ROBBERS KILL GREENVILLE MAN

GIANT BURNING GASSER SHOT OUT AT DAWN TODAY

OFFSETS WILL BE DRILLED BY THREE FIRMS

Oil Prospects Under Big Gas Encourage Work

MANY PERSONS VISIT BLAZE

Crumpled Steel Removed With Difficulty Last Night

The huge flame at the burning Brown-Finley No. 1, a Marland well, was successfully shot out about 6 o'clock this morning by W. C. Brooks of the New Mexico Glycerin company, almost exactly 24 hours after the gas was ignited.

Faith in the territory surrounding the Marland Production company's No. 1 Brown-Finley, in the northeast corner of the east half of section 32, block B-3, which struck the big gas yesterday morning and then caught fire, was shown when three locations for offsets were made yesterday and today.

The first offset to the important test was made by the Texas company. The test will be an east offset in the northwest corner of the west half of section 29, block B-2. This test will be drilled on the C. C. Cook and Siler Faulkner lease.

The second offset yesterday was made by the Phillips Petroleum company. It will be a north offset in the southeast corner of the east 90 acres of section 31, block B-2, on the J. H. Palmer lease.

Today the Operators Oil company will make a location for No. 1 C. C. Cook and Siler Faulkner, in the southwest corner of the west 90 acres of section 30, block B-2.

These important locations are offsets to the Marland Production company's semi-wildcat test located half way between production in the Bowers-McGee and LeFors pools. The Marland test is more than two miles from production east and west with no production north or south.

The test was drilling at 2,785 feet when the big gas was encountered. A show of oil was picked up at 2,640 feet.

The red glare from the burning well, thrown against light clouds overhead last night, could be seen for many miles, and the flame itself, shooting at times as high as 100 feet into the air as the wind calmed, was visible from the second stories of local houses.

The need for a new and more direct road to this area of the nearby oil field was evident enough to those who went to the well either by way of LeFors or through the winding, canyon-like route through the Bowers pool.

Many people gathered at the well to watch efforts to bring the roaring monster under control. It was the largest well fire in this district for many months, although the gas probably was not more than 20,000,000 cubic feet daily. Sun-like illumination was provided within a range of nearly a mile. The heat was uncomfortable closer than 200 feet of the great torch, and the Marland employes who tugged at the twisted, crumpled steel derrick were asbestos suits.

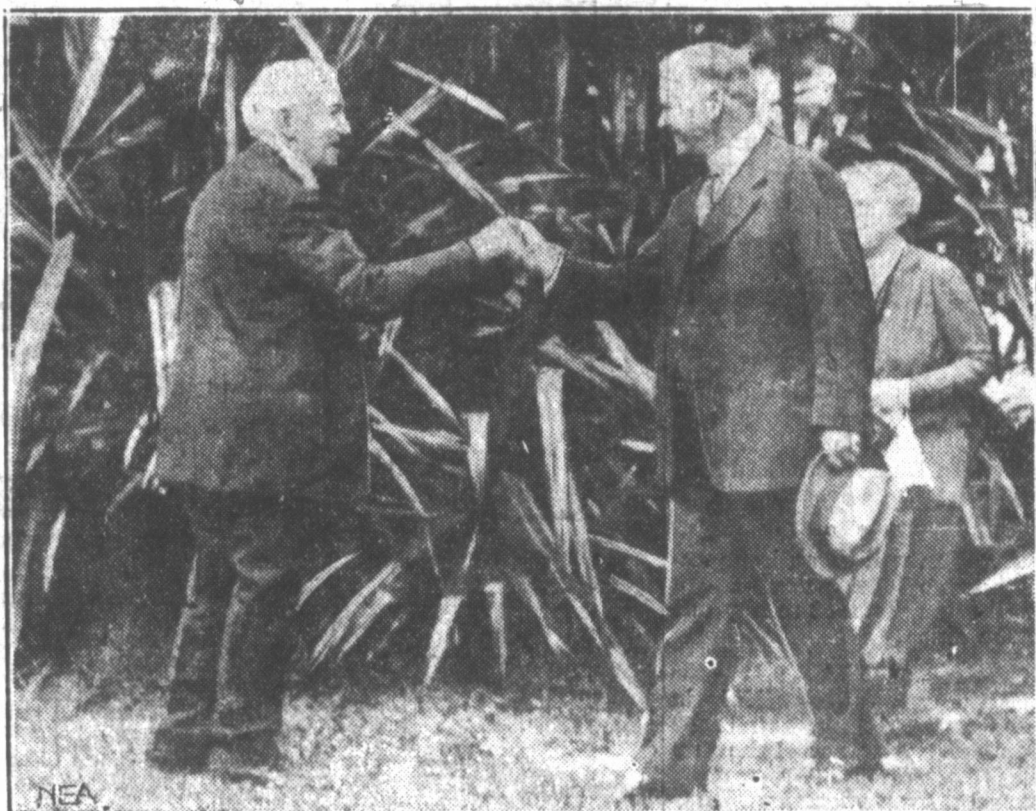

It was planned to attempt shooting out the flame about 4 a. m., but the heated, tangled mass of steel could not be entirely removed by that time. While the main portion of flame was in the 6-inch casing, considerable gas from around the bradhead was burning in the cellar and keeping the metal at a red glow.

THE WEATHER VANE

WEST TEXAS: Fair, colder in north and west portions tonight; Saturday fair, colder in east portion.

DALLAS, (P)—Gentlemen. Prefer Blonds? was the weekly attraction at a negro picture show here recently.

When Edison Said 'Hello, Fisherman!'

President-elect Hoover had a warm and hearty birthday greeting for Thomas A. Edison, the aged electrical wizard, when he arrived at Mr. Edison's experimental farm at Fort Myers, Fla., for the inventor's 82nd birthday celebration. This remarkable photo, taken by a cameraman for the Pampa Daily News and NEA Service and transmitted by telephoto, shows Hoover and Edison as they met and clasped hands. "Hello, fisherman!" was Edison's cheery greeting. Mrs. Edison is standing back of the president-elect.

Pampa Has Talking Movies

The Crescent theatre will open with "talking pictures" tomorrow, according to an announcement made by H. A. Gilliland, owner of the Crescent, today.

The title of the opening picture is "Manhattan Cocktails," starring Nancy Carroll. "All of the equipment installed for the new pictures is the best that could be obtained," says Mr. Gilliland. "We expect to bring the most recent pictures to Pampa. Specialty programs, outdoor features, orchestras, etc., should add greatly to our programs."

"The equipment installed at the Crescent is a product of the Talking Pictures corporation. The latest improvements are included to make the tone as natural as though the actors were really on the stage."

Rest rooms, drinking fountain, a new fire-proof projection booth, indirect lighting system, and additional seating capacity have been included in the recent remodeling program of the theatre.

SCIENTISTS TO ASSEMBLE

AUSTIN, Feb. 15. (P)—More than 125 members of the Southwestern Political & Social Science association are expected in Austin, March 29-31, for the annual convention of the organization. While here they will be guests of the University of Texas department of political and social science. The convention program will be under the direction of Dr. J. A. Fitzgerald, dean of the university school of business administration.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 15. (P)—

President-elect Hoover left his vacation home on Belle Isle at 8:30 a. m., today for a two days' automobile trip through the Lake Okechobee district of Florida.

MONSTER RAILROAD CELEBRATION NOW BEING PLANNED BY PAMPA AND CLINTON, OKLAHOMA

As the new Clinton & Oklahoma Western railroad from Pampa to Cheyenne, Okla., nears completion, plans for a monster celebration are getting under way at both ends of the line. A letter received at the B. C. D. this morning from Tim T. Warren, secretary of the Clinton Chamber of Commerce, suggests that a big "blow-out" be held to celebrate the occasion of the first train over the new line. Mr. Warren says that plans are un-

SPINSTER HATES MEN; AND LIVES TO BE HUNDRED YEARS OLD

BOSTON, England, Feb. 15. (P)—Miss Wilhelmina Robinson has reached the age of 100 years. "I detest men," she avowed on reaching the century mark, "and I put down my long and happy life to the fact that I was never foolish enough to marry one."

Miss Wilhelmina wears a frilly cap and shares her rooms with two milk-white cats—both ladies. "Single women have a far better life than any wife," said the white-haired little spinster. "The girls of today are a scandal. It is men, men, men, all the time."

Courting and the technique of proposing—leap years or any years—never concerned her at any time, Miss Robinson declared emphatically.

Harvesters Win!

With Stalls and James on duty the Harvesters won their opening game at the Miami tournament this afternoon when they downed the fast Turkey quintet, 27 to 13. Coach Odus Mitchell used his entire squad of 13 men before the game was over.

The Harvesters will play the Miami Warriors tomorrow morning at either 10 or 11 o'clock. The Pampa girls will play Dumas tonight at 7 o'clock.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15. (P)—

Some doubt as to whether the nomination of Pat Neff of Texas as a member of the railway board of mediation could be disposed of before adjournment.

Pampa has talking pictures.

During the noon hour today newspaper men, ministers, public officials, and others were guests of the Rex theatre in a pre-view of Warner Bros. classic, "Women They Talk About," which will be seen and heard late tonight and Saturday.

The remarkable faithfulness of the notes of musical instruments, the inflections of the trained voice, and the full register of vocal notes were fully presented in the Vitaphone specialties and the feature picture itself.

Near perfect audition, combined with an all-star cast, made the first experience of many of those in the group a thrilling and satisfactory one. Irene Rich and Audrey Ferris are featured, along with William Collier, Jr.

To many of those present, however, Claude Gillingwater as the crusty old aristocrat was the premier performer. His voice is all that one would suspect from glimpsing his hard eyes and severe chin.

Great Runner Is Dead From Shock

BOSTON, Feb. 15. (P)—One of the greatest middle-distance men of all time, Thomas E. Burke, who won the 100 and the 400-meter races at the first of the modern Olympic games at Athens in 1896, is dead from a shock suffered last Saturday.

He was the national A. A. U. quarter-mile titleholder from '95 to '97, capturing the event in the middle year in the remarkable time of 49 4-5 seconds.

He held the world's record for 600 yards at 1 minute and 11 seconds, a feat that stood unsurpassed for 14 years until Mel Shepard lowered it by a mere fifth of a second.

MARKSMAN KILLED

James Clark, another of yesterday's dead, was a brother-in-law of Moran with a reputation as a crack marksman with a rifle. He is listed by police as a member of the "punishing squad" of the gang.

Heads of the federal prohibition department announced the government might take a hand in the investigation.

GANG KILLINGS ARE SOLVED IN FEW INSTANCES

Seventy-Two Murders in Four Years—No Convictions

WELL KNOWN DOCTOR VICTIM

Rackets, Liquor, and Politics Probably Involved

CHICAGO, Feb. 15. (P)—Major Fred D. Sillway, assistant prohibition administrator, today advanced the theory that police officers themselves killed the seven gangsters shot to death in a north side gang stronghold yesterday, and declared he believed the names of the actual slayers would be known before night.

Major Sillway said he believed the killings were in retaliation for stopping the protection money and declared he expected to gain information as to the actual killers.

He said some of the killers wore police uniforms, that an automobile resembling a police squad car with a gong on the side was used by them and that the slayers evidently were well known to the Moran gang, as they were admitted without question.

Commissioner Russell characterized Major Sillway's charge and statement as "all rot," but added "no matter who did it I am out to get them and clean this case up." He was attending a corner's inquest when he made the statement.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15. (P)—The near North Side, shooting gallery of the gang gunmen, never saw such slaughter as rendered its record today.

Seven men, six of them gangsters, the other a doctor of good reputation, were lined against a wall before a firing squad of self-appointed executioners and shot dead.

Every law enforcement agency of the city, after a day of excited investigation, still sought a definite clue; but the records of 72 previous gang killings in the last four years without a conviction gave little hope in the present inquiry, police declared.

There were no witnesses when the assassins entered the S. M. C. Cartage company garage at 2122 North Clark street about 10:45 a. m., yesterday and committed the seven murders. One of the victims, Frank Guseenberg, survived his wounds a short time, and was conscious. But the code of the gunman kept him silent.

Near Massacre

The massacre resulted in the virtual annihilation of the gang that took up Dion O'Bannon's beer-and-blood stained toga when the Smiling Dion was slain in his flower shop November 10, 1924.

Six of yesterday's victims were members of North Side booze racketeers and hi-jackers of which police say George (Bugs) Moran is the head. It was Moran who succeeded to O'Bannon's leadership.

Moran still lives, the last of the O'Bannon dynasty; but police could not find him yesterday and they were not certain but that he too, may have been killed.

Of the seven, only Dr. R. H. Schwimmer, an optometrist, was unknown to police records. Dr. Schwimmer, they believe, dropped into the garage to chat with Frank and Peter Guseenberg both of whom were killed.

Peter Guseenberg was indicted with Big Tim Murphy (himself an assassin's victim) in the $100,000 Polk Street mail robbery and served a three-year sentence in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth.

James Clark, another of yesterday's dead, was a brother-in-law of Moran with a reputation as a crack marksman with a rifle. He is listed by police as a member of the "punishing squad" of the gang.

Heads of the federal prohibition department announced the government might take a hand in the investigation.

Retired Jeweler Is Slain at Hotel Room---3 Held

GREENVILLE, Feb. 15. (P)—Apparently shot to death when he resisted robbers, Glenn A. Coulson, 60, retired jeweler and a pioneer citizen of Greenville, was found dead in a hotel room here today. Coulson was alone. Mrs. Coulson was in Dallas visiting a daughter.

Guests in the hotel were awakened about 3 a. m., by a series of pistol shots. Coulson was found on the floor, a bullet through his head and a pistol clutched in his right hand. His trousers, with the pockets turned inside out, were in the hallway. A money sack, a purse, and a cash box also had been rifled. A window was shattered, either by a bullet or a brick, which was found on the ground underneath. Three bullet holes were in the walls of the room. Coulson was clad only in his pajamas.

Scouting Is Topic of O'Keefe's Talk to Rotary Club

The importance of the Boy Scout Movement was the subject of a talk by J. Sid O'Keefe, attorney and president of the Adobe Walls council of Boy Scouts, at the Rotary meeting at the Methodist church yesterday. He stressed the importance of interesting business men in the movement and mentioned money as a secondary consideration. "If we have the business men interested the money will take care of itself."

This week is the nineteenth anniversary of the Boy Scouts in America. E. D. McIver, scout executive of Pampa, was present and introduced the speaker. The program was in charge of Earl O'Keefe. Philip Pond made a talk on "Programs of Rotary" a review of an article in the Rotarian, national magazine.

Visitors included Mr. O'Keefe, A. H. Hardin, George W. Briggs, Mr. McIver, Bill Davis, Lewis Cox and Aaron Meek, scoutmasters of Pampa.

HUNGER MAKES WILD ANIMALS TAME AS PETS

DENVER, Feb. 15. (P)—Thousands of starving wild animals that have deserted the snow-covered ranges and mountains of the Rocky mountain region in search of human aid, today were being cared for by state game departments.

Along the Union Pacific railroad tracks in Sweetwater county, Wyoming, a herd of five or six thousand antelope consumed carloads of hay dumped there by the state. The timid, fleet-footed animals usually only flash a look at the least sign of a human, devour the feed unafraid while men mingle among them.

Preparations to feed 100 elk at Millville, Utah, were being made by the Utah game department. The animals entered the town yesterday.

Millions of game birds also were being fed by various wild life organizations in the region. A flock of ducks too weak from hunger to fly, was reported at Lyons, Colo.

Governor Long Raids Night Club

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15. (P)—Governor Huey P. Long of Louisiana today claimed a one-up victory in his fight against gambling in New Orleans.

The governor went into the lead in the battle Wednesday night when National Guard troops swept down upon night clubs and confiscated $11,800 at the Trachina club, after a search of guests. The Trachina club's proprietor, William C. Thomas, evaded the score when he obtained a temporary injunction in a Baton Rouge court restraining state authorities from disposing of the seized cash.

Governor Long jumped back into the lead last night when he announced the money already had been disposed of, deposited to the credit of the state treasury.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Powell have returned from a visit with relatives.

Auto Dealers Ask Business Men to Go With Caravan

Business and professional men of Pampa are being especially invited to go on the automobile tour Monday. The automobile dealers in advertising the show to be held Feb. 21, 22, 23. More than thirty-five cars are definitely going, each dealer taking at least two.

The caravan will leave Gibson's Cafe at 7 o'clock and proceed to eight towns during the trip.

"If you haven't been personally invited to go, call up some dealer in whose new car you would like to ride and tell him you are going with him," was the expression of the dealers at the meeting today. One dealer lamented the fact that he had to ride alone on the trip last year.

There will be plenty of room in the cars, it was said.

Oil Worker Is Found Dead in His Hotel Room

An inquest into the death of Dell Matthews, known as "Blackie," will be conducted this afternoon by Coroner C. E. Carey. Matthews was found dead in his room in a local hotel shortly after midnight. In his pocket were two empty carbolic bottles, officers said.

Matthews was found when his room mate went home from work and was unable to gain admittance to his room, but saw the dead man across the bed. Sheriff E. S. Graves was called and broke into the room. Matthews had been dead several hours when found, Sheriff Graves said this morning.

Matthews was between 40 and 45 years old. No information as to his home has been obtained, except that he had papers in his possession mentioning a J. M. Matthews of Memphis, and some relating to his having been employed by the Humble Oil company in the Smackover oil field.

He has been employed by the Forrest E. Gilmore company.

CARGO RECORD IS SET AT GALVESTON PORT

GALVESTON, Feb. 15. (P)—A new single cargo port record was established here when the British steamship Swainly, sailed from Galveston recently with 301,000 bushels of corn, the largest corn cargo ever lifted here. The vessel was chartered by the Continental Grain company, J. S. Fordtran, local representative.

Corn exports of January from this port totaled 1,736,842 bushels.

"It's Like This—"

CHICAGO, home of Bill Thompson's particular type of 100 per cent Americanism, originates the unique system of gang executions in wholesale fashion.

There are several angles to the occurrence that should be pondered over long and deeply. The problem of lawlessness and bloodshed is bad enough, but its ramifications are worse.

Take the prohibition phase, for example. Rivalry in bootlegging activities is said to have led to the slayings. This can only mean that the profits of bootlegging are so great as to encourage violence of the worst sort.

Chicago, in the absence of federal enforcement of prohibition, has local option in the sense that the officers are coping with the situation only as they are encouraged to do by the citizenship and the municipal administrations. Until federal officers can be plentiful enough, in cooperation with state and local officers, to enforce the law, prohibition is not apt to be a reality where it is not wanted by a large per cent of the population.

And with protection, the gunman is hard to handle. It is easy to make an arrest, but it is difficult to secure a conviction under laws that presume a man innocent until he is proved guilty, be he upright or murderous.

Moreover, it is rather difficult for Chicago to explain why her situation is worse than that in New York, where the foreign element is so strong. Chicago is large, and has many foreigners, but she is nearer the typical American country than many of our large cities.

The recent wholesale arrests in Chicago manifestly did not get at the root of the problem. On the morning following the raids, ward politicians, lawyers, and whatnot rushed to the courts to which the cases were assigned and offered bonds and every legal technicality to secure the freedom of those held. Only minor charges and nominal fees could be assessed in most cases. A sort of legal licensing system it is, in the absence of more expert prosecution.

It is not going to be easy to stamp out any system rooted in profitable crime. The denser the population the easier the racket and less certain the penalties. Racketeering will come to Texas, and, in its far-flung activities, to West Texas.

Law enforcement, pure and undefiled, and supported by citizens who are not afraid to share with the officers some elements of risk, is going to be demanded of every community which wishes to be free of violence, vice, corrupt politics, and other manifestations of the gangster system.

It is difficult for the average West Texan to have even a remote conception of the under world areas of cities of 150,000 and over. He cannot understand why it is not possible to eliminate such a condition. However, a rather fixed percentage of every 100,000 persons is sure to be shiftless and deliberately dependent upon illegal modes of existence.

Seven killings in one day are little worse than the same number in seven weeks. They only show that the gangster is keeping up with the scientific possibilities and wholesale tendencies of the time.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER WASHINGTON — Of course there's no sense in coming to Washington if you can't prove it afterward. That's why the mantelpieces, sofas and parlor tables of the nation are covered with collections of miscellaneous junk which would long ago have been thrown out were it not for the magic inscription "Washington, D. C."

away, still sells this pulp at $15 a ton.

Twenty or more shops on Pennsylvania avenue are bulging with an infinite variety of Washington souvenirs today, in anticipation of 150,000 or 200,000 visitors expected here for the Hoover inauguration.

A great number of the Washington souvenirs are made abroad—in Japan, Germany, Italy and Austria. Despite tariff walls, foreign novelty manufacturers can sell them cheaper, apparently, than ours.

Those tin brass trays, used to receive ashes, calling cards, pins or collar buttons—or even just as ornaments—all profusely decorated with scenes of the Capitol and other Washington sights, are made in Japan.

Don't forget your pocketbook, for you can buy almost anything bearing "Washington, D. C." or a representation of the Capitol, and sometimes both. The souvenir shops are waiting eagerly.

General Booth is unfit physically to serve any longer, say the high moguls. Especially if he continues vigorous enough to boss the works.

We understand one big league team is in favor of the proposed 10-man plan—providing one is a woman and the woman is Miss Florence Killilea, owner of the Milwaukee outfit.

TWINKLES

Elocution has been shunned by the kings of Boyville, but with the talkies putting the premium on voices that sound like what their possessor's are trying to feel emotionally, the lads will have another thought on the subject.

We predict that love making will have a decidedly emotional improvement, and that husky throated Romeos will not have a chance competing with those who not only have the screen shiek's technique, but his tonal qualities as well.

Mrs. Coolidge is an amateur photographer of some excellence, but if she has not obtained any better camera studies of her husband than the professionals have she is not too good.

Reasons why we are against adding another month and in favor of the decimal system of mathematical measurements are that we are paid by the week and in this literary procedure of ours our limited dealings with figures would not be tiresome, even under a new system.

Sometimes our legislature gets into so many arguments one would be led to believe half were Democratic and half Republican.

Aviation will be an issue until it is no longer news for a small town resident to buy one of the ships.

With gas so plentiful in these parts, and helium to be plentiful, why not take up ballooning also?

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Prayer
Scripture Lesson: Matt. 6:11-13; Luke 18:9-14.

Mat. 6:5. And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward.

6. But thou, when thou prayest, enter thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask Him.

9. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as in heaven.

11. Give us this day our daily bread.

12. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Luke 18:9. And He spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

10. Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12. I tell you, this man went down to tithes of all that he possesseth.

13. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breasts, saying, God be merciful to me, a sinner.

14. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Time—The Lord's Prayer, a part of the Sermon on the Mount, was spoken in the second year of Christ's ministry, the midsummer of A. D. 28. The parable of the Pharisee and publican was spoken near the close of Christ's ministry, in March, A. D. 30.

Place—The Mount of the Sermon was probably the Horns of Hattin southwest of Capernaum. Christ was in Perea when he spoke the parable of the Pharisee and the publican.

Golden Text—If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto you.—John 15:7.

INTRODUCTION

In our last lesson we studied repentance and faith as conditions of salvation. We enter upon the Christian life by repenting of our sins and trusting in Jesus as Savior and Lord. One of the greatest privileges of a child of God is the privilege of prayer. The Christian life is a life of prayer. So it is appropriate that we should next have a lesson on prayer.

FAITH

Faith is the first condition of all access to God; the key that unlocks the temple door; the wire connecting us with the unseen divine. Over and over again Jesus lays down this condition; and not for great, exceptional petitions only, but for all prayer (cp. e.g., Mat. 21:21, 22). Prayer without faith is empty and meaningless. "Prayers are heard in heaven very much in proportion to our faith; little faith will get very great mercies, but great faith will obtain still greater."—Spurgeon.

It must, however, be faith in a personal God, who has both power to do, and love that will do, for us. This is why Jesus made prayer a new force, gave it a new meaning, with his revelation of God.

ADORATION AND THANKSGIVING
The model prayer (the Lord's Prayer, Mat. 6:9-13) does not begin with a petition, but with an ascription of praise. Nehemiah acknowledges the fidelity and lovingkindness of God in keeping covenant with his people in the past (1:5). All we are told of Daniel's prayer is that "he gave thanks, as he did foretime" (6:10). It is a matter of common decency that before we go to asking of God, we should first thank Him for benefits already received. Most men feel this; though some do not. There are, alas! "lips that say, God be merciful, that never say, God be praised

UNSELFISH PRAYER

Thought for others predominates. Study Jesus' prayer in John 17. Notice the recurrence there of the pronouns "they" and "them." "I pray for them!" In the model prayer it is "our" and "us," not my and me. If Abraham prayed persistently, it was for others, not himself. We have pointed out the absolute disregard of self in Moses' prayer (Exodus 32:31, 32). Nehemiah's prayer also, is full of plurals: "I pray for the children of Israel—while I confess the sins of the children of Israel". Herein lies one of the values of the public prayer: it turns us away from the thought of self, broadens the field of our petitions and our interests.

PERSEVERING PRAYER

The parable of the widow and the judge is a picture of Eastern judicial corruption and of Oriental persistency and vehemence, especially shown by the women when they are wronged. The unrighteous judge avenged the woman because of her importunity; but God is a righteous Judge, his loving heart is ever open to our cry, and we may be sure that He will avenge the wrongs of his children when they are laid before Him in their earnest petitions. The parable teaches perseverance in prayer.

PHARISEE AND PUBLICAN

Here we have a very instructive parable of Jesus on prayer. He spoke this parable, not only about certain people but to them. It was addressed to those who trusted in themselves, that they were righteous and despised all others. They believed themselves righteous when they were not. Then they trusted in themselves rather than in God. No man can be truly righteous who trusts in self rather than God. Besides, they despised all others. A self-righteous man is very apt to despise others. He looks to self as the source of his own righteousness, and since he knows that he has not given righteousness to others he thinks they do not have any.

THE PHARISEE'S PRAYER

1. He stood and prayed with himself. Doubtless he stood in a conspicuous place where he would be observed.

2. The substance of his prayer was to thank God how good he was. He was not really praying. He was holding a conversation with himself, possibly so that others could hear. Such men loved to make a show of their praying.

CONSTANT PRAYER

"Pray without ceasing." Paul urged the Thessalonian Christians. Of course we are to do much besides pray, as Christ did, and as Paul did; and yet we are to pray incessantly. "Prayer," says Montgomery, "is the Christian's vital breath." "In God's sight a man's prayers are not the utterances of his lips, but the active endeavors of his will. The requests of his mouth matter little, the bent of his life counts for everything."

DANIEL'S PRAYER LIFE

"The secret of Daniel's greatness was just his life of prayer. By keeping his windows open toward Jerusalem, he was enabled to see his life from the divine point of view. When he looked out upon life, his eyes were set in the direction of his God."

"Daniel maintained his right frontage systematically. He went into the quiet of his room. He opens his window toward the west. He had stated hours for spiritual exercise—he did it 'three times a day.' He did not pray in a hurried, scampering way, his mind distracted by a score of competing interests—he knelt upon his knees, his very posture deepening his sense of the sacredness of what he was doing."

The greatest need of our churches today is men and women of faith and prayer—people of spiritual power. Such a condition comes only by spiritual communion with God.
"Lord, teach us to pray."

Giants Seen at San Antonio in Initial Work-Out

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 15. (P)—The Texas baseball fan had his first look at the 1929 season here today as the New York Giants took a workout at their training camp here.

The advance guard of the Gotham team arrived last night under the wing of Ray Schalk, for years the star catcher of the Chicago White Sox, now registered as assistant manager, coach, and catcher for the Giants. The party included a number of newspapermen, coaches, and scouts.

Pitchers who arrived last night are: Larry Benton, Joe Genewich, Warren Ogden, Floyd Johnson, Frederick Fitzsimmons, John Scott, and Carl Mays. They will warm up with Joe Witry, Jack Cummings, Bob O'Farrell, and Francis Hoggan, who comprise the staff of catchers. John Kavanaugh, an outfielder, was the only non-battery player in the party.

Manager John McGraw is expected to arrive from Havana, Cuba, and Day and Charles Stoneham, owner of the club, is expected to visit the camp soon.

Fields Is Favored to Beat Gans—an Old Home Rival

NEW YORK, Feb. 15. (P)—Now a welterweight, Jackie Fields, clever Los Angeles product, renews the feud he began as a featherweight with his fellow townsman, Baby Joe Gans, in a 10-round bout in Madison Square Garden tonight.

Fields outpointed the negro star in a close match on the Pacific Coast several years ago when both were fighting in the 126-pound class. They renew their struggle with Fields a full-fledged 147-pounder and Gans a junior welterweight.

Perhaps because of his sensational record of the last few months, Fields has been established as an 8 to 5 favorite. Since he lost a decision to Sammy Mandell, lightweight king, early in 1928, Fields has trounced Young Jack Thompson, the coast negro who spilled champion Joe Dundee for the count in Chicago; knocked out Sammy Baker, New York welterweight contender; and Mike Ryan, San Diego Indian, and outpointed Jack McCarthy.

Army Polo Men to Be Spectators of Sunday Play

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 15. (P)—Army riders, accustomed to figure prominently in the annual southwestern mid-winter polo tournament, will sit on the sidelines Sunday while two civilian teams battle in the finals of the Southwestern circuit cup competition, a part of the mid-winter tourney.

Yesterday the Wichita Falls Blue Jackets romped on the air corps training center four from San Antonio, 14 to 8, while the San Antonio Short-horns, another civilian quartet was eliminating the Ft. Sam Houston Indians, 9 to 8.

Fight Results

WATERBURY, Conn.—Louis Kid Kaplan, Meriden, Conn., outpointed Phil McGraw, Detroit, 10 rounds.

DAVENPORT, Iowa.—Jack Dillon, Louisville, outpointed Kay White, New Orleans, 10 rounds.

Harvester Basketeers of Central High School

Nine Teams to Fight for Girls' Basketball Title

SNYDER, Feb. 15. (P)—The feminine high school basketball championship of West Texas lay between the nine teams today as the second day's schedule of the competition got under way at the local high school. Ten teams were eliminated in yesterday's play, although one of these went out by forfeit.

Those remaining in the competition are Cisco, Breckenridge, Lorraine, Busby, Post, Fluvanna, Colorado, Franklin, and Roby.

Columbia Games to Present Foreign Stars and Natives

NEW YORK, Feb. 15. (P)—Two international races, one at a mile and the other at 5,000 meters, are on the program for the annual Knights of Columbus games at Madison Square Garden March 16.

In the mile, Ray Conger, Phil Edwards, Sam Martin, and Galen Elliott already have entered and the entry blank of Eino Purje, young Finnish star, is expected soon. Purje holds several decisions over Paavo Nurmi at 1,500 meters, the metric equivalent of the mile.

Nurmi and Leo Lermund, Boston A. A. distance ace, are entered in the 5,000 meters and invitations have been extended, as well, to Edwin Wide of Sweden and Willie Ritola of Finland.

Griffith to Meet Leo Lomski Tonight

DETROIT, Feb. 15. (P)—Gerald Ambrose Griffith, the tough one from Sioux City, Iowa, meets the test of his career tonight when he engages Leo Lomski, recognized as the leading challenger for the world's light heavyweight championship, in a 10-round contest.

The bout will be to a referee's decision at the light heavyweight, 175 pounds. Indications today were that the battle would be witnessed by a crowd of 12,000 to 15,000 with receipts at $40,000 to $50,000.

The winner will be admittedly the leading challenger to the light heavyweight championship held by Tommy Loughran.

Jack Dempsey to Keep Peace Between Bosses

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 15. (P)—Promoter Jack Dempsey today was prepared to use the big stick, if necessary, to maintain peace and quiet between "Pa" Stribling and Johnny Buckley, managers of the principals in his February 27 battle at Flamingo park, when they meet to spar over the selection of a referee.

He expected to take no part in the actual selection, he said, as long as the managers seemed to agree, but he warned Stribling and Buckley that any unnecessary loud talking would end negotiations. In that event, Dempsey will name the third man in the ring tomorrow.

While Sharkey hammered the heavy bags and went through three rounds with sparring partners, Young Stribling left with his brother "Baby" from Melbourne, Fla., where the youngster will be seen in a fight tonight. The Georgia battler will return here late today.

Dr. E. L. Thomason has gone to Amarillo, where today and tomorrow he will attend a meeting of the Panhandle Dental association.

Twenty Teams to Take Part in Miami Tourney

MIAMI, Feb. 15. (P)—This West Texas town today was host to several hundred basketball enthusiasts, here for the All-Panhandle tournament of high schools.

The cage meet, which will be participated in by 20 teams from Texas and Oklahoma Panhandle towns, will close tomorrow. Both boy and girl teams will be seen in action.

More Thanksgiving Football Games to Be Made Possible

WACO, Feb. 15. (P)—Football enthusiasts in Texas will have an opportunity to see more good games during the Thanksgiving holidays this year than ever before, owing to a change in the schedules of several teams, which will provide a good game on the Saturday before Thanksgiving, the annual Texas-Aggie battle Thanksgiving day and a good game the Saturday following Thanksgiving.

Texas Christian university and Baylor, two teams which have been long rivals decided to play the Saturday before Thanksgiving, while Rice and Southern Methodist university will postpone their traditional Thanksgiving game on the Saturday after Thanksgiving. This scheme will give Rice, S. M. U., T. C. U. and Baylor a better opportunity to book a late season game with Arkansas.

Veterinary Says Horses of South Ready to Train

CHICAGO, Feb. 15. (P)—Racing thoroughbreds will be in better physical condition this spring than ever, Dr. J. M. Kaiser, veterinary at most Chicago tracks, reports after a tour of inspection in the South.

"The annual visitations of influenza and fever have hit the horses early this year and now they are recovered and fit for their training periods," Dr. Kaiser said. "It means that tracks having early seasons will have the services of many turf stars instead of having them laid up with illness."

Walker to Fight Hudkins July 4

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15. (P)—Mickey Walker, world's middleweight champion, will defend his title at Las Vegas, Nev., on July 4 against Ace Hudkins, Nebraska "wildcat."

Announcement that Jack Kearns had signed for the champion was made yesterday by Tom Kennedy, once a heavyweight fighter and now trying out the role of promoter. Kennedy said he already had an agreement with Hudkins to fight for him on July 4 and he expected to have the Nebraska name on a contract within a few days.

The purse at stake in the battle will be the biggest ever put up for a middleweight titular struggle, according to Kennedy's announcement.

THIS HAS HAPPENED

RUTH LESTER, private secretary, hides her beauty behind heavy spectacles and ill-fitting clothes, hoping thus to work unnoticed for "HARRY BOBEN HARRY BOBEN." She would resign but for a romance which springs up between her and JACK HAYWARD, whose office is just across the narrow alleyway from Boben's.

They became engaged and Ruth comes to the office this Saturday morning, with her disguise removed. When Boben comes, Ruth is summoned with the mail and gives him an orchid-stemmed envelope which he impatiently thrusts into his pocket. She tells him of a call from "the woman with the contralto voice" whom he has previously refused to talk to.

Ruth gets $500 from the bank and two tickets with drawing-room for a winter resort for Boben. She suspects the second ticket is for RITA DUJUIS, night club dancer, who calls at the office just after her return from the bank. She tells Boben of her estranged wife and mother of his two children, calls for her monthly alimony, and tells Boben of her own financial straits. She swoons into Ruth's chair, catching sight as she does so of a note in the drawer meant for Boben. Boben promises to return about 1:30. Boben waves a torn bank note at Ruth as she leaves, reminding her of her bargain.

Ruth goes to her room for a moment. When Boben playfully tries to remove her spectacles she screams, attracting Jack in the opposite office. He angrily tries to jump to her assistance across the alleyway but is restrained by some woman. Ruth wishes she had not screamed. She wanted only Jack to enter into this particular day. At 1:30 she goes to meet Jack for lunch.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER V

"What has happened?" Her lips went white and cold. "Boben?"

The bank book was not there. She went through the contents of the folder twice, then darted to her desk and searched through the two top drawers unsuccessfully. At last, after at least five or six precious minutes had been wasted, she found the thin brown booklet in the folder devoted to her employer's bank statements.

As she thrust the passbook into her handbag she heard the sound of a receiver being slammed upon its hook. In her haste to be gone before Harry Boben could come out to investigate, she jerked open the outer door so violently that it struck her across the mouth.

She was panting a little, her handkerchief pressed to her bruised lip, when the elevator, which she had just signaled, stopped at her floor and Jack Hayward emerged, his face very white, his eyes stormy with anger and fear.

"What kept you so long? Why, Ruth! What's wrong? You're crying!" And almost roughly, as Micky Moran looked on, Jack pulled Ruth's hand from her mouth and saw the swelling lip. "Good! That beast! I'll kill him for this! I was afraid—let me go, Ruth!"

"Jack, please, darling, please!" Ruth begged, pulling at his arms frantically. "Come on into the elevator. It wasn't Mr. Boben! I swear it wasn't! I struck my face against the door! I've got to be here now!"

Her voice changed suddenly, became ominously quiet and steady, as the young man swung off her clinging hands. "If you don't come with me now, if you won't believe me when I say it, wasn't Mr. Boben who hurt me, in spite of what you saw this morning, I'll take back the promise I gave you last night. I mean it!"

Jack Hayward came to his senses. He shook his head, as if to clear from his eyes the red mists of that eight-foot albatross, I was so wild, and if I had—"

Ruth's fingers curled over his tightly. "Let's not think of Harry Boben any more, darling. He doesn't really matter, you know. He shan't ever touch me again. I promise! Of course I'll resign Monday. . . . But who is Bill Cowan, darling? I'm sorry he had to see—" "Bill!" Jack laughed, reassured, happy again. "Oh, Bill Cowan's a real estate man. Bills lots out in the Grandbury addition. Know why I wanted to see him, sweet?"

Color swept over Ruth's cheeks. "Oh!—Really, Jack? But—how can you? Oh, it would be heavenly to build a home!"

Jack leaned as far across the table as he could, his brown eyes holding her blue ones adoringly. "Oh, I'll manage the money, darling! I signed up old T. Q. Garnett yesterday for $50,000 worth of additional insurance. My commission will more than pay for a lot in Grandbury—"

"Has his application been accepted?" Ruth interrupted eagerly.

"Not yet, but he was to see the medical examiner this morning."

THE waiter left them in peace for many minutes, for his services were in demand elsewhere. They scarcely touched their food, for neither had an appetite just then for anything but kisses and long, sweet, significant glances.

"You'd better have some very hot coffee," Jack decided suddenly, as Ruth, wrapped though she was in her thick fur coat, shivered again. "He signaled the waiter. "Wonder what time that matinee begins! Two fifteen or two thirty? Maybe the tickets say—"

"No, but he was to see the medical examiner this morning."

"You'd better have some very hot coffee," Jack decided suddenly, as Ruth, wrapped though she was in her thick fur coat, shivered again. "He signaled the waiter. "Wonder what time that matinee begins! Two fifteen or two thirty? Maybe the tickets say—"

"No, but he was to see the medical examiner this morning."

She watched him swing down the room, her heart almost bursting with pride and joy in him.

"No," she roused herself from her reverie several minutes later, to answer the waiter. "There's nothing wrong with the ice cream, waiter. I'm just not hungry. Oh, yes, I would like another cup of coffee. Bring a pot for two. The gentleman will be back soon."

But, strangely, he was not. When her second cup of coffee had been drunk, Ruth consulted her tiny wristwatch, and was startled to see that it was five minutes past two. Jack had been gone 15 minutes! Her whole body was shivering with a chill as the myrrour reflected her face, as she sipped it slowly. Fear mounted in her heart until she felt nauseated. . . . Ten after two—

A couple leaving the next table obscured her view of the door for a minute and Jack was almost at her side before she saw him. "Oh, darling!" she cried out with relief. "I was getting so worried—why, Jack! Jack! What's the matter? What has happened? Her lips went white and cold. "Boben?"

Mrs. Raymond Harrah Hostess at Prettily Appointed Tea

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harrah's new home at 621 North Frost street was opened for its first large hospitality yesterday, when Mrs. Harrah entertained with a Valentine day tea. The beautiful entertaining suite was simply decorated with bowls of sweet-peas, roses and carnations, and large red hearts hung on the glass curtains at the windows.

The tea table was laid with fillet lace and lighted with tall red tapers in silver holders. The Queen of Hearts, riding in a heart-shaped golden chariot and driving a pair of cupids, made a charming and distinctive centerpiece. Mrs. D. H. Lewis poured tea.

REDISCOUNT RATE HOLDS

NEW YORK, Feb. 15. (AP)—Wall Street was relieved today to know the Federal Reserve bank of New York had left the rediscount rate unchanged at 5 per cent.

During a five-hour meeting of the board of directors of the bank, brokers kept their offices open and held private wire operators at their keys ready to flash the news to all parts of the country.

At 6:50 p. m., yesterday the form notice was posted, "there is no announcement on the rate" which is the board's way of saying the rate is unchanged.

The sharp warning of the Federal Reserve board last week against the diversion of federal reserve credit into speculative loans was fresh in the minds of operators when the board met.

During the week there has been a tightening of credit conditions through the sale of government securities and reductions in their holdings of bankers' bills. An advance in the rediscount rate was the strongest remaining weapon in the hands of the Federal Reserve bank.

BLAMES MEAT PACKERS

CHICAGO, Feb. 15. (AP)—Everett C. Brown, president of the Chicago livestock exchange, says $1,375,000,000 has been written off the value of cattle in the United States in the last six months, yet the average consumer cannot buy beef any cheaper at retail markets than last summer.

At that time he said the public largely stopped buying beef, classed it as a luxury and substituted other food products. Now all beef distributing channels, are choked with beef that cannot be moved. He attributed this situation partly to an excessive decline in prices for hides, amounting to 10 cents a pound since a year ago.

Mr. Brown urged withholding cattle from the market to the greatest extent possible at present. He added: "If bankers are calling loans on cattle in order to place the money at greater rates of interest on Wall Street, it is high time they protect the great cattle industry, especially so after break of $3 to $5 a hundred-weight."

WHEAT SETS RECORD

CHICAGO, Feb. 15. (AP)—Notwithstanding that Liverpool wheat showed a tendency to lag, the Chicago wheat market today established a new high price record for the season. Advances continued to tell of severe cold in Europe.

Starting 3-4c off to 3-8c up, Chicago wheat later developed a general upward bent. Corn, oats and provisions were easy, corn opening unchanged to 3-8c down, and subsequently holding near to initial figures.

STOCKS ARE WEAKER

NEW YORK, Feb. 15. (AP)—Stock prices displayed a strong undertone at the opening of today's market. International Combustion Engineering opened with a block of 500 shares at 102 5/8, up 1 5/8, and a new high record. Johns Manville opened 4 points higher, Curtiss 3 3/4, General Electric and Union Carbide 2 each and Nevada Copper, National Cash Register, and Coty showed initial gains of a point or so. Marine preferred and American & Foreign Power moved into new high ground.

Hundreds See Graham-Paige Cars

Hundreds of local citizens attended the formal showing of Graham-Paige cars in Pampa yesterday at the Biggs Horn company building on North Cuyler street. Mr. Horn has just taken the agency for Graham-Paige cars. He had nine different models on the floor and two demonstrators were used throughout the day.

Harvey Corn of Dallas, factory representative; Tony Chisum of Amarillo, district representative, and Howard Langston of Amarillo, C. I. T. representative, were here all day assisting Mr. Horn.

SEWER GAS EXPLODES

BOSTON, Feb. 15. (AP)—Terrific explosions of sewer gas in the heart of the downtown shopping district, which sent splintered paving, manhole covers, and shattered plate glass hurtling into the air, injured 40 persons late yesterday. Thousands of home-going commuters escaped in a wild dash for subway entrances. More than a score were given emergency treatment at hospitals.

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 15. (AP)—A series of explosions, occurring when fire reached a large quantity of alcohol in a dockhouse at the waterside here, rocked Buenos Aires today. Owing to the thick smoke and the fierceness of the blaze it was impossible to tell if there were any victims.

FORT WORTH, Feb. 15. (AP)—For the benefit of its students, Texas Christian university engages in a private banking business, and operates what is known as the "Trust Fund bank." Checks ranging from 10 cents to $357.50 have been written on it, according to Mrs. Irene Smiser, cashier. Deposits run about $40,000 each school year with an average of 50 to 75 checks cashed each day, totaling between $300 and $400.

SOCIETY

Members of Azor Class Guests at "Kid" Party

Mrs. T. E. Hoffman, 418 Hobart street, was hostess yesterday afternoon to members of the Azor class of the Baptist Sunday school, entertaining with a "kid" party. The guests attended in children's costumes, each carrying a doll.

Immediately after arriving they were ordered to school, where opening exercises were held, followed by lessons in history, spelling and geography. The lessons consisted of clever catch questions, and the pupil giving the most correct answers in each class was given a Valentine as a prize. A contest was another diversion of the afternoon.

Mrs. Hoffman's home was attractively decorated with hearts and other suggestions of the Valentine season, and a dainty refreshment course served at tea time repeated the note.

The guest list is as follows: Mrs. Pear Stevens, Mrs. B. D. Robinson, Mrs. John Beacom, Mrs. Orville Davis, Mrs. Earl O'Keefe, Mrs. Clyde Garner, Mrs. Lora Carver, Mrs. Bonnie Rose, Mrs. A. E. Medkief, Mrs. J. W. Hatcher, Mrs. W. R. Murphy, Mrs. A. L. McDaniel, Mrs. Bessie Hubert, Mrs. E. L. Anderson, Mrs. Dewey Lunsford, Mrs. Cecil Lunsford, Mrs. G. D. Holmes, Mrs. C. Willis, Mrs. Bessie Sigle and Mrs. J. P. Wehrung.

Pupils of Grade Schools Present Excellent Program

An exceptionally well rendered program given by the students of the grade schools in the Central auditorium, yesterday afternoon, was heard by a large crowd of parents and friends of the pupils and teachers.

The first number, and one of the most interesting of the afternoon, was a formation drill by the pupils of Lamar school and representatives of the local Boy Scout troops. The pupils, dressed in red, white, and blue costumes, marched into the bleachers and formed the American flag, as a fifth grade pupil read the song, "Old Glory." The scouts formed the staff. This drill ended with the group singing "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue," and "The Eyes of Texas."

Other numbers that were particularly good included a blue bonnet drill, a Colonial minuet, "Men of February," a parlor scene, and selections by the rhythm orchestra.

The Baker school students sang "The U. S. A.," afterward forming the letter B on the stage. Miss Fall's class of little tots gave a playlet that was greatly enjoyed.

The Junior high school, of which Boyce Smith is principal, contributed a chalk talk, a musical reading, and a group song, "The Texas Song," to the entertainment. The East Ward was represented in a piano solo and a reading.

Selections by the high school orchestra, directed by T. A. Fannell, contributed much to the success of the program. Orchestra numbers preceded the opening of the grade school numbers and gave a variety to the afternoon's entertainment. A clarinet, cornet, and saxophone trio by three small boys from Lamar school was surprisingly good.

Baptist Assistant Pastor is Honored by Young People

Honoring the new assistant pastor, John Lee Harris, the young people's department of the Baptist Sunday school gave a Valentine party last evening at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Truhitte. The Valentine and heart motif was featured in the house decorations, the games, and the dainty refreshment course.

The Rev. Truhitte, Miss Helen Anderson, Mr. Harris, and C. S. Barrett made short, impromptu speeches. An enjoyable series of the games and stunts was directed by Miss Kate Anderson. Music was furnished by Miss Josephine Cariker, Miss Mary Nail, Charles Barrett, Mr. Rodgers, and a quartet directed by Bob Rose. About 40 guests were present.

No-Lo Bridge Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Burns entertained members of the No-Lo Bridge club and a few other friends at their home Wednesday evening. Three tables were prettily appointed in a color scheme of red and white, and other details featured a Valentine motif.

The players were: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Oden, Mrs. Robert Shields, D. D. Dorman and Ora Allday. High score favor went to Mrs. Hollenbeck.
