Texan Files Claim To Tideland Areas

HOUSTON, May 18. (AP) — "I'm not trying to horn in on anybody," says Fred E. Vogel, 36-year-old Houston inventor, but he wants a legal claim to tidelands from Mobile, Ala., to Brownsville, Tex. He plans to drill oil wells off the Gulf Coast in water depths up to 100 feet.

Harris County Clerk W. D. Miller said yesterday Vogel had staked formal claim to "all minerals lying and being situated beneath the ocean floor of the Gulf of Mexico" between the 88 and 98th degrees of longitude and 28th and 30th degrees of latitude.

The rectangular area includes land as far north as Houston. Vogel explained that he wanted to be sure to include all bays and inlets along the coast.

Vogel says he will quit claim any interest in oil production or wells being drilled on submerged lands along the coast. At present most oil operations in the gulf are in water depths of 50 feet or less.

The deep water off shore drilling is planned from a new type of trilling vessel patented by Vogel.

Vogel estimated that he and his associates will be ready to begin operations in seven or eight months.

He said yesterday that his claim is merely a method of finding out what legal rights he might have in submerged areas now beyond reach of drilling equipment and, if he should find oil, what royalty rights he might have.

Vogel's claim covers a stretch of tidelands also claimed by Texas, Louisiana and the federal government.

Incident In Which Girl Jumped From Truck An Accident

HOUSTON, May 18. (AP) — Police have decided that an incident Sunday in which an 11-year-old girl jumped to her death from the back of a moving truck was an unfortunate accident.

A 31-year-old telephone repairman told police yesterday that he was the driver of the truck but said he did not know the children jumped until he read accounts in the newspapers of Charlene's death.

The man said he did not hear the children ask him to stop and he discovered they were not in the truck when he stopped at a traffic sign.

Japs Believe Visit To Deal With Treaty

By TOM LAMBERT
AP Staff

TOKYO, May 18.—Japan studied carefully today an announcement of two top United States defense officials will be here next month.

The announcement said only that Defense Secretary Louis Johnson and Army Gen. Omar Bradley would visit Japan next month on a Far East command tour.

The announcement offered little in the way of a hint as to the real purpose of the visit. But most Japanese think their visit will have an important bearing on two major issues in Nippon—peace and American bases here after the treaty.

There was speculation, too, that Secretary Johnson and Gen. Bradley are going to talk with Gen. MacArthur, occupation commander, about the cold war in the Orient and America's strategic position out here; that they will discuss what the United States can do militarily in such hot spots as Indo-China; that they will discuss Formosa, which most military men want to deny to the Chinese Reds. Most of the speculation, however, centered on peace.

The Japanese believe they are ready for a treaty, as apparently do most allied countries.

British commonwealth experts are busy in London drawing up a draft of a proposed Japanese peace treaty. Philippines officials have said they want a treaty as soon as possible. British and American officials have agreed a treaty is urgent.

The Russians long ago mentioned a peace pact, although they wanted to say who should write it. The Chinese Reds said a few days ago they favor swift conclusion of a treaty. The Russians and Chinese Reds would like to get the United States out of Japan as soon as possible.

It is not secret among the Japanese that the U. S. Defense and State Departments are at loggerheads on a peace pact for Japan. News reports from the United States have said the defense department opposes a pact because it might weaken America's strategic position in Asia while the State Department and Gen. MacArthur want peace quickly.

WITNESSES AT ARMY CENTER PROBE—Maj. Gen. Louis Craig, Army Inspector general, and Assistant Secretary of the Army Karl Bendetsen (l to r) appear as witnesses before a House Armed Services subcommittee in Washington investigating congressional charges of maladministration, laxity and Communist infiltration in the Army's finance center at St. Louis. Bendetsen said overpayments of $175,000-000 (M) in servicemen's dependency allotments were "inevitable" under the wartime "get 'em paid" philosophy. (AP Wirephoto).

SNYDER 1950 VIEW Most Profitable Of Business Years

MEMPHIS, May 18. (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Snyder said today that 1950 "will be one of the most profitable business years in our history."

"There is sound basis for confidence in the business outlook for our nation," he said in a speech prepared for the 69th annual convention of the Tennessee Bankers Assn.

Reciting that business profits this year "are less likely to be held down by inventory losses since commodity prices have shown a firm trend for nearly a year," Snyder questioned whether new capital outlays by business will be cut back as much as was earlier estimated.

He said strong points in the business picture include high level home building, auto production and consumer incomes and spending.

The treasury chief, a native of neighboring Arkansas, described the growing labor force as "one of the nation's biggest assets for future progress," but added:

"To realize our full potential for business profits and national income, new jobs must be developed in step with our growing population. In the longer run, as our population grows, new jobs must be created by the initiative and vision of both management and job seekers."

Dedication Of New Sheriff's Posse Club Is On Monday

Dedication of the new clubhouse at the Big Spring Sheriff's Posse grounds has been set for Monday and will be held in connection with a "Family Night" program for Posse members and their families, Dr. M. H. Bennett, president, has announced.

The dedicatory program is to begin at 8 p. m. and will include a barbecue and riding for families of Possemen, the president said.

The clubhouse, just being completed, was constructed from a war surplus building recently acquired by the Sheriff's Posse. It is of ranch style construction and will afford meeting and recreation rooms, rest rooms and office space. The 20-by-30 structure is located at the Posse grounds southwest of Municipal airport.

Completion of the clubhouse winds up an extensive expansion program for the Sheriff's Posse this spring. Other improvements made at the organization's plant this year include two new stable buildings with space for 40 horses, and the construction of 14 additional stalls in another building.

Facilities are now adequate for more than 150 horses, Dr. Bennett said.

Subway Citizens Forget Bathtub

NEW YORK, May 18. (AP)—You may not find many carpets on the underground here in Bagdad-on-the-subway, but occasionally you see a bathtub or other large objects left behind by absent-minded strap-bangers.

This came to light yesterday when the board of transportation sold at auction an odd assortment of articles left on the city's subways during the past six months.

A bathtub was bid in at $1.50. A suitcase containing women's shoes sold for $1. The shoes were for left feet only. A headless, armless manikin brought $1.

When the sale ended, transit officials found they had cleared $5,000 and had disposed of 7,000 pairs of eyeglasses several sets of false teeth, fur coats, umbrellas, cameras, electric razors and hearing aids.

"YOU HARDLY KNOW THE ROAD IS THERE!"

YOU won't be the first to say that—not by a long shot.

One of the first things you notice, when you step from another make of car into Buick, is the wonderful difference in the Buick ride.

There are good technical reasons, if they interest you . . .

Soft coil springs all around, the gentlest type of spring man knows how to make.

A stout torque-tube, acting like the husky keel of a battleship to steady the whole carriage.

Low-pressure tires on wide, Safety-Ride rims, that stop heel-over and sway on curves.

Firm, sure, quick-acting shock absorbers, promptly snubbing the after-bounce of the bigger bumps.

The important thing is what these all add up to.

Freedom at last from bounce and jiggle. A level, floating, road-free passage over almost any kind of road, with even the worst of them tamed and gentled as never before.

Add Fireball power to all this—the roominess of wide, deep seats—the lightness of Buick controls and the liquid silkiness of Dynaflo Drive*—and you have a car just too good to miss.

Come try one, won't you? Your Buick dealer will be delighted to demonstrate without obligation—delighted to show you that if you can afford a new car, you probably can afford a Buick.

WILL APPEAL DEPORTATION

German-Born War Bride Wins Reprieve From Supreme Court

NEW YORK, May 18. (AP) — An order from a U. S. Supreme Court justice halted the deportation of a German-born war bride yesterday just 20 minutes before her plane left for Europe. Signed by Justice Jackson in Washington, the order allows Mrs. Ellen Knauft to remain in this country pending the outcome of an appeal of her case to the high court. She was given until May 25 to file such an appeal. Jackson followed up his order with a bluntly worded statement criticizing immigration and Justice Department officials for "bundling this woman onto an airplane to get her out of this country within hours" after the Circuit Court of Appeals had granted clearance to the deportation move. Such haste, Jackson said, "leaves no doubt that the purpose is to defeat the jurisdiction of this court as well as the determination of Congress."

The House unanimously approved a "bill" last month to allow Mrs. Knauft to enter the United States. This measure is now pending before the Senate. Mrs. Knauft, 35, has been held on Ellis Island since 1948. She testified before a Congressional Committee last month that she believed the expulsion order was instigated by a former girl friend of her husband, Kurt. He was a civilian employee of the U. S. Military Government in Germany. Jackson took pointed notice of the Justice Department's refusal to make public its reasons for barring Mrs. Knauft other than its report that "she would be a hazard to internal security." He said he would have refused to sign the delay order if the department "had at any time shown even probable grounds to believe that presence of this woman a few days more in this country might jeopardize national security, even infinitesimally."

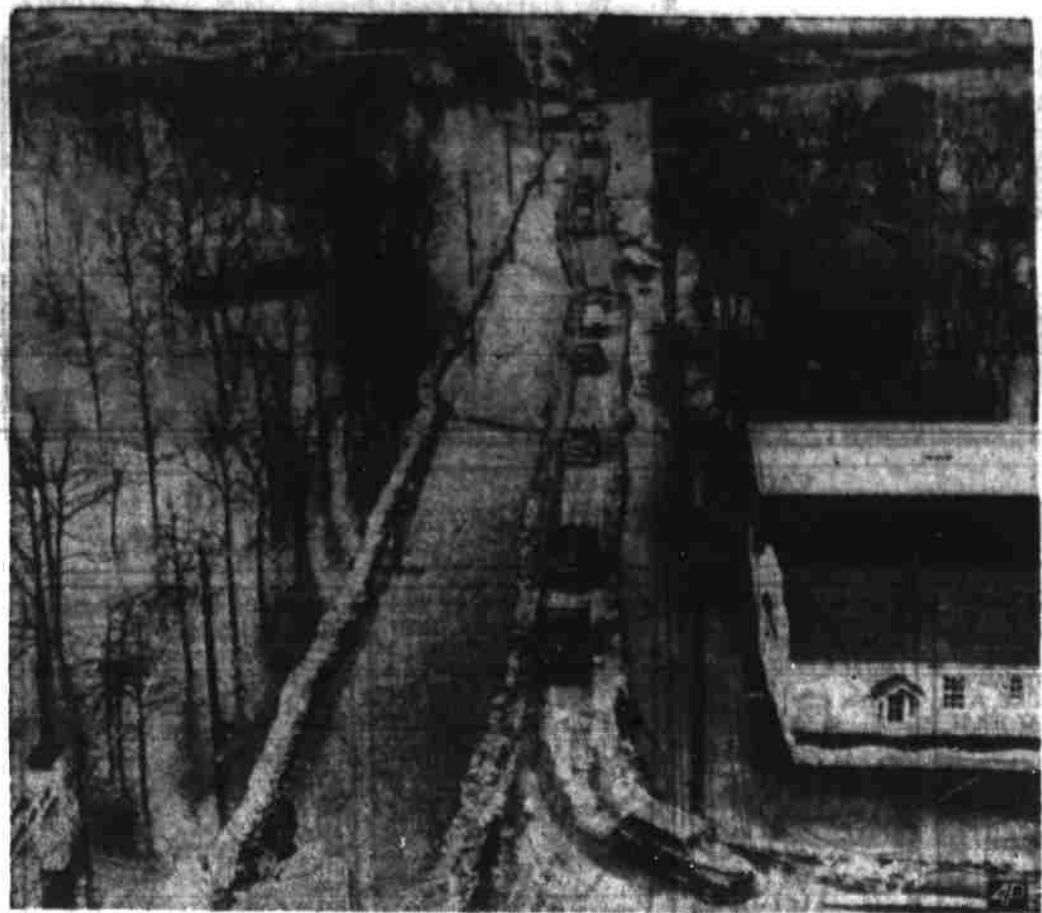

He added that neither Mrs. Knauft, the courts nor Congress had been able "to learn what the specific charges against her are." Asked by a reporter why the government wants to deport Mrs. Knauft and why she has not been informed of the reasons, U. S. Attorney Irving H. Saypol replied: "Our knowledge of the facts in this case is based on reports of the investigation not only of the Army Intelligence Division but also...

Chairman Celler (D-N) wrote McGrath that if the woman is expelled before the Senate acts on the measure his committee would consider such a step "contemptuous of the House of Representatives." Mrs. Knauft was taken back to Ellis Island pending the outcome of her appeal to the higher court.

Embassy Aides Can't Explain Slayer Release

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., May 18. (AP) — U. S. Embassy authorities say they are at a loss to explain the release of the confessed slayer of Texas Sheriff Otto W. (Blackie) Morrow from a Mexican jail. Jose Villalobos, 34, was ordered released here yesterday under a court action corresponding to a habeas corpus in the United States. A federal judge ruled that an order from Mexico City for his arrest was not sufficient to hold him. Villalobos had been held two months while extradition proceedings were underway. He was arrested by Mexican officers, accompanied by Texas officers, on March 18, four days after the Presidio County sheriff was found shot to death on a lonely road between Marfa and Presidio. The embassy said yesterday in Mexico City that extradition papers for the youth had been presented to the Mexican foreign office "two or three weeks ago."

SATURDAY, MAY 20TH

Unification Goes On Display With Joint Armed Forces 'Day'

WASHINGTON — The military services will pass through one more step in their somewhat painful unification process on Armed Forces Day, May 20. They'll be cheering for one another and jointly putting on parades, demonstrations and parties. But many of the celebrants will undoubtedly be sadly recalling the past, when each service had a day of its own. The last individual celebration was Army Day, April 6, 1949—the anniversary of America's entry into the first World War. That afternoon President Truman and Secretary of Defense Johnson watched a parade. That night Johnson spoke to the Military Order of World Wars, a civilian organization of ex-Army officers who had prompted and sponsored Army Day from its origin in 1928.

Johnson took the occasion to announce to his hosts that they were celebrating their last Army Day. He and the President, he said, had decided that afternoon there would be no more individual "days," that in the interest of unification they'd all get together in 1950 on one day. His hosts received the announcement coldly. On Aug. 30, 1949, Johnson announced that Armed Forces Day would be celebrated on the third Saturday in May. When the time came for Air Forces Day, the second Saturday in September, the occasion passed unnoticed. It had been celebrated only once—in 1948 commemorating the founding of the Air Force Sept. 17, 1947. Secretary of the Navy Matthews chose Navy Day, Oct. 27, 1949, as his occasion for dismissing the popular Chief of Naval Operations, Adm. Louis E. Denfeld. It was a double blow to many Navy men. They missed the old-time fanfare and public demonstrations. And many of them had warmly approved Denfeld's criticism of the cuts in Navy strength in hearings before Congress.

The Navy had been celebrating its day since 1922. It had been sponsored by the Navy League, another civilian organization. It commemorated the founding of the Navy in October, 1775 and the birth of President Theodore Roosevelt, a "big Navy" man. When the time came for the Marine Corps Birthday, Nov. 10, the corps fared better than its brother services. Johnson let the Marines continue to celebrate on their posts as long as it was just a family birthday party. They held formations of troops, gave parties, cut cakes—all on their own reservations. The Leathernecks had been making a big occasion of the birthday since 1921. The date is the anniversary of the founding of the corps at Tun Tavern, in Philadelphia, in 1775. Actually there had never been a "Marine Day." There had been only limited public participation in the birthday celebrations. The other services used to drum up public support—to interest Congressmen and recruits. Thus a unified Armed Forces Day does eliminate considerable competition among the services, both for appropriations and manpower. There are still anniversary celebrations within the various services. Some companies or squadrons holding distinguished unit citations celebrate privately on the date they were cited. And some branches of the Army, such as the Quartermaster, Signal or Engineers Corps, have annual parties. The Navy League intends to observe Navy Day hereafter by holding memorial services for sailors buried at sea. The services always had been a feature of the day's celebrations. When the league didn't hold them last year, it caught considerable criticism. Whether the Navy will be allowed to participate officially in the league's memorial services has not been announced.

Fireman Finds Car On Fire

READING PA., May 18. (AP) — With fellow members of the Liberty Fire Company, Walter Skroeki went in search of a blazing automobile. Responding to a telephone alarm, the firemen went to the spot where the car was supposed to be yesterday. Unable to locate it, they returned to the fire house. There, they learned the burning auto was on another street—where it had been left by its owner, Fireman Skroeki. Neighbors put the flames out before the firemen arrived.

ABOUT 50 SUSPECTS ARRESTED IN DAY-LONG GULF COAST RAIDS

GALVESTON, May 18. (AP) — Federal and local officers claim to have broken up a $1 million dope ring which bought heroin from New York racketeers with marijuana smuggled from Mexico. About 50 suspects were arrested yesterday in a day-long series of raids on taverns and rooming houses in this Gulf Coast area. Preliminary hearings on federal narcotic charges were held for 12 defendants late yesterday, including three men whom officers pointed out as ringleaders. Hearings for three others are scheduled today. Those charged include: Rudolph Achee, about 50, operator of a bar, who pleaded innocent and was placed under $10,000 bond. Jose Rangel, a merchant seaman from Corpus Christi who pleaded innocent and was placed under $10,000 bond. Frank Castano, beer tavern operator, pleaded guilty and his bond was set at $10,000. "I want to go before the judge as soon as possible" Castano told U. S. Commissioner Willie Mae Colter. "I'm guilty and might as well save court costs and do my time as quickly as possible." The cases of Achee and Rangel will go to the federal grand jury. Castano will come to trial at the next session of federal court. The other defendants appearing yesterday included six Negroes.

British Fliers Released After Israeli Warning

The pilot of the four-engine Royal Air Force Sunderland—en route from Bahrain in the Persian Gulf to the Suez Canal zone—said he was flying outside the prescribed air corridor because of a navigational error. Israeli fighters fired a warning burst across the aircraft's nose and forced it to land on the sea here.

Farmer Knows A Way To Help Taxpayers

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff

For about 17 years now, a tall, serious, Texas farmer has been spending all his sparetime trying to interest congressmen in a government farm program he thought up.

His name is Fielding Helm, he's 60, and his home is at Clifton in Bosque County, Central Texas. He's a sure enough farmer, all right, with 1,000 irrigated acres around Plainview and another 200 acres at Clifton. Talk to Helm a few minutes and you get the idea that his farm program means more to him than all his 1,200 acres put together. He thinks his plan would save taxpayers billions of dollars.

Here are some of the points he now is advocating:

The secretary of agriculture would make allotments to farms in pounds, bushels or bales—not in acres as is now the system. The farmer would sell his quota of products on the open market and if the market price was below parity, the government would give him a check to make up the difference between the market price and the parity price.

The farmer would not be restricted in how much of anything he could raise. Anything he raised beyond his quota, he would sell for anything he could get for it—with no government assistance of any kind. Helm would discontinue the government practice of buying or making loans on any agricultural product. Instead, prices would be regulated by supply and demand. Where would the money come from for the government quota checks?

"The government would get this money by levying a tax on goods manufactured from the agricultural products," said Helm. "There would be a tax, for instance, on cotton shirts and dresses."

"This would make cotton shirts and dresses costlier, wouldn't it, Mr. Helm?"

"No, it wouldn't. You have a loan on cotton now which causes a cotton goods manufacturer to pay the support price. Under my program, the manufacturer could buy cotton at a lower price but the tax would bring it up to the support price."

"Mr. Helm, what would happen if southern farmers raised as much cotton as possible, causing a big surplus and driving the price of cotton down to about five cents a pound? What would happen to the farmer then?"

"He would just be out of luck that year. He knew the risk and he took his chances. But I don't think anything like that would happen."

Just back from Washington, Helm said he had interested Republican Sen. George W. Malone of Nevada in his farm program. He said Malone is having it drawn up as a bill.

"Why have you spent 17 years and a lot of money on this program of yours, Mr. Helm?"

"It's just something I believe in and think would help this country. When a man really believes in something, he doesn't mind working."

Romania Latest To Order Cut In U. S. Staff

LONDON, May 18. (AP)—Romania has become the latest Soviet satellite to demand that the United States cut its diplomatic staff within the country.

Dispatches from Bucharest today said the Communist-led Romanian Government has accused U. S. diplomats there of spying and demanded that the legation staff be reduced to 16 members.

Last month the Czechoslovak Government demanded that the U. S. legation staff in Prague be cut by two-thirds. Washington countered with an order for a similar reduction of Czech personnel in the United States.

Romania told the U. S. to close its information center in Bucharest in March charging "activities hostile to the Romanian people" were centered in the office. Retaliating, the U. S. ordered the Romanian commercial attache's office in New York closed.

Blue Jay Puts Deadly Fear In Feline's Breast

BERKELEY, Calif., May 18. (AP)—Peter is becoming a nervous cat complained Mrs. Herbert C. Becklerig. He is no longer king of his yard.

For the second straight year, a lone blue jay has made life hellish for Peter, diving, strafing and screaming at the husky feline, who retreats indoors. Then the audacious jay buzzes the windows while Peter trembles.

The city turned down Mrs. Becklerig's petition for a rifle to protect Peter. The city father's declared they wanted to remain neutral in quarrels between cats and birds. This is election year.

Voodoo Charged In Suit On Will

LOS ANGELES, May 18. (AP)—Voodoo and mystic voices talked her blind mother into disinheriting her from a $100,000 estate, Mrs. Frances Howe claims.

The estate was willed instead to a spiritual medium, Mrs. Teresa Anderson, who arranged the seances in which an Indian guide named White Feather advised the mother, Mrs. Howe's complaint alleged yesterday in superior court. The suit charges Mrs. Anderson, conspired with six other persons to take messages to Mrs. Martha L. Franklin, who died last month at the age of 86. Mrs. Anderson was named sole beneficiary and executrix in Mrs. Franklin's will.

Cottonseed Group To Oppose Wild Sponders For Office

HOUSTON, May 18. (AP)—Members of the National Cottonseed Products Assn. plan to oppose public office seekers who believe "we can continue to spend money as we are now spending."

The "positive and public stand" was voted last night at the final meeting of the association convention here in a resolution encouraging the reduction of federal spending.

Cole Withdraws From Glasscock Election

GARDEN CITY, May 18.—Claude B. Cole, who previously had announced for a third term as commissioner from precinct No. 3 in Glasscock county, announced today he was withdrawing from the race.

He gave as his reason the press of personal business and the low pay scale in Glasscock county for commissioners.

"I wish to thank my many friends for their encouragement and help extended me in the past two terms, while I have been serving in office," he said.

Texans Who Work In The Cattle Business Are Constantly Reminded Of Its Spanish Origins

BEAUTIFUL AND MODERN—Madrid, for all its glamor and fine, stately buildings, is still in dire need of economic assistance. The entire country, and this capital city is no exception, is poor and impoverished.

BY J. EVETTS HALEY
MADRID—Time and distance tend to make us forget the remote origins of our ways and our traditions. But no citizen of Texas can enter Spain for the first time without a pulse quickened with interest.

Soft terms in Texas nomenclature still speak to us from a past redolent with suggestions of great exploration and conquest performed by tough-fibered men sired in this severe peninsula.

In the place-names that still persist from El Paso to the Sabine, and from the Rio Grande to the Palo Duro, Texans are constantly reminded of their Spanish background. Those of us who work with cattle and horses are aware of the beginnings of our interesting business in Spain and Mexico.

Of more vital import to all Texans, however, are our liberal land and community property laws. These originally adapted to our arid land and a wife's rightful share in the estate she has helped create, help make Texas one of the best places in the world to live. They had their origin in Spain.

Finally, the presence of a large Mexican and Spanish-speaking population throughout the southern and western half of the state continually remind us of this deep root in our past. Thus Spain is bound to intrigue a Texan.

Unfortunately the first and most vivid impression of this land—so strongly suggestive of the Southwest in some of its provinces—is its dire and tragic poverty. The next thing that will hit a traveling Texan slap-dab in the face is the fact that he is under a military dictatorship. Neither fact will please him, though the hungry beggars everywhere will bother him more than the fully-armed soldiers that he will bump into at almost every turn.

Bureaucratic regulations irritate any healthy-natured American, but still he can get about without undue bother. For it is not to be presumed that exercise of authority here approaches that in Russia.

A visitor may wander all over Spain at will, talking with servants, herdsmen, business men, doctors, bull-fighters and other congenial people, making notes and taking pictures everywhere, without being stopped or questioned by any sort of official. At times he may figure that the military eyes are slanting him up a little critically, but if he believes in reciprocity, as he should, he will coldly size up the bayoneted symbol of perverted power in turn, and without ever looking back go on about his business.

If he circulates about long enough among these charming people, he may eventually reach a really astonishing conclusion. In spite of abject poverty for a large proportion of the population; in spite of dictatorship and regimentation of their affairs, and in spite of what seems a ruthless quarantine by the rest of the world, the Spanish people can still be merry, and, to some degree, are apparently happy.

This startling fact about Spain would undoubtedly be vigorously denied by the left-wingers back at home who happily swallow Russia without gulping, but choke down like a child with the croup when it comes to Fascist Spain.

Yet it is not to be supposed that even the people of Spain, where freedom has been a foreigner as long, will tolerate this dictatorship indefinitely. They privately admit, with rather furtive sideways glances, that business progressively grows worse, and that the nation is poor and hungry. Tattered thousands with gaunt faces silently tell the same tale more impressively. Yet it is one thing for men in bondage to lust for food and freedom and another to gain it.

Rebellion of physically weak and barehanded men is almost an academic question when they are ruled by the commander-in-chief of the army, backed with a well-fed soldiery. The dismal alternative to submission is a futile effort at rebellion and the inevitable firing squad. Obviously in such a situation there can be no change in the political picture except by violence. This violence on any effective scale must arise through an ambitious conflict for power within the army. This, short of a coup de etat, means civil war, mor starvation and suffering, and, no matter which side is victorious, almost certainly a continuance of dictatorship.

SITUATION HOPELESS

Thus Spain seems to be caught in a hopeless hiatus imposed by the inescapable logic of history. This terrible fact seems to weigh upon the minds of Spain's most sensitive people who are impressed in this tragic web of circumstance that is bearing them, like Hamlet in his indecision, to an inescapable doom.

Yet in a world subject to the cataclysmic changes of the geologic ages, one of the most remarkable facts of all is that of human survival. Men are essentially durable animals. They can stand more than Mustang horses and Spanish cattle when they have to. And with Spain there is a way out. It is a way to adequate food and possible freedom without bloodshed, and the only way to peace. It lies in the free flow of trade and money throughout the world.

Were the free world honestly interested in weakening the hold of Franco, upon these stricken people, it could adopt no more effective policy than that of recognizing Spain and freely admitting her to the avenues of world trade for whatever she has to offer.

The truth is that this weak nation is being cuffed about by the United Nations at the behest of Russia and her sympathizers. She is likewise on our ideological blacklist. For Russia to have been welcomed as a member and Spain kept out is ironic.

The simple and irrefutable truth is that Spain was excluded from world diplomacy and trade, and is kept on starvation, because she is not a communistic dictatorship. That we, the United States, have been party to this further degradation of a once proud people that contributed so much to America,

Big Spring Herald

with hardly a murmur of protest, speaks little for our benign pretensions, our sense of justice, or our good sound sense. I believe we have been led to believe, by those posing as the architects of what passes with us as diplomacy, that the recognition of Spain is a complicated matter. We are told that because she is a dictatorship she cannot come into the community of nations, though from the beginning of our history; but a small portion of the world with which we have dealt has been free. Her diplomatic position in an unfriendly world is not an enigma. It is true that any attempt at a clear understanding of her position always serves as a vituperative cloud of propaganda from Communists and Fellow

Making Good Meals From Leftovers Is Challenge To Every Homemaker

HAM OR SALMON ROLLS WILL BE POPULAR AT SUPPERTIME... perfect meal served with tossed green salad

"Five Hundred Delicious Dishes from Leftovers," the No. 2 cookbook in the Culinary Arts Institute series, is a challenge to every homemaker who has ever moaned "Oh, dear, where does the grocery money go?"

But the challenge is not to the over-strained budget alone. With such a guide as "Leftover," the most unimaginative cook can take the dare to make attractive meals from almost nothing. Every morning, the accumulation of odds and ends in the way of food will start a chain of thought which will be entirely in keeping with nutrition as well as economy, and, in many cases, the ultimate result will be more appetizing meals and more attractive dishes. Liquids from canned or cooked vegetables, full of minerals and vitamins, will go into cocktails and soups instead of down the drain. Never a piece of vegetable so small but that it can go into a salad, or be utilized as a garnish or added to the soup.

Any bit of fruit will suggest an idea, to garnish a chop plate, top a martini or decorate a cake. The introduction of "Leftovers," continues the story: "Meat is not just something to be made into hash, but an adventure in ingenuity, with a choice as wide as the imagination, ranging from fluffy timbales to velvety mousses; and never are those two egg whites discarded, because they make a beautiful baked transform day old cake with custard or meringued fruit.

"With freezing trays and modern refrigeration, the homemaker may tarts and whipped cream into inspired desserts. She may even achieve colored ice cubes or her own special sherbets from those fruit juices that often go into the lemonade, and she may have frozen salads to her hearts content. And all made from leftovers with just a little something added.

"Then the snacks and appetizers! What colorful canapés can be made from just those last two olives in the bottle, those bits of ham or liver we didn't know what to do about, and the lone hard-cooked egg in the refrigerator."

It is suggested that it become a part of the design for menus to check up each morning on the leftover tidbits and fit them into the meal-planning pattern of the day.

Egg Yolks
Leftover egg yolks may be poached in boiling water until hard cooked, then forced through a sieve as a garnish for salads, canapés, spinach, creamed fish or thick soups.

Another of the egg yolk suggestions is to add these to white sauce or fish sauces for thickening and a richer color and flavor.

Then the leftover scrambled eggs

BELL PEPPERS ARE CUPS FOR MANY LEFTOVERS... shrimp and rice are piquant filling and omelets. These broken up with a fork and added to soups give added nutrition. Another idea is to reheat in the top of a double boiler, break up with a fork and combine with chopped bacon or hot minced ham for sandwiches. The extra egg yolk goes well in mashed potato balls.

Mashed Potato Balls
2 cups cold mashed potatoes. Salt and pepper
1 egg yolk
Butter
Mix seasoned mashed potatoes with egg yolk and shape into balls. Place in greased pan and make a depression in the top of each. Place a bit of butter in each hollow and brown in hot oven.

Two egg whites, the last of that drying piece of cheese and dry bread crumbs can be combined to cheese appetizers.

Cheese Appetizers
2 egg whites
1 cup grated American cheese
dash of cayenne
1-4 cup grated dry bread crumbs
Beat egg whites stiff, add cheese, cayenne and bread crumbs. Pat into small balls and fry in hot deep fat until light brown. Makes about 16 balls.

The 500 leftover recipes in the second book of the Culinary Arts Institute are listed under 13 divisions: bread, crackers, cake and crumbs, leftover cheese, leftover coffee and cocoa, cooked cereals, eggs, fish, fowl, fruits, jam, jellies and preserves, leftover meats, vegetables, sour milk and cream, and miscellaneous.

The last section suggests appetizing hors d'oeuvres of almost endless variety from the ice box tidbits, cheese, fish, ham, chicken or tongue, onion or other vegetables as filling for a more filling omelet or for complete meal scrambled eggs, and an almost endless variety of sauces and dressings.

Just a fourth cup of chopped mushrooms added to scrambled eggs makes a dish deluxe. Not so often used, but delicious is a half cup of flaked lobster, crab meat or shrimp scrambled in the eggs. White pepper adds the right touch of seasoning.

Capers, celery, cheese, mushrooms,ysters, chopped olives, pimiento and onion, and many other variations are possible with a medium white sauce as the base. Salads will taste ever different by a variety of additions to mayonnaise. One fourth cup chopped cucumbers and 3 tablespoons chopped almonds is a far cry from the Thousand Island sauce made by adding a bit of chili sauce, 1 chopped green pepper and chopped stuffed olives to the salad dressing.

Green Pepper Cups
The satiny green pepper makes a crisp container for a macaroni

2 Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Thurs., May 18, 1950

pepper to white sauce. Cool, shape into croquettes, dip into egg and again into crumbs. Fry in hot deep fat from 2 to 5 minutes.

The pastry cook of the family will have a good time making savory salmon rolls, ham rolls, or rolls filled with almost any tasty meat.

Salmon Rolls
1 recipe baking powder biscuits
1 1/2 cups flaked salmon
1 small onion chopped
1 green pepper chopped
1/2 teaspoon salt
Roll biscuit dough to 1/4 inch thick on a floured board. Combining other ingredients; moisten slightly with salmon liquid (try sour cream for minced ham); mix well and spread mixture on dough. Roll as for jelly roll and slice 1 1/4 inches thick. Bake in a greased pan in 400 degree oven about 30 minutes.

The quick one-egg cake can solve almost any dessert problem, and it may be varied by whatever fruit, cream, whipping cream or other idea the icebox may suggest.

One-Egg Cake
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg, unbeaten
6 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and or am until fluffy. Add eggs an beat thoroughly. Sift dry ingredients together three times and add alternately with milk and vanilla. Bake in two greased nine inch layer pans, for 25 minutes in 350 degree oven.

Music And Fun Come To City Next Monday

BENNY STRONG

A variety show with emphasis on music and fun is on tap for Big Spring Monday, when the Benny Strong Musical Revue is presented from the stage of the municipal auditorium.

The revue is being offered through cooperation with the Boy Scouts, and local share of the funds will be used toward meeting expenses of Scouts attending the national jamboree at Valley Forge, in June.

Strong heads up a 16-piece orchestra to be a headliner of the program. His band is known through broadcasts and recordings and has recently completed an engagement at the Coconut Grove in Los Angeles.

Other entertainers on the bill will include:

Jack Owens, former hit singer with Don McVey's I. A. A. club; Fred Lowery, the Texan who gained fame as a whistler and has appeared with the Horace Heidt orchestra; Bobbie Winters, deft and amusing juggler; Phil Marquis, who mixes comedy with his skill in magic and with a trick unicycle; the Nelson Sisters, trapeze artists; and Professor Backwards, a radio and nightclub star who has scored with his fantastic ability to do everything in reverse.

Reserved seats for the Benny Strong Musical Revue may be obtained from a booth at the Settles Hotel during the day Monday. Performance time is 8:30 p. m.

SCIENTISTS REPORT

Hormone Treatment Helps Mental Ills

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

NEW YORK, May 12. — Sex hormone treatments made one-third of a group of mental patients well enough to go home, five Creedmoor (N. Y.) State Hospital scientists said today.

The hormones helped some patients who had not benefited from shock treatments, they told a New York State Medical Society meeting.

Both male and female sex hormones were used, in large doses. The combination is something new in treating severe mental illnesses. Their use is based on a theory that mental illnesses result from an imbalance of various body hormones.

The studies were reported by Drs. Mortimer, Raymond and Arthur Sackler, three brothers; Dr. Co Tul, and Dr. Johan H. W. Van Ophuijsen, of the Creedmoor Institute for Psycho-ological Studies.

The sex hormones were tried on 40 patients. They were suffering from schizophrenia, in which a person withdraws from reality; manic depression, marked by severe depression or extreme excitement; and involuntarily psychoses, or melancholia.

Fifty-eight per cent of the 40 improved, and one-third recovered enough to be able to go home, they said.

As with other treatments, the sex hormones brought best results in early rather than long-lasting cases of disease. Of patients who had been in the hospital six months or less, 74 per cent improved and more than half went home.

Seven of the patients were young from 16 to 25 years old. Six of these, all with schizophrenia, were able to go home. In age groups, patients over 50 showed the second best results, then persons of middle age.

Good results in using histamine in mental illnesses has been reported also by the Creedmoor group. Histamine is a chemical that lowers blood pressure, and is one cause of allergies.

The sex hormones, histamine, and other biochemical treatments offer great promise in treating mental illnesses, the doctors declared.

They seem to be steps, they said, toward the day when major mental illnesses will be better controlled, perhaps anticipated, detected earlier and more surely, and even prevented.

HALEY

Travelers all over the world, however weak, to the balance of power being posed against "Mother Russia."

No student of public affairs in his right mind will doubt for a moment that had the Communists won the Civil War in Spain she would have shortly qualified for recognition by the United States and almost certainly for aid under the Marshall Plan. Those who would deny it should be reminded that at first powerful Russia did: Then why not prostrate Spain?

A few weeks ago Senator Connally, as Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, prodded the State Department for an answer to one angle of this question. Since then rumors of anticipated American air bases on Spanish soil have agitated the matter more. Thus as the Cold War against Russia continues, this pertinent question will be asked with greater frequency. Why has no obvious effort been made to improve the condition of these 27,000,000 people, and weld them into the front against the faithless and ruthless Soviets?

In spite of the sorry spectacle of what is gratuitously called our foreign policy, our country is definitely unified upon the proposition that Russia is an imminent threat to the peace and life of the Western World. In the beginning the American people were induced to accept the international role called the Marshall Plan on two basic considerations. First, they were reminded that it was the generous, humanitarian thing to share the abundance created by our mighty efforts, our industry and our frugality with the people of Europe.

In the second place, and more importantly, we were told that we would likewise stand at the head of freedom everywhere — even among people who did not have it — and thus counteract peacefully the spread of Communism. Instead of bankrupting ourselves by spending for war, we would alleviate human suffering by spending for peace, and thus give hope to the oppressed people of the world.

Upon the basis of Spain's dire need, and upon outright appeal to our humanitarian nature, she would be the first of the European powers to qualify for aid under the Marshall Plan. Upon the basis of what is euphemistically called "containing Communism," she would likewise stand at the head of the list. But Franco's party disqualified Spain by "liberal" standards. Instead of tolerating these Communists — these traitors to every way but their immoral own — Franco and his supporters simply killed them off. Thus there is no Communist threat in Spain.

Meanwhile the people of starving Spain, with whom, historically, the Southwest has so many warm and intimate connections, can continue to starve. We will not encourage that free flow of commerce that always carries, free of charge, the priceless cargo of free ideas — an exchange that will inevitably batter down the bulwarks of dictatorship. It is the peaceful way out. But instead we choose the warlike way, and Spain is still left outside the pale of diplomacy.

Banded Pintail Flies 4,500 Miles

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP) — A duck banded in California is credited with the longest recorded trans-Pacific flight.

A female pintail banded last August in Northern California was shot in the Cook Islands in the South Pacific by a New Zealand hunter. The flight is estimated at 4,500 miles.

Radiation Indicator Worn Like Dog Tags

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — A simple radiation indicator that all citizens can be trained to read has been developed by the Atomic Energy Project at the University of California. It measures radiation by changes in the color of chemicals.

The new device could be put into a little container which could be worn like GI "dog tags" or into a pencil-like set for the pocket.

The great Australian horse, Carbine, flatly refused to go out in the rain and his trainer was forced to devise a small umbrella which could be attached to his bridle.

Toothbrush Used At Dinner Table

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, (AP) — Diners at a Wellington restaurant saw a pretty girl put a toothbrush beside her plate.

The girl ate her meal. Then she vigorously brushed her teeth and emptied the water into her teacup.

Her girl friend looked embarrassed, smiled, but didn't say anything. The girls were two of 170 dental trainees who are carrying through an experiment. Half will brush their teeth after all food and every drink, except water, for a whole year.

The other 85 will brush their teeth only twice a week — Thursdays and Saturdays. At the end of the year researchers hope to be able to say which is better — intensive oral hygiene or casual hygiene.

Israeli Plant Trees

TEL AVIV, Israel, (AP) — Israelis are planting millions of trees all over the country and tens of thousands of them along roads and highways. Dr. Dov Joseph, minister of agriculture, told parliament trees were being planted directly along the roadsides in accordance with demands of the army's engineering services. Trees eventually will cloak any movements on the roads.

Reds Gain Rich Prize In Capture Of Hainan

By SEYMOUR TOPPING
SAIGON, Indochina—In Hainan island the Chinese Communists have acquired one of the potentially richest regions in east Asia but one which for the present will only add to their severe economic problems. The Japanese made a comprehensive survey of the big south China island while they were occupying it during the war. They found that its mineral wealth may rival that of Manchuria and Sinkiang, China's far western province. Hainan has high-grade deposits of iron, tin, copper, manganese, lead, silver, coal, graphite, antimony, and tungsten. These have hardly been touched. Hainan also can produce rubber, pineapple, sugar cane, quinine, coffee and coconuts.

With industrial development, Hainan could become one of the few Asiatic regions capable of supporting a larger population. Leaders on Hainan say the 2,500,000 population could be tripled without straining the island's resources. But now Hainan has to buy about two-thirds of its food elsewhere. And the Communist mainland has famine instead of surplus.

Besides the immediate problem of feeding the population, the Chinese Communists inherit an enormous job of rehabilitation. After the war the Chinese Nationalist officials almost wrecked the industrial foundation of Hainan built by the Japanese. Their remarkable record of inefficiency, corruption and sheer vandalism ended only a year ago when Gov. Chen Chi-tang took over.

On a visit to Hainan in January, I found only about 12 factories still operating of 170 left intact by the Japanese. Port installations at Houhou, the capital, and the excellent harbor and naval base of Yulin were neglected. The Japanese had built a new railway. The Nationalists had sold the rails for scrap.

Gov. Chen had only begun to repair the damage done by his predecessors when the Communist invasion began. He had restored some of the iron mines. There is little prospect the Communists can begin to exploit Hainan's resources soon. Most of their limited capital probably is earmarked for north China and Manchuria. The Communists also may hesitate to risk capital on the island because it would be too exposed should a general war come to the Orient.

Manganese Enables A Plant To Grow

BERKELEY, Calif., (AP) — For some time it has been known that plants will not grow unless there is manganese in the soil they feed from. This was discovered by plant nutritionists P. K. Stumpf and C. C. Delwiche of the University of California College of Agriculture.

Now, working with graduate students W. D. Loomis and C. Michaelson, they have found out why manganese enables a plant to grow. They discovered a new enzyme in plants that enables them to utilize glutamic acid, one of the building units of protein. Without manganese, this enzyme doesn't work and the plant stops growing. No other metallic element is known to have this effect, and studies are continuing in the hope of increasing crop yields.

Radio May Save Lives Of Miners

NEW YORK, (AP) — Miners would carry radio transmitters to tell rescuers where they were trapped, in a radio set-up devised by James A. McNiven of New Orleans. He is an electrical engineer with the U. S. Coast Guard.

The miner would stick metallic probes into the ceiling of the mine. He would speak into a radio transmitter, and the signals would be carried to a receiver at the surface. Batteries of the type supplying power for a miner's head lamp would be strong enough to allow him to broadcast, McNiven said. The miner's transmitter-receiver could be a portable affair, perhaps carried on a man's back, he said. There might be one for each man, or one for each small group of men. Rescue work could be speeded up if trapped men could tell just where they were, and what the situation was. McNiven said the method had been tested successfully in coal mines.

TEXAS FACES DEFICIT

State Must Either Cut Expenses Or Impose New Tax, Solon Tells TLM

The State Legislature must either vote a drastic cut in expenditures or impose a general sales or state income tax at its next session, Sen. Hill Hudson, Pecan, told members of the Texas League of Municipalities at their meeting here Wednesday.

The January session of the legislature must provide funds to meet a $30 million deficit as well as finance activities of the state government for 1951, he said.

Terminating the penny-a-pack tax on cigarettes levied by the legislature in special session last February to finance expansion of state hospitals, as "a dangerous step toward an outright sales tax," Sen. Hudson expressed opposition to both sales and state income taxes. He advised TLM delegates to "study the alternatives and make their decisions known to their representatives" in the legislature.

Sen. Hudson's talk came at a luncheon held for delegates to the regional TLM meeting. It was part of an all-day program of forums and discussions on problems facing Texas city governments.

Some 60 representatives of 70 West Texas cities attended the meeting.

Referring to Federal controls over state problems, the legislator declared Socialism a bigger threat to the United States than Communism.

Of the some 2,000 bills presented to the legislature at its last regular session, Sen. Hudson estimated that 20 per cent "tended toward Socialist practices," such as subsidies, regulation of business, etc.

"Steps to stop trends toward government control and similar Socialist practices must be taken in the municipalities which you represent," he told the TLM delegates.

He credited the defeat last year of a constitutional amendment lifting the ceiling on old age pensions with saving the state approximately $200 million per year.

"It's our duty to aid the blind and lame, but not our responsibility to care for a person simply because he reaches the age of 65," he declared. "The government can't support the people; the people must support the government."

Members of the Texas League of Municipalities, as community leaders, should help the state to solve its problems by expressing themselves. Representatives are elected to express the peoples' sentiments on the floor of the legislature. Individuals should advise state officials as to what they wish done about matters that affect their business, the senator said.

The Big Spring meeting of the TLM was one of three being held in West Texas. A regional gathering was to be held in Amarillo today, while a similar meeting is scheduled for Monday in Mineral Wells.

E. E. Crutchfield, TLM field consultant, and E. E. McAdams, executive director of the organization were on hand to assist with the Big Spring program. The meeting was opened with a talk by George D. Barber, Mineral Wells mayor who is president of the organization.

U. S. Wonders What To Do With Ex-Red

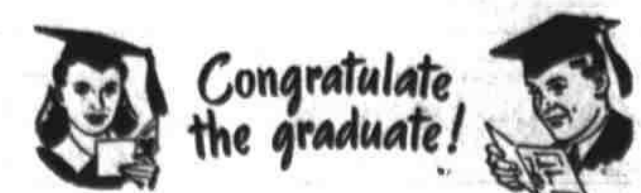

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—The State Department is wrestling with the problem of what to do about a former Czech diplomat, a Communist, who has asked asylum in this country.

The man, Vladimir Houdek, resigned Tuesday from his post as Czechoslovakia's chief delegate to the United Nations and blasted Russia for pressure on his country. Anti-Communist Czech refugees here are urging that Houdek's plea be denied.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Blue Panic Planted In Conservation Work

Leonard Coleman and Floyd Jones, neighbors of R. A. (Bob) Merrick, met Tuesday on Merrick's farm southeast of Ackerly to observe a planting of blue panic grass. Merrick used cotton seed hulls as a filler for the small seed of the blue panic and planted with cotton plates. The farmers, who are cooperating with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District, are planting blue panic grass as a part of their coordinated soil and water conservation program.

Richard Thomas, who farms in the Knot soil conservation group, is planting 25 acres to blue panic grass. Among other district operators who have planted blue panic are G. W. McGregor and Roscoe Buchanan in the Coahoma group.

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild over 80 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give heavy relief—halve the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filter flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!
