Million-Mark Passed, But Hardest Job In Bond Drive Yet Ahead

Howard county forged its way over the million-dollar mark Thursday in the Third War Loan campaign, but — sales yet to be made amount to more than the entire quota of the Second War Loan last April.

"Compare the job ahead with the fact that our whole April assignment was only $703,000," said Drive Chairman Ted O. Groebel, "and you'll see that we are just now running up against our real wartime challenge."

"What we do between now and next Thursday night will tell the story of whether we are ready to make a real sacrifice in this war, or whether we are going to put into bonds only the spare dollars. From now on, it takes more than spare dollars. It will take everything we can scrape up."

Other firms had signed up for participation in Saturday's "Business for Uncle Sam" day, and the day's program is expected to bring in several thousand more in bond investments. Firms and individuals taking part in the undertaking are pledging to invest in government securities in the amount of double their day's gross business.

Firms which have signed up, in addition to those previously announced, include:

- Robinson & Sons
- Big Spring Ins. Agency
- Tate & Bristow
- Doctors' Bureau of Texas
- Norman F. Priest
- Merle J. Stewart
- Robert Stripling
- Chrane Dental Laboratories
- Dr. E. O. Ellington
- J. F. McCrary
- Jordan Printing Co.
- Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co.
- Big Spring Laundry
- Packing House Market
- Big Spring Paint & Paper
- Leon's Flowers
- Brownfield Beauty Shop
- Collins Bros. Drugs

Committeemen stressed the tax notes Friday, in the opinion that many people had overlooked this series in buying E, F, and G bonds. Purchase of the C notes now would merely mean paying your income taxes in advance.

Minimum denomination on the C notes is $1,000, but if an individual's income tax payment is less, he may cash the notes, after second calendar month of purchase, to use what he needs for income tax payment.

Bankers and other bond salesmen will be glad to give full information on the tax notes.

"We feel that many people, in addition to their war bond holdings, would like to make provision for future income tax payments," the committee said. "The treasury savings notes offer this opportunity—and they count on our county's quota in the Third War Loan."

Atherton Will Head Legion

OMAHA, Sept. 24 (AP)—The American Legion was committed today to the support of a post-war program endorsing participation by the United States in a post-war association of "free and sovereign nations" to preserve peace.

The legion in accepting committee reports at the close of its 25th annual convention yesterday gave its approval to post-war cooperation as a method by which "our nation can best serve and protect its natural interests."

Full support of present draft policies of the administration, including taking of pre-World War fathers into the armed services, was seen in adoption of a report submitted by the legion's national defense committee.

The convention elected—without opposition—Warren Atherton, Stockton, Calif., attorney, national commander to succeed Roane G. Waring of Memphis, Tenn.

Battleship Roma Got Square Hit In Stack

MAHON, Balearic Islands, Sept. 23, (delayed) (AP)—Survivors of the Italian Battleship Roma said today that 1,400 crewmen were killed and some 500 others were burned seriously when a German plane scored a hit squarely in the vessel's stack.

Italy's newest and largest warship "exploded like a bomb," one sailor said, as she sped southward toward Algiers shortly after the Italian capitulation.

Escorting cruisers and gunboats rescued about 700 of the survivors, and a few others were picked up by launches from the Balearics.

Nazis Retreat To North On Corsica

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 24, (AP)—The Germans are continuing their northward withdrawal on Corsica, a French communique said today. Allied forces have occupied Bonifacio and Porto Vecchio while Allied planes intercepted German attempts at an aerial evacuation.

Bastia, on the northern tip of the 112-mile-long island, has been rendered almost useless to the enemy through continued air raids, the French high command said. Several ammunition dumps and numerous tanks on a quayside, awaiting embarkation, were destroyed.

The occupied town of Bonifacio and Porto Vecchio are at the southern end of the Napoleonic Isle.

French air force units are participating in the operations.

Survey Completed On Garden City Hwy.

The Big Spring-Garden City highway job has now entered its second phase.

Survey on the route has been completed and now the responsibility of securing right-of-way has devolved upon Howard and Glasscock counties.

Division highway engineers have said that as soon as the roadway is secured, construction work can be started on the project.

NAZI CLAIMS

LONDON, Sept. 24 (AP)—The German news agency DNB broadcast today that German troops had captured the island of Cephalonia, in the Ionian sea off the west coast of Greece. It reported hard fighting against numerically superior Badoglio troops.

Allies Step Up Naples Drive

Reds Reach Dnieper In Full Force

Only Three Miles Away Lies Border Of White Russia

MOSCOW, Sept. 24, (AP)—The Red army has reached the Dnieper in force, and other Soviet units northwest of Smolensk have reached the village of Tarasenk, only three miles from the border of White Russia, Soviet dispatches said today.

German forces are abandoning their Kuban bridgehead in the Caucasus, the Berlin radio announced today as surging Russian troops threatened to engulf Nazi positions along the lower Dnieper and still further north moved within artillery range of Smolensk.

This German admission followed by some 36 hours a Russian announcement of the capture of Anapa, the last Black Sea port held by the Nazi on the Taman peninsula.

As a result of steady Russian advances in the Kiev sector, meanwhile, the situation of the German forces along the bend of the lower Dnieper appeared to be growing more critical by the hour.

(The British radio, quoting reports from Moscow, declared the Russians were "so close to the Dnieper river at some points that they can shell enemy positions on the other side, CBS said.

Russian spearheads, the broadcast added, have blasted through the outer defenses of Kiev to within 10 miles of the Ukrainian capital, capture of which would unhinge the entire German defense system based on the Dnieper valley.)

Capture of Poltava yesterday gave the Russians control of a 300-mile stretch of territory bordering the middle Dnieper between Dnepropetrovsk and Chernigov, and opened the way for a direct advance on Cherkasi and Kremenchug, both important enemy bases on the Dnieper.

More than 5,300 Germans were killed in the day's fighting, the Moscow war bulletin stated, and 863 more liberated towns and villages were added to the Russian bag.

In a drive aimed at Vitebsk, strategic rail junction northwest of Smolensk, Moscow said the Red army troops had thrown back 20 counter attacks and forced passage of the Kasplya river.

The Moscow radio yesterday said that Russian troops already were fighting within the borders of White Russia, apparently in the Chernigov-Gomel area.

Govs. Attend Oil Meeting

SANTA FE, N. M., Sept. 24, (AP)—Governors Andrew Schoepel of Kansas and Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma headed a long list of state officials here today for opening of a two-day meeting of the interstate oil compact commission.

Besides organizational matters, the group scheduled a discussion late today of federal proposals for oil well drilling.

The sessions opened amid indication the group would request an increase in the price of crude oil to spur drilling for new petroleum reserves and possibly might recommend improvements in the present gasoline rationing system.

Cattle Brands Will Be Obsolete Unless Re-Registered By October 1

Cattle brands registered in Howard county as long ago as 1892, about the time the county was organized, will become obsolete under a new law enacted by the last legislature unless they are re-registered beginning October 1st, 1943.

Listed in the county books at the county clerk's office are over 2,000 brands as well known and famous as the Texas' longhorn steer.

The law states that the legal owner of a brand or mark shall have a preferential right to record his brand for two years, beginning October 1, 1943. If he has not done so the brand is forfeited and subject to registration by any person, the first person to record it becomes the lawful owner.

The law further states that any brand record in accordance with

Third Jap Base In Guinea Is Pounded By Artillery

Details Of Amphibious Advance Are Revealed

By OLEN CLEMENTS
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sept. 24, (AP)—Australian artillery pounded the Japanese today in the New Guinea coastal base of Finschhafen, arching shells over frontline patrols which have beaten down rapidly fading enemy resistance to reach the edge of an airfield two miles north of their objective.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur thus confronted the Japanese with the threatened loss of their third air base since Sept. 12 in a jungle sector where the enemy already has expended more than 12,000 men.

Today MacArthur permitted release of the first details of the amphibious operation against Finschhafen, only 70 over-water miles southwest of New Britain, a key position of the Japanese.

Australians began landing on a beach six miles north of Finschhafen at dawn Wednesday.

American warships bombarded enemy positions beyond the beachhead. Bombers dropped 21 tons of explosives on Finschhafen. Attack planes fired 48,000 rounds of ammunition.

Eighty-five miles northeast, the Japanese air units at Cape Gloucester, New Britain, were prevented from interfering. For four hours there, big American bombers blasted with 73 tons of bombs and attack planes poured out 15,000 rounds of bullets.

Not until mid-morning did any Japanese planes appear. Two were shot down from high altitude. At noon, as the ships were withdrawing, between 20 and 30 Japanese bombers arrived with an escort of upwards of 40 fighters.

The warships filled the sky with puffs of anti-aircraft fire. American fighters piled into enemy formations. Forty Japanese planes were downed for certain. Five more were believed destroyed. Only three Allied planes were lost and the pilot of one was saved.

Not a ship was damaged by the enemy. Not a passenger was injured. Headquarters emphasized that in today's communique.

Tommy Higgins Reported Safe

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Higgins have been notified that their son, Lieut. Tommy Higgins, who was reported missing in action, was only slightly wounded and that he is not missing as previously reported.

In April he was sent to India and on to China as a Warhawk and he served as a pilot in Gen. Chennault's famous 14th air force there.

Details in the notification were lacking.

John Bates Gets Two Death Notices Within One Week

John M. Bates has received news of the death of his brother, N. C. (Nick) Bates, who succumbed on Sept. 15, and of the subsequent death of his nephew, Nicholas Bates, who died of heart attack on Sept. 22. Both lived at Celina, Texas. Mr. Bates was unable to attend rites for either.

Harbor Facilities Being Wrecked By German Forces

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 24 (AP)—The Fifth army launched a full-scale offensive against German mountain positions guarding the route to Naples, it was announced today, while Allied motor torpedo boats stabbed into Valona harbor on the coast of Albania and sank two enemy vessels.

The onslaught by Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's American and British soldiers from their hard-won Salerno positions was accompanied by an intensification of the blockade of the waning German position on the island of Corsica. There RAF Beaufighters sliced into German air transport formations engaged in evacuating the enemy forces and shot down seven of the planes.

The communique from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said the Fifth army had captured Oliveto-Citra, 24 miles east of Salerno, while Matera, 36 miles northwest of Taranto, had been captured on the British front.

An official announcement said Altamura, 42 miles northwest of Taranto and 10 miles north of Matera, also had been captured.

The drive against Naples, Italy's second greatest port, was launched after a period of consolidation of the Allied springboard and while the Germans were reported engaged in large-scale demolitions, apparently with the idea of making the harbor installations useless when the Allies occupy the city.

(The Allied-controlled Palermo radio, in a broadcast reported today to the office of war information, said Italians escaping from Naples reported residents of the city were battling Germans in the streets, firing at the enemy from the windows of their homes or using stones if without firearms.

Citizens who rebel are shot without any inquiry by the German officials," the broadcast said. "Numerous Italian officers and soldiers have also been shot on grounds of non-collaboration.")

Driving northward into strongly defended saw-toothed positions, Clark's troops encountered heavy artillery and motor opposition as well as minefields, and a spokesman said they were making slow progress.

"The fighting is bitter and severe," he said.

"The enemy obviously intends to hold onto Naples as long as possible."

The attack, which has been in full progress from the first light of day yesterday, also was supported strongly by artillery and mortars.

White Clark threw nearly his full strength into the ferocious attack, the Germans were forced to concentrate almost entirely in that area and the British eighth army in the south was able to advance swiftly and almost at will.

The three-pronged attack rounded out smashes by American Flying Fortresses and medium Allied bombers yesterday to make the 24-hour raids and night operation of the war.

L. A. Interurban Service Halted By Walkout

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24 (AP)—Passenger traffic on the Pacific Electric's railway and bus lines serving Los Angeles and 55 other Southern California communities was thoroughly paralyzed today by a strike of more than 2,000 operating employees, but quantities of freight were reported moving to plants in this highly war-industrialized area.

The walkout, called at 5 a. m., was not 100 per cent effective, it appeared, and T. L. Wagenbach, assistant general superintendent of the lines, estimated that freight movements during the first seven hours of the strike approximated 70 per cent of normal. Not a passenger car, train or bus, however, had moved up to 9:30 a. m. (PWT).

Two mail trains left the main terminal early this morning, manned by non-striking crews, and freight trains left on schedule from several yards, Wagenbach said. There were no reports of violence.

Preliminary reports from aircraft factories and shipyards which dot this region thickly were that little ill-effect had been suffered so far. Workers were relying on private cars, company trucks and other means of public transportation.

Spokesmen for the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen said the walkout would continue until their wage demands were met. The strike followed by two months a 24-hour walkout of Los Angeles Railway Co. employees seeking to enforce wage demands, which have not yet been adjudicated.

4 Nazi Cities Hit In Great RAF Attacks

LONDON, Sept. 24 (AP)—In their second heavy blow in 24 hours against Nazi industrial and transportation centers, a fleet of big RAF bombers blasted four German cities last night, heavily bombing the twin cities of Mannheim-Ludwigshafen and hitting Darmstadt, 35 miles northeast of Mannheim, and Aachen, near Cologne.

Thirty-two bombers failed to return.

The twin cities at the junction of the Rhine and Neckar rivers shuddered under the impact of 1,500 long tons (1,750 U. S. tons) in 45 minutes—17 tons a minute less than the record load dumped on Hamburg—in a sequel to the Wednesday night attack on Hannover.

American Marauders carried the latest big-scale aerial assault into its third day with another daylight raid on the Evreux-Fauville airbase 45 miles west of Paris which they also hit Wednesday. Today's operation was the Marauders' seventh in seven days.

Other formations of bombers crossed the coast during the early afternoon to confine the daylight attacks.

It was the second big attack in less than three weeks on Mannheim-Ludwigshafen, Germany's second largest inland port, through which large quantities of coal and other vital supplies are transhipped to Italy. Aachen, hit 16 times before, is a key railroad and highway point through which moves much of Hitler's supplies and reinforcements for the west wall.

The three-pronged attack rounded out smashes by American Flying Fortresses and medium Allied bombers yesterday to make the 24-hour raids and night operation of the war.

Slav Guerillas Battle Germans

LONDON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Strong Yugoslav guerrilla forces were reported fighting German troops today in the streets of Trieste and threatening Fiume in an apparently coordinated drive against the two Italian ports at the northern end of the Adriatic.

The action was part of a series of new flareups by partisan armies against Nazi occupying forces at scattered points along some 400 miles of the eastern Adriatic shore, all conceivably inaugurated with Allied approval.

Yugoslav sources here said Slovene irregulars struck some 25 miles into Italy from the Yugoslav border and penetrated Trieste, with oppressed inhabitants of that former Italian naval base joining their ranks to attack the Nazi garrison.

These same sources reported other Slovene formations had occupied Idris, Italian mountain four miles east of the Yugoslav border and 28 miles northeast of Trieste, while farther to the east in northwestern Yugoslavia heavy fighting was said to be in progress along a 50-mile front between Bistrica (Felsitz) and Ljubljana.

The British Broadcasting corporation, quoting a broadcast by the Algiers radio, said that Fiume was being shelled by Partisan artillery set up in Susak, a mile and a half away across the frontier.

The Budapest radio, however, quoted a Zagreb dispatch to the effect that the Germans had captured Susak.

Cadets To Be Honored At Dance

Incoming cadets of class 43-17 will be honored at an informal dance which will be held in the post recreational building at the Big Spring Bombardier School this evening.

Hours will be from 8 to 12 o'clock, and music for dancing will be furnished by the post orchestra.

Miss Eloise Haley, post hostess, announced today that special service section, which is sponsoring the entertainment at a get-together party for cadets, will also present an entertaining floor show at dance intermission, 10:30 o'clock.

Cadet David Cohan will act as master of ceremonies, and other numbers on the program will include a piano solo by Cadet George Coyo; a comedy skit by Sgt. Dal Francis and a song by Cadet Larry Helm.

Invited guests and cadets of class 43-17 will attend the entertainment.

'Corrigan Party' Held At Church By Baptist BTU

The Young People's Training Union of the First Baptist church entertained with a "Corrigan" party in the church basement Thursday evening with their leader, Mrs. W. J. Alexander.

Boys came dressed as girls, and girls as boys. Entertainment included shuffle board, ping pong, checkers and flinch.

Refreshments were served and those attending were Mildred Watson, Wanda Lee Watson, Gypsy Cooper, Martha Hobbs, Audrey Harris, Gertrude Winn, Ruth Ella Hobbs, Claudia May Harris, Richard and Robert O'Brien.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN IN THE DICKERSON HOME

Bob Dickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dickerson, left Wednesday night for College Station, where he plans to attend Texas A & M college as a freshman student.

Before leaving, he was entertained with a farewell party, which was given for him by several of his friends at the Dickerson home.

Those attending were Joe O'Brien, Jimmy Jones, James Moley, Clarice Petty, Ann Meador, Jimmy Martin, Murray Martin, John Edwin, Dick Fort, Allen Kimball Guthrie, Weldon Low, Pat and Mike Kenney, and Jeanne Dickerson.

Jane Winn Honored With Party On 10th Birthday

Mrs. Jack Winn entertained with a party for her daughter, Jane, who celebrated her 10th birthday anniversary Thursday.

Games were played and refreshments were served.

Those attending were Ronald Wasson, Wayman Bouls, Danella Mae Davidson, Jean Woods, Dorothy Gratty, Robert Reagan, Bobbie Shaw, Nancy Bouls, Darlene Montgomery and Jane Winn.

DOWNTOWN STROLLER

Talked with Mrs. ROY BORDEN early Thursday morning and she informed us she was on her way to Lubbock to Texas Tech for a surprise visit with her daughter, MARY MARGARET, now a freshman in school there.

We have only his word for it, but WALKER BAILEY claims and sticks by his story that early Thursday morning it sprinkled a few drops. Being skeptical at heart, we can only say, "we'll believe that when we see it."

Got a kick out of the kitten in Hester's window the other evening. Oblivious to all by-standers, it had hold of a doll's foot and was chewing away lustily. The kids were three deep watching the kitten put on a show, but we figured said cat was in for you-know-what when the manager discovered the damage.

Speaking of animals, we always get a kick out of the nonchalant dogs who inhabit Big Spring. They must lead a gay night life for they are always sleeping it off during the day time. Their favorite spots seem to be the corner of Main and Third where they lie under cars and in the middle of the sidewalk. However, their trust is warranted we guess, for we never heard of a car running over them or a person walking on them. The crowd steps over and around them, but the hounds never open an eye.

It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. CECIL McDONALD so we hear. The newborn weighed eight pounds, two ounces at birth, and has been named WILLIAM DAVIS for both his grandfathers.

Buttons And Buckles

Pep Up Simplified War Wardrobe

AP Fashion Editor
You can bet on buttons and buckles to pep up your simplified war wardrobe this fall.

You who sew your own will find a raft of inspired button originals at the notion counter of your favorite department store. There are all types, from huge hunks of real silver and gold on plastic, at $4.50 each, to bright accents in wood, glass and ceramics at pin-money prices.

Bright girls are doing tricks with buttons this year. One of the best, which is sweeping the country right now, is the bow-tie arrangement pictured here. It's simply a piece of brown grosgrain ribbon pulled through a tortoise shell buckle, which matches the buttons on the blouse.

College girls are making them in all colors, for wear with tailored blouses, as the newest version of the bow-tie fad. To fasten it on, you simply wire or sew a safety pin to the cross bar of the buckle—and there you are.

The fashion of using buckles for brooches has practically unlimited possibilities, with the decorative jeweled buckles that are available now. Consider, for instance, the effectiveness of a bow-tie of shocking pink ribbon pulled through a rhinestone-studded buckle, on a plain black velvet dress. And if you like you can make earrings to match from an extra pair of buttons.

JANIS YATES IS HOSTESS TO THE BOMBA-DEARS

The Bomba-Bears met with Janis Yates Thursday evening for a business meeting, and to complete plans for future entertainments.

The club will sponsor a masquerade dance at the Big Spring USO club October 13th, and the group discussed plans for the affair.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Mable Carter, club sponsor, Beverly Anthony, Barbara Laswell, Marjorie Laswell, Alva Powell, Sue Reed, Leta Frances Walker and the hostess, Janis Yates.

Two Officers Die When Plane Falls

CHILDRESS, Sept. 24 (AP)—Capt. John E. Sayer, pilot, of Richmondville, N. Y., and Maj. Gustav W. Thomason, Jr., a flight surgeon, and former Dallas physician, were killed yesterday in the crash of a training plane near Matador, the public relations office at Childress army air field announced. The plane burned.

The plane was on a routine flight from the maneuver field operated by the bombardier school. Major Thomason, a graduate of Tulane medical school, entered active duty April 8, 1942. His widow, Lillian Ann Thomason, lives in Childress.

MODERN ETIQUETTE

Q. The other evening, my girl friend and I were dining in a local hotel coffee shop, and a friend of hers, an elderly woman, stopped at the table, I stood when introduced, and when she asked me to be seated, "that she only had a minute to chat," I sat down. Well, her minute turned out to be 30 minutes, and there I sat, in doubt as to whether I should stand again or just what.

Signed
J. M.

A. Regardless of the length of time the woman stood chatting with your friend, you should have remained standing. More than likely, no one else in the coffee shop overheard the lady ask you to be seated, and a man sitting while a lady is standing is considered no gentleman. You might save the situation by pulling out a chair for her to sit in, before you are seated.

Q. When a girl is dining in a restaurant with a man, is it proper for her to order her own meal, or should this be left up to her host?

Signed
Puzzled

A. Upon entering a restaurant, the girl sits facing the door, and even though the man often orders the meal without consulting the girl, the conversation usually ends up between the boy, the girl and the waitress.

When he suggests outlets you might say "Very nice," or if he should say "Do you like fish?" you might say "Yes, very much."

Send your questions concerning the do's and don'ts of Modern Etiquette, in care of The Herald.

Hale Center Boy Honored With Medal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Marine Staff Sergeant George S. Barnes, of Hale Center, Tex., has been awarded the Silver Star medal for conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity in action during a Jap bombardment of Henderson Field, Guadalcanal.

6 Mo. Validity For Shoe Stamp

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24. (AP)—Take it easy with the Brogans, boys, it's going to be a longer time between pairs.

Six months was the period set by the office of price administration last night for stretching the next new-shoe ration stamp, which becomes valid Nov. 1.

Heretofore, it's been four months between coupons. Principal cause, OPA explained, is a critical shortage of leather due to heavy demands for military and industrial uses and for shoe repairing.

Present production estimates indicate, OPA said, that the new stamp will have to last until May 1, but if the outlook should improve sufficiently, the period will be shortened. A definite announcement was promised as soon as studies underway are completed.

In naming Stamp No. 1 on the "airplane" sheet of ration book three as the coupon for the next period, OPA also announced that the expiration date of stamp 18 in book one has been extended indefinitely beyond Oct. 31. Its use will overlap the new stamp, which likewise has no expiration date.

KID PARTY GIVEN AT CHURCH BY THE PARTNER'S UNION

The Partner's Union of the First Baptist church entertained with a kid party Thursday evening at the church.

The entertainment was in the form of school with Mrs. J. A. Coffey as teacher.

At recess animal crackers and pink lemonade were served with sack lunches.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Red Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ward, Lieut. and Mrs. L. G. Bradford, Sgt. and Mrs. Merwin Bowers, Sgt. and Mrs. Pat Wilkerson and Mrs. Coffey.

Farm Aid For Drouth Area

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24, (AP)—Special steps to help farmers in 220 drouth-stricken counties—22 of them in Texas—main production of livestock and dairy products were announced by the war food administration (WFA).

The drouth area was designated yesterday as covering the state of Arkansas, most of Oklahoma and contiguous counties in Texas, Kansas, Missouri, Tennessee and Mississippi.

Feed users in the area will be given preference by the Commodity Credit Corporation in orders for government-owned feed wheat, soybeans from the 1943 crop will be shipped by the CCC into the area for crushing as soon as available; and hay buyers in the area are urged by the WFA to discontinue purchases intended for shipment to other areas.

A program of additional credit facilities for farmers needing financial assistance is included among other steps now being planned, WFA said.

The Texas counties: Wichita, Archer, Young, Throckmorton, Stephens, Eastland, Comanche, Erath, Palo Pinto, Jack, Clay, Montague, Wise, Parker, Hood, Somervell, Johnson, Tarrant, Denton, Cooke, Dallas, Kaufman.

Lt. Robert Currie Gets Oak Cluster

The uncanny aim of Lieut. Robert P. Currie, ace bombardier from Big Spring, has earned him the oak leaf cluster to his air medal, according to word from New Delhi, India.

Lieut. Currie, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Currie, 1510 Johnson street, has been flying in the China-Burma-India theatre and now with more than 400 hours of combat flying to his credit is "tapering off" with only about two missions a month. However, he is making these count for the most. Only this week came word that he was on the longest over-water combat mission on record. Flying over tiny Nicobar island west of the Malay peninsula and north of Dutch Sumatra, the Liberator in which he rode ran into intense and damaging anti-aircraft fire when the pilot dropped her to 1,500 feet. One of the engines caught fire and the plane dropped to 500 feet. They were barely able to limp home, but on the way back Lieut. Currie read a western story which he said was a good yarn because "it had lots of excitement, just like the kind I like."

Prior to this trip, he had been on a mission which had a 6,000-ton Jap transport as its objective. It was his anniversary in India and Lieut. Currie celebrated it with four direct hits and a near miss on the ship, which, although it did not entirely sink, was completely disabled. Prior to these forays, he had earned the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Water Supply Dist. Studies Expansion

Whether to expand the Martin County Fresh Water Supply District No. 1 to include six additional sections of land may be decided at a hearing called by the board of supervisors for 8 p. m. Friday at Valley View school.

The district has been supplying household and livestock needs of families on the 42 1-2 sections in the district for several years.

Should the new territory be annexed, it is probable that an $8,000 bond issue will be placed before district voters in order to finance centralization of the production units and provide for 50,000 gallons of storage as well as extending some lines. Supply for the district comes from the Earl Powell ranch 11 miles north of Stanton. P. G. Yates is president.

FREE GASOLINE
NEW YORK — Gasoline at a premium? Samuel Hazelcorn has given away 2,500 gallons this week and has a like amount still to dispense.

Hazelcorn, who operates a fleet of taxis, pumps five gallons of gasoline into the tanks of all motorists who buy a war bond from him. The precious fluid is absolutely free—except for federal tax and ration coupons.

There is a club house, first of its kind, for the enlisted women, who are stationed in North Africa. This club house will be for the American, British and French women.

Schools Stage War Bond Drive

School children, approximately 3,000 of them, will swing into action in an intensive three-day campaign next week to sell war bonds.

The high school student council, headed by Gene Smith, is sponsoring a war bond contest not only among high school guidance rooms, but among all elementary schools as well.

Emphasis will be placed on bond sales, it was explained, while efforts also will be exerted to sell stamps in quantities sufficient for students and others to complete books and convert them into bonds before the end of the month.

The chamber of commerce has posted awards to the high school guidance room selling the greatest amount of bonds and to the ward school doing likewise. In addition, certificates of merit will go to the high guidance room among the eighth grade, freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes, and in each ward school.

School officials urged cooperation for the children but suggested that bond payments be made by check only to order of "Series E Bonds."

Publicizing the campaign, the council will present radio programs at 6:30 p. m. on Monday and Tuesday over KBST.

Women Needed For WAC Army

Due to the planned increase in the strength of the army to 7,700,000 by January 1944, the strength of the Women's Army Corps must be increased accordingly, Lieut. Mary F. Goldmann, WAC recruiter, said here Thursday.

Lieut. Goldmann issued a strong appeal to women who are eligible to make application for enlistment declaring that "if they continue to set back in smug satisfaction and let Georgia do it," America may be submitted to the same situation England and France faced when they drafted woman power.

That, in her opinion, would amount to a humiliating experience for women of a free country. She ventured that some were holding back out of selfishness and urged that this attitude be put aside "and save us from being forced to do the thing you should have done long ago."

Christmas Card Shortage Looms

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. Sept. 24 (AP)— You can get that holiday mailing list out of the bureau drawer and strike off two-thirds of the names, says Carl Austin, greeting-card wholesaler who today predicted a shortage of 1943 Christmas cards.

The supply will be about what it was last year, Austin said, but on the basis of present orders the demand will be from two to three times greater than in 1942, which was a record year. Government regulations limit the use of paper for cards this year to 60 per cent of that used last year, Austin said, but he explained that production was being maintained through manufacture of thinner paper. He said that millions of new cards stored by manufacturers can not be packed because of shortages of envelopes.

Austin said the lack of labor had forced manufacturers to discontinue taking wholesale orders last July 1 and that only from 30 to 80 percent of the orders have been delivered.

He predicted a more severe shortage next year of Mother's Day, Valentine and greeting cards of all kinds.

3 REASONS why I head for Phillips 66

- 1 My boy is a fortress bombardier in the Southwest Pacific. So it means something special to me that Phillips is putting a mighty shoulder to the wheel in our war effort, making lots of 100 octane aviation gasoline and butadiene for synthetic rubber.
- 2 I like the kind of service I always get at Phillips stations even when I don't buy a thing. "Good Neighbor Service," they call it; and they're right.
- 3 For more than ten years, Phillips 66 Gasoline and Phillips 66 Motor Oil have been my favorites. They still are!

You are invited and urged to bring your car to the Phillips 66 Service Station at least once a week because your car is a vital link in the nation's transportation resources... and Phillips Service Wards have pledged their help in preserving the efficiency of your car and in extending its life.

To help you CARE FOR YOUR CAR—FOR YOUR COUNTRY, Phillips tire-saving service includes checking air pressures, inspecting for cuts and bruises, criss-crossing with the spare every 3,000 miles.

Phillips car-saving service includes inspection of battery, air filter, and radiator; lubrication at every point specified by your car manufacturer.

Good products... Good Neighbor Service... offered by an organization wholeheartedly devoting its best efforts to war production... doesn't it all add up to three good reasons why you, too, should head for the Phillips 66 pump, whether you buy one coupon's worth of famous Phillips 66 Gasoline or merely want water or air!

Steers Ready For Cisco Tilt In Big Spring Stadium Tonight

The Cisco Lobos—once a powerful name in Texas schoolboy football—bring a considerably lighter and less experienced team here today to contest the Big Spring Steers at 8:30 p. m. under Steer Stadium lights.

It looks like another Big Spring victory, but from all indications, the way won't be quite as easy as it was in the opener with Colorado City. Although the Lobos were soundly thrashed by Abilene last week, they have a substantially stronger team than Colorado City and should be pasting at attack elck, the Steers might be in for a lively evening.

Nothing flashy is expected to be unveiled in the Steer offense unless it be some good broken field running, for Dibrell is keeping his eyes to the week ahead when the Steers have to journey to Lubbock. That's a hard game and one to which the Steers are pointing, not forgetting that Cisco is first. Howard Price will be scouting for Lubbock, and if he goes home with many plays in his notebook, it won't be according to plan.

Most of the Steer plays this evening will be from the box formation and if any plays are unrehearsed from the T they will be few in number. The coach had trouble holding his youngsters down in a workout under the lights Thursday. The boys could hardly resist the temptation to rough 'em up a bit.

The evening was spent in place kicking—with Jim Bob Chaney looking good—passing, brushing up on plays and in a bit of dummy scrimmage, the first the team had had of this all week.

Only Tigers Stand In Way Of Pennant

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The day on which the New York Yankees can clinch the American league pennant under their own power has arrived. All the Bombers need now to null up their seventh flag in eight years, and 14th in history, is to beat the Detroit Tigers this afternoon.

They smothered the Tigers for the second straight time yesterday with lefty Marius Russo showing world series form in a two-hit 1-0 shutout.

This success and Cleveland's split of a doubleheader at Boston eliminated the Indians mathematically and the Washington Senators, who had held on stubbornly to a remote pennant possibility, collapsed before the St. Louis Browns 12-3 for the second straight time in a night game.

Cleveland was overpowered by the Red Sox 13-7 with Ford Grazier getting a homer, a double and two singles to bat in four runs in the first game, but the Tribe took the nightcap 5-4 with a 15-hit attack of its own.

In the other American league game Orval Grove pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 5-2 verdict over the Philadelphia Athletics.

While Russo was making his spectacular bid for a starting assignment for the Yankees in the world series, two of the lefthanders whom the St. Louis Cardinals are counting on to stop the American leaguers were traveling a rocky road against the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Alpha Brazle gave up three runs and Harry Brecheen a fourth as the Dodgers defeated the Cardinals 4-3 for Whitlow Wyatt's tenth consecutive triumph and 14th of the year. Wyatt, although he hurt his knee early in the game and limped during the late innings, allowed just eight hits, one of them a two-run pinch homer by Ken O'Dea in the ninth, and himself made two hits and batted in what proved to be the deciding run.

It was Brazle's second setback against seven victories.

The outcome enabled the Dodgers to hold second place in the National league against a 3-2 triumph by the Cincinnati Reds over the New York Giants in a night game.

Pittsburgh was beaten 2-1 by the five-hit hurling of Jim Tobin of the Boston Braves and the Chicago Cubs scored six runs in the sixth inning to nose out the Phillies 6-7. Bill Nicholson hit his 25th and 26th home runs of the year.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Fans with mathematical minds now start figuring what a $2 parlay would be worth. . . . Lefty Gomez, who used to be a $20,000 a year pitcher, now collects $100 a game from the bush-wicks and doesn't have Grandma Murphy waiting in the bullpen. . . . The Army football team (we mean West Point, of course) is taking the "T" formation very seriously. Line Coach Herman Hickman, Major Andy Gustafson and Capt. Spec Moore all went to Baltimore to watch the Bears against the Redskins then turned up in Philadelphia for the Bears-Eagles game.

Walker Cooper, Cardinals— does the talking and hitting for the Cooper-Cooper battery. . . . He's another of the rarer species of 1943 baseball bird—a 300 hitter. . . . ## FOOTBALL SELECTIONS

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Having stuffed our pockets full of good luck charms, disposed of the neighbor's black cat and consulted the various sectional experts we plunge head-first into football's annual guessing game.

Pittsburgh-Notre Dame—Pitt has Coach Clark Shaughnessy, his "T" formation and a host of youngsters. Notre Dame also has the "T" plus Angelo Bertelli to make it click. Notre Dame by a wide margin.

Pennsylvania - Princeton—A couple of Ivy-clad schools getting together earlier than usual. But there appear to be too many experienced players at Princeton so it's the Tigers.

Northwestern-Indiana—Otto Graham is back at Northwestern plus plenty of reserves. 'Nough said.

Minnesota - Missouri—The Gophers are not the powerhouse of old but still should whip the Big Six boys.

Great Lakes-Iowa—Purdue beat the Sailors last week but the Hawkeys aren't the Bolleermakers so we'll string along with the Gobs.

Michigan-Western Michigan—A breather for both the power-laden Wolverines and the writer.

Ohio State-Iowa Pre-Flight—Looks like Ohio State will drop its first opening game since 1894. The Navy boys have too much experience for Paul Brown's 17-year-old studded eleven.

Louisiana State-Georgia—Too many bayou freshmen for Georgia's lightweight.

Georgia Tech-North Carolina—Tech is touted as "the team" of the war-riddled Southeastern conference but North Carolina has a squad of 92 players, including 40 backs. So a weak vote for the Tarheels.

Navy-North Carolina Pre-Flight—The Navy can field an all-veteran team while the Cloud-busters have rebuilt since last season's successful campaign. Without hesitation, the Middies from Annapolis.

Army-Villanova—This may be one of the best Army elevens in recent years so until proven otherwise we'll go along with Earl Blak.

Camp Grant-Wisconsin—The Bolleermakers.

Duke-Richmond—A light workout for the Blue Devils.

Yale-U. S. Coast Guard (New London)-Yale

Rochester-Colgate—Rochester whipped Yale but can't see Deergrood's squad making it two straight Colgate.

Penn State Bucknell—Bucknell should profit by that one-point defeat at the hands of Cornell. Bucknell.

Cornell-Sampson Naval Station—The collegians.

Southern Methodist-Tulsa—The Oklahomans, fortified by 4-Fs and transfers get the nod. Tulsa.

Southern California-U. C. L. A.

(Friday), Clemson over Presbyterian, North Carolina State over Newport News Naval Apprentice, Camp Davis over Wake Forest, South Carolina over Newberry, Baltimore Navy over Camp Lejeune Marines, Maryland over Curtis Bay, Norman Naval Base over Oklahoma, Arkansas over Missouri School of Mines, Texas Aggies to beat Bryan Field, Rice to whip Randolph Field, Texas to take Blackland Field, Washington over Whitman, Denver over Colorado Mines (Friday), Colorado to take the measure of Ft. Warren, Colorado College over New Mexico, College of Pacific over St. Mary's Pre-Flight, and on Sunday Dartmouth to start off a winning season against Holy Cross.

Five Contests Send S'westers On Their Way

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Editor

Five games due to attract some 45,000 fans will send the Southwest conference football campaign merrily on its way tomorrow.

Top game is the clash between Southern Methodist and Tulsa at Dallas with S.M.U. facing probably the stiffest opening test in history.

Tulsa isn't the powerhouse Golden Hurricane that swept into the Sugar Bowl last Jan. 1 but still is a reasonable facsimile of a college team—something Dallas fans have been wondering about their Mustangs.

S.M.U. will be at its strongest for the season because after this week it no longer will have Guard Ray Razor and Tailback Abel Gonzales, two of the finest football players in the conference. Both will be going to Notre Dame in the Navy program.

Henry Frka got himself quite a squad of 4-Fs and boys under draft age to supplement a liberal sprinkling of experienced men, and critics think Tulsa has an even better running game than last year although not up to standard in the air.

Defending Champion Texas opens with Blackland Army Air Field at Austin. The Waco outfit may give the Longhorns an interesting afternoon with such fellows as Jack Russell and Ken Clark of Baylor and Jake Schuehle of Rice in the lineup.

Arkansas plays Missouri Mines at Fayetteville and shouldn't expect to have too much trouble. The Miners have a half-dozen lettermen back to Arkansas' one but the Razorbacks also have eight fellows who played football at other colleges.

Texas A. and M. meets Bryan Air Field at College Station. The Flyers played a game last week and didn't look very good, losing 30-0 to Randolph Field which is Rice's opponent tomorrow night at Houston. Randolph appears to have the makings of a good club with Tulsa's Dobbs as the spark.

Here's how they look (anticipated crowds in parentheses):
Tulsa vs. Southern Methodist at Dallas, 3 p. m. (10,000)—can't afford to put pal Jimmie Stewart, S.M.U. coach, on the spot: Tulsa.

Texas vs. Blackland Army Air Field at Austin, 2:30 p. m. (12,000)—Too many and too much: Texas.

Rice vs. Randolph Field at Houston, 8 p. m. (10,000)—Ditto for Rice but Jess Neely's pass defense is due to get a good workout from the great Dobbs.

Texas A. and M. vs. Bryan Air Field at College Station, 2:30 p. m. (10,000)—The Aggies ought to win this one with a minimum of effort.

Arkansas vs. Missouri Mines at Fayetteville, 2:30 p. m. (3,500)—The Razorbacks will roll and definitely.

Horse Show
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 24 (AP) Sycamore Ace, a stately chestnut gelding owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stringfield of Philadelphia, Pa., captured one of the plums of the Le Bonheur horse show yesterday with a victory in the $300 junior fine harness stake.

Other results included:
Model five-gaited—won by Moon of My Delight, owned by Wil-Far-B Farms; second, Our Janie; third, Mystic Gold, owned by Mrs. R. L. Wheelock of Corsicana, Tex.

Wolves Set For Tilt With Roscoe

COLORADO CITY, Sept. 23.

The Colorado City Wolves are set for their first home game of the season, a tilt with the Roscoe Plowboys, here Friday night. Coach Socrates Walker has had his team bearing down on defensive tactics all week in their drills. Ocie Lambeth will share kicking responsibilities with R. J. Knocke.

Although the Wolves are outweighed in the line, the Friday contest is expected to be a toss-up as both teams bowed to AA elevens last week-end by top-heavy scores. While both teams are gunning for the 6-A championship, the first game will rate as a practice bout. The return flight in Roscoe, Oct. 29, may decide the winner for the conference books.

Probable starting lineups for Friday follow:
Colorado City Pos. Roscoe
R. Thomas, LE D. Clecker
T. W. Daugherty LT J. T. Lyday
T. Bosine LG E. Basham

Raiders Trek To Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 24 (AP)—Oklahoma A.&M. College's youthful Cowboys will open their football season here tonight against the doughy Red Raiders of Texas Tech.

The game is the first of four top-flight football contests moved to Oklahoma City this year because of the wartime travel restrictions.

Coach Jim Lookabaugh today was depending on a collection of former state high school stars to handle the touted Raiders, who put the skids to the Lubbock Army Air Force boys last week, 26 to 14, in their own opener.

Coach Dell Morgan of Tech likewise has a sizeable list of prep standouts of recent seasons. Only Raider veteran will be hefty Buck Gillenwater, tackle, who hits the scales at 210 pounds.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"The more I read about it, Judge, the more I realize the tactics and requirements of this war are as different from the one I fought in 25 years ago as night is from day."
"Yes, and I can give you an example of how true that is, Fred. In World War I the chief uses of alcohol produced for war purposes were found in smokeless powder, medical supplies and chemical warfare materials. In this war the need for this product is far more vital because it is also used as a fuel to propel torpedoes, to make shatterproof glass for airplane windshields and instrument covers, to make lacquers used in camouflaging equipment and as a base for synthetic rubber needed for tires, gas masks, paratroop equipment and dozens of other things."
"Every time I think of it, Fred, I realize how fortunate we were in having a beverage distilling industry in existence when war broke out... ready and willing to convert 100% to the production of this critically needed war product. I'm mighty sure bootleggers wouldn't have."

The More Bonds and Sweat -The Less Blood and Tears

A MESSAGE TO EVERY ONE OF YOU

From Big Spring's Army of 1,200 Retail Store Employees

How did you fare at your job today? Pushed by work and trouble—pressed by prices? Too few ration points and little gas? Your lot is bonds and sweat. There's a kid Marine over there... Panting his heart out in the thick wet jungle heat. Watching life run from him in a lacy ooze... HIS lot is blood and tears. "Blast such dumb help anyway—they burn you up." "Why... strawberries and a cabbage cost a buck today!" "The laundry took two weeks—things are getting awful." "Jack and I saved only a hundred dollars this month!" How much bonds and sweat is this?

There's a Sailor up where the sea is bitter— Waiting for a stretcher, groaning in his sleep. ... Sometimes such numb legs walk again. Good God, they've GOT to! Blood and tears. Bonds and sweat's our lot—yours and mine at home. Dollars loafing around are blood money— Don't own slacker dollars—make them fight! Every bond you buy means less blood and tears. Look... it's a terrible thing... one minute he was here, Laughing and scratchin' out a fox-hole Then a hick of dust in the dirt beside 'im... Dead! I never saw a man die... DIE... he's DEAD. Blood and tears!

It's EASY to Buy BONDS The War is Not WON

Loaning money to win the war is easy. Any store or bank or other "issuing agent" can take your money and immediately deliver your bond made out to you. You pay $18.75 for a bond you can cash in for $25 in ten years. A $50 bond is $37.50, a $100 bond is $75. The bigger the bond the less it costs the government and you in bookkeeping. If you need your money in less than 10 years, you can get it any time with earned interest. Buy a big bond today to start this $15,000,000,000 loan off with a bang! Aid for your favorite. Our armed forces have a continuous fighting job. And so it is with buying bonds. Buying bonds is a continuing responsibility for everyone who can scrape the price of a bond together at any time. You should buy bonds every month, or every week, if you can. Money you lend for bonds goes into the war at once, keeps out of consumer markets, and therefore helps fight inflation. Bond money is double duty money—fighting the war on foreign fronts and inflation on the home front. Keep buying bonds.

Back the Attack with Bonds! C.R. Anthony Co.

Editorial - - No Time For Trick Taxes

Possibility that a sixfold increase in social security taxes will be recommended by the Treasury Department, as a war-financing measure, is reported from Washington. Such a proposal should be considered not as a war measure but should be assessed as a step in promoting an enormous expansion of the social security system.

The present tax for the social security now in effect—old age and unemployment insurance—is one per cent on the covered employee and one per cent on employer. The law, which was passed in 1935, calls for an advance to two per cent on each next year.

The Wagner social security bill now in Congress proposes six per cent each. Besides extending the social security system to 20,000,000 now outside it, the bill would set up entirely new types of government insurance, mainly compulsory medical, hospital and disability insurance.

The issues include not alone the problems of desirability of the new social insurances and of the bringing in of groups of the population now exempt, but other questions such as the centralization of government and the diminution of state authority. The innovations are far more momentous and controversial than were the provisions of the present social security act at the time of its adoption.

As yet there has been no general discussion of the Wagner bill. Neither the members of Congress nor the public have had any adequate opportunity to hear or judge of the drawbacks of some of the proposals. The informed opposition to certain features is substantial, militant and multiplying.

War financing should not be tied up in any way with this unrelated social change, which is one of the greatest magnitude. Each should be considered separately on its merits.

Washington Daybook— Many Hot Issues Before The Current Congress

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON—Not since the pre-Pearl Harbor sessions of Congress joined hands to row over lend-lease, sending our soldiers overseas, etc., has a session been so full of dynamite as the one just opened.

In the first place about 90 per cent of the members have been out dipping into the cracker barrels and talking things over with the home-folks for the first time since we got into this war. What most of them heard, I don't know, but whatever it was must have been an ultimatum for action.

Don't think that politics won't rear its ugly head. A lot of old-timers are vowing they never saw the gentlemen come back from the home-front with teeth grinding harder or chins stuck out more firmly.

In view of that, it might be worth while to give a quick scan to what's in the offing.

The first I've guessed wrong, the first big blowoff will come over the draft of fathers. In the forefront of this scrap in the Senate will be Montana's Burton K. Wheeler.

Also in there pitching in the upper chamber will be Sen. Warren R. Austin (R-Vermont) who, with Rep. James W. Wadsworth (R-N.Y.) has co-authored a nationwide man-power draft bill that is certain to come in for attention.

Then there will be the ruckus over new taxes. It will start with hearings in the House Ways and Means Committee, but that won't even be the beginning of the lasso you will hear of it.

Before the problems of simplification of tax returns, increases of income taxes, the sales tax, forced savings, etc., have been disposed of, there will be a lot of stormy water under the bridge and a lot of frayed tempers in and out of Congress.

Probably sooner finished than that will be Congressional action on either a United States or United Nations post-war peace policy.

With the "Mackinac Charter," the bulk of the Republican party in Congress has put itself on record as favoring post-war world collaboration to preserve the peace—but with reservations.

The followers of Wilkie, Dewey, Governor Warren of California, Governor Baldwin of Connecticut, to mention only a few of the GOP leaders, have other ideas. To some degree, they are far closer to or even ahead of Vice President Wallace, Secretary of State Hull, the Hatch-Hill-Ball-Burton declaration in the Senate, and the Fulbright resolution in the House. That promises to be a most confusing intra and inter-party scrap.

Not much later will come the scrap on extension of social security and veterans' legislation. Both parties already have their bids in for the votes that these will bring. There's no doubt that the veterans' legislation will go through almost unscathed. There's considerable doubt that the administration will get all it will ask in the way of extending so-

What It Means The Rail Labor Shortage

By ROBERT M. FARRINGTON
WASHINGTON — Lurking around the next curve in railroad-ing is a holdup that will make Jesse James' interferences with train schedules look like improvements over the 1943-44 running time.

The threatened hold-up can be summed up in two words: Manpower shortage.

Heading the posse already riding to prevent it is Defense Transportation Director Joseph B. Eastman, with a 13-point program stuffed in his trusty holster.

If his program doesn't work, social security.

Besides these big battles, there will be the wars over appropriations, farm legislation, the business and several other less important, but maybe bigger, headline struggles.

If the Congressmen got any rest, they'll need it.

Eastman has promised labor and management alike, he will ask Congress for legislation to keep the railroad wheels turning. Everyone should co-operate, he advises, but just in case it doesn't seem worth while to all parties, he points out the government can take over the railroads and deal "drastically" with the situation.

What makes the railroad manpower shortage unique among industry shortages that preceded it is the almost total lack of figures. Nobody knows how many men (or women) the railroads will need to avert the shortage, how many it will save by following Eastman's program, how many are draft-eligible or how many left for other jobs in the past year.

In the fiscal year 1942-43, railroads hired 1,000,000 new workers, twice as many as the previous year. How much of this represents labor turnover and how much increased employment, is anyone's guess.

Eastman hopes to dig out some of the missing figures with his program. The first of the points demands immediate filing of "replacement schedules"—agreements between the railroads and selective service as to which and how many employees may be inducted, and when these will be ready for call.

So far most of the companies have refrained from touching the schedules with a ten-foot pole. They take the view that all of their employees are needed to do a high-gear job day after day, and don't want any inducted.

Selective service, however, keeps right on taking railroad men, so Eastman suggests that the roads list their draft-eligible men and agree to an orderly withdrawal and replacement system.

Some of the replacements could be women. The ODT feels. Traditionally, railroading has been one of the hardest industries to open up for women. The Southern Pacific and the Pennsylvania are employing about 10 per cent women, other roads less than 3 per cent, but this isn't even near the limit, says ODT. Conservative railroad men are taking a lot of convincing that many of the lighter jobs could be done by females.

A relatively minor problem is the elimination of peace-time "featherbedding" practices. Eastman says, "Substantial numbers" of train and engine service men not working full time, he said, because of limitations designed to spread the work and employ as many men as possible.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has the power to suspend these limitations, he warns, or as an alternative, labor and management could mutually agree to this suspension, he adds, popping the big stick back in the closet.

Other important features of his 13-point program include a special recruiting program to get more workers, "flying squads" of trained personnel to move into trouble areas, and the use of prisoners of war and more Mexican laborers (15,000 of whom are now doing track work) for certain jobs.

Land And Sea Planes Join In Jap Attack

PEARL HARBOR, T. H., Sept. 24 (AP)—For the first time in the Pacific war, carrier planes and heavy land-based bombers have teamed up in a smashing offensive against Japanese island possessions.

This was disclosed by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz in amplified reports on operations the night of Sept. 18 and throughout the day Sept. 19 against enemy installations in the Gilbert islands area.

Land-based planes from both the South Pacific and Central Pacific joined with carrier planes in making more than 200 sorties over a 500-square-mile area against islands near the Equator about 2,400 statute miles southwest of Hawaii.

BEAUFIGHTERS HIT JAPS
NEW DELHI, India, Sept. 24 (AP)—Flying through difficult conditions of the declining monsoon, RAF Beaufighters destroyed and damaged a number of locomotives, sampans and trucks in a new series of blows at Japanese communications in Burma, it was announced Thursday.

The principal attacks were in the Katha district, along the Irrawaddy and on Cheduba Island along the coast.

69TH FIRE VICTIM
HOUSTON, Sept. 24 (AP)—Houston's 69th fire fatality for the year will be buried today. He is Isabel Mendoza, 12, who died yesterday of burns received when a can of gasoline in a service station was ignited.

Torn between awful anxiety for her sister and desire to shield her from the penalties for being a W. O. L., Bette had about decided she must report Sue's absence. Because if she were lost or—

Scott would know what to do. She must ask him. In her despair, she instinctively turned to him and the very thought that he would assume responsibility relieved some of the panic.

But Captain MacQuaid had dawn on no one seemed to know why or where he had gone. Scott went too. But of course there couldn't be any connection. It must be sheer coincidence that both had disappeared at the same time.

Slowly Bette went back to the hospital. Growing phoenix-like out of the old ashes, the new prefabricated building was already standing and, in a matter of hours now, would be ready for use. But Bette hardly saw it. A new resolve was occupying her whole attention. It Sue in her rage had deliberately attempted to lose herself in the forest, then it was Bette's responsibility to get her back again and without attracting the attention of the whole Post.

She pleaded illness and was granted four hours relief from duty. Then she ran directly toward river. Sue's knowledge of the country would be small, Bette knew.

Stumbling as she ran, Bette followed the stream's bank until she found the first evidence that at last she was on the right path. Lying just off the beaten track, something glittered in the sunlight. Bette stopped, picked up a compact. Dented from its fall, its mirror smashed, Bette recognized it nonetheless. It had been a goodbye present from one of Sue's boy friends at home.

Bette stood a moment trying to discover some other clue that would point the way Sue had taken. She was still standing, she decided, when she heard the voices. A man's low-toned voice, steady, calm. And a woman's weeping.

She scrambled up the bank, followed what proved to be a faint trail carpeted with pine-needles. It was Sue's voice she heard, and the relief brought quick tears to Bette's eyes. And Scott. When she was near enough to understand what they were saying, it stopped her short.

"—And you see, after I got lost out here this morning, I had time to think about what I had said to Bette." Sue's voice came unsteadily through her sobs. "—And I began to be afraid I'd never get back—how sorry I was. To ask her to forgive me."

She burst into tears again and Bette saw Scott pat her clumsily awkwardly on the shoulder.

"Well, whatever it was you said, I know Bette will forgive, probably has forgiven you already. Think you can walk a little now?"

Sue dried her tears, looked up at him. "How did you happen to come after me, Scott?"

Bette, an unwilling eavesdropper, wished she might evaporate. Sue was safe. That was all that mattered. If she could only slip back along that trail again without being heard.

But Scott's answer came clearly. "I saw you heading off this morning and it struck me as strange that you should suddenly take up hiking." He chuckled softly. "I knew it would break Bette's heart if anything happened to you so I tagged along. But at that, I didn't make much of a bodyguard. You gave me the slip after the first fifteen minutes. I've been clear up to the Falls and back looking for you."

"I didn't deserve it, Scott." There was a strange new quality in Sue's voice. "I might—easily—have spoiled Bette's happiness."

Bette winced, felt an old pain in her heart. Then, in amazement, realized that Sue was saying, "She's a wonderful person."

Scott. You're very lucky. She told me—about you two—last night."

Scott's answer came slowly. "Told you—what?"

Bette held her breath. "That you were engaged. I'm so glad, Scott. She'll make you very happy. She's a real person. And I know she loves you." The words came slowly, distinctly and only Bette knew at what cost.

"I'm not so sure you're right about that, Sue," Scott retorted.

Hollywood— Joel McCrea Is Quitting Movies For The Duration

By ROBBINS COONS
HOLLYWOOD — Joel McCrea, a big likeable chap who is 38 and the father of two boys, let it be known quietly not long ago that "Buffalo Bill" would be his last movie for the duration.

He was quitting, he said, to see if he couldn't do some job about the war that would help more than making movies.

Here was Hollywood badly caught short of leading men, here was a popular actor with a new hit ("The More the Merrier"), here was a fellow who in addition to paying big taxes from pictures was running a producing ranch of 3,000 acres which this year has turned out 150,000 pounds of bad-ly needed beef for Uncle Sam—and he was stepping off the screen to do "more" for the war.

It didn't make sense, and it doesn't make much more sense after you talk to Joel—except that you're dead sure that this is how he feels about it. As he says, "Every man's got to decide things for himself."

You could get a hint as to the why of it, though, from recalling an earlier day when Joel was talking about his own days as a kid movie fan, and the influence of movie stars upon his own life.

Joel was a fan of George O'Brien, the bulky western star and physical culturist. Joel met George one day at the Hollywood Athletic club, and later George helped him get on the movie lots and pick up extra work. Joel still credits O'Brien with helping to formulate some of his own ideas of personal conduct, and believes that the western hero's abstinence from alcohol and tobacco was a determining factor in his own.

Then Joel became a star, and he had his own youthful fans, among them a kid who had followed him at Pomona college, known to pictures now as Robert Taylor. Taylor and McCrea are friends now, but in those days (Taylor has since told him) the would-be actor copied McCrea from a distance—observing him on public appearances and noting his manner, his clothes, and how he wore his hair.

"And over a period of years," said Joel, "about a dozen different men have told me that I have had some definite effect on their conduct. Several were reformed drunks, others were fellows who took up physical culture and improved their health."

"I don't take any credit or feel self-important about it," he went on, "but it's just a question of being before the public. No one can doubt that the careers of gangsters influenced others to gang life, just as a good comic strip character can influence youngsters to eat their spinach, mind their mamma's, and grow up strong."

And all of this could be the why of McCrea's proposed departure from the screen—as he "decided things for himself."

Higher Wages For Mexican Workers

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 24, (AP)—Mandatory wage raises for all Mexican workmen earning less than 10 pesos ($2.06) a day were ordered by the government yesterday in a decree which also froze all present wages of whatever amount at their present level.

The step followed by a few days a decree freezing prices. Legally neither prices nor wages may be raised, once today's increases have been put into effect, while the decree is in force. To make sure that the increases are actually devoted to meeting the higher cost of living, the government ordered the closing of saloons near non-urban work centers. The decree is effective Oct. 1.

Penney Stores Beat Bond Quota 400 Pct.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry J. Morgenthau has just telegraphed the J. C. Penney company congratulations on the magnificent job of bond selling which the company's 1610 stores turned in during the month of July. Last July, the Penney company sold 8 1/2 million dollars in war stamps and bonds to set a high record for the chain and department store business. This year, in an attempt to surpass the 1942 figures, a quota of ten million dollars was set. The complete report for July, which was forwarded to the secretary of the treasury last week, announced the amazing total of $42,335,816.85, or four times the quota set for the campaign, and very nearly five times the figure of the preceding year. In this one month, Penney stores sold 25% more in bonds and stamps than in merchandise. In terms of war equipment, this means 500 fighter planes, 200 light tanks, 5 destroyers, and 5 submarines.

Fewer of this July achievement, together with the secretary's telegram of congratulations, were released at a time when the Penney company was engaged in an all-out endeavor to go over the top again this September in the Third War Loan drive.

plied. "She said she'd changed her mind about us."

"She did?"

Bette waited as if for a judgment, her heart standing still.

"Then Sue laughed. 'Isn't that just like Bette! She probably had quirks of conscience about your making an honest woman of her. Somebody has probably teased her about spending the night in a Jap base with you. And Bette's taken them seriously. She'd think of course that maybe you were marrying her just as an obligation.'"

Scott gasped. "She wouldn't think that—really!"

"She might! Don't let that discourage you, Scott. Bette has a New England conscience, you know."

Her lips trembling, her happiness bubbling like some inner spring, Bette turned, ran blindly down the trail as she heard Scott saying.

"Don't I know it. Come on! I've got to get back to the Post. Have some unfinished business to attend to."

Then they both laughed like happy conspirators.

Man Arrested Here Turned Over To FBI

Willie Smith, picked up by city police, has been released to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Wanted primarily on charges of violating the selective service act, he also is wanted for questioning on other matters. Another man, picked up as a delinquent, was released when FBI said he had since become 38 years of age and therefore was now not delinquent.
