All members of the University club are urged to be present at the opening of the library on Tuesday, Feb. 12, as the organization having the most members present at the opening will be presented a trophy.

Plans Maturing For District P. T. A. Meeting

The regular business meeting of the Central Ward P. T. A. was held Friday afternoon. Mrs. Joe Smith presided in place of Mrs. Atteberry, president, who is ill. The following ladies were elected to serve on the Pampa library board for the coming year, representing the Central Ward P. T. A.:

Mrs. Floyd Smith, Mrs. R. W. Swainman and Mrs. G. C. Vastad. Mrs. Homer Kees was appointed historian. A caterer will be made during the year.

Mrs. G. C. Stark was chosen as chairman of the hospitality committee. The members of her committee are: Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, Mrs. R. C. Campbell, Mrs. Annie Daniels, Mrs. Roy McMillen and Mrs. C. T. Hunka-piller.

Mrs. R. C. Campbell was elected as chairman of the finance committee to take the place of Mrs. T. W. Sweatman, who has resigned.

Some of the most important measures affecting the schools of Pampa, were the plans for the organization of an East Ward P. T. A. and one in the high school under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Hutchins, chairman of the membership committee and her committee, which consisted of Mrs. Floyd Smith, Mrs. R. W. Lamb, Mrs. J. C. Kahl, Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. C. C. Edmiston and Mrs. McMillen.

A report was made on the West Ward P. T. A. by Mrs. Hutchins. They have organized with 50 enthusiastic members. Mrs. W. Purviance was elected president of this P. T. A.

All of the P. T. A. organizations assisted in the serving of lunches, candy, etc., at the basket ball tournament. The first day netted around $60 and the many donations made are certainly appreciated.

Plans were perfected for a program to be given by all the grade children at the high school gym Friday, Feb. 8 at 2 p. m. Mrs. Doucette and Mrs. Annie Daniels will be in charge. Following the program there will be a social hour with Mrs. W. A. Bratton and her committee in charge. This is the completion of the membership drive, in which it is hoped to raise the membership of the Central Ward P. T. A. to 200 or 300. Much interest is being aroused and many new members have been secured during the last two weeks through the drive conducted by Mrs. Hutchins as chairman of the membership committee.

All the P. T. A. groups of Pampa are very busy planning for the district meeting to be held April 3, 4 and 5. Plans are beginning to take form. The various clubs of the town are offering their services in providing homes, caring for registration, entertaining and decorations for the meeting. All the church organizations have signified their willingness to cooperate in the serving of lunches.

It is gratifying to see the spirit of cooperation that has been demonstrated during the preparation for this meeting. An invitation is extended everyone to get in behind the P. T. A. and help out over this meeting as it should be done.

Mr. Claude Stuckey is visiting his family in Wichita Falls.

Members of Blue Bonnet Club Enjoy Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. H. C. Heinlen delightfully entertained the members of the Blue Bonnet club with a lovely Valentine luncheon Friday at 1 o'clock in her apartment at the Davis Hotel. Two courses were served with the Valentine suggestions carried out in the ice cream, etc., as well as the table appointments.

Those present for the affair were: Mrs. J. H. Lavender, Mrs. J. H. Lutz, Mrs. J. G. Christy, Mrs. S. L. Maynard, Mrs. M. W. Jones, Mrs. Carl Taylor and the hostess.

Mrs. Lutz held high score and Mrs. Christy low at the close of the games. Each guest was presented with a heart-shaped box of candy as favors.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stuckey and daughter Ruth Nathalie, have arrived from Wichita Falls to make their home in Pampa.

East Ward: piano solo; reading; Baker school: play; chorus, "Is There Any Better Country Than the U. S. A."

CHURCHES

"The supreme need of the hour is not an elastic currency, or sounder banking, or better protection against panics, or bigger navies, or more equitable tariffs, but a revival of faith, a return to the morality which recognized a basis in religion."—Wall Street Journal.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
"And we behold His glory." (John 1:14) will be the text for the sermon, "God's Masterpiece," to be delivered at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning.
At 7:30 p. m., under the general theme, "The Claims of the Church" the text will be from James 4:17, "Therefore, to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is a sin."

Sunday school begins at 10 a. m. Come, worship with us.

FEAST OF ST. BLASE

In close conjunction with Candlemas day, the members of the Catholic faith celebrate on Sunday, Feb. 3 the Feast of St. Blase. On this day they are accustomed to have their throats blessed with the following ceremonies:

A special blessing is asked upon two candles, joined in the form of a cross. The priest then lights the candles and proceeds from one person to another ranged in kneeling posture, along the communion railing and repeats these words, "Through the intercession of St. Blase, bishop and martyr, may God deliver thee from all diseases of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

This blessing will be given to those who present themselves for it immediately following the mass service, which starts at 10 o'clock a. m. It will also be given again at 2 p. m. for the benefit of those who were unable to secure it in the morning. All are welcome to receive it, infants as well as adults, Protestants as well as Catholics. It goes without saying that one to benefit by it may not regard it a mere superstitious rite, but rather in the spirit of faith and humble appeal to God from whom all health comes to help them in this particular manner.

The communion services will be at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at the home of Mrs. C. P. Buckler and the prayer service, conducted by Bishop Seaman will be at 11 o'clock at the Methodist church.

Senator Fess Is Against President

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2. (AP)—The administration was confronted with a last minute attack from its own ranks today as the senate concluded a week of debate on the bill for the construction of fifteen cruisers and one aircraft carrier.

In one of the last speeches before the senate discusses the bill under limited debate, promising a final vote next week, Senator Fess, of Ohio, one of President Coolidge's staunchest supporters, called for adoption of the bill with retention of its time limit clause, which would necessitate laying down of all the ships before July 1, 1931.

This provision, persistently opposed by the president, also was endorsed by Senators Shortridge, of California, and Sackett, of Kentucky, two administration Republicans.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vasey have sold their home on North Frost street to Mr. and Mrs. A. Fraisher, pioneer residents of this part of the country. Mr. and Mrs. Vasey have moved into the Osborne apartments, 811 West Foster avenue, where they will be located until spring, when they plan on building again and will also build a new home for their son William.

Mrs. T. C. Burrough underwent a minor operation in a local hospital yesterday.

T. R. Teague, who underwent a serious operation in the McKean & Connor hospital Thursday, is recovering.

Mrs. W. N. Simmons is in the McKean & Connor hospital undergoing treatment.

Miss Wilma Behrends has been confined to her home during the last week with influenza.

Services each evening—7:30 o'clock.

Boxing-Wrestling Will Be Offered on Pla-Mor Card

A combination boxing and wrestling card will be held at the Pla-Mor auditorium Thursday night. Both main events will be grudge matches. In the boxing event Frankie Farrell, 135 pounds, will meet Kid Murdock of Childress, 132 pounds, in a 10-round bout. These two boxers fought six whirlwind rounds two weeks ago with neither having an advantage.

The semi-final bout will be between Calvin Jones and Battling Langford, both negroes. Jones, local boy, has been winning from everyone lately, but the big Los Angeles negro thinks he can tame the Pampa boy.

Following the main boxing event a preliminary wrestling bout will be held. Then Oscar Dotson, local blacksmith, and Red McKee, big timer, will wrestle a finish match. This will be the main event of the evening as the two have been hurling verbal challenges at each other for several weeks but have never been able to get together.

Leo Chase, another home boy, will be present to throw a challenge to the winner.

Southwestern Is Winner Over Saints

AUSTIN, Feb. 2. (AP)—The Southwestern university basket ball Pirates defeated St. Edwards here tonight, 39-31, in a fast contest. The game was in doubt until the last whistle.

Herron, for the Saints, was the outstanding star with 16 points. Whitt led for the Pirates with 14 but went out for personal fouls.

RETAINS GOLF TITLE

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Feb. 2. (AP)—A brilliant afternoon round enabled A. C. N. Gosling of Toronto, to defeat his fellow countryman, Nicol Thompson, Jr., of Hamilton, Ont., in the 36-hole final round of the Bermuda amateur golf championship today and retain this title he won last year.

SIMMONS BEATS TRINITY

ABILENE, Feb. 2. (AP)—Simmons university passed the halfway point in the Texas conference basketball race undefeated, by downing the Trinity university Tigers, 21 to 13, tonight. The Cowboys put the game on ice with a 16 to 4 lead in the first half and then stalled throughout the last period. Gregg of Simmons and Hill of Trinity divided scoring honors, each with eight points.

BRUSHING UP SPORTS

By Laufer

TOMMY LOUGHRAN

The prospect of witnessing Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling fight for what the Madison Square Garden Corporation deems the right to succeed to Gene Tunney's vacated title, leaves many a sane boxing fan with a very sour taste in the mouth.

Especially so, when on the sidelines sits Tommy Loughran, lightweight champion, whom many believe could easily whip the gob and the cautious southern gladiator in the same ring.

Just why Tommy has been left completely out of the mixup to establish a new champion is a mystery, when one considers the ring achievements of the entries.

Sharkey has successfully demonstrated in his fights with Risko, Heeney, De Kuh and Christner he is the world's worst in-and-outer and his one-round knockout of Jack Delaney didn't fool anybody. Surely he would not be a champion you would tell your grandchildren about.

Two years ago it was generally accepted Young Stribling was a burned-out fighter. His recent string of sensational knockouts at the expense of small-town piano movers doesn't change the minds of the boys who know their leather goods.

AKERS TREATS BOYS

The Pampa Daily News carrier boys were guests of C. B. Akers, manager of the Rex theatre, yesterday afternoon. The boys saw Jack Mulhall and Dorothy Mackall in "Waterfront". They made plenty of noise when they heard that the Vitaphone and talkie pictures were to be here February 16 of the Rex theatre, yesterday afternoon. The boys saw Jack Mulhall invitation would be accepted.

Show Card Writer Breaks His Record In Local Event

Arto, the card wizard, broke his own record of 31 hours of continuous writing last night at 10:31 o'clock after having finished 32 hours and 21 minutes. The wizard never slept or rested during his endurance test in Malone's window on North Cuyler.

The marathon show card writer began his endurance test Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He wrote with one hand while eating and drinking from the other. He is adept with both hands and turned out some excellent show cards for the various firms in the city.

Attendants handed Arto his cards, inks and brushes and prepared his food during the test.

MISS FORDYCE WINS

PINEHURST, N. C., Feb. 2. (AP)—Miss Louise Fordyce, Youngstown, Ohio, today won the second annual women's open golf tournament of Pine Needles Country club here when she defeated Mrs. Richard Clemson, Middletown, New York, 4 and 3.

Razorbacks Take Another Victory

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Feb. 2. (AP)—Arkansas university's champion Razorbacks rang up their 31st consecutive basketball victory by defeating Drury college of Springfield, Mo., 42 to 22, here tonight. The Porkers led 27 to 9 at the half, after which Coach Schmidt gave his substitutes a chance.

It goes almost without saying that Captain Tom Uickel of Arkansas was leading scorer. He had 14 points. If Tom ever falls to lead in any given game, that will be news.

Arkansas also cleaned up on Drury last night.

Liquor Found in LeFors Raids

Sixteen gallons of corn liquor and nine arrests were the result of two raids made by officers of the sheriff's department at LeFors Friday afternoon. Upon complaint of LeFors citizens, the officers made their first raid shortly after the dinner hour. The second raid was made later in the afternoon.

Three arrests were for possession of intoxicating beverages and six for vagrancy.

MISSING BANKER SURRENDERS—MACON, Ga., Feb. 2. (AP)—George E. Patterson, executive vice president of the Big Fourth National bank of Macon, which closed Nov. 26, 1928, surrendered here today, and gave bond of $25,000, to answer a charge of "misapplication of money, funds and credits" of the institution. The sum involved was about $50,000. Patterson was recognized as one of the leading bankers in Georgia.

GET RID OF YOUR FAT!

Thousands of others have gotten rid of theirs by my simple and efficient method of fat reduction without starvation diet or burdensome exercise, often at a very rapid rate and WITHOUT PAYMENT until reduction has taken place.

I am a licensed practicing physician and have made a careful study of the physiological requirements of the human body. This has enabled me to select such ingredients and in such proportion as in my opinion will produce not only a loss of weight without harm and an improvement in health, but with it an alleviation of all of the troublesome symptoms which frequently accompany and often are a direct result of overweightness, such as shortness of breath, on slight exertion, palpitation of the heart, etc., not to speak of the relief from the embarrassment of being too stout. Such persons suffering from such diseases as Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Eczema, Asthma and high blood pressure are greatly relieved by the reduction of their superfluous fat.

My treatment will relieve that depressed, tired, sleepy feeling, give you renewed energy and vigor which is constant result of the loss of superfluous fat. If you are overweight do not postpone but sit down right now and send for my FREE TRIAL TREATMENT and my plan whereby I am to be PAID ONLY AFTER REDUCTIONS HAS TAKEN PLACE if you so desire. DR. R. ### PRODUCTION IS LOWER AS COLD WAVE CUTS OIL

Winter weather over the entire Panhandle during the last week played havoc with daily oil production. Carson was the only county to show an increase, and that of only 115 barrels. Moore county was hit the hardest when production dropped 935 barrels daily. Hutchinson county followed with a daily decline of 610 barrels and was followed by Gray with a drop of 480 barrels. Wheeler county only decreased 70 barrels.

No startling developments were reported over the past week. The Texas company got a small producer in the LeFors field for the only real producer. The United Eight O. & T. company's No. 1 Clay in section 177, block B-2, was put on the pump and is making 100 barrels a day.

Daily production by counties:
Carson—5,990 barrels, a gain of 115 barrels.
Gray—23,280 barrels, a loss of 480 barrels.
Hutchinson—26,945 barrels, a loss of 610 barrels.
Moore—2,445 barrels, a loss of 935 barrels.
Potter—20 barrels.
Wheeler—705 barrels, a loss of 70 barrels.
Total—59,085 barrels, a loss of 1,980 barrels.

Injured Man Says He Killed Wife

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 2. (AP)—Christopher E. Cullen, 36, confessed to police here tonight that he killed his bride of five days with a rifle in Boston.

After a day of questioning as he lay in a hospital with wounds received when he fell yesterday from a freight train here, Cullen told police of the killing of his wife on Jan. 23. His statement was halting as he has been in a semi-stupor since he was found yesterday.

"She was one of those double crossing kind. I had a .32 calibre rifle handy," police quoted Cullen as saying.

J. E. Williams and M. B. Davis left last night on a business trip to Austin.

Shell Officials Visit West Texas

SAN ANGELO, Feb. 2. (AP)—Dr. W. Van Holst Pellerkaan, St. Louis, vice president and chief geologist of Shell Petroleum corporation, and Angus McLeod, central division manager, and Bert L. Ryan, central division land superintendent, both of Dallas, were here today on an inspection of southwestern properties begun Monday at St. Louis by air.

They will go to McCamey tomorrow by air, their ship, delayed in leaving San Antonio by unfavorable weather, having landed here today.

Indian Company Gets Oklahoma Well

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 2. (AP)—Indian Territory Illuminating Oil and Foster Petroleum companies' No. 1 Trooper et al. community test, in CNE SW 13-11-3w, today was making "big hole," having mudded off 150 barrels of oil and 5,900 feet of gas from shallow sand. Oil and gas were mudded off at 3,288 feet and it was drilling ahead at 3,299 feet.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 2. (AP)—Sunray Oil et al. No. 1 Quier, in section 33-18-3w, north of Guthrie in Logan county, was reported to have a showing of oil and gas at 3,970 feet, but was drilling ahead. The wildcat was started in 1924, but fires, storms and lack of finances have kept it shut down most of the time.

NEW SAUNDERS LOCATION

Gardner Brothers & Collins announce the location for a test 350 feet south of the north line of the west 68 acres of the west half of the east half of section 1, J. Eustice survey, on the Saunders lease. This test will be a west offset to the Texas company's No. 2 Saunders in the same section.

C. H. Robinson underwent a tonsilectomy operation at the McKean & Connor hospital yesterday afternoon.

motion for the house to adjourn until tomorrow morning.

Oklahoma Wants Land
AUSTIN, Feb. 2. (AP)—Proposal that Texas and Oklahoma enter into a compact, subject to ratification of Congress, determining the disputed boundary line between the two states, regardless of the location fixed by commissioners appointed by the United States Supreme Court, was made a joint session of the legislature by representatives of Oklahoma today.

The proposition, conveyed by V. P. Crowe, assistant attorney general of Oklahoma, is in effect Oklahoma wants to retain the approximately 40,000 acres which would become a part of Texas under findings of the two commissioners appointed by the Supreme Court to locate the 100th meridian and establish it as the boundary between the states.

Crowe reminded the Texans that there is an area along the north boundary of the Texas Panhandle and along the south line of the Oklahoma Panhandle over which Texas has jurisdiction that his state claims.

The area involved in the dispute is 4,000 feet wide at the south end, 2,000 feet wide at the north end and 108 miles long, Crowe said.

Senator Small of Texas, chairman of the committees of both house and representatives of the entire Texas Panhandle district said the Oklahoma delegation had convinced him that the land should be sold to Oklahoma "if we can find a way to do it."

Representative Young of Collingsworth county, whose county would get the "heart" of the added land, explained the benefit of the additional land to his county but he asserted that such a consideration was "meager" compared to the welfare of Oklahoma and Texas.

Last Year Better Than 1927, With No Election Reactions—Big Mergers Featured Period in Finance Circles

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2. (Spl.)—While the usual mid-winter easing off of industry occurred during the last 30 days, the decline was not as pronounced as a year ago, says Frank Greene in his monthly review of business conditions in Nation's Business magazine, published by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. The heavy industries particularly, he reports, showed up well by contrast with the semi-depression of a year ago.

"Wholesale and jobbing trade," he writes, "naturally tapered off in volume from the activity of early fall. Retail trade, except where affected by a warmer but dry late fall and early winter or by the outbreak of influenza, expanded largely. Independent retailers and department stores found 1928, like 1927, a period of rather slim pickings because of increased competition by chain and mail order houses. The big percentages of gain shown by the latter, however, are to be read in the light of the knowledge that growth in the number of subsidiaries accounted for a good deal of the gains.

Rainfall Plentiful

"A certain amount of diffidence, born of the knowledge that annual reviews have been as plenty as the leaves on the trees in June, possesses one who wishes to give even a brief survey of the year just closed. It can be said that 1928 was a better year than 1927, with its record of unsettled weather, its excess of rainfall, culminating in disastrous floods, and its rather scanty crop returns. And yet 1928 was hardly entitled to the designation of good, but rather to that of "fully fair." It may be set down as being better than most of its predecessors since the deflation following the "golden year" of 1919. The past year, in fact, was in some respects better than 1926, but it needs to be recalled that some of the gains made by 1928 over both of the two preceding years were what might be reasonably expected, if we accept the old theory that the business world is entitled to annual gain of 3 or 4 per cent.

In weather the year 1928 had the ordinarily unsettled, cold and rainy spring, following a mild winter which traditionally not the best for winter-sown crops. But it had an old-fashioned summer with plenty of heat and plenty of moisture which was good for crops, for sales of summer goods and for business at summer resorts.

No Election Effects

"It was presidential year but that had no noticeable effect, perhaps, because it was a one-sided affair from the start. It was a year of good demand in the metal industries and related lines, this including the automobile industry and its subsidiaries, but not until autumn did cotton goods seem to show up fairly well, while the lumber business, the petroleum trade and some other lines were under curtailment throughout many months.

The terms "volitional control," "voluntary regulation," and similar mouth-filling names found free employment and merges numerous in 1927 were far out-numbered in 1928. But the general agreement seemed to be that competition grew even keener as the year advanced and gave promise of being even more marked during the new year.

"It may be said at once that the percentages of gain in 1928 in the diverse measures of movement of the country's crops, finance, industries and trade, outnumbered the decreases both as compared with 1927 and 1926 in the proportions of two to one.

Crops Are Larger

"In the matter of crops the gains were of quantity rather than value. In fact, prices went lower after the rise to the May peak, which was caused by early unfavorable weather and crop reports. Yields in money in excess of 1927 except in corn, cotton and a few other crops were absent. Wheat, potatoes, southern as opposed to western tobacco, apples, hay and grapes sold at low prices, wheat at the end of the year being at the low of the season, with export business disappointing owing to record crops or supplies in most other countries.

"In financial lines the immense speculation in the stock market swelled the bank clearings, bank debits and other measures of movement far beyond all previous records, thus putting a better than deserved face upon these comparisons. Incidentally there was doubling and quadrupling rates for stock market loans, proving that the "bottomless" American money box after all had a bottom and giving rise to talk of possible credit strain in commercial and industrial lines.

"Many big industries showed gains in output over 1927 or 1926, conspicuously automobile and steel, pig iron, cement, auto tires, by-product coke, silk, shoe, petroleum, gasoline, electricity and cigaret. Most of these, in fact, were record breakers.

"On the other side of the account, hard and soft coal production, cattle slaughtering, tobacco, wool and cotton manufacturing and building permit values were reduced as were also gross railway earnings because aggregates of car loadings, were below 1927 or 1926. "It is true that fire losses and failure liabilities decreased, that exports of manufactures, especially manufactured goods, increased and that public utility earnings and other corporation net earnings increased, but it was none the less true also that failures increased even if slightly, merchandise imports fell off and gold exports were of record breaking volume."

AMUSEMENTS

Illustrative of the difficulties of the editors of big film productions is the experience of Hugh Wynn, cutter of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's epic of the World War from the pen of Lawrence Stallings, "The Big Parade," which will be seen at The Rex theatre today and tomorrow.

Mr. Wynn had to cut 10,000 feet of the Argonne advance of the Yanks against the German machine gunners in this picture down to a final 500 feet. But his biggest job of all came in reducing 50,000 feet of the night battle scenes in that area to the 514 feet that they are now shown in. In this latter instance—to use a colloquial phrase—Wynn here worked on hundred-to-one shots, literally picking out one bit of film per hundred to represent the majesty of a great event.

And he had always to bear in mind King Vidor's idea of tempo in slow marching to sustain suspense, while at the same time not permitting the action to drag.

The night battle scene, by the way, is the first time in picture history that a World War sequence was filmed showing a creeping barrage. This barrage was laid down and timed to the second for the action of the players embodying the advancing troops. They followed directly behind it, clearing up the enemy posts as they went along. Army officers declare this scene technically correct in every detail.

Hugh Wynn, King Vidor's film editor worked on "The Big Parade" ever since it was decided to make the story into a big production. He was sent to Washington, D. C., where with the cooperation of the war department, he saw several hundred thousand feet of the official battle films and took out of them 4,000 feet as a general guide in "The Big Parade" continuity.

AT THE CRESCENT

An authentic detail of prison life, copied from the regular daily routine at a real penitentiary, was enacted at the Paramount studio in Hollywood recently. It was the night lockup, during which all of the convicts are returned to their cells and locked in. It was taken during the filming of "Forgotten Faces," a contrasting melodrama of society and crook life, which will show at the Crescent theatre today and tomorrow.

Convicts, marching in irregular order passed down a long cell block, falling out as they came to their respective cells to be locked in by a trusty and a uniformed guard. Above the cell corridor on a high guard walk paced other uniformed guards armed with rifles. Fifty extras, garbed in regulation convict garb, were used in this scene which was filmed in the tremendous prison set erected at the studio for the picture. Clive Brook and Fred Kohler, two featured members of the production's all-star cast, were also among the screen convicts herded to their cells.

In order that all prison scenes of the picture might be absolutely authentic, Director Victor Schertzinger and Howard Estabrook, writer of the screen play, visited a state prison and, through the courtesy of the warden, made an exhaustive study of conditions there.

Beauty in the Home Elevates

Design and style in the furniture of today are beauty crystallized in a tangible object, depicting some particular idea, thought, time or a recreation of former art. It is not true that the rich men of this nation who have risen from the lowly walks of life, after attaining position and wealth turn to things of art and beauty for their pleasure? The desire for the things I have mentioned was once only a spark but one day, with WRIGHT'S LOWER COST AND SALES SYSTEM at hand to gratify this desire, the spark may flame up into a passion for the beautiful things created by the hand of man.

It's Like This

ADVERTISING is responsible for the development of American buying power, which has made possible the prosperity based upon high skill in mass production.

A new product is expensive and in little demand. Until it is advertised, few people desire it. Low production means high cost of the product, little work for the unemployed hosts, and little profit for the manufacturers.

Advertising abroad helps to dispose of surpluses and to keep our factories turning in dull seasons. A nation such as ours has tremendous buying power and remarkable productive power.

Advertising is the link that coordinates the two. Speaking before the American Newspaper Publishers Association recently, William A. Thompson said:

"The newspaper is the great adequate medium because it has measured up to a particular economic task with functions that are exclusively its own. We have often called it the universal advertising medium because it is the vehicle of communication between the sellers of most things and all of their buying public."

In nine cases out of ten when you think of effective advertising in this country you think of a newspaper or magazine.

Along Hoover's Trail SOUTH AMERICA

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—South America still remains a highly competitive market. European nations are determined to regain what they can of the proportionate share of South America's import trade which they have lost to us in the last 15 years.

Leaving aside the complicated question of tariffs, it may be said that the struggle for this trade in the last few years has been a case of our efficient mass production methods pitted against the cheaper production costs of Europe.

Brazil is a good example of the situation. We have nearly 30 per cent of Brazil's import trade, Britain 21, Germany 11 and France 6. In 1913 the division stood: Britain 25, Germany 18, United States 16, and France 10.

Our principal sales to Brazil are now automobiles, gasoline and oil, motion pictures, flour, agricultural and industrial implements and machinery, barbed wire, hardware, paints and varnishes, coal and electrical goods.

Eight years ago we sold 15 per cent of the automobiles bought in Brazil and now it's 97 per cent. But we export less than 70 per cent of the imported gasoline, whereas we had nearly all that business once.

Our machine tools and machinery such as used in cotton and sugar mills run 35 to 40 per cent more expensive than other machinery available, which means that our salesmen have a large margin of superior quality to prove.

Well, not many paid their poll taxes, but it takes a political volcano to get a lot of the slackers out to the polls anyhow.

Our idea of an adequate airport is one big enough to get to when a plane stalls somewhere in the vicinity of over our house.

Phillips of Holland, which is connected with General Electric, sends in radio equipment 10 to 15 per cent cheaper than it comes from the United States, although Brazil has not gone wild over radio yet because of her poor broadcasting arrangements.

Office equipment, steel furniture, adding machines and typewriters are all American, but we are getting competition in electric motors from Switzerland, France and Germany. In this field our motors win on endurance; theirs on price.

Only 8 per cent of equipment on Brazilian railroads is American-made and recently we lost a bid on 240 box cars to the Belgians. Some American business men complain that European cheap production is eating in on our trade in many other lines and that American manufacturers ought to give some thought to price revisions.

So we have another fishing president. Is there no other way to get away from the cares of this world—and reporters? It must be a drab pastime for the tired presidents, and how they must envy the average tired business man.

Nicholas Murray Butler says that no law which has to do with human thought, speech or conduct can be enforced. And if that isn't taking in a lot of territory, it will have to be left out.

A prospective juror in Washington, D. C. said, he never had heard of the dry law. But then, of course, you can't blame that on Washington.

They wish only American citizens to teach in Texas schools. We suppose that is a good law, providing they give non-naturalized teachers time in which to perfect their citizenship. It should be remembered, however, that some of those affected know more about Americanism than most of us, and that being born in this country does not necessarily make one a good American.

Saying What We Think
It is not always easy to state pertinent convictions when it is realized public sentiment is on the other side of the fence. It is not pleasant to take the gaff of ridicule and criticism, but this paper is trying, ever so hard, to rise above the littleness of the moment, to stamp out prejudice, to unseat hate and to make of the territory it serves not necessarily a better place in which to live, but a finer place in which to achieve.

Both sides of any question in which the public has a general interest will be presented in our columns. Regardless of our attitude on a particular matter, we believe in justice and try to live up to this belief. As human beings, we err, but in that illusive final analysis we hear so much about, we believe we are not so very different from our fellows.

"To err is human", that is certainly true in our own case and we imagine we are not a particular exception to the general rule.

Just a Little More "Hoover Relief"

By Williams

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

FRANK SIMONDS, writing in Review of Reviews for February, veers sharply from the views of other journalists who optimistically pictured the beneficial effects of Hoover's pilgrimage to the commercial shrines of the republics to our south.

Simonds agrees that Hoover's trip was not without triumphs, often, however, of a personal character. He goes at length into the reasons for hatred of the United States. He states that in many quarters an American is about as popular as a pro-German was in the United States during the war.

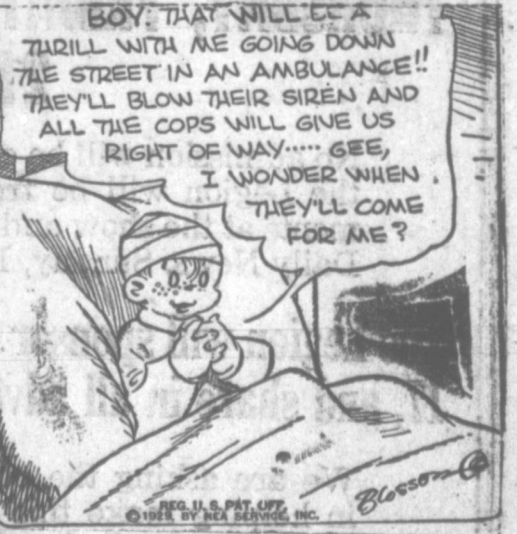

Such ill will is not engendered in a decade, nor destroyed by a brief trip of a U. S. president-elect. Children, now grown, heard anti-U. S. propaganda from their parents in the days when the Monroe Doctrine was forming under constant threats of war. And commercial war leads to hatreds fully as deep rooted as those of military campaigns. The British and Germans, particularly, as commercial rivals of ours, have planted the seeds of hatred.

Now, with much of the world's available capital centered in the United States, Uncle Sam is more of a Shylock than ever, though in reality he is one to be courted as one little nation vies with

Markets

GRAIN IS DOWNWARD CHICAGO, Feb. 2. (P)—Making Chicago a target for grain from other leading centers resulted today in forcing a decided downward swing of prices here both on corn and wheat.

Corn led the way in the setback of prices, and closed unsettled, 1c to 1 1/2c @ 1 3/8c down, with wheat 7-8c to 1 1/4c off, oats at 1-4c to 3-8c decline, and provisions varying from 5c drop to a rise of 7c.

Enlarged receipts of corn in Chicago today, 304 cars, compared with 236 a week ago, gave speculative sellers of corn future deliveries a background which was seized upon in short order.

Frost reports from India today, although bringing to light a remarkable condition adversely affecting the wheat crop situation there, resulted only passing notice in Chicago.

Packers and warehouse interests were on the selling side of the provision market, but hog values were higher and commission house demand readily absorbed the offering.

Week Averages Higher

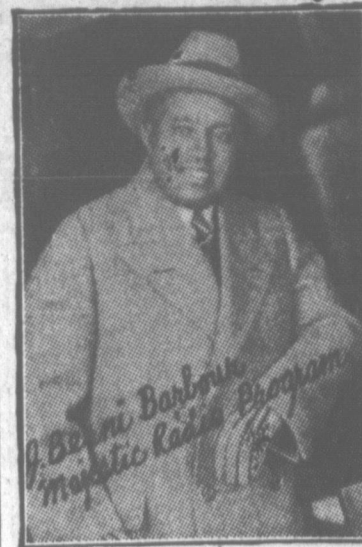

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 2. (P)—(United States Department of Agriculture)—The week's trade in hogs was featured with a rather broad shipping demand and final prices are generally 40@60c higher over a week ago.

Short fed steers and yearlings were in over-supply all week, and closing levels are mostly 25@50c below a week ago.

Following a short business discussion, Mrs. Josephine Sparks gave an instructive talk and demonstration of "Table Service and Etiquette."

Those present were Mrs. Ira Vandersall, Mrs. Ed Smith, Mrs. Josephine Sparks, Mrs. A. Carpenter, Mrs. Ralph Ogden, Mrs. Vernon Stewart, Mrs. Joe Garlay, Miss Mary Gregory, Miss Lucille Stratton and Miss Faye Joyce.

On Majestic Program

J. Berni Barbour composer and pianist, and his negro mixed octette will appear on the "MAJESTIC Theatre of the Air" program Sunday night, February 3, from 9 to 10 o'clock Eastern Standard Time, broadcast over the Columbia Chain.

Mr. Barbour recently wrote the "Pantation Suite," a group of six negro spirituals. He is best known for his recent tour of the East and South, producing his operetta "The Arrival of the Negro" in more than ten states.

Each Sunday night program sponsored by Grigsby-Grunow Company, makers of MAJESTIC Electric Radio, maintains the excellent quality they have promised in talent and entertainment for the Radio audience.

MRS. HOWARD BLAKE ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. Howard Blake presided as hostess to members of the Idle-a-While club Thursday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. Josephine Sparks and Mrs. Foster were guests.

Mrs. Blake's party was beautifully appointed, carrying out a blue and white color scheme in tallies, score pads and favors.

Bridge was played at three tables.

Mrs. L. F. Keough received high score prize, and Mrs. Joe. Garlay second high.

A dainty and delicious salad course was served the following members: Mrs. Joe Garlay, Mrs. Ira Vandersall, Mrs. L. F. Keough, Mrs. C. A. Clark, Mrs. A. Carpenter, Mrs. E. O. Van Winkle, Mrs. Ralph Ogden, Mrs. W. A. Breining, Mrs. S. E. Smith, Mrs. W. R. Combs, Mrs. D. A. Masner, Birdie Short and the hostess.

Anti-Tammany Group to Fight If "Kicked Out"

DALLAS, Feb. 2. (P)—A policy of "watchful waiting" pending disposition of two bills before the legislature was decided upon by leaders of the Texas Anti-Tammany Democrats at their meeting here today.

Uncertainty as to future plans of the bolting Democrats was voiced by Alvin S. Moody of Houston, president of the organization. Two bills before the legislature, if passed, would react against his party, he said.

"We have proved that we can take care of ourselves," Mr. Moody declared. "We will not surrender to the state executive committee easily. They seem hesitant what to do. They are afraid to leave us in and afraid to kick us out. But if they kick us out, it means war."

Those attending today's conference included Mrs. J. T. Bloodworth, Fort Worth; Judge B. D. Sartin, Wichita Falls; Cato Sells, Fort Worth; J. V.

Hardy, Dr. C. M. Rosser, H. Bascom Thomas, O. B. Colquitt, R. H. Moodie, Fred Haskett, R. B. Humphrey, Dr. J. B. Cranfill and V. A. Collins, all of Dallas.

MURDER TRIAL STARTS

BASTROP, Feb. 2. (P)—Arguments began tonight in the trial of Hugo Middleton, charged with the murder of his father, J. J. Middleton, at Smithville. The state contends the elder Middleton was poisoned.

OXYGEN TREATMENT IS RUSHED TO OIL WORKER CORPUS CHRISTI, Feb. 2. (P)—Oxygen rushed here from San Antonio tonight was aiding Joe Harris, Duval county oil worker, in what physicians feared was a losing fight for his life. Harris' chest was crushed in an explosion. Doubt was expressed he would survive the night.
