LINDY'S FLIGHT WITH SERUM CRITICISED

Lack of Workers Slows Down Chamber of Commerce Campaign

LOCAL ANNUAL CAMPAIGN NOW HALF FINISHED

Rainy Weather Brings Delay at Middle of Effort

POSTPONEMENTS ADD DIFFICULTY

Success Seen When All Business Men Are Solicited

The banquet which was to have been held Friday evening at the Plaza at the conclusion of the Chamber of Commerce membership drive has been postponed. It was announced this afternoon. Completion of the drive is being delayed by inclement weather.

With the work about half done, the Chamber of Commerce membership and finance drive slowed down today with a few solicitors combating the inclement weather.

Whether this delay will result in lengthening of the drive, scheduled to end Friday evening at a banquet, had not been determined at noon today. Jack of workers in the field (together with a number of postponements of pledge making by business men, were principal factors in the slow-down today. Most of those seen by the solicitors have gladly taken out memberships, and it is believed that through canvassing will result in early completion of the campaign.

The responses during the first two days of the drive were very gratifying. More than $7,000 of the $14,000 budget for the year has been pledged. The total membership desired, set at 600 members, is still far short of attainment however.

Team Captains H. L. Lawrence and Scott Barton state that the drive will be pressed forward as rapidly as possible. It is desired to complete the campaign before the coming of Geo. W. Briggs of Eastland, the new manager of the Chamber of Commerce, next Tuesday. Mr. Briggs had wired the directors that he will arrive Tuesday 10 and assume charge of the Chamber. He is one of the best known and most successful managers in Texas, and with the annual budget raised before he arrives, he will be able to inaugurate his program without wasting time in financing the activities.

Humble Tanker In Flames After Heavy Explosion

NEW YORK, April 26.—(AP)—The American oil tanker Overbrook caught fire following an explosion in the pump room while off the Florida coast early this morning. A message to the owners, the Gladstone Transportation company, said that the blaze was subsiding.

The tanker Fred W. Weller had rescued all of the 34 men in the Overbrook crew, who left their burning ship in life boats. The Weller was standing by to await the arrival of a coast guard cutter, to which the men were to be transferred.

HOUSTON, April 26.—(AP)—The Overbrook cleared from Texas City last Saturday with approximately 70,000 barrels of crude oil for New York, according to the marine department of the Humble Oil and Refining company, which has the vessel under lease.

The tanker is commanded by J. S. Halligan.

The Fred W. Weller left Texas City 24 hours after the Overbrook according to Humble officials. This vessel is owned and operated by the Humble company.

F. W. Dye of Tulsa is here on business this week.

George Shuffield transacted business in Amarillo yesterday.

Nine Big Questions Pending On Calendar of M. E. Conference

Proposals of unusual importance will be considered by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church when it meets in Kansas City during May. Dr. E. J. Wade (left), is general secretary of the conference, Bishop E. L. Waldorf (upper right) of Kansas City is the official host and Dr. J. D. Hingeley (lower right), will present a new ministerial pension plan.

By BISHOP EDWIN H. HUGHES (Methodist Episcopal Church) CHICAGO, April 26.—(AP)—The Methodist Episcopal general conference at Kansas City starting May 1 will be composed of more than 800 delegates, one half preachers, one half laymen. The most interesting and important matters for the 1928 gathering are: The question of admitting laymen to the annual conferences. The possible reorganization of the benevolent organizations of the church. The consolidation of the church papers—making a less number of advocates. The question of electing or nominating to the bishops for appointment of district superintendents.

The discussion of the problem of war and peace. Changing the tenure of office of the bishops, who, under the present system are elected for life. The question of continuing a contributing, or general editor for all the official advocates. The election of native bishops, possibly by the central conferences, especially in China. The election of new bishops by the general conference itself. Five bishops retire by the age limit. Will Episcopal areas be decreased, or will new bishops be elected?

IDEAL WIVES ONLY, THREE OUT OF TEN

Well Equipped Kitchens Help to Create Home Makers, However

CHICAGO, April 26.—(AP)—Men's chances of getting an ideal wife are only 3 out of 10, Mrs. Clarence G. Goodwin, past president of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, has computed.

"American wives fall into five classes," said Mrs. Goodwin addressing a woman's meeting. She divided them as follows:

Home-maker, or "ideal" type 30 per cent
Jazz, or "can opener" type 20
Nagging type 15
Drudge type 15
Baby doll type 20
Most women would turn out to be good home-makers, she said, if they were supplied with the "makings" which she described as "good plumbing, well-built kitchens and labor-saving devices of all sorts."

Lad Hits Shell With Hammer—Loses Finger by Amputation
After Earl Meeker, 11 years old was taken to the hospital last night, it was found necessary to amputate one of the fingers on his left hand. The little lad, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Meeker, residing at the Shaw hotel, was playing with a 22-caliber bullet and when he hit it with a hammer the accident occurred.

He is doing well at the hospital and seems to feel none the worse of his accident, but says it has taught him a lesson about what to play with.

HARMONY NOT YET ACHIEVED BY DEMOCRATS

Moody and Davidson Hold Conference Today

GO TO DALLAS AFTER MEETING

Propose Delegation for Prohibition, Not Candidate

AUSTIN, April 26.—(AP)—Governor Moody's conference with Lynch Davidson, chairman of the Texas "Harmony" Democrats, closed abruptly here Thursday with both leaders dashing to a railway station.

Mr. Moody left word at his office that he had gone to Dallas and Mr. Davidson presumably accompanied him.

The "Harmony" chieftains discussed what action now is necessary to assure a united party front, already indicated in statements from other factions that all wings had come together under a general agreement in essence pointing to a delegation instructed for prohibition but not against individuals. Neither would make any statement. Go to Dallas

The belief here was that Davidson and the governor went to Dallas to talk to "ultra-dry" lieutenant and further the campaign for an unbound group of delegates.

DALLAS, April 26.—(AP)—The Texas political situation continues to fluctuate, notwithstanding the "harmony" brought about through the efforts of Governor Moody's wing of the party Tuesday.

The latest pyrotechnics came from the pen of Judge William E. Hawkins of Breckenridge, who will oppose Mr. Moody for the Democratic nomination for Governor, in a statement received here last night in which he condemned in the strongest terms what he styled the "subject surrender" of the constitutional Democrats.

At the same time it was announced that Governor Moody would appear here on the night of May 3 to address the voters of Dallas county and possibly those of Ellis and Rockwall in the interest of Democrats of this county, for the purpose of "awakening" in their precinct conventions of May 5, as C. C. Renfro of Dallas, to whom the governor wired acceptance of the invitation, put it.

Moody to Speak
Governor Moody, who has been endorsed by the Democrats of Texas for the chairmanship of the Texas delegation to the national convention at Houston, will speak here for an un-instructed Texas delegation, as to candidates, Mr. Renfro explained.

Meanwhile it was understood that State Senator Thomas E. Love was still unreconciled to desertion of the chairmanship of the Texas delegation to the national convention at Houston, will speak here for an un-instructed Texas delegation, as to candidates, Mr. Renfro explained.

Pointing to the naming of Jesse H. Jones of Houston as second choice of the Tennessee Democrats, who will first pass a complimentary vote to a favorite son, national committeeman J. C. Adams urged the alignment of Texas delegation behind the Democratic treasurer as its choice for its presidential nomination. At the same time Judge M. N. Crestman of Dallas issued a statement declaring that only the chairmanship of the Texas delegation and Senator Jim Reed of Missouri have any show for the nomination and urging Texas Democrats to make their choice now between the two.

Out of Work, Man Hangs Boy, Then Takes Own Life
CHICAGO, April 26.—(AP)—A man and a boy were found dead by hanging in a cemetery at River Grove yesterday. A note, unsigned, said the writer had been unable to find work.

The man was about 38 years old, and his body was found hanging from a tree. At his feet was the body of a five-year-old boy, who apparently had been hanged and then cut down.

"I am taking the one I love best in this world with me," said the note.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Shuler of Oklahoma City are visiting with friends here this week.

Bedridden Invalid, Famous Genius in Many Arts, Dies Today at 57

C. Lee Cook Invented Things to Pay for an Education—Achieved Much in Art and Literature

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 26.—(AP)—C. Lee Cook, 57, "The genius who never walked" died last night after a short illness.

Although an invalid since he was one year old, Mr. Cook was known internationally for his achievements as a scholar, an inventor and an artist. He was an authority on law, languages, history, and art.

Taken from school at seven because his parents believed he would not live, Mr. Cook at eight had built a steam engine that worked. For twelve years he educated himself and worked on the average of seventeen hours a day at a lathe of his own design, producing a product form which he obtained money to continue his work and experiments.

He invented a device for locomotives to prevent the escape of steam from cylinders and the first engine equipped with it ran 175,000 miles without a repair. His metallic packing was used on vessels of the emergency fleet during the world war. He built lathe for shells and for heavy artillery under contracts for France.

His oil paintings have been hung in prominent art centers of this country and Europe.

When one year old he was stricken with muscular stagnation. When he was fourteen he developed curvature of the spine. Although best by these handicaps he worked seventeen hours a day continually, always in a wheelchair.

In a recent magazine interview he declared his aim in life was to learn more to help others.

Disposal Plant to Be Completed in Short Time
With the exception of the laying of a small amount of six and eight-inch pipe, work on the new sewer system in south Pampa has been completed by the Jordan Construction company. Work will now commence on the line in the north part of the city, which includes 18,400 feet of 6-inch pipe and 2,250 feet of 8-inch pipe.

Practically all the concrete has been poured in the filter bed at the disposal plant and the tile base is being set. Half the concrete in the disposal plant proper has been poured and is being rushed to completion by a large gang of men.

If weather conditions continue favorable, it is expected that the work will be completed by June 15. Up to this time construction work has cost $51,714.04, which has been paid out for that purpose.

A check up of the amount of large size tile laid to date shows 11,020 feet of 12-inch and 8,656 feet of 10-inch.

When completed, the system will have cost $110,357.69 and will accommodate a city of 29,000 population.

CANADA COULD HAVE PROVIDED NECESSARY AID

Officials Call Trip "Vulgar" Stunt for Publicity

LINDBERGH IS NOT BLAMED

Hero's Farewell Paid to Bennett By Regiment

MONTREAL, April 26.—(AP)—(By the Canadian Press)—Severe criticism of the flight to carry serum from New York to Quebec for the treatment of Floyd Bennett has been made by premier L. A. Taschereau of Quebec and Provincial Secretary David, but Mr. David made plain that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's part in the flight was entirely admirable.

In an address, the premier asserted that the flight was entirely unnecessary as there was plenty of serum in Canada. Mr. David, expanding on this statement, expressed the belief that the flight was a vulgar and spectacular publicity stunt in which untrained persons had made use of Col. Lindbergh, himself entirely innocent of wrong doing, to further their selfish aims.

Call the Bluff
"As for Col. Lindbergh," said the provincial secretary, "I have the utmost respect and admiration for him. He reflects the bravery of youth. But why this bluff and especially this bluff perpetrated by the use of an American word figure?"

"I wish to make it quite clear that I am not anti-American, but I cannot stomach this way of taking profit of a tragic situation under the mask of charity. Here we have everything that is necessary and we do not need them to come from the United States to bring us serum. We can get along without American doctors, be they the most accomplished specialists of that great country."

Quebec, April 26.—(AP)—Canada gave a hero's farewell today to Floyd Bennett as his body was started toward its resting place in the national cemetery of the United States.

Airplanes Gives Salute
Circling airplanes, dipping in salute above the cortege, honored the man whose exploits had brought the science of flying fresh laurels, while slowly through the tortuous streets of the ancient city rumbled the gun carriage being the body.

The relay twenty-second regiment was his escort and his tribute came with the tears of the men women and children who with bowed heads quietly took their places in the ever-lengthening procession as it moved toward a waiting train.

A small group had assembled in the chapel of the Jeffrey Hale hospital, where the aviator who had conquered the frozen north in the first flight to the pole died yesterday.

As the coffin was borne out to be placed on the flag draped gun carriage, a detachment of the twenty-second presented arms in salute.

Byrd Is On Foot
The cortege slowly moved away, winding through the streets. Commander Byrd, with officers of the regiment and of the military area, followed on foot. Mrs. Bennett and consul and Mrs. E. H. Dennison, entered a closed carriage for the sad journey.

BERLIN, April 26.—(AP)—The death of Floyd Bennett has aroused profound sympathy throughout Germany and this found expression in tribute paid (See CANADA COULD, Page 2)

Review of Paintings Studied in Twentieth Century Club

Probably the most interesting and beneficial meeting of the year of the Twentieth Century club was held Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Raymond Harrah.

"The Great Sacrifice" was described by Mrs. H. H. Hicks. This master piece was painted by Reuben, and was begun in 1611 and finished in 1621.

"The Last Supper," painted by Leonardo da Vinci, who was a sculptor as well as painter, was presented by Mrs. W. A. Bratton.

"Man Hoing" by Millet, was the picture selected by Mrs. Tom Rose as her subject. She spoke on the criticism this artist had received on this work because of its remarkable depiction of peasant life.

Mrs. H. H. Hicks gave a very interesting report regarding the milk drinking campaign which is being sponsored by the club, stating that the teachers of the local schools are giving excellent co-operation along this line.

Mother—No Johnny hasn't got the toothache. You told him he was to tell how long it would take him to eat twenty apples if it took him one and a half minutes to eat one apple—and he got stuck on the fifteenth.

Lokal Anzeiger said: "In the cup of joy over the Bremen's successful flight, there is now mixed sorrow. With the American people, Germany shares in the grief over the loss of this hero who left life for his brothers."

NEW YORK, April 26.—(AP)—The first thought of offering aid to Floyd Bennett from Rockefeller Institute, it was learned today, originated in the mind of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who was deeply moved by the plight of the famous aviator.

QUEBEC, April 26.—(AP)—Floyd Bennett, who piloted the first plane to reach the north pole, will be buried tomorrow in Arlington national cemetery outside Washington. His grave will be close to that of Admiral Robert E. Peary.

The body of the man who piloted Commander Richard E. Byrd across the pole and who died attempting to carry aid to three fellow fliers, will leave Quebec on a special car at 1:30 p. m. today accompanied by his wife and Byrd. The train is due to arrive in New York city at 7:30 tomorrow morning.

Under Military Escort. Upon its arrival at New York the casket will be taken under military and police escort from the Grand Central Station to Pennsylvania station for the trip to Washington which begins three hours later. Burial will be immediately after arrival in the capital at 3 p. m. tomorrow afternoon.

Escorted to the train here by a military guard from the Royal Twenty-second Regiment the funeral train will be met enroute by a United States naval escort and burial at Arlington will be with full military honors.

Mrs. Bennett first expressed the wish that her husband's body be buried near their home in Brooklyn, but finally consented to let it lie beside America's other heroes at Arlington.

A slab stone there will not be the man who blazed the air trail over the Arctic region. Commander Byrd announced that the airplane he would use in his attempted flight over the south pole would be named "The Floyd Bennett."

Bennett, had he lived, would have been second in command of the expedition and probably at the controls of the plane on the flight.

From President Coolidge and secretary Wilbur, his two highest ranking officers, from the men with whom he flew and worked, from his shipmates of the days when he was an unknown naval mechanic, messages of condolences came to Bennett's widow.

He had captured the admiration of the world and the love of all who knew him by his unassuming manner, his quiet courage, his lack of ostentation, and his casket was covered with flowers these persons sent.

Mother Officially Notified. Commander Byrd notified Bennett's 80-year-old mother at Lake George, N. Y., of her son's death and she plans to meet the funeral party in New York for the trip to Washington. Mrs. Mary E. Breeyer of Waterbury, Vt., Mrs. Bennett's mother, is to join her daughter for the journey.

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, who risked his life to carry serum from New York to Quebec, returned to New York by plane yesterday. Lindbergh's plane swooped low over the hospital where Bennett's body lay the thunder of its motor plainly audible in the death chamber. Not until he landed in New York did he learn Bennett was dead.

Condolences were received by Mrs. Bennett from the German Ambassador von Prittwitz at Washington and from T. A. Smyth, Irish Free State was a erous shroud Irish shroud minister at Washington. Bennett was en route to German-Irish crew of the Bremen at Greenly Island when stricken.

Byrd Is Heartbroken. Commander Byrd was heart broken over his friend's death.

He refused the offer of friends to send a plane to Quebec for him.

"I will stay with the wife of my very good friend," he answered, "until she is back home."

Mrs. Bennett asked that the Rev. L. E. Smith, pastor of the Christian Church at Norfolk, Va., of which she and her husband were members, be asked to officiate in the services at the grave.

J. George Loos, owner of the Loos show, and Thad W. Rodecker, were visitors here yesterday. The show is stationed in Amarillo this week and will appear here the week of May 6 under the auspices of the American Legion and the Pampa Fire department.

R. C. Law of Amarillo was a business visitor here yesterday.

BUILDING QUICKLY LEVELED

It required only three days to raise the old Gray County State bank building on North Cuyler street adjoining the Brunow block in making way for the new $30,000 Clem building.

The new Clem building will be a two-story brick with the large store on the ground floor and suites of offices on the second floor. Mr. Clem expects to have the new location ready for occupation by the middle of July. The Woodworth company took a 70-year lease on the building.

Health Programs to Be Given May 1 Throughout Country

The American Child Health Association has chosen for its slogan this year "Better Children for Our Nation: A Better Nation for Our Children" to be used in May Day programs throughout the country, according to H. N. Barnett, M. D., programs and state director of bureau of child hygiene, in a letter sent out to Parent-Teacher associations leaders over the state.

The purpose of the American Child Health association is to teach the child proper health habits, to teach that happiness is essential to good health and should be put there through an enjoyment that enriches, with music and beauty and color, through play and sports and adventure, through the love of nature, of God, and mankind.

These are vital factors to the health and wholesomeness of a child, as well as food, fresh air and immunization. They come through the stimulus of the world in which he lives and which the home provides, the home world overlapping the school world, the home and school overlapping the community and the community reaching out to the national and international boundaries.

THIS BEING ELECTION year, the Pampa Daily News will carry much political news emanating from all over the nation. It is with satisfaction that this paper has the most authoritative, most non-partisan political news source in the world—the Associated Press.

Recently a high churchman, in speaking at a press banquet, asserted that 'the wisdom of the plan of the Associated Press to band together its nation-wide membership is now openly demonstrated. Its refusal to traffic with tributary or sectional organizations has been amply justified. Newspaper proprietors, publishers, and editors of the North and South, of the Jewish, Roman Catholic, and Protestant faiths, have made common cause in this undertaking with a good conscience. . . . I cannot refrain from wishing that all periodicals, including those belonging to the churches, had learned your lesson. How to be 'strong without rage, without overpowering full', commands intellectual respect and instills the moderation which is ultimate power.'

This code, it may be said, strongly affects the local policies of member papers. A regard for the public welfare, without assuming the role of community scourge and becoming an administrator of public affairs, is contrary to some of the old blood and thunder ideas of journalism, but the modern policy is in keeping with the better journalism of the day. Freedom of the press is not based on the idea that a newspaper must take the responsibility for governmental details, but upon the idea that the newspapers themselves shall not be fettered by official agencies.

And, to quote Frank B. Noyes, president of the Associated Press, "the code of ethics of the Associated Press does not alter when the year of presidential election rolls around, and every candidate holds a serene certainty that the Associated Press will not help or hamper him by becoming an adherent or an opponent."

Property Can Ruin a City
(Altus Times-Democrat)
Where do we go from here?
That is an appropriate question to apply to Altus just now.

Altus has reached about the limit of expansion unless some of the property that has stood unimproved so long is obtainable for development.

Several vacant properties in Altus could and should be improved now, with modern business structures so much in demand. These properties are too frequently not for sale or held at an exorbitant or prohibitive price. The owner has no intention of developing the property himself but is determined that whoever does will be forced to pay through the nose.

Too often property gets into the hands of men unwilling to either improve it or dispose of it at a fair price. Just such conditions force a city to expand in an unnatural direction or circles the city with a deathchoking band that causes stagnation and retardation.

Frequently the fellow who is holding his property until the town has gone the other way and left his property at lower value. That is hard but nothing more than the just deserts of these men, who in reality are obstructing instead of aiding progress.

Examples of unimproved property retarding the natural growth of a city leads the student to advocate penalty taxes for unimproved property.

The classical example of this human selfishness is that of the French cobbler who owned a property worth about $1,000 but when he discovered Napoleon set his price at $2,000. Napoleon met the price and the cobbler doubled his demand. He did this until he was asking the French emperor $50,000 for the property. Not until then did Napoleon become exasperated. Napoleon's retaliation was to buy up all the property around the cobbler, entirely cutting off the cobbler's outlet to the city of Paris and then forbidding trespassing on the emperor's encircling band. The cobbler was utterly ruined, receiving nothing for his property, yet he had been offered $40,000 for it. He died of a broken heart.

We don't have examples in Altus of such avarice but we do have too many examples of property priced beyond reason and held by owners who have no intention of ever improving it.

Let's give Altus a fair chance by taking a fair price for property you do not intend to improve.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—At least a third of the administrative executives in the prohibition enforcement system have been weeded out by civil service examinations.

By July, 50 or more of the 150 prohibition administrators, assistant administrators, deputy administrators and other high officers in the 25 prohibition enforcement districts will have been replaced by successful competitors for their jobs. Nine of the 25 administrators are affected, although re-examinations may enable one or two of them to retain their jobs.

Re-examinations not yet completed affect the administrators jobs in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Ft. Worth, St. Louis, Columbus and Savannah. The incumbent administrators who failed to qualify in the first examinations were eligible to compete in these. In addition to the nine administrators who were unable to win reappointment, victims of civil service include those who resigned prior to the examinations when they realized they couldn't fulfill the requirements. Congress passed the law to place prohibition enforcers under civil service with the admitted intent of making an honest, going business out of what had become a national scandal. The law was scheduled to take effect last October. It didn't, except that those not certified by the commission and still on the job are only temporary appointees, for the primary reason that Congress failed to provide enough money for all the examinations.

Army and Navy to Play Here

The Army and Navy will meet in the first pre-season football game to be played on the Ayres field May 4, at 4 o'clock.
Tommy Robinson is captain of the Army, and Bob Kahl is captain of the Navy. Both teams are in good condition and are very evenly matched. The Army has most of the old team in this back field. The Army has many of last year's line men. The Army has been practicing in the ball park, while the Navy has been practicing in the Ayres field.
Sketch Roberts, Bob Kahl, Tommy Robinson, Dond Spaulsbury, Lloyd Mason, Troy Haines, Elmer Hardin, James Ayres, Gus Green, and Kenneth Bishop are men who were on the last year's team.
The game promises to be very close and interesting.
Root for the Army! No, root for the Navy!

Sophomore Class Gives Program at Chapel Wednesday

The Sophomore class rendered a very entertaining program in chapel Wednesday morning.
Vivian Means played a piano solo, "Old Black Eyes" and as an encore she played "Sparklets."
Irene Bolander gave two readings, "Miss Edith Helps Things Along with Her Elder Sister's Beau," and "Especially Jim."
"When We Gather Wild Flowers" was sung by Andre Noel. The entire program was enjoyed by all.
Rev. Strickland, from the schools of Ft. Worth, delivered an interesting talk to the student body.
Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Payne were visitors in chapel.
A short sketch from the Junior play, "The Charm School," was enjoyed by all. The Charm School will be given at the Rex Theatre tonight.

A JUNIOR-SENIOR PARTY

A party is to be given by the Seniors in honor of the Juniors. The faculty is also cordially invited. The party is to be held at the Methodist church basement at 7:30 Saturday, April 28.
This is the first time the Seniors have entertained the Juniors, and we sincerely hope that it will be a "howling" success.

A GYM?

The school board is seriously considering building a gymnasium for Pampa High School and two more ward school buildings. Hurrah for them! These improvements are badly needed.

A NEW ATMOSPHERE

The joy of the students of Pampa high school over the fact that school will be out three weeks after the present on is somewhat solemnized by the realization that they must pass one great trial before they gain their well-earned freedom. This obstacle is the final examinations. The atmosphere is tense, for everybody is determined not to sink only a few steps from his hope of many, but after the supreme trial comes—FREEDOM!
Dec Blythe.

BAKER NOTES

The principal of Baker school and all the teachers have worked hard the last few days, checking all books and assorting them for proper arrangements in the library. An inventory of all books has been taken which will prevent the last minute rush at the close of school and the crowded condition in the library.
We are proud to know that this is well done.

The following pupils in Mrs. Ferguson's room made an average not less than A- in the fifth six-week period: Nadine Fogleman, Betty Blythe, Louise Whaley, Mae Ellis, Edna Stark, Rhoda Corbett, Irene Eichel, Tommie Wright, Cleve Drake, Robert Kilgore, Richard Kilgore and Corene Fowles.

SPANISH CLUB MEETS

A meeting to initiate new members into El Club Castellano, the Spanish Club of Castellano, was held Wednesday night, the 18th of April. The initiation consisted of rolling a peanut down one block of Cuyler street with a match. Those initiated were Virginia MacMillan, Daisy Crump, Sam Keith, and Lefors Doucette. The next and last meeting of this club will be on the second of May. At this meeting, officers will be elected for the year '28-29.

NEW JANITOR

The students and faculty of Central High School welcome Mr. Anglin, the new janitor. Mr. Anglin seems to take a keen interest in keeping the building in good condition, and the students and faculty are giving him excellent co-operation.

Pampa Is Second in Canyon Meet

At the district meet held at Canyon last Friday and Saturday, Pampa won second place. Amarillo scored 27 points, while Pampa scored 18 points. Three first places were won by Archie Lee Walstad and Troy Stalls. Archie Lee won first place in both high and low hurdles, and Troy won first place in discus throw. Both of these boys will represent Pampa at Austin in the state meet.

Josephine Lane won second place in Amarillo. The music memory team won second place. They were defeated by Dalhart. Pampa second 94-3-4 per cent while the Dalhart team scored 100 members and Pampa had seven members which made it harder for the Pampa team to win. Those entering from Pampa are Grace Kite, Anna Mae Flesher, LaVerne Vickers, LaVerne Twiford, Francis Finley, Paul in Barnard, and Eloise Lane. Each of these children received a silver medal, and they will receive gold medals for having made 100 per cent in the county contest.

Myrtle White was absent from school last week because of the serious illness of her mother. We are glad that her mother is better.
Lillie McMillan was absent from school last week because she had the "flu."

SENIOR OF '26 MAKES HONOR ROLL AT CANYON
We are proud to announce that Clara Brown, who graduated from Pampa high school last year, is making first honor roll as the West Texas Teachers college at Canyon. Clara was salutatorian of the senior class last year. She is helping advertise the quality of the Pampa schools. It is true that the reputation of this school shall be determined by its products. The eyes of Pampa high school are upon its graduates.

SALE IS ANNOUNCED
The Fifth Grades of Lamar are planning a sandwich, candy, and fruit sale for Wednesday, the funds of which are to be used in buying a standard picture to have in our room for next year, and also to help decorate our room. Also, we have started an automobile race in our room, running from New York to San Francisco. We can travel at the rate of two hundred miles a day, but if we talk, our car has a blow-out and gets behind fifty miles.

This race will last until school is out, when the losing school must entertain the winners. We are all very interested in our race.

Situated in a
Pleasant and fertile little valley at the headwaters of the North Fork of Red River in the center of Gray County. For a number of years Lefors nestled in its little valley, where peace, quietness and contentment reigned supreme. BUT ALAS! Destiny had different plans for this peaceful little town. The great oil "BOOM" of the Panhandle, which changes bald prairies into cities and towns overnight, had shifted farther and farther to the south until Lefors awoke to the fact, she was engulfed in the center of the activities.
