PORTES GIL DECLARES LOYAL SUPPORTERS TO HOLD COMMAND

Opposing Leaders, Aguirre and Manzo, Take Several of Larger Towns Sunday Without Bloodshed

NOGALES, Sonora, Mex., March 4—(AP)—General Gonzales Escobar, of the state of Coahuila, was named commanding officer of the Mexican revolutionary movement, Governor Fausto Topete announced here today.

The possession of Nogales, Agua Prieta, and Naco apparently gives the revolutionists control of the border rail heads, which is considered most important, from the standpoint of tacticians.

Thus far all indications have been that the revolt is entirely of a military nature, no mention being made in dispatches of any connection with the so-called Catholic uprisings reported at various times.

MEXICO CITY, March 4, (P)—The Mexican government mobilized loyal forces today to meet the attacks of wide spread and serious revolution.

General Plutarco Elias Calles, former president was drafted from his retirement and made secretary of war in charge of military operations. As troops were brought here from loyal states to reinforce the Mexico City garrison other combat contingents were prepared for departure to the states of Vera Cruz and Sonora where the revolt appeared to center. A strict censorship was established.

Vera Cruz and Sonora have been taken over—apparently without bloodshed—by rebel forces, in Vera Cruz under the command of General Jesus Maria Aguirre, until yesterday chief of military operations there, and in Sonora by General Manuel Aguirre, brother of Jesus Aguirre, joined with Manzo.

Ambassador Morrow cut short his week-end at Cuernavaca and decided to hasten back to the capital with his family and prospective son-in-law, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

In a statement to Mexico City newspapers, President Portes Gil expressed confidence his government would survive the revolt.

"The government is sure it possesses strength sufficient to dominate the revolution in a short time," he said, "not only because the greater part of the army has remained loyal but because in districts where the revolt has broken out there are parts of the army which have not joined the rebels. Moreover the government is confident it has the force of the public opinion with it."

There is disagreement as to the cause of the outbreak. President Portes Gil's statement says it is the movement of disgruntled military leaders who wished to impose their choice for the presidency upon the country at the elections next November.

Rebel "pronouncements" claimed collusion of eight states, Vera Cruz, Sonora, Oaxaca, Sinaloa, Nayarit, Coahuila, Chihuahua, and Durango. Outside of the victories in Vera Cruz and Sonora there were no definite reports of defections in other states, although reports of rebel control of the Isthmus to Tehuantepec might imply Oaxaca had revolted.

Naval Status Uncertain The government announcement of departure of General Gonzalo Escobar from Torreon was construed as denial

RIO GRANDE TOWNS DIDN'T KNOW OF REVOLUTION

DALLAS, March 4, (P)—The unrest, excitement and alarm attendant on a Mexican revolution had not crossed the Rio Grande today.

From Texas cities along the international river boundary came word that all was quiet, and most residents went about their pursuits with calm.

The outbreak of last night's Mexican revolt was not known generally in most American border towns until news agencies telephoned from the "outside" for information. Mexican authorities at Matamoras, Tamaulipas, Mexico, professed ignorance of any uprising several hours after reports of it had become current, and Brownsville—within a stone's throw of Matamoras—paid little attention—then and later.

Laredo, Eagle Pass, Del Rio, and El Paso reported no untoward incident and no known interruption of communications into Mexico.

BORGER PLANS BIRTHDAY EVENT OF NEXT FRIDAY

BORGER, March 4, (Special)—Borger began today to dress her streets and business houses for the second annual birthday celebration to be sponsored by the American Legion March 8. Plans were completed Saturday for the parade which will start the entertainment Friday morning. The parade will be led by Gordon Burch, champion drum major of the A. E. F., during the World War, who will lead the Groom band, official musical organization for the day.

The band will be followed by the Borger chapter of the American Legion, the Officers' Reserve Corps, civic organizations, city officials, school officials, faculty members, school children, and Boy Scouts. Pedestrian paraders will be followed by Borger people in cars or floats. First and second prizes will be offered for the best decorated float and the best decorated car. A style show, sponsored by the merchants of the city, will be staged in the afternoon, followed by a preliminary bathing revue. The final beauty revue, and selection of the most beautiful girl, will be held during the banquet Friday night. The climax of the program will be a banquet held in the Legion hall at 7 p. m., at which Judge Newton P. Willis will be the principal speaker. The banquet will be followed by a ball.

Impersonation of Officers Charged

On a complaint signed by J. F. Adkins of Skellytown, two young men were arrested by county officers Sunday morning and arraigned before Justice C. E. Cary on charges of impersonating officers and attempt to hi-jack. They waived examining trial and each was released on $1,000 bond.

The men gave their names as C. V. Sole and R. B. Edwards. Mr. and Mrs. Adkins, with a friend, Mrs. Snyder said they were halted by two young men who presented themselves as officers and asked them to proceed to the police station. They offered however, it was said, to accept $7.50 fine from each applicant and release them.

The complainants said the men fled when one of them was purportedly recognized. The Skelly town man later filed charges and the arrests were made.

Cleburne Man, on Trial for Murder, Is Shot Fatally

CLEBURNE, March 4, (P)—Ed Herd, who was being tried for the killing of E. W. Robertson here on February 8, was shot to death in front of the courthouse at Cleburne about 1 o'clock today.

Hugh Robertson, brother of E. W. Robertson, surrendered to officers. Herd was shot in the head by one charge from a shotgun. He died instantly. He had been charged with murder.

The jury in his case had been deliberating since last Saturday night and a large crowd of spectators was waiting for court to reconvene after lunch.

BULLETINS

AMARILLO, March 4, (P)—The thirteenth annual convention of the Panhandle Livestock association attracted 411 cattlemen here today from the Southwest. The twelfth annual show and sale of the Panhandle Hereford Breeders' association, and the second annual Panhandle baby beef show and sale also are in session. "Pending land legislation" was to be the main subject of discussion at the livestock convention business sessions.

LONDON, March 4, (P)—Fourteen persons were reported injured today in a spectacular series of explosions in the famous Woolwich arsenal near London. The explosions were followed by a fire which was still burning late this afternoon.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, March 4, (P)—Thirty persons were killed and 20 seriously injured today in a terrific explosion at the Sofia arsenal. Heavy material damage was caused by the blast.

NEW YORK, March 4, (P)—Calvin Coolidge will turn to the pursuit of literature when he re-enters private life after today's inauguration of his successor as president of the United States, at least to the extent of one series of magazine articles of the "human interest" type.

When the question was put up to him directly whether or not Mr. Coolidge was going to write for the American magazine, Merle Crowell, the publication's editor, acknowledged that a series of articles had been contracted for, although he could give no details.

Oldtime Tunes Will Be Heard in Strother Recital

Joe Strother, formerly of Pampa, but junior pastor and organist of the Polk Street Methodist church of Amarillo since last November, will appear in an organ recital at the First Methodist church here tomorrow evening.

With him on the program will be Mrs. Otis Trulove of Amarillo, formerly a prominent Chicago soloist. She is a soprano, and critics have spoken highly of the tone quality of her renditions. She has a pleasing personality and performs with ease and grace.

Mr. Strother will play old-time melodies and other numbers familiar to his audience. The full capacity of the fine organ will be illustrated in his selections. The program will begin at 7:45 p. m., and will last about an hour and a half. There will be no admission charge.

Besides placing of new ballast, the old 90-pound rails will be torn up and new 110-pound steel laid. New crossovers will replace the old ones. The block signal system between the two points will be renovated and improved.

Two work trains have been stringing material, one from here and the other from Canadian, for the last two weeks.

Hoover's Major Theme Is Obedience to Law

WASHINGTON, March 4, (P)—With simple, forceful language reflective of his own personality, Herbert Hoover today dedicated himself and his administration to law enforcement at home and the promotion of peace throughout the world.

These two purposes stood out in bold relief in his inaugural address, delivered from a simply decorated stand on the east front of the capitol after he had taken the oath as the thirty-first president of the United States.

Declaring that the most malign of all the dangers from which self-government must be safeguarded today is the disregard and disobedience of law, the president said that "to consider these evils, to find their remedy, is the most sore necessity of our times."

Need Rigid Justice "Rigid and expeditious justice is the first safeguard of freedom, the basis of all ordered liberty, the vital force of progress," he said. "It must not come to be in our republic that it can be defeated by the indifference of the citizen, by exploitation of delays and entanglements of the law, or by combinations of criminals."

Turning to the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment, Mr. Hoover asserted that abuses which had grown up around it are due in part to the failure of some states to accept their share of the responsibility for concurrent enforcement and to the failure of many state and local officials to zealously enforce the law.

"But a large responsibility rests directly upon our citizens," he asserted. "There would be little traffic in illegal liquor if only criminals patronized it. The duty of citizens to support the law is co-equal with the duty of their government to enforce the laws which exist."

WASHINGTON, March 4, (P)—This is the verse from proverbs which Herbert Hoover selected to kiss on the administration to him of the oath of office as president:

"Where there is no vision the people perish; but he that keepeth the law, happy is he."

"Our whole system of self-government will crumble either if officials elect what laws they will enforce or citizens elect what laws they will support. The worst evil of disregard for some law is that it destroys respect for all law."

Would Change Pro Plan As one immediate step for an improvement of conditions, President Hoover declared it essential "that a large part of the enforcement activities be transferred from the treasury department to the department of justice as a beginning of more effective organization."

Reiterating his determination to appoint a national commission for a searching investigation, the chief executive disclosed that its inquiry would go to the whole structure of the federal system of jurisprudence as well as to methods of enforcement of the eighteenth amendment and the causes of abuse under it.

Solemnly asserting that the United States not only desires peace with the world, but to see peace maintained throughout the world, the president expressed the hope for ultimate American adherence to the world court, and declared that the acceptance of the recent treaty for the renunciation of war "should pave the way to greater limitation of armament, the offer of which we sincerely extend to the world."

Expressing his belief that no more potent instrumentality for the pacific settlement of controversies between nations than the world court has ever been conceived, Mr. Hoover declared "no other is practicable of establishment."

Ask No Privileges

"The reservations placed upon our adherence should not be misinterpreted," he continued. "The United States seeks by these reservations no special privilege or advantage but only to clarify our relation to advisory opinions and other matters which are subsidiary to the major purposes of the court."

"The way can, I believe, will be

PRESIDENT IS SWORN IN AT 1:08 O'CLOCK

VICE-PRESIDENTS DIFFER IN TALKS

Inaugural Pageant Is Featured by Air Circus

By BYRON PRICE Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 4, (P)—The presidency of the United States passed to Herbert Hoover at 1:08 p. m. today in a colorful ceremony which he himself described as "a dedication and consecration under God."

With hand upraised, he repeated the words of the official oath of office, administered by Chief Justice Taft, shortly after 1 p. m., and had kissed the Bible at a passage saying: "He that keepeth the law; happy is he."

A half hour earlier Charles Curtis had succeeded Charles G. Dawes as vice-president in a ceremony inside the senate chamber, enlivened unexpectedly when the new and retiring second officers, making the customary brief addresses, disagreed directly on the old subject of the senate rules.

Coolidge to Write Calvin Coolidge, once a private citizen after thirty years of government service, turned from the inaugural ceremony to begin at once his journey to Northampton. He had been power pass from him with whatever of emotion may have been struggling within hidden behind a serene inscrutability. In the immediate future he will devote himself to a series of magazine articles.

Turning again to domestic affairs the chief executive said further agricultural relief and "limited changes" in the tariff "can not in justice to our farmers, our labor and manufacturers be postponed," adding that he would request a special session of congress for the consideration of these questions.

For Health Services Government co-operation in encouraging movements in business towards self-help; stimulation of education and the extension of public health services were other movements upon which the president placed his endorsement. He declared that public health service "should be as fully organized and as universally incorporated into our governmental system as is public education."

"It appears to me," he went on, "that the more important further mandates from the recent election were the maintenance of the integrity of the constitution; the vigorous enforcement of the laws; the continuance of economy in public expenditure; the continued regulation of business to prevent domination of the community; the denial of ownership or operation of business by the government in competition with its citizens; the avoidance of policies which would involve us in the controversies of foreign nations; the more effective reorganization of the departments of federal government; the expansion of public works, and the promotion of welfare activities affecting education and the home."

Need Responsibility "And that responsibility rests upon you, my countrymen, as much as upon those of us who have been selected for office," he added. "Ours is a land rich in resources; stimulating in its glorious beauty; filled with millions of happy homes; blessed with comfort and opportunity. In no nation are the institutions of progress more advanced. In no nation are the fruits of accomplishment more secure. In no nation is the government more worthy of respect. No country is more loved by its people. I have an abiding faith in their capacity, integrity and high purpose. I have no fears for the future of our country. It is bright with hope."

In the presence of my countrymen, mindful of the solemnity of this occasion, knowing what the tasks means and the responsibility which it involves, I beg your tolerance, your aid, and your co-operation. I ask the help of almighty God in this service to my country to which you have called me."

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Patterson visited in Amarillo yesterday.

"It's Like This"

SPECULATION as to the probable effect of Governor Moody's veto of the anti-land grabbing bill upon his political aspirations is the chief topic in West Texas, and to a lesser degree in other parts of the state.

It was either the most inadvertent bonehead the young executive ever made, or it was a coolly calculated action for which he sees no lasting effect, a course which his conscience dictated, or he has in mind a better substitute.

Moody is familiar with the land grabbing situation, and months ago commented upon its injustice. A principal point of criticism of his stand is that he has undertaken to sponsor or encourage no remedial legislation, and has killed the only measure offered without giving it or its backers the benefit of a doubt. He sought the advice of the man most obviously opposed to the bill—one who stands to lose tens of thousands of dollars if titles are perfected on the lands cut by "navigable" streams.

Attorney General Pollard attacks the bill because of the likely results of its application and by reason of certain constitutional inhibitions he attempts to cite. As to the latter, there are bitter differences of opinion, and the supreme court is the duly constituted body to rule upon the constitutionality. Supreme courts are not without reason, and in interpreting the constitution a liberal court often rules upon the original intent and its modern application, rather than upon the exact letter of the law.

The Small bill in application might have some absurdities, and if so it would not be unique. But if Moody had an amendment, or a substitute measure, why did he not say so? And why delay action on the Small bill until it is too late to work out amendments, and possibly too late to pass it over his head? No one will deny the governor the right of veto, but in the exercise of that right he should recognize the similar privilege of the legislature to impose its own, superior judgment as indicated in a two-thirds vote of both houses. His action can only be interpreted to mean that he meant for the Small bill to stay dead.

But to stretch a point in Moody's favor and assume that he still wishes something to be done to protect pioneer West Texas land owners, it is pertinent to inquire whether he is willing to submit the question for action at the impending called session of the legislature. Unless he submits the issue in his message to that session, the subject cannot be acted upon. Does he hope to trade approval of the land bill for that of one of his pet administration measures? The idea is hardly tenable, although he is hard put to obtain passage of the highway, prison consolidation, and other bills. Moody's political prestige has suffered a severe blow. It is not too late to mitigate the feeling by showing good faith in working out a substitute for the Small bill, if the latter should fail of two-thirds support. Although may be impossible, under the constitution, to obtain retroactive relief for some of the abuses which already have been caused by and through the attorney-general's department, it certainly is imperative that continuation of the practice be halted. Such vandalism in the name of the state was never intended and some form of law can be drafted upon which the Supreme Court may so hold. An administration which has hatched the major portion of the abuse should surely be capable also of producing a remedy.

TALKING MOVIES afford Pampans entertainment which, after the novelty wears off, depends upon merit for support just as did the old, silent pictures. The possibilities of talkies along cultural lines, however, are infinitely greater. Intentions of speech play a great part in human activities. The silent drama has committed many sins which were bearable only because the sounds accompanying the acts were left to the imagination largely, and out of the minds of the patrons did the screen speak.

Now it is not so. The tones the minds have been forming to suit themselves are original with the actors, and very realistic. Vulgarly in the talking picture is going to be more offensive than that of the silent film. There is some hope, therefore, that the talking picture will tend more toward the worthwhile. The music of the chamber, the band stand, and the concert stage is being brought to the smaller towns and cities for the first time for public consumption. While the phonograph and radio do a similar service, their opportunity is much less; the movie patron must take it or leave it, for he cannot change the record nor tune out the symphony orchestra in favor of jazz.

We readily find much to commend in the talkie as a worthwhile invention from standpoints other than entertainment in the lighter sense. It is good to see the legitimate stage stars come into their own again. Emphasis upon well modulated, correct English will make the talking picture a national force in education.

Of course, the talking movie, or audien, is in a crude state of production. As the New York Sun's critic said recently, one often would like for the talkie to decide whether it is a recorded play, a photo play, an operetta, or a bull fight. Poetic license were never greater than license of the audien. If the sound film is going to be lifelike, it must have better continuity and less crude excuses for the elements of vaudeville to project themselves into the main plot.

The audien, however, commands better minds and greater talent than the silent picture could ever boast about, and the new technique will be developed rapidly. It is probably true, as the movie magnate Jesse L. Lasky said recently, "In five years there will be no silent pictures."

Soon we shall hear about "the voice of a nation". Those who speak foreign language will be eager to hear audien from other countries in the native tongues. Here is an opportunity for Spanish, beautiful neighbor language so few Americans know anything about.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER WASHINGTON—Things continue to be brought about rather than merely allowed to happen. Especially important things.

It is reasonably certain, for instance, that the United States and the allies had pretty well agreed on the results of the present reparations conference before it began. It is also impossible to imagine that British Ambassador Esme Howard's recent statement about a new naval armament conference was made without previous careful consultation with his government. And again it may be said with the most complete assurance that the Geneva naval conference would not have flopped if Britain had lived up to what our State Department considered its private pre-agreement.

Similarly, it requires few wild horses to bring one to the belief that Mr. Hoover offered Mr. Borah the attorney generalship without knowing that Mr. Borah wouldn't take it. Such genuinely good ideas as that offer don't wait to occur at the last moment. Nor do such close-mouthed persons as Mr. Hoover and his retinue permit such offers and such refusals to be revealed unless they desire.

It may be that Mr. Hoover merely meant effectively to stymie any plan Borah might have to spend his time in the next four years attacking the administration for non-enforcement of prohibition. Borah, having refused the job himself, is now hardly entitled to crab.

Or, it may be that Mr. Hoover sought to impress the dries with his earnest determination to select an extraordinarily able and altogether sincere dry who would make a most vigorous effort to enforce. At any rate, Mr. Hoover probably has done both. Politics is not exactly unlike that and poor Mr. Borah had to choose between a lifetime job as a powerful senator and a frightfully tough job as Mr. Hoover's little helper for an uncertain tenure. The effect of the incident was rather tough on Mr. Borah.

TRUE story: Passenger in House office building elevator: "Can you please tell me where's Congressman Clyde Kelly's office?"

Young elevator boy, without turning his head: "Naw. There's a directory out at the main entrance."

Girl secretary, after passenger has left to go back and look: "Don't you know who that is? That's Lindbergh!"

Elevator boy, as he stops car at next floor and dashes down the stairs: "Holy Cats!"

Bygone often become begones at inauguration time. Governor Bilbo of Mississippi announced that he would attend the Hoover inauguration with his staff of 80 colonels and march in the parade. It was the Hon. Bilbo who was publicly accused by Hoover's people last October of saying in a public speech that Hoover had danced with a negro woman. To which the Hon. Bilbo naively replied that he had merely mentioned it as a rumor—in a public address.

Babe Ruth Sees Another Pennant for the Yankees

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 4. (P)—Babe Ruth has decided that he is going to have a good year and that the New York Yankees are going to win another American league pennant.

Aside from saying that he is in good physical trim and confident that he will play as well as he ever has, the Babe declined to become specific as to why he thought so.

But he became eloquent as to the Yankees' chances.

"The other teams, Detroit and Washington, in particular may have improved," the Babe says, "but not enough to threaten us. I can't see that the Athletics, who gave us the most trouble last year, are any stronger. Neither are the Browns. We are bound to get more pitching than we had last year for we will have Penneck and Moore back. And I am saying this before I've seen any of our young pitchers and I hear they are very good."

Texas Tech Has Fifty Organizations

LUBBOCK, March 4.—There are 50 student organizations, listed in extracurricular activities, in existence on the campus of Texas Technological college. The combined membership of these organizations is 1,500. Such organizations are encouraged, but an effort is made to have the membership distributed generally among the student body.

According to President Horn, if all the students belong to a few such clubs it is desirable, but if a few students belong to a great many clubs that is undesirable.

One of the most active organizations is the agricultural club with a membership of 75. The Engineering society has a large membership. There is much interest also in the Debating club which has a large and active roster of both young men and women. The Press club includes students active in literary and journalistic work. All the classes have organizations, the Band has a membership of 80, and there are social clubs, scholarship organizations, and various sectional groups.

MORROWS AND LINDBERGH STAY IN MEXICO CITY

MEXICO CITY, March 4. (P)—Ambassador Morrow, accompanied by Mrs. Morrow, his daughters, Anne and Elizabeth, and Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, his prospective son-in-law, arrived at the American embassy today from the Morrow residence at Cuernavaca.

Ambassador Morrow had planned to remain at Cuernavaca until tomorrow but news of the outbreak of a revolution caused his decision to return to the Mexican capital.

CANYON STUDENTS PLAN CARLSBAD CAVERN TRIP

CANYON, March 4.—The senior class of the Canyon high school propose to visit Carlsbad cavern in New Mexico at some time before they receive their diplomas next May.

Each year the senior class is granted one day on which they may do as they please. There are 50 boys and girls in the class and their excursion will be a red-letter event in the history of the high school.

CANYON PAVING WILL BEGIN NEXT APRIL 15

CANYON, March 4.—Paving on a 15-mile stretch of road between Amarillo and Canyon, in Randall county, will begin April 15. The contractors, the Flynn Construction company of Houston, have 120 working days in which to complete the job, according to resident-engineer, A. E. Dyatt.

Plans are under way for the improvement of the same highway, No. 33, south between Canyon and Happy.

Mrs. Haskell was the constant companion of her brothers when they were planning their first heavier-than-air machine in Dayton. The three were unmarried and lived at home.

A TENSE MOMENT

TOUGH ON ALEX

It is interesting to observe the demand being made for the services of those fellows who helped Bill Alexander turn out that crack football team at Georgia Tech last fall.

It may be remembered that Alex's team was undefeated in the southland, that it defeated Notre Dame for the first time, and then eked out a victory over California in the annual Tournament of Roses game.

Don Miller was one of Alex's assistants. He coached the backs, and there is no need to tell anyone that he did a very swell job of it. Few teams had a better backfield than Georgia Tech had in Mizell, Thomason, Lumpkin and Durant.

When Ohio State appointed Sam Williamson successor to Dr. Jack Wilce, the first step Williamson made was to enlist Miller's services as backfield coach. The former Four Horseman lives in Cleveland, where he practices law nine months of the year, and the post was accepted.

YALE WANTS FINCHER

Another fellow whom Alex is quite willing to give ample credit for the part he played in the development of the Georgia Tech team, this year and other years, is Bill Fincher.

Fincher is one of the greatest players ever turned out in the South, and was an All-America line choice a number of years ago.

Fincher, so the rumor has it, won't be back at Georgia Tech next fall. It is said he has been approached by Mal Stevens, the young Yale coach, with a proposition that would give the Eli institution his services as line coach during the football season.

IF THIS IS TRUE—

Another interesting angle to this rumored offer to Fincher is that it may mean the breaking up of the graduate system of coaching at New Haven.

If the offer was made, and there seems ample reason to believe that Stevens did write Fincher to that effect, it can be taken for granted that Stevens didn't do so of his volition without the consent or approval of the football committee.

Their sanction of such an offer naturally implies that they are quite willing to have the forward wall at Yale directed by a coach other than one who learned his football at Yale.

PENALTY TO HONOR

Fincher's loss, added to Miller's departure, would be a severe blow to Georgia Tech football, but not one which would be so terrible that Bill Alexander couldn't get out from under.

He has said nothing of the rumored offer to Fincher. Atlanta newspapers, however, have been crying in alarm about it, and imploring the athletic authorities at Georgia Tech to do all in their power to keep Fincher for the Tornado.

Being a graduate of Tech, Fincher may be a hard man to take away to New Haven. On the other hand, Yale is one of the richest schools in the country and well able to make an attractive offer to any man it really wants.

The moral to all this, if there is any, is that Alex is paying a penalty for all the honor heaped upon him and his football team last fall—the penalty of losing two major assistants who helped him make the team the outstanding one of the year.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Broadway says Der Paulie Berlenbach is going to vaudeville in Germany . . . at two grands a week . . . for 20 weeks. . . Bengough traveled alone to the Yankees' camp this summer . . . he left the sax at home. . . Andy Cohen and Shanty Hogan, vaudevillians, were booked in New York as Cohen and Hogan . . . in Boston as Hogan and Cohen . . . in South Boston as Hogan and Company . . . so they say. . . Tommy Warne is a young pole vaulter worth watching . . . he is a soph at Northwestern . . . and already has topped 13 feet, 4 inches. . . A guy named Tschatschul pitches in a Texas league . . . thank goodness. . . Two Atlanta boys, Carl Agricola and Louis Effell, biked 600 miles to see the Sharkey-Stribling thing . . . for two days and two nights. . . Oregon State says its polo team costs $150 a man . . . and that is plenty cheap.

MULE KILLS CHILD

DALLAS, March 4. (P)—Virginia Irene Hart, 9, of Plao, died today from injuries received when a mule kicked her Saturday. She ran among a herd of mules her father was driving to a pasture.

SECOND SUSPECT HELD

SAN ANTONIO, March 4. (P)—Antonio Chavez, sought as the companion of Ofilio Herrera, who is charged with murder in connection with the slaying of Sheriff Allen T. Murray of Mason, today also was held in the Mason county jail after his arrest Saturday night at Santa Anna, 60 miles north of Mason, according to Deputy Sheriff Sam Baker.

Dick Cooke and Weldon Jolly spent the week-end in Clarendon.

Texas Delegation Conspicuous Among Inaugural Bodies—Band to See Hoover

WASHINGTON, March 4. (P)—A

Texas Ranger, acting as drum major for a day, was assigned to lead Simmons university Cowboy band and a group of Texans up Pennsylvania avenue past the presidential reviewing stand in front of the White House today in the inaugural parade.

Although ninety-fourth in the line of march, the Lone Star delegation was none the less conspicuous. Cowboy chaps and ten-gallon hats, worn by members of the band, along with national and state colors borne by a honor guard of private citizens, made the Texans one of the most colorful units. More than 200 representatives of the border state were on hand to witness and take part in the ceremonies attendant to the inauguration.

Anti-Smith democrats and pro-Smithites mingled in the vast throng of the capital for the inauguration, seeming to forget for the time being any animosity that might exist, and intent only on paying tribute to the man who is to be elevated to the highest office in the nation.

If present plans do not miscarry, the Simmons university Cowboy band will call on Mr. Hoover at the White House Tuesday afternoon, and if the chief executive desires, will play for him.

The primary object of the visit, however, is to extend to him an invitation to attend the convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which will be held in El Paso in May.

WASHINGTON, March 4. (P)—Capt.

Joaquin Gonzales Pacheco and C. E. McMillin, Mexican fliers who landed at Bolling field yesterday after a flight from Mexico City, planned today to see the inaugural ceremonies and afterward a meeting with the new president, had been tentatively arranged. They brought greetings to Mr. Hoover from Dwight Morrow, American ambassador to Mexico.

Thirty-Two Horned Frogs Are Called to Spring Football

FORT WORTH, March 4.—Thirty-two men are on the list issued from the athletic office at Texas Christian University as eligible to draw uniforms for spring football training. Coach Francis A. Schmidt, new Frog Mentor, will arrive at the Purple school soon to look over the material from which he will build his grid team next year. Until the new coach arrives, the spring work will be under Raymond "Bear" Wolfe, the probably successor of Line Coach Ed Kubale.

It is the first time there has been so much material available at T. C. U., that the squad has to be chosen. The list includes seven letter men of last year. Twelve veterans will return next fall, but many of them will be kept from spring practice by baseball and track work.

The veterans are headed by captain-elect Lester Brumblow, Howard Baxter, end; Buck Carr, tackle; Austin Griffith, full; Phil Handler, guard; and Clyde Roberson and Othol Martin, ends. These are all letter men.

From last year's squad come Leo Butler, guard; Gordon Copeland, half; Robert George, center; John Hammond, full; Howell Hopkins, tackle; and Everett Wells, center.

Last year freshmen invited out are: Aubrey Elkins, tackle; Harios Green, full; J. W. Hinton, half; Stanard Lambert, tackle; Gordon McMahon, guard; Kenneth Moore, half; Paul Snow, half; W. T. Thompson, center; Ray McColough, end; Richard Oliver, half; Ralph Ridgeway, half; Vance Woolwine, half; Robert Pollard, guard; Walter Evans, tackle and Hubert Dennis, half; Dennis will not be eligible for competition next year.

From this squad will come the majority of next year's team. Buck Carr, tackle; Ivor Reid, guard; Noble Atkins, center; Ralph Walker, end; and Howard Grubbs, quarter, are last year missing lettermen who will not report for spring training. Several other promising squadmen are also out for baseball and track.

A man may wear skirts, and ribbons in his hair. But a man's man, fat 'at that and 'at that. Witness several distinguished gentlemen at the Central auditorium Friday night.

SKELTON OF WOMAN FOUND IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., March 4. (AP)—The finding in Nichols canyon, only five blocks from Hollywood boulevard, of the skeleton of a woman who apparently had been dead for more than a year, puzzled police today.

The skull had been severed from the body and strands of blonde hair were clinging to it. It was found last night by a group of hikers. Later police found the remainder of the body.

From the tattered clothing police determined that the woman was wearing a sport ensemble. The coat apparently was of rough woolen fabric, checked tan and green, with silk lining. In the right pocket of a coat a small coin purse of brocaded satin was found. Inside was a silver monogram "D." two $1 bills, and 60 cents in coins.

Two counts are contained in the charge, which was made by the official board of inquiry appointed by Premier Benito Mussolini.

The first of these blames Noble for the crash itself; the second finds no acceptable justification of his letting himself be rescued from the ice first, when finally the Swedish aviator, Lundborg, reached the stranded men.

GENERAL NOBLE BLAMED FOR ITALIA DISASTER

ROME, March 4. (AP)—Official blame for the disaster which ended the north pole flight of the dirigible, Italia, last May, was attached today to General Umberto Noble, its commander.

Three of the dead men and two others who were seriously ill were members of a party held by livestock men at a hotel Thursday night. The four others, who died, one of them a woman, had no connection with the party, but police said they received some of the same liquor.

FIRST WOMAN SENATOR HURT IN ACCIDENT

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., March 4. (AP)—Although weak from loss of blood and suffering from serious facial cuts received in an automobile accident yesterday, Mrs. Rebecca Lattimer Felton, 93-year-old former United States Senator from Georgia, today was "resting easily."

The aged woman was confined to a bed after the automobile driven by her grandson, William H. Felton, collided with another car here.

Appointed to fill the unexpired term of Thomas E. Watson, who died in 1922, Mrs. Felton served in the United States senate for 22 hours, the first woman ever to hold such a position in the national government.

SEVEN DEATHS CAUSED BY POISON LIQUOR

PEORIA, Ill., March 4. (AP)—Poison liquor was blamed today for seven deaths here within 48 hours. In a roundup of bootleggers started as soon as a coroner's investigation was completed two men were arrested.

Three of the dead men and two others who were seriously ill were members of a party held by livestock men at a hotel Thursday night. The four others, who died, one of them a woman, had no connection with the party, but police said they received some of the same liquor.

To Urge Better Range In Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP)—With preservation of pasture a watchword in the southwest, the International Exposition and Livestock show at San Antonio March 1 will digress from cattle sufficiently to encourage systematic diversification in livestock production.

There will be exhibits of sheep, Angora goats and domestic rabbits and hares. The swine show is expected to be twice as large as last year. It is pointed out that goats are able to make a good living on certain types of browse range where other livestock would go hungry. The same holds true for other types of animals finding favor in the cattle country.

Economic exhibits will show the advantage of utilizing great areas of forage that are not adapted to cattle, and keeping stock that will flourish on it away from land that will pasture a maximum number of beef animals per acre.

Interest in the San Antonio show has grown so rapidly since its inauguration a year ago that buildings have been constructed to house more than two additional acres of exhibit space. Because the show drew such large crowds last year the city has purchased and improved the property under an agreement by which the exposition association may use it. Two new reinforced concrete buildings have been added to the plant, each of which contains more than an acre of floor space.

Stock farms from all over the United States will exhibit this year, and cowboys from all sections where there still is range to ride will take part in a $10,000 rodeo. A number of new sections have been added to the official prize list, including classes for Aberdeen-Angus cattle, rabbits and hares, and prizes for the best community exhibits. Sheep and goats, both profitable animals in the southwest, will occupy a large section.

Coolidge Glad to Leave White House for Home

WASHINGTON, March 4. (AP)—Filled with the proud satisfaction of one who has given the best of his years and talents to the service of his country, Calvin Coolidge today came to the end of his career in the nation's mightiest office.

Happily, he turned toward Northampton and the little half-house that in humbler days was home. Regretfully he parted from those who have stood at his side in administering the affairs of a great and powerful nation.

Often, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge have talked of the time when it would all be over and they could "go back home." Today, when they awaited only the inauguration of the chief executive's successor before entraining for Northampton and their desire to be off was so great that they decided to abandon the traditional practice of returning to the White house for luncheon with the new president.

In a series of tests yesterday, Mr. Irvin found that the left wing seemed to be heavier than the right or possibly had a greater drag, but with little work he thinks he can fix it.

The plane is equipped with a special Curtis OX-5 motor.

GRADING WORK RESUMED ON BORGER HIGHWAY

Work of making top grade on the Borger road began this morning, according to County Engineer A. H. Doucette. Rough grade has been completed for some time, but because of bad weather the fine grade was never completed.

When completed, the road will be ready for paving this spring. Five miles of road was graded for paving, but only two and one-half miles will be paved at this time. Grading was started at the west end, but paving operations will begin at the city limits.

of reports of his defection. There was some uncertainty too of the status of the Mexican navy.

As to how the movement started, the official version is contained in the statement of President Portes Gil, which says that at 7 a. m., yesterday a message was received from general Aguirre stating that various state officials had "assumed a suspicious attitude" and asking instructions.

This, according to the president, was intended to imply loyalty and to afford an opportunity to further the revolt he had already started. A similar message, with similar purpose, the president said, was received at 10 a. m. from General Manzo in Sonora.

Meanwhile the two generals carried their revolt into effect, Aguirre taking over Vera Cruz, Orizaba, which is 80 miles up the railway to Mexico City, Perote, and other places. Manzo, dispatched said, occupied Nogales, Guaymas, Hermosillo, and other cities of importance. Nowhere was there resistance to the coup.

Support of the government came in the action of Aaron Saenz, governor of Nuevo Leon, wealthy northern state, in suspending his candidacy for the and offering his services in the present emergency.

General Calles as leader of the army is regarded as a tower of strength for the government. He has a war record only less than that of the assassinated president-elect, Alvaro Obregon. In addition he has a strong following with the army and with the public at large. Of the opposing generals, General Aguirre has the most imposing record. He early won a name for himself in his campaigns against the Yaqui Indians and received the surrender of a large contingent of them a year or so ago, transporting them to Vera Cruz, where they were mustered into the Mexican army.

Aguirre is a native of Sonora and was a close personal friend of General Obregon. In 1923 he was a leader in the movement which suppressed the revolt of Adolfo de La Huerta against President Obregon.

Communications Cut

LAREDO, March 4. (AP)—The American consulate in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, opposite Laredo, announced this afternoon that all communication between Nuevo Laredo and Monterrey was reported cut.

LAREDO, March 4. (AP)—Unconfirmed reports, here today said that General Antonio Villareal, announced candidate for the presidency of Mexico, has rebelled and seized Monterrey, Mexico, about 150 miles from Laredo.

EL PASO, March 4. (AP)—Enrique Liekens, Mexican consul-General in El Paso, declared emphatically today that the Mexican revolt is confined to Nogales, Sonora, and Vera Cruz. He said the government was in a position to rapidly overthrow the insurrection.

Rose Building
Boosts Permits

Pampa's building permit total soared last month with the taking out of a permit to erect a $69,000 business building at the corner of Cuyler street and Kingsmill avenue. The building will be built by John T. Glover, local contractor, for the Rose brothers. Work started this morning.

Last month's permits totaled $78,200 to bring the year's total to $369,400 or a ranking of sixth place in the state's building report of all important cities.

Few residences are under construction at the present time, mainly because of the bad weather, local building contractors say. They are optimistic that Pampa will have a larger building program than last year, as soon as the weather conditions become favorable.

He is alleged to have stabbed a young man Sunday during an altercation, according to information received here.

The young man, Elmer Tarleton, about 21 years old, was not seriously hurt, it was learned at the local hospital to which he was taken.

Children this Week

During this entire week, the Parent-Teacher associations will sell sandwiches, milk, and candy bars at the school buildings, to raise funds to defray expenses of the district convention. The women's church societies, study clubs, and bridge clubs of the city, as well as many individuals outside the P-T. A. membership, are generously assisting the associations by furnishing sandwiches or donating money for materials.

The Parent-Teacher associations promise clean, wholesome food for a reasonable price. They ask that parents permit their children to patronize the booths.

HOUSE PASSES MEASURE TO LIGHTEN PENALTIES

AUSTIN, March 4. (AP)—A last ditch fight by house "bone driers" failed to thwart passage today of a measure amending liquor penalties to conform in some respects with federal statutes. Fifty-four representatives cast ballots for the bill and 47 voted against it.

Under the bill, first offense convictions in state courts may bring a fine of from $50 to $500 and a jail sentence of not more than 12 months. For a second conviction an offender may be given not less than six months or more than two years in the county jail where his time shall be spent in road work.

The Dean law previously provided a penitentiary sentence of from one to five years.

CHICKEN THEFT FELONY

AUSTIN, March 4. (AP)—Chicken theft is now punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary. Governor Moody today signed the bill making theft of a chicken, turkey, duck, goose, guinea or other domestic fowl a felony. It carries the emergency clause and becomes effective immediately.

AUTO ACCIDENT FATAL TO THREE—TWO HURT

EAGLE PASS, March 4. (AP)—Three are dead and two injured are in a hospital at Carrizo Springs as the result of an automobile accident near here last night. They were returning from the border.

Walter Flavilla, driver, said he lost control of the machine as he turned out to let another car pass him. Flavilla and E. H. Gragin are reported by the hospital to be seriously hurt.

Fernin Castro was killed instantly. Joe H. Oragg, owner of the car and from cards found in his pocket believed to be a member of the real estate firm of Richey, Casey, and Gragg of San Antonio, died today. Ned Chavis died on the way to a hospital.

WOMEN PLANNING
P-T. A. SESSION TO CONVENE HERE

Plans for the sixth annual convention of the Eighth district Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers associations were fully outlined yesterday at a meeting of the district president, Mrs. J. M. Crane, and the district publicity director, Mrs. T. J. Page, with the local steering committee. The convention will be held April 3, 4, and 5, and will probably be one of the largest meetings held in Pampa this year.

The convention program, as arranged by the district executive board and presented by Mrs. Crane, was enthusiastically received by the local body. Hours for the business meetings and addresses scheduled for the three days were set, and social functions to be given by local organizations were planned for the convenience of delegates and visitors who wish to attend all convention sessions.

The most distinguished group of speakers yet to be assembled for an Eighth district convention will be on the program here, Mrs. Crane told the committee. Each meeting will have its prominent educator speaking on some subject on which he is a specialist. Musical numbers, to be arranged locally, will enrich the programs. Mrs. Crane brought the message that throughout the twenty-six counties comprising the district, officers and members of the P-T. A. are eagerly awaiting the Pampa convention. Agitation on the part of other towns and communities, began at the meeting in Lubbock last year, really resulted in the selection of Pampa as the 1929 convention city. Both Mrs. Crane and Mrs. Page say they are confident this year's meeting will be the most successful in the history of the district.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchins is chairman of the steering committee, which is composed of the executive boards of the five Parent-Teachers associations of the city. Sub-committees were named by Mrs. Hutchins last week and already are at work on problems of housing, entertaining, local program, registration, transportation, and publicity. Various outside organizations, including the B. C. D., men's service clubs, women's study clubs, church societies and social clubs have offered their assistance. Many individuals outside the P-T. A. membership also will help. Mrs. A. H. Doucette, chairman of program, will probably draw heavily upon the talent in these assisting groups.

Mrs. Crane and Mrs. Page are residents of Claude. Their Sunday visit was necessitated by the serious illness of Mrs. Crane's little son who can be left only with his father. They were accompanied to Pampa by Mrs. J. B. Pafford also of Claude.

Uprising Threat
Inspired by Land
Bill, Is Heard

AMARILLO, March 4. (AP)—E. A. Simpson, Amarillo, today told the Panhandle Live Stock association, in convention here, that "if the state is successful in its suit against landowners of the Panhandle, owning land on so-called navigable streams, then no land title in Texas is secure."

Simpson's threats of an uprising that would cause "the greatest era of dissension and strife" the state has ever known, brought cheers from the cattlemen.

Resolutions urging immediate passage of the bill were adopted unanimously.

Dr. T. J. Worrell spent the week-end in Vernon.

HOOVER—

There was a wait while those in the senate chamber who had seen it were conducted through exits and seated in reserved spaces under the dripping sky outside. Only the inaugural stand itself, had been covered. Under this protection the president and vice-president elect, the supreme court, and but a few others had special chairs set for them.

The president and president-elect stayed behind until all of the others were in their seats in the stands outside. Chief Justice Taft had a place near the front of the platform, on the right. The old and new vice-presidents were on the left.

When all had been quieted, the clerk of the supreme court, C. Elmer Cropely, stepped forward holding the little Bible upon which Mr. Hoover had chosen to seal his obligation.

Cropely handed the Bible to Chief Justice Taft. Holding the Bible in his left hand, the chief justice repeated the words of the presidential oath he himself had taken 20 years ago today, and Mr. Hoover repeated it after him in words that carried out over the crowd:

"I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States."

Then, as President Hoover bent forward and kissed the open book, the crowd set up a tremendous roar. Mr. Coolidge, an ex-president, shook hands with his successor.

With head uncovered, the new president began at once the delivery of his inaugural address. The rain was still falling.
