Cash wheat sold at $1.03 per bushel here yesterday to feature harvest activities, now estimated to be three-fifths complete in this vicinity.

Completions by The News Saturday revealed that 816 carloads of grain had been shipped from Pampa, Kingmill, Hepler, Heaton, and Laketon, or a total of approximately 1,200,000 bushels. There was a total of approximately 200,000 bushels in storage, about half of which was upon the ground.

The car situation was easy in Pampa, where shipments of oil field supplies, being many cars to be emptied, piled, and used for grain. Outlying stations, minus this advantage, have been without cars many hours that could have been utilized to keep the grain off the ground. It has not been possible to use 24-hour loading shifts, but most of the elevators have been glad to unload the grain at any hour the farmers chose to deliver it.

Stubble fields are now much more numerous than uncut fields, and there are not many fields within five miles of Pampa that are not wholly or at least partly cut. Farmers told The News that by the middle of the week little grain would be standing.

Considerable grain is in farm storage or grain lots. Some of it has been held for $1 per bushel, while much could not be trucked to the elevators as fast as cut with the combines.

While the average grade over this area approximates 60 pounds, elevator men said that some of the late-cutting showed slightly lighter grain. There are fields totaling about 80,000 acres in the area around Pampa from which local and nearby elevators draw, and at the estimated average yield of 25 bushels to the acre will produce 1,750,000 bushels.

CHICAGO, July 13. (P)—Shooting skyward 5-7-8c a bushel, wheat today went whizzing beyond all previous high-price records this season. It was declared by leading crop authorities that drought damage to North American spring wheat had become irremediable, and that rains from now on would be of no practical benefit. Trading operations were on an immense scale, with the market at a feverish pitch, especially on final dealings.

Wheat closed excited at the top-most figures reached, 5 1-4 to 5 7-8c above yesterday's finish. Corn closed 3-8c to 1c up, oats 5-8c to 7-8c advanced, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10c.

An outstanding feature from the outset in wheat was general notice taken of statements that the world wheat supply situation is not unlike that of 1924-25, when wheat soared to above $2 a bushel in Chicago. At that time, the chief shortage of crops was in Europe, whereas the big deficit now is in Canada and the United States.

"Uncle Pete" Reid Arrested for Parking Car Too Long—It Turns Out to Be Gift of Some Friends

Veteran Highway Builder Presented Token
From Fourteen Citizens—Will "Wear It Out" Continuing Work

"Uncle Pete"

Here is F. P. Reid, who was "arrested" Friday for parking too long a new car which turned out to be a gift from friends.

F. P. Reid, respected longtime resident and known throughout the Panhandle as a highway builder, has been arrested for violation of the city parking ordinance on a complaint signed by fourteen prominent business men.

Although it looked like a frame-up, "Uncle Pete" gamely signed the police summons and prepared to face the worst—which turned out to be a group of citizens who desired to do him honor.

To start the proceedings, Chief J. I. Downs Friday afternoon "arrested" Mr. Reid at the Reid home on North Cuyler and informed him that he was under summons for leaving his car parked more than the 2-hour limit in front of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Reid protested, and took the Chief to the backyard to show him the family car.

The chief was adamant, pointing out that investigation showed the car to be registered in the highway enthusiast's name. The two went to the disheveled car—a brown, new Ford coach.

Mr. Reid took the police card from under the windshield wiper. It bore his name, and called for his counter signature. Resigning himself to the situation, whatever it might be, Mr. Reid signed the card. Then Chief Downs called attention to an envelope lying in the car. Mr. Reid opened it.

The envelope contained license and headlight receipts made out to "F. P. Reid, Pampa, Texas." It also held a letter explaining that a group of friends had given him the car in token of appreciation for his long work in the public interest.

Looking toward the Board of City Development rooms for the first time, Mr. Reid saw the assembled donors, who warmly congratulated him.

After assuring them that he accepted the gift in the spirit in which it was presented, and asserting his feeling that he was unworthy of the gift, he concluded:

"I certainly appreciate this car and I'll wear it out working for more roads."

The letter given Mr. Reid follows: Dear Mr. Reid: The undersigned, who are your friend as a token of our appreciation for what you have done for Pampa and the Pampa community, have taken the privilege of purchasing the Ford automobile which has just been presented to you.

We are surprised that under the circumstances you would so soon and ruthlessly, violate the laws of the city of Pampa which you have advocated during your administration as a servant of the people of this community. However, we appreciate the fact that you may think you are a privileged character and therefore permitted to

Fifteen Locations in Home Field Made
During Week

Production from large wells brought in the previous week hiked Gray county's daily production last week to 31,877 barrels, or an increase of 6,442 barrels over the preceding period.

Two Gray county wells proved to be the bright spots in the Panhandle during the week. The Phillips Petroleum company got a 5,000-barrel gusher in the Finley-Brown area. The new producer is the most northerly in the pool and proves up considerable territory.

The other sensation of the week was the Midwest Exploration company's old well in the Bowers-McGee pool which was cleaned out and increased production from 13 barrels a day to 3,000 barrels. The increased pay was found 15 feet from the bottom. The well is being flowed by 1,500,000 feet of gas.

Showings were encountered in several wells late in the week and some should be drilled in to the pay early this week.

Hutchinson county registered a small gain as several wells were cleaned out and a small producer brought in at the southeasterly part of the field. Moore county showed a gain of five barrels. Other Panhandle counties registered small decreases.

Gray county got 15 new locations during last week to bring the active locations in the county to 120.

Locations made Friday and yesterday were:

Operators' Oil company's Nos. 1 and 2 Lovett, in the west half of the northeast quarter of section 57, block B-2, H. & G. N. survey. These tests will be one mile south and the same distance east of any tests.

Eslick's No. 1 Lovett, in the northwest corner of section 5, block B-2, H. & G. N. survey. This test will be a mile south of production in the west LeFors pool.

Stagner & Meadows No. 1 Holloway, in the southwest quarter of section 7, block H. A. W. Wallace survey. This test will be eight miles south of LeFors and the same distance northwest of Alarred.

White Eagle Oil company's No. 1 Cook-Faulkner, in the northwest corner of the west 30 acres of section 29, block B-2, H. & G. N. survey. The test will be east of the Finley-Brown pool.

This Well Proves Area West of City

The producing well shown above is the Speculative Mineral Shares company's No. 1 Barnard, section 44, block 4, Carson county, just across the Gray county line west of here, which penetrated 800 feet of solid granite but came in as a commercial well.

Gas Area Is Enlarged for Carbon Black Plants

Casinghead gasoline and carbon black production is expected to be stimulated by the bringing in of the Speculative Mineral Shares company's No. 1 Barnard, just over the Gray county line west of here.

It is making 6,000,000 cubic feet of casinghead gas and about 50 barrels of high grade oil daily to prove up much previously untested territory. Drilled under the direction of Heame Harper, contractor and producer, over a period of a year, it was recently shot with 380 quarts from 3,130 to 3,275 feet. It drilled through 800 feet of solid granite to reach 3,388 feet total depth, 64 feet below sea level at an elevation of 3,334 feet. The shot increased the gas at the same time it brought the oil. It is understood that a casinghead gasoline plant and carbon black plant will use the wet gas, and that a pipe-

The first trans-Atlantic air race in history ended before the contestants reached the first turn.

With about 1,000 miles of the route behind them last night, the French airmen, Coste and Bellonte, turned back at the Azores for Paris. At the same time their Polish rivals, Raskowski and Kubala, were experiencing serious motor trouble in the same vicinity and, in fact, logically might have been considered already forced to land at sea or on one of the rocky islets of the group.

Lacking any official information to explain Coste's abandonment of the flight, the French government assumed it to have been due to bitterly adverse weather conditions.

The Polish fliers reported their misfortune to the steamship, Narenska, at 3:36 p. m. E. S. T., in a message saying: "My motor has trouble."

More than five hours later Horis reported them as indicating an urgent need for a landing location.

After the Horis report not a word came from any source for several hours.

The scheduled hearing before a member of the Texas railroad commission of the Santa Fe application for a permit to build a branch line from Heaton, eight miles east of here, to a point three miles east of LeFors, has been cancelled, and resigned to come before Director C. D. Mahaffie of the Interstate Commerce Commission at Fort Worth July 23.

This announcement came Saturday from the office of Cook, Smith & Teed, local attorneys for the Board of City Development in filing an intervention opposing this allegedly inadequate spur line. Chas. C. Cook, acting in behalf of the B. C. D., asked for this merging of the Santa Fe hearing with that of the Fort Worth & Denver Northern and Rock Island on the theory that conflicting factors were involved in the two projects, and that to hold separate hearings would work a hardship upon Pampa.

Gilmore Doesn't Object
Mr. Mahaffie Friday wired that he was referring the Pampa suggestion to the Texas railroad commission for an advisory opinion. Mr. Cook then called Clarence Gilmore, chairman of the Texas commission, who said that he would not object to Pampa's request.

Then Mr. Mahaffie notified the local law firm that the Santa Fe (C. & O. W.) hearing had been cancelled, and resigned to the hearing that he will hold in Fort Worth on July 23. Thus the entire road "war" has been concentrated on the Fort Worth "front," where the railroads and their intervenors will present evidence and claims.

After the Fort Worth hearing ends, the testimony will be transcribed and sent to the I. C. C. in Washington. There time will be set aside for filing of answers and making of oral arguments. The announcement of the decision, which will determine whether or not Pampa and vicinity will receive another railroad soon, is not expected for several months.

Local Work Reviewed
Mr. Cook had charge of a meeting of members of the Board of City Development and a number of other citizens here Friday evening. He reviewed the history of the railroad question and told of activities of his firm and the board in urging the Denver road to apply for a Pampa-Childress line permit.

More than two years ago the Fort Worth & Denver surveyed the route into Pampa and filed notice with the Texas railroad commission of intention to construct a line. Application to the I. C. C. was delayed pending completion of the Denver's South Plains project.

A few months ago the Rock Island line asked for permission to build from Quanah to Shamrock. The Fort Worth & Denver had been in communication with the local B. C. D. prior to that action, and had given assurance of the intention to tap this area. The I. C. C. was subsequently petitioned, and the Fort Worth & Denver Northern, a new Texas corporation, was formed to finance the proposed line of 110 miles, which would reduce the distance to the Gulf by approximately 77 miles.

Total

With building activities continuing, Pampa soon will be called "the city of beautiful homes." Many new residences were started last week and a number of beautiful homes were completed. In the east part of the city alone there are 18 homes under construction.

All parts of the city are coming into their share of homes and business houses. On South Cuyler street a brick store, two large warehouses, two homes, an office and a garage building are in process of construction.

Building permits issued by Inspector F. E. Townsend last week amounted to $24,900 to bring the year's total to $831,555. Practically all the permits issued during the week were for residences.

Included in the list are the following:

- Dee Richardson, $2,500 home in the Priest addition.
- Bridgport Machine company, $1,500 warehouse on South Cuyler street.
- Fred Schneider, $4,000 home in the North addition.
- A. G. Post, $2,000 residence in the Finley-Banks addition.

Negroes Flee From North Platte, Nebr., After One of Them Kills Officer—Slayer Kills Self When Surrounded by One of Mobs Which Assemble

NORTH PLATTE, Nebr., July 13. (P)—Ordered by police to leave town after the slaying today of Policeman Ed Green by Louis Seelman, negro, 35, who later shot himself, the negro population of North Platte this afternoon began a general exodus.

The negroes were protected in their departure by special police, sworn in after the slaying of the policeman and the subsequent formation of mobs who threatened negro residents.

The shooting grew out of an attempt by Green to arrest Seelman, previously ordered to leave town in lieu of paying a $100 fine for beating Ada Miller, negro with whom he lived. Green and another officer went to arrest Seelman.

Green was shot with a sawed-off shotgun as he entered Seelman's room. Officer Fitzgibbons, who accompanied him, was unarmed. He gave an alarm downstairs, and stood watching the front of the house. Help came and when Seelman refused to come out, a gasoline fire was set around the house to drive him out.

Seelman shot himself as the flames began to creep around him. He died while being carried out of the house.

North Platte was up in arms. The mob outside the house grew with the passing of hours. Sticks were welded. Police immediately swore in extra men and patrolled the negro district. They estimated there were about 200 negroes in the city before they started their outward trek.

What aroused the populace was the suspicion that some of the negroes had aided Seelman in hiding himself under a trap door, leading to the basement of the house fired.

The information leaked out and soon came shouts: "Lynch them all" and "Get them out of town, quick." Subsequently the negro colony was told to clear out by 3 p. m. The exodus was orderly but was accomplished cautiously. Police guarded nearly every road the negroes took and assigned men to the railroad stations. In some instances police had to threaten members of the mob to protect the negroes.

"It's Like This"

FINE RESOLUTIONS do not affect the judicial mind. Were the authorities to follow the dictates of such instruments...

Pampa wishes another trunk-line railroad, but her claims are not based purely upon town pride and ambition.

No other railroad would tap the resources of the Upper Plains. No other railroad proposes to give an outlet to the Gulf and faster service toward the South.

This is not a "boom" area in the usual sense. There will be drilling here for two decades or more.

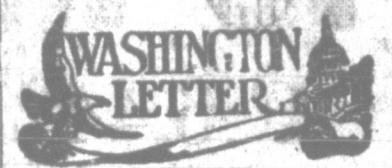

There is also the basic wheat industry to be considered. In the immediate Pampa territory are fields covering 80,000 acres...

It is unthinkable that this vast empire in the Upper Plains will have to depend upon a single rail line extending in only the east-west direction.

The purpose of the Interstate Commerce Commission is to insure economical, efficient railroading by issuing building permits upon certificates of public convenience and necessity.

And the very fact that it is a matter of public convenience and necessity justifies the statement of President Keim of the Board of City Development that it is the biggest thing to come before the city since its establishment.

Washington Letter: BY RODNEY DUTCHER. WASHINGTON - The time seems definitely past when this county had an attack of the jim-jams every time a gentleman of great wealth was proposed for high public office.

There's a millionaire president in the White House, a partner of the Morgan firm serving as ambassador to Mexico and another multi-millionaire, Charles Gages Dawes, representing us at the Court of St. James.

Nevertheless, in considering the general subject of millionaires in the public service, it is possible to go to the other extreme. It is possible—in fact, it has been—all too tempting a possibility for some writers—to harp to the point of banality and far beyond on the pure and noble spirit of self-sacrifice which may have led some of these gentlemen reluctantly to accept their jobs.

They Like the Jobs: To use the expressive diction of the late Al Smith, most of this is so much bologna. The day has not arrived when high public offices are unattractive to millionaires who have made their pile.

Take Mellon, for instance. Everyone knows of the yen which develops among millionaires for the Senate and for diplomatic posts and cabinet posts.

Of course, this croquet fad is silly, but us non-golf fans might also make some caustic remarks about chasing a little white ball all over the range.

But let every age fashion its own pursuits; ridicule avaleth nothing and it is easily invented.

Johnston, Mrs. J. H. Hulme, Mrs. H. L. Grove, Mrs. E. T. Broughton, and Mrs. W. M. Jones. High club favor went to Mrs. Williams. Mrs. Jones scored high for guests. Consolation was presented to Mrs. Davis. A short business meeting was held at the close of the games, during which Mrs. Broughton was elected to membership. A dainty luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. George Latus and children returned Friday afternoon from a two weeks visit in the Ozark mountains in Missouri.

The Rev. J. H. Bone of Burk Burnett is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Artie Shepard.

July, but half gone, already has proved a more popular month than June with Pampa brides of the season, and last week, otherwise deplete in social interest, brought three weddings, of outstanding importance, with the announcement of a fourth which took place more than two months ago.

Most recent of these was the wedding of Dorothy Ives and Ray W. Chambers, which took place Thursday in Sayre, Okla. The Rev. A. W. Bradshaw, pastor of the First Christian church of that city, performed the ceremony at his home.

The bride is violin teacher in the Pampa branch of the Amarillo College of Music. During the summer months she has had a private class and has acted as cashier for the Rex theatre. She plans to continue her teaching with the music school during the coming year. She came here from Des Moines, Iowa, where she attended high school and college, studying violin with Prof. Paul Graham.

Mr. Chambers is assistant manager of the Rex and Crescent theatres.

Miss Ruth Hill, one of the most popular members of Pampa's younger set, became the bride of Mr. Heath M. Hatcher of Seminole at high noon Wednesday, the ceremony taking place in Oklahoma City, at the home of the Rev. Hutchinson, Methodist pastor.

Miss Hill was a valued member of the staff of the L. T. Hill department store of this city for more than two years, and had a large group of friends in business circles. She was a member of the Business and Professional Women's club. While here she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher will make their home in Cushing. Mr. Hatcher is assistant manager of the L. T. Hill store in that city. He formerly was with the local Hill store for several months, and formed many friendships here. He attended high school and college in West Virginia.

Another marriage of wide interest took place Wednesday morning at the Methodist church, when Miss Bonnie Jo Pool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Pool, became the bride of Mr. Louis R. Mills of Seminole, Okla. The Rev. Tom W. Erabham read the ring service in the presence of a few friends of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Mills are at home in Seminole, where Mr. Mills is district manager of the International Supply company.

Announcement was made this week of the marriage of Miss Alice Rittenhouse and Mr. F. Earle Scheig, which took place in Sayre, Okla., in April. A particularly pleasing note in this announcement was that the popular young couple will make their home here.

Piano Recital Friday Evening Enjoyable Event

Mrs. E. P. McKimling presented her summer piano class of 12 pupils in a public recital at the Presbyterian church, Friday evening. An enjoyable program, which brought to a close the students' work for the season, was heard by an audience which almost filled the auditorium.

Two eight-hand movements, played by Leona Leedom, Viola Haggard, Dorothy Dodd, and Mrs. McKimling, were particularly interesting numbers. A violin solo by Barbara Camp and readings by Dorothy Tucker gave variety to the program.

Others presented were: Zaida Mae and Leona Hurst, Arlene Saunders, Cleo Benton, Jean Camp, Lorene Klith, Wilma Willis, and Anne Sweetman.

Mrs. Agnes Collins and Mr. Murphy Otis Cassey, both formerly of Ponca City, Okla., but lately of Skelly, were married here yesterday afternoon, with C. E. Gary, justice of the peace, performing the ceremony at his office in the court house.

Mike Stanton, president of the Cyprus Tank company of Shreveport, La., was here on business last week.

Gasoline Tax Will Be Hiked Two Cents Monday

AUSTIN, July 13. (AP)—The present 2-cent gasoline tax will be doubled Monday when Governor Moody filed with the secretary of state a measure by Senator W. A. Williamson of San Antonio increasing the tax on fuel and reducing fees on passenger cars 50 per cent.

Figures announced today by the highway department reveal that approximately 1,250,000 motorists will be affected. Contrary to popular belief, reduced license fees will not become effective until January, 1930.

Tractors and other farm machinery, airplanes and motor boats will use non-taxed gas under the bill.

The increased tax will yield the highway department approximately $22,000,000 annually for maintenance and new construction. From the registration fees, all counties will receive the first $50,000. One-half the remainder will be given the county on passenger car registrations, but the highway department will be given all funds from the source in excess of $175,000.

The governor announced today that he would file the bill.

AMARILLO TEXANS WILL FACE STRENGTHENED GRAY TEAM ON FIELD HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Pampa's great baseball team was strengthened Friday afternoon when a lanky pitcher and a chunky, slugging outfielder strolled into the Pampa Oil and Business Men's club and asked Ed Geber if he could use them this year in the Amarillo tournament.

The lengthy gentleman was "Slim" French of Mangum, Okla., who won the final game for the Grays in the Amarillo tournament last year. The big fellow beat Erick, Okla. The outfielder was the reliable Gordon Nell, last year with the Grays in the tournament. He is a fly hawk and a hitter of no mean ability.

French will be seen in the box this afternoon against the Amarillo Tactless Texans who will play the Grays on their new diamond in the Wilcox addition. The game has been called for 3 o'clock. The proceeds will go towards purchasing uniforms and music for the Legion band. The Legion is also sponsoring the Grays baseball team this year.

Sled Allen, Skeet Gibson, Vaughn, Ravey, Nicklaus and all of the rest of Amarillo's crew will be here. Cal Farley is also expected to don a Texan uniform and play second base.

The ranks of the Grays will have one missing member, who may never don a uniform again, "Sugar" Edwards, the boy who beat Amarillo two weeks ago 4 to 2, suffered the loss of his first finger on his right hand last week. Edwards was a favorite with the team and a pitcher who was hard to defeat. He will be missed from the Gray line-up.

The Grays' line-up has not been announced because of the non-arrival of at least two players who are expected here early today. Geber says his team will be picked from the following list: French, Nell, Roberts, Bulla, Horton, J. Geber, Reynolds, Cahill, Munns, E. Geber, Shepherd and Christian.

Second game: R. H. E.

CHURCH OF CHRIST (C. C. Merritt, Minister.)

A PRICELESS GIFT
 What a wonderful gift of God is a day!—a day with all its opportunities to life and to do; to affect, to completely change, destiny; to reverse the judgment and sentence upon all the past; to make up lacks and pay debts and to tear down the false and to lay the foundation of the true, and go on building if the foundation be already laid. To the sinner, a space in which judgment is deferred and full mercy offered—a privilege and opportunity which in the hour of supreme need makes all the world look paltry in comparison.

To the saint, a new lease to express in words and godly deeds his love to the Saviour; a chance to help another; to bless, to heal, to comfort, to save; to fulfill his ministry and run his course; to lay up treasure in heaven; to draw nearer to God.

Such is the priceless gift of a day. This is that which you have wasted and despised and misused against your own soul. O ye who read this today, be glad you are alive and that God's long suffering has given you this day—and use it, use it to the full!

Sunday's subjects: "The Hope of Heaven" and "The Lost Achead."

Charlton Brown for Governor Is Advocated by Tate

DALLAS, July 13. (P)—Charlton Brown, mayor of Mineral Wells, as a "Blue Shirt" candidate for the governorship of Texas, was thrust forward here today by Mayor J. Waddy Tate of Dallas.

Asserting that politicians attempted to make the job of governor a stepping stone to the United States Senate, Tate launched Brown's candidacy on a platform of "less politics and more regard for the rights of plain people."

"I am good when it comes to picking winners," Mayor Tate said. "I am in dead earnest about Charlton Brown. He isn't a lawyer. He has punched cattle, worn cotton, carried a dinner pail, chipped a blue shirt, and will fight the people's battles. He would make Texas the best governor since the days of Jim Hogg. We would have less politics and more regard for the rights of plain people whose language Charlton Brown knows."

FOR SALE. THIS HAS HAPPENED. Because of her own sense of honor, NAN CARROLL, secretary of JONES BENTLEY BROTHERS, who she decides to resign when she discovers she is in love with her employer. Morgan is deeply in love with his beautiful wife, IRIS. Nan Higgins, who she hates because of her jealousy, is determined to ruin the love of Morgan and Iris.

CHAPTER XXXIII. Nan rose the next morning at 7 o'clock, after less than two hours of sleep—sleep so tormented with fantastic dreams that she would have felt freer if she had not closed her eyes. That locked bathroom-door was on her conscience. What had he thought when he tried the door and found it locked?

How noisy the water was! It would wake him, and he needed all the sleep he could get. Nan knew he had not returned until after 11 o'clock. Every nerve in her tense body had listened for his step on the stairs. Had he stayed so long with Nina Blackhall? Or had he walked the streets, thinking, regretting Iris, screwing up his courage to go on with his marriage, repeating cynically: "And I dare say she will do."

It was not the cold of the shower which made Nan gasp. A fiercely brisk rubdown with one of the enormous, three bath-towels which Iris Morgan had bought in prodigal quantities. Iris again! But how could she forget Iris. When everything in the house reminded her of her former mistress? Nan asked herself wearily, kneeling, she rinsed the tub thoroughly, then darted about the yellow-and-green-tiled room, making it primly tidy. He'd promised to keep it spick-and-span for her. Well, he should have no cause for complaint, she promised herself breathlessly. When everything was done, Nan turned the key in the lock, then led to her own room to dress for breakfast and the day at the office. She was brushing her thinning brown hair when she heard the faint sound of a knock, then the soft turning of a knob. A minute later, the noisy impact of streaming water against the shower curtain.

Would he come in, after he had bathed, shaved and dressed, to say good morning? "Well, I'm not going to hang around the office," Nan decided sternly at her reflection in the mirror. "Circles under my eyes," she discovered, with melancholy interest, then pride made her try to conceal them with an extra coating of the powder she used. Pride, too, made her use an extra dash of rouge on her pale cheeks. She'd show him!

BUT when, half an hour later, he entered the dining room, all her anger against him was submerged in pity. No powder could have blotted out the dark shadows under his deep-set black eyes. His tall, lean body was drooping with weariness and discouragement, but as soon as he caught sight of Nan, very businesslike in her severely simple, dark brown silk crepe, he straightened his shoulders and smiled—a smile so sweet and kindly and frank that tears rushed into the girl's eyes.

FOR SALE. THIS HAS HAPPENED. Because of her own sense of honor, NAN CARROLL, secretary of JONES BENTLEY BROTHERS, who she decides to resign when she discovers she is in love with her employer. Morgan is deeply in love with his beautiful wife, IRIS. Nan Higgins, who she hates because of her jealousy, is determined to ruin the love of Morgan and Iris.

CHAPTER XXXIII. Nan rose the next morning at 7 o'clock, after less than two hours of sleep—sleep so tormented with fantastic dreams that she would have felt freer if she had not closed her eyes. That locked bathroom-door was on her conscience. What had he thought when he tried the door and found it locked?

How noisy the water was! It would wake him, and he needed all the sleep he could get. Nan knew he had not returned until after 11 o'clock. Every nerve in her tense body had listened for his step on the stairs. Had he stayed so long with Nina Blackhall? Or had he walked the streets, thinking, regretting Iris, screwing up his courage to go on with his marriage, repeating cynically: "And I dare say she will do."

It was not the cold of the shower which made Nan gasp. A fiercely brisk rubdown with one of the enormous, three bath-towels which Iris Morgan had bought in prodigal quantities. Iris again! But how could she forget Iris. When everything in the house reminded her of her former mistress? Nan asked herself wearily, kneeling, she rinsed the tub thoroughly, then darted about the yellow-and-green-tiled room, making it primly tidy. He'd promised to keep it spick-and-span for her. Well, he should have no cause for complaint, she promised herself breathlessly. When everything was done, Nan turned the key in the lock, then led to her own room to dress for breakfast and the day at the office. She was brushing her thinning brown hair when she heard the faint sound of a knock, then the soft turning of a knob. A minute later, the noisy impact of streaming water against the shower curtain.

"Before he took his seat he bent over her, laying a hand softly on her shoulder as he touched her cheek with his lips. "How—how did you get along with Nina Blackhall last night?" Nan asked, as she poured his first cup of coffee with hands that trembled betrayingly. "Oh—yes, Estelle, we're ready for the fruits of matrimony now, aren't we? It's a grand thing to have a wife."

PAMPA NATIONAL BANK

In Pampa is More Than a Bank of Dollars and Cents, Resources and Capital, But an Institution That is Conducted by Men of Broad Business Understanding, Who Are Continually Studying the Financial Needs of the People—They Feature Commercial Banking in All Its Phases.

The Pampa National Bank is an institution that has grasped the trend of the times in financial circles and is conducted upon the most modern policy of being the ally of the depositors. Upon the policies rests its great success and progress that it is making in the banking and business world.

Founded by successful business men prominent in the business and trade life of the community, and with a sure basis of commercial insight, they invite the accounts of people whose business can profit by a sound and progressive banking connection. Modern business is rapidly getting away from the thinking of a bank in the same terms of financial resources alone. It demands, in addition, practical understanding of local, state and national industry.

The officers of this bank are men who worked side by side for the advancement and progress of the business and general welfare of the community and thoroughly understand its banking needs.

With this idea they have kept the bank in a financial position to take care of all customers. Adequate capital, a large surplus and undivided profits them in a position that is the admiration of the banking world. They transact a general banking business in all its phases and are prepared to render complete checking account service.

The officers of the bank are prominent citizens and operate an institution that is of great benefit to the people and should receive liberal patronage.

Bowman has been in the county jail since his arrest following the fatal shooting.

The B. C. D. is also on record favoring the Denver on the basis of the public interest and the needs of the Pampa territory involved.

Pampa's action is based entirely upon local and Gray county facts and figures. The claims of no other cities are disputed. Bringing of the steel ribbons on to Pampa would deprive no other city of service, but would, in all probability, add to the convenience of all points to the south.

Hearing This Month
It has been learned that the Interstate Commerce Commission will review the counter claims of competing railroads in a hearing at Port Worth July 29. The early date of this hearing means an earlier beginning of the project that is authorized.

Pampa and Childress B. C. D. authorities, who are chiefly interested in furthering the Denver's application, are working steadily in compiling data to support their interventions. They are assembling the necessary witnesses to support their pleas. The Port Worth hearing will last several days. A Pampa delegation representing the various interests and industries affected will make the trip.

Giantess Admits Torch Murder

A 230-pound giantess, 21 years old has confessed to the first "torch murder" on record by a woman. Laura Weaver of Toulon, Ill., is shown in the custody of Sheriff W. C. Officers say she strangled him with a belt, kicked his body down the steps wrapped in a blanket, and then burned it.

Two Prohibition Officers to Face Murder Trials

TECUMSEH, Okla., July 13. (AP)—Two members of a federal prohibition officer's raiding party must stand trial in state court for murder in the slaying of James Harris and Oscar Lowery, farmers and world war veterans. It was ruled today at the conclusion of a preliminary trial before J. J. Dutton, justice of peace.

Jeff B. Harris was bound over for trial on a charge of murdering both men and W. W. "Snake" Thomason on a charge growing out of James Harris' death. Charges against John Williams and Tom Little, two other members of the party, were dismissed after little evidence had been produced to connect them with the slayings.

Thomason is a commissioned federal prohibition enforcement agent. Washington officials have denied that Harris was a commissioned employe, but testimony at the hearing was that he had represented himself as a federal agent in a conversation after the slaying, both of which were attributed to him.

No testimony was offered today by the defendants. They probably will be tried this fall.

Embargo Rumor Denied at Port

GALVESTON, July 13. (AP)—Refuting grain embargo rumors arising from the accumulation of 2,500 cars on track and charged to rival port interests, the fixture of twenty-one vessels to load more than 4,000,000 bushels of wheat between now and July 31 was announced here today by E. H. Thornton, traffic manager of the Galveston Chamber of Commerce, and steamship men. Nine of these ships, with bookings aggregate more than 1,800,000 bushels, already are in port or due Monday.

The three grain elevators here have double crews standing by and will begin 24-hour operations when sufficient steamship tonnage accumulates, possibly within the coming week, it was declared.

They have prepared for handling 15,000,000 bushels during the last half of this month and the first half of August, a figure twice reached in past months.

Thirteen full cargo fixtures for this month alone will absorb more than 2,200 cars of wheat, Mr. Thornton said. Receipts continued high today, 250 cars arriving in the forenoon alone.

Late buying by exporters, due to the farm relief uncertainty, and consequent lack of steamers for early movement was blamed for the accumulation of 2,500 cars on tracks here although Mr. Thornton said that in view of the present steamship situation the number warranted no alarm. During 1926, he declared, as high as 7,000 cars were on track or enroute and the port suffered no embargo.

Safeguarding of Texas University Land Before Legislative Session

AUSTIN, July 13. (AP)—The problems of adjusting differences between the senate and house on appropriations bills and rewriting statutes to safeguard oil deposits on Texas university land confronted weary legislators when they adjourned today for the weekend.

While committees from the two houses were attempting to strike a harmonious chord on aid for state schools and departments today, Governor Moody prolonged the session by saying that present land statutes were clouded, and that millions of dollars might be lost if laws were not revised. The executive also submitted three local measures affecting Austin, Brownwood, and Lubbock, expected to be uncontested.

The governor suggested a law which would reserve to the state all mineral rights on unsold school lands, the request coming along on the heels of an announcement by Land Commissioner J. T. Robison that almost 1,500,000 acres of public school land would be placed on the market September 1. The tracts would be subject to the filing of leases by payment of a small fee and the governor expressed belief that the state should not risk losing extensive oil resources through private ownership.

Excess oil lands, created through resurveying university tracts in large blocks, should be removed from the market entirely, the governor said.

He declared that if the legislature were unwilling to remain in session to pass proper laws for the protection of the permanent school fund and the University of Texas, immediate steps should be taken to withhold possible vacancies from the market.

"It is my personal judgment that it is better to pass a statute withholding this land from sale than one providing for its disposal," the governor said.

Threat of still another special session if appropriation bills finally approved by the two houses are not balanced was seen in the conclusion of the governor's text.
