies" are behind the move to give the states clear title to the tidelands has been exploded. The clear logic of the situation was enough to dispell this notion, for it was the federal government which had made the grab, not the states.

Everybody Opines About Harry; We Consider His Service, Too

Now is the time for everyone and his brother to say what they have to say about Harry Truman's revelation he ain't a-gonna run again. Drawings which Leonardo made of possible flying machines have come down to us. His first thought seems to have been to make wings of cloth and wood, and to cover them with feathers. Later he decided that his machine might fly without feathers.

Not having any power in the form of a motor, he decided to use muscle power. He believed the muscles of a man's arms and legs might be strong enough to lift him into the air. It is a question whether Leonardo ever tested his airplane. One legend says that he did make a test after he was past the age of 50 years. If that happened, the best we can say is that he lived to perform other kinds of work.

Huge Field Entered In Texas Relays

Several Marks Are Threatened

AUSTIN, April 3 (U)—The greatest galaxy of dash stars ever assembled in Texas Relays history will be on hand this week end when the silver anniversary of the huge track carnival gets underway.

A collection of sprint aces without precedent will try to wipe out relay records in the 440-yard relay, 880-yard relay, and 100-yard dash.

With their metric sophomores Dean Smith and Charley Thomas leading them, the host University of Texas appears to be the class of the university division in the sprints. Smith has hung up winning times of 9.5 and 9.8 in his only two races this year and won the 100 meter crown at the Sugar Bowl invitational with a blazing 10.2, tying the Olympic record.

Thomas chased Smith home, one-tenth of a second later in both of his teammate's century victories and has notched a pair of victories himself. Undeclared this year in the 230, Thomas won the 100 at the West Texas Relays in 9.6 last week.

He is a top favorite in the relays 200 meters.

Complementing Smith and Thomas on the relay teams, Coach Clyde Littlefield has Co-Captain Carl Meyers and Jim Brownhill, another sophomore. The team was clocked in 41.4 in the 400 meter relay at New Orleans and in the 440 relay in a triangular meet at Houston.

Mays was on the foursome which set the Southwest Conference record of 41.1 in 1950.

On hand to try to keep Texas from being a bad host's defending champion Hayden Fields of Howard Payne. Fields gave notice that he will be a formidable opponent with a 9.7 winning time in the college division of the West Texas Relays.

Little All-America footballer Ray Renfro of North Texas State, who has beaten Fields twice this year and has been timed in 9.5 on one occasion, is another threat along with Kansas' Thane Baker.

Oklahoma is expected to provide Texas most of its opposition in the 440 and 880 relays. The Sooners won both titles last year.

Oklahoma A&M, Houston, Baylor, SMU and Texas A&M are other strong possibilities in the university class sprint relays.

Richbourg Leads Bat-Boy Contest
Ben Henry Grady Richbourg is leading early returns in the election to decide the Big Spring bat-boy for the 1952 season. Lewis Porter is second.

Six lads are entered in the contest, which closes April 10. Voters need only fill out ballots printed on the sports page of The Daily Herald and forward them to the Sports Desk not later than midnight April 10.

Other entries in the contest are George Peacock, Charles Saunders, Kilsay Meek and Ladell Howell. Each person is allowed only one vote. However, the entries can solicit support, gather the ballots and forward them to the Herald, if they wish.

Longhorn Umpire Ready For Work
If the area needs another har-binger to remind it that spring and baseball season are near, another Longhorn League umpire arrived in town.

Sample worked in the KOM League last season and was purchased on the personal recommendation of Lefty John Craig, who scouted him.

Odessa Bronchos Heavily Favored In Track Meet
Odessa's Bronchos are favored to dominate the District 2-AA Track and Field Meet, which takes place in Odessa Saturday.

Big Spring will enter a full team in the carnival and should be a contender for second place. Lubbock, Midland and Lamesa will also have teams in the show.

Joe Childress and Weldon Holley will lead Odessa into action.

Top Big Spring contenders include Carl Preston, who had the best time at his specialty, the 880, in the sprint medley race in the West Texas Relays last week. Bobby Hayes, Ben Hill, Dick Prahm, Bobby Porter, Jimmy Montgomery and Rex Bishop are others to figure to score for the Steers.

Midland's Robert Kelsing will be a factor in the hurdles. His teammate, Roy Kimsey, should win the quarter mile run.

Odessa is favored to win the hurdles, 880, mile and sprint relay, pole vault, shot put, discus,

IRVIN INJURED

Top Clubs Hurt By Marine Calls

By RALPH RODEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The 1952 World Series opponents may have been determined on April 2—two weeks before the official opening of the season.

Three teams, the New York Giants, Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees received severe jolts in their pennant ambitions yesterday while the hopes of a fourth, the Philadelphia Phillies, were boosted.

Here's what happened:

1. Monte Irvin, left fielder of the Yankees, broke his right ankle in an exhibition game against Cleveland at Denver, Colo. Irvin will miss at least half of the campaign and possibly the entire season.

2. Ted Williams, star slugger and leftfielder for the Red Sox, passed his physical examination at Jacksonville, Fla., and will report for active duty with the Marine Air Corps on May 2.

3. Jerry Coleman, infielder of the Yankees, also passed his physical examination at Jacksonville, Fla., and will return to duty with the Marine Air Corps also on May 2.

4. Curt Simmons, crack left-handed pitcher of the Phillies, will be discharged as a sergeant of the 28th Infantry Division. He will return to the United States from Germany within 10 days.

The recall of Williams and Coleman to the colors was expected because of the loss of Irvin came as a shock and cast a pall of gloom over the Giant camp.

Irvin was injured in the second inning of a game Cleveland won, 5-0. He walked to lead off the frame and slipped around second as Army-bound Willie Mays singled to right field.

Cleveland shortstop Ray Boone cut off the throw from the outfield and hung Mays up between first and second but Irvin slid into third anyway. He suffered a compound fracture of his right ankle.

Irvin's loss probably means that Bob Thomson will forsake third base for his first love, the outfield. Hank Thompson, a disappointment last year, figures to return to third. The situation is further complicated by the expected induction of Mays.

Williams, highest salaried player in the game, and Coleman will also miss the 1952 season. They are in broad jump and high jump, as well as the 100.

Athletes finishing 1-93 in the meet will become eligible to compete in the regional meet two weeks hence.

Finals in the Odessa meet get underway at 1 p. m. The preliminaries go on at 9:30 a. m.

Hensley New Pro At Lamesa Club

LAMESA — Hank Hensley, assistant pro at the Lubbock Country Club, has accepted a position as golf pro at the Lamesa Country Club.

He succeeds Dick Julech, who recently resigned to join his father at Enid, Okla.

Hensley, 23, is a native of San Angelo.

for 17 months. For Williams, this probably means the end of his brilliant career. He will be 35 when his second tour of duty is completed.

Red Sox Manager Lou Boudreau indicated in Houston, Tex., that Don Lenhardt and Clyde Vollmer would probably alternate the left field job. Another candidate is rookie Gene Stephens.

Gil McDougald will probably take over second base for the Yanks instead of switching between second and third. Rookie Andy Carey apparently will man third.

The return of Simmons greatly enhances the stock of the Philadelphia Senators. Simmons is in shape and should be ready to pitch shortly after the bell rings. In Simmons and Robin Roberts the Phils have two potential 20-game winners.

In exhibition games yesterday the Cincinnati Reds nosed out the Washington Senators, 4-3, Brooklyn trounced the Yanks, 11-1, the Phils defeated the Boston Braves, 3-1, and the Pittsburgh Pirates turned back the St. Louis Browns, 5-2.

Augusta Field May Be Best

By STERLING SLAPPEY

AUGUSTA, Ga. (U)—The flower-fringed Augusta National Golf Course waited like a tremendous and treacherous but deceptively beautiful trap in the East Georgia hills today for the opening round of the Masters Tournament.

The field of 72 is the largest and probably the best on record here, but few expect more than three or four players to beat the National Course's 72-hole par of 288.

There is deception about this 18-link chain of holes. Flowers and shrubs planted here a century ago, when the land was a nursery, border the fairways and make the tailored landscape look soft and easy for a game of golf.

But the National isn't easy. Last year when Ben Hogan finally won his first Masters with 280 golf, only four men were better than the 288 standard — Hogan, Skee Riegel, Lloyd Mangrum and Lew Worsham. The year before only three broke par.

Eighteen amateurs are among the 72 taking their trip today across the 6,950-yard layout. No amateur ever won this event, but, this year the amateurs are supposed to rate better than usual.

With the improved amateurs is a vastly improved group of foreign-born players. And, of course, there is the troupe of touring professionals. All Masters winners are back except Herman Keiser and Ralph Guldahl.

Aggies Defeated By Baylor Bears

COLLEGE STATION, April 3 (U)—Baylor's Bears used a 16-hit attack on three Texas A&M mounds-men yesterday to take a 12-9 Southwest Conference baseball victory.

Ten of the Bear runs came in the first five innings as starter Lou Little lost his first game of the season for the Farmers.

Mickey Sullivan and Jerry Coody led the Baylor batsmen with four and three hits, respectively, in six times at the plate.

There were seven double plays in the game, three by Baylor and four by the Aggies.

Saigh Is Sure He Hired The Right Skipper

By JOE REICHLER

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3 (U)—"The more I see of the little guy, the fonder I become of him. He's done a fine job for us. I can't praise him too highly. It's remarkable the way all the boys have taken to him and willingly work their heads off for him."

The speaker was Fred Saigh, president of the St. Louis Cardinals. The "Little Guy" he was talking about was Eddie Stanky, the effervescent ex-Giant who has taken over the Redbirds' reins, succeeding Marty Marion.

Stanky, who was impressed by the businesslike way he has run the club, has a real chance to be a first year wonder. The Cardinals appear to be definitely improved over the team that finished third, 15½ games behind the pennant-winning Giants. Most of the improvement stems from Eddie's inspiring leadership, his flaming spirit and his contagious bustle.

Those were the same ingredients that made him a vital cog in the pennant-winning Brooklyn, Boston and New York machines during the last five years.

The Cards aren't a set club by any means. Several problems still confront Stanky, but the little skipper, who tells you frankly he "is still trying to make the team," is optimistic about his club.

"I like the club very much," he tells you. "I figure the Cardinals a strong pennant contender that could possibly go all the way."

Stanky likes his pitching. It was in this spot that he was most afraid. Eddie sums it up this way: "I'm more optimistic about the pitching staff now than I was the first day in camp."

Heading the staff are righthander Gerry Staley (19-13) and southpaw Cliff Chambers (14-12). Each has looked sharp this spring. Righthander Joe Brooks (7-4) and Willard Schmidt (19-14 at Omaha) and southpaw Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell (16-14 at Houston) round out the starting five.

Stanky's biggest problem is first base. He is giving big Steve Bilko, the 237-pound strong boy from Rochester a good, long look. If the 23-year-old giant can make it, the Cards will have a long ball, right-hand hitting slugger to team up well with left-handers Stan Musial and Enos Slaughter.

If Bilko fails, either Red Schoendienst or Musial will play first. Schoendienst had divided most of his time this spring between second base and shortstop, but it looks like Stanky will open at second and Solly Hemus at short. Billy Johnson, the solid man with the rifle-like arm, makes the Redbirds definitely stronger at third.

This doesn't seem to leave room for Schoendienst but Stanky dispels that thought with the statement: "I don't know where he'll play but Schoendienst definitely will be in the opening day lineup."

Unless Musial is moved to first, the outfield will consist of the league's top hitter in left, Wally Westlake in center and Slaughter in right. Peanuts Lowrey, Hal Rice and Rookie Herb Gorman are the reserves.

Del Rice heads the catching department. He will be backed up by Les Fusselman, and either Bill Sarni or John Buchs.

Lamesans' Lineup For Big Spring Game Is About Set

It's probably later than you think.

The Big Spring Brones are due in here from Cuba this week end. They play their first exhibition game here next Tuesday. As a result they open their Longhorn League campaign in a little more than two weeks.

Lamesa comes in here Tuesday night for a practice go. Led by Jay Haney, the Lobos are set to make quite a splash in the WT-NM League this year. Apparently, they have the necessary equipment to make a bid for first place.

Haney has just about selected his starting lineup to face Big Spring.

Luis A. Morales will be at first base for the Lobos. He's a rookie out of Puerto Rico. Either Bob Harvick, who tried out here a couple of years ago, or Glenn Pine will be at second, Jackie Wilcox at shortstop; Bob Falk at third, Yogi Marti behind the plate and John Feizer, Don Stokes and Joe Fortin in the outfield.

Falk, Wilcox, Feizer, Stokes and Fortin are all veterans in the baseball sense of the word.

For pitching chores, Haney will choose from Ted Wyberanec, Juan Navarro, Jack Gaines, Ralph Carver, Lee Gatewood, John Ray Harrison, and Hermie Reyes.

Wilcox, a former Roswell infielder, was with Lubbock last season and was obtained in a trade for Jess Jacinto.

Little League Players Meet

Youngsters eligible for play in Little League baseball are due to gather with sponsors and managers at the City Memorial Park, west of Steer Park, at 4:30 p. m. today to discuss plans for the circuit's operation this year.

At least four and perhaps five teams will be entered in the league. The Eagles Club offered to sponsor a team Wednesday. Previously, Dr. M. H. Bennett, Hasek Wright, Cooper Refinery and Obie Bristow had been lined up as sponsors.

It is probable all league games will be played in the Memorial Park, though no diamond has yet been laid out there. It can be converted easily and boasts a natural backdrop. Fact is, a fence built to little league dimensions could be thrown up there, with a minimum of difficulty and expense.

Distance between bases in Little League ball runs 60 feet, measured from the point of home plate to the far side of the base. Distance between home plate and the near side of the pitcher's mound is 44 feet. The outfield fence, if there is one, extends no less than 180 feet from home plate down the foul lines.

Players are selected through an auction system after names of all athletes are placed in a pool. Each manager is allowed 36,000 credits for the purchase of players. Each team is allowed 15 players, of which 12 will be suited out.

Boys who have not attained the age of 13 prior to Aug. 1 are eligible to play.

Kennedy Signed By Lamesa Team

LAMESA — The Lamesa Lobos have obtained Forrest E. Kennedy, a 24-year-old outfielder, from the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association.

Three years ago Kennedy hit 429 while playing in the Class C Sunset League. In 1949, Kennedy was with Pensacola of the Class B Southeastern League, where he hit .411. Last year, he hit .370 for Miami of the Florida-International League, a B league.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

During last winter's Longhorn League business meetings, the majority of the directors, prodded by their managers, struck a blue note. Their lament was that the number of classmen permitted each team should be upped because the rookie had, like the dodo, become a rare bird, a very rare bird, indeed.

That line of reasoning became so sensible, so realistic to them that the bosses, on a second ballot (after Big Spring's Pat Stasey had dissented on the first), voted to permit each team to carry six veterans, an increase of one.

So what happens? The chant from all the camps, without a dissent note, is that the rookie crop this year is the best in history, so good, in fact, that some of the grey-beards may be on the outside looking in when the teams break the barrier April 21.

Where did they have been around all the time. The clubs simply made the truth, they have been around ever before to seek them out.

Actually, most of the clubs are hurting for limited-service players, those who have had at least one season but no more than two years' experience on professional diamonds.

The limited-service player is a rare item because so many lads decide to retire from the game if they have progressed no further than Class C ball in two or three years' time. They figure they're spinning their wheels, as the saying goes. Baseball is fun and all that, but life in the smaller minors is not exactly recommended as a vocation for life.

SANCHEZ MAY MAKE THE GRADE WITH SENS
Raul Sanchez, the ex-Big Spring, continues to rate rave press notices for his work with the Washington Senators.

Not long ago, Raul — a thermometer-thin hurler who doesn't look strong enough to mount some of the pitching knobs in the major leagues — stood the Boston Red Sox on their ears with a three-inning mound stint. Only one player reached first base on him, and that occurred when a teammate never could find a handle on the ball.

His next time out, Sanchez followed Sid Hudson to the hill in a game against Brooklyn. If Sid was good, Raul was better. In four innings, he surrendered only two hits and a run. The Bums pushed a tally across on a one-baser and two outs.

Raul struck out none but surrendered no passes.

Shirley Povich, the Washington scribe, wrote in a recent article that Sanchez is making Manager Bucky Harris blink in delighted wonderment.

"Sanchez came to camp unheralded," Povich went on, "and tabbed as merely another of Joe Cambria's Havana horde, with nobody in command willing to believe Cambria's claims the kid could pitch well enough to rise above the Chattanooga farm team."

"Harris didn't pick any soft spots for Sanchez. He showed him at the Red Sox and watched the frail right-hander yield only one hit in three innings, and that a blooper. Then against the Dodgers, he pitched four innings and gave up two hits, both of the infield variety."

"But what the Senators' command likes even better than the fact ball he was buzzing at the hitters was his amazing control. He gave the impression he could lean back all day and throw whatever he likes across the plate."

"What the young man has going for him, besides the things he can do with his fast ball, is the fact that the Washington club which plans to carry ten players, no fewer than seven pitching spots are wide open. Harris expects Sanchez to move in on one of the places."

Cousin Bottle Baby But He's Growing Up

By JOHN CHANDLER

NEW YORK (U)—They were lining up the field in the starting gate for the $62,000 Hopeful Stakes at historic old Saratoga last fall, when Cousin suddenly reared and dumped his jockey into the dirt.

Backers of Alfred G. Vanderbilt's handsome—but temperamental—bay colt moaned with visions of fleeting wagers. But Eric Guerin remounted, let Cousin know who was boss and the 2-year-old colt scampered over the wet track to hand a stunning defeat to the Greentree Stable's Tom Fool, later voted the 1951 juvenile champion.

Cousin was a "bottle baby," his dam, My Auntie, having died shortly after he was foaled in Kentucky March 1, 1949.

"I guess he was spoiled a bit, just like a child, because he became quite a pet around the farm after that," said Bill Wintrey, the young Vanderbilt trainer who saddled his first winner at the tender age of 16.

"They had to feed him with a bottle for some time before they could find another mare who would take him."

The Hopeful Stakes was a $51,700 raffle for Cousin, purchased for $20,000 from the Coldstream stud at the 1950 Keeneland summer sales. Last year Cousin started 10 times, won six races and had one second to add $94,400 to the Vanderbilt coffers.

The colt hasn't started this year, but Wintrey expects to send him out for his 3-year-old debut in a six-furlong condition race at Jamaica next Monday.

"He's a better acting colt this year, but he's never going to be too easy to handle," said Wintrey, whose major aim is the $100,000 Kentucky Derby at Louisville May 3.

His major Eastern objective is the $50,000-added Wood Memorial at Jamaica April 19.

Cousin, a half brother to the stakes winners The Duke, John's Joy and Carolina Queen, is from the first crop of the imported French Stallion, Prisms II.

"As for the derby, it's just a question whether he's good enough and can run far enough," Wintrey declared.

DESIGNING WOMAN Dining Table Need Not Monopolize Floor Space

By ELIZABETH HILLIER The time-honored way to arrange a dining room is to stake out the table in the middle of the floor, draw a few chairs up to it and line up the rest of the furniture against the walls. This was the best plan when both families and dining rooms were large, but now that fewer people sit down to meals together and dining rooms are smaller, a centered dining table needn't monopolize the floor. Pamela Staton, in this room design for the new Maryland Maple, uses a large table so many can be served on special occasions but makes sure the table doesn't gobble up floor space at any other time. With both leaves down, the table nestles against the wall. One leaf pulls up easily at mealtimes to serve three. Although the room is narrow, three pieces of storage furniture do not crowd it. Note the unusual ideas that give style to the room—the arrangement of framed medallions with the lamp, the black wire chandelier, the use of two chair designs in light and dark woods. The black chair is an adaptation of a famous antique design of the Cumberland Valley. Murph Thorpe knows paint. (Adv.)

B. S. Lumber Co. Maintains Fine Supply Stores

A building supply company with a forward look and a progressive spirit is the Big Spring Lumber Company, 1110 Gregg.

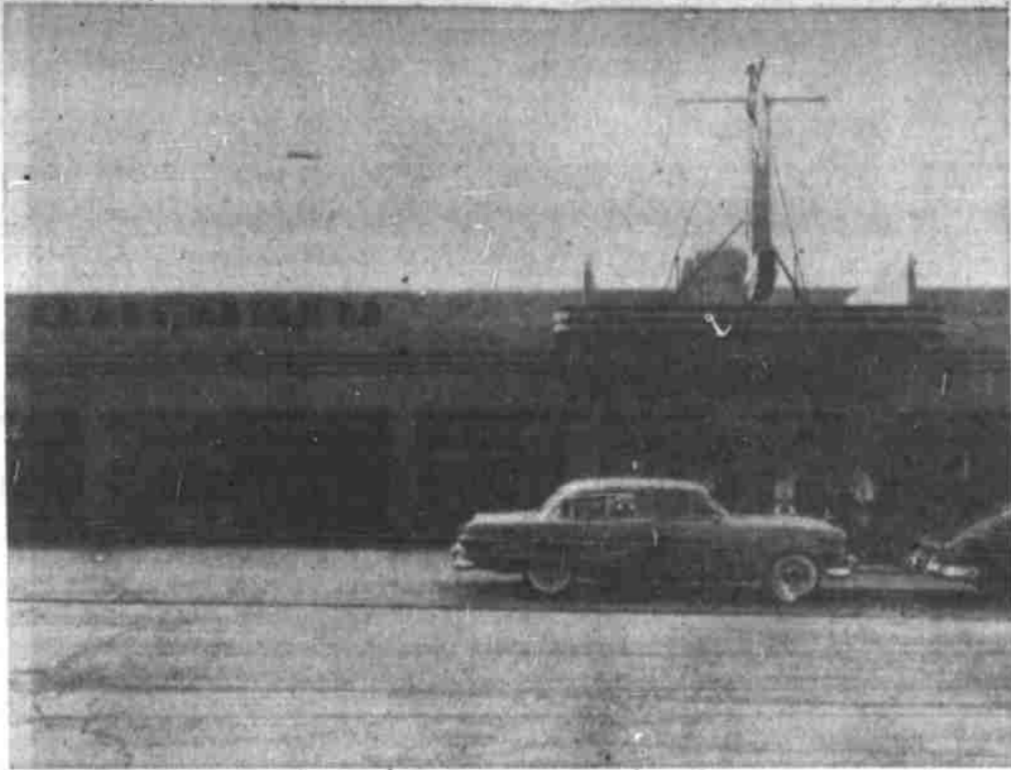

Its record of furnishing supplies for residences in Big Spring is remarkable. Within the past few years, a good percentage of the new homes built here have drawn upon Big Spring Lumber Company either for the basic materials or the fundamental equipment.

Of course, the concern carries a complete stock of lumber and building materials. These are stocked with an eye for quality and yet with consideration to the consumer.

In addition, Big Spring Lumber carries a complete line of builders' hardware. These are in a wide arrangement of types and styles. Experience in the building business has given Louis Thompson, operator of the concern, a practical background in providing for regular needs of builders and renovators.

Too, Big Spring Lumber has stocks of wall and floor coverings. These are available in sufficient range to give the patron that choice that furnishes individual touch to the home.

Once more Thompson has drawn upon practical experience in providing for paints and varnishes to round out building needs. These have been engineered and compounded for durability in the rugged Texas country as well as for beauty.

House Of Service

Not only convenient is the Clark Motor Company, located at E. 3rd and Johnson, but it also is a house of service. Ray Clark, owner, maintains a staff of top notch mechanics as well as attendants. Brakes, motor and other testing equipment pinpoint trouble spots. Attendants are schooled in prompt, courteous and complete service, too.

Morehead And Mead Movers Protect Against Breakage

Whether you are moving in, leaving town or planning on storing your furniture, the agency to consult is the Morehead and Mead Warehouse, located at 101 West First Street in Big Spring.

The concern, specialist in transporting all kinds of goods, in prepared to offer service, whether your goods are to be moved across town or to the distant borders of the nation.

Morehead and Mead is the local agent for Allied Van Lines, one of the biggest concerns of its type in the country and an agency commissioned to transport goods the nation over.

A big mistake some home owners make in shouldering the task of transporting household goods themselves, when in the act of moving. Breakage of one minor item many times costs what the entire job would run to, if a professional mover had been called in.

Moving goods is a profession with Morehead and Mead and each item is handled with the maximum of care.

If your goods are transported by Morehead and Mead, they are protected against dust and rain by locked, fireproof enclosures.

Morehead and Mead also maintains a big fireproof storage warehouse in which items can be stored indefinitely.

The Morehead and Mead concern, of course, is bonded and offers complete protection for goods of its customers.

Business telephone number of the concern is 2635.

Keeping Slim Is Little Insurance Against Cancer

CHICAGO (AP)—Eating to keep slim apparently is a little insurance against getting cancer.

Overweight people are more prone to cancer and other diseases than normal weights, life insurance figures show. And fatness comes from eating more calories than you need.

The picture was described today to newsmen on an American Cancer Society tour by Dr. Albert Tannenbaum, of the Department of Cancer Research, Medical Research Institute, Michael Rees Hospital.

The abundant diet, especially in calories, seems to make it easier for cancers to start, he said. Food doesn't cause cancer, but it may modify or influence the cancer process.

Govt. Plans To Rest Contempt Case Today On Frank Costello

NEW YORK (AP)—The second contempt trial of gambler Frank Costello moved towards a rapid conclusion today with the government planning to rest its case.

U.S. Atty. Myles J. Lane says he expects to wind up his presentation of evidence soon after court opens this morning.

Kenneth M. Spence, attorney for Costello, says he does not plan to put the gravel-voiced gambler on the witness stand, and adds: "I don't think I'll put any evidence in."

Fereng Molnar Dies

Bendix Washer Has Some More 'Firsts'

Grandma used to stir her boiling clothes with a big stick as they steamed in the big wash kettle, and Bendix has taken a tip from Grandma.

"It's taken us a long time to realize how right she was to use heat in sanitizing clothes, even though we already knew that doctors used to sterilize their instruments and dairies use it to pasteurize milk," said J. S. Sayre, general manager of Bendix Home Appliances in South Bend, Ind.

The Bendix answer to this is a built-in heater which provides water at adequate temperature. The gadget, which comes to consumers at no extra cost, is fully automatic.

Models of the Bendix washers, now on display at Big Spring Hardware, are known as the "Bendix Snow White" washers.

The heater is the rod immersion type which operates at 110 volts. It either maintains the temperature of already satisfactorily hot water or it brings cooler water up to the most efficient temperature level.

Tests have shown that in many instances, water travelling through pipes to washers cools as much as 15 degrees. Consequently, it had lost its "edge" for best results in washing. This was proven in tests by two leading universities which showed that hotter water sanitizes clothes and improves washability.

"It was possible to introduce this feature in the Gyromatic," Sayre said, "only because the peculiar tumble action employed in that washer uses approximately one-third of the water needed in an agitator model. If there were three times as much water, it would be nearly impossible to heat it, at least without great expense."

Sayre said that university tests showed that 145-degree water was the lowest temperature at which clothes still could be sanitized. Yet, 65 per cent of the American homes using automatic washers that have
