ADOBE WALLS SCOUT COUNCIL CHARTER PRESENTED

J. SID O'KEEFE RECEIVES IT IN BANQUET HERE

Lahroy C. White of Amarillo Stresses Men Making

"BLACK SHEEP NOT NECESSARY"

Panhandle Troop Shows Model Day in Camp

On behalf of the Adobe Walls council, Boy Scouts, J. Sid O'Keefe of Panhandle, president, accepted the charter last night at a banquet at the Schneider Hotel. The presentation was made by Lahroy C. White of Amarillo, a member of the regional executive board comprising Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico.

Before making the presentation, Mr. White made a short talk on the good a man can do by being interested in Scouting. He dwelt on the subject of co-operation as being the most important word in Boy Scout work.

"Boys are apt to make a mess of life," Mr. White said, "and that is the main reason to look to Scouting and still take an active part in the work. That is why I have four boys in the Scouting world; it makes men out of them."

"Parents are responsible for the life wrecking of a boy," the speaker continued, "by not being interested in them and by taking the attitude that there will be one black sheep in every family. That is not so. It is not necessary to have a black sheep in any family if that family is raised properly by the parents. The father is under an obligation to his son to get him started on the right foot."

"The first step along that line is Scouting in my estimation. Co-operation is essential in the work. Let the man with the money co-operate with the Scout leaders and the man who trains the boy. Be a good Scout yourself, do what you can and do it willingly, or set out and let in a man who will take an interest in the work."

The president of the council accepted the charter stating, "on behalf of the Boy Scouts of this council, the parents of the boys who are scouts, the leaders of the council and those who back the movement, I accept this charter and pray that it may be kept as clean as it is now and that the National council will be proud of us."

Short talks were made by J. W. Ward and C. W. Curtis of Borger, Scott Barcus, Paul Hill, W. W. Brabham and George Briggs of Pampa, and Scout Executive E. D. McIver. Mr. McIver made a stirring appeal to those present, and those absent, for a little more co-operation in the work. He cited cases where people were willing to open their purse but not interested enough to give a few hours of their time.

"The boys need your help more than they need your money," the executive said. "In Panhandle at the meet last week there was not a man there to act as field judge, but everyone was at the football game. If the Scout movement, which is more important than football, could create the interest a football game does, the boys of today would be bigger and better men in the future because you make an interest in them."

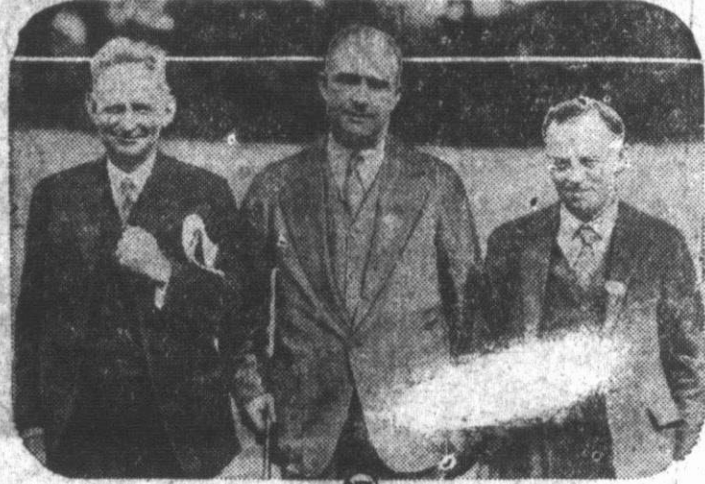

Eight boys from the Panhandle troop gave an interesting pantomime on a day in camp. The boys went through the day from rising until taps. They had their morning swim, nature study, hike, parade, play, camp fire, and all that goes to make up a day in camp. Musical numbers were given by Miss Lora Harrell, violinist, with Joe Strother at the piano; Joe Pat O'Keefe, with Joe Strother at the piano, and by Mr. Strother.

Members of the executive board were

Champs as Jersey Owners

When it comes to owning Jersey cattle here are the three world's greatest. They met recently at the National Dairy Exposition at Memphis, Tenn. Left to right, they are Ed C. Lasater, owner of the world's largest Jersey herd at Alfurris, Texas; D. O. Bull of Brampton, Ont., largest breeder of Jerseys in the British empire, and E. C. Perreides, largest Jersey owner on the Island of Jersey.

ROTARY GOVERNOR PARCELLS TO SPEAK HERE THIS EVENING

STUTTERING S PAD FORM FOR HI-JACKER

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Holding up people is bad business for him who stutters. Look at Erward Lang.

Lang approached Gilbert Selders, a physical instructor at Crawford and Madison yesterday. He poked a pistol at him. "St-t-t-t-t-t-t-t-t-t-t," he stammered.

It struck Selders as funny, so he laughed. The stammering stick-up man got mad all over. He threw his gun to the sidewalk. It wasn't loaded, anyway. He sailed into Selders with both fists.

Unfortunately for Lang, Selders was a physical instructor. When the cry "police" finally went up, it was Lang who shouted it.

Residence Building Showing Increase

November gives promise of being an active building month here. Permits to build five residences have been taken out with the city thus far and many more are expected. At least two warehouses will be erected during the month.

Permits have been issued to the following this month:

Josephine May, a $3,000 residence in the west end addition. Mrs. May will supervise the construction of the home.

G. B. Sawyer, a $3,500 residence in the Hillcrest addition. The contract has been awarded to J. T. Glover, local building contractor.

Lee Banks, a $3,000 home in the west end addition to be erected by Pete Ricar.

E. Gubelman, a $2,000 home in the Crow addition. The contract has been let to Frank Carter.

A. H. Brown, a $5,000 brick residence in the Cook-Adams addition. Mr. Brown will be in charge of building his home.

present from Borger, Phillips, Panhandle, and Pampa.

Those attending the banquet and presentation were:

CAPTAIN OF VESTRIS GIVEN BLAME FOR INDECISION AND LACK OF PROPER LIFEBOATS

Master of Ship Died Like a Sailor, But His Delay in Sending SOS Cost Scores of Lives

WOMEN AND CHILDREN WERE THROWN INTO BOILING SEA BEFORE SINKING

Only 80 Persons Were In Boats When Vessel Went Down—Many Swam About Until Rescued by Shipmates

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The steamer Vestris sank when only about 80 of its 329 passengers and crew had been launched in life boats, after two boatloads of women and children had been hurled into the sea, most of them to die, and while the rest were leaping from the ship's sides and swimming for their lives lest they be dragged down with the foundering hull.

Survivors told today that the traditions of the sea had been scrupulously observed as to giving first thought to women and children, but fate had turned gallantry into disaster. And they told an appalling story of inadequate preparation for disaster.

The first two boats were filled with women and children—there were 27 women and 13 children on board—and the crew started to lower away. Then the sinking ship lurched, the boats crashed against its side and women and children poured into the boiling waves. Reports available today indicate that all the children perished and but 10 of the women were saved.

Indecision Was Tragic
On the whole, the 125 survivors arriving today on the American shipper and the 23 on the Berlin agreed that in intention the officers and crew of the Vestris had been beyond criticism, but many of them blamed the captain, who was lost with his ship, for indecision which they saw as one principal reason for the large loss of life, believed to total 108.

The ship began to list on Saturday night, they said, and its condition grew more serious steadily throughout Sunday, and yet no distress call was sent until the middle of Monday morning and as a result no rescue ships were on the scene until many hours after the ship sank at 1:30 that afternoon.

Tackle Was Faulty
When the captain did decide to abandon ship, shortly after the first SOS call, the tackle of the lifeboats was found to be faulty. It took hours to lower them, the ones with the women and children crashed, and another was stove in and put away with a gaping hole in its side.

Only two boats were successfully launched, although others broke loose as the ship sank and were caught by swimming survivors. The greater number of passengers and the crew had to fling themselves into the water.

Of those who did get into the water and survive the actual sinking of the ship, the majority of those eventually saved were members of the crew, the greatest loss of life being among the passengers. "This was thought to have some explanation in the theory that the crew were men more able to withstand the general hardship of those freezing hours in the waves, and not to any effort on the part of the crew to take positions of comparative safety in the boats rightfully belonging by the law of the sea to the passengers."

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Only four lifeboats were lowered from the sinking steamer Vestris, one survivor reported today. One of those was stove in while being lowered and two others capsized, throwing their occupants into the water. A fifth boat broke away from the ship and many swimming passengers climbed into it.

The information was given by T. E. Meeck, electrical construction superintendent in Brazil whose home is in Teckla, Wyoming. With his co-worker, O. L. Maxey of Richmond, Va., he was rescued by the steamer Berlin.

Mack said that the Vestris was battered by such a storm soon after she left New York Saturday that she soon began to list, and fast Sunday the waves washed the furniture in the dining saloon overboard. All that night the storm continued to rage. "In the morning," Mack said, "the

CONTESTANTS ARE SPEEDING UP IN VOTE DRIVE

KEEP YOUR EYE ON NINE O'CLOCK SATURDAY NIGHT

And keep the other one on the lookout for subscriptions. Until that hour, every $20 worth counts just 100,000 extra votes over and above all regular votes. Never again will such a liberal offer of extra votes be made. This is positively the biggest and best. Don't expect a bigger vote offer later for it will not be forthcoming.

Contestants must have their subscriptions, to apply on the offer in the campaign office by 9 p. m. Saturday—not one minute later. The doors of the office will close and be locked promptly on the stroke of the hour, and none will be admitted after that. However, all those inside will be waited upon and the subscriptions they turn in will be applied on the offer.

Just three days more! And then the biggest and best vote offer in the Pampa Daily News famous prize campaign comes to a close.

Three days that afford the opportunity of securing the winning votes.

Fired with the determination to accomplish everything possible before the clock strikes 9 Saturday night, candidates everywhere are making new records in their rush to build $20 clubs and turn them in. Every day since Monday has been a heavier one for the campaign manager, and subscriptions of all kinds are beginning to roll into this campaign office in a never-ending stream. Every mail brings neat little packages of subscription stubs from the energetic workers in the out-of-town division. As fast as a contestant completes a $20 club she starts building another one. There is, of course, no limit to the number of clubs any contestant may build, and several have declared they will have a remarkable number of clubs by the time the offer closes Saturday.

Never again throughout the entire campaign will subscriptions be worth as many votes as they are now. After next Saturday night, and from then on throughout the campaign they will positively count less. Tremendous advantages may be gained during the remaining days of this offer, and now entries are being received almost every day from ambitious ones who are determined to make the bonus count as much as possible for them. Yesterday a certain contestant's name was away down in the list. Today it is right among the leaders. It just goes to show that it isn't when a contestant starts in the race that counts—it's when she starts working.

The list now contains the names of only the real workers—those who want the automobiles and who are going to exert their best efforts to win them. Just four weeks from Saturday night the winners will drive away in the Buick and Whippet and the Chevrolet. Just think of it. Just a little over four weeks until the campaign ends.

Nobody Knows
Lately, the campaign manager has received letters from anxious ones wanting to know how many votes it will take to win the automobiles. Lots of people are speculating on this question but answering it is like predicting the date of the millennium or estimating the number of gallons of water in the Pacific ocean. In other words, it can't be done. The contestants who poll the greatest number of votes will win the cars. No one can tell how many it will take to win—that rests entirely with the contestants themselves. The campaign manager nor anyone else could not tell if their lives depended upon it. Every contestant has the same fair and equal chance to win.

Numbers of tremendous vote totals being polled by this and that contestant which are being circulated should be taken with large grains of salt by the other contestants. These rumors start from goodness knows where and they don't have to travel long before they attain healthy proportions indeed. Thus far no contestant has done anything anybody else can't—it's all a question of how much effort is put forth.

PAMPA LARGE ENOUGH NOW

Paving Removes Greatest Obstacle—Asset Long Sought

Recommendation that free mail delivery be granted Pampa will be made by M. B. Johnson of Amarillo, postoffice inspector, according to his statement to George W. Briggs, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, and Postmaster W. H. Crawford, this morning.

"Of course, there must be certain requirements met, such as more sidewalks and complete house numbering," Mr. Johnson said, "but I think the time has come when Pampa should have the free service. The city is large enough and the additional paving program should warrant the service."

The local post office department and the Chamber of Commerce have been working toward free mail delivery for the last year and apparently they will be rewarded for their efforts.

Commencing on the action, Mr. Briggs and Mr. Crawford remarked that additional sidewalks would be necessary in several parts of the city as connecting links. There are several vacant lots and some residences without sidewalks close in. The outlying district, such as Starkweather street, Kingsmill, Foster, and Francis avenues at each end and several cross streets need more walks also.

Efforts have been made in the past to have free mail delivery instituted here, but the necessary requirements, payment, and sidewalks, have always kept postal authorities from taking action. The delivery plan would include the business section where desired.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The Navy's newest patrol seaplane, the FN-11, was destroyed by fire today near Bellevue, D. C. Its crew, Lieut. S. W. Calloway and Lieut. D. W. Tomlinson, landed the machine and escaped injury.

CONVICTION IN 6 MINUTES
SHERMAN, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Deliberating six minutes, a jury here today convicted Silas Jorman, negro, of robbery by firearms of Mrs. A. R. Hassenpflug and sentenced the negro to electrocution.

Mrs. Hassenpflug and her husband were the major state witnesses, while a grandmother of the negro testified for him in an attempt to prove the accused was under 18 years of age.

COOLIDGE PROMOTES OFFICER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Col. Edward A. Kreger was appointed by President Coolidge today to be judge advocate general of the army with the rank of Major General, effective Nov. 16. He will succeed Major General Jno. A. Hull, who has served in that capacity four years.

DR. MULLINS ILL
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 14.—(AP)—Dr. Edgar V. Mullins, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary here and former president of the Baptist World Alliance, was in a "very serious" condition today and only slight hope was held for his recovery following a stroke of paralysis last Saturday.

Motorist Strikes Cow and Kills Her on Highway Near Here

An unknown motorist struck a cow and killed her late last evening on the Amarillo road about four miles west of here. He failed to report the matter to anyone and left the animal lying almost in the middle of the road.

"Folks we welcome you to this unusual sale of merchandise. I have racked my brain for the last two weeks thinking and planning just how to give the people of this territory something different in the way of a sale—and after two weeks of nerve racking strain I realize that a sale is impossible—Pampa folks are just continually being 'Saled To Death'—If it is not one thing it is another—One has a Big Sale—another has a Bigger Sale—the next pulls the old gag of 'quitting'—creditors demand payment—final clearance—and all that sort of rot! HOW MANY CIRCULARS DO YOU FOLKS GET A WEEK?—LORD ONLY KNOWS, BUT WE GET A PLENTY AT OUR HOUSE—AND HOW!"

"Well here's how you folks can buy it here, if you really want something in the way of standard merchandise:

FIRST: Just come to town and make a bee-line for Wade's Store. Pick out what you want, give your bill to the cashier, have her take 20 per cent Discount off of it!

SECOND: Give her the cash!

THIRD: Sale's complete. Money back if not satisfied.

Don't forget the date folks, and don't come expecting to get 'stung'—you can come here expecting to find the "cream of the Pampa Market!"

Y. W. A. Studies
Mexico in First
Formal Program

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the Baptist church, newly organized mission study group, formally opened activities last evening with a traveling study of Mexico. Mrs. J. P. Wehrung, sponsor for the Y. W. A., gave a talk on the home life of the Mexicans and the sharp class distinctions in the Republic, as she saw them in a ten-month residence in Mexico.

The educational facilities of Mexico and then called religious oppression were discussed. What the attitude of Mexico was toward the United States was an interesting topic of discussion. The various Baptist missions in Mexico were located on a map.

Mrs. Helen Anderson conducted the program and led in a devotional. A number of songs completed the program. By a vote last evening, the regular time of meeting was changed from Tuesday evening to the second and fourth Saturday afternoons.

The meeting was held in the home

Baptist Women
Hear Messages by Church Leaders

MINERAL WELLS, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Concluding addresses, reports and the election of officers by both the organizations was the program today for Baptist pastors and laymen and members of the women's missionary union in final sessions preceding the Texas Baptist general convention opening tonight.

Religious subjects were to be discussed at the ministers and laymen meeting by W. R. Covington, Texarkana; Rev. E. J. Thompson, Kemp; Rev. Z. T. Huff, Plainview; Rev. Bell, Bastrop; Rev. J. A. Smith, Leland; Rev. Z. T. Huff, Plainview; Rev. F. M. McConnell, Dallas; Rev. Elmer Ridgeway, San Angelo.

A report on "civic righteousness" by Mrs. T. T. Holloway, Dallas, a discussion of "cooperative programs" by Mrs. F. S. Robertson, San Benito, and an address by Mrs. Carter Wright, Roanoke, Ala., were features of the women's program.

An attendance of more than 2,500 was expected at the general convention, at which Pat. M. Neff, Waco, a former governor, will preside. The opening night will be devoted to a sermon by Rev. W. R. White, Lubbock, and to the election of officers to succeed President Neff, vice-presidents Cullen F. Thomas, Dallas; Dr. O. L. Powers, Wichita Falls; Rev. F. B. Thorn, Waco, and other administrative officers.

At a session last night, Women Missionary workers heard an address by Mrs. W. T. Turner, Eastland, and were given reports from various Baptist schools of the state. Mrs. T. C. Jester, Houston, state chairman of young peoples work, presided.

An address by Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor university of Waco, Ed Thom, left Monday on a business trip to Pyote.

Famous Browning
Poem Studied by Twentieth Century

An analytical study of Robert Browning's "Andrea Del Sarto" was the basis of the program given yesterday at a meeting of the Twentieth Century club. Mrs. H. H. Hicks, program leader, gave a critical analysis of the poem and told some interesting facts concerning the inspiration of that superb dramatic monologue. She briefly described the famous painting by Del Sarto, "The Madonna of the Harpies," which illustrates the qualities Browning attributes to the artist's work.

Mrs. Raymond Harrah reviewed Browning's life, after which the club held a short discussion on "Pippa Passes" and favorite lines from Browning. The more important of Andrea Del Sarto's paintings were mentioned in the program.

A piano solo by Dorothy Dodd and a reading by Frances Campbell were entertainment features of the afternoon and were greatly enjoyed by the large group of members.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our deep and heartfelt gratitude for the many kindnesses and beautiful floral expressions of sympathy during the sudden death of our dear wife, mother, and grandmother.

Jerry let him slip it over her finger... People expected show girls to accept presents.

"Miss Ray, of the chorus," she said to the doorman. "Better go on to the dressing room, and tell the wardrobe mistress to fix you up."

SHE hesitated and looked about her for the wardrobe mistress. What she saw was a long table with stools at each side of it and a double row of upright mirrors dividing it down the center.

Some of the stools were occupied by girls who already had removed their street clothes and were in various stages of undress. That was all she saw then, for the door swung open behind her with considerable force and caught her on the arm. She cried out sharply. "Oh, did I hurt you? I'm so sorry!" a lovely voice said quickly. Jerry smiled at her. The pain wasn't lasting.

"It's my fault," she said. "I was in the way."

"But I shouldn't be always banging doors," the other returned. "You're a new girl, aren't you?" she went on with a friendlyness Jerry had not expected to meet here.

"Then come along and take a stool, next to me," she said. Jerry saw now that the room contained several like the one she had noticed first. A few of the girls turned to watch them.

"High hat's found someone good enough to hand out a little conversation to," one of them remarked approvingly.

Jerry felt Evelyn's fingers tighten on her arm and guessed that they were the objects of the girl's comment.

When they came to Evelyn's place she pulled a stool up beside her own and then started pushing "It'll be here in a few minutes."

Smith Says Party Must Develop Real Program for Nation

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(AP)—After broadcasting an appeal to the Democratic party to develop and present to congress a constructive national program, Governor Alfred E. Smith today was intent on golf in the South.

Accompanied by a few friends he will have a two weeks' vacation near Biloxi, Miss.

The governor in his speech, which was broadcast over 38 radio stations, also urged that Herbert Hoover—although he did not mention him by name—be given the cooperation of every citizen in the development of a program calculated to promote the welfare and best interest of the country.

"It must be remembered," he said, "that while political parties may seriously divide public opinion throughout the country during the progress of a campaign, after the American people have made their decision the man selected is not the president of Republican party but the president of the United States.

"He is the President of all the people and as such he is entitled to the cooperation of every citizen in the development of a program calculated to promote the welfare and best interests of this country. He is entitled to a fair opportunity to develop such a program. Only when he fails to accomplish does the administration become the subject of proper criticism of the opposing party."

The governor denied the election was a "crushing defeat" for the Democratic party, which he asserted was still "a live, a vigorous and forceful major minority party."

The existence of such a party he declared necessary to serve as a check upon the majority party.

The governor said that if the Democratic party in the next four years neglected to build up a constructive program and relied entirely upon the failure of the opposition party it would finance and support of the American not be in a position to solicit the not be in any position to solicit the people.

"It would be regarded as a constructive achievement," he said, "if the American party at Washington were to formulate a program, adopt it, offer it to the congress of the United States and there defend it."

Governor Smith asserted he did not regard the defeat as impering in the slightest degree the soundness of the principles for which the Democratic party stands.

"I am just as anxious to see them succeed as I was when the party honored me with the nomination, and with all the vigor that I can command I will not only stand for them but I will battle for them."

Hoover to Visit Mexico, But Not Capital, Probably

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Nov. 14.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover will visit Mexico during the good will tour of Latin America, upon which he will embark next Monday from San Pedro, but whether it will be the first or the last of the republics on the itinerary is yet to be decided.

Alternate plans are under consideration, one calling for a stop at Acapulco, en route to South America, and the other for a call at Vera Cruz on the return trip from Rio De Janeiro to Florida. Should the call be made at Acapulco, which is about 200 miles almost due south of Mexico City, President Calles and Dwight W. Morrow, the American ambassador, probably would welcome the president-elect there during a one-day stay of the good will ship, the battleship Maryland.

If the visit is deferred until near the journey's end, the battleship Utah, upon which the last leg of the voyage will be made, would proceed to Vera Cruz and the president-elect would go to the Mexican capital by rail to be welcomed there by Emilio Portes Gil, who will succeed to the Mexican presidency on Dec. 1.

Obregon's Nephew Kills Self When Plot Is Learned

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Presented from taking the life of Jose de Leon Toral, assassin of General Alvaro Obregon, Captain Jesus Obregon last night took his own life. An extraordinarily heavy guard was placed today about Toral's cell. He is under sentence of death.

Police described Captain Obregon, a nephew of the slain president-elect, as mentally unbalanced.

Although only his parents have been allowed to visit Toral, Captain Obregon gained admission to the penitentiary because he was well known to the authorities there. A visitor talking to a guard near Toral's cell noticed that Obregon was agitated. When he drew a pistol, the visitor and the guard rushed up and grappled with him. The weapon was wrested from his hand before he could fire.

Captain Obregon was not detained by penitentiary officials. He returned to his home and locked himself in his room. Others in the house heard a shot and broke in the door. They found captain Obregon lying on the floor. He died at a first aid station.

Captain Obregon was 26 and a son of General Jesus Obregon, a brother of the slain president-elect. Several years ago he was an officer attached to the inspector general of police. In 1922 he fatally shot a policeman and a court found him mentally irresponsible.

CONTEST

gather votes let it be said that opportunity was never brighter. So great and so liberal is the special offer now on, that between now and Saturday night anyone with a little determination and effort can forge straight ahead into a leading position in the voting columns. Extra votes come in such large numbers that it is possible to increase by leaps and bounds.

If your name is not in the list yet, send in the Nomination Blank opposite and let the campaign manager send you details. Subscription books will be forwarded to you Special Delivery in order that you may lose no time in working on this offer.

Some Pointers
In connection with the taking of subscriptions, the campaign manager desires to impress the following points on all contestants:

1. Be sure to get the right name and address.
2. Mark the stub correctly, new or old. A new subscriber is one who has not received the News by mail or carrier on October 1, 1928.
3. Don't hold your subscription until a full $20 club is obtained. Turn them in as fast as you can get them so that the subscriber will receive the paper promptly. They count to your credit on the offer just the same.
4. Don't take subscriptions for less than six months in Pampa or 1 year outside Pampa.
5. Go anywhere you want to for votes and subscriptions.
6. Remember that subscriptions outside Texas are $7.00 for a year. It costs more to send the papers outside the state.
7. If in doubt, call up the campaign manager and ask him about it.

Marmon Able to Drive to Borger

Although muscle-bound, with dark rings under his eyes, and still needing much sleep, Dick Marmon, who completed a 125-mile drive here Monday night at 7:15, drive to Borger yesterday afternoon an appeared at the Rex theatre last night as scheduled.

Marmon drove a Chevrolet coach and made 2,369 miles during the five days. He ate no solid foods drinking only coffee, malted milks, and cocoas. He was practically unconscious at the end of the drive and had to be carried from the car.

Mrs. R. A. Webb Is Honoree at Surprise Birthday Party

Mrs. W. H. Lang entertained last evening with a surprise birthday dinner, honoring Mrs. R. A. Webb. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were massed to form a centerpiece for the table, and the large white birthday cake was topped with pink candles. Dinner was daintily served in three courses.

The guests were as follows: Dr and Mrs. Webb and their son, Roy Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johns, and Miss Sidney Smith. Games of bridge were enjoyed during the evening.

El Progreso Club Discusses International Relations

In this, the tenth year since the close of the great World War, the women of the United States who are organized in clubs to promote the best interests of their homes, their communities, and their country, are making an intelligent and thorough study of international relationships, with a view of furthering the cause of a permanent world peace through study of international relationships, with a view to furthering the cause of a permanent world peace through a better understanding of the other nations.

El Progreso club, meeting yesterday afternoon just two days after the tenth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice, found the study particularly interesting. Mrs. C. M. Bryson conducted the program and read a paper on What and Why. Lindbergh's embassies of good will; the Boy Scout movement; and the work of business men's luncheon clubs as factors promoting race amicable relations between the nations were discussed by other members. The part played by the church and missions in advancing the cause of world peace was told by Mrs. H. L. Ledrick. Mrs. A. Cole, Mrs. J. M. McDonald, and Mrs. Charles Tut presented topics.

The club met in the home of Mrs. W. Furvance. A social hour was enjoyed at the conclusion of the program, and delicious refreshments were served.

Pampa Woman Wins Bedroom Suite in Election Wager

It has been said that election years, and particularly election weeks, are times of poor business and a general disorder and that few people profit by them. But one Pampa woman is much happier because she made an election bet with her husband. It wasn't exactly a bet but a "get it" or "not get it" proposition.

If Smith won they were to use their old living room suite for another season and if Hoover won she was to get a new suite at her own choosing. There were limitations put on the amount that could be spent for the furniture but she was familiar with the low price of the suite she wanted so that didn't affect her part of the bargain and her husband was surprised that she allowed the price to be set so low.

"And when my husband saw what I had bought," she told a friend later, "he said he knew there was a big payment due and wanted to go down and pay the difference. He was sure that such high class furniture couldn't be bought for that money. I convinced him though and now he wants to buy a bedroom suite and several miscellaneous items."

"I asked them when they could deliver the suite and they told me 'right away.' I was skeptical about such good delivery service so I didn't hurry to get home. When I did they had been there and placed the new furniture in the room. Yes, it was from the Pampa Furniture Co., she concluded. ADV.

Big Oil Pipeline Will Be Built to Illinois Refinery

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., Nov. 14.—A 600-mile pipeline will be built from the Mid-Continent oil fields to Chicago at an estimated cost of $15,000,000, according to an announcement today by officials of the Empire Gas & Fuel company, a subsidiary of Cities Service company, and the Texas Corporation, which have jointly organized the Texas Empire Pipeline company to build and operate the new line. Each company will own 50 per cent of the stock of the new corporation.

Preliminary engineering work is completed and it is expected that the line, which is to be of 12-inch pipe, will be ready for operation by the middle of 1929. Provision will be made for enlarging the initial capacity of 10,000,000 barrels yearly when conditions warrant.

The purpose of the new line is to serve the oil refinery of the Texas Oil Corporation at Lockport, Illinois, and a refinery to be built in 1929 near Chicago by the Empire.

The crude oil to be transported through the line will come largely from the Mid-Continent area where both the Texas Company and the Empire Gas & Fuel Company are among the most important producers of oil.

Several months ago each company announced its intention to construct an oil line transverse the same territory. Realizing the economic advantage of a jointly owned and operated line, the present arrangement resulted.

Oil Field Work Active in October as Market Holds

AUSTIN, Nov. 14.—Stability characterized the petroleum market in Texas during October, according to Bernard Nichols, editor of the Texas Business Review, issued monthly by the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas.

"For the past few months, production and consumption have been pretty evenly balanced so that the statistical position of the industry has changed very little," Mr. Nichols said. "Each month the large output of crude is about offset by the heavy run to stills. Moreover, gasoline consumption is holding up better than usual for this season of the year."

"A total of 22,600,000 barrels of crude oil was produced in Texas in October, compared to 21,976,000 barrels in Sept. and 19,215,000 barrels in Oct., 1927. Daily average flow decreased from 733,000 barrels in September to 729,000 barrels in October. The increase in total output for the month is due to the extra day in October.

"Field work was very active. During the month 587 wells were completed, of which 351 were producers, compared to 391 completions in October last year, 186 being successful.

"Crude price changes were very small. A few of the lighter oils were reduced slightly, where as some of the heavier grades were advanced 5-10 cents a barrel. Gasoline prices were reduced fractionally in line with seasonal influences. Stocks of crude continue rather large."

All-School Carnival Disperses Gloom of Football Defeat

The all-school carnival held Monday night at Central high came as a timely gloom dispeller, following the defeat of the Harvesters at the hands of the Perryton football team earlier in the day. Hundreds of high school students who returned from the game utterly dejected forgot their sorrows as they "took in" the side shows and mingled in the gay carnival atmosphere.

A hard-fought and exciting campaign between the various student groups to elect the most popular girl and boy in the high school ended during the last hours of the carnival with the election of Miss Myrtle White and J. T. "Steel" Clark, senior candidates.

The carnival, a benefit event for the high school year-book, featured booths and stunts by each of the classes and organizations. The spooky nature of most of the sideshows indicated a slight hold-over from the Halloween season, as well as a marked predilection for the bloodier pages of fairy tales. Two chambers of horrors vied with Blue Beard's collection of trophies. Other cleverly arranged concessions included a Japanese tea room, the Spotlight studio, and a gypsy fortune teller's stand.

The arriving crowds were greeted with showers of confetti and serpentine. Music was furnished at intervals by the high school orchestra and glee club under the direction of T. E. Fannell.

Miss Vera Leers Reed, head of the dramatics department, was in charge of carnival arrangements. She was assisted by sponsors of classes and organizations, who directed the activities of their groups. Miss Reed said today that more than $200 was derived from the sale of tickets.

Mitchell Arranges Three Post Season Games for Harvesters—First Will Be With Shamrock, Then Canyon to Come

Coach Odus Mitchell has arranged three post season games for the Harvesters. The first is with Shamrock Friday afternoon. The game will be played in Shamrock at 3 o'clock. Both teams have been eliminated from the conference race.

In the following week the Canyon Eagles will be the guests of the Harvesters and the greatest game of the season is expected. The Thanksgiving day game will be with Panhandle, the game to be played at Fair Park. Panhandle boasts the best team the school has had in many years and a great game is assured.

The locals were eliminated from the race last Monday by the Perryton Rangers. Coach Odus Mitchell had his warriors trained to the minute and the game should never have been lost, but what had been apparent all season happened. When up against a strong team or playing on a foreign field the boys lose their stride.

For another year Coach Mitchell will have a seasoned team that should never be beaten. Several of the members are first year men and most of them just two, but given another training season and the team will be hard to stop.

There will be only four of this year's stars missing when the season opens next year.

Contract Athletes Must Not Talk Transfer—Landis

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Coaches on major league baseball clubs figure to a minimum extent in the news during the season but two have appeared on the sport pages since the season ended.

The transfer of Allan Sothorn from St. Louis Cardinals to the Boston Braves resulted in an investigation by Commissioner Landis and a warning that athletes under contract to one club must not be approached by another, even when the player, active or inactive, thinks he is about to be released.

The latest addition to the ranks of the coaches is "Cracker" Sealk, signed as "first assistant" to manager John J. McGraw of the New York Giants.

Sealk will be one of the few coaches who can play in a pinch. Ivy Wingo of the Reds did not catch any games for the Reds last season but he was always in a receptive mood, although Eddie Collins was carried on the roster of the athletics as a player he was even more valuable as a coach.

More than 25 coaches are busy during the major league season, most of titles indicate but some do "bull pen" them on the coaching lines as their duty warming pitchers. A number of the coaches are specialists, devoting their time to developing the pitchers. Seven catchers of other days and four former pitchers are in the lineup.

Infielders lead the list, 15 of the coaches having played first, second, third, or shortstop during their active careers.

Washington has two coaches who double by doing comedy turns but Nick Altrock and Al Schacht are alert baseball men as well and Manage Walter Johnson can depend on them giving full baseball value with the laughs they provoke.

Mrs. John Dunn, widow of the late president-manager of the Baltimore club of the International league, may sell her baseball interests or decide to take her place at the head of the club. If she goes into baseball as a woman owner she will have a major league precedent set by another Mrs. Dunn. Mrs. James C. Dunn was the majority stockholder of the Cleveland club after the death of her husband and took active interest in affairs of the American league club but she had as president an able baseball man, E. S. Barnard, now president of the American league.

Jack Dempsey Sees Tex Rickard But Has No Message

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey's second comeback campaign apparently hasn't gotten beyond the talking stage yet.

The old Manassa Mauler met Tex Rickard yesterday in a conference widely ballyhooed as of momentous import but both said after the meeting they had talked about everything but boxing.

Whatever the situation, close followers of the ring are certain the former heavyweight champion again will don the gloves and do what he can to restore public interest in the cauliflower industry.

Forward Passes to Clear Standings in Western Conferences

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—(AP)—The Western conference atmosphere is apt to be strewn with flying footballs Saturday, but forward passes should do much to clarify the final 1928 standings.

Doubtless Wisconsin, deadlocked with Iowa for the Big Ten leadership, will look to the air for victory over Iowa at Iowa City. The Iowaans are not adverse to passing if their running attack fails. "Gloomy Glen" Thistledaisy, with a well perfected overhead game, is asking for a dry field when he sends his light, speedy backs against the powerful Iowa forward wall.

With an aerial game that has menaced every team met this year, Northwestern is expected to flip passes with the same degree of accuracy when the Wildcats meet Indiana at Bloomington. A passing machine built around Captain Walt Holmer has completed better than 50 per cent of its attempts.

Indiana, weak on the overhead game, will match Northwestern's varied attack with a running attack centered round one of the best set of backs in the conference. Offensive Captain Chuck Bennett will be back in the lineup as will defensive Captain Matthews.

Given only an outside chance of defeating Illinois, the Chicago Maroons are going about the task of building a passing game that will baffle the Illinois defense. Illinois has shown it, self noticeably weak against passes all season.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
Belle Martinez vs. Martha E. Binney Darby, et al. In the 84th district court, Gray county, Texas.
The State of Texas to the Sheriff or any Constable of Gray county—Greeting:
You are hereby commanded, that by making publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the county of Gray once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon Martha E. Binney Darby, formerly Martha E. Binney, and her husband, Tom Darby, whose residence is unknown, who is alleged to be non-residents of the State of Texas, to be and appear at the next regular term of the 84th District court of Gray County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in the City of Pampa, Texas, on the second Monday in December A. D. 1928, the same being the 10th day of December A. D. 1928, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 6th day of November A. D. 1928 in a suit, numbered on the Docket of said Court, No. 456 wherein Belle Martinez is plaintiff, and Martha E. Binney Darby, (formerly Martha E. Binney) and her husband, Tom Darby, and Bob Wade and wife, Mrs. Bob Wade, are defendants; the nature of plaintiffs demand being substantially as follows, to-wit:
Suit upon a promissory note for the sum of $2000.000 dated Jan. 24-1927 and due in installments of $200.00 each beginning on Mar. 1-1927 and expiring on Dec. 1-1927 with 8 per cent interest from date and providing for 10 per cent additional on principal and interest as attorney's fees. Said note being signed by Martha E. Binney and payable to Mrs. Belle Martinez, and secured by a chattel mortgage lien on all furniture, fixtures, equipment, including beds, bedding, linens, etc. located in the Ritz Hotel in Pampa, Texas, and withheld by Bob Wade and wife Mrs. Bob Wade, and this suit is brought for the foreclosure of the mortgage on said property and for judgment on said note.
Herein filed not, but have you before said Court on the said first day of next term thereof this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
Give under my hand and seal of said property being in the possession Pampa, Texas, this 6th day of Nov. A. D. 1928.
Witness CHARLES THUT, Clerk of 84th District Court in and for Gray County, Texas. By Louise Miller, Deputy. 7-14-21-28
