PAMPA GRAY COUNTY, TEXAS TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 9, 1929

PRICE FIVE CENTS

FLOODED CREEK CLAIMS 2 LIVES

Closer Regulation of City Traffic Is Recommendation of B. C. D.

LIMITATION IS PROBLEM THAT PUZZLES ALL

Post Office Area Is Discussion Topic at Meeting

ROAD SITUATION TOLD BY DUNCAN

Commissioners Likely to Make Austin Trip Soon

Recognizing congested parking in the main business sections as one of the acute problems of this time, the Board of City Development last night instructed its civic committee, headed by E. F. Thomas, to cooperate with the city commission in studying and solving the dilemma.

Use of signal lights at the main intersection, instead of stop-signs, and inauguration of a 10-minute parking zone near the post office were discussed.

It was stated that Pampa will get free mail delivery when certain sidewalk gaps are closed, and not before. Express delivery is expected to start as soon as traffic is started on the C. & O. W. railroad.

The B. C. D. voted to give a dinner for the Panhandle Press association delegates on the evening of April 19. The dinner will be given at the Pampa Hotel. The two civic clubs are considering a proposal that they sponsor a luncheon on April 18, the opening day of the meeting.

By E. Duncan, county judge, stated that contracts on road paving had been put 25 per cent in order to obtain funds for the road district's part in the paving on the Pampa-Kingsmill highway, but that the state highway department has demanded a 100-foot right-of-way, necessitating further delay in starting this project. Building of other portions of the paving first, and paying high prices to land owners for right-of-way widening have placed the commission in the difficulty of not having enough funds for the highway west from Pampa to the Carson county line. Just as this deficiency was being remedied, the state asked for a wider right-of-way.

The county commissioners will likely appear before the state highway commission in the near future to plead their case. Some indications that state aid will be granted on a portion of the highway north from the city have been received from Cliff Gilchrist, state engineer. It was said last night Scott Barcus was appointed to go to Chicago to meet the Senate finance committee and add Pampa's claim to those of other Panhandle cities asking generous support for the Teachers college in the coming appropriations.

R. C. D. members present last night were President J. D. Eaton, Scott Barcus, Clyde Patterson, Paul Stephens, Olin E. Hanks, Roy McMillen, E. F. Thomas, Fry E. Duncan, Baker Sautter and Tom Ross.

LOPES WRECKS PLANE

EL PASO, April 9. (AP)—Dispatches to El Continental, Spanish language newspaper here, last night said Lieut. Col. Oscar Morales Lopez, Guatemalan pilot, crashed near Zumpango, in the state of Mexico, when he lost his bearings while making a pleasure flight from Mexico City. The pilot and a passenger were not injured, but the plane was wrecked.

THE WEATHER VANE

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; somewhat warmer to-night.

AND A SMILE

SUNNINGDALE, England, (AP)—The Prince of Wales is to do some dainty work ending at the golf course which Bobby Jones wanted to take home with him after coming to Texas. The Prince will use a 12-bed-room house.

STRAWS SHOW THE WAY WIND BLOWS

Besides fracturing the dromedary's back, these straws show clearly which way the zephyrs circulate, now that spring is here. No. 1 is a prominent young man about town who is about to carry the daughter of the ambassador to Mexico; No. 2 is a well-known resident of Washington, D. C.; No. 3 is a young man who has about as much need for a hay skimmer these days as the Venus de Milo has for a wrist watch, and No. 4 is the crown prince just after being crowned by I. Klein, Ltd., or some other firm.

SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE IS ENTERTAINED AT CANYON TODAY—PAMPA MAN THERE

CANYON, April 9. (Special)—The city of Canyon is to greet a party of about 25 members of the legislature today. The senate committee, headed by Tom Pollard, is due to arrive in Canyon at 11 a. m. Others who are expected in the legislative party are Senators C. C. Small of Wellington, Witt of Waco, Thompson of Washington, Woodward of Coleman, Williamson of San Antonio, and Eyer of Fort Worth.

Other members of the legislature from the immediate region who will join the party at Canyon are Tarwater of Plainview, White of Berger, Young of Wellington, Land of Memphis, and Warwick of Canyon.

Canyon's reception committee will be made up of Mayor R. A. Bellah, ex-Senator J. W. Reid, President J. A. Hill, and W. A. Warren, president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. Other towns which will join in welcoming the legislators to the Panhandle are Amarillo, Pampa, Panhandle, Claude, Hereford, Happy, Tulla, and Plainview. Amarillo's delegation will be headed by J. O. Guleke, member of the Teachers' college board of regents, and Henry Ansley of the Globe-News.

Out-of-town visitors will be entertained by the Canyon Rotary club at a luncheon, at which the party from Austin will be guests of honor.

Following the luncheon, which will be served at Cousins hall, the visitors will be shown the college plant and acquainted with its needs.

Scott Barcus is the Pampa representative at Canyon today.

Rum Boat Men Ordered Released

NEW ORLEANS, April 9. (AP)—Capt. Thomas E. Handley and his crew of the Canadian schooner, Im Alone, sunk by coast guard craft as a rum-runner in the Gulf of Mexico, were dismissed today by the United States commissioner at the request of the district attorney.

CHICAGO GANG LOOTS CHURCH IN ITS SERVICE

Members Lined Up and Robbed of About $75,000

DIPLOMAT WAS MAKING ADDRESS

Rabbi Voices Thanks That No Lives Are Taken

CHICAGO, April 9. (AP)—Five cursing robbers, masked and armed, held up 80 members of the first Rumanian synagogue last night, taking $75,000 in money and jewels. It was the first instance in Chicago police records of a holdup inside a place of worship.

For nearly half an hour, the robbers moved along the congregation which had been lined against a wall. From the arms and hands of the women the robbers snatched bracelets and rings. The men's pockets yielded billfolds and watches.

A special meeting of being held to hear Victor Phillips of Bucharest, representative of the Rumanian government in the tenth anniversary celebration of United Rumania. The meeting was in the church parlors where Queen Maria of Rumania was guest d'bonne here Chicago visit.

From Mr. Phillips the thieves took $50 overhooting $500 in a secret pocket. Among the loot, as reported to police, were a diamond ring valued at $4,000, a pair of earrings worth $2,500 and a bracelet, valued at $1,000.

One woman fainted. After the robbers had gone, Rabbi Goldstein offered a prayer of thanks that no lives had been taken.

Highway Work 80 Per Cent Behind This Country's Necessity

DALLAS, April 9. (AP)—Highway construction has made great progress during the past 10 days, but still is 80 per cent behind the needs of the nation, Maj. Roy F. Britton, president of the Automobile club of Missouri, said in an address prepared for delivery here today before the convention of the Southern Commercial Secretaries association.

The present good roads movement has passed the "propaganda stage" in which interest of the people had to be awakened to benefits flowing from hard-surfaced roads and has entered the "construction stage," the address said.

"Most of our problems now are to find sound and practical means of financing road construction and the most economic and efficient methods. We are now well in the construction stage, but there is a vast field before us."

Southern Cross Reported Found

SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 9. (AP)—The airplane, Southern Cross, missing for nearly 10 days with Capt. Charles Kingsford-Smith and three companions on an attempted flight to England from Sydney, was reported by the Drysdale station station in Western Australia today to have been found on the coast 20 miles southwest of the station.

A boat was standing by to take off the aviators, according to the report.

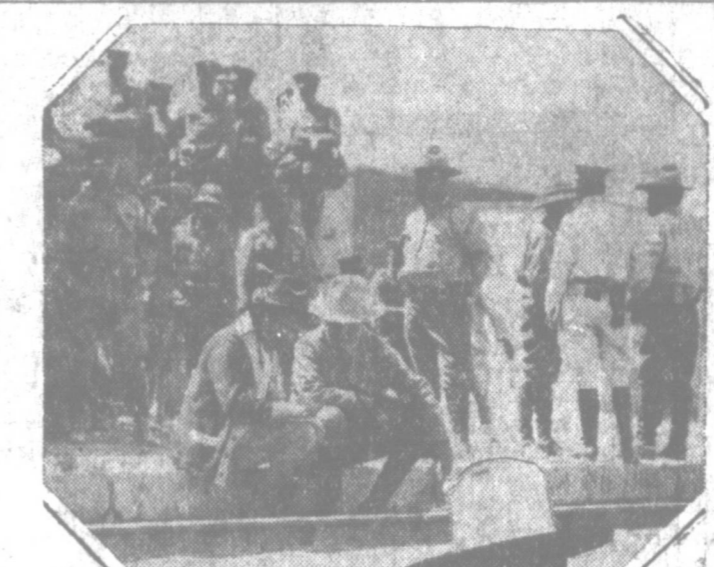

MISSIONARIES TO MEET

DALLAS, April 9. (AP)—Methodist missionaries from seven western and southwestern states will convene here Wednesday for a three-day meeting. One hundred and twenty workers of the Women's Foreign Missionary society, Topeka branch, are expected from Texas, Colorado, New Mexico, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Kansas, and Louisiana. Bishop Charles L. Mead of Denver, will give the principal address Thursday evening.

BANKERS IN MEETING

FORT WORTH, April 9. (AP)—A selected group from the trust section of the Texas Bankers' association met here today in a semi-annual convention at which financial problems of interest to trust bankers were discussed by speakers from over the state.

CHILDRESS MAN CHOSEN CENTRAL HIGH PRINCIPAL—ACCEPTANCE IS AWAITED

W. C. Davis of Childress was elected principal of Pampa high school, subject to his acceptance, at a called meeting of the school board yesterday afternoon. Childress also elected Mr. Davis but he has indicated interest in Pampa. He was principal of the Childress high school for three years, but two years ago resigned to enter business. This year he has signified his intention of returning to teaching.

The board elected R. A. Selby of Oklahoma U., as principal of junior high to succeed Boyce Smith, who has resigned. Mr. Selby will be graduated this summer. He has had many years of teaching experience. He was superintendent of the Mobeetie schools, for a number of years.

The re-elected trustees, C. T. Hunkapillar and J. M. Daugherty, will be sworn in at the next regular meeting of the board.

Santa Fe Wants Meeting to Talk Over Spur Road

Local citizens will meet sometime this week a delegation of Panhandle and Santa Fe officials of Amarillo to discuss the proposed spur line into Central Gray county.

The Santa Fe officials asked for the meeting and were told to fix the date. The Board of City Development has a communication from the interstate commerce commission replying to a query as to how intervention proceedings may be started. If such an intervention is made, a hearing in Pampa will be requested.

Objection to the proposed line is based upon the fact that Pampa residents gave $50,000 toward the construction of the C. & O. W. subsidiary of the Santa Fe, and that the branch line would tend to nullify the advantages obtained through this expenditure.

Woman and Child Die as Auto Is Swept Down Stream

GENERAL WINDS STRIKE TEXAS

Much Damage Done by Tornado Near Dallas

LULING, April 9. (AP)—Flood waters of Seal's creek near here, swollen by heavy rainfall, claimed the lives of Mrs. G. H. McGee and her daughter, Mildred, 6, of Luling, when their automobile was swept down the stream.

Mrs. McGee's husband left the automobile when the car became stalled on account of high water and went to summon aid. He was trapped near the stream and climbed a tree. Rescuers heard the man's shouts at midnight and carried him to safety. When he returned to the spot where he had left his wife and child, he found the car had been swept away.

The woman's body was discovered by a searching party at 3 a. m. today and that of the child five hours later.

DALLAS, April 9. (AP)—A general wind, electrical and rain storm swept over Texas yesterday and today uprooting trees, blowing down small houses and barns, and injuring slightly at least two persons.

A Houston and vicinity was swept by a 44-mile wind, and part of the city was in darkness for several hours when electric wires were blown down.

A barn was destroyed by fire at the state prison farm at Sugarland after being struck by lightning. A barn and a seed house at the prison farm at Harlem were rased.

West Clarksville suffered from a small tornado which cut a path 200 yards wide, destroyed several houses and buildings and damaged several industrial plants. Telegraph wires west from Clarksville were down.

Four churches and many homes at Scurry, Kaufmann county, were damaged by a tornado. Several small buildings were blown down at Rogers, near Scurry. An electrical storm at San Antonio split trees, but the damage was slight.

C. W. Jones was slightly hurt when a house at a gravel pit near Ennis, Texas, blew down. A small girl at Houston was cut by flying glass.

AMERICAN PATROL WILL BE GREATLY STRENGTHENED

WASHINGTON, April 9. (AP)—Widening of the American patrol along the Mexican border and property during the fighting between Mexican rebels and federal troops was reported today by Major General Lassiter at San Antonio.

Gen. Lassiter advised the war department he had ordered 200 cavalrymen from Fort Bliss, El Paso, to El Paso, New Mexico and said troops from the first cavalry brigade with headquarters at Fort Clark, Texas, are on patrol duty at Pecos and at Devils River, Texas, opposite Las Vacas, Mexico. He forwarded a report from Colonel C. E. Babcock, commander of the first cavalry at Camp Marfa, Texas, saying former Mexican officials are now functioning in Ojinaga as usual after that place had been taken from the rebels.

It's Like This

THE SENATE FINANCE committee, headed by Tom Polard, is at Canyon today to inquire into the needs of the West Texas State Teachers college.

How deep will they cut at Canyon, site of the oldest Panhandle state institution? That is the question that is puzzling people of this section.

Representatives of many Panhandle towns are in Canyon today to meet the committee and to impress upon its members the logic of returning to this section some of the money that is pouring into the state treasury, especially from oil valuations.

The Canyon institution has, in the fullest sense, kept its standards up to those of the undergraduate division of universities.

It may seem to some that the state has too many Teachers colleges. The Commeret and Denton institutions, for example, are close together as we in West Texas reckon distance.

The college needs a library building. Crowded quarters make it difficult for students to do good work.

West Texas must demand

her rights if she is to get a square deal. The Teachers college should be one of the beneficiaries of the interest and support of this section.

THE LONDON CALLING, a publication, has sent observers to the cinemas to learn what impression of America is made by films produced in this country.

That all American business men may carry revolvers. That all American clergymen carry flasks of whiskey. That all American girls chew gum incessantly.

That every American housewife possesses an ice box. That every American boy wears a peak cap and is freckled.

And yet we wonder how foreigners get such queer ideas about us.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
WASHINGTON—Despite all the whoop-t-dee over the fact that a dry congressman found himself in trouble with the prohibition laws, there is probably less liquor at the capitol today than there ever was.

The Michaelson incident has undoubtedly scared some members, but the tendency toward caution began some time ago. Congressmen have learned to use discretion. They have learned, in most cases, that it doesn't do to vote for a law designed to send people to prison for five years and then openly flout that law.

Thus the members of the Senate and the House who keep liquor in their offices have become fewer and fewer, among the dry contingent especially. And there is not so much public drinking, either by legislators or government officials here.

- Several Kinds of Them
1. The man who votes dry, professes to be dry and is dry.
2. The man who votes dry, professes to be dry and is wet.
3. The man who votes dry, professes to be wet and is wet.
4. The man who votes wet, professes to be wet and is wet.
5. The man who votes wet, professes to be dry and is wet.

The third group is the smallest. One of them is a western congressman who was quoted as saying last fall to his constituents that he voted dry but when offered a drink "acted just like everybody else." Another is Senator Cole Blease of South Carolina, who says: "Everybody in South Carolina knows I take a drink. I get up on the stump and tell 'em I do. But I'm representing my constituents when I vote dry."

Senator Blease is a bluff, florid-faced, frank, plain-talking gent of 60, who wears suspenders, colored shirts, butterfly neckties and no vest. Some people contend that he is no statesman, but he has practiced law for 40 years, knows human nature, says what he likes and isn't letting anyone put anything over on South Carolina.

He says South Carolina produces the best corn liquor in the world. Just as Congressman Charles M. Stedham of North Carolina says the best corn liquor in the world comes from North Carolina. Spokesmen for other southern states deny both claims.

"I myself wouldn't keep liquor in my office or in my house," Blease told your correspondent, "though I'm not saying what other people ought to do."

"I haven't any liquor in my office now or in my hotel room. I couldn't get any into my house, anyway, because Mrs. Blease is a prohibitionist. "But if you ask me if I will have a drink that's something else."

"There isn't any law against taking a drink. "If I buy it I'm conniving at a violation of the law. And if I carry it I'm transporting it, in violation of the law. I don't believe any public servant ought to take any part in law violation."

They Don't Offer It
It might be observed here in all seriousness that it is far easier to pour a member of Congress a drink in Washington than it is to have one return the favor. Extended inquiry probably would reveal that quite a few others have the same attitude as Blease.

TWINKLES

Believe it or not, Edremont, Mass., has a school board composed entirely of women. And we suppose the women run the P.-T. A. too, just as they do in Texas, where women may be governors but seldom school trustees.

And strange as it may seem, Pampa students are said to be quite enthusiastic over Latin.

Piggy goes to market on rubber tires, and he is still inflated when you go to buy pieces of him for the table.

Since the North Fork's navigability is confined largely to sand, it is unfortunate that it cannot drain some of these sandstorms.

It is bad to get all puffed up about things. A Wisconsin man held eighty pounds of air from a compressed air tank, but he was unconscious when taken to a hospital.

A vicar-chancellor repeats that a man in love is not in his right mind. And when two hearts beat as one ordinary work is a sort of half-hearted proposition.

A courthouse rat nearly as big as a cat recently halted procedure in Chicago. Those Chicago proceedings must have given him plenty of food for thought.

About New York

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK

NEW YORK.—Back in the 1800's a pair of theatrical impresarios named Jarrett and Palmer brought to New York a "marvelous" European ballet corps, one of the first to whirl scanty skirts on the American stage.

From the glamorous and naughtier stages of the old world they came, from London, Paris, Berlin and Milan, where the ballet was having its palmiest days, or nights. The sight of these sumptuous belles, therefore, was a rare treat indeed when they first appeared in "The Black Crook" that scandalous extravaganza written especially for them.

Since that premiere performance the toe-trippers have had their ups and downs in America while their art went through the various phases that brought it to the present state of speed and undress. Today, thanks to "The Black Crook's" revival in Hoboken and the devotion of S. L. (Roxy) Rothafel to the ballet, students of that form of dancing may review its progress down the past century.

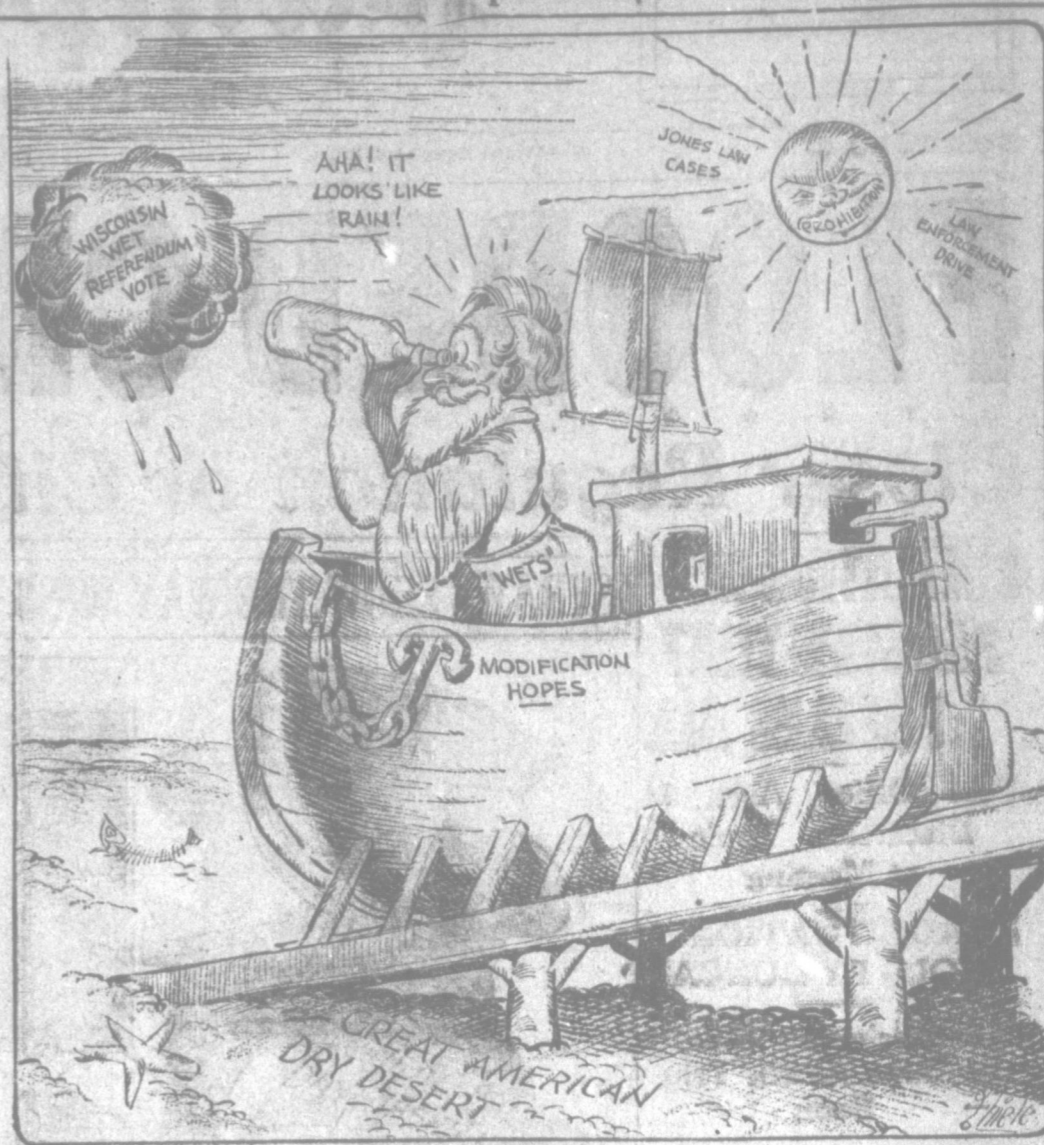

MOVIE SPECTACLE

Roxy might be called the present patron of the ballet in the United States. The gyrations of the Hoboken troupe were created and directed by Miss Agnes de Mille, who used to dance in his theatre. The original aggregation of burlesque beauties in "The Black Crook" was foreign trained, their master being one Signor David Costa. But, while the members of the present corps wear the billowing skirts of white tulle long associated with the ballet, and follow the traditional dance forms, their mentor is American, being none other than the daughter of William de Mille, the movie director.

Miss De Mille, who is in her early twenties, came from California three years ago with her mother. And where else but in a movie theatre should she have gone for experience? Despite the American influence however, Europe still supplies the United States with ballet masters. Roxy just recently imported Leonide Massine, "internationally known choreographer," to take charge of his corps of steppers. Massine is a Russian and first visited this country in 1916 as principal dancer with the Diaghileff ballet.

The modern ballet has risen from the past, just as ballerinas, like Roxy's 19-year-old Patricia Bowman, rise from the ranks.

Eight Home Runs in Yankee Game—None for Ruth

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—Dazzy Vance, star Brooklyn pitcher, troubled with sciatica, has been sent here to receive treatment. The attack is a light one, and Vance expects to be in shape to start the season.

It's a rare New York Yankee ball game in which eight home runs are hit—and none of them to the credit of Babe Ruth's big bat. That's what happened yesterday when the Yanks bowled to the Tulsa Oilers, 12 to 9. Eight circuit drives were made, four by each club, but the Babe got only a pair of singles.

The New York Giant steamroller which has been riding roughshod over all opposition has come to a stop, Garland Braxton and Irving Hadley of Washington saw to that yesterday at Birmingham. They held the Giants virtually helpless, while the Senators pounded Earl Hubbell for seven hits and five runs in 7 innings and Curly Ogden for three hits and three runs in one frame. The final score was 8 to 3. It was the Giants' third defeat in 17 exhibition games.

Beh Ashbjornson of Concord, Mass., young rookie catcher with the Red Sox, came through when given a chance, as Manager Bill Carrigan's rookies have a way of doing. Yesterday against Reading, Va., this young man made a good start on the road to fame by smashing out a single, triple, and a home run in four times at bat, knocking in four runs and scoring the fifth himself.

The much battered Boston Braves have broken their losing streak, but they came within an ace of not doing so from over-confidence. Eight runs in the first and two more in the sixth gave them a 10-to-1 lead over the New Haven Eastern league club at Norfolk, Va., yesterday, but they finally won the game, 13 to 12.

The parade of Pirate cripples back to the diamond, neared its end today when Sparky Adams, shortstop, injured a week ago, returned to the line-up. Pie Traynor, nursing an ailing hip, will get a few more days of rest. Adams will be lead-off man again this season, Manager Bush announced today. The Waver boys will follow, then will come Grantham, Traynor, Sheely, Bartell, and the battery.

Now they are in the market for a shortstop, pending recovery of Tommy Thevenow, President Baker and Manager Shotton of the Phillies find prices for first-class short fielders are going up. Baker said today he had made offers for several, but prices had suddenly skyrocketed. A pair of rookies will try to fill the injured Thevenow's shoes for the present, but Barney Friberg, an infielder, who developed into a pitcher this year, may be assigned to the job.

The sore pitching finger of Lefty Grove, athletic hurler, is back to normal and he will be ready for duty next week. It is doubtful, however, if Shortstop Boley's arm will be in shape for the A's opening game against Washington.

Mrs. White Feels It Her Duty to Make a Public Statement

AMARILLO WOMAN HAD ALMOST DESPAIRED—FEELS LIKE NEW AFTER TAKING ORGATONE

"Since taking Orgatone, I feel better in every way than I have in over a year," said Mrs. George White residing at 734 N. Pierce street, while in conversation with the Orgatone representative a few days ago.

"I was in a dreadful condition when I began taking Orgatone," continued Mrs. White, "but I feel like a new woman now, and I want everybody to know what the medicine has done for me. I have suffered for over a year with stomach and liver trouble, and I was continually doctoring and taking medicine, but in place of getting better I kept getting worse. After eating gas would form on my stomach and blast me up and make me miserable for hours, and my food didn't seem to do me a particle of good. I was so badly constipated that this caused me a great deal of worry and sometimes I was so nervous I could hardly sleep at all. Nothing seemed right to me and nothing helped me, and I had almost given up in despair.

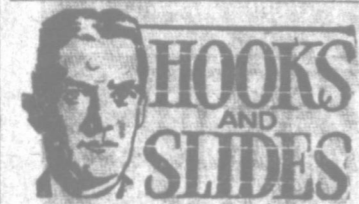

"Orgatone turned the tide in my favor at once, and I began feeling better. Since using five bottles I had gained wonderfully, and I now feel full of life and energy like I haven't felt before in a long time. I eat anything I want and nothing hurts me, and I sleep like a child every night. I'm not nervous like I was, and the constipation is entirely relieved. I can now do all my house work without feeling the least bit tired. If all Orgatone has done for me isn't enough to make one praise it, I don't know what would be. I want my friends and everybody to know what wonderful medicine Orgatone is, and I feel it my duty to humanity to give you my statement for publication."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific preparation containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Pampa exclusively by the City Drug Store, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. Other agencies are the City Drug Co., at Borger, Texas.—Adv.

California Crew Ready to Start Campaign

Perhaps the 1929 crew at the University of California won't be as successful in its races this summer as the 1928 crew was, but Coach Ky Ebright has hopes that it will. Only two new faces are to be found on the California crew that will get its first competition on April 13 against Washington. Mullin, coxswain, and Von Tillow, bow, are the new men. The fellows pictured here are, reading left to right, Donjon, stroke; Caldwell, No. 7; Thompson, No. 6; Dally, No. 5; Workman, No. 4; Fredericks, No. 3; Brinck, No. 2; and Von Tillow. Mullin is shown stooping.

HENRY L. FARRELLE

The Babe Is No Faker
Jack Dempsey and Babe Ruth were invited to put on a sparring match as the big feature of a society charity show in Palm Beach the week before the Sharkey-Stribling fight.

Dempsey, of course, was in Miami Beach promoting the big fight, and the Babe was in St. Petersburg with the New York Yankees.

"The Babe came to Miami Beach accompanied by Marshall Hunt, a New York newspaperman who has traveled more miles with him than Regis Welch, a Pittsburgh scribe, did with Harry Greb.

"You'd better go with us over to Palm Beach," Hunt suggested to me. "There's going to be some fun there. The Babe is going to level at Dempsey. You know the Babe always has thought he could have been the heavyweight champion if he hadn't gone into baseball in a big way."

We don't go to Palm Beach with the Battling Babe and his trainer, Mr. Hunt. And we had to wait until Dempsey returned the next morning to get the details.

Throw and Then Puck!
"Do you know what the big stiff of a Ruth did?" Dempsey started the details. "He leveled at me. He was trying to hit the funny nose of mine with swings like he used to use when he was a pitcher. It's a good thing he wound up every time. I had to block most of them with my forearm. And look at 'em."

The great Dempsey's forearms were blue and swollen.
"I wish I knew something about that Babe's racket. I wonder if he'd let me pitch to him with bricks instead of baseballs," Dempsey said.

Gold in Them Thar Elephants
Mr. Ed Strangler Lewis is no longer the world's heavyweight wrestling champion, but his life as a former champion isn't so hard to take.

In a burst of confidence recently, Lewis related that since he was butted out of the title by Gus Sonnenberg, the former Dartmouth football player, he has been through the busiest period of his career.

Lewis has been wrestling here and there all over the country on an average of six times a week and the law forced him to keep quiet on the Sabbath.

He never works for less than $1500 a night. Sometimes for a lot more. And six nights a week for his minimum rate of pay is worth $9000 a week and he has been making that average weekly salary for two months.

When Der Gus won the title from the Strangler he told his folks that he was going to do a Tunney. And that when he got his second million he would quit the racket.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—Bucky Harris has given the Detroit Tigers two sets of signs. . . one for sending and one for receiving. . . And when the sign goes for the hit and the play won't go unless the runner signs back that he has it. . . The Bucky apparently has another sign for use off the field. . . It's the thumb toward the gate. . . like the umpires use. . . and it means—"Waivers on you, big boy!" . . . Jimmy McLaughlin wants to fight at 150 pounds from now on—until he weighs 170. . . Shaute and Fonseca, two swell warblers of the Cleveland Indians, were singing at a dinner in New Orleans. . . Alva Bradley, the big dough guy president of the club was there. . . And they looked at Alva. . . and sang. . . "We'll Get By as Long as We Have You." . . . When Shires had to go home. . . he went to Italy. . . which is also the name of a spot in Texas.

Tech Will Hold Engineer's Show

LUBBOCK, April 9. (Special)—Students and faculty members of the high schools of District No. 2, of the Inter-scholastic League, will be given a special invitation to attend the first Engineers' show to be held at the School of Engineering, Texas Technological college Saturday, April 20.

Business men of towns in this section also have a special invitation to attend the show.

The three engineering buildings and all the machinery and apparatus will be put in use by students and faculty members of the school at the Engineers' school to show the general public what the school is doing.

The show will open at two o'clock in the afternoon and will continue until late in the afternoon, according to Dean Wm. J. Miller.

Joliet, Ill., Men Are Bowling Champs

CHICAGO, April 9. (AP)—The Hub recreation quint of Joliet, Ill., today was crowned champion of the 1929 American bowling congress after the last of 2,523 team entrants had completed its efforts. Their mark a 3,063 total, rolled March 20, withstood all attacks although it remains 136 pins short of the record score made in 1927 by the OH Henrys at Kansas City. The Klingers Buicks of Watertown, Wis., finished second with 3,041 count and the Edelweiss combination of Chicago, accumulating 3,030 pins, ended in third place.

HOT AND COLD WEATHER MIXED OVER COUNTRY

NEW YORK, April 9. (AP)—While the Atlantic seaboard has been having a hot wave, there has been a blizzard in Nevada, and California fruit growers have surveyed orchards blighted by killing frost.

Unprecedented warm weather for April yesterday and Sunday put the mercury in the eighties along the Atlantic coast.

Seattle Negro in Marathon Lead

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 9. (AP)—C. C. Pyle's cross-country marathoners today had one of the hardest tasks of the whole trip.

Up over the highest portion of the Appalachian range, the bunioneers had 63 miles to go to the next control point, Uniontown, Pa. Cooling showers were forecast. The last three days the men have pluggued under a beaming sun which held the temperature near the 90-degree mark.

Ed Gardner, Seattle negro runner, led the field this morning. The dusky Pacific coast star yesterday wrestled the lead from John Salo, Passaic, N. J., policeman, and had a 34-minute advantage in total elapsed time.

Elder to Sprint in Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, April 9. (AP)—Jack Elder, Notre Dame's sensational sprinter, will face the starter's gun in the 100-yard dash, one of the feature events of the thirty-fifth annual University of Pennsylvania relay carnival, on April 26 and 27.

Elder, a member of Knute Rockne's football teams of the last two years, holds among other achievements, a victory over Percy Williams, Canada's brilliant sprinter, and Olympic champion. Time and again during the indoor season Elder equalled or broke existing records for the short sprints.

In the century on Franklin field, he will meet two territorial rivals in Simpson and Kris, both of Ohio State. Simpson is the conference champion in the 100 and 220 and the Pennsylvania relay champion in the century.

James Bain Boston, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Boston, who is in a serious condition as a result of pneumonia and complications, was reported by Pampa hospital officials to be much improved today.

Sports Hope to Have Weather Fit for Real Training

DALLAS, April 9. (AP)—After forced idleness on account of rain, the Shreveport Sports hoped to resume routine drilling today. The weather also caused the postponement of the first game of a series at Shreveport between Pittsburgh and Detroit.

The Wichita Falls squad was reduced today to 24 men with the departure for Abilene of 23 players from which a team to represent that city in the West Texas league will be chosen. The Abilene aggregate will be managed by Carl Williams. Spudders' squad now consists of four catchers, nine pitchers, seven infielders and five outfielders, leaving on a few reductions to be made before May 17.

Gilbert Mulleavy, young infielder from the Toledo club of the American association, will play second base for the San Antonio Indians. He reported today, displacing Tom Connolly, Texas league veteran, released yesterday. Connolly has been troubled with a charley-horse, and while he has been hitting hard, his fielding has left something to be desired. Mulleavy, who played in the Piedmont league last summer, comes highly recommended.

With his squad cut to 25 by the release of six youngsters, Manager Atz of Fort Worth prepared today to lead a team to Waco for two games with the Cubs. Following this afternoon's practice session at Fort Worth, the skipper will name 18 men, who will make the trip to Waco. The other seven players will stay at home to continue training. They probably will be taken to Wichita Falls for Saturday and Sunday games with the Spudders and seven others left behind. Vincent Devaney and Buzz Phillips have been named by Atz as the probable Fort Worth pitchers in the first contest at Waco.

Batting and fielding practice made up today's training program of the Dallas Steers. The Herd was forced to forego training yesterday due to wet grounds. Manager Stock expected to start cutting his squad today or tomorrow.

Bert Schemanske, pitcher, was released to Quincy, Elwood Blackwell, pitcher to San Angelo, and Joe Bressler, outfielder, to San Angelo yesterday by the Beaumont Exporters. Most of the rookies are to be placed in class D leagues subject to recall, officials said. Rain made Stuart stadium unplayable today.

Many Boxers in Boston Tournament

BOSTON, April 9. (AP)—Sixty-four amateur boxers from 16 cities remained in the national boxing tournament when the first night's program came to an end early today.

Diamond Debs

EARL AVERILL INDIANS

Earl Averill set the Cleveland American league owners back $50,000, but Roger Peckinpaugh, club pilot, said it was money well invested.

Earl is slated for a regular outfield berth alongside of Dick Porter, a youngster up from Baltimore. As a member of the San Francisco club last year Averill hit at a .353 clip, poling 37 home runs, and scoring 180 runs. Averill is 24 years of age, weighs 175 pounds, hits left handed and throws with the knife hand. His home is at Snohomish, Wash.

THESE days you get lots of satisfaction out of driving a car propelled with Conoco Ethyl Gasoline. In the first place, there's no delay about starting. Conoco Ethyl "snaps into it" at the first nudge on the starter button—and keeps going for miles and miles of smooth, knockless driving.

Conoco Ethyl Gasoline has virtually revolutionized motoring. It is making "Knocks" a mere memory. It is bringing the last full ounce of power out of all motors—whether of low or high compression.

Give Conoco Ethyl the hardest test you know. Try it on the steepest hill you can find. Observe its performance in traffic driving or over muddy, slushy roads. Then you'll appreciate, at first hand, how superior Conoco Ethyl is to ordinary gasoline.

Conoco Ethyl awaits you—at service stations and garages. Look for the sign.

"It's Like This"

THE SENATE FINANCE committee, headed by Tom Polard, is at Canyon today to inquire into the needs of the West Texas State Teachers college. Faced with the necessity of holding down appropriations, the group must cut deep into the budgets of some of the eight Teachers colleges and the other state educational institutions.

How deep will they cut at Canyon, site of the oldest Panhandle state institution? That is the question that is puzzling people of this section. If the past procedure may be used as a criterion, they will cut more deeply in West Texas than in other portions of the state. The Canyon institution has received one addition to the administrative plant since 1916—the education building recently completed to house the preparatory school, in which teachers to be "practice" their profession.

Representatives of many Panhandle towns are in Canyon today to meet the committee and to impress upon its members the logic of returning to this section some of the money that is pouring into the state treasury, especially from oil valuations. They will also point out the service that the college is rendering and the necessity for keeping its facilities up to the highest standard.

The Canyon institution has, in the fullest sense, kept its standards up to those of the undergraduate division of universities. Work done at Canyon for the A. B. degree is accepted at full value in the universities of the West, North, or East to which students go to do postgraduate work. This means that it is unnecessary for students of this section to leave their home territory to get an education. To continue this type of service means that the college must be well supported and given the facilities required for high grade work.

It may seem to some that the state has too many Teachers colleges. The Commerce and Denton institutions, for example, are close together as we in West Texas reckon distance. But whatever congestion exists, if it does, is certainly not in the Panhandle, where it is nearly 200 miles from the northern tip of the Panhandle to Canyon by road.

The college needs a library building. Crowded quarters make it difficult for students to do good work. The library is a highly important part of the study plan, and should be ample in size and facilities. At present, the manual training department is located directly beneath the music department—certainly giving little encouragement to students who hear their notes mingle with the discordant snorts of rip saws.

West Texas must demand

her rights if she is to get a square deal. The Teachers college should be one of the beneficiaries of the interest and support of this section.

THE LONDON CALLING, a publication, has sent observers to the cinemas to learn what impression of America is made by films produced in this country. Here are some of the reductions thus obtained:

That all American business men may carry revolvers.

That all American clergymen carry flasks of whiskey.

That all American girls chew gum incessantly.

That on American telephones you get the right number the first time.

That all American policemen are burly and beefy and crooked.

That every American housewife possesses an ice box.

That every American boy wears a peak cap and is freckled.

And yet we wonder how foreigners get such queer ideas about us.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER WASHINGTON—Despite all the whoop-t-dee over the fact that a dry congressman found himself in trouble with the prohibition laws, there is probably less liquor at the capitol today than there ever was.

The Michaelson incident has undoubtedly scared some members, but the tendency toward caution began some time ago. Congressmen have learned to use discretion. They have learned, in most cases, that it doesn't do to vote for a law designed to send people to prison for five years and then openly flout that law. Too many persons are apt to be sore about it.

Thus the members of the Senate and the House who keep liquor in their offices have become fewer and fewer, among the dry contingent especially. And there is not so much public drinking, either by legislators or government officials here. No new test-tallies are reported, of course, but conditions aren't as smelly as they were.

Several Kinds of Them

- 1. The man who votes dry, professes to be dry and is dry.
2. The man who votes dry, professes to be dry and is wet.
3. The man who votes dry, professes to be wet and is wet.
4. The man who votes wet, professes to be wet and is wet.
5. The man who votes wet, professes to be dry and is wet.

The third group is the smallest. One of them is a western congressman who was quoted as saying last fall to his constituents that he voted dry but when offered a drink "acted just like everybody else." Another is Senator Cole Blease of South Carolina, who says:

"Everybody in South Carolina knows I take a drink. I get up on the stump and tell 'em I do. But I'm representing my constituents when I vote dry."

Senator Blease is a bluff, florid-faced, frank, plain-talking gent of 60, who wears suspenders, colored shirts, butterfly neckties and no vest. Some people contend that he is no statesman, but he has practiced law for 40 years, knows human nature, says what he likes and isn't letting anyone put anything over on South Carolina.

He says South Carolina produces the best corn liquor in the world, just as Congressman Charles M. Stedham of North Carolina says the best corn liquor in the world comes from North Carolina. Spokesmen for other southern states deny both claims.

"I myself wouldn't keep liquor in my office or in my house," Blease told your correspondent, "though I'm not saying what other people ought to do."

"I haven't any liquor in my office now or in my hotel room. I couldn't get any into my house, anyway, because Mrs. Blease is a prohibitionist."

"But if you ask me if I will have a drink that's something else."

"There isn't any law against taking a drink."

"If I buy it I'm conniving at a violation of the law. And if I carry it I'm transporting it, in violation of the law. I don't believe any public servant ought to take any part in law violation."

They Don't Offer It. It might be observed here in all seriousness that it is far easier to pour a member of Congress a drink in Washington than it is to have one return the favor. Extended inquiry probably would reveal that quite a few others have the same attitude as Blease.

Believe it or not, Edremont, Mass., has a school board composed entirely of women. And we suppose the women run the P. T. A. too, just as they do in Texas, where women may be governors but seldom school trustees.

And strange as it may seem, Pampa students are said to be quite enthusiastic over Latin.

Piggy goes to market on rubber tires, and he is still inflated when you go to buy pieces of him for the table.

Since the North Fork's navigability is confined largely to sand, it is unfortunate that it

It is bad to get all puffed up about things. A Wisconsin man held eighty pounds of air from a compressed air tank, but he was unconscious when taken to a hospital.

A vicar-chancellor repeats that a man in love is not in his right mind. And when two hearts beat as one ordinary work is a sort of half-hearted proposition.

A courthouse rat nearly as big as a cat recently halted procedure in Chicago. Those Chicago proceedings must have given him plenty of food for thought.

About New York

BY RICHARD G. MASSOCK NEW YORK.—Back in the 1860's a pair of theatrical impresarios named Jarrett and Palmer brought to New York a "marvelous" European ballet corps, one of the first to whirl scanty skirts on the American stage.

From the glamorous and naughtier stages of the old world they came, from London, Paris, Berlin and Milan, where the ballet was having its palmiest days, or nights. The sight of these sumptuous belles, therefore, was a rare treat indeed when they first appeared in "The Black Crook," that scandalous extravaganza written especially for them.

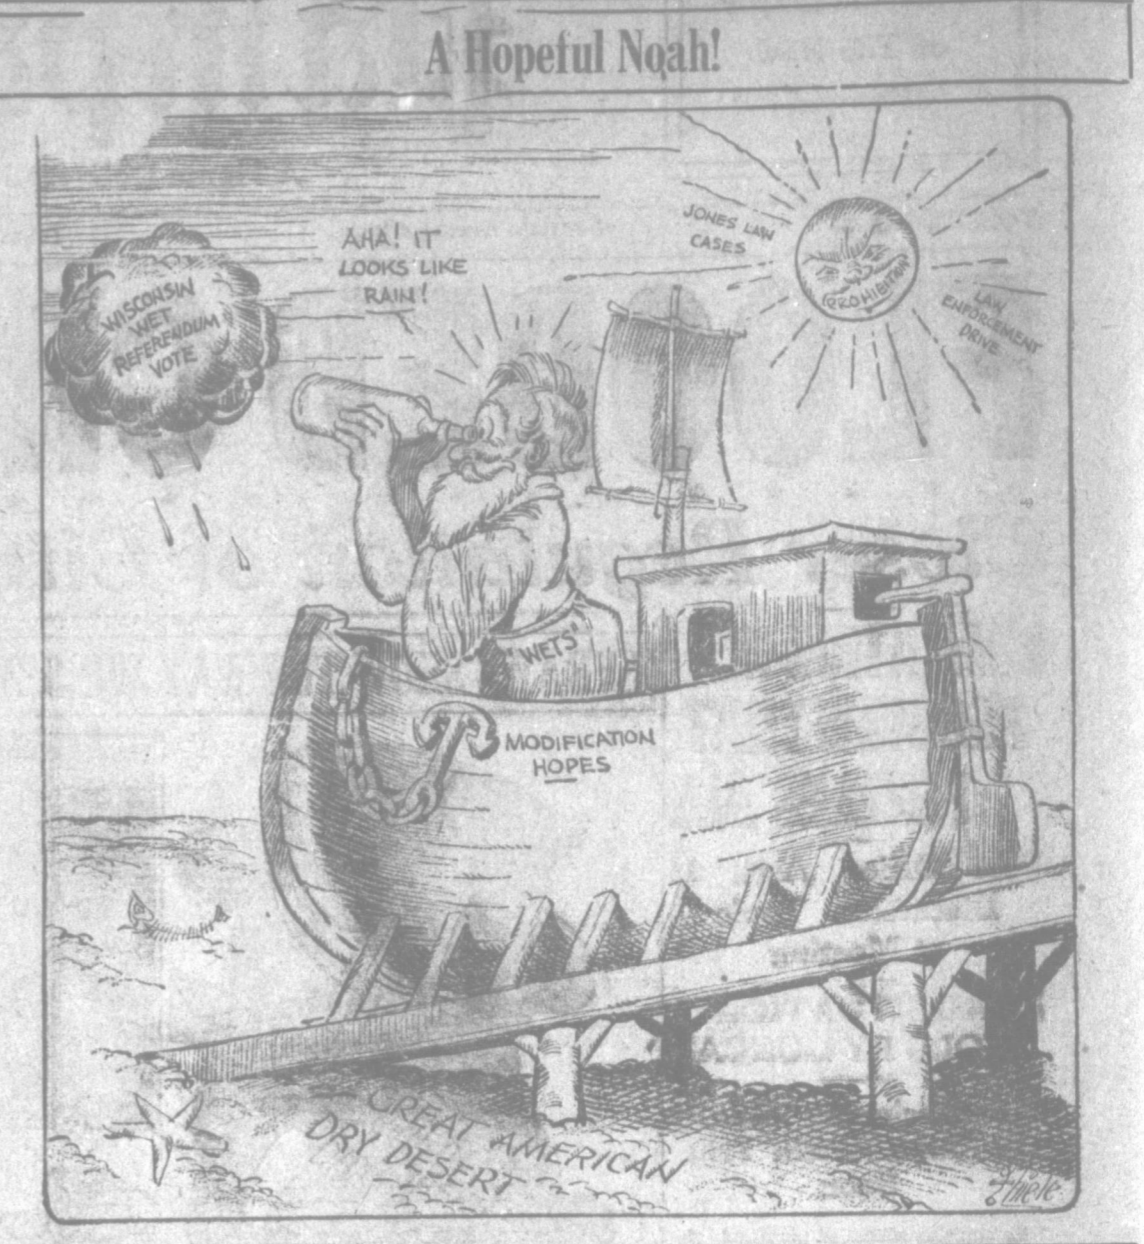

Since that premiere performance the toe-trippers have had their ups and downs in America while their art went through the various phases that brought it to the present state of speed and undress. Today, thanks to "The Black Crook's" revival in Hoboken and the devotion of S. L. (Rox) Rothafel to the ballet, students of that form of dancing may review its progress down the past century.

MOVIE SPECTACLE

Roxy might be called the present patron of the ballet in the United States. The gyrations of the Hoboken troupe were created and directed by Miss Agnes de Mille, who used to dance in his theatre. The original aggregation of buxom beauties in "The Black Crook" was foreign trained, their master being one Signor David Costa. But, while the members of the present corps wear the billowing skirts of white tulle long associated with the ballet, and follow the traditional dance forms, their mentor is American, being none other than the daughter of William de Mille, the movie director.

Miss De Mille, who is in her early twenties, came from California three years ago with her mother. And where else but in a movie theatre should she have gone for experience? Despite the American influence however, Europe still supplies the United States with ballet masters. Roxo just recently imported Leonide Massine, "internationally known choreographer," to take charge of his corps of steppers. Massine is a Russian and first visited this country in 1916 as principal dancer with the Diaghileff ballet.

The modern ballet has risen from the past, just as ballerinas, like Roxo's 19-year-old Patricia Bowman, rise from the ranks.

Eight Home Runs in Yankee Game—None for Ruth

NEW YORK, April 9. (P)—Dazzy Vance, star Brooklyn pitcher, troubled with sciatica, has been sent here to receive treatment. The attack is a light one, and Vance expects to be in shape to start the season.

It's a rare New York Yankee ball game in which eight home runs are hit and none of them to the credit of Babe Ruth's big bat. That's what happened yesterday when the Yanks bowled to the Tulsa Oilers, 12 to 9. Eight circuit drives were made, four by each club, but the Babe got only a pair of singles.

The New York Giant steamroller which has been riding roughshod over all opposition has come to a stop. Garland Braxton and Irving Hadley of Birmingham saw to that yesterday at Birmingham. They held the Giants virtually helpless, while the Senators pounded Karl Hubbell for seven hits and five runs in 7 innings and Curly Ogden for three hits and three runs in one frame. The final score was 8 to 3. It was the Giants' third defeat in 17 exhibition games.

Bob Ashbjornson of Concord, Mass., young rookie catcher with the Red Sox, came through when given a chance, as Manager Bill Carrigan's rookies have a way of doing. Yesterday against Reading, Va., this young man made a good start on the road to fame by smashing out a single, triple, and a home run in four times at bat, knocking in four runs and scoring the fifth himself.

The much battered Boston Braves have broken their losing streak, but they came within an ace of not doing so from over-confidence. Eight runs in the first and two more in the sixth gave them a 10-to-1 lead over the New Haven Eastern league club at Norfolk, Va., yesterday, but they finally won the game, 13 to 12.

The parade of Pirate cripples back to the diamond, neared its end today when Sparky Adams, shortstop, injured a week ago, returned to the line-up. Pie Traynor, nursing an ailing hip, will get a few more days of rest. Adams will be lead-off man again this season, Manager Bush announced today. The Wagner boys will follow, then will come Grantham, Traynor, Sheety, Bartell, and the battery.

Mrs. White Feels It Her Duty to Make a Public Statement

AMARILLO WOMAN HAD ALMOST DESPAIRED—FEELS LIKE NEW AFTER TAKING ORGATONE

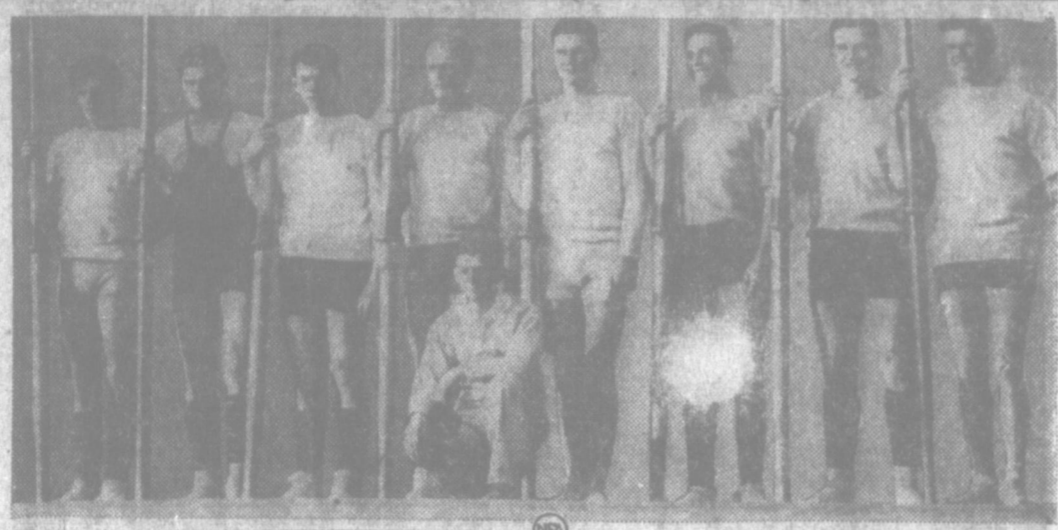

"Since taking Orgatone, I feel better in every way than I have in over a year," said Mrs. George White residing at 734 N. Pierce street, while in conversation with the Orgatone representative a few days ago.

"I was in a dreadful condition when I began taking Orgatone," continued Mrs. White, "but I feel like a new woman now, and I want everybody to know what the medicine has done for me. I have suffered for over a year with stomach and liver trouble, and I was continually doctoring and taking medicine, but in place of getting better I kept getting worse. After eating gas would form on my stomach and I would feel as if I had a knife in my back. I had no appetite, and I was so nervous I could hardly sleep at all. Nothing seemed right to me and nothing helped me, and I had almost given up in despair.

"Orgatone turned the tide in my favor at once, and I began feeling better. Since using five bottles I had gained wonderfully, and I now feel full of life and energy like I haven't felt before in a long time. I eat anything I want and nothing hurts me, and I sleep like a child every night. I'm not nervous like I was, and the constipation is entirely relieved. I can now do all my house work without feeling the least bit tired. If all Orgatone has done for me isn't enough to make one praise it, I don't know what would be. I want my friends and everybody to know what wonderful medicine Orgatone is, and I feel it my duty to humanity to give you my statement for publication."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific bile preparation containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Pampa exclusively by the City Drug Store, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. Other agencies are the City Drug Co., At Berger, Texas.—Adv.

California Crew Ready to Start Campaign

Perhaps the 1929 crew at the University of California won't be as successful in its races this summer as the 1928 crew was, but Coach Ky Ebright has hopes that it will. Only two new faces are to be found on the California crew that will get its first competition on April 13 against Washington. Mullin, coxswain, and Von Tillow, bow, are the new men. The fellows pictured here are, reading left to right, Donlon, stroke; Caldwell, No. 7; Thompson, No. 6; Dally, No. 5; Workman, No. 4; Fredericks, No. 3; Brinck, No. 2; and Von Tillow. HENRY L. FARRELL

The Babe Is No Faker

Jack Dempsey and Babe Ruth were invited to put on a sparring match as the big feature of a society charity show in Palm Beach this week before the Sharkey-Stribling fight.

Dempsey, of course, was in Miami Beach promoting the big fight, and the Babe was in St. Petersburg with the New York Yankees.

The Babe came to Miami Beach accompanied by Marshall Hunt, a New York newspaperman who has traveled more miles with him than Regis Welch, a Pittsburgh scribe, did with Harry Greb.

"You'd better go with us over to Palm Beach," Hunt suggested to me. "There's going to be some fun there. The Babe is going to level at Dempsey. You know the Babe always has thought he could have been the heavyweight champion if he hadn't gone into baseball in a big way."

We don't go to Palm Beach with the Battling Babe and his trainer, Mr. Hunt. And we had to wait until Dempsey returned the next morning to get the details.

Throw and Then Duck!

"Do you know what the big stiff of a Ruth did?" Dempsey started the details. "He leveled at me. He was trying to hit the funny nose of mine with swings like he used to use when he was a pitcher. It's a good thing he wound up every time. I had to block most of them with my forearm. And look at 'em."

The great Dempsey's forearms were blue and swollen.

"I wish I knew something about that Babe's racket. I wonder if he'd let me pitch to him with bricks instead of baseballs," Dempsey said.

Gold in Them Thar Elephants

Mr. Ed Strangler Lewis is no longer the world's heavyweight wrestling champion, but his life as a former champion isn't so hard to take.

In a burst of confidence recently, Lewis related that since he was butted out of the title by Gus Sonnenberg, the former Dartmouth football player, he has been through the busiest period of his career.

Lewis has been wrestling here and there all over the country on an average of six times a week and the law forced him to keep quiet on the Sabbath.

He never works for less than $1500 a night. Sometimes for a lot more. And six nights a week for his minimum rate of pay is worth $9000 a week and he has been making that average weekly salary for two months.

When Der Gus won the title from the Strangler he told his folks that he was going to do a Turney. And that when he got his second million he would quit the racket.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Bucky Harris has given the Detroit Tigers two sets of signs... one for sending and one for receiving... And when the sign goes for the hit and run the play won't go unless the runner signs back that he has it... The Bucky apparently has another sign for use of the field... Tech Will Hold Engineer's Show

LUBBOCK, April 9. (Special)—Students and faculty members of the high schools of District No. 2, of the Interscholastic League, will be given a special invitation to attend the first Engineers' show to be held at the School of Engineering, Texas Technological college Saturday, April 20.

Business men of towns in this section also have a special invitation to attend the show.

The three engineering buildings and all the machinery and apparatus will be put in use by students and faculty members of the school at the Engineers' school to show the general public what the school is doing.

The show will open at two o'clock in the afternoon and will continue until late in the afternoon, according to Dean Wm. J. Miller.

Joliet, Ill., Men Are Bowling Champs

CHICAGO, April 9. (P)—The Hub recreation quint of Joliet, Ill., today was crowned champion of the 1929 American bowling congress after the last of 2,529 team entrants had completed 16 efforts toward the mark, a 3,063 total, rolled March 20, withstood all attacks although it remains 136 pins short of the record score made in 1927 by the OH Henrys at Kansas City. The Klingers Buicks of Watertown, Wis., finished second with 3,041 count and the Edelweiss combination of Chicago, accumulating 3,030 pins, ended in third place.

HOT AND COLD WEATHER MIXED OVER COUNTRY

NEW YORK, April 9. (P)—While the Atlantic seaboard has been having a hot wave, there has been a blizzard in Nevada, and California fruit growers have surveyed orchards blighted by killing frosts.

Unprecedented warm weather for April yesterday and Sunday put the mercury in the eighties along the Atlantic coast.

Seattle Negro in Marathon Lead

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 9. (P)—C. C. Fyffe's cross-country marathons today had one of the hardest tasks of the whole trip.

Up over the highest portion of the Appalachian range, the pioneers had 83 miles to go to the next control point, Drottstown, Pa. Cooling showers were forecast. The last three days the men have plugged under a beaming sun which held the temperature near the 90-degree mark.

Ed Gardner, Seattle negro runner, led the field this morning. The dusky Pacific coast star yesterday wrestled the lead from John Salo, Passaic, N. J., policeman, and had a 34-minute advantage in total elapsed time.

Elder to Sprint in Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, April 9. (P)—Jack Elder, Notre Dame's sensational sprinter, will face the starter's gun in the 100-yard dash, one of the feature events of the thirty-fifth annual University of Pennsylvania relay carnival, on April 26 and 27.

Elder, a member of Knute Rooker's football teams of the last two years, holds among other achievements, a victory over Percy Williams, Canada's brilliant sprinter and Olympic champion. Time and again during the indoor season Elder equalled or broke existing records for the short sprints.

In the century on Franklin field, he will meet two territorial rivals in Simpson and Kriss, both of Ohio State. Simpson is the conference champion in the 100 and 220 and the Pennsylvania relay champion in the century.

James Bain Boston, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Boston, who is in a serious condition as a result of pneumonia and complications, was reported by Pampa hospital officials to be much improved today.

Sports Hope to Have Weather Fit for Real Training

DALLAS, April 9. (P)—After forced idleness on account of rain, the Shreveport Sports hoped to resume routine drilling today. The weather also caused the postponement of the first game of a series at Shreveport between Pittsburgh and Detroit.

The Wichita Falls squad was reduced today to 24 men with the departure for Abilene of 23 players from which a team to represent that city in the West Texas league will be chosen. The Abilene aggregate will be managed by Carl Williams. Spudders' squad now consists of 10 catchers, nine pitchers, seven infielders and five outfielders, leaving on a few reductions to be made before May 17.

Gilbert Muleavy, young infielder from the Toledo club of the American association, will play second base for the San Antonio Indians. He reported today, displacing Tom Connolly, Texas league veteran, released yesterday. Connolly has been troubled with a charley-horse, and while he has been hitting hard, his fielding has left something to be desired. Muleavy, who played in the Piedmont league last summer, comes highly recommended.

With his squad cut to 25 by the release of six youngsters, Manager Atz of Fort Worth prepared today to lead a team to Waco for two games with the Cubs. Following this afternoon's practice session at Fort Worth, the skipper will name 18 men, who will make the trip to Waco. The other seven players will stay at home to continue training. They probably will be taken to Wichita Falls for Saturday and Sunday games with the Spudders and seven others left behind. Vincent Devaney and Buzz Phillips have been named by Atz as the probable Fort Worth pitchers in the first contest at Waco.

Batting and fielding practice made up today's training program of the Dallas Steers. The Herd was forced to forego training yesterday due to wet grounds. Manager Stock expected to start cutting his squad today or tomorrow.

Bert Schemanske, pitcher, was released to Quincy, Elwood Blackwell, pitcher to San Angelo, and Joe Bressler, outfielder, to San Angelo yesterday by the Beaumont Exporters. Most of the rookies are to be placed in class D leagues subject to recall, officials said. Rain made Stuart stadium unplayable today.

Many Boxers in Boston Tournament

BOSTON, April 9. (P)—Sixty-four amateur boxers from 16 cities remained in the national boxing tournament when the first night's program came to an end early today.

Stere Haliako of Buffalo, the only champion who returned to defend his 1928 title, loomed as the star of the tournament by gaining an easy victory over a rugged opponent in the 147-pound class.

Diamond Debs

EARL AVERILL INDIANS

Earl Averill set the Cleveland American league owners back $50,000, but Roger Peckinpaugh, club pilot, said it was money well invested.

Earl is slated for a regular outfield berth alongside of Dick Porter, a youngster up from Baltimore. As a member of the San Francisco club last year Averill hit at a .353 clip, poling 37 home runs, and scoring 180 runs.

Averill is 24 years of age, weighs 175 pounds, hits left handed and throws with the knife hand. His home is at Snohomish, Wash.

TURN THE SWITCH!
CONOCO GET SET!
GO!

THESE days you get lots of satisfaction out of driving a car propelled with Conoco Ethyl Gasoline. In the first place, there's no delay about starting. Conoco Ethyl "snaps into it" at the first nudge on the starter button—and keeps going for miles and miles of smooth, knockless driving.

Conoco Ethyl Gasoline has virtually revolutionized motoring. It is making "Knocks" a mere memory. It is bringing the last full ounce of power out of all motors—whether of low or high compression.

Give Conoco Ethyl the hardest test you know. Try it on the steepest hill you can find. Observe its performance in traffic driving or over muddy, slushy roads. Then you'll appreciate, at first hand, how superior Conoco Ethyl is to ordinary gasoline.

Conoco Ethyl awaits you—at service stations and garages. Look for the sign.

Club Stages Dramatic Scene of Shakespearean Play

At 8 o'clock one of Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar," in which the hero of the tragedy is murdered, was enacted recently by a group of members of Alpha Epsilon, high school Latin club, with other members of the club as an audience. The play-acting took place at a regular meeting of the club, at Miss Ploy Starnard's home.

Harold Holmes had the title role, and Floyd Voss was Brutus. Others who took part were: Turney Mullinax, Max Marbaugh, Howard Pierson, Howard Lane, and John Crout. Simple costuming added to the interest of the performance.

There are 35 members in Alpha Epsilon, members of Miss Anna Esta Gorrer's three Latin classes. Divided in two sections, they present interesting programs at their semi-monthly meetings, the sections alternating in giving the programs.

Parent-Teacher Associations to Elect Officers

Installation of officers of the Parent-Teacher associations for the year will take place, according to rulings of the state organization, at the first meetings in May, each association holding its election some time in the weeks immediately preceding.

Two of the local associations already have announced their elections. Baker school will elect tonight, at a meeting opening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. W. A. Gray, president, asks the attendance of all members.

West Ward P.-T. A. will hold its election Thursday afternoon at a regular meeting. Preceding the election there will be a program and a business session. The program will consist of a group song, "America," a declamation, "The Test," by Elizabeth Graham; and a talk on humane education by Mrs. P. T. Chastain. Chairmen of several committees and delegates to the district convention will make reports.

The West ward association regularly meets on Friday afternoon. The change in the date of this meeting was made in order that the president, Mrs. W. Purviance, might attend. She will be in McLean Friday, to take part in a district meeting of the Methodist Women's Missionary society.

Eight and Forty Is Organized Here

An Eight and Forty vulture, instituted by the local unit of the American Legion auxiliary a month ago, was organized Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Wm. Sparks, Mineral Wells, state organizer. Mrs. J. A. Pierson, Mrs. W. H. Lang, Mrs. Jim Hartley, and Mrs. W. C. De Cordova assisted in the organization and an initiation ceremony for eight members.

Mrs. De Cordova was made Le Petit Chapeau, with Mrs. Robert Shields as temporary secretary. The vulture has 17 charter members, including five transfers from other vultures of the state.

Mrs. McPherson Comes to Mother's Defense

SACRAMENTO, Calif., April 9. (P)—Mrs. Almee Semple McPherson, evangelist, came to the defense of her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, when informed last night a breach of promise suit had been filed against the latter at Seattle by the Rev. H. H. Clark. "The reported charges against my mother are too absurd to even consider," said Mrs. McPherson. "I know my mother and I know that her actions could be nothing but good."

SEATTLE, April 9. (P)—Charges that Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, mother of Almee Semple McPherson, evangelist, made "violent and passionate love" to him and then refused to marry him were on file here today in a $50,000 breach of promise suit by the Rev. H. H. Clark, middle-aged minister of the Christian denomination here.

The minister, who filed the suit yesterday, alleged Mrs. Kennedy came into his life under the assumed name of Mary E. Clark last December in Seattle. Mr. Clark averred Mrs. Kennedy rented a hotel apartment here where they could "talk undisturbed."

SPRING IS HERE—BIG CIRCUS COMING

Stars and celebrities of the Christy Bros., big five-ring wild animal shows will be here next Tuesday for two performances. A mammoth parade will be staged at noon. It is the only large tented show that still retains the parade feature of circus day with a two-mile long street pageant that will leave the snow grounds promptly at noon. The big feature of the show this season is the 100-horse act under the tutelage of Merritt Bewer. Another one is the 50 dancing girls and 50 dancing horses. There are scores of aerialists, acrobats, wire walkers, and equestriennes and an army of really funny clowns.

The five herds of elephants do their most amazing stunts in the five rings at the same time. And Miss Dorothy is the particular star among the wild animal trainers with daring spectacular snarling troupe of leopards. Every child attending the matinee will be given a ride on one of the baby elephants or on one of the tiny Shetland ponies.

Former Congressman of Oklahoma Dies

ARDMORE, Okla., April 9. (P)—Charles D. Carter, for 20 years an Oklahoma congressman and more recently a state highway commissioner, died suddenly today at his home here from heart disease.

Mr. Carter, a democrat, was elected to congress from the third Oklahoma district when this state was admitted to the union in 1907, and served until 1927. He was defeated in the 1928 election by Wilburn Cartwright of McAlester. He was 59 years old.

Before his retirement from congress, he was appointed as a member of the Oklahoma highway commission by Gov. Henry S. Johnston. The commission of which he was a member was automatically abolished last week when Gov. W. J. Holloway signed a bill creating a new commission of three mem-

Transportation Is Asked for Athletes by Coach Mitchell

Cars are needed to take the Harvesters track and field team to Amarillo Saturday morning. The local team has been entered in an invitation meet to be held at the fair grounds all day Saturday. At least 15 Harvesters will make the trip, Coach Odus Mitchell said this morning.

Three cars will be needed to take the boys to Amarillo and the coach would like to hear from anyone who can take a load. Cars also will be needed to take the team to Canyon a week from Friday to participate in the district track and field meet.

Pampa's representatives to the district meet will be chosen from those making the best showing at Amarillo Saturday, Coach Mitchell said today. Grooming the boys for the hard grind and believes they will make a fine showing against some of the strongest teams in the Panhandle, Oklahoma, and New Mexico.

Paving Changed From Boulevard to Full Width

The city commission last night accepted the suggestion of property owners of East Francis and East Kingsmill avenues and North Gray street that the boulevard type of pavement on those streets meet with the commission and requested the change in type of pavement.

The Stuckey Construction company has been instructed to proceed with the work on those streets according to the new specifications presented by City Engineer A. H. Doucette.

Action was deferred until next Monday night for letting a contract for a new water well. Bids are still open. City Manager F. M. Gwin said this morning. It is planned to drill another hole with a capacity of 1,000 gallons a minute. A 500-gallon-minute well has just been completed.

Clarence Swafford, typhoid patient at Pampa hospital, is recovering rapidly and will be able to return home in a few days.

Miss Pearl Marchant, who underwent a major operation several days ago at Pampa hospital, is recuperating satisfactorily.

ON HANGING THE KAISER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

(Copyright, 1929, Associated Press)

Talk of hanging the kaiser was being bandied about plenty freely at the time the armistice was forged in the white heat of bitter hatreds. A certain number of people were bent on using the "all highest" pretty roughly; likewise the German crown prince.

Well, these advocates of the hempen rope didn't know it, but the kaiser could have been disposed of long before without going to all the trouble of erecting a scaffold.

There were many occasions during the war on which the emperor and his eldest son, and the entire German high command, for that matter, could have been blown to atoms had the allies desired to take advantage of the opportunity. But the kaiser never had any idea of doing such a thing. Thereby hangs this tale, told out of school, which may surprise some people.

So far as the kaiser himself was concerned, there was nothing startling in the fact that nobody tried to blow him up during his rambles about the occupied territory. The allies weren't barbarians. All attacks on non-combatants were atrocities which made right-minded people shudder with horror. And most folk are right-minded, when all is said and done.

Beyond this, there were some reasons which perhaps were not so humanitarian. The killing of a non-combatant personage would have raised a storm of protest against the country which perpetrated the deed, and the various nations in the conflict had to be careful not to provide material for adverse propaganda. Also, such a killing would have resulted in reprisals in kind. Reprisals, once started, are hard to stop.

No, it wasn't the safety of the kaiser which was surprising. What I really started out to tell you about was this: There was a tacit understanding between the allies and the German powers that general headquarters and even army headquarters on both sides were to be immune from bombing and gunfire. I said a TACIT understanding. Call it an unwritten law if you will. You don't always have to put your name to a gold embossed document to make a bargain binding.

The lads in the trenches weren't immune. Neither were the battalion, nor even the divisional headquarters. But army headquarters, and everything above that, were as peaceful as a summer's eve under a crab-apple tree.

This tacit understanding between the contending forces was based on a slight modification of that well known adage that people who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones. The mal idea of war, as interpreted by the chap who had to use a bayonet in the late quarrel, is to kill and destroy.

There can be, and were, certain limits put on this, however. Buck privates were made to be killed. So were minor officers. But don't forget that the official homes of supreme commands were immune. I hasten to add that I am not casting any reflection on the bravery of men at headquarters. On the contrary. Many of them were veteran soldiers who had won their spurs in bloody conflict.

By mutual tacit consent the bombers and gunners of both sides left headquarters alone.

I could give you plenty of examples to illustrate my statement, but perhaps one typical instance will do. Take the case of British 2nd army headquarters in Cassel, Flanders.

The hamlet of Cassel nestles in the top of a little hill which rises from the plain like an ice cream cone. On the highest point of ground in Cassel was a huge building used as army headquarters. It perched there like a golf ball on its tee. The fighting lines were only a few wimles away.

A German aviator could have dropped a love letter on the roof of that headquarters any time he wanted to not to speak of bombs. But they left headquarters alone. Why? Here is the answer, and I give it to you in the language of an ex-officer in the German air force, a man whom I know well and whose word is unimpeachable. He said:

"We never touched Cassel because we had strict verbal orders from our high command that Cassel and 2nd headquarters were immune. This was in accordance with the tacit understanding that if we didn't bomb allied headquarters, the allies wouldn't bomb our headquarters. We did drop a bomb by accident on Cassel on one occasion I recall, and the next day the British gave us a dose of our own medicine."

Modes of the Moment!

For sport and day clothes Lelong emphasizes a gray blue shade he calls him. Many costumes, like the one I sketched, are of wool gingham crepe or fine crepella made on trim close-fitting lines with much symmetrical stitching or tucking. Rita

You've had him long enough—NOW I WANT HIM!

DINNER was almost over when the girl suddenly sprang to her feet, her dark eyes turned on her hostess in flaming defiance. "I can't stand it any longer," she cried—"all this sneaking and lying and deception. Dan and I love each other. You've no right to stand between us. He's been your husband long enough. Now I want him!"

The older woman, deathly pale, speechless with shock, turned to her husband. "She's right," he said. "There's no use trying to hide it any longer. But I want you to believe, Jean, that I love you, too. You are my wife—and I love you as a tried and true companion. But I love Marie—the other way. I fought against it—how I fought you will never know. But—it was too strong for me. That's all I can say."

So this was her reward for sacrificing the best years of her life to her home and family. First her son, then her daughter—eager for news sensations—were swept headlong to disaster by the modern tide of jazz. And now her husband yields to the siren lure of a love-mad young girl whose kisses must eventually prove as deadly as a viper's sting! What had she, his wife, to offer against the lure of soft, red lips, against the seductiveness, the passion of flaming youth? Nothing—except a lifetime of sacrifice and devotion. What should she do?

This woman's story is the most sensational real-life revelation ever published in True Story Magazine. CHRISTY BROS. SHOWS TO BE HERE TUESDAY

MAMMOTH PARADE TO BE STAGED AT NOON—HIGHLY TRAINED ANIMALS AND A GALAXY OF LOVELY STARS.

Big tops and little tops will soon be up, the clowns are putting on the paint, the elephants are getting ready for the peanuts, the equestriennes are putting on their silk fleshings, the wild animals are getting wilder, the grooms are putting resin on the milk white horses, and the small boy can't sleep, for Tuesday, April 16 is show day, the day the Christy Shows, aristocrat of the show world, give their exhibitions, preceded by the gorgeously spectacular parade is the largest show in the world that still retains the parade feature of show day.

Ingenuity and variety distinguish the show program. There are wonderful trained wild animal acts, upon which primarily the fame of the show was founded, beautiful equestriennes in swagger raiment, awash with silk and flame with color, in hazardous feats on the back of galloping horses, and just the whiff of that je ne sais quoi that denotes individuality. Wonderful acrobatic groups tumble in the different arenas like a cascade.

The parade will leave the show grounds promptly at noon. Performances are scheduled for two for the afternoon and eight for the night show. Doors will open an hour earlier so that all may pay a leisurely visit to the side show, with its many curious and strange people.

Negro Leaves Coat and Bullets Behind

A negro "ran out of his coat" early Sunday morning when he "outdistanced several pistol bullets" which were following him. In his haste to get away he dropped two sacks of chickens which he had taken from a hen house at the rear of a shack in the negro addition.

County officials heard the shooting and upon arriving at the scene of action found the owner letting his fine poultry loose. He told officers he heard someone in his hen house and immediately investigated. He says he saw another negro running away with two sacks over his shoulder. He opened fire and the negro dropped the chickens and his coat.

The suspect had not been apprehended today.

CHAPLIN TO SELL HIS PICTURES WITHOUT HELP

LOS ANGELES, April 9. (AP)—The Examiner said today it had learned that Charles Chaplin, film comedian, planned to withdraw from United Artists corporation, in which several motion picture stars have been banded, and to sell his pictures in the open market.

The paper said Chaplin announced his decision during discussion of a proposed merger of several individual artist-owned companies into one $80,000,000 corporation, one-half of which would be owned by Warner Brothers, Gloria Swanson, D. W. Griffith, Samuel Goldwyn, Joseph M. Schenck, Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks, and Mary Pickford were said to have attended the conference.

WILMER ALLISON, TEXAN, WINNING AT TENNIS

PINEHURST, N. C., April 9. (AP)—Tennis in the eleventh North and South tennis tournament was resumed today with the state of favorites intact and unscathed by the opening rounds yesterday.

The more lustrous of the net celebrities breezed through yesterday's play with little trouble, Tamié Abe, the Japanese Davis cup star, defeated Henry Dunnell of Providence, R. I., 6-0, 6-0, and Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, one of the ranking American players, eliminated Edward King of Pinehurst by a 6-0, 6-3 count.

WOODMEN OF WORLD AT MINERAL WELLS

MINERAL WELLS, April 9. (AP)—Several hundred delegates were here today for the state convention of the Woodmen of the World and the Woodmen circle.

Today's program concerned the woodmen circle degree teams principally competitive drills having been arranged Teams from Fort Worth, San Antonio Breckenridge, Waco and Austin entered the competitive drill contest.

MRS. LIPS ACQUITTED ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 9. (AP)—Miss Bertha Lips, former head of New Mexico Girls' Welfare home, was acquitted by a jury here last night of charges of manslaughter which grew out of the death of Helen Haskew, 16-year-old inmate of the home, following an injection of "twilight sleep."

When France Bowed Her Head at Marshal Foch's Bier

The scene enacted beneath the towering pillars of the Arc de Triomphe, Paris, as France paid her last respects to Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the allied armies during the World War, is pictured here. Marshal Foch's body lies in state on the black-draped gun caisson, directly under the arch, and in the foreground is the tomb of France's Unknown Soldier, covered with flowers. A bareheaded line like that shown in the foreground passed the bier for hours.

Large Increase in Production Result of an Experiment

TULSA, Okla., April 9. (AP)—Release of the curb on production in the Oklahoma greater Seminole area, March 21, to determine proration percentages for the following 30 days, plus slight, but general increase in virtually all Mid-Continent pools resulted in a total increase of 36,261 barrels in the established daily average production of light and heavy gravity oil in the United States for the week ending April 6, as compared to that of March 30, according to the Oil and Gas Journal.

The total daily average production for the country during the week ending April 6 was 2,660,818 barrels and during the week ending March 30, it was 2,624,557.

Oklahoma's total increase during the week was 29,255 barrels. That added to slight increases in other fields, raised the total daily average production for the entire Mid-Continent area to 34,053 barrels.

California production decreased slightly, heavy oil production increased 4,572 barrels throughout the country. Santa Fe Springs field, Calif., continued to decrease in production.

Mrs. Owen Taylor underwent a major operation this morning at Pampa hospital.

More Charges on Long Proposed
BATON ROUGE, La., April 9. (P)—After a week-end recess Louisiana's house of representatives, which turned Gov. Huey P. Long over to the senate for trial, will reconvene tonight to take up additional charges of impeachment.
The committee of the whole will resume taking of testimony on the second of 19 counts of criminal and petty official offenses charged against the governor.

Bank Robber Is Hunted in Woods
DENISON, April 9. (P)—After an all-night search of the wooded section of Choctaw creek, officers had failed to find any trace of a man who yesterday robbed a bank at Bells of $700, and fled as a motor bus passenger after wrecking his own automobile. The robber was said to have jumped from the bus and disappeared into the Choctaw bottoms as the vehicle approached Denison.
Officers continued today to guard all bridges and roads in the vicinity of the creek, which has been at flood stage after recent heavy rains, in the hope the man may still be hiding in the underbrush.

Lindbergh Takes Off at Valbuena Field Near Noon

MEXICO CITY, April 9. (P)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh took off from the Valbuena flying field for the United States by way of Brownsville at 12:20 p. m., (1:20 p. m., eastern standard time) after a week's visit with his fiancée, Miss Anne Morrow.
The colonel declined to reveal his plans but it was understood he was going to New York City, making several stops en route.

Sinclair's Summer Vacation Will Be Spent in Jail

WASHINGTON, April 9. (P)—Unless unusual delays are obtained, Harry F. Sinclair will spend most of the summer in one of the capital's oldest public buildings, the Washington asylum and jail, because of his refusal to answer all questions asked him during the senate teapot dome investigation.
Although it was built 70 years ago and lacks some of the improvements which more modern structures contain it is regarded as one of the best, as jails go. In common with other public and private buildings in Washington, however, it is not regarded as a summer resort, and jail officials are emphatic in their declaration the wealthy oil man will be granted no special privileges.
Under the rules of the Supreme Court, Sinclair has only 25 days in which to appeal for a rehearing from its decision yesterday upholding the three months jail sentence and a fine of $500. Rehearings are seldom granted, however, and the Supreme Court's mandates usually are sent to the court of appeals of the district of Columbia within ten days. Whenever the mandate in Sinclair's case is received, United States Attorney Rover has explained, he will be notified promptly to appear to begin his sentence.

YEAR-OLD BOY DIES HERE OF PNEUMONIA
Funeral services were to be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Richard Earl Gray, 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gray, who died at a local hospital yesterday morning. He had been ill with pneumonia for some time.
The Rev. A. A. Hyde, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was asked to hold services at the Malone chapel and at the grave. Burial will be at Fairview cemetery.

Center of Capital Society Dispute

Here's the most recent photo of Mrs. Edward Gann, about whom rages a social controversy in Washington. As the sister of the Vice President, her social rank should be the same that his wife would have were she alive, Mr. Curtis said. He formally protested against her classification at official functions below the wives of foreign ambassadors and ministers.

Dawes Proposed as U. S. Ambassador to Great Britain

WASHINGTON, April 9. (P)—Although the White House was silent, it was learned today that the name of Charles Gates Dawes, former vice-president, has been proposed to the British government as ambassador to the court of St. James.

FIVE PERSONS DIE IN COLORADO RANCH BLAZE

AKRON, Colo., April 9. (P)—Five persons were burned to death today in a fire that destroyed the Clark Phelps ranch house, 20 miles southeast of Akron.
The dead are:
Clark Phelps, 65; Florence Phelps, 40, a daughter; Levi Phelps, 35, a son; Susie, 12, and Emma, 14, daughters of Levi Phelps.
Levi Phelps was visiting his father and his sister, who have raised the two children since the death of their mother about 11 years ago. Mrs. Clark Phelps was away from the home last night, visiting a daughter.

THOUSAND MORE STRIKERS OUT IN NORTH CAROLINA

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 9. (P)—Carolina strike ranks had been swelled by almost 1,000 today with textile workers idle at three additional plants in North Carolina.
Conditions in South Carolina, where more than 4,000 workers at Greenville Union, Woodruff and Anderson are on strike, remained unchanged with conciliation movements in progress.

ESCOBAR MUST MERGE FORCES FOR FINAL TEST

NOGALES, Ariz., April 9. (P)—The fate of the Mexican revolution appeared to hang today on the ability of the rebel commander-in-chief, General J. Gonzalo Escobar, to co-ordinate his forces in Sonora in time to meet the advancing federal army under General P. Elias Calleja, federal generalissimo.
Indications that the opposing commanders were gathering their forces for a supreme effort against each other in Sinaloa and Sonora appeared when it was announced here Escobar was expected to arrive in Nogales, Sonora, today from the state of Chihuahua by airplane, preceding his principal army, racing westward from Juarez and other Chihuahua points.

NACO, Ariz., April 9. (P)—How to effectively attack the federal garrison at Naco, Sonora, without firing into American territory was the problem of the rebel forces of General Fausto Topete, south of here today.

The situation held many possibilities for the rebels. If Topete's army should fire "into American territory again, it would be almost certain to draw a shower of lead from 18 American fighting planes and other United States army forces along the border.
Orders issued to the American aviators to shoot down any Mexican plane that flies over United States soil and to prevent gunfire into Arizona had a cooling effect on border hostilities yesterday. Not a shot was fired by either side.

HOOVER COMMISSION TO HEAR RAILROAD DISPUTE

DALLAS, April 9. (P)—Before a United States commission named by President Hoover, difficulties between the Texas and Pacific railway and four brotherhoods of employees will be heard tomorrow.

Headed by James Garfield of Cleveland, son of Former President Garfield and secretary of the interior under President Roosevelt, the commissioners arrived today.

The commission was named last week after a strike was voted and ordered by the brotherhoods. Conferences between the road and its employees had failed to bring an agreement.
The strike vote was taken after the road refused demands that it pay its men for losses on homes purchased in cities from which the men were transferred.

GRIFFITH SEES MOODY

AUSTIN, April 9. (P)—D. W. Griffith, famous producer of moving pictures, called on Governor Moody today. He flew here from San Antonio, where he has been spending several days.

TWO MARSHALL MEN CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

MARSHALL, April 9. (P)—Emmet Dunn, 36, and Bernard Harris, 25, were indicted here today at a special session of the grand jury on charges of criminal assault on two school girls near here Thursday.
The girls were said to have been lured into an automobile, taken to a lonely road and attacked by two men.
One of the girls today announced she was married to Dunn. A marriage license had been issued for the pair, and a "marriage contract" was said to have been sent to Dunn in jail and signed by him after permission to hold a marriage ceremony at the jail was denied.

John Lee Harris Goes to Meeting

John Lee Harris, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church, will be director of music at a Panhandle district B. Y. F. U. and Sunday school convention which opens this evening at Wellington. Twenty-seven counties comprise the district, and from each of these a strong delegation is expected for the meeting.
Mr. Harris left this morning for Wellington with the Rev. G. M. Stewart of Miami, missionary of the Canadian Baptist association. They will return Thursday afternoon, following the close of the meeting.
