More "Intellectual Directors" of Obregon Murder Are Arrested

OPERATOR OF RESTAURANT IS ONE SUSPECT

Twelve Employes Also Held Today for Investigation

CENSORSHIP IS NOW ABANDONED

Thousands Vow Their Aid to Sustain Principles

MEXICO CITY, July 19.—(AP)—Official announcement was made today that several more persons have been arrested in connection with the assassination of President-elect Obregon.

The identity of those arrested and the total numbers were not revealed and Chief of Police Zertuche declined to give out any further information until the investigation is completed.

Those previously arrested include Jose de Leon Toran, 23-year-old art student accused of the crime, Emilio Casado, proprietor of the restaurant at Santa Anita, where Obregon was killed and twelve employes of the restaurant.

MEXICO CITY, July 19.—(AP)—Search was intensified today for those whom President Calles termed the "intellectual directors" of the assassination of General Alvaro Obregon.

General Obregon's body was en route to his native state of Sonora, some 1,000 miles distant on the presidential train which he would have used after his inauguration in December. The body will arrive at its last resting place tomorrow.

As it left Mexico City thousands of Obregon followers raised their right hands and took a solemn oath to sustain his principles and to see that punishment was visited upon those responsible for his death. This was done at the instance of a member of Congress who, as the oath was given, turned to President Calles standing nearby and said: "We demand of you justice by the punishment of those guilty of murdering Obregon."

MEXICO CITY, July 19.—(AP)—Censorship of news dispatches imposed after the assassination of president-elect Obregon was removed today.

Assistant Attorney General Resigns to Enter Practice

AUSTIN, July 19.—(AP)—First Assistant Attorney-General D. A. Simmons resigned today, effective August 1, to go to Houston and from a law partnership with Col. Thomas H. Bell.

Attorney-General Claude Pollard has not announced who will be Simmons' successor. In a letter of resignation, Simmons assured his chief that "association with you and the force with which you have surrounded yourself, has been most pleasant." He revealed that when General Pollard appointed him in November, 1926, the general said he was "organizing a law office and not a political organization."

Scout Executive Praises Spirit of His Boys in Camp Activities

Reports received here from the Boy Scout camp north of Canan, state that the 100 boys of the Adobe Walls council have settled into their routine of work and play and are having an enjoyable time. Thirty-two of the boys are from the Pampa troops.

HONOR TO MEXICAN "LINDY"

New York honored the memory of Capt. Emilio Carranza, while the body of the Mexican "Lindbergh" lay in state at a Broadway undertaker's. Following services in New York, the body was to be taken to Mexico City by special train.

SOUTHERN DRY DEMOCRATS PERFECT PLATFORM TODAY

Document, Containing 1,600 Words, Privately Drawn by Special Committee.

ASHVILLE, N. C. July 19.—(AP)—Organization of the "Southern Dry Anti-Smith Democrats" was perfected today at the second executive session of the conference of Southern Dry Democrats here. The name was formally adopted with approval of a report by a committee named yesterday to draw up a statement of purposes and a plan of procedure.

The committee reported today with a 1,600-word platform and plan of procedure that was discussed privately for more than two hours.

The platform was expected to be made public at the close of the session, although its adoption was announced while the conference was working on appointment of a committee consisting of representatives from every southern state to plan ways and means of defeating Governor Alfred E. Smith.

Blind Man Is Held in Murder

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., July 19.—(AP)—W. C. Hill, 64 and totally blind, was in jail here today on murder charges growing out of the slaying last night of Clyde Wilson, 46, who lived with him in a farm house nine miles south of here.

Hill told officers Wilson had come home intoxicated and threatened to kill him. Hill said his son Jose handed him a shotgun at his request and the two went outside the house, where Wilson rushed at him.

"I just touched the trigger, getting his location by his voice," the blind farmer said.

W. C. Hester is attending to business affairs in Borger and Amarillo today.

Stolen Safe Is Found in Canyon West of Borger

BORGER, July 19.—(AP)—J. M. May and his son, Adrian, late yesterday found the M-System safe which Sunday night was stolen from the local store. There was about $636 in negotiable checks in the safe, which had been opened at a canyon 10 miles west of here, but about $250 in cash had been taken.

Mr. May noticed a dark object while he and his son were hunting rabbits in the canyon. They thought it might be a stove used in connection with a whiskey still, but on investigating found that it was the M-System safe. They reported the find to the sheriff, who sent deputies to bring it here last midnight. A sledge hammer had been used to break the bolts off the door.

Gas Association Sponsors Meeting

NEW YORK, July 19.—(AP)—Representatives of the Midcontinental Oil & Gas association are sponsoring the forthcoming conference in New York on July 30 to discuss methods of restricting production in West Texas, Venezuela, and Columbia, similar to steps taken in the general Seminole area.

E. B. Reeser, president of Darnsall corporation, and chairman of the Kansas-Oklahoma, advisory committee of the Mid-continent Oil and Gas association, has come to New York and is active in bringing together executives of the major oil companies for a general conference.

Mr. Reeser said that in discussions with several of these executives he had received "considerable encouragement" and was hopeful of meeting with success in the effort to accomplish genuine restriction of production as had been done in the Seminole area.

BIG LIQUOR RAID

CHILDRESS, July 19.—(AP)—Officers confiscated 48 gallons of whiskey and 2,000 bottles of beer in a raid last night on a garage seven miles from Childress. Five persons were arrested and charged with gambling.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Schneider Jr. and son Paul returned yesterday from an extended vacation in San Antonio, Old Mexico, and other points. They report a wonderful trip.

BODY FOUND!

Captain Lowenstein Did Fall Into Sea July 4

BULOGNE, France, July 19.—(AP)—The body of Captain Alfred Lowenstein, noted Belgian financier who disappeared from an airplane while it was crossing the English channel at a height of 4,000 feet on July 4, was found near here today.

Wheat Prices in Slide as Canada Estimates Rise

Wheat took another drop this morning and as a result farmers are holding some of their grain in the hope that an increase will be recorded soon, but the prospects are anything but bright, according to local grain men.

The main reason for the slump is the prospect of a record crop in Canada. Pre-harvest estimates in Canada give a crop of more than 500,000,000 bushels, the greatest production in the history of the country. This prospect naturally affects all wheat prices. Local prices dropped from $1.08 a bushel yesterday to $1.04 this morning. A two-cent drop was recorded yesterday afternoon.

Thus far 338 carloads of wheat have been shipped from local elevators, and if the average car contained 1,500 bushels it would make the shipment amount to 608,400 bushels. Considerable grain is being held in local elevators and many farmers are holding their own grain to make an estimated yield of nearly 800,000 bushels to date. According to estimates 80 percent of the wheat in the territory has been cut and either marketed or stored.

If the weather continues fair, practically the entire crop in the Pampa trade territory will be harvested by Sunday, elevator men believe.

Judge Ben S. Baldwin returned yesterday from a business trip to Austin and Fort Worth.

First Portion of New Paving Has Interest of Many

The first section of the vibratory paving on North Ballard street from Browning avenue to Kingsmill avenue has been completed by the Stuckey Construction company. Although not striking in looks, the new type pavement is said to stand up under all conditions. Also the roughness, noticed after completion, wears off and leaves the perfect smoothness of concrete.

Fine grading and rolling on Kingsmill avenue has been completed for the laying of the concrete and the rough grading on Somerville street is under way.

Interest is keen in the workings of the vibrators used to pound the rocks into the concrete and to remove the surplus moisture. It is a nerve-racking job holding the vibrators, but apparently does not bother the men assigned to that particular part of the work.

Hutchinson Suit Hearing Is Resumed

AUSTIN, July 19.—(AP)—Arguments over a motion for rehearing of the state's so far successful suit to recover 419 acres of oil-producing land in Hutchinson county and a settlement for oil produced by defendant companies, were resumed Thursday in district court after extending throughout Wednesday.

Besides the valuable oil land, the State got judgment last Saturday for some $600,000 from three oil companies in accounting for profits made on the disputed acreage, found by a jury to be vacant of title.

Dr. W. B. Wild is spending his vacation in Colorado.

Bert Howell drove to Amarillo Wednesday evening.

Carranza's Body Retraces Route of His Last Flight

ABOARD CARRANZA FUNERAL TRAIN, July 19.—(AP)—Across the country to which he had come as a messenger of good will, the broken body of Captain Emilio Carranza today was being swiftly borne back to his native land.

In the rear of the special funeral train the shades are drawn. Heavy scent of flowers fills the air. Two soldiers stand at attention at the head and foot of a bronze casket draped with the flags of the United States and Mexico and containing the body of Mexico's fallen idol.

In the baggage car ahead is the "cracked up" airplane in which a month ago the flier winged away from Mexico City returning the good will of Colonel Lindbergh. The fuselage is twisted, the motor a shapeless, mottled thing. One wheel lies nearby.

In the three remaining cars are his father, Sebastian Carranza, a military guard of honor consisting of four American Army officers and fourteen enlisted men; Colonel Samuel Rojas, military attache of the Mexican embassy at Washington; Captain Juan Beristain, also of the Mexican army, and three newspaper correspondents.

Leaving New York at 4:50, the special train sped through the New Jersey countryside where a week ago the wings of Mexico's "Lone Eagle" failed him and he fell to his death.

As the train rolled slowly through Trenton cannon boomed a 18-gun salute, an honor usually paid only to a Major General.

At St. Louis, which will be reached at 6 o'clock tonight, the train will be stopped thirty minutes for special ceremonies.

New Marathon Started in Gray County—Drilling

ELDORADO, Ark., July 19.—A new kind of marathon, on which oil drillers are seeking to outdo each other in fast drilling is on near here.

Roy Hornsby, who says he is a cousin of Rogers Hornsby of the Boston Braves, started it when he broke the previous record, set in Gray county, Texas, by drilling a depth of 1,001 feet in twelve hours. He was a champion but two days, however, for Arthur J. Tibbett crowded him out with a record of 1,080 feet in eleven hours.

Now Buster Lewis is out to beat Tibbett. He had drilled better than 650 in six and a half hours and said he would surpass Tibbett's mark before stopping.

BABE GETS NO. 37

NEW YORK, July 19.—(AP)—Baue Ruth his thirty-seventh home run of the season into the right field bleachers in the first inning of today's game between the White Sox and the Yankees at the stadium. Ruth's drive followed Comb's double, and gave the Yankees a lead of 2 to 1 over Al Thomas.

Marvin Jones Portrays South That Would Lead Nation in Industries

A South which sells its products of cotton and wheat and meat at its own prices; a South which controls the markets in which its products are sold, a South which converts its own raw materials into finished products, and sells them in the world market—that is the South described by Congress man Marvin Jones in his public address here yesterday afternoon.

Such a South, Mr. Jones declared may be a reality as well as an idealistic dream. The South and West, he pointed out, have the products, the man power, industrial power, and a suitable climate for a factory section. He predicted that within a few brief years the South will be a greater manufacturing section than the North or East.

The speaker expressed himself as favoring a uniform tariff, under which

Cashier Blocks Three Men, Then Is Wounded

SALINA, Okla., July 19.—(AP)—Fearing ten customers to lie face downward on the floor of the lobby while they held two officers at bay with guns, two men robbed the bank of Salina here today and escaped with approximately $2,500 in currency.

With the two men when they escaped in an eastward direction was a third member of the party who was waiting for the two bandits at the curb.

The two men entered the bank and covered both Tom Walkinshaw, president of the bank, and Miss Louise Griffith, assistant cashier, with guns. As a customer would enter one of the bandits would force him to lie on the floor.

After taking all the cash in sight in the cashier's cage one of the men forced Mr. Walkinshaw to open the money safe in the vault where he took nothing but currency, leaving the silver.

Before the bandits left the town several shots were exchanged between them and a posse of citizens. Three holes were shot in their car and the rear window had been shot out. Fourteen miles east of here the posse found that this car had been abandoned, the bandits entering another car. They then headed toward Siloam Springs, Ark.

MOBILE, Ala., July 19.—(AP)—Within a few hours after bandits shot Claude D. Hurt, cashier of the Bank of Citronelle, of Citronelle, Ala., 35 miles from Mobile in a fruitless hold-up attempt, William "Buddie" Hanson, 17, of Mobile was dead and Jack Jarvis, 24, also of Mobile, was in the county jail here peppered with buckshot, while a man named Reynolds was sought as a member of the gang.

Hanson, mortally wounded, was captured about 10 miles north of the scene of the robbery in an automobile where he had been deserted by his two companions after a posse came upon them. Gerald Watson, a negro, one of the possemen, shot Jarvis as he was entering a swamp.

Hanson or his way to Mobile in charge of possemen, told them Jarvis shot him for bungling the bank hold-up.

Hanson died in the lobby of the county jail without making any statement to the sheriff.

REDUCTION OF THE STATE

ad valorem tax rate by three cents should not cause any great wave of enthusiasm throughout the state.

While it is gratifying to know that such a step is possible, the fact does not indicate that the state financial system is any sounder than before. Increasing valuations in this state are in keeping with the growing needs, proportionately, although there will always be a demand for more money. Texas is growing.

The tax reduction will not mean much to the small property owner, upon whom the present system imposes a burden out of proportion of his income. The amount of capital which is escaping taxation is prodigious. Much of it is concealed or inaccessible under present conditions.

Taxes are high in the sense that most people wish there were not any. Intangible services such as the state largely renders are not enough appreciated. Taxes are burdensome upon the property owner because the government is supported by levying upon that basis. The farmer is hardest hit as a rule, because his net cash income is too small in proportion to the amount of his taxes. Unless he "lives at home" and has a day-to-day cash income, the taxpaying period is dreaded.

Gasoline taxes are at their peak. The needs of the state institutions were never greater. Some gubernatorial candidates promise tax reduction through veto of appropriations. This would be like reducing the grocery bill of a family by cutting out sugar and butter. The people will not be fooled long by mere manipulations of the ad valorem tax rate.

Mexico Is "News"

Not even the warm enthusiasm over the exploits of a national idol, Emilio Carranza, nor the deep sorrow which attended his tragic passing in a storm which wrecked his airplane, could dull the vicious hatred that Tuesday achieved its ends in the assassination of General Alvaro Obregon.

It had been heartening to read of the bonds of sympathy which had been growing between Mexico and this country—of the appreciation Mexico showed for our homage to her favorite hero—of the good will encompassing our ambassador, Dwight Morrow—of the disappearance of the hated word "Gringo" and its replacement by the clause "Viva Estados Unidos"—of the affectionate relations between the president-elect, Obregon, and the American attaches.

Now that sympathy is displaced by seething rage and sorrow over the ruthless murder of one of the big men of Mexico—Mexico, who can ill spare men of his calibre and understanding.

That Obregon had his faults there is no doubt. He was a product of that war torn country, and used its methods. But through all his activities there was a fine patriotism and not a bad quality of statesmanship. He was beloved; he was bitterly hated. We have heard his name pronounced softly, Latin fashion, by admiring peons, formerly his supporters, and marveled at the fervor of his enemies.

His administration promised more than any other alternative in sight. In fact, what does the future hold now? Mexico will be "news" for many a day.

CAPITOL News

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—The question in this campaign is whether or not Smith can beat Hoover. The Republicans start with the advantage. The country is regarded as normally Republican. It's an abnormal campaign, but who will get the benefit of its abnormalities?

The only possible way to guess at the outcome is on the basis of electoral votes, of which there are 531. In 1924 Coolidge had 382 of those, Davis only 136 and La Follette 18. In 1920 Harding had 404 and Cox 127. Smith must virtually double the Davis electoral vote in order to win; he must take 130 away from the Republicans, as 266 elects.

Obviously then, Smith faces great odds. If he does win, it can hardly be by more than a bare majority. At the moment, any effort to show how he can win must be helped on by a great many assumptions. We must assume, and this seems fairly safe, that the solid south will again cast its 114 votes for the Democratic ticket.

It is also all-important that Smith carry his own state of New York with 45. It's not certain that he will, but if he can't this story might as well be ended right here. Anyway, New York and the south would give him 159. He ought to get the three-vote states of Arizona, Nevada and New Mexico along with Rhode Island's five, making 173.

But let's look at Hoover. If we start with the south's 114 as a reasonable certainty for Smith, we must line up some regularly Republican states for Hoover and consider them pretty sure to be his. Let's give him California, Colorado, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, New Hampshire, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia and Wyoming. One or two of these states might conceivably go for Smith, but probably won't. Their total electoral vote is 184.

(Don't take all this dope too seriously!) Hoover also confidently expects to hold these: Illinois 29, Minnesota 12, Nebraska 8, North Dakota 5. Total 54. Grand total of Hoover's probable electoral votes, according to our figuring—238.

That would leave Hoover only 28 votes short of election.

We left Smith with 173, which was 93 short of election.

The states we haven't yet assigned to anyone are: East: Connecticut 7, Delaware 3, Maryland 8; Massachusetts 18, New Jersey 14.

Border: Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 10, Tennessee 12. West: Missouri 18, Wisconsin 13, Montana 4.

That leaves us with 120 "doubtful" electoral votes on our hands. Democrats in the border states say they can hold them in the Democratic column. If we assume they know what they're talking about, we can give Smith 35 more electoral votes and bring him up to 208, leaving us 35 votes still undisturbed.

Hoover still has 238 and needs only 28. He might get them from Missouri and Wisconsin and let the east go hang. Nearly all Democratic calculations count Missouri inside the Smith stockade.

The Republican managers recently assembled in Washington had no difficulty in deciding that the really important battle ground of the campaign lay in the east. Eastern national committeemen claimed to be perturbed over the fact that this was wet territory and that their party's platform and candidate were dry while the other party's man was wet. The New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut committeemen who were the backbone of the "draft Coolidge" movement in the pre-convention campaign were all afraid of Smith for that reason. They felt Coolidge would have a much better chance to beat him in their states than Hoover.

Anyway, getting back to our calculations and remembering that we're trying to prove how Smith might be elected—those eastern states which we haven't awarded yet may be regarded as wet. On the other hand they are normally Republican in presidential years. Hence we're up in the air as to how they're going to vote. If Smith carried them all he would still need eight electoral votes. He would be more likely to get them from Missouri than from Wisconsin, but he might never get them at all.

TILDEN IS DISMISSED FROM DAVIS CUP TOURNAMENT PLAY

NOT AMATEUR UNDER RULINGS Writes Current Articles For Newspapers, Charge

AUTEUIL, France, July 19.—(AP)—The French Tennis Federation today cabled the United States Lawn Tennis association asking that it rescind action taken in removing captain William T. Tilden from participation with the United States team in the inter-zone Davis Cup competition.

A threatened strike of the American players under which they would have refused to play in the inter-zone matches with Italy was abandoned this afternoon when Lot Hennessey and Hunter unreservedly accepted their assignments for the inter-zone finals and play will go ahead tomorrow as scheduled.

PARIS, July 19.—(AP)—Charged with violating the amateur rules of the United States Lawn Tennis association, "Big Bill" Tilden, lanky Philadelphia veteran of the courts, was dropped from the American Davis Cup team today.

This sensational and totally unexpected action was taken because he had violated the amateur rules in writing about the Wimbledon tennis tournament while playing in it.

Tilden's removal caused a complete change of the American team. Francis T. Hunter and John Hennessey will represent the United States in the singles and George Lott and Hennessey in the doubles.

Previously it had been planned to play Tilden and Lott in the singles and Lott and Hennessey in the doubles in the inter-zone against Italy opening tomorrow.

Announcement of Tilden's dismissal was made by Joseph Wear, of Philadelphia, chairman of the American Davis Cup committee, and was concurred in by Samuel H. Colloom, president of the United States Lawn Tennis association. Wear immediately announced his own resignation, effective as soon as the American team returns home. Colloom said he would hide his name but would have something to say about the matter when Davis Cup competition is over.

With Tilden's passing from the team he captained went virtually America's last chance of regaining this year at least the historic tennis trophy which passed into the hands of France's "three musketeers"—Henri Cochet, Rene Lacoste and Jean Borotra—at Germantown last year. In fact, critics saw a possibility that without Tilden's inspired play, the United States might not even survive the inter-zone finals with Italy.

Deposing of the American veteran came just as the draw in the inter-zone finals was about to be made. Amid impressive silence, Wear read the following statement:

"The amateur rules committee of the United States Lawn Tennis association having preferred charges against William T. Tilden, I, for having violated the amateur rules by writing current newspaper articles for pay or consideration concerning the Wimbledon tournament in which he was a competitor, and whereas it would be improper to retain as a member of the American Davis Cup team any player against whom such charges are pending, the United States Lawn Tennis association has decided to withdraw Tilden from Davis Cup competition."

The statement was signed by Colloom. Tilden, raising his racquet hand above his head, said:

"I also have a statement to make." But before he started reading from his notes he cried passionately:

"I refute all charges. We will win the Davis Cup yet. I hereby apply for a job of training American Davis Cup members for the grueling matches ahead."

Wouldn't Walk The Babe, Who "Walks" Anyway

BY WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The rise of the Chicago White Sox to a place among the elite has developed complications of a social nature for Prof. Russell (Lena) Blackburne. "How to behave when Babe Ruth is at bat" henceforth will be a much more vital question to the ambitious young men of Prof. Blackburne than the conduct expected, say, in helping a lady into a patrol wagon, or other conveyance.

Some doubt regarding the dues of Mr. Ruth could be noticed among the White Sox in the ninth inning at the Yankee stadium Wednesday. The Babe swished a bat at Ted Lyons with perfect ease. Two Yankees were out. Combs and Koenig were on base, and the White Sox led by 8 to 6. Lena was firm in this refusal to pass the winning run to first base, with the result that the Babe combed his thirty-sixth home run into the right field bleachers to nose out the Chicagoans by 9 to 8.

Blackburne's judgment was sound baseball, even though the consequences made it look bad. Ruth's run would win, regardless of how it got home, and with the Babe on base, Lyons would have had nobody to face but Gehrig—and perhaps Meusel. The big slugger now rides twenty-three games, twenty-three days and six home runs ahead of his record peer of last season when he hit sixty.

The Cleveland Indians broke out of their slump—if losing to the Yankees when they are interested may be considered as a slump—by shading the Red Sox in ten innings at Boston, 6 to 5. The Athletics took another from the Tigers in Philadelphia, 5 to 1. The other American league teams were idle.

The Pirates would be champions of the world if the other fifteen teams were the Phillies and the Braves. The Buccaneers made it nine straight against Boston, 16 to 3, as a few tired Bostonese, 16 to 3, as a few tired witnesses stood by powerless to halt the brutality. Bureigh Grimes won his fifteenth victory. Vic Aldridge, just for a comparison, is not even in the National league records.

The Reds raised their stock by taking two decisions from the Robins, 11 to 10 and 2 to 1, while other first division teams remained idle.

A fine pitching point was raised in the second clash, with the defeat going eventually to Rube Enhardt, as Ray Kolp won. The veteran Bill Doak held the Reds scoreless until the seventh when he fell a victim to the heat. Rube rushed to the rescue and finished the round without a run, only to be removed when he permitted Kelly to single as the eighth batter.

Dazy Vance next was called upon. He caused Drensen to force Zilzmann, who ran Kelly, but the Reds went on to score two runs which enabled them to live through a one-run Brooklyn rally in the ninth. The defeat was charged to Enhardt on the grounds that he was responsible for one runner, regardless of that runner's identity, and that single man scored, giving the Reds a lead which the Robins never tied.

Manager Bill McKechnie, who had his ups and downs at Pittsburgh, is fully credited around the senior circuit with having engineered the Cardinals' remarkable showing. Even such things as crippled players haven't cramped his style. He shoots in replacements and then watches them outplay the absent regulars.

Witness the performances of Maravillo at shortstop and Harper in the outfield. The venerable Rabbit, pronounced through four years ago, subbed for Tommy Thevenow and Harper filled in for Walter Roetger, out with a broken leg. Their playing has been well above the average.

This is typical of the way McKechnie has been converting bad breaks into good ones. He ran out of relief pitching material and stumbled upon Clarence Mitchell, who couldn't even make good with the Phillies. The first thing the aged spit-baller did was to stop the Giants. Then he repeated the trick two weeks later. Both victories were extremely timely especially the second one, when the Giants, in second place and threatening to advance, needed taming.

RED BIRDS WINGING WAY TO PENNANT; PITCHING, BATTING BEST IN LEAGUE

Here's a quartet of big guns of the St. Louis Cardinals, apparently destined to win their second National League pennant in three years. The mighty right arm of Big Jess Haines (center) and Old Alex (upper right) have helped elevate the Red Birds' pitching staff to a high state of perfection. The speed of Frankie Frisch (upper left) and the batting punch of Sunny Jim Bottomley (lower right) have been two other major factors in the Cardinals' 1928 success.

NEW YORK.—(AP)—The league leading Red Birds of St. Louis are fighting off the opposition with the effective ferocity of an eagle defending its lofty perch.

They winged their way to the top of the heap and they're going to do some clawing to stay there, and the battle thus far has been costly only to the Cardinals' foes.

These fast flying Red Birds are making good because they've been getting more than their share of individual brilliancy and because of unexcelled team play. In team batting and team fielding they have consistently pressed for the lead, and their pitching as a unit sizes up as the best in the league.

Indicative of their batting is the standing of Taylor Douthitt, who has been leading the circuit in total hits and indicative of their speed is the rating of Frankie Frisch, who has been setting the pace for the base stealers.

Manager Bill McKechnie, who had his ups and downs at Pittsburgh, is fully credited around the senior circuit with having engineered the Cardinals' remarkable showing. Even such things as crippled players haven't cramped his style. He shoots in replacements and then watches them outplay the absent regulars.

Witness the performances of Maravillo at shortstop and Harper in the outfield. The venerable Rabbit, pronounced through four years ago, subbed for Tommy Thevenow and Harper filled in for Walter Roetger, out with a broken leg. Their playing has been well above the average.

This is typical of the way McKechnie has been converting bad breaks into good ones. He ran out of relief pitching material and stumbled upon Clarence Mitchell, who couldn't even make good with the Phillies. The first thing the aged spit-baller did was to stop the Giants. Then he repeated the trick two weeks later. Both victories were extremely timely especially the second one, when the Giants, in second place and threatening to advance, needed taming.

The Cardinals' manager is credited with having done wonders with Jimmy Wilson, just an ordinary catcher with the Phillies, but now rated as second to none in the big leagues. He has caught more games this year than any other National League catcher.

Several scintillating individual performances have marked the Cardinals' elevation to set the pace in a dazzling mid-summer pennant scramble. They are old Alex—the great Grover Cleveland Alexander—who at the age of 41 years won three games in six days with an arm that has seen 25 years of hard hurling.

Tunney Carries Fighting Tonnage And Will Rest

SPECULATOR, N. Y., July 19.—(AP)—Dangerously near fighting weight, Gene Tunney, who will risk his world's heavyweight title against Tom Heeney, the powerful New Zealand blacksmith, just a week hence was given a holiday today.

The champion was down to 190 pounds, almost the weight he will carry when he enters the ring against Heeney, and from now on his days of strenuous preparations are few. He will probably work hard tomorrow and again next Monday.

"During the next 24 hours, Tunney will decide whether he will fly to New York with Commander Richard Byrd on the day of the titular fight or travel by motor."

Tunney was given a vivid picture of air travel yesterday when a party of friends met with a mishap while returning to New York after making a flight here to watch him work out.

The plane, which had Bill Winston a Curtiss field pilot at the controls and Bernard J. Gimbel, New York merchant, Charles V. Bob, one of Commander Byrd's financial backers, James I. Bush, president of the Madison Square Garden club, and Samuel Pryor, of Greenwich, Conn., Tunney's close friend, as passengers, was wrecked on the links of the Hamilton country club when it crashed into a tree.

Winston and Bob were slightly injured.

Houston Facing Stiff Test in Dallas Series

(By The Associated Press.)

Houston faced an important test Thursday in its battle for the Texas league pennant. With a record of having won their last six games the Buff prepared to tackle the Dallas Steers who have been playing fast enough ball of late to keep them within ear striking distance of first place.

The Steers have no mean recruits themselves, inasmuch as their 5 to victory over Beaumont Wednesday gave them a clean sweep of the three-game series with the Exporters.

Pierce, a southpaw, hurled good ball holding the Exporters to five singles and the Steer batsmen hammered Holzhauser for 11 safeties which were bunched in two innings.

Houston defeated Shreveport, 5 to 4, by virtue of a ninth-inning rally that gave the Buffs all their runs. The defeat was the Sports' eleventh straight for 11 innings before the form won, 6 to 5. The Bears started scoring in the second frame when they annihilated three runs, but were passed quickly by the Spudders, who chalked up tallies in the second and third innings. San Antonio tied the count in the eighth. Benton, Spudder, shortest handled twelve chances without an error.

Heeney's Manager Believes Tunney to Meet His Master

FAIRHAVEN, N. J., July 19.—(AP)—As far as conditions goes, both mental and physical, Tom Heeney, Gene Tunney's challenger looks perfect. He is the picture of an athlete in shape. The perspiration drips off him, but he hardly draws a long breath when he finishes his workout. He seems to have the energy of a dynamo.

All this pleases Jimmy Heenessey, his trainer. Heenessey, cornered today at the Rumson farm camp, said he had a "hunch" that Heeney will defeat Tunney, perhaps knock him out.

"He's a better fighter than the public believes," Heenessey said. "He has shown plenty of boxing brains down here and improves every day. Why, do you know that he has been the short ender in the betting in all of his fights yet he won them."

Preliminary to the Big Fight

TOPEKA, July 19.—(AP)—The Kansas legislature assembled today for a special session to consider submitting to the electorate a constitutional amendment intended to assure the state's future participation in federal funds for highway construction.

ROBBERS

of the three bandits who attempted to holdup the Bank of Citronelle at Citronelle, Ala., 25 miles north of here today, was found shot in an abandoned automobile, according to a report received at the sheriff's office here, and another is reported to have been killed by a posse. Claud A. Hurt, cashier of the bank, who fought off the bandits, was shot in the abdomen.
Driving up to the front door of the bank, two of the men alighted, the other advanced through the back door. When commanded to "stick 'em up" by the smallest of the trio the cashier aimed a blow at the robbers jaw but missed. Then grappled and when the bandit managed to wriggle loose Mr. Hurt was shot twice in the stomach by the accomplice with .38 calibre bullets.

Their attempt to rob the bank frustrated, the three men fled in an automobile amid a hail of bullets aimed at them from startled residents of the quiet town that had been awakened. Miss Audrey Rowell, the only other person in the bank at the time of the attempted hold up was unhurt.

DALLAS, July 19.—(AP)—Two men believed to be members of the trio who held up and robbed the paymaster of the San Antonio Light of a $6,000 payroll several weeks ago and later engaged in a series of robberies in Dallas, were on their way here today from Shreveport, La., in custody of three Dallas officers.

The all-red bandits were arrested by Shreveport officers Tuesday after a pistol fight there between a woman and a policeman. The woman was in an automobile with the two men, but escaped. A third member of the trio eluded Shreveport officers by jumping from the automobile, which later was found several miles from the city. The machine was identified as one reported stolen here.

The pistol fight occurred when a Shreveport officer approached the party as they stopped at an oil station. When he started questioning one of the men the woman jerked a pistol from the seat and opened fire. The driver of the car sped away as the officer returned the fire.

Shortly after the car was found, two of the men were arrested in the woods.

WICHITA FALLS, July 19.—(AP)—Although more than a score of suspects had been questioned and released, the unmasked highwayman who yesterday fatally wounded Charlie McDaniel, pioneer northwest Texas cattleman, during an unsuccessful attempt to hold up the First State bank at Dundee, Texas, still was at large today.

One of three automobiles commandeered by the slayer in escaping was found abandoned on a street here last night. Officers immediately rounded up every suspicious character in the city, but were forced to release them as they established alibis. They were without a clue today.

McDaniel was shot by the bandit when he refused to open the door of the bank, which had been closed for the noon hour. He died at a hospital here last night. Funeral services were to be held today at Dundee.

Home Laundries at LeFors Burn

Word received here at press time from LeFors stated that two frame shacks, used as laundries, had been completely destroyed by fire this afternoon. The places were closed at the time fire broke out, and the cause is unknown.

Neighbors and workmen nearby saved most of the contents of the building. Only fast work by a bucket brigade kept the fire from spreading to other houses.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Smith and daughter returned Wednesday afternoon from a few days business visit in McLean and Alanreed.

Mrs. Williams Hunter and son, Jack, Mrs. J. E. Dennis and daughter, Miss Donna, of Elk City, Okla., are guests in the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell.

MRS. LUCY TIAYAH

KAW CITY, Okla. (AP)—The Kaw Indians, who gave Senator Charles Curtis to the nation, now are ruled by a woman, who is a distant cousin of the republican nominee for vice-president.

She is Lucy Tiayah Eads, Chief White Plume was the great-grandfather of both Mrs. Eads and Senator Curtis.

Woman suffrage played no part in her selection as the chief of the Kaws, for she was the only lineal heir upon the death of her grandfather, Chief Washungah.

Senator Curtis was asked by the Kaws to become their chief about 20 years ago, but he declined, for he had already attained the position of a chief among the people of his fathers.

Negotiations on Mine Agreement to Be Opened Soon

INDIANAPOLIS, July 19.—(AP)—District officers of the United Mine Workers of America today were free to negotiate with coal operators on any "mutually satisfactory" basis, provided all agreements be submitted to a district convention for referendum.

Thus one of the basic principles of the union policy in the bituminous coal fields—the uniform wage scale for union miners—was discarded by a decision yesterday of the international policy committee in an attempt to cope with the depressed conditions in the country.

With abandonment of the base wage, the famous Jacksonville agreement, which assured union miners $7.50 per day and $1.08 per ton from 1924 to 1927 was dropped as no longer an effective basis for wage negotiations. It was the expiration of this agreement April 1, 1927, which resulted in the present bituminous coal suspension.

It was made plain, however, that pending negotiations of new agreements the Jacksonville scale would prevail.

The new union policy will affect about 150,000 miners in the central competitive field (Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois) and the outlying districts of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, and Nevada. Many of the miners in these fields have been idle since the suspension fifteen months ago.

Hope was expressed in miner circles that the district agreements would result in resumption of operations. Indiana operators said they were ready to meet the miners in wage conferences and indicated they would demand the 1927 scale of $5 per day.
