GASSER RUNNING WILD MEXIA MAN KIDNAPED AFTER ROBBERY OF STATION HOUSTON YOUTH AND GIRL ARE FOUND DEAD

YOUNG WOMAN SHOT IN BACK BY ASSAILANT

Body of Man Located Mile North of Tragedy Site

EDWARD STONE IS ONE VICTIM

Jealousy Is Theory of Officers in Probe

HOUSTON, May 1. (P)—Police and county officers at noon today were trying to find a man believed to have killed Edward Stone, 21, of Westfield, and Miss Ola Wuenche, 20, of Spring, Harris county.

The bodies were found about 6 a. m. by A. E. Hartman, Spring, who was on his way to Aldine. The girl's body was lying across the Hardy street road about a mile north of Aldine. Hartman drove to Aldine and notified officers. Tracks and a trail of blood indicated she had stumbled along the road for 200 feet after she had been shot.

HOUSTON, May 6. (P)—Bodies of Edward Stone, 21, and an unidentified girl about 20, were found about 10 miles from Houston this morning. Both had been killed with a shot gun.

The body of the girl was found beside the Aldine road, wounds in her back fatal, the body of Stone was found in a field about a mile north of the place where the girl's body was found. A touring car was found on the side of the road near where his body was found.

Officers believe the two were victims of a double murder, and are working on the theory of jealousy.

No weapon of any kind was found near the scene of the killing. Officers believed the couple were stopped by a man and that Stone was shot as he got out of the car. The man then put the girl in his car and drove away, according to the officers' theory. They think the girl jumped from the man's car and was shot as she started to run.

Pete Jarrett, who lives about two miles from where the girl's body was found, said he heard several shots early Monday, and a few minutes later an automobile went by his home at high speed.

HOUSTON, May 6. (P)—The body of an attractive, well-dressed girl, about 22 years old, was found this morning lying beside a road 10 miles from Houston with wounds from two shotgun charges in the back.

Police began an investigation on the theory she was driven to the place in an automobile and killed.

Footprints and a trail of blood indicated the girl had stumbled along the road about 200 yards before falling.

THE WEATHER VANE

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy to night and Tuesday, except possibly showers in extreme west portion; cooler tonight except in southwest portion; probably frost in the Panhandle; warmer in the Panhandle Tuesday.

—AND A SMILE TOMS RIVER, N. J. (P)—The Rev. E. Hicks, Baptist, believes this town is defiled with sin. He expressed his view from the pulpit in commenting on a high school production of "Miss Cherry Blossom." "In one scene," said the clergyman, "50 American boys and girls come on the stage with their arms about each other and later they actually kiss." School board officials said the play has been a favorite with school and colleges for 25 years.

Named as Plotter in Torch Murder

Twenty-two-year-old Frances Newman, also known as Frances Murray, was to have doubled in the grim role of the murdered bride of Earl F. Peacock, young "torch killer," from Mount Vernon, N. Y., by tell-inquirers that she was the mysterious "bundle" which Peacock was seen carrying from his apartment after the murder of his wife. The plot was revealed in Peacock's confession, and the girl—alleged to have been his sweetheart—is shown above after being arrested and held under $10,000 bond as a material witness in the crime.

Those trying the examinations were: Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Nicola, Mrs. Jerry Simmons and Z. T. McDaniel.

RELEASED BY CAPTOR AFTER LENGTHY TRIP

BANDIT'S LOOT IS ABOUT $345

Made Victim Lie in Ditch for an Hour Early Today

AUSTIN, May 26. (P)—Costless and hatless R. Lyle Justice, 27, walked into the Austin police station shortly before noon today and told officers how he had been kidnaped by a bandit at the Mexia railroad station 9 hours before, driven all night while blindfolded and left 3 miles east of here on the highway.

His captors, Justice said, entered the railway depot at 2:50 a. m., confronted him with a revolver, and obtained an amount from the station cash drawer estimated by the agent as $345.

The man was described by Justice as small and apparently of middle age. The agent said he persuaded the bandit not to tie him, but that a blindfold was placed over his eyes. Justice said the remainder of the night was spent in driving, but he did not know what route the automobile took.

At 8 o'clock a tire on the car blew out and the robbers ordered the agent out and the robbers ordered the agent out and the robbers ordered the agent out.

"After we walked some distance, the man ordered me to lie down in a ditch beside the road and remain there for an hour so that he would have a good start," Justice detailed. "I was afraid to get up, and I stayed there for that length of time."

Arrangements have been made so that the banquet may begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Those who have membership tickets will be admitted free. Others will pay $1.

President Frank D. Keim of the Board of City Development will preside at the meeting.

Mrs. Charles Richeson returned yesterday from a visit with her sister in Albuquerque, N. M.

Two Die as Wind Topples Jail Wall

Two prisoners were killed and nine injured when a 70-mile-an-hour twister ripped out the wall of the city prison and workhouse at Columbus, O., as shown above. The fury of the wind lasted for only a moment, tearing off roofs in the vicinity and uprooting large trees. Prisoners helped firemen and police with the rescue of the injured.

COURT PROBES WALTON KILLING

AMARILLO, May 6. (P)—R. H. Hamilton, a former Texas supreme court appeals commission judge, who met with pistol bullets a gay young son-in-law sent to the former's office under a maternal injunction to tell the attorney of a secret marriage with his daughter, Theresa, today faced the scrutiny of a grand jury.

Meanwhile, two women who loved the victim, Tom Walton, Jr., 21, mourned—Mrs. Grave Walton, the mother, because it was at her suggestion that Tom went to Hamilton, and Theresa, the 19-year-old widow. Two physicians had been in attendance of the mother at Amarillo, and in Austin, where young Mrs. Walton was staying with her mother, concern was felt for the girl.

Although Mr. Hamilton's counsel has indicated self-defense may be the plea, the eminent lawyer himself explained the slaying thus: "I had rather die than kill a man, but I had to protect my home."

Saturday, Walton was told by his mother, "go and see the judge. He'll be sensible and everything will be all right." She had worried over the son's failure to tell of his marriage to Miss Hamilton, which occurred on February 10, at Georgetown, near Austin, where the bride and groom were students in Texas university.

Young Walton walked into the office, said jocularly to a stenographer, "If you hear any shooting you'll know I've been shot," went into another room with his father-in-law and in a few minutes fell

State Engineer Will Arrive Soon to Go Into District Road Matters

All work done by the Pampa special road district will be "thoroughly investigated" by the state highway commission before state aid is granted, according to a letter from Commissioner W. R. Ely.

The letter: "Dear Judge Duncan: I have your letter of April 30. You are respectfully advised that I am writing to Mr. Gilchrist to hasten the matter of locating the road (No. 33) as soon as possible. I am unable to say at this time just what credit you will be given, if any, for the paving that you are putting down. It all depends upon what it shows after we have made a thorough investigation.

Yours very truly, W. R. Ely, Member state highway commission.

City officers had a busy time over the week-end, Chief J. I. Downs reported this morning. He believes some bootlegger got a special supply of beverages last week and that the regular customers were dry.

From Saturday night until this morning, Judge C. O. Busby had dealt with sixteen offenders against the peace and quiet of the city. Of the number, the majority were for intoxication.

Judge C. E. Cary in justice court had his usual number of offenders this morning.

with four slugs in his body. Theresa, who had been in Austin, where she was operated on several months ago, with her mother since January, will remain there an indefinite time. Hamilton's friends posted $20,000 bail, and he waived preliminary hearing Saturday.

McALESTER, Okla., May 6. (P)—Burial of Thomas Walton, Jr., 21, killed at Amarillo, Texas, Saturday by R. H. Hamilton, former member of the Texas Supreme Court, whose daughter, Theresa, 19, was married secretly to Walton, will take place here Wednesday.

The Walton family formerly lived in McAlester, moving to Amarillo in 1925 shortly after the son graduated from high school here. Walton was a popular student and a member of the high school band.

Officers Busy in Quelling "Drunks"

WELLS WEST OF CITY LOOK LIKE PRODUCERS West of Pampa, the Cockrell-McIlroy and Shamrock's No. 1 McConnell, in the northeast corner of the west half of the southwest quarter of section 174, block 3, encountered 7,000,000 feet of gas and pay yesterday afternoon at 3-197 feet and is spraying heavily. Oil from the test is blowing a half mile.

This test is a south offset to the Southern Petroleum Exploration company's new gusher in that section. It came in for 1,200 barrels but dropped to 700 barrels.

In section 187, block 3, Dye & Gillette's No. 1 Noel, in the southeast corner of the east half of the northeast quarter of the section has 350 feet of oil in the hole and is shut down for storage. The hole is bottomed at 3,150 feet. This test is less than a quarter mile west of the new wells in section 174.

BUCK GARRETT, FAMOUS OLD OFFICER, DIES

ARDMORE, Okla., May 6. (P)—Buck Garrett, 56, veteran peace officer of Oklahoma, died at his home here at 6 a. m. today. A stroke of paralysis, suffered seven weeks ago, was the cause of death.

Funeral services will be held from the family home here tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Garrett's death came just seven years to a day after his long friend and fellow officer, Bud Ballew, was killed in Wichita Falls, Texas.

DALLAS, May 6. (P)—The passing of Buck Garrett of Ardmore recalled a vivid picture of the gigantic, old-time southwestern peace officer to a Dallas newspaper man who came into intimate contact with him nine years ago after Clara Smith Hamon had shot and killed Clara Hamon, Republican national committeeman and one of Oklahoma's outstanding political figures.

It was Garrett who brought the young woman back from Mexico after she had been traced to Chihuahua City by Sam Blair, then a Chicago newspaper reporter.

Upon meeting Garrett, he extended his left hand for a greeting. His right was "stove up." It was indicated the fearless gunfighter had, disarmed a dangerous antagonist by fetching him a wallop on the jaw rather than by adding a notch to his pistol handle.

Sheriff Buck was reputed to be the possessor ninety-eight pairs of pistols. The Dallas reporter actually saw two deep desk drawers full of them. Pistols of all calibers and conditions—tiny 25's to cumbersome .45's; pearl handled, wooden handled, horn handled, blue steel, silver plated and some carved and ornamented gift guns. Always they were in pairs.

Demonstrated Speed "How fast are you, sheriff, on the draw?" Buck was asked one night by a reported who was one of several enjoying the sheriff's hospitality during the nation-wide search for Clara Hamon.

"About this fast," the big man replied, and in a tenth of a twinkling his gun was out in an extended right hand. "Yeh, but that's the right, how about the left?" glibbed the base newspaperman.

"Well, how's this?" responded Buck, and in the same instant, as fast as the eye could follow, out was the left hand gun.

"Sheriff can you ride along the road and pop telephone wires with bullets?" he was asked.

"Naw, but I sure can give those little glass knobs hell," he replied.

Buck's chief deputy at that time was Bud Ballew, another big man, red-haired and fearless. Bud was reputed to have shot and killed about a score of men in his long service as a peace

"It's Like This..."

GRAVEYARDS are seldom things of beauty, and even when well kept are not exactly show places. Why, therefore, are they usually located on public highways?

The highway affords the tourists little opportunity to see a community at its best. The state highways are slowly being cleared of hot-dog stands and filling stations.

It is a peculiar fact that some spot adjacent to a public highway is usually selected for a dumpground. Particularly are the automobile graveyards apt to be just a few paces off the road.

It is fortunate that a town often looks better from the air than it does from the ground. Streets make orderly crosses that afford relief after looking at the countryside expanses.

SPEAKING OF AIRPLANES, Pampa has several air visitors almost every day, but few of them stop. This city is on the East-West air lines, and on the Dallas-Fort Worth-Denver route.

Almost daily one reads of some airport dedication. In most cases this is the fruition of a bond issue for the purpose.

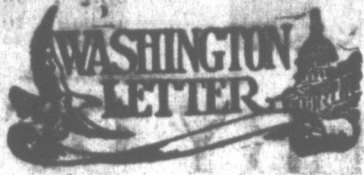

Pampa needs one large, well equipped landing field—one that will become known to the business. It is remarkable how well the professional flier remembers the airports of the country.

CHAUTAQUAS, which have been missing from most Pampa communities for several years, are more plentiful this spring, but not on the old guarantee basis.

Guarantors who year after year were called upon to make up deficits finally called a halt and told the entertainment companies to take their own risks. There is no excuse for the guarantee basis for the ordinary chautauqua.

If the chautauqua companies wish to come here, the field is open on the same basis that other amusements enjoy—that of merit or public appeal.

WASHINGTON—The Spirit of St. Louis carried Colonel Charles Augustus Lindbergh safely across the Atlantic two years ago this month, but it would never have been granted a commercial license to carry passengers.

The Department of Commerce would have considered it too risky for that and would adopt the same attitude today toward a plane similarly constructed.

Lindbergh's gross weight as he took off for the famous flight was far beyond the gross weight permissible under the regulations, and he depended entirely for visibility forward on a periscope and on occasionally sticking his head outside.

In normal position a pilot sits forward with windows on all sides, but Lindbergh had gasoline tanks arranged in a way which prevented him from looking ahead and used his periscope to take off, fix on a given object and fly in a straight line.

Treated As an Experiment. The Spirit of St. Louis, however, was given an experimental license, which is often issued for the development of an experimental type of ship. It has been especially designed as a plane for long distance flight and its useful load was principally fuel, which made up most of the gross weight.

Hence, it is pointed out by Major Clarence M. Young, director of aeronautics in the department of commerce, no one is in any position to criticize what Lindbergh apparently felt was the most practical method of design for his purpose.

The same general type of plane, with forward visibility, has been subsequently approved for commercial use and in the absence of large extra tanks and various special instruments the additional space has been converted into passenger space to the extent of the approved gross weight. The other trans-Atlantic and trans-Pacific flyers, with planes all filled up with gas, have similarly been given experimental licenses though such licenses have been withheld from ships which obviously hadn't enough fuel to get across, or were without proper navigating instruments or good navigators.

Nearly all planes are licensed now. It's compulsory when they are going to fly across state lines and manufacturers found that they couldn't sell planes unless they were officially approved.

"Generally," explains Major Young, "here are three essentials for an approved type certificate permitting unlimited manufacture of a plane."

"First, we must be satisfied with the complete engineering data, showing specifications for structural design, load factors, dimension of pieces used, kind of material, type of construction, power plant and so on."

"Then comes a flight test of the ship. We see whether it meets the department's minimum requirements for maneuverability, stability, taking off and landing."

Maker Must Have Stability. "The third point is the manufacturer's ability to produce, which concerns the adequacy of his equipment, personnel and financing. We don't want anyone to capitalize on a mere certificate of approval."

"The standards are rigid and have to be met. They are determined by our engineers here in the department."

TWINKLES

Somebody ought to tell some of the members of this flippant generation that a bull circle is not around some favorite story teller.

This dry country hath its charms, but one of its problems is not deciding how many charms can be displayed at the bathing beaches. Water is still known as beverage and a cleansing solution.

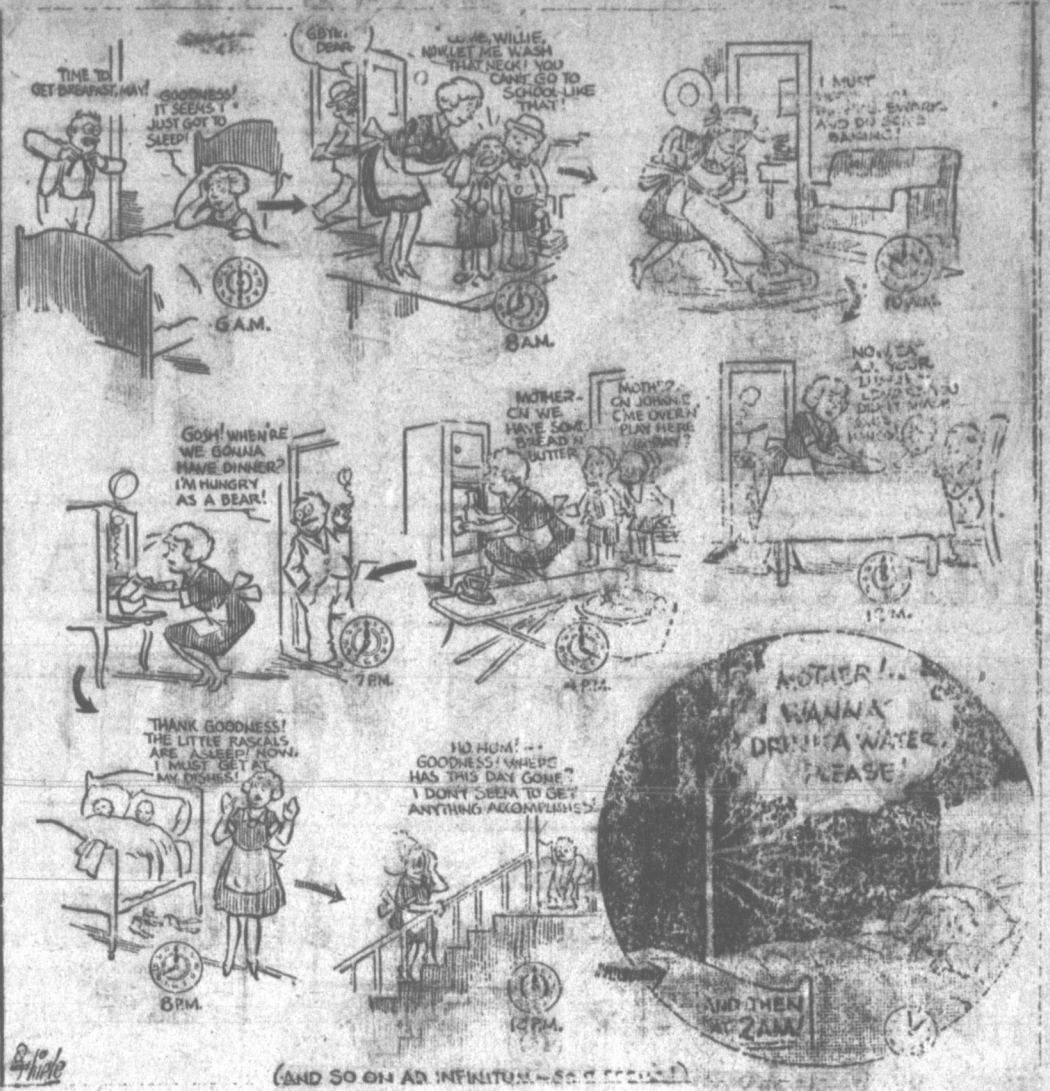

School is nearly out, but it must not mean as much to the boys as it would if the old swimming holes and fishing opportunities were numerous.

We think it is a poor arrangement when the only ones that can go fishing are those with cars and leisure and fancy bait for long trips. The boys may find leisure, or make it, but fish are said to be scarce and game wardens plentiful.

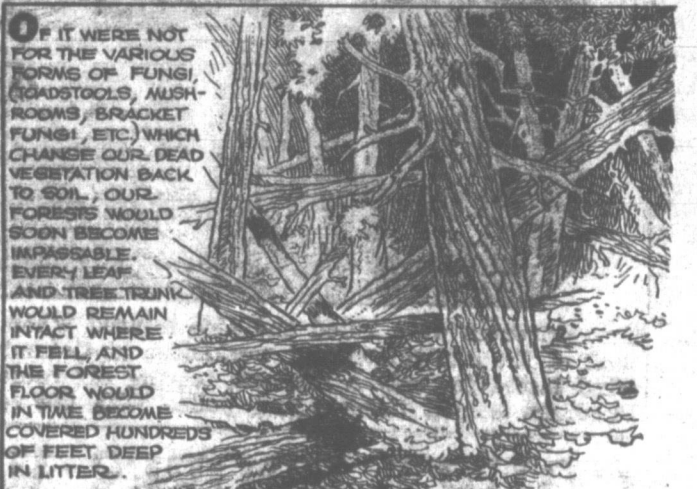

Printed materials are popular for spring wear, and it is a wonder that someone doesn't sell advertising space on the goods. And we hope the dresses do not go out of date quickly like yesterday's newspaper.

Athletics Cling to American Lead in Week-End Tilts

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The first week-end of inter-sectional campaigning on the various major league fronts left the Athletics clinging to the top in the National. The Mackmen regained the peak by defeating the Browns yesterday 2 to 0.

Walberg let the Browns down with one hit and fanned six. He passed four men, however, and might have seen his game snatched from the victory column if the home forces had done any hitting at all. It was the first defeat of the season for Gray, who gave only one hit before stepping aside for a pinch batsman in the eighth.

The rumble of Yankee heavy artillery once more is disturbing the quiet and peace of American league cities. The champions have registered thirty-nine hits in their last three games and have won all of them. Three homers by Gehrig on Saturday and one by Ruth on Saturday and another yesterday paved the way for two Yankee victories over the White Sox, 11 to 9, and 8 to 3.

Washington still is unable to have a good hitting afternoon simultaneously with first-rate pitching. Adolph Liska, one of the best right-handers in the major leagues, turned back the Indians with two hits yesterday, but saw his opponents win the game by 1 to 0.

Liska has lost three straight, each by one run. He has worked twenty-odd innings with only four runs, earned and unearned.

The Tigers held a big rally at Navin field yesterday at the expense of Ed Morris, who was routed with other Boston pitchers in a 10 to 2 victory by Detroit.

After trouncing the clan McGraw by 10 to 7 in ten innings on Saturday, the Cardinals came right back yesterday with a pair of late rallies, which netted a 9 to 7 victory.

Grimes led the Pirates to a 7 to 2 victory over the Braves at Boston, pulling the back bay band down within reaching distance of the Cubs and the Cardinals.

Vance entertained 20,000 customers at Ebbets field when Brooklyn beat Cincinnati 4 to 1. Vance allowed four hits and fanned nine. The only run off him was Curt Walker's homer in the fourth. Glenn Wright started his first game at Short field for Brooklyn and hit a home run in the fourth with one mate aboard.

BABY OLYMPIC TANKSTER CONTINUES UPWARD CLIMB

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A slip of a girl, with bobbed locks and an ever-present smile, Georgia Coleman, bounces her way to greater fame from spring diving boards.

Diving is a serious business for this fun-loving 17-year-old miss, who over a period of less than a year and a half has become known as one of the outstanding feminine divers of the world. Scarcely a day passes but she is polishing up her repertoire of plain and fancy dives for future competition.

The list of honors she has won is remarkable considering the time she has been participating in competition. She was the youngest member of Uncle Sam's athletic representation to the Olympic games at Amsterdam last year. Georgia did her share by taking close seconds in the high and low board events.

Heleen Meany beat her out by a quarter of a point in the low board event, while the veteran Betty Becker Pinkston took the platform dive by decision of the judges.

As a member of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, Miss Coleman was second in the national senior 16-foot outdoor championship in 1928. This year she has won the national senior 10-foot indoor title, and placed second in the national 3-foot indoor event.

It was a year ago last December when she first came to the attention of Fred Cady, veteran L. A. A. C. coach. Two months later she entered the junior national indoor championships—her first meet—and won hands down.

Texan Will Take Part in Tennis Zone Tourney

PHILADELPHIA, May 6. (AP)—America's chances to win the American zone play in the Davis cup tennis matches depend upon the skill of John Hennessey, Indianapolis; George Lott, Chicago; John van Ryn, East Orange, N. J.; and Wilmer Allison, Fort Worth, Texas.

They were selected last night after a series of competitive matches here in which William T. Tilden and Francis T. Hunter furnished stiff competition.

Neither "Big Bill" nor Hunter was a candidate for the American zone team as they leave for Europe this week and would not have been available for the matches in Montreal, even if they had been selected. They will practice near Paris until the French championships begin May 20 and will go later to Wimbledon and Wimbledon for the English championships, which begin June 24. It is their intention to prepare for the Davis cup tennis finals, provided the younger players come through in the American zone.

Samuel H. Colton, president of the United States Lawn Tennis association, said Tilden and Hunter could be chosen members of the American team any time during the cup campaign, provided the selections were announced 12 days prior to the start of competition.

Twenty-Four Men Still in Marathon

OKMULGEE, Okla., May 6. (AP)—With 1,812 miles of the 3,400-mile trek from New York to the Pacific coast covered, the 24 remaining bunioners in G. C. Pyle's trans-continental derby today plodded along on a 76-mile lap to Holdenville.

Two runners, Anthony Winninger, Willamansett, Mass., and Herman Kester, Sawtelle, Calif., dropped out yesterday on the 44-mile tramp from Muskogee to Okmulgee.

Gusto Umek, Trieste, Italy, scored his third consecutive victory yesterday by finishing in first place. He sliced an hour from the margin of Johnny Salo, Passaic, N. J., second in elapsed time, but still is 12 hours behind the pole-mat, Salo and Pete Gavv, Southampton, England, first in elapsed time for third place. Paul Simpson, Burlington, N. C., finished 4th.

Sinclair Ready to Start Jail Term as Given

WASHINGTON, May 6. (AP)—Counsel for Harry F. Sinclair announced today the wealthy oil man would not be present at the time the supreme court mandate ordering his commitment to jail for three months for contempt of the senate is received by Justice Hitz of the District of Columbia supreme court.

WASHINGTON, May 6. (AP)—The period of liberty for Harry F. Sinclair before he begins his three months jail sentence for contempt of the senate grew short today.

The mandate of the United States supreme court directing the District of Columbia supreme court to imprison the oil man was placed in the mail Saturday for delivery this morning to Frank E. Cunningham, clerk of the trial court, who had arranged to notify Leo A. Rover, district attorney, upon its receipt.

In line with usual procedure, Mr. Hoover had decided to inform George F. Sinclair, counsel for Sinclair, of this notification, and then to present a motion to Justice William Hitz of the district supreme court asking him to issue the jail commitment order.

Sinclair was declared by his counsel here and in New York to be ready to surrender himself whenever his appearance was requested. He has remained in New York while the formalities leading toward his incarceration were being completed.

No unusual preparations have been made at the Washington asylum and jail to receive the wealthy oil man.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lyon spent yesterday in Berger.

Harvesters Make Fine Showing in State Tourney

Although they failed to place in the finals, the Pampa track and field representatives to the state meet in Austin last week made a creditable showing and were noted out in several events. Coach Ocus Mitchell said this morning.

The relay team composed of Lamb, Roberts, Morgan, and Walsad was especially spectacular, qualifying in the same heat with San Angelo, winner of that event.

In the high hurdles, both Walsad and Kahl qualified, but were noted out of places. Walsad failed to qualify in the low hurdles, being mistaken with the winner of the event. Morgan placed in the semi-finals quarter-mile race but lost in the finals.

Troy Stalls qualified in both the pole vault and the discus, but the weather seemed to be against him and he failed to get distance in the finals.

The Pampa relay team finished sixth in the finals. There were 60 relay teams in the meet. To qualify, they had to hold San Angelo and succeeded in practically tying that team. Lamb and Morgan were spectacular in the qualifying round, but in the finals Lamb's best knee gave him considerable trouble and he could just hold his own. Walsad made a valiant effort in the final round, but could finish only to sixth position.

"It was the greatest meet I have ever attended," Coach Mitchell said this morning.

Mitchell Leads Field in Gullane Golf Tourney

GULLANE, Scotland, May 6. (AP)—Abe Mitchell, British professional, with a sensational score of 65 over the Gullane municipal course led the field for about half the finishers in the first 18 holes of the qualifying rounds for the British open. The best score of the early finishers over the Muirfield course was a 78 scored by Archie Compston. George von Elm and Bobby Cruickshank with 73's at Gullane had been tied for the early lead.

Two of the American Ryder cup team went over 80 for the first 18 holes. Johnny Farrell, the open champion, taking 82 and Ed Dudley 85. Farrell had a nine on his card and Dudley an eight.

Fred Jewell of Long Ashton scored 72 at Gullane to slip under the first mark set by the American pro and amateur. The veteran, J. H. Taylor, playing with Jewell, had a creditable 71.

Until Compston chimed in with his 75, a count of 77 compiled by Albert Whiting, Royal St. Georges, led the field.

As the afternoon starters went to the first tee at Muirfield, rain which had started in mid-morning settled down a steady, soaking downpour.

Waco Staggers Before Steers-Spudders Next

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

Eyes of the Texas league were focused on Waco, today as the league leaders opened what might easily prove a crucial series with the crippled Wichita Falls Spudders.

Reeling from the shock of two straight setbacks at the hands of the Dallas Steers, the Cubs found themselves only two games ahead of the Houston Buffs and facing one of the most dangerous outfits in the league. Although the Spudders are playing without two of their principal threats, Turgeon and Stapleton, there are enough sluggers left in their line-up to slaughter the brand of twirling the leaders have received the last two days.

The Cubs dropped their first series of the year when the Steers, apparently fully recovered from their seven-game losing streak, battered out a 10-to-4 victory before a Sunday crowd of 5,800 fans. The double win, incidentally, boosted the Steers back into fourth place. Lefty Stein, Chicago and Blake yielded 17 hits during the melee. The Cubs got all their runs off Homer Blankenship, starting his first game of the season, in four and a fraction innings. They were silenced thereafter by Tauscher Jeffries, rookie Dallas third sacker, smacked two homers.

The Beaumont Exporters celebrated the return of Lamb and Easterling to the line-up by plastering a 7-to-5 de-

Corsicana Ball Park Destroyed

CORSICANA, May 6. (AP)—Corsicana today surveyed a fire-ravaged district, and baseball fans lamented the destruction of the historic old municipal baseball park.

The park, the office building of the Lyon-Gray Lumber company and an empty warehouse, belonging to the Southland Cotton Oil company burned yesterday following a baseball game, at an estimated loss of $20,000.

The conflagration started in the stands at the park soon after an amateur game ended. Fire department officials said the blaze probably started from a discarded cigarette or cigar.

McCarthy Declares Cub Threat Real

CHICAGO, May 6. (AP)—Joe McCarthy, plot of the pennant aspiring Cubs, is one manager who admits the early winning streak of the Boston Braves isn't just a flash in the pan.

Pointing to their added strength, McCarthy believes they have a much improved club over 1928 and may cause considerable trouble in the flag race.

The Braves have won eight out of eleven games, including the first two

Exams Precede Senior Week at Central High

Final examinations for the seniors of Central high school began this morning, a week earlier than the examinations for other classes, in order that papers may be graded and averages figured several days in advance of commencement exercises. R. B. Fisher, principal of the high school, said today that it was by no means certain who would be valedictorian of the graduating class of 50 students; that, in fact, there are four students whose chances of winning first honors are about even any one of whom could win on the last semester's work, as their grades now stand.

A banquet for the juniors and seniors Saturday evening, at the Schneider hotel, will begin the celebration of "senior week," a period of special privileges, with no school work. Members of the class will give a part of their time, however, to preparing their commencement program, which will be held at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, May 16. Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of Texas Technological college, Lubbock, will deliver the address. Because Dr. Horn could be in Pampa only on Thursday evening, the program was changed from Friday evening, the date announced in the programs issued by class members, to the date when he could be here. The program will be given at the Methodist church.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Dr. W. Y. Pond of Waco at the new Baptist church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. Pond, who is the state evangelist of the Baptist church, is conducting a revival meeting here. He is recognized by local audiences as a strong speaker whose thought is varied and original.

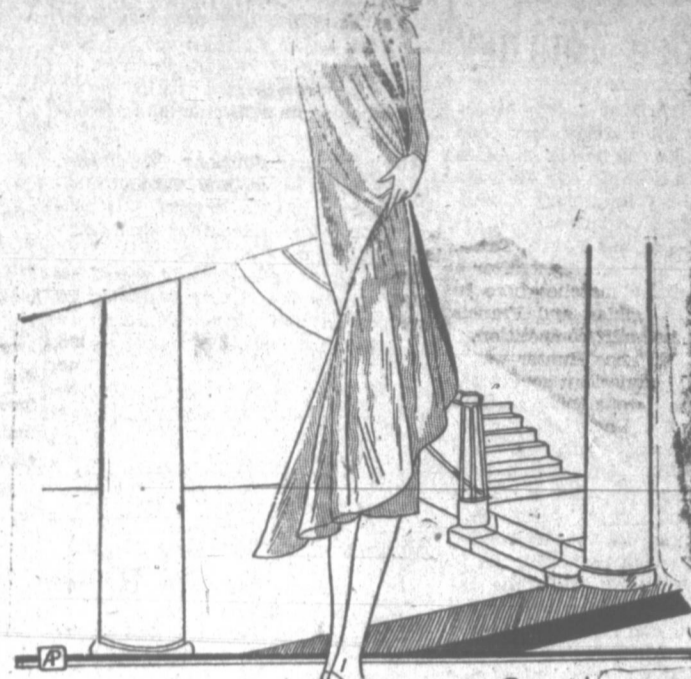

Mrs. Hunkapillar Gives Informal Tea for Miss Anderson

Miss Hattie M. Anderson of Canyon, who was here Thursday to address the senior girls of Central high at a dinner given by the A. A. U. W. and College club, was honored of a small, informal tea given by Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, with members of the club executive board and a few others calling between 3 and 5 o'clock.
An enjoyable program included piano solos by Mrs. Tom W. Brabham and Mrs. Tom Rose, vocal solos by Mrs. W. A. Bratton and Mrs. Robert Chafin, and a reading by Mrs. James Todd. The hostess' little daughter, Harriett, and Lorin Bryson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bryson, played piano selections in finished and pleasingly simple style.
Mrs. Hunkapillar's guests, other than those mentioned, were: Mrs. Paul Kaszshke, Mrs. Siler Faulkner, Mrs. I. B. Hughey, Mrs. George E. Wolfe, Mrs. R. W. Mitchell, Mrs. C. W. Stowell, Mrs. J. L. Lester, Mrs. Annie Daniels, Mrs. Sam Irwin, and Miss Willette Cole.

Mrs. T. F. Morton Awards Medals to Expression Pupils

Mrs. T. F. Morton, fine arts teacher, today awarded three gold medals to expression pupils for excellence of work this year. Vivian Vickers, LaVerne Vickers, and little Dorothy Jo Moore winners of the coveted prizes for which a large group of pupils competed.
To each of these three pupils has come another honor during the year. Vivian Vickers, a junior in high school, won the state contest in essay writing, sponsored by the General Federation of Women's clubs and placed in several of the Interscholastic league literary events. LaVerne Vickers, her brother, was the only student in the district to produce a 100 per cent perfect paper in the music memory contests of the Interscholastic league. Dorothy Jo Moore won the story-telling contest in the county meet, competing with children between 8 and 10 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Behrends, Miss Wilma Behrends, and Harry E. Hoare attended the presentation of "The Creation" at the Amarillo auditorium yesterday.

CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Interest in our revival continues to grow. Up to this time, Monday morning there have been 64 additions to the church, about half of these coming for baptism. In addition to these who came to unite with the church, a number have made professions of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ but have not yet joined the church. Dr. W. Y. Pond has been bringing stirring messages each morning at 10 o'clock, in the afternoon on the street at 3 o'clock, and in the evening at 8 o'clock. He is proving to be the fearless, uncompromising, sane gospel preacher that we had announced him to be. Surely he is a modern Moses come to lead us from the captivity of sin. Dr. Pond is no sensationalist, no radical; but he shows neither fear nor favor in denouncing sin and in upholding the standards of Christianity as instituted by Christ Himself, old and the young are hearing him gladly with the conviction that he is the man sent of God to lead us in this revival campaign.

The morning service at 10 o'clock each week day is a devotional service. Dr. Pond's subject at the regular Sunday service was "The Light of the World," based on the words of Jesus in the "Sermon on the Mount." In the evening he preached on "The Way of Salvation." Both messages were heard by large crowds, that for the evening sermon being estimated at 750. The Booster chorus, composed of boys and girls up to 12 years of age, had 55 singers yesterday. Dr. Pond directs this chorus, while John Lee Harris, musical director of the church, conducts the choir. Special selections are given every day. Mr. Harris invites all singers of the city to join the choir and assist with the music for the meeting. Three special prayer meetings are held daily—one for the Booster chorus and children, under the direction of Dr. Pond; one for the young people, with Mr. Harris in charge; and one for the adults, with Rev. D. H. Truhitte leading.

In the revival services each day we have been glad to welcome visitors. We appreciate the cooperation of members of other churches in our efforts to win the lost to Christ. Whether saved or lost church member or unenlisted, young or old, well or shabbily dressed, you are cordially invited to all the services through this week. Dr. Pond will preach tonight on the subject, "Bed too Short. Blanket too Narrow." For tomorrow night his topic is "A Duck-legged Jew Up A Tree."

WE WELCOME YOU TO ALL THE SERVICES OF THIS CHURCH.
D. H. Truhitte, Pastor.
John Lee Harris, ass't pastor

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The auditorium of the First Christian church was filled to seating capacity yesterday morning, and chairs were used last night in all available places to accommodate the large audience to hear Evangelist A. G. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. O. Fred Hanna in the revival services.

Evangelist Smith spoke at the morning hour on "The Dying Grain of Wheat," and at night on "Can Morality Save?" Mr. Smith sang a solo and he and Mrs. Hanna, a duet. The singing by the choir and Booster chorus was appreciated by the large audience last night.
There were several additions at the morning service, and the large attendance and deep interest of the beginning of the second week bespeaks for this church a good meeting under the leadership of this popular evangelistic party.

Mrs. T. F. Morton and small daughter left this morning to visit Mrs. Morton's parents in Waco.
Miss Frances McKenzie spent the week-end in Clarendon.
J. J. Daly, who has been at Pampa hospital several days with a broken arm, is recovering satisfactorily from the injury.
M. Gilmore, who has been at Pampa hospital for treatment the last several days, is much improved.

Talks To Parents

DRESSED ALIKE

By Alice Judson Peale
Until they were 10 and 12, respectively, Phoebe and Jane were dressed exactly alike. That made such a pretty picture as they walked down the street together. They could hear gentle ladies murmur as they passed: "Sisters! How sweet!" And how those sisters both hated it!

Jane, being the elder, felt that it was not quite fair for her to be kept in "baby clothes" just because she had a younger sister. She thought there ought to be some distinction in her clothing to mark her seniority.

Phoebe, on the other hand, felt grieved because it seemed to her that her mother always chose colors and styles which were unbecoming to her. They looked charming on her slender, blue-eyed sister, but on herself, she felt, they possessed all the graceful outlines of a potato bag.

But the thing which irritated them both the most was the fact that their own tastes never were consulted. They loathed the feeling of being a kind of show-piece.
The common practice of dressing children alike, unless it coincides with their own preference, is a trespass on their individuality; and it is only natural that they should resent it.

We should forego the satisfaction of having two little daughters, charmingly and identically dressed, and allow each one to choose her own clothing within the wide margin of appropriateness and good taste.

All of us like to express our own individuality, and there is no reason why children, because they happen to be sisters, should be denied this privilege.

TAXING AROUND THE AIRPORTS

The lease on Logan field, the present Baltimore municipal airport, is to be renewed for another five-year period or until the new municipal airport becomes available for use. An additional 70 acres is being considered and other improvements and changes will be effected at once. The new day air mail service of Pitcairn Aviation, Inc., between Washington and New York will include a regular stop at Logan field.

Authorities in charge of developing the Amarillo, Texas, municipal airport are planning the installation of complete facilities necessary to obtain the highest department of commerce airport rating. The new equipment is to be in place before fall.

The hydrographic office of the navy department has just released two new aviation charts, which cover portions of the Pacific coast. The maps show the areas between San Diego and Point Luis Obispo and between Astoria, Ore., and Vancouver Island, B. C. Other charts scheduled for early release will cover the remainder of the Pacific coast.

The Mount Vernon Airways, operators of the Mount Vernon airport, four miles south of Alexandria, Va., has offered the airport to Alexandria city officials. The city government is considering the acquisition of the airport to operate it as a municipal enterprise. The actual management of the port will be maintained by the Mount Vernon Airways under the arrangement proposed by the company. If the city takes over the field, the state of Virginia would contribute funds for further developments and improvements.

Development of a model airport at Columbus, Ohio, to be known as Port Columbus is proceeding rapidly on funds provided by an $800,000 municipal bond issue. The port will be developed with a passenger station, near a trunk line railroad, hangars, shops and administrative offices. It will be lighted with a newly developed 3,000-candle power flood light.

Spring housecleaning hint for Husbands

RADFORD paused in the upstairs hall. "What!" he exclaimed, "not through yet—"

From amid the chaos of housecleaning, Mrs. Radford looked up in exasperation.

"Get that coat off and help me put up this bed," she ordered, wearily shoving a stray lock of hair back beneath the towel about her head.

"How do you expect me to be through? I can't clean the upstairs, and spend the best part of the afternoon downstairs talking over the telephone, can I? I've been up and down those stairs forty times."

Radford had weathered many spring housecleanings. Wisely, he pulled off his coat and began to roll up his sleeves.

"I think," he observed sympathetically, "that an extension telephone up here in the hall might save steps and—"

"Then suppose," interrupted his wife grimly, "that you order one for me tomorrow."

Telephones where you need them save time, patience, housewifely strength.

Few know that one or two additional instruments cost considerably less than the single telephone they now have!

RAINBOW PARTY DELIGHTFUL EVENT

Outstanding among the social affairs of the spring was a beautiful rainbow party given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. W. A. Breining, who entertained with four tables of bridge. Rainbow arches in true colors above the windows and doorways and small crane paper umbrellas above the card tables made the house most attractive for the occasion.

STEPHEN LAWRENCE meets STEPHEN LAWRENCE when he rescues her fox fur from a thief.
A L right, hold your breath and sit tight," Stephen admonished Lefty Flint, and in another minute they were flying along in a world gone mad.
At a hundred and two he reached out and touched Stephen's arm. Stephen understood his touch, and gradually the car slowed down until it appeared to the two men to be creeping along at 50.
Then Stephen turned to his companion, a great grin on his face. "When she's done 10,000 miles," he said, "you can step her up to..."
"Never mind," Lefty broke in. "I'm satisfied. Let's go. If it were a cop anywhere around and he saw that we'd get the works."
Stephen headed back toward the highway.
"Take the first turn to the right," Lefty directed when they reached it. "Why not go back to the office?" Stephen asked. "We can't close the deal over here."
"Sure," Lefty agreed. "I know that. Don't worry. The sale's made. I just want to have a friend look 'er over."
STEPHEN followed his directions, a little puzzled about their destination. It surely looked like a low class neighborhood, he thought, glancing at the row of shacks that hovered beside the badly rutted road.
"Take it easy," Lefty advised. "We haven't far to go."
Stephen slowed and looked around. They were now in a section of small, unprosperous factories and deserted, ramshackle buildings, with now and then a wooden dwelling jammed between them, overcome by the progress of industry.
"Over there," Lefty said, indicating a post-Colonial house that stood on a corner. Its wide veranda sagged at one corner and parts of the ornate woodwork that

WHEAT STILL LOWER CHICAGO, May 6. (P)—Confirmed by Liverpool quotations much lower than expected, all deliveries of wheat here underwent a sharp setback today to below any level heretofore touched this season.

Opening 5-8c to 7-8c off, Chicago wheat later continued to point downward. Corn, oats and provisions were easy, with corn starting 3-8c to 1c lower and afterward showing but little power to rally.

Hugh Terry, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Terry of Miami, was taken home this morning from Pampa hospital. He was brought here three weeks ago in a very serious condition.

CLOYD'S JUMP FROM 'CHUTE' NEAR ACCIDENT

Youthful Enos Cloyd, parachute jumper, had the narrowest escape of his short career Sunday when his "chute" failed to detach itself from I. Van Nattan's big Spartan plane. Cloyd dangled from the plane instead of going clear at a point which would have enabled him to land near the crowd of perhaps 3,000 persons assembled at the city airport.

Big Week Faces Texas Lawmakers

AUSTIN, May 6. (P)—This is certain to be a big week with the special session. The senate will consider penitentiary concentration, and the house will take up tax measures, including the one which would fix a levy on income. The family of tax bills offered by Representative T. N. Mauritz of Ganado, at the head of which is the income proposal, have not been taken seriously, as a general thing, by the legislators, but they are beginning to wake up and take notice now that the committee on revenue and taxation has recommended that the income tax bill pass.

The senate is not likely to take up penitentiary concentration before Wednesday, although the committee considering the bills is scheduled to meet today. In fact there isn't much chance of real work before the legislature returns from Bryan, home of Speaker W. S. Barron, where it will pass a pop call Tuesday on the East Texas Chamber of Commerce in convention. Since the house passed by an almost unanimous vote the penitentiary concentration bill, calling for assembling the plant on property now owned by the state, there has recurred talk of "centralization." Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galveston and other advocates of concentration assert that what Texas needs is a "centralized" system, that is to say, some "high and dry spot" in the center of the state.

When the move for prison relocation was first started some three months ago there was much sentiment that "concentration" meant "centralization," but finally this was denied. Many of the communities opposed "centralization," because they thought that might mean a site in their locality might be selected. It was this that prompted several of the senators during consideration of the bill during the regular session to amend it to exempt counties of their respective districts as possible sites.

East Texas at Bryan for Big Chamber Meet

BRYAN, May 6. (P)—Study of the relation of industrial development to agricultural prosperity was one of the chief problems before the East Texas Chamber of Commerce third annual convention here today. Dr. Gus W. Dyer, editor of the Southern Agriculturalist, was on the program for the principal address at the business session.

Bryan was bursting at the seams as the last delegations to arrive packed themselves into the city. Hotels and tourist camps doubled their accommodations, and many delegates went to private homes. The business sessions largely routine, included the appointment of committees and receipt of officers' reports.

Outside of convention hall was more entertainment than any one delegate could see. Industrial exhibits intrigued many. Others attended the band contest and tournament which lasted most of the day. On top of this there was a band concert by the Texas A. & M. 110-piece college band.

All schools and colleges had visiting hours, and A. & M. held openhouse, all departments being open for inspection. Engineering exhibits with man-made lightning, arc welding under water, a broadcasting station, a piano made of vacuum tubes and a motor made with a tin can attracted a great deal of attention, as did the agricultural exhibits.

Texas Tech and A. & M. were scheduled for a baseball game, and Aiken academy was to put on a drill exhibition.

In the evening a concert was to be given by the massed bands, 1,500 musicians participating.

Fall Ranch to Be Sold Today at Alamogordo

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., May 6. (P)—Announcement that the Three Rivers, N. M., ranch of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, would be sold at public auction today by the sheriff at Alamogordo, N. M., in a mortgage foreclosure action and that representatives of Edward L. Doheny, oil magnate, planned to buy it for $300,000 was made here by Robert Sands, personal secretary to the petroleum operator. Sands declared the famous ranch, which figured in the naval oil reserve leasing scandals, had been estimated worth $800,000 and it was to be sold to satisfy a loan of $170,000. The M. D. Thatcher estate of Pueblo, Colo., holds a first mortgage for that amount and Sands declared Doheny held a second mortgage by reason of the $100,000 loan made to Fall by the oil magnate shortly before the interior secretary leased the Elk Hills, Calif., naval oil reserve to a Doheny company.

ALAMOGORDO, N. M., May 6. (P)—The 7,000 acres Tres Ritos Land and Cattle Company ranch, owned by Albert B. Fall, was sold at public auction here today to Edward L. Hutchinson May Get Producer at Wildcat Location

Interest has turned to Hutchinson county, where an oil well in semi-wildcat territory encountered the pay and may be drilled in a producer.

The Marland Production company's No. 1-C Johnson in section 5, block 1, B. & E. survey, Hutchinson county, topped the pay Friday night and shut down for storage and pipeline connections. Pay was encountered at 3,980 feet and after drilling two feet the test began flowing in heads. It is estimated to be making about 10 barrels an hour. This new test is four miles west and a half mile north of the Berger field and three miles east and two miles south of the Sanford area. A half mile south of the location is a dry hole and to the north is a test drilling at 3,084 feet with no pay reported.

Much Beer Is Found in Vacant House Saturday

Manufacturers of intoxicating beverages pulled a "fast one" here last week and would have gotten away with it only for the fact that rent houses are scarce and not vacant for long.

Henry Thut rented one of his houses in the Talley addition Friday afternoon, when the new tenant started to move in yesterday morning he found the doors padlocked. He immediately notified Mr. Thut, who broke into the dwelling. To his surprise, the latter and jars of beer in the making. Mr. Thut notified Sheriff Graves, who with deputies went to the scene.

and then cut loose with his six-gun at the top floor windows of the Simpson building, then Anderson, outstanding skyraider, dislodged the use of the new fangled automatic, or even the older double-action gun. His trusted weapon was the old-fashioned single-action gun which needed cocking before it could be fired. Nevertheless, so expert was he at "fanning" the hammer that his shooting sounded like a continuous explosion.

Undaunted, Big Buck walked up to Ballew.

"Gimme that gun, you crazy fool," Buck demanded.

Doclely Bud, the man with possibly a score of notches on his gun passed over the weapon. Doclely he followed Buck away to "sleep it off," at the same time plaintively murmuring:

"Aw, Buck, don't bawl me out."
