THIRTY CARS IN PLA-MOR DISPLAY

Stunts to Be Presented Saturday Night by Dealers

More than fifteen hundred persons who attended the Pampa Automobile Dealers' association auto show yesterday afternoon and last night can testify as to the beauty and convenience of the 16 makes of cars on the Pla-Mor auditorium floor.

Resplendent in colors of the present mode, the cars are displayed through use of spotlights placed about the building. To appreciate the excellence of the current models, the public is advised to visit the show, which will continue through Saturday night. Thirty automobiles are being displayed by 11 dealers. Every price class is included and there appear to be no favorites but plenty of partisans for all makes.

By an unusual coincidence, the prizes given last night remained in one family. Mr. Phillips received a balloon and his wife was given a percolator. Other prizes will be awarded during the remainder of the show.

Tonight's entertainment program will feature high school students. The high school orchestra, the boys' glee club and the girls' glee club, all directed by T. A. Fannell, will be heard beginning at 8:30 o'clock. This promises to be an extraordinary attraction in addition to the appeal of the show itself.

Tomorrow afternoon an orchestra will provide entertainment for visitors to the show, and three prizes will be given. The final program of the show will be Saturday night, and will be in charge of the local dealers, who will put on stunts for a prize. The Pampa band will play another of its popular concerts.

Father of Local Men Dies Suddenly

Thomas D. Ragsdale of Newton, Kan., well known stockman of that city, was found dead at the Steinkrinner feed lots Monday afternoon, according to information received today. He was 79 years old, and the father of Claude and Glen Ragsdale of Pampa. Death was due to a sudden heart attack, according to examining physicians. Funeral services were held yesterday. The elder Ragsdale is survived by his wife and three sons, Claude and Glen of Pampa and Louis of California.

AMARILLOAN TO SPEAK

The Rev. S. H. Hillien, vice-rector of St. George's college, Amarillo, will deliver the second of a series of sermons on Catholic doctrines and beliefs at Holy Souls church, at 7:30 o'clock this evening. On each Friday evening during Lent, Father Hillien will deliver an informative sermon. In addition, he will answer any well-meant question concerning Catholic beliefs and ceremonies. The public is cordially invited to attend all these services.

THE WEATHER VANE

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday; warmer Saturday in north and west portion.

—AND A SMILE

BOISE, Idaho. (P)—Crows apparently are not so dumb. A flock estimated at a million has refused to return to a rocky in which sportsmen have planted dynamite. The crows were declared a menace because they ate much of the grain distributed for game birds.

Two Men Thrown Into Colorado River as Boat Capsizes

GRAND CANYON, Ariz., Feb. 22. (P)—Searchers were penetrating the deep gorge of the Grand Canyon today in an attempt to find the bodies of Fred Johnson, government ranger, and Glenn Sturdevant, Grand Canyon National park naturalist.

The two men were hurled from a boat yesterday in Horn Creek rapid, two miles below the point where the famous Bright Angel trail winds its way to the bottom of the canyon. James P. Brooks, chief ranger of Grand Canyon park, also was tossed into the treacherous stream, but managed to reach shore.

Johns Hopkins Has New Scholarship in Chemistry Courses

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 22. (P)—One of the richest prizes ever offered to American undergraduates was laid before students of chemistry throughout the country today by President Frank J. Goodnow of the Johns Hopkins university.

He announced the acceptance of gifts providing for an experiment in education designed to train young chemists of exceptional talents.

The program, including establishment of a new chair of chemical education and a number of state fellowships amounting to $1,000 a year for the students chosen to take the special course, will be put into operation next fall on an experimental basis.

Believe Deserter Killed Woman Who Witnessed Arrest

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 22. (P)—Belief that a bullet fired by an alleged army deserter while city and military police were attempting to arrest him yesterday killed Mrs. J. H. Horyza, 29, was expressed by military authorities at Fort Sam Houston today.

It was at first reported the fatal shot was fired by a military policeman, whose gun was discharged when he struck at the alleged deserter. According to military authorities, the policeman's bullet struck a wall.

FLYING COLONEL PASSES CITY THIS AFTERNOON

An airplane believed to have been that of Col. Chas. A. Lindbergh passed over Pampa at 2:46 p. m. today. He was to have left Kansas City this morning and his schedule called for a probable night stop at Clovis, N. M. The plane was flying low and facing a headwind. Santa Fe reports said he followed the Santa Fe railroad from Wichita, Kan. He had one passenger, whose name was not learned.

TARIFF ON HIDES ASKED BY FARM FEDERATION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22. (P)—An example of divergent tariff views has come with the plea of farm representatives for a duty on hides and a plea just as insistent by New England shoe and leather manufacturers that hides be kept on the free list.

Chester Gray, Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation, made a proposal before the house ways and means committee that a tariff of 45 per cent ad valorem be placed on hides.

Lone Star Gasoline Plant On Fire in Palo Pinto County, Report Says

DALLAS, Feb. 22. (P)—Reports received at the Lone Star Gas company headquarters here today said the company's gasoline refinery at Gordon, Palo Pinto county, was burning. The refinery, reports said, was blazing shortly after 1 p. m., but the fire had not spread to storage tanks nearby in which there are about 160,000 gallons of gasoline.

Floydada Citizens Injured

Rev. Baker Arrives For Funeral Today of Alex Schneider, Sr.

The Rev. W. M. Baker of Waxahatchie, former pastor of the Presbyterian church here, arrived today to assist at funeral services for Alex Schneider, Sr., who died yesterday morning after an illness of more than a month. The Rev. A. A. Hyde, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will be in charge of the funeral.

Following services at the First Methodist church at 3 o'clock the body will be taken to Fairview cemetery for burial. Surviving Mr. Schneider are two daughters, Mrs. George Raliguard of Pampa, and Mrs. Lena Westphal of New York City; one son, Alex Schneider, Jr., and four grandsons, Paul Schneider and Alex Rainouard of Pampa, Otto Schneider of Louisville, Ky., and Junior Westphal of New York City.

Charles Ford has returned to Pampa after an extended trip through South and Central Texas, bringing with him his bride, the former Miss Georgia Quince of Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Ford will make their home in the North Addition. Mr. Ford is a telegraph operator for the Santa Fe railway company and has lived in this city about three years.

G. H. Russell of Quitaque was a business visitor in Pampa today.

Car Overtakes Thursday 4 Miles West of White Deer

E. Ray Smith, Floyd county sheriff; J. B. Rutledge, Floydada automobile dealer, and the latter's son, G. D. Rutledge, were brought to Pampa hospital late yesterday following an accident four miles west of White Deer. Smith was driving the elder Rutledge's Essex sedan and lost control when he started to close a door. The vehicle turned over twice, but the body stood the impact and injuries received by the men are not regarded as serious. C. D. Rutledge probably has a broken hip and his father was badly bruised about the head. The deputy has a broken thumb and bruises.

The deputy and the automobile dealer had gone to Woodward, Okla., and were returning after making arrangements for bringing back a car taken there by Rutledge's son and two other boys, Johnnie Johnson and Oran Mobrey. Johnson and Mobrey were slightly hurt, and are in White Deer, where the car is being repaired. The automobile lost three wheels and was otherwise damaged.

Pork Supply Is Large—Beef Small

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22. (P)—An abundance of pork was declared in a report of the agriculture department's bureau of animal industry to have averted a possible meat shortage in the United States during 1928.

The developments of the year in meat production and consumption were reported by the bureau to have been similar to those of 1927, although more pronounced, including a continued upswing in hog and lamb slaughter and a continued downswing in the beef supply. Pork production showed an increase of 84 million pounds in 1928 over the preceding year; lamb and mutton increased 28 million pounds and beef slaughter decreased 744 million pounds.

Boys Take Good Care of Swine Given by Lions

Pigs bought by Pampa Lions for vocational agriculture boys are thriving, according to reports made to the club yesterday. These animals were purchased to enable the boys to have their required projects.

Part of the increase will be returned to the club for distribution to other boys, and in this way the swine industry will be bettered in this community.

Lion W. H. Curry yesterday gave a talk on how persons may be nominated for membership in the club, and recommended that all Lions observe the by-laws strictly. He also explained the restrictions imposed by the classification rules.

Visitors included Miss Mable Davis and Miss Ola Gregory, T. V. Ellzey and J. C. Chance of Amarillo, W. M. Craven and Wilbur Jackson. Hugh McSkimming rendered piano solos.

Worst Storm of Season in East

NEW YORK, Feb. 22. (P)—After a belated visit of winter the eastern portion of the country today was floundering out of the worst snowstorm of the season.

The storm, sweeping in on a north-easterly wind, spread a thick covering of snow from Maine to the Carolinas and westward to the Mississippi valley. Severely low temperatures were recorded in many sections.

The deaths of 12 persons, injury to several others, and numerous minor accidents were attributed to the snow and cold. Shipping was hampered and railroad schedules disrupted.

Saw Mill Blast Kills Four Men

GLENNVILLE, Ga., Feb. 22. (P)—Four men were killed and four injured in an explosion at the sawmill of W. A. Canuet here today. Cause of the explosion, which occurred in the mill's boiler and all but demolished the establishment, was not determined.

Nationalists in Victory as Rebels Los' Much Supplies

CHEFOO, China, Feb. 22. (P)—Fighting between former northern soldiers under command of Marshal Chang Tsung-Chang, and loyal Nationalist troops in Shan-tung reached a climax today in a clash between 7,000 nationalist and a force of revolvers estimated to number 26,000.

The battle took place about ten miles west of Chefoo and is stated to have resulted in a Nationalist victory. The revolvers lost 200 dead and the Nationalist 100. Three hundred prisoners were captured as well as thousands of rifles and 15 machine guns.

Dagger Pruitt Gets 99 Years

DALLAS, Feb. 22. (P)—Dallas juries, geared to a high pitch for two months, continued their series of severe penalties yesterday when William (Dagger) Pruitt, Jr., was given 99 years imprisonment for robbery of a drug store here January 3.

Two death, three 99-year, and two 25-year penalties have been assessed here within a month, all for lesser crimes than murder. Death sentences were given Lee Roy Merriman and Benny Aldridge upon conviction for criminal assault. J. W. Meyers and Bill Cobb, charged with robbery, were others given life sentences.

Pruitt's trial consumed four days, marked by the filing of perjury charges Wednesday against three men, including Pruitt's father, who had testified to an alibi for the 23-year-old accused bandit.

Pruitt, who still is unable to walk from wounds received when he resisted arrest, will go to trial March 11 for the murder of William Mann, high school student. Mann was fatally wounded when he resisted a hold-up attempt. Five other charges of robbery with firearms pend against Pruitt. The state will strive to obtain the death penalty.

Dog Grief-Stricken by Master's Death

Truly numbered among the mourners for Alex Schneider, Sr., is "Buster," large black and white Collie dog who is spending nearly all of his time at the side of the casket of his dead master.

The dog, formerly playful, has been mournful ever since Mr. Schneider became ill several months ago. Now he pays little attention to former friends with whom he used to frolic, and lies with bowed head and fixed expression.

Mrs. J. B. Pafford of Claude is transacting business here today and is visiting the automobile show.

Missing San Francisco Child Is Found Unharmed—Explanation Hazy

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22. (P)—Doris Virginia Smith-Murphy, who disappeared from a playground here a week ago, was returned safely to her parents today.

For the last week she had been living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sharp. Sharp and his wife said today they believed Baby Doris was their daughter, Betty, and told a story of being reunited by a stranger. They said they had not seen their child for many months.

Mrs. Helen Murphy, told of the discovery, suffered a near collapse. When she met the child she identified her without hesitation.

Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson said two men and a woman whose names he did not get, would be charged with kidnaping. He said that the three, two of whom were presumably Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, were under arrest.

Mrs. Sharp said today she received the child from a stranger last Friday. She explained that by a previous mar-

BACKFIRE FROM ENGINE BLAMED FOR BIG BLAST

R. G. Morgan Blown Out of Derrick House but Lives

BLAZING WELL TO BE SNUFFED

New Carbon Plant and Gasoline Plant Started

Backfire from a gas engine while pipe was being pulled this morning at 7:02 o'clock set gas and oil on fire at the Gulf Production company's No. 2 J. B. Bowers, in the southwest corner of the northwest 80 acres of section 89, block B-2, in the Bowers-McCee pool.

R. G. Morgan, tool-dresser, was blown from the derrick house with his clothing on fire, but although stunned, he extinguished the blaze before he was badly burned. He was rushed to the McKean & Connor hospital for treatment.

At the time of the explosion, the well was making 50 barrels of oil and 7,000,000 cubic feet of gas. Flames are shooting about 100 feet into the air as efforts are being made to snuff out the blaze.

The force of the explosion was plainly felt in Pampa.

The Cabot Carbon company will immediately begin construction of a double unit carbon black plant on the Helthold land four miles west of Pampa. The plant will be in section 152, block B-2.

The new plant, with a capacity of more than 15,000,000 feet of gas daily, will use casinghead gas from a Skelly Oil casinghead plant to be erected in section 174, block 3, four and one-half miles west of here.

Material for the new plant is arriving daily and is being hauled to the location.

Passenger Train Delayed by Snow

West bound Santa Fe passenger due here at 2:47 a. m., failed to reach Pampa until 7:17 this morning and then was being pulled by two engines. The engines and several passenger and express cars were snow-covered and caked with ice.

According to railroad officials, the giant passenger running between Chicago and Los Angeles, bucked heavy snow from the time it left Chicago until reaching Ft. Madison, Iowa. Light snow was encountered between Ft. Madison and Kansas City, but from there west the weather was clear.

J. E. McVicar of La Junta, Colo., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allison.

The "River Bed" Bill

The busy publicity of opponents of the Small "river bed" bill after passing of the measure by both houses of the Legislature can signify but one thing: an effort to induce Governor Moody to veto the bill.

The statement of Mr. Stiles, former chief reclamation engineer, with respect to the "gradient line" theory of determining the width of a watercourse under the "navigable stream" provision of the Constitution, brought forward in the push for a veto, supplies an example of the readiness of foes of the measure to twist arguments.

As a matter of fact, the effect of the Small bill will be confined to a small area in the Panhandle, notably in Gray county, where there certainly are no navigable streams. The land for which it is sought to validate titles lies principally along what is actually a mere depression in the surface of the ground, termed by courtesy a watercourse, and in which there is water only when there is much rain in that immediate neighborhood.

The argument of unconstitutionality brought against the bill is one with which the Governor is not required to be unduly concerned. The best of

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—Once it was considered honest enough for both houses of Congress to turn back their clocks and continue to function, instead of dying decorously promptly at noon on March 4.

And if a president and a president-elect, to say nothing of a hundred thousand or more spectators, were kept waiting for the inauguration ceremony, what of that?

The Hon. William Tyler Page has served in Washington through a dozen inaugurations and his memory, as the Hoover inauguration approaches, goes back to the time when President Chester A. Arthur and President-elect Grover Cleveland were forced to cool their heels outside the Senate chamber while Congress passed a bill for the financial relief of an ex-president, Ulysses S. Grant.

Mr. Page is clerk of the House of Representatives. He is widely known as the author of the American's Creed. He has served in the house far longer than any elected member of that body, for he went there as a page boy aged 13 years and is now 60 years old.

As a page boy, he played no unimportant part in that clock pushing drama which attended the first inauguration of Cleveland in 1885. He came to Washington in 1881, but just missed the Garfield inauguration. Edward MacPherson, who had just been elected clerk of the house, wrote and asked his mother if she had a boy old enough to be a page in his office.

"Cleveland had grand weather for his first inauguration and a tremendous crowd," he recalls, "for his was the first Democratic victory since before the Civil War. Everybody said the weather was 'Cleveland luck'."

"Pennsylvania avenue was a seething, milling mass of people here for a typical old-fashioned inauguration. And legal authorities have many times disagreed as to the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of measures. There have been many instances when the State's highest legal officer, the Attorney General, has "ruled" one way only to have the courts finally decided exactly to the opposite. The Governor should sign the bill, leaving the question of its constitutionality to the courts, which are the only fully competent authority in such matters.—Star-Telegram.

Washington was packed full of state militiamen. Pennsylvania alone sent 50,000 troops and the problem of housing them all was so great that they were allowed to sleep in federal buildings.

"As the fourth of March dawned Congress had been in session all night, for the house was tied up with a filibuster over the contest Frederick of Iowa had made for the seat of 'Tamar Jim' Wilson, who later was secretary of agriculture under McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft.

"The Democrats had a majority, but some of them favored the bill which the Senate had passed to put ex-President Grant on the army retired list with a lieutenant-general's rank and pay. Grant was poverty-stricken and everyone wanted to keep him from starving, but with the filibuster on there was no way of getting the bill up to a vote.

"That last morning went on toward noon and by 10 o'clock party feeling and personal rancor were running very high. It was dangerously near noon when 'Tamar Jim' Wilson climbed up on his desk and began to wave both arms for recognition. The scene on the floor resembled pandemonium and the galleries were now wide awake. Speaker Carlisle finally managed to recognize Wilson, who was a tall, lanky, bearded and quite picturesque Scotchman.

"Mr. Speaker," yelled Wilson at the top of his voice, "if my Democratic friends on the other side of the aisle will permit the General Grant retirement bill to be taken up and acted upon without obstruction, I will be willing to ask my Republican friends to withdraw their dilatory motions and have a vote on the Frederick-Wilson contest at once."

"We will! We will!" shouted the Democrats, who wanted his blood, and there was a roar of approval, even in the galleries. "So the House immediately voted to seat Frederick, the Democrat, and unseat Wilson, the Republican. Frederick took the oath and the Grant bill was passed on a suspension of the rules, by more than the required two-thirds vote. Of course there had been no great sacrifice on Wilson's part, as he had only about an hour more to serve anyhow, but it meant two years' pay, or $10,000 for Frederick—$10,000 for a single vote.

"By that time it was close to 1 o'clock. Frederick was at once inducted as vice president and everyone went out onto the platform for the inaugural. "Such a thing couldn't happen in these days. We have a little more conscience about the way we do things."

Methodist W. M. S. Studies Problems of Home Life

The study topic of the Methodist Women's Missionary society for the week was "Home," with the third chapter of John as the scriptural reading. Programs at the four circle meetings Wednesday afternoon included talks on three principal sub-topics, the home and its foundation, the home council, and the changing family. Extra numbers, varying with the circles, and special music gave added interest to the programs.

Circle No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. Chris Baer, with Mrs. R. C. Campbell as lesson leader. Mrs. Fannie Hardin and Mrs. F. M. Gwin gave short talks, and Mrs. Irvin Cole played a piano solo. Eleven members were present, answering roll call with a quotation on home.

Mrs. Fred Cary conducted the program for Circle No. 2, at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Roy Bourland. Mrs. Joseph Hodge, Mrs. J. G. Burgess, and Mrs. S. A. Hurst discussed the topics in the general outline, after which Mrs. J. M. Dodson talked on "Homes of Today and Tomorrow." Roll call was answered with mention of an important current event. Seventeen members were present.

Circle No. 3 had a particularly attractive program. "Home Sweet Home" was sung by Mrs. F. L. Elliott, Mrs. R. W. Lane, and Mrs. E. D. Zimmerman. Mrs. Joe Shelton, leader for the afternoon, read Edgar A. Guest's poem "Home." A third special number was given by Mrs. E. E. Plank, who read Beatitudes for the home Mrs. J. D. Sackett, Mrs. Lee Harrah, and Mrs. Lane presented the regular topics. The meeting of Circle No. 3 was held in the home of Mrs. Harrah, with 11 members present.

Circle No. 4 held its meeting in the parlors of the church, where it will continue to meet, because of the size of the territory it comprises. Mrs. G. C. Walstad, president, had charge of the session and Mrs. Nels Walberg, conducted the program. Mrs. Coolbaugh and Mrs. Walstad discussed sub-topics. Mrs. W. Purviance, president of the W. M. S., spoke on organization work in the circles.

In the W. M. S. plan of social service for the year special stress is given visiting the sick. Reports made by members of the several groups showed that much interest is being felt in this branch of work. More than 80 calls were made during the past week.

Mrs. Henry Lemons Hostess to Ace High Bridge Club

Mrs. Henry Lemons entertained members of the Ace High bridge club yesterday, arranging three tables for the game and including three special guests in her invitation list. Attractive hand-made score pads and tally cards, cut in the form of hatchets, suggested the George Washington anniversary and gave a note of color to the card tables.

The players were as follows: Mrs. J. Cassidy, Mrs. Douglas Day, Mrs. Carl Taylor, Mrs. S. A. Burns, Mrs. C. M. Carlock, Mrs. W. A. Gray, Mrs. W. H. Lang, Mrs. Floyd Hollenbeck, Mrs. James Ensign, and Mrs. A. D. Johnston, club members; Mrs. R. A. Webb, Mrs. Harry Marbaugh, and Mrs. F. H. Griffin, special guests.

Score favors went to Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Griffin, high and low for guests, and to Mrs. Lang and Mrs. Hollenbeck, high and low club.

T. E. L. Sunday School Class Holds Monthly Meeting

The monthly business and social meeting of the T. E. L. class of the Baptist Sunday school was held yesterday in the home of Mrs. L. H. Greene

After the class business had been transacted, Mrs. W. D. Benton gave two enjoyable readings.

The following members and special guests were present: Mrs. W. B. Henry, teacher, Mrs. Charles Barrett, Mrs. W. D. Benton, Mrs. J. P. McLeod, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. John L. Peak, Mrs. Ernest Fletcher, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. John Haggard, Mrs. W. B. Barton, Mrs. T. C. Neal, and Mrs. P. J. Nelson.

Episcopal Women Study Missionary Topic Wednesday

The Woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal church had a well attended meeting Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. P. Buckler. Mrs. L. M. Perry directed the study of a chapter of "The New Africa," a missionary course which the society is following through the Lenten season. Members who presented special topics were Mrs. M. K. Brown, Mrs. W. M. Craven, Mrs. E. H. Hamlett, and Mrs. Buckler. Others present included Mrs. John L. Peak, Mrs. N. G. Delaney, and Mrs. Henry Thut, Sr.

Japanese Art Gives Added Charm to Bridge Club Party

Mrs. H. H. Hicks was hostess to members of the London Bridge club and other friends yesterday at her home in Cook-Adams addition. Accessories for three tables were decorated in the Japanese manner, and tiny lanterns ornamented the refreshment plates. Favors also featured Japanese art.

The guest list included the following names: Mrs. R. G. Hughes, Mrs. John Studer, Mrs. Otto Studer, Mrs. J. D. Sugg, Mrs. H. W. Johns, Mrs. W. T. Fraser, Mrs. Marion Howard, Mrs. Porter Malone, Mrs. W. E. Coffee, Mrs. V. J. Smith, and Mrs. P. O. Sanders.

Mrs. Hughes scored high and Mrs. Coffee low. Top cut was made by Mrs. Sugg.

Never B Flat Club Has Study Program

The Never B Flat club, composed of Mrs. P. P. McSkimming's advanced piano pupils, held its second meeting yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. A lesson in ear training was studied, followed by practice in scale writing. A chapter from the history of music was discussed under the leadership of Lorene Keith.

Other members of the class who were present were: Viola Haggard, Leone Leedmon, Ann Swatmon, Orilla Smith, and Dorothy Dodd.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peters went to Amarillo today to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. Russell Walker, who has been seriously ill at her home the last several days, today was reported to be improving.

Dempsey and Florida Crowd Two Heavyweight Contenders Out of Limelight Despite Valiant Work

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 22. (AP)—Circumstances and the breaks of the game seem to be working hand in hand to leave none but the echoes of the hallooing thunder for two young heavyweights who will swap punches in the center of Flamingo park next Wednesday night.

In all probability there never has been another major heavyweight battle in modern fistic history where the training efforts of two such principals as Boston Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling, Georgia's slugging pride, were lost so completely in the picturesque scenery of the battle-ground or so overshadowed by the personalities of such figures as Jack Dempsey and Doughty Billy Carey. Certainly no other pair of fighters ever had to contend for publicity with such a problem as was left the Madison Square Garden corporation at the death of Tex Rickard.

Yet the young contenders for the heavyweight mantle Gene Tunney threw aside have worked along steadily in the shadow of arguments over referees and rules, lost amid the dogged perseverance that has built the fight from almost a certain failure to an assured success. And all this despite the fact that both Sharkey and Stribling promise something out of ordinary for their partisans on the night of February 27.

The Sharkey of today is something northern fans haven't seen for more than three years. He has shaved his weight down to the figure of his first commanding victories, the conquests of the negroes George Godfrey and Harry Wills more than three years ago. The Boston sailor, burned a ruddy red by constant exposure to the sun, scaled only 187 pounds after his latest workout and promises to enter the ring under 191, his weight for the sensational knockout of Jimmy Malone two years ago.

Stribling, too, seems to have changed his style. The Georgian still dotes on close work where the left hand is caught in a clinch with the right free to slug overhead to the head and underhand to the body, but he has discarded almost entirely his famous rushing attack to close quarters. He practices feinting with his head and body as he stands in the center of the ring.

Sharkey, who entered into a new contract with his manager, Johnny Buckley yesterday for one year with the option of the second, took a rest today and left the training fields entirely to Stribling.

Giant Battery Men Unleashing Some Fast Ones

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 22. (AP)—When the main body of New York Giants get here they will find the pitchers and catchers far ahead of them in spring training. With the exception of one day, McGraw's batterymen have been cavorting in the sunshine daily since they landed here and even the veterans are beginning to cut loose with their fast ones.

Yesterday was a typical session. Pitchers and receivers and a smattering of infielders, early arrivals, worked industriously for more than two hours under a hot sun, taking up practically every department of the game.

An elongated youngster from the West Texas oil fields, Olin "Hi" Haven, looked yesterday and was looked over by the Giant coaches. Haven, a righthander, weighs 180 pounds and stands six feet three. He boasts a great record among the semi-pros.

Bill Stepp, University of Alabama freshman, who reported Tuesday for an infield tryout, looked good yesterday.

The veteran, John Scott, is working out with a badge on one hand. He cut the member while killing hogs on his farm in North Carolina.

First Harvester Game Will Be Late Tonight

The Pampa Harvesters entered the District 1 Interscholastic basketball meet at Canyon yesterday and drew the last "by." They will not take the floor until 9 o'clock tonight. The local boys will meet the winner of the Dalhart-Herford game.

The Harvesters won the right to attend the district tournament by winning over Miami and Canadian without losses. The Pampa boys have been playing fast basketball all season.

McLean and Borger opened the tournament at 10 o'clock this morning. Following that game Stratford and Happy were to clash.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Canyon and Perryton were to meet and after that game Dalhart and Herford will play. The 4 o'clock game will be between Farwell and the winner of the McLean-Borger game. Panhandle and the winner of the Stratford-Happy game will meet at 5 o'clock.

The Amarillo Golden Sandstorm will play the winner of the Canyon-Perryton game at 8 o'clock and will be followed by the game between the Pampa Harvesters and the winner of the Dalhart-Herford game.

Christner Likes To Be Receiver of Offensives

NEW YORK, Feb. 22. (AP)—The boys have quoted Meyer (K. O.) Christner, the big rubber tire man from Akron, as saying he loved to have his fistic rivals "come to him." The chances are Meyer will get his fill of that tonight when he battles the rugged and rough Spaniard, Paulino Uzcudun, in a 10-round match in Madison Square Garden.

Paulino's idea of an evening of great fun is to start wading into his opponent at the opening gong. Christner insists that style is made to order for him because it gives him a chance to shoot over that powerful right hand, the 33-year-old Akron heavyweight's best weapon and the one that stopped Knute Hansen in eight rounds.

Chicago Golfer to Face Hard Tests

HOUSTON, Feb. 22. (AP)—John Dawson of Chicago, favorite in the Houston country club invitation tournament, faced the first of a number of tough rows he must hoe if he is to win the championship. He met Clarence Hubby of Waco in a 36 hole second round match today.

If Dawson should win this match he would face either Willie Hunt, veteran internationalist, or Huni's opponent today, Reuben Albaugh of San Antonio, who yesterday overturned the dope by defeating George Rotan, a six-time winner of the tournament.

Only Three Old Houston Dixie Champs Remain

By LLOYD GREGORY, Post-Dispatch Sports Editor. (Written for the Associated Press.) HOUSTON, Feb. 22. (AP)—If "Pancho" Snyder were a football coach, he would be issuing doleful bulletins about how graduations had wrecked his 1928 championship team.

How gloomy those statements would be may be surmised from the fact that out of the first-line performers who won the 1928 Dixie championship, only three will be available for 1929 service. Those three are: Manager Snyder, catcher extraordinary, "Big Jim" Lindsey, who last season led the circuit in victories with 25, and Eddie Hock, generally conceded the loop's most valuable hot corner guardian in 1928.

As the club now stands, third place is the highest it could be expected to go; but President Fred Ankenman and Manager Snyder have some trading irons in the fire, and will strike when they are hot.

As long as Manager Snyder is able to hobble around, the Buffs will be well fortified behind the plate. The other catcher probably will be a rookie, with Harold Funk, who last year managed the Waynesboro, Pa. club and "Dutch" Hoffman outstanding prospects. Hoffman last summer played for Coach Billy Ditch's Freeport Tarpons of the South Coast league.

Pitching prospects are lamentably weak. Lindsey is a sure bet; and so is Art Reinhart, providing the former Cardinal southpaw signs. As yet, he and the Buff management have not been able to agree on terms.

Leo Moon, southpaw from Minneapolis, may prove a consistent winner, provided Snyder is able to steady him, as he last season steadied "Wild Bill" Hallahan.

Dick Whitworth and Carl Littlejohn, righthanders of last season, are on the roster; but their activities last season were confined mainly to pitching to the batters in practice.

Some of the youngsters who will try to make the grade are: Chester Webb, Austin southpaw, Salvatore Gittito, a righthander from Terre Haute; Floyd Rose, big righthander from Topeka in the Western association, and Leo Holum of Yoakum, who last season twirled for Coach Bob Countryman's Texas Aggies.

The announcement of Lou Benson that his arm is okeh brightens infield prospects. The inner defense probably will be composed of Dick Burrus, former Boston Brave, or Ira Smith, versatile performer obtained from Rochester, at first; Jimmie Jordan, who last season burned up the Central league, at second; the steady Eddie Hock at third, and Benson at short.

Joel Hunt, former quarterback of the Texas Aggies, may make the grade as utility infielder.

Two outfield certainties are Howard Williamson, the former Texas university star, and "Pepper" Martin, who in 1927 led the Texas league in stolen bases, and last season sojourned with the Cardinals. Whether "Rabbit" Powell, veteran outfielder, will stick with the club is problematical.

Wants Everybody in Texas to Know About Sargon

"For three years I was a constant sufferer from liver disorders, acid stomach, and other troubles. Sargon is the only medicine I ever found that overcame my troubles, and I wish it was so that everybody in Texas knew about this wonderful medicine.

"No matter how careful I was about my eating, I suffered after every meal with gas pains and indigestion. I had no relish for even the most tempting dishes. My liver was inactive and I had to take strong laxatives continually. I felt tired and run-down, and became so nervous I would roll and toss about for hours every night before I could get to sleep.

"Sargon went right to my troubles after everything else had failed. It put my stomach in perfect condition and I get real pleasure out of my meals now for I eat everything I want and I have such a fine appetite I relish every bite. I even eat between meals and at night, and never have a moment's trouble from indigestion. My nerves are strong as steel again and I sleep like a top from the time I hit the pillow until time to get up in the morning. I have gained weight and I feel fine all the time.

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills completely overcame my constipation. I never have to take laxatives now for my liver is in perfect condition.

"I have already told many of my friends what a wonderful medicine Sargon is. It deserves full credit for it does just what they say it will do."

The above statement was made recently by T. M. Campbell, electrical engineer in charge of all electrical work at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio.

Sargon may be obtained in Pampa, from Pathersee Drug Co., and in McLean from Erwin Drug Co.—(adv.)

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Christian Growth.
Scripture Lesson: John 1:40-42; Matt. 16:15-18; John 21:15-19; 2 Pet. 3:18a.

John 1:40. One of the two that heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41. He findeth first his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah (which is, being interpreted, Christ).

42. He brought him unto Jesus. Jesus looked upon him, and said, Thou art Simon the son of John; thou shalt be called Cephas (which is by interpretation, Peter).

Matt. 16:15. He saith unto them, But who say ye that I am?

16. And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven.

18. And I also say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it.

John 21:15. So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, lovest thou Me more than these? He saith unto him, yea, Lord; Thou knowest that I love Thee. He saith unto him, Feed my Lambs.

16. He saith to him again a second time, Simon, son of John, lovest thou Me? He saith unto him, yea, Lord; Thou knowest that I love Thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep.

17. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of John, lovest thou Me? Peter was grieved because He said unto him the third time, Lovest Thou Me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love Thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, when thou wast young, thou girdest thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldst; but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldst not.

19. Now this He spake, signifying by what manner of death He would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He saith unto him, follow Me.

2 Pet. 3:18. But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Time and Place: Peter was called to be a disciple at Bethsara, on the lower Jordan in February, A. D. 27. His confession of faith in Christ was spoken near Caesarea Philippi, in the summer of A. D. 29, the third year of Christ's ministry. His conversation with the risen Christ took place on the shore of the Sea of Galilee in April, A. D. 30.

Golden Text: But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.—2 Pet. 3:18a.

INTRODUCTION
Growth is a law of all life: that is, of all finite or limited life. It is not true doubtless of the life of God, because He is infinite and perfect. But for all created and limited life growth is a sign of health and vigor, and lack of growth is a sign that the life is abnormal and stunted. This is true in the Christian life as everywhere else. The Christian is born a babe, not a full grown man. The New Testament has much to say about growth, and it is important for Christians to understand something of the necessity and law of the development of the Christian life.

Andrew and Simon Peter
As soon as Andrew came to know

Jesus, he wanted his brother to know Him. So he finds his brother Simon Peter and says to him: "We have found the Messiah." The word Christ means the same thing. It is the Greek word for Messiah. Each means "anointed."

When Jesus looked on Simon He saw in him unusual possibilities. Simon by nature impulsive, vacillating, emotional. But Jesus says to this vacillating: "You shall be a different man. I will name you Rock." This shows the power of Jesus to see, not only what a man is, but also what he may become. He was looking for possibilities as well as for actualities. It shows also the transition of power of the grace of God. It took a good deal of patience on the part of Jesus and a considerable period of time, but the vacillating Simon did become Peter the Rock.

Thou Art the Christ
This event took place in a season of comparative retirement. The confession possibly took place on the slopes of Mt. Hermon above the city of Caesarea-Philippi. Jesus has just asked them what men were saying about Him. They answered that they were saying that He was John the Baptist, Elijah, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.

1. The question of Jesus. "Who say ye that I am?" Jesus shifts from what others are saying and puts the direct question to the disciples as to what they thought of Him. The central thing in Christianity is a man's personal attitude toward Jesus.

2. Peter's answer. Peter was always ready to speak. The other disciples seem to regard him as a kind of spokesman for them. So he speaks for the group. "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." This gives definite expression to their faith in Him as Messiah. To express a conviction of this kind deepens the conviction.

3. Then Jesus says: "On this rock I will build my church." Here He uses a different form of the word for rock. He called Simon "Petros," a common or ordinary rock. Now He says on this "Petra," a big rock, a boulder. I will build my church.

There are three interpretations to this: (a) That the rock (Petra) on which Christ will build his church is Christ himself; (b) That the rock is Peter's confession; (c) That it is Peter's character as a believer in Jesus as the Messiah.

Jesus Tests Peter's Love
"In this passage we have a conversation between Jesus and Simon Peter, the object of which on the part of Jesus was perhaps to restore Peter fully after his bitter experience of denying his Lord. The incident took place after the resurrection following a fruitless night's toil on the part of the disciples in fishing on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus appeared and directed them so that they made a successful haul with their nets and then prepared for them a meal on the bank.

Jesus here asks Simon a question three times. His question was: "Lovest thou Me more than these?" Simon had professed that he would stay with the Lord if all others forsook Him. Jesus now probes his heart with the searching question: Simon, do you now think that you love Me more than these other men do?" Peter was grieved because He asked the third time: "Lovest thou Me?" Was Jesus reminding Peter of his triple denial? Peter says: "Lord Thou knowest all things: Thou knowest that I love Thee." Peter will affirm his love for Christ in spite of past failures and denials.

After Jesus had thus led Peter three times in the presence of the other disciples to affirm his love for himself, He then tells him that he will be called upon to pay the supreme price to prove his love—his life. Possibly Jesus was preparing him for this announcement. Then he adds the command: "Follow me."

Foretells Peter's Crucifixion
"Now this He spake, signifying by what manner of death he should glorify God." We have historical proof that Peter was crucified at Rome, and at his It means that we must advance in head downward, as he regarded it too honorable for him to assume the same position as his Saviour. We must remember that John wrote his gospel long after the death of Peter. "And when He had spoken this, He saith unto him, Follow me." How nobly the restored apostle followed his Lord we can see in the Acts. It was Peter's sermon after the descent of the Spirit at Pentecost that brought three thousand souls into the church. Peter raised Dorcas from the dead. Peter admitted the Gentile Cornelius into the church, and thus inaugurated foreign missions. And Peter, at the first council, gave strong testimony in favor of the great work of Paul among the Gentiles. Moreover, we have two noble Epistles from Peter's pen, and it is very likely that Mark wrote his gospel largely at Peter's dictation. Thus we see how gloriously Peter grew under the tutelage of Jesus Christ.

Growth in Grace
"But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." We have been studying the steps of Peter's own growth, and this sentence from his pen we see that the apostle himself understood the course and aim of his spiritual progress, and taught them to his converts.

"What is meant by growth in grace? It means that we must advance in holiness."—Augustus W. Hare.

"In the physical world we know there are certain conditions of growth. Plants do not thrive well if kept from the sunlight. Animals do not grow properly if their food is not what it should be. Boys and girls do not get their full strength if they do not have proper sleep and exercise, or if they treat their bodies in any harmful way. So it is in the matter of spiritual growth. We must recognize and obey the laws of the spiritual life, and furnish it the proper conditions for development if we expect to become strong spiritually."—Charles Calvert Ellis, Ph. D.

"There is much to do, and we are sent into the world with such a consecration to it, we have such fertile power and such opportunity, that nothing but selfishness, blind pride, and ignominious self-indulgence, can keep a man from heroic activity all through his life."—Henry Ward Beecher.

HUGE TRACT OBTAINED FOR HUNTING PURPOSES
KANSAS CITY, Feb. 22 (AP)—The use of hunting lands totaling 3,000,000 acres in New Mexico and Arizona, according to Robert C. Dow, former attorney-general of New Mexico and president of the organization, has been obtained by the Frontier club of America, recently incorporated in New Mexico.

The club, Dow said, has acquired the Diamond Rock lodge near Springerville, Ariz. Plans for the purchase of airplanes to carry members to the preserves are being considered.

ACCUSED OF POISONING
GREENVILLE, Feb. 22 (AP)—Bond of $5,000 was set for Mrs. Bertha Campbell yesterday after she had waived examining trial on charges of having poisoned her husband, Bascom Campbell, Greenville painter, who died here August 25. Campbell's body was disinterred December 1. Chemists who examined the viscera were said to have reported traces of poison.

Now you can raise all your chicks

Poultrymen and farmers everywhere say that Gold Medal Chick Starter (with Dried Buttermilk) and Gold Medal Chick Feed practically eliminate chick losses.

That's because these feeds are scientifically made of the finest materials. They contain exactly the right food elements that chicks must have to live, to grow fast, to grow big, and to resist disease. They develop the large-boned frames that mean heavy egg-layers and profitable meat-birds later on.

Try these feeds at our risk. If any sack of Gold Medal

Poultry Feed is not satisfactory in every way, return the unused portion to us and we will refund full purchase price. Gold Medal Feeds are made and guaranteed by the world's largest millers. Order from us today.

East Ward P. T. A. Plans Work at Executive Board Meet

At a meeting of the executive board of the East Ward Parent-Teacher association yesterday afternoon, tentative plans were laid for a membership drive, which will be directed by Mrs. H. H. Heiskell, membership chairman. Plans were made for the next regular meeting of the association, at 3:15 o'clock next Thursday. At that time the children of the school will give a fifteen minute program. Mrs. Haskell will outline plans for the membership drive, and Mrs. C. E. Hutchins will discuss plans for the spring convention of the Eighth district P. T. A., which will be held here April 3, 4, and 5. Mrs. Hutchins is chairman of the convention steering committee.

Government Will Honor Washington

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22. (AP)—The president, congress and the capital city had arranged today to observe the 175th anniversary of George Washington's birth.

Ordinarily the cabinet meets on Friday but this was dispensed with today as was the usual Friday press conference with the chief executive.

Mr. Coolidge had on his engagement list tonight an address at George Washington university, where he and Mrs. Coolidge were to receive the degree of doctor of laws.

A section in the university auditorium had been reserved for members of the cabinet, many of the members of congress, ambassadors and ministers from foreign countries and others prominent in official life.

There's no automatic I see, or any other kind of gun." Mann's instructions to Birdwell, the third of the plainclothes men, for she was reliving that scene with Jack Hayward at the elevator, when he had come up to rescue her, as he thought, from Borden's amorous importunities. "Now, Mrs. Borden, just one more question for the present: did you encounter anyone as you left your husband's office Saturday?" "What sounded like a sigh of relief quivered the white lips of the widow. "No one, sir. . . No, wait! There was a scrubwoman coming out of the office next to the elevator, across the hall. I remember thinking how old and bent she was, how how harshly life must have used her. . . That is the only person I saw, Mr. McMann, before the elevator came."

the out-thrust right arm, down the torso, around the big, toneless, rigidly crooked in death, the chalk speckled, lifting only to avoid that dark, drying pool of blood. While the doctor worked a thick, pugnacious young man, shouldering a camera, pushed his way into the room, saluted McMann, grinned appreciatively at Ruth, then went about his first gruesome task—that of photographing the dead man where he lay. At the explosion of the flashlight Mrs. Borden, still sitting in a forlorn huddle in the outer office, screamed, and Ruth turned back to her, to comfort her with an explanation and little murmurs which were scarcely words. "They were kept closed in the winter," Ruth answered. "Ventilation came from the window on the airshaft between the wings. Minnie Cassidy, the cleaning woman, must have closed it when she cleaned Saturday afternoon, although Mr. Borden was still here. It's a rule of the building that no windows are to be left open overnight."

CHURCH OF CHRIST (G. C. Merritt, Minister.)

FACING THE FACTS

Some physicians will, in order to save a patient's feelings, deceive him as to his hopeless condition. It is never best to discourage a patient when there is even hope against hope. Yet a man is always better off to know his true condition when there is no doubt as to that. At least it will give him an opportunity to make his peace with God or to throw himself upon the mercy and help of the Lord for possible recovery. But especially in the great matter of spiritual disease of mankind, sin, it is always and absolutely necessary for a man to understand his doom. This shallow modern optimism making a jest of sin, hell and the judgment is a miserable lie. Men try to encourage themselves with false hopes and try to doctor themselves, perhaps, because they do not understand the seriousness of their trouble. These never come to themselves until it is too late to be saved. But God is merciful. He tells a man his true condition without minimizing or exaggerating. But He does not leave him without a remedy. In Him there is help, forgiveness and salvation. Man may, if he will, fly to Him for healing and refuge. The religion of Christ turns the light on the ruin of man and then saves him who will receive Him. "For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through Him." (John 3:17). Subjects for next Sunday: "Standing on the Rock" and "The Woman Who Would Not Turn Back." Bible study begins promptly at 10 a. m. We appreciate our growing interest in the work. You are invited to come and be with us.

DAILY LENTEN THOUGHT By William E. Gilroy, D. D. (Editor of The Congregationalist) The "forty days" of Lent commemorate the forty days of Jesus in the wilderness (Matthew 4:1, 2), with their emphasis upon prayer and fasting in preparation for his ministry. But with their culmination in Good Friday and Easter the Lenten days have come to have a deeper significance in relation to the whole life of Jesus and his mission as the world's Redeemer. The wilderness experiences would have meant nothing but gloom and loss had they not led to Christ's conquest over temptation and to his acceptance of that sacrificial way that ended in Calvary and the Resurrection. But, through Christ's submission to the Father's will, what began in the wilderness ended in glory. The prophet predicted a day when the wilderness would "rejoice and blossom as the rose." It was this prediction that Jesus made literally true in human life. But it is those who share Christ's wilderness experiences of sacrifice and self-surrender who find the fruitfulness and flowering of life in peace, in beauty, and in power. Jesus never leaves us in the wilderness. He leads us out when we are prepared for it into the active world of work and service. But he leads us into life a new sense of its value, even in its sorrows and trials, as well as in its joys and triumphs.

West Texas Oil Production Grows

DALLAS, Feb. 22. (P)—Oil production in West Texas last week more than doubled the increase of the previous week, 16 producers in three counties producing 150,321 barrels daily, compared with 62,598 barrels 29 producers for the second week of this month. Pecos county lead the other two counties. Winkler and Howard, in new production, three wells flowing 131,206 barrels daily. Winkler county completed six wells for 13,624 barrels and Howard county seven wells for 5,491 barrels.

The Sun company's Grote No. 2 in the Independence field near Brenham, which has been producing at the rate of 6,000 barrels a day, has sanded up and crews were busy cleaning it out and plugging it back to 1,300 feet. It has been making a little water, which will be cut off.

Sumner, Kansas Gets Fine Well

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 22. (P)—Sumner county's oil frontier has been extended following a strike by Burlington & Long at their No. 1 Rex, in the SE SE of 22-33-3 west, eight miles north of Caldwell.

During a two-hour swabbing test yesterday the well made 100 barrels from the Bartlesville sand found from 3,875 to 3,905 feet. The well, which now is flowing naturally while additional storage is being erected, is in virgin territory, the nearest producer being the Gypsy company's Douglas well, eight miles to the southeast.

Trinity Scorer Is Passed for Lead

WAXAHACHIE, Feb. 22. (P)—Irwin "Rusty" Hill, Trinity university ace, who has been leading the Texas basketball conference in scoring since early in the season, was relegated to third place this week when Captain Johnny Gregg of Simmons university and "Red" Whittle of Southwestern university both passed him.

Gregg took the lead by scoring 28 points in two games to bring his total for the season to 108. Whittle went into second place by marking up 22 points to send his total to 94, one point more than the number made by Hill who was idle last week as his team had no conference games scheduled.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR PRAISES KELLOGG PACT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22. (P)—Praising the Kellogg treaty as an instrument that "must weigh heavily in the balance for the cause of peace," Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador, declared today that George Washington must eventually prove to be the greatest link in the chain of friendship and common understanding between the United States and Great Britain. He was speaking here to the Daughters of the American Revolution of the District of Columbia, the sons of the American revolution and the society of the Children of the American Revolution.

Car Used by Gang Killer in Chicago Found by Officers

CHICAGO, Feb. 22. (P)—The killer's car used in last week's gang massacre has been found, police said today, in a garage not three miles from the scene of multiple murder.

Efforts to destroy it led to the discovery, for an acetylene torch used to cut through the steel frame ignited the garage. Firemen, finding the machine, called police, and police, after a careful survey including the photographing of fingerprints inside the garage and on parts of the car, believed themselves near solution of the worst gang outrage in Chicago history.

Arrests followed quickly after police established to their own satisfaction the identity of the automobile. Half a dozen arrests had been made by midnight, and about dawn a squad went out on a secret mission which Lieut. William Cusack, squad leader, said would solve the slayings.

The machine was a 1928 model touring car of the type used by mobile squads of the police department. A small siren, such as is used on police cars, was found nearby.

The owner of the garage, located in the heart of "Little Sicily," is Leo Joppet. He told of renting the garage on February 12—two days before the gang killing—to a "Mr. Rogers."

"Rogers" gave his address as 1857 West North avenue, which was found fictitious. That address, however, is next door to "The Circus" cafe, a playground for gangsters and a favorite hang-out, police said, for those who follow the leadership of Al Capone.

The police order to dry up Chicago, entailing the search of any place in the city where the sale or storage of liquor is suspected, including "beer flats," was having a marked effect today, the several district captains reported. In the Loop district police said they did not believe a single gambling place or "booze joint" was in operation.

German Payments Still in Doubt

PARIS, Feb. 22. (P)—The second Daves committee on German reparations failed today to accept a plan of procedure which was evolved by a sub-committee of five. So many suggestions for changes were made the sub-committee was instructed to resume its labors and report again to the full committee next Monday morning. The general impression was that Monday meeting will mark a crucial point in the proceedings.

The sub-committee had suggested that the conference take up the amount and value of transfers in money or in kind that Germany might be able to make each year. Under the original Daves plan the size of the annuities is subject to an index of prosperity in Germany. Financial expression in that country would reduce the annual payment while another clause protects Germany from what might amount to extortion.

Senate to Debate on Cruiser Measure

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22. (P)—Observance of Washington's birthday today seemed the most important thing on the house calendar but the senate had before it the naval appropriation bill carrying funds for the inauguration of the 15 cruiser program. Fears of a filibuster against the bill have been dispelled with the agreement to limit debate on the measure after 3 p. m. today.

In addition to a speech by Representative Beck on Washington, the house had on its program bills requiring unanimous consent, and in the offing was the second deficiency bill carrying $191,000,000. It was reported to the house yesterday and will probably pass that body without much trouble.
