Gun Story A 'Smoke Screen'

Admission that he lied about the sale of the gun with which R. Norman Redwood, New Jersey labor leader, was murdered, was exacted from Moe (Luiger Mike) Saraga, pictured at Hackensack, N. J., where he was held for questioning on his return from Europe. Saraga, formerly a licensed gun dealer, first told authorities the gun was one of 300 sold to Cuba; later he disclosed it was one of several sold in New York.

2 WELLINGTON BOYS JAILED

'HOT CHECK' RESULTS IN SWINDLING CHARGE

Ernest Bales and Gordon Camper, Wellington youths, were in Gray county jail today following their arrest there yesterday by Deputy Sheriff O. T. Lindsey of Pampa. Camper is facing a charge of swindling in connection with the issuance of a bogus check. He is alleged to have given a hot check for a car in Wellington which he brought to Pampa and re-sold to a used car dealer. Bales is held as a friend of Camper.

County Attorney Joe Gordon stated today that Camper is alleged to have bought three cars in ten days on similar deals.

The county attorney said the youths would be taken back to Clarendon, Donkey-co, to await action of the grand jury.

PAIR FOUND GUILTY IN WENDEL KIDNAPING

NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—The strange case of Paul Wendel, a fantastic chapter in the story of the Lindbergh kidnaping, today placed three men in jeopardy of spending 20 years in prison.

Harry Weiss and Martin Schlossman late yesterday heard a jury foreman in Kings county court pronounce them guilty of kidnaping the one-time New Jersey attorney and forcing from him a "confession" that he had abducted Charles A. Lindbergh Jr.

A third man, Murray Bleefeld, pleaded guilty and testified for the state.

Governor Harold G. Hoffman of New Jersey, has refused to honor requests for extradition of two others, Ellis Parker, Burlington county, N. J., detective, and his son, Ellis Jr.

COMMISSIONERS WILL NAME M'LEAN JUSTICE

Gray county commissioners were meeting this afternoon to name a successor to James F. Heasley, as justice of the peace in precinct 5 at McLean. Mr. Heasley died suddenly Sunday night while on a visit to Tucuman, N. M.

Judge Sherman White said this forenoon that there were several candidates for the post and that all names would be given consideration at today's session.

JEWELRY STOLEN

HOUSTON, March 12 (AP)—Burglars cut a hole in the window of the Becker Jewelry company building last night and took jewelry Sam Becker, president of the firm, valued at between $7,000 and $8,000.

I Heard...

Little Don Smith of the Harvesters, after he had the wind knocked out of him by his big brother Carl, playing for the excess yesterday afternoon, remarking to his father, R. E. Smith, who strolled onto the field, "well, look what that big bully of a son of yours did. Now he'll have to milk all the cows tonight for hurting me." Little Smith then jumped up, ran onto the field, and on the next play passed brother Carl like a flash.

American Is Injured In Spanish War

VALENCIA, Spain, March 12 (AP)—Robert Meriman, Californian and commander of the "Abraham Lincoln" brigade in the government's international forces, was sent to a hospital with critical wounds today. The former economics instructor at the University of California at Berkeley was removed to a hospital at Murcia, on the Mediterranean coast, with a bullet in his shoulder and his left arm fractured by a shell splinter.

He had been treated previously at a base hospital headed by Dr. Edward Barsky of New York. The base hospital attended many casualties among members of the "Abraham Lincoln" battalion, composed of Americans who arrived in Spain after the new year, and who served in the thick of fighting on Madrid, last month.

INCREASING STORAGE OF OIL HALTS HIKES

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 12 (AP)—Charles F. Roesser, president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, declared today constantly increasing storage of oil throughout the United States is retarding boosts in the price of crude.

"This statement came as association committeemen from ten states gathered here for an executive session. A fair price for average 36-gravity crude in the mid-continent is $1.60 a barrel," Roesser said. "We have to have that price to insure a profitable operation of all the type wells we have in this district. We can get the price only by keeping a strict balance between supply and demand."

"Over-production, increase in stocks of all kinds, and over-drilling in some of the fields are contributing factors to delaying higher prices."

WATER CONSERVATION ASSOCIATION TO MEET

John McCarty of Amarillo will return in time to preside at a meeting of the Panhandle Water Conservation association in the Amarillo hotel at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Notice of the meeting was received today by C. H. Walker, chairman of the Gray county committee. Mr. Walker urges all other members of his committee to be present at the meeting.

A report of a trip to Washington by McCarty and Carl Hinton of Amarillo and other Panhandle citizens will be made at the meeting.

BLACK CAT WINE AND BEER PERMIT CANCELED

Notice of cancellation of a wine and beer permit for the Black Cat night club, Pampa, was received here today by the office of the County Tax Collector.

The cancellation order was signed by Bert Ford, Austin, administrator for the Texas Liquor Control Board. Reason for the action was based on a plea of guilty made by Mrs. Grace Warhurst, one of the proprietors, to a charge of unlawful possession of liquor. The alleged violation, according to the permit cancellation, was dated Feb. 4, 1937.

TOWNSEND SENTENCED TO JAIL

Judges Living In Bygone Age, Claims Norris

TWO DEAD AND TWO SHOT IN FAMILY FIGHT

WEST TEXAS RANCH IS SCENE OF GUN BATTLE

RANKIN, March 12 (AP)—Mrs. Mary Bell, 71, and her son, Wiley Bell, 46, were dead at their ranch home 12 miles northwest of here this morning and Cody Bell, 42, of Christoval, and Russell Bell, 39, of Fort Worth, were in hospitals at Texon and San Angelo seriously wounded as the result of shooting which took place at the ranch at 1:30 o'clock this morning.

Officers surrounded the ranch house at daybreak today after Jim Horton, employe at the ranch, had taken Cody Bell to the Texon hospital and telephoned Sheriff Bill Fowler about the shooting. He warned Fowler that Russell was heavily armed and would shoot it out with the officers. Fowler and three deputies arrested Russell in his mother's bedroom. He had been shot and could not move.

Sheriff Fowler and District Attorney Alan Fraser of Alpine were to question Cody Bell this afternoon. Sheriff Fowler telephoned Sheriff Hez Lowe at San Angelo and requested a guard be placed at the hospital where Bell is confined. Bodies of Mrs. Bell and Wiley

LAWYER GIVES TESTIMONY IN COURT HEARING

DECLARES FDR'S PLAN SHOULD BE ADOPTED

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—John P. Devaney, president of the newly formed national lawyers guild, asserted today many critics of the Roosevelt court bill fear that new justices "will be sufficiently independent to interpret the constitution as it was written rather than to torture it to their own desires."

He made the statement while testifying before the Senate judiciary committee. The former chief justice of the Minnesota supreme court was closely questioned by committee members about his organization after he had claimed to speak for "the rank and file lawyers" of the nation, and suggested that members of the American bar association shared "the prejudices of their clients."

Devaney urged enactment of the President's court bill as "the most conservative remedy available" to make possible "progressive legislation now imperatively needed."

PANHANDLE TRAINER SUSPENDED AT RACES

HOUSTON, March 12 (AP)—Stewards at Epsom Downs today suspended a trainer, a jockey, and six horses under the care of the trainer, for a reversal of form by Fast Move, six-year-old gelding which won the sixth race from a good grade of claiming horses yesterday.

The trainer, Tom Deahli of Panhandle, Texas, all six horses in his care, and the jockey who rode Fast Move the last time out, S. Snodgrass, were suspended for the balance of the meet.

The stewards also recommended to the Texas racing commission that the suspension be extended 30 days after the end of the meet, March 27. Fast Move ran Tuesday, with jockey Snodgrass in the saddle, and finished fifth in a field of $2,000 horses. Run back Thursday with horses valued at from $2,500 to $3,000 the gelding won by two lengths from Whisking, Jockey R. L. Vedder was upon Fast Move Thursday.

County Motorists Asked To Supply Information

Car owners of Gray county are being asked to supply important information to the State Highway department and to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads.

The information, to be used in planning a road system, is collected on franked postcards that are being handed to car owners as they pay their 1937 fees at the office of County Tax Collector Ewing Leech, in the Gray county court house.

The cards are self-addressed and require no postage. Vehicle owners are asked to fill them in and mail them at once. The information collected in this manner will be used by the Highway Department in designating the secondary road system which is to be established soon.

"The cooperation of all car own-

Have Not Kept Pace With Progress, He Asserts

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—Senator Norris (Ind., Neb.), urged Congress today to try both legislative remedies and constitutional amendments to relieve what he called "the present intolerable situation" in the courts.

If those opposing limitations on the power of the courts persisted, he told the Senate, it would result "in the pendulum swinging farther to the other side than progressive, thinking men and women are advocating at this time."

Without committing himself on President Roosevelt's court bill, Norris listed that and seven other legislative methods for curbing the courts without a constitutional change.

He also listed a series of possible constitutional amendments, any one of which he indicated he would support.

"Our judiciary has not kept pace with human progress," he asserted. "Our judges too often have stood upon the highways of human progress and held aloft 'stop' signs that have impeded civilization in its triumphant march."

"With due respect to the ability, the honesty, and the wisdom of our judges, I believe it can truthfully be said that many of them are living in an age that is past, and are continuing to construe our fundamental law in a light that has failed, rather than in the sunlight of an electric age."

Much of the senator's speech was devoted to a legal argument that Congress by law could require more than a mere majority decision of the court to invalidate legislation.

"It does not seem logical, it does not seem fair," he said, "that a law passed by the Congress, composed of more than 500 men, the representatives of the people, and approved by the President, elected by all the people, should be set aside by a bare majority of one, in a court holding unlimited power for life and not responsible in any way directly or indirectly to the people of the country."

Norris directed much of his attention to the lower courts, where he said "the greatest evils in our judicial system" arise. He proposed that a party applying for an injunction be required by law to post bond to protect the defendant from damages.

Turning to the President's bill, Norris said there was "no shadow of doubt" about its constitutionality, but "there may be serious questions as to the wisdom of such a course."

Among proposals for constitutional amendments, Norris said one limiting terms of judges "seems to me to be very desirable."

The Nebraska" also suggested an amendment giving Congress power to deal with wages and hours as "a practical necessity."

Another of his proposals was an amendment to permit Congress to handle agricultural problems.

SOONER YOUTHS JAILED AFTER M'LEAN BURGLARY

Two Oklahoma youths, Earl Jones and James Dodson, were in county jail today facing burglary charges growing out of a theft allegedly committed at the Stubblefield Dry-goods store in McLean several nights ago.

Sheriff Talley and Deputy Sheriff L. S. Tinnin, of McLean, arrested the youths in Watonga, Okla., and returned them to Pampa yesterday afternoon. Jones and Dodson each is 21 years of age.

AMERICAN IS ORDERED OUT OF GERMANY

UNITED STATES ENVOY TO FIGHT JEW'S EXPULSION

BERLIN, March 12 (AP)—United States Ambassador William E. Dodd visited the German foreign office today to "call attention to the German press attacks on United States citizens and conditions" just as it became known that Boris E. R. Smolar, correspondent for the Jewish Telegraph agency, had been ordered by the police to leave the country.

Smolar, however, said: "I do not believe my expulsion has anything to do with the LaGuardia incident," subject of the ambassador's representations.

Ambassador Dodd was accompanied to see Baron Konstantin von Neurath, the German foreign minister, by Frank Lee, first secretary of the embassy. They acted upon instructions from Washington to make verbal representations concerning the German press comment which followed upon New York Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia's recent anti-Hitler speech before a meeting of Jewish women.

Smolar, a naturalized American, received a letter from the police president instructing him to leave Germany within three days because "your continued stay in Germany is inimical to the interests of the German state."

The letter was delivered by a Gestapo (secret police) official. In the absence of his wife, Smolar also had to sign a receipt for an expulsion order for Mrs. Smolar. He visited the United States consulate at once, where he was assured vigorous efforts would be made to have the order rescinded.

Horse Betting Foes Fail In Senate Action

Move to Set Early Hearing Loses Temporarily

AUSTIN, March 12 (AP)—An effort to force an early hearing on repeal of legalized horse race betting in Texas failed at least temporarily in the Senate today.

After a flurry of debate over rules, a resolution by Senator Grady Woodruff of Decatur, under which the Senate would consider next Tuesday in committee of the whole several repeal measures now in the criminal jurisprudence committee, was laid aside.

The Senate two days ago sent back to the criminal jurisprudence committee a repeal bill it had passed to third reading on the plea opponents had not been given a public hearing.

Repeal proponents, reported to be concentrating on a repeal measure already passed by the House of Representatives and also in the committee, want as early a hearing as possible to expedite floor action.

Governor James V. Alfred, who has set repeal of the law which in 1933 legalized the certificate system of betting on horse racing as one of the major parts of his legislative program, likewise has urged an early hearing.

Senator Weaver Moore of Houston temporarily presiding, did not rule directly on a point of order that the Woodruff resolution could not be considered immediately, but indicated he would so rule if the proposal was pressed, whereupon Woodruff deferred the matter.

The Senate then took up an appropriation bill.

BODIES ARE REPORTED FOUND IN COAL MINE

LOGAN, W. Va., March 12 (AP)—Rescue workers in the Macbeth mine flashed word to the mounds today they had reached "a cluster of bodies."

"Send all available stretchers and about 20 men we can't bring them out," Logan dispatches said, mine engineer, said the rescuers asked.

Three bodies already had been found and 15 miners were missing in the explosion-wrecked mine.

At 11:30 a. m. Skaggs said one unidentified body had been brought to the mine mouth to be hoisted to the surface.

A squad of 17 relief workers entered the mine, carrying water needed to settle dust, and stretchers.

SPANISH BATTLEFIELD COVERED WITH DEAD

SORIA, Spain, March 12 (AP)—General Francisco Franco's legionnaire machine gunned and shelled heavily massed government troops today, battering their way forward yard by yard into Trijueque, 44 miles northeast of Madrid.

Tremendous casualties were indicated in the close formations of Franco's troops.

The battlefield about the little Spanish town was strewn with bodies and abandoned weapons.

Many prisoners were taken, a communist said, including two Italian communist officers of a unit called the "Garibaldi Battalion."

(Madrid dispatches contained the government's admission that the offensive had reached Trijueque, 12 miles northeast of Guadalajara on the Aragon-Madrid highway but said the insurgent spearhead had been flattened along a 23-mile front on either side of the road.)

PUBLICITY FOR CITY PLANNED BY BCD GROUP

OPPORTUNITIES OF THIS SECTION TO BE PUBLICIZED

Pampa is going to be put on the map in a big way, if plans of the Board of City Development publicity committee do not go astray.

At a meeting of the committee members in City Hall yesterday evening it was agreed that Pampa has been overlooking many opportunities to publicize the opportunities that this important center of the Texas Panhandle has to offer.

An appropriation will be asked for publicity purposes in the new chamber of commerce budget.

"The committee has a number of things in mind," J. E. Lyons, chairman, said today, "and we feel that efforts directed to telling Pampa's story to the world will be money well spent."

Other members of the committee at yesterday's session included Guy McTaggart, M. P. Downs, Richard Hughes, Walter Daugherty, Tex DeWeese, R. L. Edmondson, and Garnet Reeves, B. C. D. manager.

It was generally agreed by the committeemen that Pampa has a many advantages and opportunities which should be broadcast throughout the nation as well as in Texas and neighboring states.

MANAGERS OF THEATERS TO LEAVE PAMPA

Promotion in the Griffith Bros. Amusement Company circuit, announced today, will take two Pampans to theaters in other cities.

They are Carl Benefiel, general manager of the company's three Pampa theaters, and Kenneth Blackledge, his assistant.

Mr. Benefiel will go to Enid, Okla., as general manager of four theaters there. He will leave Pampa about April 1. Mr. Blackledge will go to Wellington, Texas, next Sunday as house manager of the company's Ritz theater, succeeding Carl Barber, former Pampian, who is being transferred to Borger as manager of the Ritz theater.

Succeeding Mr. Benefiel in Pampa as general manager of the three theaters will be Claude Motley who has been manager of the Borger theater. Mr. Motley's assistant here has not yet been selected.

Mr. Benefiel, prominent in Pampa's civic life, has been a resident here for two years and four months. He has been in the Panhandle of Texas for five years, having previously served as manager of the Borger theater for nearly three years.

Only recently Mr. Benefiel had been named general chairman of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce's early June celebration committee. He is also a member of the Lions club and has been active in Boy Scout work and other civic projects. Mr. Blackledge is a member of the Kiwanis club.

AMARILLOAN INJURED AS AUTO OVERTURNS

W. D. Sudreth of Amarillo escaped with minor cuts and bruises when his car overturned near the west outskirts of Kingsmill yesterday afternoon. The car rolled over and then righted itself.

A flat tire was blamed for the accident. Mr. Sudreth said he felt the tire go flat but before he could stop his car had left the pavement and skidded on the shoulder, rolling into the borrow pit.

AMELIA EARHART READY FOR HOP AROUND WORLD

OAKLAND, Calif., March 12 (AP)—Amelia Earhart was officially ready today for her projected world-girdling flight with a commerce department top-notch rating as a blind flier.

Inspector A. R. Bedinger, who put the famous aviatrix through her first blind flying tests yesterday, said she rated an "A" in effort and achievement.

The tests were necessary for her proper rating as a pilot of her $80,000 laboratory plane in which she plans to start the world tour Monday.

30-DAY TERM AND $100 FINE ARE ASSESSED

MINIMUM SENTENCE IS GIVEN PENSION LEADER

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend, old age pension leader, received a sentence of 30 days in jail and a fine of $100 today for contempt of the House of Representatives.

When sentence was pronounced by U. S. District Judge Peyton Gordon, the tall, gray Californian said "Thank you, sir." His attorney announced the case would be appealed. Justice Gordon continued Townsend's $1,000 bond, pending the appeal.

Later Townsend issued a statement to the press defending his pension plan and saying "try as they can to imprison me, they can't imprison that idea."

The pension advocate was convicted recently by a district federal court jury on one of two counts resulting from his walking out of a House committee hearing on the Townsend $200-a-month pension plan last July.

Elisha Hanson, Townsend's attorney, had asked for a new trial, but Justice Gordon denied the motion today. He imposed the minimum sentence and explained the law required both a jail term and a fine.

Townsend's release on bond was opposed by U. S. District Attorney Leslie C. Garnett.

"I stand convicted before a United States district court of violating an act of Congress in failing to appear before a committee before which I did appear. However... I feel certain that before the bar of public opinion I am guilty of nothing wrong doing. I would do the same thing again tomorrow should the occasion arise, under similar circumstances."

"The tide is definitely turning," he added, "and my crackpot idea is becoming a reality. It will bring America from economic serfdom and will bring happiness and prosperity to all our people."

He also attacked the congressional investigation as "persecution."

Two of Townsend's aides, John B. Kiefer of Chicago, and Clinton B. Wunder of New York, pleaded guilty to the same contempt charge of which Townsend was convicted but were given suspended sentences after apologizing to the House.

NAVAL OFFICER NAMED IN DRUNKEN CHARGE

HONOLULU, March 12 (AP)—Charges of drunkenness and conduct unbecoming an officer were pressed before a court martial today against a Navy lieutenant who police said participated in a drinking party which preceded Mrs. Bennett S. Copping's story that she was criminally attacked last Feb.

Detective Lieut. Thomas Quinn of the Honolulu police force said he was subpoenaed to appear before the court martial trying Lieut. W. O. Johnson of the cruiser Louisville.

Chief of Police William Gabrielson said Lieut. Johnson attended a party with the Coppings and other naval folk the evening before the alleged attack occurred in a garage near the Coppings' residential hotel. Lieut. Copping left the party early.

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE PREDICTS FOOD PERIL

LONDON, March 12 (AP)—David Lloyd George, Great Britain's wartime prime minister, warned of the food peril in any new war in a dramatic return to parliament today.

The 74-year-old veteran of many parliaments held the house of commons in great attention from start to finish of his 40-minute appeal.

He demanded more workers be returned to the land.

The government, he charged, is spending $7,500,000,000 in preparation for war but is neglecting the weakest link in its chain of defenses—the food front which almost caused the empire's downfall in the World war.

MINISTER DIES

TULSA, Okla., March 12 (AP)—The Rev. James Marion Peterson, 77, pioneer Southern Methodist minister, former presiding elder of the Tulsa district and one of the founders of Southern Methodist University at Dallas, died here today. He was stricken with pneumonia last Saturday. Mr. Peterson was active in the development of the Southern Methodist church for 50 years.

DEMENTED MAN SOUGHT

Sheriff's authorities today were asked to aid in the search for a man, believed to be demented, who left the home of relatives here last night. Sheriff Earl Talley said the man left home about 8 o'clock last night and had not been seen up until noon today.

I Saw...

J. O. Gillham and he said he came back here to check up on Bill Castleberry, and that he'd been hearing things about Mr. Castleberry. However, the only thing he had on him was that Bill has been inspecting a house trailer lately.

ONE P-TA PRESIDENT IS RETURNED TO OFFICE, ONE ELECTED

OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED TO SEVERAL POSTS

Horace Mann Names Mrs. Alden Again As Leader

Mrs. George Alden was re-elected president of Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association for next year and with her Mrs. C. W. Moot was re-elected vice-president. Mrs. A. Cox recording secretary, Mrs. C. E. Cary and D. M. Brace delegates to the Parent-Teacher council.

New officers elected yesterday were Mrs. H. H. Boynton recording secretary; Mrs. Farris Vaughn, historian; Mrs. Emory Noblitt, treasurer.

The entire executive board was named to represent the unit at the district meeting in Perryton next month. Members, in addition to the officers named are Miss Josephine Thomas, Mrs. T. L. Henry, L. C. Childers, George Nix, Rob Steeds, Burl Graham, A. C. Houchin, L. C. Lockhart, A. D. Robinson, H. E. Stevens, Ralph Pauley. Others who can attend the meeting are asked to notify Miss Thomas at the school or Mrs. Boynton.

Two benefit programs were planned, one by pupils and the P-TA at the new high school auditorium later this spring, the other a game tournament on March 19. A committee for the latter event is to meet Monday at 9:30 at the school. Members are Mrs. Henry, Cary, Jack Starkey, George Nees, Noblitt, Emerson Moot, E. L. Husband, Johnston, Robinson.

Members were urged to join the Mothersingers group which all associations of the city sponsor, and were invited to attend the study club meeting next Thursday. The attendance award went to Miss Cox, and Miss Clara Brown's room, which tied.

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, district president, led a panel discussion on "The Well-Rounded Child." Miss Louise Meland discussed physical development, Mrs. Moot social development, John S. Mullen spiritual growth, Miss Thomas and Mrs. Boynton mental development.

Miss Mary Reeve was program leader and Mrs. Moot presided for the evening.

"BLACK-DRAUGHT IS PURELY VEGETABLE"

—What Does That Mean?

A great many things can cause constipation and there are many remedies to relieve it, but possibly none more popular than the "vegetable" laxatives.

Among these, Black-Draught is outstanding. In its manufacture, leaves of a certain plant are used, and the roots of certain others. These are dried so they will keep without preservatives—no other chemical change from the way they grew in "Mother Nature's medicine garden." By their being finely ground, the digestive system extracts the active medicine right where it is needed. Constipation is relieved.

Black-Draught is so economical that a 25-cent package averages upwards of 25 doses.

District Leader

Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, president of eighth district Parent-Teacher association, is attending the annual Northwest Texas Conference on Education at Canyon this week-end, and is one of the program speakers. Mrs. Hunkapillar has been active in promoting work of the district this year, and has assisted each of the local Parent-Teacher units with programs. She directed a panel discussion for Horace Mann association yesterday, spoke to the Gray County council Saturday, and has addressed B. M. Baker, Sam Houston, Woodrow Wilson, High School and Junior High associations at some time during the term.

business. Three members of the school chorus and one by the sextet entertained after group singing led by Miss Thomas.

Corsicana Will Be Host to Odd Fellows, Rebekahs

CORSICANA, March 12 (AP)—Corsicana has made all preparations for the entertainment of several thousand Odd Fellows and Rebekahs at the annual sessions of the Grand Lodge and the Rebekah Assembly of Texas which open here tomorrow night and extend through Tuesday. General arrangements committee spokesmen stated today that everything is in readiness for the influx of visitors. The business district has been decorated.

Mrs. Frances Thomson of Corpus Christi, president of the Rebekahs, is slated to arrive here today while Grand Master Henry L. Carpenter of Greenville, S. M. Williams, Dallas, grand secretary, and other officials have indicated they will arrive tomorrow.

The attendance will be large due to the location of the I. O. O. F. home here.

"Heated" with a coating of ice-cream, which is a paradoxical though it may seem—cut flowers with the blooms in perfect condition were received recently in a shipment from the west coast to the department of agriculture in Washington.

MIND your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usages by answering the following questions then checking against the authoritative answers below:

1. Should a child who is too small to feed himself be allowed to eat with the family when there is a guest?
2. Should children be allowed to enter the conversation at table?
3. Should parents wait until a child is ready for school to begin training him in table manners?
4. How should a letter to a small boy be addressed?
5. Should a child be allowed to say simply "Yes" and "No" in answer to questions?

What would you do if—
Your small daughter misbehaves at table when you have a guest—
(a) Take her quietly away from the table?
(b) Reprimand her and let her stay?
(c) Ignore her behavior?

Answers
1. No.
2. Yes, they should be encouraged to take part in the conversation.
3. Yes, he should be taught to eat nicely as soon as he begins to feed himself.
4. Master David Brown, a little girl as Miss Sue Brown.
5. A child should say "Yes, Mother" or "No, Mrs. Smith." A boy says "Yes, sir" to a man.
Best "What Would You Do?" solution—a (b) and c will both be unpleasant for the guest and will not help the child's manners.

Girl Scout News

A new member, Elizabeth Roberts, transferred from a Girl Scout troop at El Paso, was welcomed by the Woodrow Wilson troop Wednesday afternoon. Three adult leaders and 23 members were present.

Cruise To Be Made By Miss Jeffries

Students at Gulf Park college at Gulf Port, Miss., are to leave March 20 on an annual Caribbean cruise. Miss Claudine Jeffries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jeffries of 811 W. Foster, Pampa, will be one of those on the trip.

The itinerary includes a 16-day cruise by boat from New Orleans to Havana, Cuba, Central America and the Canal Zone and side trips by bus or motor cars to all points of interest en route.

The school has a special chartered ship, the S. S. Santa Marta, which is equipped with swimming pool and many other deck sports.

Upon arriving in Panama City the girls are to be entertained by U. S. engineers with a tea dance. There will be surf bathing at Teia on the Caribbean shore.

DUNCANS ENTERTAIN WITH DINNER-BRIDGE

Party Is Given for 24 Tables With Dutch Theme

Dutch windmills centered tables, and place cards for 48 couples were in the shape of wooden shoes at a spring dinner-bridge party last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Irvy Duncan were hosts at the Schneider hotel.

After the delicious supper, the guests played contract at 22 tables. Scorecards were gay with tulips, and tallies with figures of Dutch boys and girls.

Mrs. D. C. Kennedy made high score for women and Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, while J. E. Lyons and Mr. Shackleton received the respective awards for men. Each of the women present received a fragrant gardenia corsage, surprise gifts sent by the Blossom shop.

MIX BABIES, BUSINESS, SPORTS, SAYS WOMAN

NUTLEY, N. J., March 12 (AP)—For a happy life, 79-year old Mrs. Wilhelmina Wood advised American women today to mix babies, business, love and sports.

"Don't put all your interests in one basket," she said, "and remember the only formula for feminine independence—a synonym for happiness—is a constant search for variety and diversified activity."

Mrs. Wood has followed her own formula, is a successful business executive after years devoted to raising a family of five boys and one girl.

She was a grandmother and past the social secretary retirement age when she got her first job. Now a dyed-in-the-wool "career woman," she looks back on 15 years of daily nine-to-five routine. She is head of the assembly and inspection department of an instrument manufacturing company founded by a son.

Club Boys From Grandview Make Stock Show Trip

GRANDVIEW, March 12.—The Grandview 4-H club boys attended the Cattleman's convention in Amarillo Wednesday. The boys reported a very enjoyable as well as an educational trip. They were carried up in a school bus for Alanreed with a number of other club boys from Gray county. The boys attending from Grandview club included: Jack Babcock, Buddy Babcock, Curtis Babcock, Jackie Kuykendall, Billy Kuykendall, Alfred Lehnick, John Johnson, Bobbie Guy Andes, Sonny Loooper, J. D. Cantrell, Jiggs McDonald, Myrel Loooper, Earl Loooper, and Jack Stephens.

Miss Allene Pickens, intermediate teacher at Grandview, was able to start teaching again Monday morning, after an absence of seven days when she was ill of the "flu" at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Pickens of White Deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Babcock attended the Pat Stock show at Amarillo on Wednesday of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lehnick of Happy visited Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Lehnick Sunday.

The pupils and teachers of Grandview school are working earnestly on Interscholastic League work at the present time. Try-outs in a number of the contests will be held next week to determine the students who will represent this school in the county meet.

Miss Williams Named President Of LeFors Club

By Alma Lee Holley

LEFORS, March 12.—Tuesday evening the Fine Art club met in the home of Mrs. Joe Courlay with Mrs. Charlie Marrs as co-hostess.

The program on Drama was led by Mrs. H. Wade "Idiot's Delight," a drama written by Anderson, was reviewed by Miss Ariel Williams. The subject Music from Opera was given by Mrs. Harold Heeren. During the business hour officers for the coming year were elected: Miss Ariel Williams was chosen president; Mrs. W. I. Gilbert, first vice-president; Mrs. Sam Cleland, second vice-president; Miss Lynette Franklin, third vice-president; Miss Drue Huddler, recording secretary; Mrs. Charlie Marrs, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Walter Hasler, treasurer; Mrs. H. Wade, parliamentarian; Miss Cooper, reporter, and Mrs. Josephine Sparks, chairman of year book committee.

Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the program.

Tuesday evening the Kiwanis club will present three one-act plays in the high school auditorium. The profit of these plays will be given to the LeFors Boy Scouts.

Personal
Mmes. Charlie Marrs and Charlie Bird left Thursday to visit friends and relatives in Fort Worth for a few days.

Rev. Lloyd Jones, George Duncan and Ray Jordan attended the Union League conference in Shamrock Thursday evening.

ly add cold milk and stir until the mixture is smooth. Then add scalded milk and cook thoroughly. Beat eggs well, then beat together with the 1-4 cup granulated sugar. Add to the mixture, then cook another 1-2 minute. Remove from fire, add vanilla extract and strain to free from even the suspicion of lumps. Pour into shallow pan, cover with wax paper, and cool.

To assemble this formidable sweet, split cakes through center, then spread cream filling about 1-2 inch thick on bottom layer. Place top layer of cake over cream. Sprinkle top with powdered sugar (a little less than 1-4 cup).

Life Members

Mrs. C. S. Boston, vice-president of Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association for two years, was elected president for next term to succeed Mrs. F. M. Culbertson.

Other officers chosen were Mrs. W. S. Dixon, secretary; Mrs. Lee Harshah, treasurer; Mrs. J. M. McDonald, historian. Members adopted the report submitted by Mrs. W. Mullinax, chairman of the nominating committee.

Six delegates, including four of the new officers, will be sent to the district conference at Perryton next month by the association, board members voted.

Mrs. Dixon reported for the legislative committee, asking support of the following pending legislation: National bill for prevention of black buying of motion pictures and to amend the food, drug and cosmetic laws; state bills for an appointive commissioner of education and for a teachers retirement plan.

Mrs. H. M. Cone, in clever costume, announced the old-fashioned box supper which the association will sponsor Thursday evening.

The attendance award went to Mrs. C. G. Cockerill's room.

Principal R. A. Selby of Junior High school was the speaker yesterday, and discussed cooperation. He defined cooperation as a voluntary method of uniting to supply desired needs, saying that each person should learn to have unselfish motives and to trust the motives of others. Unless children learn cooperation through practice at home, society suffers, he added.

Delicious refreshments were served to close the pleasantly informal meeting.

UAWA Named Bargaining Agent By Plane Company

Stalemate Continues In Michigan Parleys

By The Associated Press
DETROIT — Stalemate in dispute involving 70,000 Chrysler, Hudson and Reo automotive employees continues; final General Motors agreement delayed pending redraft of some provisions.

PITTSBURGH — Steel workers organizing committee studies gains and draw plans for future C. I. O. drives; railroad maintenance of way employees union votes affiliation with A. F. of L.

SANTA MONICA, Calif.—Strike at Douglas Aircraft corporation ends with United Automobile Workers Union recognized as bargaining agent for its members.

CHICAGO — More violence marks taxicab drivers strike.

Leaders of two major groups affiliated with the John L. Lewis committee for industrial organization mapped plans today for consolidating unionization gains.

The steel workers organizing committee gathered at Pittsburgh at the call of its director, Philip Murray. The latter said the group will plan future strategy as well as review recent developments, notably its recognition by the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corp.

Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers of America, called a meeting of the national executive board at Cleveland Monday and Tuesday.

Meanwhile, the strike stalemate between the U. A. W. and three Michigan automobile manufacturers persists, keeping more than 70,000 workers idle.

The union's demand for recognition as sole bargaining agency for all employees was the cause of disputes that kept 55,000 Chrysler corporation employees, and 10,000 Hudson Motor Car company workers idle at Detroit and 2,200 Reo Motor Car company workers idle at Lansing, Mich.

Officials of the Los Angeles Chrysler plant announced it would be closed indefinitely because of a shortage of parts.

A dozen Detroit firms outside the automobile industry were plagued with sit-down strikes.

The U. A. W. gained recognition from the Douglas Aircraft corporation as bargaining agent for its members among the 5,500 employees at the Santa Monica, Calif., plant. President Donald Douglas of the company said an agreement provided for reinstatement of 297 strikers indicted on felony counts for a sit-down demonstration two weeks ago.

The race of the C. I. O. and its rival, the American Federation of Labor for members continued apace. The A. F. of L. scored a gain when more than 200 delegates of the maintenance of way employees union voted at Pittsburgh to affiliate with the federation.

Earlier an official of the steel workers organizing committee announced eight of 22 employe representatives of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation's Vandergrift plant had signed with the C. I. O.

The C. I. O. announced plans for enrolling chemical, tile and gas workers in the Kanawha valley in West Virginia.

Police received fresh reports of violence in Chicago's taxicab drivers strike. Roving squads of men slugged drivers, split tires, smashed headlights and windows and removed cab door handles in an effort to prevent non-striking drivers from operating.

More than 4,000 workers were idle in other Chicago strikes.

The composing room forces of two Miami newspaper plants struck last night but one group returned to work after a temporary pay increase pending negotiations. The latter group consisted of 50 printers at the Miami Tribune. The Daily News was the other newspaper involved.

International Sunday School Lesson

JESUS PRAYS FOR HIS DISCIPLES
Text: John 16:5-7; 17:14-26
By Wm. E. Gilroy, D. D.
Editor of Advance

This lesson on Jesus praying for His disciples recalls the words of Jesus to Peter at the Last Supper, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat; but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not." Essentially, this was the prayer of Jesus for His disciples, that their faith should not fail, and that they should be equal to the burdens and responsibilities that they had accepted in becoming His disciples.

The love of Jesus for His disciples and His deep concern for them was, if anything, intensified by His realization that some would lead them. He knew they would meet in a hostile world where men would hate them. Yet His prayer was not that they be kept from evil. His earnest yearning was that they should be sanctified in the truth. Jesus was sending them into the world in the same spirit and with the same purpose that the Father had sent the Son into the world. Supremely He had devoted Himself to them, and it was His earnest prayer that the same sanctification might be theirs.

Nor was He praying for only the immediate circle of disciples. He perceived that there would be the disciples of days to come, then men and women who would see the truth, and accept it as it was proclaimed by those who He was sending forth.

For these disciples the earnest prayer was that they might be strengthened in the unity of love. His one great purpose was that the love the Father had for the world might become the love dominating every relationship among the disciples themselves, and every purpose and activity of the fellowship of disciples in the midst of the world that they would redeem, through the power of the Gospel, from its evil.

What a deep and wonderful conception of the nature of the fellowship of disciples in the church might be if churches everywhere were marked by this unity of spirit and purpose, and if they fulfilled in every respect, the reality of the Master's prayer!

What strength and inspiration it should give to us individually to know that Jesus prays for each of us as He prayed for Peter, and that we have an eternal intercessor who would put all the forces of God behind us to keep us strong, and true, and faithful!

GOVERNMENT EXPERTS HOPE TO CUT DOWN RISKS OF FARMING

Editor's Note: The administration, seeking new solutions for the farm problems of the nation, has put forward a five-point program. This second in a series of three articles deals with two closely-related recommendations—crop insurance and the "ever normal granary."

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—Government farm experts are seeking to cut down the risk of farming, which they consider the greatest gamble in the world.

Senate agricultural leaders hope to send to the floor next week a measure setting up a $100,000,000 corporation to insure wheat farmers against the loss of their crops in bad years.

Insurance will be extended later, they predict, to cotton, corn, tobacco and other major crops.

Such insurance is one part of a dual program to protect the producer against the hazards of nature and to stabilize both price and supply.

FAT GIRLS, HERE'S A TIP FOR YOU

All over the world the Kruschen method is appealing to girls and women who strive for an attractive slender figure and more glorious health.

And here's the simple recipe that reduces fat and brings into blossom the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Hundreds of satisfied users call it the Kruschen Way.

Every morning take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast and cut down on pastry, fat meats, butter, cream and potatoes.

Be sure and do this every morning for this is the Kruschen Way that brings that Kruschen feeling of energetic health and activity that is reflected in brighter eyes, clearer skin and cheerful vivacity.

Get a 4-oz. jar of Kruschen Salts at any drugstore throughout the world—it lasts for weeks and costs but a few cents.

Note—Many people find that the only diet change necessary while taking Kruschen regularly is TO EAT LESS.

MOTHER TRIES TO GET SON APPOINTED JUDGE

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—One ambitious mother already is trying to get her son appointed to the Supreme Court under President Roosevelt's proposal for injecting "new blood" into the judiciary.

To help her, she chose Senator Borah (R., Idaho), one of the leading opponents of the bill.

The woman walked into Borah's office and stated frankly what she wanted.

Miss Cora Rubin, the Senator's secretary, told her that Senator Borah had no influence with the Democratic administration in obtaining appointments.

The golden text is: "If we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it" (Romans 8:25).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God" (I Corinthians 2:9, 10).
The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Paul and John had a clear apprehension that, as mortal man achieves no world honors except by sacrifice, so he must gain heavenly riches by forsaking all worldliness" (page 459).

GOVERNMENT AGENCY FOR COOPERATIVES IS URGED BY COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—A presidential commission which studied the cooperatives offering Europeans everything from food to funerals has recommended establishment of a government agency to give information and advice to such organizations in this country.

Some members of the commission warned, however, "high pressure" promotion of the movement would lead to graft and failure.

The six members, who traveled through Europe last summer studying mass buying groups in which the customer is part owner or shares in profits, differed widely on the possibility of adapting the idea to the United States.

They agreed, however, consumer groups should be given the same credit facilities as farmers' cooperatives and private business.

They recommended a government survey of consumer and service cooperatives in this country. All members agreed that European cooperatives were "big business" in many countries. Their 731-page report, made public last night, detailed cooperative experience in retail stores, manufacturing, and medical, laundry, housing, electric, credit and banking services.

NEUTRALITY BILL IS OPPOSED BY 2 GROUPS

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—Two minority House groups objected today to discretionary provisions in a neutrality bill designed to keep America out of war.

Members of the so-called liberal bloc decided to attack a major section giving the president authority to deal with exports of war materials to belligerent nations. They demanded that embargoes on such shipments be mandatory.

Some Republican members of the foreign affairs committee also sought to tighten the discretionary provisions, which they contended might open the way for the president to embroil the nation in war.

The scope of that discretionary authority is the principal point on which the legislation differs from a neutrality bill already passed by the Senate.

The House bill retains virtually intact provisions of the temporary act, which expires May 1, forbidding loans, credits, and exports of arms and munitions to fighting countries.

3 Fatally Burned
SANTA ANA, Calif., March 12 (AP)—Bodies of three men and two women, fatally burned in a truck-auto crash, lay in Orange county mortuaries today with only one victim's identity definitely established. The two vehicles collided last yesterday. A gas tank explosion transferred the wreckage into a flaming coffin. Only Glenn Rogers, 25, Fullerton Food company truck driver, was identified.

Property damage loss in this country in 1936 due to fire was approximately $293,000,000, a 13 per cent increase over the 1935 figure.

HARVESTER PROSPECTS HOLD POWERFUL EXES 14 TO 13 IN SCRIMMAGE

'07 FOOTBALL ELEVEN SHOWS WE PROMISE TEAM KNOWS HOW TO SCRAP; ABILITY PLENTIFUL

With only three members of last season's Harvester starting lineup missing, and strengthened by three regulars of the previous year, the 1937 Harvesters yesterday afternoon held the exes in school to a one-point victory, 14 to 13, in a wild scrimmage game at Harvester field.

The rail birds, who plunk down the hard cash in the fall to see the boys play, were mighty enthusiastic over the prospects of a pretty fair Harvester eleven. A bunch of them watched the scrimmage from whistle to whistle.

Coaches Odus Mitchell and Bob Curry weren't so elated over the looks of their charges although they had to admit they scrapped at times and showed worlds of ability. It will take weeks and weeks of constant plugging to get the boys working together. They are green and inexperienced, most of them anyway.

Missing from the scrimmage was Coach J. C. Prejean. He was at the hospital with Mrs. Prejean who underwent an emergency appendectomy early in the afternoon.

Harvesters Take Lead
The Harvesters jumped to a 13 to 0 lead on their heavier and more experienced opponents. They led at the half the exes pushed over a counter following a blocked punt. Again in the third quarter the former Harvesters pushed across a counter. Roy Showers kicked both points after touchdowns to give his eleven the one-point victory.

The exes lined up with Maxey and Scott at end, Roy Lee Jones and Lewis Jones as tackles, Carl Smith and Morgan as guards, Ivan Noblitt at center, W. J. Brown calling signals, Ayer and Enloe at half-back slots, and Showers at fullback. Gills, Rice, Edman and a couple of other former Harvesters rounded out the substitutes.

Coach Mitchell sent to the firing line Cox and Reynolds, ends; Solomon and Nelson, tackles; Coshaw and Mathews, guards; Harding, center; Graham, quarter; Carr and Don Smith, halves; Wray, full. During the scrimmage, Coach Mitchell substituted Williams, Claude Heiskell, New, McMahan, Dunaway, Freeman, Dewey and Carl Brown. Carr makes gain.

After passing on the fourth down, catching the exes asleep, Bobby Carr gave the Harvesters their first chance to score late in the first quarter when he slithered and jumped 12 yards to the 15-yard stripe. Smith and Graham picked up yardage for a first down on four tries. Wear and Smith cracked the right side of the exes line to the two-yard stripe, when Graham suddenly shifted tactics and sent Wray into the left side of the exes' line for the touchdown. Graham was rushed on his attempt for extra point and it went wide.

Soon after the second quarter got under way, the Harvesters took possession of the ball on their own 35-yard line. Two smashes netted 5 yards. Then followed one of the prettiest plays of the day when Claude Heiskell threw a 25-yard pass to Graham who took it out from between two exes, dodged another, saw Reynolds clear the way with a nice block and ran the rest of the way for a touchdown. This time he added the extra point from placement.

With seven substitutes in the game, Carl Smith broke through and blocked Heiskell's attempted punt near the half, recovering the ball on the 5-yard line. Tom plays later Enloe went over and Showers added the extra point.

Showers Passes
A couple of the famous Showers passes and a sneak through the line by Enloe, followed by laterals to Roy Lee Jones and then to W. J. Brown gained 20 yards to the two-yard stripe early in the second half. Enloe again scored and Showers added the winning point.

Both elevens threatened in the closing quarter with the exes having the ball on the Harvester three-yard mark at the final whistle, controlled by Otis Burke of Perryton who was a Pampa visitor yesterday. Bill Allen of McLean, another visitor, acted as head linesman for the scrimmage. Bill Anderson was the third man on the field.

Graham Calls Game
Every Harvester prospect on the field showed promise in spots. Little Graham called a heady game and also made some nice gains. Smith's handling of the ball and his terrific drives, considering his size of 141 pounds, looked mighty good to the fans. Carr made a couple of sensational jaunts and blocked well. Wray also stepped well and passed better than at any time this season. The big fellow, however, failed to get his head down and hit the line. Heiskell's passing was also on the up while Williams made a nice run up two.

Reynolds was his old self at end, as was Nelson beside him at tackle. Solomon, Brown and New are hoped to have a mighty battle for the other tackle assignment. Matthews and Coshaw looked like the pair of guards a coach would seek out. Cox and McMahan are also scheduled to do some tail battling for the other end job.

Enloe Shines
Bill Stiles, letterman guard from last season, was not in uniform because of a toe injury. Erdus Dedman, exes guard, suffered a broke nose and a badly cut lip when he made a tackle and then fell on one of his teammate's knees as he took the ball

Fish Story Is Big Enough To Drown All Other Yarns

TEXAS LEAGUE ROOKIE CROP LEAN INDEED

BIRDIE TEBBETS FROM BEAUMONT MAY CLICK

By FELIX MCKNIGHT
DALLAS (AP)—No Dix or Daffy Deans, Schoolboy Rows, Joe Medwicks, Hank Greenbergs, or Zeke Bonuras are likely to make overnight jumps from the Texas league to the big-time this season. It's definitely an off year for a league that has been one of the most productive of "ivory."

Only one of a lean crop of graduates threatens to make his name a box score fixture in the American league—George (Birdie) Tebbets, hustling catcher off the Beaumont farm. Tebbets goes to Detroit, and carries with him a 1936 batting average of .292, a rifling arm, speed, brains and youth. He checked in at the Bengal camp at the close of the Texas league season and made a hit with Manager Mickey Cochran, who ought to know catchers. Two pitchers are going up from Beaumont, one of the most fertile of all minor league farms. Pat McLaughlin, a speed merchant with not too much control, and George Gill, who won 15, lost 10 and had an earned-run average of 2.97 with a seventh-place club.

Cards Get Three
Five Houston Buffs have been sold up the river but only two have major league possibilities according to veteran managers. Ira Smith, last year's Buff manager, a crafty but aging flinger who won 13 and lost six last summer, heads the trio going to the St. Louis Cards. Johnny Rizzo, a heavy-hitting youngster, not quite ripe for major league ball, and Herbie Moore, a left-handed pitcher, also go to the Cards.

Herschel Martin, who hovered at the top of the Texas league batting chase until the closing stages of the season, is a Houston outfielder some believe will find a permanent spot in the Philadelphia National fold. His average slipped to .297. Bill Conroy is a promising young man who hit .298 but is not expected to remain on Connie Mack's roster at Philadelphia this season.

Back to the majors goes veteran Vic Frasier, Dallas mound mainstay who won 14 and lost 7, accompanied by outfielder Jim Mosolf, a steady binger, who joins the Boston Bees. Mosolf, despite his .318 average, must beat out such talent as Wally Berger, Gene Moore, Vince Di Maggio, the Pacific coast swatter, and Frank McGowan, Buffalo shellacker.

Then there is Debs Garms, San Antonio's prize, who goes up from that club for a Boston Bees trial. Garms hit .318 himself and, although he played four games less than Mosolf, he drove in seven more runs.

Rensa Returns
Hustling Freddie Tauby, Dallas' prize outfielder, goes to the Philadelphia Nationals. He hit .311, scored 114 runs, swiped 30 bases and has speed and a great throwing arm. George (Tony) Rensa, veteran Dallas catcher, goes back up to the Chicago White Sox and may stick around because of his experience and fielding ability. He hit a meager .261 last season, however.

Likely to make the raffle at the Philadelphia National camp is Del Young, 24-year-old second-sacker from Oklahoma City, who hit .298 and fielded brilliantly. Bernie Cobb, lanky, bespectacled Tulsa first baseman, is bound for the Pittsburgh Pirates camp again, another season of minor league training behind him. He is a line hitter and built up a .304 average against tough Texas hurling.

Three Panhandle Teams in Quarter Finals of Meet
HILLSBORO, March 12 (AP)—Pairings for today's quarter final basketball games in the State A. A. U. girls' tournament were: Plainview and Allison; Mobeetie and Emory; Celeste and Abbott; Bullard and Irene. The Plainview cagers eliminated Garrett 60 to 22, in yesterday's round. Allison defeated Walnut Spring 62 to 22. Mobeetie eased out Newsome 47 to 45 in an overtime contest and Celeste was a point better than Frenship, 57 to 56. Installation of air-conditioned dining cars and train equipment has resulted in an increase in the number of orders for heavy meals, according to officials of the dining car services. carrier down. He was taken to a hospital for emergency treatment. Looking over the exes the railbirds saw Showers do some great passing and outstanding defensive work. Enloe looked better than ever before, Ayer and Brown took their share of honors, especially in ball toting. E. Jones, Carl Smith, Noblitt and Morgan were outstanding defensively.

PHILLIES DUE TO RESIDE IN LOOP CELLAR

WILSON STILL BRAGS ABOUT PITCHING STAFF

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—From the fountain of American fishery came a tale today big enough to drown all others. "As the supreme judge of stories for the hook, line and sinker club," explained Charles E. Jackson, deputy commissioner of the Bureau of Fisheries, "I figured I ought to give the members something to cast at."

Jackson's story concerns a Potomac river tug captain named Jake and a giant sturgeon named Sue, who used to push the master's boat upstream, when the tide was tough. "To show his appreciation, Captain Jake threw her a steak a day for months, but this whetted her appetite. One day, the story goes, Sue sighted cattle in a nearby field. She churned up a great wave, and riding its crest into the pasture, gobbled up four Jerseys. Since then her behavior steadily has grown worse. She has swallowed the first mate Zeke, flicked muddy foam on Mount Vernon, and generally ruined river fishing. "With the help of Captain Jake," said Jackson, "I have worked out a plan which I hope will take old Sue."

It calls for: A cable tied to the Lincoln Memorial, stretched to the Washington monument, welded to a battleship, anchor for a hook, and baited with six horses and five cows. If she gets hooked, the coast guard would swoop down with planes and a blimp and raise her while the Army and Navy shell her from the river bank.

Training Camp News
By The Associated Press
WINTER HAVEN, Fla.—The new home plate with beveled edges, to be used in the National league this season, was installed at the Denison field training base of the Philadelphia National leaguers.

MEXICO CITY—The Philadelphia Athletics favor substituting Mexican pitching for the brand they expect in the American league this season. The Mackmen, in two games, walked native pitchers' offerings for 45 hits and 36 runs in shelling the Agrarinas, 18 to 1 and 18 to 3.

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif.—The Pittsburgh Pirates started batting practice, the first since they reached training camp four days ago. Red Lucas, pitcher, drove two against the fence. Chuck Klein and Johnny Moore have two garden spots set while Morris Aronovich, Hershel Martin, a fine looking rookie from Houston, or the fleet footed Fred Tauby of Dallas are out for the third outfield job.

Los Browns will give Manager Rogers Hensby during the remainder of the training season. The Rajah sent eight hopefuls to the San Antonio Missions, No. 1 Brown farm.

ORLANDO, Fla.—Manager Bucky Harris of the Washington Nationals promised today to "give Joe McCarthy a piggy-back ride from Yankee stadium to Brooklyn" if the New York clubs wins the pennant by 19 games again.

NEW ORLEANS—Manager Steve O'Neill viewed with growing alarm today the absence from camp of Earl Averill, Cleveland Indians outfielder who has been busy waging a holdout campaign.

LAKELAND, Fla.—Mickey Cochran, despite his own admission that he will not play the full season, is unworried over the Detroit Tiger's catching. Of George Tebbets, comparative newcomer who was with the team last year, Cochran said: "He'll be one of the great catchers of baseball."

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—The Boston Bees' pitchers appear so far ahead of the club's hitters that Manager Bill McKechnie cancelled today's scrub game for a long batting drill.

SARASOTA, Fla.—The reports of Bobby Doerr's progress appear to have disturbed Ossie Melillo, for that veteran Red Socker arrived four days ahead of the deadline and today he will start battling the San Diego rookie for whatever slice of the second base job Manager Joe Cronin doesn't want.

TAMPA, Fla.—Gen. Mgr. Warren C. Giles of Cincinnati's Reds said today he had wired the club's "final offer" to holdout hurler Don Brennan.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.—Twenty-four Cardinals, headed by Manager Frank Frisch, left this morning for Havana, Cuba, to meet the New Giants Saturday and Sunday in opening training season contests.

SAN ANTONIO—Pitchers may cause most of the worry the St.

BUS BLAKENEY WILL TRY TO PROVE WORTH

23-YEAR OLD TO BE SENT TO MACK'S ATHLETICS

By L. E. SKELLEY
SIOUX CITY, Ia. (AP)—Oliver (Bus) Blakeney—pupil of the peerless Dave Bancroft—will try to show Connie Mack he has learned a sufficient share of the tricks that made "the Beauty" tops among National league shortstops 20 years ago. Philadelphia fans haven't forgotten the handsome youngster who broke in with the Phillies in 1915 and became the inspirational leader for their pennant drive.

This spring Bancroft is sending Blakeney to the Athletics with the hope the 23-year-old will create the same stir he did among the Philadelphia faithful. "They're much alike, this manager-prodigy pair. Bancroft was a marvelous fielder, but never a powerful hitter. Blakeney showed the same characteristics with the Sioux City Western league club.

A Solo Act
His fielding was so outstanding, however, he earned the distinction of being the No. 1 Western leaguer to obtain a 1937 trial with a major league team. Bancroft, who took over the Sioux City management in mid-summer of 1936, changed Blakeney's batting stance and produced immediate results. Blakeney boosted his average above the .270 mark.

The finer arts of shortstopping also were among Bancroft's contributions to the youngster's fitness. An even 6 feet tall and weighing 160 pounds, Blakeney was regarded by scouts as a major league calibre in fielding ability. "If he can go any direction to cut down intended base hits. He has a powerful arm and is an intelligent base runner."

A Regular At 10
Born at Peru, Kas., Bus has played baseball since he was old enough to hold a ball. At 10 he was a regular on his high school and town teams. At 16 he went south with the Chicago White Sox. He was sent to Wichita in the Western league, but failed to make the grade and was released. Blakeney returned to independent baseball and finally signed with the House of David in 1932. His play with the bearded boys attracted Detroit Scouts who signed him for a trial with the Tigers. They sent Blakeney to Shreveport in the East Dixie league for 1933. He obtained his own release, however, to return to the Davids.

In 1935 Blakeney joined Sioux City and has had two good years with the Cowboys.

Track and Field Doings to Cover Biggest Front
N. W. YORK, March 12 (AP)—It's going to take a lot of long-distance getting-around to cover the track and field doings this week-end. The action, largely collegiate, is spreading over its biggest front of the season.

Collegiana presents three all-star cards, headed by the classic I. C. 4-A games in New York Saturday, and including the Big Ten proceedings at Chicago tonight and Saturday and the mid-western intercollegiate at Naperville, Ill., Saturday. Outside the collegiate fold, there's the annual Maple Leaf games at Toronto tonight, featuring the headline mile duel of the week, with Glenn Cunningham and Archie San Romani among the entries, and the 91st Highlanders A. C. games at Hamilton, Ont., Saturday.

San Romani's entry is on file for both Toronto and Naperville. The I. C. 4-A games in Madison Square Garden has a lot of team fight, with Columbia and Manhattan favorites, and Princeton, Cornell, Dartmouth and Harvard regarded as threats. Most of the season's top sprinters will be on hand, along with the year's stars at 600 yards.

The Big Ten tussling, beginning with trials today, finds Indiana's iron men, Don Lash, Tommy Deckard and Jimmy Smith, going out for both the mile and two mile.

IRRIGATION PROJECT
WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—Rio Grande valley residents had the promise of the Public Works Administration today that it would release "immediately" a $1,600,000 grant for construction toward a $5,000,000 irrigation project in Willacy county.

JACOBS HOLDS TOP POSITION AS PROMOTER

DEAL BETWEEN JACOBS AND GARDEN MAY BE BREWING

(This is the second of a series of stories on the inside workings of the boxing business, with special reference to the current heavyweight scramble.)
BY ALAN GOULD.
NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—They're all trying to grab the brass ring on the heavyweight merry-go-round, with Chicago, Berlin and New York rating contending positions in that order. One of the few identifiable facts is that the old collar and cuff man, Michael Strauss Jacobs, has the next heavyweight champion of the world in his grasp.

Even if Champion Jim Braddock is kept from fighting Joe Louis in Chicago and forced to meet Max Schmeling either in New York or Berlin this summer, Mike Jacobs still will hold the strings. He has Louis and Schmeling both under contract, and has an option on Braddock's services if the champion beats Louis at Chicago.

The Garden's one and apparently remote chance of keeping any strings at all on the title situation is to force Braddock to fight Schmeling here on June 3. This the champion has not the slightest intention of doing.

Along cauliflower alley you can hear talk (a) that all this shadow boxing is preliminary to a "deal" between Jacobs and the Garden, heretofore long time allies in the ticket business; (b) that each side is fearful the other will blow the lid off certain flistic practices, past or present, and (c) that the Garden seriously is considering "washing his hands" of the entire boxing business in disgust or disillusionment.

All direct evidence, however, indicates both the Garden and the 20th Century Sporting club—Mike

DIZZY AND BREADON AT PARTING OF THE WAYS

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 12

(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals will prepare to go through the season without Dizzy Dean, Sam Breadon, president of the club, announced after a series of contract conferences yesterday failed to shake the pitcher's demand for a $50,000 salary. As he left for his Bradenton, Fla., home, Dean declared he was retiring from baseball and entering other business. Breadon said he had offered Dean a salary equal to last year's $22,500 with a "little more money" to be added if certain contract clauses were eliminated. These clauses promised higher pay, if home attendance reached 500,000 and if the Cards won the pennant.

"Old Die" hinted he might think of some sort of compromise, if the compromise figure were a big one, but Breadon said there would be no compromise.

Maxie Rosenbloom Whips Tom Beaupre
DALLAS, March 12 (AP)—Slapsie Maxie Rosenbloom today held a 10-round decision over Dallas ambitious young heavyweight, Tom Beaupre. The former head man of the light-heavies, 189 pounds to Beaupre's 194 mixed enough stiff punching with his cuffing and pawing to win nine rounds. Beaupre found little chance to fire his potent punches at the bobbing, weaving Slapsie.

Billy Hood, Shreveport, La., 169, was acclaimed for the way he out-punched and outboxed Max Long, 168-pound Dallas boy, to win a six-round decision.

17 MEN LOST IN COAL MINE AFTER BLAST

EXPLOSION TAKES TWO LIVES IN WEST VIRGINIA

LOGAN, W. Va., March 12 (AP)—Rescue crews groped thru smoke, gas and dust two miles back in a mine today, seeking 17 men they feared dead in an explosion that already had taken two lives.

The blast, second in 10 months at the Macbeth mine of the Hutchinson Coal Company, tore through the shaft last night, few hours after the night shift entered the mine.

The rescuers, 1,500 feet from the center of the explosion just before dawn, reported they expected to reach the trapped men today or tonight.

It took 40 hours to recover the bodies of 10 men killed in the explosion there last September.

E. L. Carlyle, member of a rescue crew, on his last trip to the surface today said there was "no hope" for the 17.

"There is no air back where they are," he added.

Company officials said between 40 and 45 men were in the mine at the time of the explosion. Only two escaped from the section where the 17 were trapped and two were killed.

The bodies of Joe Frye, mine motorman, and his brakeman, Troy McGoy were carried out within four hours after the blast.

The two who escaped were John Bodner and George Matthews. Both were burned.

The cause of the explosion had not been determined, but N. P. Rinehart, chief of the state department of mines, said it apparently had started from a collection of gas.

Wives and children of the trapped men stood throughout the night at the mine opening.

As dawn approached, tension increased. Only Engineer H. H. Clendenning was hopeful.

"There is a slight chance," he said, "that they were not killed by the force of the explosion and were able to barricade themselves."

Galveston Would Plant Fish for FDR In April

GALVESTON, March 12 (12)—Rather than endure Miami's experience in 1933, ardent Galveston boosters are ready to "plant" fish in the Gulf Coast for President Roosevelt to catch—if he'll cooperate.

Veteran fishermen looking forward to the chief executive's proposed fishing trip to these waters the latter part of April said there was virtually no chance of Mr. Roosevelt failing to catch his quota.

But, just in case, they vowed to keep their fingers crossed until his visit was ended.

When the President-elect fished off Miami in February, 1933, the press widely detailed his poor luck. Connie Costabile, Galveston fisherman, recalled: "When the President went fishing off Miami in 1933 he failed to get a tarpon or sailfish. And was Miami's face red?"

"We're not going to take any chances like that. We'll round up a few and put them in likely spots if the President will let us know exactly where he's going to fish."

"Anyway, I'm going to dig out my rabbit foot the latter part of April and get all my friends to do the same."

Chief Will Become Streamlined Train

Transformation of the Santa Fe railroad's Chief, crack flier operating daily between Chicago and Los Angeles to a lightweight, streamlined train was announced today by Samuel T. Bledsoe, president of the road.

Forty-five sleeping cars of the very latest design, are to be manufactured by the Pullman Company for the Santa Fe's use on the Chief, Bledsoe said. These cars are in addition to an order recently placed by the Santa Fe and announced last week, with the Budd Manufacturing Company, for 52 lightweight, streamlined stainless steel cars, 22 of which also will be a part of the Chief's equipment. These 22 include 10 deluxe diners, six club lounge cars and six club baggage cars. The other 30 cars ordered from Budd, all deluxe passenger coaches, will go into service on the Scout, the Santa Fe's transcontinental all coach and tourist Pullman train.

ELLIOTT ROOSEVELT URGES AGGIE HOUSING

PORT WORTH, March 12 (AP)—If young Elliott Roosevelt has his way the Texas legislature will provide money for housing at Texas A. & M. college.

The President's Texas-residing son, a new member of the A. & M. board of directors, last night told the Port Worth A. & M. club:

"The legislature doesn't seem to think it costs anything to educate a boy down there, but must be brought to see it as an emergency more important than old age security.

"With some 4,200 to 4,500 students enrolled, only 2,700 are housed on the campus. They must have proper housing and that's the state's duty."

A "solid" motor fuel in the form of small cinders, made by carbonizing coal or peat, was used recently in a fully laden 5-ton truck traveling from Leicester to London. Fuel consumption averaged 2 pound a mile a ton of rolling load at a speed of 25 miles an hour.

REBELS HELD BY LOYALISTS IN NEW DRIVE

SHELLS EXPLODE IN MADRID; FIRE RETURNED

MADRID, March 12 (AP)—Insurgent artillery blasted anew at this beleaguered capital today as government commanders reported their war-fagged "Milicianos" were holding an army of 30,000 Italians in check on the northeastern front, 44 miles away.

Shells exploded in the Gran Via, struck the lower buildings of one section of the city.

Several persons were believed hit. On the other hand, 300 insurgents were killed or wounded in southern Spain. It was reported from Andujar when they attacked Villanueva del Duque, Jaen province.

Government batteries inside the capital began to return the insurgent fire as shelling of the city's central district became heavier.

One shell fell directly into a cafe, upsetting tables, chairs and dishes and wounding several persons.

Pedestrians in the business section fled into basements.

The government cabinet in Valencia, meanwhile, prepared a protest to the international neutrality committee of which Italy is a member, terming the presence of Italian troops a grave violation of the European non-intervention accord.

The government accused Italy of waging an "undeclared war" on Spain.

The government's characterization of the conflict as "international" was said to have been strengthened further by the reported declaration of an Italian prisoner of war, identified as Major Luciano Antonio de Inacio, that the Italian government was planning to send even more "regular Italian troops" to Spain.

Officers said they found several cases of canned goods in Russell's car which was parked in front of the ranch home but said he gave no explanation for the food. He told officers he arrived at the ranch about 12:30 o'clock this morning and had been in his mother's bedroom and in the kitchen to get something to eat when the shooting began. It was believed the woman was first killed and that Wiley, whose body was found on a porch on the sleeping porch was the next shot.

Horton was arrested in Texon on instruction from Sheriff Fowler and was being held for questioning. Officers had gone to Texon to question Cody Bell who was said to be able to talk. No further questioning of Russell was planned today.

Cody Bell has been at liberty on bond in a sheep theft case. He was indicted in Upton county but his case had never been held for trial.

The Bells have lived in Upton county for more than 25 years and were well known ranch people. Wiley Bell was not married and lived at the ranch with his mother. Cody Bell also lived at the ranch but is married. It was said that he had recently leased a place he owns near Christoval and moved to the ranch.

Russell Bell is married and has a wife and two children at Fort Worth.

Sheriff Fowler found two pistols, a shotgun and a rifle at the ranch. He said he believed that all the guns, except the rifle, were used in the shooting. There was also a large quantity of ammunition found at the ranch.

JUDGE RULES IN SUIT OVER OIL PROPERTY

Cancellation of a lease and court order restoring title to J. Stephens in litigation over possession of certain oil lands in Gray county were handed down in a decision given by Judge W. R. Ewing in district court yesterday afternoon.

The ruling was given in Mr. Stephens' lawsuit against M. K. Kinsey and others involving title to land known as E-4 section 187, block 2, H&GN RR Co. survey in Gray county.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A quiet market prevailed for cotton during the morning trading. With prices slightly higher there was no inclination to participate than was observed when the market was working into new high ground for the season.

By the mid-way mark in dealings active positions were trading listlessly 5 to 9 points under the previous close, with new crop months showing the widest decline.

The weather map showed that dry weather prevailed over most of the belt, with temperatures ranging from normal to a few degrees below normal in West Texas were considered favorable for the new crop.

Clock markets were reported firm with considerable activity in the market.

A report that the Memphis cotton exchange had urged an investigation of alleged underclassing by the American Cotton Co-operative association caused some comment around the ring.

ROTARIANS WILL GO TO CHILDRESS SOON

CHILDRESS, March 12—Preliminary preparations for entertainment of more than 500 Rotarians from the 41st district who are expected in Childress for the annual conference April 25-27 have already been started under the direction of Jerry W. Debenport, general chairman of the conference arrangements.

Although the conference will be the largest of its type ever held in Childress, adequate facilities are available for the accommodation of all Rotarians who will be here. One of the largest and best hotels between Amarillo and Wichita Falls is in Childress, and with other smaller hotels will accommodate all of the visitors expected here.

An outline of plans for the conference was made recently when the district governor, Fred Wemple of Childress, met with members of the Childress club.

NEW LAWYERS GUILD FAVORS COURT CHANGE

EX-CHIEF JUSTICE TO APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—John P. Devaney, president of the newly organized National Lawyers Guild, brought into focus today differences between two attorneys' organizations over the Roosevelt court bill by appearing in support of it before the Senate judiciary committee.

The blue-eyed jurist, who resigned last month as chief justice of the Minnesota Supreme Court, reached Washington just as the American Bar Association announced its members stood 16,132 to 2,563 against the Supreme Court reorganization.

A poll of the bar association, its officials announced, also showed opposition to increasing the number of judges in lower federal courts, by a vote of 14,101 to 4,049.

A majority favored, however, the President's proposals for a Supreme Court proctor, for transferring lower court judges, and for speeding up action on constitutional questions.

The National Lawyers Guild, on the other hand, declared when it was organized last month as a rival to the bar association:

"The Supreme Court has fallen behind the needs of the times, blocked progress and is now out of harmony with the urgent social and economic demands of the people."

Spokesmen for the bar association are expected to challenge the arguments when the opponents present their case next week, said Senator Burke (D., Neb.).

Unlike the previous two days, when Attorney General Cummings and Assistant Attorney General Jackson were witnesses, some of the interest on the court issue shifted today to the Senate itself.

This was caused by a decision of Senator Norris (Ind., Neb.), a supporter of the President on many issues, to speak out during the afternoon.

His disagreement with contentions that the administration proposal is "the only way" to get around some Supreme Court decision was well known.

Even before addressing the Senate, Norris had proposed that more than a bare majority vote by the highest court be required to invalidate acts of Congress.

Another Senator hitherto reticent about the Roosevelt bill—Walsh (D., Mass.)—will declare against it tonight in addressing a mass meeting in New York along with Burke and Senator Copeland (D., N. Y.).

The amendment route to the administration's goal was questioned by Jackson. No one could foresee what interpretation would be given an amendment, he said, adding: "Judges who resort to a tortured construction of the constitution may torture on amendment. You cannot amend a state of mind and mental attitude of hostility to exercise of governmental power and of indifference to the demands which democracy attempting to survive industrialism makes upon its government."

WHEN "WEEK IN REVIEW" GOES ON THE AIR

—Photos by Fletcher of The NEWS Here are two "behind-the-scenes" shots of "The Week in Review," weekly news dramatization feature heard over radio station KPDN, Pampa, from 5:30 to 6 o'clock every Saturday evening.

In the bottom photo is a scene taken through the control room where Robert Messer is seated at the board. In the background are Announcer Mundy with Miss Spencer and Mr. Patrick in the main studio, doing a news short for KPDN listeners. Two members of the cast, Ely Fonville and the Rev. Hubert H. Bratcher, were not present when the picture was taken.

The "Week in Review" will be on the air again at 5:30 p. m. tomorrow.

UNITED STATES TO SEEK QUICK NAZI RESPONSE

AMBASSADOR UNABLE TO CONTACT VON NEURATH

BERLIN, March 12 (AP)—The United States, it was learned today, will seek a quick response from Germany to the strong protest Ambassador William E. Dodd was ordered to make against anti-American attacks in the German press.

The German foreign office agreed to receive the American envoy at 5:30 p. m. (11:30 a. m. EST) but the embassy, it was learned, was making an effort to have the time of the audience advanced.

The effort to set forward the interview with Baron Konstantin von Neurath, foreign minister, was said to have been made so the U. S. state department soon may know the reich's attitude to the protest.

The ambassador, it was believed, might bolster his protest not only with clippings of the current press but with considerable file of clippings showing that long before the present incident prominent Americans have been subjects of unfavorable comment because of their Jewish blood.

The ambassador, acting on direct orders from Washington, attempted vainly to contact von Neurath yesterday.

The envoy, it was understood, would hand von Neurath striking examples of the attacks in which the German press had extended their castigation of Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York to include the state department and the entire United States.

(LaGuardia on March 3 had suggested to a group of Jewish women the New York world fair in 1939 should place a figure of that "brown shirted fanatic who is menacing the peace of the world" in a "hall of horrors.")

The state department expressed its regret that such a statement should have been made after a formal protest from the reich. In the resultant press campaign in Germany against the mayor, the attack was broadened to such an extent Washington considered a protest necessary.

Canada ranks first among world exporters of nickel. The nation produces 57,450 long tons of a world total of 70,800 long tons in 1935.

Argentina ranks second among the countries of the world in exportation of wheat, with Australia third and Russia fourth.

FAIR TRADE BILL IS OKAYED BY COMMITTEE

AUSTIN, March 12 (AP)—The "fair-trade" bill, which two years ago died on the Senate Calendar, stood approved today by the Senate-commerce and manufacturing committee.

The committee last night heard the proposal called a price-fixing measure by opponents and an act to protect the small merchants by advocates.

The House education committee favorably reported a bill to prohibit high school social fraternities and sororities with the exception of HI-Y groups, Girl Reserves and similar organizations sponsored by state and national educational associations.

A resolution to submit a constitutional amendment to exempt resident homesteads up to $3,000 from taxation, except school levies, was unfavorably reported, 8 to 6, by a House committee.

Another House group recommended a proposed natural gas levy of one-fourth of one per cent per 1,000 cubic feet instead of the present three per cent of value which was estimated to raise the annual receipts from that income from $650,000 to $2,225,000.

A bill to place venue of oil suits instituted by the state in the county where the property is located, limit receivers' fees in confiscation suits to 10 per cent and place a minimum sale price of 66 2-3 per cent of market value on the oil was approved by a Senate committee.

Twenty-five states permit persons under 16 years of age to drive automobiles, according to the American Automobile Association. In ten of these states youngsters under 16 can take the wheel without any demonstration of their ability to drive.

HIGH TEST

makes cold motors purr-r-r

How can you tell what power, pep, and speed, your motor will actually develop, until you have given it a real chance to "do its stuff" by filling up with high test gasoline?

Make the test with Phillips 66 Poly Gas. It costs no more than ordinary low test motor fuels. Yet scientific laboratory tests made day in and day out, all winter long, have proved that the effective high test of Phillips 66 is unsurpassed by any other gasoline—even those selling at a higher price.

You will notice that your motor starts much faster . . . warms up quicker . . . that it literally purrs along at any speed from a snail's pace in traffic to a streamlined sprint on the out-of-town concrete.

You will also feel the added power which comes from the extra energy units supplied by the patented POLYmerization process.

You get these two-fold economies of extra high test and extra power . . . without extra price . . . because of Phillips resources as world's largest producer of natural high test gasoline . . . because of Phillips progressive and initiative as an Independent Organization.

So make it a point to get your next tankful of gas at the Orange and Black 66 Shield. You'll enjoy that difference in performance as well as the saving in money.

WHOM TO BELIEVE

Success consists in knowing whom to believe as to judgment and honesty.

It seems that one of the best yardsticks for determining whether or not a man's opinions and statements are worthy of consideration and belief, is whether or not the individual is one who continually tells and advises other people how to do something that he cannot do himself or cannot cause to be done.

Our country is suffering very materially as a result of people believing and having faith in those who cannot do things themselves or cannot cause them to be done but are constantly and repeatedly haranguing about the way other people are doing things, although they cannot do them themselves or cause them to be done better.

The only possible exception, it would seem to us, to this rule is that we might believe a man who has not as yet been able to do things that he claims can and should be done but who himself is constantly devoting his entire time and energy in trying to do what he claims should and can be done.

It seems to be a safe rule to refuse to pay much attention to the utterances of those who make no personal attempt to do what they find fault with others doing. If we do this we are making a splendid starting point in knowing whom to believe and whom not to believe.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—Aspirants for presidential nomination in 1940 are not entirely relieved by Roosevelt's assurances that he looks forward to retiring to private life on Jan. 20, 1941.

They won't be entirely happy until the president gives them a signed affidavit, couched in solemn language, officially sealed and riveted on the White House front door.

Roosevelt said at the Democratic "Victory Dinner" here:

"My great ambition on Jan. 20, 1941, is to turn over this desk and chair in the White House to my successor, whoever he may be."

But there are those who predict that when the time comes, the president may feel himself unable to realize that "great ambition." They fear—perhaps in some cases, pretend fear—that he will feel the country needs him desperately. And so they're whispering that his statement is comparable to the rather enigmatic remark of Calvin Coolidge: "I do not choose to run."

There seems to be no sound basis for supposing at this time that F. D. R. has any thought of seeking a third term. Suspicion appears to rest chiefly on the tradition that no president has ever been happy at leaving the White House, even after two terms.

Presidential intimates scoff at the thought. Some already are busy speculating as to Roosevelt's 1940 successor, if not actually laying unobtrusive groundwork for certain candidates. They say there isn't any more reason for supposing Roosevelt harbors third-term ambitions than there is for paying serious attentions to suggestions Mrs. Roosevelt might succeed him. Mrs. Roosevelt herself branded that last idea as "idiotic." The mere fact any such phantasy reached such a point that it was raised at one of her press conferences, amply demonstrated that people do get some funny political ideas into their heads.

***

Joe Davies was about the only conspicuous Democratic lobbyist who didn't serve on the committee sponsoring the $100-a-plate Victory Dinner. Joe Tumulty, Woodrow Wilson's wartime secretary, who has made considerable wealth jockeying and lobbying here, was chairman and toastmaster. He sat right next to Roosevelt. Power companies, lobbying against Roosevelt's pet holding company bill, had Tumulty and paid him $33,000 in a single year. Others among the 30 hosts on the Victory committee included Arthur Mullen of Nebraska, J. Bruce Kremer of Montana, and O. Max Gardner of North Carolina. All three worked for utility companies opposing the holding company measure. All were members of the Democratic national committee before Roosevelt decided such posts were incompatible with their activities.

TEX'S TOPICS

Good Evening. . . . Weather like we had been having in the Panhandle up until today is responsible for a malady generally called, "itching feet"—you know, when you are torn between desires? . . . You are over-powered by a longing to get out and roam. . . . There is no place in particular that you wish to go, but spring is in the air, and you feel that you must go somewhere and do something before you blow up.

Some call it spring fever. . . . There are other names for it. . . . Take your choice. . . . But, call it what you will, many are victimized at this season of the year when the first stretch of spring warmth moves in and stays for a day or so too long. . . . You would like to be gone with the wind, or something. Anything at all, but what you are doing. . . . When you feel like that, we are told, you can attribute it to the gypsy in you. . . . A boy in tin-pan alley once wrote a lyric he called, "Springtime In The Rockies." . . . We still think he has something there.

Pampa is in the midst of a safety campaign which will come to a grand climax next month in annual "Safety Week" . . . It reminds us of a June day in 1924 when a yellow funnel of wind rose off the southern shore of one of the Great Lakes and tore its way through an Ohio city where we chanced to be. . . . In its path more than 100 persons were left dead and thousands were injured. . . . The entire world heard the news. . . . All America was aroused. . . . It was rated among the major disasters of its decade.

Yet, no doubt more than 100 persons are to perish and many will be injured in somewhat similar fashion in the Panhandle this year. . . . And even the people of Pampa and Gray county—some of whom will be numbered among the victims before the year is ended—remain complacent. . . . Even worse, these people will die or be injured not as the result of the wrath of Nature, but in man-made disasters.

We refer to traffic deaths. . . . The nation's record so far this year is bad. . . . In January, according to figures just released, traffic deaths in the U. S. attained a new high of 3,050, which was 20 per cent higher than in January of 1936. . . . Taken as a grisly whole there is occasion for little but gloom in this frightful indictment of national recklessness. . . . Only the National Safety Council offers a ray of hope. . . . It finds that in states and cities where rigorous safety campaigns have been staged there has been improvement. . . . The moral is obvious. . . . And that is exactly what the Pampa Kiwanis club has in mind with its sponsorship of the safety campaign now being pushed city-wide, and in which the civic club is urging cooperation of every agency in city and county.

Out and around the town: Off to a shoe shine parlor, only to find that the spring fever has hit there, too. . . . The shine boy is not on duty. . . . He is out sunning himself on the avenue, says the proprietor. . . . So, on a block or two to learn of the departure from the city of a friend and of his regrets over leaving. . . . Next to Mr. Walker's post shop for a look at the mail, containing word from a long-lost acquaintance. . . . Happy to hear he is doing so well.

Back to the shine parlor. . . . This time the boy has returned from the sun-bath. . . . But he is still suffering from the effects of the day and tricky atmosphere. . . . There is not just the right zip and zest in his brogan technique. . . . No patter wafts from the shine cloth in snappy, double two-four time as he sometimes is capable of producing for tipping customers. . . . He is not his old self today, you can sense it. . . . Lethargic, to put it mildly. . . . Then, out and office-bound. . . . There go two acquaintances. . . . One speaks. . . . The other is occupied, perhaps. . . . Often we fall to speak, we suspect, when all the time it has been because the mind does not let the eye function.

Now, to the mill of the grist. . . . Strange are notices that find their way into the "agony" columns of London newspapers. Viz: "A parent has lost respect of his small son thru inability to spin some old Japanese or Chinese tops. Is there any book giving instructions, please?" . . . American and Ceylon interests of the late Sir Thomas Lipton are expected to realize $3,500,000 for Glasgow, Scotland. . . . Lipton's ambition was to end poverty in Glasgow. . . . he directed residue of estate should benefit city.

Joe Frederick, ministerial student at Texas Christian U. (Fort Worth) claims title of ugliest college man in Texas, and has challenged all "Beau Ugliers" in state's colleges to compete in contest to pick homeliest student. . . . When Miss Catherine Court pulled herself out of bottom of state office building elevator shaft the other day she said it was "the best elevator accident I've ever been in" . . . she has been in six.

Officials of Samuel J. Peters High School at New Orleans are following modern tendency in "practical" education. . . . boys at the school spend eight hours a week building automobile trailers. . . . Asher Frank, state safety director in Florida, announced that in February, peak month of winter travel, there were 110 to 120 automobiles to the mile on Florida highways.

There'll Have To Be Some Kind of Control

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Personal notes off a New Yorker's cuff:

Irene Rich's brother, an export manager for a big building house, is in the orient. . . . Martha Raye's brother, a musician, is playing the Green Room of the Edison hotel. . . . Paul Robeson's son is in school in Russia. . . . Arthur Scharabel's son, a pianist, is making his first visit to America. . . . Joan Crawford's brother is a bit player in Hollywood. . . . Gene Tunney's sons are vacationing in California. . . . Henry Hull's son is appearing on Broadway in the same play with his father. . . . Gertrude Lawrence's daughter is in a finishing school in England.

Two plays on Broadway open with prayer. . . . And one night club closes with a rousing rendition of "The Star Spangled Banner." . . . The most satisfying fish entree I have ever had in New York was sturgeon in the Maisonette Russe at the St. Regis. . . . I have the distinction of being the only columnist in New York who has never been inside of the Stork Club. . . . Of Professors of Ballyhoo in New York, Richard Maney is easily the most sought after. . . . A quiet spoken Irishman, he remains in the background and permits his work to speak for him. . . . Last year his income doubled that of any of his colleagues.

Obstinate note: I still think Leslie Howard's "Hamlet" was tops. My favorite actresses continue to be Katharine Cornell, Margaret Sullavan and Helen Hayes. . . . Although Ruth Gordon could sub for any of these three. . . . The decision of the Schuberts to produce most of the Shaw plays next fall recalls the amiable feud between George B. and the late Rudyard Kipling.

They never met until they served as pall-bearers at Thomas Hardy's funeral. . . . Nevertheless, they disliked each other cordially. . . . En route to the hearse, Kipling kept suddenly changing step, thus throwing George out of timing. . . . A Chicago newspaperman who was there (according to Jim Tully) says this almost caused them to drop the casket.

In the Ambassador hotel the other night members of Delta Tau Delta, a college fraternity, celebrated with a Founder's Day dinner. . . . Vincent Lopez strolled around to play a few tunes. . . . The absolute high point of the evening was when he gave them "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

"Storm Over Patsy," a drama by Phillip Moeller, gets its name from a mongrel pup. . . . An exciting melodrama in town concerns a doctor who took up crime so that he could complete a series of important experiments. . . . It's against the law, but cock fights are held within 30 minutes of New York several times a week.

LEGAL HIGH JINKS

IOWA CITY, Iowa—University of Iowa Law School students, with due regard for legal processes, sent a deputy sheriff armed with a writ of replevin to recover a sign they accused engineering students of filching. "I'm not fooling," Deputy Sheriff Preston Koser announced at the portals of the engineering building, whereupon the students within unleashed a barrage of rotten eggs. The "law" beat a hasty retreat.

Special gloves were used in falconry, in ancient days, to guard the hand against the falcon's beak and claws.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

Ivy Duncan is a man who goes after what he wants for his neighbors, himself, his town, his country, and he's going after that lake for Gray county.

Wednesday he and an engineer went to Beaver Dam on McCellan creek, and both came back more enthusiastic than ever. You talk to Ivy about that lake and he'll convince you he and his friends who want it built at the best location in the county, wherever that is, are right. Yesterday he had the Lions club eating out of his hand, so to speak, hanging on to his every word. The engineer said the site is the best in the Panhandle for a lake. He said he's seen most of the proposed lake sites and none is as good as the one on McCellan. The lake could be built at a low cost, compared with the cost of other lakes as big. It would be as long as from Foster to Harvester park, and that would be a huge lake. You talk to Ivy and the scores of people who believe as he does and you will begin to see the color and scope of their visions: white caps fanned by a summer wind, water teeming with trout, bass, all kinds of fish, flashing lines of casters, white sails of Sea Scouts and private boats, swimmers and divers.

Howard's "Hamlet" was tops. My favorite actresses continue to be Katharine Cornell, Margaret Sullavan and Helen Hayes. . . . Although Ruth Gordon could sub for any of these three. . . . Talks to Parents

By BROCK PETERS CHURCH

The man or woman who takes life as an adventure and lives it consciously and fully is the one who has a happy life. Parents who take this attitude toward life can pass it on to their children, have given them a better heritage than a fortune in gold.

Adaptability to circumstances, the ability to make victory out of defeat, a serene acceptance of the rough with the smooth as a necessary part of the material of living, make for health and happiness.

The world owes nothing to anyone. To bring children up with the idea that it does, distorts their point of view. One gets out of life just as much as one puts into it, and if one is very out-going and puts in a great deal, there is sometimes a bit of profit in the form of love and devotion.

There are countless ailing, embittered men and women who find life a disappointment. They wish they had never been born. Nothing is what they were led to believe it would be. But what does life itself promise anyone? Nothing at all. It is the parents who hold out false promises for the future, and expect a livelihood and happiness to be handed them on a platter. When these promises are unfulfilled, the children accuse life, the world, existing conditions, of having deceived and wronged them.

It is not entirely the children's fault. They were never taught to meet life half-way, to accept what comes and make the best of it. The object of life is not happiness but living, and living means a kaleidoscope flow of episodes and experiences of every kind.

Every situation one faces is generally training for another. Only by a serene and courageous facing of ad-

How's Your Health?

MASTOID DISEASE

Behind the ear there is to be felt a cone-like bone, the point of which is directed downward. This is the mastoid.

The structure of the mastoid is spongy in character. It's inside is "honey-combed," and its spaces communicate with the middle ear. When the middle ear is infected, the process may extend into the spaces of the mastoid bone.

Pus forming here has no easy avenue for escape and is likely to become dammed up. If the accumulated pus is not promptly evacuated, the infection may extend through the base of the skull and involve the brain coverings (the meninges) and the brain. This is a life-menacing complication.

The surgical treatment of mastoiditis requires the opening up of the mastoid bone and the cleaning out of its numerous cells (spaces). This operation was first performed by a French physician, Jean Louis Petit, in 1774. How many lives have been saved through this operation cannot even be guessed at, but the number must be great.

However, for long it was noticed that "cleaning out" the mastoid bone in cases of mastoiditis, did not always avail to save the sufferer, even when the operation was thorough, and in time, some developed meningitis anyway.

The explanation for certain of these "failures" was recently developed by Dr. Kopecky of New York. He demonstrated that in addition to the mastoid bone, another, proximal bone structure known as the petrous portion of the temporal bone may become involved by the infectious process, and that unless this, too, be treated, the dreaded complication of meningitis may develop.

The diagnosis of petrositis, as this condition is called, is based on the clinical history of the case, and on x-ray findings. Clinically the patient does not respond to his mastoid operation as he should. A low-grade temperature persists; the discharge of pus from the diseased ear continues or reappears; the surgical wound is slow in healing, and the patient may complain of deep-seated pain in, behind and around the eye on the same side of the diseased ear.

Surgical procedures have been developed for reaching the diseased bone, and this newly developed technique has already helped to save lives which in former times could not, in all probabilities, have been saved.

LONG TALK

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—That must have been an expensive call Mary Andende made when she stepped into the telephone booth at a drug store. She emerged to find the store manager and clerks had looked up and gone home. It took a lot of pounding on a door, the help of a patrolman and another telephone call, to the manager, to release her.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily NEWS Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

Q. In what part of France was Mainbocher born? W. H.

A. The designer was not born in France. He was born in Chicago. Q. How can pedestrians best avoid being injured or killed by automobiles? B. R.

A. A new hand-book of accident statistics suggests four rules: Cross only at intersections of streets; Cross only with signal (if there are such devices); Face traffic on rural roads; Never hitch rides. Q. Must an employe carry his social security card at all times? G. H.

A. This is not a requirement. The assigned number should be reported to the employer, who records it. The card may then be deposited in a safe place. Q. Did Abraham Lincoln play any musical instrument? H. G. M.

A. It is said that Lincoln often carried a harmonica in his pocket on which he played for relaxation. Q. How did the Bronx get its name? C. M.

A. The Bronx is so named from the stream flowing into the East river. Its name was derived from that of the first white owner of the adjacent land, Jonas Bronck. Q. Has the Yosemite National park had a cold winter? H. F.

A. It has had the coldest winter since 1906. Q. Where was Eugene O'Neill, the playwright, when the Nobel prize for literature was presented to him? M. R. S.

A. Mr. O'Neill was in Oakland, Calif., when the award was made by Swedish Consul General Carl E. Wallerstedt. Q. Is the Normandie being remodeled to make it a faster ship? H. K.

A. The old propellers have been removed and replaced by a new set, each weighing three tons less than the older ones. They are adjusted to revolve at the rate of 200 turns a minute in place of the former 189 revolutions. Q. Which of the royal emblems contains the great star of Africa which was cut from the Cullinan diamond? K. L.

A. The Royal Sceptre contains the famous jewel which weighs 310 1/2 carats. The sceptre dates from the time of Charles II, but the diamond was added by Edward VII, to whom the Union of South Africa presented the stone.

What Are American Rights?

Under the American form of government the citizen has certain rights never enjoyed by the people of any other country. These privileges are written into the constitution.

They guarantee such individual rights as free speech, religious freedom, property rights, trials by jury, and sanctity of the home.

The newer ideals of government that are sweeping Europe eliminates most of these ancient rights and invest all authority in dictator.

Every American citizen should have a copy of the constitution and study it as carefully as he does his Bible.

The Pampa Daily News, through its Washington Information Bureau, will supply any reader with a fine copy of the constitution for a mere cost and handling charge of 10 cents.

Q. Who were the leaders in organizing Baylor University, where was it started and when?

A. Rev. William M. Tyson, from New York; Rev. James Huelkins, a missionary from New Hampshire and Judge R. E. B. Baylor. It was established by the Texas Baptist Educational Society, was chartered by the Republic of Texas, in 1845; was opened at Independence in May, 1846, with 24 pupils; Henry E. Gillette, a native of Connecticut and graduate of Trinity College, Hartford, being principal.

Q. Why were Andrew Briscoe's remains reburied recently in the Texas State cemetery?

A. Andrew Briscoe was a signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence. He was born in Adams county, Miss., in 1810; settled at Anahuac in 1824; in mercantile business; imprisoned in 1835 by Mexican officials for resisting duties on goods; released and represented Harrisburg in San Felipe convention of 1836; organized Company A. of San Jacinto due to illness of Capt. This, That and Everything

By JESS KELLEY

When Andrew Jackson was about 14 years of age, an incident occurred which indicated the quality of character that was destined to give so much color to his mature life. About the year of 1781, he and his older brother went to help a group of their neighbors capture some British soldiers stationed at the Waxhaw church near Jackson's home. Instead of capturing the British soldiers, the boys were taken prisoners by the British. While in British custody, Jackson was asked by the officer to black his boots. Young Andrew flatly refused to render this bit of homely service even for a British officer. The officer became enraged at his refusal and struck the young boy with his sabre. Andrew Jackson carried the scar from that blow as long as he lived.

This little episode in the life of Jackson vividly portrayed the spirit of bold independence that would assert itself through his future presidency. When Jackson became president, the nation was in much need of a rugged type of leadership rather than polite conservatism. Andrew Jackson met the urgent need of the hour by diligent exercise of an independent thinking that made history even while he was yet a lad. His birthday anniversary falls next Monday.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD—Jack Lyons is the key man on the Warner lot. He has nothing to say about story purchases, production problems or release dates, but without him—or an assistant who understands his system—the studio couldn't look up at night or open in the morning. Lyons is the key man, literally. More than 6,000 locks on the studio grounds will answer to his grand master key. He carries in his head, as well as on a card index, the combination of several hundred safes and film vaults, and he is the man the stars and players seek when they have forgotten or lost the key to their dressing rooms, lockers or cars.

About his compact new office are shallow, high cupboards in which are sliding panels, each holding a hundred keys. When Pat O'Brien leaves the key to his private locker at home, as he did recently, and has important guests to entertain, Lyons is hurriedly called.

From one to six keys are reported lost each working day. Men lose more keys than women and are more impatient if kept waiting for duplicates. Kay Francis and Bette Davis have installed private locks on their dressing room closets and from time to time nearly all players do the same. The women want to protect jewels and furs which they cannot wear to the set. The men are more likely to have a bottle locked up.

There have been epidemics of petty thievery in studio dressing rooms from time to time. When this happens Lyons moves in with a whole new set of locks and master keys. When Ruth Chatterton's studio bungalow was burglarized some years ago, nothing more valuable than a box of cigars was missing, but the locks were changed anyhow.

Police Studio By 7 o'clock each night the studio is locked up tightly, except for the back lot where production and construction may continue 24 hours a day. Whatever business is transacted after that hour must come through the single, constantly policed side gate. Every office on the lot is inspected each hour during the night.

Lyons' spare hours are spent unlocking private cases for New York executives who are fitting new keys to ignition locks for players' cars.

Lyons has been on the lot since just before a studio was there. He looked up the first sheds built on the new grounds. At first he had 150 keys to handle. Now he has 6,000.

His own office door is controlled by his own master key. When he comes on the scene without this as he has been known to do, he goes to a secret hiding place where he has a spare master key. So far, the spare has always been found in place.

ern Pacific; in banking business in New Orleans in 1840, where he died Oct. 4, 1849, and was buried in Briscoe Cemetery, Claybourne county, Miss. Briscoe county was named for him.

Q. How long did the People's Party survive the defeat of 1892?

A. Calling itself the "Populist Party," or third party, that faction renominated Judge T. L. Nugent in 1894, to lead the campaign for governor against Charles A. Culberson on a platform favoring government ownership of railroads, telephone and telegraph lines, free coinage of silver, and issuance of sufficient paper money to meet business demands, $50 per capita being suggested. The defeat of Nugent that year practically ended the life of the party.

THE FINANCIAL WHIRLIGIG

By LOUIS SCHNEIDER

STUNT.
Now that the French government has opened a free gold market, reports are rife that there will be a gold movement from London, Amsterdam and New York to Paris. The repatriation of such funds is expected to leave its mark on Dutch, British and American security prices. Informed money interests do not expect such a movement. They say that the free gold market was established to entice hoarded gold out of the Frenchman's sock. It is pointed out that the new market does not do away with the rule that gold may not be exported from France, nor has the price of the franc been stabilized.

Those in the know say that the French free gold market confirms the adage that all that glitters isn't gold.

MERGER.
What is the General Motors interest in the Yellow Truck Coach Manufacturing Corporation? Here's the inside. GM owns all the 800,000 shares of Yellow's outstanding common. It also owns 710,760 shares of Yellow's class B stock. In addition GM holds 104,450 shares of Yellow's 7 per cent preferred stock.

Over the past three months the market price appreciation of the class B and preferred shares netted General Motors a paper profit of $22,500,000.

Unconfirmed but fairly reliable reports are that in due time Yellow Truck will become an operating subsidiary of General Motors. This merger is expected to be arranged by an exchange of shares.

MOVIES.
Statisticians always digging for so-called bargains are urging friends into the motion picture shares. They show that the increasing wages now being paid by many industries will benefit the amusement industry. Evidence is also offered that modest advances in admission prices have not met with public resistance.

Due to over-expansion costs in previous years the motion picture industry was over capitalized. When the depression hit, movie companies that didn't go into receivership came near doing so. Capital structures were revised. Bidders in executive posts were sought out of office. Capable men took hold. As the motion picture industry stands today it is reported to have the best financial and operating managements in history.

INVENTORY.
Speculative interests bullish on Van Ralste shares can't understand why the issue doesn't do better price-wise. They show that the 1936 per share net was $5.52 against $4.30 for the previous year.

Here's one explanation. As of December 31 the company had a silk inventory position of $1,689,349. At that time raw silk was priced at $2.07 1/2 a pound. At the present time the commodity is quoted at $1.93 a pound. This is the low point of the year.

Authoritative quarters it is learned that silk comprises only one-third of the inventory position. The other two-thirds is entirely rayon and in that commodity market there is demand. In addition it was learned that shipments for January and February were the best for those months since 1923.

BEHIND?
Speculators of average buying power who find the blue chips too rich for their pocketbooks are looking into second grade issues. Their attention is attracted to merchandising equities. The theory is that nationwide wage increases mean expansion in sales.

With mercantile organizations pretty well stocked, with inventory position accumulated at lower costs and prices currently rising, net profit margins are expected to be greater.

It is also believed that the merchandising shares haven't as yet moved up to keep step with the rise in industrials.

INDENTURE.
Before provisions for surtaxes and bond interest Federal Sew Works earned $50,454 for 1936. A deficit of $122,614 was reported for 1935. This good showing is expected to be further improved in 1937. Yet there's no smart buying of the shares.

Here's the inside: Contrary to dope sheet tips, there will be no interest paid on the income bonds. Why? Because there's a provision in the bond indenture that net working capital must exceed $700,000 before interest may be paid. As of January 1 net working capital was only $478,782.

REPORTS ARE THAT:
Investment buying of American Can avoided... E. C. reports disclose that officials of company liquidated large blocks of stock... Great Northern benefits from high steel activity... After Boeing, speculative people like Curtis-Wright class A best... Industrial Rayon going into portfolio accounts while Celanese is going into trading accounts... For month ending with February, White Motor shipments ran 60 per cent ahead of last year... Speculative interests again talking Thompson Products... Atlantic portfolios—road controls Louisville & Nashville... Only after Bayuk Cigar redeems its outstanding preferred shares will the common shares receive more than $1 a year in dividends.

Waltham benefiting from U. S. Navy building program... Reynolds Spring has a large backlog of railroad orders—small floating supply accounts for market inactivity... Investment interests like new Good-year preferred... Chart students look for a sharp spurt in utilities—foreign accounts liquidating... Thus far this year American Color-type's shipments run well ahead of last year... Brooklyn Union being switched into Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit for better speculative prospects... And that the Supreme Court problem will not be tackled by Congress until near close of month—Secretary Wallace is booked for radio talk on subject March 22 at 9:30 p. m., EST, over NBC Red network.

240 EMPLOYERS PAYING UNDER PENSION ACT

AUSTIN, March 12—Three hundred and forty employers in the Amarillo district are paying contributions under the Texas Unemployment Compensation act, Chairman Orville S. Carpenter announced today.

These contributions will set up benefit accounts for 9,798 workers employed by those paying the tax. Included in the Amarillo district are the following 25 counties: Armstrong, Briscoe, Carson, Collingsworth, Castro, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hansford, Hartley, Hutchinson, Hemphill, Hall, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Potter, Parmer, Roberts, Randall, Sherman, Swisher and Wheeler.

Potter county has the greatest number of covered employes, with 183 employers paying taxes on 6,307 workers.

Gray county was second in the total of covered workers, while Hutchinson county was third.

The commission activities in the Amarillo district are under the direction of B. H. Thompson, who has headquarters in the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce.

The Texas Commission already has collected contributions of $6,124,211 from 11,517 employers. This will set up benefit accounts for more than 600,000 workers.

PENURIOUS DIGIT
COLUMBUS, O.—Trying to fish a couple of extra kernels out of a penny-in-the-slot device, Sam Shamansky, 14, got his finger caught. For 45 minutes he tugged to get loose. Finally someone called the police. They took the machine apart, freed Sam. He didn't get the extra peanuts.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL. AUSTIN, March 12 (AP)—Unexpected action of the Senate in voting to engross a horse race betting measure gave Rep. William M. Sewell of Middlethian an idea.

The next day he introduced a resolution congratulating the Senate and urging it to do the same thing with the bill to raise the tax on oil production from 2 1/2 cents a barrel to 6 cents.

After a general laugh, he withdrew the proposal. The Jones' are leading the Smiths in the House of Representatives, four to three.

The membership includes Herman Jones of Decatur, Ragland Jones of Eddy, Samuel A. Jones Jr. of Lufkin, and Walter E. Jones of Jourdan.

The Smiths are Howard S. of Sulphur Springs, Lonnie of Fort Worth, and Paris of Bay City. Several other Representatives have the same names.

They include Dr. J. C. Davis of Rule and Minet M. Davis of Kirbyville; C. L. Harris of Spur, Dave M. Harris of Archer City and Fred Harris of Dallas; E. T. Johnson of Fort Worth and Leonard M. Johnson of Waxahatchie; John E. Johnson of Dallas and Tolbert Patterson of Mullin; and Jasper N. Reed of Texarkana and W. O. Reed of Dallas.

The nearest thing to similarity of names in the Senate is Jim Neal of Mirando City and Ben G. Oneal of Wichita Falls. Senator H. L. Winfield of Fort Stockton has the distinction of representing the largest number of counties of any member of the upper house.

His district has 27. Clint C. Small of Amarillo is a close second with 26 counties, while G. Robert Nelson of Tahoka is third with 24. Jim Neal of Mirando City and E. M. Davis of Brownwood representing 18 and 16, respectively.

Three Senators have one-county districts. They are Claude C. West of Dallas, Weaver Moore of Houston, and Frank H. Rawlings of Fort Worth.

Some members of the House recently were accused of shaking hands one way and voting another. The House voted one day to print a speech by Senator Tom Connally, criticizing President Roosevelt's court reorganization plan, in the Journal. Connally made the speech before a joint session of the legislature.

Then the President delivered a radio speech advocating the court change and a motion was made, not only to print Mr. Roosevelt's speech, but to print it ahead of Connally's. Rep. Paris Smith of Bay City objected to what he said was a reflection on the Senator.

"After Senator Connally made that speech," he said, "I went to the rostrum to shake his hand. Well, I had to wait about 45 minutes because there were so many ahead of me. The very men wanting to condemn him now were shaking hands then."

When Smith called Connally "one of the greatest Senators Texas ever had," there were loud shouts of "aye." But a few seconds later there were shouts of "ayes and noes on that!"

The House approved the motion giving the presidential address precedence. The "coup" by which the issue of repealing the law legalizing pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing was brought before the Senate was one of the most surprising and unexpected in the memory of veteran legislative observers.

Nothing like it had been seen since the day four years ago when a conference committee working over a general appropriation bill tackled on an amendment which legalized such betting. It made the day the most exciting of the session up to that time.

Afterward even opponents of repeal, recalling the means by which betting originally was legalized, admitted they had been given a dose of their own medicine.

Tactics of repeal antagonists after the House of Representatives overwhelmingly voted to knock out race horse betting admittedly had been to obtain delay. They set a hearing on the House repeal bill and a similar measure in the Senate for March 9, several weeks after the lower chamber had acted, and other steps to gain time were in the offing.

After several hours of discussing odds and ends of legislation, and the time the Senate usually recessed for lunch was approaching, a harmless-appearing bill to require that a certain percentage of race track employees be native Texans was called up. It had passed the House with little opposition and was regarded as a mere regulatory measure.

Suddenly Senator G. H. Nelson of Lubbock introduced an amendment, similar to the bill and the House passed to repeal the race track law; Senator Grady Woodruff of Decatur, advocate of repeal, temporarily was in the chair and promptly overruled a point of order that the amendment was not germane. After

While the proceedings were under way, Governor James V. Alfred came striding into the chamber and soon found good cause for his presence. A point was raised that the bill had not been submitted as an emergency matter, an important point because a larger vote than repeal proponents had would have been required; but the governor hastily pencilled a message of submission, had it copied and formally sent it to the Senate.

Speaker Bob Calvert of the House, Rep. J. Bryan Bradbury of Abilene, and other members of the lower chamber also watched the scene. Bradbury was author of the House repeal bill.

When it was all over, members had a good laugh at the expense of the amendment or voting against his own bill, he went into a study. "Does a man have to vote for concurrence when his bill is involved?" he asked a group.

"No," someone replied, "but it will speed up passage." Deaths in airplane accidents on commercial airplanes totaled 60 in 1936, compared with 23 in 1935.

HER NAME IN LIGHTS

Chapter XV
 Their taxi slid around a corner on two wheels. Daphne, sitting forward on the seat as though to urge it on to greater speed, fell back in a heap. "Darling, keep your head. We'll stop it," Larry promised.
 "Oh, but if he isn't at his apartment, Larry!"
 "We'll meet that when we come to it. We do know that Jennifer is at the theater with the Bakers. And it is only 11 now. Isn't it likely that she would come from the theater to meet him at his apartment or at your own? I thought the fashionable hour to elope was midnight."
 "But if he isn't there?"
 He was. Tuck answered the door-bell ring himself.
 "Hello, Tuck. Surprised to see me?" Daphne, outwardly cool, smiling and beautiful in her white evening clothes, greeted him.
 "Rather," he said, "and honored, of course. Won't you come in?"
 "Certainly," she said, and moved leisurely into the living room. There was an open suitcase on the lounge.
 "Going some place?" She sat down and reached for the cigaret box.
 "Yes," he said, "I was . . . er . . ."
 "Going to be married," she said, "I know. I know all about it." She kept her tone light and pleasant but her hand didn't light the cigaret because her hand shook.
 He lighted it for her and she blew smoke toward the ceiling. Still following its course with her eyes, she said, "Tuck, you let me down. You know I always admired you tremendously because you always played so fair."
 He didn't say anything. He poured himself a high ball and made much of getting exactly the right amount of soda. "Have one?"
 "No, thank you," she answered and thought: I must be careful to say the right thing.
 "We all slip on those things sometimes," she murmured, "but there's something else. I used to be a little sorry that I wasn't the right complement for you."
 "What do you mean?" he asked and put down his glass.
 "Oh, Tuck, you're so . . . such a worldly person, so balanced, so . . . oh, you're the cosmopolitan manner. Words, she thought, "You're the kind of person I thought should marry a girl who would be glamorous. A woman of the world. A woman who was always assured and, well, grownup."
 She glanced toward the table. "I think I will have a high ball."
 He poured it for her.
 "You know, of course, that I don't want to stand in your way if you want to marry Jennifer and if she wants to marry you, but Tuck!" She managed that look of perplexity—a flattering perplexity—perfectly. It isn't like you to rush into anything like this.
 "I know that Jennifer is pretty keen about you. She must have been because she's been sounding me out about how much money you have." She stopped off talking and sipped her drink while her last remark sank in. Then she went on.
 "You might make a good husband for Jennifer at that. She's frightfully extravagant, loves expensive clothes and servants just as much as you do." Daphne knew that sacrifice was not in Tuck's line. He loved his fine clothes, his expensive little apartment and Daphne knew that it took all his income to keep them up. She watched the dubious frown gather on his forehead.
 "She'll be true to you, Tuck. She's that kind because she is jealous. She knows what she wants and what she wants, she gets! But once she has got it, it belongs to her. I admire her possessiveness and her go-gettiness, too."
 Tuck drew in his breath. Daphne half-expected him to whistle. Instead he took a long swallow.
 "As a matter of fact I wouldn't be a bit surprised if this eloping idea was entirely Jennifer's."
 "It was," he said unexpectedly and Daphne hated him for it.
 Daphne laughed. "And you, Tucker Ainsley, to be taken in by such schoolgirl tactics! Well, that's up to you. Frankly, I think it might be a good idea. You're lots older than Jennifer and you'd have a steady influence but I would suggest that instead of running away you announce your engagement and give the child a chance to get ready for a real wedding, to get an apartment for the two of you. You'll need a much larger one than this, of course."
 Tuck got up and picked up the suitcase. He took it into the bedroom. Daphne gave herself the luxury of a great sigh of relief and stifled her smile of triumph as she came back.
 "Larry Smith is downstairs. Hurry up and get into your dinner jacket and we'll have a party. We'll go on with you wherever you are picking Jennifer up. Is it a go?"
 Daphne didn't think that Tuck could look sheepish. He did now.
 "Look," he said, "You do understand, don't you? Jen is a lovely little thing and we . . . well, it seemed like a good idea."
 "Of course it was," she said stoutly, "but I'm sure that you weren't getting the right break. You'd prefer that we announce the engagement, wouldn't you?"
 He caught his under lip and avoided her eyes. "You've given me something to think about. I mean that age angle. You're always right, Daphne. Jennifer is only 18 and I'm 30. Let's talk it over some other time."

 "All right," she said cheerfully. "You talk it over with Jennifer. Now, hurry."
 While she waited and powdered her nose, she thought: Daphne, for a quiet, conservative girl you do rather manage to pack the exciting things into your life. Well, a little more lipstick might help me to meet the fireworks. Because, my girl, there will be fireworks when sister gets this news.
 "Where is she?" she asked Tuck.
 "Tuck, arranging a dark red carnation in his lapel, wore the expression of a man who has been snatched from the edge of a burning pit."
 "She's with the Bakers. They're going to El Matador. I'm picking her up there."
 "Splendid! Larry and I had planned to go there."
 "Darling, we'll be able to go to El Matador, after all," she said to Larry and gave him a warning squeeze of the wrist for silence when they were three in the taxi.
 Jennifer saw them before they saw her. She was seated at a table hidden by palms while they stood at the plush rope. And she knew as surely as though it had been told her, that somehow Daphne had learned about her plans and had spoiled them.
 He lighted it for her and she blew smoke toward the ceiling. Still following its course with her eyes, she said, "Tuck, you let me down. You know I always admired you tremendously because you always played so fair."
 He didn't say anything. He poured himself a high ball and made much of getting exactly the right amount of soda. "Have one?"

truth, was something that Daphne never knew.
 For the next two hours while they danced at El Matador and later at the Hi Jinks club where they went to hear the songs of the latest French dissonance, Jennifer was gay. And so was Daphne. But when Daphne spoke to Jennifer, Jennifer did not answer.
 At last they were alone in their apartment. Jennifer undressed silently, bathed and got into her bed. Before she turned off the light, she said, "Daphne, I warned you that if I ever fell in love and you interfered, you'd be sorry. You will be!"

"ALL-BRAN SAVED ME FROM A LIFETIME OF SUFFERING"

"I had suffered from constipation for three years. My condition was becoming really serious, when I read of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN."
 "I bought a package. Within two weeks, my bowels were regular, and I began to enjoy living again. It has saved me from a lifetime of suffering."—Mrs. Lloyd Baird, 384 S. Bannock St., Denver, Colo.
 Try ALL-BRAN yourself. It corrects the common type of constipation. Within the body, it absorbs twice its weight in water, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily. Three times daily in severe cases. As a cereal with milk or cream, or in recipes.
 Isn't it better to eat this wholesome food than to take pills and drugs that may be harmful and often lose their effect? ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

CHAOS IN MERCHANT MARINE SITUATION ASSERTS COPELAND

BOSTON, March 12 (AP)—United States Senator Royal S. Copeland (D., N. Y.), father of the 1936 maritime act, described the situation of the United States merchant marine today as "one of chaos" and urged that the new maritime commission should have full responsibility for the development of shipping.
 "In my opinion," he said in an address prepared for delivery before the Boston chamber of commerce, "the prospects for the sort of an American merchant marine we need are at lower ebb than they have been since the period preceding the World war."
 He advocated that the maritime commission should have complete responsibility for the welfare of the merchant marine and "should proceed to formulate definite policies. Adjustment of the ocean mail contracts should proceed as soon as possible."
 Ship owners and seamen "have not yet learned the lesson which has been so beneficial to the railroads and railroad labor," he said. "So far as I can see, constant strife can result only in the complete destruction" of the industry.
