RANK WILDCAT SOUTH OF GRANITE RIDGE GETS OIL BATTLES APPEAR IMMINENT NEAR NOGALES AND JUAREZ

MONTEREY IS GOAL OF FIRST FEDERAL MOVE

Vera Cruz Is Bottled Up by Government Tactics

REBELS SCORE SOME SUCCESS

Points of Fighting to Converge Near Border

(By the Associated Press.) Military action on an extended scale marked the progress of the Mexican revolution today, both the government and rebels beginning troop movements in the north and south with heavy fighting in prospect.

Disturbed by the capture of Monterey, important strategic railway center, federal forces were marching from five directions on the capital of Nuevo Leon to drive out General Escobar, powerful rebel leader in control there.

Vera Cruz Cut Off For the moment the government appeared to be concentrating on Monterey being content merely to bottle up the city of Vera Cruz which has been cut off from the rest of the country.

In the north, the rebels appeared to have scored signal successes, but battle lines were being drawn at two points almost within gun range of the American border.

The rebels were reported to be en route to Juarez, across the border from El Paso, while loyal federalists were marching on Nogales, Sonora, now in rebel hands.

Reports of fighting favorable to the rebels at Mazatlan, Sinaloa, Torreon, Coahuila, and Cananea have been received while the rebels also claimed Chihuahua City.

The government has been using airplanes to drop propaganda leaflets asking the troops for loyalty and is claiming signal success with this method in some regions.

Tourists Not Alarmed American tourists in Mexico City are not much alarmed by the revolutionary situation, but talk is developing of asking for a special train to take them to Tampico whence they may sail for home.

EL PASO, March 6. (P)—Claims that Juarez will be in the hands of the revolutionists within 12 hours were made in Juarez today by revolutionary sympathizers.

WASHINGTON, March 6. (P)—The American consul at Vera Cruz reported to the state department today that the third battalion of the revolutionary garrison at Vera Cruz had mutinied at dawn today and was occupying half of the city.

NOGALES, Ariz., March 6. (P)—General Francisco Borquez, revolutionary commander of the northern section of Sonora, declared in a statement today from his headquarters in Nogales Sonora, that rebel forces steadily were converging toward the interior of Mexico.

REV. TODD AGAIN HEADS LIBRARY BODY

The Rev. James Todd was re-elected president of the Pampa Library association Monday night and D. E. Cecil was retained as treasurer in the annual election of officers. The election was held at the association's monthly business meeting in the library reading room at the Methodist church.

Other officers elected were: First vice-president, Mrs. B. E. Finley; second vice-president, Mrs. J. M. McDonald; third vice-president, Mrs. W. F. Campbell; fourth vice-president, Mrs. W. M. Craven; recording secretary, Mrs. Floyd A. Smith; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. W. Mitchell.

A committee appointed last night will consider several applications for the position of librarian and will make a selection immediately. Members of this committee are Mrs. B. E. Finley, Rev. James Todd, Mrs. H. D. Lewis, Mrs. C. E. Hutchins, and Miss Bernice Whiteley.

Two cash gifts of the business session announced during the business session One was a donation of $50 from Mrs. Gertha McConnell, and the other was $25 from J. C. McConnell. The association voted resolutions of appreciation to Miss Beulah Allred for her activities in securing books, magazines, and newspapers for the library. Miss Allred has written many of the country's leading publishers, asking donations for the public library. She has received a most gratifying response, and as a result of her efforts dozens of new volumes have been added to the shelves of the reading room, while three, sixmonth, or yearly subscriptions to good papers and magazines of all kinds have been obtained.

lco from Ortiz, Chihuahua, Durango, Torreon, Chihuahua City, and other strategic points.

"Controlling as we do Sonora, Sinaloa, Coahuila, Durango, Zacatecas, Nuevo Leon, Vera Cruz, Nayarit, and Jalisco, we can sweep down on the national capital from the north, east and west," the statement said.

"The greatest battle of the revolution probably will be fought in Jalisco or Guanajuato," it continued. "It is reported that General Calles plans to go to Irapuato to organize his forces for an intended invasion of Sonora. If this is true, I look for the issue to be settled near Guadalajara."

"Calles will find he cannot make much progress in Jalisco, which is in our control and is full of Catholics who have been persecuted by him in the past. Calles, in fact, will never be able to organize the Jalisco Catholics."

Gotham Agents Named NEW YORK, March 6. (P)—Telegrams naming him general representative of the Mexican rebellion in New York have been received by General Manuel Montero Villar.

He said he had appointed Ignacio Moran Y Mariscal as consul in New York for the revolutionaries.

General Montero Villar termed the rebel movement a cohesive effort on the part of all social classes in Mexico to rid themselves of the influence of former president Calles on the government of that country.

MEXICO CITY, March 6. (P)—The government today published this telegram from Ambassador Tellez at Washington: Arms Plan Revealed "As a result of a conference between President Hoover and Secretary Kellogg the state department is delivering to the press an announcement that the American government will furnish to the Mexican government upon solicitation arms and facilities for their exportation according to the needs of the Mexican government.

MALONE WELL NO. 1 TAYLOR IS SENSATION

Fluid Stands Thousand Feet in Hole at 3,068 Feet

NEW HIGH PAY FOUND IN GRAY

Horizon at 2,500 Feet Is Found Tuesday in Section 3

Oil in the hole at Malone et al's No. 1 Taylor, in the center of the north-west corner of section 22, block B-2, H. & G. N. survey, caused a flurry of excitement among local oil men yesterday. The wildcat is more than six miles south of production and the same distance west.

The test made several flows yesterday as the tools were pulled from the hole. It is estimated that more than 1,000 feet of oil is standing in the hole, but as gas is flowing at total depth the amount has not been estimated. The hole is bottomed at 3,068 feet, 18 feet above sea level.

Officials state that they will drill the test 10 feet deeper before testing. This important location is south of the granite ridge and gives promise of being the best producer south of the ridge. Other tests south are more than 10 miles northwest of the Malone well.

Practically all the major companies operating in Gray county hold leases near the new test.

Flowing from tap pay, Gardner, Collins et al's No. 1 Saunders, in the northeast corner of the south 49 acres of the west 100 acres of section 3, B. & B. survey, has what may develop into a good producer.

Pay in this test was encountered yesterday at 2,500 feet and the well began to spray about 5 barrels an hour. Drilling was stopped while storage was erected, but the spray increased until this morning the test was flowing at the rate of 250 barrels a day.

This test is one of the shallowest in Gray county. Ten million feet of gas was encountered 100 feet higher, although more gas was encountered with the pay.

The new well is located two miles east of LeFors and is a west offset to the Texas State bank and No. 3 Saunders, in the same section.

Founder of Buick Dies of Cancer

DETROIT, March 6. (P)—David D. Buick, founder of the Buick Automobile company, now a unit of the General Motors corporation, died of cancer here last night. He was 75 years old.

Mr. Buick, who was known as one of the pioneers of the automobile industry, died in comparative poverty. For the past two years he had held an instructorship in the Detroit school of trades.

In 1901 Mr. Buick was a wealthy man. After many unsuccessful adventures with "horseless carriages," during which he formed the Buick company, he lost his fortune, and asked W. C. Durant of the Durant-Dort Carriage company of Flint, to take over the tottering Buick company.

Durant did so. He sold $500,000 worth of stock in the enterprise and later organized the General Motors corporation, which he in turn lent to the Duponts and other capitalists.

Mr. Buick later engaged in other enterprises, none of which brought him success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denebein spent yesterday in McLean.

George Gill is transacting business in El Paso.

ENGLEWOOD, Colo., March 6. (P)—A man held up the Englewood State bank shortly after it opened today, locked three employees and two customers in the vault of the institution and escaped with $3,500. He over-looked $18,000 in currency lying in plain view. Englewood is a suburb of Denver.

WARMEST DAY OF 1929 IS ENJOYED ON NORTH PLAINS

Springlike weather today inspired spring-like manifestations. The temperature hiked to near 80 degrees in the shade, and a light south-west breeze contributed to the ideal character of the weather. Coats and vests were shed by many men, and perspiration was raised by laborers. Talk of golf, tennis, and baseball was heard in many groups.

HOUSE CARRIES MEASURE OVER MOODY'S VETO

Vote This Morning Is 112 to 18—Senate Went 24-6

LITTLE DONE TO IMPEDE PASSAGE

Petsch Claims Schools Entitled to the Property

AUSTIN, Mar. 6. (P)—Senator Clint C. Small's bill validating land titles crossing water courses became a law today when the house overrode Governor Moody's signature by a vote of 112 to 18.

The senate yesterday passed the bill, 24 to 6. Thunderous applause rolled up from the crowded gallery of West Texas land owners when acting speaker Fred Minor announced the final vote, the first move of the session to pass a measure over the objection of the state's chief executive.

Little Opposition The ballot came after more than an hour and a half of debate on the floor, consumed largely by proponents of the bill which affects river beds in 33 counties of the state.

Action on the measure was marked by unexpectedly feeble opposition. Rep. A. P. C. Petsch of Fredericksburg, administration floor leader, waging a fight almost singlehanded against what he declared was a steam roller, opposition to which "gained neither credit nor glory."

"The legislature never was intended to have the power to give away that which belongs to public schools of Texas, and by my vote I am going to act with the attorney general and governor," Petsch declared.

The Fredericksburg lawmaker defended Governor Moody's action in disapproving the bill by asserting that the state's chief executive might have taken the easy path and signed it, but that he followed his convictions.

WURZBACH CHARGES CREAGER EXACTED FUNDS FOR PUTTING NAMES ON REPUBLICAN TICKET

WASHINGTON, March 6. (P)—Charges that the republican organization in Texas controlled by R. B. Creager, national committeeman, "assessed" him $7,500 to put his name on the primary ballot as a candidate for congress in 1926 were laid before the senate patronage committee today by Representative Wurzbach, republican, Texas. He said he refused to pay the money.

"This is the organization," Chairman Brookhart said, "that never coerced anybody in Texas."

Wurzbach testified that a man he described as "Bob" Coon, a member of the Creager organization, declared the "assessment was made so high that Wurzbach couldn't pay but if he does we're going to use the money against him in the primary campaign." This information, Wurzbach said, was given him by three friends.

He added that he took the matter into the courts and obtained an order by which his name was placed on the ballot. His attorneys' fees, he said, were $1,200.

SLAYER OF WIFE IS SPIRITED INTO MEXICO

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 6. (P)—Like a startled escape, the flight of Walter Arredondo, charged with slaying his wife, Mrs. Reyes Rocha, Arredondo, from San Antonio to Mexico in a wooden box was told today by Miguel Padilla, charged with being an accessory, to investigators.

Three days after Mrs. Arredondo had been killed, Arredondo, concealed in a packing box, was placed on Padilla's truck and the bumpy journey to the border began, Padilla said. That night they reached Bracketville, Tex., where Arredondo was given into the care of a relative.

PARSONS BANK ROBBED

PARSONS, Kans., March 6. (P)—Two bandits today held up the west side Union State bank of Parsons and escaped in an automobile, with posses in pursuit, with about $1,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Penberg and Sam Clayman, who have spent the last three weeks in Hot Springs, Ark., have gone to Houston. They will return to their homes here next week.

Miss Cleo Olive went to Miami Monday, to attend funeral services for a cousin, Patricia Anne Coffee.

"It's Like This"

WHEN AND IF our city hall auditorium takes definite form, the question of disposition of the present buildings will arise.

A plan suggested to us appeals as having some good features. It is to alter the interior of the present city hall to form the sleeping and recreation quarters for the volunteer fire department. The fire boys are deserving of more consideration than they usually are given.

Later, when it were deemed expedient, the building for the fire department could be razed and a structure built large enough to accommodate more trucks. That day is perhaps too far away to worry about, and furthermore, the modern tendency is to establish substations, manned by one resident fireman and a few volunteers who sleep in them.

By leaving the fire department where it is, this division of the city would have more room than it likely would in the new structure, and the latter's cost would be considerably reduced. The city hall auditorium could be truly a municipal building, housing the city officials, including the Board of City Development, and providing in addition to an ample auditorium a rest room and a small club room. The city should provide quarters for the B. C. D., which now is paying rent.

This idea is merely suggestive. It fits well into the plan to make the city hall auditorium an appropriate center piece for a miniature public square. Visualize, if you will, broad walks around the entire square. Bordering the walks, on the inside, a heavy hedge, and just beyond it the broad expanse of well kept grass. In the center, a large, well proportioned building, not ornate especially but having the architecture to look well from whatever side approached.

On one side of the lawn place some kind of war memorial, perhaps a sizeable piece of artillery, with a tall flagpole beside it. And not far away, yet not too close, place a bandstand near enough to serve as a location for the band during patriotic services.

A pretty picture—one that would in all probability be worth its cost in the better impression that Pampa visitors—whether prospective manufacturers or laboring men—would take away with them. There is no denying that Pampa needs this finishing touch, this point of vantage, to round out the appearance of her business section.

WANTED — A COUNTY AGENT. Emphasis upon agriculture naturally brings up the subject of an agricultural agent. This service is one the farmer should demand as a recognition of his craft. The city, when it needs another policeman, a city manager, a chamber of commerce manager, or a health nurse, levies a small tax or takes money out of the general revenues.

The farmer pays tax money into the county treasury, and asks too little in return. Good county agents can and are doing much good. For verification, ask nearly any West Texas county which has had the service for a considerable period.

The Gray county commissioners cannot touch a magic button and obtain funds to pay for the proposed service. They have difficulties enough in meeting expenses and financing projects which already exist. They cannot, therefore, appropriate funds for the county's share of this state aid service without devising some plan for obtaining the money.

But considering the importance of the proposition, the worthiness of the cause represented, and the small cost involved, it should be possible to find a solution. Perhaps there is some other expenditure which has been too much favored in recent years. Maybe a budget or two can be pared, or economies effected that will enable Gray county to have a county agent.

The request for this A. & M. extension work must be made months in advance of the date it is desired that the work begin. Pampa should join McLean and Alanreed in recommending this very desirable service.

Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing prison, pondering over the fact that even the wisest and best-enforced laws somehow fail to stop crime, turns to consider the question: "What can be found that will do the job?"

The warden, it should be remarked, knows a good deal about his subject. At Sing Sing he has studied criminals of all types and conditions. He is a wise man, unswayed by prejudices and emotions, and his conclusions ought to carry some weight.

Newspapers and moving pictures, he complains, are often at fault, in that they represent the criminal as a dashing, picturesque fellow who lives a life of ease as a result of his nefarious ventures. In reality, he points out, that is a false picture; criminals are usually somewhat stupid and cowardly, and the average net profit in robbery or burglary is far less than most of us suppose.

Beyond this factor, however, Warden Lawes cites the fact that city children, particularly in the poorer districts, do not have a chance to play properly. They have to play in the streets; they form petty gangs, and out of sheer childish enthusiasm and animal spirits take to pranks and misdemeanors that eventually land them in criminal pursuits. Every additional playground is of incalculable value in cutting off recruits for the army of criminals.

Indeed, it is this work for and with children that the warden seems to consider the most important of all. Children must have a chance to play. They must be given training that will help them to restrain themselves and teach them the value of social order and discipline. They must be helped, in other words, to fit themselves for wholesome, constructive lives, rather than allowed to drift into paths that lead in the other directions.

Obviously, our policy and court systems need certain improvements to cope with the underworld; but just as obviously, it is even more important that we do something to prevent crime before they happen. Warden Lawes' words ought to get earnest consideration from everyone who wants to see our crime situation improved.—N. E. A.

Here's a hint for those favoring parking limitation: Omaha has "mail order" fines, and you are requested by the tags to mail $1.50 to the municipal court.

Down in Mexico a non-military man is considered not fit for president, and up here a non-politician has a hard time of becoming chief executive, although Hoover has done it.

One criticism of education is that many of its disciples have no power to determine relative values. Winning of a crucial basketball game at Michigan U. was taken as an excuse for the students to tear up a theatre.

It surely does seem paradoxical to have a bad cold and spring fever at the same time.

Hoover speaks much in epigrams. It is hard to argue with a man of such fixed principles.

Publicity may be a bad thing. Think of how much fun Lindy could have if he were free to wage a bit of war on those fight-loving Mexicans.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—The first Republican state organization was formed at Jackson, Michigan, on July 6, 1854. At the same time the first Republican state ticket was named, which afterward became victorious.

Thus Jackson lays claim to being the birthplace of the Republican party. Ripon, Wisconsin, the rival claimant in this 75th anniversary year of the G. O. P., had produced a local Republican organization in February, as narrated in a preceding article.

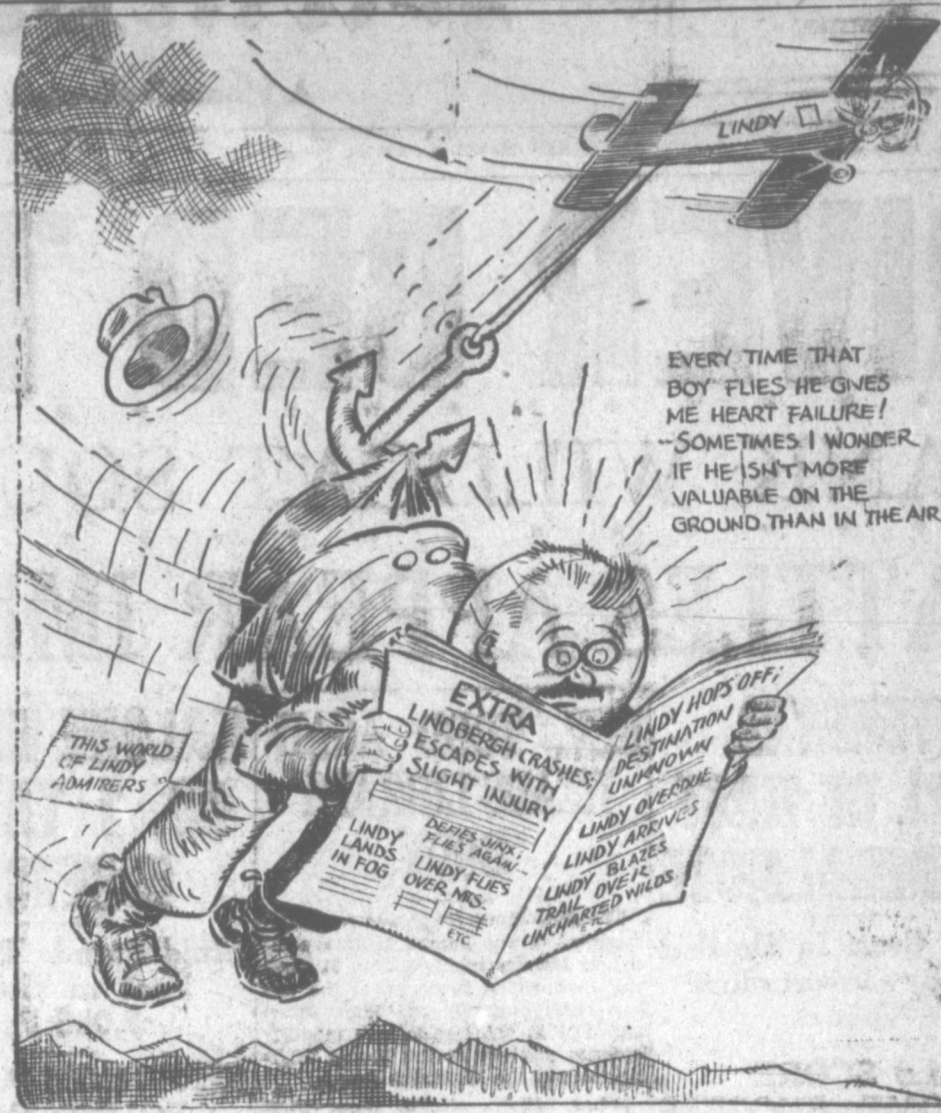

The joining of a moral and economic issue in the north produced the new movement and the first Republican state convention was attended by hundreds of leading business and professional men from all over Michigan. A similar combination was later to place prohibition in the federal statutes, but without creating an important new party or starting a war.

Anti-slavery Democrats of Michigan met at Jackson in February, 1854, and adopted strong resolutions against the spread of slavery and the proposed repeal of the Missouri Compromise in Congress. These were the "Free Democrats" and they nominated their own state ticket, which included some former Whigs.

The Detroit Tribune was inspired to begin a campaign for a new political coalition of all anti-slavery elements to oppose the regular Democrats in the 1854 elections. Joseph Warren, the editor, was largely instrumental in persuading the Free Democrats to withdraw their ticket and combine with the anti-slavery Whigs in launching the new party.

Ten thousand persons subsequently signed a call for a nonpartisan meeting at Jackson July 6 "to take such measures as shall be thought best to concentrate the popular sentiment of this state against the aggression of the slave power." This call stated that the "slave power" had triumphed, that liberty had been trampled underfoot, that a vast territory dedicated to freedom had been opened to slavery, that the great wrong must be righted if the north were to figure in the councils of the nation and that northern rights, national safety, interests of free labor and "the high aspirations of humanity for universal freedom" were involved in the issue.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By HERBERT C. PLUMMER

WASHINGTON—United States marines from Nome to Madagascar have long wondered where their commandant, Maj. Gen. John A. Lejeune, got the nickname "Gabe," and why.

Every "leatherneck" has heard it at one time or another and guessed that it had some historic significance. We picked it up the other day from one of his old cronies.

FROM LAZY LOWLANDS

Young Lejeune came to Annapolis back in the eighties from what is considered the lowlands of Louisiana—Pointe Coupee parish, just a few miles above New Orleans. People who come from this section long have been accused of taking things a bit easier than those farther north. In fact, a good many naturally regard lack of speed as a distinguishing characteristic of these people.

So Cadet Lejeune was not long at the academy before his ability to sleep at any time, under any conditions, and for what appeared to his classmates an interminable length of time, became well known and a source of merriment.

One morning the young Louisianian stuck to his bunk even longer than usual. Regulations as to rising were strict, and it looked as if he would be chucked up as tardy. One of his close friends started for his room. When asked where he was going, he flung back over his shoulder:

"I've got to wake Lejeune up. If I don't that man will sleep until Gabriel blows his trumpet."

From that time on he was to be known as "Gabe." However, no one but those in the class of '88 has dared to so refer to his weakness along this line.

THOSE SENATE BOYS

The zeal of those gentlemen in the United States senate who sit on opposite sides of the chamber, to seize every opportunity of taking a political crack at each other, offers some of the most amusing incidents to be found anywhere.

For example, Senator Smoot of Utah returned from Florida and tariff conferences with Mr. Hoover in time to deliver an address in the senate on the occasion of Lincoln's birthday anniversary. For more than 30 minutes the republican senator held forth eloquently on the ideals and democratic principles of the great president.

No sooner had the last word been uttered than Senator Bruce arose.

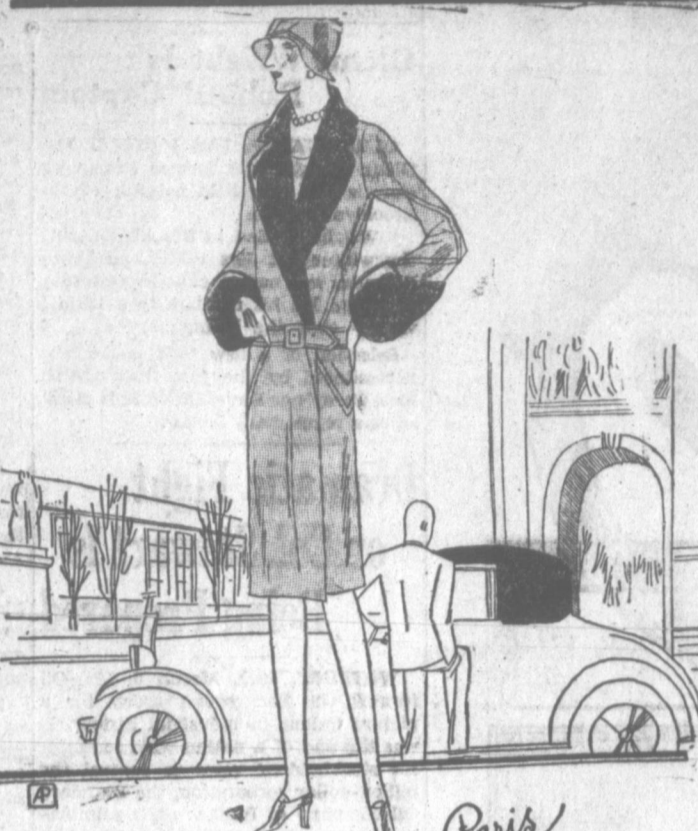

"Mr. President," he said, "I wish to ask the senator from Utah whether there is any reason to hope that the democratic spirit of Mr. Lincoln, and his ideas about equal justice to all men, will enter into the composition of the tariff that the senator from Utah is now so active in helping to frame?"

Smoot was caught off guard. His face flushed and with a gulp he arose and stammered:

"I will say I sincerely hope so."

Mr. and Mrs. William Barnett, formerly of Vernon, moved to Pampa this week. Mr. Barnett is with the Gordon stores.

MAIL FOR EAKER IS BEING SENT TODAY

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—Capt. Ross G. Hoyt of the army air corps, hopped off from Bolling field today at 4:25 a. m., on a non-stop flight to Kelly Field, Texas, to turn over to Capt. Ira C. Eaker mail for high officials of Central and South American governments.

Captain Hoyt, who with Captain Eaker was a member of the crew of the record-breaking plane, the Question Mark, plans to stop only once, at Kelly field, on the round trip flight.

Captain Eaker expects to leave March 10 on a dawn-to-dusk flight from Brownsville, Texas, to Panama, and will carry official mail from Washington to the Latin-American capitals.

RIVERS OF SOUTH ARE FLOODING LOW AREAS

ATLANTA, Ga., March 6. (AP)—The South today looked to fair and colder weather for relief from the general rains of the last week that have sent rivers and streams to high levels.

Expert telephone workers begin task of constructing 2,500 mile network of underground cable.

UNDERGROUND—beneath fields and valleys, across mountains, under rivers—will go the wires of a new long distance telephone system, built to serve the Southwest.

Twenty-five hundred miles in length, costing 45 million dollars, the new system will consist of underground telephone cable—a "subway" for your voice—safe, fast, modern.

Safe from Interruption

Its purpose: To provide enough circuits to care for growing long distance traffic—to insure that these circuits will rarely be interrupted by storms, fires, floods.

Heretofore, most long distance lines have been constructed overhead and interruptions of service from such causes have been emergencies to be feared.

Completed, the system will mean causing extensive flood damage and impairing rail and highway traffic in some sections. Two trains due in Macon from Atlanta late last night were held up, while others were able to move slowly through the water which was three feet over the rails.

Rivers in Southern Alabama were above flood stage with thousands of acres inundated. The streams were still rising with the prospect that many lowlands would be evacuated.

SLAYER OF GIRL IS EXECUTED AT BOSTON

BOSTON, March 6. (AP)—George E. H. Taylor, 47-year-old itinerant barber, street dancer, coal miner, and former convict, was executed today at Charlestown state prison for the murder in June, 1927, of Stella Pomikala, 21-year-old Lawrence girl.

Last night he was baptized by the Rev. William B. Whitney, Protestant chaplain at the prison, and a few minutes before midnight he was given communion.

Seventeen Die of Poison Beverage

PEORIA, Ill., March 6. (AP)—More names appeared on the poison liquor death list today, and the total stood at 17.

Two men and their wives were held for murder. It is charged they furnished the poison drink. Another man is charged with manslaughter.

The federal prohibition department has entered the investigation in an effort to trace the poison to its source. Morris Mansfield, one of those held under a murder charge, said he obtained his liquor supply from a Chicago dealer.

The beverage that resulted in the 17 deaths, the blinding of several persons and the serious illness of dozens more, contained 15 per cent wood alcohol, according to a chemist's report.

long distance service more dependable than ever before.

It will be fast. Some cables contain more than 300 circuits—as many wires as ten heavy pole lines carry.

It will be safe—from wind storms, from sleet, from fire.

"Repeaters" Boost Voice Waves

It will be dependable. At 50-mile intervals "repeater" stations as large as the ordinary exchange building will be erected. Here the voice current will pass through powerful vacuum tubes, going on its way with renewed strength.

Further, by acting as a trunk line for long-haul traffic, the cable will release hundreds of miles of long distance pole lines. These will be free to handle traffic over shorter distances, between smaller towns.

Here, indeed, is a project that provides a modern rapid-transit system for your voice!

Southworth Is Driving His Men Hard in Florida

By BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
AVON PARK, Fla., March 6. (AP)—It is true that uneasy lies the head that wears the crown of manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, Billy Southworth is concealing it. In spite of the fact that he is the fourth manager of the Red Birds in four years, the little outfielder for all appearances is nonchalant.

The former pennant winning Rochester pilot believes in hard work and more of it. No club in Florida is working such long hours and at such speed as the National league champions.

A training camp innovation has been made by the construction of two batting cages, in addition to the regular batting practice at the plate and three divisions take many cuts at the ball during practice. Southworth also has two pitchers alternating in pitching to the batters.

Changing Infield

The Cards are committed to one infield change and there may be more. Charley Gelbert, the sensational young shortstop from Rochester, will play short. Gelbert may face the handicap of too much boosting.

If Charley Selph, from Houston, comes up to specifications he will go to second base with Frankie Frisch moving over to third. If a tour of bench duty is considered necessary for Selph's baseball welfare, Fred Haney, former Detroit player, and the versatile Andy High are available for third. Jim Bottomley gets renomination at first base.

There are only six outfielders on the roster, including Manager Southworth who probably will fill a utility role. Walter Rottger, who was batting at a terrific clip when he broke his leg July 4, seems to have recovered. Taylor Douthit and Chick Hafey will hold over in the other outfield posts. This arrangement will leave Ernest Ossati and Roscoe Holm as reserves with the manager.

Plenty of Catchers

Jimmy Wilson will do most of the catching with the veteran Earl Smith available as first assistant. The other catching assignment awaits a contest between Gus Mancuso and Clarence Jonnard.

The pitching mainstays all know their way about. Grover Cleveland Alexander is the youngest player in the camp. He fields bunts by the hour and will be the first pitcher ready to take a turn. Willie Sherdel, Jesse Haines, Clarence Mitchell, and Sylvester Johnson will complete the big five.

Herman Bell, back for another chance, and Frankhouse and Haid, who were on the club last year, should stick and two Texas leaguers, Bill Hallahan and Harold Elliott, have a chance.

The Cards, in addition to a new manager have two new coaches, both returning to the major leagues after a long absence. Earl "Greasy" Neale, former Cincinnati outfielder, has been coaching at the University of Virginia and Harold Elliott, have a chance. And Charles "Gabby" Street, once a great Washington catcher, has been managing in the minors.

White Sox Seen in Short Game

DALLAS, March 6 (AP)—Some idea of what Lena Blackburne intends to do with his large crop of ball players was obtained today when he sent the White Sox through an abbreviated ball game.

Blackburne announced his regular lineups Mostil, Barrett and Reynolds in the outfield; Shires on first, Kerr at second, Cissell at shortstop, Kamm on third and Crouse catching. Only Barrett and Mostil appear uncertain to appear in the starting lineup when the season opens. Clarence Hoffman, a rookie, and Alex Metzke, who has not yet reported, are scheduled to hold down two of the outfield berths.

With the retirement of Kamm as field captain, Blackburne has named Art Shires to hold down the job temporarily. Other players, however, will be tried during the pre-season games.

Great Auto Show Leveled by Fire

LOS ANGELES, March 6. (AP)—The Los Angeles automobiles show, composed of 300 cars, several airplanes and motor boats, was in ruins today after a fire which swept the four large tents in which it was housed. Loss was estimated at $1,250,000.

About 2,500 persons who were in the tents when the fire started yesterday left quietly while the orchestra continued with its program.

The cause of the fire was thought to have been sparks from an electric circuit or flame from the exhaust of an airplane motor. The wings of a plane first caught fire and the flames soon consumed one of the tents and spread to the others.

The first oil test in Brooks county has been spudded by the American Maracabo company. The test is on acreage blocked by W. G. French in the southwest corner of the county, and some of the tract extends into the northeast corner of Starr county and the northwestern corner of Hidalgo county.

THIRD TRACK TITLE IN ROW IS GOAL OF STANFORD TEAM

ERIC KRENZ

"DINK" TEMPLETON

Stanford's brilliant young coach—"Dink" Templeton—has four mainstays among his 1929 track prospects. Two of them are Nichols and Krenz.

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—In the huge Stanford stadium which constitutes his outdoor workshop, Coach R. L. "Dink" Templeton of Stanford University is building another great track and field machine with which he hopes to win a third successive national championship this year.

Four dependable point gatherers form the nucleus for the 1929 Cardinal and White team. As many more regulars, but of less certain quality, will help the cause along.

Capt. Ross Nichols, hurdler; Ward Edmonds, pole vaulter, and Eric Krenz and Harlow Rotherth, weight men are the mainstays. All are expected to either dominate their divisions, or give mighty good accounts of themselves.

Coch Templeton is experimenting, with Edmonds as a potential hurdler and the latter has shown much ability in early tryouts. Nichols is looked upon as a certain winner in all high barrier events, while if Edmonds develops as his coach expects, several extra points may be added to the total.

In the weights Rotherth and Krenz hold out a country-wide challenge. Both are in the 50-foot class of shot-putters while this season, Krenz is charged with the duty of bringing a new discus throw record to Stanford.

Last year in several practice heaves, Krenz surpassed the present world's record. One of his throws sailed a few inches past the 160-foot mark.

Kim Dyer and Fred Zombro, a pair of broad jumpers Fred Kibby and Bill Sparling, javelin throwers and Johnny Lauritzen in the sprints, are other experienced men ready for service.

In the ranks of the unknown rests Coach Templeton's hopes in some events, especially the long distance jaunts. Henry Coe, mile and two-miler, is gone. Stanford is hardest hit in the 440-yard dash and high jump, ruled last year by Emerson Spencer and Bob King, respectively. Spencer established the new world's record for 400 meters while King is the Olympic games high jump champion.

J. D. Merriman, business manager of the Panhandle Herald, was a business visitor in this city yesterday afternoon.

Glenn Wright Is Robins' Captain

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 6. (AP)—Glenn Wright, the former Pittsburgh star, is the new field captain of the Brooklyn Robins.

Wright, traded to Brooklyn during the winter for Jess Petty and Harry Riconda, was named captain yesterday and then led his regnars to a 15 to 1 victory over the Ynnigans.

Selection of a new field leader was necessitated by the fact that neither Max Carey nor Dave Bancroft is classed as a regular any longer.

Dramatic Fight on Col. Stewart Is Being Prepared

WHITING, Ind., March 6. (AP)—Oil formed the background today for a picture unique in industrial history. It was the end of a nation-wide scramble for stockholders' votes to control the billion-dollar corporation, the Standard Oil company of Indiana—the culmination of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.' fight to force Colonel Robert W. Stewart from the chairmanship of the board of directors.

To care for the influx of stockholders tomorrow to attend the annual meeting, restaurants were stocked with supplies for the anticipated 2,000 visitors and hotels expected to have all rooms taken, for indications were the meeting would last at least two days.

The story and half community house on company property was fitted out like a political convention hall, with batteries of telegraph and telephone wires under the auditorium stage, press tables in the pit, and loud speakers linking the men's and women's gymnasiums with the main hall.

Indeed, Whiting expected to witness a real convention fight, with Col. Stewart sounding the keynote in his annual business report, Rockefeller representatives presenting their side of the argument, and individual stockholders being heard from the floor. Mr. Rockefeller himself is in Egypt.

He will act as chairman to open the meeting and then is expected to surrender the chair to E. G. Seubert, president, as he did last year, inasmuch as he is under fire. Winthrop W. Aldrich, New York attorney, will be on hand to speak for John D. Jr., in any fight which may develop. He arrived in Chicago Monday with 16,000 proxies in metal cases under armed guard.

DALLAS, March 6. (AP)—A pipeline from the Shell Petroleum company's wells in the Bruper field to a junction with its line near Austin is planned. A right-of-way for the line is being leased by the Shell Pipeline company. D. D. Peavey, in charge of this work, said.

MIKADO

MIAMI, Fla., March 6. (AP)—Jack Dempsey left Miami and Miami Beach last night for New York, not as former heavyweight champion, but in his role of successful promoter of the recent battle between Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling.

"I don't know what I'll do yet," he said. "I have three things before me, but I can not say yet what the next step will be."

One of the three lines of activity facing Dempsey is understood to be a berth with the Garden corporation as a promoter.

He has an offer from Humbert Fugazy, former rival of Tex Rickard, for a partnership in a two-man firm of promoters.

The third opportunity for continued association with the business side of fighting, he said, is a proposition to go in with Floyd Fitzsimmons of Detroit in the development of a world's championship lightweight fight between Sammy Mandell, champion, and Ray Miller, Michigan youth, who has forged to the upper part of the list in his class.

And then, of course, Dempsey may decide to don the gloves again.

Jack said he had made an offer to Paulino Uzcudun, Spanish battler, for a bout with Sharkey, the former having asked for a guarantee of $100,000.

daughter of Colby Lester, the finest and most honorable criminal lawyer it has ever been my privilege to know. "Where shall we eat, darling?" Jack asked, when they were upon the street. "Anywhere but the Chester Hotel," Ruth shuddered. "How about our own little tearoom? But no! We've been too happy there. Let's not go back there until we've waked up from this awful nightmare." "Then the Colonnade is as good a place as any," Jack decided. "I want to talk, and there's no chance in this mob. Since it's a cafeteria, there won't be any waiter hanging over us," he added grimly, as he guided her through the storm doors. A few minutes later they deposited their lightly burdened trays upon a small table in a far corner of the big, noisy room. Ruth automatically raised a spoon of vegetable soup to her lips, then repudiated it with a violent gesture. "Oh, Jack, I can't eat! Talk to me—say something! Oh—I'm sorry! But—it's been so—so horrible!" Jack Hayward quietly laid down his fork and reached for the girl's twisting, cold hands. "You want me to say I didn't do it, don't you, darling? Do I have to say it in so many words? Well, then, darling—I didn't kill Borden."

Lindbergh Must Await Repairs to Damaged Plane

MEXICO CITY, March 6. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh is enjoying the relative obscurity into which the revolution has thrown him. Since the beginning of the rebellion Sunday, newspapermen here have been too busy with news of the revolt to do much more than keep an eye on him to be sure he does not depart suddenly or elope with his fiancée, Miss Anne Morrow. While the revolt has given him a breathing spell he is known, nevertheless, to be impatient to get back to the United States. Rail communication with the states is cut off while at Valbena field it is said repairs on his airplane are still proceeding.

Hoover Grets 2,444 Callers First Day

WASHINGTON, March 6. (AP)—President Hoover soon is to issue the call for the special session of the seventy-first congress for the consideration of farm relief and limited revision of the Fordney-McCumber tariff act. He had called in Representative Tilson of Connecticut, the republican leader of the house, for a conference today to discuss the date for the convening of the law-making body, a matter depending upon how soon the house ways and means and agriculture committees can have the bills in shape for presentation.

The majority leader has estimated that this could be by April 19 and if the chief executive is convinced that this estimate is accurate the call probably will be for that day. In fact he faced a day very similar to yesterday when he was kept busy receiving delegations and individuals and giving his attention to official business during a work day that began a few minutes before 9 a. m., and ended at a little after 6 p. m.

Mr. Hoover shook hands with 2,444 callers yesterday and the expectation was that the crowds today would be only a little smaller. The chief executive is getting pleasure out of these contacts with the people and those about him predict that he will receive large crowds every day.

Wind Damage to Wheat Is Large

Monday's wind storm caused more damage to wheat crops in this vicinity than any previous blow of the season, farmers and elevator men say. Some wheat that was thought to have been firmly rooted was torn up and blown away. Fine dirt was blown over fields burying the crops in places.

Many farmers in this territory have already purchased wheat from local elevators and plan to sow spring wheat. Where land had been finely worked, the grain was torn up and blown away and in many instances will have to be re-sown.

There is still considerable moisture in the ground, farmers report, but more rain would help.

Despite severe winds and irregular moisture, early estimates of wheat in this section are favorable. That the crop will be larger than last year is predicted by some observers.

Child Is Missing After House Fire

CORSICANA, March 6. (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin early today destroyed a 10-room residence in the eastern part of Corsicana. The loss was estimated at $7,000.

Firemen were searching the ruins for a possible victim, after a check revealed that a small child was missing.

A high wind caused the blaze to endanger the plant of the Navarro Cotton Oil company and the yards of the American Well & Prospecting company.

Justice Holmes 88 on March 8

Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, a U. S. supreme court justice since his appointment by President Roosevelt in 1902, will be 88 years old March 8. This is the distinguished jurist's most recent and best photo. He is a son of the famous poet, Oliver Wendell Holmes, and was wounded at Ball's Bluff, Va., in 1861 while his company of Massachusetts infantry was storming a Confederate position.

Strother-Trulove Recital Enjoyed by Audience Which Fills Auditorium

Joe Strother, brilliant young musician of Amarillo, "came back home" last night to appear in one of the outstanding recital events of the season. With him on the program at the First Methodist church was Mrs. Otis Trulove, accomplished soprano of the First Street Methodist church of Amarillo. Some of the most enjoyable compositions, sacred, classical, and ballad were presented. Mrs. Trulove chose works of Gounod, Rasbach, Cadman, and Terry for her opening numbers, then sang such numbers as Pale Moon, Indian Love Call, and Danny Boy, and concluded with old-time favorites, including Old Patch Work Quilt and My Laddie.

Mr. Strother chose some of the better known pieces from Beethoven, Handel, and Gabriel-Marie, and ended this group with Gounod's March Romaine. "Joe," as he is affectionately known to his many friends here, selected numbers which especially demonstrated the range of the pipe organ which he was first to play when it was installed a few months ago.

He could not, of course, finish without answering requests for many old-time favorite tunes. The large auditorium was well filled. Near the conclusion of the program an offering was made to the pipe organ fund.

Highway Bond Bill Loaded Down by Amendments Regarded as Objections

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP)—The house today was faced with disposal of two knotty propositions, overriding the governor's veto of the Small river bond validating bill and the $175,000,000 state-wide highway bond issue plan.

The river bond bill was set down for special order of business yesterday, and the resolution proposing a constitutional amendment to permit issuance of bonds for building highways will reach the floor on a minority committee report.

The senate yesterday voted to pass the Small bill over the governor's veto, 24 to 6. The house must give the bill a 2-to-1 vote to enact it in face of executive disapproval.

Proponents of the land bill are confident they will have the needed votes. Proponents and opponents of the highway bond issue are claiming victory.

The house committee has voted twice not to favor the bond issue. The first time a minority report was ordered printed and sponsors of the plan will bring it up for final action this time in the same manner.

The committee was instructed by the house yesterday to make its report on the resolution, sponsored in the senate by Senator Walter Woodul of Houston, and passed out of the upper house by a bare two-thirds majority of 21 votes.

Before voting to report the resolution unfavorably, Representative Preston L. Anderson of San Antonio had succeeded in placing in its amendments which make it repugnant to its sponsors. He put in the provisions that in the event bonds are issued the proceeds shall be expended by an elective highway commission, no bonds shall mature later than 10 years, the bonds in excess of $10,000,000 could not be issued annually, and that lateral roads should be included as beneficiaries of the proceeds.

SPEAKER BARRON OPERATED UPON FOR APPENDICITIS

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP)—W. S. Barron, speaker of the house, was recovering today from an operation for appendicitis last night. The operation was successful and the patient was resting comfortably, physicians said. Although ill, Mr. Barron continued to preside until noon yesterday.

Mrs. W. C. Mitchell and daughter, Miss Ruth Anne, are visiting in Elk City.

Tom Taggart Is in Critical Condition

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 6. (AP)—Thomas Taggart, veteran Indiana Democrat leader, died at his home here today following an illness of several months. He was 72 years old.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 6. (AP)—The condition of former Senator Thomas Taggart, Indiana democratic leader was so critical this morning that attending physicians had practically given up hope that he could survive the day.

Mr. Taggart has been in poor health for months and last fall underwent an operation to relieve acute stomach trouble. He is 72 years of age.

His illness prevented him from attending the democratic national convention last year, the first he had missed in many years.

Legion to Give Scholarship Medal

The Pampa American Legion post will present a silver medal to the student of the 1929 graduating class who has the highest grade average.

The post also plans to present to the school a flag and flag-pole, it was decided at a meeting of the Kerley-Crossman post last night in the Legion home.

The committee in charge of the automobile show reported that the Legion had made $950 and that the money would be used to help pay off the debt against the home. Redecorating the home and other expenses placed the post in debt, but by hard work the members have paid most of the cost.

Plans are being made for Legion members to address classes in the Pampa school district on patriotic subjects.

Baby Beef Sale Held in Amarillo

AMARILLO, March 6. (AP)—The annual convention of the Panhandle Livestock association closed today with an auction sale of baby beefs.

An average of $341 per animal was realized on 39 head of registered herefords auctioned yesterday. A yearling heifer put up by F. M. Love of Dumas, Texas, brought the top, $1,000.

Many of the visiting cattlemen will remain over until Thursday to attend funeral services for Pat Landergin, 75, veteran cowman, who died here Monday night. The convention held memorial services for Landergin, as well as for Lee Bivins, Fred Hornsburch and John Fickett, other leaders of the cattle industry who died recently.

Landergin owned approximately 200,000 acres of ranch land at the time of his death.

Stressman Talks on Minority Peoples

GENEVA, March 6. (AP)—Speaking calmly and eloquently before the League of Nations council, Dr. Gustav Stresemann, the German foreign minister, today delivered an address in behalf of improved protection for the rights of minority peoples.

There was no trace of the explosive emotion he had displayed at the League session of the council in December when he had a wordy altercation with Foreign Minister Zaleski of Poland over the question of German minorities in Polish upper Silesia.

Proposing the creation of a special commission to study the whole problem of minorities, Dr. Stresemann declared in solemn tones that the peoples attached to nations not their own have "eternal right to speak their own language and to keep their souls and faith."

Coolidge Settles Down as Citizn

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., March 6. (AP)—Calvin Coolidge settled down today to the quiet ways of his New England neighbors.

Yesterday was a day of homecoming, of an enthusiastic reception from his fellow townsmen and of poking about his half of the frame double-house on Massachusetts street, to see that everything was as it should be. But today there was time for throwing himself thoroughly into the role of a private citizen.

There were old friendships to be renewed, a visit to be made to Mrs. Coolidge's mother, who is seriously ill at a hospital. Mrs. Coolidge hoped for a let-up in the continual drizzle that followed her from Washington, in the hope that she might be able to indulge in her favorite recreation of walking.

Bank Examiner Choice Attacked

AUSTIN, March 6. (AP)—Three residents of Yoakum protesting confirmation of the reappointment of James Shaw as state bank commissioner testified today before the senate committee on governor's nominations.

O. R. Davis, former vice-president of the closed Yoakum state bank; B. H. Treby, former cashier, and Dr. C. L. Kopecky, former member of the board of directors, told of incidents leading up to the closing of the institution.

One of the charges against Shaw was he failed to abide by a promise to recognize the bank as solvent if certain requirements were met.

WHEAT SLIGHTLY LOWER

CHICAGO, March 6. (AP)—Wheat prices displayed an early downward trend today, influenced more or less by European reports of cheaper Canadian offerings and of selling pressure from Argentina.

Opening unchanged to 1-2c off, Chicago wheat later underwent a sag all around. Corn and oats were also easy, with corn starting unchanged to 3-8c down, and afterward holding near to initial figures. Provisions advanced.

PERPETUAL STOWAWAY BOUND FOR TROPICS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6. (AP)—Far out on the Pacific bound for the tropical isles of Tahiti, Miss Hazel Cooke, San Francisco society girl, today was helping the Stewards aboard the liner, Tahiti, because she is a stowaway.

Mrs. William J. Kierferdorf, wife of a prominent San Francisco banker and mother of Miss Cooke, yesterday received a radiogram from the skipper of the Tahiti saying the girl had turned up as a stowaway and asking for instructions.

"Put her to work," Mr. and Mrs. Kierferdorf radioed back.

In her 18 years of life Miss Cooke has crossed the Pacific more than a dozen times, and knows the Orient almost as well as her native land. But the lure of travel has always held her.

AMERICAN INDUSTRIES OF MEXICO NOT YET HALTED
NEW YORK, March 6. (AP)—Millions of dollars of American money are invested in the Mexican revolutionary area but advices reaching here are that mining operations are going on as usual.

Officials of the Greene Cananea Copper company, which has properties at Cananea in the state of Sonora said they had received word that there had been no interruption in work at its mines.

John D. Ryan, chairman of the board of the Anaconda Copper Mining company, said there had been no interruption in the company's work and that none was expected as most of its Mexican property is located near the American border.

In addition to copper mines there are many valuable American oil concessions, banana plantations and cattle ranches in the territory now in revolt. Most American oil properties in the state of Vera Cruz, however, are in the north, which is in federal hands.

Mrs. W. B. Huddleston and Mrs. Orville O'Hair are spending the day in Amarillo.

LAND BILL—

it, and it is manifestly unfair to sit here in the legislature and see men cheated of that which is rightfully theirs.

Scouts Pollard Opinion
Graves said that he would have followed the governor's course in submitting the bill to the attorney general's department for a ruling as to its legality, but maintained the opinion was not worthy of consideration.

Reading from a supreme court opinion Representative Coke R. Stevenson of Junction, maintained that the legislature did not have to charge the attorney general with incompetency in ignoring his report on the bill.

"The legislature clearly has the power to validate any void sale," Stevenson said. "That opinion has been rendered by one of Texas' greatest statesmen, Charles A. Culberson."

YOUNG GIRL KIDNAPED IN MISSISSIPPI TOWN

PRENTISS, Miss., March 6. (AP)—A 16-year-old girl was in a serious condition here today after she reported being kidnaped yesterday by a white man.

The girl, Shirley Dumas, stumbled into the home of Luke Allen, farmer, last night. Her clothes were torn and her face and body were bruised.

She said she was riding alone in her car after school when a man jumped on the running board of her car, climbed into the rear seat and shoved a pistol against her back. He ordered her to drive out of town, she said, and after an hour ordered her to park the car at the side of the road. From that point she declared she remembered nothing.

BIG BUS DESTROYED

ABILENE, March 6. (AP)—Fire destroyed a $13,000 bus of West Texas Coaches company near here today. Twenty-two passengers escaped without injury and salvaged their baggage. Faulty ignition ignited the gas tanks, officials said.

Morris Levine of Amarillo and William Levine of Vernon were business visitors in this city yesterday.

Mrs. W. E. Stocker of Miami was a shopper in this city yesterday.
