HOOVER TAKES TEXAS

Hoover Landslide Is Greatest in Life of Nation

SMITH HAS 87 ELECTORAL VOTES IN SIGHT, WITHOUT RECKONING DISPUTED COUNT

Massachusetts In Democratic Group, While Texas and North Carolina Lean Toward G. O. P.

(By The Associated Press)
Substantial Republican majorities in both the Senate and House were rolling in today behind the tide of Hoover votes. In the Senate, where they now have only a plurality of one, the Republicans have captured six seats now held by Democrats, and have apparently held to all their own 13 at stake in yesterday's election.

The Hoover wave in Kentucky carried with it nine Republican members of the House of that state's representation of 11, and six of these Republicans repled Democrats. However, other defections in the Democratic south in the presidential contest failed to make material shift in the normal representation of those states in the House. So the Republicans have increased their present majority of 35 so far by little more than the margin given them by Kentucky.

Solid South Is Finally Broken

BY W. F. CALDWELL
Associated Press Southern News Editor

Herbert Hoover broke the Solid South yesterday.

Virginia left the Democratic ranks for the first time since reconstruction days and gave the Republican presidential candidate a plurality that was indicated at more than 20,000 votes. Democratic state headquarters conceded the state to Hoover. With nearly all of the 300 missing precincts in normal Republican counties the Republican state Chairman R. H. Angell predicted that another 5,000 majority would be added to the Hoover lead with complete returns. With 1,429 of the 1,665 precincts reported Hoover had 145,641 votes to 124,520 for Smith.

Florida, with nearly half the state counted, showed Hoover over 15,000 votes ahead of Smith. The vote was Hoover 71,782; Smith 56,171, in 556 precincts out of 1,283.

Two of the other states in the group of ten which had previously gone Democratic in every election for over half a century, Texas and North Carolina showed leads for the Republican presidential candidate.

North Carolina went over the Hoover column this morning with nearly two-thirds of the state tabulated. This gave Hoover 207,549 and Smith 204,117 in 1,127 precincts out of 1,753.

Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, South Carolina, Arkansas, and Mississippi apparently remained in the Democratic column.

Most Governors of G. O. P. Elected

Thirty-four governors were elected yesterday, and returns early today showed the Republican were leading in twenty-one states. There were insufficient reports from Nebraska and South Dakota to show the trend, and several of the other states may change the political complexion of the governorship when complete returns are in.

Available returns showed the Republicans in the lead in Arizona, Connecticut, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Rhode Island, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin.

The Democrats had leads in Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Massachusetts, Montana, New York, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Utah.

If there is no change this will mark a Republican gain of two governors. The turn-overs would be from Democratic to Republican in Arizona, New Jersey and Ohio, and from Republican to Democratic in Massachusetts.

SOME HAD TO WIN
It's all over but the crowing. The "I told you so" attitude was rampant in Pampa today, and there was great industry as pre-election "ifs" were collected. Flowers and crepe came into play as mischievous individuals made use of the opportunity to "pour it on" their stand-pat Democratic friends. There was a marked increase in the number of new hats visible.

The News was headquarters for county, state, and national returns last night. An "extra" was issued at 8:15 p. m. in order to give readers the bulletins pouring in from every state. The trend to Smith in New York, taken away from him, and the swing to Hoover over the nation was clearly and quickly defined. There were still many people interested when "The News" wire closed after midnight.

REPUBLICAN'S LEAD JUMPS TO ELEVEN THOUSAND VOTES WITH MOST COUNTIES HEARD

Rural Communities, Instead of Cutting Down Advantage, Adding to Mounting Majority Today

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Sweeping the state like a West Texas sandstorm, Herbert Hoover today continued to increase his lead over Alfred E. Smith, and this afternoon was ahead by 11,058 votes.

Rural communities, where Smith had been expected to overcome the Hoover majority returned in larger centers, in many instances added to the Republican nominee's majority. A lead of about 8,000 when tabulation ceased after midnight had jumped to 11,000 at 11 a. m., and had dropped only one vote in the 12 o'clock tabulation by the Texas Election Bureau.

At 1:15, reports had been received from 234 of the 253 counties, 39 complete, giving Hoover 262,950 and Smith 251,892.

State Outcome Was Toss-Up Early Today

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The threatened revolt within the Democratic ranks of Texas, scoffed at before yesterday's election by party leaders, was a grim reality this morning as party stalwarts awoke to find a Republican presidential candidate leading the way in the race for Texas' 29 electoral votes, which have never been fast, heretofore, for any but a Democratic candidate.

With more than half of the vote tabulated Herbert Hoover had a lead of

Hoover Easily Carried All But LeFors Precinct

Gray county went heavily for Herbert Hoover, more heavily, in fact, as far as the presidential electors were concerned, than the table on this page shows, by reason of mutilations in marking.

Confusion resulting from attempts to vote for Hoover for president and for Democratic state and county officers—or the opposite—caused many to mark their ballots in all sorts of unusual fashions.

LeFors was the only Gray county precinct to give Governor Smith a majority vote. The vote there was 68 for Smith and 64 for Hoover. The whole county gave Hoover 1,871 votes to 985 for Smith.

Governor Dan Moody received 1,993 votes to 796 for Holmes. The amendments carried easily, although the school amendments, due to illegal combination on the ballots, will receive no aid from Gray county. Sheriff E. S. Graves had no trouble winning over Jot Montgomery of McLean, Republican, 2,019 to 797 A. H. Doucette was returned as county surveyor, getting 2,034 votes to 753 for Warren T. Fox.

County Judge T. M. Wolfe was complimented at Laketon and LeFors when his friends wrote in his name in the Independent ticket to win over L. H. Schreudener for Justice of the Peace in Precinct 1.

8,141 votes on the last tabulation made early today. Never before in the history of the state has a Republican presidential hopeful been within shouting distance of the Democratic candidate at midnight on election day. Hoover's total was 236,938 and Smith's 228,775. Probably more than 200,000 votes remain to be tabulated, a unknown

PLEASANT ECONOMY FEATURE OF COOKING SCHOOL LESSON

Economy—safe, sane, and pleasant economy—seems to be a hobby with Mrs. Leona Rusk Ibric, culinary expert who is conducting The Pampa Daily News cooking school. While she believes in making food as beautiful and as tempting as possible, she believes in doing it with the minimum of effort. The home maker's time is worth much according to her theory. In each of her interesting lectures she has demonstrated appetizing dishes that may be prepared quickly and without a great deal of effort.

Today, answering a popular demand, she demonstrated a full oven-baked meal, in which time, effort, and fuel are conserved. She cooked meat, vegetables, and bread at the same time, again emphasizing the advantages of waterless cookery for vegetables. "Oven cookery solves many difficulties," she told her audience. "Put the meat in the oven; set the automatic heat control; leave the kitchen, and call your time your own," she said. Meanwhile she demonstrated, proving that it is not much easier said than done.

Scout Charter to Be Presented Next Tuesday

The charter will be presented to the Adobe Walls council at a meeting at the Schnieder hotel next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. The meeting was to have been held last week, but owing to the muddy condition of roads in this territory it was postponed.

At the meeting L. C. White of Amarillo, regional committee man for Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico, will make the address of the evening and present the charter to the Adobe Walls council. J. Sid O'Keefe of Panhandle, president of this district, will receive the charter on behalf of the Adobe Walls council.

A special invitation has been extended to all interested in Boy Scout work and at least 100 are expected to attend the banquet. Members of the Adobe Walls council from White Deer, Panhandle, Borger, Phillips, and Canadian will join the Pampa groups at the banquet.

Fairness to All

In this age of enlightenment, it is not necessary to pre-digest the news and tell readers how to vote. It is highly essential, however, that they be given both sides of controversial issues.

In this endeavor it has been fortunate in having the incomparable Associated Press service. Studiedly impartial, this international agency composed of member newspapers has "covered" the campaign in superlative style.

Alfred E. Smith: "The end of the campaign is now at hand and I wish to congratulate you (Kent Cooper, general manager) and the personnel of your organization on the work it has done."

Herbert Hoover: "I want you to know of my gratitude for the uniform courtesy extended by Mr. James L. West, chief of the staff assigned to me, during the presidential campaign and by his assistants, Mr. W. B. Ragsdale and Miss Mary Bainbridge Hayden."

Charles Curtis: "It gives me great pleasure to write you in regard to the splendid service to Mr. Francis Stephenson, who has been with me in the campaign representing your association up to the end of the campaign."

Joseph T. Robinson: "Mr. Walter Chamblin in the first stages of the campaign and Mr. Raymond Z. Henle in the latter part of it, representing The Associated Press, attended me on my tour through thirty states. They were at all times fair, diligent, and able in representing The Associated Press and in reporting my addresses."

ly to be as comfortable as Hoover, but it got on Hoover's nerves. Some of the bolters have laid themselves open to possible punishment, which they are likely to get, in or out of Congress.

Funny thing how both Republicans and Democrats will claim a state by large majorities just before election. Funnier still how many of them believe their own claims.

Well, anyway, Al Smith is probably the only one who came near breaking up a poker game in the National Press Club.

Modern young women smoking cigarettes are accepted nearly everywhere, but not at the Walter Red veterans' hospital.

Twenty debutantes, out there for the first time, held a smoking party on a piazza while waiting for instructions.

Smith wound up his campaign looking better than Hoover. The governor had been through a lot of such things before. He was far more active in this one than after dinner to tell their stories and smoke their cigars.

G. O. P. Gain Man in Senate and Add to Already Good Margin in House—All Southern Leaders Returned to Office

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON Associated Press Staff Writer

Republicans increased their frail plurality of one in the Senate and added to their comfortable working majority in the House on the basis of congressional election returns trickling in slowly behind the sweep of Herbert Hoover.

Upsets in Delaware and Maryland gave the Republicans first blood in the Senate contest. The Democratic incumbents in these states, Senators Thomas F. Bayard and William Cabell Bruce, respectively were counted out early last night.

The thirteen Republican seats involved in the Senate race appeared to be in the victory column, but the Democrats, with 20 seats in the election block, were having their troubles in several states.

Kentucky Favors G. O. P.

Riding the rolling Hoover tide in Kentucky, the Republicans picked up half a dozen members in the House from that state and held their own in other normally Republican districts.

However, the Democrats kept most of their solid representations in the house from the deep South and from New York City despite the swiftness on the presidential contests.

The present congress is made up as follows: Senate, 47 Republicans, 46 Democrats, one Farmer-Labor, two vacancies; House, 231 Republicans, 193 Democrats, 29 Farmer-Labor, one Socialist, eight vacancies.

Most of the Republican leaders of the House were among the victors, including Speaker Longworth, of Ohio; Rep. Tilson, of Connecticut, the party's leader; Hawley, of Oregon, chairman of the ways and means committee; Wood, of Indiana, who will become chairman of the appropriations committee, and Snell and Dempsey of New York, chairman of the rules and rivers and harbors committees, respectively.

Leaders Are Returned

Republican senators who were elected included Johnson of California; Fess of Ohio; Reed of Pennsylvania; Greene of Vermont, LaFollette of Wisconsin and Vandenberg of Michigan.

Republicans who will take over seats in the Senate now held by Democrats were representative Theodore Burton of Ohio, who defeated Graham P. Hunt, Democrat, the nominee for the vacancy left by the late Senator Frank Willis; John G. Townsend, Jr., of Delaware, and Philip Lee Goldsborough of Maryland.

Frederic Walcott of Connecticut, Republican nominee for the seat given up by Senator George P. McLean, Republican, defeated his Democratic opponent, Augustine Lonergan.

Southern Democratic Senators apparently were returned to office with out exception. Swanson of Virginia and Stephens of Mississippi having no opposition. Representative Tob Connelly of Texas who defeated Senator Mayfield for the Democratic nomination, was successful. Senators McKellar of Tennessee and Trammel of Florida had commanding leads.

Farmer-Labor Man Wins

In one of the most bitterly fought Senate contests, Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota, the lone Farmer-Labor senator, was given a second term. He defeated Arthur E. Nelson, Republican.

Most of the Independent group of the Senate were assured of election with Shipstead, and LaFollette already marked up and Senators Frazier, North Dakota, Republican; Howell, Nebraska, Republican; and Wheeler, Montana, Democrat, leading. Senator Dill, Washington, Democrat, the old member of this bloc for whom Senator Norris, Republican, of Nebraska campaigned, was trailing his Republican opponent.

The Democrats gained one seat in the house in Indiana where Louis

Ludlow defeated Representative Ralph Updike, Republican in normally Republican Indianapolis.

Republicans took only two seats away from the Democrats in New York, Mrs. Ruth Pratt capturing the seventh district and James L. Whitley, Republican, winning in the thirty-eighth district. New York, representation in the next House will be 23 Democrats and 20 Republicans.

Kentucky will be represented by 9 Republicans and two Democrats.

In the south, Georgia, Arkansas, Louisiana, South Carolina and Mississippi returned solid Democratic representations to the House. Texas Democrats also retained the 17 of the 18 districts they now hold and were in a fair way of capturing the only Republican seat from that state, held by Representative Wuresbach. Representative Kvale of Minnesota, one of the two Farmer-Labor members of the House, was an early victor.

Republicans gained a seat in Pennsylvania, William R. Voyle defeating his Democratic opponent, Representative Kent, Democrat, in the thirteenth district.

Beautiful Actress

... Countless Admirers

—the secret of her blasted life told for the first time

"MAGDA, the saintly" her friends called her. For though this beautiful actress had countless admirers, she steadfastly refused to let the slightest suspicion of love or romance enter her life.

Then something happened. The tongue of scandal linked her name in an ugly way with that of a man of great social prominence.

For some strange reason Magda neither denied nor confirmed these rumors. The poison spread. One by one her friends deserted her. Even her youthful protegee, a young man in the cast whom she had encouraged and helped with all the strength of her wonderful character, publicly denounced her as unfit for decent people to associate with.

Had he known the truth he would have cut out his tongue rather than breathe a word against her character. Then Magda's play suddenly closed, and crushed and in despair, she finally sought out the man responsible for her wrecked reputation, and threatened to expose him—to tell the world the truth.

"I dare you to!" he snarled through evil lips. And Magda knew her fight had just begun.

Those in the show business still talk about Magda's case. But until now only two people, besides Magda herself, knew the sensational truth about the venomous scandal which blasted the life of one of the most gifted, beautiful artists of the American stage. But now her story can be told—a story that will stir you to the very depths of your soul. It is entitled "Beyond the Pale" and appears complete in December True Story Magazine.

The Story of

Frigidaire and Salads

as told by Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig

The illustrated story that Mrs. Ihrig told at the cooking school yesterday was like an interesting book with action pictures throughout. She showed the many salads which could be made so easily and quickly with a Frigidaire at hand.

"Such salads as these are a delight to make if you have a Frigidaire in the Kitchen. Many salads need cooling and many must be kept cold until the time they are served. This problem is easily solved with one of these machines."

The Frigidaire and other electrical appliances from our store will be demonstrated by Mrs. Ihrig this week. Watch for the dates and don't fail to note the nice, thorough cooking, cooling or freezing that can be done.

We will be glad to answer any questions about any of our appliances demonstrated at the school.

100,000 EXTRA VOTE OFFER

They're Beginning To Vote!

Rapidly narrowing down to those who really want the big automobiles and other handsome prizes, and who are going to do their level best to win them during the next few weeks, the list of names of contestants in the Pampa Daily News' $5,000 automobile and prize voting campaign appears again today. The list is now getting down to the real workers, and several more names are to be removed unless they are heard from this week with subscription votes. Today's count of votes was tabulated by the Contest Manager at 6 o'clock last night, and includes all votes counted up to that time. Rapid rises on the part of late entrants and new starters has been a feature of the present week. Last time the list appeared, Mrs. I. S. Reddick had only 3,820. Look where she stands today! In District No. 2, Mrs. I. M. Higgins of White Deer was even in the list. She what she has done. It all goes to show that it isn't when you start in this race that counts—IT'S WHAT YOU DO WHEN YOU DO START! There are others in Miami, McLean, Skellytown and the other communities who could do the same thing.

The special offer of $25 in extra cash for the contestant securing the most points this week only, is creating considerable excitement, and almost every contestant has voted his or her intention of winning it. All subscriptions turned in now, count three ways (1) Regular Votes (2) Extra Votes (3) Points towards the $25 prize. You can win an automobile with the same subscriptions that win the $25 cash prize.

Contestants have nothing to gain by remaining out of the race any longer. There will never be another offer as good as this one, and NOW is the time to get in. There is plenty of territory in District No. 2 available, and in District No. 1 there is lots of room for energetic workers. The more there are participating the easier it is to win.

THIS HAS HAPPENED JERRY RAY thinks love is a delusion and decides to marry for money. Her vacation plans are ruined by the news of her arrival and nothing remains but to go camping with her roommate MYRTLE.

JERRY was amazed at her own feelings. She wanted, rashly and without thought of consequence, to throw herself into Dan's arms and cling to him forever. In a moment they would say good-by at her door. She couldn't bear that, knowing he was never coming back again.

Alvester telephoned her the next day to say he was coming over. Jerry wished she had a room of her own. Myrtle was all right to live with. She'd heard girls in the store talk about roommates who wore their things without permission, used their cosmetics lavishly and even read their mail.

Texas Aggies to Face Mustangs at Dallas Saturday

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 7.—(Special)—Facing what promises to be one of their toughest assignments of the season in the game with the powerful Southern Methodist University Mustangs at Orenby stadium in Dallas next Saturday, the Texas Aggies are bucking down this week to the most serious grand of preparation yet called for by any game of the present schedule. Details of the impending record the Mustangs have made thus far, the Aggies will likely go into the game as the underdogs and fully cognizant of the uphill fight that will be necessary from the start of the game.

The Ponies were favored last year to defeat the Aggies but the predictions of the posters were set at naught by the furious style of play the Aggies staged. That game was played on Kyle Field, however, a condition that always gives the Aggies added inspiration. Next Saturday the conflict will be on foreign soil for the Aggies and that is expected to count to the advantage of the Mustangs.

All in all, the coming game promises to be one of the most colorful gridiron scenes of the season, both on the field and in the stands. The entire A. & M. cadet corps of 2,600 khaki clad students, accompanied by their 100-piece band, will make the journey to Dallas to give their support to the Maroon and White warriors. Reports from Dallas indicate the S. M. U. student body and band will be on hand en masse. In addition, hundreds of fans from over the state are expected to add to the colorful crowd that will be on hand to view the contest.

Coches Dana Bible is putting the Aggies through a rigorous round of preparation this week to smooth off the rough edges evident in the team play of the revamped eleven that defeated the North Texas State Teachers college team last week-end. The showing made by the Aggies against the Teachers indicates the tentative changes made by the coaches in rebuilding their grid machine will become permanent. The Aggie line showed marked improvement and the Aggie backs were enabled to gain consistency throughout the game. Increased aggressiveness and smoother functioning of the Aggie machine has apparently been achieved by the coaches.

The good effect to which the Aggies' used their passers, against the Teachers indicates that Coach Bible's eleven may employ some of the Ponies' magic in the game. The Mustangs always a passing team, may not have the stellar Hume in the game to do their passing, but in his absence Sammy Reed, understudy of the fleet Hume, will likely be on hand and give the Aggies pass for pass. It was Reed who hurled the pass that gave the Ponies their margin of victory over the Longhorns last Saturday.

Last year the Aggie-Mustang game was marked by the fight between the stellar Joel Hunt, Aggie captain and quarter, and Jerry Mann, Mustang captain and field general, both of whom were waging the fight which decided who would get the selection for quarterback on the all-conference eleven. This year there will be no Mann and no Hunt, but Coach Bible and Coach Morrison have two of the strongest backfield combinations in the Southwest and the fight bids well to be a brilliant one.

Is Is Knute and Mrs. Rockne

Harvester Third Team Practicing for Friday Game

With three additional players out, the Harvester third team is practicing hard for the scheduled game with White Deer Friday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock on the local field. The extra boys who are out with the third team are ineligible to play with the Harvesters first string.

The youngsters held the hard hitting White Deer crew to 13 to 0 in White Deer Monday afternoon and believe they can beat them on the home field. With Ragsdale, Lewter, Thomas, and Benton in the backfield, and Ledrick and Kahl to go in the backfield worries, should be light. The line is heavy for a third string and is working nicely.

This afternoon the Perry-on-Pollett tie is being played off and the winner will meet the Harvesters Monday afternoon. Coach Mitchell is trying to get the game brought to Pampa and believes he will succeed. Perry-on and Pollett played to a scoreless tie at Pollett Monday afternoon. The winner of Monday's game will meet the Memphis eleven winners of the southern section of this district.

Speedy Snow to Have Battle

Speedy Snow, local boxer, will have a hard battle on his hands when he steps into the ring with Fighting Joe Lamb in the semi-final to the Varner-Sparks ten-round bout at the Pampa Thursday night. The Varner-Sparks bout has been hanging fire for a year and has just been matched. Snow is a clever, two-fisted fighter who has been up in the game. Sparks was a sensation on the Pacific coast three years but because of brittle bones had to leave the game and California climate for a time. This will be the second bout of the season. His first victory was over Rusty Cahill.

Hoover Lead in New York Likely Hundred Thousand

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The New York state plurality of Herbert Hoover, Republican president-elect, over Governor Alfred E. Smith, his Democratic opponent, was indicated at 100,000 today on the basis of revised figures in New York City and belated returns that trickled in from the upstate Republican strongholds.

Official canvass of the returns from all the 3493 election districts in the greater city gave 20,000 more votes for Hoover than the earlier returns, but the same revisions added 35,900 to the Smith total, a net gain of 15,000 for the Democratic candidate.

With all but 233 upstate districts headed from out of 2267 in the state, including New York City, the total was: Hoover 2,150,788; Smith 2,032,841. This was a margin of 73,147 in Hoover's favor.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic gubernatorial candidate had a lead of 10,000 over Attorney General Albert B. Houghton, of Corning, Republican. Ottlinger, Republican with 347 districts unreported.

The total was: Roosevelt 2,077,873; Hoover cut into the usual Democratic pluralities in New York City.

The returns from the missing upstate districts, were expected to cut the Roosevelt plurality to about 40,000.

United States Senator Royal S. Copeland, Democrat, was re-elected, defeating former-Ambassador Alanson 6483 over Attorney General Albert B. Houghton, of Corning, Republican. Ottlinger, Republican with 347 districts unreported.

West Branch Doctor Gave Hoover An Idea of Service to Humanity

WEST BRANCH, Ia., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Riding in a mud-spattered old buggy through country lanes smelling of sweet clover is one of the happy boyhood memories of Herbert Hoover, Dr. L. J. Leech, the country doctor who drove the buggy, although now 80 years old, is still traversing the country roads round West Branch, answering the calls of the stricken.

When the roads get too bad for an automobile, "Doc" rides a horse. Mud crones do not stop him and he does not bother when he answers a call in the middle of the night, to find out whether the patient has money enough to pay for his service or not.

Nobody is prouder of Herbert Hoover than Dr. Leech. In fact he made a speech to his assembled townspeople at the time of Hoover's nomination for the presidency. It was the old country doctor who gave to Herbert Hoover one of his first impressions of the beauty of service to humanity. Often when the boy would be lying in bed with the sheet beating upon the windows and the wind howling he would hear the clatter of horses' hoofs across the street. "Doc" Leech was answering a night call.

Often, too, Herbert would go to the doctor's house for dinner with the two Leech boys, Bert and Oliver. About the time they started to eat a piece juicy piece of steak "zing" would go the telephone. The doctor would leave the meal unfinished and hurry away. And the little boys, quite content that they were not grown up, would tackle the good things with zest with a feeling of pity for the doctor who must answer the call of duty.

SATISFIED? YES!

"I've never seen clothes more spotless white than the ones I received back from the Pampa Laundry," says Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig, national cooking and economics expert. "I have wondered since arriving in Pampa if the people here have ever realized that they have a laundry that is not surpassed in the entire state of Texas."

Your clothes will receive the same attention when you send them to the Pampa Laundry. After passing through rich and soapy suds, hundreds of gallons of soft rain water, rinsed till they are fresh and pure, dried thoroughly ironed perfectly—the result must be satisfactory.

Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig

Accompanied by a member of the Daily News Staff, Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig drove down into the southwest corner of Gray county in her Silver Anniversary Buick last evening, getting election returns for the Associated Press and inviting folks to come in to the Cooking School.

"I found it hard to realize that we were driving over some of the rougher country roads. The sensation was more like flying. Each day has brought me new revelations of the rugged power, the driving ease and the riding comfort of this wonderful machine. I cannot enough express my gratitude to the Buick people for their kindness to me while in Pampa. My next car will surely be a Buick!"

Smith Is Quick to Send Hoover Congratulations

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith has fought the greatest battle of his long career and has conceded his defeat.

Although returns were not complete, he had admitted today that his hopes for the presidency had been dashed by an overwhelming vote for Herbert Hoover, his Republican opponent. But he went down smiling, say the friends who stuck with him to the last, and seeks "to be left alone for a while."

Surrounded by members of his family, the four times governor of New York had planned to stay at his hotel today prepared for the trip to Albany, where he will vacate the governor's chair December 31. He probably will tgoothie etaoi etaelep etaoi strd go to the state capital tomorrow and rest a while before taking a vacation trip with Mrs. Smith, who was by his side almost constantly throughout the long campaign.

Governor Smith was not long in sending his congratulations to Mr. Hoover. Soon after midnight he dispatched the following telegram to his opponent at Palo Alto, Cal.:

"I congratulate you heartily on your victory, and extend to you my sincere good wishes for your health and happiness and for the success of your administration."

STATE--

quantity sufficient to turn the election either way by a comfortably large majority. There was little comfort in that fact for the Democratic leaders, however, as Hoover not only proved his strength at the barrier in last night's tabulation, but showed staying qualities which indicated that he might continue his pace to the last ballot.

See-Saw Effect Given

The Republican candidate was away in the lead, and though Smith forged to the front twice for brief intervals Hoover was never behind more than a few hundred votes.

Democratic leaders had expected to trail during the earliest tabulations to most of the large cities were known to be strong Hoover centers. West Texas and the non-metropolitan counties of the state, on the other hand, were considered overwhelmingly in favor of Smith. This prediction held good as to the large cities, but many of the West Texas counties, and other counties developed a husky sentiment for Hoover.

Smith leaders refused to admit that there was any danger that the state would go Republican. They contended that returns from most of the Hoover strongholds were nearing completion and that the 39 counties which have made on report to date, and the 200 which have incomplete reports, would swing the balance to Smith.

Prohibition Was Issue

The campaign in Texas centered largely around the prohibition issue. Numerous church leaders, prohibition leaders, members of the anti-saloon league and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union were active supporters of Hoover, and some of the Democratic campaign speeches charged that the Klan was active against Smith.

The result was a toss-up this morning, so far as anyone could predict. Hoover might easily wipe it out in the first tabulation.

Returns in Texas are totaled by the Texas election bureau, a cooperative enterprise among newspapers. The bureau closed at 1:30 a. m. today and will not prepare another tabulation until several hours after sunrise.

Stuckey to Pave 3 More Alleys

The Stuckey Construction company was awarded a contract to pave three alleys at a meeting of the city commission Monday. Although the Stuckey company's bid was $15,000, the city commission let the contract to them because Mr. Maynard failed to place a time limit on his bid.

The bid entered by the Stuckey Construction was $5,425.00 and the work to be completed within 30 working days. The alleys to be paved are: From Atchison avenue to Kingsmill avenue on the west side of Cuyler street, and the alley between Foster avenue and Kingsmill avenue between Frost and Somerville streets.

Each alley will be 20 feet wide and will be paved with 6-inch plain concrete.

Postal Receipts Show Big Gain

October money order receipts in the local office showed large gains over the previous month and a record gain over the same month last year. The October receipts amounted to $40,987.41 as compared with $35,169.22, or a gain of $5,818.19 over the previous month. The same month last year the receipts totaled $26,852.26 to show for October this year a gain of $14,135.15.

Although stamp sales for October showed a slight decrease over that of the previous month the total receipts for October were $796.26 more than September. The October receipts showed a gain of $646.90 over those of the same month last year.

crowd the basement auditorium of the Methodist church. Today, notwithstanding the unusual number of organization meetings, the school was well filled.

Women of this city and neighboring towns who are attending the daily classes find Mrs. Ihrig an ideal teacher. She invites her students to ask questions on any subject and graciously stops during the lecture to make explanations. She is more interested in the problems of the women of Pampa than she is in the routine of the cooking school.

In connection with the cooking school, The Pampa Daily News is maintaining a nursery where infants and small children of the women attending the school are kept during class hours. Mrs. H. P. Elliott is in charge of the nursery, which is kept in the kindergarten room of the church. Mrs. Roy Bourland is acting as assistant. Forty-three children were entertained yesterday in the nursery. No mother need stay away from the school because of having small children to care for. The News invites them to the daily nursery party.

Hoover Prepares Message Thanking American People

HOOVER HOME, STANFORD UNIVERSITY CAMPUS, Calif., Nov. 7.—Herbert Hoover has realized two hopes that have lain close to his heart election to the presidency and the breaking of the sectional political lines which have hemmed the South about since reconstruction days.

Having had a restful night after the tumultuous demonstration given him by Stanford university students when his election had become assured, the president-elect today set about preparing a thanking them for their vote of confidence and another to his Democratic opponent, Alfred E. Smith, thanking him for his message of congratulation and hope for success of his administration.

After that he will begin a week or more of rest and recreation of which he feels in need after the trying days of campaigning through which he has passed since the Republic party selected him to carry its banner in a political contest which in many respects has been without a counter-part in recent history.

"I thank you for coming up here tonight and giving us the splendid reception," he said. "I do appreciate it from the bottom of my heart. I thank you."

COOKING SCHOOL NEWS

Corned Beef Croquettes

Same old corned beef hash? Perhaps—but try cooking it the French way, and see how crisp and brown the outside is and how moist and well cooked it is inside.

1 tablespoon chopped parsley
2 cups mashed potatoes
3 cups finely chopped cold corned beef

Salt and pepper to taste
2 tablespoons Crisco
1/4 cup cream
1 egg

Melt Crisco in a saucepan. Add the potatoes and cream and stir until well mixed and heated. Add the meat, salt and pepper. Take from the stove, add the chopped parsley and egg beaten light without separating. Mix well and put away to cool. When cold, form into croquettes, cover with egg and bread crumbs and fry in deep hot Crisco from 375-385° F. Serve hot, with poached egg on round of toast.

"I thank you for coming up here tonight and giving us the splendid reception," he said. "I do appreciate it from the bottom of my heart. I thank you."

Wouldn't you hesitate to fry foods in a fat that you would be unwilling to taste? Of course you would! A cooking fat should be as fresh and sweet as milk or butter—and every good cook judges these foods by tasting them.

Just make this interesting test: Put a little Crisco on the tip of a spoon. On the tip of a second spoon place a little of another shortening. Taste Crisco first, then the other shortening.

Doesn't the sweet, fresh taste of Crisco make you confident that it will improve the flavor of any food you prepare with it?

You taste your milk— NOW— taste your shortening!

You test your eggs—

CRISCO

Crisco's sweet flavor will delight you!
