DIVORCES ARE FEW — BLAME DEPRESSION

CHICAGO, March 12. (AP)—Divorce court attaches are singing the "hard time blues."

Chicago's population has been increasing right along but the divorce business has been dull.

During the past five months there has been a steady downward trend, it was disclosed by M. B. Szymczak, clerk of the superior court, and Thomas O. Wallace, clerk of the circuit court.

In the five months ending Feb. 28 the number of suits filed in the two courts was 4,487, or six per cent less than the 4,767 for the same period a year ago.

"Apparently," said Szymczak, "husbands would rather keep their wives and wives their husbands than spend money at this time on getting parted."

MARKET HELD TO BE AMPLE

Tom Dowell Expects East Texas to Prorate Soon and End its Threat.

As long as there is oil in Gray county and the Panhandle there will be a market for it if production is not restricted by proration, was a belief expressed by Tom Dowell, manager of the Operators Royalty & Producers company, this morning.

Mr. Dowell discredited newspaper reports which suggested that because of the proximity of East Texas oil to reports and because of the great quantity of oil in that area, Panhandle central and north Texas markets would be abandoned by operators.

Mr. Dowell said that most other operators in this field feel that East Texas will be prorated as quickly as possible.

The Langview-Kilgore-Tyler area is said to be the largest potential field in the world, and that if it is developed as soon as possible the price of oil would soon be on a par with that of the Gulf coast.

Mr. Dowell is of the opinion that the East Texas pool will in no way menace Panhandle oil if curtailment measures are undertaken soon.

Girl's Death May Have Resulted From Blow Of Rival

WALPARRAISO, Ind., March 12. (AP)—A story that Ariens Draving, 18, died from wounds resulting from being struck over the head with a milk bottle in the hands of a jealous girl friend and not from bruises inflicted by the convicted Virgil Kirkland, engaged the attention of his counsel today.

Franking their plea for a new trial, he presented to Judge Grant Crumbraker Monday, defense attorney Barrat O'Hara said he was seeking the witness who was responsible for this new bit of evidence.

Kirkland, who is to be sentenced to life imprisonment Monday following his conviction Tuesday night for the death of the girl at the drinking party at the Gary home of David Thompson, was scheduled to be taken to the state prison at Michigan City soon after the pronouncement.

OIL COMPACT SEEN AS DIRE NEED IN 1931

WASHINGTON, March 12. (AP)—Secretary Wilbur today announced that all of the oil companies that "have been approached in negotiations to limit imports have said they were willing to cooperate."

The negotiations, conducted by Secretary Lamont under instructions from President Hoover, included the Gulf Oil company, Standard Oil company of New Jersey, Standard Oil company of Indiana, and others.

Wilbur refused to give the terms of the negotiations or the amount suggested for reducing imports. He explained the companies were being asked to act as much as possible and said it would require some time for each company to determine how much it could do.

WASHINGTON, March 12. (AP)—An interstate compact controlling oil production is regarded by the federal conservation board and the few possible means of limiting the industry out of its present writer of over-production.

Secretary Lamont, a board member, is negotiating an agreement for a limitation of imports, an emergency expedient not calculated to solve all the ills.

The board has found three practically undeveloped fields, each one probably capable of producing 3,000,000 barrels daily. The amount now causing the industry to suffer from production, chills and fever.

One of these, Kettleman Hills, in California, is working under a unit operation agreement which removes it as a threat of further over-production in the Oklahoma City and the East Texas fields.

Jailed Reporter Talks And Obtains Freedom

Assistant to District Attorney Is Said to Have Mentioned Alleged Kidnaping Affair.

DALLAS, March 12. (AP)—Eddie Barr, reporter for the Dallas Dispatch, jailed yesterday for contempt today told Judge Grover Adams that Norman Register, an assistant in the office of District Attorney William McCraw, first told him of the kidnaping of Lewis Hurl and C. J. Corder, communist organizers, last Thursday.

McCraw is conducting the grand jury investigation and it was his question which resulted in the reporter's sentence for contempt of court.

Judge Adams ordered Barr's release from jail and remission of a $100 fine. The reporter was then taken before the grand jury.

Register denied giving Barr the information. McCraw instructed him to appear before the grand jury. Register told newspapermen that he leaves a building to the Ku Klux Klan but declined to say if he is a member.

Barr's original story attributed the kidnapping and kidnapping of Hurl and Clifton to the KKK.

TWO LONGVIEW RAIDS NET 22 ARRESTS BY RANGERS

Gamblers in Hotels Caught by State Officers in Sudden Raid Last Night.

LONGVIEW, March 12. (AP)—Twenty-two men, arrested by Texas rangers and Gregg county deputies last night in sudden raids on the two principal hotels here, faced hearings in justice court here today on charges of gambling.

Ranger Capt. Albert Mace of Falltown, Sgt. Jerome B. Wheatley and Ranger B. M. Gault stepped off a train from Dallas at 5:15 p. m. At 7 p. m. Captain Mace, Gault and a deputy sheriff arrested 15 men in a room on the second floor of the Palace hotel. At the same time, Sergeant Wheatley and Gregg county deputy arrested seven men at the Gregg hotel and charged them with gambling.

One of the seven was charged with carrying a pistol. Each of the men arrested paid $15.00 bond and the men charged with carrying a pistol, $100 bond.

The sudden visit of the rangers followed by a week the "cleanup" campaign by rangers in nearby towns of the east Texas oil field. At that time, four rangers visited Longview and gave the city a "clean bill of health."

Captain Mace said he received orders from Maj. Gen. Bill Sterling to make the raid last night. Soon after the men arrested had been released under bonds, the three rangers again boarded a train to return to Austin.

PANHANDLE ASKS PAMPA LEADERSHIP

Pampa has reached a new position in the Panhandle, and one that she must recognize and fulfill. This position is one of prominence and responsibility.

When a city gets as big as Pampa is, it begins to profit by reason of its size. And it becomes a matter of concern when its territory can be made to develop. In other words, what helps surrounding counties is going to help Pampa.

The responsibility, then, is not only to seek the betterment of this immediate vicinity, but of this adjacent territory. Failure to recognize this responsibility, or opportunity, will put Pampa in the same unhappy position that Amarillo assumed and is having such a hard time living down.

The smaller places rightly expect Pampa to help them and to give them assistance in projects for betterment of this territory. The Panhandle of Texas, Inc., is a body formed of Panhandle county representatives to work for the good all in general and this section in particular. Its officers are scattered over the Panhandle. Sam Braswell of Clarendon is president.

Pampa has never joined heartily into the work organization, but now is a good time to do so. The other counties expect it. They want not only Pampa funds, but Pampa leadership. They want the second-sized city of the Panhandle to be associated in the common enterprise.

MAKE PANTS TO WEAR HOME AS ROBBERS CALL

CHICAGO, March 12. (AP)—Two Chicago tailors were kept working overtime last night in spite of the fact business was extremely dull.
 It sounds paradoxical but it's true nevertheless. This is how it happened:
 Two men walked into the tailor shop of Louis Hirsch, drew pistols, herded Edward W. Pence, the manager, and his assistant, Peter Zimmerman, into a rear room, took their money and their trousers and walked away.
 It was late and Pence and Zimmerman wanted to go home, but couldn't because there were no ready-made pants available in the shop.
 Then they solved the problem by sitting down and making two pairs, finishing up around midnight.

PANHANDLE ASKS PAMPA LEADERSHIP

Pampa has reached a new position in the Panhandle, and one that she must recognize and fulfill. This position is one of prominence and responsibility.

When a city gets as big as Pampa is, it begins to profit by reason of its size. And it becomes a matter of concern when its territory can be made to develop. In other words, what helps surrounding counties is going to help Pampa.

The responsibility, then, is not only to seek the betterment of this immediate vicinity, but of this adjacent territory. Failure to recognize this responsibility, or opportunity, will put Pampa in the same unhappy position that Amarillo assumed and is having such a hard time living down.

The smaller places rightly expect Pampa to help them and to give them assistance in projects for betterment of this territory. The Panhandle of Texas, Inc., is a body formed of Panhandle county representatives to work for the good all in general and this section in particular. Its officers are scattered over the Panhandle. Sam Braswell of Clarendon is president.

Pampa has never joined heartily into the work organization, but now is a good time to do so. The other counties expect it. They want not only Pampa funds, but Pampa leadership. They want the second-sized city of the Panhandle to be associated in the common enterprise.

McCabe's condition was so critical officers were unable to question him. No charge was filed against Lansdale. Officers said he was held for questioning after they were told by the hotel clerk and those occupying nearby rooms that McCabe was intoxicated and had been creating a disturbance just before the shooting.

THE CRIME IN THE DUTCH GARDEN

SYNOPSIS: That Dr. Netherton or Marjorie Blake killed the girl's aunt, Annabelle Querding, is the conviction of the police superintendent, Richmond. Also he blames them for the disappearance of the spinster's will, disinheriting Marjorie in the event of marriage. Jimmie Haswell, amateur detective, points out, however, that the case collapses if either is in love with someone else and also that Miss Querding's prohibition of marriage applies equally to the other niece, Evelyn Blake, engaged to Lionel Duckworth. Vincent Blake, an estranged nephew, who has been nearby on the fatal night, is also suspected. As Jimmie weighs the significance of telephoning between Marjorie and Netherton, Audrey Winter tells him confidentially that she is engaged to Netherton, whose love for Marjorie she denies.

Chapter 10
A BROKEN ENGAGEMENT
The news did not come altogether as a surprise. Jimmie had noticed that when the coroner was pressing the young doctor as to his feelings for the murdered woman's niece, Audrey, by slight involuntary signs had displayed more than ordinary interest. Netherton did love—he was engaged to marry—Audrey, not Marjorie. Therefore he gazed nothing by the death of Annabelle Querding.

Jimmie congratulated Audrey, who explained their reason for keeping their engagement secret was that they did not wish Mrs. Netherton to feel that she was adding to Bill's financial burden by living with him and thereby delaying his marriage. "It will take longer to pay the debt, and that is the big thing we are working and hoping for."

Jimmie did not immediately reply. The girl's quiet words carried conviction that she loved Bill Netherton and that she knew Bill loved her. "I am glad to know," he said. "I will do all I can to help you. Had Marjorie, to your knowledge, an attachment?"

Audrey hesitated. "I do not think so. She has always been popular and has had many friends. If Bill was an old sweetheart, that was also true of other boys around here."

"I understand. Could you not find out from Bill if there was any particular reason for his meeting Marjorie as he did? It is for his own sake. Both Bill and Marjorie seem to be holding something back, but if it could be shown that Bill loved you, it would clear things considerably."

Jimmie could see, however, that for the doctor suddenly to announce his engagement to another girl might suggest that he saw his danger and took the step to save himself. There was silence for a few moments, broken finally when Audrey asked Jimmie if he did not think Green, the chauffeur, guilty. Jimmie asked her reasons.

Whoever drove it was not far away when the crime was committed and left soon after. To determine the driver was important. When Jimmie saw Richmond he found him depressed and rankling under press criticism of his efforts. The story told by Vincent Blake had been verified as far as possible. That he could have committed the crime was admitted, but this was true of Gresham or Green. The superintendent, still believing Netherton and Marjorie guilty, explained that they were on their guard and no longer met.

Jimmie did not tell him of Bill's engagement to Audrey Winter. It was their secret and they must divulge it when they saw fit. Meanwhile the delay affected matrimonial plans. Evelyn told Jimmie that she and Duckworth would not wed until all the troubles were over. The singer, she said, had canceled his engagements in the nearby theater so as to avoid criticism and to be near her. Jimmie, talking with Audrey, learned that she had suggested to Bill that their engagement be announced and that they be married at once.

"He said—" her hesitancy veiled deep feeling. "Well, he was Bill. He said he would drag me into trouble and put the engagement off until things cleared."

"Perhaps he is right," Jimmie consoled. "As he sees it, it would be cowardly to proclaim it now." She had asked Bill about his Hunter's neck was broken.

"It was shown that Green could have done it," she said. "James Haynes, of whom he is fond, told one of our maids of his threats to get even."

Jimmie told her that this was not evidence and might not have weight. The important thing to be cleared up, he added, was the car that All Collett saw going down the links and that Green saw empty against the garden fence.

"A Morris two-seater?"
"Yes—like Captain Stirling's. Stirling says it is not his and he was on the way to Midgley Moor at the time. Apparently he called to see some cousins, but, according to Superintendent Richmond, the time at which he got there does not preclude the possibility of it having been the car that Green and Collett saw. What do you know about Stirling?"

Audrey was silent for a time. "I can't see Dickie Stirling doing a shabby thing like that. He's quite poor but very proud. Following the war, in which he was wounded and distinguished himself, he was swindled out of his small holdings and settled here in what he calls his shack, after refusing a clerk's job, which he said some one might need more than he did."

"Did you point out that the broken engagement left him free to marry Marjorie?" Jimmie's question struck her like a blow.
"No, Mr. Haswell. Is that your idea of love?"
"Forgive me," he said and when will you try to find out who owned that empty car?"
"I will try to."

GREAT HINDU WRESTLER ARRIVES FOR CONTEST TONIGHT

SINGH WILL BE MENACING AS OPPONENT

Foreign Grappler is Clever and Dangerous; Clingman Never in Better Condition in Career.

The white-turbaned, leather-hooped young giant walking about the streets of Pampa today was Basanta Singh, great Hindu wrestler who will meet Otis Clingman tonight at the Majestic auditorium.

Singh holds several wrestling titles among the foreign wrestling legion and is ranked among the best.

Clingman today was feeling like a 165-170 pounder and expecting to be at his best for the event. Although Singh is rated at least as good as the local man, Clingman was feeling confident. Recent victories on a long road trip helped his morale. His opponent will weigh about 160 pounds.

In the semi-final tonight Barber Kelly will meet Tommy Thomas of LeFors. A battle of words will be transferred to the mat. Andy Gump and Clarence Gee will provide the opener starting at 8:30 o'clock.

COTTON OPENS WEAK

NEW ORLEANS, March 12. (AP)—Cotton had an active though easier opening today. It opened 1/16 lower than expected owing to weakness in Egyptian cotton. First trades here showed losses of 10 to 11 points which was not a full response to the decline in Liverpool. The market soon rallied 2 to 3 points owing to good trade buying at the decline. May trading at 10.75 and October at 11.25. Toward the end of the time hour the market was steady and near the highs.

GRAINS STRONGER

CHICAGO, March 12. (AP)—Responsive to forecasts of smaller Argentine wheat shipments, grain prices averaged higher early today. An opposite influence, however, was larger Russian clearances.

FARRELL AND SARAZEN ARE STILL IN TIE

The man who bought a major league ball club because of his great personal admiration for Christy Mathewson and in order to make "Big Six" its chief executive has remained among the magnates because "it's a great game and there's a fine chance to help the other fellow along."

Emil E. Fuchs was a successful lawyer in New York, a former magistrate, when he seized an opportunity to gain control of the Boston Braves about eight years ago and install the great Mathewson as president.

Two years later, during the world's series of 1925, Mathewson died and Fuchs felt that the bottom had dropped out of the game for him. Persuaded to stick, he has built up the Braves from a chronic tail-ender and money-loser into a colorful, up-and-coming club that cleared around $120,000 last season.

All of this profit and around $100,000 more has been put back into the business, in the form of purchased minor league stars, for 1931. Fuchs has never alleged a player's salary, never had a serious holdout during his career as a club-owner, although he has had many a high-priced as well as temperamental star on his pay-roll in the past few years.

He showed his faith in Bill McKechnie as a manager by signing him to a four-year contract last year and giving him an absolutely free hand in the development of the Braves. The colorful uniforms of the Tribe, featuring a big Indian's head, were adopted at the suggestion of S. L. Rothafel, the "Roxy" of radio fame and a close friend of Fuchs.

The idea of making baseball a cooperative concern, with the players as share-holders, has been tried by Fuchs but without success. He has found the players more interested in seeing definite figures on the line than in taking a chance on a cut of the profits, if any.

"It may never work," the judge admitted, "but at least I accomplished something by taking the players into my confidence and showing them what the business meant. I have always found them reasonable, afterward, when it came to discussing terms."

"Many of my players, rely on me to fill in their contract figures, after each season, without question. They know they will be treated fairly."

Fuchs was a trifle disturbed this winter when he learned Wes Schulmerich, the hard-hitting Los Angeles outfielder, for whom he paid $40,000, contemplated some professional wrestling as a side-line. The club owner wired his athlete to reject, but Schulmerich replied in detail:

"You don't need to worry there's no chance of my getting hurt in this game."

Reds May Trade With Brooklyn

TAMPA, Fla., March 12. (AP)—Briske talk of a trade between the Cincinnati Reds and Brooklyn Robins had sprung up in the Red camp here today but Manager Dan Howley was silent on details.

It was intimated Manager Wilbert Robinson had offered the Reds Ray Moss, pitcher, for either Larry Benton or Ray Kelp, both hurlers, with the argument that Moss could beat the Robins every time and thus assure the Reds a few victories. Howley, however, is after an infielder and an outfielder.

Bob Seeds Looms As Strong Player

NEW ORLEANS, March 12. (AP)—Bob Seeds has demonstrated himself amply in the running for the scramble to patrol the Cleveland Indians' left field this summer.

He pounded out a triple that emptied the bases and slashed a single in two trips to the plate yesterday. Joe Vosmik, the leading candidate, did almost as well with a triple in two chances. The Tribe has scored 45 runs in its three games with New Orleans.

Catcher Now Only White Sox Holdout

SAN ANTONIO, March 12. (AP)—The White Sox today had only one holdout on their list and his absence was causing Manager Donie Bush no worry.

Bush yesterday became certain of having his full strength ready for the opening of the annual series with the New York Giants when Carl Reynolds came to terms with the club. Mooney catcher, is the only one now out of the fold. Reynolds has been training with the University of Texas squad at Austin and is in shape for duty.

Eight Teams In Basketball Meet

KANSAS CITY, March 12. (AP)—Eight teams remaining in the national A. A. U. basketball tournament rested today in preparation for the quarter-final tussles tonight.

The last pair of games on the program pit the two remaining college quintets against the outstanding contenders for the title now held by the Henrys of Wichita, Kan. Bethany college of Lindsborg, Kan., winner of the Kansas conference crown the last two seasons, meets the Henrys while the East Central Teachers of Ada, Okla., tangle with the Los Angeles Athletic club.

In the other bracket, the Big Four team of Cincinnati, O., meets another west coast threat in the Young Men's Institute, San Francisco, and the Kansas City Athletic club faces the Lowe & Campbell five of St. Louis in an all-Missouri contest.

Moran And Disch Are Bitter Rivals

SAN ANTONIO, March 12. (AP)—Uncle Charley Moran, who umpires exhibition games for the New York Giants, is glad the Giants were able to pile up so big a score against the University of Texas that he could not be blamed for the defeat.

Moran and Billy Disch, Texas coach, have been bitter rivals ever since they each managed Texas league teams. Moran also coached football at one of the university's leading rivals, Texas aggies.

fore us or in preparation." The commission, technically, ceases to exist after July 1.

Discussing reactions to the commission report, Wickertman said comments of "the dry press and of dry organizations" had been friendly.

"They seem," he continued, "to have taken to heart the criticisms of the methods adopted by prohibition advocates in the past, and to have realized from the description of existing conditions the need of ridding their forces and reconsidering their plans in the light of facts set forth."

"In the past (the commission) has been much less than it should be. The extreme intolerance of the prohibitionists, their peculiar characteristics of late appear to have been appreciated by their opponents. Apparently a large body of prohibitionists expected the commission to find a way for them to secure liquor with ease and were enraged when we failed to do so."

SMALL BOYS DETAINED

Two small boys were being detained at the police station and officers were searching for two others, in connection with the theft of radio fixtures and supplies from the Oden Music Shoppe warehouse recently. Note of the stolen property had been recovered.

Mr. Tom Picklesimer was dismissed as a patient from Pampa hospital this morning.

GASOLINE DROPS CENT

Local filling stations today were following the lead of Gulf Production company in lowering the price of gasoline one cent per gallon. The cut was made yesterday by Gulf, Texaco, Magnolia, Conoco, Phillips, and others immediately followed suit.

According to the new prices, white gasoline is selling for 16 cents and red or ethyl at 15 cents per gallon.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 12. (AP)—

The Braves had one big selling head today—the aftermath of yesterday's rout. Freddy Maguire, who hit Lou Gehrig while attempting to complete a double play during yesterday's game, was slated to do a little resting. Manager McKechnie said that Freddy looked tired and evidently hadn't fully recovered from his humpage attack.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., and Bartlesville Okla., Seeking Baseball Franchise

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., March 12. (AP)—Selection of a sixth club to comprise the Western Baseball association for the 1931 season, controlled by officials and owners at an organization meeting here today.

The somewhat unsettled status of the circuit was clarified yesterday when Joplin became assured of representation, thus leaving Coffeyville, Kan., and Bartlesville, Okla., as the outstanding contenders for the other club in the loop. Dale Gear, president, who called today's meeting, said both Coffeyville and Bartlesville were seeking franchises. Four other cities definitely in the league are Independence, Kan., Springfield, Mo., Fort Smith, Ark., and Muskogee, Okla.

Youthful Umpire Will Work Today

PENSACOLA, Fla., March 12. (AP)—Francis Raymond Connolly, son of Tommy, dead of American league umpire, has arrived in the Red Sox camp to umpire today's exhibition game with the Spring Hill college nine from Mobile, Ala.

Young Connolly started umpiring while he was still a student at Little Rock college. He has officiated at school games, shop league games of the Missouri Pacific, and in a professional way with the Piedmont league.

REVAMPED CINCINNATI REDS HOPE TO ESCAPE CELLAR BY REBUILDING ENTIRE OUTFIT

Rapid-Fire Infield and Better Out-Garden Trio Will Give More Defensive But Pave Lackings.

TAMPA, Fla., March 12. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds may be all dressed up and nowhere to go so far as the National league's pennant race this year is concerned, but Col. Daniel Philip Howley has hopes that his shake-up will show some surprising results.

These hopes are not without foundation. The manager of the Reds has landed a prospective star in First Baseman Mickey Heath to round out a rapid-fire infield. He has made over the outfield completely in the quest for more punch.

His pitching prospects, with an outstanding star in Red Lucas, look good. He has an ace catcher in Clyde Sukeforth, also a hard hitter.

"Frankly, I don't know where we will wind up in this race," said Howley. "You can't find a tougher set of clubs than our league has. That goes all the way down the list. Maybe we'll be lucky to stay out of last place."

"But this club is going to go places and do things with a lot of good young ball players. We'll hustle whether we are able to show the punch or not."

The Reds, having decided to rebuild while the others wage a battle royal, will present more new faces than any other club in the league.

Howley broke up the best double play combination in the majors when he let Hughes Crite go to the Giants and benched Horace Ford but he has put together another brilliant defensive pair in Tony Cincinello, at second base, and Leo Durocher at short. They pulled five double plays yesterday for a fashionable audience, including Commissioner Landis and President Heydler of the National league.

Cuschello also is the most consistent long hitter on the club. He was going at close to a 400 clip toward the end of 1930 and has been assigned to the cleanup position.

The infield will start with Heath, the Hollywood recruit, on first and Jarney Joe Stripp on third. Both can hit. The reserves are Ford, Sigalook and Dresden.

Harry Hellmann, the old American league batting champion, will be welcomed for outfield duty any time he recovers from an ailment of the right arm. So far, however, the signs have pointed to the end of Hellmann's great career.

Howley's number one outfield combination now is composed of Gene Moore, the Dallas rookie, in left, and...

ROBINSON HAS SALARY SCHEME

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 12. (AP)—Wilbert Robinson, Brooklyn manager, who has two important holdouts on his hands, Babe Herman and Dazzy Vance, has advanced a new plan for the prevention of such troubles. He favors the classification of baseball players with set salaries for each class.

"With men holding out for higher salaries each year," he says, "it's the only way out."

Phillies Ready To Meet Robins

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 12. (AP)—The first phase of the training season at an end, the Phillies were in only fair shape today to engage Brooklyn in the opening game of a long Florida series. Manager Shotton is far from satisfied with the condition of the squad, especially the pitchers, who complain of sore arms and chilly weather.

Jim Elliott, obtained from Brooklyn by the Phils, will be the starting pitcher, Shotton said.

Joe Sewell Not Through Career

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 12. (AP)—Joe Sewell, veteran third baseman who attached himself to the New York Yankees after being let out by Cleveland, is rapidly becoming a threat to the peace of mind of the other Yankee infielders.

In two exhibition games he has played so far, Sewell has had eight official times at bat and his hit safely five times in addition to fielding his position well.
