20 QUIT IN DRASTIC PLANS WPA SHAKEUP

SCOUT TROOP COMMITTEES ASSIGNED JOB

MEN WILL FORM BOARD OF REVIEWS FOR TROOPS

From now on, it will be necessary for Scout committees to meet with Boy Scouts at least once each month. Last night at the regular monthly meeting of the Scoutmasters roundtable, the Scout leaders decided that the Scout committees would serve as boards of review for the various troops. The Scout committees will meet with the troops a week or so before the Court of Honor, and will review all boys coming up for merit badges, second class, first class, star, life and Eagle ranks. The chairman of the Board of Review will sign each card; members of the Scout committees may alternate as chairman, it was understood.

Niagara's Glittering Wilderness Of Ice

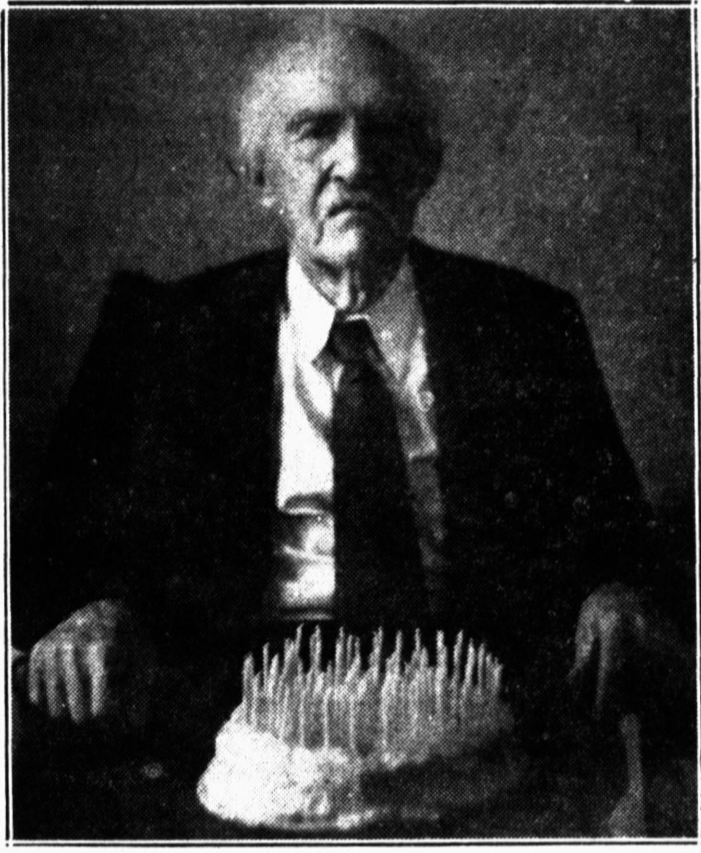

Ice, a million tons in a million blocks of a million shapes and sizes, piled 60 feet high at the foot of Niagara Falls. The picture above gives a fair idea of the magnitude of the ice movement, which, rivermen say, was the greatest since 1908 and which threatened to be gained from the latter encrusted cliffs rose 300 feet high along the side of this gorge. An idea of the magnitude of the churning pit in the foreground can be gained from the latter embedded in the ice beside it.

Hines Sees Prosperity

BORGER ROAD TO BE BUILT SAYS OFFICIAL

Pampa and the Panhandle of Texas are on the threshold of a long period of prosperity and industrial activity, Harry Hines, of the Texas highway commission, told a chamber of commerce luncheon and radio audience here today. "In making an inspection of the highways around Pampa this forenoon," Mr. Hines stated, "particularly from Pampa to Borger to Dumas, one finds that this area is emerging out of the depression very rapidly and will undoubtedly come into its own in 1937 or 1938. "The oil industry occupies a very enviable position in the economic life of the nation and certainly Pampa and its environs will for many, many years continue to expand by reason of the vastness of the productive area plus the fact that in addition to production of oil, the manufacturing end, which involves gasoline and carbon black plants, will continue to give an industrial aspect to the area that is not enjoyed by all producing areas, for which your people can be thankful. "The highway commissioner also made another statement of great interest to Pampans when he said that construction of the Borger-Pampa highway, with the aid of federal funds, is expected to begin within the next three or four months. The highway, he stated, has been designated as part of the federal system and as such is eligible to participation in federal money.

Pioneer Celebrates 90th Birthday

DISMISSAL OF GUY C. HOLDER IS PROTESTED

DROUGHT FLAYS GROUP FOR ATTITUDE IN MATTER

AMARILLO, March 9 (AP)—Resignations of 20 division of operation employees of the Amarillo Works Progress Administration have been accepted by State Administrator H. O. Drought, District Director A. A. Meredith said today. Led by Charles W. Edwards, who held the position of field superintendent for the Amarillo district, a committee of six representing the employees met with Drought, protesting the recent dismissal by Meredith of Guy C. Holder, former chief of the operations division, and delivered the ultimatum that they would resign, thus closing project operations, unless Meredith were discharged. After accepting the resignations of the group, Drought said: "An agency which is responsible for the welfare of destitute persons can not compromise with individuals who present a proposal which would interfere with its efficient operation. "Four other districts are now being drawn upon to supply the necessary supervisory personnel for projects which are affected by the resignations and these new men will be on these jobs Tuesday morning. "This personnel will mean these jobs until qualified personnel residing in the Amarillo district have been found. If interruptions in work on any projects do occur, the workers will be given an opportunity to make up the lost time."

INDUSTRY HAS EYE ON PLAINS

PAMPA - BORGER ROAD TO BEGIN IN 3 OR 4 MONTHS

American industry is taking notice of the Panhandle's unlimited supply of cheap fuel and industrial development of this section of the country is only beginning, Col. Ernest O. Thompson, state railroad commissioner, told a luncheon audience assembled at Borger yesterday afternoon to celebrate the city's 11th birthday. New fields of industrial activity are being opened here, he stated, due to the discovery of new by-products in gas processing. Harry Hines, member of the state highway commission, who spoke in Pampa this noon, also was one of the principal speakers at the anniversary observance. Important among his assertions was the statement that construction of the Pampa-Borger highway is expected to begin within the next three or four months. The highway, he stated, has been designated part of the federal highway system and because of this fact will be eligible as a recipient of federal aid. The highway commissioner also expressed the hope that State Highway 41 soon will be extended to Dumas. A huge birthday cake, with congratulations from Pampa, was presented to Jake Stahl, who presided at the luncheon, by F. M. Culbertson. The cake, two by three feet, was donated to the Pampa Board of City Development for the occasion by the Pur-an Bakery. A three-mile long parade was witnessed by approximately 5,000 persons who lined Borger's main street. The birthday celebration was sponsored by the Hutchinson County American Legion Post with the cooperation of all of the city's civic bodies. The Amarillo delegation to the celebration presented Borger citizens with a huge bouquet.

100,000 Sitting Down

(By The Associated Press.)

Industrial conflict enveloped a large segment of the automotive industry today, raising to more than 100,000 the number of persons made idle by strikes from coast to coast. While workers deserted scores of factories and business establishments to enforce various demands, leaders of rival organized labor groups drew plans for far-reaching unionization drives. The United Automobile Workers of America, balked in its effort to gain recognition as sole bargaining agent for 67,000 Chrysler Corporation employees, called sit-down strikes that closed nine Chrysler plants in Detroit. In addition to some 55,000 Chrysler workers in Detroit, 4,000 at the company's new Castle, Ind., plant were made idle. The Briggs Mfg. Co., which supplies Chrysler with bodies, curtailed operations at Detroit, throwing 4,500 out of work. U. A. W. strikes at the Hudson Motor Car company's three manufacturing plants at Detroit plunged 10,000 workers into idleness. Production at the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. at Akron, O., closely associated with the automotive industry, was at a standstill for the fifth day, keeping 10,000 idle. Richard T. Frankenstein, organizational director of the U. A. W., said the meeting would be held at 2 p. m. (EST) in the Chrysler plant, one of nine held by strikers. He made the announcement a little more than an hour after K. T. Keller, corporation president attempting to enter the offices, was turned back by pickets who barricaded the main gate. Keller said that "from now on, they deal with the courts."

WALLIS TO BE FETED IN A SWELL CHATEAU

MONTS, France, March 9 (AP)—A large house party in chateaud-studded Touraine looked forward today to the arrival of Wallis Warfield Simpson, and her Riviera friends, Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Rogers. The Chateau de Candie, where American-born Mrs. Charles E. Bedaux will welcome her guests, was decorated with 10,000 francs ($450) worth of flowers in preparation for the expected visit of the bride-to-be of the Duke of Windsor. Some members of the party hinted a "very distinguished person" may join the party. They declined to disclose this person's identity. Some mention was made that it might be "one of the Duke's entourage."

RACE PLANT'S USE PONDERED

VARIOUS PLANS TALKED BY CITY DADS IN MEETING

To what use can Fairground park's racing plant be put should horse racing in Texas be outlawed, was the question in the minds of city commissioners in session last night. Mayor W. A. Bratton was in Beaumont where he was called as a witness in a court case. Plans advanced by commissioners in their discussion were to hold cowboy races, fair, stock shows and stock sales, rodeo, etc. Preliminary plans for construction of an auditorium were also discussed. City Manager C. L. Stine announced that the dam at the park was nearly completed. Work yet to be done included completion of the spillway, leveling of the road across the top of the dam and installing the valve in the drain. The regular monthly list of bills were studied for payment.

GUN IN REDWOOD DEATH TRACED, SARAGA JAILED

HACKENSACK, N. J., March 9 (AP)—A New York gun dealer, identified by Prosecutor John J. Breslin, Jr., as Moe Saraga, was held without bail today as a material witness in the killing of E. Norman Redwood, New York "Sandhog" union leader. Breslin said Saraga was the last known possessor of one of the pistols used to kill Redwood in the front of his Teaneck home February 19. He was taken off the Queen Mary when it docked in New York early today, Breslin said, and rushed to the Wadsworth avenue police station—New York headquarters of the special police bureau set up to find the Redwood killers—and then brought to Hackensack. Saraga, Breslin said, was known as "Luger Mike." The prosecutor quoted him as saying the gun was part of a shipment sent to the Cuban government in April, 1933, aboard a Ward liner. Breslin held officials of the steamship line, the customs service and Cuban government had been questioned and that all said no such shipment was made. The witness, Breslin said, was also a buyer for a New York meat company and had been abroad to help him in Roumania. The gun was traced to him, the prosecutor stated, through records of the manufacturer.

I Heard...

Bill Holt being dubbed "detective" yesterday after he had solved a baffling "robbery." It all happened on Saturday night when Shelby Gandy reported to a police officer that his watch had been stolen. Shelby thought he knew the culprit. Yesterday Bill went into Shelby's store to look at suits. He tried on a coat and hanging to a button was Shelby's watch and chain. The chain had apparently hung onto a button of the coat when Shelby was placing it back on the rack.

Police Protection Sought

More adequate police protection for Pampa business houses is being sought by the Pampa Credit association. A committee of two from the association appeared before the commissioners' court at its regular meeting Monday afternoon and requested appointment of a deputy constable to augment the present force of officers. The two-man committee reported to the court that during 1935 and 1936 there were 22 burglaries and robberies in Pampa which never have been solved. Members of the commission said they would take the request under advisement. It is likely a report will be made at the next regular meeting of the court. Indications today were that the merchants' request will be met. At their meeting yesterday, commissioners also approved bills for the month and decided to make an inspection trip Friday to two proposed lake sites in Gray county.

Hamlin Names Winners In 'Foozy Limericks' Contest

By V. T. HAMLIN Artist Who Draws "Alley Oop" Hoykewow, as Alley Oop would say! I was swamped with replies to the first of the "Foozy Limericks": the one about "tough little mugs with faces like pugs." It seemed as if everybody and his brother and sister, and uncle and aunt, wrote a last line for that limerick. Yes sir, the grownups, as well as the children, tried their luck. And that pleased me immensely... and also Foozy, 'cause he wanted everybody to join in on the fun. Foozy, incidentally, was glad it wasn't up to him to decide on the three best last lines. He thought they all were swell. Well... so did I... but, after reading them over, I picked out three that I thought were a bit better than the rest. To the writers of these three lines I have mailed an original drawing of Alley Oop, Foozy and Dinky. Here are their names and addresses: Edward Staude, 74 West 76th St., New York City. Mrs. Scott Mitchell, 2121 Columbus Ave., Boulder, Colo. L. A. Rhinehart, Gridley, Calif. If you didn't win, with the first limerick, better luck next time! Be sure to watch for my next story, which will name the winners who wrote the best last lines for the limerick about Queen Unpateedie and the needle. And, also, watch for other "Foozy Limericks" in the Pampa Daily NEWS each Sunday.

Roosevelt Will Discuss Court Plans Tonight

100 SIT DOWN IN TEXAS SHOP

250 MEN AFFECTED IN MACHINISTS' STRIKE AT HOUSTON

HOUSTON, March 9 (AP)—More than 100 sit-down strikers at the Emco Derrick & Equipment Co., refusing to turn a wheel while demanding a 5-cent an hour wage increase, where in possession of the plant today and a number of workmen on the outside stood ready to help them. Local sources said the strike was the first "sit-down" affair, the type popularized recently by John L. Lewis' Committee of Industrial Organization to be staged by an affiliate of the American Federation of Labor. Company officials declined to comment. P. D. Browne, manager of the plant which employs about 250 men, could not be reached and the switchboard operator said he would not talk with newsmen. Dr. Edwin A. Elliott of Ft. Worth, industrial labor relations board representative, telephoned for Browne and was refused an interview at first. He later talked with Browne. Elliott told a newsmen the strikers agreed for him to help them get together with the company but that he had been unable to arrange a conference. Later Elliott and Browne conferred shortly. In addition to demanding more

OKLAHOMA CITY MAN TO TALK AT API TONIGHT

Topics of interest to everyone in the oil business, and to many not connected with the industry, will be discussed tonight in city auditorium when M. T. Montrose of Oklahoma City will give two illustrated lectures at the regular monthly meeting of the Panhandle chapter, American Petroleum Institute. The meeting will be called to order by Chairman C. E. Sturdevant at 8 o'clock. He will present the Woodrow Wilson band and glee club which will give the musical portion of the program. Besides the addresses by Mr. Montrose, a report on the trip to the Mid-Continent chapter convention in Tulsa and the securing of the 1938 convention for the Panhandle, will be made. Montrose, representative of the Lane-Wells company, will discuss gun perforating of casing and use of a new invention, a stratigraphic survey instrument which will log formations in the open hole or behind casing set in the well. The meeting will be free and open to anyone desiring to hear the lectures.

AMERICAN MUNITIONS EITHER SUNK OR TAKEN

ARCACHON, France, March 9 (AP)—Declaring he last saw the shell-pounded transatlantic munitions ship Mar Cantabrico, in tow of the insurgent warship Canarias, Juan Poo, a Spanish seaman related today a dramatic story of escape under bombardment in the Bay of Biscay. His story indicated the Mar Cantabrico might not have been sunk and that her 42,700,000 load of American munitions might have fallen into the hands of the insurgents. Poo, picked up out of the sea by a French fishing boat after he had leaped from the ship and burning Mar Cantabrico, said he believed the ship's seventeen passengers, including two Americans, had been taken aboard the Canarias. However, the last he knew, the Mar Cantabrico's 150 crew members still were imprisoned aboard their own ship. Poo declared he leaped overboard with an Italian sailor when he saw the French fishing boat. Gamelegs nearby, the Italian drowned but he reached the French vessel and was hauled aboard.

I Saw...

The friendliest man in Pampa today—Harry Hines of the highway commission. If you didn't come up and make his acquaintance he made yours. Friends in the chamber of commerce kidding Mrs. Grace Pool. She was wearing a new spring coat, and by accident she left the price tag on the sleeve, and did not discover it until her friends did—after a lengthy stroll.

50-Year Wheeler Resident Recalls Pioneer Day Incidents At Mobeetie

Editor's Note: The following is one of a series of stories interpreting pioneer personalities of this section, describing life in the early days. This article is based on an interview with M. V. Sanders of Wheeler, father of P. O. Sanders of Pampa. It will be published in three installments.

By LULU MAE FARLEY (Continued from Monday) "When I came to Mobeetie there were only 16 farms, ranches, and cow camps in Wheeler county. Most of them were small, about a quarter of a section. John Cochran was located on Graham Creek. B. F. Glampitt was situated between Sweetwater and Graham Creek. McCamy was on Spring Creek. Located on Russell Creek were the farms of J. W. McKinley, D. W. Van Horn, Nesbit, and Judge Emanuel Dubbs. This place is now known as the Sorrenson ranch. Mr. McHughes had a place, W. J. Miller settled where Hill now lives east of Wheeler on Sweetwater. Henry Fry was located on Sweetwater east and north of the present site of the town of Wheeler. F. A. Bailey was just east and south of Henry Fry's. Ed Hill had a farm and a cow camp on Murtough Creek. Fred Rathjen located on Murtough Creek (he has a son who now lives near Wheeler). F. M. Patton had a ranch on Sweetwater where the Stiles ranch now is. Z. T. Miller had a ranch on Sweetwater. William Nesbit located at Nesbit Springs southeast of Wheeler. R. B. Masterson and J. R. Wright had property on the North Fork. George Turcotte and his father-in-law lived on North Fork also. Ralph Cole and his brothers had a sheep ranch on North Fork, northwest of where the town of Shamrock now is. Nick Eaton had a cow camp below Hay Hollow and R. W. Parrott was located six miles south of Wheeler on Bronco Creek.

This is an example of Mr. Sanders' amazing faculty for recalling dates and locations as all of these were given off-hand without any reference to notes or books. He did not have a chance to look any of these things up beforehand as the interview was entirely impromptu.

After about six years on the range Sanders accepted a job with John L. Dickerson and worked in his general merchandise store for two years.

"Port Elliott was condemned in February, 1889, and was abandoned in November, 1889. Most of the soldiers moved away but a few remained to make their homes in this section. In 1892 the bodies of those buried in the Fort Elliott cemetery were removed. Only three of four bodies were left there.

"Only two men met violent deaths and family left today on a business trip to Amarillo and different parts of New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mann of Pampa spent the week-end in the home of Mrs. Mann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Barnett.

The many friends of D. D. Payne will be glad to learn that he is able to get at home. Mr. Payne had a serious accident in Amarillo early in December. After several weeks in St. Anthony's hospital he was taken to Quanah where he has been with relatives. Radford Howard of Quanah accompanied Mr. Payne home as he has not recovered enough to drive his car.

Mrs. Montgomery and her brother, Clifford Speace of Pampa, are visiting relatives in Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whitson are visiting in Amarillo.

Mrs. Sterling Simmons is visiting her daughter in Amarillo.

Mrs. W. V. Martin, who has been seriously ill at Pampa-Jarratt hospital, was able to be taken to her home on Sunday.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY PSYCHOANALYST

Tangee, youthful psycho-analyst, appearing all this week at the La-Nora theater, has offered to answer the questions of Pampans through the columns of the NEWS.

First questions made through this medium are reprinted with Tangee's answers here today. Anyone wishing to have a question answered may address Tangee at the La-Nora. There is no charge for any of his services and he has nothing to sell.

Today's questions: Q.—How long will I live in Pampa and how soon will I be married? Will I be in any kind of business soon? G. H. K. A.—My dear Mrs. G. H. K.: Pampa is a growing community and my advice to you if you are interested in getting into a business and making a success would be to remain here, for you in your present environment are among friends. But if you feel you must leave, instead of making a permanent move, take a short vacation and when you return, you will be able to see things much brighter than you see them at the present time.

My advice to you, also, is to develop self-confidence, for it seems that when ideas present themselves, you are often afraid to venture. In business you do have the ability and could be quite successful.

In my opinion, concerning the question of matrimony, I am sorry I am unable to answer as I do not forecast the future.

Apparently people seem to like me, but I have trouble making intimate friends. In your opinion, what is my greatest fault? M. B. A.—My dear M. B.: You could make lasting friends if you would learn the value of self-sacrifice. You show inclinations toward selfishness. Do not be afraid to do your share. You will find by eliminating this quality that your friends will be plentiful and of a lasting nature.

Concerning your question of matrimony—I am inclined to believe that I will have to leave that to you as I do not delve into the future for it is my opinion that no one can foresee the future events of another's life.

PLAY TO BE PRESENTED HERE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

By COLLEEN McMAHON The play's the thing! And it certainly will be the thing. For when the citizens of Pampa feast their eyes on "The Whole Town's Talking," senior play to be presented March 10 and 11 at the high school auditorium, all other interest in life will cease.

The direction of Kenneth Carman, head of public speaking, and the ability of the well chosen cast guarantee the most sparkling entertainment seen and heard in months.

Anita Loos of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes—But Marry Brunettes" fame, and John Emerson are responsible for this dynamic, stimulating farce.

Those in the play are Maxine Wheatley, Madge Head, Colleen McMahon, Betty Bains, Isabelle Wagon, Annie Johnson, and Dorothy Jo Moore, Arvo Goddard, Richard Kilgore, Earl Rice, Eugene Finkbeiner, and Bobby Banks.

The time: Wednesday, 8 p. m. The place: High School auditorium. The price: 25c and 35c. Reserved seats are 10c.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bryan are the parents of a daughter, born this morning at Worley hospital.

NEW SECRETARY IS ELECTED IN CIRCLE OF WMS

Study Continues In Mission Book For Methodists

Continued study in a mission book, Out of Africa, marked meetings of First Methodist Missionary circles yesterday in members' homes. Circle one in business session elected Mrs. H. O. Roberts secretary to replace Mrs. Carlton Nance, resigned.

Mrs. H. McBebe was hostess to circle one at her home, where 17 members met. Mrs. Sam Cook conducted the devotional and Mrs. R. B. Fisher the lesson on the subject, Christian Interest in Africa. Mrs. Roberts sang a spiritual in keeping with the program theme.

Four visitors met with 15 members of circle two in Mrs. Homer Lively's home. Mmes. Gervin McCaskall, Earl McConnell, W. E. Davis, and A. F. Johnson were the guests.

Mrs. W. R. Ewing spoke of Uganda in Africa; Mrs. C. W. Poote reviewed an article from the National Geographic magazine, "Footprints in the Tropic Sands"; Mrs. John Hesse had charge of the topic, The Christian Mission in Africa, from the study book; Mrs. R. W. Lane told of experiences related to her by a missionary from Nigeria; Mrs. Monday spoke on Spiritual Life work.

After the program, devotional, and a short business session, the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Annie Culbertson was hostess to circle three, which had 15 members present, and as guest Mrs. J. A. Kelly's mother, Mrs. W. H. House, led a round-table study of the study chapter, and Mrs. Luther Pierson directed business. Group singing ended the program, and refreshments were served.

Mmes. W. M. Coakley and B. S. Via entertained circle four at the former's home. Mrs. Roger McConnell presided for business in the absence of Mrs. J. M. Turner. Mrs. C. T. Nicholson gave the invocation.

Purviance, study leader, was assisted by Mmes. John Platt, Hampton, Raeburn Thompson, J. M. Hash, Hayt Allen, and S. C. Evans. A visitor, Mrs. T. J. Wilson, was present with 21 members.

Emil Hurja Going Back To Business

WASHINGTON, March 9 (AP)—Emil Hurja, who called the turn on three elections for the democratic national committee, is going back to private business.

The gentle-voiced expert in prophecy and patronage, who volunteered his services to James A. Farley in 1932, said today he would quit politics within 60 days. Friends reported he would go to work for a New York insurance firm.

Hurja achieved a reputation as a political analyst by predicting: That Franklin D. Roosevelt would win in 1936. That the Democrats would gain new seats in congress in 1934. That Alf M. Landon would be the 1936 Republican candidate. That President Roosevelt would be re-elected.

His method: "When you begin to forecast elections, pluralities mean little. It's the percentage of the vote the party polled that counts," he once said. "Politics is a matter of geography."

11-Year Old Boy Dies Of Pneumonia

Conway Eugene Sitor, 11, died in a local hospital this morning of pneumonia. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sitor, 420 Doyle street. Mr. Sitor is with the Empire Oil Refining company. He has been a Pampa resident for seven years.

Survivors are the parents, a sister, Arthurine and a son, Bobby. Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in First Baptist church by the pastor, the Rev. C. E. Lancaster. Burial will follow in Fairview cemetery. The body will lie at rest at C. C. Malone Funeral home until time of services.

Question About CARDUI PERIODICAL PAINS

"Why do so many women take Cardui for functional pains of menstruation?" Each does of Cardui contains a purely vegetable sedative and antispasmodic—that is, a pain-relieving and cramp-relieving medicine that is especially effective at monthly periods.

This fact about Cardui (that it helps to relieve many of the ordinary functional pains of menstruation with a beneficial plant extract, not habit-forming, not objectionable to take) is greatly appreciated by thousands of women. They recommend it to others.

Cardui is a purely vegetable, liquid form, and comes in 5c tryst bottles, with full directions for use. Try it! If of course it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

DISTURBANCES IN OHIO CAUSE EARTH SHOCKS

RESIDENTS IN CHICAGO DESCRIBE VIBRATOR SHOCKS

CHICAGO, March 9 (AP)—Sismologists concurred today in ascribing earth shocks felt in seven mid-west states and Canada shortly before midnight to disturbance of glacial formations in northwest Ohio.

Sismograph records in several cities affected by the tremors and at Harvard university disclosed the shocks occurred at 11:45 a. m. (GST) and continues with varying intensity from two to 15 minutes.

The consensus was that the shocks bore close similarity to those experienced in the middle west last week but where slightly greater in severity. Both disturbances were termed "moderate" and traced to rock crust upheaval.

The latest series of tremors were distinctly felt but caused negligible damage in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, West Virginia, Michigan, Wisconsin and Ontario, Canada.

R. E. St. Clair said, "the windows rattled; a big mirror moved unsteadily."

Dr. J. M. Nicholson—"It shook the house."

Jack Reith—"It's an earthquake. I'm from California and I know."

Buildings were shaken in Cleveland, Columbus and other Ohio cities. The rattling of windows and dishes startled persons in Detroit, Louisville and Indianapolis, police stations were flooded with inquiries. The question in most instances were whether the disturbance was an explosion or an earthquake.

Attending to the belief the epicenter was in the glacial region spanning northwest Ohio were observations at Anna, Ohio, that chimneys toppled by the quake of last Tuesday and since repaired, were felled by the shocks last night.

Larger than ever before and containing many innovations of special interest to fans, which enhance its value as a guide of baseball facts and figures. The Dope Book, published by The Sporting News, St. Louis, Mo., has made its annual appearance as a harbinger of the new baseball season. Issued in handy vest-pocket size, this compact manual of the diamond sport is filled from cover to cover with statistics and interesting information for followers of the game.

The new edition of The Dope Book contains more new features than any previous issue in its 21 years of publication. Notable among these are: Lifetime 300 hitters of the major leagues, authentic origin of team nicknames, glossary of baseball slang, the famous Fred Merkle "boner" play, Bob Fellers' strikeout-record game, etc.

Schedules of the more important leagues are also included, those of the majors being arranged in convenient day-by-day style. Other information embraces averages of the major league leaders, World's Series, All-Star teams, 1936 All-Star game and composite averages of four All-Star contests, and rosters of the major clubs, giving fans a valuable, concise and authoritative record of the game.

The Dope Book is compiled from the official records as provided by the leagues. Copies may be obtained by sending 15 cents to C. C. Spink & Son, St. Louis, Mo.

Do You Remember Actress Flora Finch?

HOLLYWOOD, March 9 (AP)—After all these years of being a comedienne, Flora Finch—remember her?—would like to do something big and serious.

To remember Miss Finch, you must go way back to the days of the old Vitaphone movies.

"My most vivid memory is of the time we were shooting scenes at Coney Island," Miss Finch reminisced today. "My red flannel petticoat dropped around my feet, whereupon the director, very gallantly, dashed over, picked it up and hid it under his coat."

"How long has it been since anyone wore one of those things?"

Miss Finch, of the famous Bunny-Finch comedies, is in the stock company of a major studio (M-G-M), has been for a year. She can't keep away from film work.

She gets an occasional bit, not enough to suit her, nor serious enough.

Miss Finch recalled the days when she was top comedienne at the old New York Vitaphone studio—working with John Bunny, Florence Lawrence, D. W. Griffith, Mary Pickford and Henry B. Walthall.

After five years with Vitaphone, Miss Finch returned to the musical comedy stage, then free-lanced for a time. She does not want to quit.

Telegrapher Saves Babe From Wheels

THERMOPOLIS, Wyo., March 9 (AP)—E. E. Davis, substitute railroad telegrapher from Ottumwa, Iowa, rescued a child from death under the grinding wheels of a locomotive during his first day on the job.

Davis saw the child, Wilbur Douglas Pervis Jr., 18 months old, toddling along the track.

He ran 150 feet to the boy, jerked him off the track and rolled out of the way just as the train passed.

Here Is Fish Story About The Salmon Hound

Look at that salmon leap, muses the dog fisherman, hungrily watching the salmon run upstream to the spawning grounds. I'd sure like to get my teeth into one. Now if I had a rod and some flies, it would be easy. But pshaw! I'll just have to wait until one is silly enough to leap close to the bank and maybe I can get it. Boy, oh, boy! Will that be some supper.

By jingo, I did it. The whole thing happened so fast even I was surprised. But as soon as that salmon poked his head through the water, I knew he was mine. Just a leap, a click of the jaws and Mr. Salmon was my supper. But he sure is a slippery customer.

'STRAINING AT GNAT' HECKLES JAMES FARLEY

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., March 9 (AP)—Postmaster General Farley accused opponents of President Roosevelt's court reorganization proposal of "straining at a gnat" today and cited what he called ample precedent for a change in the judiciary.

Farley, chairman of the Democratic National committee, spoke here under auspices of the North Carolina Political union, non-partisan student organization at the University of North Carolina.

Those within the Democratic party who oppose the plan "agree with his (Mr. Roosevelt's) diagnosis of the evil... but fight the method he offers to cure the evil," Farley said. He added these opponents have not offered an "adequate alternative."

"Farmers, industrial workers and citizens generally are quite aware of what is going on," he said, "and are perfectly satisfied the President never in his life had any thought other than to make our nation safe."

Speaking of "at least some" of the Supreme Court justices who voted against new deal measures, Farley said:

"Perhaps this is a heritage... from their days as practicing attorneys. Then they had the great combination of capital as their best clients. It is not remarkable that a lawyer who has devoted most of his life to protecting such interests carries his habits of logic into his later years."

"Congress has frequently varied the number of Supreme Court justices," he went on. "The court has consisted of five members at times and ten at others. It has been increased or diminished ordinarily because Congress was dissatisfied with the court's attitude and wanted men of another mode of thought on the bench."

He referred to Senators Glass of Virginia, Borah of Idaho, Wheeler of Montana and Connally of Texas, listed as opposed to the President's proposal, and called attention to their debate on the appointment of Chief Justice Hughes by President Hoover.

"Tom Connally accused the prospective chief justice of having 'already written his verdict.' Chief Justice Hughes did not come up to the wicked eminence attributed to him but the senators are still of the same opinion as to the evils of the court as now constituted."

CITES PRECEDENTS FOR CHANGES IN JUDICIARY

LOS ANGELES, March 9 (AP)—Nearly 350 sit-down strikers were called today to enter pleas to charges of conspiracy to take possession illegally of the Douglas Aircraft plant in the greatest mass arraignment ever held here.

The assembly room of the state building was used because court rooms were too small.

John C. Packard and James M. Carter, attorneys for the United Automobile Workers, airbrake division, filed a demurrer asking dismissal of the charges on technical grounds. This had to be argued and acted upon by the court, expected to take until noon.

The sit-down strikers occupied the plant for three days.

STATE LOSES ATTEMPT TO CLAIM COL. GREEN

WASHINGTON, March 9 (AP)—Texas officials turned to New York and Boston today for statistical evidence they hope will help establish—for taxation purposes—that Texas was the legal domicile of Col. Edward H. R. Green, multi-millionaire, when he died last summer.

The state lost its first attempt to have the Supreme Court determine Green's legal domicile when Chief Justice Hughes interrupted attorneys' arguments yesterday to announce the Texas motion would be denied without prejudice because it was drawn improperly.

Texas officials said they could levy taxes amounting to about $100,000 against the estate of Green, son of Mrs. Hetty Green, was actually a resident of the state. They asked the Supreme Court to determine his residence was in Texas, New York, Florida or Massachusetts at the time of his death.

Hughes and Justices Van Devanter and Stone said the motion failed to show that Texas was in danger of losing any inheritance taxes to which its own law entitled it.

350 SIT DOWNERS ARE ARRAIGNED IN COURT

LOS ANGELES, March 9 (AP)—Nearly 350 sit-down strikers were called today to enter pleas to charges of conspiracy to take possession illegally of the Douglas Aircraft plant in the greatest mass arraignment ever held here.

SULPHUR TAX TAKEN OUT OF PENSION BILL

OIL, GAS AND CARBON BLACK TAXES ARE RAISED

AUSTIN, March 9 (AP)—The House of Representatives today faced probability of continued controversy on a proposal to liberalize old age pensions.

Estimated to double pension expenditures, the bill contained increases on the natural gas levy from three per cent of value to one per cent per 1,000 cubic feet and carbon black from 1-12 cent to one cent a pound.

Opponents failed to kill the proposal yesterday though one test on a motion to strike out the enacting clause failed by a vote of 22 to 63.

Provision to increase the sulphur tax from $1.03 to $2 per ton and the oil tax from 2 3-4 to 4 per cent of value were stricken.

Horse race wagering, awaiting final Senate action tomorrow with all indications pointing toward repeal, stood a remote chance of consideration in the Senate criminal jurisdiction committee where a repeal proposal was set for hearing tonight.

Senator G. H. Nelson of Lubbock said he would seek postponement and Senator Frank Rawlings of Fort Worth, anti-repeal, said he would not oppose the move. Senator Albert Store of Brenham, committee chairman, said he had received many requests for a "day in court" from horse race men.

A bill to reorganize the state judicial districts, eliminating a number of courts, was killed unanimously in a house committee. Another rested in a Senate committee.

A proposed constitutional amendment to increase the state supreme court from three to nine members over a period of six years received approval of a Senate committee.

The House constitutional amendments committee favorably recommended a proposal to classify property for taxation purposes after Governor Alfred told members "less than one per cent of the intangible wealth in Texas was rendered for taxation."

An appropriation of $376,800 for tick eradication work in 14 east Texas counties was favorably reported by the Senate finance committee.

Camellia Will Be Favorite Flower In Easter Parades

NEW YORK, March 9 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt may not know it but she shepherded the Pink Camellia rise from politics to the Easter parade.

A florist who has been 40 eastern parades said today the camellia, deep pink and durable, would be the favorite of many American women for Easter wear this year.

The nation's first lady, unconcerned about her influence on fashion, probably has forgotten the sheaf of pink Camellias she wore with a wine colored gown to the Madison Square Garden rally just before the election last fall.

But it seems New York women saw her flowers, and didn't forget. Anyway the pink camellia has had a big revival. Florist Ralph Armstrong said, after being eclipsed by the white gardenia for several years.

SPANKING BROADCAST

Nearly everything audible gets broadcast nowadays, and the listening public is tolerant, but perhaps there's a limit. That limit, as discovered in Canada the other day, has nothing to do with what we ordinarily refer to as morals. It's a matter of sympathy for children. The offending program consisted of a spanking performed at a public school in London. O.K. Listeners could hear, as they were meant to, the whack of the strap and the howls of the children. What offenses had been committed are not revealed but the performance was explained as "an experience in school management." The school broadcast system enabled the pupils in other rooms of the big school to hear it, also the parents at home. The results were rather devastating. Students all over the school, especially the girls, set up a howl that mingled with the howling of the victims. Then the parents and the school board got busy. The idea isn't original in Canada. It was tried two or three years ago in a public school in a small Ohio town, and didn't succeed there, either. It might not work any better in a prison.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
WASHINGTON, March 9—President Roosevelt, Harry Hopkins and the Budget Bureau are about to grapple with the relief problem again, prior to recommending to Congress an appropriation of somewhere between one and two billion dollars for the next fiscal year. Six governors of populous states recently obtained an appointment with Roosevelt to protest WPA reductions. There is no assurance yet that the President can work out a permanent program for unemployment relief. Nevertheless, as Roosevelt once laughingly said, in reply to the question when he would balance the budget: "Hope springs eternal."

Meanwhile, the most encouraging news concerning reduction of WPA rolls and the expense of maintaining them is this:
For the first time in four years, the number of persons on WPA or federal relief rolls has remained practically the same throughout January and February. In 1933, 1934 and 1935 the curve rose sharply during those two months. There were 2,162,000 on WPA lists in the latter part of February, as compared with 2,188,000 in December. In February, 1936, the number was 3,039,000.

The present official plan is to cut the rolls down to 1,500,000 heads of families and single persons by the end of the fiscal year, June 30. That's what Congress provided for when it gave WPA a deficiency appropriation of $650,000,000 for this year. State administrations have been given their quotas for the months from now until July. The total scheduled cut for the country calls for a drop of 60,000 in March, 150,000 in April, 200,000 in May and 200,000 more in June.

Yet, Hopkins insists no one in actual need be cut off WPA. The state administrators are receiving that order, too. There are to be no arbitrary cuts and quotas will be subject to review. State WPA administrators in private reports to Washington are almost unanimous in asserting WPA is inadequately handling its supposed share of the relief load. Few officials believe anything like 600,000 will be cut off the rolls, although Hopkins gave conditioned assurances to that effect.

The curtailment program was predicated upon an absorption by private industry of roughly 300,000 WPA workers; on continued recovery; on a good agricultural year; upon contribution of more money to projects by localities affected; and on the possibility the rolls could be kept from expanding during January, February and March. Except in the last instance, it is still too early to tell how many of these possibilities will come true. In the meantime, there have been disastrous floods which may keep the WPA figures up. It is concededly impossible to cut WPA rolls at a time when local relief lists are growing.

A report just in from an area of 12 southern states lists a March quota of 462,000 actually on the rolls and 118,000 "certified cases awaiting assignment or reassignment." The last figure, representing unemployed employable persons eligible for WPA, probably is too high. But secret WPA estimates place the number of the country's employables trying to get on WPA rolls at between 300,000 and 500,000. That is one reason why continued industrial improvement doesn't mean proportionate cuts in WPA rolls. When a man leaves the rolls to get a private job, there are nearly always others, certified as eligible, seeking to take his place. Although there are 875,000 fewer persons on WPA than a year ago, maintenance of the reduced figure is only possible through refusal to take on needy persons. Difficulty in getting back on the rolls is said to be the chief reason WPA employes avoid taking temporary jobs. Hopkins doesn't know how he will get to July, if the $650,000,000 doesn't hold out. But that doesn't worry him. He never has known how much money he could have, from one month to another.

TEX'S TOPICS

We talked with a prominent Pampan the other day who can put himself in his place and take full inventory of personal importance in this great universe. . . . It is refreshing to meet up with a person of this sort. . . . So many of us have illusions that we are Titanic and indispensable in this earthly plan under which humans stumble about from cradle to coffin.

This popular young and sensible man, just to make sure he isn't getting too big, sets aside one period out of the year in which he lies out to some lonely and mountainous spot, far from civilization—a place rarely, if ever, touched by the foot of civilized man—there to forget about life and people and to banish cares of a work-a-day world.

Perhaps there will be a companion or two on this self-imposed exile, and if so, always there is an agreement before departure that during the time they are in this Alpine-like paradise there shall be absolutely no mention of business nor the world that has been left behind. . . . And, likely as not, when they reach their destination, some 12,000 feet high in the Rockies, these companions each will go his own way, do what he wishes—and although they may be in speaking distance, no word will pass from their lips for hours.

This man we have in mind may go off alone to revel in the grandeur and beauty of snow-capped peaks and to watch swishing, giant trout playing in a sylvan, mirrored mountain pool. . . . It is when he becomes aware of the vastness of the great granite spires that shoot heavenward on all sides and of the abundance of natural beauty to be found nowhere else, that this Pampan takes stock of himself.

There in the complete solitude of the mountain top forest he stops to take personal inventory. . . . This man pauses to make a self-check and to discern the overwhelming bigness of God's handiwork. . . . Immediately, he knows that man is nothing but plegueme. . . . Helpless, if you please. . . . This man knows then that there is absolutely nothing he could do to prevent it, if an Unseen Hand wished at that very moment to topple those great mountains and swallow him up, crush out his life. . . . This man puts himself in his place, so to speak.

And, the peculiar thing about his ideas along that line—he does not need this lesson. . . . He is not one who has any belief at all that he is anything but a mere man, trying to be of what service he can as he goes up and down on life's jittery elevator. . . . Life's elevator is jittery, as you no doubt know. . . . But, he is the type of person who gets quite a big kick out of reassuring himself beyond question, at least once a year, that he is a very, very microscopic element in God's scheme. . . . It is a gesture comparable to the rarest of rare jewels.

One is thoroughly refreshed after talking with a man like that. . . . The sincerity with which he tells you just how small he felt up there in the mountains, makes a listener feel just a bit smaller than that. . . . And, it is a splendid realization. . . . The moral of all this, we suspect, is that the biggest men are those who, capable of realizing now and then just how definitely small they really are.

Remember the young lady who wished to be the perfect wife for the man she loves—if and when she meets him? . . . Well, she still is being pursued on paper by a bachelor who has ideas along the same line. . . . The fellow was back in town over last week-end, still trying to contact his lady fair, full of hope and loving young dream. . . . But, her secret still is being kept.

Pampans came back from Borger late yesterday, loud in praise for the 11th birthday party held by the Hutchinson county center of commerce. . . . There was a large delegation of Pampa resident on hand to help celebrate. . . . It was a fitting observance for another milestone of progress reached by a thriving, live-wire community. . . . Borger will push on, have no doubt about it.

Sir Thomas Inskip, member of British cabinet, has little use for "averages." . . . he reports Ministry Health issued book mentioning malady affecting people of "average age of 45." . . . he found only persons who ever had it were man, 90, and baby, 1. . . . Model boat fans are governed by set of international rules similar to those which govern activities of model locomotive and airplane enthusiasts. . . . International model regattas are held each year in Europe.

Vesteryear In Pampa

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY
The year's coldest wave was on the wane, after killing early blooms on fruit trees and halting practice of the Harvester track team.

ONE YEAR AGO TODAY
Anticipated cuts in electric rates were announced to the city commission by Jack Cunningham of Amarillo, district manager, and J. McCollins, local manager of the power company.

The grand jury was discharged after submitting a report which called law enforcement in the county "good" at that time.

Building permits were issued to Odus Mitchell for a residence, Pampa Ice Co., for remodeling its plant.

DON'T BE SILLY!

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER
NEW YORK—If you've got any loose change that is burning a hole in your trousers, an easy way to get rid of it is to visit the betting ring in the lobby of Madison Square Garden on the night of any National League ice hockey game.

This is the "paddock," where the boys stand around and place wagers on the outcome of each contest. However, the betting isn't confined to final scores. Thousands of dollars are wagered nightly on personal performances, on how many goals will be scored, on everything from the size of the referee's hat-hand to whether the goalie loses his temper or not.

Nobody is barred, but you have a tough time getting inside. That is, nobody seems to know who is who, but if you want to place a banknote on any phase of the game you shoulder your way into the crowd and then keep your ears open. Before you know it you'll find a sufficient variance of opinion on what the evening's game will hold to take care of any amount you care to wager.

So avid is the betting on hockey contests that every precaution is taken by the league to withhold any information that might influence the trend of wagering. For instance, not even the press can ascertain the name of the referee before he steps out on the ice.

He doesn't even know himself until just a few hours before game time. These referees are named by Frank Calder, a Scot, and his method of naming his men for the evening is to send instructions by wire at the zero hour each night. If John Doe is a referee, Calder will wire him something like this:

"Proceed to Madison Square Garden for Rangers-Maroons game tonight."

This is to try to keep the betting boys from trying to "get to" the referee, or trying to gauge the wagers on any peculiarity, hobby or method of refereeing he may have.

It is a colorful, raucous mob that jams into the Garden on hockey night—hellraisers, gangsters, prizefighters, theatrical stars, charity workers, politicians, loud promoters, debutantes, sailors, brokers, grocers, clerks, bankers, hack drivers, newspapermen, priests, writers, portrait painters, publishers, advertising executives and shop girls. The laughter, cries, cheers, boisterous talk, whistles, and giggles roll in solid waves of chatter-sound and break into zooming roars when the fantastically dressed players scoot out onto the glittery ice—a glitter that often is equalled by the glitter of jewels and shining, excitement-widened eyes.

At the Garden on hockey night, it's the place for excitement and a good time, and also to lose a few bob if you are itching to make a bet.

WOULD REMIT TAXES.
AUSTIN, March 9.—The House of Representatives stamped preliminary approval today on a bill which would remit state ad valorem taxes for general revenue purposes to all counties for five years. Proponents argued the measure, engrossed 68 to 54, was justified in view of many special remissions, while opponents said the state could not afford to lose the estimated $8,500,000 revenue.

No matter how small the place in which one lives, and no matter how central the kitchen, this room is no more suitable for a playroom than a factory—less so, in fact, since it has few safety devices.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM
For two friends who were estranged from another friend. Because the only pride is in having no pride, he could afford to humble himself, and he did—it meant more to him to keep your friendship than to lose it, a friendship that became entangled in a web and maze of words that seemed self-contradictory, and may have been, but which were shielded by pride to hide the bold, blinding light that struggled futilely to escape from the clutching meshes of the Mind. Those words and those words only (not the cowering and retreating hearts) drove you apart—this after months and years when no hard words were spoken. And then he knew he did not wish to smudge the white cup of peace with a dirty finger, or look through a smoked glass that had been clear and apologies, and begged you to accept them. And you said, "We hadn't planned to come back. . . . but we will, yes, we will on those conditions" . . . but will you come back? Will everything be as it was before? Can everything be as it was before? Is it possible? It is a terrible thing to think that it is not possible!

KITCHEN AS PLAYROOM
By Brooke Peters Church
A busy kitchen is not a fit playroom for toddlers. When cooking or preserving is going on, little children should not be in the kitchen unless they are safely fastened in high chairs where they cannot be tripped over, and from which they cannot reach stoves or dangerous implements.

Even unlighted stoves are a menace when youngsters are about, for gas-cock and electric switches are easily turned by little fingers which reach and handle everything in sight. Stoves which are in use are an even greater hazard. If the child's head does not reach to the level of the stove top he cannot know whether the stove is lighted and may easily reach up to take hold of it, and be burned.

Handles of pots and pans are also a constant temptation to children who are too inexperienced to know that they are not fixtures. Time after time, children try to pull themselves up by hot handles, only to tip the boiling grease or water over on themselves. Usually the accident, though painful, is not fatal. But the results may be scars which disfigure for life.

Knives and even forks may prove dangerous implements—especially as they are used as kitchen tools. A child who has a knife can keep track of all his tools and an active child at one and the same time. While her hair is absorbed in saving a curling cake, or making a sauce, the child is as likely as not to snatch some forbidden weapon and in the panic of doing what he knows is wrong, may hurt himself badly.

TRACTION
STOCKTON, Mo. (AP)—A customer—for an undisclosed reason—paid a $400 bill to John Keop, lumberman, in paper tax tokens worth one mill each. Keop spent nearly two days counting the cardboard discs, then announced: "He must have weighed them" instead of counting them. The bill had been overpaid 15 mills.

CAVALCADE, 3-year-old champion of 1934, was unplaced but six times in his 22 starts over a 4-year period. He won a total of $127,165.

How's Your Health?

SYPHILIS IS CURABLE
Syphilis is a germ disease. It is caused by a micro-organism of a protozoan nature, that is, one belonging to the animal kingdom.

The infection is spread by sexual intercourse, though occasionally it is contracted through the use of forks, spoons, cups, glasses, smoking pipes, musical instruments or barber's tools, carrying the infectious agent.

It may also be congenitally acquired. A woman suffering from the active disease may give birth to a child infected with the germs of syphilis.

Syphilis is curable. The earlier the disease is treated, the more readily is cure effected. Delay in treatment may result in irreparable damage to the vital organs of the body.

At the site of infection (the portal of entrance) there usually develops a characteristic sore, called a chancre. The treatment of syphilis is not directed at this sore, because by the time it appears the germs have spread wide throughout the body.

Infection may also occur without the development of a chancre. Hence it is possible for a person to have suffered an infection with the syphilis germ, without ever having noticed any venereal sore.

For this reason it is wise for every person contemplating marriage to have a blood test made.

Every pregnant woman should have a blood test early in pregnancy, as well as at five months and at eight months. Should the woman be found to have syphilis, it is possible by adequate treatment instituted early during the pregnancy, to prevent the transmission of the disease to her child.

The individual infected with syphilis should promptly secure treatment from a competent physician. He should avoid quack or patented remedies and every form of treatment which promises speedy cure.

There is as yet no dependable "speedy cure." The routine treatment now available calls for continuous medication for one or more years. Cure is not established until repeated blood examinations and at least one spinal fluid examination are negative. After the "cure," the patient should have blood examinations once every six months for at least two years.

Every young adult should know how to practice venereal prophylaxis after possible exposure to infection. For specific details, he should consult his physician.

WEDDING RING RETURNED.
HARTINGTON, Neb. (AP)—Mrs. Hannah Haas now has two wedding rings after being married to Mr. Haas 53 years. She lost her first ring while on a fishing trip 53 years ago. Her husband gave her another a week later. Recently a relative who found the first ring returned it to her.

LET'S KNOW TEXAS AND TEXANS

BY WILL H. MAYES

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the state and its people. As evidence of good faith inquiries must give their names and addresses, but only their initials will be printed. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. How did the Llano Estacado or Staked Plains, derive the name?

A. Despite the fact that several legends have been accepted by different historians, it is altogether probable that the region was so named because of the "paisado," "barricade," or "estacado" effect of the escarpment at the edge of the plain.

Q. What three expositions, international in character, are being planned to run simultaneously in Texas in 1937?

A. Greater Texas and Pan-American Exposition, at Dallas, a continuation of the Texas Centennial of 1936; Southwestern Frontier Exposition, at Fort Worth, succeeding the Texas Frontier Centennial of 1936; and the International Oil Exposition, at Houston, for which a $1,350,000 exposition hall is being constructed.

Q. When, where and by whom was the Northern Standard established?

A. In 1842, at Clarksville, Texas by Col. Charles DeMorse, who edited it continuously, except at in-

This, That and Everything

BY JESS KELLEY

It seems to me that the very atmosphere of modern civilization is inimical to meditation. Consider the average routine of the modern business or professional man and you will see there are constant barriers between him and a mood for reflective thinking. Everybody owes it to himself and to society to spend a reasonable amount of time in meditation, for it is through meditative processes that any one is able to correlate the many facts he has gained from all his life's experiences.

Meditation is the means by which we properly relate known facts to each other and to ourselves. If we spend all our time in gathering new facts without adequate appreciation of the significance of these, these known truths are not so profitable as they would be if we only knew their value in relation to other things.

Maybe this suggests one of the major inconsistencies of modern civilization. Our scientists are far ahead of their social scientists. Before the sociologists can decide the best use for a certain power created by modern invention, the creative genius of humanity throws another miraculous instrument into the lap of civilization. It might be a good thing if our scientists and inventors would spend their spare time meditating, learning to use the powers at our disposal with more grace and humane purposes.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD—Frank Capra, turning explorer in Hollywood, brings back from the sound stages a trophy from another world. The title is "Lost Horizon."

To remark that the film forsakes the beaten celluloid track is but to repeat the obvious to the thousands read James Hilton's novel of the strange remote Utopia labeled Shangri-La, and of Robert Conway, who found it and clung to it.

Shangri-La, all but inaccessible lamazery in the highest snow-sealed peaks of Tibetan mountains, is a mystically warm, rich and kindly haven symbolic of men's yearnings for peace and contentment. To create it, the studio exerted all its resources in set-building, in photography and in camera tricks. The result is optically splendid and philosophically appealing.

Filming Delayed
Strictly speaking, "Lost Horizon" was not "two years in the making," as claimed. Its previous incarnation was the novel, "Lost Horizon," where Capra is ace director, acquired the story for him, Capra and Robert Riskin, his writing associate, immediately prepared a first draft of a screen play, but Ronald Colman, selected for the starring role, was not immediately available. Nor was he for the next 12 months.

Capra used the interval to prepare for his major work, but while the technical department labored on effects, 40 property makers worked the picture's story into a photographic expedition went to the mountains of Europe and Asia for those spectacular shots. Capra and Riskin turned out a little film piece which they labeled "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town."

Colman reported last March, and for the next five months the picture was in production, on sound stages and on the huge Shangri-La location built in the nearby valley. When it was done, Capra took a month's vacation and on his return undertook to make the picture again. It took 36,000 feet of film to release version of approximately 14,000. But there was still more shooting ahead.

Sam Jaffe Scores
The key character, charged with expounding the ideals of Shangri-La, is the High Lama, Sam Jaffe. Though the role originally, but by the time they decided his make-up was not convincing Jaffe was back in New York and unavailable. Walter Connolly pinch-hit for him, but then Jaffe was again free and he returned and did the part again. Although Colman never did better work, Jaffe's is the outstanding performance. H. B. Warner as Chang is excellent. Other principals are Jane Wyatt, Margo, John Evers, Thomas Mitchell, Edward Everett Horton and the great Sam Jaffe.

In the supporting cast, if you look closely, you'll catch a glimpse of Margaret McWade as a Chinese missionary. This was before "pixilation" made her famous.

W. C. Fields is well enough—this sound like a gag—to have a strenuous run-down every day, . . . tells friends it does him as much good as a five-mile walk. . . . Fields, ill a year, is reported on the road to recovery and pictures, but private sources say he never will work again.

The Allan Jones' new playroom is done in white, black and red.

tervals during the Civil War, until 1887, it being the first and most important newspaper of that section.

Q. What was the first county seat of Breaux county?

A. Booneville, about 16 miles from the present town of Millican. When Bryan was made the county seat, Booneville soon went into decay.

Imagine Freda's embarrassment when a strange woman stopped her the other night and said if she were built different and looked different she would resemble Martha Raye.

Mrs. Schulkey Chosen President Of P-TA Friday

Mrs. C. H. Schulkey has been elected president of the high school Parent-Teacher association. The meeting was held in the new high school auditorium Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Schulkey will take office at the first of next term. Mrs. Ear Eaton was elected first vice president, while Mrs. N. P. Maddux was chosen second vice president.

A program was also given. The subject was "Young Lives in a Modern World." Mr. Kenneth Carmen spoke on Character-Forming Agencies in This Community.

There was a piano solo by Pauline Stewart, and songs were sung by a quartet consisting of Ethel Wilder, Colleen McMahan, Charles Hickman, and Gene Pinkbeiner.

Mr. Fisher Gives Special Program

It is a yearly custom for Mr. Fisher to give an assembly program to high school students. Being a lover of music, Mr. Fisher gave an interesting and varied musical program last Wednesday morning.

One of the interesting features of the program was the initiation of the new grand piano purchased by the school board for the new auditorium.

Wednesday Last Day For Essay Tryouts

Second tryouts for Interscholastic League essay writing will be held Wednesday, March 10, the second and third hours.

Supt. R. B. Fisher Attended National Education Conference Which Met in New Orleans

Dean W. F. Russell Columbia University Prominent Speaker Mackenzie King, F.R. Plan Visit.

The National Educational Association which met in New Orleans, was very helpful," says Supt. R. B. Fisher, who attended the convention accompanied by Mrs. Fisher and several principals.

Dean William F. Russell, Teachers college, Columbia university, where Mr. Fisher recently studied and one of the most important speakers at the conference, was the guest of honor.

It is time that we took a positive stand," declared Dr. Russell. "What we need is a great army of Americans imbued with the spirit of the men of old believed in seeking the answer in investigation, reasonability, and knowledge and once more dedicated to inspiring our people with this ideal.

Another feature was a breakfast given by citizens of New Orleans under the Spanish moss-hung oaks, consisting of grills and calla lilies.

A pageant titled "Dixie" was presented Sunday evening by about 600 school children of New Orleans, consisting of grills and calla lilies.

Supt. Fisher also visited two universities, sea-walk spill-ways, Long-Alien bridge which is 4 1/2 miles long and cost $13,000,000, and went thru Old French town.

The Lions National School Masters club which met in connection with the convention, made Supt. Fisher president of the club.

Miss Margaret Jones was born in Bartlett, Texas, where she was graduated from high school. She attended the College of Industrial Arts, Denton, Texas, having received her B. A. degree there.

She is a sophomore sponsor and is coaching the spelling team for Interscholastic League. She was a contestant's coach in essay writing last year who won first place in state.

Miss Jones has been teaching in the Pampa schools for seven years; six years in Junior High and one in high school.

Her favorite animal is a dog, and her hobbies are reading and swimming.

Miss Claudine Branon was graduated from East Texas State Teachers college, at Commerce and from the University of Texas. While in college, she was a member of several student organizations.

Teaching school is Miss Branon's vocation; hobbies make up her avocation. These hobbies are music, painting, reading, traveling and collecting pottery and books.

She has been in several cities in Canada, all through the eastern and southern parts of the United States, in Havana, and in several states in Mexico.

For the past five and one-half years Miss Branon has taught in the English department in Pampa high school.

Students may be interested to know that the library is open to and for the use of the students. Library lessons are over for the present year and students will be admitted once more.

Many of the woe-be-gotten, forlorn looks on faces of students vanished early yesterday morning when the above information was solicited.

MEETINGS ARE POSTPONED

PEP UP A LITTLE

Society is divided up into three parts. There is always one-fourth who does all the work, who generates all the energy. There is one-fourth that lags and shirks any duty.

This is true in any organization, any student project, and also with teachers. Do more than you are actually required to do. Do not be classed as a laggard or one who watches the clock.

Are we all softies? How tough are we? Just where do we stand? How many are holding back? If you make work a pleasure and enjoy it, everyone will enjoy you and enjoy following you.

Stay on top of your work, don't let your work get on top of you.

LET'S PAY OUR LIBRARY FINES

Student, do we believe in paying for services rendered us, or do we expect them to be given to us free? Many students charge books for a period and, at the end of that time, do not return them.

Why not make it a point in the future to get books in on time, and, if it is impossible to do this; why not pay fines that have been incurred?

If this is done, we may look forward to a "bigger and better" library.

GANGWAY! FOR SENIOR PLAY "THE WHOLE TOWNS TALKING"

Gangway! Did you ever get that thrilling tingle in your spine as the circus parade with its blaring band passed by? Come get that same old feeling again at the 1937 senior play.

For a zippy, rollicking, jolly good time, join the rush next Wednesday and Thursday nights and come to the new auditorium to see the history-making play of Pampa high school.

"COULDN'T FIND SOCKS" IS ONE ALIBI OFFERED FOR TARDINESS

Mr. Dennard, assistant principal, gets many a pain in the neck from the far-fetched excuses given to him by tardy and absent pupils.

"My dog was sick and I had to take care of him." "I couldn't find my socks."

"I started not to come to school and then changed my mind." "The bell rang before I got here."

"I was late because I was in the hospital." "I was at the dentist's office."

"I waited for the neighbor woman to ride to school with me." "I went to bed to wake up a friend."

"I had to dress my little brothers." "I couldn't catch the bus."

"One student, much more honorable than the rest came right out and said: "I loitered on the way to school."

Ladies Auxiliary Sponsors Contest

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is sponsoring an essay contest for high school students between the ages of 14 and 18.

FFA MEMBERS TO ATTEND FAT STOCK SHOW

Ninety F. F. A. boys of P. H. S. went to Amarillo today to attend the Fat Stock show which opened Monday and continues for four days.

The Kiwanis club is sponsoring a free trip for thirteen boys in the Future Farmers of America classes who meet the standard requirement in scholarship, character, leadership and supervised practice set up by the Kiwanis agriculture committee.

Those meeting the requirements were Bob Caylor, Nolan Cole, Leon Daugherty, Paul Harrell, E. W. Hollenbeck, Fred Perkins, Howard Snow, Fred Vanderburg, Dan Wallace, Wyndell LaCosse, Bill James, John Edwin McConnell and Leo Moore.

Pampa authorities are giving a free trip to all F. F. A. boys who have paid their state and national dues.

Pampa Teachers To Conference

Pampa high school will be deserted Friday. The teachers are all going to Canyon to the Northwest Texas teachers meeting. There will be about five or six thousand teachers there, according to Mr. Sone.

The program will start Friday morning at 9 o'clock and continue through Saturday noon. The P. H. S. band will play at one of the sessions, and the Little Orchestra will play for the dance Friday evening.

There will be many guest speakers from over the Northwest.

Carlsbad Trip Had Unusual Beginning

The trip to Carlsbad Caverns, that is so eagerly looked for by every Pampa high school senior in May, was started in a very unusual manner.

"When I first came here a principal of P. H. S.," continued Supt. Fisher, "one of the first things I was warned about was that one day in April the student body walked out of school, kidnaped their teachers and went for a picnic."

"This was called 'sneak' day. Finally I persuaded the students to change the custom so that only seniors took the day. When Mr. Sone became principal he decided to change the day into something educational, so the Carlsbad Cavern trip was the result."

The seniors now leave school on Friday morning and spend the weekend at the caverns. A program is arranged for their entertainment while there. Senior sponsors act as chaperones. This is the fourth year for the trip.

JUNIOR CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS

The junior class elected officers for the second semester at a recent meeting. The president, Tropp Reynolds, secretary, Betty Shroyck, and treasurer, Warren Finley, were elected.

The committee hopes that a number of builders will enter the contest. Everyone has a chance. If you plan to enter a ship, see Howard Buckingham.

MOORE, BLYTHE, SHOWERS, AYER ARE SELECTED P. H. S. FAVORITES BY POPULAR VOTE

'37 Grads Three Seniors, One Junior Chosen In Ballot

A decided brunette, very pleasing to look at, is a certain senior girl, Freda Bellows.

Freda is a little rancher. She moved here from New Mexico where she lived on a large cattle ranch for five years.

Her wish is to be a mannequin in an exclusive dress shop. She has no desire to go to a university, but wishes to go to a school of beauty and learn how to walk gracefully, and to have correct posture.

Freda was born at Wellington, Texas, Sept. 1, 1919. When she was a "mere tot" she moved to Colorado and lived there for three years. From Colorado she moved to Sharrick; from there to Dalhart where she lived four years. After living in New Mexico five years she moved to Pampa the second semester of last year.

Freda is well liked among all her class mates. Also she is a credit to the senior class.

Can you imagine who this description will fit? Blond hair and blue eyes, and built like the perfect demigod. He has a very pleasing disposition and is likeable among his classmates.

I shall tell you who it is, Ed Scott. Ed was born in Raton, New Mexico, July 4, 1917. He lived in McLean for a year before coming to Pampa.

He wishes to go to school at the University of Oklahoma and study mechanical engineering. He has been employed at the Blossom shop for the last year and one-half. He likes floral culture next to engineering and if his engineering does not work out he wishes to be a florist.

His hobby is swimming. He has the life guard at the municipal pool for two years. Ed lettered in basketball two years, football one year, and he went out for track.

Parents Meet To Discuss Activities

Senior activities are the worries of the parents now. The seniors along with their mothers and fathers had a meeting last Tuesday evening in the high school cafeteria.

Principal L. E. Towne introduced Mrs. J. B. Townsend, president of the Mothers' club. She called on Supt. R. B. Fisher to tell what he thought about the Carlsbad trip.

In it he told how the Carlsbad trip had originated. Those who had gone last year were called upon to tell what they thought of the trip. Before closing, Mrs. Townsend called upon all seniors to get up and introduce their mothers and fathers.

She warned the parents that they might be called upon at any time to help with any of the senior activities.

Play To Be Given March 10 And 11

"Why hear Fred Allen when you can see and hear 'The Whole Town's Talking'?" This is only one of the many original and entertaining posters advertising the senior play that is to be presented March 11.

Most of these posters were originated and illustrated by Earl Shira, a high school student, who is certainly one of the world's future leading cartoonists.

His posters are in the display windows of several local stores. His work was greatly appreciated by everyone concerned, according to Miss Clarine Branon, one of the sponsors.

Chlorine Prepared By Chemistry Class

"Foul is fair, and fair is foul." —Mebeth. There may be nothing fair about chlorine, but the chemistry classes under Mrs. Alexander certainly agree that it is foul.

It was first prepared in the first period class and by the end of that period, the halls were filled with the suffocating odor of chlorine.

The students were almost as bad off as the halls, for when the preparing apparatus broke or ran over, the room was filled with odor which seeped into the hall.

The bell rang, leaving Mrs. Alexander to empty and clean all apparatus.

Contest Opens For Air Plane Builders

Model builders, attention! Enter the contest. You may enter a plane that has already been made provided it is built according to specifications.

Rules are as follows: Wing spread, one foot or over. The ship must be on display by April 1, and must be made by the person who enters the model.

The planes will be graded on three points (1) craftsmanship, (2) details, and (3) paint job.

JUNIORS HAVE THEATER PARTY

The junior class entertained with a theater party Tuesday night at the Rex Theater. They met at the Cafeteria and went to see "Penrod and Sam."

They were accompanied by their sponsors, Misses Anna Louise Jones, Kathleen Milam, Oracion Fern Letimer, and Ernest Obe, Winston Savage and Mrs. Alice Short.

Harvester Band Played Concert Sunday Evening

The Harvester symphonic band, under direction of Winston Savage, presented its first public concert Sunday afternoon at 3:30 in the high school auditorium.

The program was dedicated to the parents and band students of Pampa. All types of music were featured on the program, including as guest artists the two Beenes, father and son, of Panhandle, both nationally known artists on the cornet; a trio composed of three of Pampa's outstanding trumpeters; Gene Pinkbeiner, virtuoso of the trombone, performing on the high school's new grand, and Arvo Goddard, tuba virtuoso.

Of interest among the band numbers rendered were Pantheon Overture, the selection that all ward schools are working on for the contest to be held in Pampa this spring; Sir Galahad Overture, the junior high contest piece; The Triumph of Alexander, overture, depicting the conquests and life of Alexander the Great; and popular numbers such as Organ Grinder's Swing, Ragged Rosey, and Gateway City.

The Harvester band was proud to feature in the concert the following new instruments purchased about two months ago: French horns, euphonium, bassoon, tuba, and oboe.

Yesterday the Harvester band went to Borger to help celebrate Borger's birthday.

Home Economics Room Remodeled

For better convenience and more room the home economics room has been remodeled. The top part of the center cabinets have been taken down leaving only the lower part.

This leaves a flat top making writing much easier for the home economics students. Miss Angela Strnad, home economics teacher, said that it much more convenient for her to see all the girls without "stretching her neck."

Since the remodeling the girls have been making hot light bread rolls, which explains the delicious odors which have been floating around the hall lately. The types of rolls are: figure eight, crescent, parker house, cinnamon, clover leaves, Swedish twist tea ring, plain and candy nut rolls.

Exceptional Celerity Shown By High School Students

Thursday morning at 10 o'clock the sounds of a fire alarm echoed through our high school. The students were not the least bit excited though for they knew it was merely an ambitious alarm clock which had gotten out of control.

After a prolonged interval of time the instructors persuaded their extremely sharp-witted students that they were supposed to vacate the building.

Responding to their usual alacrity, the students descended three flights of stairs in the remarkable time of three minutes.

With an equal amount of speed the students returned to their class rooms. Although a few pupils refused to be rushed they were ignored by the authorities.

With the exception of Assistant Principal E. N. Dennard, everyone was as cool as a cucumber.

OFFICERS GET REPORT OF GRAND JURORS

BOTH CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIALS RAPPED ON VIOLATIONS

County and city law enforcement agencies again were taken to task in the final report of the January term grand jury, submitted to Judge W. R. Ewing in district court here yesterday afternoon.

Reporting that "there have been very few major crimes reported to this grand jury and apparently our county is in good condition in that respect," the jurors at the same time deplored the existence of gambling houses in the county.

The jury of which F. C. Ledrick of Pampa, was foreman, charged in its report that "whisky and liquor are being sold by the drink and apparently no attempt is being made to subdue this violation of the law."

In this connection the grand jury report stated:

"This statement may seem strong to the jury and to the public in general, but we believe the citizens of Gray county are entitled to know the facts, and we believe that the violations could be materially lessened and checked if the officers would do their duty."

The jurors also charged that they were "unable to obtain any assistance from the enforcing officers of this county, with very few exceptions, and we mean both city and county officials," in regard to procuring evidence against gambling houses.

The jury report also contained a request that all officers of the county protect property owners throughout the oil fields from having their oil field equipment removed and sold through the junk dealers without permission of the owners, and that the officers keep very close check on all junk dealers and second hand dealers in Gray county and see if this violation cannot be stopped.

Other members of the grand jury were Charles Carpenter, Mont Noel, Lawrence Taylor, Walter Jones, Lewis Morse, Mel Davis, P. B. Farley, S. E. Allison, R. E. Colwell, H. W. Brooks, and Floyd McLaughlin.

METHODISTS THROW SOFTBALL CHALLENGE AT CITY CHURCHES

The Methodist church softball team was organized last night at a meeting in one of the church rooms and an immediate challenge was thrown at any or all other church teams in Pampa. Before the challenge was "cold," the Presbyterians accepted and several other church teams were seriously considering the rash statement made by the Methodists.

Practice will get under way soon and date of the game will be announced after the first few practice sessions. Rumor has it that other churches will get busy and throw a team in the field to meet the challenge hurled by the Methodists.

With A. L. Patrick, Roy Bourland, R. A. Selby, Tippy Reynolds, Walter F. G. Stein and other top notch players available, the Methodists figure they can place a strong aggregation in the field.

The Presbyterians came up with the information that they would have available such well known stars as Odus Mitchell, Bill Anderson, C. O. Croson, Bob Mullen, Harry E. Hoar, C. J. P. and a bunch more of the same caliber.

The Christian and Baptist churches have uniforms in the moth balls and they are expected to get them out and start to practice soon.

Any church interested in sponsoring a softball team may get in touch with Roy Bourland.

"The union leader said barricades would be removed and the corporation officials and their staffs would be admitted," said Gov. Frank Murphy, who devoted his first six weeks in office to settling the far-flung General Motors strikes, announced at Palm Beach, Fla., where he was vacationing, that he would fly back to Michigan immediately because of the new labor disputes.

Stupidity and fear, not time and age, are what defeats most individuals and communities, the commissioner stated.

"Don't be afraid to grow up; don't refuse to be your age," Mr. Hines admonished his listeners both on the air and at the luncheon in the First M. E. church. "Take mature age with all that it implies—greater responsibility, harder work, heavier power, capacity and seasoned ability, responsibility falls to him or her who possesses the capacity to carry it. We are only happy when we are serving our community and serving one another—only happy when we are doing something constructive."

Today's meeting of the chamber of commerce was the regular monthly membership luncheon. It was presided over by Jim Collins, Board of City Development president. Mr. Hines was introduced by Reno Stinson, of the Cabot Co.

The market threw off the bearish effect of weak outside markets and lower prices at Liverpool. The English price trend was worse than here, but the trade at New Orleans said it little heed.

By the half-way mark in trading options were up around 75 cents a bale above the previous close and while trade was not active there was a healthy undertone to dealings.

More notices were issued against the March position, a total of 700 bales at New Orleans and 2,700 bales at New York. March remaining relatively inactive, however, and prices were firm with it apparent that notices were being easily stopped.

AMERICAN LOST FOR MONTH IN GUIANA
GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, March 9 (AP)—Lost for nearly a month when his porters deserted him as an "evil spirit," J. G. Le Van, United States explorer and psychologist, returned today from a 3,000-mile trip through jungle and grassland.

His horse saved him.

He had lost 30 pounds and was near exhaustion. In all, he was out of touch with modern civilization for eight months.

Le Van's porters fled from him in terror on the vast savannas, where he dug up the skeletons of warriors killed in a battle 300 years ago. The porters, he said, thought he was a "kenama," of evil spirit.

His horse finally led him to a village.

Le Van said the most interesting discovery he had made was the lack of nervous or insanity among the interior Indians.

'Whole Italian Division' Fights With Insurgents

MADRID, March 9 (AP)—General Jose Miaja, directing the Spanish government defense against a major insurgent push from the northeast, declared today three Italian prisoners captured in fighting had admitted they were part of "a whole Italian division" engaged in the offensive.

Miaja, supreme commander on the central government front, said the prisoners told him they had landed at Cadiz on February 22, two days after 27 European nations, including Italy, agreed to stop the flow of volunteers to Spain. He said they were transferred to Seville and then to the Madrid front.

The general also quoted the men as saying their commanding officer was an Italian. He did not give their names.

(An Italian division is normally about 14,000 men) but may be more or less.

Meanwhile insurgent airplanes, backing up at least 5,000 ground troops using the most modern equipment of war, bombed the lower part of the Guadalajara highway on Madrid's northeast. Killed five persons at Oleca de Henar.

Other insurgent planes bombed the El Pardo sector north of Madrid after twice flying over the city itself.

The insurgent infantrymen lunged at government positions in northern Guadalajara province, trying to beat a new path to Madrid, some 60 miles to the southwest.

POLICE OBTAIN FEW CLUES IN FITTS CASE

LOS ANGELES, March 9 (AP)—Vague fingerprint clues and a cash reward today puzzled this city's biggest crime tazer—who shot District Attorney Buron Pitts?

The war-veteran prosecutor, his left forearm drilled by a .32 bullet, announced from a hospital bed: "I'll probably be out of here in 10 to 12 days."

Chief Deputy District Attorney William Simpson moved to have the Los Angeles supervisors post a "substantial reward."

Fitts, himself, could give little help in establishing the identity of the "three or four men in a black sedan" who ambushed him Sunday night on a suburban road.

The prosecutor, who three weeks ago obtained the felony indictments of nearly 350 aircraft sit-down strikers at Santa Monica, said:

"It may have been some one I sent to prison or perhaps some crack-brained misguided sympathizer or associate of radical trouble-makers who thought he was advancing the cause of labor."

Sheriff's deputies theorized the ambush was the work of "noivee gunmen," poorly armed, who took a long chance of capture in lurking so close to Pitts home, guarded for weeks.

PHILLIPS PLANTS HAD NO ACCIDENTS DURING LAST YEAR
Phillips gasoline plants, comprising eight units in the Pampa area, opened during 1936 without a "lost time accident." Homer Gibson, chairman of the gasoline chapter, made this report to the chapter at its meeting Monday night.

Two interesting talks were given at the meeting. C. R. Ringham talked on foreign gasoline manufacturing statistics, bringing out many unknown facts, also telling how gasoline was extracted from wood. J. H. Rickard, superintendent of the Wheeler Booster plant, talked on safety relief valves, explaining construction, uses, testing and general working ideas of operation. Open-house discussion followed.

R. L. Jones, chemist at Bowers, was elected secretary taking O. C. Hampton's place. Mr. Hampton was recently transferred to Berger. W. C. Boatwright and E. E. Traywick, in charge of entertainment, presented 3 cowgirl entertainers from Pampa who gave several musical numbers.

MANAGERS, SPONSORS OF SOFTBALL TEAMS PLAN TO ORGANIZE TONIGHT

ONE LOOP OR MORE MAY BE FORMED HERE

Class A Teams Will Discuss Manner Of Playing

Managers of all prospective teams in a Class A softball league will meet with officials of the newly organized Pampa Softball Association at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the chamber of commerce rooms in the city hall.

E. W. Voss, temporary president, will preside at the meeting and lead a discussion regarding plans for organizing a league or leagues from teams in the association.

Managers are urged to attend able to make final decisions regarding their stand on entering a team, division of teams in a league or leagues, method of selecting teams for each league, if more than one is formed, and other decisions.

Only managers and sponsors or a representative of the team should attend tonight's meeting which will be all business.

Sports Roundup

BY EDDIE BRIETZ.

SARASOTA, Fla., March 9 (AP)—Al Schacht, baseball's funny man, is getting in shape for his long tour of the minors by working out with the circus in winter quarters here.

Yesterday he almost started a riot. Attired in full baseball uniform, topped off with a long-tailed coat and high hat, Al was busy-picking up tips from a clown in one corner of the lot while a group of performing elephants, camels, etc., rehearsed the grand opening spectacle nearby.

The parade was marching round and around the ring when an elephant named Hazel suddenly reared.

Hazel had been with the circus 33 years and is old enough to know better. She has seen some strange sights around the big top but apparently nothing quite like Schacht.

She broke from the line, hurded the edge of the improvised ring and headed for the barn with five keepers in hot pursuit. They finally loaded her down with hobbles and chains and tried to coax her back in line but it was no good until Al retired behind the wild animal house to watch her with lions, tigers and leopards (all securely caged) as an audience.

Women wrasslers or wrasslerites have Tampa again. Hot tip from Lakeland is Mickey Cochrane will try Rudy York at third base if Hank Greenberg's wrist is OK.

Training rules posted by Jimmie Dykes, of the White Sox include: "Players may drink beer in the presence of the manager."

The official, players will be permitted to sneak an occasional highball but not in the presence of the manager.

Burliegh Grimes who will receive $10,500 for managing the Dodgers, once collected $24,000 per for pitching for the club.

Cincinnati squad at Tampa numbers 50 and is far and away the largest in Florida.

Col. Frank Grayson of the Cincinnati Times-Star says it is the best looking bunch of Reds he has seen in 11 years.

Mickey Cochrane at third base is a $100 suit he would catch 90 games for the Tigers this year.

They say Paul Dean is too fat and getting no thinner rapidly. If Lou Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio aren't signed by the end of the week you can see us.

Bill McKeehan watched young Vince DiMaggio clear the fence in the different fields on successive tries.

Then decided he'd not try to change the youngster's style, after all.

Most big league first sackers use from six to eight pairs of shoes a season at $16 per throw.

Some of the clumsier ones (you know who) go as high as eight.

The shoes are made of kangaroo skin.

The Washington Senators take the shortest practice sessions of any team in Florida—two hours daily.

The Cardinals, with two sessions daily, drill the longest.

Bill Hayes, 19-year-old wonder of a semi-pro team in New Hampshire aspires to be a baseball owner on a big league scale when he comes into 15 or 20 million in a few years.

So he is down here with the Bees taking lessons on how to become a magnate.

Taxes on 42,120,290 packs of playing cards were paid to the government for 1936. The previous year there were 42,527,021 packs.

HOT STUFF ON ICE

A goalie can't stop a flying puck when it is rifled over him while he's on the ice. This was the case when Davey Kerr of the Rangers tried to make a save of Arthur Chapman's shot which gave the Americans a 5-4 victory before a capacity crowd of 15,500 at Madison Square Garden. Chapman is in the foreground. Note the puck sailing into the net. The defeat prevented the Blue Shirts from clinching the championship of New York for another season.

HIRSCH FAMILY RACING LUCK STILL HOLDS

NEW YORK, March 9 (AP)—The luck of the Hirsch family still holds. Papa (Maxie) Hirsch started it last May when he saddled Bold Venture to win the Kentucky derby.

Then 23-year-old Mary, first woman to be granted a trainer's license by the Jockey Club, sent out No Sir to beat the great Pompon in one of the two races the 1936 juvenile champion lost.

Now Brother Buddy, 27, is on top as the result of Columbiana's smashing triumph in the $50,000 Widener challenge cup at Hialeah park.

Buddy bought Columbiana from his dad.

Buddy turned down an offer for his speedy filly last year not long before she ran third to Bright Plumage and Dnieper in the derby consolation stakes at Tropical park.

She won only three races in 10 starts last year but Buddy brought her up to the Hialeah stake in condition.

LAWRENCE M'BEЕ STARS IN PLAY AT COLLEGE

(Special to the Pampa NEWS)
CANYON, March 9 — Last Friday night Lawrence McBee of Pampa delighted a large audience which saw his performance of the genius son, Branwell Bronte, in "Moor Born" which was produced by the Panhandle Players. The play was directed by Miss Mary Morgan Brown, head of the speech department of the West Texas State Teachers College.

McBee had the most difficult role in a hard play, and it was only through weary hours of practice that he was able to do it.

"Moor Born" was given on two successive nights, to accommodate the people who wished to see it.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace McBee came down to see the performance Friday night.

ONLY HEAD OF OLD MR. BOSTON GUIDES LETTER

Traveling more than 4,000 miles without name or address from snow-bound Juena, Alaska, to Boston, a letter mailed by a liquor dealer, and bearing only the head of Old Mr. Boston, arrived safe and sound 15 days later at the offices of Ben Burk, Inc., producers of Old Mr. Boston liquors.

The facsimile of Old Mr. Boston was taken from a bottle label.

"Clever men, these postmasters," says Harold I. Reingold, advertising manager for the distillers.

JOE MATISI IS NO. 1 BOXER IN EAST TODAY

NEW YORK, March 9 (AP)—Joe Matisi, brother of Tony Matisi, star tackle of Pitt's Rose Bowl football champions, is the east's No. 1 amateur boxer today.

Joe says a punch in the nose from Tony started him to success.

Heavyweight Champion of the New York Daily News Golden Gloves tournament, Joe started boxing a year ago against Tony in their home at Binghamton, N. Y.

"I wasn't doing very good until Tony hit me one on the nose," Joe remembers, "and then I really started to fight. After that I got on pretty well with him and I decided to try the amateurs."

Joe's victory over Clarence (Hairy) Hapes of Memphis, the favorite, was the upset of the tournament.

The eight champions in last night's final bouts who are eligible to fight against the Chicago team March 24 follow:

112-pound—Bill Speary, Antioche, Pa.
118-pound—Salvatore Bartolo, E. Boston.
126-pound—Jackie Donovan, Buffalo.
135-pound—Joe Kelly, Naticoke, Pa.

JAGUARS ARE CHAMPS.
TYLER, March 9 (AP)—The Jacksonville college Jaguars today were basketball champions of district 1 of the Texas Junior College conference. By defeating the College of Marshall Tigers, 33 to 23, here last night, the defending state champions earned the right to represent the district in the state tournament at Victoria. Grady Vaughn of the winners was high scorer with 14 points.

For many years known as America's outstanding sporting event, the competitor's standpoint, the enrollment this year has far exceeded even the fondest hopes of the promoters.

The entry list numbers 4,016 five-man teams, 5,881 doubles and 11,773 singles. The entry fees alone amount to $218,075, of which $145,000 will be distributed to 6,000-odd prize winners at the end of the seven weeks competition.

Jewel Young, Purdue forward and a Big Ten scoring leader, committed only 18 personal fouls in his first 12 games this season.

U. S. Department of Agriculture reports show lower Rio Grande Valley citrus is being carried by truck to 26 states beyond Texas.

Training Camp News

(By The Associated Press)
TAMPA, Fla., March 9 — Phil Weintraub, veteran minor-league and ex-Giant, apparently is sure of a regular outfield berth with the Cincinnati Reds. Manager Chuck Dressen said today.

PASADENA—The White Sox got down to hard batting and infield practice today, with only the lone holdout, Pitcher Merritt (Sugar) Cain, unaccounted for. Zeke Bonura, first sacker, hit four homers yesterday, his first day in camp.

SANTA ROSA, N. M.—Manager Charlie Grimm, herding his club toward Catalina Island, Calif., said today he expects Gabby Hartnett to catch 100 games this season. He believes Rip Collins, first baseman acquired from the Cardinals, will furnish the batting punch necessary for a pennant.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Ellsworth (Babe) Dahlgren, first baseman the Yankees purchased as "insurance" against Lou Gehrig's continued holdout, is philosophical but not hopeful about his prospects.

"I hope they keep me," he said. "I wouldn't mind sitting on the bench to get a cut in the world series. I don't see much chance of playing."

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif.—The Pittsburgh Pirates started their second day of training with three players still among the holdouts.

President William Benswanger said he had "insurance" against Lou Gehrig's continued holdout, is philosophical but not hopeful about his prospects.

"I hope they keep me," he said. "I wouldn't mind sitting on the bench to get a cut in the world series. I don't see much chance of playing."

ST. ANTONIO—The Browns settled down to serious training today. Manager Rogers Hornsby promised a winning team. Beau Bell's report that his holdout may be of "short duration" and Leo Koupa's name on the line proved a basis for the Rajah's smiles.

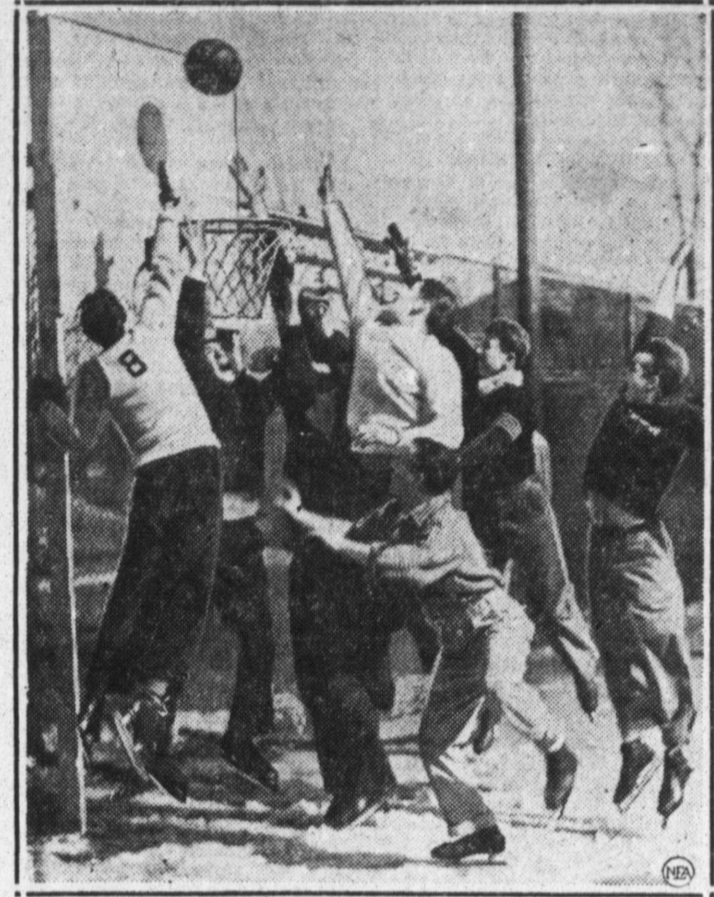

ORLANDO, Fla.—Buck Newsom waited in his hotel room today for owner Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators to come around and talk salary.

His contract called for a $2,000 cut in his $11,000 salary of last year. Griffith had told him not to come to town unless he was ready to sign.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Vince DiMaggio, older brother of the Yankees' sophomore star, promised to develop into a major league third baseman. Bill McKeehan, the Boston Bees manager, tried him out and his only criticism was that Vince was rushing his throws to first.

SARASOTA, Fla.—Jimmy Fox's streamlined torso is the talk of the Red Sox training camp. The star first baseman shed more than 10 pounds during the winter and now weighs 185.

PUTTING IT ON ICE

One could hardly get a hot hand in this version of basketball. The Polar Bears of Northwestern University and the Sea Lions of Loyola University put the game on ice the other day in Chicago, with the Polar Bears winning, 12 to 6. The game was called at the end of the first half because the ice melted. Apparently, the going got too hot.

BASEBALL CHATTER

NEW YORK, March 8 (AP)—The hot-stovers break up:

It's still a secret, but the Washington Senators could be persuaded to trade holdout Pitcher Buck Newsom to the Yankees, if they could get Lefty Gomez in return.

... or Twirlers Johnny Broaca and Johnny Murphy, if Lefty can't come.

... Vince DiMaggio may wind up on third base for the Boston Bees unless the job goes to another rookie, Debs Garms.

A matter of slightly over $30,000 is still in the way of the Yankees and signed contracts from Lou Gehrig, Charley Ruffing and Joe streamlined torso is the talk of the Red Sox training camp. The star first baseman shed more than 10 pounds during the winter and now weighs 185.

Hottest holdout fight: Buck Jordan vs. Boston Bees.

Dimaggio . . . Gehrig wants $14,000 more than the Yanks will go. Ruffing wants the figure upped 15 G's, and Dead Pan Joe would like it boosted from $15,000 to seventy-five.

Babe Herman may find himself on the outside looking in if he does not take the Cincinnati Reds offer.

Steve O'Neill is giving Rookie Pitcher Bill Zuber a chance with the Cleveland Indians because he's knock-kneed.

"Matty, Alexander, Ray Caldwell and Wes Ferrell—none of 'em walk without wearing callouses on the inside of their knees," says Steve. "Maybe this lad's the same."

The salary squabble started by Pitcher Lou Koupa, 35-year old "rookie" is beginning to get in St. Louis Browns' hair.

Charley Dressen is looking for a great comeback by Wild Bill Hallahan with the Reds.

Senators will carry nine hurlers through the season.

and Bucky Harris is praying for "six or seven" starters, no less.

GRID PLAYERS ARE MISSING AT PRACTICE

BORGER CELEBRATION IS DRAWING CARD ON MONDAY

Yesterday's football practice was anything but a success. Nearly half of the squad failed to put in an appearance at Harvester field. "Huh, I forgot Borger was having a birthday today and that the boys would want to go over and celebrate," remarked Coach Odus Mitchell.

"Oh, well, that's the boys' hard luck, they will just have to practice twice as hard tomorrow afternoon if we are going to be ready for the scrimmage with the exes in school on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock," he continued as Dewey and Graham tried to get off spirals, without much success.

A visitor yesterday was Coach Bob Clark of the Wheeler Mustangs. The genial magician-coach was sarcastic about Coach J. C. Prejean's waist line. Coach Mitchell's lack of size and Coach Bob Curry's height with no weight. Then he went in to a huddle to hear Coach Mitchell tell about Dana X. Bible's coaching school last Friday and Saturday in Austin. Coach Mitchell explained Bible's method of using the punt formation and other types of play.

Blocking and tackling came in for considerable attention during yesterday's practice, especially among the linemen. A search for a passer and punter to fill Roy Showers' place was also continued as different boys were given a chance to heave the ball or to boot it with the wind.

This afternoon coaches planned to dish out new plays, run dummy scrimmage and take up some defense in preparation for the Thursday battle.

THE FINANCIAL WHIRLIGIG

By LOUIS SCHNEIDER

HOPE. Steel trade insiders confidentially disclose that based on the number of employees, the tonnage produced annually and the amount of the wage increase granted last week, steel prices will have to be lifted $3.50 a ton to offset the increased costs of the labor adjustment.

What is worrying steel trade executives is whether consuming interests will continue to place orders when prices are increased. The trade knows that "strike fear buying" accounted for the recent rush of orders. Steel heads hope that the government's navy building program and increased automobile production will offset any possible loss of other business.

ADDING. As previously disclosed by Financial Whirligig, the New York world's fair will benefit New York Central. The road will earn because of the demand for hotel rooms. How? Central owns the land on which stand the Billmore, Waldorf-Astoria, Commodore, Roosevelt and Barclay hotels. It has bond or ownership interest in these hotels.

World's fair boom would place these hostilities on a paying basis which would place New York Central Railroad on the receiving end. It's because of this knowledge that investment accounts have been adding to holdings.

PEACE. Well founded reports are that American and Foreign Power is to do about $60,000,000 of bond financing. The undertaking is expected to result in an annual saving of $500,000 in interest charges. Now here's the surprise: The financing work will be done in London.

What's it all about? The head of American and Foreign Power leaves it should register with the S. E. C. The head of Electric Bond and Share—which has working control of the former—doesn't agree. Since the American and Foreign Power properties don't come under the jurisdiction of the S. E. C.—because of its foreign units—and since there must be peace in the family, the financing is being arranged in London.

EGGS. Egg trade insiders say now that government buying has been completed the market will seek its proper level and confidence will be restored. The government took more than 250,000 cases at an estimated cost of $1,800,000. Traders are of the belief that by the close of this month egg futures will again be in a buying zone.

B. & O. It may now be officially disclosed that Baltimore & Ohio Railroad's Ohio Valley flood damage is estimated at $1,000,000. Of this $300,000 was charged against January income. Some $500,000 will be charged against February income. The remaining amount will be charged against March income.

These bullish on the outlook for the Baltimore & Ohio shares argue that if the first quarter net runs higher than the like period of last year after the $1,000,000 flood damage deduction then the second quarter income should make unusually good reading to stockholders.

OIL. Crude oil interests assume a complacent attitude when questioned about the C. I. O. threats to unionize the oil industry. They show that the average worker is of a high type and well paid. They also point out that the industry operates on a national basis. There are no central spots where Mr. Lewis can play his hand—unless he concentrates on the refineries in Port Arthur and Houston, Texas.

It was also learned that a crude oil price advance is in the offing. It is due to be announced early next month. The increase is expected to average about 25 cents per barrel. Increased consumption and seasonal factors will prevent buyers' resistance.

BUYING. Paper trade insiders are optimistic over the outlook for the balance of the year. Despite the fact that prices have been advanced three times since early December another increase is anticipated. The cur-

125 MACHINISTS ARE ON SIT DOWN STRIKE

HOUSTON, March 9 (AP)—The plant here of the Emco Derrick & Equipment Company remained idle today as 125 machinists continued on a sit-down strike.

The men stopped work yesterday and a short time later the company countered by locking gates to a fence enclosing the 20-acre plant. A night shift of 75 was refused admission and the company issued orders that those leaving the enclosure would not be permitted to re-enter.

Paid was passed over the fence by relatives.

Spokesmen for the machinists said the strike was called by local No. 12 of the International Association of Machinists, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. In an effort to have the company meet a demand for a wage increase of five cents an hour and union recognition.

ELEANOR TO DENTON

FORT WORTH, March 9 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt after a two-day visit in her son's home near Fort Worth journeyed to Denton today for a lecture at the Texas State College for Women. The first lady mixed pleasure and work yesterday, enjoying herself at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Roosevelt with her two grandchildren. She made morning and evening lectures.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson
ELEPHANTS HAVE BEEN KNOWN TO PUSH OVER TREES WHOSE TRUNKS WERE FOUR FEET IN CIRCUMFERENCE.
ROTAPOES ARE BEING USED IN THE MANUFACTURE OF RUBBER.
MOST OF THE INSECTS CHOSEN BY NATURE AS FERTILIZING AGENTS FOR FLOWERS ARE COVERED WITH HAIR, TO WHICH POLLEN CLINGS READILY.
ELEPHANTS often work in groups, at the task of pulling down a tree. While one animal pushes and butts against the trunk, another pulls, while a third elephant frequently digs at the roots with its tusks. However, these trees do not have long tap-roots, and, during the rainy season, are not so difficult to uproot.

LABOR LEAGUE IS SUPPORTING COURT CHANGE

WASHINGTON, March 9 (AP)—Labor's non-partisan league set out today to bring pressure on congress in favor of the Roosevelt proposal to revamp the Supreme Court.

The President has chosen this path—the only path—toward his humanitarian objectives. President George L. Berry told the league's national convention.

"It is up to those who supported him for re-election last fall to follow him now."

The meeting of the league, established last year to campaign for Mr. Roosevelt's re-election, opened a week which partisans of both sides predicted would bring debate on the court program to a new peak.

The President will follow up his Thursday's appeal for enlargement of the Supreme Court—if aged justices do not retire, with a "fireside chat" broadcast to the nation tomorrow at 10 p. m., eastern standard time.

Postmaster General Farley will address the University of North Carolina political union tomorrow afternoon, and Attorney General Cummings will open senate hearings on the bill Wednesday.

League officials said every state and 2,000,000 union members were represented. Some farm organizations were invited to send observers.

The meeting brought together prominent members both of the American Federation of Labor and the Committee for Industrial Organization, despite the unremitting struggle between those groups for domination of the organized labor field.

John L. Lewis, heading the CIO, will join Senator LaFollette when the latter gives a second address tonight. The program will be broadcast at 11 p. m. (EST).

The league's activities attracted attention at the capitol in view of the political possibilities. Senator Burke (D-Neb.), opposing the President on the court issue, has predicted a party re-alignment unless the program is defeated.

Berry expressed the belief Congress would enact the legislation. Taking notice of new party talk, he said in an interview that the league is not engaged in forming a political party.

JUDGE FINES MAN—THEN MARRIES HIM.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Cupid juggled things nicely for Harold Hammink was arrested for speeding Stevens, 24, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Hammink was arrested for speeding while driving with Miss Stevens. He pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Lloyd E. Clark and explained he was hurrying to get a marriage license.

Justice Clark said, well, he could take care of that, too. With the assistance of a deputy sheriff he married them—after collecting the $5.50 speeding fine.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK

MONETT, Mo. (AP)—Mike Meyer thought he caught the first trout of the season—but he was too quick. With hundreds of eager anglers he waited on the bank of Roaring River for the gun opening the season. He saw a flash downstream and it was the starting gun and cast, hooking a beauty. The flash, however, was a photographer's flash bulb, five minutes ahead of time. Officials made Myer throw back his catch.

Viewing the Supreme Court From Every Angle

In the magnificent new $11,000,000 building where these unusual pictures were made sits the U. S. Supreme Court, whose reorganization is now being hotly debated throughout the country. At upper left is the impressive pediment of the main entrance to the building. Entering, the visitor is escorted by uniformed guards into the central lobby, whose ceiling is a dream of architectural decoration. Then perhaps he will see the justices themselves behind the polished and carved wooden bench in the courtroom, lower left. The justices have entered the building through the subterranean entrance shown at lower right. Many visitors do not see one of the architectural marvels of the building, the staircase shown in the center, which spirals upward without any underpinning whatever, for each step is a marble slab set in the wall and overlapping the one beneath. Visitors, always eager to see the architectural marvels of the building, have multiplied in number since the court became a center of attention.

HER NAME IN LIGHTS

CHAPTER XII "Tuck, please," Jennifer tugged gently at Tuck Ainsley's sleeve. She snuggled to him in the low-slung roadster. "Please be my lamb and stop here. Do you want to start something at this stage of the game?"

He reached for the gear and pulled it back. "Young lady, are you trying to kid me? This is schoolgirl stuff, stopping the car a block from your apartment. I won't have it. You're a strange mixture of sophisticated woman and a child. I can't dope you out."

"Just make up your mind that I'm a femme fatale, or was," she said, lowering her voice and brushing his cheek with hers. "until I meet you. Now, kiss me, because I've got to get in. It's after one and Daphne will be getting home soon, if she isn't already there."

"My sister? My keeper! Oh, Tuck, if I weren't so crazy about you I wouldn't take any risks. After all, they're my risks. Daphne can be dreadful when she wants to be. She has a good time. She loves her job and she has Larry—and hasn't she Larry! I trip over him all the time but I'm supposed to act like a nun."

He laughed. "Not that you do, you mix. You'd better run along if you won't let me come with you." Jennifer took off her hat and laid her head back against the cushion, staring up at the stars. She took a deep breath. "This is a night for adventure, darling. Aren't you glad I made you put the top down on the car? An April night and an April moon! There'll be so many others and we won't be together. It makes me sad. I've never known anyone like you. Tuck, and I feel lonesome just to think that some day I'll lose you. You'll share this same moon with someone else."

MIDGET HORSES WITH GIANT HEADS ONCE ROAMED PANHANDLE

SAN ANTONIO, March 9 (AP)—Misfortune, which reared the hooves of tiny giant-headed horses into the treacherous quicksands of the Texas Panhandle more than 1,000,000 years ago, is hailed by Dr. C. Stuart Johnston, West Texas State Teachers college paleontologist, as good fortune for science.

Supervising a small band of WPA workmen, says a statement from WPA headquarters here, Dr. Johnston discovered that the long-dried quicksands beds preserved skeletal remains of the extinct horses in almost perfect condition. The prehistoric animal is described by Dr. Johnston as slightly smaller than the modern pony but with a head as large as that of the average draft horse.

The WPA workers are excavating and helping to reconstruct a veritable menagerie of strange and extinct animals which once roamed the western plains of Texas. "For several decades the rich fossil beds of West Texas have been combed for scientifically significant deposits of representatives of out-of-state museums and scientific institutions," Dr. Johnston says.

Reconstructed skeletons of prehistoric animals are being placed in the Panhandle Plains museum on the W. T. S. T. C. campus at Canyon. In one 3,700 pound block on exhibit at the museum are the bones of rhinos, camels, saber-tooth tigers, prehistoric dogs and horses, all figures in the million-year-old drama of the Texas Panhandle being unfolded by the small band of researchers. One of the rarest specimens uncovered by the workmen is a complete skeleton of the giant ground sloth unearthed in Eriscos county.

HOSE TAKES IMPROMPTU SKI RIDE. MT. CARROLL, Ill. (AP)—H. P. Hostetter's horse went skiing—and did a pretty graceful job of it, too. The horse slipped on the ice, skidded down a slope, crashed thru a fence and over a bluff, landing on an ice-covered stream.

He was led back to the barn with only minor cuts and bruises. AUTOS CROWD HIGHWAYS. TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Asher Frank, state safety director, says that in February, peak month of winter travel, there were from 110 to 120 automobiles to the mile on Florida highways.

new clothes. It was astonishing how interested she had become in clothes. She wanted smart, pretty things to wear for Larry. And Larry had always so many delightful, new things for them to do.

Her thoughts swung back to Larry and the new apprehension that had suddenly sprung to her mind.

The telephone rang imperiously. Daphne tripped over her skirts in her eagerness to reach it, gathered them up and fell across her bed to clutch the telephone and remove it from its cradle. "Hello," she said anxiously and felt her heart beating against her ribs. "Daphne," it was Larry—"did you know what I was trying to tell you tonight?" Daphne said that she didn't "But don't be frightened, darling. No matter what it is, I want to hear it."

"It's my surprise to you to know that I love you!" Daphne made one of those little inarticulate sounds in her throat. "I haven't told you that I did." Daphne waited while time stood still.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, March 8 (AP)—Most big oil fields, says Ernest O. Thompson, member of the Railroad Commission which administers Texas' proration laws, are brought in by men thought by some to be "a little off."

He made the statement to a legislative committee conducting a hearing on a bill to make it easier to obtain drilling permits for development of small "excess" tracts of land.

"Many gushers spout where there was no supporting geology and where experts said there was no oil," Thompson said.

The little men are the scouts for developers of great oil pools, and East Texas is the greatest example in the world of this.

Thompson appeared for the hearing immaculately groomed and smiling urbanely.

The room was filled with committeemen and spectators and some persons were standing. Thompson looked about, saw no vacant chair and asked "Where shall I sit?"

"Don't now," remarked someone. "How about standing?" "Can't," said Thompson. "Just had lunch."

Rep. Roy Tennant of Longview who, by the way, is the shortest man in the legislature, having taken the distinction from Rep. Harold Hankamer of El Paso, questioned Thompson for his views on recent court decisions affecting the oil bill under discussion.

"It is your opinion then," Tennant asked, "that this bill if enacted into law will do away with that harsh court ruling?"

Thompson hastily interrupted. "You're not asking me to say that ruling was harsh are you?" he queried. There was a laugh.

"Not me. I've been cited for contempt of court before."

Senator Claude Westerfield of Dallas told a committee holding a hearing on a state civil service bill recently that he favored the principle of civil service but didn't like the way it was applied in some localities, including his home city.

"When we have a change of administration in Dallas," he said, "the winners drag out a certain list of questions called a civil service test. "It has such questions as, 'how does he meet the public?' 'does he keep his shoes shined?' 'is his tummy so big there is a gap between his vest and his trousers?' "That's the way they make a lot of vacancies for their friends."

A hearing on a certain bill before the house municipal and private corporations committee never could be held, this year at least, on the scheduled date.

The notice posted on the bulletin board in the hall of the house of representatives set the hearing for Monday, Feb. 29, March 1, of course, was intended.

AMERICA DUE TO MEET AUSTRALIA IN FINALS

NEW YORK, March 9 (AP)—While the first stage of the American Davis cup campaign was hardly begun, the United States lawn tennis association has selected the last week-end of May for the North American zone finals at Forest Hills, L. I.

Confident the home forces will meet Australia in the final, officials picked the big Forest Hills stadium for the matches May 29, 30 and 31.

Australia is sending Jack Crawford, Adrian Quist, Vivian McGrath and 18-year-old Jack Bromwich, in addition to a manager. They are scheduled to play Mexico at Mexico City April 30 to May 2. The other first round match sends America against Japan. The dates and places have not been fixed.

So far only Don Budge, America's No. 1 player, seems sure of his place on the team, but Frankie Parker, ranked No. 2, made a good beginning of his campaign when he won the national indoor title Saturday.

J. Donald Brennan, rotund 33-year-old relief pitcher for Cincinnati, is Maine's only representative in the major leagues.

STEEL FIRM GIRDS FOR FIGHT WITH JOHN LEWIS

PITTSBURGH, March 9 (AP)—Employee representatives of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation, hoping to recruit the American Federation of Labor in the fight, drove ahead today with plans to combat John L. Lewis' one-big-union-for-steel plan.

They disregarded a rejection from William Green, president of the A. F. of L. and sent a second appeal to that organization which advocates craft unionism—this time to John F. Frey, vice-president of the federation and head of its metal trades department.

They also disregarded a prediction by Philip Murray—chairman of the steel workers organizing committee, an affiliate of Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization—that he would sign contracts with all subsidiaries of U. S. Steel within ten days.

Green commented the federation had always opposed any form of the so-called "company union."

SAVAGE ITALIANS LONDON, March 9 (AP)—Members of the house of commons today assailed the "savagery" with which, they said, Italian troops in Addis Ababa carried out reprisals against natives suspected of the recent attempt to assassinate Viceroy Rodolfo Graziani.

Margot Grahame agrees that Luckies are gentlest on the throat

"I've smoked Luckies for eight years—ever since I was introduced to them in London by an American motion picture producer. He put forward the very sensible argument that they are the gentlest cigarette in the world on the throat—and fine tobacco, too. Since then I have made many pictures, and I must say Luckies have always been considerate of my throat. In fact, my throat practically insists that I choose a light smoke—which is easy to understand in view of the voice strain picture-work entails."

Margot Grahame FEATURED IN THE RKO RADIO PICTURE BASED ON THE JULES VERNE STORY "MICHAEL STROGOFF"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Grahame verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
