WIND STORMS TAKE TWO LIVES--MANY PERSONS ARE HURT

TEXANS KILLED IN TORNADO OF INTENSE FURY

Houses Are Demolished and Trees Torn to Pieces

DAMAGE VERY WIDE SPREAD

Dozen or More Are Injured Last Night

TENAHA, Dec. 13. (AP)—John Jones, 36, tenant farmer living on the board plantation near here was killed, his wife probably fatally injured and his four children slightly hurt when their house was demolished by a tornado last night. The family resided between Tenaha and Timpan.

DALLAS, Dec. 13. (AP)—Sweeping wind and rainstorms, demolishing houses and hurling trees through the air, killed two persons and injured at least 13 other persons in two states last night.

Mrs. C. C. Fridell, 42, was hurt fatally at Sulphur Springs community, in East Texas, when tall pine trees were dashed through the roof and walls of her home. Her mother, Mrs. H. C. Dykes, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Shivers and their children, were bruised and scratched.

Fifteen miles from Houston, another storm victim, George Wall, was knocked unconscious when the wind hurled him against a gasoline pump. His injuries were thought to be of a minor character. Several buildings in this community, Pearland, were destroyed as in other storms.

Nine persons were known to have been hurt, two probably fatally, in a tornado which swooped down on three communities in North Sabine and South De Soto parishes, Louisiana. Near Sabine parish, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Platt, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pugh and their five children, were injured. Pugh and one of his daughters were in a critical condition.

Pugh suffered lacerations about the eye and forehead; Mrs. Pugh, bruises about the body and head; Marie Pugh, fractured arm; Tessie Pugh, lacerations on the back and hip and a possible fracture of the spine; Platt, scalp wound, and Mrs. Platt, bruises.

The homes of the Pugh and Platt families were destroyed by the twister, which struck during a heavy rain. Alarmed by a roar, Mr. and Mrs. Platt endeavored to reach a wire fence nearby but were caught by the wind and blown 25 feet.

Platt was knocked unconscious. When he recovered he and his wife went to the Pugh home about 100 yards away and found it demolished. Although a heavy rain, electrical and windstorm visited Shreveport last night, no damage of consequence, other than few uprooted trees, was reported.

Protest to Railroad Commission Asserts That Proposed Change of Drilling Rule Would Be Damaging

MRS. WILLARD E. TAYLOR

Clear the track for Mrs. Willard E. Taylor!

She's coming down the home stretch in the Daily News famous automobile race with the throttle wide open.

Determined not to accept defeat in the struggle for the three big cars to be given away Saturday night, Mrs. Taylor is literally burning up the track in a burst of speed during these final hours. Saturday night at 9 o'clock, will tell the tale.

Friends are rallying to her support in fine style, and Mrs. Taylor declares she will do everything possible right up until the last minute Saturday to insure her being within the winning circle.

She wanted to know this morning if she would put alcohol in the radiator of the Buick before letting it stand in front of the News office while waiting for its new owner Saturday afternoon and evening.

"I don't want to have it froze up in case it's cold Saturday," she said. "And I certainly intend to keep that motor hot from then on taking my friends riding."

Mrs. Taylor used to help her husband run the office of the Taylor Boffer and Welding Works, but he declares she hasn't been much help lately.

BOY SCOUTS IN TOYLAND WORK

Repair Work Is Under Their Direction at Church

An upstairs portion of the Methodist church has been turned into a veritable toy factory with local Boy Scouts in charge. Under the supervision of Scout masters and Lion Wade Duncan, the boys are working steadily making old toys into new.

The Lions club has undertaken the duty to make Christmas bright for poor children of the city. Members are gathering old toys and taking them to the Methodist church, where the Boy Scouts are repairing and painting them. The response has not been up to last year, but Wade Duncan, chairman of the collection committee, is sure a last minute response will bring in more toys.

"There are not near enough toys to fill the demand," Mr. Duncan says. "If a telephone call is made to 106, a car will be sent after toys. There are hundreds of poor children in the city who will not receive toys unless a response is forthcoming from the citizens of Pampa."

Changing of rule 37, relating to oil and gas well drilling, would disrupt contracts, impair vested property rights, and, in fact, confiscate private property, it is asserted in a protest prepared here and sent to the railroad commission.

The rule provides that no well shall be drilled nearer than 150 feet to a property line. The state, and M. H. Reed and W. T. Caswell as intervenors, seek to alter this rule to read 1,000 feet with respect to property along the north fork of the Red river in Gray and Wheeler counties. It is pointed out that the railroad commission has a policy not to intervene in law suits affecting titles to property, and that the present suit is such a case.

The protest is signed by T. D. Hobart, J. E. Williams and J. M. Shaw, committeemen; M. K. Brown, chairman, and C. P. Buckler, secretary, of an organization of citizens, oil operators and property owners.

Numerous individual protests also are being sent to the commission.

Gray and Wheeler Counties Get New Test Locations

Three new locations in Gray county and three new ones in Wheeler county this week give promise of increased activity.

In Gray county, the Marland Oil company made a location for its No. 1 M. K. Brown et al in the northeast corner of section 32, block B-2, H. & G. N. survey. This location is two miles due west of the LeFors townsite. It is also two miles southeast of production in the Wilcox pool.

The Southwestern Exploration company made a location on the McConnell lease in the southwest corner of the northwest quarter of section 174, block 3, I. & G. N. survey. This will be the company's second location in the section.

The Texas company's No. 5 Davis will be in the southwest corner of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 86, block 3, in the Wilcox pool.

In Wheeler county, Martin and Dubois will drill in section 82, block 23, Wischkaemper Brothers will drill in section 53, block 23, and section 80, block 23.

Furlough Granted Owing to Sickness

AUSTIN, Dec. 13. (AP)—Guy Weeks, serving two years in the penitentiary from Shackelford county for violation of the prohibition law, has been given a 20-day furlough by Gov. Moody, so he could visit his wife, who was recently injured in an automobile accident, and his two children, who are threatened with pneumonia.

Ella McCopp, one-year liquor convict, Freestone county, was granted 10 days furlough to attend the funeral of her mother.

Jethro Holmes, convicted in Gregg county prohibition law violation and sentenced two years, was given 10 days to visit his wife, who is seriously ill.

GIBB GILCHRIST TO SEE ROUTES AT FIRST HAND

Engineer French Replies to Letter From Briggs

DETOUR WILL BE DISCUSSED

Traffic Would Go by Way of No. 33-A to Miami

Gibb Gilchrist, state highway representative from Austin, will make a trip to Gray county in the near future to confer with road officials and citizens regarding the routing of highways through Gray county, according to a letter received by the Chamber of Commerce from W. A. French of Amarillo, division highway engineer.

The highway department has signified its intention of routing traffic to Miami and other points via highway 33-A instead of over the detour highway 33 as promised, while paving operations are in operation on the Miami road. This matter will be taken under advisement when Mr. Gilchrist visits here.

In his letter Engineer French said, "I have taken the matter of highway routing in Gray county up with Mr. Gilchrist and he advised me that he would, in the near future, make a trip to Gray county with me and try to settle all the location difficulties in Gray county."

Father's Slayer to Trial as Haskell Boy Kills Self

HASKELL, Dec. 13. (AP)—While other members of his family were at Albany to attend the trial of Crawford Booth for the killing of his father three years ago, Tom Johnson, 18, killed himself at his home, near here, Wednesday.

His body was found lying on the floor, with a pistol nearby, when his two sisters last night returned from Albany. A verdict of suicide was returned by the county judge of Haskell county.

Johnson's mother and two sisters had gone to Albany, where the trial was to open Tuesday, to appear as witnesses against Booth. Johnson was left alone at home. When the case was called, it was ordered back to Haskell for trial, and the Johnsons returned to their homes.

Bodies of Slain Men Found by Searching Party

PORT LAVACA, Dec. 13. (AP)—The bodies of James and Will Moore, brothers, whom F. F. Robidoux, trapper, said he killed in self-defense at his home on Kenyon Island near here Tuesday, were recovered from the Guadalupe river this afternoon.

A searching party headed by Martin Moore, brother of the slain men, found the bodies near the spot where Robidoux said he threw them.

Will Moore's head was badly beaten, officers said. James Moore's body had a bullet wound in the right leg and another behind the right ear.

Grave Anxiety Prevails Following Operations Upon King George, Who Is Very Weak as Natural Result

LONDON, Dec. 13. (AP)—Despite the successful result of two operations performed upon King George yesterday, anxiety for him continued at Buckingham palace today.

The considerable weakness mentioned in the morning medical bulletin, though it was a natural and expected result of the ordeal which the king underwent yesterday, was causing his doctors great concern.

It was stated authoritatively that the weakness was not unduly alarming but for next few days, until it was known definitely whether the king's strength was sufficient to conquer the weakness or not, anxiety must continue.

That weakness was certain to result was one of the grave considerations the doctors had to weigh before performing the operation. It was understood, however, that as soon as the fluid around the base of the lung had been detected yesterday morning, there was little doubt that an operation would have to be performed.

EAST WARD SCHOOL OPENED FOR PUPILS OF THAT AREA

More than 160 pupils have been transferred to the East ward school this week, and others will be received there after the Christmas vacation, when the district will be enlarged. The school will accommodate at least 75 more pupils. Because of unsatisfactory heating, the west ward school is not being used yet, but the school board believes pupils will be transferred next week.

At a meeting of the board last night, it was decided to charge 15 per cent of the box office receipts for the use of the gymnasium. This will include school plays and outside entertainments. The proceeds will be used to defray expenses. Six hundred chairs have been received.

It was also decided that school would close the afternoon of December 21, and open on the morning of December 31. With few exceptions, the new gymnasium and auditorium will be for school use only. The nights designated for the town basketball team to practice was revoked last night by the board. The town team has already purchased more than $200 worth of equipment, and in order that it may not lose its money, the board will endeavor to make arrangements for practices after 9 p. m. and to have games on open nights. Joe Smith business manager said this morning.

Negroes Sought in Slaying of Woman

ABBEVILLE, Ala., Dec. 13. (AP)—Two negroes are under arrest and a third was being sought today by Henry county officers for the slaying of Miss Alice Mourning, 23, as she was returning Tuesday night to her home from Fort Gaines, Ga.

Foul play was suspected when a horse and empty buggy which had carried the young woman returned yesterday morning. The body was found by searchers in a ditch near the highway. Death is believed to have resulted from a severe beating with the limb of a tree after her assailant had attacked her.

Bearded Turkey Hen Fooled This Hunter

AUSTIN, Dec. 13. (AP)—The well known "bearded woman" of sideshow fame, had nothing on a wild turkey that fooled a Texas hunter into killing what he thought was a gobbler, in violation of the game laws.

W. C. Sincilar, convicted in Kerr county for killing a turkey hen, told Governor Moody in appealing for restoration of his hunting rights that the hen was "wearing a beard four inches long" and that he was greatly surprised to find he had not killed a gobbler. The governor restored his hunting rights.

The thief will yet be accounted for, if I know anything about your district attorney, my friend McCraw," Allen said.

Streets Take on Christmas Motif

Pampa's streets are beginning to take on a Christmas air as W. F. Wilson and Lewis Levine progress with the decorating of light standards and street curbs. They plan to set the Lions club Christmas tree in Albert square today and decorate it. The tree will be moved to the new gymnasium on the afternoon before Christmas and prepared for the event of Christmas eve, when toys will be distributed among poor children.

Particular attention will be paid to decorations of the street corners in the business section, where fir trees will be placed on corner standards and lighted with colored bulbs. Strings of colored lights will be strung across the streets.

ROAD DISTRICT WILL PAY HIM FOR SERVICES

Obligation by Adoption of Benefits Found by Jury

PLAINTIFF HAD SUED FOR $1,250

Damage Suit Is Now Being Heard in Court

Ending one of the most vigorously fought cases of recent court terms, a jury in 84th district court today returned judgment of $400 in favor of L. V. Lonsdale. LeFors attorney, for services rendered in preparing election orders and caring for other details in connection with the road bond election in special district No. 4.

Mr. Lonsdale had been denied payment of a claim of $1,250 for the work, and was suing Gray county and the road district for the amount. The jury decision provided for the award to be paid by the road district. The judgment was granted on the grounds of obligation by adoption of benefits. The commissioners had argued that they did not authorize the legal work, which was initiated at a mass meeting at McLean, where a special district was voted and $250,000 in bonds was created.

The case started Monday, and went to the jury last night at 7 o'clock. The jury deliberated six and one-half hours.

Judge S. D. Stennis represented Gray county. The plaintiff was assisted by W. M. Lewright, local attorney.

The jury: A. C. Husted, foreman; Sam Cubine, Louie Behrends, T. T. Grubb, O. N. Frazier, F. Vanderburg, Frank Hansard, Roy McCracken, O. H. Gilstrap, W. H. Floyd, Curg Williams and Ashby Bell.

R. L. Dyer and his wife are suing Farrel Ray and others in 84th district court today, asking $3,000 actual damages and $10,000 exemplary damages. The plaintiffs claim they were forcibly ejected from their home by the Ray and Massay lease, south east of LeFors, last July. Mr. Dyer sustaining broken ribs and other injuries.

The jury was picked this morning and one witness had been placed on the stand at noon.

Dallas Case Not to End Through Giving of Verdict

DALLAS, Dec. 13. (AP)—Indicating that further investigation would be made into the disposal of a $2,000 election bet, an argument over which led to the fatal shooting of Orville L. Mathews, bank employe, here on Sept. 1, Robert Allen, special attorney arguing for the state in the trial of V. Ray Adams of Bartlett for the slaying of Mathews, said today: "This thing is not over yet."

The thief will yet be accounted for, if I know anything about your district attorney, my friend McCraw," Allen said.

DALLAS, Dec. 13. (AP)—Whether V. Ray Adams, Bartlett farmer, was justified in shooting Orville L. Mathews, Dallas bank employe, after a disagreement over a $1000 bet on the Earle B. Mayfield Tom Connally senatorial election, will be considered by a jury here before tonight, it was indicated at noon when the last defense attorney completed his argument.

Only one argument remained to be heard today, district attorney William McCraw closing for the state. It was thought the jury would be able to retire for deliberations about 3 p. m.

It's Like This

DEEPER than the human mind could have imagined a few decades ago, a Texas well is flowing exceptionally high gravity oil. It is the Group One Oil company's No. 1B University.

Imagine a well 11-2 miles deep. To control tools at that depth, and to obtain oil in paying quantities seems almost unreasonable. But it is 52.9 gravity, and commands the highest price on the market.

A more interesting factor, however, is the idea of going deep into the bowels of the earth to obtain a product the world needs. Fifty years ago this would have been called impossible, one hundred years ago one might have been burned at the stake for mentioning it, three hundred years ago it would have been sacrilege, if it could have been thought of at all. We are learning, slowly, that timidity does not conquer nature, nor obtain for man his highest development. The radical of today, it should be stressed often, is the genius of tomorrow.

WALL STREET, which behaved most unseemly from the Democratic standpoint prior to the election, is tending toward the erratic of late, but the threatened break was short-lived, as was the momentary joy of those hoping for a break in the "Hoover market".

What stopped the flurry of sales—that set a new half-day record, is said to have been a report that the move was started by closeted brokers, who, having played the market up as far as practicable, hoped to shove the quotations down, re-buy, and do the whole thing over again.

Will the market hold, and how long? The experts appear cautious, but most agree that the small fry among the investors and gamblers—those who can least afford to lose—are due for a shaking. The foolish ones must pay, or there will be no gamblers' margins.

MEXICO, with a new president and still another one to elect within a short time, is in an interesting period. The war department says that banditry is not now a problem, and that armed insurgents are operating only in a restricted territory.

How long will a modern republic permit raids against the peace and dignity of the state? Perhaps, as long as the oft-hinted revolution does not develop, banditry should not be regarded as alarming. Mexico is getting commercialized, which means that war will be forced out unless it can contribute in some economic fashion. Mexico's wars are liabilities, and as such will cease.

Provisional President Portes Gil (pronounced "heel", by the way) is a kind of Mexican never seen in this section. He is a sturdy athlete and sportsman, courteous as Latins will be, firm and vigorous in manner and capable of dominating when his personality. He is

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON—If you ask me, as not so many people do, hotel employes, chambermaids, elevator boys, waiters, porters and floor clerks, aren't so all in an ecstasy about the return of the native congressman and senator from his great open spaces as might be expected.

No man is a hero to his valet, they say, except about the time he decides to give away all his old suits, and by the same token, the men "on the hill" seem in highest regard by "those who serve them" at the time of departure rather than arrival.

Washington hotel employes know the genus congressman—his habits, his customs, prospects, even more than one might think, for at least 50 per cent of these temporary residents of the capital live in hotels during the congressional term.

A larger percentage of representatives live in hotels than senators, which, considering minimum hotel rates of $30 a week for every member of the family, and average rentals of $50 a week, seems strange, till one begins inquiring about house and apartment rents. Then one understands why Mr. Congressman flocks to the hotels while Mr. Senator has his house.

Hotel employes list their causes for dissatisfaction according to their own jobs. Elevator boys, for instance, say that their speed is appreciably decreased after the congressman returns, and that lesser mortals who are just as anxious to get to the coffee shop or the barber shop get grouchy and blame the boys.

"They're so gabby", one vaseline-haired sheik confided. "They're always seeing somebody they know just as the elevator stops, and they have to stop to talk before getting in. Then they go through all this monkey business of jockeying around, trying to decide who'll get aboard first."

Chambermaids display a becoming reticence but indicate that they could "write volumes" if encouraged. Causes of complaint seem to range from the congressional custom of always kicking the sheets up from the bottom of the bed, necessitating a com-unaframed, and ignores criticism. His faults are strong ones, but fortunately for this country, antagonism toward the U. S. A. is not one of them. It is time for Texans to study Spanish and Latin-Americans. For we have neighbors which only lately have we found it expedient to discover.

plete bed overhauling every day, to charges even more venious.

"I suppose they have as much on their minds that they can't sleep quiet like other people," one naive maid philosophized, "but they don't use their ash trays, either."

"It's because they come from such funny places and ain't so used to hotels", supplemented the desk lady who had brought Rose, the chambermaid, up for moral support in the interview.

"Now their women folks are queer, too. We've got one here who never has had her hair bobbed because people have always told her what beautiful hair she has. When she has an appointment down in the hair shop she goes down in the elevator with those two braids of hair swinging like two horsetails, and if somebody says 'you don't see hair like that these days!' she thinks she's drawn a swell compliment."

It seems too, that the wives of the men on the hill have the same annoying habit of trying out their lipstick shades on the wall paper as have lesser ladies.

"And they expect so much for the same money as other folks pay!" one waiter confided. "If you have a special dinner with choice of sweet potatoes with pork chop or roast beef they always want to know if they can't have the sweet potatoes with the roast beef."

TWINKLES

David City, Neb., has no luncheon clubs. The cynics probably will call that Utopia.

Mr. Hoover is learning in South America to appreciate the presidential jobs of some of his contemporaries—and the dangers appertaining.

Livestock styles demand more slender hogs. And how about some prices for slender purses?

Mr. Coolidge evidences great knowledge and not a little volubility in making recent speeches. Probably he is trying to make his speech writer earn his hitherto rather undeserved salary.

Heard—Mere man say he had found the Christmas present he wished for himself, and the only thing needed was someone to buy it for him.

One reason we never take a vacation in the winter time is that we are afraid the flu will rob us of it.

The coming of Christmas reminds us again that if we were to banish all the customs that people call foolish we would take away much of the beauty of life.

BARBS

A contest to choose a state flower has been in progress in California. Why not give Hollywood a little publicity by naming the cuckoo?

Deer hunters killed an Angora by mistake up in Massachusetts. They seem to have made quite a success of getting the farmer's goat.

Interesting stories have been told of that 92-year-old drummer who is still traveling, but we have as yet seen no mention of the time when he had to stop at the farmer's house overnight.

There are now 65 active volcanoes. The number will be reduced when Charley Dawes leaves the Senate.

There was an average of one murder a year in the United States between 1880 and 1886, according to a magazine writer. Weren't there any saxophones then?

Maybe the item in a Kansas City paper about an "alumnae smoker" wasn't so wrong after all.

George Bernard Shaw says the time is coming when the world will not use coal. He's been talking to the janitor.

One of the strangest things in the world is how most people use one cigarette and one brand of shaving cream for awhile, then change to others, and how they will swear by the ones they happen to be using at any particular time.

W. M. U. Circle Has Last 1928 Meeting At Christmas Party

Members of circle No. 3 of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union enjoyed a Christmas party and "sock social" yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. E. L. Billingsly, and incidentally held their last business meeting of the year. The circle's "sock fund" donation toward the church building fund was completed, as each member gave the treasurer the amount of her assessment, a sum computed through a series of complicated multiplications and additions beginning with the number of her own stocking.

Mrs. Billingsly's home was lighted throughout with tall red candles, and rooms were gay with Yuletide decoration. Tiny Christmas candles were given as favors to the nine members attending the meeting. The afternoon was spent in cleverly planned games and contests. A dainty refreshment plate passed at the tea hour featured the candle motif that was followed in other details of the party.

The following members of the circle were present: Mrs. S. L. Anderson, Mrs. L. H. Anderson, Mrs. Paul Link, Mrs. O. L. Beatty, Mrs. W. D. Barton, Mrs. Champan, Mrs. J. P. Wehrung and Mrs. Clint.

Miss Hazel Campbell Presents Pupils in Public Recital

Miss Hazel Campbell presented 21 piano pupils in recital at the First Christian church, Tuesday afternoon, to a large and appreciative audience. Selections were pleasingly varied in theme, while the performance of the young students not only revealed much talent, but reflected credit to their teacher. Little Billie Nance, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Nance, created a sensation when she played Lange's "Flower Song" and another waltz.

Three well executed ensembles, in which two pianos were used, added to the interest of the program. "The Marches" was played by Eleanor Banks, Bessie Stein, Henrietta Stein and Mary Catherine Clark. "Hungarian March" was played by Bessie Stein, Eleanor Banks, Mary Catherine Clark and Miss Campbell. Henrietta Stein and Mary Catherine Clark played the third, "On, On Away."

Guiding Your Child

CIVILIZED COURAGE
By Mrs. Agnes Lyne

Bertrand Russell, writing on education, suggests that personal courage be fostered in children by stimulating in them the conquest of the physical environment and by prompting in them the development of difficult and hazardous skills.

The development of courage has in the past been monopolized by boy children, and in them it has chiefly taken the form of learning to hit anybody who hits them.

Until quite recently girls have not been expected to show any kind of courage. Timidity and helplessness have generally been cultivated among the feminine charms. It was thought not quite nice for girls to be able to perform feats of skill and daring.

Modern education, which treats boys and girls alike during their early years, has done much to reform this state of affairs. In school, at least, the girl is expected to be as brave and as little of a sniveller as her brother. But this new attitude is hardly as yet echoed in the home. Father still admonishes his son not to "cry like a girl" and his chief exhortations to manliness still consist in teaching him beligerency.

Boys and girls alike have need for courage. The form that is socially desirable is not so much the art of self-defense, as the ability to face hazardous situations with steady poise. It is the strength of Lindbergh rather than that of the pugilist which should be the object of hero worship. In this age the world needs not so much the courage of its fighters as that of its builders, explorers and discoverers.

Children should be trained from their earliest years to bear pain without undue fuss and tears. They should begin while young to take small risks. They should learn swimming and diving. They should be urged to do difficult gymnastic feats, and to take the bumps and knocks incident to the learning process without squealing. They should be helped to develop the poise which enables them to stand on high places without fear. They should enable them to stand on high places without fear. They should take part in rough and tumble games and think nothing of being knocked down now and then. As they grow older they should learn the many skills that take strength, steady nerves and fearless spirit.

HOOPER TRAVELS OVER ARGENTINE PAMPAS

(AP)—Herbert Hoover was traveling eastward across the vast Argentine pampas today toward Buenos Aires, the journey affording him an excellent opportunity of seeing the rural life of the country. Flu Will Be Combated Through Strategy Board

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13. (AP)—A program designed to combat influenza, prevalent in many sections of the country, was awaited today from a "board of strategy" appointed by Surgeon General Cumming.

Three members, bacteriologists of the Public Health Service, Dr. G. W. McCoy, Dr. W. H. Frost, and Dr. J. P. Leake, have already been in conference on the situation.

Public health service officials have said that the disease is apparently not as widespread, nor as virulent in character, as the outbreaks of 1918 and 1920, but they refused to make any predictions as to the probable course of the malady.

Health service officials believe that there are more than 200,000 cases of the disease in the country at present, 40,510 having been reported in 39 states, New York City and the District of Columbia.

Kansas leads all the states in the number of reported cases with 13,596, California being next with 10,296.

Smalling Declares Crowds Impressed by 1929 Chevrolet

T. F. Smalling of the Culberson-Smalling Chevrolet company has returned from Oklahoma City, where he attended an advance showing of the new Chevrolet six-cylinder car. He was accompanied by Leo Martin, Ralph Dunbar, Dee Richardson, and D. N. Ehrlick, salesman with the firm.

"Sixteen thousand persons attended the showing on Monday," Mr. Smalling said, "and if the public's preference for the new Chevrolet is to be indexed by what I observed from the Oklahoma City crowds, I feel certain that 'The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History' is destined to be one of the most sensational of all sales successes."

Mr. Smalling said that he will have the new models on display in his show rooms January 1, when deliveries are scheduled to begin.

AMUSEMENTS

REX VAUDEVILLE
Vaudeville of a unique character will be presented at The Rex Friday and Saturday. The first act will be Ramsey's feathered Thespians.

The little birds perform a repertoire of tricks, such as balancing, riding hobby horses, pulling miniature carriages, and singing under the direction of their leader. They seem to enjoy pleasing their audiences.

Act 2 will present a couple of singing lads, Earl Stanley Gilson, a singing newsboy of London, came to this country several years ago and met another newsboy singer, J. William Scott. The two formed a harmony duet that has earned fame under the title of "Radio Aces."

Conlin and Hamilton in the third act are dancers extraordinary. Miss Hamilton is said to be the only barefoot toe dancer on the American stage. The act has five numbers, which include a prologue, song and acrobatic waltz, barefoot toe dance, comedy talking and a song and whistling song by Miss Hamilton with a military song and soft shoe closing participated in by Mr. Conlin.

Many Clubs Are Affected by Sales of Baseball Players

NEW YORK, Dec. 13. (AP)—Bribe trading at major league meetings seems to affect the player market in other parts of the country as well as at places where the gatherings are held.

The Brooklyn Robins and the Chicago Cubs figured in deals announced after the National league managers had left for the joint meeting in Chicago. The Robins released Al Tyson, outfielder, to the Buffalo International in a cash deal.

The Cubs paid out $20,000 in hard money for "Sonny" Horne, Jersey City pitcher, who won 15 games and lost 17 in 1928.

Clubs sent Joe Zubris, pitcher for the New Haven club of the Eastern league to Reading in the International and Catcher George Benson from the Evansville Three-eye club to Fort Worth.

A transaction at Columbus, Ga., involved an entire club instead of merely a few players. C. D. Smith and his associates assured Columbus of an entry in the Southeastern league next season by buying the club.

JUDGES RULE IN SPORTDOM: LANDIS TOPS 'THE BIG FOUR'

Four men with present or past affiliations with the courts figure prominently in American sports. They are Judges Landis and Fuchs of baseball, Judge Steffen of football and Judge Mahoney of the A. A. U.

By JAY R. VESSELS (Feature Service Sports Editor.) NEW YORK. (AP)—They're laying down the law of athletics, are these judges of sportdom—Landis, Steffen, Fuchs and Mahoney.

For a long time the first named of the Big Four was THE Judge of sport, but the others have now attracted the public eye.

Doubtless the best known of the jurists associated with sports is the dynamic Judge Landis, high commissioner of baseball. Retained to help safeguard the game which at the time was staggering from the "Black Sox" scandal, Kenesaw Mountain Landis, formerly of the federal bench in Chicago, is still judge, a mighty judge, of things concerning professional baseball.

Another baseball figure with the word judge prefixing his name is Emil Fuchs, owner of the Boston Braves. His courage in accepting the management of his own team, baseball men say, merits ranking with the most fearless of jurists. Judge Fuchs formerly presided as a Boston magistrate.

Walter P. Steffens, a judge of the courts by vocation and a judge of a football talent by avocation, is a member of the superior court bench of Chicago. The brilliant Carnegie Tech team, undefeated during the 1928 football season until it met New York university in its closing game of the year, attests to the Chicago jurist's power and influence in the game of football. Judge Steffens, while officially designated as "advisory coach" at Carnegie, is recognized as the man behind the gun when it comes to football at the Pittsburgh institution.

Three of the judges hold power over national baseball, the Boston Braves or the Carnegie Tech gridiron terrors, but Judge Jeremiah T. Mahoney wields the gavel on legal subjects affecting the Amateur Athletic Union. As chairman of the judicial committee, he is chief advisor. He was active in the days of the late J. E. Sullivan and now is one of the trustees of the J. E. Sullivan fund, established to further the cause of amateur athletics. He receives the greeting "Good Morning, Judge," when he occupies the bench in a New York magistrate's court.

Christian church bazaar in the Annex Saturday, December 15. Fancy work, candies and cooked foods. 35-4

NEW YORK, Dec. 13. (AP)—The alumni weekly of New York university says that frequent substitutions have lodged football from a contest between two representative elevens to a test as to which of two institutions can produce the strongest aggregation of players. Many substitutions are made for tactical, not physical, reasons and are unnecessary.

N. Y. U. used 194 players in nine games while its opponents used 148, an average of over 20 to the game for N. Y. U., and under 17 for the opposing teams. Only 20 New York players and 31 opponents played through a full game.

Giving as an example the Army-Notre Dame game in which one player was in for one play, the one that decided the victory, the weekly says that the substitutions are "a matter of tactics" and "as for strategy, the coach runs the team during the game as well as before and after."

LIBERTY, Dec. 13. (AP)—Motorists of this section apparently bear chafed feet. In the last two weeks, five automobiles and trucks have plunged through the guard rail of a highway bridge near here and dropped 18 feet to the creek bed below without a single serious casualty.

All of the machines were badly damaged.

Both Semi-Finals of League Involved in Eligibility Cases

AUSTIN, Dec. 13. (AP)—Eligibility decisions bearing on both of the semi-final games in the Interscholastic league's football race faced the executive committee of the league when it met here today.

A protest from Corsicana that Seaman Squyers, star of the Cleburne team, is playing his fifth year, and a similar charge from Athens against Ralph Murff, of the Marshall team, must be settled before the week-end games.

Cleburne and Abilene are scheduled to play at Abilene and Marshall at Port Arthur at Marshall. Both games are scheduled for tomorrow.

N. Y. Captain Has "Repeated Bumps" to Worry Doctors

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13. (AP)—Al Lassman, New York university football captain, who has been in a hospital here since the Carnegie Tech game of November 17 with a head injury, seems to be suffering from a case of "repeated bumps." He is improving daily.

"We have just learned," said his doctor today, "that Lassman spent almost every week-end in a hospital recovering from head and neck injuries incurred in football. His present case seems to be an accumulation of these repeated bumps."

The statement added that he had suffered an impairment of functioning of his left side, but at no time could it be construed as paralysis.

Rod, Reel Stars Start Training for Dixie Meet

ORLANDO, Fla., Dec. 13. (AP)—The annual Southern States Casting tournament here in February is attracting many devotees of the rod and reel.

Al Foss of Cleveland, who won the cup for accuracy last season, has announced he will be present to meet Walter Willman, Chicago, who held the trophy the previous year. Fred Brown, who won the cup the first year it was offered, has promised to try his skill again.

Besides these men, other nationally known nimrods are in Orlando getting in some preliminary casts. They include: Paul Bures, South Bend, Ind.; G. P. Wilmot, Cincinnati, and Louis Hurst and Fred T. Johnson of Indianapolis.

Others who have sent in entry blanks include: Dr. W. E. Murphy, Cincinnati; J. D. Palmer, Akron, Ohio; W. J. Buckwalter, Cleveland, Ohio; William Stanley, Chicago; William Green, Cincinnati; Joe Pflueger, Akron; Dave Phillips, Cleveland, and Victor Cissnell, Cleveland.

Fifty heavers were entered last year and officials state that the number will be doubled at the coming tournament.

Back Again

The above is the likeness of Frankie Farrell, known as the "Pampa Flash" who will endeavor to make a comeback at the Pla-Mor auditorium tonight when he meets Young Kid Stewart. Both boys will enter the ring at 132 pounds.

They will fight the semifinal to the Varner-Tramel bout. As in the Whittington bout, the latter two have met before, with Tramel having the edge. He gained one KO and a draw with Varner. The local product says he is in the best of condition for his bout with Tramel and that he is going out to win.

A battle royal will precede the semi-final event. Several good preliminaries will be staged to open the big card.

Tex Rickard Says He Lost Chance to Promote War Between Bolivia and Paraguay Way Back in 1913

NEW YORK, Dec. 13. (AP)—Tex Rickard made known today that in 1913 he lost a chance to promote the biggest battle of his career—a war between Bolivia and Paraguay.

Rickard spent eight years in Paraguay, going there in 1912 with twenty Texas cowboys sent by the Farquhar syndicate engaged in the cattle industry and development of the country's resources.

"In 1913," said Rickard, "I came up through the Argentine with twenty cowboys, 50,000 head of cattle and a train of about 50 wagons, with the idea of crossing into Paraguay across the Pilcomayo river the boundary between Paraguay and the Argentine."

"Well, as soon as we got in Paraguay we came across a lot of foris, all filled with Bolivians. All these Bolivians—soldiers they were—said that if we didn't turn back they'd shoot us. 'We thought we'd better go around, so we came out again and went south through the Argentine to Asuncion and into Paraguay across the eastern boundary, the Paraguay river. When we got there we told them how there were a lot of Bolivians sitting in foris in the middle of Paraguay and that vexed them a bit.

"Anyway, they all came around to me, the president, the cabinet and every one, and they told me that if I'd go out and fight the Bolivians they'd give me all the soldiers I wanted and more. They'd give me an army, in fact.

"Well, I didn't like to act without instructions, so I wired to my people in Buenos Aires and they cabled to Mr. Farquhar in Paris. He didn't want a war, though; he had too many big interests; he had too much at stake. And so I missed my chance to lead an army."

The promoter of pugilistic fights said he still owns 500 square miles of land in the Gran Chaco, the disputed territory.

Pumpkin Pie

Because Fall and Winter bring us pumpkin pies we can almost forgive them for their bluster and chill.

The flavor of pumpkin is so delicious that when made into a pie it fully deserves a tender, flaky crust which only a delicate shortening like Crisco can make.

Try the recipe below. See if you don't agree that it's the best ever.

- | | |
|--|---------------------|
| Pastry | |
| 1 1/2 cups pastry flour | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| 1/2 cup Crisco | Cold water |
| Filling | |
| 2 eggs beaten light | 1 cup sugar |
| 1 1/2 cups stewed pumpkin (not strained) | 1 teaspoon cinnamon |
| 1 1/2 cups milk | 1 teaspoon ginger |
| | 1/2 teaspoon salt |

Sift flour and salt. Cut Crisco in with two knives until the size of small peas. Add water (4 to 6 tablespoons) to make a paste, which clears the bowl. Cover, keep pie plate and pinch with fingers to make fancy edge. Mix together sugar, spices and salt. Mix thoroughly with pumpkin. Add eggs, mix well. Last add milk. Put in filling and bake in very hot oven (450° F.) until pie crust begins to brown, about 15 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate (350° F.) and bake until filling has set, about 30 minutes longer.

Crisco's sweet flavor will delight you!

READ THESE FINAL RULES AND INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY

As a matter of precaution and to guard against possibility of loss to candidates through misunderstanding through these last days of the campaign, herewith are appended the final rules and instructions that must be observed. All candidates, particularly those residing in outside towns should read and weigh every line carefully.

- The campaign will end promptly at 9 o'clock p. m., Saturday, December 15, 1928.
- All subscriptions, reserve ballots and remittances must be in the News office at Pampa by that hour. The doors of the office will be closed and be locked promptly on the stroke of the hour, but all contestants who are inside at that time will be waited upon, and given ample opportunity to turn in subscriptions and votes, even though several hours are consumed. No one, however, will be allowed to enter the office after 9 p. m., until after the official judges have taken charge of the ballot boxes.
- If you live outside Pampa and intend to mail your votes and final remittances, take precautions to find out exactly what time your local postoffice closes, and concerning train service to Pampa. Positively no remittances received by mail later than 9 p. m., Saturday, December 15, 1928, will be included. All remittances sent after Thursday should come special delivery in order to insure their reaching us in time.
- All letters containing votes and remittances should be addressed plainly: Campaign Manager, The Daily News, Pampa, Texas. The Daily News or the Campaign Manager will not be responsible for remittances sent by mail which do not arrive in time.
- Examine your vote ballots carefully and see that the proper number of votes have been given. If there is any error notify the campaign manager in writing before Thursday, December 13. Neither the News nor the Campaign Manager will be responsible for any clerical errors unless notice is given before the final count commences.
- Be sure your name and district number is on every ballot before turning it in.
- UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL VOTES BE TRANSFERRED FROM ONE CONTESTANT TO ANOTHER. THIS IS AN ABSOLUTE RULE AND WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED.
- Second payment must be marked as such on the subscription stub, also the amount of the first payment, in order that the proper difference may be credited. Neither the News nor the Campaign Manager, will be responsible for errors in second payment credits unless notice is given before the final count commences. The decision of the judges on the votes as issued will be final.
- Subscriptions this week will receive votes according to the Final Vote Schedule. It is final and conclusive and will never change. The scale on the book of receipt books is now void. Note the tremendous number of votes given this week on a 3-year subscription. The number is 104,000.
- Contestants may send in their reserve votes any time now, as the ballot box has been locked and sealed and will not again be opened until the official judges break the seal and begin the final count.
- All votes now in the possession of contestants have not yet been voted. They must be in the ballot box or in possession of the contestant in the campaign office by 9 p. m., Saturday, December 15, to receive credit. The same applies to all votes you receive this week under the final vote schedule. Neither the News nor the Campaign Manager, will be responsible for the counting of your votes unless you send them in.
- When sending in your votes, do not roll or fold them, but keep them absolutely flat, using little piece of cardboard. Be sure to use special delivery stamps on all letters, containing votes and subscriptions.
- Positively no personal checks will be accepted in payment for subscriptions, this final week. All remittances must be express or postal money orders, or the actual cash. If you have any checks given to you by subscribers, go to the bank and have them certified before turning them in.
- Positively no subscriptions will be accepted without the money, and no money will be accepted without the subscriptions. No subscription money will be refunded. No prize can be exchanged for cash or commission.
- Owing to the uncertainty of mails reaching contestants in time to be returned for the final count the Campaign Manager will not, after Thursday, return any ballots that are issued on subscriptions received by mail. Prompt acknowledgement, however, will be made by mail of all remittances received and the votes will be deposited in the locked and sealed ballot box.
- Every contestant is urged to be present Saturday night, although it is not required. The count will begin just as soon as possible after the last ballots have been deposited in the ballot box, and the result be known in an hour or so. The Buick, Chevrolet and Whippet will be turned over to their new owners the minute the judges announce their names. Orders for prizes other than the automobiles, and cash commission checks for qualified non-prize winners will be mailed out immediately.
- No new entries will be received this week. The names of the automobile winners are on this page. Who they are, only the final votes will tell.
- Every contestant is advised to do his or her level best this week. Victory is in the Final Vote Schedule Work—fight—to the last ditch!

THE OFFICIAL JUDGES

B. E. FINLEY
President First National Bank of Pampa

J. M. DODSON M. K. BROWN
Vice Pres. Gray Co. Agt. White Deer Land
State Bank Company

With these well known and highly respected citizens of Pampa in charge of the tabulation of the vote totals, every contestant is assured of a fair and square deal. These judges are absolutely impartial. They have no interests in the fortunes of any contestant, and they will conduct the count in a methodical and business-like way, entirely impersonal. The News feels extremely fortunate to have secured the service of these reliable gentlemen.

The count of the ballots will be public and everyone is cordially invited to attend. The count will begin just as soon after 9 o'clock Saturday night as the last ballots have been dropped into the locked and sealed ballot box, and the result should be known within an hour or so. The automobiles will be waiting in front of the Daily News office and the keys and bills of sale to them will be turned over to the winners the minute the judges announce their names.

A battery of Burrough's adding machines will be used in the final count, and with the nimble fingers of these judges playing upon them, the winners should be driving around in their own new cars at an early hour.

Come Saturday night and see the fun.

Contest Ends at 9 Saturday Night You Must Hurry!

THEY'RE NECK AND NECK! Almost ready to flash under the wire. Shattering all records in point of subscriptions obtained, candidates in the Pampa Daily News big $5,000 Automobile and Prize Voting campaign are pounding down the homestretch straining every resource at their command to forge ahead. The finish is only a short distance ahead now, and only a few hours remain to gather the winning votes—to make victory certain. Realization of this fact is sending candidates into every nook and corner of Gray county—and beyond—running down every possibility of a subscription—grasping at every opportunity that will yield more votes. For it is votes, and votes alone that will decide the winners of the three luxurious motor cars pictured on this page that are to be presented to the happy winners just after 9 o'clock Saturday night.

Bringing up every ounce of energy, contestants in both districts are rushing pell mell in every direction after subscriptions big and little to push them safely across the line. And the results of their herculean efforts is taxing the capacity of the Campaign Manager and his staff, who are forced to work long into the night cleaning up details of each days business and voting. Subscriptions of all kinds are rolling into the campaign office in a never ending stream. Like the waves of a charging regiment on they come, never ceasing, never faltering.

This is a race without a parallel. Never before was such a sensational dash to the finish seen. Present indications are that tomorrow and Saturday will surpass all previous records, with Saturday the greatest of all. Many candidates are running neck and neck, and the votes on just a few subscriptions may make all the difference in the world when the final count is made Saturday night.

The automobile winner of today might be only a wrist watch winner tomorrow, so rapidly are the changes coming.

Of course, all effort is centered on the automobiles. Every candidate wants one. Three of them will receive cars. Votes only will decide. And those whose names the official judges read off as winners will rejoice. For months and years they will skim about in their own luxurious machines—won through effort.

Do not make the fatal mistake of underestimating the strength of any of your competitors. Remember that they too have a reserve for the ballot box count. The campaign manager has known of instances where contestants have underestimated the strength of their competitors. Overconfidence is fatal.

And now—everything is in readiness for the finish. The end is in the hands of candidates and their friends. Persons who have been watching the progress of the race with interest and those who have friends in this list of aspirants whom they would like to help MUST DO IT NOW!

To the Candidates, let it be said that the end is fraught with uncertainty. Work—fight—to the last ditch.

Revenge May Have Lived 40 Years

CARBONDALE, Ill., Dec. 13. (P)—J. C. Hundley, wealthy pioneer and former mayor of Carbondale, and his wife were shot to death shortly before midnight by a burglar in their home.

Hundley, who was 76 years old, was shot in the head as he undressed for bed. The intruder, who apparently had lurked in the bedroom, fled downstairs and chased Mrs. Hundley up a back stairway. Killing her instantly with three pistol shots, he turned off the lights, went out the front door, locked it, and escaped.

Revenge for a killing of nearly 40 years ago suggested itself to police as a motive for Hundley's slaying. He once killed a music teacher, they recalled, for holding a tryst with his first wife.

Negro Trooper at Fort Concho, Who Failed to Die When Believed Dead, Will Really Be Buried This Time

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 13. (P)—"Dead" Ellis, aged negro trooper of Ft. Concho, who earned his nickname by coming to life after his companions had started preparations for his funeral, is really dead this time.

Ellis, whose age was not known, died here yesterday. He had lived here since the establishment of a frontier post here 62 years ago. In his later years he was an eccentric, but was popular and every one at Ft. Concho knew him.

With Ellis' death, only one other negro soldier of the old fort remains. He is "Old" Cox, who says, of Ellis' coming to life:

"Ellis had been in a hospital and 'died' about 9 o'clock one morning. He was put in the dead house and his body was kept overnight. A bunch of us sat up with the body, drank some coffee and some whisky, and were singing a hymn, when the corpse began to wiggle.

"One of the men hollered: 'That man ain't dead—he's moving!'

"Three men ran for the door and got jammed in it, and I went through a window. Somebody landed on top of me and I thought dead Ellis had me for sure.

"The steward at the hospital got Ellis and he recovered. I was always skittish of him."
