PILOT'S RECORD IS VERY GOOD

Cause of Blaze Near Chicago Is Not Determined

CHICAGO, March 22. (AP)—His airplane catching fire while flying to Chicago with the night airmail, Paul J. Kanlit, pilot on the Chicago-Kansas City route, made a parachute leap from his plane and landed safely near Harrison, Ill., 100 miles southwest of Chicago, early today. The plane was virtually destroyed, but only a portion of the 400 pounds of mail was burned. Part of the mail was dispatched from Dallas last night.

Kanlit left Moline, Ill., at 6:30 and about 20 minutes later, the plane suddenly caught fire. He joined the Caterpillar club by stepping out of the cockpit and floating down to safety with his parachute. The plane fell several miles from where he landed. The mail from Dallas was transferred to Kansas City into Kanlit's plane, operated by the National Air Transport. It was a Curtiss Falcon.

Kanlit is a veteran army and airmail pilot with 1,500 hours in the air. This was his first resort to a parachute. The cause of the fire has not been determined. The mail was taken to the post office.

Bodies Found and Death List in Mine Grows

PARNASSUS, Pa., March 22. (AP)—Twenty-six miners were known to have been killed and 38 were missing today more than 24 hours after an explosion wrecked the Kinloch mine of the Valley Camp Coal company.

Previous estimates placed the list of unaccounted for at 10, but company officials, in a recapitulation, stated 33 diggers were missing. Five additional bodies were found today.

Peoria Fire Costs Three Lives and Million Dollars

PEORIA, Ill., March 22. (AP)—Three men lost their lives and property valued at $1,000,000 was destroyed in a fire which swept through the Peoria market, a four-story business block in the heart of the business district, today.

The victims were two firemen, Thomas O'Connor and Richard Teufel, killed when a wall collapsed, and the night watchman, Milton Strayer, found dead on the second floor.

B. C. D. PROTESTS SANTA FE PLAN TO BUILD BRANCH LINE INTO CENTRAL GRAY COUNTY

A written protest to the Santa Fe plan to build a spur line from a point about 8 miles east of Pampa to a point three miles east of LeFors has been transmitted to the Chicago headquarters of that road by the Board of City Development.

The protest was approved by the Pampa Lions club at their luncheon yesterday, with the understanding that it be transmitted along with B. C. D. communication unless it was found that the Lions constitution prohibited such action.

The formal protest follows: THE ATCHINSON, TOPEKA & SANTA FE RY. CO. Gentlemen:

We the citizens of Pampa, Texas acting by and through the undersigned organization, hereby request your fair and impartial consideration of the matter outlined in the following resolutions, unanimously adopted by the membership of such organizations.

WHEREAS, we, the citizens of Pampa having been directly advised that your company is now contemplating the construction of a "stub" branch line railroad from a point on the Clinton-Oklahoma & Western railroad, about nine miles east of the city of Pampa, to some place on Section 1, Brooks and Burleson survey about eight miles south from the place of beginning on the Clinton & Oklahoma Western railroad, and

WHEREAS, we, the citizens of Pampa have recently contributed $50,000, and much valuable time, to buy the right of way and assist in the construction of the afore mentioned Clinton & Oklahoma Western railway, and has assisted in every possible manner to the construction of said railway, and through our influence were able to secure said right of way at less than its actual value, and have to the utmost of our ability always cooperated with, and patronized the Panhandle and Santa Fe railway, and

WHEREAS, the construction of the proposed short "stub" line will in our opinion, fail to provide any part of an adequate railroad service to the large territory that it merely approaches and does not penetrate to serve, and

WHEREAS, the construction of such a "stub" line will in its effect bring a dissolution of population and power to progress, with the great attendant injury to a now prosperous and progressive community, and work an untold hardship on a large number of extensive property interests; and create a ruinous depreciation of property values on the other hand, without, on the other hand, enhancing values or promoting progress at any place or in any manner, and

WHEREAS, the future development of the entire resources of this great section of country are largely dependent upon its continued and uninterrupted prosperity, and the provision of proper and adequate means of transportation.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the citizens of Pampa acting by and through our civic and other organizations, hereby protest against the construction of such a "stub" line railroad as that now being proposed by the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway Co., and we further resolve to do all things possible that are honorable and within our power to prevent the construction of such a "stub" line railroad, and we further resolve to give our support only to such means of proposed transportation lines as will offer adequate facilities to serve the present and future progress and development of our country and its resources.

PASSED AND APPROVED this 20th day of March, A. D. 1929. Pampa Board of City Development F. D. Klein, President Geo. W. Briggs, Manager

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duncan will leave Sunday for Lafayette, Ind., where they will make their home. Before her marriage last Saturday, Mrs. Duncan was Miss Helen Sellers. The young couple were married by Justice O. E. Cary in his office.

Judge Ewing Grants Several Divorces

Divorce cases have been taking most of Judge W. R. Ewing's time in 31st district court this week. Besides dismissing several cases, calling the docket, setting cases, and charging the grand jury, Judge Ewing has granted several divorces.

Divorce decrees have been granted to the following: Mrs. Edna Leah Underwood from T. K. Underwood and Mrs. Underwood was given custody of two minors; Fred McCarty from Mrs. Martha McCarty; Mrs. Stella Wyatt from L. D. Wyatt; Tex Patterson from Mrs. Irene Patterson; Mrs. Ethel Phillips from George Phillips; Ben S. Browder from Mrs. Annis Browder; Ed Thom from Mrs. Treon Thom; Mrs. Eleathea Cason from J. M. Cason, and Mrs. Lena Gibson from Mickey L. Gibson.

Judge Ewing will continue to hear non-jury cases the rest of this week. Commencing Monday morning at 10 o'clock, civil suits will be called.

Building Permits Light in March

Building during March has been light in the city, statistics from the building-permits book at the city hall indicate. Only $18,075 in permits has been authorized since the first of the month.

Included in the list for the last week are a $4,000 home in the Parkhill addition for J. L. Noel, a $2,000 residence in the White House addition for C. K. Nowlin, and two residences for J. L. Peake in the West End addition. One of Mr. Peake's houses will be erected at a cost of $3,000 and the other at a cost of $2,500.

Building permits for the year are high. During January and February the total amounted to $369,400.

Royalty in New Proved Area Sold

The first royalty sale in the new production area between the Bowers-McGee and LeFors pools was recorded with County Clerk Charlie Thut this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McLaughlin, residents of Dallas county, have sold a one-quarter royalty in and under the northwest quarter of section 33, block B-2, H. & G. N. survey, to R. L. Clinton of Enid, Okla. The amount of the transaction has not been made public.

The land involved lies southwest of the new well brought in Wednesday afternoon by the Marland Oil company. The Pure Oil company owns the lease on the property.

RANGER FINDS TORTURE WAS VERY FIENDISH

Many Charges Are Placed Against Suspects

MAN IS HANGED BY THUMBS

Doss Moore Is Barely Alive in Hospital at San Saba

AUSTIN, March 22. (AP)—State Ranger Jim McCoy, who has been investigating an attack upon Doss Moore early this week at San Saba, reported here today that Moore had been brutally tortured.

Stan Hawkins and Lee Bob Smith were arrested by McCoy and San Saba county officers and were charged with assault with intent to kill in connection with the attack. Robbery charges also were filed against them in connection with the rifling of Moore's San Saba residence.

"I never saw anything like it in my life," McCoy said. "Moore can hardly draw a breath, so great is his agony."

SAN SABA, March 22. (AP)—His life hanging by a slender thread, Doss Moore, 35, of the McMillan community near here, regained consciousness sufficiently today to relate details of alleged torture last Friday and Saturday at the hands of two men.

Giving no reason for the attack Moore said he was beaten and tortured all Friday night at a house, where he declares he was dragged around the place by his ears and then hanged up by his ears and thumbs.

Stan Hawkins of Walter Creek and Lee B. Smith, whose parents live at Rosebud, today waived examining trial here and were held on charges of assault to commit murder. Robbery charges also were filed against them in connection with the rifling of Moore's residence.

KANSAS BANK ROBBED
PARSONS, Kans., March 22. (AP)—Alva Bailey, assistant cashier of the Cheryvale State bank, kidnaped by three bandits who this afternoon held up the institution, was released a half hour later on a country road near Mound Valley. He telephoned Parsons officers of his release.

Mrs. W. E. Davis is at Pampa hospital for treatment and is improving satisfactorily, according to the report today.

Frank Jones of Roscoe is visiting his brother, Harry Jones, a new employee of the Daily News.

Clean-Up Week Proclaimed by Mayor

WHEREAS, the spring months have now begun, and it is appearing that it is necessary to the preservation of the health and welfare of our citizenship, and the appearance of our city, that all debris, trash, etc., be immediately removed from all premises within the city before the coming of the warmer months, and

WHEREAS, a united effort of our entire citizenship will be necessary to accomplish this benefit that will be enjoyed by all:

NOW THEREFORE, by authority of powers vested in my office, I, D. W. Osborne, mayor of the City of Pampa, hereby proclaim the week of March 25th to 30th to be set aside and observed as "CLEAN UP" week in the City of Pampa, and I hereby call upon all citizens to cooperate in thoroughly ridding their premises of all trash, cans, and debris of every kind, and have same removed to the City dump ground, that the health and welfare of our citizenship may be protected, and the appearance of our City so maintained that we may all point with pride to the accomplishment of a clean and progressive citizenship, of which we are all a part.

Given under my hand and seal of office, this 20th day of March, A. D. 1929.

D. W. OSBORNE, Mayor.

Week of March 25-30 Proclaimed as Clean-Up Period—Orderly City Wanted by Time Big Conventions Come to Pampa

MANY WELLS TO BE DRILLED IN NEW TERRITORY
Spring clean-up time is here. Not only for the sake of general cleanliness and beauty, but particularly in preparation for the conventions to be held here in April, civic leaders have decided to set the week of March 25-30 aside as "Clean-Up Week." The official proclamation of Mayor D. W. Osborne appears above.

Teachers and pupils of the public schools will assist in the clean-up campaign, and the clubs of the community, will have a part. The students will help advertise the event by writing news letters about it to their parents. The subject has been under discussion by the women's organizations for several weeks.

The eighth district of the Texas Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations will convene here April 3 and 4, and on April 19 and 20 the Panhandle Press association will hold its annual convention in Pampa.

Calles Is Sending Troops to Help Mazatlan Forces

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, March 22. (AP)—Mexican revolutionary representatives, in New York today announced receipt of a telegram stating insurgent forces have captured the seaport of Mazatlan in the state of Sinaloa.

The storming of Mazatlan, important federal city on the west coast, was reported by the rebels today, but definite outcome of the battle was in doubt.

General Carrillo, federal commander, had about 2,000 troops strongly entrenched and the insurgents about 4,000 men.

Federal reinforcements of 6,000 men were en route to Mazatlan, but it will be several days before they will be in a position to relieve the city.

Mazatlan is important as a key city on the Southern Pacific railway leading in the heart of Mexico and to the capital city.

General Calles, meanwhile, is hard at work repairing the railway out of Torreon in order to permit pursuit of the federal forces in Chihuahua. He will send a force of 15,000 men shortly.

A battle is expected at Bachimba Pass south of Chihuahua City where the rebels are concentrating.

The government strategy at this stage is to drive the rebels into Sonora, centralize the revolt there and then gradually destroy it. An expected attack on Naco on the American border has not materialized and government troops are still firmly entrenched there.

Neal D. Norris, Borger insurance man and former manager of the Borger Daily Herald, is a visitor here today.

Ed Maddox of the Hayhook ranch, who broke his leg in an accident at the ranch, March 13, is still at the Pampa hospital but is recuperating satisfactorily.

CHARGES ARE BROUGHT THROUGH HOUSE GROUP

Neglect, Corruption in Office Are Among Offenses

BRANSON NAMED AS ACCOMPLICE

Improper Conniving in Politics Also Is Mentioned

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 22. (AP)—Impeachment articles alleging incompetency, willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, and offenses involving moral turpitude against three justices of the state supreme court were reported to the Oklahoma house of representatives today by its investigating committee.

Eleven articles were reported against Chief Justice Charles W. Mason, 10 against Justice Fletcher Riley and 11 against Justice J. W. Clark.

The report was filed by J. A. Patterson, chairman of the sub-committee which investigated the supreme court.

The charges against Chief Justice Mason alleged: That he accepted as a bribe a $1,000 automobile.

That he permitted persons other than members of the supreme court to write supreme court opinions.

That he corruptly attempted to prevent administration of justice to serve his friends.

That he distorted facts in the supreme court clerk's office.

That he filed a corrupt opinion prepared by a supreme court commissioner.

That he corruptly entered a scheme with Fred F. Branson, at the time chief justice of the supreme court, to compel the sale of Branson's property at an exorbitant figure.

That he caused copies to be printed of a dissenting opinion of Branson exhorting a printing firm.

That he participated in consideration of an injunction case forbidding the attempted impeachment session of the legislature in 1927, from which he was barred by interest and bias.

That he "availed himself of unfair and improper protection of the supreme court" to escape prosecution of a contest of his election.

That he connived with "political lawyers" and expunged or altered public records to conceal wrongful acts corruptly to the debauchery of the supreme court.

That he is guilty of incompetency and willful neglect of duty in encouraging lobbying and participating in "unethical, illegal, unlawful, and terroristic acts of oppression."

Miss Roy Riley, a teacher in the Junior high school, left the Pampa hospital yesterday, after spending two weeks there. She is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McConnell, where she lives in Pampa. Miss Riley had been ill several weeks before entering the hospital, but is now improving.

Miss Wanda Enlow has been seriously ill at the Pampa hospital since March 12. The hospital reported today that there is no apparent change in her condition.

One newspaper—the Pampa Daily News—blankets the great Pampa trade territory. The News has overwhelming leadership in this territory.

At ONE cost, through a single newspaper and without any other expense, the advertiser quickly and thoroughly can reach the consumer and sell merchandise in this trade territory.

A wisely divided appropriation for the Daily News has brought business to dozens of local advertisers.

Old Tack Would Resign If His Judgment Is Reversed

AMARILLO, March 22. Gene Howe whose Amarillo Globe is being boycotted by some Amarillo music lovers who resented his criticism of Mary Garden as she appeared here Monday night, has issued a statement offering to resign.

Mr. Howe, whose personal column is under the nom de plume Erasmus Tack during his stormy career as editor here for five years, has had four boycotts started against him by irate subscribers. "I'm becoming exhausted trying to establish real culture on the Plains of Texas," Mr. Howe declared, "and if I am not sustained, or rather vindicated, in this latest outbreak, I'm willing to step down and out. I am more than eager to appear before a mass meeting of the Amarillo and Panhandle music clubs and be examined by an unprejudiced, competent authority."

"But this authority must be from the outside and not from Chicago. If I cannot prove to him that I am capable as a critic of opera and fine music, I'll resign as editor. I have heard more and know more about grand opera than any six persons in the entire Panhandle of Texas. The one exception I make is May Peterson, the wife of Col. Ernest O. Thomason of Amarillo."

Mr. Howe pointed out here that Mrs. Thomason is a singer and was born in Indiana "and not in the Panhandle."

"The fact," he continued, "that we've lost 547 subscribers since my criticism of Miss Garden means nothing. They will be back. Those who have discontinued the paper are merely engaged in an orgy of ignorance. We've had thousands stop the Globe at different times, but our circulation, despite the latest inroads, is the largest it ever has been. My only thought in telling the truth about the atrocious performance given by the Chicago civic opera company in Amarillo was to protect the public."

"Instead of the musically inclined trying to drive me out of Amarillo they should back me in my efforts to prevent further raids by barnstorming aggregations that do not attempt to give full value and honest performances in smaller cities."

Some of his critics, Mr. Howe declared "will commend anything that bears the label of being highbrow, regardless of quality." He declared Mary Garden's performance of "Thais" here, was a "travesty."

"I do not care to engage in a low-brow controversy with Miss Garden who replies that I am 'silly' and that when I'm a tottering old man I'll still be singing 'Thais'. I do not dispute this although I am 43 years old and have the jump on her by at least 17 years. I am satisfied that before she is through she will win high honors for all time for longevity in grand opera. To date she had broken all known records."

Mr. Howe has had an extensive musical training.

"It's Like This—"

IT IS TO THE CREDIT OF modern endeavor that faith builds many structures that are not justified by conditions within the grasp of ordinary minds.

It will be some time before the world is firm-minded enough to forsake highway and rail travel, but this does not prevent the far-sighted investors from laying the framework of transcontinental aviation.

Transcontinental aviation is coming to Pampa at a much earlier date than anyone expected. With air travel in its infancy, it is not easy to provide proper facilities for those who are apt to be our guests at any time.

Pampa is fortunately located on the transcontinental route traversed by the firm for which Col. Lindbergh is technical adviser, and by other transport companies.

BOYS & GIRLS Souvenirs in Big Dandy Bread SATURDAY THE DILLEY BAKERIES

WASHINGTON—Major H. O. D. Segrave's new speed record on the Florida sands has only been surpassed by the record set by the hearse bearing the "Coolidge policies" as it headed for the graveyard.

If a Republican campaign speaker had suggested last fall that any of those precious policies would be discarded by Herbert Hoover he would have been promptly gagged, repudiated and kicked in the pants.

Mr. Hoover himself referred to them as something really holy and sacred, as a sort of brilliant constellation which would guide his faltering footsteps for four years.

But it was apparent enough to anyone that the "Coolidge policies" were as dead as a diplodocus as soon as Hoover was nominated and whoever was goose enough to suppose that they would be preserved anywhere except in a back-stairs closet must lately have been painfully awakened by the alacrity with which the new president has dumped them into the furnace.

The general, pervading Coolidge policy was one of inertia. When he acted at all, Coolidge generally acted negatively, vetoing a bill or refusing to permit new expense.

Prohibition is the issue today which interests the most people. Conditions were pretty awful under Coolidge and he let it ride. Conditions may not improve immensely under Hoover, but he is going to do something about them. First he will appoint a commission and in the meantime it is said, will try to make Washington a dry town.

Whatever farm relief legislation is passed by Congress will undoubtedly prove to be something that Coolidge would have been willing to sign. But it's Hoover who has called the special session for it and Hoover who has insisted, if only because of campaign promises, that something must be done.

Mr. Hoover kept in his cabinet two Harding appointees, but the several Coolidge appointees went out with a rush. One does not recall that there was ever the barest rumor that he would retain Kellogg or Sargent or Wilbur or Dwight Davis or West or Whitling.

Oil was a word utterly foreign to Calvin's lips. His own oil conservation board long ago recommended 'the more intelligent handling of government-controlled oil sources on public and Indian lands.'

Administration of Indian affairs was a scandal all through the Coolidge administration, as it had been many years previously. The Coolidge policy was to let it ride. But already it has been intimated that Hoover will have a new administrative personnel for the Indian bureau, and the bureau itself seems to be making frantic efforts to improve appearances.

Even the pet Coolidge policy of "economy" no longer remains. Hoover must go slow because government finances seem in a delicate condition,

Will talking movies save the famous movie kiss? Movie osculation took 50 feet of film ten years ago, whereas now it is satisfactorily done in 10 feet.

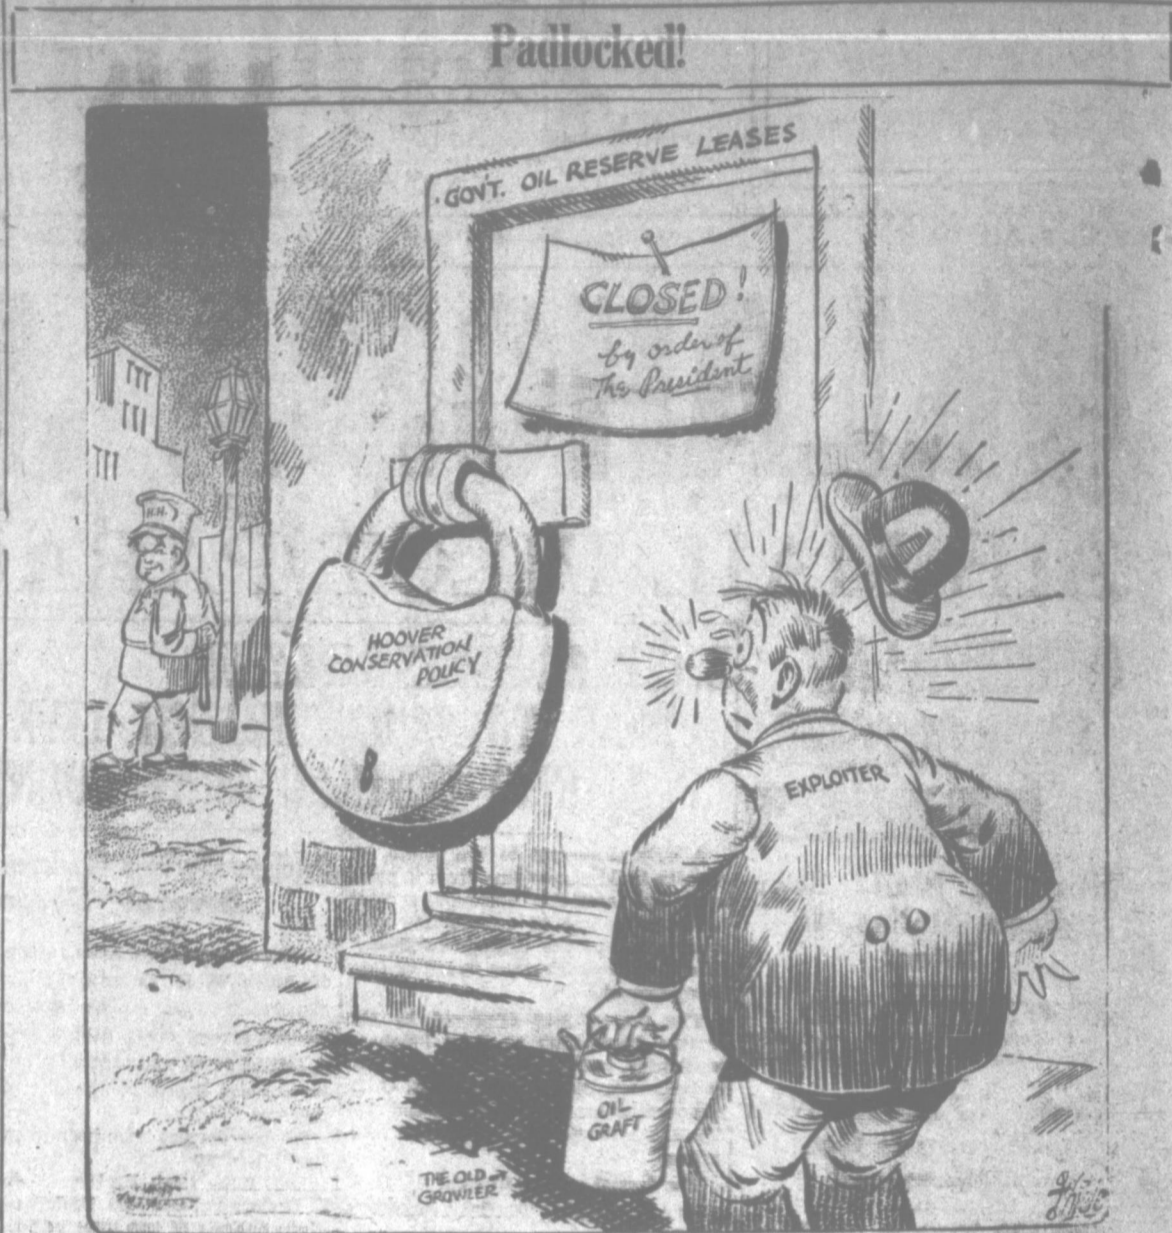

But speaking of movies, realism is going to be too much when they incorporate in them the fumes of some of those speakeasies and the aroma of garlic restaurants.

A cheer for Cheyene, our new neighbor on the east. They voted bonds for a new high school over there, 140 to 0.

but he has let it be understood that he is no cheese-paring president and that his policy will be one of intelligent expenditure without waste.

Three Hostesses Entertain with Pre-Easter Party

One of the week's most enjoyable affairs was given by Mrs. Clarence Barrett, Mrs. Walter Coffee, and Mrs. W. T. Fraser, who entertained members of the London Bridge club and their husbands with a buffet supper and bridge at the Barrett home.
The Easter theme was developed in all details of the party, even to a hunt for the dishes at supper, which were hidden in nests. An Easter rabbit sat in the center of each card table, where accessories decorated in spring time motifs were used. Winners of favors found them by following long ribbons to a nest.
The players were: Mr. and Mrs. John Studer, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sugg, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johns, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Hicks, Marion Howard, Clarence Barrett, and Walter Fraser. Mrs. Sanders and Mr. Sugg made high scores and Mrs. Hicks and Mr. Coffee, low. Table cuts went to Mrs. Studer, Mr. Sanders, Dr. Hicks, and Mr. Barrett.

Junior Zimmerman's Sixth Birthday is Celebrated at Party

Mrs. E. D. Zimmerman entertained a group of her Junior's friends at a delightful party celebrating the little boy's sixth birthday. Games and a hunt for colored eggs furnished amusement. The birthday cake was cut at 6 o'clock and served with pink ice cream.
The following of Junior's playmates were present: Betty Anne Fannell, D. Sackett, Jr., Helen Harris, Jay and Betty Plank, and H. M. Lister, Jr. Several attractive presents were given Master Zimmerman.

Ace High Members Entertained by Mrs. C. M. Carlock

Mrs. C. M. Carlock was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Ace High Bridge club. In addition to the club members, she entertained a few other friends, the party making up three tables. Players were as follows: Mrs. J. J. Cassidy, Mrs. Douglas Day, Mrs. Floyd A. Hollenbeck, Mrs. A. D. Johnston, Mrs. James Ensign, Mrs. W. H. Lang, Mrs. Henry L. Lemons, Mrs. P. T. McNamara, members; and Mrs. Robert Chafin, Mrs. H. W. Johns, Mrs. R. A. Webb, special guests.
Favors were given Mrs. Lemons and Mrs. Chafin for high scores. Consolation for low score went to Mrs. Ensign. Notes of spring were in the decorations of the tables and score pads, which gave the card tables an added attraction.

City Council of P. T. A. Formed by 5 Associations

A P. T. A. city council was organized yesterday at a meeting of the officers of the five Parent-Teacher associations. Mrs. Joe Smith, president of the Central association, was made president of the council also.
Other officers elected are: First vice-president and chairman of the program committee, Mrs. B. E. Finley; second vice-president and chairman of membership, Mrs. A. E. Shackleton; third vice-president and chairman of public welfare, Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar; fourth vice-president and chairman of education, Mrs. W. Purviance; fifth vice-president and chairman of home service, Mrs. H. G. Twiford; sixth vice-president and chairman of health, Mrs. W. A. Gray; recording secretary, Mrs. J. L. Lester; treasurer, Mrs. A. H. Doucette; parliamentarian, Mrs. Thomas Clayton, and historian, Mrs. T. A. Stark.
In other cities where the city council plan is followed it has been found that through exchange of ideas, discussion of common problems, and co-ordination of efforts, in the representative board, both the score and the effectiveness of Parent-Teacher work has been increased. Organization of the council here was a logical step, not only because it is required by the state organization that cities having three or more associations form a council, but because much work lies ahead of the local groups.

"Have 'em to See Me About Sargon" States Thompson

"I have been thankful a thousand times that I took Sargon when I did. It is simply wonderful the way it has benefited me," said L. J. Thomason, of 1102 1-2 Houston Street, Fort Worth.

L. J. THOMASON
He is well known in the oil business and the real estate field.

"I was all out of the from-head-to-foot before I got hold of Sargon. My stomach gave me all sorts of trouble, and after every meal I would feel miserable. I would tire out easily and felt exhausted and nervous. Then I had an attack of 'flu' that left me so weak I knew I needed a tonic to rebuild my strength. I took a lot of medicines but kept getting worse. Then my good friend, Charlie Haynes, who had taken Sargon, got me started on it, and right from the start I knew I had a real 'honest-to-goodness' medicine. It worked wonderfully and seemed like it was made especially for my case. I thanked Haynes a dozen times for what he did for me by getting me to use Sargon. It worked fine for him, too.
"I feel better than I have in years, and feel it is a duty to tell others how different Sargon is to other medicines. In fact, I sometimes stop friends on the street and tell them all about it. I feel like a man made all over again; am stronger, and can eat like a farm hand and relish every bite. I am never troubled with indigestion now. I don't tire like I used to and can keep on the 'go.'
"Yes, indeed, just have them see me if anybody wants to know what I think of Sargon."
Sargon may be obtained in Pampa from Fatheree Drug Co., and in McLean from Erwin Drug Co.—(adv.)

Mr. and Mrs. Carter E. Smith of Toledo, Ohio, are visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Johnson, and other relatives in the city. They contemplate making their home here.

Baseball Outlook Not Very Different From Last Year

ATLANTA, Ga., March 22. (AP)—Unless the unexpected happens in baseball there will be no drastic upheaval when all the 1929 returns are in for the National league. Spring indications point to four clubs in a fight for the first division places, and the favored quartet is made up of those finishing in the first four places last year.

Rearrangements of the order in both upper and lower brackets seem likely. The champions, the St. Louis Cardinals, will find their high position definitely menaced by Chicago, New York and Pittsburgh. Some students of the game have concluded that St. Louis is not greatly improved while the Cubs, Giants and Pirates are definitely better.

The outlook for the clubs who finished in the second division last year is not promising in view of the improved condition of their rivals, who were more fortunate last season. The Phillies chronic tail enders, have perhaps taken the longest strides, and with a break of luck should get out of the cellar.

A majority of baseball's close observers forecast a long and bitter struggle with the competition continuing to the stretch. Each of the four first division clubs of last year has made a definite addition to its strength. The Cubs have Rogers Hornsby and his devastating bat, the Giants expect Fred Leach to strengthen their outfield, the Pirates have Jess Petty, a star left hander, and the Cardinals infield has been braced by the acquisition of Charlie Gelbert, a great young shortstop. Supporters of the Cubs believe that the addition of Jess Petty has made the club. The batting leader of the league will add a punch and his strong offensive is expected to carry his mates with him. If Manager Joe McCarthy gets satisfactory results from his pitching staff his club should play a prominent part in the indicated finish fight. His infield reserves have not been strengthened but an already strong catching staff has been bolstered by a hard hitter in Tom Angley, the former cracker and Georgia Tech star.

The New York Giants have been gratified to find Andy Reese, a greatly improved performer at second base and if he carries his terrific spring hitting streak into the regular campaign it will be difficult to oust him from the infield. Carl Hubbell, who showed himself as a capable left hander on his first appearance, is better now and Leach and Ed Roush, apparently recovered from his indisposition of last year, will form a stronger outfield combination.

Pittsburgh is conducting an infield experiment and has been retarded in its outfield arrangements by the absence of the poisonous brothers relieved the tension in part, but the Pirates will not be happy until they have the elder as well. Jess Petty supplies a touch the pitching department has long needed. Pittsburgh has not had an experienced outpaw in many seasons.

The Cardinals will take the field with a rearranged infield, including the sensational international league recruit, Gelbert, as shortstop. He has given every indication of being as good as he is touted and should develop into one of the stars of the game. Casey Selph another recruit infielder, barring a slowness on double plays, has also lived up to his press notices. The return of Walter Roettger to physical fitness will add batting strength to the outfield.

Spudder Pitchers Have Hard Time in Practice Tilt

DALLAS, March 22. (AP)—Field practice held the attention of the Wichita Falls Spudders today. In a practice game yesterday, the regulars defeated the yanigans, 12 to 8, the pitchers getting much the worst of the affair. Several veterans who have not yet appeared in a game so far during the exhibition games are to break into the Spudder line-up tomorrow in the initial game of a two-game series with the Oklahoma City team of the Western league, Manager Jim Galloway announced.

An exhibition game this afternoon with the Tulsa Oilers of the Western league will occupy the time of the Waco Cubs. The Oilers are at Waco for a three-game series. Manager Pratt said he would send his regular line-up against the Tulsa nine. Love and McClung for the Cubs are expected to be opposed by Halzlip and Ellis for the Oilers in the pitcher's box.

Gelbert, as shortstop. He has given every indication of being as good as he is touted and should develop into one of the stars of the game. Casey Selph another recruit infielder, barring a slowness on double plays, has also lived up to his press notices. The return of Walter Roettger to physical fitness will add batting strength to the outfield.

Baseball League to Be Organized This Evening

Election of officers for the new Industrial baseball league will be held at the Board of City Development rooms tonight at 7:30 o'clock. A nominating committee was appointed at the last meeting. A rules and by-laws committee also will submit its report for adoption.

It was decided at a previous meeting to have a four-team league rather than a larger number. Last year the league was not a success, chiefly because there were too many teams, this year's managers say.

Tentative entries have been made by the Shell Petroleum, Gulf Production, Magnolia Petroleum corporation, Cabot company, and Athletes. Play will begin April 1 and end August 17, it was decided at the organization meeting last Tuesday night.

Loughran Makes 175 Pounds Easily

CHICAGO, March 22. (AP)—To prove he is encountering no difficulty in making the 175-pound limit, Tommy Loughran invited the skeptics to weigh him today, six days before his light heavyweight championship battle with Mickey Walker at the new Chicago stadium. Reports have persisted that the champion was unable to trim his weight and he might have to fight at catchweights, forfeiting the title to Walker.

Loughran engaged in a long workout yesterday, mixing six rounds with his two negro sparring partners, taking a good road trip and smashing the bag for several rounds.

Walker has ended his training at his New Jersey camp and will arrive here tomorrow.

Garden Much too Small for Bout This Evening

NE WYORK, March 22. (AP)—If they doubled Madison Square Garden's seating capacity it would be too small for the ten-round match between Jimmy McLarnin and Ray Miller tonight.

One hitter has been known to jam the Garden to the doors. When they match two sluggers there isn't an indoor arena capable of holding all the fistic faithful who would like to be in on the death.

Prospects are for a crowd of close to 21,000 and a gate approximately $100,000.

Fighting at 140 pounds, Jimmy will outweigh his blonde Chicago rival by six to eight pounds. Jimmy has high hopes of landing a welterweight title bout before the year is out and he won't be likely to get it if he fails to avenge the technical knockout defeat Miller plastered on him in Detroit last year.

OUTSIDER WINS ENGLISH DERBY BY FAST SPURT

AINTREE, England, March 22. (AP)—Tregalch, an outsider, won the great grand national steeplechase today.

Tregalch, the winner, was not one of the American entries. He was owned by Mrs. M. A. Gemmill, and was a 100-to-1 shot. Everett was the rider.

Easter Hero, owned by J. H. Whitney, an American sportsman, was leading the field at the end of the first round of a two-lap course but was beaten out in the second time around. He maintained his lead over the canal which marks the three-quarter point and cleared others of the big jumps in brilliant style, only to lose out in a furious finish.

America's standard-bearers were not without honor, although Easter Hero was the only horse to carry that country's colors to the finish among the first three. The crowd of more than 1,000 Americans in the nearly 300,000 persons found plenty to cheer about as Easter Hero led at the end of the first circuit.

But the American hopes for a Billy Barton victory were destined to be lost in that second and last wild gallop around the treacherous, hazard-strewn triangular course, as horses and men went down together in a tangle of legs and hoofs. Billy Barton finally came to grief in the country far from the stands, and of the nine American-owned entries Easter Hero was the only one to finish.

Foch May Rest Beside Unknown Soldier of France

PARIS, March 22. (AP)—A project was on foot today to inter the remains of Marshal Foch in a tomb beside that of the most humble of his followers France's unknown soldier, under the Arc de Triomphe, overlooking the city he twice saved from an invader.

The plan originated with a number of deputies wounded in the war after the general plan of the obsequies, providing for burial in crypt beside the tomb of Napoleon under the Dome des Invalides, has been announced.

There were various objections to the project, these including necessity of changing preparations for burial elsewhere which were well under way, and the fact that the Arc de Triomphe is not in a strictly religious sense consecrated ground and therefore not in keeping with the views of the marshal's family as a place of interment.

Whatever is finally decided there seemed little doubt that Tuesday would see the greatest funeral tribute ever witnessed in Europe. Princes and presidents, rich man and peasant, generals and humble troopers alike will participate in the final ceremonies.

Pampa Catholics Join White Deer Devotional Today

Members of Holy Souls congregation joined Catholics of White Deer this morning in an 8 o'clock service which opened 48 hours of devotion to be observed by the congregation of Sacred Heart church. The Rev. F. H. Hillen, vicar-rector of St. George's college, Amarillo, was to deliver the initial sermon of the special services there at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

He will deliver the second sermon tomorrow at 8 o'clock mass. The services at Sacred Heart will be closed Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock with Father Hillen's final sermon, followed by the chanting of the litany of the saints and benediction.

At 7:30 o'clock this evening, Father Hillen will deliver the last sermon of his Lenten series at Holy Souls church. His topic will be "The Holy Eucharist and the Sacrifice of the Mass."

Sunday being Palm Sunday, the customary ceremonies will be held at Holy Souls church, including the blessing and the distribution of the palms. This ceremony is to commemorate the triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem, when he was acclaimed by the people who strewed His pathway with palm branches as a mark of honor and respect. This blessing and distribution of the palms will take place at 8 o'clock mass. The public is cordially invited.

New Supply House Opens for Business

The organization of the Pampa Pipe & Supply company has been completed and is open for business with headquarters on Tule street.

R. Paul Courty, manager of the new company, has been with a local supply store here for the last two years, and is well-known throughout the Panhandle oil fields.

Herman Axelrod, president, was formerly employed by the Gibson Machine & Tool company of Berger, San Francisco, secretary, is also connected with the Get. Oil company which owns properties northwest of Pampa.

United States to Pay Tribute to Marshal Foch

WASHINGTON, March 22. (AP)—Recognizing him as one of its own war leaders—for as generalissimo of the allied forces he commanded America's largest army—the United States will pay its highest tribute to Marshal Foch.

A national salute of 21 guns will be fired at sun-up on the day of the great war leader's funeral by American military forces throughout the world. At all military posts, the flag will stand at halfmast throughout the day, and one gun will be fired every half hour until sunset.

President Hoover whose associations with Marshal Foch form a vivid part of his memories of the war, will attend memorial services which will be conducted here under the auspices of the French embassy.

Smith Again in Tournament Lead

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 22. (AP)—Favorites and those outside the pale swung into a business-like stride today as they opened the Miami Beach golf tournament.

Horton Smith, Joplin, Mo., finished well toward the front of the 65 qualifiers yesterday. Smith started his day's work with Ed Dudley, Los Angeles, one of yesterday's four medalists and Tommy Kerrigan, Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Walter Hagen, British open champion and captain of the American Ryder cup team, came in safely among the qualifiers. Teeing off today with Hagen were Wild Bill Mehlhorn, White Plains, N. Y., and Henry Ciuci, Bridgeport, Conn.

Dog License Is Paid in Pennies

A local negro called at the police station yesterday afternoon and asked for a dog license. Chief J. I. Downs turned the man over to Traffic Officer J. W. Turpin, who carefully made out the receipt and handed it to the negro.

Officer Turpin was then somewhat confounded when the negro handed him a sack of money for the tag. On opening the bag, a stream of pennies flowed over the chief's desk.

Evidently some pickaninny had given its savings to save the life of the pup.

Dog Population Rapidly Declines

Stray dogs are fast disappearing from the streets of Pampa. Lee Mullins has killed 242 of them. Lee Mullins was employed as city dog-catcher February 1 and has been active since that time.

For the first time since the dog-catcher started activities, the deaths have exceeded the licenses issued, Chief Mullins says. He has issued 202 licenses in comparison with 242 dogs killed.

THE High Pressure SALESMAN

DOES the automobile salesman live who could sell you a car without a self-starter, on the theory that it was equipped with a nice crank?

Could you be persuaded to replace your modern range with an old-fashioned coal stove?

Could anyone sell you the idea that oil lamps and candles would be more satisfactory than your electric lights, which operate at the touch of a button? Probably not, for all of these represent work and inconvenience.

Then, why the old-fashioned ice box, the carpet sweeper or broom, the coal furnace in the cellar, the laundry tubs of yesterday, the heavy flat irons, the sewing machine operated by foot?

The light and power industry can prove to you the utter senselessness of household drudgery. It has servants which will work for you at reasonable wages. The industry has spent millions of dollars eliminating drudgery, so why not take full advantage of the service?

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

IS IT A SQUARE DEAL?

Do you wonder why church members are not here in a steady stream? Is the church in the hands of a few? Do you wonder why the church is not doing more for the community? Do you wonder why the church is not doing more for the community? Do you wonder why the church is not doing more for the community?

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"We are more than conquerors," said the Apostle Paul to a small band of unimportant Christians. Then he proved it in his life, as did several others of that group.

These words of Paul will form the text for the morning message at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Sunday school at 10. Morning service at 11. Evening service at 7:45.

"Spiritual Allments and the Great Physician," will be the subject in the evening.

Welcome all. A. A. HYDE, Minister.

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

C. C. MERRITT, Minister

Clean beyond our expectation was the attendance mark at both the Bible study and worship last Sunday. Our goal set for Easter was reached last Sunday. So we are raising it and expect to beat ourselves in our own work! There is no competitor as capable as yourself if you are really alive and work—if Christ is your leader and the honor of His name the aim. We are seeking the lost and the only way we can find them is to let the great Seeker lead the way. The only way we can help them is to let the Helper show us the method.

He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. He is our all and in all. It is the multitude of little things which make great totals. Jesus realized that better than any of us when he said, "He that is faithful in a very little is faithful in a very much." So, we are admonishing every one to do what he or she can and the sum total next Sunday will surprise us.

We are expecting a great time during our revival. We want to be fully ready. We have just a short time now in which to work so that when the time comes we may be able to say, "All things are ready, Come to the feast."

Don't Taylor, who is to lead us in song, worship during our revival says that we are sure to have a great meeting the way we are working at it. But we must keep it up. "Watch and Pray" is the Master's instruction. John M. Rice, evangelist, who will be our "gospel preacher" during the meeting sends this

Chickens Must Be Kept in Enclosures

"All chickens in the city of Pampa must be locked up," Chief J. I. Downs said this morning. He has been receiving complaints from citizens who have been trying to plant flowers and gardens. They say that it is impossible to plant anything because neighbors' chickens scratch up whatever is planted.

The chief looked up the chicken ordinance and says that from now on anyone allowing fowls to run at large will be arrested and fined. The fine is from $1 to $100.

word, "Fine spirit in your letter. I am hoping and praying for a great meeting at Pampa. I shall not worry about one thing as to the meeting. I believe you will have everything ready."

Our subjects for next Sunday are: "Is the Church True to the Kingdom Commission?" and "The Way That is Right and Cannot be Wrong."

The Ladies' Bible class is studying the Revelation letter. They are making no attempt to exhaust its wonders nor fathom its depth. But they are striving to realize the fulfillment of "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written therein: for the time is at hand."

This class meets each Thursday at 3 o'clock.

Our mid-week meeting, Wednesday 7:30, is becoming quite interesting and the attendance is growing.

The end of this chapter is "And they were made happy because so many who were invited came and the meetings proved such a blessing and inspiration to all." Now, that's just what we are anticipating.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Merten and son, Walter, Jr., left this morning for Topeka, Kans.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

SEEK NO CHEERS

Visiting in the training camp of the Philadelphia Phillies at Winter Haven, Fla. with their very affable and congenial manager, Burt Shotton, I was moved to ask him a few personal questions.

It seems, looking over the stories I have written from the training camps, that I have called every one the nicest fellow in baseball. With one exception, and that exception has been written, and Bill Carrigan will realize some day that days have changed.

But we were talking, or trying to talk, about Burt Shotton, the manager of the Philadelphia Phillies.

"What ever made you take the job as manager of the Phillies?" I asked Shotton, and, in an after breath, I pointed out to him the fate that had befallen all the men who preceded him.

"You answered that question yourself in a story that you wrote some time ago about Billy Southworth. I read it some place. I don't know where exactly," he said. "But in that story you said that Southworth told you that as long as you are in baseball for a living the only place to be is in the major leagues.

"That's the way I think. I am an old-time ball player. I have been up in the big time and I was good in the big time. And my record will show for it. Then I went the way of bad legs and age and went down to the minors. But I always wanted to get back to the big tent. That's where real baseball is.

"I wasn't looking for the cheers that Babe Ruth gets or that Gehrig gets when he hits one. I just wanted to be back on the big time. I am back on the big time and I want to stay here as long as I can."

IT'S A BIG MYSTERY

Eddie Collins, who is generally suspected as being the next manager of the Philadelphia Athletics if dear old Connie doesn't get in this year, was talking to the touring experts one night in Ft. Myers, where the Athletics were training for another defeat.

"I have heard it said from a number of sources," Collins said, "that the Babe is the greatest lover of baseball in the game. I will agree to that now. The Babe sure loves to play baseball. It is his whole life and when he has to stop I don't know what he will do. I often wonder about that myself—what I will do. You boys all say that I am the next manager of the Athletics. But how do I know that? Connie and I are the fastest of friends and to this moment he never has said anything about his future or mine.

BEST THIRD BASEMAN

"But I was talking about ball players who loved the game. I will admit that the Babe loves baseball. He shows it in every movement that he makes on the field and off the field. He is all for baseball.

"But there was another fellow who relished the game, in my opinion, even more than the Babe does. His name is not in good repute now, but I never have played with a player who seemed to get more delight out of baseball than Buck Weaver did. And I think those persons who pick all-time baseball teams do not consider Buck Weaver as an all-time third baseman are all wrong.

"He was one of the very best I ever have seen, and Jimmy Collins is in there with him."

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Rogers Hornsby is one of the first on the field... and the last off when practicing with the Cubs... and he is the biggest back-stapper under McCarthy... and he doesn't kibitz any... and is right chummy with all the boys... and doesn't talk about bosses... so they say... Yale's backfield will be brand-new this fall... because Garvey, Hubbard and Decker get diplomas... and Ellis has a trick knee... and can't play any more... Officials asked students at Rutgers why they are going to school there... and only 20 out of 165 answered "athletics"... That rookie catcher with the Red Sox cut his name from Ash-jornson to Asby... and he's only 19 and may stink.

Gar Wood Will Try for Record

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 22. (AP)—Having lost the world's motorboat championship to Maj. H. O. D. Segrave of England in a competitive water classic here, Gar Wood today prepared for an attempt to surpass his own mile straight-away record, which he set in Detroit last summer. With his powerful 12-cylinder boat, "Miss America VII," tuned to perfection, and with ideal weather conditions prevailing, Wood hoped to break his own mark of 92.8 miles an hour over a straight-away measured mile.

Segrave, who noted out the veteran American boat racer in a competitive race during the annual Biscayne bay regatta, ending yesterday had planned to make an attempt today to set a new world's record for single-motored hydroplanes, but was forced to abandon the plan because of damage to "Miss England" during the regatta, upon examination of his craft today. He found 18 cracks in the bottom of the boat, which caused it to leak like a sieve.

Talented Groups of Track and Field Men Coming to Tournament Tomorrow

The first event of the invitation track and field meet to be held here tomorrow afternoon will start at 1:30 o'clock, Coach Odus Mitchell says. The 120-yard high hurdles are first on the card. That event will be followed by the 100-yard dash and other track and field items.

Coach Odus Mitchell has nineteen men groomed to take part in the meet. He will have three entries in each of the track and field events. In the past, it has been Amarillo's great number of entries that won meets. This year Coach Mitchell will have a greater number of entries than Amarillo.

Teams from Amarillo, Canyon, Berger, Panhandle, and Miami have entered the invitation tournament. These teams are the fastest in their territories and the locals will have to step to win.

The meet will be held at Fair Park north of the Cook-Adams addition. A small admission will be charged to defray expenses of the event.

Coach Mitchell is well pleased with his material. Some of the boys who came out late are not in the best of condition he says, but he is sure every member of the Pampa team will show his best. Albert Lard and Perry Morgan are the new men out and both are fast. Lard has been in the hospital but has completely recovered. Morgan is a new man on the team.

Other members of the team have been out for a month and are in the best of condition.

Athletes who will carry the Harvesters colors tomorrow and the events in which they are entered:

120-YARD HIGH HURDLES—Archib. Walstad, Bob Kahl and either John Willis or Henry Ayres.

100-YARD DASH—Charles James Saltsman, and either Walstad or Albert Lard.

50-YARD HURD—Charles Ralph Clinger, and Tom Brady. 200-YARD LOW HURDLES—Walstad, Bill Robinson, and Carson.

440-YARD DASH—Albert Lard, Perry Morgan, and Archie Walstad.

220-YARD DASH—James Sall Sam-Keth, and Slick Roberts.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General topic: Stewardship and Missions.

Scripture lesson: Acts 1:8-9; 2 Cor. 8:1-9.

Acts 1:8. They therefore, when they were come together, asked Him, saying, Lord, dost thou at this time restore the kingdom of Israel?

7. And He said unto them, it is not for you to know times or seasons, which the Father hath set within His own authority.

8. But ye shall receive power, when the Holy Spirit is come upon you; and ye shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

2 Cor. 8:1. Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been given in the churches of Macedonia:

2. How that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3. For according to their power, I bear witness, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord.

4. Beseeching us with much entreaty in regard of this grace and the fellowship in the ministering to the saints.

5. And this, not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God.

6. Inasmuch that we exhorted Titus, that as he had made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace also.

7. But as ye abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in your love to us, so that ye abound in the grace also.

8. I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love.

9. For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might become rich.

Time and Place: The ascension was from the Mount of Olives, near Bethany, on Thursday, May 15, A. D. 30; Paul wrote his second letter to the Corinthians in Macedonia, A. D. 57.

Golden text: "It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful."—1 Cor. 4:2.

Introduction: Our general theme might seem to imply that this is a lesson treating of two separate Christian teachings. But, are not "Stewardship" and "Missions" so closely related as to be really one affair of the kingdom? To win men to Christ and train them in His following, is the church's chief concern. That, in the broadest sense, is mission; and that whether the work be done in home or in foreign fields, calls for stewardship of self, substance and service.

A Steward: A Steward is "a person entrusted with the management of estates or affairs not his own; hence one who manages or disburse for another." Stewardship means that God is the absolute owner of all things and we are His business managers. . . One will never be a good steward unless he is a Christian—one cannot be a good Christian without being a steward for God. "Everything belongs to you, but ye belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God."

The First Missionary: Surrounded by idolaters in Chaldea, Abraham, one of the world's greatest pioneers, perceived the folly of idolatry, and recognized the supreme truth of the unity of the Godhead. He came to grasp this truth as the very treasure of his soul. When Abraham, in accordance with God's command, left Haran and emigrated to Canaan, thus becoming the father of the Jewish people, he was in reality the first missionary. God had promised to bless him, and in the same breath had bidden him to be a blessing, promising him that in him should "all the families of the earth be blessed."

Abraham was to be a mediator between the God he worshiped and less favored peoples. Such has been the missionary call through all the ages.

Great Riches a Trust: Without entering into the much-discussed question: Is it easier to be a good Christian in prosperity or in adversity? There is no doubt that the prosperity that makes one self-reliant is a hindrance to Christian stewardship. Somehow the more we have the more convinced we are that it is our own "in a selfish sense."

Riches have a tendency to breed aloofness, and not only from men, but also from God. Moses evidently feared this for the children of Israel. A man may become so rich, or powerful, or wise as to think that he himself is the giver of every good and perfect gift that he enjoys. Sometimes, however, riches bring a realization that to whom much is given of him much is required. Especially in our day are many of the rich men and women in our churches arriving at this conviction.

Jonah, a Missionary: Jonah was unique among the Jewish prophets. Other prophets had condemned the heathen nations, but Jonah was to go to the great heathen city of Nineveh and in its very streets was to issue a call to repentance. This he did, and the city repented, and God had mercy on the Ninevites and forgave their mounting iniquities.

The book of Jonah is par excellence the missionary book of the Old Testament. It comes to us as a great encouragement for foreign missionary work.

A Scriptural Teaching: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse." This is the main Bible passage enforcing the practice of tithing, i. e., the payment into the Lord's treasury of one-tenth of the produce of the land. Originating in a gift to the priests of a portion of the first fruits of the harvest, this gift became in later times the payment of one-tenth of the harvest given to the Levites for their support and the care of the temple, the Levites having no land on which to raise crops, while a second tithe was consumed by the offerer in sacrificial feasts, and a third tithe, every third year, was given to the poor.

If Christians today should practice the tithe of their income for religious purposes, all good causes would receive an unexampled impetus, and a glorious revival would result. It is the most Scriptural, the most practical and sensible, basis of giving.

Christ and Missions: "Go ye into all the world." These solemn words of our Lord, spoken after His resurrection at the rendezvous in Galilee appointed with His disciples, stand ever before the church as its Great Commission. This commission is (1) based on the complete authority of our Saviour, His absolute right to our money, our time, our strength, and our interest. (2) it sends His disciples forth to "all the nations"—not only to the easy and pleasant and accessible fields, but to those that are difficult, disagreeable, and hard to reach. (3) It bids Christ's disciples to convert and baptize, and teach all of Christ's commands. And (4) it promises the all-sufficient aid of Christ's presence, not for a year or a century, but "always, even unto the end of the world." No orders could be more explicit, more comprehensive, or more inspiring.

The Church a Mission: "The church of Jesus Christ was founded as a missionary enterprise. It was not intended to stand still, but to 'go.' It was not intended to be self-contained, but to 'make disciples' and baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. It was not intended to be silent, but to 'teach' the things that Christ commanded. It is of Christianity that it is an advancing, conquering, religion."

First Missionaries: Remembering that Luke, who wrote the acts, was Paul's physician and collaborator, and that he must have obtained most of his information from Paul himself, we have in this account of the appointing of the first foreign missionaries a hint that Christ's program for the church had long been stirring the spirit of the great apostle, who was not content till he had gone "unto the uttermost part of the earth," or as near it as he could. We may be sure that Paul preached many a missionary sermon in Antioch before the church there commissioned him, with Barnabas, to set out as the first foreign missionaries.

Paul urged systematic giving, in proportion to each man's income (as he may prosper), and regular, the gift being made to the church treasurer "upon the first day of the week," that is, on every Sunday. These are still the foundation stones of Christian giving, that it should be systematic, proportionate, and regular. To that end every Christian should keep an account of his income, and set over against each week's income the out-go in gifts to the Lord calculated on as generous a percentage as possible, but not less than a tenth.

World's Greatest Giver: "For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. There is no such example of the grace of giving as Christ's, Macedonian giving is as nothing compared with it. Paul brings his appeal to a climax. 'That, though He was rich,' 'The possessor of all things and able to create whatever He desired in addition. 'Yet for your sakes He became poor.' Poor in this world's good, having 'no place to lay His head'; poorest in being confined to our human flesh, restricted to the narrow range of human powers and resources. 'That ye through His poverty might become rich.' There was no other way in which He could take upon Himself the world's burden of sin and bring men into the joy of salvation and of eternal life. 'the unsearchable riches of Christ.'"

"Will a Man Rob God?": Malachi's stern question, "Will a man rob God?" reverberates down the ages to our own times; and we today are doing little to warrant us in claiming the promise that in return for our liberal giving God will "open the windows of heaven, and pour out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

"If I ever imagine that I am indebted for my daily bread just to my own industry and sagacity and thrift, the skill of my hand, or the cleverness of my brain, how easily might God leave me to find out, to my shame, that, for these things which I proudly call my own, I am depended solely upon Him! How slow I am to realize that it is God alone who giveth me power to get wealth! And He alone who can keep that wealth in safety, after it has been got!"—Rev. G. H. Knight.

Chief Justice of Oklahoma May Face Impeachment

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., March 22 (AP)—Charles W. Mason, chief justice of the state supreme court, today faced the ironic possibility of stepping down from the bench of a senate court of impeachment, over which he presided during the trial resulting in the removal of Henry S. Johnston from the governor's office, to confront charges of impeachment directed against himself.

This possibility lay in the fact that the house of representatives general investigating committee today was expected to place before the house, for consideration, 32 charges directed against Chief Justice Mason and Justices Fletcher, Riley and J. W. Clark. The charges were adopted by the general committee at the conclusion of an investigation by a house sub-committee at the conclusion of an investigation by a house sub-committee, covering almost two months' time.

Chief Justice Mason and Justices Riley and Clark were members of the court which late in 1927 held members of the eleventh legislature had no authority to convene in special session to investigate Johnston, then governor, and other state departments. It was in accordance with the opinion handed down at that time that Johnston called the national guard to prevent legislators meeting at the self-convened session.

O. O. Owens, Tulsa legislator, who was the dominant factor in the investigation of the judiciary, and who conducted the greater part of the questioning of witnesses, long has been a political foe of the state supreme court. Owens' many oil interests, following court decisions, have been the cause of a mass of litigation involving one of the state's largest oil companies.
