LAREDO, April 20. (P)—Two Laredo police officers were indicted today for the murder of Harry Williams, 24, newspaper reporter who disappeared from here on the night of Jan. 19, 1928, and was taken from the Rio Grande a corpse about a month later.

The indictments contained three counts, charging that Williams was choked to death, that he was beaten over the head and that his body was thrown in the river.

He did say, however, that neither man running nor robbery had any place in the state's hypothesis. A watch and other valuables were found in the reporter's clothing when his body was found.

Editors Declare Pampa Course Is One of Toughest

R. W. Turner of Wichita, Kas., was the winner of an electric table lamp donated by the Southwestern Public Service Company for second low medal score.

CHILDRESS GIRL IS MADE "SONG BIRD" OF PRESS ASSOCIATION

The charming personality and unusual ability of Miss Mary Helen Hardin of Childress won for her the title of "song bird" of the Panhandle Press association at its meeting here.

Miss Hardin, attractive 17-year-old school girl was acclaimed by the editors at Childress and invited to attend the Pampa convention. She was brought here by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Story of Childress.

The sprightly songs of the youthful singer were always in demand, and those directed in fun at bachelors of the association created much amusement.

PASTOR OUSTED FROM CHURCH IN CENTRAL TEXAS

CAMERON, April 20. (P)—The Rev. H. G. Kennedy, Cameron pastor, charged with heretical teachings, was notified officially today by the Central Texas Presbytery that he had been ousted from the local church and disqualified from holding any other pastorate in the district.

The Rev. Kenney received a letter announcing that he had been expelled and that an unnamed member of the Presbytery would fill the pulpit of his church tomorrow.

At the Sunday service, a statement "covering the Cameron matter" will be read before the congregation. It became known that after the meeting of the Presbytery governing board Thursday in Clifton, Kenney was asked to sign a certain prepared statement provided he had no mental reservations in the signing.

Kenney refused to sign, declaring he had mental reservations. He will be allowed to file his exceptions and appeal the judgment to the synod, although his Cameron friends stated an appeal was unlikely.

The charges have brought about a split in the church, one estimate being that most of the membership was on the preacher's side.

A number of leading members planned a meeting tonight to outline a course of action to aid the preacher.

Service Station at LeFors Is Robbed

A masked robber, described as being apparently about 15 years of age and somewhat amateurish in the business, robbed the Service filling station of LeFors of $150 Thursday night, forcing Mrs. William Hill, wife of the owner, to deliver the money from the cash register at the point of a gun.

The service station is at the extreme north edge of LeFors on the highway. Mrs. Hill was alone when the burglar entered, her husband having gone to town to a school board meeting. She described the robber to a News representative as being very youthful in appearance and seemingly about as much frightened as she, herself was. She did not resist, she said, for fear that he through sheer nervousness would fire the gun.

HOMER STEEN OF FLOYDADA RAISED TO PRESIDENCY AT END OF PRESS CONVENTION

Choice for Vice-Presidency Close and President Breaks Tie Favoring Pampa Managing Editor

NUNN-WARREN BANQUET MOST COLORFUL EVENT OF SESSION

City Is Praised for Entertainment Given for All Visitors—Many Groups Among Contributors

At the end of the Nunn-Warren Publishing company's complimentary souvenir luncheon yesterday—easily the most colorful occasion of the two-day session—the Panhandle Press association brought its annual convention to a close with the selection of Memphis for the next meeting place.

Homer Steen, publisher of the Floydada Hesperian, was raised to the presidency from vice-president. Olin E. Hinkle, editor of the Pampa Daily News, was chosen vice-president, and Lyman Robbins of the Memphis Democrat was made secretary.

Choice of the 1930 convention city came after a spirited contest. Amarillo, favored toward the beginning of the meeting, was overcome by the enthusiasm of the representatives of the smaller cities.

Amarillo's invitation was extended by T. E. Johnson of the Globe-News. J. Claude Wells and Lyman Robbins of Memphis, expounded on the merits of their city. Plainview was represented by E. Q. Perry of the Evening Herald and Maury Hopkins of the chamber of commerce. Harry Koch, the Quannah publisher, almost landed the meeting for his city. H. E. Castleberry, editor of the Borger Herald, made an oration on the wonder oil city in seeking the 1931 session.

The vote for vice president was a tie for Fred Story of Childress and Olin E. Hinkle of Pampa, which President Wells broke by voting for the local man.

Selection of Archer Fullingim of Panhandle as poet for next year grew out of the reading by J. D. Merriman of Panhandle of a poem by Fullingim. The poem will be printed in this paper soon.

J. Lindsey Nunn was given enthusiastic approval of his suggestion to give another banquet next year.

John Casey, professor of journalism at Oklahoma University, one of the leading convention speakers, extended on behalf of the National Editorial association an invitation for Panhandle newspaper publishers to attend that body's July meeting at Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Saturday morning's program included discussion of newspaper accounting by T. A. Landers of McLean and Harry Koch of Quannah, of treatment of crime news by Olin E. Hinkle of Pampa and E. A. Carlock of Paducah, of development of want ad columns by C. H. Walker of Dalhart, and of a "question box" conducted by Seth B. Holman of Hereford. In addition to the main speech by Prof. Casey Friday afternoon, Lyman Robbins of Memphis discussed development of display advertising, and a round table discussion of the same subject was led by Bob Brashears of Borger.

Visiting newspaper men declared they received much benefit from the discussions. They also asserted that the high standard set by Childress in entertainment last year was well matched in Pampa, and this fact probably was instrumental in helping Memphis, another small city, to obtain the next meeting.

The convention was presided over

One hundred and twenty persons were seated at the Nunn-Warren luncheon which was prepared at the Methodist church basement by the Friendship class yesterday. The editors and guests were greeted as they filed into the dining room by music from the instruments of the Golden Gate orchestra, directed by Clayton Hunt, former Pampa man.

J. Lindsey Nunn, president of the Nunn-Warren company, presided as toastmaster. He called upon many for short talks and introduced others. These included Fred Story of Childress, Miss Ida M. Farrell of San Jacinto, L. E. Haskett of Childress, J. D. Merriman of Panhandle, Horace Russell of Amarillo, and Harry Koch of Quannah, and of Pampa folk, David M. Warren, Philip R. Pond, Olin E. Hinkle, Mrs. J. D. Sugg, E. E. Finley, J. M. Dodson, Paul Shepherd, George Briggs, Clifford Braly, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith.

Col. Erasmus Tack (Gene Howe), editor of the Amarillo Globe-News, also was introduced. He opened his talk by praising Mr. Nunn, who he said is destined to become one of the leading publishers of the country.

Tack then turned to the Lindbergh and Mary Garden episodes and for 10 minutes defended his stand on these issues. He asserted that Lindbergh, through his studied discourtesies to welcoming committees, newspapermen, public officials, and camera men, is making himself very unpopular. He declared that such a national idol, admirable in every other particular, should be warned of the consequence of his attitude.

He reiterated his stand that the Chicago opera firm did not give a representative performance at Amarillo. He said, agreements as to local arrangements were broken. He called the street dancing scene of the performance a joke, and said that the stars "saved their voices." However, he disclaimed

"It's Like This"

REGARDLESS OF WHETHER this session of Congress does anything in particular for the farmer, President Hoover will be welcomed to the postponed session of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at El Paso...

The official invitation is now on the way to Governor Phillips of Arizona. It already has the signatures of Governor Dillon of New Mexico and Governor Dan Moody of Texas...

"We the governors of New Mexico, Arizona, and Texas and other citizens of our states, respectfully request that you consider our invitation to attend the eleventh annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce...

"We know that your duties make it impossible at this time for you to accept any definite date. Those in charge have decided to hold this convention and celebration after the adjournment of the special session of Congress...

"These two meetings, together with our attendance, would serve to stimulate greatly the progress and development of this vast virgin territory, and would be enthusiastically acclaimed by the people of the Southwest."

"The Gadsden Purchase is one of the real accomplishments of the government that has not been given the recognition that we feel it deserves."

"The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is the largest regional commercial organization in the nation and has been a vital factor in the development and upbuilding of the section it serves."

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—Senator J. Bombom McWhorter says the reason Mr. Hoover gave up the presidential yacht Mayflower was because he was afraid of being shot by the Coast Guard.

"Nevertheless, we have got to guard against too much simplicity in the White House," the senator said in a lengthy address to a visiting group of his constituents.

"Ever since the founding of this great and glorious country it has been the custom of fathers and mothers to tell their sons that they might some day become president of the United States."

"If we don't look out this time-honored system, which has worked so well for us, will no longer be good for anything."

"A lot of kids began to sniff at the presidency when they heard there wasn't going to be any Mayflower any more."

"The Mayflower did more to keep them interested in the presidency than any single thing connected with the White House."

"Then there were the White House horses. Why can't your kid and my kid, when they get to be president, have any horses?"

"I hate ever to suggest the vice presidency to one of them when they know that the vice president can't sit near his own sister at a dinner party unless he makes an awful lot of fuss about it."

"What really ought to be done is to have a law passed that no kid who is going to be president can have any horses or a yacht or a motor car or a private airplane."

TWINKLES

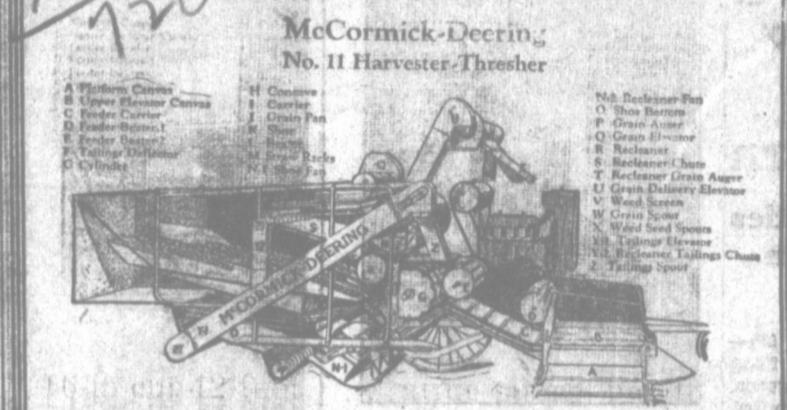

If you have any doubt as to what subject a group of men are discussing these days, just assume it is baseball and let it go at that.

Have you any votes? is a popular question around here. And many persons have who do not have poll tax receipts.

Well, since congress is in session and people can unload criticism there, the open season on governors ought to close pretty soon.

Those buried cities they are "discovering" near the Canadian river never had any chambers of commerce or some of their buildings would have been too tall to cover up.

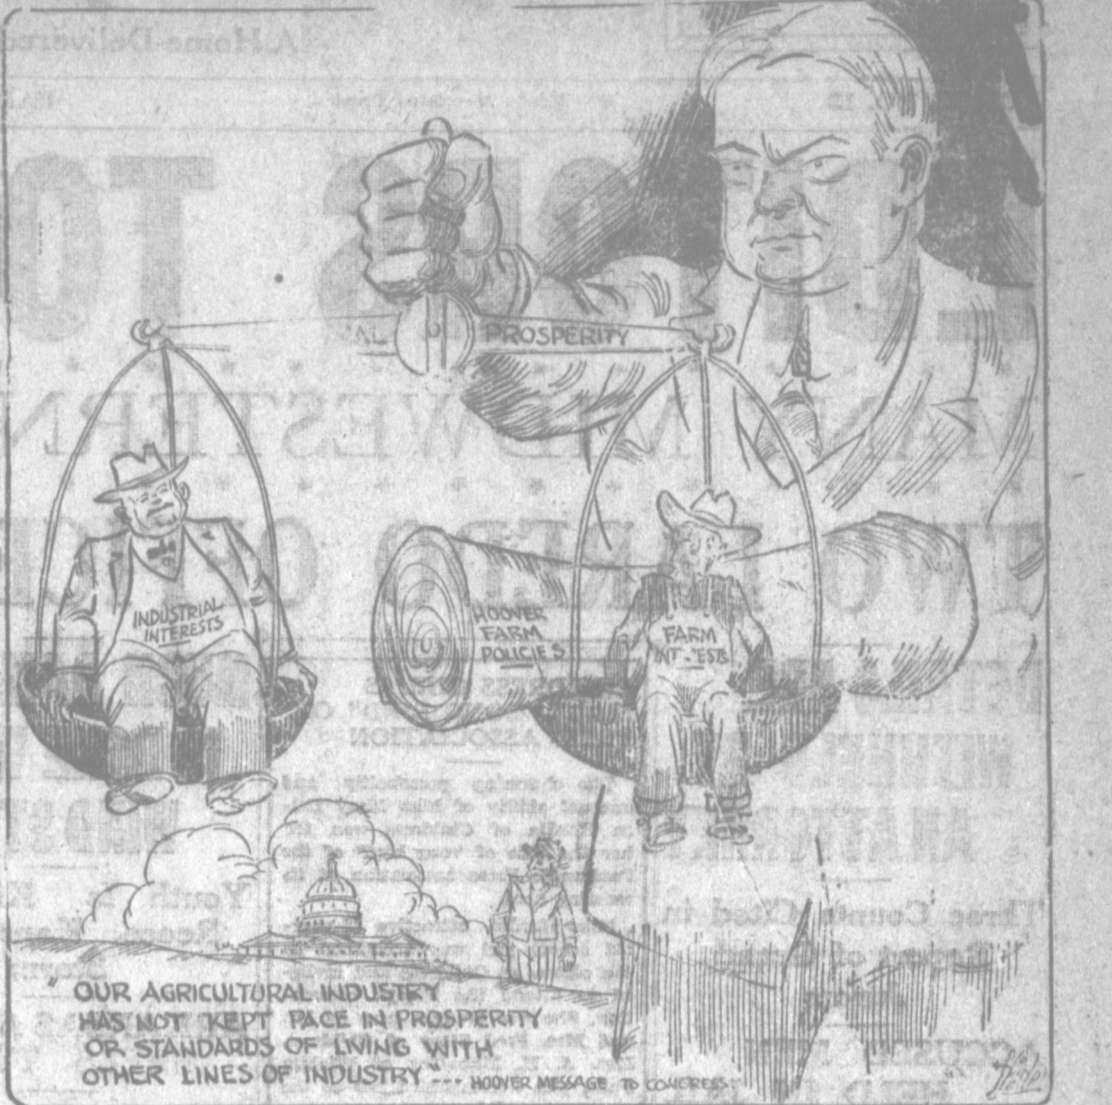

We will now see what back-seat driving will do to Babe Ruth's outfield drives.

The first baseball game of the season will be played at Magnolia park this afternoon at 2:45, when the fast Cabot team will meet the snappy Shell aggregation. Both E. B. Following the Cabot-Shell encounter the Gulf and Magnolia teams will have a practice game. Both teams have just been organized and have yet to select material for the coming season. Anyone wishing to try out on either nine is urged to be present and report to the managers before the teams take the field.

Was Just Like Throwing His Money Away

"ORGATONE HAS DONE MORE FOR MY WIFE THAN ALL OTHER TREATMENTS SHE TOOK," SAYS AMARILLO MAN.

"Orgatone has certainly done fine work for my wife and I am glad to recommend it to others who may be suffering like she did," said H. L. Hefley, a valued employee of the Smelter, who lives at 116 McMaster's street, Amarillo, Texas, a few days ago.

"My wife is strong, hearty and full of energy now," continued Mr. Hefley, "and is feeling a hundred per cent better than she was the day she began taking Orgatone. She had suffered from sick headaches for fifteen years and had become almost a nervous wreck. Her stomach was so out of order that everything she ate hurt her. After eating, especially she would have dizzy spells and gas and it would take an effort for her to breathe at times. It was really like one hard at work. She had fearful headaches, couldn't get any sound sleep on account of her kidneys and was tired and lapped all the time, and fell off in strength rapidly.

"I paid out hundreds of dollars, for treatment and medicine of various kinds and it was just like throwing my money away, as for the good it did her. It's the truth, four bottles of Orgatone have done her more good than everything else put together. Her headaches have stopped and this fact alone is proof of the fine work Orgatone has done in correcting her system in good shape. But that isn't all; she has a splendid appetite, eats anything she wants and is like a different woman altogether. Her nervousness and headaches have disappeared as well as her kidney disorder and she sleeps like a healthy child every night. The gas has stopped forming on her stomach and she's never bothered with dizzy spells or shortness of breath now. She is stronger and better off in every way, right now, than she's been in the past fifteen years and I'm obliged to say a good word for Orgatone."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific bile treatment and is sold in Pampa, exclusively by the City Drug Store, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. (adv.)

Board of City Development Is Host Friday Evening to Press Association

Dual chairmanship was a success Friday evening when the Board of City Development was host to the Pampa Press Association. President F. D. Kelm of the Board and President H. Deakin Wells of the association introduced the speakers and entertainers alternately.

Charles C. Cook made the welcome address and was joined in his remarks by Mr. Keim.

Mr. Wells called upon various visitors for short talks. Among those who responded were Sam Braswell of Clarendon, J. Claude Wells of Memphis, Harry Koch of Quanah, Prof. John H. Casey of Oklahoma University and Arthur LeFevre of Houston. Also introduced were David M. Warren and T. D. Hobart of Pampa.

Young Howard Zimmerman delighted the more than one hundred persons who had gathered at the New Schneider hotel dining room with his soprano solos and yodeling numbers. Miss Ruth Abramson of the high school faculty gave clever readings.

Miss Mary Helen Hardin, song bird officially "adopted" by the convention had accompanied the Childress delegation and she drew much applause with her singing. Mrs. A. H. Mahaffey of Wichita Falls was her accompanist.

A miniature edition of the Berger Herald was distributed under the title of "Booger Herald". It contained many humorous references to editors present, and contained make-believe ads of the same nature.

POLICE INFORMATION IN KIDNAPING CASE KILLED

JOLIET, Ill., April 19. (AP)—Another important, though sub rosa, figure in the Ranieri kidnaping case of last December has been assassinated, police said because he "talked too much." Joseph Perconti, 37, slain by short gun killers shortly before last midnight, is the man generally believed to have given police information of which they found the kidnapers of 10-year-old Billy Ranieri. He was one of those arrested with the kidnapers, and when the case against him later was dismissed, the understanding was it was in consideration of information which resulted in conviction of two men for the abduction.

Missionary Will Speak Tomorrow at Local Church

W. N. Short, missionary (on furlough) from Kabanga Mission, Kalamo, North Rhodesia, South Africa, will speak at 8 o'clock Monday evening at the Church of Christ.

Mr. Short will tell us about the people and many interesting things one may learn who comes in contact with the people as a missionary must do. We will all be interested and will want to know these things.

J. D. Merritt, a brother on myself, in company with Ray Lawyer, established the Kabanga Mission some three years ago. Mr. Lawyer died as a result of an accident and Mr. Short took his place in this mission. Mr. Short was the first of our missionaries in North Rhodesia who established the Sinda Mission where Geo. M. Scott is laboring.

A. B. Reese has gone to labor with the Scotts and W. L. Brown is by this time in the work with J. D. Merritt at the Kabanga Mission. Brother John Sheriff and family of the Huyuy Mission, Macheke, South Rhodesia, South Africa, were in the state here that listening to a missionary was an opportunity not to be missed by any one who can get interested in listening to the interesting things that can be said about people of other nations. —C. RICH GIRL POOR GIRL by RUTH DEWEY GROVES

THIS HAS HAPPENED MILDRED LAWRENCE, stenographer at the Hudson Hotel, has her fox fur attached from her in a crowd, but STEPHEN ARMITAGE catches the thief and returns the scarf. He asks to take her home. Not wishing to seem ungrateful, she invites him to dinner. Their evening is spoiled when PAMELA JUDSON, daughter of Mildred's employer, phones her to return to duty. Stephen escorts her to the hotel where Pamela recognizes him as the salesman who had sold her a car. She snubs Mildred and tries to lure Stephen away by pretending she wants to buy another car. Then Pamela meets HUCK CONNOR, who becomes infatuated with her, and she assumes herself by playing with both men. When Stephen favors Mildred the manager asks her to be careful or Pamela will have her discharged. But this may not be so easy as her brother, HAROLD, is in love with Mildred. He is rather a weakling, and Mildred warns him against gambling with Huck's crowd and permits him to call at her home in order to keep him from them. While he was there Stephen phoned. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XII STEPHEN had experienced a definite reaction in regard to Mildred. Rather tolerantly regretful at first of what appeared to be the end of their blossoming friendship, he found after a night of sleeping on it that he did not want to let her go. Of course it wasn't serious, the way he felt about her. No more serious than was his feeling for Pamela. Mildred wasn't so amusing as Pamela, either. He didn't quite know why he was attracted to her. She was just a nice girl, while Pamela... well, Pamela kept a fellow guessing. And then, when Mildred had evaded him, he grew determined to see her. She couldn't put him off, either, although she told him she didn't feel like seeing anyone that night. Stephen was insistent. "Oh, all right," Mildred gave in. "If you want to." She thought her indifference might cause him to change his mind. She hoped he would stay away. At least she told herself she did, but her eyes already had grown brighter and the weariness that had lain like a film over her sensitive features was gone when she returned to the living room. In its place was a look of transport that brought a scowl to Harold's visage. "Who was that? Jack Gilbert?" he said sarcastically. Mildred went over to see if she could get more volume out of the radio. "No one in particular, jealous," she said lightly, but the overtones of her voice were joyous in spite of her effort to keep it level. "In that case I suppose you won't leave that devilish invention in the next five minutes and rush off to change your dress while I sit here and twiddle my thumbs," Harold mocked. MILDRED turned with well-feigned surprise. "Why, how did you guess I'm just roasting to death in this jersey?" she asked innocently. "I'm good at guessing," Harold told her. "But I don't have to guess now. You ought to learn to play poker, Mildred. Your face is as open as a deck of marked cards." Mildred walked over to a window and opened it. "But it IS hot," she maintained naively. Harold came over beside her. "I'd give half my life if you would put on an expression like that for me," he burst out passionately.

Editors Grateful for Entertainment Given Them Here

Gratitude for entertainment Pampa furnished the Panhandle Press association was expressed in the resolutions unanimously adopted just before adjournment.

The resolutions follow:
Now comes your resolutions committee, which having considered what might appropriately be incorporated in the records for this year, begs to submit the following:

Whereas, there is a need in this state for a law clarifying the existing statutes governing legal advertising, therefore

Be it resolved, that we request Gov. Dan Moody to submit this issue to the called session of the legislature in order that a measure similar to the one which recently failed of passage may be considered.

And whereas, the educational and eleemosynary institutions of the State of Texas, by reason of the great and increasing demands made upon them, are much in need of additional facilities; and

Whereas, the West Texas State Teachers college of Canyon and the Texas Technological college of Lubbock are doing a fine work for this section and are capable of doing even more if granted the necessary equipment and buildings; now

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Panhandle Press association request the finance committee of the state legislature and the legislators themselves to make every effort to meet the needs of the above named institutions.

And whereas, the press within the confines of this association has been rendering distinguished public service, but the general journalistic profession of this state has been criticized as having no concerted editorial action in demanding the reforms and legislation deemed necessary and expedient; therefore

Be it resolved, that we encourage editorial expression upon public questions, to the end that those projects deemed most worthy may never lack efficient support and those which are unworthy may never succeed for lack of general opposition, and that especially the Panhandle newspapers continue to lend generous support to and express wholesome appreciation for the work of our legislators in effectively seeking to protect the land titles and other interests of our people, old and new.

Furthermore, be it resolved, that we express our regret that that esteemed pioneer publisher, Dr. J. E. Nunn, is unable by reason of illness to be with us, and that we extend our hearty greetings and felicitations and hope for his speedy recovery; and

Whereas, we have been delightfully entertained by the City of Pampa in this convention, therefore

Be it resolved, that we express our gratitude for the magnificent hospitality; and our thanks to the Board of City Development, city officials, Pampa Country club, the ladies who served the tea, the Lions and Rotary clubs, the Methodist church, the newspapers, the Nunn-Warren Publishing company, and the general citizenship of this thriving community, and finally.

Be it resolved, that we thank Prof. John H. Casey of the Journalism faculty of the University of Oklahoma for the excellent addresses he has brought the convention, and Mr. Arthur LeFevre of Houston, editor of the Texaco Star, for his fine talks and kindly interest; and that we note with appreciation the favors of the King Feature service, NEA service, and other trade organizations for their contributions to the souvenir luncheon.

Respectfully submitted:

originality in his criticisms, and said that he was merely expressing the opinions of most Amarillo people. That there was any deliberate attempt to damage reputations of Miss Garden or the opera company for publicity purposes was denied. He devoted considerable time to a discussion of the many assets of the Panhandle region.

Tack was made the butt of a joke when members of the Globe-News presented, in his name, a large bottle of Mary Garden perfume to each lady present.

Mr. Nunn presented Mr. Warren as the executive head of the publishing company, and told of the latter's helping to plan the luncheon.

Butterfield Sings
Ralph Butterfield, local tenor, sang three solos which greatly pleased the publishers. He was accompanied by Mrs. Tom W. Brabham.

The Golden Gate orchestra was the hit of the earlier part of the period. In addition to many orchestral numbers, Clayton Hunt presented individual members in solo numbers. The orchestra, which is here for a short time, played last night at the Pla-Mor auditorium.

It was a "souvenir" luncheon, and each guest was given a large sack full of useful articles and favors relating to the newspaper business. These ranged from toy balloons to "sell-outs," and from rubers to bottles of perfume and face lotions. Dealers of many cities contributed to the souvenir bags. Among these were the following: Barnhart Bros. & Spindler, Dallas; Capper Engraving company, Wichita, Kans.; Southwestern Engraving company, Fort Worth; Kansas City Paper House, Kansas City; Whitney Paper company, Dallas; Wyldewood Laboratories, Oklahoma City; Harper Standard Engraving company, Dallas; Fort Worth Engraving company; Wichita Chamber of Commerce; Morris and company, Oklahoma City; Federal Steam Specialties company, Oklahoma City; NEA Service, Inc., Cleveland; A. Zeese Engraving company, Dallas; Western Newspaper Union, Wichita,

Kans.; The Mentholatum company, Wichita, Kans.; Loose-Wiles company, Kansas City; King Features Service, New York City; Russell & Cokrell, Amarillo; Amarillo Globe-News; Star-Telegram, Fort Worth.

The King Features Service furnished the place cards, on which Jiggs was shown sitting before a table and saying "Bring on the works."

CHURCHES

The man who believes his beliefs and doubts his doubts is a stronger thinker than the man who doubts his beliefs and believes his doubts.—Dr. John Timothy Stone.

First Christian Church
In behalf of the membership of this congregation a cordial invitation is extended to all without a church home to attend the services today.
The church school opens at 9:45 o'clock with departments for every member of the family. The morning service is at 10:45 and the evening service at 8 o'clock. Three young peoples' meetings are conducted in the assembly rooms on the third floor at 7 o'clock.

The minister will be in the pulpit at both services today. The evangelistic meeting begins next Sunday with the Smith-Hanna evangelistic party of Enid, Okla. Large attendance and increasing interest indicate that the services are worthwhile. Come and bring a friend with you this morning and tonight. A hearty welcome awaits you.
JAMES TODD, JR., Minister.

Presbyterian Church
Jesus the Saviour as revealed in the book of Mark will provide the theme for the Sunday morning sermon at the Presbyterian church. The question "Will Man Rob God?" will be presented at the evening service.

Today's Services
Sunday school: 10 a. m.
Devotional message: 11 a. m.
Christian Endeavor: 7 p. m.
Song service and sermon: 8 p. m.
Sunday evening, April 28, the Christian Endeavor from Amarillo will give a special program.
The doors are open to you.
A. A. HYDE, Minister.

Church of Christ
W. N. Short, who has for a number of years been laboring in South Africa, will speak Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Church of Christ. His lecture will be of interest to every one and a large audience is expected. He will show pictures of the natives, native costumes and of the missionaries and the missions.
Brother R. B. McDougle, minister of the Church of Christ in McLean, is to speak at both services today. Mr. Mc-

Dougle is a new man in our part of the country. He is just recently from Ada, Okla., where he spent three years or more in a great work with the church there. He is spoken of as a splendid preacher and we are hoping for a house full to hear him.
Brother C. C. Merritt will speak in McLean for the church where Brother McDougle labors.

BAPTIST CHURCH
Sunday school at the new building 9:45 o'clock, with classification of all departments.

Sermon at 11 o'clock on the subject, "The greatest Things in the World."
B. Y. P. Us. at 6:45 p. m.
Sermon at 8 o'clock on the subject, "Why Jesus Came."
The choir will furnish special music at both services and the orchestra will play both morning and evening.
D. H. TRUHITE, Pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH
Our Sunday school continues to grow. If you are interested in the word of God, join with us in Bible study each Sunday morning at 9:45. We have a class for every age. "Come Thou with us and we will do the good." J. O. Gilham is superintendent.
The pastor, Rev. Tom W. Brabham, will speak at both morning and evening hours.
Morning theme: "Prayers Sure Answer."
Evening theme: "The Christian Soldier."

Is there power in prayer? Who should pray? Can prayer change things? Why does not God hear all prayers? These are some of the questions that will be answered. Every Christian in the community should hear the morning discussion.

Rev. and Mrs. Tom W. Brabham will bring a special message in song at the morning hour.
All ex-service men of the city have a special invitation to attend the evening service. The message will be centered around the true soldier of the world war.

A male quartet will sing at the evening hour. The orchestra under the direction of Thomas Fannell will render some special selections.
Mrs. F. L. Elliott will be at the organ.
In the name of Christ, who is our Saviour, we bid you welcome to all our services.

They got behind the wheel, got the facts, and bought BUICKS!

SPRING SHOWING

NEW BUICKS

at our Showrooms all this week

"We have never before experienced so much joy in driving any automobile. This is our second Buick and we are more than pleased with its outstanding performance and beauty."
Mr. and Mrs. C. I. P., Decatur, Ill. (name upon request)

What warmer praise—what more worthwhile endorsement could any motor car receive... what stronger expression of confidence, than this enthusiastic statement, so typical of the tribute Buick is winning from owners everywhere!

From one end of the country to the other, tens of thousands of men and women have accepted Buick's invitation to get behind the wheel and get the facts about Buick power, acceleration, swiftness and flexibility. And after the most searching test, they have entered orders for more than twice as many Buicks as any other automobile priced above $1200!

Do as these motorists have done! Make an actual driving test! Compare Buick with other cars in traffic, on hills, on the highway. Then you'll know why Buick owners are so outspoken in their praise. Then you, too, will be satisfied only with a Buick!
