PAMPA, GRAY COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 20, 1928

PRICE FIVE CENTS

INDIANA ROBBERS GET $25,000

Local Men Optimistic on Return From Austin Hearing on Rule 37

GREAT ARRAY OF TALENT IN OIL PROTESTS

Drilling Petition Will Be Denied, It is Believed

DECISION TO BE GIVEN SOON

Granting Would Halt Gray Development Seriously

Belief that the state's petition to prevent drilling of oil wells within 1,000 feet of the cut-bank of the north fork in Gray and Wheeler counties will not be granted by the railroad commission, was expressed late yesterday by Pampa men who returned from the Austin hearing.

They asserted that the railroad commission gave them a cordial reception, and listened intently to the claims of what is said to have been the strongest protesting group ever heard by the commission. Representatives of nearly every major operating company in Texas—most of which have local interests—were present with their leading counsel and their engineering staffs. About 80 of the foremost lawyers of the state were on hand.

Among the Pampa men who testified were City Manager F. M. Gwin, J. E. Williams, A. E. Heiman, M. B. Davis, E. J. Dunnigan and H. E. Zollers.

Mr. Gwin, representing the Chamber of Commerce and a mass meeting of citizens, read a protest prepared by a committee appointed by that body. He traced the development of the suit out of which the hearing grew, and declared to grant the state's petition would be tantamount to granting an injunction restraining development of the best portion of the Gray and Wheeler oil pools.

"Everyone has pinned his faith in rule 37," he told the commission, "and has established his business accordingly. The fate of 15,000 persons hangs in the balance, and this commission would have no power to make restitution if their rights are denied."

Mr. Zollers, petroleum engineer for Dutch Shell, said that if the petition were granted, his company might as well leave the field. He estimated that under its provisions he could operate but 68 wells, although it has locations for more than 700. He denied that the formation is as porous as claimed by the attorney-general.

The commission's decision, expected to be lengthy, will be announced within a few days. Aroused by the state's relentless attacks upon land titles, the oil and gas bureau of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will have a meeting at Midland December 31 to devise remedial legislation for submission to the 41st legislature.

STONE AGE DADS MADE GIFTS FOR THEIR LITTLE BOYS

STOCKHOLM. (P)—Whether there was a Santa Claus in the stone age, primitive people provided toys for the amusement of their little ones.

Ivar Schnell, archaeologist of the state historical museum, has found miniature stone objects, clearly meant as playthings for children. One of these was a tiny but well made stone axe 2.5 centimeters in length, evidently fashioned by some fond stone age daddy for his little boy to play with, some 4,000 years ago.

KILLING OVER TRIFLE

TEMPLE, Dec. 20. (P)—Arguments over the right of the master of the house to arrange the furniture in his den to suit himself are said to have led to the killing of Will Lanham, 48, near Holland yesterday. Lanham's son was in the Bell county jail here today charged with the killing.

WEST TEXAS: Tonight and Friday, fair, not much change in temperature.

AND A SMILE

NEW YORK. (P)—Gil Boag, who is being sued for divorce in Wisconsin by Gilda Gray of the movies, has a shiner, a big black eye which he describes as a Christmas card from Gilda. He says two men beat him up when he was leaving a restaurant; insists they described the beating as a Christmas present from Gilda. He likes the present so well he intends to go to Fort Washington, Wis., and prove by income tax returns that Gilda is a resident of New York and can't sue in Wisconsin.

LONDON BLAST RIPS STREETS IN WAR STYLE

Exploding Gas Mains Cause Quake of Intensity

MANY PERSONS ARE INJURED

Curbstones Are Flung Into Air—Windows Broken

LONDON, Dec. 20. (P)—West and central London were given a startling reminder of wartime air raids today when exploding gas mains caused a miniature earthquake that heaved up long stretches of streets and caved in shop fronts.

The explosions started when a workman entered a manhole with an electric blower used to remove foul air from passages leading into a large inspection chamber below the roadway outside of the post office depot in Broad street.

The first explosion was followed by a series of shocks along the street flinging curbstones into the air, knocking down pedestrians and shattering shop windows.

Cracks appeared in the road, wooden blocks were heaved up and the streets along which the explosions took place looked like a jagged trench.

Seventeen persons were injured seriously enough to be sent to hospitals, while many suffered minor hurts, being treated at the scene or returning to their homes.

Christmas Tree Held by Rotary Club Wednesday

A Christmas tree and distribution of presents to members of the club featured the meeting of the Rotary club at its regular session at the Methodist church yesterday. Paul Shepherd, chairman of the entertainment committee, was in charge of the program.

Judge Newton P. Willis made a short talk on the interest that Rotarians and the average citizen should take in local and state affairs. Frank Keim, newly elected president of the board of city development, gave a short discussion of the new board and what they expected to accomplish during the coming year.

It was announced that the next meeting will be held Friday instead of Wednesday next week. J. E. Murfee will preside in the absence of Lynn Boyd, president, and M. K. Brown, vice-president, who will not be present.

Visitors yesterday included Judge N. P. Willis, C. L. Baird, J. M. Saunders and Rotarian Ray Shifflett of Mangum, Okla.

SPUR WINS SUIT

LUBBOCK, Dec. 20. (P)—The city of Spur is free to build a municipal light and power plant if it wishes under a decision returned here yesterday by Judge James C. Wilson, who heard the petition of the West Texas Utilities company for a permanent injunction restraining the city from building the plant. The plaintiffs gave notice of an appeal.

NO CHRISTMAS PARDONS

AUSTIN, Dec. 20. (P)—Although he will probably issue a few pardons, they will not be Christmas pardons, Governor Moody said today. Like every other governor, he has been swamped with pleas for clemency by persons interested in some one behind prison walls, at this season of the year.

Kenneth (Doc) Sawyer, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Sawyer returned from New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell yesterday to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McDonald will spend the holidays with relatives in Chicago. They will leave tomorrow or the next day.

PLANE DASH ACROSS COUNTRY AFTER GIRL IS MYSTERIOUS

Young Woman Eludes Reporters and Her Pursuer Is Not Talking

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 20. (P)—Excited, because of the publicity she has received and weeping occasionally for relief, Miss Ruth McConnell, 26, of New York, arrived here today on the Overland limited and took a taxicab for an unannounced address.

F. E. Lane, Pullman conductor, said the young woman had confided in him en route that she was coming west for a vacation and to avoid marrying Kenneth B. Coulter, New York broker. Miss McConnell said that Coulter was not her uncle, as dispatches from New York had said, but was an acquaintance who had sought her hand in marriage. Lane said the girl told him she expected to go to San Francisco and become a music teacher.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20. (P)—Mystery concerning the airplane dash across half the United States in apparent pursuit of a girl deepened today as the principals, who have refused interviews, neared this city and contradictory reports of the affair continued.

Miss Ruth McConnell, 26, eluded newspapermen as she passed through Reno, Nev., on an overland train last night, a considerable distance ahead of Dr. David O. Meeker of Rochester, N. Y., who seeks to overtake her by air.

Dr. Meeker, who took off from Omaha yesterday morning 24 hours after the girl left there by train, lost time in the chase when he missed an airplane connection at Salt Lake City, where he was forced to spend last night. He said he would take to the air again today in the hopes of intercepting the girl.

It was reported that Meeker was acting for the girl's uncle, Kenneth B. Coulter of Clifton Springs, N. Y., and that the girl, a runaway, missing for three weeks, was attempting to reach San Francisco to take passage for foreign ports.

Meeker greeted reporters in Salt Lake City intelligently and said only that it was "a little trip to surprise Miss McConnell."

Miss McConnell was said by trainmen to be "in a state of nervous collapse" when she passed through Reno. A conductor, assuming the role of spokesman, said his passenger was "worried about a man with $60,000,000 and an understudy named Meeker." He added she desired to reach here before being detected.

War Declared on Airplane Hunters

AMARILLO, Dec. 20. (P)—Steps to confiscate airplanes used in running down and killing game are planned by S. D. Turner, district game warden. Hunters are reported to have killed two antelopes and geese here recently from planes. An Oklahoma army officer, reported to have killed the geese is under investigation. Ranchmen saw an airplane zigzagging low, apparently in search of game, and later found the two dead antelopes, but were unable to get the number of the plane.

Mrs. S. A. Burns, Mrs. F. A. Hollenbeck and Mrs. P. T. McNamara spent yesterday in Amarillo.

Thorough Canvass for Toys Will Be Made Saturday Morning by Scouts and Lions—Cooperation of Citizens Urged

A house-to-house canvass for toys to be given away at the Community Christmas tree Monday evening at the gymnasium will be launched at 9 o'clock Saturday morning by the Lions club.

Trucks furnished by Lions and manned by Boy Scouts will shake the rounds over the city to collect toys or donations of money. Toys are needed for about 75 girls and 75 boys. The gifts will be taken to the Methodist church, where they will be repacked by Scouts and Lions Saturday night. On Monday morning sacks will be filled.

Honor "Modern Carrie Nation"

After Mrs. Maude Wilson of Kansas City took an ax in hand and wrecked a bar where her daughter and her husband had been serving liquor, business men of the neighborhood bought her a nice basket of flowers to show their approval. Mrs. Wilson is pictured here receiving the tribute at a luncheon in her honor.

OKLAHOMA AIR TOUR MAY BE BROUGHT TO PAMPA IN 1929

Buffalo Steak Will Be Served American Legion

Nice juicy buffalo steaks with accessories will be served at the American Legion home tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock to ex-service men. The "feed" will not be for members of the Legion only, but for all ex-service men who can show their discharge papers or receipts of membership to the American Legion, here or for some other post.

Meat for the dinner was secured from Col. Charles Goodnight. The dinner will be cooked at the Pla-Mor auditorium and served in the Legion home.

The committee in charge is anxious that every Legion member bring an ex-service man with him to the big "blow out." The local post is noted for its great feeds and the one tomorrow night will be no exception, Commander F. M. Culbertson, says.

C. S. Craven, assistant superintendent of the Plains division of the Santa Fe, H. D. Wagner, district engineer and T. B. Hart, road master made a flying trip to Pampa this morning.

An effort will be made to bring the 1929 Oklahoma good-will airplane tour to Pampa. Ray Shifflett, a member of the committee in charge of routing the tour, said this morning. Mr. Shifflett has a training school here, with more than a dozen students.

Local citizens will be asked to assist in bringing the Oklahoma caravan to Pampa. According to Mr. Shifflett, the trip will be made by at least 35 planes. A definite date has not been set, but a meeting of the committee in charge has been called for after the holidays, when plans will be completed.

Mr. Shifflett, accompanied by O. W. McGuire and Casey Brady of Webster City, Iowa, landed here in the dark Tuesday night. Although it is unmarked and unlighted, the aviators made a landing on the local field without mishap.

Preceding the big boss, Boyd Kennedy, one of the four transport pilots in the United States under the age of 21 years, landed in the afternoon for the regular week of instruction. Last night the Schneider hotel was the scene of the aviation school round table class. Casey Brady, noted World War pilot, made the talk of the evening. He discussed aviation from its founding. He went back to the time of the covered wagon and sketched the rapid growth of transportation to the present time.

Mr. Shifflett gave an instructive talk on the principles of flying and the rigging of an airplane. By means of diagrams, he instructed the students, 12 in number, on the assembly of an airplane.

Woman Tries for Endurance Record

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., Dec. 20. (P)—Miss Viola Gentry came down out of the rain-filled skies at 1:51 o'clock this afternoon after establishing an endurance solo flight record for women of eight hours, six minutes and 37 seconds. She made a perfect landing despite the heavy rain and showed no fatigue from her hours in the air.

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., Dec. 20. (P)—Bundled in a vast amount of clothing to protect her from a chilling wind, Miss Viola Gentry, 28, took off in an open cockpit biplane at 5:44:28 a. m., today in an attempt to establish an official women's endurance record.

Her plane carried 100 gallons of gasoline and she hoped to remain in the air until 7 o'clock tonight. No endurance record for women is now officially recognized.

Field attendants said Miss Gentry was clad for her flight more warmly than any aviator ever to leave this field. Her equipment to battle the elements included a heavy topcoat, two flying suits, a woolen head protector, a fur-lined helmet, fur-lined gloves reaching to the elbows and fur-lined boots.

"It's Like This—"

MARRIAGE and divorce statistics, released for this afternoon by the national department of commerce, are difficult to analyze as far as this section is concerned, owing to the fact that population in the Panhandle has increased out of proportion in the years covered, 1926 and 1927.

Texas as a whole had 74,042 marriages in 1927, compared with 69,902 in 1926—an increase of 5.9 per cent. There were 17,290 divorces in that year, representing an increase of 11.9. Based on total population figures, the increase of 1927 over 1926 was 13.7 per cent compared with 13.2 and for divorces 3.20 compared with 2.91. In other words, the tendency toward more divorces is growing, and those contemplating marriage probably increase their chances for divorce each year they postpone the ceremony.

Table titled 'Statistics for 1927 from some Panhandle counties.' with columns for County, Mar., and Div. Lists counties like Carson, Castro, Childress, etc.

Table titled 'Some divorce comparisons:'. Compares 1926 and 1927 divorce rates for various counties like Carson, Childress, Donley, etc.

Gray county had 96 marriages and 6 divorces in 1926, while in 1927 there were 141 marriages and 41 divorces. It therefore appears that the ratio has been hiked skyward by the influx of oil field population. This same conclusion is borne out by an examination of figures for Hutchinson and Carson. Most nearby counties are too small to be adequate statistically, but the substantial county of Childress fails to show this tendency. Childress had 249 marriages and 22 divorces in 1926 and 557 marriages and 34 divorces in 1927. Lubbock had about the same slight increase, in keeping with the trend of the time.

Some of the counties of low population show doubled divorce figures, but they are too small to prove anything. In the above list, divorce seems to be unpopular in some counties. For 1927, Randall had 164 marriages and only four divorces, Parmer had 103 marriages and 4 divorces, and Floyd 135 marriages and but six wrecked homes. The older, stabilized counties are most likely to produce permanent ties.

We are not sure these figures mean anything in particular. The influx to an oil territory brings people who are extremely poor and those who are more than normally rich, and also those who either get rich or lose all their possessions. Thus homes fail here that have been established elsewhere, and we inherit many tottering families whose defections have their beginning elsewhere.

Knowing the oil field people as we do, we are by no means ready to admit that the average, ambitious couple is more likely to wreck the marital ship upon the billows of oil than upon the rocks of any other matrimonial sea.

WASHINGTON LETTER WASHINGTON—Mrs. Herbert Hoover, First Lady-elect, does not go now, and never has one, say those "in the know", to a beauty parlor for a shampoo and curl and all the hirsute what-have-yous that beauty parlors proffer.

Lady in fact, leaves the White House without knowing just what beauty parlors can do, it'll not be the fault of the parlors.

The fight is on. It's such an open secret in the Washington hairdressing trade that someone must capture the good will and work of the next First Lady that the matter has ever been brought up in closed sessions of beauty parlor associations in solemn convention assembled.

"The entire beauty business the country over will suffer if it is learned that Mrs. Hoover does her own hair and rarely, if ever, has a professional "facial," is the word which has seeped out through authentic but unquotable channels.

"She must be made to see that not only can she personally profit by swinging into line with all modern women and having professional beauty work done, but she must be made to see that it is her duty as America's First Women to bolster up this great industry."

One speaker in such a gathering rose to his feet to remind the cause that Mrs. Coolidge never had permitted herself to buy or wear imported clothes, and that what she had done to strengthen the cause of American designing, so Mrs. Hoover must do for the American beauty shop.

A girl in a shop where Mrs.

Coolidge has gone for special tonic and scalp massage treatments throughout her residence in the White House, outlined the situation like this:

"About half a dozen beauty parlors in this city are lying awake nights trying to dope out a plan to get Mrs. Hoover a customer. Our shop is working by approach through several of her close friends who have been our customers for years. They have promised to do everything possible to bring her to us."

Most of the other shops are using the same tactics. The Hoover are sufficiently well known in Washington for the shops to know that the approach simply cannot be through graft or bribery. Queen Marie might accept a set of hand engraved toilet receptacles filled with a certain brand of toilet preparations and permit the manufacturer to say that she used them exclusively. But this would only antagonize Mrs. Hoover.

A friend may be able to persuade her that as First Lady she must devote more time to the business of being beautiful, and if she is so persuaded she will naturally go to the shop which her friend recommends. The winning place will be the one with the customers nearest to the coveted customer.

Great opportunities are open to habitual golfers these days to write Broadway stage hits.

Grover Whalen, New York's official welcomer, is said to be slated for the job of police commissioner. The theory may be that the killer of Arnold Rothstein is waiting to be sure he'll be cordially received before he surrenders.

Oh, well, if you must, do your shopping early on Christmas Eve.

New York City is to have double deck highways. Well, so do we in wet weather—the top of the mud and the bottom of the mud, when there is a bottom.

It is said one of our presidents would never have achieved this success if he had not been fired as a trombone player. Most of us are not good enough on those things to be fired, and anyhow, the sax has won a musical berth and even the president's son plays the thing.

Lots of people on the straight and narrow have their heads too high to notice the needy along the right-of-way.

Great is modern communication: A South American president interviewed Hoover and scooped those Yankee scribes on the gunboat. Incidentally, Hoover's remarks about future U. S. policy sound good but rather of the tales-out-of-school flavor.

As a rule, when a woman speaks for her husband she does not so much misquote as overquote him.

We are not old, but we never expected to see the time when those old flamboyant Christmas ties would be up to snuff. So don't be too hasty in junking your gifts this year.

Wreaths of evergreen and other Yuletide symbols were combined attractively to create a delightful setting for a Christmas party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cassidy, whose guests were members of the Night Owl bridge club. Four tables, with appointments in the holiday motif, were arranged for bridge, and at the conclusion of the game, amusing gifts were exchanged.

The guest list included the following names: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seal, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wakeman, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Murphy, Mrs. J. H. Lavender, Mr. and Mrs. Rodger McConnell. High score and favors went to Mrs. Seal and Mr. Murphy, while Mrs. Mitchell was consoled for low score. Dainty refreshments were served.

Women of Catholic Church Guests at Christmas Party

Mrs. A. B. Zahn, president of the Altar society of Holy Souls church, opened her home yesterday afternoon to members of the society and all other women of the church for a pleasant social gathering and short business session. The house was attractively decorated for the Christmas season. A small tree was hung with gifts exchanged by the 24 guests attending the meeting.

During the business session plans were made for distributing Christmas packages to the poor of the city.

Mrs. W. M. Boyles Gives Christmas Party for Club

Members of the Pla-Mor bridge club met yesterday as guests of Mrs. W. M. Boyles, who entertained with two tables. The rooms, softly lighted with red candles, were gay in holiday colors, and a beautifully decorated Christmas tree held favors to be awarded at the end of the game.

Mrs. R. H. Kitchings won high score and Mrs. F. G. Browne made low. Other players were: Mrs. Claude Lard, Mrs. Roy Kilgore, and Mrs. A. L. Jones. A delicious luncheon was served in the late afternoon.

Menus for the Family

By SISTER MARY
BREAKFAST—Apple sauce, cereal cooked with figs, cream, crisp toast, creamed eggs, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Parsnip soufflé, rye bread, hearts of celery, fruit tapioca pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked halibut steaks, cottage fried potatoes, stewed tomatoes with croutons, stuffed pepper ring salad, grape sponge, milk, coffee.

Two fish steaks cut about 3-4 inch thick are arranged sandwich fashion with a well-seasoned bread stuffing for the filling and baked about half an hour. An oyster sauce is delicious with halibut and exalts the dish to "company" level.

Parsnip soufflé is a good way to serve this often despised winter vegetable.

Parsnip Soufflé
Four medium-sized parsnips, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon sugar, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup milk, 2 eggs.

Scrub parsnips and cook until tender in boiling water. Remove skins and put through a vegetable ricer or rub through a colander. Season with salt, pepper, sugar and 1 tablespoon butter. Melt remaining butter in sauce pan, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Cook, stirring until thick and smooth. Remove from fire and add prepared parsnips. Add yolks of eggs beaten until thick and lemon colored. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry and fold into mixture. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake 25 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve at once or the soufflé will fall.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Downs have gone to Dallas to spend the Christmas holidays.

Wheat Prospects Very Good For This Season

Prospects for a bumper wheat crop in the Pampa trade territory next year are good, according to local elevator men who have made a survey this fall. Although the wheat does not look as good as in former years, it is more deeply rooted and with present weather conditions should continue to hold its own, they say.

Estimates made by elevator men show a decrease of about 5 per cent in the number of acres of wheat planted. Conditions are about 85 per cent normal over a 10-year estimate but conditions this fall and winter are a duplicate of 1919 and 1920 when the Panhandle, and especially this trade territory, had bumper crops.

This year's crop is under the first estimate made, due to dry weather conditions. The Pampa trade territory produced about 1,200,000 bushels of wheat in 1928. Considerably grain is still being kept by farmers in the hope that the market price will increase.

There will be more spring wheat sown this year, in the opinion of the elevator men. They believe that it will do well and bring prices equal to fall wheat. A small portion of wheat will have to be resown with spring wheat, they say.

J. B. Bowers returned yesterday from Austin, where he attended the hearing of the oil and gas division of the railroad commission relative to changing of rule 37.

H. G. Myers, superintendent of the Black, Sivalis and Bryson Tank company, is having X-ray work done at the McKean & Connor clinic hospital this morning.

Mother or Dad will appreciate furniture from G. C. Malone Furniture company.

AMUSEMENTS

REX VAUDEVILLE

The Apollo boys, wearing 18-carat gold shields, are headliners on the big-time Rex vaudeville program for this week. They "take" spectacular acrobats who use the paraphernalia of the old Roman era as a motif for their act.

Raymond and Anna, ventriloquists, are claimed to be among the best on any circuit, and some new ideas lend uniqueness to their offerings.

The third act of the bill for Friday and Saturday is full of comedy—a feature expected to put the finishing touches on an hour of flashing performance.

Showing for the last time today at the Rex is "Freedom of the Press," a picture which gives the inside story of gangster influence and of violence toward newspapers who expose the vicious conditions in the big cities. There is an appealing love story, in addition to the fireworks, bombing, and other gangster plot activities.

Miss Elaine Truhitte will leave this week for her home in Monette, Mo., where she will attend high school the remainder of this year. She has attended the local high school the entire fall term, making her home with her uncle and aunt, the Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Truhitte.

Santa Claus to Be in Front of Big Malone Store

Every child in Pampa will be assured of receiving a gift from Santa Claus this year. At 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon he will arrive in front of the G. C. Malone Furniture store on North Cuyler street where a large Christmas tree will be placed.

Every child in the city is invited to be present. Mr. Malone says that he has received word that Santa will be loaded with toys when he arrives and that no child will be disappointed if they are there promptly at 3 o'clock. Comfortable seats will be provided in the store for parents who accompany the smaller children.

Abilene Football Mad as Port Arthur Yellowjackets Arrive in City for Championship Tilt Friday

Stribling or Tom Loughran May Be Heavy Champion

By ALAN J. GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor. NEW YORK, Dec. 20. (P)—It has been demonstrated before that a good light heavyweight, or even a first-class middleweight such as Bob Fitzsimmons was at one time, can clean up the heavy weight division.

There is a need for such cleaning up as the campaign of 1929 is about to get under way, and it would not be surprising to see the task performed by one or the other of these light heavyweight products—Tommy Loughran and W. L. (Young) Stribling. Speed and skill have been accomplishing as much as, if not considerably more than, the old-fashioned sock in this heavyweight era. Loughran and Stribling have both. A long string of knockouts is also produced to ballyhoo the so-called Stribling sock, but the Georgian has yet to demonstrate its potency outside the barnstorming circuit. Thirty knockouts in some 36 fights sounds impressive enough until the list of victims is scanned.

Yet there seems no doubt now to most critics that Stribling must be seriously reckoned with as a contender for Tunney's vacated title. The Georgian's acrobatic has youth and unusual endurance in his favor. And it is significant just how that he is more willing to mix with the top-notchers than they are with him.

Loughran's rise to the fistic heights frequently has been compared with that of Tunney and with reason. The broad-shouldered Philadelphia is not showy but is an unusually effective workman, fast, ring-wise and a good body puncher of Tunney's type. There is another parallel, for Loughran came back to win one of his greatest fights, from Leo Lonski, after being knocked down and almost out, just as Tunney was in his last battle with Jack Dempsey.

Loughran, like Tunney, has had a thorough schooling in light heavyweight ranks, displaying a willingness to fight all comers. Loughran and Stribling, filling out and taking on weight to make the heavyweight grade, have a much better chance against such full-fledged heavies as Sharkey, Risko, Paulino and Maloney than other 175-pounders who have essayed ring adventures outside their class.

Few light heavies furnished more exciting moments than Paul Berlenbach and Jack Delaney in recent years but, neither was able to make appreciable headway against the bigger fellows. Berlenbach fought himself out in the lighter division, when still a young man, while Delaney either lacked the stamina and durability necessary to mix with the good big men or found his sharpshooting ineffective against them.

SANDERS IS CAPTAIN

DALLAS, Dec. 20. (P)—The 1929 Southern Methodist university Mustangs will have Henry J. (Choc) Sanders, given three eastern votes as an all-American guard, as titular head. Sanders was named captain yesterday by his fellow players.

ABILENE, Dec. 20. (P)—With both principals on hand and the decks cleared for action, this West Texas metropolis was football mad today as it awaited the whistle that will send the husky Abilene Eagles against the Port Arthur Yellowjackets on Parramore field tomorrow in the final tussle for the state high school championship.

Abilene officials were forced to place $6,000 on the barrel head to obtain the title game, but at the rate tickets were going today the venture promised to be a great financial success. Scarcely more than 3,000 seats had been sold and the $6,000 already was in the bank. At 10,000 persons were expected to witness the clash.

Enthusiasts of this section were to get their first glimpse of the visiting Yellowjackets this afternoon, when they will take a light workout. Coach Tom Dennis and his Gulf Coast warriors arrived late yesterday. He reported his squad in excellent shape, including Captain Dumisil, fleet halfback, who was injured in the Marshall game last week.

Coach Mayhew's scouts, who saw the Jackets in action against Marshall, have told him his boys are up against a scrapping team and cannot afford to let down a minute.

Indications are that the contending eleven are about evenly matched in backfield talent, but Abilene supporters expected the Eagles heavier line to pave the way to victory tomorrow. If the weight of the Port Arthur forward wall has been correctly stated, 157 pounds average, the Eagles forwards will have an advantage of about 15 pounds to the man. It is not conceivable to Abilene fans that a 157-pound line, no matter how well coached, can withstand the batterings of its huskies for four quarters.

If the Port Arthur dike breaks, through will go "Gipping Lucy" Phelps and Smith, the two Eagle backs who have planned their cleats on so many hostile goal lines this season.

Tomorrow's championship game will be the ninth since the Interscholastic League was organized in 1920. Following is a summary of previous title frays.

- 1920—Cleburne and Houston Heights tied, 0 to 0.
- 1921—Bryan, Texas, defeated Oak Cliff, Dallas, 35 to 13.
- 1922—Waco defeated Abilene, 13 to 10.
- 1923—Abilene defeated Waco, 3 to 0.
- 1924—Oak Cliff defeated Waco, 31 to 0.
- 1925—Waco defeated Forest High, Dallas, 20 to 7.
- 1926—Waco defeated Oak Cliff, 20 to 7.
- 1927—Waco defeated Abilene, 21 to 14.

Buffaloes Will Not Get Sweaters Until January

CANYON, Dec. 20. (Special)—D. A. Shirley, chairman of the athletic committee of the West Texas State Teachers' college, states that no letters will be awarded the members of the Buffalo football squad until after the holidays.

Letters are dependent upon academic work as well as skill with the pigskin and therefore cannot be awarded until grades are in December 21.

The men will receive their honors in an assembly of students shortly after the reopening of the college, January 2.

Kubale, Line Coach at T. C. U., Will Be 1929 Centre Mentor

FORT WORTH, Dec. 20. (P)—Ed Kubale, line coach at Texas Christian university for the last three seasons, will not assist head Coach Matty Bell next year. "Ku" has accepted the head-coach position of his Alma Mater Centre college in Kentucky.

The Praying Colonels were one of the outstanding grid teams several seasons ago when Matty Bell, Kubale, Bo McMillin, and other stars were performing for the little blue grass school. Kubale was one of the outstanding centers of the country the year the Colonels downed Harvard on their home lot.

A dearth of coaching power has allowed the Centre teams to go down hill in the past few seasons, and an attempt was made at the close of last season to remedy this difficulty. Officials of the institution, after a careful survey, offered the post to one of the best line builders in the Southwestern conference.

Kubale has become famous over the circuit for his power in building defensive lines. The first year that he coached his old team mate with the Purple team, the Frogs put one of the strongest teams in the conference on the field, despite the fact that material in sufficient quantities were lacking. It was Ed Kubale's line that held the championship Aggies in 1925, to administer the only defeat the Farmers suffered that season.

The same coaching was responsible for the determined stand against the Aggies last year, again a championship aggregation, to make a 0-0 tie. This same was the nearest the Farmers came to defeat last year. In the season just finished, the tight defense of the Frog team was noted throughout the conference, and the Frog goal line was cross less than that of any other team in the loop. No team was able to score more than one marker against the Kubalean line.

"Ku" has a complete knowledge of football and it is upon this phase that the Centre coach drills his lines. He is an advocate of fundamental football, playing the game safe and taking few chances. He will take up his new duties at Centre next season.

Kubale's successor has not yet been named.

GINNING TOTAL REVEALED WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (P)—The census bureau announced today that cotton of this year's crop ginned prior to December 13, totaled 13,148,411 bales including 559,741 round bales counted as half bales.

Pocket Billiards Title in Dispute Over Infracrion

CHICAGO, Dec. 20. (P)—The first double-joined cue championship tournament at which the pocket billiards and three-cushion billiards championships of the world were at stake, ended in excitement early today.

Johnny Layton, the Missouri cue expert, retained the world's title in the three-cushion tournament by winning the final match from Willie Hoppe, 50 to 23 in 22 innings. The pocket billiards title, which also was to have been settled last night, remains in dispute.

Frank Taberski, Schenectady, protested to the National Billiards association following his interrupted match with Ralph Greenleaf, the champion, charging that Greenleaf violated the rules by leaving the room twice during the playing of their match.

Final decision of the committee was that Taberski and Greenleaf should meet again tomorrow night. Greenleaf needs a victory over Taberski to clinch retention of the title. A victory for Taberski would precipitate a tie between the two.

Harvesters Have Dignity of Wearing Football Sweaters

Twenty-two members of the Pampa Harvester football squad were awarded sweaters in chapel yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Before being given a sweater by Coach Odus Mitchell, each player had to make a speech, or an attempt. When it comes to making speeches Irwin, Clinger and Barnard are just as adept as they are at playing football, Coach Mitchell says.

The sweaters are wool pull-overs of a golden color. On each sweater is a green "P" on a gold background and on the sleeves a stripe for each year of football played. Coaches Mitchell and A. M. Fox were also given sweaters.

Seven of this year's team will be missed from the ranks when the season opens next fall, and it will be hard to fill the vacancies. Those who will be among the missing are Capt. Bob Kahl, Troy Stalls, Clinger, Green, Archie Walstad, Carson and Robertson.

Those receiving sweaters yesterday were Kahl, Mullen, Barnard, Stalls, Willis, Saulsbury, Seitz, Barnett, Ir-

Lower Valley Is Interested in Own Football Game

BROWNSVILLE, Dec. 20. (P)—While Abilene and Port Arthur are fighting it out at Abilene for the state high school football title the Lower Valley and South Texas will turn its attention to the game which the Brownsville high school eleven has scheduled with Depaul academy, parochial champions of Chicago.

To die this season Brownsville has not been defeated or tied, has never yielded a touch down to an opponent, has never failed to score four touchdowns in a game and has scored 328 points to 2 points yielded opponents.

Douglas Fessenden, former University of Illinois track star coaches the Brownsville team.

Golf Champions Not Required in Qualifying Round

AVALON, Catalina Island, Calif., Dec. 20. (P)—Golfing champions not required to play in the qualifying rounds of the island's first open tournament began arriving here today as 80 golfers tramped the rough little 9-hole course in the second day of the qualifying rounds.

Of the 100 golfers who start the three days of tournament play for $2,500 prizes tomorrow, Ted Barnes of Los Angeles probably will be the favorite, following his qualifying score of 127 turned in yesterday.

Walter Hagen was among the better known pros entered in the tournament, which ends with 36 holes Sunday.

Central High Girls Will Meet Miami Team Tomorrow

Smarting under a defeat in Miami last Saturday night the local high school girls' basketball team is set to meet the Miami girls in the new gymnasium tomorrow night. The girls have received their new uniforms and will wear them in the game. The sweaters to the uniforms are of gold color. On each will be a green P on a gold background. The girls have been practicing hard for their first game with the Warriors and expect to wipe out the recent defeat. Several of last year's letter girls are on the team this year and with some fast newcomers are playing snappy basketball.

SCHOLARS BEFORE POPE

ROME, Dec. 20. (AP)—The prize scholars of the oratory of St. Peter, founded by the Knights of Columbus of America, had a privilege unique among the Catholic youth of the world today. The priest who administered their first communion to them was Pope Pius XI, who on this date entered the fiftieth year of his ministry. The boys approached the altar rail during the mass which the Pope said for the Milanese Pilgrims, came here to celebrate the Pontiff's "sacerdotal jubilee." The delegation from the Lombard capital was headed by Cardinal Toni, successor of the pope as archbishop of Milan.

Plane Disabled on Takeoff, But Is Landed Safely

CHICAGO, Dec. 20. (AP)—Another chapter in the bulky book of airplane daring was written in the skies over the municipal airport yesterday by Pilot C. Melton of the National Air Transport. One side of Melton's landing gear snapped as he took off. Other pilots took the air and by gestures pointed out his plight. For half an hour Melton circled the field, trying to decide whether to use his parachute and abandon the $12,000 plane, or to attempt landing which almost certainly meant a smashup, if not death. Suddenly he decided, and pointed the nose of his plane toward the field. The plane tipped over, smashed one wing and tilted up on its nose. Melton was only slightly hurt.

Refueling of Plane Successfully Done at Shreveport Field

SHREVEPORT, La., Dec. 20. (AP)—Refueling of an airplane while in flight was accomplished as the tri-motored Packer army plane "Question Mark" continued west to Shreveport yesterday, but the feat, the second one in the history of aviation, was said to have been an improvement over the aerial refueling of a plane piloted by Capt. Lowell H. Smith, in the transcontinental flight in June, 1923. Transfer of gasoline to the Question Mark from the supply ship, the C-2 occurred as the ships were flying at an altitude of 1,500 feet west of Alabama. The C-2, flying less than 30 feet above the Question Mark, extended a cable containing a rubber hose which was fastened to the latter's gasoline tank. Transfer of the fuel and release of the cable is said to have been accomplished within a few minutes. A new supply of motor oil also was transferred.

Dallas Men Will Be Tried Soon on Forgery Charges

DALLAS, Dec. 20. (AP)—Prospects that Ben C. Richards and A. A. Crabb, indicted on forgery charges in connection with the election bet which led to the sensational slaying of Orville Mathews here in September, would go to trial soon were seen today. Richards, a prominent business man here, declared the charges were false and he was willing to go to trial at any time. "I know this is spite work," he concluded. This statement was met by one from District Attorney William McCraw offering to bring the case to trial at any time Richards might select.

Arkansas Student to Spend Christmas Feeding Rat Colony

PAYETTEVILLE, Dec. 20. (AP)—From school boy to rat keeper will be the experience of Frank Pay Whitehead, junior in the pre-medical college at the University of Arkansas, this Christmas season. When the last school bell rang on its exit appeal, with recess declared until January 3, Whitehead will hurry to his boarding house, put his books away on a shelf and don overalls. "Doc," as Whitehead is familiarly known on the campus, will water, feed and help care for more than 2,500 of the pink-eyed rodents to earn his own Christmas spending money. The rat colony, purposely maintained in the university for experimental purposes, has every size and description rodent possible to keep alive. Big rats, tawny rats, little rats, brawny rats, slim rats, skinny rats and even baby rats are found here. It will be the daily duty of the would-be doctor to give his charges fresh water, fresh milk, and their ration of prepared food. "Doc," who originally hails from the University of Alabama, entered the Razorback school this year so that he might be ready to enter their medical school at Little Rock next fall. "The rats are harmless and the work is light," said Whitehead. "Besides, this job is quite a bit easier than the last one I had mixing concrete." See our windows for gift selections. G. C. Quiet Reigns in Wink After Raid by Many Officers

WINK, Dec. 20. (AP)—Wink, the mushroom oil boom town that glittered and roared through many nights and days, awaked to a strange tranquility today, and rather liked it.
 Streets were almost deserted of drifters and there was nothing audible to tell of the festive poker chip nor odor to point to the surreptitious dispensing of liquid cheer.
 Of the several score rangers, county officials and federal agents who participated in Tuesday night's cleansing only a handful remained to see that the lid stayed put. Half a dozen men, Harrison, Dyer and Volstead act investigators patrolled the streets with something like 50 warrants in their pockets, but with small hope. Their quarry had fled.
 Citizens of Wink, pleased at the changes wrought, were circulating a petition asking Ranger Captain Wright to retain John Northcutt, special ranger in charge of the district, in the oil pool area.
 It became known today that when the main body of raiders swooped down on this city Tuesday night, a score more were busily circulating through the Hendrick, the Leck, and the Sid Richardson-Frank Kelsey oil areas, serving warrants and scattering the undesirable element to the four winds. Visitors to the various pools found these persons remaining busily engaged in the oil industry.

Hoover May Visit Texas Before His Going to Office

U. S. S. UTAH, EN ROUTE TO RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 20. (AP)—Although Herbert Hoover has decided that he will not visit Havana on the present good will trip, it was stated today that he would go to the Cuban capital before his inauguration. He also considers a visit to Mexico City and Texas before March 4.
 The Utah was rolling along the Brazilian coast today at better than 15 knots and is to dock at Rio Janeiro at 2 p. m. tomorrow.
 Mr. Hoover was busy on the speech that he will deliver at Rio Janeiro when formally welcomed by Dr. Washington Luis Pereira de Souza, president of Brazil. His present desire is to get back to take up a multitude of matters awaiting his attention in connection with the beginning of his administration.

Big Oil Estate Is Sought by Thirty Three Alleged Heirs

ARCHER CITY, Dec. 20. (AP)—Thirty-three persons calling themselves heirs of A. M. Nelson, who died in the Alamo, seek to recover, in district court here, title to a one-sixth interest in 1,400 acres of Archer county oil lands, said to be worth $65,000,000.
 Forty-four defendants are named and the action is to be heard in February.
 In addition to title, the suit asks $10,000,000 as the sum obtained by the defendants from sale of oil taken from the land.
 Under headright provisions of the republic of Texas, the lands went to Nelson's widow and his daughter. The paternal branch of the family, the petition declared, gradually died out, and the female heirs, to whom the plaintiffs claim kinship, were entitled to the estate. Those suing now claim to be tenants in common with the present ostensible owners and due, under that theory, a sixth interest in the property.
 Luke McCrory of Wichita Falls, heirs of Luke Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goodnow and J. H. White are among the defendants. McCrory is trustee for the Wilson heirs.

King George Has Fifth Night's Rest

LONDON, Dec. 20. (AP)—The slow upward trend in King George's condition continued today.
 This morning's bulletin which again announced that his majesty had a good night's rest was the fifth successive one in which a slight improvement was recorded. This indication of steady, if small, gain for the king was cheering news for the public while in palace circles there was an air of greater optimism, although it has been repeatedly made clear that anxiety must continue until the patient has gained sufficient strength to convince his physicians that he is able to carry through to recovery.

Foster Parents Held For Chaining Boy

RACINE, Wis., Dec. 20. (AP)—Soft bandages today pressed the lacerated wrists of 11-year-old Raymond Stratton, found chained to a bed in the home of his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, yesterday.
 Raymond was in a hospital while the Johnsons were under arrest, charged with "torturing and cruelly mistreating a minor child." They told arresting officers they saw no harm in chaining the boy so he would not run away while they were at work.

CHARGE NOW MURDER

TEXARKANA, Dec. 20. (AP)—Murder charges were prepared against Cato Barfield of New Boston today as the result of the death yesterday of Ray Palmer of New Boston from gunshot wounds received 88 days ago. Barfield was charged with assault with intent to kill at the time of the shooting. Three operations and two blood transfusions were performed in an effort to save Palmer's life.

Scow Believed Used By Explorers Found

GRAND CANYON, Dec. 20. (AP)—The fate of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hyde of Hansen, Idaho, missing in their attempt to navigate the Grand Canyon of the Colorado in a home made scow, remained undetermined today as searchers converged by air and water upon the point where their boat has been located.
 Discovery of the craft, on the edge of the river at Separation falls, deep in the Canyon west of here, was made yesterday by Army aviators near the end of a two-day aerial hunt.
 The aviators, Don Q. Adams and William G. Plummer, planned to take off today to establish contact with a river party believed camping nearby. Messages, reporting the discovery and location of the scow will be dropped to the party, composed of P. P. Fraw of the Grand Canyon national park staff and Robert Francy and Jack Harbin.

 Rice, indicted for first-degree murder, pleaded guilty to second-degree murder when his trial opened last Monday.
 The Joost girl was struck and then strangled with an electric cord by Rice after, he said, she had tried to kiss him.

West's Nomination Put to Senate

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20. (AP)—Any further fight in the nomination of Roy O. West, Chicago, to be secretary of the interior, will be on the floor of the Senate. His confirmation has been favorably reported by the Senate public lands committee by a vote of 7 to 3 but only after Chairman Nye had read a statement in Mr. West's presence in which he said the appointment was "unfortunate."
 West's nomination was sent to the Senate along with that of William F. Whiting, secretary of Commerce. Whiting was confirmed several days ago but predictions that a fight would be made on West were borne out.

Stuckey Storing Paving Machinery

The Stuckey Construction company's new warehouse on South Cuyler street has been completed and the company's machinery is being stored for the winter. It has been impossible to do more than rough grade work in the city's third paving program.
 Two streets and four alleys are nearly ready to be paved and if weather conditions become favorable they will be paved this fall. Clyde Stuckey announced this morning. With the exception of one block, curb and gutter has been laid on both Russell and Tyng streets.
 Several cars of gravel and sand are in the company yard.

BRECKENRIDGE VOTING

BRECKENRIDGE, Dec. 20. (AP)—Three questions were being answered by the electorate here today. They were whether Breckenridge would have a new charter, a manager-commission form of government, and a Chamber of Commerce supported by municipal tax.
 Miss Cleora Stanard, who is a student in C. I. A. at Denton, arrived yesterday to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Alta Stanard.

Seattle Has Gold Rush Momentarily

SEATTLE, Dec. 20. (AP)—A gold rush stopped street repairing operations at Washington street and First avenue, South, for several hours yesterday when a workman turned up a gold nugget with his shovel. Jobless onlookers saw him make the find and the stampede was on.
 Over the site of what had once been the "M. & N." saloon and gambling house, a mecca of returning prospectors during the Klondike gold rush, fighting crowds of men re-enacted the scenes in the north of 30 years ago on a miniature scale.
 The muddy street yielded gold nuggets, gold chains, gold coins, South American currency, lockets, rings, necklaces and brooches, and brought Christmas to that part of town where December 25 is just another day without work.
