

JUAREZ IS UNDER MARTIAL LAW

OKLAHOMA COUNTY JUDGE IS JAILED AFTER SHOOTING GORE'S LEAD FOR OKLAHOMA SENATORSHIP IS CUT DOWN

Trading at home talk in this column may get results. And it may not.

At any rate, a local man recently took a vacation and went to Denver. He bought gasoline tickets here so he would not have to distribute Pampa money along the route. His hat blew off and he went bareheaded rather than spend Pampa money in Denver. He came back with his shoes worn out and patched with pasteboard. He tied his shoes up with balling wire when the laces broke. His name was not given to The Pampan, but he was rumored to have been an amusement dispenser.

Boy Scouts of the Panhandle, including half a hundred from Pampa, have a lot of fun in store. The annual camp this year will be held at Ceta Canyon, a branch of the majestic Palo Duro, at the Baptist encampment grounds. This is the favorite picnic grounds of the writer, who used to be a Baptist before he became a Presbyterian, and who likes good water with his camp-excursions.

Ceta canyon is the best watered of all the canyons. The pure, cold liquid that courses down the high canyon walls made, myriad-hued because of the clays, is the best beverage known for the thirsty camper or hiker. Camps and water go hand in hand, and the Ceta campsite is almost ideal in this respect.

This camp, moreover, is reached by good roads, though steeply inclined in spots, and there are houses and telephone connections. Too many luxuries take away the outdoor flavor, but too few bring discomfort. The Baptist encampment grounds are 20 miles southeast of Canyon.

Work, play, good food, Scoutcraft, water sports, comradeship with new friends—these factors should appeal to any normal boy. Mothers will be interested in knowing that there will be a temporary hospital on the grounds, with a competent registered nurse in charge. The fills of the boys will be well cared for, and the lads will be taught first aid as well. Visitors' day will be Sunday August 24.

Misconceptions abound on every big question. It should be known by South Pampa residents that highway 33 will not be routed away from them and that the state highway department will not permit the road to cross the railroad. Highway 33 will leave Pampa south of the rails, and if the road were taken north of the tracks at all under crossings—and needed underpasses—would be necessary. Any report that the highway will cross the tracks is erroneous and probably propaganda.

Gray county must have paved roads. She must not sit down in the mud while counties east and west with less property values provide concrete for motorists. Pampa is a proud city, but YOU CANNOT LOOK PROUD SITTING IN THE MUD. Amarillo, Pampa's rival in many things, is becoming the hub of the Panhandle concrete system. Where is the real Pampan who is satisfied with this situation? Vote for the bonds August 9.

Justice was swift in the trial of Jesse Lee Washington, negro youth who yielded to the worst passions known to the human race. The Rangers guaranteed that justice. Their presence spiced plans to sell the reputation of the Panhandle by staging a lynching. Texas should never be without an efficient state police force.

BLIND MAN'S MARGIN NOW NEAR 2,000

Murray's Vote Over 60,000 Above Buttram's

RUN-OFF RACES TAKING FORM

J. Berry King Wins Job He Already Holds

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 31. (AP)—The lead of T. P. Gore over C. J. Wrightsman, his leading opponent in the Democratic senatorial primary, zoomed back towards the 2,000 mark today on returns from 2,797 precincts out of the state's 3,338, and W. H. Murray's lead over Frank Buttram in the Democratic gubernatorial derby neared 60,000 in 3,025 precincts.

Robert Burns of Seminole retained a good lead in the crowded Democratic field for the lieutenant governor nomination and W. B. McAlester of McAlester again nosed out James Berry of Stillwater in the important sprint for second place, insuring a berth in the runoff primary of August 12.

In the 2,797 precincts Gore had 62,312 votes, Wrightsman 60,696. Henry S. Johnston, one of the three former governors in the same race, was more than 13,000 behind Wrightsman, with 47,324.

Murray had 124,068 votes in the 2,025 precincts. Buttram's total had swelled to 65,311, and E. B. Howard of Tulsa, ex-congressman, jumped to a lead of more than six thousand over M. E. Trapp, ex-governor, receiving 46,217 votes to Trapp's 39,549.

Burns, with 29,138 votes in 1,918 precincts, was more than 2,000 votes ahead of McAlester, with 25,992, in the lieutenant governor field of 14 candidates. Berry, who has been jockeying with McAlester for second place, was close behind with 25,718.

Charles S. Storms of Waurika, acting lieutenant governor, was in fourth place, with 21,170, and Ben Wood, of Oklahoma City, who once was up in second position, had fallen to fifth with 16,754.

In 1,381 precincts, Ira A. Hill, of Cherokee continued to hold his commanding lead over James Harris of Wagoner, former national committeeman in the contest for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, with a strong continued indication that he would distance Harris and Rexford Cragg, the third candidate far enough to win the nomination without entering the runoff. At this stage, Hill's vote was 24,929, Harris 15,829, and Cragg's 4,181.

Gallant Firemen Rush To Aid Of Venus de Milo

WINONA LAKE, Ind., July 31. (AP)—The fire department has come to the rescue of the Venus de Milo, and a scheme to clothe the goddess' statue in poison ivy has been thwarted. Mrs. Mary Schell Starr of Chicago, summering here, holds the opinion that the statue, which has been a figure of artistic pride for 20 years, should wear something. Yesterday the statue was fired to a location near the fire department, and the circumstance gave Mrs. Starr an opportunity to put her idea into action.

Poison ivy was planted around the base of the statue. Mrs. Starr expressed the hope, according to the firemen, that the ivy grow and grow until finally that "indefinite figure shall be all covered up."

The firemen, who are really art lovers at heart, decided to foil the scheme. They did not want to touch the ivy with their hands, so they turned the hose on it, rooting it up.

Police Chief Frank C. Edington, upholding the firemen, said Winona Lake is the home town of Billy Sunday, the evangelist, and that Sunday never had become publicly exercised about the statue.

"If it's o.k. with Billy, it's o.k. with me," the chief concluded.

Dirigible Will Delay Landing At Early Dusk

ST. HUBERT AIRPORT, Montreal, July 31.—The R-100 slowly approached the end of its flight from England today, its arrival delayed by choice or necessity until shortly before dark tonight.

Progress of the dirigible, the greatest ever to rise against the sky, over the ocean and down Belle Isle and even official belief that the R-100 would get in about four o'clock this afternoon, but at noon today a relayed wireless from the ship itself announced that arrival would be at 7 o'clock (E. S. T.).

No reason was given for the delay, but it was not believed it was caused by adverse weather or any enforced slowing up of the dirigible's six engines. Rather it was believed the officers in command had decided that atmospheric conditions would be better close to dusk than in the heat of the afternoon sun.

Sunheat has the effect on hydrogen, which is the lifting gas of the R-100, of enormously increasing buoyancy, and it was thought the R-100 officers had decided on a delayed landing to avoid the necessity of valving off valuable gas to effect a landing in the full heat of mid-afternoon.

SON OF RIVAL GIVEN SLIGHT SCALP INJURY

Bitter Campaign Is Ended In Fist Fight

HIGH FEELINGS AT WILBURTON

J. W. Callahan Taken To McAlester Prison

WILBURTON, Okla., July 31.—(AP)—The upshot of a bitter local political feud, County Judge J. W. Callahan of Latimer county today was held in the state penitentiary at McAlester because of high feeling following his shooting here yesterday of 18-year-old Frank Briggs, son of Claud Briggs, Democratic state senate candidate and former state representative. Young Briggs received a scalp wound. He was said to be not seriously wounded.

Witnesses said the shooting came after Callahan, political enemy of the elder Briggs, but not his opponent, came to blows with the youth over the judge's opposition to the senate candidate's successful cause in the Tuesday primary. After officers had spirited Callahan to the penitentiary, they filed charges of assault with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons against him.

The exact nature of the controversy between Judge Callahan and the youth remained in doubt although it was understood the boy had voiced objections to personalities he believed Callahan had injected into the campaign. The affair occurred on the street, where Judge Callahan was seated in his parked motor car.

Briggs had been nominated over Bert Kidd, PotEAU, in the primary while Callahan was defeated in the race for judgeship nomination. Known as the "Fighting Irishman," a Socialist lawyer, Callahan had for years led radical forces in the county, frequently conflicting with Carlton Weaver, Wilburton publisher and political leader known as the boy member of the 1906 constitutional convention. Briggs, also an attorney, was a Weaver partisan.

Endurance Ships Still In Battle

ST. LOUIS, July 31.—(AP)—The endurance monoplane, Greater St. Louis, piloted by Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brine, started its eleventh day in the air at 7:11 a. m. today.

A year ago last night the two fliers landed after completing 420 hours in the air. The record stood until recently when the Hunter Brothers remained aloft 554 hours at Chicago. Jackson and O'Brine have set 720 hours as their goal.

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., July 31.—(AP)—Bob Black and Lou Reichers endurance fliers, passed their 215th hour in the air at 5:30 a. m. (EST) today.

The first night refueling contact was made last night with the aid of a large flashlight attached to the gasoline hose. Reichers talked with his mother for 15 minutes by radio from the plane to the airport.

As Rangers Departed With Negro

LITTLE INTEREST IN ELECTION TO BE HELD IN COUNTY TO VOTE BIG SUM FOR PAVING HIGHWAYS

While practically no interest is being taken locally in the county-wide $3,500,000 road bond election which will be held throughout the county Saturday, a few citizens at McAlester are working strenuously for the measure, it was reliably reported here today.

Commissioner M. M. Newman of McAlester declared that while a majority of voters in that community will not approve the bond at the polls, a few would vote for it. He predicted that it will be defeated at every polling box in the county.

Some interest in the election has been developed at McAlester and many are making a strong effort to defeat the issue, he said.

It was believed that most of those who vote in this community will not cast ballots for the bond.

A $2,000,000 road bond election will be held in road district No. 5, which includes precincts Nos. 1, 2 and 3, August 9. This issue is being supported by the membership of the Chamber of Commerce and the B. C. D. as well as many citizens in the district. Should the county-wide issue carry, the second election will not be held. They money derived from the sale of both issues would be used to pave and construct roads.

Jury Completed In Damage Case

Jurors for the case in which Roy Chisum is suing Sheriff E. S. Graves and his bondsmen for damages alleged to have been sustained when a bullet from a gun fired by Deputy Scott Rheudasil lodged in the plaintiff's foot, were selected this morning. Hearing of testimony is scheduled to begin this afternoon.

In preliminary pleadings, the de-fense argued that the sheriff was responsible for only the official acts of his deputies, which were performed with his knowledge and consent, and that Deputy Rheudasil's arrest of Mr. Chisum was not an official act because no warrant was issued and because the arrest was made without the defendant's knowledge.

Defense counsel stated in the pleadings that when Mr. Rheudasil fired the gun he had no intention of hitting Mr. Chisum; that he fitted it only "to frighten" the plaintiff, and that the bullet struck the sidewalk and glanced.

The plaintiff alleged that he was not "drunk and disorderly," the charge on which the deputy claimed he arrested Mr. Chisum, and that Mr. Rheudasil was acting in an official capacity when he made the arrest.

Only eleven jurors will try the case, as A. N. Dilley, Jr., was excused by consent of both sides after the jury was impaneled. They are as follows: Walter Butler, T. A. Perkins, R. E. Hawk, J. E. Killman, T. J. Griffin, P. E. Boyd, Grant Wisner, B. E. Glass, B. F. Reno, J. P. Kennedy, J. O. Gillham.

Bondsmen named as defendants in the suit are R. E. Johnson, H. Otto Studer, and C. S. Barrett.

AMARILLO, July 31. (Special)—Forced by the heat wave to abandon the idea of an afternoon matinee for the Midsummer Horse Show in Amarillo, sponsors of the event have combined the two programs and will offer the fastest-moving exhibition of its kind ever seen in the Panhandle Saturday evening at the Tri-State Fair park.

INVESTIGATION OF ELECTION UNDER WAY

City Officials Under Arrest—Several In Jail

CORRUPTION IS BEING CHARGED

Defeated Candidate Instigator Of Probe

EL PASO, July 31.—(P)—Juarez, Mexico, across the border from here was under martial law today, the mayor, three aldermen and city secretary under arrest and a warrant out for a fourth alderman.

Mayor Gustavo Flores and Alderman Jose Motta, Carlos Austin B. Garcia and Valentin Fuentes and City Clerk Alejandro Fallinger were held prisoners in the mayor's office and a warrant awaited Patrocinio Candelario, the fourth alderman, who was reported out of the city.

Lieut. Col. Ignacio L. Campos, aide to General Francisco Del Arco, commander of the Juarez garrison, was in charge of enforcing martial law. He was acting as provisional chief of police and two squads of soldiers were on duty.

The latest trouble was reported as an aftermath of the July 20 gubernatorial election, in connection with which Governor Romulo Escobar, of Chihuahua, has been making an investigation of charges that followers of Manuel Prieto, defeated candidate for governor, and the Juarez city officials, through their police powers, controlled the voting there.

Orders for the arrest of the city officials were issued by Judge Francisco Figueroa of the Juarez penal court and they were ordered held until court officials had completed the investigation of fraud charges.

Direct charges of fraud against the prisoners were made today by Antonio Corona, head of the Manuel Prieto party in Juarez.

"The election of July 20 was illegal and the Prieto party demands it be annulled," Corona said. "We demand that Governor Escobar investigate charges and punish those responsible for the illegal manner in which the election was conducted."

Mayor Flores said he did not know why he and the other officials were being held prisoners.

"They called me to my office last night," Flores said. "They said they wanted me for a conference with Juan Porras, a special representative of Governor Escobar. I came to my office and was told the conference was to be in regard to an investigation of alleged election irregularities. Porras did not show up and we were held prisoners all night."

General Arco said the investigation was strictly a state affair and that the federal government had nothing to do with it. He said martial law had been declared to preserve order during the investigation and soldiers ordered to supplant police until the investigation was completed.

Horse Show in Amarillo To Be Classy Feature

AMARILLO, July 31. (Special)—Forced by the heat wave to abandon the idea of an afternoon matinee for the Midsummer Horse Show in Amarillo, sponsors of the event have combined the two programs and will offer the fastest-moving exhibition of its kind ever seen in the Panhandle Saturday evening at the Tri-State Fair park.

There are 118 entries in the 15 classes of the show, and officials will crowd them through the ring in record time to assure spectators a horse show with action. The entries include some of the best horses in the Southwest. R. H. Lewis, Dallas stable owner, will be the judge.

Panhandle and Pampa will be strong competitors in the show, stables from both cities being strongly represented.

Because of the interest in saddle horses in these cities as well as Borger and others of the North Plains, a large attendance is expected from each city. Hundreds have already indicated to the management that they will attend.

There will be no advance in prices, and the entire program may be seen for 75 cents. There are 2800 grand stand seats at this price. Children's tickets will be 25 cents. About 200 bleacher seats will be sold for 50 cents.

J. H. LAVENDER DIES JULY 24 IN LOS ANGELES

Mrs. C. P. Washmon informed The News at noon today that she had received a letter from Mrs. J. H. Lavender, stating that Mr. Lavender died July 24, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. Lavender was a former resident of Pampa having been the first Lavender & Lavender, real estate. He opened the Lavender addition here, was prominent in all public projects, active in Chamber of Commerce and was a member of the Rotary club.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavender left Pampa in October, 1925, and went to Los Angeles. Mr. Lavender had been in poor health for some time. He is survived by his wife, and one son, Lavener, who is a lawyer in Los Angeles.

"Other People's Business" To Be Sadler Offering

The title of the play that will be presented by Harley Sadler's own company at the theatre tonight is, "Other People's Business."

"Friday night's play will be the famous play 'The Patay.'" Saturday evening the company will present, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" and "Along the Canadian Border" is the title of the play Saturday night.

Mrs. M. A. Lackey and Mrs. Jessie Stewart of Perryton, members of the Pampa salon of the Eight and Forty, attended a meeting here Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Marion Danforth, state president, and Mrs. Marie St. Clair, state treasurer, made their official visit to the local organization.

HORSE NOT EXTINCT

The motor car has replaced many horses in hauling, and school children today may be at a loss to describe a horse, but the horse is still supreme in many kinds of work.

The Pampa Ice Manufacturing company uses more horses and mules than trucks, the company using six trucks, and nine horses and two mules. The horse-and-wagon method of delivery is far better adapted to the ice business than the motor truck, say the ice men.

Rangers Reach Dallas on Way To State Prison

DALLAS, July 31.—(AP)—Texas Rangers expected to leave here today, continuing their journey to the penitentiary at Huntsville with Jesse Lee Washington, negro sentenced to die in the electric chair September 5.

The negro was brought here last night from Pampa, where he had been in jail since he was convicted and sentenced in the district court at Miami, Texas, on charges of murder in the slaying of Mrs. Henry Vaughan, who was beaten to death at her farm home near Shamrock.

DANCING JUDITH

By CORALIE STANTON and HEATH HOSKEN
COPYRIGHT 1930 BY CHELSEA HOUSE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JUDITH GRANT, beautiful girl, lives in Greenwell village with CHUMMY MORLEY, a beautiful girl who lost her money when her lover, ALAN STEYNE disappeared seven years ago. Steyne returns but Chummy fails to recognize him; he and Judith fall in love, and he tells Judith he never loved Chummy and never knew Chummy loved him. Chummy's memory returns, and Steyne, feeling bound by a tie of honor, asks her to marry him. Judith accepts the offer of BRUCE GIDEON, rich financier, to star her in a musical show, and begins studying dancing to prepare for her part. Steyne distrusts Gideon and warns Judith, but she is offended and tells him to mind his own business. Judith goes to the studio of VINCENT STORN-AWAY, successful portrait painter, to act as model, and hears him talking with Gideon.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XX

It must be admitted that Judy was beginning to feel the irksome necessity of earning her scanty livelihood as an adjunct to the hard work of her dancing lessons and practice.

Sometimes she was so tired that she almost lost consciousness of what was going on around her; and when she awoke in the morning she would not even remember how she got home the evening before.

Stornaway and his guest came into the room, but they stopped behind the screen. Judy gathered that the artist was showing Gideon a piece of his work. All the canvases were at the other end of the studio.

She was just going to call out to them when her own name fell on her ears.

"Here is the sketch of Judy, Gideon—the one you asked me to do. I could elaborate it, if you like it." The ever-ready laughter rippled on Judy's lips. She was going to hear what Mr. Punch thought of her picture.

She herself thought it perfectly hideous; but Stornaway told her it was the best thing he had ever done. It was a dancing attitude he had chosen—that is, she was standing with one arm poised on her hip, leaning a little forward on her toes. She was supposed to be thinking of the dance that she was about to begin. Stornaway had told her he was doing it for his own pleasure. He had said nothing about Gideon asking him to do it.

Again what could she feel but flattered?

"It's splendid!" Gideon's voice said. "It's a great thing, old chap. Don't you think so?"

"Yes, I rather like it," admitted the artist modestly. "You see, every muscle is taut, ready to spring into action."

"Wonderful!" said Gideon. "Wonderful! What a figure she has!"

Judy snickered behind the screen. "You're very much gone on her, aren't you, Gideon?" the artist asked.

Gideon laughed, somewhat roughly for him.

"She's not the kind to give a man much peace," Stornaway went on. His tone was not offensive at all, and yet Judy stiffened.

"You're right there," Mr. Punch said, with an inflection that made Judy stiffen still more.

"Is it—serious?" was the artist's next question.

"Damnably," said Gideon.

To Judy it suddenly became intolerable that they were discussing her like this—discussing Gideon's feelings for her in this coldblooded way. If Gideon was fond of her, what was there to prevent him from being so? They spoke as if it were an impossible thing—something to jest and laugh about. Odious creatures, both of them!

"A thousand pities!"—Stornaway's voice sounded exceptionally clear—"a thousand pities, Gideon, that she isn't the sort of girl one could marry."

Gideon's laugh was a little broken this time. What he answered seemed to write itself with a sharp, fiery pencil on the listening girl's brain.

"That's putting it rather strongly, my dear fellow. Marriage—well, I never did appeal to me, you know, but you're right, of course. If one did marry, it wouldn't be a Judy Grant!"

Judy sprang to her feet. At the same moment the artist said carelessly:

"By the way, I was expecting her this afternoon. She hasn't come yet. Come back to my den and smoke another cigar."

The voices grew more distant. The two men had left the studio.

Judy knew the arrangement of the house. Next to the studio was an anteroom, the door of which was always open, and beyond that was the artist's sanctum—a large, untidy apartment, with all sorts of odd bits of furniture, masses of photographs, and souvenirs of boyhood and early travel. It had nothing of the ordered beauty of the rest of the house.

Stornaway had married, within the last year or two, a woman of wealth and position, no longer young. She never came into his studio, and artistic life. One sometimes saw her name mentioned in the papers as attending this or that function, but Judy had never set eyes on her.

The girl stood there, drawing deep breaths, so violent that they shook her slender frame.

"Not the sort of girl one could marry! If one did marry, it wouldn't be a little Judy Grant!"

"Wouldn't it?"

So that was what he thought of her—this horrible, ugly, loathsome man! She wasn't the kind of girl he would marry. Oh, dear, no! He would only be friendly, disgustingly amiable and deferential, and friendly, and try to cheat her and throw dust in her eyes, and trick her into believing he had the greatest respect in the world for her—that was all!

Men were all alike. Didn't she know the world? But she had very nearly allowed herself to be fooled! There was no time to stay there and rage inwardly against Bruce Gideon. They might come back at any moment. She was not going to be found there.

She slipped across the studio and out into the corridor that led to the central hall. When she came upon a servant, it was not the one who had admitted her.

"Will you please tell Mr. Stornaway," she said, "that I came to tell him I couldn't sit for him today? I'm his model. They said there was somebody with him, so I waited a minute, but as there's no sign of him I've come away. Just say that Miss Grant called to say that she was too tired to sit today. He'll understand. Thanks so much!"

And before the servant could answer she was running down the stairs and had reached the front door.

The maid went to find Stornaway and delivered the message. She found him with Bruce Gideon in his den. Both men assumed that Judy had just come to the front door and left the message. They made no comment, and shortly afterward Gideon took his leave.

Judy, meanwhile, walked as fast as her legs could carry her. She was deaf and blind with fury. She did not see where she was going, and it was a miracle that she was not run over at the crossings.

"Not the sort of girl one could marry! It wouldn't be little Judy Grant!"

The words rang in her ears like clashing bells. They roused the devil in her. She could gladly have killed both Gideon and Stornaway if she had been strong enough.

So that was what Mr. Punch thought of her! All this time he had been scheming to make her believe that he was decent—trying to deceive her. Then, when she was thoroughly blinded, when the time came, then, no doubt—

She ground her little teeth as she rushed headlong through the park.

She found herself, presently, and remembered that she wanted a new pair of stockings for her dancing practice. She was always wearing holes in her stockings, and they hurt her when they were too much darned. She was such a bad darning and Chummy, who would have loved to do it for her, was worse.

She went into a shop and bought a pair at random. She was fiercely glad, inside her violent little being, that she owed nothing to Bruce Gideon—not a thing beyond the introduction to Guarventus, except a few meals and motor trips. She need never eat at the same table with him again. When she wanted to see dancing, she could save up, as she used to do, and go and stand up in the gallery, or let one of the boys treat her, if he could afford it.

Never again! Never again should that odious man be allowed to do a kindness to one of her friends, as he had done to Dan.

Judy ran up the stairs and flung herself into Chummy's room. She did not expect to find Chummy there, but they shared the little writing table, and she wanted to write a note to Bruce Gideon. She had just remembered that she had promised to lunch with him on the following day.

Never again!

Chummy had done wonders to her room, and it was quite presentable now. The screen around the bed and toilet table had been recovered. There were some cheap rugs on the floor. Her aunt, Miss Morley, had given her an old chest, a little writing bureau, and a tall old-fashioned mirror. Out of her small allowance she had bought two wicker chairs, cushions for them, and a jar or two of pottery for flowers. She had the artist's capacity for imparting beauty to the simplest things; and the sun came into the room in the afternoon.

It was about five o'clock when MORE

Judy got back. She must have been later than she thought at Stornaway's. Her dancing practice had been very practically no lunch, and she felt ready to drop. Her five senses seemed to have failed her, so that she was almost up to the writing table near the window before she realized that the room was not empty.

Alan Steyne was standing in the window, with his back to her, reading a newspaper. He turned, hearing her, and she gave a little cry: "I thought you were in Maine!"

"I came back this morning, sooner than I expected. I was just going to leave a note for Clarissa, asking her to dine. I've been with the lawyers most of the time. I'm letting my place."

"Letting it?"

"Yes—some people are very keen on it for the fishing, and the shooting later on. They're paying a big rent. I've let it for six months. It seems silly to leave it empty."

"But when you're married!"

"Clarissa wants to go abroad," he said. "So do I." He was gazing at her earnestly. "Judy, you look tired to death!"

Frank Shaw of Kingsmill was in Pampa yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McCarty, Amarillo, were in Pampa Tuesday.

Dr. B. C. Rutherford, LeFors, was a visitor in Pampa Wednesday.

Rev. Tom Braham, C. A. Clark, and Scott Barues were visitors in Canadian Wednesday.

"I am a bit fagged," she said and dropped into a chair.

The mention of his marriage had started that mad fury in her brain again. Chummy was a girl good enough to marry—Chummy was not a girl of no account, like little Judy Grant! She burst into a tempest of tears, wailing and rocking herself to and fro.

(To Be Continued)

An application for marriage license was issued Wednesday, July 30, to A. J. Johnson of Pampa and Miss Ollie Mae Cook of Athens.

Mrs. W. C. Mitchell and Miss Mary Jo Harmon left today on a trip to Chicago. They will be joined in Chicago by Mr. Mitchell.

Sealed proposals will be received by the City Commission of the City of Pampa, Texas, until 2:00 p. m. August 5th, 1930, for the construction of certain extensions to its present Sanitary Sewer System.

Proposals must be addressed to The City Commission and must contain a certified or Cashiers Check made payable to the City of Pampa in an amount equal to 5 per cent of the amount of the bid.

Approximate Quantities are 4 miles of sewer lines in cuts varying from 0 to 22 feet, together with all incidentals and appurtenances thereto.

Instructions to bidders proposal forms, specifications and plans are on file and may be obtained at the office of A. H. Doucette, City Engineer, P. A. H. Texas.

The City reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to waive any informality or technicality.

Leonard Howard, McLean, was in Pampa yesterday.

Yes, It Was Warm

It was hot yesterday in Pampa. But P. D. Hill was thankful that he was in the comparative coolness of Pampa, instead of Medford, Okla., where the thermometer registered 116.

C. L. Stine has a bit of actual proof as to how hot it was. Late yesterday afternoon, he filled an ash tray in his office with water for mixing color in making his maps. The tray measures 2 2-10ths by 4 3-10ths inches, and is almost one inch deep. This morning when he resumed his work, he reached for the tray, and found it as dry as the Congressional Record.

Mrs. R. A. Webb was an Amarillo visitor yesterday.

Morgan M. Whitney of Dallas was in Pampa yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pearson and Mrs. T. H. Barnard attended funeral services held yesterday afternoon in Amarillo for Miss Willie Pearson of that city, who died Monday noon as the result of injuries received when she was run over by an automobile Sunday night.

The English Way

Right from England comes the new, better, joyful way to take out corns, root and all.

Callouses go also and you can rub off that hard skin on heels and toes with your hand—the magic treatment.

Ask Fathere Drug Company or any leading druggist for a package of Radox—put 2 tablespoonfuls in a gallon of hot water—do this for 3 or 4 nights in succession—then lift out the corns.

This joyful-exhilarating foot bath is simply great—you'll enjoy every minute of it and your burning, sore, tired, aching feet will feel better than they have for years—ask for Radox and foot comfort will be yours.—Adv.—10

Men were all alike. Didn't she know the world? But she had very nearly allowed herself to be fooled! There was no time to stay there and rage inwardly against Bruce Gideon. They might come back at any moment. She was not going to be found there.

She slipped across the studio and out into the corridor that led to the central hall. When she came upon a servant, it was not the one who had admitted her.

"Will you please tell Mr. Stornaway," she said, "that I came to tell him I couldn't sit for him today? I'm his model. They said there was somebody with him, so I waited a minute, but as there's no sign of him I've come away. Just say that Miss Grant called to say that she was too tired to sit today. He'll understand. Thanks so much!"

And before the servant could answer she was running down the stairs and had reached the front door.

The maid went to find Stornaway and delivered the message. She found him with Bruce Gideon in his den. Both men assumed that Judy had just come to the front door and left the message. They made no comment, and shortly afterward Gideon took his leave.

Judy, meanwhile, walked as fast as her legs could carry her. She was deaf and blind with fury. She did not see where she was going, and it was a miracle that she was not run over at the crossings.

"Not the sort of girl one could marry! It wouldn't be little Judy Grant!"

The words rang in her ears like clashing bells. They roused the devil in her. She could gladly have killed both Gideon and Stornaway if she had been strong enough.

So that was what Mr. Punch thought of her! All this time he had been scheming to make her believe that he was decent—trying to deceive her. Then, when she was thoroughly blinded, when the time came, then, no doubt—

She ground her little teeth as she rushed headlong through the park.

She found herself, presently, and remembered that she wanted a new pair of stockings for her dancing practice. She was always wearing holes in her stockings, and they hurt her when they were too much darned. She was such a bad darning and Chummy, who would have loved to do it for her, was worse.

She went into a shop and bought a pair at random. She was fiercely glad, inside her violent little being, that she owed nothing to Bruce Gideon—not a thing beyond the introduction to Guarventus, except a few meals and motor trips. She need never eat at the same table with him again. When she wanted to see dancing, she could save up, as she used to do, and go and stand up in the gallery, or let one of the boys treat her, if he could afford it.

Never again! Never again should that odious man be allowed to do a kindness to one of her friends, as he had done to Dan.

Judy ran up the stairs and flung herself into Chummy's room. She did not expect to find Chummy there, but they shared the little writing table, and she wanted to write a note to Bruce Gideon. She had just remembered that she had promised to lunch with him on the following day.

Never again!

Chummy had done wonders to her room, and it was quite presentable now. The screen around the bed and toilet table had been recovered. There were some cheap rugs on the floor. Her aunt, Miss Morley, had given her an old chest, a little writing bureau, and a tall old-fashioned mirror. Out of her small allowance she had bought two wicker chairs, cushions for them, and a jar or two of pottery for flowers. She had the artist's capacity for imparting beauty to the simplest things; and the sun came into the room in the afternoon.

It was about five o'clock when MORE

Judy got back. She must have been later than she thought at Stornaway's. Her dancing practice had been very practically no lunch, and she felt ready to drop. Her five senses seemed to have failed her, so that she was almost up to the writing table near the window before she realized that the room was not empty.

Alan Steyne was standing in the window, with his back to her, reading a newspaper. He turned, hearing her, and she gave a little cry: "I thought you were in Maine!"

"I came back this morning, sooner than I expected. I was just going to leave a note for Clarissa, asking her to dine. I've been with the lawyers most of the time. I'm letting my place."

"Letting it?"

"Yes—some people are very keen on it for the fishing, and the shooting later on. They're paying a big rent. I've let it for six months. It seems silly to leave it empty."

"But when you're married!"

"Clarissa wants to go abroad," he said. "So do I." He was gazing at her earnestly. "Judy, you look tired to death!"

Frank Shaw of Kingsmill was in Pampa yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McCarty, Amarillo, were in Pampa Tuesday.

Dr. B. C. Rutherford, LeFors, was a visitor in Pampa Wednesday.

Rev. Tom Braham, C. A. Clark, and Scott Barues were visitors in Canadian Wednesday.

"I am a bit fagged," she said and dropped into a chair.

The mention of his marriage had started that mad fury in her brain again. Chummy was a girl good enough to marry—Chummy was not a girl of no account, like little Judy Grant! She burst into a tempest of tears, wailing and rocking herself to and fro.

Rubber's cheap..

You can afford
best tires!

Crude rubber prices are low. Tire prices are down so far almost anyone can afford the world's best tires.

You can buy them for less than you used to pay for inferior or unknown tires. In short, you can enjoy the extra value in Goodyear Tires at the lowest prices in history!

This extra value in Goodyear is not accidental.

It is the direct result of definite Goodyear superiorities in the two main parts of a tire.

The Goodyear All-Weather Tread is superior in traction.

The Goodyear Supertwist Carcass is superior in vitality and long life.

You are not asked to accept this without proof. Any Goodyear Dealer will be glad to demonstrate the facts.

And the facts are: Goodyear Tires do give extra value.

That's why more new motor cars leave the factories on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind. That's why more trans-continental, urban and inter-urban buses and coaches operate on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind.

That's why more tons are hauled on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!

That's why, throughout the world, year after year, more people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind!

From a price-and-value standpoint, Goodyear Tires are right where the wise buyer would like to have them this summer.

That's why we say: now is the time to get yours!

BRIDIRON SEASON NEARS--MITCHELL CALLS POW-WOW

COACH SAYS 1930 TEAM IS TO BE BETTER

The call of the gridiron is here, and, quite appropriately, cooler weather suggests the thud of toe on leather.

Tampa Harveters and all boys who wish to try for the 1930 edition of the Central high school football team, are to meet Coach Olaus Mitchell this evening in a pow-wow which will be very important to all concerned.

The place is the Central high school building and the time is 7:30 p. m.

Coach Mitchell needs some information about each boy to send to Inter-scholastic League headquarters. He wants to meet all the old men and to get acquainted with the new ones he has not seen. He wants to tell of the big plans and hard games that are in store.

The training camp on the Mel Davis ranch will start August 20. This will be one of the best camps in West Texas and the number of boys present will depend upon the showing that each makes in preliminary meetings of the squad. It is certain that a large group of husky lads will begin training at the camp.

"Will this year's team be as strong as last season's powerful as Spur—a school that turns out fighting elevens. The first Cub at the game will be with Lubbock at the South Plains metropolis, and it will be what is commonly classed a hum-dinger. The boys will talk about it tonight.

ARMOUR BEATS DIEGAL ANCASTER, Ont., July 31—(P)—

Leo Diegal's two-year reign over the Canadian open golf championship has ended and in the Agua Caliente professional's place has stepped Tommy Armour, great match stylist.

Armour, who won the title in 1927 and was runner-up twice, dethroned the unorthodox Diegal yesterday in the 6-hole playoff 138 strokes to 141. In the 72-hole championship proper, which ended Saturday, the two played with scores of 277 after Armour had shot a sensational 64 on the last round and Diegal had earned in a brilliant 67.

ALEXANDER FAILS IN MINOR LEAGUES DESPITE HIS BIG LEAGUE RECORD

Grover Cleveland Alexander this year failed to make the grade in minor league baseball, following an illustrious big league career extending back to 1911.

NEW YORK, (P)—Grover Cleveland Alexander, now 43, has been none too successful thus far in his minor league career, but he leaves a big league record in which he must get some satisfaction.

In the 19 years of campaigning under the big top, Alexander piled up 373 victories, and lost 108 games. In three straight seasons, beginning with 1915, Alexander won more than 30 games.

This record was made with the Philadelphia Nationals, who had paid $750 to Syracuse in 1911 for him.

Alex went to the Chicago Cubs in 1918, along with his catcher, Bill Killefer, for $50,000.

Joe McCarthy, new manager of the Cubs, released Alexander to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1926. Aleck promptly helped pitch the Cards to a pennant.

The high point of Aleck's career came that year in the world's series, climaxing by his strike-out of Tony Lazerri of the Yankees for the championship.

Alexander started this season with the Phillies, but had obtained him on waivers. He had lost three games and won none when his big league career finally ended.

WASHINGTON LOST AL LOPEZ BECAUSE OF $10,000 PRICE

TAMPA, Fla., (P)—Alfonso Lopez, the gay baseball caballero with the blood of old Spain in his veins, slipped past a lot of "ifs" before he finally landed in Brooklyn to become the best young catcher of the season.

If Clark Griffith had been willing to gamble $10,000 on him a few years ago, he might have been a senior backstop.

If the schoolboy catchers had been able to hold his slants he might have been a great pitcher. Originally a hurler for the Sacred Heart college nine in Tampa, the local boy turned catcher because none of his teammates could receive his "steam ball."

At 16, he left the sandlots to join the Tampa Smokers of the old Florida state league and hit .270. In 1926, his second season as a pro, he batted .317 and Jacksonville of the Southeastern drafted him for $750.

With the Tars, he hit only .280, but Wilbert Robinson spotted him as a bright prospect and coughed up the $10,000 that Griff refused to pay.

STONER HAS GREAT DAY—GIVES 2 HITS

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR. Associated Press Sports Writer

Lil Stoner is not anything like the most effective pitcher in the Texas league on his season's record, but when the stocks Fort Worth righthander happens to be on his feed it is just too bad for the opposition.

Having hurled one no-run, no-hit game for the Cubs already this year, he Panther star set out and gathered into himself another modern league record last night when he held the San Antonio Indians to two hits and struck out 18 batters. The tribesmen were helpless before Lil's fast ball, succumbing 5 to 1. Flippen, with two singles, was the only Injun to hit safely.

On two occasions Stoner whiffed five in a row and twice retired the side on strikeouts. Ballew, Joe Moore and Carson cut the air three times apiece, and Leslie, Dondero and Sullivan each was victimized twice. Kot, Laveque and Schinkel rounded out the Cat blazer's string.

A review of the records disclosed that Stoner's feat was the greatest the league had seen since 1909, when Mitchell fanned 19 for San Antonio. It has not been approached in recent years.

Another hero of the night was Hugh Willingham, the Dallas ball buster, who pasted one far beyond the arc lights fiftieth base to break up a 13-inning battle at Waco. The Steer star's timely blow handed the Cubs their third setback in 25 games under the stars and kept them in a tie with Wichita Falls for the pennant. The score 6 to 5.

Six pitchers participated in the lengthy fray, three for each side. By bunting their knuckles off Shep Cannon in three frames, the Steers led 5 to 1 at the end of the sixth, but the Cubs rallied to send Meadows to the baths with a four-run spree in the eighth, tying the count.

For the next four heats, in fact, until 11:50 p. m., they battled futilely. Then Willingham, first up for Dallas in the thirteenth, caught one of Branchau's slants on the nose. So home and to bed.

The Spudders were unable to take advantage of the Cubs' lapse dropping their inaugural at Houston 12 to 5. While Rose and Payne held the leaders to eight hits, the Buifs fell on three Spud flingers, including Hal Wiltsie, for 17 solid smacks. Watt Hoim led the way with three singles and a double. Old Claude Robertson, recently acquired from Dallas to bolster a crippled catching staff, got two of the Spudders' eight blows.

In the day's only sunlight till, the skidding Shreveport Sports lost their opener to Beaumont, 5 to 0, dropping into the second division. The Louisiana entry is having a disastrous road trip. Jimmy Walkup gave another sterling exhibition for the Shippers, allowing only six hits, all singles.

Griffiths Gets Knockout When He Meets Heaney

NEW YORK, July 31—(P)—Tuffy Griffiths a rising young heavyweight from Sioux City, Iowa, had a technical knockout over Tom Heaney to his credit today while the "hard rock from down under" was one fight nearer the end of a career that reached its height two years ago in an unsuccessful bout with Gene Tunney.

Griffiths pounded the New Zealand veteran all over the Queensboro stadium ring last night to get a technical knockout in the ninth round. Old Tom was helpless with his left eye badly cut at the end of the ninth and the referee stopped the battle before a blow had been struck in the tenth.

Riley's "Swimmin' Hole" Changes

"The Ole Swimmin' Hole" that was immortalized by James Whitcomb Riley's famous poem has fallen before the march of progress. Below is the modern pool—with showers, dressing rooms an' ever' thing—that has just been erected on the banks of Brandywine creek in Riley Park, near Greenfield, Ind., and above is the original swimming hole, close by, that Riley made famous.

GUNS' SCHEDULE CHANGED AND TEAM WILL PLAY SIOUX FALLS LEGION NINE TODAY

A baseball game this afternoon between the Pampa Guns and the Sioux Falls, S. D., Legion Canaries at the Denver tournament will be a struggle for survival, because the teams are about evenly matched and because one club must be eliminated.

Due to changes in the tournament schedule, the Guns did not play the Englewood, Colo., Merchants nor any other team yesterday afternoon. Today's encounter will be the third tourney contest for the Guns.

Tuesday afternoon, the Ponca City Empire Oilers won a 10-inning victory over the Canaries by the tight score of 3 to 2. The Oilers previously defeated Pampa 9 to 8. These scores indicate that there is not much difference in the abilities to the two clubs.

Only the pitching and batting of Milton Perry, 18-year-old Indian schoolboy, saved the day for the Oilers. He allowed only four hits in the first contest, and fanned ten men to win the first extra-inning game of the tournament. Both runs made off him were unearned. With one out in the tenth the young Indian slammed his second double. It was a battle of Perry against the Canaries and Perry won. All this should indicate what Pampa is up against this afternoon. It is significant that the Oilers got nine hits to the Canaries four, and made four errors to the Oilers' one.

Eliminated in the Tuesday games were the Goalstone Jewelers. The Englewood Merchants were due to fall before the stalwarts of Sioux City Stockyards yesterday afternoon but no report has been received of the game. The other game yesterday was between Figgly-Wiggly-McMarx Grocers and Karl-Keen of Sioux City, Ia. The Pig Club heads the tournament standing and the Iowa team is next. Each has won two games and lost none. However, the Pigs' last year's champions, were due to win.

Of the tilt between the Guns and the M. & O. Cigarmen of Denver, Walter Judge writes in the Denver Post: "Pampa, Tex., is still very much in the Post tournament. Just when it looked as if the Gunners were to be eliminated in two games they did an about face and rallied to beat M. & O. Cigars. The score was 5 to 3 and it was just about the best ball game so far in the great meet. For six innings it was a great hurling duel between Grant Bowler, who belongs to the Bears, for the Cigarmen, and lanky Cy Coung (1890 edition) for the rangy Texans.

"The Gunners looked much better than in their initial appearance against Empire Oilers, and if they have any more pitchers like Coung, they ought to make it tough for the best of them. Coung, who is a left faster than he looks and who has a good curve, struck out seven and allowed only eight hits."

Of the twelve teams which entered the tournament, there are now seven left, and every team in the running except one has lost a game. The championship game will be played Sunday. If Pampa wins this afternoon, it means the Guns will go into the semi-finals.

PILES GO QUICK

Piles are caused by bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel, and a weakening of the parts. Only an internal medicine can remove the cause. That's why external remedies and cutting fail. Dr. Leonard's HEM-ROID, succeeds, because it relieves this congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Dr. Leonard's prescription has such a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief even in chronic and stubborn cases, that Fatheree Drug Company says try HEM-ROID at my expense. Your Pile suffering must end or money back.—Adv.—2.

JULIUS CAESAR

WAS THE GREATEST FAN IN THE HISTORY OF PACIFIC COAST BASEBALL. HE ATTENDED EVERY HOME GAME OF THE PORTLAND CLUB, UNTIL HIS 76TH YEAR. WHEN OLD AGE LEFT HIM TOTALLY BLIND, HE WAS GIVEN A PASS TO THE PARK AND ENJOYED THE GAME AS MUCH AS EVER. HE COULD TELL, BY THE SOUND OF THE BAT, JUST WHERE THE BALL WOULD GO AND KNEW MORE OF WHAT WAS GOING ON THAN MANY SPECTATORS AROUND HIM. AFTER HIS DEATH, JUDGE MCCREADY, OWNER OF THE TEAM, ERECTED A HEADSTONE TO HIS MEMORY, WITH THE INSCRIPTION, "PLAY BALL!"

SUGGESTED BY A GREAT LITTLE FAN, LORENE WALLING, (AGE 13) PORTLAND, ORE.

Coleman Visitor Is Honoree Of Bridge Tea Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. Floyd McConnell, 801 North Sonierville, entertained at bridge Tuesday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. Mary Conner of Coleman, who had been her guest for the preceding fortnight.

At three tables played for the occasion, the following played: Mrs. C. E. Boston, Mrs. Felix Shills, Mrs. Jim White, Mrs. T. E. Simmons, Mrs. G. C. Malone, Mrs. T. R. Martin, Mrs. W. H. Nichols, Mrs. F. M. Cubber, Mrs. Clyde Garner, Mrs. P. A. Potter, Mrs. Thomas, and the honoree.

High score favor went to Mrs. Thomas. Mrs. Potter made top cut, and received the second favor of the afternoon. Mrs. Conner also was given an attractive souvenir of the occasion.

Shasta daisies, sweet peas, and other garden blossoms decorated Mrs. McConnell's entertaining suite. Salad and ice courses were served at the close of the games.

Mrs. Conner left yesterday morning for Lubbock, where she will make an extended visit before returning to Coleman. While she was the guest of Mrs. McConnell, the two drove to Oklahoma City to visit a mutual friend.

New, Alluring Gowns

Braly to Make Salary Decision

Judge Clifford Braly of the 114th district court is today considering a mandamus petition, which, if granted, would force George Cain, auditor of Hutchinson county, to pay County Judge H. M. Hood a salary of $250 per month or $3,000 per year.

Similar cases have been hanging fire in other counties in Texas for several months, and it is understood that Judge Braly's action will be regarded as a precedent. Judge Hood first filed the petition in the 8th district court at Bettinett and the judge ruled that the auditor had no legal authority to issue a salary warrant in that amount to the county official. The court held that the statutes provide that the county judge cannot be paid a salary in excess of $2,250.

Judge Hood then appealed his case to the court of civil appeals, Amarillo, which held that it had no jurisdiction in the matter. The petition was then filed in 114th district court. The county judge of Gray county, is paid a salary of $2,750 per year. There are many county judges who are paid over $2,250 per year. In commenting on the case, Judge Hood said, "It's just a fight between the county auditor and me."

E. M. Campbell, Kingsmill, returned yesterday from a trip to Oklahoma City.

LEA'S FRESH MEATS DIRECT TO THE CONSUMER

I have fed a choice lot of young Hereford cattle on grain and cake that I am selling to the local markets. My meat is killed and cooled at the Ward Packing Plant and goes direct to the local markets fresh and tender with all the flavor of good beef. This saves myself and eliminates the middleman . . . the big packing houses, railroads, etc.

The next time you buy meats ask for some of this superior quality, young home-killed beef. I have sold this beef to the following markets.

- White House Market
- H & M Grocery & Market
- S & S Market

The need for which is too simply demonstrated to demand proof.

Judge A. S. Mauney of Sweetwater, Nolan county, is president of the new International-Mexico highway association formed to promote a road Pampa to Villa Acuna, Coahuila Mexico. We know Judge Mauney to be a good roads enthusiast second only to F. P. Reid in interest. He was county judge when Nolan county was having a hard time with a highway commission. The Ferguson and their muddled highway department paralyzed work on designated roads. Judge Mauney kept on the job and today Nolan county has many miles of paving. Pampa should get behind this movement, not only because it would place this city at the end of a good road, but would open possibilities for continuing highway 88 north.

F. P. Reid must be "Talking Pampa" at a great rate on his trip to Canada. A deluge of cards and letters is pouring into the B. C. D. office from persons to whom he has talked along the way.

Heading up to take a vacation is a hard job in these days of many objections.

L. W. Winkler of Duncan, Oklahoma, is here to spend a few days with her husband and friends. She and Mr. Winkler plan to leave in a few days for Colorado.

New Features In Radios Are Seen

E. T. Wood of the Malone Furniture company, and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Oden of Oden Music Shoppe, attended the Panhandle General Electric Dealers convention in Amarillo yesterday. The meeting was held at the Herring hotel, beginning at 4 o'clock. Following the business session, a luncheon was served the dealers.

Important new developments in radio were announced at the meeting, concerning the new electric radio to be placed on the market September 4. The new radio can be operated by remote control; fifteen buttons can be placed in various rooms of a house that will start or stop the operation of the radio.

Mr. Wood said that it was stated that television in the home was still in the future and immediate development in this line could not be expected.

Powerful Talk Given by Upshaw In Sermon Series

"Other Refuge Have I None" was the theme of perhaps the most powerful message yet delivered by Congressman-Evangelist Upshaw at the revival meetings being conducted every night by the Central Baptist church, at the high school auditorium.

It was the fourth in a series of six sermons to "people who think." The text, "Lord, to whom shall we go?" from the 68th verse of the sixth chapter of John, led the speaker to say:

"Every person who has a mind to think and heart to feel has a religion of some kind. The wisest philosopher who ever sat at Reason's throne, the most benighted Hottentot who ever roamed in Africa's darkness, each acknowledges his responsibility to a power infinitely above and beyond self. Even the veriest infidel who ever spat his blasphemy on the white garments of Christianity builds on his unbelief. Thus, his unbelief becomes his belief, and his belief is his religion. 'We who are Christians devoutly believe that in Christ the desire of all nations has come. We believe that Christ in the heart, through the miracle of regeneration, satisfies the longing of the soul after God.' In the course of his message, the speaker asked: 'Will you go to human reason, alone, to satisfy the soul? Will you go to Godless worldliness? Will you go to wild dispa-

Will you go to mere morality? Will you go to nominal church membership?

tion? Will you go to mere morality? Will you go to nominal church membership?"

Here he gave several striking illustrations of people he had known in the different denominations who had confessed to him that their hearts had been empty many years without the knowledge of the love of God in their souls, and that finally they had seen their lost condition and been genuinely converted. "Suppose," said Mr. Upshaw, "they had died while they were only nominal church members, without knowing God in newness of heart and life."

The Macedonia choir will sing again tonight.

HARMFUL GUM

HAS BEEN REMOVED FROM KOOLMOTOR Gasolene

ALL THIS WEEK
Harley Sadler and his Own Company
Auspices American Legion

EXCESSIVE gum in gasolene is harmful. Cities Service experts were among the first to recognize this fact—and among the first to overcome it.

Neither time, money nor effort has been spared to remove the harmful gum from Koolmotor Gasolene, the original high test, anti-knock green gas. A special process—the mini-gum process—is employed by Cities Service to reduce the gum content in Koolmotor Gasolene to a harmless minimum.

All this has been done for you benefit—to free you from the menace of sticky valves that steal your power and result in faulty engine performance and expensive repair bills.

Play safe—don't pay the penalty of gummed-up valves. Drive to your nearest Cities Service Station or dealer today for a tankful of Koolmotor Gasolene—the gas that is free from harmful gum.

7 HARMFUL EFFECTS of Excessive Gum in Gasolene

1. Clogging of intake manifold.
2. Delayed seating and complete sticking of intake valves.
3. Loss of compression.
4. Loss of power.
5. "Missing" cylinder, and engine failure.
6. Unnecessary repair bills.
7. Excessive gasolene consumption.
