IDEA DETAILED TO GOVERNORS BY BREWSTER

Maine State Head Is Allowed to Reveal Subject

MACHINERY TO BE UNOFFICIAL

Reserve Projects Would Be Released as Needed

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Governor Ralph O. Brewster, of Maine, acting upon the request of Herbert Hoover, outlined today before the conference of Governors a plan for the creation of a nationwide construction reserve of $3,000,000,000, to be released in times of overproduction and unemployment.

Governor Brewster recommended that public authorities store up a reserve of construction projects equal to two years' normal expenditure, on improvements and release this reserve at times of unemployment. Such a fund, he said, would be one of the best forms of insurance against national panics.

"These views of the day in which the states and other public authorities may cooperate with the federal government in controlling in some measure, construction work for to prosper food," said the governor, "are presented to the conference of governors at the request of Herbert Hoover as an authorized exposition of a portion of his program for stabilizing the prosperity of the United States.

Need Cooperation "In requesting the presentation of this project to the conference of governors, Mr. Hoover emphasized the importance of establishing cooperation between federal, state and municipal governments in accordance with the proposals outlined at the time of the unemployment conference in 1922."

Organization for prosperity, he said, is the next lesson America may track to the nations of the world. "The governor said that America emulates Atlantis, the mythological personage who lived in the presence of plenty but never could touch it.

"Such conditions," he said, "constitute a tragedy and a travesty upon the organizing genius of American business men. "With an annual expenditure of seven billions upon construction, America is in a position to stabilize prosperity to a most remarkable extent," he added. "Public authority spends more than a billion and a half. With this we are here primarily concerned.

Business May Follow "Private business will soon follow such practical demonstration as the government may make since the great commercial interests of the country have the most vital stake. This may apply not only to construction, but to the renewal and extension of capital facilities of every sort. It is the considered recommendation of the one who has received the overwhelming mandate of the American people to guide and guard their progress in the next four years that a construction reserve may prudently be accumulated in time of plenty against the lean year that is to come.

"This involves simply the provision of the necessary funds or credit to be released when indexes shall indicate the need and such designation of projects as may commend itself to the authority concerned."

Legislatures To Direct Governor Brewster told the governors that no infringement of legislative prerogatives was contemplated, because no project could be carried out except as the legislature might direct, although the rapidity of construction.

(AP)—Retired United States naval officer took over the questioning at the federal inquiry into the sinking of the British steamer Vestris today and elicited from the senior surviving officer of the ship that his subordinates ignored his orders when the vessel was sinking, the crew members were absent from their stations at the life boats, and that women and children passengers were placed in the most dangerously situated boats.

ROLL CALL OF RED CROSS TO BE THURSDAY

Campaign Also To Extend Through Saturday

GOAL SET AT 600 MEMBERS

Disasters Pile Up as Plans for Drive Are Made

All preparations to begin the Red Cross Roll Call tomorrow are being completed today, according to Scott Barcus, who recently was appointed to direct the drive.

Booths for distribution of memberships will be established downtown by women of the various churches. A number of business houses expect to show 100 per cent membership early in the day. Especially valuable work will be done by the oil field superintendents, who have volunteered to help take memberships.

The Roll Call will last through Saturday.

Mr. Barcus has received a summary of the accomplishments of the organization during the past year, prepared by the officers of the National body. According to this report, Red Cross chapters have assisted a monthly average of 66,558 service and ex-service men and their families. Red Cross Public Health nurses in chapters made 1,999,733 home visits and inspected 874,218 children in schools during the year. On June 30, 1928, there were 745 nurses in 506 chapters. There were 43,445 students graduated in First Aid classes conducted by Red Cross chapters.

A goal of 600 members this year has been set by the local chapter. Last year 500 people were enrolled here. "If everyone could know intimately the work that the Red Cross is carrying on," Mr. Barcus stated, "there would be no trouble in enrolling twice that number. Into communities devastated by tornadoes, floods, fires and other disasters, the Red Cross carries our message of mercy. Into our government hospitals it goes to brighten the long days of our wounded soldiers. Day in and day out its Public Health nurses are caring for the sick, protecting the well and teaching the principles of good health to all. In countless other fields it is proving itself worthy of the recognition it has gained as the official relief agency of the American people.

"And even as we are getting ready for this Roll Call the devastating floods in Missouri, Kansas, Kentucky, and Mississippi Valley states are making emergency work necessary. The damage already has reached $10,000,000. The $1 membership fee is not much, yet it makes possible almost instantaneous relief work and saves thousands of lives, besides alleviating the worst kind of suffering that people know in peace time—that of being forced, scantily clad, from their homes without food or shelter. I am sure that every person in Pampa will wish to do their small but important share in this great work by becoming a member."

FEAR MOTHER OF SLAIN BABY ALSO VICTIM

Little Body, Stuffed in Lard Can, Was Mutilated

PAIL THROWN INTO GULCH

Dismembering Believed Done by Expert Surgeon

HOUSTON, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The theory that the mother of an unidentified murdered baby also met death at the hands of a friend was advanced here today when police records failed to show a report of a missing infant. The baby's mutilated body, stuffed into a lard can, was found in a lonely gulch near here yesterday.

The nine-month-old girl had been stabbed and shot and the body dismembered. Police believed the husband's charge which probably caused her death also killed her mother, and that dense underbrush in the vicinity of the gruesome find may yield another body.

Search was halted by darkness last night, and a thorough combing of the vicinity was planned today. The find was made by D. H. Evans, and his 10-year-old son. The boy threw a stick into a small creek for his dog to retrieve, and the dog uncovered the can when he climbed out of the water.

Sheriff T. A. Binford and George Andrew, special investigator, admitted today after working all night that they were no nearer a solution of the mystery. A verdict of "murder at the hands of a party or parties unknown" was returned by a justice of the peace who estimated the body had been in the bayou between five and ten days.

A complete set of dainty baby clothes and a tattered fragment of a month old newspaper found in the can were the slender clues with which officers were working.

Physicians who examined the baby's dismembered body held to the belief that it was severed by some one with a knowledge of anatomy. They said the head was cut from the body at a point where the spinal column could be reached easily. The finding of several jagged wounds and two leaden pellets resembling bird shot under the skin led to the belief that the baby was shot or stabbed to death and its body then cut to pieces.

Three carefully wrapped bundles were found in the can. One contained the arms and legs, tied together with a string, another the head and the third the torso.

Many small holes in the bottom of the can, which first caused investigators to believe the container was fired into with a shotgun, later were believed to have been punched so that the can would sink.

Highway Head Is Here on Dispute

Judge A. A. Callaghan of Panhandle president of the Panhandle Highway association, is here today conferring with Secretary George W. Briggs on matters pertaining to the association. While here he will appoint several committees. He will also issue a call for a meeting of the executive committee in the near future.

The organization was completed about two months ago. Its aim is to work out ways and means whereby panhandle counties can work together and with the state highway association in having roads routed where they will do the most good.

WINK, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Shot while standing in a hotel hallway, two men were near death here today while a third was with liberty under $500 bond, charged with assault with intent to kill.

L. M. Smith, 30, rig builder, was shot through the neck and shoulders. Physicians said he had only a slight chance to recover. M. Angelino, 35, rig builder, is dying with a bullet wound in his head.

Until he was sent on his mission to Washington he was a newspaperman. He hasn't been here long enough to determine whether he would rather be that or a diplomat.

We found out just how un- and-coming Senior Don Davila was last spring when he flew to the Foreign Trade Convention at Houston and back.

It was rather surprising that Chile didn't lose a perfectly good ambassador, as things turned out. He flew first to Fort Bragg and then toward Montgomery, Ala.

As a party issue, the problem is too dangerous for exploitation, both to the parties and the people.

LAST HALF WITH OUT SCORING BY EITHER

Playing in a field of snow and mud, the Pampa Harvesters won a 6 to 0 victory from the Shamrock Irishmen here yesterday afternoon. The Harvesters scored their touchdowns three minutes after play began when Roberts carried the ball across after two first downs had carried the ball to the one-yard line.

Fumbles were scarce considering the condition of the ball and the wet uniforms. Each team lost the ball on fumbles. Several five-yard losses were registered when the receiver dropped the ball or failed to get away before being tackled.

Coach Mitchell used his original line-up all through the game, while Coach Pierce only used two substitutes. Walstad and Roberts made the largest gains on the Harvester squad. Gracey and Blake did the majority of the ball carrying for the Irishmen. Chastain and Tracy played nice defensive football, as did Blake for the Irish team.

Both lines held well considering the condition of the field. With the exception of Roberts very few gains were made through the line. Both teams resorted to end runs. Shamrock attempted five passes, completing one for five yards. Walstad made the longest gain of the day and was away for a touchdown only for a desperate tackle by Close, the last of that sensational Texas football family. Walstad made 25 yards on the play. The other long gains were registered by Gracey, who made 16 yards off tackle.

Stalls was again the tower of strength in the Harvester line. He and Mullen were impassable. Irwin and Willis also played nice football. The Pampa ends, Ayres and Salsbury, were saving the Harvesters from having long gains made Kohl and again at center and the change in the team was noticeable. His backing of the line was as formerly.

Biddle and Captain Brothers on the right side of the Irishmen's line were holding nicely, most of the Harvester line being made through the left side of the line. One of the Shamrock cars failed to arrive until the third quarter of the game and as a result Coach Pierce was without two of his linemen.

The Harvesters made seven first downs to three for the Shamrock boys. End runs and line plunges carried the ball the necessary distances. The locals not attempting a forward pass because of the slippery condition of the ball.

Saturday afternoon the Harvesters will meet the Canyon Eagles on the home grounds. The game has been called for 2:30 o'clock. There is considerable rivalry between the two elevens and the best game of the season is predicted. Canyon will be at full strength for the encounter as will the Harvesters.

Stalls made a nice kick to Shamrock's goal line. The ball was returned by Shipley to the Irish 20-yard line. Shamrock had to punt after a pass and a line plunge had failed. The Harvesters then started a march up the field. Roberts making 2 yards on the first play to be followed by Chastain with for more. Walstad, Roberts, and Chastain then carried the ball for another first down to place the ball at Shamrock's 40-yard line. Roberts made 4 yards. Chastain 4 more and then Roberts went over for the only touchdown of the game. Stalls hits the upright for the point after.

Second Half Even Following the kick-off neither goal line was in danger. The field began to get slippery and it was anybody's ball at any time. The teams exchanged punts, with the Harvesters having a slight advantage with the wind. Tracy kicked off 13 yards around right end for the third longest run of the game at the quarter.

The second quarter was played in the center of the field with the Harvesters gaining the only advantage of a pretty 23 yard run by Walstad. The quarter ended with the ball on the 50-yard line.

Only one first down was registered in the third quarter and that by Gracey who broke through left tackle for 16 yards before being stopped by Roberts and Walstad. Both teams punted on the third downs and gains through the line and around ends were slight.

With the field getting more slippery, the last quarter was fairly even. The Harvesters made two first downs while the Irishmen failed to make any. Two fumbles were recovered, one by Mullen and one by Shipley.

Jones Will Be Big Attraction in California Golf

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)—Golf professionals are canny business men and they again showed keen judgment in deciding to hold the 1929 tournament of the P. G. A. in California. The title contest will be in the winter when the men whose business is playing golf will be on the Pacific Coast in the natural western trend of their profession at that season of the year. Leo Diegel will defend his championship at Santa Barbara.

The great Bobby Jones has never said a word of "California here I come," and his first appearance on the Pacific Coast will create widespread interest. The Atlanta attorney probably will be more in danger of writer's cramp from signing his name on score cards than trouble with his grip.

The executive committee of the United States Golf association, meeting in New York tomorrow, is expected to authorize a departure from the usual custom of holding the open championship in June. It is understood that the dates for the title hunt in 1929 over the Winged Foot course, Mamaroneck, N. Y., will be in July.

Johnny Farrell, open champion, who finished second to Dr. O. F. Willing, well known northwest amateur, in the Oregon open is back on his game after a slump that has dogged his golf footsteps for weeks.

A rest proved the remedy and at Portland last week he played 72 holes against stiff competition in 296 strokes, good enough to finish a stroke behind Dr. Willing but, more important, good enough to win the $1,500 first money.

Aggies-Texas Tilt With Reason Is Turkey Day Morsel

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 21. (AP)—When the Texas Aggies and the Texas Longhorns line up on the Memorial Stadium gridiron at Austin Thanksgiving day for the kickoff of what has come to be the Turkey Day football classic in Texas, these ancient gridiron foes will be facing each other for the thirty-fifth time. A long record of competition that, in football, so long indeed, that it goes back almost as far as does the game itself in Texas.

Since 1894, when these teams fought the battle that started the feud, there have been only two interruptions to break the continuity of games, each of which has seen attendance and rivalry grow. The first break followed the first game, in 1894, and lasted until 1898 when the second game was played. The other break was from 1911 until 1915. From 1898 until 1911, however, the two elevens met at least once each year and often twice in the same year so that even though there have been several years in which the two teams did not meet, the number of games played equals the number of years that have elapsed since hostilities began.

Several of the Aggie-Longhorn games of recent years have become bright pages in the history of football in the Southwestern conference. Last year, in 1925 and 1921, the outcome of the conference pennant race hung upon the result of the Turkey Day games. The Aggies won the game and the championship in 1925 and 1927 but in 1921 the two teams battled to a scoreless tie which, however, saved the title for the Aggies. It was in the Turkey Day tilt on Kyle Field in 1925 that the Aggies piled up the 28-0 score against the Longhorns, giving them the worst drubbing ever received at the hands of a Southwest conference team.

That dope has nothing to do with the probable outcome of the Aggie-Longhorn tilts and that comparative scores mean nothing when the two ancient rivals meet, however, is proven by the scores of recent years. In fact, to be favored to win an Aggie-Longhorn grid contest is to be handicapped if one is to take the results of the game in 1923, 1924, 1925 and 1926 as examples.

In 1923, playing on Kyle Field, where only one conference team had ever beaten the Aggies under Bible's regime, the Aggies were favored to win and the Longhorns came away with the best end of a 6-0 score. The next year the Aggies were favored again the favorites and this time an almost miraculous catch of a pass enabled a Longhorn gridster to cross the Aggies' goal for the only touchdown of the game and the Steers won, 7-0. In 1925 the Longhorns were considered so far in advance of the Aggies that although the game was to be played on Kyle Field the Texas team was favored to win with ease. The Aggies upset the dope by winning 28-0. An apparent weakening of the Longhorn team toward the latter part of the season brought the Aggies into favor for the 1926 tilt but, running true to form, the underdog won, 14-5. The grim last season is the only one in recent years to result as the dopsters figured. The Aggies were the victors, 28-7.

Tommy Loughran to Wage Campaign for Tunney's Place

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21. (AP)—Barred by the New York Athletic commission from boxing heavyweights in that state while he holds the light heavyweight championship, Tommy Loughran has issued an edict of his own. He says he will go right ahead with his plans to meet all comers.

"I am going to fight heavyweights," he says, "and before another year I think I will have demonstrated that I am the rightful successor to Gene Tunney."

Star at Tackle

Here's Jake Williams, captain of the Texas Christian University eleven, one of the best in the southwest this year. Williams was an all-Southwestern tackle last year and is expected to repeat again this season.

Hagen to Captain U. S. Golf Team

CLEVELAND, Nov. 21. (AP)—Walter Hagen, defeated recently as national professional golf champion, will captain the American Ryder cup team of United States golf pros, when it invades England next spring.

This honor went to Hagen, when Leo Diegel, present title holder endorsed for the captaincy at final session of the National Golfers association annual meeting here, demurred in favor of Hagen.

The association recommended a list of 12 leading professionals from which the American team of ten, will be selected. Besides Hagen and Diegel they are: Gene Sarazen, Joe Turnesa, Johnny Farrell, William Klein, Billy Burke, and John Golden, all of New York; Horton Smith, Jephin Mo., Al Espinosa, Chicago; Ed Dudley, Los Angeles, and Al Watrous of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Aggies to Meet Tulane for Four Years on Grid

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 21.—Under the terms of a four-year contract, just announced by James Sullivan, business manager of the athletics at A. & M. college of Texas, the Texas Aggies will meet the Tulane University football team at Fair Park Stadium in Dallas during the State Fair of Texas in 1930 and 1932. The other two games called for will be played in New Orleans in 1929 and 1931, the contract being on a home and home basis with Dallas designated as the playing point for the Texas games.

The game with Tulane will replace in 1930 and 1932 the Aggie Sewanee inter-sectional tilt, cancelled by mutual agreement, as a feature of the State fair. Mr. Sullivan has intimated that announcement of inter-sectional tilt for 1929 to replace the Sewanee game at Dallas will be forthcoming as soon as question of date for the game has been settled.

In meeting Tulane at New Orleans on Oct. 5, 1929, the Aggies will face a Tulane grid team for the first time since 1917 when A. & M. and Tulane played at College Station. The date for the State Fair engagement in 1930 is Oct. 11. The 1931 game at New Orleans will be played in 1930 is Oct. 11. The 1931 game at New Orleans will be played Oct. 3 and the Dallas game in 1932 is scheduled for Oct. 8. Among the teams which Tulane met this season were Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt, games, with both being played at New Orleans.

The scheduling of games with Tulane makes the Texas Aggies grid schedule for next year complete save for the inter-sectional game at Dallas in early October to replace the Sewanee conflict for 1929. Announcement of this event is expected within a very short time.

As it now stands, the Aggies' 1929 schedule shows games with five Southwest conference teams, one Southern conference eleven, two Texas conference teams and one T. I. A. A. team. A game with an outstanding team from another conference is expected with announcements of the advisory for 1929 Dallas game. As a whole, the

This Explains That Carnegie Victory

CHICAGO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Judge Walter P. Steffen, the commuting coach of Carnegie Tech, explained today why the Carnegie Scotchman defeated Notre Dame last Saturday, and in so doing he coined a new Scotch joke.

"That Scotch line," said the judge, "just wouldn't give." For 15 years Judge Steffen has been week-ending in Pittsburgh, coaching Carnegie football teams.

Nebraska-Army Game Only One of Two Sections

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)—Nebraska's tussle with the Army will be the only inter-sectional football in the East Saturday.

The game is not drawing the same public interest it might have but for two unforeseen incidents during the last two weeks or so. Army apparently was a certainty to enter the battle with the Cornhuskers undefeated but Notre Dame spoiled all that on November 10. Last Saturday, Nebraska unbeaten and untied, was held to a scoreless draw by Pittsburgh.

Army and Nebraska, however, will draw plenty of attention even on a card that includes such big-time combats as those between Yale and Harvard at New Haven; New York University and Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh; Princeton and Navy at Philadelphia and Georgetown and Fordham at the Polo Grounds, New York.

1929 schedule is considered a very representative one. Five of the games will be played on Kyle field.

The 1929 schedule as it now stands is as follows: Sept. 20, Trinity at Waxahatchee; Sept. 28, Southwestern at College Station; Oct. 5, Tulane at New Orleans; Oct. 19, T. C. U. at Fort Worth; Oct. 28, Arkansas at College Station; Nov. 2, Sam Houston State Teachers College at College Station; Nov. 9, S. M. U. at College Station; Nov. 16, Rice at Houston; Nov. 28, Texas at College Station. The inter-sectional game at Dallas is expected to be scheduled between the Tulane and T. C. U. game.

Highly Liked by Ruth Dewey Groves

"Oh, yes you will," Dan assured her. "You're near your goal," he added with a false laugh, "but watch your step. Alester's family won't accept a tarnished reputation."

"You know what I mean," Dan interrupted. "It isn't what you do, Jerry. It's how it looks to the world. Be careful where you're seen and what you do. That ring on your finger—Alester's, isn't it? Give it back to him and let him keep it until he puts it on to confirm your engagement."

HE stopped abruptly and for a few seconds a weighty silence hung between them. It was Jerry's voice—a queer sound, half laugh, half sob—that broke it.

"Why are you so sure that he will want to marry me," she said, "and that I will want to marry him?"

"Because that is what you both want. Alester may not have known it as soon as you did," he added, "but when a man rushes all the way in from Long Island to a Hunsdred and Fourth Street just because he suspects that his girl is out with another man it proves that he is jealous. And when Alester is jealous he is jealous of something he wants for himself. That's why I'm warning you not to make it too hard for him when he goes to the mat with his family. You see, Jerry, I know it will come to that. At first I didn't think so, but I didn't know then how much a man could love you."

"Alester doesn't," Jerry said. "Don't misjudge him," Dan retorted shortly. "Maybe no other girl could stir any real feeling in him, but no man could help loving you, Jerry."

"But what if—I don't want him to love me?" Jerry asked, moved by a reckless impulse that was urging her to delay their parting—to hold Dan, to forget Alester and all her well-laid plans.

Dan drew in his breath sharply. "You want to marry him, don't you?" he asked gratingly. "I don't know," Jerry cried. "I don't know what I want. I'm afraid . . . it would be terrible to be unhappy all my life!"

"But pleasant," Dan volunteered bitterly, "in marble halls."

'Old Timers' of Pampa Honored at Delightful Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wynne was the scene of one of the most enjoyable events of the season, when Mrs. Wynne and her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Thomas and Mrs. De Lea Vicars, entertained "old timers" of the city. Bridge was the diversion of the evening, with eight tables in the game. Miniature bronze turkeys, filled with candy, centered the tables, and a Thanksgiving motif was developed in other details of the party.

The guest list for this delightful affair was as follows: Mrs. E. J. Dunning, Jr., Miss Leora Kinard, Miss Sallic Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hinkapillar, Dr. and Mrs. A. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ledrick, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Walstad, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thut, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thut, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Vicars, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. At each table the little turkey decoration was given as high score favor. Mrs. Hinkapillar held top score of the evening. At the conclusion of the game, the hostesses served a delicious two-course luncheon.

CUB REPORTER IS ARRESTED AS FRAUD SUSPECT

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—(P)—Admission that he is James B. O'Neil, former teller of the First National bank of Los Angeles, Calif., wanted for theft of $176,000, was made to police today by the man arrested last night who had passed as Kenneth T. O'Hara.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—(P)—A "Cub" reporter of the New Orleans Times-Picayune was held today by police as the alleged embezzler of $176,000 in liberty bonds from the First National bank of Los Angeles in April, 1922.

The man, while refusing to identify himself and to discuss details of his past denied to police that he was James B. O'Neil, the bond agency teller who disappeared from the California bank about the time the securities were missed.

He also told the officers his real name was not Kenneth T. O'Hara under which name he went when employed by the paper here as a reporter in June, 1922.

- In beef cattle judging, Kansas was first, Texas second, and Idaho third.

Baptist College in An Uproar as Probe Is Begun

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 21.—(P)—Howard College, one of the largest Baptist schools of the south, was in an uproar today as a special committee appointed by the board of trustees reviewed charges preferred by 21 students of improper conduct on the campus.

Among the charges was an allegation that a member of the faculty had asserted that "if all Bibles in the world were piled up and burned the world would be better within 100 years." The complainant alleged that Dr. John C. Dawson, president, had failed to give a sympathetic hearing when this and other complaints were made to him.

Three other charges being probed are that students, during a recent fraternity rush, staged a mock "military wedding" on the campus, witnessed by a mixed group of students, that gambling and drinking has occurred on the campus, and that fraternities had permitted dancing in their houses contrary to school regulations.

The complaints were placed before the Alabama convention of the State Baptist association recently at Dikhan, Ala., by students. The board of trustees was then directed to appoint a special committee of investigation which resulted in the present probe.

CHICAGO—And Now Hold-Up Man Forgets His Gun—Banditry Decreases

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—(P)—The decadent age of banditry seems to have set in.

First there was the bandit who got peevish at his victim, threw away his gun and started a fight. Then there was the bandit who stammered, taking so long to give the command to "st-t-lick 'em, up" that police were on the scene before the victim could respond. Again, just last week, there was the holdup man who picked a deaf gentleman as his victim, and had to shout so loud to make his demands known that police came running.

And today there was Daniel Falco, the holdup man who forgot his pistol.

Falco stalked up to Milton Fields at Madison and Curtis streets and said: "Hands up."

As he spoke, he reached to his hip pocket for his gun. It was not there.

In a quandary, he began to search his other pockets. His victim observed the actions with growing interest.

"You have no gun?" he inquired. "No," said Falco. "It's gone."

That was all Fields wanted to know. He began burying his fists in Falco's face.

When Police Lieutenant Sullivan was shutting the cell door behind Falco a few minutes later Falco still was mystified.

"It certainly beats all," he said, "where I put that gun."

Cleaning Plant in Chicago Is Bombed

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—(P)—A bomb, exploding a block and a half from the home of State's Attorney-Elect John A. Swanson, wrecked the front of a Becker Cleaning and Dyeing shop last night.

Police viewed the explosion as evidence of open hostility between racketeers and cleaning concerns that "cut" prices and refused to pay tribute.

Judge Swanson, elected two weeks ago on a platform promising to rid Chicago of crime, was accused by the blast. Several months ago his home was bombed.

Lewright Child Retained by Mother

AMARILLO, Nov. 21. (Special)—Custody of W. M. Lewright, Jr., son of a Pampa lawyer, was awarded his mother Mrs. Dorothy Lewright, in district civil court here yesterday.

Motion of appeal to the Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals was filed by Mr. Lewright. The divorce decree, granted Mrs. Lewright in Gray county, gave the mother the child, but Mr. Lewright instituted suit to obtain him.

Pending outcome of yesterday's hearing the child was kept at a local nursery under order of the court.

Gray County Leads Panhandle With Most of Oil Operations in November; Moore Now 100 Per Cent Active

Ending the fiscal month on November 5, a total of 43 wells were completed in the Panhandle. Of this number, 25 were oil wells which added 3,890 barrels of new production to the field; 11 were gas wells with a total footage of 315,500,000 cubic feet; three of the completions were abandonments four of them were dry-holes.

Gray county received 24 of the finals and Hutchinson ran a poor second with 10. Wheeler county had four for gas. Carson county got a pair. By counties, the month's operating report:

County	Drigs.	S. D.	Comp.
Carson	7	6	2
Childress	1	1	0
Gray	42	8	24
Hartley	1	1	0
Hutchinson	17	10	16
Hutchinson	17	16	10
Hempshall	1	1	1
Lipscomb	2	2	0
Moore	11	1	1
Ochiltree	1	4	0
Petter	1	1	1
Roberts	1	4	0
Wheeler	9	3	4
Totals	91	47	43

An even half dozen completions were all the Panhandle was able to register last week, marking the period as one of the dullist in these two lines in six months.

Moore county, with several wells drilling close to the pay and reports to the effect the Phillips Petroleum company will build a six-inch extension from its holdings near Stinnett, north of the river, into Moore's producing area, were the principal features of interest.

In the vicinity of the old Morton well, which is shut down on account of having no outlet for production, a small amount of acreage is changing hands for prices reported to be ranging from a hundred and fifty to three hundred dollars an acre. Phillips Petroleum company, Magnolia Petroleum and several other majors own heavily in that district and it is believed operations will be started around the Morton well before so very long.

The Armstrong area is looking good, especially since the Skelly's Armstrong No. 3, in the Proctor survey, is now reported doing 3,300 barrels a day on air lift. This well was brought in for 200 barrels, given two shots and put on artificial lift. Oil men say the bringing of the well's output up to its present mark is a production engineering feat of which the Skelly may well be proud.

An extension is showing to the old Bowers pool, in Gray county, the one bright spot of the week in this part of the Panhandle. The United 8 Oil company's No. 1 Clay, located in section 17, block B-2, and six miles to the southwest of the Bowers pool, the nearest production, topped the pay in granite wash at 3,044 feet and made a heavy spray. It was immediately shut down and storage is being built. Should this test prove a good producer it may mean a heavy drilling campaign between it and the Bowers area.

Hutchinson county had one first report during the week, the No. 1 Moore, section 21, block M-21, T. C. R. survey. It is a cellar and was staked by Timms et al.

Gray county listed a pair of new ones when the Phillips Petroleum Company spotted the No. 4 Johns in section 87, block 3, T. & G. N. survey; the Gulf Production made location and have rig built for the No. 4 Holmes in the W. 1-2 of section 87, block 3, T. & G. N. survey. It is 900 feet from the south and 336 feet from the west lines.

In Carson county, the Skelly Oil company laid out the No. 10 Schafer Ranch, 1,320 feet from the west and 330 feet from the south of the N 1-2 of section 188, block 3, T. & G. N. survey. Rig is completed. Another was added when Duncan and Reiser spotted their No. 1 Hodges in the section 112, block 17, T. & G. N. survey.

Hutchinson county scored a completion during the week, the Phillips Petroleum company's No. 12 Whittenberg, in section 63, block 40, H. & T. C. survey. It was not with 100 quarts from 2,875-2,914 feet and is good for 105 barrels.

In Moore county all of the eleven tests in and around the Armstrong pool are active, the only one hundred per cent pay in the Panhandle at the present time.

In the Thomas Ross survey, the Barnsdall Oil company's No. 1 Mott is standardizing at 2,780 feet. Devonian Oil company's No. 1 Sneed, in the S 100 acres of the north 320 acres of the Matilda Robinson survey, is making hole at 650 feet and Dixon Creek oil company's No. 1 Sneed, in section 65, block 3, G. M. survey, is going down at 2,510 feet. Dixon Creek, No. 4 Sneed, in section 65, block 3, G. M. survey, is standardizing at 2,345 feet. McMan Oil and Gas company's No. 1 Sneed, NWC of the J. Proctor survey, is down to 2,282 feet and is cementing 19-inch casing. With a showing of gas from 2,475-85 feet, Phillips Petroleum company's No. 1 James-Sneed, SWC of the Brazenover survey, is drilling at 2,643 feet and the No. 2 James-Sneed, NWC of the Proctor survey, is standardizing at 2,253 feet. No. 3 James-Sneed in the NWC of the Proctor survey, but just over the line into the Robinson survey, is going down at 1,150 feet. Skelly Oil Company's No. 14 Armstrong south and east of the NWC of the Proctor survey, had a half million feet of gas at 2,675 feet and is down to 3,070 feet, running 6-inch pipe. No. 5 Armstrong is making hole at 1,290 feet.

OIL INQUIRY IS LIKELY TO MOVE TO WORK REGIME

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(P)—Oil is highly inflammable. The blaze started some years ago by the inquiry into the conditions surrounding leasing of the Naval oil reserves is no sooner quenched in one place than it breaks out in another.

Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, was acquitted yesterday in the District of Columbia Supreme Court on charges of perjury.

Almost coincident with the verdict, Senator Welsh, of Montana, said he intended to ask the Senate to inquire into the reasons of Dr. Hubert Work, former secretary of the Interior, for renewing a lease in the Salt Creek oil field to Sinclair crude oil purchasing company. This lease was recently declared invalid by the department of justice.

Last of Argument in McDonald Case Is Expected Today

PARIS, Nov. 21.—(P)—Jurors who have sat through more than two weeks of testimony bearing on the questioned sanity of William J. McDonald, late Paris millionaire, when he prepared his will leaving $1,250,000 to Texas university for an observatory, probably will hear the last of attorney's arguments today.

Kinsmen of McDonald waged a two-year fight to have set aside his bequest to the university. A previous lower court hearing resulted in a verdict for proponents, but the decision was reversed by the Supreme Court.

When court recessed yesterday five attorneys had spoken.

CONTEST—

placed on a business basis and non productive haphazard methods abandoned. Lists of prospective subscribers are being compiled during evening hours to be seen next day, and some real salesmanship is being displayed.

Only until 9 o'clock Saturday night will the 90,000 boums be given. It comes with each and every $20 worth of subscriptions turned in between 8 a. m. Monday November 19, and 9 p. m. Saturday November 24.

Most contestants are planning on having two or more clubs this time. Many who had only one club on the previous offer have declared they will better their record for this week alone.

The car winning votes can be obtained this week. It all depends on the effort put forth. Next week, subscriptions will count much less and so it behooves the ambitious ones to accomplish everything possible while the opportunity lasts. Those who hold their subscriptions in anticipation of a bigger vote offer to come later are going to be sadly disappointed. Never again after 9 p. m. Saturday will subscriptions have as great a vote value as they do now.

In connection with the gathering of subscriptions, the Contest Manager again wishes to impress upon contestants the importance of obtaining the full and complete address of each subscriber. Write plainly on the subscription stub, and see that the correct information is given on every line before turning it in. Otherwise the News cannot give proper service on subscriptions. Also, be sure to find out whether a subscription is new or old and mark it correctly. Several contestants have been careless about this, and have caused much annoyance in the circulation department.

But above all—get everything possible by 9 p. m. Saturday. You will never have as good a chance to win as you have right now. And if your name isn't in the list and you want one of the cars, fill out a "Nomination Coupon" and bring or mail it to the Contest Manager.

Late starters have been known to win valuable prizes in competitions of this kind, and the opportunity is still open in this one.

Second Payments

The man who made two blades of grass grow where but one grew before thoroughly knew his onions. The same process can be applied to great advantage in the contest by simply going over ground you have previously covered and obtaining extensions, or covering second payments on subscriptions already received. Many subscribers who have taken the News for only six months or a year will now gladly extend their subscriptions by additional payments. A six month subscription on which $3.25 was paid may now be extended to a year by the payment of an additional $2.75 and the contestant obtaining the second payment gets the DIFFERENCE, or 4,000 regular votes on the second payment. A year's subscription at $6.00 may now be extended to two years by the payment of an additional $6.00 and the contestant turning in the second payment will receive 15,000 regular votes, tended to three years on the additional payment of $12.00 gains 45,000 regular votes. On the second payment plan, the contestant obtaining the second payment gets the difference between what was first issued and what the second payment makes the entire subscription for.

In the county, a $5 subscription on which another $5 is paid counts 10,000 regular votes, and a $5 subscription extended to three years by the payment of $10 counts, 35,000.

No subscription may be extended for more than 3 years. Also, it makes no difference who obtained the first payment—the contestant turning in the second payment gets the bigger vote. You can cover not only your own ground but that of your friendly competitors also!

The same contestant in many instances will receive both the first and second payments. In any event, it is the one who is on the alert and out after votes every day.

New contestants who desire to enter should fill out and bring or mail in a Nomination Blank today. After this $5,000 offer is over, there will not be much chance to win, but right now, especially if you live in Skellytown or McLean you have a fine chance to jump in and win. A contestant starting in from McLean for instance, would find it just as easy to win as if she

Perryton Man Loses 40 Sheep Due to Poisoning

PERRYTON, Nov. 21.—(Special)—Arthur Slavin recently lost over forty head of sheep when the animals ate frost bitten, immature cane fodder. Mr Slavin had unloaded a car of sheep which he had shipped from Louisiana. As they were driven through a cane field just south of Perryton, the sheep ate the cane and began dying immediately. County Agent Sheets said prussic acid poisoning obtained from the fodder caused the deaths.

The first concert given by the orchestra this season was presented last week at the school auditorium under the direction of Rudolph Williams. A crowd estimated at three hundred heard the program.

Donald Schwab, prominent member of the Lone Tree 4-H club, this week received a shipment of pedigreed Rhode Island Reds cockerels and pullets from the Lester Sprouls farms near Joplin, Mo. According to County Agent Sheets, who assisted Donald in securing these fine birds, it is Donald's intention to build up a real pedigreed flock.

Canadian to Vote on City Hall and Public Auditorium

CANADIAN, Nov. 21.—(Special)—Fifty-seven residents of Canadian have petitioned the mayor and city commission for a bond election to be submitted to the voters for the purpose of determining whether or not a city hall building shall be built. The petition states that the bonds needed will not exceed $35,000.

A building suitable for the city, according to the petition, would provide offices for city officials and departments, a fire station and living quarters for a fireman, and a public auditorium.

Plans prepared by Amarillo architects for this building provide for an auditorium that would seat 1,000 persons. It would have a concrete floor and might be used for the Hemphill county fair, as well as for conventions and other public gatherings. The proposed building would be of steel, brick and stucco.

The Presbyterian church is preparing to build a new modern manse on a lot northeast of the church. Work will probably start in the near future. The church recently sold the old manse and the lot on which it stands for $1,250.

The nomination counts 2,000 free votes as a starter.

Roads Still in Rough Condition

Bus connections between Pampa and Amarillo were temporarily suspended yesterday morning when two of the large Reo buses became mired in the mud a mile east of Panhandle. The Safety First bus line was the only one to keep traffic open from Amarillo Monday.

According to O. H. Foster, local manager of the Safety First line, an attempt will be made to get two buses through this afternoon, but he had no definite word this morning as to the conditions of the road. To Johnnie Holder goes the credit for keeping the W. C. Bird line between Pampa and Clarendon in operation during the entire storm. He made his two trips a day, never being more than one hour late arriving at his destination.

There were 22 passengers in the bus attempting to make Pampa from Amarillo yesterday when it became mired near Panhandle.
