

COMMISSION OF THREE IS NAMED

GRAND JURY SAYS OFFICERS ARE NEGLIGENT

Cites That Sheriff Should Not Take Fines

MANY PAPERS LOST ENTIRELY

16 Indictments Are Returned—All Are Felonies

Emphatic recommendations for closer following of legal procedure in Gray County were made by the grand jury in its final report Friday, when Judge Newton P. Willis further discussed allegations that county officers have been negligent in many instances.

After stating to the grand jury that the facts and circumstances found by them had made convictions difficult or impossible in many cases, Judge Willis turned to a discussion of the county commissioners and the ways they may help to improve the situation. He declared it the duty of the commissioners to exercise greater diligence in requiring legal procedure in all county departments. And he particularly urged the immediate construction of a new jail, maintaining that the present structure is so inadequate that proper detaining of all prisoners while the necessary legal steps are being followed is impossible.

The full grand jury report follows:

We have returned into your court 16 true bills of indictment, all dealing with offenses of a felony grade. We have not inquired into any offenses of a felony grade. We have not inquired into any offense of a misdemeanor grade and have returned no bills covering these characters of offense because of the many felony matters which we have had to deal with.

We have endeavored to investigate every law violation that has been brought to our attention, and in every case we have tried to fairly and impartially view the evidence and do our duty under the law. It has been brought to our attention that our county officers have been collecting fines in misdemeanor cases and at a later date having said cases docketed upon the dockets of the courts. This practice has been condemned time and time again by other grand juries and by the proper court officials of this county and other counties and consequently, we see no reason why such a pernicious system should not have been abolished long ago. A system of this character is not legal and will never in any instance work as a means towards proper law enforcement. The law violator knows that as long as he is allowed to pay the officers petty fines that he is nothing more than a licensee under the officials to violate the law. This system has been practiced considerably in cases where a violation of the prohibition laws was involved and in each instance the offender was made to pay a petty fine and then released. As a matter of law, the offender should either be punished by being confined in the penitentiary or acquitted by the proper court having jurisdiction, in the event he is found not guilty by a jury of his peers. We condemn this practice severely and strenuously recommend that every officer refrain in the future from following same.

We further note that in cases of a felony grade arising before the justices of the peace for preliminary hearing that the justices of the peace are very negligent with all papers in the case. In every instance the justice of the peace should first see to it that an examining trial is not waived by the state. Next, he should see that the testimony for the state is taken down in writing under his direction. Then he should see that all complaints, search warrants, the written testimony, and every other paper in cause be carefully preserved.

New Wells But Gray County Is Slightly Slower

Although several new wells were reported, production in the Panhandle area fell off 1,755 barrels in daily production this week, dropping to 81,925 barrels. Every county with the exception of Wheeler showed a decrease, with Hutchinson county dropping 1,690 barrels. Gray county slowed down to 14,155 barrels, losing 185 barrels, but this report is still large. The coming week's production is expected to increase production in Gray county, as several wells are expected to be drilled in. Two wells in the Bowers pool are expected in, while increased production is looked for in the Wilcox and McConnell pools.

Carson county continued on the decline losing 192 barrels while Hutchinson county tabogained 1,680 barrels to reach a total of 59,010 barrels. Wheeler county produced 1,415 barrels, or an increase of 285 barrels, while Moore county produced 20 barrels daily for an increase of 15 barrels.

After being deepened 120 feet, an increase of 210 barrels a day is reported in the Empire Fuel and Gas company's No. 1 J. F. Meers in section 197, block 3. The well had formerly been flowing 10 barrels a day from 3,139 feet and after deepening to 3,320 feet a flow of 250 barrels is reported, with a slight increase of gas.

This well was brought in several months ago for light production which decreased. Following the successful deepening of several wells in the Wilcox pool of the Pampa field, the Empire company successfully deepened its Meers well for a large increase, natural flow.

The Last Chance Gas company's No. 1, (formerly Tipton-McConnell) McConnell in section 201, block 4, Caraga county, is swabbing more than 100 barrels a day at 3,286 feet, with a light flow of gas. This well is being deepened after being abandoned at 3,025 feet several years ago.

This well has been taken over by local men who are drilling it in. The well was three years in drilling to its former depth when it was abandoned as a gasser.

This location extends the field more than a mile nearer Pampa on the northwest side of the city.

The Empire Fuel and Gas company plans to deepen its No. 1 Hughes in section 129, block 3, which is at present making 10 barrels a day.

The Guernsey Oil company's No. 1 McKinney in section 163, block 3, 1 shut down at 1,050 feet to set 10 inch casing. This location is close to the Camel Oil company's No. 1 Harrah in the same section.

R. R. Osborne, local man, will drill a well on the McKinney lease in section 163, block 3, which is a direct offset to the Guernsey Oil company's No. 1 in the same section.

The Magnolia Petroleum company will drill a well on the J. J. Wall lease in section 162, block 3. This location is a half-mile south and a quarter-mile east of the Camel Oil company's No. 1 Harrah in section 163, block 3.

The Sun Oil company will drill a well No. 1 Jackson in section 94, block B-2, Gray county.

The Naville Oil company's No. 1 Sullivan in section 9, block 26 between the Amagray well and the LeFors townsite well is reported from LeFors to have started making 20 barrels an hour following a shot. First pay was found at 2,757 feet, while the total depth is 3,226 feet.

ed by being placed in a sealed envelope and forthwith forwarded to the clerk of the district court to be held by him until the following grand jury convenes. Gross negligence has been discovered in many instances relative to the papers and on divers occasions practically all of the papers in a criminal case have been lost. The Grand Jury and officials are totally unable to cope with the situation like this and the result

Four Hard Fighting Eagles

WIGGINS

WILLIAMS

(Special to The News.)

CANYON, Texas, Nov. 25.—Four Eagles who will bear the brunt of the Harvester attack in the District Championship game Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Buffalo park in Canyon are pictured above.

These four Eagles have been outstanding in this season's fight which has taken the team up to the finals. Every man in the Eagle squad is in excellent condition after the week's rest, and will fight the Harvester's Saturday as they never have in any previous game.

The Canyon Eagles have lost only one game this year, and that was to Amarillo, a class A team. This game was played at the first of the season after the Eagles had had only one week of signal practice.

Since that defeat the Eagles have settled down to real work. They have played seven class B teams and have won them all by scores which are listed below:

Canyon 26, Tulia 0; Canyon 49, Lockney 6; Canyon 21, Friona 13; Canyon 28, Panhandle 0; Canyon 32, Clovis, N. M. 0; Canyon 14, Hereford 0; Canyon 25, Farwell-Tejico 0. The total score for Canyon is 186 points, for her opponents 19. Thirteen of the 19 points were scored against the Eagles by Friona while the second string players were in the game. The speedy Lockney fullback scored the other six from kickoff. "The Eagles" goal line has not been crossed by a conference B team this year.

This makes the fourth year that the Canyon Eagles have played in the finals of the district. In 1924 Clarendon won the game from Canyon by a score of 19 to 6. In 1925 Memphis won from Canyon 24 to 21. In 1926 Clarendon won from Canyon by a score of 7 to 0.

Raise Good Cattle, Keep Down Production Costs, Urges Texas University Research Specialist

AUSTIN, Nov. 25.—The importance of the cattle raiser's keeping down production costs cannot be stressed too strongly at the present time, advises George M. Lewis, livestock research specialist in the bureau of business research of the University of Texas.

"At the present time," says Mr. Lewis, "the danger is for production costs to increase along with the advertising price level. The natural tendency of producers is to think in terms of what the animal will bring on the market of which they have no control and to give little attention to production costs over which they are able to exert influence."

It is this factor in the cattle raising industry which constitutes a part of the so-called agricultural problems, according to Mr. Lewis, who says that the control of such costs rests largely with the individual stock raiser and is one that can be solved without the aid of legislation.

"It is a dangerous practice for livestock producers to expand their operations at this time, especially on borrowed capital, with the expectation of seeing the present price level increased materially," says Mr. Lewis. "The conservative purchasers should on only an increase in weight and quality to cover their costs of operations and margin of profit. This is possible provided prices remain at or above the present level but this is a risk that is dangerous to assume when prices are high. The most secure and fortunate cattlemen are those who purchased their stock when prices were much lower and (See GOOD CATTLE, Col. 2, pg. 8.)

Panhandle Marshal Attacked in Letter

(Special to The News)

PANHANDLE, Nov. 25.—City Marshal Bud Bickle this week received an anonymous letter attacking his record as an officer and advising him to change his methods or leave this city.

The Marshal branded the letter as slanderous, and said he would not only remain in Panhandle, but would be in the race for sheriff of Carson county.

Harvesters Off To Canyon For Deciding Battle

Coach Verde Dickey and his fighting Harvesters will leave this afternoon for Canyon where they will meet the Canyon Eagles tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m. in Buffalo stadium.

The team will go as far as Amarillo this afternoon and will see a movie tonight. They will stay in Amarillo tonight, going on to Canyon in the morning.

Before leaving, Captain Ed Herlacher said he expected his team to come back victorious, but that it would probably have one of the hardest fights of the season. Canyon has had her line crossed but once this season by a class B team. The Harvesters have almost as good a record, having her line crossed only twice this season.

Archie Walstad the fast Pampa quarterback, will lead his strongest line-up into battle, although Sam Carlton is suffering with a bruised shoulder and may only be used part of the time. The boys went through a light signal practice at 2 o'clock this afternoon before leaving.

The Harvesters have not met the Canyon team since 1922, when they were successful in winning two games. Both teams have improved since that time and a hard battle is looked for, although Pampa supporters are backing the home team to win by two touchdowns.

If the local squad wins over Canyon, it will meet the Slaton Tigers on the home field next week. The Tigers won yesterday's game from Floydada, 14 to 3. Pampa and Slaton have not met since 1923, when the Harvesters won 3 to 0 to take the district championship.

NEW BODY TO TAKE OFFICE NEXT MONDAY

Audit of City Books Will Begin on Friday

ALL BILLS ARE REQUESTED NOW

Retiring Administration Leaves Record of Achievement

Unopposed for the place, T. D. Hobart, credited with being one of the prominent, pioneer builders of Pampa, was elected mayor Tuesday. He received 310 votes.

Lynn Boyd and D. W. Osborne were the other commissioners elected to serve until next April under the new commission-manager form of government.

The vote: For commissioner No. 1—Osborne 165, Campbell 146. For commissioner No. 2—Boyd 162, Mason 148. There were eleven mutilated ballots.

The new administration will go into office next Monday. In preparation for their retirement, the present councilmen have ordered an audit of the city records, which will be started by the H. V. Robertson company of Amarillo Friday.

The city urgently requested today that all bills against it be presented not later than Saturday, in order that the records may be closed as far as possible when the present administration retires.

Mayor P. P. Reid and his councilmen will retire at the end of a period in which many public improvements and other progress have been made. The new body will come into office as the big sewer extensions are just getting under way. Concrete pipe has been selected, and William Hale, in charge of arrangements for the Jordan Construction company, is moving in machinery preparatory to starting work.

Mayor-elect Hobart today asked the News "to express my sincere appreciation of the sentiment of the citizens of Pampa, as expressed in yesterday's election."

Composite Exhibit of Plains Counties Is Meeting Topic

Chambers of Commerce executives, county agents, real estate men, and other interested persons have been asked to attend a meeting called by the Amarillo Board of City Development for December 8.

This session will convene at the Amarillo hotel at 10 a. m., to consider a composite exhibit of the counties of this area for various fairs. Other sections of the state, particularly the Rio Grande valley, have aided immigration by such efforts, and it is believed the Panhandle should launch a similar movement.

Thanksgiving With All the Trimmings Enjoyed Thursday

The First Methodist church was one of the most popular places in the city yesterday. The ladies of the church served a capacity crowd at the noon-day luncheon in the church basement. Generous servings of chicken, salad, potatoes, and pumpkin pie were placed before the large crowds.

Professor Otto Schick and his church orchestra furnished dinner music to the delight of the large crowd while R. B. Fisher sang "Morning Glories Bloom for You" and "Sweetheart of Mine," two of Professor Schick's latest compositions, in his pleasing manner.

Various dining rooms of the city also served delicious dinners to many.

CHARITY DRIVE GIVEN IMPETUS BY DISCUSSION

Clearing House for All Help Is Declared Necessary

COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

Work of Associated Charities Is Outlined

With about $800 in hand from the drive of the week, directors of the Associated Charities campaign will sum the work Friday at 9 a. m., with renewed vigor and the determination to inaugurate the work here as a clearing house for all charity.

A group of business men met at 10 a. m., Wednesday and planned remainder of the drive. Team captains were appointed to solicit funds in the four districts into which the city was divided, using the intersection of Foster and Cuyler as the basis. They are:

Southwest portion: Martin McGarrity, captain; J. M. McDonald, the Rev. W. L. Evans.

Southeast portion: O. W. Ferguson, captain; Roy Harris, the Rev. Tom W. Brabham.

Northeast portion: C. W. McMillan, captain; B. W. Rose.

Northwest portion: Ivey Duncan, captain; F. M. Culbertson.

A minimum of $3,500 is desired in order that a nurse may be employed to take charge of the Associated Charities office. Aside from rendering valuable personal service to destitutes who may be ill, and in assisting in health programs for the schools and community, she would, under the direction of a large board of directors, investigate all applicants for charity and keep a permanent record of every case.

The city would be asked to prohibit begging on the streets, and all charity cases would be referred to the Associated Charities office. At this headquarters, clothing and food would be received for general distribution as needed. Probably a campaign for clothing would be held by the churches, and the garments would be sorted and kept at the office for families in distress.

Permanent records would make abuse of the system almost impossible as far as local conditions are concerned, and persons actually needing work and food would be helped from day to day. The Associated Charities office also could lend aid to the Business Men's association, and in turn be assisted by the latter. The peace officers would find the office of much value, and Associated Charities being a social center for those in need, the director might be something of a police matron.

This system has been seen in action by a number of local business men, who endorse it unreservedly. They express the idea that the city, the school board, the county, and the big oil companies will get such service from Associated Charities that they will be glad to contribute.

Local citizens are asked to make a single contribution now, or a pledge, and then be free of solicitation for charity for a whole year. And not only, it is stressed, will begging be stopped, but many unfortunate helped who are suffering in silence and need assistance.

Doctors Help Nurse in Clinic

Miss Jewell Lovelace, Pampa independent school nurse, and Drs. Martin Hunter, McKean, Wild and Purviance conducted a free clinic for 40 students of the B. M. Baker school at the Pampa hospital this week.

The school nurse has made an examination of the pupils of the Baker school, and has made a report to the parents.

This morning pupils who need medical treatment were examined by local doctors and a report of the examinations will be sent to the parents. Special care has been taken with regard to tonsils, adenoids, eyes, and contagious diseases.

Local Men Are Injured When Car Overtakes in Road

H. A. Gilliland, owner of the Crescent theatre, suffered a broken collar bone, several broken ribs, and severe bruises, and John Postlewalte received bruises and cuts when their car turned over near Jerico Wednesday morning.

The car apparently became unmanageable when it struck some loose dirt in the road. The car, a large Hupmobile, is almost a complete wreck.

The two men are resting at their homes here.

CARBON BLACK PLANT IS USING 260 MEN NOW

24-Hour Schedule Is Followed During Construction

CABOT CO. HAS OFFICES HERE

Big Task Expected to Be Completed by January

Two hundred and sixty men, working in shifts of 24 hours a day, are rushing to completion one of the biggest industrial plants near Pampa—the Cabot Co., carbon black plant.

Thousands of pieces of steel and sheet iron are being welded and bolted into little houses in which 5 1-2 billion feet of gas will be burned annually to obtain the carbon black. Six welding machines are being used every hour of the day.

The big plant, covering 13 1-2 acres of the 40-acre tract recently purchased, is located in section 86, block 4, of Carson county, 15 miles west of Pampa.

The Cabot Co., has its state office in Pampa, in charge of W. A. Duerr, although another plant owned by this firm is located near Breckenridge. The company is a subsidiary to the Godfrey L. Cabot Co., Inc., of Boston.

When completed about January 1 this will be, it is said, the largest single unit operating in this country. It will have two divisions of 40 houses each, and the site has been excavated and leveled for twice that capacity. In all, 70,000 cubic yards of earth was moved. The plant will be the first to be operated by electricity, the power being obtained from the Skelly power plant. Gas is obtained from the Skelly Oil company.

When in operation the carbon black plant will employ more than 30 men.

Reid and Fisher Presented Honorary Badges as Firemen

Mayor F. P. Reid and C. H. Fisher were presented with honorary membership badges by Chief Ben White of the Pampa Volunteer Fire department yesterday afternoon. Mr. Fisher was former city secretary and took a keen interest in the fire department, while Mayor Reid has always been one of the "boys."

The members of the brigade met at the fire hall yesterday afternoon to have their pictures taken. This is the first photo that has been taken since the arrival of the new American LaFrance fire truck.

WE ARE THANKFUL FOR

Thanksgiving day is here once more and on this day that is set aside each year for feasting, thanksgiving, and prayer, we have many things to be thankful for. First of all we are thankful for this wonderful country in which we live, its government, and great educational systems. We are thankful for life, health, and loved ones that we have about us; for our food, clothing, and home we enjoy. We appreciate the air we breathe and the good water we have to drink. We are thankful for the green earth that gives us our daily bread, the trees, the flowers, the rain and the sunshine; for each day of our lives, and the work and play it brings. We are thankful most for heaven above, and that we know that God is love.—Josephine Lane (Fifth Grade.) Lamar School.

WHAT I AM THANKFUL FOR

I wonder if everyone looks forward to Thanksgiving dinner as much as I do and can just see the good things that we will have to eat. I am certainly glad that the Pilgrims came over, and caused such an important day for us to all enjoy. Almost everyone first thinks of what he will do on Thanksgiving, but really it is a day that we should all offer our thanks for the good things that have been given us. How many of us think often enough how we are blessed with food, shelter, and clothing, and how we are allowed to work and earn these? Due to our good form of government everyone is given a chance to get a good education.

When we get tired of work, we can enjoy the most beautiful scenery in our town United States. In fact, I think it would take me a very long time to name all of the things that we should be thankful for in the present and in the future.—Lorraine Noel (Fifth Grade.) Lamar School.

LET EACH DAY BE ONE OF THANKSGIVING

As turkey time rolls around again, this great nation of ours pauses for a day to think about the blessings of the past year and to give thanks. Perhaps someone will be heard to say, "I have nothing to be thankful for." He who utters these words surely could not mean them. A black cloud has darkened his life for a moment and he thinks only of the sad side of his life. Think of the pioneer who, three hundred years ago, gathered his family and friends to the first Thanksgiving. He was really grateful for his blessings and truly gave thanks. If the pilgrim was so content with his lot, then what should be our attitude toward the life and opportunities we enjoy in our present day?

So let not some sorrow darken your life to such an extent that nothing brings happiness. We all know people who are so enthusiastic about living that they feel like giving thanks every day instead of the last Thursday in November every year. These people have had misfortunes in life, it is true; but they are broad enough to realize that some of the greatest achievements in life are the result of having had some "hard luck." If we are defeated in some understanding we naturally know better how to understand a fellow man who has been unfortunate. If you think you are the most unfortunate person in the world, look about you and you will see many who are not nearly so well off as yourself. Life is not all sunshine neither is it all sorrow. Don't forget that it is darkest just before dawn and resolve to be a person who makes every day a Thanksgiving Day.—Lillian Keahy, (Senior.)

Rotarians Laud Football Squad at Luncheon

The football boys were entertained with a banquet Wednesday noon by the Rotary club in the Schneider hotel dining room. All the Harvesters, Coach Verdie Dickey, Assistant Coach Djal, and Professors Campbell and Fisher were present. This banquet was appreciated very much by all the guests and shows that the Rotary club and Pampa are backing the football team.

Several members of the Rotary club gave the boys some good advice to follow through life. Mr. Campbell, Mr. Fisher, Mr. Djal, and Mr. Dickey made some good speeches for the football boys and what they were doing in school this year. The football team appreciate very much the spirit and the backing that the city is giving them this year.

Harvester Peppers Give Banquet To Football Team

The "Harvester Peppers" had charge of the opening of chapel exercises Wednesday morning. Lucille Mooney, the yell leader, presented the football team with a beautiful bouquet of white carnations, as a token of true sportsmanship.

The Harvester Peppers appreciate the good work and games the Harvesters have put over. Six of the Harvester Peppers from the band rendered a splendid program. They sang a few songs to the tune of their kazooes and horns.

Rev. Truhitte was the principal speaker on the program. He urged the students to "Take God into your plans." Then he added, "The world of today needs men with an education and a purpose."

Prof. R. B. Fisher rendered two vocal solos, entitled "Morning Glories Bloom for You," and "Sweetheart of Mine." He was accompanied by Mr. Joe Strother, pianist, and Prof. Schick, violinist. The two solos were composed by Prof. Schick.

A "Players Club" will be organized for the plays that are to be given this school year, sponsored by Miss Reid.

Wit and Humor

Vernon Culverhouse, Editor.

Archie W: I saw a bull at the fair that weighed 3,300 pounds.
Hugh B: That's a lot of bull.

Miss Reid, in Spanish class: Turn to the idiomatic expressions on page 285.

Fern H., sleepily: What did you say about idiotic expressions?

History Questions.

Who killed the Dead Sea?
Who painted the Red Sea?
In what year was the war of 1812 fought?
On what date is the fourth of July?
In what month is December 25?
Who invented school, and why?
Was Solomon as wise as he is credited with being or did he merely have a good press agent?
This question was turned in by a Spanish student: "How can Spaniards understand each other?"

Mr. Lester: Why does a dog curl his tail?
Atry H.: So the fleas can loop the loop.

Loyd M.: Why is paper money more valuable than silver?
Homer K.: I dunno.
Loyd: Because when you put it in your pocket you double it and when you take it out you find it increases.

Mr. Fisher: In what class shall I put the boy who has the hives?
Mr. Campbell: You might put him in the B class.
Miss Carter: What is an island?
Chariss L.: A wart on the ocean.

We shall end our weekly spasm with a little advice to the wise:
Don't do today what you can put off 'til tomorrow.

Bradford: We are all here to have three days of feasting and merriment, but we gathered together most of all to give thanks to God for all he has given.
Standish: I am very thankful that we have not starved during the cold winter.

Bradford: Let us bow our heads and thank God for the things he has given us. Standish will lead in prayer.

Standish: We thank thee, Oh Lord, for the way thou hast given us food and many other things. Oh God, we thank thee for the way the Indians have received us and let us live among them. We ask thee to help us with our crops and homes that are so crude, that we built with logs. All these things we ask in thy name. Amen.
Bradford: Now we will eat in happiness.

THANKSGIVING FOR OTHERS

(A Story.)
Twelve enthusiastic Scouts met to complete their plans for Thanksgiving. Each presented his dollar which he had promised to earn during the preceding week.

"Now, I believe we have $12 counting mine. We can do a great deal of good with that sum. Does anyone know of a special family he would like to help?" the Scoutmaster asked.

"Do you remember Jimmie Hawkins?" asked Alfred Johnson. "He has three little brothers and sisters, and his mother is having a hard time. Her old man is a drunkard and a gambler, and she has to keep him and the kids, too."

"No, we can't help them!" cried Tubby, "cause old man Hawkins told me the next time he caught me he'd kick me out and he said any of the rest of you, too!"
"We aren't afraid of Mr. Hawkins, Tubby," consoled Mr. Wood, "all we care for is to help his family, and if we can, him, too."
From the meeting house Mr. Wood and his Scouts went to a large wholesale grocery and clothing store. Here they purchased clothes and food to be carried to the home of Mr. Hawkins. In the package sent to the Hawkins home Mr. Wood enclosed the following letter:

"Dear Mr. Hawkins:
I, the Scoutmaster of the troop of Scouts entitled the 'Crows,' wish to inform you that we wanted your boy as a member of our troop, but we are aware of the fact that you influence this young man into drinking and gambling. We would like to have your cooperation in breaking your son of this, so that he may be a member of our troop.
We are sending some clothes and food, as we hear that you are financially embarrassed at this time.
Respectfully yours,
J. I. Wood."
The bundle was left upon the door-step of the Hawkins home and the bell rung, after which the Scouts made a speedy departure.

Imagine the surprise of the family in the poor little house at finding the large bundle upon their step. The whole family, including Mr. Hawkins crowded around it, and were much delighted with the contents of the bundle.

Upon Thursday, Tubby volunteered to get his father's chauffeur to carry the Hawkins family to the Thanksgiving service downtown.

One of the speakers of the morning expressed his gratitude to the Boy Scouts for the part they were playing in celebrating the day of days to most Americans. When this gentleman took his seat, the audience was surprised by seeing a middle aged man arise in the middle of the crowd and let it be known that he was the next speaker.
"I beg pardon for interfering with this program, but I can't be quiet

Lamar School Notes

The English classes of the seventh grade have been learning how to publish a newspaper and write articles for papers. Some phases of the work were writing poems, advertisements, sport news and want-ads. One day each pupil imagined himself editor of a paper and wrote an editorial. Some very good papers were written and the following are two of the editorials that were written:

"Fall Texasbooks"
Fall textbooks should be taken care of and not be torn, dropped in mud or water and should not be trampled on. The state gives these books to us to use. The books do not belong to one individual alone, but to all of us. We want other people to take care of our property, so we should take care of theirs. Our textbooks should be placed in our desks properly and never be left on or under the desks.—Roscoe Rich.

"The Harm in Chewing Gum"
There is much harm in chewing gum in school. In the first place you cannot study or recite well. Your wear out your jaws, and when meal time comes you cannot digest your food properly, because all your saliva is used in chewing gum. If you chew it in school and get caught you are likely to get in trouble, so keep on the safe side don't chew gum in the school room.

A little gum after a meal is all right, just a little while, but to chew gum in school is very improper, and you should never do it.—Francesa Finley, (Seventh Grade.)

Fourth Grade

The pupils in Miss Beaty's room are practicing on a Thanksgiving program. They have taken much interest in this program.

Mrs. Daniels' pupils have made 35 vases and 38 letter holders which they are giving to the hospital as a Thanksgiving offering.

A multiplication match Friday afternoon was won by the students chosen by Billie Bratton. The students chosen by Marie Farrington were good sports and made a lovely prize for the winning students. The children in this room have a club for Friday afternoon. Name, "Good Sport Club." Colors, Red, white, and blue. Slogan, "Good Sports Obey Rules."

Third Grade

On Wednesday afternoon the third grades will have their Thanksgiving program.

All the pupils in Miss Byron's room who have climbed the "Word Ladder" will have a picnic lunch in their room Wednesday.

Enjoy Dinner.

The three fifth grades had a Thanksgiving dinner Wednesday at noon. Each pupil brought a lunch which was spread on a common table. Hot chocolate, sandwiches, fruit, pumpkin pies, and cake constituted the lunch.

The pupils dressed to imitate either Indians or Pilgrims, and our program for the noon hour was carried out in a similar fashion of that of the first Thanksgiving day. After lunch, all played such games as the pilgrims must have played, and we feel that this Thanksgiving dinner was made quite effective and impressive. A number of parents were present and enjoyed this noon hour with us.

SYMPATHY EXPRESSED.

We, the students and faculty of Pampa high school, wish to take this means to show our sympathy for Pearl Wilson, member of the Junior class, who was bereaved of her father.

Pearl is the treasurer of the Junior class and is one of the most active girls in high school. She is a loyal booster for Pampa high and we wish to extend, if possible our most sincere sympathy to her.

Joan Leath, who has been in school at Gainesville, is now a member of the Junior class at Central high school.

Doyle Ward, who has been absent on account of illness, is back in school.

Ruth Henry, who is attending Simmons university at Abilene, was a visitor at the high school Tuesday.

Harvesters Will Meet Eagles at Canyon Saturday

There will be no game here on Thanksgiving, but the Harvesters will play the Canyon Eagles at Canyon Saturday. The game is called for 3 o'clock.

The team is in good condition to play, as none received serious injuries last Friday. Very little is known about the Canyon Eagles. The Harvesters are practicing very hard because they realize that this game is important. The coach is proud of his team and is putting the best he has into it. Anyone that wishes to show his or her pride in the team could not show it in any better way than to attend the game in Canyon Saturday. Many will not be able to attend the game in person, but may they all be there in moral support. This is the game for the district championship and every one will want to see it. The spectators will not only see a good game, but the presence of boosters will make the team press on to VICTORY!

Pampa Defeats Shamrock.
The Pampa Harvesters defeated the Shamrock Irishmen Friday, Nov. 18, with the score of 13-0. The game took place on the Ayres field and was witnessed by the largest crowd of this year.

The game was close in spite of the fact that Shamrock never scored. Archie Lee Walstad and Thomas Clayton respectfully made the touchdowns, and all of the boys showed good team work.

It is hard to determine who were the star players. It is true that Shamrock had some swift runners, but they were unable to break the Harvester's strong defense. Pampa can be justly proud of her team.

Thanksgiving

It has been every bit a year; Since we have had Thanksgiving. Yet it doesn't seem that long to me. For how happy I've been living.

Of all the very good things, That I have been receiving; And I am thankful for everything, That to me, God has been giving.

There are many things to be thankful for; Such as, your parents and friends, And all little presents sent to you. From far and near by friends.

If you don't have a home, I know you feel very sad; But if you do have a home, I think you should feel glad.

And I am sure that now you will, Think of it in this way, If you look forward as I do, To the glorious Thanksgiving day.—La Verne Vicars, (Fifth grade.)

Home Again!

In the icy coldness, there's a greeting in the air; There's a joy in living that drives away my care, A wintry wind is blowing across a snowy plain, And the old trees seem to whisper: "Home Again!"

I see a high way replaces that dear old road, Where Father's often driven with what a harvest load. There's a welcome on the house as we drive down the lane, The snow birds all seem singing: "Home Again!"

I see Thanksgiving greetings in a home not far away, And I know that Mother's waiting to share "Thanksgiving Day."

And I feel just like the little kid, I was in days of yore, Instead of just a rover, returning home once more.

I near that old gateway and stepping from the bus, I can see that we are happy every one of us.

I've opened the door to sunshine, and left behind the rain, And I'll offer a work of thanks to God, because I'm: "Home Again!"—Catherine Vincent, (Junior.)

ROTTEN POLITICS? — We are entering upon the holiday season, which will of itself attract chief attention until the new year. But gradually, however, will politics claim the interest of the American people. The year 1928, unfolding day by day some of the biggest events of the century, will bring the interest of voters to a high pitch ere another twelve-month passes.

Many who read this and many who will not are, doubtless, of that group which might be called the vote-slacker aggregation. Well it is that the press is denouncing the slacker whose pet alibi is that "politics is so rotten." Yet this same person would not recognize his argument in another form, to-wit: That democracy is rotten in its methods and haphazard in its results.

Politics is the normal exercise of the best methods yet devised to enable the majority of the people to rule. Rotten politics is the corruption of these methods, and the reflection is upon the people, not the method or the end. Very often it requires a definite evidence of rottenness to get out a good vote, and as long as things are going well, just so long will many people take little interest. This lack of interest is a greater thrust at the republican form of government than rotten politics, for while all men may take an active interest in their government, manifestly not all are honest. Indeed, it has become necessary to draft good citizens to run for office, very often, in order to have a ticket at all.

Forms of government are changing. Professional politicians—or office seekers—are growing fewer in number, which is well. We speak advisably, having in mind two ideas: 1. That the civil service plan is best where the work is more or less uniform, with definite policies already set; 2. that the policy-forming should be in the hands of non-professional office-seekers, such as business men, and that these men should be able to delegate the administration of their policies to experts employed for the purpose. The government civil service is a good example of the first, and the commission-manager form of city government illustrates the second point.

Rotten politics, where it exists, should cause even more interest in the ballot, that

We're Trying Our Best to Patch Him Up—Cal

sacred instrument of freedom which the vote slacker would avoid. You cannot, someone has said, gain civic intelligence by massing ignorance at the polls. Yet the ability of the people to choose honest men, who in turn will employ specialists on the basis of merit, is the pillar upon which modern American national and local government is built.

There are just two chief rewards in government: money or its equivalent, and prestige.
The two are almost inseparable, especially since some people will sacrifice remarkably large sums of money to gain prestige. Take the fee system out of government and you will have remedied one of the greatest abuses. Enlarge the civil service system to defeat political patronage and you will have erased the most vicious part of another evil. You cannot remove prestige, but you can purify it.
Honor attaches rightly to public office, because an office is the gift of the people. Such a choice, however, means honor given with service expected. Government of today needs well educated, brilliant men. Fitting monetary reward, coupled with prestige, should make a public career just as desirable as a diplomatic career. They cannot be similar in all aspects, but the present difference is too great.

Voting is the great, fundamental American privilege.
Don't fail to pay your poll tax right away.

POSSIBLE—Many a proud city may become a whistling post so far as the air traffic is concerned.

A Kansas City man claims to have invented a synchroniz-ing cannon which enables a plane to pick up mail, fuel, or parcel weighing from one to one hundred pounds without slowing under 100 miles an hour. A recent test is said to have proved that 50 pounds could be picked up without recoll.

This points out another possibility for airplane use, and doubtless will be highly developed in the next few decades. Perhaps stops will be largely eliminated on big routes, but collection of business will be greatly expanded.

WASHINGTON
LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Some of the wets and some of the drys, who regard prohibition as an important national issue, are incensed because the two political parties are manifesting the same degree of enthusiasm toward grappling with the question as the ordinary Saturday night bather does toward jumping into his tub with a porcupine.

One hears and reads their sneers and jeers every day.
Biting remarks are made about the "cowardice" and "insincerity" of the parties.
Critics on both sides advance the opinion that the party which declared unequivocally for strict enforcement or modification, as the case may be, would ride atop a landslide in November. The ordinary citizen who is either very wet or very dry seems to feel that way.

Amid all the hubbub, certain pertinent facts are often obscured. The easiest answer to the whole question, of course, is: What can you expect in a country operated by politicians and, to some extent, for politicians?

A prohibitionist is a prohibitionist first and a politician afterward. A politician is a politician first and a prohibitionist afterward. If it were demonstrated that there was a strong majority demand in the country as a whole for either strict enforcement or modification, both parties would topple all over each other to prove to the voters told which side would reap the most benefit.

There may be more "drys" than knows which side can supply the greatest number of voters willing to disregard all other issues and vote only on the wet-dry issue?

The question already has shown its tendency to split parties. How can the Republicans ride into large, important wet cities like New York, Chicago and Philadelphia on a bone dry platform or for that matter, into states like New York and Illinois which have voted "wet" in referendums.
The same question goes for the Democrats.

That, at least, is the way
the politicians have to figure.
In their own home territories they may be as wet as the town drunkard or as dry as Death Valley, but in national politics the boys must have internal harmony—or else they'll take a terrible licking.

There's something to be said for the boys. Why break up a perfectly good political party? Can't a Bahaiist marry and keep peace in the family without either demanding that the other swap religious beliefs? Incidentally, there is more and more demand among Democratic leaders for a harmony program, but one would be quiet silly to predict its success at this early date.

Among Republicans, it is noteworthy that Senator William Edgar Borah and Dr.
Nicholas Miraculous Butler are out on opposite limbs bawling for firm enforcement and modification planks respectively—and also noteworthy that neither Borah nor Butler can properly be called politicians.

John Coolidge—"Perfect Peach"

*THAT'S WHAT GIRL DANCING PARTNER CALLS HIM

MT. HOLYOKE, Mass., Nov. 21—As one youngster to another, John Coolidge, son of President Coolidge, and Miss Sarah Kunsig, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., a student in the sophomore class at Mt. Holyoke College here, are exchanging compliments. Miss Kunsig has won prominence lately as a more or less constant partner with young John at dances in this vicinity.

"John is a perfect peach," was her remark in an interview on the subject. "He is so very polished and smooth, and he dances divinely. They talk about his being shy and reserved, but—well, anyhow he is a peach."

Miss Kunsig comes under that category herself and John, who is a student at Amherst, doesn't need to be quoted on that. Her hair is very light—almost blonde. Her eyes are gray blue and her features very regular. She has a ready smile, a rippling, joyous laugh, and a vivacious, delightful manner.

"Oh, I've known John for ever so long," she confided in answer to a leading question. "I first met him at a dance in Amherst last year." "Thank you and good luck," offered the interviewer.

"Afraid I haven't a chance," was the quick retort. "There's too much competition!"

Bride-Elect of the Season Is Honored in Doucette Home

A very original blue bird shower was given in the home of Mrs. A. H. Doucette Monday evening, honoring Miss Annie Laura Sawyer, popular bride-elect of the Thanksgiving season. Hand painted blue bird invitations were sent out during the latter part of last week, and were readily answered in anticipations of the enjoyable time in store for the guests.

The genial hospitality of the evening was opened with a contest of flowers, a "Blooming Romance," in which Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar was successful in winning a lovely bud vase as a prize. Miss Dorothy Doucette then favored the guests with a reading appropriate to the occasion, "The Lesson with a Fan."

A blue-bird contest, carrying out the theme of decoration of the evening, proved enjoyable and amusing, those failing to complete the contest giving original rhymes concerning birds. Mrs. Edwin Vicars was awarded a blue bird bud vase in giving the most amusing rhyme.

Mrs. Doucette, in a very lovely manner, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruth Ann Mitchell. A "Shakespearean Romance," a contest of more difficult nature, was won by Mrs. V. E. Fathere, who was awarded a novel prize of a doll pin-cushion. The lovely prizes given in the contests were presented to Miss Sawyer. A recipe book was then passed among the guests who each wrote her favorite recipe for the benefit of the honoree.

The elaborate decorations in beautiful colors of blue and yellow with tiny blue birds perched about the room were made more lovely by a blue light that cast its glow over the scene. It was beneath this light that Miss Sawyer was seated while Mrs. Doucette read a cleverly written original poem.

Ribbons of yellow and blue were then placed in the hands of the honoree by which she slowly drew a beautiful float toward her to the soft strains of "The Blue Call," played by Miss Mitchell.

The float, beautifully constructed of yellow and blue with two blue birds each bearing the letter "S," was loaded to the utmost with gifts of unspeakable beauty. The opening of the presents afforded much delight among the guests, and were of a beautiful assortment of glass wear, linens, and other useful and attractive gifts.

Refreshments of fruit salad in orange cups, heart-shaped sandwiches, olives, fruit cake and whipped cream on which the letter "S" was written were served the guests, Mrs. George Gill, and Mrs. Emma LeFors, assisting the hostess.

The personnel of this delightful party included Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. A. Cole, Mrs. L. B. Hughey, Mrs. Edwin Vicars, Mrs. V. E. Fathere, Mrs. J. S. Wynne, Mrs. DeLea Vicars, Mrs. P. G. always is that the law violator is released and not made to suffer the penalty of the law.

Our county commissioners have been very delinquent in checking over the financial affairs of the county. Every officer in this county who handles the county's financial affairs should be carefully checked. The public funds of this county cannot be guarded too closely and carefully and urgently insist that the Commissioner's court require every officer in this county who may be entrusted with the county's funds, be made to report monthly as to the funds which he is entrusted with.

The county attorney of our county should see that every paper in each criminal case be preserved. He should prepare these cases for trial when they are brought before him on preliminary hearing and the name of every witness who may appear in behalf of the State, together with his address, should be preserved, and in the event it appears that the witness is a transient, he should be required to make a bond for his appearance. Along the line of officers collecting fines we suggest that the county attorney refrain from trying the cases and collecting fines but suggest that this matter be handled solely by the court. We suggest that the county attorney, in the future, stay with the Grand Jurors as from time to time they may convene. During our recent session, our county attorney absented himself from our body, which necessarily inconvenienced us because of the fact that he was the only one who was really familiar with the criminal cases presented to our body.

We have endeavored to do our duty as grand jurors during our brief session of eight days and in every instance without fear or favor tried to bring law violators before the bar of justice. With this final report, we beg leave of your honor for final adjournment for the term.

JACKSON NO. 3
NOW MAKING
6,000 BARRELS

Well Drilled Entirely
With the Rotary
Method

IS OFFSET TO THE DELANEY

Other Locations in Pool
Are Near Big
Pay

The first of a new series of big wells in the Bowers pool of section 88, Gray county, near Pampa, is flowing at the rate of 200 barrels an hour, after making 200 barrels hourly for the twelve hours ending Tuesday night.

It is the Danciger Oil and Gas company's No. 3 Jackson, located in the southeast corner of the northwest quarter, as a diagonal offset to the Delaney and others No. 1 Jackson in the same section.

Bottomed at 2,967 Feet
Unique in Panhandle drilling history is the fact that the well was drilled entirely with the rotary rig, crude oil being used after the mud was cleaned out above production. This is said to be the first well in the Bowers pool completed in this manner. The Hughes rock bit was used. The hole was bottomed at 2,967 feet, and was drilled in 33 days.

M. O. Danciger stated to the News that the 6,000-barrel flow is of 43.8 gravity, making the oil in demand. The Sinclair pipeline is handling the crude oil, and there are four 500-barrel tanks on the location.

This high production area is scheduled to boost Pampa field production greatly in the next fortnight, since a number of other wells are nearing the pay.

Danciger No. 4 is cleaning out with gas preparatory to drilling in with crude about Friday. It is now at 2,722 feet, with the rotary being used. Danciger No. 2 Jackson is at 2,747, and probably will be drilled in Thursday.

Operators No. 1 Jackson is drilling at 2,800 feet. Phillips No. 1 Jackson nearby is drilling at 2,730 feet. There are 27 locations in the pool.

Much Drilling Expected
With the limits of the Pampa field extended many miles into proven production, the possible drilling is enormous, and it is being predicted that contracts for scores of wells will be let in the next few weeks.

The Danciger method of drilling in the Bowers pool is being watch-

MEN OF CHURCH
MAKE DECISION

Sunday School Plant
Already Is Being Used

Immediate construction of an auditorium to cost more than $60,000 was announced this week by the First Baptist church.

The decision to build was reached last night at a mass meeting of men of the church.

Details of the building program will be started out tomorrow night at the weekly prayer meetings, when committees on construction and financial arrangements will be worked out. A full representation of members of the church is desired at that time.

The Baptists recently completed a modern Sunday school plant as an annex to the present building, and the fine auditorium likely will be tied into this structure. The Sunday school building is located just east of the church, and is attractive because of its pleasing architecture and construction.

The auditorium will be built along the most modern lines, and with the carefully planned Sunday school plant will give the Baptists very complete housing facilities.

GOOD CATTLE---

are now in position to retain the cows for breeding purposes or to hold their steers until they are ready to realize their handsome margin of profit. They are favored, furthermore, by the present condition of the ranges and feed supplies. Cattle, in most sections, are in good condition and they should be carried through the winter with a minimum amount of supplementary feeding.

Texas is one of the most favored cattle breeding grounds in America. The growing season is longer and the winters are milder than in the northern states and producers in Texas should avail themselves of these gifts of nature and build up their breeding herds. This does not necessarily have to be done on a large scale. Many farmers have adequate facilities to maintain small herds as a supplement to their farming operations, which with the proper breeding and feeding program would enable them to realize satisfactory returns. A limited livestock program carried on as a joint enterprise to the farming operations would permit the full utilization of the farm labor during the months when there is little activity in the field. This plan is applicable especially on Texas farms where the one-crop systems are very common.

ed with interest. It is said to be considerably cheaper than when a rotary is not used all the way. It was noted also that the No. 3 Jackson was brought in with practically no loss, and drillers called it an unusually clean job.

Harvesters Use Scoring Punch
To Defeat Shamrock Irishmen in Brilliant Offensive Game Friday

By a score of 13 to 0, the Pampa Harvesters succeeded in breaking through the stubborn defense of the Shamrock Irishmen on Ayres field Friday and won the championship of sections 3 and 4 of District 1.

The first touchdown came early in the second quarter, when, on a fake place-kick play, Walstad outgeneraled the Irishmen and carried the ball 20 yards across the goal. Carlton carried the ball around right end for the extra count.

A long pass, Walstad to Clayton 25 yards from the goal, gave the Harvesters an additional 6 points late in the fourth quarter.

The game as a whole, however, was a closer contest than the score indicates. Quite frequently the tricky Irishmen backfield tore through the Harvester line or made sensational end-runs for substantial gains. Once they came in striking distance of the goal, only to lose the ball to the fighting Harvesters, who kicked out of danger.

Both teams were successful in making frequent gains through the lines. The Harvesters were stronger on end-runs, and netted a large portion of their yardage by this route.

Neither team was strong at passing. Pampa completed two out of six attempts, one of which netted six points. Shamrock completed two out of eight attempts. Most of her tries for passes came late in the game when other scoring methods seemed hopeless.

In first downs, Shamrock showed a slight advantage by making 14 first downs to Pampa's 10. The Irishmen were consistent gainers through the Pampa line, but lacked the necessary punch at the right time to score a touchdown.

The game was practically free of penalties. Only two five-yard penalties were given one for each team.

Outside of the stellar work of the Pampa backfield men, Bob Kahl, the roving center of the team, was the outstanding star of the game. Kahl was in on every play and was successful in intercepting three forward passes. He also recovered two fumbles by the Harvesters backfield, and broke up a punt.

Captain Herlachier was also playing great football, recovering a fumble near the Pampa goal line which allowed Walstad to kick out of danger. The entire Harvester line was holding when in danger, and more than once the Irishmen lost the ball on downs with only a short distance to go.

V. Close, the rangy Irish quarterback, was the star of the Shamrock team. He made long gains through the line and around end. Close played the hiding game and accepted a forward pass with a clear field for a touchdown but fell and was tackled by Carlton.

The entire Shamrock team played good individual football but seemed to lack team play.

Next Friday the Pampa Harvesters meet the Canyon high school team. The coaches of the Pampa team are in Canyon over the weekend making arrangements as to where the game will be played.

At the present time the company is digging ditch for the Empire Fuel and Gas company, from its disposal plant near the booster station to the creek.

Yesterday the large machine excavated more than 600 feet of ditch 17 feet deep. The large machine has a digging depth of 28 feet and it is expected that some of the Pampa excavation work will be 27 feet deep.

The company will employ about 30 men on the Pampa work. The contract was let to the Jordan Construction company of Childress and Plainview two weeks ago.

Placed in No. 1
Harrah

Responding to a shot of 420 quarts of nitro placed from 3,125 to 3,285 feet, the Camel Oil company's No. 1 Harrah in section 163, block 3, started a natural flow of 37 1-2 barrels an hour at 5 o'clock Wednesday. This flow continued until midnight, which a slight bridge was reported. This bridge blew out early this morning, and at noon the well was making more than 30 barrels an hour.

Drillers are preparing to clean the well out today and a heavier flow is expected after cleaning out and setting pipe.

This well has been watched with interest as it brings production nearer to Pampa on the north side and was drilled by local men who are also drilling the Guernsey well in the same section. The local men interested are B. E. Finley, W. R. Campbell and H. G. Twiford.

The Edwards et al's No. 1 E. J. Case in section 182, block B-2, is reported to be standing with 100 feet of oil in the hole which is seeping from around a dropped bit. The well is standing at 3,059 feet.

Gas of about 70,000,000 feet was shut off. This well is situated about nine miles south of Pampa and is more than four miles from nearest production, and if brought in will prove up several miles of territory southwest of the Wilcox and Bowers pools.

The Last Chance Gas company's No. 1 (formerly Tipton and McConnell) in section 201, block 4, Carson county, is swabbing 30 barrels an hour from 3,285 feet. The well has been abandoned for more than four years.
