Candidates for District Attorney Engage in Heated Verbal Pleas

Of arguments, this column has made plenty. Reasons enough for voting for a Wellington gubernatorial candidate have been presented. The Pampan believes that he has only been stating the beliefs held by his readers. He confidently looks forward to reading on Saturday in the election returns for Gray county the story of our appreciation for our friend, our senator, our defender.

We therefore close the pre-convention campaign by presenting our own

CLINT C. SMALL

The Pampa Daily News will be receiving election returns through the Texas Election Bureau and the Associated Press every few minutes Saturday evening and up until 1 a. m. These will be megaphoned and the most important ones will be posted for public inspection. County and precinct returns will be rushed to the News as counting is finished, and these will be visible on the prepared bulletin-board. Additional returns will be received beginning at 2 p. m. Sunday and will be posted. Come to the News, on West Foster avenue, for fast and reliable election reports.

Tex hustler says the candidates have everybody, but especially those with poll tax receipts. Many of those who did not heed the warning to get the receipts before the deadline now are bemoaning their fiasco, but in vain.

Great is economics. We used to take the "blues" when crop prospects were poor, but today the farmer is being urged to pray for droughts that would decimate production and bring higher prices for "what's left."

We do not advise Panhandle lads to try chimney sitting. In the first place, we have few chimneys, and in the second there is always the danger of a "norther" which would necessitate a fire in the "sitting" room.

We deplore the attacks on parents of "endurers." On the theory that the parents suffer more than the sitters, we think the prizes ought to be divided evenly between the enduring lads and the suffering moms and pops.

The current political palaver is notable for lack of promises. The candidates have confined their remarks to tirades against "Boss Ross," and the elected one will have unusually few promises to break or keep. The state won't suffer much as a result, however.

"Vote intelligently," but vote. Intelligence, we understand is rare. Old Man Texas shows some terrible symptoms of mental stagnation at times, but maybe he is getting educated—he should be, considering how many schools and colleges he is supporting.

And speaking of "enduring," The Pampan has endured reading all of the political mush that comes in envelopes, just to know what the candidates were saying, and he is greatly in need of a vacation.

ALLRED AND DOUGLASS IN HOT DEBATE

Efficiency and Past Records Basis of Talks

JAMES O. CADE ALSO SPEAKS

Crowd Is Amused By Antics Of Rival Aspirants

Oratorical fervor typical of the "doubtful" states but rarely heard in this section was handed out to a small crowd last night when Curtis Douglass and Raymond Allred, candidates for district attorney, challenged each other's sobriety, integrity and efficiency.

Douglass shouted that his opponent had had to produce sworn affidavits to prove he was a lawyer; Allred charged that Douglass made a failure of his former term in the 84th district and was repudiated by the people when he was defeated by J. A. Holmes.

Douglass said that he had avoided personalities until he was attacked in advertisements; Allred said that he had not been able to travel fast enough over the district to refute the untruths told about him. Allred attacked the personal habits of his rival, while Douglass said that he had profited by his mistakes and that he would use his legal experience and ability to enforce the law.

Allred recalled that Douglass was asked by a Stinnett grand jury to tender his resignation; Douglass recalled Dan Moody's similar request and gloried in his having refused to accept the governor's dictation. Douglass said that he had the support of prominent local business men and every lawyer save one; Allred charged that Douglass was the candidate of special interests and that he was attorney for law violators.

Allred accepted Douglass' challenge to a debate, but later in the evening each announced that the debate had been called off. Douglass was breathless when he concluded his impassioned appeal, and Allred was feverishly rushing his presentation of argument when stopped by Judge Newton P. Willis, chairman of the rally, after the time limit had been exceeded 10 minutes. Both candidates received generous applause.

The American Legion band played a short concert before speaking began, and later played a request number. James O. Cade of Amarillo, candidate for congressional representative was the first to speak. He attacked the record of Marvin Jones, incumbent, by saying that he could do more in 14 months than Jones had done in 14 years. He said Jones was originally elected on a plea of keeping the office from remaining longer in the possession of a veteran office holder. Cade's platform includes removal of government protection of big business and strict immigration restriction.

Short talks by other candidates brought out many reasons, serious and comical, for their support. Many frankly admitted that they needed the salary attached to the office. All received sympathetic hearings, although the crowd melted away toward 11 o'clock.

Among those who were introduced were R. B. Thompson, Miss Louise Miller, Don L. Wakeman, Judge S. D. Stennis, C. E. Cary, Sherman White, Fred Cary, A. J. Erwin, C. E. Pipes, Lon L. Blansett, Walter Hardin, Mrs. J. D. Kinnison, A. H. Doucette, John B. Ayres, Lewis O. Cox, James Todd, Jr., Henry L. Jordan, El D. Willis, Tom (Tex) Buster, H. S. Shannon, and W. J. (Bill) Turpin.

Judge Willis closed the meeting with a short eulogy on Senator Clint C. Small.

Gray County Owes Debt to Small

(An Editorial)

Vote for Small.
Small can be placed in the second primary, and he can defeat the Fergusons—who appear to be ranked as one run-off principal—in the final battle. There are a number of other leading candidates who could not defeat Mrs. Ferguson, and it is in that hope that she is in the race today.

Small has made many friends in each place where he has spoken, and he has made a strenuous campaign. Moreover, he has a surprisingly strong state organization. His friends are out talking for him. Alarmed, his opponents are fabricating hard things to say about him. The hope of his opponents is that West Texas will be dumb enough to split her vote and leave the race a toss-up between half a dozen candidates.

But there are strong indications that West Texas are aroused. They have come to realize that they not only have an able representative in the governor's race, but the best man aspiring to the executive office. The memory of long ill-treatment at the hands of downstate politicians has not faded, despite the usual glowing remarks of candidates who "discover" West Texas just before each election and forget her by the time the next legislative meets.

Clint Small is a man with a record for enlightened leadership in his community, his judicial district, his West Texas Chamber of Commerce work, and his state. His work as senator has made him a power, and that influence is being used for the benefit of hard-pressed Texans who need it most.

Gray county, beneficiary of some of Clint Small's most brilliant and whole-souled statesmanship, will be watched tomorrow. Will her vaunted spirit of appreciation express itself in an overwhelming vote for her champion? Undoubtedly.

Vote for Small.

Political Noise Will End With Crescendo Today

By The Associated Press
Political pandemonium was at its height Friday in the most unprecedented campaign of the history for the governorship of Texas. The furor of oratory on the hustings presaged the hush which would succeed it Saturday at the polls.

Each candidate was lustily defending his own particular set of issues and a favorite object of attack for several of them was the proposed $350,000,000 state highway bond issue.

All of them excepting Jim Young of Kaufman were hovering near the home pastures. Young expected to make his final appeals this afternoon at Stamford and tonight at Eastland.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson chose Temple, the old hoochie left six years ago to move into the governor's mansion at Austin, as the locale for her eleventh hour campaign appeal. Her husband, Jim picked Cameron, not far away, to make his last speech for his wife's candidacy.

Houston supporters of Ross Sterling celebrated his homecoming address Wednesday night, so he strayed into neighboring East Texas for a speech tonight at Palestine, after addresses during the day at Lufkin and Nacogdoches.

Clint Small was in West Texas, speaking tonight at Wichita Falls and at Albany and Graham during the day.

The last stand of Thomas B. Love was set for tonight in Dallas, his home city, at a public rally. At the same hour, Lieutenant Gov. Barry Miller, his rival was due to speak over radio station WFAA, after an afternoon address at Ennis.

An engagement tonight at Meridian was last on the program of Earle B. Mayfield.

Sterling spoke yesterday at Liberty, Orange, and Beaumont and last night at Port Arthur, warning against "last minute campaign slanders."

Fox Has Had Much Experience In Survey Work

Warren T. Fox, is issuing a statement today concerning his candidacy for the office of county surveyor, pointed out that he had had thorough training, twelve years experience and more than four years residence in Gray county.

He has done much of the surveying for Coltex and Western Colorado companies and some for the Cabot company. He formerly was with the U. S. reclamation service in the North Platte project.

He stated that he was familiar with Gray county surveys and could fulfill the duties of the office efficiently.

"I need this office," said Mr. Fox, "and while I dislike to deprive my opponent of his new office in the courthouse, he could have one equally good in the new city hall by virtue of his office as city engineer."

Bowman Will Be Returned to Jail

Deputies Jeff Guthrie and Frank Jordan left last night for Imperial, Neb., to bring Johnnie Bowman, the champion jail-breaker artist of the Panhandle, back to Pampa. Extra-dition papers were received from the governor of Nebraska yesterday.

Bowman was arrested 10 days ago in the Nebraska town after he had telegraphed to friends for money under an assumed name.

When Bowman, who is under life sentence for murder in connection with the shooting of Bill Watkins, escaped from the Potter county jail he forfeited his right to appeal the case, and will be kept in the Gray county jail until he is accepted at the penitentiary. The state prison is overcrowded and prisoners must wait in county jails until inmates are released, making room for others. Bowman escaped last winter from the Potter county jail at Amarillo.

In the trial of Bowman's testimony was introduced intended to show that he had been insane at intervals since childhood, and that he was insane when the shooting occurred.

WILL GIVE MATINEE

The T. J. Tidwell show is giving a matinee Saturday from 1 to 5 p. m. at which time all children under the age of sixteen will be admitted for 5 cents. Admission will be to any show or riding device of the company. The Tidwell company is showing in Pampa under the auspices of the American Legion.

CAMPAIGNS IN FIRST PRIMARY END TONIGHT

About 750,000 Voters Will Take Part in Election

OLD ISSUES IN PRESENT DRIVE

Love's Strength Will Indicate Trend in Party

DALLAS, July 25. (AP)—Candidates for favor at the hands of voters in the Democratic and Republican parties today gathered under the loose ends of a long campaign and tomorrow some 750,000 Texans were to express a preference at the first primary.

The Democrats had an unprecedented number seeking the governorship, there being 11 candidates for the nomination, and the Republicans had five aspirants to the chief executive's chair.

Both parties were to nominate candidates for the United States senate and for places in the national house of representatives.

Heretofore, nomination in the Democratic party has been tantamount to election, but the Republican party in the general election of 1928 mustered enough strength from the Independent Democratic faction to carry Texas for President Herbert Hoover.

The presidential campaign was an issue in the Democratic gubernatorial campaign, with State Senator Thomas B. Love of Dallas, one of the leaders in the bolt to Hoover two years ago, basing his bid for the nomination of his opposition to former Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York.

Other Democratic candidates were Lieut. Gov. Barry Miller of Dallas, James Young of Kaufman, Miriam A. Ferguson of Austin, Earle B. Mayfield of Houston, C. C. Small of Wellington, C. C. Moody of Ft. Worth, R. S. Sterling of Houston and Paul Love of New Braunfels. United States Senator Morris Sheppard was opposed within his party by C. A. Mitchner of Sherman, little known in Texas politics and Robert L. Henry of Houston, former congressman.

Republican candidate for governor were George C. Butte of Austin, H. E. Exum of Amarillo, John P. Gaines of Wichita Falls and John P. Grant of Houston. Republican candidates for the United States senate were Doran John Heasley of Dallas, Harve H. Haines of Beaumont and C. O. Harris of San Angelo.

CARSON COUNTY FURNISHES GOOD EXAMPLE OF HIGHWAY BUILDING AND FINANCING

Three Precincts Comprising Pampa District No. 5 Much More Able To Pave Figures Show

Speaking of the cost of highways, A. A. Callaghan, county judge of Carson county, in a telephone message to George W. Briggs said that Carson county in 1926, with a valuation of $6,700,000, voted $1,000,000 for highways.

The county has built 71 1-2 miles of concrete roads and 14 1-2 miles of crushed rock asphalt roads, or a total of 86 miles of paved highway. In constructing the concrete roads it received two-thirds aid, and one-third aid in building the roads of crushed rock with an asphalt top.

The present valuation of that county is $14,500,000. The surplus in the road fund amounts to $187,000 and the road tax is 60 cents.

The three precincts of Gray county road district number five, have a valuation of about $24,000,000, according to George W. Briggs. This is more than three and one-half times as great as Carson county had when it voted bonds.

The probable tax rate for a $2,000,000 bond issue would be 70 cents at the start.

Counties that have voted bonds and will soon have pavement, include Wheeler, Hemphill, Roberts, Childress, Hansford, and Moore. Sherman, Oldham, and Hartley counties are working on plans for highways. Dallas will vote again on the proposition soon.

South Cuyler Polling Place Is Announced Today

The polling place for voting precinct No. 2 will be at 319 South Cuyler street. This is a vacant store building and is the only brick structure in the block. It is on the east side of the street next to the Owl Drug store No. 2. T. H. Lane will be presiding officer.

All voters in Pampa who live south of the railroad tracks will cast ballots at this box. This voting precinct also includes all of road precinct No. 2, South of the Santa Fe tracks except a strip two and one-third miles wide west of the Carson county line. It was pointed out by County Democratic Chairman Siler Faulkner that employees of the Coltex gasoline plant just west of Lefors will vote at this South Cuyler voting place. This precinct also includes the Phillips plants, carbon plants, Bowers field south of Pampa and west of Lefors.

Voters who live in precinct No. 9 which includes the area north of the tracks and east of Cuyler to the end of that street, then over one block east of the Miami road to the Roberts county line, should vote at the office of Lee Banks at the rear of the First National bank.

Voters who live in the area north of the tracks and west of Cuyler street and the Miami road to the northwest corner of section 145, block 3, thence south along the west section line to the intersection of the railroad with section 153, should vote at the courthouse, polling place for precinct No. 10.

Walter Jones will be presiding officer at the Laketon box, it was announced today.

Voters who are in doubt as to where they should vote may obtain that information from their poll tax receipt which gives the number of the precinct where the person should cast their ballots.

The voting precincts are as follows: No. 1, Lefors; No. 2, Pampa; 319 South Cuyler; No. 3, Knorr; No. 4, Alarend; No. 5, McLean; No. 6, Laketon; No. 7, Farrington; No. 8, Hopkins; No. 9, Pampa, Lee Banks office; No. 10, courthouse; No. 11, Kingsmill.

Robert McAlpine of Big Spring Is Killer

MATE REFUSED TO GO HOME

Tragedy Is Enacted at New Hobbs Last Night

HOBBS, N. M., July 25—(AP)—Robert H. McAlpine, Big Spring, Tex., business man, shot and killed himself last night after he had probably fatally wounded Miss Lorean Clark, telephone operator whom he mistook for his estranged wife.

McAlpine came to Hobbs yesterday from Big Spring to attempt to induce his wife to return home with him, police learned.

She refused to return to Big Spring. Last night he went to the Clark home where Mrs. McAlpine had been staying for two weeks. He went to the room which he believed was occupied by his wife and seeing a figure standing before a dresser, fired.

Miss Clark was shot through the body just below the ribs and her condition today was critical.

McAlpine went out of the back door of the Clark home, walked about fifty feet and shot himself through the head. He died in half an hour.

The McAlpines have two children, one five years old, and the other eight.

McAlpine was an electrical contractor in Big Spring.

The trophy is made of German silver. Engraved on the base is the explanation, "Globe-Newspaper, 1930," and Pampa Gulf Guns.

AN ILLOGICAL SYSTEM

One of those little oddities of our criminal law that arise to puzzle the average citizen so often has just popped to the surface at a murder trial in Ohio.

A young man was being tried for killing his wife. His defense, mainly, was insanity. His lawyers produced three very eminent and reputable psychiatrists, all of whom swore that the prisoner was a fearful nitwit.

Thereupon the state called three other psychiatrists, all quite as eminent and reputable as the first three. These three declared that the young man was quite normal mentally, fully accountable for his acts and perfectly capable of distinguishing between right and wrong.

Just how the jury felt about this conflicting testimony is not quite clear. Apparently they either disbelieved the defense alienists entirely, or decided to throw the whole expert-testimony business out the window and let their own common sense decide.

The whole business, however, emphasizes once more the utter lack of logic that rules our courts in this business of insanity and murder.

One would suppose that the logical, sensible thing to do would be to find out before bringing a man to trial whether he was mentally sound or unsound. It should not be hard to do this.

But we don't do that. Instead we haul in rival groups of doctors who give contradictory testimony and leave the jury, very probably, more befuddled than it would be without any experts at all.

Isn't it about time that we applied a little common sense to the whole process?—NEA.

Helen Jacobs Is In Poor Health

NEW YORK, July 25. (AP)—Ill health has forced Helen Jacobs, America's second ranking player, to quit tournament tennis for the rest of this season.

Weakened by a severe attack of pleurisy and quinsy, she has withdrawn from the Seabright lawn tennis and cricket club tournament and from the national championship and will return to her home in Berkeley, Calif., on Sunday.

Her withdrawal from the national championship clears the way for an even easier victory for Helen Willis Moody. Miss Jacobs long has been Mrs. Moody's leading American rival and on several occasions has given the champion a close fight at Forest Hills and Wimbledon.

HURLERS NOW ADD HOMERS WITH GUSTO

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
About the time Babe Ruth astounded the world of baseball by hitting 29 home runs in one season, a feat described in the next official baseball guide as "a regular mastodon of a record," it was something almost as amazing when a pitcher knocked the ball for the circuit. In the current era of long distance hitting, with the Babe traveling along far ahead of the pace that brought him the current record of 60 homers, it is so common for pitchers to hit home runs that even the moundsmen who do it hardly get a thrill.

So far this season, 15 pitchers have hit 20 of the National league's 543 homers while eight American league moundsmen have driven out nine homers of the circuit's 429. Ervin Brame of Pittsburgh has hit three four-baggers to lead this array while a few days ago Phil Collins of the Phillies connected for two in one game.

Ray Kolp of Cincinnati was the only hurler to turn the trick yesterday. His homer in the second inning of the first game between the Reds and Brooklyn Robins gave Cincinnati a 3-0 lead and with one later run was enough to win the contest, 4 to 3. Brooklyn came back and took the second game, 9 to 0, before rain stopped them in the sixth inning. This game produced one of the season's best exhibitions of stalling as the Reds tried to make the approaching storm wipe out Brooklyn's 2-0 lead and the Robins tried to prevent this. The needed 1-2 innings were completed just in time and as darkness began to fall the Robins fell on Benny Frey's pitching for seven more runs to keep themselves a half game ahead of Chicago.

The Cubs were unhampered by the weather at Philadelphia and after 2 1-3 hours of slugging came out ahead by a 19 to 15 score. Thirteen of Chicago's runs were scored in the first two innings.

The same storm that stopped Brooklyn's proceedings, gave the New York Giants a 1 to 0 triumph over Pittsburgh. The Giants had a homer by Fred Lindstrom left from the first inning while the Pirates, after getting only one hit off Carl Hubbell in six frames, had the bases full in the seventh when the game was stopped.

Boston's Braves won the remaining National league game, beating St. Louis 5-4, and finally broke the sixth place tie with Cincinnati. The Braves went a half game ahead of the Reds and the same distance behind Pittsburgh.

Jimmy Foxx, Philadelphia's long distance star, also clouted a homer and although it was only his 27th, it meant more at the time than did Ruth's. Foxx's circuit blow was made in the ninth inning with the score tied and gave the Athletics an 8 to 6 triumph over the Cleveland Indians. It also put the A's five games ahead of the tottering

Washington Senators, who were the victims of an upsetting loss of the Chicago White Sox and lost a 10 to 4 decision. Ted Lyons scored his 15th victory for Chicago by pitching the entire game.

The Boston Red Sox threatened to make another change in the American league standing, coming with in a half game of St. Louis with an 8 to 5 victory over the Browns.

DANCING JUDITH

BY CORALIE STANTON and HEATH HOSKEN
COPYRIGHT 1930 BY CHELSEA HOUSE.

JUDITH GRANT, beautiful artist's model, shares her Greenwich Village apartment with CHUMMY MORLEY, beautiful girl whose mind has been a blank ever since ADAM STEYNE, her lover, disappeared seven years ago. Steyne returns and she fails to recognize him. Meanwhile, he and Judith fall in love, and he tells Judith that he never loved Chummy and never knew Chummy's lover. Then, abruptly, Chummy's memory returns feeling obligated because of her years of suffering. Steyne asks her to marry him. Judith, meanwhile, has crossed the infatuation of BRUCE GIDEON, rich financier, who offers to star her in a musical show. She refuses, at first, but accepts when she feels that it will take her out of the way of Steyne and Chummy. She dances for GUARVENIUS, the famous teacher whom Gideon has selected as her instructor, and impresses him greatly with her latent talent.

CHAPTER XV
Briefly, Guarvenius told Judy that he would be delighted to train her. He spoke of money himself, and said that he would take no fee until she was ready and had made her debut. He said that she showed great promise, but of course she had everything to learn. She must be prepared to work very hard and to give up everything to the demands of her art.

She mentioned her livelihood as a model, and he answered that although he would have preferred her to do nothing, still it was as harmless an occupation as she could follow, provided she did not get overtired. It would help to preserve the plasticity of her body. He quite understood her position. He hoped she would take every opportunity of watching fine dancing.

At the end he told her, with a little chuckle, that she could not always expect such music as she had danced to today. Perhaps she did not know that the young man was Gregor Goesteivitch. Judy was deeply abashed as he pronounced the name of the greatest living pianist.

Altogether she was so overwrought that when all the arrangements had been made for her first lesson, her little face puckered up like a child's, and she burst into a tempest of tears. Guarvenius, familiar with the artistic temperament, let her cry.

The famous teacher and the young musician took their leave shortly afterward. Gideon insisted on studying drinking a cup of tea. "You are worn out," he said. "You don't know it, but you were simply immense. You will be a divine dancer!"

"I thought I was very bad," she faltered. "I was terribly frightened. I thought I had disgusted him."

"He never says much," Gideon replied. "He said all sorts of things to me. And, you see, he has taken you on. That is everything."

"They sat in another beautiful room, dark, like the others, and with three or four priceless old masters on the walls. The dominant color was a strong blue."

Judy drank three cups of tea, but she could eat nothing; and as soon as she had finished she rose to go.

Gideon accompanied her to the door. As he opened it, he was behind her. She felt him draw nearer, and the next moment he had taken her hand and was holding it to his lips.

"You little witch!" he murmured. She snatched her hand away as if his kiss had been a poisonous sting.

Gideon's pale eyes were ugly just for a second as he looked into Judy's red, furious face, and the thin, bad-tempered line of his mouth was vicious.

"How dare you?" she gasped. "I'll never speak to you again!"

She rubbed her hand violently where his lips had touched it. His face cleared, and he smiled at her in a humbly deprecatory way.

"It was only an act of homage," he said. "Do believe me. I was carried away by your art."

"Then I don't like it," she said. "Please understand that. I've seen a lot of life, and I know what men mean when they offer girls help. Well, I don't want any of your help. I've fixed it all up with Mr. What's-his-name."

"I know," said Gideon, more humbly still. "I beg your pardon. It was unwarrantable. I want you above all things to trust me."

"That's not the way to go about it then!"

"I know. And I shall never forgive myself if I lose your friendship. I will never offend again, I promise you." He was almost comic in his apologies. "After all, in France nobody would think anything of my kissing your hand."

"Well, we're not in France," Judy said curtly, "and I don't like your kissing my hand."

"I swear it shall never happen again!"

"I hope not. Anyway, I shan't see anything of you, because I'm going to be very busy. I'm off now."

She was slightly mollified. He really seemed alarmed at the consequences of his temerity. Moreover, it had all been wildly exciting. If Guarvenius or the young musician had kissed her hand, she wouldn't have minded a bit. It was the memory of Gideon's former glances. It was the certain knowledge that he "fancied her," as she put it.

But in her youthful pride Judy knew herself to be capable of holding her own with any man. A reckless sense of adventure was pervading her whole being, stealing upward to her head, like the fumes of strong wine. She saw a career before her.

Gideon came out into the hall with her. It had a fine staircase up the center, and was lighted by a glass dome from above. It was positively crowded with beautiful rare, precious things.

"One day," said Gideon in what she called his "trying-to-be-friend-and see my house on the Grand Canal in Venice."

The words arrested her attention. Venice was in Italy. She had an idea.

"I wish you'd believe that I am ashamed of myself," he went on before she could speak.

"Right-o!" she said, with a sudden flashing smile. "Will you do something to prove it?"

"Anything in the world," he replied.

She could have roared with laughter at the light that came into his eyes, because he thought she was going to ask something for herself. She knew men, did little Judy Grant!

She told him the story of Dan, the waiter at the Cafe Turc, and his mother's death.

"Will you give him the money to go over to Italy and fetch her back?" she asked. "I suppose it would be a flea bite to you."

"Much pleasanter," he retorted. He could be very frank and companionable when he chose. "I shall be delighted. I remember Dan, and his voice. Will you wait a minute while I go and fetch the money?"

She negatived the idea.

"I'll send Dan to you here. When can you see him? I'll have nothing to do with it; but I shall tell him"—again she gave him a half-mocking smile—"how kind and generous you are."

A SIMPLE STEP TOWARDS HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Is A Daily Essential And Millions Know Its Effectiveness in Relief of Constipation

Perhaps the one single thing you are not doing to guarantee permanent health is having sufficient roughage in your food. Absence of this roughage is the direct cause of constipation which results in so many other ills—headaches, listlessness, general depression, indigestion and, sometimes, serious disease.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is roughage. It is positively guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation or the purchase price will be refunded. Two tablespoons daily (in serious cases, with each meal) is the proper amount.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also helps you to health in other ways. It is rich in iron, practically all of which goes into the blood, bringing red, healthy color to the complexion. It helps prevent anemia. Be sure to include it in reducing diets.

Many eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with cream or milk added. It is a delicious addition to cereals, fruits and soups. In cooked foods, it is just as effective in the relief of constipation. Recommended by doctors. Ask your grocer for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

WACO CUBS GAIN LEADING ROLE AT LAST

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR. Associated Press Sports Writer

Derrill Pratt's collection of "misfits," the lowest-salaried group of athletes in the Texas league and about the "fightingest" crew in any league, were sitting on top of the world today. The curious conglomeration of graybeards and juveniles sporting the Waco silks might not belong at the head of the Texas league parade, but the fact remains that they are there.

Climaxing a drive that has seen them win seven games in their last 14 starts, the Cublets last night scrambled to the top by pounding out a 13 to 8 victory over the Wichita Falls Spudders to open their "crucial" series. Not only did the Frattmen make good their challenge to the first half champs, but they did it at the expense of the Spudders' ace flinger, Hal Wittee, driving the league's biggest winner to the showers under a first-inning onslaught. Eleven runs in the initial frame of Wittee and White gave the Cubs a lead the northcountrymen could never overtake.

Lefty Stein, who has yet to drop a decision under the arcs, fanned 11

Hendrik Willem Van Loon, author, was returning to Holland during the World War when the boat on which he was a passenger struck a mine and was blown up. He was seriously injured.

Spuds. Home runs sailed over the palms in profusion. Kloza smacked two for the Spudders, and Storti, Levey and Burns one apiece. Bisc chuff, Speer and Munson of the Cubs hit for the circuit. The night's most brilliant battle was witnessed by 7,000 San Antonio fans who turned out for the opening of the Indians' nocturnal plant. They witnessed 11 innings of sparkling baseball in which the Shreveport Sports finally nosed out the home gang, 2 to 1. Oscar Tuero limited the Tribe to five hits in chalking up his fourteenth win and blanked them after the first inning. Krause's single through the box run off Hobo Carson in the second scored Whelan with the winning extra inning.

The Dallas Steers moved into fifth place again by nudging out the Buffs, 7 to 6, in the rubber game of their series by the bayou. A three run Buff rally in the ninth felt short when Adkins relieved Tauscher and retired the side. While the Bisons fielded raggedly under the arcs, making four bobbles back of Brown and Kaufman, the Mavericks performed brilliantly, handling 43 chances without a break. Jim Moore led the winners' attack with a double and two singles.

Hugh Buchanan, a young right-hander receive from Buffalo in exchange for Jim Kelly, held Beaufort to five hits in his first start for the Panthers and gave the Kitties a 10 to 3 victory in their series final. Vaughn and Martin were battered for 19 hits, including a homer by Joe Bonowitz with two aboard. In all, the acting Cat manager batted in five runs.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hughey have as home guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. Normantee Saunders and five children, Waskom Station, La. John Saunders, Lee, Tex; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Saunders and children, Marshall; Mrs. John Crudgrington and small son, Amarillo.

Mrs. E. R. McDuffie and niece, Miss June Jones of Chickasha, Okla. returned yesterday from Oklahoma City Medicine Park and other points. Miss Jones will visit in New Mexico and Colorado after leaving Pampa.

The truth about the District Attorney Race

Here are answers to Curtis Douglass' last minute political schemes in which he tried to make the voters believe Raymond Allred was not qualified to be District Attorney:

1. Douglass, you say you are a lawyer and have proven it by experience; I say "yes, in turning a notorious bootlegger loose upon the community after he was caught with about 40 gallons of liquor." Yet you say I convicted Wade Duncan in Wheeler County for "fishing with the wrong kind of a hook." If this was such a small case, and you such a GREAT LAWYER why was he not acquitted? If you are such a good lawyer why didn't you get your bootlegging client, ART MATHIS, acquitted in Wheeler county while I was County Attorney? He is now in the penitentiary.

2. I did not say I was connected with the District Attorney's office of Gray County; this was a misprint; and should have been Wichita County.

3. I have answered this in answer No. 1.

4. I, as a court reporter, for more than 10 years, have observed more cases, of all kinds, tried than you will be able to secure in your law practice the balance of your life, for, if I am elected District Attorney you bootlegging clients are leaving Gray County immediately.

5. You say my brother, James V. Allred, was District Attorney at Wichita Falls, therefore I couldn't have been connected with the office without violating the law. Bernard Martin was District Attorney at Wichita Falls when I was connected with this office. Two of my brothers were later ELECTED BY THE PEOPLE as District Attorney of Wichita County; another one County Attorney of Stephens County and another County Attorney of Montague County.

6. What difference does it make to the voters whether I live in Wheeler County or Gray County. THEY ARE BOTH IN THE DISTRICT. I HAVE LIVED in the 31st DISTRICT LONGER THAN YOU HAVE. The election judge did have to reprint the ballots of Wheeler County BUT HE DID SO AT YOUR DEMAND THAT HE DO SO.

7. You say I was elected County Attorney of Wheeler County in 1928 without opposition. I resigned to run for District Attorney. I HAD OPPOSITION FOR THE OFFICE OF COUNTY ATTORNEY OF WHEELER COUNTY IN THE PERSON OF L. W. ROOK, AND IF I DID NOT DEFEAT HIM BY A VOTE OF 4 TO 1, I WILL withdraw from this race.

8. You say Moody was wrong in requesting the Attorney General to remove you from office. WAS THE GRAND JURY AT STINNETT WRONG IN REQUESTING YOU TO RESIGN WHILE DISTRICT ATTORNEY? WERE THE VOTERS IN EVERY ONE OF THE NINE COUNTIES WRONG WHEN THEY VOTED YOU OUT OF OFFICE IN EVERY ONE OF THE NINE COUNTIES IN THE DISTRICT TWO YEARS AGO BY ELECTING J. A. HOLMES?

9. You say you are as sober as I am. You know this is untrue. I believe in absolute enforcement of the prohibition laws. IF YOU WERE NOT CONVICTED FOR THE OFFENSE OF DRUNKENNESS IN CANADIAN TEXAS AND SPENT THE NIGHT OF NOVEMBER 18 IN JAIL I WILL WITHDRAW.

RAYMOND ALLRED
For District Attorney, 31st District

10. Judge Ewing was my witness against the poor downtrodden lawyer you make reference to. He was sent to the insane asylum for treatment at his own request. IF I HAVE NOT CONVICTED TWO LAWYERS FOR CRIMINAL OFFENSES, in ADDITION TO THE ABOVE, AND IF BOTH OF THESE LAWYERS ARE NOT NOW SUPPORTING YOU I WILL WITHDRAW FROM THE RACE.

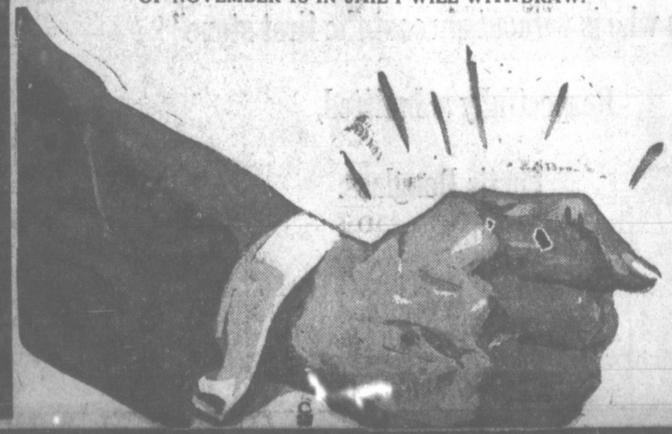

11. Who paid, Douglass, for sending out letters to practically every poll tax payer in the 4 counties; who paid for your advertisements in the papers which have cost SOMEBODY more money than you are allowed to spend under the law.

12. I have never resorted to mudslinging in any form, and only give the above FACTS in answer to your false charges in a last minute effort to get votes.

13. You refer the people to Judge Ewing as a reference to your "qualifications and abilities." Why didn't you tell the voters to ask him what your reputation for sobriety is and was while you were district attorney by appointment of DAN MOODY?

14. As to who drafted you: Ben Baldwin, J. D. Suggs and one Gordon (who was a juror in the BOB WADE case) carried your petition over town all day long trying to get signatures. THEY WERE TURNED DOWN MORE TIMES THAN THEY WERE ABLE TO GET SIGNATURES. Three of the men who signed your "drafting petition told me they did so as a matter of courtesy and were in reality supporting me. IF YOU WERE DRAFTED WHY DID YOU PERSONALLY FILE YOUR NAME IN EACH OF THE COUNTIES ON THE LAST DAY ON WHICH TO ANNOUNCE? If you were really drafted the people have certainly had a change of heart since the late Johnnie Holmes defeated you two short years ago in EVERY COUNTY IN THE District.

In conclusion I want to say that among other last minute rumors you are telling that I can't carry Wheeler County, where I have lived for the past five years. The people there tell me I will carry it ten to one. You get this idea of a man not carry his home county (since you say Wheeler County is my home county) from the fact that JOHNNIE HOLMES DEFEATED YOU TWO YEARS AGO IN YOUR HOME COUNTY OF CARSON BY A VOTE OF 805 TO YOUR 719.

round for the Davis cup, winning 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.

Cochet's victory gave France, the defender, an even break in victories for the opening day. Big Bill Tilden, leader of the American forces, conquered Jean Borotra in the opening singles match, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4, 7-5.

AUTEUIL, France, July 25. (AP)—Big Bill Tilden sent the American forces away to a flying start in the challenge round for the Davis Cup against the French today by defeating Jean Borotra in the opening singles match, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4, 7-5.

After a nervous start, Tilden swept through to his eighth major tournament victory in succession over the bounding Basque. The match was bitterly fought and was featured by a turbulent scene in the third set when Borotra scored a service ace after the American had lifted his hand to indicate he was not ready to play. The umpire ruled Tilden had motioned too late and gave the point to Borotra.

Tilden, already rallying mightily after erring frequently in the first set, rose to new heights after the upsetting incident and trounced Borotra, parading through the first victory of the challenge round with only the final desperate effort of the Basque in the fourth and deciding set holding him up temporarily. The Basque rallied in the final set after Tilden had run the count to 5-1 in games. The Frenchman reeled off four straight games but could not hold the pace and dropped the deciding set 7-5.

At Greenville, Love predicted he would "get a minimum of 225,000 votes in the primary election Saturday" and that the count might be nearly 250,000. He again stressed prohibition as the principal issue and warned voters to beware of the candidate with seemingly unlimited funds to draw upon.

Ferguson, at Eastland, devoted his time to a discussion of Mrs. Ferguson's platform, occasionally taking a slap at Love, Sterling, and Governor Dan Moody.

Young in an address at Vernon, charged Small was a candidate of "special interests," to prevent tax reduction and that Small failed the party in 1928. He charged Sterling with attempting to buy the editorial support of the state.

FRIGIDAIRE
 THE Quiet AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATOR

- Reasons why 3 times as many Frigidaires are now in use as any other make of electric refrigerator:
- Ice and desserts freeze faster with the "Cold Control."
 - Vegetables stay fresh and crisp in the Hydrator.
 - Foods are always kept safely cold by surplus power.
 - Stooping is made unnecessary by the elevated shelves.
 - The porcelain-on-steel finish won't rust, peel or blister.
 - The mechanism is in the bottom, out of the way.
 - The smooth, flat top provides an extra kitchen shelf.
 - The price is lower because of quantity production.
 - Operating cost is lower because the motor runs less.

TO THE VOTERS OF GRAY COUNTY:—

I have tried my best to refrain from mud-slinging or personalities in my race for District Attorney against Raymond Allred, but unfortunately I have been forced to defend myself against his accusations which he makes in public speeches and newspaper advertisements.

I do not want the office badly enough to win it on the faults and misdeeds of my opponent. I will not ask any person to vote for me by reason of accusations against my opponent or by means of my wallowing in the mud and mire of slanderous utterances against him.

"Let him who is without sin cast the first stone"

Respectfully submitted,

No Trouble Is Expected Monday In Negro's Trial

These days are quiet as can be seen from the four Texas Rangers stationed here, and they affirm they are not sorry that the thunder of the oncoming primary election has just about drowned out all interest in the negro, Jesse Lee Washington, whom they were sent here to protect. The negro is accused of killing Mrs. Henry Vaughan of Shamrock by striking her on the head with a piece of pipe.

Although several men from Erick and Shamrock have been in Pampa in the last week, "getting the lay of things," there have been no demonstrations. The Rangers have definite information that it is the purpose of two groups of men to take the life of the negro. One group wants to shoot him and the other to lynch him. The four Rangers, under the command of Capt. M. T. "Lone Wolf" Gonsaulas, are taking no risks and they are as cautious in guarding the black as on the first day he was lodged in solitary confinement in the county jail.

Meanwhile the negro whistles and tells the prisoners how he was placed in jail "for shooting craps." He will be taken to Miami, Monday for trial, completely surrounded by the Rangers and deputies who will be armed with machine guns, shot-guns, hand grenades and pistols. The negro, himself, will be clothed from neck to foot in steel armor.

It is believed that the arrest of the 22 Erick citizens by federal officers in connection with the exodus of negroes from the Erick community, will eliminate danger of mob action from that vicinity.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General topic:—Deborah, a leader in a National Emergency.

Scripture lesson: Judges 4: 1-10. 1. And the children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, when Enid was dead.

2. And Jehovah sold them into the hand of Jabin, king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host was Sisera, who dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles. 3. And the children of Israel cried unto Jehovah; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4. Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5. And she dwelt under the palms-tree of Debarah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill-country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6. And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedeshnapphtali, and said unto him, Hath not Jehovah, the God of Israel, commanded, saying, Go and draw unto Mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7. And I will draw unto thee, to the river Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thy hand.

8. And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go; but if thou wilt not go with me, I will not go.

9. And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honor; for Jehovah will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10. And Karak called Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh; and there went up ten thousand men at his feet; and Deborah went up with him.

Golden Text:—Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, Year not.—Isa. 35:4.

Time.—B. C. 1351.

Place.—Deborah's home in Ephraim, north of Jerusalem. Barak's home in Kedesh, in the north of the country. The Plain of Esdraelon southeast of Mt. Carmel.

INTRODUCTION
"What will not woman, gentle woman, dare,
When strong affection stirs her spirit up?"

In our lesson we have examples of what woman will dare and do when moved by patriotism and a sense of religious duty. We are living in a day when woman has come into the fields of opportunity formerly occupied by man alone, and when her influence is far greater than ever before; but at all ages in the world's history occasional women have raised up as leaders, pioneers of the good day for women and the world in which we live. One of these great pioneers was Deborah.

to time oppressed them. These judges did not rule the people in close succession, but come to the front in each case after the people's lapse into idolatry was punished in some heathen invasion and a loss of national freedom. One of these judges was Ehud, who repelled a strong invasion of Moabites from the southwest, slaying their king, Eglon, cutting off the retreat of his army, and putting to death ten thousand of the Moabites, thus procuring a peace of eighty years. But the cycle of events was to be repeated many times, and the next time of the savior of the nation was to be a woman.

Israel Again in Bondage
"And Jehovah sold them." This term represents the absolute giving up into the hands of their enemies. It is no doubt derived from the idea of selling a slave. The converse process in redemption. The expression is frequently used in the Book of Judges. "Into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan." This time the invasion came from the north of Palestine, where remained the descendants of those of the original tribe of Canaanites which Joshua had failed to subdue. "And twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel." The Israelites had not even spears and shields (Judges 5:8), and they were completely at the mercy of Sisera's on-rushing, iron-bound chariots of death. "They forgot that God is able to break the chariots in pieces, and to make all their massive strength a disadvantage and a difficulty, as when the Egyptians labored heavily in the Red Sea sand and waves; that the spirit that animates an army is greater than weapons or fortifications."—James Hastings.

Deborah
Deborah is referred to as both prophetess and judge. The former term would mean that she was a woman inspired to declare the will of God; perhaps, also, that she was constantly stirring her people to a more vigorous life. In what sense was she one of the judges?

The judges, of the Book of Judges, were leaders, who at times ruled, as, nominally, kings or dictators. Some of them, like Deborah, were merely influential people who assumed or were given a great deal of authority. While this usage of the word judge has no connection with the judiciary, Deborah evidently did render many decisions in disputes and questions that were submitted to her.

People from all over the land would come to her, and the pine tree near which she lived or under which she held interviews became famous. It could not have been far from the oak associated with an earlier Deborah (Gen. 35:8).

drawn swords. How fearfully Barak's ten thousand must have descended to the plain and advanced westward upon that embattled army!

But the Lord of hosts was in the van. "As we gather from Judges 5:20-22, a fearful storm swept down from heaven in face of the advancing army. The battle must have drawn towards Endor, where its fate was finally decided. (Ps. 83-9-10). Presently the war chariots were thrown into confusion, and instead of being a help became a source of danger. The affrighted horses carried destruction into the ranks of the host. Soon all were involved in a common panic. A scene of wild confusion ensued. It was impossible to retreat, and only in one direction could flight be attempted. And now the waters of Kishon had swollen into a wild torrent which swept away the fugitives!"—Alfred Ederheim.

Death of Sisera
Sisera himself escaped northward and came to the tent of Heber the Kenite, member of a tribe descending from Abraham, and so kin to the Israelites. The Rechabites, famous for Jeremiah's object lesson, belonged to this tribe. Heber was at peace with Jabin, his neighbor, and the weary fugitive turned to his tent without fear. He was kindly received by Heber's wife, Jael, who gave him food and furnished him with a couch where he was soon lost in profound slumber. Then Jael seized a wooden tent pin and the mallet used with it, and drove the pin through his temples. Thus the final victory of the battle was a woman's.

The deed seems to us of today to violate all laws of civilization; but Deborah, in her hymn of triumph, says that Jael "was blessed above all women. Deborah voiced the sentiment of the time, The stars in their courses had fought against Sisera, and it was his destiny to perish in the way that he would most have hated."—Margaret E. Sangster.

"That Jael should thus have betrayed Sisera, and that Deborah should have praised her act, are characteristics of the barbarous age in which they lived. An enemy was, in those days, no more than the wild beast that wastes a land, and to snare him by deceit was thought as little amiss as to prepare a pitfall for a wolf, or to spread

"Send him here at any time tonight. I'm dining at home with some friends. I wish I could persuade you to come."

"She was all thorns again. No, thanks. I've had enough for today. Dan will come alone. It will be late, after the cafe closes. Dan works harder than anybody I know, but not harder than I'm going to."

"I ought to thank you. I owe it to you. If you hadn't put the idea into my head and got Mr. What's-his-name here, I could never have done it."

"I want no thanks," Gideon said, and there seemed to be something thick in his throat. "I've done nothing, anyhow. You won't let me help you. Perhaps in time you'll come to like me just a little bit."

Alan and Chummy were discussing Judy over their very frugal dinner at Gior's more than a month later. Their mid-day meal, consisting of sandwiches, they ate at the art school.

Steyne had been back from Maine a little less than a week. He had glowing accounts of the beauty of the hills in the burgeoning spring. When the larches draped the hillsides like a mantle of pale-green feathers, and the mountain streams rushed in brown cascades over their stony beds, and the birds sang in a mad chorus through all the hours of the lengthening day. Nevertheless, he said he was glad to be back in New York and at work again, and he appeared to settle down to his easel and the careless bohemian life with perfect content.

He had found a change. Chummy was feverishly at work. She had already got her first commission—a portrait. She thought she would take up portrait work. Alan's line was very modern landscape, verging on the futurist, and yet keeping an appeal to the general public. He was really clever, and in his prosperity much more diligent than of yore.

Judy was never seen. She only came back to sleep, Chummy said. She told him all about Judy's wonderful luck in being taken up by Guarvinius and he was bound to express a satisfaction which he was far from feeling.

"I'm afraid Judy's working too hard, though," Clarissa said with an anxious look. "She comes home dead tired. I don't believe she has anything to eat all day."

"But it's damnable, Clarissa! Something must be done. She'll kill herself! Look here, I owe her an enormous lot for looking after you like she's done. Can't we manage it?"

"Oh, Alan, I'll try, of course; but Judy can read things right in the back of your head."

He looked at her almost fiercely. "Clarissa, no girl ought to work!"

For Tax Collector

TO THE VOTERS OF GRAY COUNTY

As a home boy, reared in Gray County, who worked his way through college, who has studied and practiced every kind of office work, from a one-man office to one with 1,200 employees, from office clerk to accountant, including filing systems, bookkeeping systems, and practically every kind of machine used in an office, who has trained hundreds of office clerks, stenographers and accountants, I ask your earnest consideration for Tax Collector in the Democratic primary next Saturday.

Our tax valuation was three and one half million dollars in 1925. Today it is approximately thirty million dollars. The duties of the Tax Collector's office have increased accordingly. And beginning January 1, 1931, the office will be operated under the schedule for counties of more than ten thousand population instead of the old schedule.

This office demands a man who is honest and dependable; that is capable and competent to do the work efficiently, and one that will do it. Upon my past record I ask that you vote for me on July 26th.

I have tried to see every voter but have missed many of you, still I want every citizen to know that I will appreciate your vote. I want the office, I need it and when elected I will give the best service I can according to my training and ability.

Sincerely yours,

WALTER D. HARDIN.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

In 1912, Siler Faulkner organized the Democratic party in Gray County, Texas, and in that year there was held the first primary ever held in this county. In 1918 he was elected chairman of the Democratic party in this county, which office he's held without compensation up to and including the present year.

This year no candidate has announced for the position of County Chairman, and it is believed that the best interests of the county and the party will be served by the election of Siler Faulkner to the post of County Chairman. At the election on July 26th., voters are urged to write in on their ballots the name of Siler Faulkner for the office of County Chairman in order to assure that Mr. Faulkner will hold this important post for the next two years.

Exposition Will Be Larger Than Ever This Year

AMARILLO, July 23. (Special)—Featuring a free gate—an item that has been largely responsible for establishing the permanency of the institution—the Amarillo Tri-State exposition is to be held from September 22 to 27, inclusive. Last year the attendance was approximately 400,000 for the week.

Preparatory to staging a bigger fair than ever, the directors are spending approximately $40,000 for improvements during the summer season. Chief among these improvements is the construction of a $22,000 automobile show hall. Built of brick, steel and concrete, this building will be the first permanent structure on the ground. The other exhibit halls are frame buildings.

Extensions are being built onto the two cattle barns and the hog barn, and every building or structure of any kind on the ground is being repaired. New metal signs have been placed at the entrance to the exhibit halls.

The fair this year will pay $18,000 in cash prizes, and every department gives promise of being larger than in past years, according to Wilbur C. Hawk, president.

On the incomplete program of entertainment, Mr. Hawk has announced a rodeo in front of the grand stand in the afternoons, and Ernie Young's revue at night. Leonard Stroud's company of trick riders and ropers will be the chief rodeo entertainers, and the Ernie Young revue will present a company of 45 persons. Beckman & Gerety's World's Best Shows, one of the three big carnival companies of the United States will play the midway. The group of big shows will come to Amarillo from the state fairs of the middle-west, and will play at the Dallas State fair later.

The fair association emerged last year with enough money to pay off a debt of $33,000, and today there is $10,000 in the treasury, in spite of the big improvement program. Much of this money has been raised through a schedule of entertainment features that is sponsored in Amarillo by the association through out the year. The free gate also puts concession space in demand, bringing in revenue from this source. After floundering about for several years with its final outcome in doubt, the Tri-State Fair now appears to be one of the Panhandle's most successful institutions.

Chambers county, died in Houston yesterday. He will be buried today at Wallisville, near here. He was a charter member of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association and active in its affairs until his death.

Jack Dunn and Chick Hickman returned the first of the week from a two-week tour of New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and Wyoming. Among the scenic places visited was the Grand Canyon where they spent three days.

Commission Hears Texas Rail Pleas

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.—(AP)—Final arguments in the contest over a proposal of the Texas and Pacific railroad to build 40 miles of new line from Ballinger to San Angelo, submitted Thursday to the Interstate Commerce commission.

T. D. Gresham, chief counsel for the Abilene and Southern, a subsidiary organized by the Texas and Pacific to undertake the construction, argued that with the new line the Texas and Pacific would be able to serve 38,000 square miles of Texas territory which now has but a single railroad.

The Kansas City, Mexico and Orient, which touches San Angelo, is the property of the Santa Fe system, a powerful competitor of the Texas and Pacific throughout the southwest, Gresham said. Only by constructing the new line could the Texas and Pacific be placed in a position to render service comparable to that of the Santa Fe in area, he stated. Business interests of the section affected were anxious for the new line, he told the commission.

Gresham's viewpoint was supported by a number representing Texas interests, but Alfred Crager, attorney for Paint Rock business interests requested that the Abilene company be asked to divert its intended construction to touch that town.

G. B. Ross, attorney for the Santa Fe system, led opposition to the construction project. He said the Santa Fe in purchasing the Orient and maintaining its operation on a basis of high grade service was entitled to credit and protection against the necessity of dividing the traffic with its competitor and it would have to do with the Texas and Pacific, should that system reach San Angelo. He said the Texas railroad commission had remained neutral and refused to advocate the new line's construction to San Angelo.

Reviewing the history of his company's operations, Ross said adequate railroad service had been afforded the San Angelo territory by the Santa Fe and he urged the commission not to allow an investment of new capital to duplicate rail facilities now adequate to all needs.

Boy Is Killed

HARLINGEN, July 25. (AP)—Frank Hinojosa of Mercedes faced a hearing at La Feria today on charges of negligent homicide, filed in connection with the death of Howard Lawson, 13, of La Feria, who died after being struck by an automobile on a highway near La Feria. The boy was riding on a donkey at the time of the accident.

PUBLIC FORUM

Editor, The News:

Pampa, Texas, July 25, 1930
With reference to the letter advertisement for Mr. Raymond Allred appearing in the Pampa News of July 24th, styled "WHO SHALL NAME YOUR DISTRICT ATTORNEY? THE PEOPLE vs NEWTON P. WILLIS" I am loath to believe that a great tolerant people would be arrayed against me simply because I as a private citizen exercise my right to express my opinion in a private letter as to my choice for district attorney. While I wrote the letter to Mr. Frank Breeding I did not receive the purported reply, nor did any one receive it for me that I know of and I did not authorize nor intend the publication of any such.

Mr. Douglas has his faults, but he also has some virtues just like all the people do in the eyes of Him "who knoweth our frame; who remembereth that we are dust." If, as stated in the advertisement, Mr. Douglas is trying to reform, I am in favor of encouraging him and his splendid young wife by giving him a chance to rise in the world instead of trying to tear him down and destroy his youthful ambition.

I know that he does have the qualities to make a good district attorney and I am in favor of love, mercy and forgiveness, which is the spirit of the Christian religion.

NEWTON P. WILLIS

But He Wasn't Safe After All

CHICAGO, July 25. (AP)—The umpire cried, "safe!" when William Cannatero, 22, slid into third during an amateur game yesterday.

Third baseman Thomas Cantagno, disgusted with the decision, tagged Cannatero again, using a bat instead of the ball. Cannatero was carried away unconscious and Cantagno ran so fast that police hadn't caught up with him early today.

Peoria Club Is Claiming Record

PEORIA, Ill., July 25. (AP)—A record of some kind belongs to the Peoria Three-Eye league club.

In a night game with Quincy last night, Peoria crashed three pitchers for 31 hits, and scored in every inning to win by 31 to 9. The only member of the blood-thirsty club who failed to hit safely was pitcher Virgil David, former University of Iowa southpaw. The big damage was done by shortstop Bluege, a brother of Washington's Ossie, who had two triples, two doubles and a single. Outfielder Duffy scored six runs.

J. W. Beckett, Oldham county, was a visitor here yesterday.

W. C. Mitchell left yesterday on a trip to Kansas City and Chicago. En route, he will stop at Canton, Mo., where he will visit his mother.

Jack Elliott of Amarillo was transacting business in Pampa yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brashears and daughter, Dorothy, have returned from a trip to Stinet.

G. A. Black, Amarillo, has taken employment as butcher at the "M" System grocery number 1.

Brady Bankers Under Charge

BRADY, July 25. (AP)—Two men connected with the Commercial bank here remained at liberty today, although warrants for their arrests had been issued. Bonds of $5,000 each had been set for S. S. Graham, assistant cashier, and Leo Campbell, book keeper, after a shortage of approximately $92,000 was discovered in the bank's account. Graham and Campbell were arrested yesterday. One of the other men was out of town and the other was ill in a hospital. W. H. Crothers, vice-president of the institution issued a statement sound condition and $100,000 was received from the Federal Reserve bank at Dallas, which telegraphed that more money would be sent if needed.

Water Fight To Be Next Week

Lack of time to practice and the approaching primary election will prevent the White Deer fire department from engaging the Pampa fire men in a water fight last night, it was announced this morning. Some of the White Deer fire fighters are running for office and they have been busy all week soliciting votes—too busy, in fact, to meet with the department to plan their attack. The water battle will be held some night next week, the exact date to be announced later. After the fight, the Pampa firemen will be host to the White Deer hosemen at a banquet.
