Rev. Paul Merrill Is Visitor Here

The Rev. Paul J. Merrill, formerly pastor of the Christian church here was a visitor here Monday and Tuesday. Rev. Merrill preached here from 1919 until 1923, when he left to take up evangelistic work.

Rev. Merrill has been having success writing children's stories. He has been successful in having a series published in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and has signed a contract to furnish ten more immediately.

His last series, Little Boy and Big Jim, was dedicated to his son, to whom he told the tale as a bed-time story. His other stories, which will appear each Sunday in the Star-Telegram, will follow the same idea.

BLOODY FIGHT IS UNDER WAY

"Cristeros" Wage Hard Battle Against Federals

NOGALES, Sonora, April 25. (P)—Feverish activity marked the rebel camp at Agua Prieta today as reports reached the border that Gen. Juan Andreu Almazan had surprised the rebels by moving part of his federal troops from Chihuahua into Sonora through Carretas Pass...

Rebels reported they had met and turned back federals at Pulpito Pass yesterday, and they also claimed a victory by rebel general, Fausto Topete, over federal cavalry near Misison, southern Sonora.

Federals at San Luis and Sonoyta, western Sonora, announced they expected an attack by rebels today. Federal bombing planes dropped explosives here and at Agua Prieta yesterday but no casualties were reported.

Big Spring Men Held At Tucson, Ariz., two American aviators, W. L. Mitchell and Pete Stanley, were in jail awaiting arraignment before a United States commissioner on charges of transporting munitions of war to the Mexican rebels in Sonora. They were arrested last night and their plane seized. Stanley was said to have admitted he had been flying for the rebels. Both men claimed Big Spring, Texas, as their home.

Phil "Red" Mohun, also known as Phillip Meredith of New York last night was ordered removed from Tucson to El Paso, Texas, to face federal charges of transporting an airplane in violation of regulations which prevent the rebels from receiving American aid. He was arrested in Nogales, Ariz., Saturday.

MEXICO CITY, April 25. (P)—"Bloody" fighting between 1,000 so-called religious rebels and the federal army of Gen. Saturnino Cedillo at Tepetitlan, Jalisco, was believed still in progress today after three days conflict.

Shouting their battle cry, "Vive Cristo Rey"—"Long Live Christ, the King"—the beleaguered rebel force was said not only to have repulsed federal attacks with hand-to-hand fighting but to have inflicted reverses on the government troops.

General Cedillo, charged by General Calles with "extermination" of the "Cristeros"—as the government terms the rebels—was quoted as expressing confidence his superior numbers and better equipment would prevail in the end and that he would invest the town. He had 5,000 soldiers at his command.

News of the encounter came almost simultaneously with advices of a peace offer on his part, declaring a 20-day truce in the region affected by the so-called religious rebellion during which safe conduct to homes was guaranteed those who surrendered and relentless persecution promised the more tenacious.

From Chicago

"I come from Chicago." That's the way 4-year-old Charles Hohman explained the wearing of a pistol holster when he paid a visit to the White House in Washington. He didn't say what his racket was—but it'll probably be school in another year or two. And he has given the teacher fair warning.

CARSON WELL IS OF INTEREST NOW

Oil interest in Carson county is centered about the old Tipton-McConnell test in section 201, block 3. The Lyon et al's No. 1 Bednorz in section 202 block 3, I. & G. N. survey has encountered two pay sands and is drilling a head at 3,155 feet. First pay was picked up at 3,120 feet and second pay at 3,150 feet.

This test is being drilled by Clyde Lyon, local man.

The Last Chance Gas company's No. 1 McConnell (formerly Tipton & McConnell) has been put on the pump after being cleaned out and yesterday made 50 barrels. As pumping continues it is expected the test will increase its production.

The old well has been drilled intermittently since 1923 and has never been completed. It is located about a mile west of the Gray county line and three miles northwest of Kingsmill.

Details of Gay Party Attended by Him Are Given

LATER DIRECTED RAID BY TROOPS

Executive Continues to Attack Standard Oil Co.

BATON ROUGE, La., April 25. (P)—Gov. Huey P. Long, played up in the evidence as "frisky with a woman on a settee" at a studio party in New Orleans, had ended his state-wide speaking tour today with a final rebuke of the Standard Oil company and the senate was ready to make arrangements to try him on impeachment charges of general misconduct.

With seven charges of impeachment voted against him—two alleging bribery and intimidation and five misapplication of state funds—the house took a spirited plunge into a hula hula entertainment for the governor by A. D. Danziger, president of the New Orleans Association of Commerce, during last Mardi Gras.

Testimony given by witnesses on the party in Mr. Danziger's studio-theatre conflicted only in minor details. A good time was had by all. Drinks were served and the hula hula dancer who performed barefoot and a straw skirt testified she sat in the governor's lap with the official arm around her neck.

Gross Misconduct Alleged The evidence as admitted under the count charging Long with gross misconduct in public places.

Mr. Danziger preceded Helen Clifford, hula entertainer, on the stand. There was no attempt to shield the drinks. His party he said, was attended by only the first people.

As to how many drinks the governor took, Danziger testified, "or whether he drained the glass I saw him with, I cannot say. He had the glass in his hand most of the time he was there." The witness was not positive whether the governor sang at the gay party, but he saw him take a "few steps like a jig. He was just keeping time with the music."

Girl Testifies A girl tried to sit in the chief executive's lap, Mr. Danziger recollected, but the governor showed her away. "Don't do that," he said.

Helen, however, said the governor showed her off, but pulled her back and she sat on his lap with "his arm around my neck."

"Everybody was drinking," she said, and the governor "had plenty."

Miss Clifford remarked the governor danced under the rim of a cocktail glass but that he spent most of his time on a settee with a woman who called to him "come here Huey."

The governor left the studio before the party was over to direct a troop raid from his hotel suite.

Baptists to Have Special Service in New Church Friday

Proceeding its formal opening Sunday morning, the First Baptist church will hold a special service tomorrow evening, in order that pastors of other churches of the city may participate in the first service in the new auditorium.

Short talks will be made by the pastor-guests, the Rev. D. H. Truhitte said. The mayor, the city manager, the district judge, the district attorney and others will speak. Special music has been included in the program. Mr. Truhitte and officials of the church invite the public to attend the service, which is to be held at 8 o'clock.

FARM SCHOOL BEING TAUGHT BY TECH PROFS

More than 50 students of the high school agricultural class and 30 men and women from this section of the county attend a free dairy and poultry school at the Chamber of Commerce rooms this morning. Prof. K. M. Renner and Prof. R. C. Mowery of Texas Tech were in charge of the session.

Prof. Renner spoke on the dairy market and the farm dairy. His talk was instructive and the discussion which followed was beneficial. Prof. Mowery spoke on the status of the dairy industry. He asked questions and received answers from the boys of the agricultural class.

George W. Briggs, manager of the Board of City Development, announced that two prizes would be given the boys turning in the best essays on any of the subjects discussed today.

This afternoon other important subjects were to be discussed. A larger crowd was expected at this afternoon's session.

The school is being conducted under the auspices of the agricultural committee of the B. C. D.

New Water Well Near Old No. 3

Drilling is under way on the city's new water well. The 12-inch development hole has been sunk more than 100 feet since operations started Tuesday. The new well is being drilled on the southwest corner of the city property, where old well No. 3 was located.

When completed, the new producer must have a capacity of 1,000 gallons a minute, according to D. L. McDonald's contract. Mr. McDonald has just completed a well for the city that is pumping 500 gallons a minute. The new test well has a 33-inch hole and will be pumped with a turbine pump.

Pistol Battle Is Waged in Court

OLIVE HILL, Ky., April 25. (P)—Austin Fields, brother of former Governor William J. Fields, and chief of Police H. B. Carter, shot and wounded each other in a pistol battle in police court here today. Deputy Sheriff Jim Walker of Carter county, a bystander, was wounded and may die.

Fifty spectators and court attendants rushed for exits and dived under chairs as the shooting started.

Walker was shot through the body and little hope is held for his recovery.

BLIZZARD HITS WYOMING HARD; TRAVEL STOPS

Heavy Damage Is Feared to Young Lambs and Calves

CHEYENNE IS SNOW BLOCKED

Pampa Feels Cold but Temperature Goes Only to 40

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 25. (P)—Loss of life and tremendous damage to livestock and other property was feared today following the worst blizzard in the history of Wyoming which had isolated this city for nearly 24 hours and paralyzed transportation.

Telegraph and telephone wires were down in every direction from Cheyenne and communication with the outside, even by radio, was cut off last night when the electrical power was turned off to prevent casualties from contact with live wires on the ground and house-tops.

Train service, except on local short lines, was at a standstill, and all highways were blocked. Even motor travel in the downtown streets here was almost impossible.

Throughout yesterday men fought their way to Cheyenne through huge snowdrifts to obtain clothing and food. King Winter included the Panhandle in his itinerary last night, and a chilling breeze from snow covered states to the north sent Pampa folk scurrying for heavy coats.

The cold wave struck before sundown, and by midnight the temperature dropped to 40 degrees, lowest mark registered by the thermometer at the Santa Fe station during the night. At 5 o'clock the mercury had climbed to 44 degrees and at 10 a. m., had reached 60 degrees.

The forecast for tonight and Friday is generally fair, but frosty to night and warm not likely before a warm sun tomorrow. A nearly clear sky and dying gale, however, indicated that the probable frost may not develop as forecast.

for their wives and children suffering in automobiles stalled near the city.

The storm, general over the Rocky Mountain region, but not as severe in other states, struck Wyoming at the height of the lambing season, and a heavy loss of lambs and calves was believed certain by stockmen who compared the blizzard with that in May, 1927.

From several points in Colorado came reports of streams near flood stage from the heavy precipitation, and near Craig, Colo., the Yampa river was carrying out bridges and endangering a Texas company refinery.

Western Nebraska, near the Colorado and Wyoming line, was hit by tornadoes and snow and wind swept over the section.

PALESTINE, April 25. (P)—Tornadoes lashed three East Texas hamlets yesterday—twisting one into a ruin without a building left standing—killing seven persons and injuring at least 21. Hospitals were crowded today with victims as rehabilitation went forward. Red Cross and volunteer relief committees furnished ample food supplies.

While most of the residents of Slocum a town of 200 population near Palestine were at luncheon tables, a fury of wind descended, roared down a path three miles wide and took seven lives. Two of those killed were terrified school children, who, together with many companions, ran from the play grounds into the schoolhouse, which was smashed.

No fatality occurred at Benson (See STORMS, Page 6)

"It's Like This—"

THE BAIL BOND has a very definite place in jurisprudence. It is a condition of freedom for both the innocent and the guilty, and it is a guarantee to the state that the prisoners released will be delivered to the state at the time and place set.

To permit bonds which have been forfeited to lie on the books uncollected is to undermine the whole intent and effect of the system. This is being done right here in Gray county. In 31st district court are numerous examples, and the bond forfeitures probably would run into thousands of dollars.

Thirty-First district court has many bond forfeitures of long standing. Some of them were inherited from the old 34th district. There is now a re-organized district, with opportunity to prevent some of the miscarriages of justice which have been all too prevalent.

Some bondsmen have been approved who themselves were under indictment or known to officers and court attendants as having been under suspicion. Bonding has become almost a farce in its final disposition. This can and should be prevented in the future.

QUITE A NUMBER of cities are fighting the dandelion with might and main. Pampa is no new, as to most of the homes, that this problem has not become acute. Pampa must have cheaper water before a lawn campaign can be held.

Cheaper water is feasible only if needed improvements are financed by warrant or bond issue, because if the water department is to pay for its extensions and improvements the water rates cannot be lowered.

The city needs another elevated tank. The present one ought to be moved out of the center of the city, and this could be done if the new one were erected. The two should be placed so as to equalize water pressure.

One alternative to the present minimum rate would be to add another thousand gallons of water to this same cost. It seems that this could be done at once without lowering the revenue, and if the water supply is as adequate as claimed there is no reason why more water should not be used and more lawns developed.

THIS CHALLENGE from the Roswell Dispatch might well be applied to Pampa: "Build the birdhouse and the birds will come. This old saying is even more true of human fliers than of the feathered variety.

"Aviation follows the airport like gamblers follow the horses. Commercial air lines establish their terminals in cities offering the best landing fields, hangars, and other facilities. It is not enough to pick out a vacant lot, designate it as an airport, and then develop it in a helter-skelter way. The problems of the airport, whether it be urban, suburban, insular, or coastal, are complex, requiring for solution the combined experience and knowledge of the aviation expert, the engineer, the city planner, and the architect.

"The community which overlooks today's great opportunity for providing for air traffic, not only for the present, but for the future, will be found in the same position as those which refused to encourage the railroad in its pioneer days."

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER WASHINGTON — There are two Lankfords in Congress now, William C. Lankford of Georgia and Menalcus Lankford of Virginia.

One of them is locally unpopular because of his Blue Sunday bill, which would close up everything in Washington on Sunday. You might suppose it would be a man with a name like Menalcus who would introduce a bill like that, but William is the guilty one. Menalcus has just come to Congress for the first time.

"You bet I will!" replied Menalcus when asked if he would oppose William's bill if and when it ever reached the floor of the House. "I'm in favor of putting more joy into people's lives rather than taking more out. The more we let people alone the better off we'll be."

Menalcus Lankford is a Republican lawyer from Norfolk, Va., a district which had been Democratic for 40 years, up to last November. He was always a Democrat himself until he enlisted during the war in naval aviation. There he met many fellows from other sections and got the idea that the south would be better off if it had two functioning political parties instead of one. He kept talking up that idea when he got back and started to run for Congress in presidential years. In 1920 he doubled the previous Republican vote; in 1924 he quadrupled it. In 1928 he won by 5000 majority.

Your correspondent asked as politely as possible where on earth he acquired such an unusual first name and Lankford replied, equally politely, that it was his grandfather's and that before that it belonged to a Latin poet who is mentioned in Ovid. The congressman has always felt that he could have done much better had he selected his name himself. But he has had a lot of fun with it and it never handicapped him.

Nice old D. A. R. lady here for the national congress of her order tells of an interesting experience crossing the border from Canada by train.

She was bringing back a couple of bottles of whiskey for an aged and ailing father. She opened her suitcase and enclosed a note within a rubber band around the neck of each bottle. One note was a $5 bill and the other simply said: "Be merciful." Then she retired early.

In the morning she found three bottles in her suitcase instead of two—and a note attached to the third which said: "From the tight guy across the aisle."

Two senators are suffering from an affliction known as phlebitis, a vein inflammation. It is painful, bothersome and rather uncommon. The victims are La Follette of Wisconsin and Howell of Nebraska. La Follette's case is more chronic, dating back nearly three years. Howell has had his since the campaign.

Howell contracted his when he slipped while descending a platform. The doctors at the Navy Hospital kept him on his back for nearly six months, to avoid any dangerous effects. He is now able to be back at his office, but has to be very careful of his leg.

La Follette's leg swells every time he uses it and he has to wear a heavy rubber bandage. The trouble has severely hindered him almost ever since he came to Congress, requiring almost constant treatment. A couple of hot campaigns have

Cubs and Giants May Battle Like in Older Days

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Another duel between the Cubs and the Giants is in the making. Heroic shadows of the baseball past, like Chance and Matty, urge the battle lines of 1929 on to combat like that which marked National league campaigns from 1903 through 1913. That period saw the rise and fall of the peerless leader, but the Little Napoleon remained in the fight to witness the renewal of rivalry with Chicago.

John J. McGraw again is at the top of the standing of the clubs, but the Bruins are not far behind and the champion Cardinals threaten to make it a three-ring party. The Giants climbed to the top of the heap by executing a smart about-face against the Phillies at the Polo Grounds yesterday as the Braves bogged down from their first week upset and permitted the Robins to take a second decision in Flatbush by 5 to 3.

The Cubs deployed along the Pittsburgh front. The powerful bat of Rogers Hornsby was spiked by the spitter of Burleigh Grimes, and without its aid the Bruins lacked the power to win. The Pirates hammered Charley Root unfeeling through the early rounds, and finally snatched the winning run from Berlyn Horne in the thirteenth, to triumph by 5 to 4.

Joseph V. McCarthy led his team under a four-run deficit in the third, to even terms in the eighth, but the march to victory was just a stride too long. The defeat plunged the Cubs into a tie with the Cardinals for third place, but left both only half a game behind the Giants. Rain forced the Cards to postpone their home opening against Cincinnati.

The Yankees rocked the American league front with a blast which shattered Charlie Ruffing and the Red Sox by 9 to 3. The barrage consisted of 16 hits, of which Babe Ruth's portion was just a single.

The Athletics were just as effective with their 11 shots at Fred Marberry and Lloyd Brown, who succumbed with the Senators at Shibe park by 9 to 4. The Athletic attack was capped by a home run from the bat of Jimmy Fox with one mate aboard in the fourth.

Activity in the western half of the Barnard loop was confined to Detroit, where 30,000 fans at the home opening of the Tigers saw Harry Rice save the Bengals by a spectacular sliding catch in the ninth. Two Cleveland runners were on base as Rice sprawled headforemost near second to clutch Luke Sewell's tantalizer. Detroit won by 7 to 6.

Rain forced the postponement of the Brown-White Sox game.

Horton Smith Is Not in Foursomes of Ryder Play

MOORTOWN, Eng., April 25. (AP)—Four foursomes tomorrow start competition for the Ryder cup, emblematic of international team supremacy in golf. There will be eight singles Saturday.

Absence of Horton Smith from the American defenders in foursome play caused surprise but Captain Hagen offered no explanation. It is taken for granted that Smith and Al Watrous, the other player left out of the foursomes, will play in the singles.

Charles Whitcombe and Archie Compston will carry the British hopes against Johnny Farrell and Joe Turnesa, partners in the last international matches at Worcester. Aubrey Boomer and George Duncan oppose Leo Diegel and Al Espinosa. Abe Mitchell and Fred Robson, who have played many matches together, try conclusions with Gene Sarazen and Ed Dudley, a newcomer on the team. Ernest Whitcombe and Henry Cotton have for their opponents John Golden and Walter Hagen, who played together at Worcester.

The foursomes will be at 36 holes, as will be the singles. Each match counts one point. If a match is halved each side is credited with one-half of one point. The Americans won the last international contest at Worcester, Mass., in June, 1927, 9 1-2 to 2 1-2. In the foursomes, the United States players won three and lost one and in the singles won six, lost one and halved one.

Ty Cobb Declares He Has Not Quit

ATLANTA, April 25. (AP)—Ty Cobb seems determined to go through with his promise to hang up his spikes.

Outside the baseball fold for the first time in more than 20 years, the great Georgian is showing no signs of yielding to the urge of the game he graded so long.

Here today on other business, Cobb said:

"I've had enough of it. If I ever come back it will be as an owner. I will never sign again as a player and I have no desire to manage another club. I had several offers to play this season and one opportunity to manage a club in the National league. But not for me. I'm through."

By VERNÉ WICKHAM No place other than within a few feet of the cup would be a satisfactory spot for this goat-getter to jot down his score.

He is not content unless he can prop his putter against his hip as he figures out his score, as well as the scores of other players in his party. And he must stand on the green. Of course, other players are behind him, waiting to make their approach shot—but what does he care?

Walk off the green before you mark your card!

This type golfer is one of the most disagreeable to be found on the golf courses today. It indicates him as a duf who knows no better or an exceedingly thoughtless player.

It must be remembered that the foursomes behind you possibly have waited several minutes for you and your associates to putt out. If you stand there on the green and whip out a score card, fish through several pockets for a pencil, and then count over all your shots, you are stealing their time and spoiling their pleasure.

Wait until you get to the next tee before you mark up the card. You can remember your score that long. At least, if you can't step away from the green and allow the ones behind you to play up.

Alan Gould Picks Nation's Most Brilliant Athletes, Many of Whom Will Meet in Penn and Drake Events

By ALAN J. GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, April 25. (AP)—Here are the agile young men to keep an eye on during the college track and field whirl, especially during the next few days of competition at Drake and Pennsylvania:

Sprinters—Claude Bracey of Rice Institute, who has done the "100" in 9.4 this spring, and George Simpson of Ohio State, clocked on one day in 9.5 for the "100" and 20.6 for the "200"; not to overlook Jack Elder, the Notre Dame flash; or Charley Borah, Southern California veteran.

Pole vaulters—Fred Sturdy of Yale, who knows what it feels like to have scaled 14 feet; Victor Pickard of Pittsburgh; Henry Canby of Iowa and Tommy Warrne of Northwestern; also Jack Williams of Southern California and Ward Edmonds of Stanford, all doing 13-6 or better on occasion.

Weight men—Harlow Rotherth of Stanford, now more consistent in the shot-put; Eric Krenz, who is specializing in record stunts with the discus, and Dan Beattie of the Colorado Aggies, a good man with either heavy implement.

Middle-distance runners—Virgil Gist of Chicago and Phil Edwards of New York university, two brilliant half milers, who may have a chance to match strides at the Penn relay.

Hurdlers—Steve Anderson of Washington and Ross, Nichols of Stanford, Pacific coast rivals over the high sticks; John Collier of Brown, eastern ace, all of whom have regularly beaten 15 seconds for the 120-yard timber chase.

Simpson's recent performances in tying Paddock's mark for the "100" and also equalling the world's record for the furlong on the same day belongs among the star sprint feats of all time.

Twenty-Eight Men Cling to Marathon

MAPLEWOOD, Mo., April 25. (AP)—Twenty-eight pairs of bronzed, lean legs resumed their jaunt through Missouri this morning as C. C. Pyle's bunion derby left Maplewood, Mo., for Sullivan, Mo., the 26th control point, 60 miles distant.

Waco and Houston Holding Fast Pace in Texas League

(By the Associated Press.) The terrific pace set by Waco and Houston already has burned out one perfectly good pilot, Bill Alexander of San Antonio, and the two clubs display no signs of checking their dizzy pace in the Texas league scramble.

Alexander, who had been out of baseball for 15 years, apparently was just a little dazed by the present speed of the Texas circuit. Also, he was unfortunate in playing most of his first eight games against Houston and Waco.

Under Pat Newman, fiery-tempered Irishman of the old school, the Indians can be counted upon to develop a fighting disposition, even though there be slight chance of their getting "in" from the cellar region. Newman is one of the few players credited with having come out first in a fistie argument with John J. McGraw. It happened at Houston, the story goes, many years ago.

Cheves pitched the Waco Cubs to their eighth victory in nine starts when he nosed out Beaumont, 2 to 1, after a great battle with Walter Newman. Homers by Sankuinet and Vigare gave the Cubs their winning runs.

Houston supplanted Dallas in second place by trimming San Antonio, 6 to 1, while the Steers were losing a maudlin affair to Fort Worth, 20 to 13. Floyd Rose, a rookie from Topeka in the Western association, held the Indians to four hits, which was three more than Jim Lindsey allowed the tribe on the previous afternoon.

The Wichita Falls Spudders squared things with Shreveport by trimming the Sports, 13 to 9, in a free-hitting game at Wichita. Stapleton, new Spud first sacker, eluded two homers.

Today's schedule: Dallas at Fort Worth, Waco at Beaumont, San Antonio at Houston, and Shreveport at Wichita Falls.

Manipulation of German Banking Charged in France

PARIS, April 25. (AP)—Severe French criticism of Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichbank, for his failure to take steps to prevent depletion of the bank's gold reserve led today, it was learned in responsible financial circles, to a raise of from 1-2 to 7-1-2 per cent in its discount rate.

The French newspapers, voicing views of responsible financiers, instigated and openly charged he was seeking to make the German economic situation appear unstable as justification for his plea for lower reparations.

This, it was said, he was able to do by refraining so long from a raise in the discount rate which would have tended to check withdrawal of gold and foreign currency from the bank.

This withdrawal recently had taken such proportions as even to threaten stability of the mark, and under the transfer clause—make possible postponement of the Dawes plan reparations annuities.

It was understood Dr. Schacht would go to Berlin next week to attend a board meeting of the Reichbank.

There were suggestions here after the meeting of the reparations transfer committee yesterday that S. Parker Gilbert, agent general for reparations, would ask the Reichbank to raise its rate to check the drain of its gold reserve, said to have reached within $25,000,000 of its legal minimum.

This depletion threatened to bring into operation the Dawes plan transfer clause which could postpone indefinitely a part of all of the reparations annuities.

Chicago Dentist Is Shot to Death

CHICAGO, April 25. (AP)—Dr. Frank L. Brady, dentist, had two callers last night who weren't on his appointment book. One of them shot him dead.

Dr. Brady, 32 years old, had extracted a tooth for a woman when two men pushed open the door. One carried a revolver, and cried: "We've got you now."

The dentist cried "Don't!" and reached out to grab the gun muzzle. The gunman fired, and Dr. Brady fell. The two men ran out of the building.

With the killing of Dr. Brady several sinister circumstances came to light. It was revealed that the dentist was the son of Mrs. Anna Beauchamp, who killed herself during the murder trial of Herman J. (Midget) Fernandez; and that Dr. Brady himself had been under investigation for a long time in connection with the search for large sums the Midget stole.
