

INTEREST IN SMALL RALLY KEEN

CANDIDATES SPEED UP AS ABSENTEE VOTING BEGINS

JOHNNY BOWMAN, ESCAPED PAMPA SLAYER, FINALLY CAUGHT

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

"That's gold in these here prairies."

Endurance contests are silly. But they get the publicity, which is an accomplishment if you succeed. Publicity may or may not be of value. The public, however, shows surprising interest even in what it condemns.

A Sweetwater boy has climbed into a mesquite tree with the declaration that he will remain there until Christmas. That may be one way to keep away from the school room, and to give immunity to the refusing crew if school authorities permit. It is probably an old mesquite tree—the young ones have uncomfortable projections, if we remember our Sweetwater.

Of course, no one expects the Nolan county lad to remain up until Christmas. A few West Texas wind storms will probably change his mind, if other elements do not. Meanwhile, he will be something of a local hero and will learn that heroism has its drawbacks.

This discussion is not intended to encourage any Pampa boy to try for an endurance mark. For one thing, most of our trees are in their infancy and it would be difficult to find one in which the slitter could move about for exercise. There are some nice honey locusts, but they cannot be recommended for the purpose.

Pampa Lions are careful about inviting politicians to their luncheons. It is all right to have a candidate as one's guest to the club, but not as a speaker. The international organization has issued a warning that Lions rules forbid entrance of politics into club programs—it is a good rule. Some organizations depend for their usefulness freedom from bias, personalities, and racial, political, and religious prejudices. Some political speeches would be admissible, but it is safer to bar all.

J. E. Peters of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce service bureau solicits the Pampa's support for the advertising poster stamp campaign. We are for it, although we ordinarily dislike to lick stamps as much as the next one. They are rather large stamps, and the glue may not be of appetizing quality. However, The News' office supply department has some dandy little automatic "lickers" for use in case the stamp purchasers have no steno-graphers to do their licking.

The stamps, to be used on letters, packages, and other things, are large and beautifully colored. They illustrate West Texas scenes and will advertise this section very favorably. The stamps will soon be on sale at the B. C. D. office. Every business house ought to have a book of them, and individual citizens might be interested.

The Pampa has the headache trying to figure out who will be in the run-off with Clint Small. Every now and then he thinks he has it all figured out, then new data will upset the dope bucket.

All that some nearby residents needed, apparently, was less vigilance on the part of officers, to have made possible another lynching. Jesse Lee Washington, negro slayer, deserves summary death as his punishment. But it would have reflected badly upon Panhandle citizens in general and in particular had the mob overtaken the officers and secured custody of the black. The negro hasn't a single chance at law, so why break the law and bring denunciation upon the territory by another lynching?

Summer smiles are popular. And not only locally—have you noticed the smiles of Byrd and Jones?

FUGITIVE WILL BE RETURNED TO CITY SOON

Arrest in Nebraska Is End of Lengthy Search

HE GOT AWAY FROM AMARILLO

New Jail Here Will Hold Bad Man, Belief

Carefully planned efforts of the sheriff's department to capture Johnny Bowman who escaped from the Potter county jail at Amarillo three months ago, were rewarded Monday night when the fugitive was arrested at Imperial, Neb. Bowman is under life sentence in connection with the fatal shooting of Bill Watkins, filling station proprietor, here July 4, 1929.

Bowman will be brought back to the county jail here as soon as the governor of Nebraska grants requisition papers which were filed yesterday by Sheriff E. S. Graves through Imperial officials. As soon as the requisition is approved, two officers of the sheriff's department will leave for the Nebraska town to accompany Bowman back to Pampa. Sheriff Graves said this morning.

Although details of the arrest of Bowman were not released, it was understood that local officers learned of the whereabouts of Bowman when he attempted to obtain money from friends. He was using an assumed name when apprehended by officers.

After Bowman unsuccessfully escaped from the old Gray county jail next to the city hall by unlocking the door with a key he had fashioned from a spoon, he was taken to Amarillo for safe-keeping. He assured local officers that he would escape from the Potter jail and after remaining in it two months he unlocked the door with another "spoon key" and took several other prisoners with him. All were later arrested and brought back to jail except Bowman.

"He'll have a hard time getting out of the new jail," Sheriff Graves said. "We're going to use the strictest precautions and besides it is just about next to the impossible to break out of the jail."

Here Tonight

Representative Cecil Storey of Vernon, candidate for attorney-general of Texas, is scheduled to make an address here this evening in the interest of his campaign. He will speak at the new Gray county courthouse at 8 p. m., according to plans of his supporters.

SMALL COMING TO CITY ABOUT 5 P. M. FRIDAY

Senator Clint C. Small will arrive in Pampa about 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon to attend the home-coming rally that is being planned for him, according to Mel Davis who returned this morning from Austin and other parts of Texas.

The Panhandle candidate for governor will speak at Memphis at 2:30 o'clock. He will fly from Fort Worth to the Hall county town and possibly from Memphis to Pampa. It is possible that he may come to Pampa by automobile, as the Memphis delegation is sending a delegation headed by a band.

Mr. Davis after making a political survey of South and Central Texas declared that all the candidates have conceded that Small will be in the run-off. "The fight is between Ross Sterling, Earle Mayfield, and Clint Small, and Sterling is going to lose every day from now until election. He has shot his wad and that was his bond issue. He is losing votes every day."

In explaining why Small is coming to the Panhandle, Mr. Davis said that it is the desire of Mr. Small's friends to show citizens of other parts of Texas, particularly South and Central Texas that the Texas Panhandle is solid for him. "His presence up here was not needed as far as political strength is concerned, but because he had an open speaking date and could come here by plane, the pressure of thousands of supporters in this section influenced him to attend the rally," Mr. Davis said.

"There are some people here who are planning on voting for Jim Ferguson. It is generally conceded that Jim will not be in the run-off and all votes for him will be lost," Mr. Davis said.

The argument grew out of a challenge issued at Llanito at the Fourth of July celebration, when Long attacked the record of Bobbitt. Petch who was on the program to speak for R. S. Sterling's candidacy for governor, defended Bobbitt against the accusations.

Bishop Seaman Is Coming on Sunday

Rev. E. C. Seaman, D. D., bishop of North Texas, will visit the Episcopal church congregation here Sunday morning July 20 to administer the sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion and the Apostolic rite of Confirmation at 11 a. m. in the music class annex of the high school, preceded by Sunday school at 10. R. C. Sowder, superintendent.

Candidates for baptism or confirmation will be presented by Warwick Alken, lay reader in charge.

BALLOTING IS TO BE UNTIL NEXT TUESDAY

Sterling Scheduled to Make 5 Talks Today

PUTNAM WILL BREAK SILENCE

Small and Mayfield to Make Three Speeches

By The Associated Press Texas Democratic gubernatorial vote-snatching melee, like a great stone rolling on and on, was gathering increased momentum today as the 11 aspirants took renewed hold and stirred the highways and byways in search of favor that will mean counters on the tally sheets a week from Saturday.

There was considerable basis for the increased fervor because voting was actually in progress today. Absentee voters started marking their ballots and will be at it until next Tuesday night, three days before the big voting day dawn.

Ross Sterling of Houston, the last to enter the competition, was booked for his speeches today, a program that called for the utmost hustling. He started at Henrietta at 11 a. m., was to move to Bowie for 2 p. m., appear at Alvord at 3:30 p. m., Decatur at 4:30 p. m., and wind up his busy day in Dallas tonight.

Frank Putnam of Houston, advocating repeal of the national and state prohibition laws, was set for his first and only speech of the campaign to be delivered tomorrow night in the city hall of his home town.

Clint C. Small and Earle B. Mayfield each had three appearances booked for today, Small at Beville, Goliad, and Victoria and Mayfield at Atlanta, Jefferson and Marshall. Others of the active campaigners were taking it a bit easier, making but one address each. Jim Young at Corpus Christi, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson at San Angelo, Thomas B. Love at Rock Springs, and Barry Miller at Galveston.

The attorney general's race was coming in for considerable interest, with partisans of two of those seeking to be the state's chief law enforcement officer to debate tonight at Llano. Representatives Alfred Petch of Fredericksburg and Bob Long of Wichita Falls were to argue the qualifications of their respective favorites, Petch, in the role of challenger, for Attorney General Robert L. Bobbitt, and Long for James V. Allred of Wichita Falls, runner-up in the attorney general's race four years ago and now opposing the incumbent.

Claims Work Neglected Storey yesterday asserted that while Bobbitt went about the state making speeches before civic clubs and schools, he had permitted regents of the University of Texas to contract with a law firm in San Antonio at a cost of $6,000 cash and contingent fee up to $50,000 to handle two lawsuits which the regents wished filed. "Such a contract is void and it is the plain duty of the attorney general and his department to file such suits," Storey declared. He also accused Bobbitt of postponing the Boxcar county ouster suits until after the election.

Bobbitt at Sweetwater replied to a charge made by Storey at Dallas, challenging Storey to name any "schoolboy" on his staff.

"I've known Mr. Storey for eight or ten years and if he was on my staff, the average of integrity and ability of the department would not be improved," Bobbitt retorted.

"Swapping territory" appeared the policy in the campaigns of Ross S. Sterling of Houston, candidate for governor, and Clint Small of Wellington.

While Sterling spoke yesterday at Vernon, on his invasion of the West

Will Cut Gas Rates

City Is in Agreement With Utility Company

City officials announced today that they had approved a new gas rate schedule under which reductions are to be made by the Central States Power & Light company soon.

E. J. Driscoll, district manager, and J. W. Garman, local manager of the utilities company, had been in conference with the city commission. They stated they were sure the schedule agreed upon would be satisfactory, although it lacks official approval.

The present schedule places the rate for the first 30 thousand cubic feet at 50 cents per thousand feet, less the 10 per cent reduction, or 45 cents net. The new rate would be 38 cents net.

The present rate for the consumption of the next 170 thousand cubic feet is 25 cents per thousand, less 10 per cent, while the new rate would be 20 cents net. The rest of the new schedule would be the same as the old.

The city commission yesterday accepted the paving on East Foster, West Kingsmill, South Starkweather, and on Browning from Cuyler to Frost street. The audit report of H. V. Roberts & company also was approved.

BOSTWICK, Ga., July 16. (AP)—The monoplane K of New Haven crashed here today but the occupants escaped by use of parachutes.

The plane was en route to South America.

Jimmy Garrigan, one of the pilots said the ship got beyond control after it consumed all its gasoline and that he and his companions decided to desert it. All three floated to safety one mile from here.

She ship was demolished.

"We will return to New York and try all over again," Garrigan said.

He said they flew through "beastly" weather last night and that the ship used more fuel than they had anticipated.

Incorporation of Talley Addition Loses in Election

By a count of 56 to 21, voters in the Talley addition yesterday overwhelmingly turned down the proposition to incorporate the district as "City of Talley."

No comment was made by the Pampa Development company, who presented the petition calling for election. Business men of the addition who led the fight against incorporation stated this morning that the results were gratifying.

"A big mistake has been averted and the likelihood of another city on the outskirts of Pampa has been removed in a decisive manner. There is now no doubt about the attitude of citizens in the Talley addition regarding their future relationship with Pampa," it was stated.

Obviously, many of the 53 persons who signed the petition called for election, changed their minds before the election. It was estimated that there were about 100 votes in the section, and 100 ballots were printed.

The election was held at the home of Earle Talley and was in charge of J. G. Christy.

FEDERAL OFFICERS ASK PEACE BONDS FOLLOWING AFFRAY THAT INVOLVES WITNESS IN ONE CASE

A hearing to determine whether Roy Albritton and Louis Baker will be placed under peace bonds in connection with an alleged assault made upon J. S. Gurley, local painter, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, is scheduled to be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning before Justice of the Peace C. E. Cary.

A charge of aggravated assault was filed against Baker, according to Justice Cary. Through federal officers, Gurley asked that charges be filed against both men and that they be placed under peace bonds. Gurley refused a request that the hearing be held last night and this morning, and it was postponed in order that witnesses to the alleged assault might be summoned to testify.

Federal officers stated that Gurley was a government witness in a conspiracy case and in liquor cases coming up in federal court next term, and they were asking that Albritton and Baker be placed under peace bonds in order that the witness might not be further molested. Justice Cary declined to set the bonds for the men without a hearing.

In justice court last night Gurley claimed that he was painting at a building in South Pampa when Baker jerked the ladder on which he was standing out from under him. He said that he suffered bruises in the fall, and that after he fell Baker hurled a paint bucket at him. "I then picked up a piece of the broken ladder to protect myself when Albritton struck me," he said.

Both Albritton and Baker were brought to police headquarters by Officer Cottrell. Each paid a fine on charges of affray. Albritton was recently released on a $25,000 bond from the Potter county jail where he was being held by federal officers on a charge of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition act. Baker was released Saturday on bond, pending action of federal court on a charge of possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale. Both were arrested by federal officers stationed here.

Federal officers stated that a number of witnesses will testify at the hearing Friday, and that all witnesses in the case will be protected.

LEGION PURCHASES LOT ON WEST FOSTER AND WILL MOVE HALL TO LOCATION AT ONCE

Kerley-Crossman post of the American Legion in an important meeting last night heard a report by Lewis O. Cox, who stated that the lot located on West Foster across from the miniature golf course had been purchased for $1,500 and an option secured on an adjoining lot.

The Legion building will be moved to the new site, and will be renovated and remodeled. The membership was in accord with the action of the lot committee, which consists of C. M. Carlock, chairman, and R. A. Webb, Edwin Vicars, Frank J. Thomas, and Lewis O. Cox. Plans were made for a banquet in the remodeled building when the remodeling has been completed.

To secure funds for the rehabilitation service fund, which is for the relief of needy and disabled ex-service men, the post decided on a plan whereby it will sell certificates for $1.50. These certificates will entitle the buyer to a $5 portrait at Hester's studio. Members will collect 50 cents as a deposit on each sale, the balance being paid Mr. Hester, who is a member of the local post, at the time the portrait is taken. The money taken as deposit will go into the fund.

A movement is being sponsored by the local post to erect a monument in honor of the ex-service men who gave their lives in the war. Sites suggested for the proposed monument included the courthouse lawn and the city park.

The Rev. Tom Brabham is chairman of the committee appointed to investigate plans for the monument. Lewis O. Cox and Frank J. Thomas are the other members of the committee.

Two show companies will be brought to Pampa under auspices of the American Legion. The companies are Tidwell's shows, a Texas organization, which will be in Pampa the week of July 28, under the auspices of the Pampa Fire department and the American Legion.

Mrs. L. O. Johnson and sister, Miss Arabelle Stahl, are visitors in Amarillo.

Mrs. E. J. Landry, 110 North West street, was taken to McKee's and Connor hospital last night in a G. C. Malone ambulance.

MANY CLUBS TO SEND BIG DELEGATIONS

Pampa Business Men Perfect Plans for Event

DINNER WILL PRECEDE PARADE

Reception Group to Meet Candidate Here

Action to make the roundup of Small supporters here Friday night a Panhandle-wide affair was started this morning in earnest by the B. C. D., business men, and officials of the Small-for-Governor club. At an enthusiastic meeting of business men last night at the Chamber of Commerce, the plan of action was outlined and the wheels to bring realization of the huge rally were set in motion this morning.

The business men in session last night decided that the event would be thoroughly advertised in every town within a radius of 100 miles of Pampa. This morning, George Briggs, manager of the B. C. D., and others are telephoning officials of small clubs in a score of towns. Each town in the Panhandle will be asked to send a delegation headed by a band. Several clubs which have already been invited to attend the rally immediately accepted the invitation.

"The whole Panhandle is impressed with the fact that Senator Small is making his only campaign speech in the North Plains at Pampa," C. Herbert Walker said. "People who never thought of attending a rally before are going to flock to this one here Friday night."

A reception committee appointed to welcome Senator Small includes Mel Davis, J. M. Williams, E. J. Dunigan, Horace Saunders, B. E. Finley, J. M. Dodson, and Alex Schneider. The popular candidate will be honored at a dinner at the Schneider immediately before the rally which will be held on the courthouse lawn at 8 o'clock.

The parade will be held just before the speaking. It will form on South Cuyler and proceed to the courthouse. The Pampa American Legion band will head the parade, followed by bands and delegations from other towns. A loud speaker will be installed at the courthouse lawn to carry the message of Senator Small for at least a block.

Streets on the east and south side of the courthouse will be roped off in order to eliminate all unnecessary noises.

Hand bills announcing the rally are being printed and will be distributed within a radius of 100 miles of Pampa. A telephone is being installed at Small headquarters at the Schneider hotel and citizens are requested to list available rooms with Miss Aurelia Miller at headquarters.

When Senator Small arrives in Pampa he will be conducted to the

NEGRO SLAYER BROUGHT HERE

Jesse Lee Washington, negro slayer of Mrs. Henry Vaughan, white farm wife living near Shamrock, was brought here and lodged in the Gray county jail this afternoon.

In bringing the negro to Pampa, four Texas Rangers and Sheriff Claude McKinney of Collingsworth county completely foiled two mobs, one of which wanted to lynch the negro and the other to shoot him.

Rangers and officials allowed a report to be circulated yesterday afternoon in Wheeler county and at Erick that they were going after the black. They separated and traveled in different directions, followed by a mob estimated at 100 persons.

By pre-arrangement Sheriff McKinney brought the negro to Pampa this morning and placed him in custody of the Rangers who had arrived almost simultaneously. The Collingsworth sheriff drove a closed car and was accompanied only by the negro who was secured to the officer by a chain around his neck and arm. The sheriff was disguised as an oil field worker and wore a greasy cap.

Captain M. T. Gonzaulas of Dallas stated that they would tolerate no interference or mob violence, and would protect the negro regardless of cost. The negro was placed in a solitary cell in the jail and is being guarded day and night by rangers.

The Rangers brought with them to use in case of emergency, two machine guns, 10,000 rounds of ammunition, 100 gas hand grenades, 50 regular hand grenades, rifles, shotguns and pistols. The machine guns will shoot 800 bullets per minute. With Capt. Gonzaulas came Ranger W. H. Kirby of Abilene, J. P. Hamilton of Arlington and Robert G. Goss of Honey Grove. The negro will be held here until the due process of law is served. The Rangers were assigned to protect the negro at the request of Judge Ewing and other district and county officers.

The Rangers said they did not know where Sheriff McKinney has been keeping the negro since last Friday when he killed Mrs. Henry Vaughan near Shamrock.

Variouly reported to have been taken to Granite, Okla., Wheeler, and other points for safekeeping after mob violence was feared at Shamrock and Erick, Okla., the black was jailed here on the belief that he would not be molesting pending trial at Miami July 28.

THE FUTURE OF ALASKA

Although the territory of Alaska is a fifth as large as the continental United States, it is probably one of the most misunderstood areas on the face of the globe, as far as the average American is concerned.

Most of us, no doubt, think of Alaska as a frigid northern waste where men dig for gold amid dreadful arctic storms. We think of mineral wealth as its only natural resource, and we endow it with a climate something like Greenland's.

All of this is brought to mind by a recent copy of The Industrial Bulletin, a little periodical issued in Massachusetts by Arthur D. Little, Inc. Under the heading, "Unknown Alaska," this bulletin sets forth the real facts about this huge territory—and predicts a prosperous future for it.

To begin with, Alaska's summer climate is as pleasant as that of the United States. Winter conditions depend on the locality; in the north they are severe, but in the southeast they are as mild as in Washington, D. C.

The territory is equipped to become an enormously productive agricultural region. The yield of wheat and potatoes is unusually high, the growth of grasses is luxuriant enough to support huge herds of cattle, and fruits and vegetables can be grown to advantage in the southern section.

Alaska's vast forests have hardly been touched so far. Her gold and copper mines are famous; in addition, the territory has extensive coal deposits and a considerable quantity of tin, together with extensive limestone and marble deposits. Geologists believe that it also contains huge oil fields that will some day be of high importance.

All in all, this would seem to indicate that Alaska is far from being the frigid, God-forsaken place that most of us have assumed. Gold is among the least of its natural resources. Some day, when the population of the United States has increased still further, and money for development is available, Alaska undoubtedly will come into her own as a prosperous and populous part of the United States.

HOOVER DRAWS BACK INTO SHELL

Only a few weeks ago the press of the nation suddenly awoke to the fact that the unusually silent president had emerged from White House isolation and had expressed an opinion in unmistakable terms.

"There was a new glint in the Hoover eye, and only half suppress anger in his voice."—Literary Digest.

The Hoover policy of non-interference was abandoned with regard to the pension bill, and the nation gave rather liberal applause as it understood the motives of the pension raiders.

But today the "New Hoover" who showed so briefly on the horizon is not in sight. Witnessing the steady decline in the price of wheat, despite the full efforts of the Federal Farm Board and its stabilization corporation, Mr. Hoover joins the Board in the gloomy statement that if anything is done for the farmer he will have to do it.

The contrast between this attitude and the pre-election campaign talk is so obvious that it will not soon be forgotten. Of what use is it to elect a so-called business genius if he takes exactly the same attitude as those who have always profited off the farmers' business and have never attempted any direct program for the latter's benefit?

If it were a question of supply and demand purely, there would be some justification for the attitude. But while wheat is cheap, flour is high. Livestock prices are down, but steaks still are up. The farm income is impaired, yet the farmers must pay high prices for what they buy.

What can be done about it? Well, promises were made. The sum total of the federal effort to equalize farm income and farm costs seems to be to "suggest" that the price of meat and flour is too high. In the past, some of the government's suggestions have been ignored entirely, and there is little indication that the present cases are exceptions.

Of course, a government cannot fix prices without taking over business in Socialist fashion, but it can have a great influence through use of no more power than that already exercised by the Federal Farm Board. The limited scope of the Board only serves to encourage manipulation, and the fact that the stabilization corporation has wheat in storage that it dare not sell works as a boom-or-bang to the whole program.

Drastic results should perhaps not be expected in the beginning, but if the farmer is going to be left to work out his own salvation he should not be misled before each election to believe that someone else is going to do it for him.

McLean Pastor Given "Pounding"

McLEAN, July 16. (Special)—Rev. and Mrs. Cecil G. Goff, of the First Baptist church, were "pounded" Tuesday evening at the church by the members. The Women's Missionary society was in charge of the affair, and many useful and beautiful gifts were presented, in addition to plenty of etables. Music was furnished by the church orchestra as a part of a short program. Short talks of appreciation were made by Rev. and Mrs. Goff. By request, Mrs. Goff sang a vocal solo. Refreshments of punch and cake were served.

Fernandez Is Knocked Out By Feather Champ

EAST HARTFORD, Conn., July 26. (AP)—Ignacio Fernandez, Brown skinned little warrior from the Philippines, has made his bid for the featherweight championship of the world and suffered the first knockout of his career.

He went down for the final count in the fifth round of his 15-round battle with the titleholder, Christopher (Bat) Battalino, while many of the crowd of 9,000 hooted. Fernandez a year ago knocked out Al Singer in three rounds. During his long career he had taken the punches of the hardest hitters among featherweights and lightweights without suffering a knockout.

Fernandez caught one punch on the elbow that seemed to have hurt him as much as if it had landed squarely on his chin. Before the bell ended the round he had gone to the floor six times for counts of 5, 6, 3, 3, 1 and 4. The home-town crowd turned on Battalino after this exhibition and laughed at Fernandez as staggered time and again by the light hitting champion.

Miss Pauline Davenport was removed from the Pampa hospital to her home on the Borger road Tuesday afternoon in a Stephenson ambulance.

Mrs. E. C. Muse of Mangum, Okla., is visiting Mrs. Fannie Hardin.

Former Resident of McLean Badly Hurt in Accident

McLEAN, July 15. (Special)—W. L. Haynes, former McLean resident, is reported to be doing well as could be expected at a Woodward, Okla., hospital, where he was rushed to undergo the amputation of arm and leg. The arm was taken off just below the elbow and the leg just below the knee.

Mr. Haynes had previously been in the Woodward hospital, and had been discharged. He decided to go to Woodward for some medicine. About three miles from town, while he was getting tire tools from the back of the car to repair a puncture, his automatic shotgun was accidentally discharged. His left wrist was shot through, also, the left ankle, leaving the hand and foot hanging by shreds. Mr. Haynes lay in the road for some time until a passing business man, whose attention was attracted, stopped and bound the arm and leg with a torn blanket and rushed him to the Woodward hospital, where it was said that he would have been dead from loss of blood had he been brought to the hospital 15 minutes later.

Eating of Lamb Meet Will Be Urged in Ads

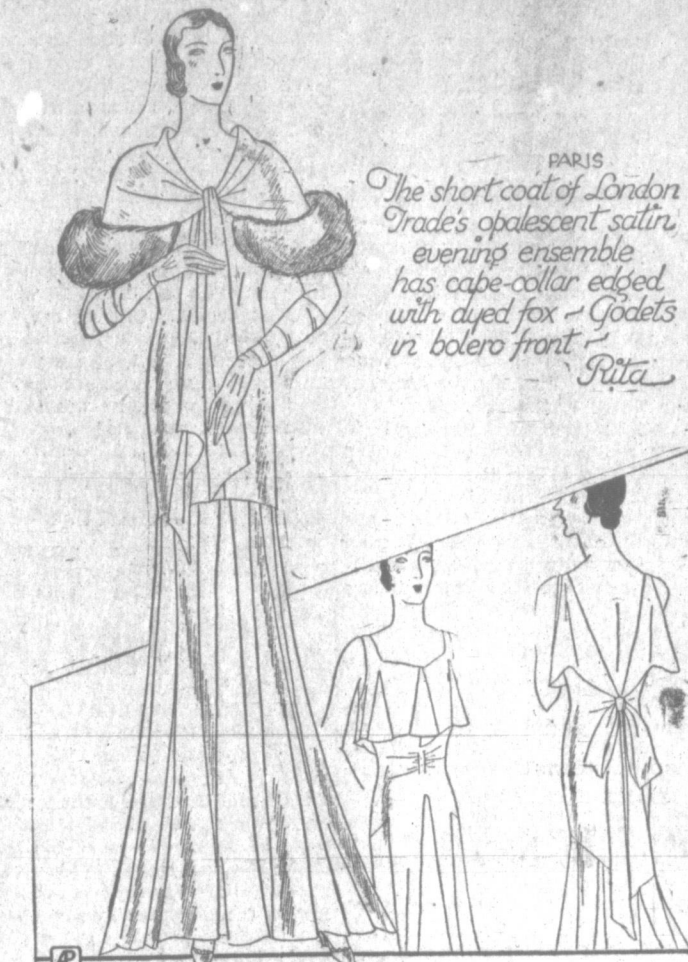

LOGAN, Utah, July 16. (AP)—Plans for a national advertising campaign involving the expenditure of $400,000 in an effort to increase the consumption of lamb meat were presented to the Utah Wool Growers' association here today by F. R. Marshall, secretary of the National Wool Growers' association.

This sum, to be raised from wool growers of the 12 western range states, including Texas, would be levied at the rate of 1-1-2 cents for each sheep they own. It is planned to use it in advertising in newspaper, magazines, and by radio, and in educational and demonstration work before audiences of housewives and retail meat dealers. "The new program is altogether bigger than anything that has ever been attempted by organized wool growers," Mr. Marshall said. "The present conditions and prospects make such an undertaking extremely necessary."

Philadelphia Is Below 2 Millions

PHILADELPHIA, July 16. (AP)—Hopes that Philadelphia's population would reach the 2,000,000 mark were shattered today when the final figures were announced.

The complete tabulation showed a population of 1,961,458, an increase of 137,679, or 7.54 per cent over 1920. A steady drift to the suburbs and to nearby New Jersey communities was held responsible for the small increase. The city, however, continues to hold third position in the cities of the country, being surpassed in population by New York and Chicago.

An application for a marriage license was filed in the office of the county clerk Tuesday by Harold Todd and Bonnie Mae Massay, both of LeFors.

Buick To Show 8-Cylinder Cars

FLINT, Mich., July 16. (AP)—Announcement that the Buick Motor company will introduce a complete line of eight cylinder automobiles to the public on Saturday, July 26, was made by E. T. Strong, president and general manager.

Mr. Strong declined to comment upon the Buick line for 1931, other than to say that the new cars are the culmination of some three years of intensive engineering tests conducted by Buick and General Motors. Details as to models and prices will be announced in a few days, Mr. Strong said.

Rumors that Buick was preparing to introduce an eight cylinder car have been current in the motor industry for many months, and Mr. Strong's announcement today is the first official confirmation issued by the company's chief executive.

From her grandmother's cellar... to Ziegfeld's Roof... in just the twinkle of a toe. She really was the "Sally" — of the alley called Broadway.

How explain the miracle of Marilyn's success? ... Nature simply blessed her with a charm all her own.

And that's the only answer to another young star's rise. OLD GOLD made its bow just 4 years ago. In a month it was popular. In a year a headliner. Today it's America's fastest growing cigarette. ALEXANDER IS SUSPENDED AND PROBABLY THROUGH

OLD HURLER ABSENT WHEN GAME STARTS

DALLAS, July 16. (AP)—Old Grover Cleveland Alexander, idol of major league baseball fans for two decades, appeared today to be at the end of the long trail. His arm still possesses much of the cunning that established him among baseball's immortals, but the old master no longer has the will to keep himself in even pretty good condition.

Unless some Texas league club claims Old Pete at the waiver price of $1,500 by sundown tonight, he is through in this circuit. Very probably he will be through in organized baseball. Baseball men were doubtful any minor league club will be willing to give Alex another opportunity such as was afforded him by the Dallas Steers when the Philadelphia Nationals cut him loose more than a month ago.

The blow-off came yesterday, when Alexander, scheduled to pitch against the Beaumont Exporters, failed to appear at the park. It was the second straight day he had remained at his hotel, failing even to notify his employers he would not be on hand. Bob Tarleton, vice president of the Dallas club, announced that Alex was suspended for breaking training and sent waiver wires over the league.

The Dallas club was understood to have withheld Alexander's $1,500-a-month salary check, at least temporarily. Unless he is claimed at the waiver price today he will be given his outright release.

Gulf Guns Expect to Trample Cats And Play Memphis for Big Title

By winning their game with the Amarillo Cats this afternoon the Gulf Guns will stand a good chance to win the Globe-News tournament. The Guns are heavy favorites and are doped to win. If they play as they did while eliminating the Magnolias last Sunday, the Pampa team will be listed as a leading contender for first honors.

Haddock is scheduled to occupy the mound but if things don't go well, Lefty Graham will be given a last chance to redeem himself. Last year, Lefty was awarded a prize for being the most valuable man to his team in the tournament. In three games this season, he has failed to deliver, but the Guns have ample reasons to believe that he will finally come into his own.

Before the tournament the Amarillo Cats were not classed as a serious obstacle. They were beaten by the Magnolias twice and once by Skellytown. However, the Cats' showing against the Canadian River Gas team was good and they held the latter team to a two-run margin.

The second game this afternoon will find the Tacks and Silverton facing each other in the yard. The winners of the Gun-Cat game and the Tack-Silverton fracas will fight it out tomorrow or the next day. The Guns are confident of victory. They regard Memphis as the team they will have to defeat to win the tournament.

Mrs. Wm. M. Craven, 423 North Somerville, has as her guests this week three sisters, Mrs. Robert Williams and Mrs. M. S. Hardy of Dallas and Mrs. J. B. Winfield of Brownwood.

Heavy shipments of material to the power plant being constructed near Mobeetie, are moving thru the local yards. Car inspector L. C. Bailey has completed repairs on the grain cars used in the rush of the wheat harvest, and is now busy in handling hot boxes.

Odds Are Even On Mandell Now

NEW YORK, July 16. (AP)—Al Singer of the Bronx and Sammy Mandell, king of lightweights, meet in a 15-round title battle at the Yankee stadium tomorrow night.

The odds against Singer have shortened to 6 to 5 with the possibility that the boxers will go into the ring at even money. Expert opinion that Mandell has weakened himself by his strenuous battle to get down to 135 pounds is reflected in the shortened odds. Reports say that Sammy still has a pound to "boil off" before he can hope to tip the scales at the class limit.

WACO WITHIN TWO WINS OF COLUMN TOP

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Continuing their remarkable string of victories under the arc lights last night at Shreveport while the Houston Buffs were knocking off the leading Wichita Falls Spudgers in their home lot, the Waco Cubs advanced within two games of the Texas league pinnacle.

Bill Harris limited the Sports to four scattered hits and blanked them, 2 to 0, for the Cubs' thirteenth triumph in fourteen starts after dark. It was, as well, the Prattmen's fifth straight win on the road they having swept a three-game series at Fort Worth before invading Louisiana.

In downing the Sports last night, Harris bested no less doughty a warrior than old Oscar Tuero, the league's leading twirler, who had won thirteen games and lost only one up to the time of his collision with the slim Waco star. Tuero owed his downfall directly to the bat of the veteran Jodie Tate, who drove in both Waco runs with a double and triple. Harris whiffed six batters.

The Spudgers put on a typical six-run rally in the ninth, but fell short and Houston squared their series, 11 to 7. Young Allyn Stout limited the leaders to three hits until the closing frame, when he went haywire and was relieved by Joe Brown. The Bisons pounded three Spud hurriers for 13 hits; Morrow leading with a home run and single. Storti, Wichita second baseman, had a big day afield with 12 perfectly handled chances.

When Grover Alexander failed to appear at the Dallas park to face Beaumont, apparently having forgotten the engagement, Manager Jakey Atz entrusted the assignment to another patriarch, Walter Kinney, and was rewarded with a 14 to 12 victory over the Shippers. Kinney, a chunky southpaw who went up to the Boston Red Sox from Dallas in 1918, only to jump the big show a few years later, showed up at Beer stadium a week ago and asked for a chance. He held the Exporters to five hits for eight innings, but tired in the ninth and was whaled from the hill. The Steers pounded Vaughn and Green for 21 hits, Kinney and Leo Cotter getting four apiece.

Sam Leslie, the San Antonio Indians' new first baseman, smacked two home runs and two doubles to lead the tribe to a 12 to 10 victory at Fort Worth. Cox of the Cats also parked a pair in the free hitting contest. The Panthers pounded three Injun chunkers for 16 hits, while the visitors bunched 12 off four Cat moundsmen.

CLARK GIVES UP ONE HIT TO PIRATES

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Major league teams with good pitching are progressing pennantward. The Brooklyn Robins, whose moundsmen have played important parts in keeping them at the head of the National league, produced the season's best example of what a pitcher can do yesterday when Watson Clark pitched a one-hit game against the Pittsburgh Pirates to gain a 5 to 0 victory.

His performance missed perfection by a small margin. Pie Traynor touched him for a single in the second inning and promptly was thrown out attempting to steal second. A little later Engle drew Pittsburgh's only walk. Only once before this year has a team failed to make more than one hit in a game. Bob Grove of the Athletics limited Detroit to a single blow in a five inning affair, July 1.

In contrast to Brooklyn there are the Phillies, the leading hitting club of the National league, who are clear down at the bottom of the standing because their rivals hit just as hard against them. The Phillies were on the short end of a 7 to 6 score against the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday to take their twentieth beating in their last 25 games. They used three hurriers ineffectively while Burleigh Grimes went the route for the Cards. Chicago and Boston played a similar game, the Cubs winning 5 to 3 as young Bob Osborn outlasted three brave pitchers although each team made nine hits.

Cincinnati and New York didn't give the throwers a chance in their slugging match, which went to the Reds by a 14 to 8 count. The winners made 15 hits off four pitchers while Larry Benton finally had to rescue Ray Kopp as the Giants started hitting home runs late in the game.

The pitching contrast in the American league comes principally from Washington and St. Louis. The Senators have won fame as well as a high place through the ability of their hurriers to last the full distance. They have suffered a bit since starting west, losing a series to Detroit, but Fred Marberry got them back into their stride yesterday, holding the Tigers to five hits to win, 3 to 0.

The St. Louis Browns, weak both in hitting and pitching, have a record almost as bad as that of the Phillies although they are keeping out of the league cellar by a few points. The Athletics made it 20 defeats in 27 games for them as Walberg and Rommel bested Bleaholder and Stiles in an odd game. Walberg did not yield a hit but wildness drove him out in the third inning, and Rommel continued the hitless performance until the ninth inning when the Browns made all of their four blows.

Herb Pennock of New York continued his hurling record to lead the Yankees to a 9 to 5 victory over the Chicago White Sox. He gave 14 hits but no walks, making it 14 games and 92 2-3 innings this season with only six passes. The humble Boston Red Sox did some real hitting in the remaining game, making 16 blows for a 13 to 4 decision over Cleveland.

Real Golf Hazard
LOS ANGELES, July 16. (AP)—Bearl Sprott, operator of a miniature golf course, today offered his customers something new in hazards—a cinnimol bear cub. Players must put through the bear's cage to the green and the bear has been trained to stop golf balls. Sprott says it takes a clever golfer to put one past the bear.

DANCING JUDITH

By CORALIE STANTON and HEATH HOSKEN. COPYRIGHT 1930 BY CHELSEA HOUSE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Judith Grant, beautiful artist's model, shares her Greenwich Village apartment with Clarissa Morley, known as "Chummy," a beautiful girl who lost her memory seven years ago when her lover, Alan Steyne, abruptly disappeared. Steyne comes back on the scene and Judith arranges a meeting with Chummy, but Chummy falls utterly, so, to recognize her former lover, he no longer loves Chummy; in Steyne, meanwhile, tells Judith that he finally kisses her and declares that he loves her. Judith spurns him, however, and refuses to let him help her provide medical care for Chummy, whose mental condition is growing worse. Judith goes to pose for Vincent Stormaway, wealthy portrait painter, at whose house she meets Bruce Gideon, a singularly ugly financier, who becomes smitten with her but whose advances she rebuffs. She returns home to find Chummy radiant with happiness. Chummy tells her that she has dreamed that Alan has returned.

CHAPTER VII

It was a miracle, Judith could hardly believe her eyes or her ears. Chummy had mentioned Alan Steyne's name. She had spoken it for the first time since Judy had known her.

Moreover, there was a difference in her face. Something had come into it that Judy had never seen—a brightness, a shining beauty, which made it look in its frail pallor as if it were illumined by a flame from within.

Judy could only marvel as she hung over the bed. Chummy's memory had come back! This illness had been a blessing in disguise.

Judy was beside herself with excitement. Only the instinct of her loyal little heart made her say and do the right thing. She might have made irremediable mistakes in those first moments; but she just listened to Chummy's voice, with that new note in it—the tender note of the woman talking about the man she loves.

"You never knew Alan, did you, Judy? It is funny I should have dreamed about him just now. Something queer must have happened to me. I seem to have forgotten a lot of things. He went away long ago—I think it was long ago. He was wonderfully clever, but he never got on; and he couldn't wait, you see. It's awfully hard waiting—when you're a man."

"Oh, Chummy, and this—this was your own particular boy?" asked Judy in a trembling voice. "I was awfully fond of him, Judy, and—I think he was awfully fond of me," said the low voice, "but I never heard from him. I think I must have forgotten him for quite a time, but just now I had this dream, and it was so clear, and real! Alan looked quite different, but it was Alan, and he had come back."

"I expect that means he will, Chummy," said Judy decidedly. "I always thought there was a lot in dreams; but now you go to sleep, or you'll be getting tired. If your young man's coming back, you must be quite well and strong." Chummy turned on her pillow and looked at her friend. "Judy, tell me, is there anything the matter with me?" she asked in a voice of utter bewilderment. "I really do feel queer. Do I look any—any different?"

Judy laughed merrily. "Well, you do look prettier than I ever saw you, darling! I call it worth while being ill. Perhaps you had lost your memory a bit—such funny things happen!—and it's coming back to you all of a sudden; go to sleep now and dream about but don't worry, whatever you do, your Alan again, and I'll make you some tea."

She was still very weak, and she Chummy seemed to be satisfied, fell into a comfortable doze.

Judy went to make the tea over the gas ring in her box in the attic. While the kettle came to a boil, she stood lost in profound thought.

Chummy's memory had come back! A picture rose before Judy's mind of the night when Alan Steyne had really returned—when Chummy had smiled her baby smile at him, and looked at him without recognition, and, with complacent vacancy, had called him a handsome boy and a nice boy.

When Chummy was strong again, she would be like everybody else. The next time she saw Alan Steyne she would know him. Judy was overjoyed. No personal consideration would ever disturb her loyalty to her friend.

Alan Steyne was Chummy's property. Now that she would know him, and still loved him, he must prove his faith and marry her at once. Through her brain, filled with the mists of forgetfulness, his image had already struggled, though she believed she had seen him only in a dream.

Judy's next thought was to consult Doctor O'Shane. The nurse had come back, and Chummy was settled for the night. Judy saw the doctor in his office. She told him her great news, and he expressed approval of her conduct. Nothing must be hurried, he said. Something had happened during Chummy's illness to break down the blank wall of forgetfulness.

Judy went on to the Cafe Turc. Dan, the long, lean waiter with the face of a Roman emperor and the sunny tenor voice, was the first person to whom she imparted her splendid news.

"Dan, Miss Morley is ever so much better. And what do you think?—she's got her memory back again! When you see her again she'll be like her old self, just like you and me."

Bastien Dumont was late in looking in that night. Judy had almost given him up. And she was frowning with irritation or having to bottle up her feelings—which, after all, Bastien would understand better than anyone else, because he was Chummy's oldest friend among the crowd.

When she told him, she threw it at him like a bomb. "Chummy's got her memory back! Bastien. She dreamed Alan Steyne had come back; and she looks—well, I can't tell you how she looks. I never saw anyone like her! So now, you see, it's going to be all right. They'll meet, and Chummy will know him, and they'll be married and live happily ever after!"

Bastien's eyes kindled as they rested on her eager face. He had been nursing miserable, jealous thoughts about Steyne lately. He had seen Judy with him; he knew that they had been out together the night that Chummy was taken ill. There could be nothing in it, after all. Judy could never talk like this if she had a spark of feeling for Steyne herself.

He expressed his delight and drank to Chummy's health. Then he said:

"I saw Steyne this afternoon. He is going to Paris."

"To Paris."

"Yes—some business, or other. This old collector he was secretary to left some pictures to the Louvre and the Luxembourg, and there's some dispute that Steyne has to settle."

"It's a good thing," Judy said. "I do want Chummy to be quite well when she sees him again. Of course, he's been inquiring for her, and it would be difficult to have to explain it all. Oh, Bastien, isn't it wonderful?"

But the young man's face was gloomy.

"You can take enough interest in other people's love affairs," Bastien said. "Oh, Judy, you'll drive me mad!"

"Don't be absurd, Bastien," she answered, with the straight, kind look she always had for him. "Let me tell you a discovery I've made, old boy. Clara Jenks is crazy about you!"

He gave an impatient exclamation, which caused the girl to continue with a touch of mischief: "It's perfectly true, Bastien. I tell you that girl's a duck and a brick, and one of the very best, and mark my words, one day she'll be a star. Anyone who could make me laugh as she did while Chummy lay dying is simply bound to be famous! And yet all the time her heart was bursting with misery, just like mine. Bastien, if Clara loves you as much as I think she does, you're a lucky chap—indeed you are!"

"Judy, stop it!" was all he answered. "You're mocking me."

It was February—a soft day of mist and sudden warmth with just a shimmer of green upon the trees in the parks, as if carelessly brushed on, but by an unerring hand.

Judy stood with Alan Steyne in Chummy's room, which was furnished up as far as her slender resources allowed, and bright with spring flowers, contributed almost blissom by blossom by the "boys" of the Cafe Turc as tokens of their joy at Chummy's recovery.

"Chummy's out," Judy said. "She is quite well again, and her memory has come back. I tried to write to tell you in Paris, but it was too difficult. She dreamed about you first, but it must have been in her mind that she had seen you. She—she loves you awfully. O'Shane told me I wasn't to hurry her memory; but I've been telling her that I believe in dreams, and I know she thinks you're coming back."

Steyne looked perplexed and troubled.

"Judy," he said, "it is no good. It's only asking for trouble. It's much better to let her know at once that I never cared for her like that. Judy, you know it's no good!"

Suddenly he stopped. There were footsteps outside. Judy had said that Chummy was out and would not come back until late. She was meeting a relative with whom she had communicated since her recovery. Judy had made the appointment with Alan on purpose to tell him.

The door opened. He gave one terrified look at the figure that entered. It was Chummy—the Chummy of the old days, hardly aged by a minute—a wonderful vision, like some delicate statuette wrought in silver and ivory and gold.

She saw him and stood quite still for a moment. Then, with a cry, and straight and swift as an arrow speeding from a bow, she ran into his arms.

Audit at McLean Shows Economies in Administration

McLEAN, July 16. (Special) — An audit of the city finances here has just been completed by J. B. Wright, the audit covering the period from April 1, 1929, to March 31, 1930, and being the third audit made by Mr. Wright for McLean.

Items of interest in the report show that delinquent taxes for the last year amounted to 20 per cent of the total assessment on March 21, but they have decreased considerably since then and City Secretary W. E. Bogan says a large amount of them should be collected by fall. Total tax assessments amounted to $20,842.27; collected to March 31, $16,044.46, leaving $4,797.81 delinquent. Forty-six old accounts totaling $1,368.83 were charged off the books.

Increase in revenue of $7,397.22 and an increase in expenses of $4,300.78, a net increase in revenue of $3,096.44, for the year was shown in the report.

The sewer system showed a net revenue of $2,328.81, an increase of 50 per cent over last year. The waterworks system showed an increase of $946.82; net revenue from works was $4,894.20. Waterworks expenses include heat for pump office, $43.19; auto expense, $135.83; material, $17.85.

A more economical management of city affairs has resulted in these increases in revenue.

The auditor suggested that $14,000 waterworks or sewer bonds be issued, due serially over a period of ten years, such bonds to be placed in the bank to the account of the interest and sinking funds, or sold and proceeds so applied.

Two fingers of Harold Vessell were amputated at McLean and Connor hospital yesterday following an accident at the No. 3 Combs in which the members were caught between a chain and a cog and were badly mangled. The patient left the hospital today.

Nazarene Revival Is Scheduled Here

B. H. Edwards of Wichita, Kans., one of the leading Nazarene preachers in that state, arrived in Pampa today to make plans for a revival meeting which will begin next week at a tent near the West Ward school. The revival will continue a month, according to Mr. Edwards, when a Nazarene church will be organized here and a building constructed.

If the tent arrives by Saturday the meeting will begin Sunday night. There are now about 20 members of the Nazarene faith living here, Rev. Edwards said. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy of the Berger Nazarene church will be in charge of the singing and music. The public is invited to attend the services. Mr. Edwards stated that the church to be organized will conform to the faith of the authentic Nazarene church and that it will be the only one of its kind here.

Texas territory, explaining his stand on the highway bond proposal, Small was in Corpus Christi.

Small in Sterling Area
 Small attacked the proposed $350,000,000 highway bond issue, saying Texas would never launch a policy of taking up road bond indebtedness of counties when in many counties there were no roads to show for the large expenditures made. The candidate planned to speak today at Beville, Goliad, and Victoria.

Sterling reiterated his stand, stating he was attempting to relieve home owners and was not attempting to put a heavier tax burden on their shoulders as he assertedly had been accused by what he termed the "professional politicians in the race."

Sterling was booked today for speeches at Henrietta, Bowie, Alford, Decatur and Dallas. "Ma" being ill and unable to appear herself, former governor James E. Ferguson spoke last night at Brownwood to plead his wife's cause as a gubernatorial candidate. He attacked the road bond issue plan and declared he was running his wife's race "and not that of any other candidate."

Tonight Mrs. Ferguson was booked to appear at San Angelo. Earle B. Mayfield, at Clarksville in the afternoon and last night at Texarkana centered his attack upon the candidacy of Ross S. Sterling and Sterling's proposed highway bond plan.

Mayfield termed this "uneconomic, unwise and unnecessary." Mayfield planned to speak today at Atlanta, Jefferson and Marshall. Lieut. Gov. Barry Miller, at Beaumont, reiterated his conviction that the highway department should "pay as it goes" and that a state road bond issue would be "placing a mortgage on our children and our children's children to get highways." His program called for a speech to-night at Galveston.

Love Attacks Young
 Thomas B. Love, who claims to be the only "anti-Tammany" candidate for governor, in a speech at Brady upbraided Jim Young for his asserted attack on virtually all of the other claimed "Tammany" candidates. "Even the Tammanys are entitled to a square deal," Love said. "And unless these Tammanys get along more harmoniously they are likely to hurt the Democratic party," he warned. In a quasi-humorous vein, he expected to speak today at Rock Springs.

With more dramatic setting, Jim Young of Kaufman stood in front of the Alamo in San Antonio and pleaded for "freedom of Texas from factional politics." He appealed for a united Democratic party and declared himself the only one of the major gubernatorial candidates with a clean slate in party affairs. He again demanded that Sterling resign his highway commission chairmanship. He planned to speak to-night at Corpus Christi.

H. E. Withey, Amarillo, representing the Innes Wholesale Furniture company, was in Pampa yesterday.

WHEAT IS HIGHER
 CHICAGO, July 16. (AP)—Uncasiness over persistent dry weather in spring crop sections both north and south of the Canadian border led to higher prices today for wheat. Particular notice was taken of dispatches from Bismarck, N. D., that the condition of wheat in surrounding territory is going back fast, as a result of premature ripening. Starting 1/4-3/8c up, wheat afterward reacted somewhat, but then rose higher than before. Corn showed decided strength, opening at 1/2-1/8c gain, and later holding near to the initial figures. Oats were firm, provisions advanced.
