Stinnett Jury Gets Case at Noon in Murder Trial of Borger Girl

KILLING GREW OUT OF MAN'S USING LETTER

Defendant Claims He Had Been Attempting to Cause Trouble

DIED FOLLOWING BLOW ON HEAD

Intended to Show the Missive to Prove Claim

STINNETT, Sept. 28.—The murder trial of Mrs. Willie Blackman, charged in connection with the death of her brother-in-law, Frank Regan, at Borger a short time ago, went to the jury at 12:30 o'clock today.

Speeded up by a night session, trial consumed little more than a day. One of the principal witnesses was E. W. Pate, laborer, who was helping to tear down a house where Mr and Mrs. Blackman formerly lived. He testified that he found a letter in the house, bearing signature, and showed it to Regan. The latter, he said, exclaimed:

"I wouldn't take $500 for this letter; it proves what I said long ago."

Testimony brought out that Regan told Mrs. Blackman about the letter and said he was going to show it to her husband. On the witness stand, the defendant said she tried to get the letter back, and in a struggle she dealt Regan a fatal blow, from which he died four days later in a Borger hospital without regaining consciousness.

Mrs. Blackman maintained that the contents of the letter were trivial, and that she had destroyed the missive. She was joined in this statement by her husband, who said Regan had been trying to cause trouble between the couple for the last ten years.

A Hutchinson county grand jury today began an investigation of murder charges against five men held in connection with the death of Johnny Oyer at Stinnett.

HOUSTON MAN SHERIFF HEAD

T. A. Binford Is Successor to Albert Hauser of Eagle Pass

AUSTIN, Sept. 28.—(P)—Sheriff T. A. Binford of Houston, was elected president of the Texas Sheriffs and ex-Sheriffs association today to succeed President Albert Hauser of Eagle Pass, sheriff of Maverick county.

R. B. Wathall, chairman of the state board of control, appealed today to the sheriffs to urge the state legislature their home districts to make ample financial provision at the next legislature for the eleemosynary institutions.

The institutions are badly crowded and more facilities are needed, he said. He told of a recent survey showing that about 400 persons adjudged insane are being held in county jails because of the state at present has no room for them.

San Antonio was chosen as the 1929 convention city. El Paso was the runner-up and Dallas and Houston also made bids.

R. E. McWilliams, Ballinger, sheriff of Runtels county, was elected vice-president, and R. A. Goodfellow, in charge of the sheriff's desk in the state comptroller's office here, was chosen secretary.

CONFERENCE IS BEST YET SAYS SCOUT OFFICIAL

McIver Returns From Big Session of Week in Ithica, N. Y.

MAKES REPORT FOR COUNCIL

Faculty of Great Men Assured Success of Gathering

On his return from the annual conference for Boy Scout executives at Ithica, N. Y., E. D. McIver, executive of the Adobe Walls council, made an enthusiastic, detailed report to the president and members of the council.

"In attendance, in the breadth and scope of the work covered, in securing of a faculty composed of men of national and international renown, in the arrangement of the program, the facilities pertaining to the comfortable and convenient housing of delegates, in the international aspect of the council itself, the fifth Biennial was by far the greatest gathering for Scout men ever held," Mr. McIver stated.

"There was a registration of more than 1,000 of the 1,300 employed men of the Boy Scouts of America. Exhibits were assembled from all part of the world. The lecturers included the chief officers of the Boy Scouts and leading social scientists, educators, business men, and boy leaders from several countries. The selection of these men assured the success of the conference before its beginning."

"Now that the conference is history, and I have had time to live over again and again the seven days crowded with interesting, constructive and inspirational happenings, I try to sum up the high-lights of the Conference, especially the outstanding results accomplished and to visualize the worthwhile information which the executives could bring away with them which would make them more valuable to the field they are serving."

"First on this list, I believe, would be the vision given us of the tremendous power for the good of the world that lies in the proper administration of this program, called Scouting; of the great and lasting good that might accrue to the civilization of the world through the contact of our boyhood with the 'wonder movement' for the leisure time of boys; of the great privilege that is offered to the men of America to be instrumental in fashioning the lives of boys all over the world into men of character trained for citizenship; of the great responsibility held by the executives who have the opportunity to set in motion a series of events that will reach to the ends of the earth and an eternity of time."

"Third and last, the bringing together of men from all parts of the world who are trying to do the same thing, who have the same problems, and who are constantly seeking a better way to accomplish the thing each is trying to do, is of necessity bound to be helpful to everyone. A large portion of each day was given over to round-table sessions where the problems, common to the Scout field, were discussed at length. Every one of the various departments of Scouting was thoroughly covered and instructions were to be had if desired. No member present was barred from expressing his opinions regardless of how limited his experience might be; everyone took part so that in spirit and truth the Fifth Biennial was a conference of by, and for Scout executives."

Mel Davis Well Increases to Big Flow at LeFors

The Mordyan Oil company's No. 1 Mel B. Davis in section 8, block 1, A. C. H. and B. survey, continues to hold interest in the LeFors area. This well is about two miles southeast of the LeFors Petroleum company's gusher in the LeFors townsite, and is on the south bank of the Red River.

SUSPENSION IS METED OUT TO ILLINOIS MAN

But Immorality Charges Are Withdrawn by Conference

FALSE WITNESS NOW ALLEGED

California Pastor, Resigned, Is Unfrosted Today by Baptists

FAIRFIELD, Ill., Sept. 28.—(P)—The Rev. J. S. Cummins, former pastor of the First Methodist church of Belleville, Ill., today was acquitted of charges of "immorality" but convicted of "high imprudence and unministerial conduct," in a church trial held here in connection with the annual conference of Southern Illinois Methodist churches.

The Rev. Mr. Cummins was suspended for one year from his ministerial duties upon conviction of the latter charge, after which he may be restored to active service.

The immorality charges involved alleged giving of false testimony, and accusations that he embraced three women members of his congregation in his Belleville church.

Fellowship Withdrawn—Rev. Ernest J. Penderleith, resigned pastor of the Olivary Baptist church, has been unfrocked by the council of Santa Ana Valley churches meeting here. The accusations against the minister were based on charges of immoral conduct while he was pastor of a Baptist church in Vancouver, B. C.

The council yesterday recommended to the membership of the local church "that the hand of fellowship be withdrawn from Rev. Penderleith."

City Charter Upheld

In view of the future civic improvement activities, and by reason of the fact that bond houses and contractors have been eager to know the exact powers of the commission-manager form of government under the city charter, a noted bond attorney's opinions are worthy of being mentioned and recorded here.

W. P. Dumas of Dallas, an authority on the subject, has completed a lengthy opinion for the city commission. He was asked these questions:

- 1. Has the City of Pampa power to contract for public improvements and evidence the debt by the issuance of interest bearing time warrants?
2. Does the charter of the City of Pampa, adopted November 8, 1927, affect the right of the qualified electors of that city to vote bonds for public improvements?
3. Does the city commission of the City of Pampa have the authority to issue refunding bonds without submitting the proposition therefor to vote of the people?

Mr. Dumas quotes authority to support his opinion, in answer to the first question, that the city does have the power to make public improvements to be paid for by time warrants bearing a specified rate of interest. The city corporation is authorized by the very power of its creation to make public improvements, and this presupposes that it shall have authority to pay for them, subject of course to given charter provisions and the general statutes of the state.

In answer to the second question, the attorney finds that the charter does not affect the right of the qualified electors to vote bonds for public improvements. Section 1, Article 6 of the Pampa charter provides for the issuance of bonds, and leaves the procedure subject to the general law.

The third question, "Does the City Commission of the City of Pampa have the authority to issue refunding bonds without submitting the proposition therefor to vote of the people?" is answered in the affirmative.

It should be kept in mind that the city has two principal modes of finance: 1. Borrowing money for which bonds are issued and to retire the principal and interest of which a bond tax is levied; and 2. Issuance of city warrants in payment of legal debts.

The legislatures have seen fit not to seriously limit the power of municipal corporations to issue warrants. In case of emergencies, or where any quick action is desirable, the bond issue method by vote is so slow as to be impracticable. Moreover, warrants normally bring 6 per cent, or little more than bonds. It is important to know, however, that warrant issues are not to borrow money for future or current use, but to pay for debts already legally created. In application, this means that such warrants as for paying may not be issued to the contractors until the work is done and the estimate is approved by the city engineer and the commission.

Ordinary bonds must not be sold for less than par value and must be authorized by an election held for the purpose. These are the type of bonds commonly thought of, and which enable the city to borrow money on long time payment. But there are certain debts which have been incurred for work now evidenced by city warrants. In recognition of work already done, moreover, Mr. Dumas believes that refunding bonds—often bearing less interest than the warrants—may be issued without referring the matter to the electors for authorization. No authority is needed to pay the city's legal debts. Refunding is mere conversion of an old debt; not the creation of a new one.

The general purpose city tax may not exceed $1 on the $100 valuation. Payment of the interest and principal of city warrants must be out of this $1 tax or less, since any levy above $1 must be authorized at the time the bond election is held.

Mr. Dumas appends an important supplementary opinion in regard to levies for paying interest and principal on refunding bonds without vote of the electors. He holds that while payment of warrants must be out of the $1 tax, the change of warrants into refunding bonds brings this debt under the powers governing "any bonded indebtedness" and that these refunding bonds may then carry a set levy without an election.

The significance of the Dumas opinion is manifold. Primarily, it defines the authority of the city safely to issue warrants for completed construction work; it approves the borrowing of money through voting of bonds; and it concedes the power of the city commission, without popular vote, to issue refunding bonds and set a tax levy therefor. It shows that the work of the charter commission of fifteen men was careful and adequate, and that the new city government as created by the charter is sound in law.

In the absence of actual litigation, such an opinion is the basis on which city activities are resting. We don't mind helping to pay for the roads through the gasoline tax, and we have no desire to carry off part of our highway property in the form of dust. Let it rain.

Golden Text—Christ liveth in me.—Gal. 2:20.

Book of Acts
The acts of the Apostles is one of the most picturesque and dramatic as well as one of the most important books in the Bible. It is an account of the most critical and fateful period of Christianity, when it faced the tremendous question of its relation to Judaism and was forced to determine whether it was to remain a Jewish sect or become a universal faith and world religion. It is a magnificent spectacle we witness in these graphic pages and never can they lose their supreme interest for Christian students.—James H. Snowden.

Paul's Missionary Journeys
During this quarter we have studied briefly the life and labors of Paul as recorded in the Book of Acts, Chap. 9 and Chap. 12-19, from the time of his conversion in A. D. 36 to the end of his second missionary journey, in A. D. 63, about 16 years.

We first see Saul, afterwards called Paul, at the stoning of the first Christian martyr, Stephen, Acts 7:58 and 8:1. His conversion occurred soon afterward on the road to Damascus, followed by his baptism and preaching in Jerusalem. His life being threatened in Damascus, he fled that city and went to Jerusalem, thence to his native city, Tarsus, and at the solicitation of Barnabas, to Antioch in Syria where had been organized a strong church with Gentile membership, and where the disciples were first called Christians.

By the direct command of the Holy Spirit, Acts 13:2, the church in Antioch sent forth Barnabas and Saul as the first foreign missionaries ever appointed. They first preached in the island of Cyprus, the early home of Barnabas; and, while there, a high official of the country, named Sergius Paulus, was converted and Saul's name was changed to Paul in the subsequent history. Passing over to the mainland of Asia Minor, Paul preached in Antioch in Pisidia the first foreign missionary sermon ever preached. Being persecuted there, they went in succession to Iconium, Lystra, and Derbe, their preaching being followed in each city by many conversions and much persecution. Undaunted by persecution, Paul and Barnabas boldly revisited the same cities, encouraging and strengthening the churches which they had established and returned to Antioch in Syria, from which place they had started about two years before.

With Silas as his traveling companion, instead of Barnabas, Paul started on his second missionary tour, going northwestward through Asia Minor, being joined by Timothy at Lystra and by Luke at Troas (Ancient Troy). At this place he saw a vision of the "Man of Macedonia" saying to him "Come over and help us." Accepting this as a divine command to preach the gospel in Europe, he crossed the narrow Aegean sea, and came to Philippi. Here was the first convert in Europe, a woman named Lydia. Because of the healing of a half demented fortune-telling young woman, and the consequent loss of revenue to her masters, Paul and Silas were severely beaten and thrust into a miserable dungeon. Praying and praising God at midnight, their prayers were heard, a great earthquake opened the prison doors, the jailer was convicted, converted, and baptized. All the members of the jailer's household, also, hearing Paul preach, believed and were baptized.

Leaving Philippi, Paul went to Athens, the capital of Greece, and preached there his famous sermon on Mars Hill, Acts 17:22-31. Thence to Corinth, where he made his living by working at his trade, tent making, in the home of Aquila and Priscilla, who became Christians and remained true and loyal friends to Paul ever afterwards. When Paul's life was threatened in Corinth, he was encouraged by a vision of the Lord who said to him: "Be not afraid; I am with thee and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee." After preaching in Corinth a year and six months, Paul returned to Jerusalem and to Antioch, thus completing his second missionary journey, A. D. 62.

Smith Says Lack of Leadership Bane of G. O. P. Work

BY HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer
ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 28.—(AP)—Leaving behind another attack on the Republican party and administration, this time a triple barreled assault for alleged inaction on the questions of farm relief and inland waterways and for "whispering," Gov. Smith takes to the road again today for the last speech of his western drive for the presidency.

Tomorrow night at Milwaukee, the Democratic presidential candidate will wind up his two weeks' stumping of the middle and far west with an address, probably on prohibition. The Democratic state convention at Rochester next Monday, which he also plans to address, then will be his only engagement before returning to Albany for a rest.

slipping into his Republican opposition, Gov. Smith told a crowd that gathered into the St. Paul auditorium last night that there was an "absolute lack of vigorous leadership" at Washington and had been for the last seven and a half years. As a result, he asserted, Republican platform declarations on farm relief and inland waterways have amounted to nothing more than "gloating promises."

On the other hand, he declared, the Democratic platform "hits the nail" squarely on the "head" on these subjects and it is from this party that real relief must come.

AMERICAN IN MEXICO MISSING SINCE SUNDAY

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 28.—(AP)—El Universal said today that it was feared E. R. Edwards, an American engineer, had met with some mishap since he had been missing since Sunday. He left Mexico City that day for Zacacoala, in the state of Puebla, where he was connected with a mining company.

Negroes Electrocuted But Bob Silver Is Saved by Reprieve

HUNTSVILLE, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Two negroes paid with their lives early today for slayings, while J. R. "Bob" Silver, a white man, was granted another month of life by gubernatorial clemency.

The negroes electrocuted were O. T. Alexander, convicted in Harris county of having slain his wife, Mattie, and Tom Ross, sentenced to death for the killing of a logging camp paymaster, Dave Patterson, in Nacogdoches county.

Alexander, unable to walk without aid, was half carried to the electric chair, and made no statement before he was pronounced dead at 12:30 a. m. Six minutes later the first of four charges of electricity was sent through Ross and at 12:39 a. m. Dr. L. H. Bush, prison physician, announced Ross was dead.

Just before he was strapped into the chair, Ross reiterated denials of guilt.

CHINESE QUARTERS OF HANKOW ARE BURNED

HANKOW, China, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Most of the densely populated Chinese quarter was in ruins today after a fire which started in a gambling den on Tuesday and claimed an uncounted number of lives.

Men women and children perished when panic stricken at their inability to escape from the flames, they plunged into the lakes. Others fought their way in desperation along alleyways choked with people until overcome by smoke. Many persons were cremated. It was impossible to determine the extent of loss of life.

W. M. U. Auxiliary of Canadian Baptist Association Meets

One of the most important sessions of the annual convention of the Canadian Baptist association, in session at the local church from Tuesday evening until late yesterday, was held yesterday afternoon when the W. M. U. Auxiliary met in special session to hear reports of the year's work, plan future activities, and elect officers. More than two hundred members were present and unusual interest was shown in the program of the day.

The principal address of the afternoon was made by Mrs. D. A. Grundy of Memphis, president of the Amarillo district, W. M. U. "Live on the mountain top; think good and you will do good," said Mrs. Grundy in her inspirational talk.

Another interesting talk was given by Mrs. T. J. Gregory of Miami, who discussed the remarkable opportunities offered by the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary of Fort Worth. The Rev. E. M. Dunsworth, of Plainview, field representative and Weyland college, presented the needs of the school to the Auxiliary and urged co-operation in the campaign for building funds. In response to his request, the Auxiliary voted to contribute $150 to the cause.

The Ruby Anniversary of the Southern Baptist W. M. U. was the subject of a talk by Mrs. C. Locke of Miami. Brief talks were made by three vice-presidents of the Auxiliary. Later a memorial service was held for three members who have passed away during the year.

Officers and chairmen elected were as follows: President, Mrs. C. Locke of Miami; vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Harrison of Canadian; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. L. Helton of Canadian; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. G. Carter of Canadian; chairman of personal service, Mrs. C. L. Shelby of Higgins, young people's leader, Mr. J. T. Gregory of Miami; chairman of mission study, Mrs. S. L. Anderson of Pampa; chairman of missions, Mrs. L. L. Lahlie of Perryton; chairman of benevolences, Mrs. W. A. Reed of Higgins.

Out-of-town visitors to the women's special meeting represented Canadian, Miami, Perryton, Spearman, Higgins, Zytah, Pollett, Booker, Huntoon, Elghway, Salem, and R. K. community

CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Our Bible school work is progressing. Let us be present, prompt and persistent in this work. It will succeed.

I wish to express my appreciation for the rapt attention given to the discourses both by the morning and evening audiences. One would have to be ungrateful to the present interest to call for anything better. The subjects for September 30 are: "God's Last Call to the Babylonian Remnant" and "The Mind of Christians."

The fact that my sermons are directed to Christians and especially to the members of the Church of Christ in Pampa has not made it disinteresting to those who are not members of the church here. On the contrary, this may be one of the reasons they are proving of such interest to our visitors.

When you come to worship with us and to learn more of God's revelation to man, you will not be disappointed by learning that preacher and leaders seem to be more interested in money, facts and politics. We believe the worship of God in the assembly of God is the assembly of God is too sacred to be mingled with such things. We are not going to give a thousand reasons why you should vote for Mr. Smith nor yet hint at ten thousand reasons why you should vote for Mr. Hoover. Our business in the church is to bring you to humble, reverential worship of Jehovah whether you be a Smithite or a Hooverite. We do not mix our religion with our politics. Our wish is that you may vote for the right man, but we are not going to get mad at you if you should make a mistake. Our greatest aim is to help you serve the living God.

C. G. MERRITT, Minister.

METHODIST CHURCH Special services for Sunday will be held at the Pla-Mor auditorium starting promptly at 10:30 o'clock. At that time Dr. John Roach Starnon of New York City will speak.

Sunday Schools at the Baptist, Presbyterian, and Methodist churches will start at 9:30 o'clock and close promptly at 10:25 o'clock. It is planned that the Sunday Schools will go in a body to the auditorium where seats will be reserved for them. Doors of the Pla-Mor will open at 10:15 o'clock. Plans are being made to care for the largest crowd ever assembled for an occasion like this.

Dr. Stratton, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, New York City, is one of the foremost ministers of the United States. In his itinerary Pampa is the smallest town in Texas where he will speak. We are fortunate to have this opportunity of hearing one of the Nation's foremost men.

Pursuing Clubs Best Equipped in Backstop Work

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(A)—As is the case in several other features of play, the Giants and Athletics, pursuing clubs in the big league pennant chase, are better equipped behind the bat than the Cardinals or the Yankees.

Frank Hogan, fulfilling John McGraw's expectations, has developed into the best all-around catcher in the majors. As yet Hogan is not as finished a workman as Mickey Cochrane, the Athletics' ace, who probably is at the head of the backstop list, but the Giants receiver has all the qualifications of greatness.

Hogan is the hardest hitting backstop in either league right now, no matter how he rates otherwise. His heavy striking has had much to do with keeping the Giants in the thick of the pennant fight. His sturdy frame has plenty of endurance. His admirers rank him as by far the best catcher the Giants have had since the days of Roger Bresnahan, who, now McGraw's first lieutenant, has had a lot to do with developing the young Irishman.

Jimmy Wilson, who came from the Phillies, takes care of the Cardinal backstopping in excellent fashion. Wilson is steady, fast and resourceful but he has fallen off considerably at bat this year, dropping to around 260 after being a 300 clubber at Philadelphia.

The Yankees have three receivers, two of whom are somewhat mediocre. Menny Bengough, the best of the lot, is fast and fairly consistent at bat, although not as much a slugger as Pat Collins, whose tonnage is a handicap except when propelling his hits. Grabowski, a weak sicker but aggressive handler of pitches, is the third. All three saw service in the last world's series.

Next Game of Dixie Series to Be at Houston

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 28.—(A)—Birmingham and Houston, champions respectively of the Southern and Texas leagues, were enroute today to Houston where the third game of the series for the southern baseball championship will be played Saturday. Birmingham, having won the first two games of the series here this week invaded the Texas league as favorite.

The game yesterday was won, 5 to 3 after rallies in the seventh and eighth innings which netted five runs. The Texas league champions scored earlier in the game.

Pitchers for the opening game in Houston were not announced, but it is believed Eddie Wells, star left hander of the Birmingham team would receive the assignment. Barnes or Lindsey are considered probabilities for pitching duty for Houston.

The teams play Saturday and Sunday in Houston, and if a sixth game is necessary, will return to Birmingham next week.

Death of Witness Is Under Probe

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(A)—Investigation of the death of William D'Olier, important witness in the Queens county sewer contract investigation, was given impetus today with the report of the Queens county grand jury that he had been murdered. At first it was believed he was a suicide.

D'Olier, president of the sanitation corporation which received subcontracts in the building of Queens county sewers, in which work it is alleged $16,000,000 in graft was taken by various parties, was found shot to death on a lonely road in Queens county September 2.

Police listed the death as a suicide, but on the insistence of D'Olier's widow and other members of his family, an investigation was started. The grand jury heard 56 witnesses but failed to discover who killed him.

Harvesters Have Yet to Schedule Next Week's Tilt

Coach Odus Mitchell has yet to schedule a game for next Friday afternoon. He is endeavoring to get the Teachers college Yearlings, freshmen team, for the game. The Yearlings have a fast team and should prove good opposition for the fast traveling Harvesters.

The local team has a line averaging 165 pounds and a backfield of 155 pounds. The men are in excellent condition and ready to meet all comers. The local squad today meets the Wellington eleven on the home field and is in anticipating a hard battle. Sealsbury, flashy Harvester right end, will be out of the game with a broken nose received in practice Wednesday night, when he collided with Carson on a criss-cross play. He will probably be used in the battle with Wheeler next week.

Coach Odus Mitchell and his assistant, A. M. Fox, have put the boys through some hard workouts since their last game and several new plays will be used in the battle this afternoon. The coaches have also been working on Tracy for the place-kicking position and he is showing up well in that role.

Today's encounter may be the last played at Ayres field, as the board has practically decided to lay out a new field north of the Cook-Adams addition, where the future games will be played.

Miss Ester Stadler of McLean is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Renshaw.

The Farm Week in Washington

BY FRANK I. WELLES
(Associated Press Farm Editor.)
WASHINGTON (AP)—When Secretary Jardine, in a statement at Chicago, told American farmers to hold their wheat for better prices, he expressed the deliberate view of the department of agriculture as a scientific organization.
He has assurance from his staff of economists that the wheat market is going to strengthen.
There are several reasons. The foremost, perhaps, is the fact that there is only about a five per cent increase over last year in the world supply of wheat.

In visualizing wheat price for the United States, it has been explained it is necessary to take into account both the domestic and world supply. This year the very small increase in world supply is more than offset by a definite shortage in rye, which is an important food grain in Europe. There at once, is a situation which the secretary says does not justify the present low price of wheat. In addition there has been an improvement in Europe's purchasing power, which implies increased consumption of wheat.
Thus, with Europeans using more of their own grain, there will be a lighter volume of foreign stocks in competition with domestic wheat in American markets. Too, there will be a better outlet abroad for American wheat.

In that light the fact that the United States produced 901 million bushels of wheat this year compared to 872 million bushels last year, appears meaningless to observers of the situation.

Another factor which experts consider, in anticipating better prices, is the fact that a very large part of the domestic supply was marketed early in the season. Canada marketed a heavy supply, too, which further added to the influence responsible for the 25 per cent cut in prices. It has been the experience of the American wheat market that when heavy supplies are offered early, and prices are beaten down, there is a gradual strengthening of the market later.

Both in this country and Europe, educational campaigns are under way to stimulate consumer demand for wheat. There is ever a natural expansion in the amount of wheat consumed, due to increased population. In the United States it is estimated at six million bushels a year.

Secretary Jardine's suggestion can be followed better now than it could

Mother Accused In Boy Murders

Here's the latest available picture of Mrs. Louise Northcott, arrested in Calgary, Canada, on charge of complicity with her son, Gordon Northcott, in the murder of several boys at the Northcott chicken ranch near Los Angeles. The son, sought all over the west, was arrested in an isolated British Columbia hamlet.

A month or more ago. Wheat on the farm already is in storage or is held by cooperative elevators. The big rush of harvesting when hundreds of thousands of bushels are threshed daily, is over. At that time producers, particularly those with yields sufficiently large to make practicable the use of a combine, have no adequate storage facilities and take their grain immediately to market. In Kansas City alone, 35 million bushels of wheat reached the market during July.

Mexicans Without Papers—Liquor Ads Barred in U. S. A.

BROWNSVILLE, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Brownsville's Spanish speaking population did without a large share of its reading material today as a result of action yesterday by postal authorities to prevent lottery and liquor advertisements in Mexican newspapers from being organized on this side of the border.

Federal law forbids circulation of such matter in this country and the Mexican magazines and newspapers, which have a heavy circulation in this section, contain many such advertisements. Postal authorities returned all papers and periodicals containing such matter to senders yesterday. Reports from other border points say that such matter is clipped before the papers cross the border and it is thought some such arrangement will be made here.

PROFESSOR PAID LARGE SUM BY UTILITIES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(AP)—J. S. Thomas, director of extension work at the University of Alabama, testified today in the federal trade commission's investigation of power utilities that he was paid $666 a month from July 1, 1927, to July 1, 1928, by utility interests of the state and at the same time received his university salary.

Examined by Robert E. Healy, commission counsel, he said his audiences had included Rotary, Kiwanis, and Vivitan clubs, farmers meetings and similar gatherings.

Prior to undertaking this type of work, Thomas testified he had undertaken public relations work for the utility interests for six months, during the first four of which he was paid $300 a month and the last two months of that arrangement his salary was set the $666 a month figure.

AN EMBLEM OF PROGRESS

The New Pampa Telephone Exchange

AMERICAN industrial efficiency has given us new and better living conditions and as a parallel our citizens enjoy the most highly improved telephone service the world has ever known. The installation of the common battery telephone in Pampa provides her citizens with a communication service comparable with any city anywhere.

This new telephone exchange, together with a new building in which it is housed and new outside equipment, was installed at a total cost of more than one hundred thousand dollars.

Such improvements were made necessary by the rapid growth of Pampa and its demand for more adequate telephone service.

Funeral Service For Florida Dead Will Be Sunday

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Sept. 28.—Plans were made here today for a simple funeral service to be held Sunday for Florida's 2,300 storm dead. Members of the city ministerial union met yesterday at the first Methodist church and appointed eight of its body to conduct the service, which will be held over the graves of more than 700 storm victims buried at Woodlawn cemetery here. Rites will be conducted for those buried there, for those buried elsewhere and for those whose bodies still lie unburied along the devastated shores of Lake Okechobee. Two services will be held. The first at 2:30 p. m., will be for white people and the other, to be conducted later and by negro clergymen, will be for negro storm victims.

Pump Station on Big Gas Line Is Finished in Kansas

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., Sept. 28.—(Special)—The Empire Pipeline company has completed and placed in operation its new pump station, located in Section 12-22-11, Greenwood county, Kansas. This station with its system of gathering lines is taking Empire production from the Madison block and delivering it to the Independent Oil & Gas company, which is feeding this oil through its 6-inch to Kansas City.

Delivery of Seminole crude as tender shipment for the Marland Refining company at Ponca City was started on September 17 by the Empire Pipeline company. During the first two days a total of slightly more than 27,000 barrels of crude were delivered through the Empire line into the Marland tanks at Ponca City.
