ROBISON APPROVES REPEAL OF LAND LEASING MEASURE

COMMISSIONER IS READY FOR INVESTIGATION

Says Action He Took Was Mandatory in State Law

BETTER PLAN IS POSSIBLE, CLAIM

Permanent Injunction Is Sought to Bolster Legislation

AUSTIN, Jan. 12. (P)—Approval of the action of the legislature in blocking sales of leases on Texas university lands by repeal of the law was expressed today by Land Commissioner J. T. Robison, who said he had no fears of an investigation of his office, but felt that such an examination might create an unwarranted distrust of the department.

After informal conferences with legislators, Robison suggested that the regular lands committee investigate all correspondence in the recent controversy over the proposed sale of mineral rights on 100,000 acres of university holdings. If the committee felt such an investigation, Robison said, that further investigation was desirable, a special investigating committee could be named.

The concurrent resolution for a special investigation of the land office met with statements in each house that such an investigation would imply no criticism of the land commissioner.

Mr. Robison said that he was glad the old lease law had been repealed as he believed a more advantageous law might be passed. His only difference with the regents of the university, the governor and the attorney general, he said, was his refusal to postpone the sale because of his conviction that the sale was a mandatory duty which he could not escape legally.

In the meantime, there was some doubt as to what would happen when the hearing to make an injunction against the commissioner, which prevented sale of leases on fifty sections, permanent, comes up in court Wednesday. Although repeal of the law apparently makes the injunction unnecessary, Assistant Attorney General Trueheart continued preparations today to seek permanent restraint.

Bills to Correct "Land Grabbing" to Be Submitted Soon

West Texas legislators have laid plans to introduce and fight for legislation recommended at the recent meeting of oil men and landowners at Midland, according to Austin dispatches.

Senator C. C. Small of Wellington will introduce three bills intended to correct "land grabbing." These are summarized as follows:

1. Requiring State to offer supposed owners of land first opportunity to purchase that found vacant of title.
2. Validating all titles where State is suing on the "navigable stream" claim.
3. Placing venue of title suits in counties where they originate.

The Senate and House committees on public lands will hold a joint conference Thursday night to discuss these bills, and the public will be allowed to attend.

Charles Rountree and son, William Howard of Wichita Falls are visiting at the Kell-Joyce ranch.

SCOUT TRAINING WORK TO BEGIN HERE MONDAY

At least 50 local men are expected to begin an extensive Boy Scout leadership training course under the direction of Scott Barcus and E. D. McIver tomorrow night. Meetings will be held in the basement of the First Methodist church every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Those attending the school will be divided into patrols of eight or more members. Patrol leaders already selected are R. G. Hughes, Paul Shepard, P. E. Boyd, Frank Culbertson, Horace Park and W. H. Curry.

Scott Barcus is well known in the Texas scouting world. He is a former scoutmaster and executive of the Buffalo Trail district, embracing Dallas, Tyler, and parts of East Texas and Southern Oklahoma.

Canadian, Panhandle, Miami, White Deer and Borger also are in this council. He will conduct training classes in each town one night a week.

Subjects included in the training class will include scout laws, organization of patrols, patrol contests, Boy Scout drills and other important features of the Boy Scout training course. Interesting talks will be made from time to time during the eight-week course.

COLD IN MIDDLE WEST HOVERING NEAR ZERO

CHICAGO, Jan. 12. (P)—Near zero and sub-zero temperatures overspread the middle west today were augmented by the remnants of a second cold blast from the Rocky mountain regions with prospects for lower temperatures tonight.

In Chicago, although the mercury descended to only one above zero when five below was predicted, one death was attributed to the cold and there were many cases of frozen feet, hands and ears. About 500 homeless men were housed in police stations last night and police were prepared to care for a greater number tonight.

Poultry Show Judge Praises Fine Exhibits Examined Here

The Pampa Poultry Breeders' association's show closed last evening after more than 2,000 persons had passed by the displays. The show opened Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Entries of rabbits, pigeons, wild geese guinea pigs, and eggs added to the success of the show. Some excellent fowls were exhibited and the judges were half a day making decisions and awarding prizes. Dr. H. W. Duke of Amarillo was the official judge.

In the grand champion classes, G. G. Frasher was the big winner. His pen of Black Langshans took the purple ribbon, and his Black Langshang hen also took honors. Marvin Stapleton's Dark Cornish cock was the winner in

HARMONY HOPED FOR PROBABLE

Speaker Barron Is Likely to Appoint His Opponent

AUSTIN, Jan. 12. (P)—Today's activities in the 41st legislature resembled the "calm before the storm."

Many legislators were at their desks sometime during the day but the galleries were empty and the house and senate chambers were silent in contrast to the bustle of the four opening days.

In the house, speculation on important committee assignments was rife, overshadowing discussion on more than 150 bills which already have been introduced and on the few others slated for introduction Monday.

W. S. Barron, Bryan, speaker of the house, planned to name 36 standing committees Monday so that these groups could tackle the legislation which already has been proposed and which will be piled higher with re-assembly of the house.

House leaders believed that Barron would "bury the hatchet" and name W. R. Montgomery of Edinburg, his opponent in the speakership race, chairman of the banks and banking committee. Other men said to be in line for committee chairmanships were Ed R. Sinks of Giddings, the committee on privileges, suffrage and elections; Fred Minor of Denton, elected to head the judiciary committee; Leonard Tillotson of Sealy, member of Governor Moody's highway commission of '21, who likely will preside over the committee on highways.

The senate, a step ahead of the house in organization, was ready to get down to business next week with the inauguration of governor and lieutenant-governor at a joint session with the house Tuesday noon the only promised interruption.

The military bands of North Texas Junior Agricultural college of Arlington and of John Tarleton college of Stephenville will play during the inauguration ceremonies, Senator Carl C. Hardin of Stephenville, a member of the inauguration committee, said today.

The governor and lieutenant-governor will be inaugurated in a joint session. Dr. George W. Truett of Dallas and Bishop Samuel Hay of Houston will pronounce the invocation and benediction.

Pampa's Civic All-Stars for 1928

Here are the five Civic All-Stars chosen in a straw poll taken by the Pampa Daily News. At the top is M. K. Brown, president of the Chamber of Commerce in 1928 and identified with many major projects. At the top left is former-Mayor F. P. Reid, good roads enthusiast and well known figure in local affairs; and opposite Mr. Reid is J. H. Lavender, champion solicitor for public enterprises and bundle of civic energy. Below, at the left is Lynn Boyd, president of the Rotary club and city commissioner. The man at the lower right is County Judge Ivy Duncan, president of the Lions club and director of the courthouse removal campaign.

SECOND ANNUAL AUTOMOBILE SHOW IS PLANNED IN MEETING OF LOCAL DEALERS FRIDAY

SEES BIG SAVING

AUSTIN, Jan. 12. (P)—A saving of between $200,000 and $300,000 would be made if the legislature passed all general appropriation bills at the regular session, even if it became necessary to remain in session 70 or 75 days, Senator Tomas Pollard of Tyler, head of the senate finance committee, said today.

E. E. Wright of the Amarillo Furniture company was business visitor in the city yesterday.

Dr. T. T. Roberts, president of Randolph college at Cisco, is spending the week-end in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. James Todd, Jr.

Plans are under way for holding the second annual automobile show under the direction of the Pampa Automobile Dealers' association, February 21, 22 and 23 are tentative dates set for the show at a meeting of automobile dealers and representatives of the Daily News in the Schneider hotel Friday noon.

Six of the 10 local dealers attended the luncheon and were enthusiastic about the show. All the new models will be here by the date set, the dealers declared. Last year's show was staged at the Pla-Mor auditorium January 27, 28 and 29.

A committee composed of Hugh Johnson, Elmer Blair, and Biggs Horn was appointed by Acting President Tom W. Rose to confer with the executive committee of the American Legion to plan how the Legion can assist in holding the show. The organization has plans for decorating the showroom and arranging the entertainment.

Members of the Pampa Automobile Dealers' association will hold another luncheon at the Schneider hotel next Friday noon. Officers for the year will be elected at that time.

The show last year was entirely a success, the dealers declare. A caravan of new cars made a trip to every town within a radius of 40 miles of Pampa. Hundreds of people came to the city. Plans for another caravan will be outlined at a later meeting.

"TALKED WITH DEAD"

AMARILLO, Jan. 12. (P)—A statement that he communicated almost daily with relatives long dead was responsible largely for J. J. Kewen, 71, being sentenced to a state institution here today. A physician testified he considered belief in the power to communicate with the dead evidence of insanity.

In certifying the above results, the straw vote canvassers, F. M. Gwin and George Briggs, announced the following additional names as being indicated for the civic honor roll: J. M. Dodson, Scott Barcus, T. D. Hobart, Olin E. Hinkle, J. E. Murfee, J. N. Duncan, B. E. Finley, C. T. Hunkapillar, C. P. Buckler, Rev. Tom W. Brabham, C. C. Cook, Alex Schneider, Jr., Dave Osborne, Rev. James Todd, Jr.

The All-Star selection was sponsored by The News to call attention to local public service, with realization that while no vote is apt to be conclusive, the balloting would be of considerable interest. Keen interest was aroused, and scores submitted their choices.

Arthur C. Goebel, noted Pacific and trans-continental flier. The flight must be made in a Wichita-built airplane, Mr. Levand stipulated.

Misses Fannie Florence and Nettie Sims are spending the week-end at their home in Clarendon. Miss Mary Schell is their guest.

Dr. T. T. Roberts, president of Randolph company was a business visitor considered belief in the power to communicate with the dead evidence of insanity.

BIG BUILDING IS GUTTED BY FIRESATURDAY

District Attorney and Fire Marshal Are Investigating

PASTOR WAS IN STATE CAPITOL

Services to Be Held in Tabernacle Today

FORT WORTH, Jan. 12. (P)—Investigation into the fire that destroyed the First Baptist church building and its four-story Sunday school annex early today was being made along two lines this afternoon. The district attorney was conducting one inquiry, while the other was being made by Fire Marshal Ligon.

The Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the church, in Austin at the time of the fire, was in conference with the district attorney's office.

Earlier in the day, the district attorney ordered a chemical analysis of the contents of a tub found in the Sunday school annex. Several tubs, one said to have contained gasoline and water, and a five-gallon jug of gasoline also found in the school building, were in possession of the district attorney.

Ranger Capt. Tom Hickman was assisting in the inquiry. Fred Holland, building custodian, said that there were tubs in the church building, but that all of them were used for floor oil. He said he knew of no gasoline on the church premises.

When Mr. Norris returned from Austin this afternoon, smoke still was rising from the buildings. Tears came into the pastor's eyes as he walked the square block around the structures which had been built under his pastorage.

"The worst loss is the demoralizing of the forces," Rev. Norris said. "But we will start building back now."

In less than 10 minutes after his arrival, the pastor ordered gas stoves placed in a huge tabernacle in the suburbs. He said that canvas will be placed around the tabernacle and that services will be held there tomorrow.

Loss is estimated at about $300,000. The main building was gutted. The interior of the Sunday school annex was in ruins.

Rev. Hyde Received Into Presbytery

Texas Saunders Has Oil Showing

A heavy show of oil was picked up in the Texas company's No. 7 Saunders in southwest corner of the west half of the southeast corner of section 4, block 1, A. C. H. and B., yesterday morning. The pay was encountered at 2,650 feet on the new high level discovered by the Gulf Production company's No. 2 Saunders in section 3 of the same block.

The Texas company well is shut-in while storage is being built. The well will be drilled in early this week, company officials say.

Uses of Science

Professor Harry Elmer Barnes of Smith College, addressing the American Association for the Advancement of Science, declares that man instead of being the lord of all creation, is only a "temporary chemical episode" on an insignificant planet which he described as a "celestial juvenile and cosmic dwarf."

This, says Professor Barnes, is clearly proved by modern science, and because of it we must furnish ourselves with an entirely new conception of God.

This sounds a trifle depressing to those of us who still cling to the old-fashioned notions about souls, immortality and so on. However, it is only fair to point out that science hasn't proved anywhere near as much as Professor Barnes seems to think it has. What he is giving us is not the hard-and-fast conclusions of modern science, but his own opinions.

Every so often some man of learning surveys the facts and theories which science has produced, draws his own conclusions to the world as facts. There is an intolerance and a dogmatism to it as unpleasant as the intolerance and dogmatism of the medieval theology which the scientists so abhor.

For instance: Professor Barnes has evolved in his mind a new conception of man; therefore he demands a new conception of God. Who needs it? Surely not those of us who fail to see eye to eye with him his new conception of man. And if he is correct, why should any "temporary chemical episode" need any conception of God at all?

His little speech is valuable, however. It illustrates aptly the double edged nature of that keen, glistening tool called science. For science, while it is making us rich and free, and is preparing us for the larger life to an extent that has not been dreamed possible a few decades ago, is also quite capable of cutting out of life some of its highest values, and leaving us far worse off than we were before.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

LIMA, Peru (By mail).—Here in Lima remain more than traces of ancient Spanish rule, but the stamp of North America is being ever more deeply impressed as the diversified infiltration of American capital and American trade continues to increase.

Some of us in the Hoover party stepped from the centuries-old cathedral, largest in this hemisphere, into a street paved by contractors from the United States and entered a North American-made motor car to be driven to a North American-built hotel or country club.

En route to the country club, with its polo field, swimming pool, golf course and tennis club, its background of Inca ruins and its Swiss servants who speak French, German and English, one passes over splendid American-made boulevards and highways through replicas of our own suburban developments, with their houses made of adobe brick but for sale on the installment plan in the American fashion.

Build in U. S. Style Earthquakes and high prices for cement and steel maintain adobe as Lima's favorite building material, but very lately some seven and eight-story buildings have actually been erected in the heart of the city. One of these is that of W. R. Grace & Company, which would be a magnificent office building in any country.

The Grace activities in Peru illustrate the diversity of American interests which make our influence here so obvious. The Grace steamship lines operate from New York, New Orleans and San Francisco to the South American west coast. The concern carries a large import-export business in all sorts of commodities, notably machinery. It has sugar plants and cotton mills inland, including the world's second largest textile plant, and controls one of the Lima banks.

Meanwhile the Cerro de Pasco Company, American owned, produces for export some 10,000 tons of copper and lead each month, and the Ingersoll Rand Company supplies most of the mining machinery.

You can hear the Two Black Crows on the phonograph in every mountain mining camp. Every steamer brings down a hundred or more Crow records.

In 1920 the Foundation Company of New York made a $50,000,000 contract with Peru for a sanitary improvement program in 30 cities, including modern water and sewer system, new pavements and macadamized highways also established a cement plant and a refrigerated warehouse, which is the only place in Lima where animals may be legally killed for consumption.

The Singer Sewing Machine Company, which has a remarkably effective organization in South America, sells to natives all over Peru on three-year payment plans.

Here, as throughout Latin America, Hollywood supplies nearly all the motion pictures. Lima likes them and there are so many movie fans who attend their theater every day that programs have to be changed daily. Society attends the cinema on Saturday and Sunday.

The medal for the best inspiration goes to George Briggs. Called upon for an impromptu radio talk, "George" concluded his remarks about Pampa by saying that since the State has discovered navigable streams in Gray county, local citizens are considering making this a seaport town.

So get ready folks—listen for the whistle of the steamboats on the North Fork. Definitions are tricky. Under somebody's definition most of us would be classified as nuisances, crooks, and bums.

If New Mexico is the home of ancient civilization, it would pay us to buy railroad tickets there for some of those who continually hark back to the "good old times".

Well, Senator Reed must feel a lot better since he has found something to kick up a rumpus about.

Politics Basis of Chicago Gang War Says Attorney

By ALLEN L. DALRYMPLE, Associated Press Staff Writer. CHICAGO, Jan. 12. (AP)—A 76-year-old crusader, who fears not, put the blame for Chicago's wholesale bombings and gang slayings today on political protection.

Frank J. Loesch, head of the Chicago crime commission and special prosecutor in charge of a series of "clean-up" grand juries, declared the direct cause of frequent and regular acts of violence was the shielding of gangsters, racketeers and bootleggers by political leaders.

"The immense illegitimate profits resulting from this protection keep the inter-gang warfare alive and the city in an uproar," said the white-haired, vigorous attorney, drafted by the Chicago Bar association in an effort to restore a respect for law and order.

"A licensed soft drink place opens up, we'll say, on Wacker drive. Because protection has been bought from politicians, a load of beer with high alcoholic content is obtained from the Capone syndicate. If the Capone patronage is continued, the place will be bombed before long and a reign of terror sets in, killings naturally resulting in the fight between syndicates for the business."

With all the ardor of a man 40 years his junior, and with the rich experience of half a century of court battles and law enforcement, Mr. Loesch is driving toward his goal—a permanent break-up of the alliance of crime and politics, with resultant elimination of the bombings and slayings.

He holds a powerful bloodgen in his role of guiding genius in the big cleanup and proceeds with an assurance founded on knowledge of ability. He knows what he is after, a turnover in the city hall, although he must wait two years until another election.

Mr. Loesch was reminded of attempts on the life of State's Attorney John A. Swanson and other members, of his office.

"Two things which form no part of my life and fear and worry," he smiled. "I have been active in the Chicago crime commission ever since its inception 10 years ago. Fear has never been a consideration in my work. I am spending my time as head of the special grand juries from a sense of civic duties, but without worry or fear."

He pulled a quarter from his pocket and tossed it across the desk. If the people would take the advice the government puts on each coin, this size or over, they would be happier, in addition to living longer: "In God we trust."

"Put that in your story, will you?" "In God we trust."

HEFTY LEGS SAVES BOYS FROM DROWNING

SANDUSKY, Ohio, Jan. 12. (AP)—Four boys were saved from drowning on Lake Erie today because of Willard Stradman's strong right leg.

Vern Ohlbacher, Wayne Helget, Harold Marquart and Daniel Fagginato, all between 16 and 18, were ice-boating when their craft plunged through the ice.

Stradman skated as far as he could toward the break, dropped to his stomach and crawled out over the ice. When he thrust his right leg near the edge of the hole, the boys one by one grabbed it and pulled themselves out.

FORT WORTH, Jan. 12. (AP)—Suits for $4,000, alleged due as a fee from H. C. Meacham, former mayor, for serving as special prosecutors in the murder trial of Rev. J. Frank Norris in Austin, was filed by the law firm of McLean, Scott and Sayres in the district court today.

The attorneys assert that the fee agreed on between them and Meacham was $18,500 and that $14,500 of that amount has been paid. Meacham testified in the change of venue hearing which preceded the Norris trial that he has engaged special prosecutors.

HARVESTERS DEFEAT CANYON EAGLES IN TWO GAMES

Local Offensive Too Strong For 'Rival' Visitors

Canyon's Eagles, who in the past have had the habit of beating out local athletic endeavors, ran afoul of strong offenses here Friday and dropped two basketball games to the locals by scores of 33-28 and 17-16.

At the quarter in the first game, Pampa led, 11 to 4; at the half, 17-14; third quarter, 23-16.

The night game was a hair-raiser, ending safely for the Harvesters only when Williams, giant Canyon guard, missed an extra free throw given because an over-enthusiastic audience made too much noise during his first effort.

The half ended with the Harvesters leading, 11 to 5. Canyon's forwards had consistently missed the basket, and Wiggins, center, had tossed the only field goal. The last half was a riot of motion, with the visitors getting their scoring eye, and only brilliant work by James and Stalls holding the local advantage.

Came a moment when the score was knotted at 16-all, and three minutes to play. James got a slender advantage by tossing a foul goal, which proved the margin of victory. Thus came revenge to Central high, for not long ago the Eagles grabbed both games from the Harvesters on the Canyon floor.

Doesn't Feel So Big Here

For once in his life bold Jack Sharkey, the loud speaking Lithuanian, was caught in a spot where he didn't feel so big and where he couldn't help but show that he felt like a kind of small fellow. In the picture above Sharkey was caught in the middle between Strangler Lewis and Gus Schenbergh, former Dartmouth football star, who met Lewis recently in a bout for the world heavyweight wrestling championship. This picture was taken in the gymnasium where Sharkey and the two big fellows were training in Boston.

Texas University Five Beats Bears in Hard Tussle

WACO, Jan. 12. (P)—The confident Texas university basketball team nosed out the Baylor Bears, 22 to 19, here tonight.

The game featured the floor work of Bob Kiersky, sophomore star, and brilliant goal shooting of Aubrey Smith, high-point man.

To add to the thrills of the occasion, early in the second half with Baylor leading 11 to 10, Rees of Texas batted the ball in the wrong basket to give the Bruins a lead of 13 to 10. The half had closed with Texas leading, 10 to 9, a foul goal being tossed after the shot had been fired, to give Texas that one-point lead.

Late in the game Texas got a 5-point lead but with a minute and a half to go, Baylor whittled it down to one point. Texas got another goal and with a three-point margin played for time the last minute, Baylor missing a goal just as the final shot was fired. Brock played a splendid game for Texas but his shooting was not up to standard.

Central Hi Girls Lose to Mobeetie by Single Point

A gamely fighting Central high school girls' basketball team lost to a strong Mobeetie squad Friday night, 17-18, following the boys' game with Canyon.

The single-point margin was typical of the game throughout, the score never being many markers apart. Coach L. W. Maxey's team showed considerable improvement, especially in passing, and could easily have won but for the uncanny shooting of Arnold, Mobeetie forward. Miss Arnold towered so far above others on the floor that once she obtained the ball there was no way of stopping her. Several times she shot repeatedly at the basket, catching the ball before it fell low enough to be within reach of the guards. She was the whole Mobeetie team from the scoring standpoint.

Pampa's scoring was divided between Brown, Robinson and Fletcher.

Sharkey Is Signed to Meet Stribling on February 27

BOSTON, Jan. 12. (P)—After haggling for three hours today, Johnny Buckley, manager of Jack Sharkey, and William F. Carey, vice-president of Madison Square Garden, signed a contract which guaranteed the Boston heavyweight $100,000 for boxing Young Stribling of Atlanta, at Miami Beach, Florida, Feb. 27.

The contract certified that the referee would be an official acceptable to both Stribling and Sharkey and that his identity would be disclosed by Jack Dempsey seven days before the bout.

Sharkey was not present during the negotiations.

Both Dempsey and Carey said Stribling already had accepted their terms, 20 per cent of the gate less the taxes. Both predicted the receipts would exceed $500,000.

Once during the haggling, Buckley changed from a boxing manager to a promoter. He asked Dempsey if he would meet Sharkey for $400,000 and when the former champion refused, made it half a million. Dempsey, however took it as a joke, although Buckley said Sharkey would be willing to fight for 25 per cent, and give one-fifth of his share to Rickard's widow.

playing a snappy game with accurate shooting, the Wheeler boys came out on the long end of the score 30 to 11.

The boys from Wheeler are a snappy aggregation and would give Captain Troy Stalls and his men a tough battle. The Wheeler team is due to be heard from before the season closes.

Lard and Ayres looked best for the local boys, while Roper was the shining light for the Wheeler aggregation.

Banking Firm Is Revealed as Back of Rickard's Work

BOSTON, Jan. 12. (P)—The Boston Globe in a copyrighted story to be published tomorrow says that the financial genius back of the late Tex Rickard's greatest sports promotions was the banking house of Hayden, Stone and Company.

This firm, the article says, built Madison Square Garden as the first of a chain of such enterprises in principal American cities. Rickard was under contract which controlled "all of his activities of whatever character or nature," in any part of the world except the states of Nevada, Arizona, Idaho and New Mexico, where he was a free agent.

The fight promoter is stated to have been on an annual salary of $25,000 and to have owned 40,000 shares in the Garden corporation, worth at one time more than $1,000,000. His open-handedness with acquaintances requesting loans or aims was such a heavy drain upon his resources that before his death Rickard had cashed half his securities and had reduced his estate to less than half a million.

The Globe story says that with big business in control of prize ring finances, it was decided, after the heavy financial loss on the Tunney-Heeneey fight to pay no more flat guarantees to boxers.

Fort Worth Boy Held as Robber at Mexico, Mo.

MEXICO, Mo., Jan. 12. (P)—The alleged leader of bandits who robbed the First National bank here of $23,775 was identified today as Tom Dunn, 23, former high school athlete of Dallas, Texas, by W. T. Hightower of Fort Worth, Texas.

Miller, Mulberry, Kan., former president of a chain of state banks in this district, has complicated that case and involved another depending on about the same evidence.

Miller has been convicted on 24 counts of accepting deposits in the defunct Midwest State bank here, and one of making false entry.

He was to have appeared in court today for hearing on a motion for a new trial, and for sentence if the motion were denied.

The judge postponed the hearing until next Saturday. Opinion differed as to what bearing destruction of the records will have on the case.

Murder in Second Degree Is Found in "Pow Wow" Case

YORK, Pa., Jan. 12. (P)—A verdict of second degree murder was the finding of the jury tonight in the case of Wilbert G. Hess, 18, for his part in the killing of Nelson D. Rehmyer, alleged "pow wow" doctor.

The two others who took part in the killing, John H. Blymyer, 32, a "pow wow" doctor, and John Curry, 14, had been convicted earlier in the week of first degree murder. Rehmyer was killed when he resisted efforts of the trio to obtain a lock of his hair to break a "spell" supposedly held over the Hess family. His body then was set on fire.

Increase in Yates Pool Is Granted

AUSTIN, Jan. 12. (P)—Operators in the Yates pool today were granted authority to increase the daily output, under proration from 72,500 to 100,000 barrels. The commission also extended proration in the field from January for six months.

No witness appeared to oppose the increase or extension.

W. A. Moncrief, independent producer, and John R. Suman of the Humble corporation testified that the Yates pool was the largest potential producing area in the state and that the increase could be made without injuring underground structures.

The hearing brought out that the field is producing 25,000 barrels a day less than its pipe line facilities and that no storage would be necessitated by the increased proration.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT... BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History

- a Six in the price range of the four!

represents 4 years of Development and over a Million miles of Testing

Years ago, the Chevrolet Motor Company designed and built its first experimental six-cylinder motor. This far-sighted step was taken because Chevrolet engineers knew that the six-cylinder motor is inherently the most perfectly balanced motor—the ideal power plant to meet the growing public demand for greater reserve power, faster get-away and, above all—smooth, quiet performance.

During the last four years, over a hundred six-cylinder motors were built by Chevrolet engineers and tested on the General Motors Proving Ground.

Day and night, through winter's cold and summer's heat, the incessant testing went on—until the present motor was developed and finally pronounced correct.

At the same time other Chevrolet engineers were perfecting other parts of the chassis. And another great automotive organization—the Fisher Body Corporation—was devoting its gigantic resources to the creation of the finest, sturdiest and most beautiful bodies ever offered on a low-priced automobile.

As a result, the Outstanding Chevrolet offers an order of well-balanced excellence—a combination of performance, comfort, beauty and handling ease that is truly remarkable—with a fuel-economy of better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline.

You owe it to yourself to see and inspect this remarkable car. Come in today!

Dallas Marauder Forces Woman to Serve Him Meal

DALLAS, Jan. 12. (AP)—Swagging into an apartment where Mrs. Otto Welle was washing dishes, an unmasked bandit, tonight forced the housewife to prepare and serve him a meal. He menaced her with a pistol.

While the marauder was eating Mrs. Welle's 3-year-old child toddled near. He glared at the child and with an oath ordered her to keep "that brat" away from him.

The man left without taking anything of value.

Officers said Mrs. Welle's description of the thug tallied with descriptions of the bandit who has terrorized Dallas motorists recently, killing William Mann, a high school youth, and wounding Ralph O. Sisson, service car driver, probably fatally.

Clay Well Is Back on Pump

When put on the pump after a test with the gas lift had failed, the United Eight O. & T. company's No. 1 E. Base Clay in the southwest corner of section 17, block B-2, made 180 barrels of high grade oil the first 24 hours and showed signs of increasing. The first 24 hours ended yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The well was drilled in a month ago but caves, lack of water and bad weather conditions made it impossible to complete the well after its being drilled eleven feet into pay.

This well is situated six miles southwest of production in the Bowers-McGee pool and is strictly wildcat. It opens up many square miles of territory for oil development.

The Empire Gas & Fuel company is drilling an offset in the northeast corner of section 18, block B-2, on the B. F. Jackson lease. The test is down 1,012 feet. More than 600 feet of headway was made last week.

Swift Flight of Plane May Save Woman at Abilene

ABILENE, Jan. 12. (AP)—A record flight to Fort Worth and return by Louis E. Derryberry, chief pilot of West Texas Air Transport Inc., for meningitis serum tonight appeared to have given Mrs. C. C. Powell of Benton, Wash., a chance for her life.

Derryberry, who participated in the coast-to-coast air derby last summer, flew the approximately 300 miles in three hours and nine minutes. Considering time lost in Fort Worth while his plane was being refueled and the serum obtained, he averaged well over 100 miles an hour.

Mrs. Powell, visiting her brother here, Bob Crosby, was in a dying condition when Superintendent Sanders of the West Texas Baptist sanitarium dispatched the flyer for the serum.

Stewart to Fight Rockefeller Plan

CHICAGO, Jan. 12. (AP)—Robert W. Stewart intends to lock horns with John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in a fight to the finish to retain his position as chairman of the board of the Standard Oil company of Indiana. A stockholders' meeting March 7, will decide this issue.

Stewart made this plain today in announcing his candidacy for reelection as chairman of the board and questioning Mr. Rockefeller's right to speak for 58,000 shareholders—in reply to a recent communication from Rockefeller to stockholders asking removal of Stewart.

Stewart said he had made no personal solicitation for proxies as Mr. Rockefeller has done but declared solicitations by others had shown he would have the support of a large number of the stockholders voting a large amount of the stock of this company.

Warren Brown of Nashville, Tenn., members of the general education board of the Methodist Episcopal church, South.

Mr. Brown will reach Dallas Monday to start a survey of the nine Methodist schools in the state, Bishop John Moore, president of the commission, said today. He will make recommendations to the commission for the consolidation or elimination of schools.

Prisoners Pray for Warden Harrell Who Has Flu

HUNTSVILLE, Jan. 12. (AP)—While their warden E. F. Harrell, was reported seriously ill with influenza, prisoners in the state penitentiary here today congregated in the prison chapel and prayed for the warden's recovery.

Later the warden was presented a silver loving cup bought with money donated by the prisoners. On the cup was engraved: "To our friend and warden, E. F. Harrell. From the boys, 1929."

At the prayer service, led by Chaplain Miller, the prisoners said "amen" to a prayer asking "divine providence to spare him who has shown himself by his acts and deeds to be the friend of every prisoner, and who has done so much to better conditions of living behind the walls."

Hospital Apparatus Rushed by Plane

FORT WORTH, Jan. 12. (AP)—Special hospital equipment which left New York by airplane at the order of Dr. A. C. Scott of Temple in an effort to save the life of his 4-year-old grandson, Sunnie Childers, was entrained at Chicago, when it became apparent that it would not arrive in time to aid physicians attending the boy.

That was the information received today by Wm. G. Fuller, manager of the municipal airport here. The equipment, which included an oxygen-bearing ship would not arrive until tonight. Then, because of the absence of landing lights, it returned to Temple.

When pneumonia developed after influenza, Dr. Scott ordered the inhalation apparatus from Roxbury, Mass. It was sent to New York by train and there loaded aboard a National Air Transport plane bound for Chicago. At Toledo, the special plane, which was attempting to overtake the regular airmail plane, was delayed by snow. It finally got off the ground, however, and reached Chicago shortly after the mail plane had started southward.

The special plane left Chicago at 8:15 a. m. today. A private plane from Temple waited at Fort Worth until word was received that the oxygen-bearing ship would not arrive until tonight. Then, because of the absence of landing lights, it returned to Temple.

THE MAXIMUM IN QUALITY AT THE MINIMUM COST

$10 PER MONTH WILL FURNISH A HOME

A few of the ITS ADVANTAGES

WRIGHT'S LOWER COST AND SALES SYSTEM offers the advantages of owning furniture and floor coverings while you are paying for them. First—the merchandise is sold to you on a SPOT CASH basis—the same price prevails on your purchase as though you had paid cash for it. It offers you the advantage of using your money for more pressing matters. It offers you the advantage of purchasing more articles of furnishings without all the red tape so common among installment houses.

reasons why Wright's CASH PRICE

In planning this system, our president, Mr. Spencer H. Wright, instructed his employees to place all prices of merchandise down to a spot cash price in line with our now famous slogan, "Just One Price—One Just Price." This is just exactly what was done. There is only ONE price at all of the WRIGHT STORES thus insuring you that satisfaction of knowing you have not paid but the one and only price of that particular article. We offer our prices in comparison to those of any other company, mail order house or manufacturing houses.

Lower Cost and Sales CREDIT TERMS

In planning this system, we knew we had to be just as fair to our friends that wished terms on their purchases as to the ones paying cash; therefore, we decided on the just one price. We have arrangements whereby you may have all the terms you need on your contract. We even allow, two, three, four and five years for final payments with this system, which assures you there will be no burden attached to your purchasing furniture under this system. We install new accounts under this system from one to twenty months on a basis to determine payments. As you increase your purchases the time limit increases as well.

System makes credit more CARRYING CHARGES AND INSURANCE

UNDER THIS SYSTEM, we have arranged for the credit terms on a fair and impartial plan that you only pay for the actual time you need to liquidate your balance. Therefore, if you do not need a great length of time, you do not have to pay the same price as the person using longer periods of time.

In connection with this system, we issue an Insurance Policy, covering your balance with us on the supporting head of the family, whereby should the supporting head of the family die, we would issue a receipt showing YOUR ACCOUNT PAID IN FULL. Production of Gray County Off 435 Barrels

Oil production in the Panhandle continues to hold its own. Daily production varied only 10 barrels from last week and the previous week was only 90 barrels more than the preceding week.
 With the exception of Gray, all the Panhandle counties showed slight gains. The home county dropped 435 barrels. Hutchinson led the gain column with an increase of 240 barrels daily over that of the previous week.
 Although Gray county reported two completions last week, they came in too late to increase the weekly report. Additional producers should be drilled in early this week to give the home county a boost.

The Skelly Oil company has two wells in the LeFors pool and one in the Bowers-McGee pool on top of pay sand and expects to drill them in early this week. Texas company also has two wells topping pay, while the Wilcox Oil & Gas company has one well ready to drill in.
 Productions by counties:
 Carson: 5,885 barrels, a gain of 60 barrels.
 Gray: 21,525 barrels, a loss of 435 barrels.
 Hutchinson: 27,905 barrels, a gain of 240 barrels.
 Moore: 2,410 barrels, a gain of 75 barrels.
 Potter: 20 barrels.
 Wheeler: 850 barrels, a gain of 50 barrels.
 Totals: 58,595 barrels, a loss of 10 barrels.

GRAIN PRICES RALLY
 CHICAGO, Jan. 12. (AP)—Grain prices went up with a rush today, buying on a big scale developing after reports came that a special session of congress is assured. The news was generally construed to mean that comprehensive quick farm relief legislation has been brought to a practical focus. As a net result, corn soared to about 8 1-2c a bushel over prices current last week, with wheat up more than 8c, and all deliveries of corn and oats surpassing every top-price record heretofore this season.
 Corn closed strong 1 7-8c to 2 1-2c @ 2 5-8c over yesterday's finish. Latest quotations for wheat were unsettled at 1 7-8c to 2 1-8c net gain, while oats were 1-4c to 5-8c advanced and provisions showing 7c to 30c upturn.

OIL BRIEFS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 12. (AP)—Fifty-four new locations were staked in 19 counties of Oklahoma during the week closed. Pottawatomie county leading the list with seven. Sixty-six wells were completed during the same period, half of them being "oilers" for a total of 20,325 barrels initial.
 Greater Seminole field today gauged 283,378 barrels, a decline of seven barrels from yesterday's production report. The output was from 1,320 wells.
 F. B. McElroy and J. H. Wall, independent operators of Wichita Falls, Texas, today announced plans for drilling a new wildcat in the south Oklahoma City area. Location will be on a five-acre Cook tract in SE-SE-SE-11-2W. Drilling is to start within a month and the test will go 6,500 feet if necessary.

All officers of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce were re-elected at the annual election last week. Plans have already been laid for a large portion of this year's work.

Hidalgo County Case Is Slow

AUSTIN, Jan. 12. (AP)—Moving at a snail's pace as attorneys staged an all-day battle over a mass of law books, the Hidalgo county election injunction suit hinging around returns from the Weslaco box, thrown out because all envelope flap assertedly was not sealed, apparently was due to last well into next week.
 The tilt, involving venue and jurisdiction, was the aftermath of claims of Gordon Griffin that he was elected judge of 93rd district court. Griffin alleged he was beaten by 14 votes when the Weslaco precinct vote was not counted by the commissioners' court.
 Griffin obtained a temporary injunction restraining Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state, and the state canvassing board, from opening Hidalgo county returns and canvassing them and preventing Hidalgo county election officers from destroying election records.

PAYROLL BANDITS GET $20,000 IN COLORADO
 TRINIDAD, Colo., Jan. 12. (AP)—Poses tonight searched the rugged country near here for three payroll bandits whose loot in a mail robbery today was estimated at $20,000.
 Charles Festi, 18, was the driver of the mail truck from which the robbers took the $20,000 payroll intended for the Victor-American Fuel company mine at Delagua, Colo.

Orchid ALEXANDER EARLY COPYRIGHT 1929 BY NEA SERVICE INC. THIS HAS HAPPENED ASHTORETH ASH, Boston stenographer, meets her wealthy employer, HOLLIS HART, while visiting through the West. Ashtoreth goes ashore at Dominica, and almost the first person she sees is Mr. Hart. She is fearfully excited at the chance encounter, and very happy because Ashtoreth, for some months, has been exceedingly interested in her millionaire boss. And small wonder. Hart is rather handsome and has such a wonderful personality! He is old enough to be Ashtoreth's father, but he certainly does not look it. Before leaving on her cruise to the Indies Ashtoreth had heard that Mr. Hart was in South America. He left Boston hurriedly following a little fracas with a girl named SADIE MORTON, whom he had befriended, and who tried to take advantage of his good nature. Shortly afterward Ashtoreth had a breakdown and her mother, MABEL, procured a job in order to earn enough money to send the girl away for a rest. Mr. Hart proposes that they visit his home on the mountain. And Ashtoreth, in a mad moment, determines to go. Of course, will complicate things. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXV MR. HART was happy as a schoolboy. "I've a proprietary interest in this place already," he boasted. "Quite as if I'd discovered it. I have, as a matter of fact, bought a place up on the heights, and some day I shall build a little house and come to it when I am very tired and weary, and want nothing better than to fill my soul with peace." He spoke softly, with his arm about her shoulders. And they sat beneath a flowering sennan that showered them with pink and fragrant blossoms. A BLACK woman came through the garden wall. On her turbaned head she bore a tray, which she placed on the ground beside them. Then, with a swiftness she whipped the sweetened rum she had, to a frothing head. "Everybody drinks punch here," Hart remarked, "but don't take it unless you care for it, Ashtoreth." She thought that he would think more highly of her if she refused. "You really don't mind?" she queried. "Not a bit," he said. "As a matter of fact I hate to see women drinking. I suppose I'm a bit of a puritan." He sent the servant away. "Tell Lisa to hurry," he instructed her. "I am afraid Miss Ashe is very hungry." He offered her his cigarettes then. "No-I don't smoke either," she said. . . . and hoped he would not notice the yellow mark on her fingers. She had previously been rather proud of that stain. It looked sophisticated, she thought—as if she had been smoking for years and years. As a matter of fact Ashtoreth did not care particularly for cigarettes. "You don't mean to tell me," he exclaimed, "that you neither smoke nor drink?" "I don't even eat," she informed him saucily and, taking a sennan blossom, patted his nose with it. "They're like powder puffs, aren't they?" she said. "I never saw blossoms so dainty and sweet." "Sometimes it's called the Powder Puff Tree," he told her. The black woman came padding softly back through the garden wall. "Dinner is served," she said. "It was a feast for the gods. Fly as quickly as possible. There is a wireless station in Roseau. We can send a message to the boat and ask if she will return for you. I'm rather afraid, though—we've lost a great deal of time, you see. There says she left hours ago. I'd no idea how time was flying." His manner was so concerned that Ashtoreth found no difficulty in seeming herself disconcerted. In truth, she had begun to be apprehensive. Mr. Hart was so obviously upset. "But what shall I do?" she cried. "Well," he suggested, "I suppose there's a boarding house or something of the sort in Roseau. Would you be afraid of staying up here if I should go down?" "All alone?" she cried. "But I've a dozen servants," he reminded her. "And you'd be safe as a bug in a rug." ASHTORETH shivered. "I wouldn't stay for the world," she declared. "I'd be scared to death that I'd wake up with my throat cut!" "Well, then—how'd you like to try life in a boarding house?" he proposed. She demurred prettily. "Why can't I stay up here with you? You've ever so much room. And I never steal the spoons, nor set fires, or anything like that. I'll be good as gold." "My dear child! the expostulated. "What a scandal! fast would be!" "Who'd know?" she demanded. "Little vixen," he said, "I'll wager you did it on purpose." "Wouldn't I be just desolated if I had?" she demanded. "I'm about as welcome as the measles!" "You know better than that," he told her gravely. "I'm delighted to have you. I'm only thinking of your own good." "Well, don't!" she commanded. "I've noticed that things that are good for a girl are usually stupid." (To Be Continued) ASHTORETH'S understatement promotes a romantic evening, along with Hollis Hart, on a lonely mountain. Moon and stars—and romance!

HISTORY repeats itself again

ON January 7, 1926, the Pontiac Six came into existence. It had bodies by Fisher. It sold for $825. It introduced real luxury and beauty to buyers in the low-priced field.

But Pontiac's builders did not rest content with their early triumph. They knew that American people are constantly on the lookout for new, and finer things. So in February, 1927, they introduced the New and Finer Pontiac Six. And it was lower in price than ever, selling for $775. Then, in July, greatly increased production enabled Pontiac's builders to reduce the price again. Now Pontiac sold for $745.

Came 1928, and with it a still finer Pontiac. Even then the price remained only $745. And after six months, Pontiac was made faster, more powerful and more attractive than ever.

This brief review gives you an idea of something that is coming. Automobile history is repeating itself again. Soon Oakland will present a brand new Pontiac Six, an even greater advancement over other low-priced cars available today than the original Pontiac represented in 1926.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

IS IT A SQUARE DEAL

There is nothing the church when you would not live in a community without the church? If the church is the backbone of any community; the center of all our best life, thought and development; the greatest builder of peace and unity; the only school for a character that will live through centuries; and that grows through its membership of more than 50 per cent. of all citizens—is it a square deal for you to let others do all this for you—and carry your dead weight burden?

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

He is greatly benefited.

LONDON, Jan. 12. (AP)—King George today had a restful day but his subjects learned that his queen, who has borne with courage the burdens imposed by the long illness of her husband, was suffering from a cold. Second Semester of School Opens Tomorrow—Conditions for Excellent Work Best in History of District

With the opening of the second semester tomorrow, Pampa's schools will reach the highest point of attainment in their history. Properly housed and with new equipment, the pupils will have advantages comparable to those obtaining in the larger cities, Supt. R. C. Campbell said yesterday.

The East and West ward schools make possible an even distribution of pupils. Heretofore, the chief weak spots noted by inspectors from the state department of education have been in the grades below the high school. Now the grades have fine new buildings in every section of the city. More than $400 worth of equipment has just been added. Special attention is being given to the type of work done.

While major athletics has had full support in the past, the faculty members hope to have general physical training for all pupils, from the first to the eleventh grades. The school also is anxious to have public school music as a part of the curriculum.

Central high now has 33 units of affiliation, and three more credits—in home economics and agriculture—will be added when these departments are properly housed. However, not mere affiliation but quality of work receives chief attention.

Three new teachers to take the place of those substituting will give a permanent faculty, the majority of whom have bachelors or masters degrees from class A institutions.

Solid geometry, trigonometry, physical and commercial geography, and economics will be taken up by high school pupils during the second semester, under excellent conditions for good work.

A preparatory year of work between the seventh grade and the high school, for all seventh grade pupils whose grades are below some form of "B", will be introduced at the beginning of the next school year. The work will include English grammar, arithmetic, United States history, word analysis in spelling (half year), civics (half year), algebra and Latin or Spanish (half year). Most states have eight years below high school, but Texas has only seven years. Eight years for those making grades below the average would better prepare those pupils to do good work as high school freshmen.

Mrs. Vernon Stewart, a charming bride of the season, who before her marriage on December 15 was Miss Amy Hancock, was honored Friday afternoon with a tea shower given by Mrs. Ralph Ogden and other friends at Mrs. Ogden's home. Red hearts, suspended from the ceiling on white ribbon streamers, and a large white bell which hung from the ceiling made attractive decorations for the entertaining rooms.

As the honoree entered the room where other guests were seated, the wedding bell was "rung" and a shower of rice fell upon her. Immediately thereafter a white shawl laden with lovely gifts for the bride.

The guest list for this delightful event included the teachers in the local school, members of the school board, and other friends of Mrs. Stewart. Mrs. Stewart is an employee of the Phillips Petroleum company. Both are former residents of Floydada. They are making their home in LeFors.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE REX

An exceptional cast supports Richard Barthelmess in "Scarlet Seas," his newest First National starring vehicle which comes to the Rex theatre on Tuesday.

For the first time Betty Compton is seen playing opposite the star, with Loretta Young in the featured ingenue role. Miss Compton has been a star in her own right and has built up an enormous following since her sensational work several years ago in "The Miracle Man." Loretta Young is a young miss discovered by First National and seen recently in the feminine lead with Lon Chaney in "Laugh, Clown, Laugh."

The villainy of "Scarlet Seas" is perpetrated by Jack Curtis, whose evil eye has made him one of the deepest-dyed bad men of the screen. The "pious old hypocrite" role of Johnson in "Scarlet Seas" is enacted by James Bradbury, Sr., a character man of popularity both on stage and screen. Other important roles are essayed by Knute Erickson, Harry Fisher, Bill Wilson, Jack Hyland and Fred O'Beck. John Francis Dillon, whose direction of "The Noose" won him plaudits, was responsible for the direction of "Scarlet Seas." The story is an original screen narrative from the pen of Scott Darling, especially written for Barthelmess and adapted to the screen by Bradley King. A battery of twelve cameras, under the direction of Sol Polito, was used in filming the highly spectacular sequences taken at sea and on the Island of Catalina in the Pacific.

Mrs. Blaine Robinson is in Bowie, where she was called a few days ago by the serious illness of her father.
