Vision of Pampa as Burlington City Is Presented

COMPETITION IS NEED OF AREA

Joint Trackage Plan Is Suggested to Rock Island

Desirability of "opening up the North Panhandle to Texas" was the keynote of a brief but meaningful mass meeting of B. C. D. members, business men, and a party of Fort Worth & Denver officials at the White Deer land building yesterday afternoon.

Judge J. H. Barwise, general counsel for the Denver road, was chief spokesman for the visitors. President F. D. Kelm and Directors M. K. Brown and C. C. Cook made short responses for Pampa residents. Others in the railroad group were E. E. Clarity, vice-president and general manager; A. E. Dwyer, traveling freight agent; W. D. McDow, right-of-way agent; M. A. Stahler, system engineer; L. M. Hogsett, general freight agent; and A. P. Briggs, location engineer. John Lupin, secretary-treasurer of the Dallas News, was a guest of Mr. Clarity, and Jerry Debenport, manager of the Childress Chamber of Commerce, accompanied the group.

"We had heard that Pampa and community were the busiest in Texas, but we were not prepared to see such tremendous development as we have just traversed," Judge Barwise declared. "And we want to become the servant of this vast community and to give a better rail contact with the markets. We have tried to press our application for a construction permit on the idea that we deserve this permit solely upon the merits of the case. We have uttered no criticism of other roads and communities. We are not going to build our case upon the demerits of anyone else."

"The situation here is no different from that on the South Plains, where we have spent $8,000,000. We are going to build, if we get the permit, as good a road here as we did there. There we have already handled 3,000 carloads of wheat without a single hour's delay. The fastest trains on the Denver line are on that road."

"We propose to add Pampa to the great Burlington system of which we are a part—a system of more than 30,000 miles of railroad. This strong territory is entitled to another railroad. It is entitled to a competitive basis of shipping. You need a good commercial connection with Texas—not merely on an east-west line. We believe Pampa would benefit greatly from (See DENVER, Page 6)

AND A SMILE

NEW YORK (AP)—Donald L. Samuels, 28, weight 332, member of the New York Stock Exchange, is being sued for a separation because, his wife says he failed to keep his antenuptial promise to reduce. Pretending he was foregoing breakfast she averts, he used to go out hungry mornings and eat at a restaurant. The husband avers his wife has a baffling psychosis because she reads romantic novels and that at times her conduct has so perturbed him he has lain on the bed and cried. They have been married six years. The wife says the husband earns $60,000 a year and up.

WILLIAM FOX IS BADLY HURT IN CRASH

MINEOLA, N. Y., July 17. (AP)—Dr. William M. Post of East Williston, who attended William Fox at the Nassau County hospital today for injuries received in an automobile accident, said the movie producer was in a critical condition.

Mr. Fox, he said, is suffering from a hemorrhage of the brain and his face is a mass of cuts and bruises. He also has a possible fracture of the skull.

OLD WESTBURY, N. Y., July 17. (AP)

—William Fox, theatrical and moving picture magnate, and J. L. Rubinstein, a friend, were injured, and the Fox chauffeur was killed today in a collision between the Fox automobile and another car in which three women were riding. The women were uninjured.

The collision occurred at an intersection, and Joseph Boyes, Fox's chauffeur, was killed when the car he was driving overturned. Fox and a friend named Rubinstein were taken to the Nassau County hospital at Mineola. The car in which the women were riding was driven by Miss Mildred Kane of New York City. It remained upright. Miss Kane and her two companions were taken to headquarters of the Nassau county police in Mineola for questioning.

McMann Is Bringing In Four Wells in Finley-Brown Pool

The McMann Oil company has four wells on top of the pay and one flowing in the new Finley-Brown pool. It is expected that all will be drilled in this week.

The company's No. 1 Palmer, in section 31, block B-2, topped the pay late yesterday afternoon and commenced flowing by heads. No accurate gauge had been made this morning but the well was estimated to be making about 30 barrels an hour.

Four other tests are in the same section and all are drilling below 2,700 feet. Two have gas and others are topping the gas sand.

The Texas company has three wells in the same pool on top of the pay, while Phillips and Marland have tests getting to interesting depths.

MEXICAN GENERAL TO SURRENDER HIS MEN

MEXICO CITY, July 17. (AP)—The Mexican government announced today that Andre Salazar, chief of the rebel movement in the state of Colima, has agreed to surrender and had been given 15 days in which to concentrate his men, said to number more than 300. They have been promised safe conduct to their homes.

Seventy-five rebels headed by the Chieftains Miguel, Aguilano, Plutarco Ramirez, and Luis Marquez surrendered yesterday at Todus, Colima.

TRAIN KILLS FIVE

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., July 17. (AP)—Two men, two women and a girl were killed today when their automobile was demolished by a train at a crossing near Cambria. A driver's license found in a pocket of one dead man bore the name of Nathaniel Kaulman, Philadelphia.

LOANS ARE DELAYED

WASHINGTON, July 17. (AP)—The federal farm board announced today no loans would be made out of its $150,000,000 fund available pending a determination of policy.

J. B. Hodges, who underwent a major operation three weeks ago at Pampa hospital, will return home tomorrow.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Hudall, July 14, at Pampa hospital.

Mrs. W. B. Fussell left Pampa hospital yesterday, after having a minor operation several days ago.

CITIES MUST HOLD MARGIN FOR CHANGES

Rural Balloting Is Still Uncertain Quantity

BUT 86 PERSONS AT LOCAL POLLS

Salary Raise Very Popular With Pampans

Preponderance of approbation in the Pampa boxes carried the two state constitutional amendments in Gray county, with the outlying precincts turning in small totals against the changes.

With only the Hopkins box not available in the News tabulation the 'Gray county vote' was: for the salary amendment 139; against salary amendment 111; for court amendment 134; against court amendment 116.

DALLAS, July 17. (AP)—Proposals to increase the governor's salary from $4,000 to $10,000 a year and to enlarge the state supreme court from the present three to nine members gained further favorable majorities on tabulation today of unofficial and incomplete returns from yesterday's constitutional amendment election.

Approximately 100 counties, cities or towns were represented in today's final compilation by The Associated Press which gave the following vote: For increase of governor's salary, 21,145; against, 10,134.

For enlargement of supreme court 21,670; against, 9,757.

On the uncounted ballots of rural Texas today was written "victory" or "defeat" for the two proposed state constitutional amendments voted on yesterday. Balloting was unusually light.

The urban vote, to which sponsors of the amendments—one projecting raising the governor's salary from $4,000 to $10,000 annually and the other increasing the supreme court membership from three to nine—had looked for the greatest support in returns regarded as fairly representative had spoken affirmatively preponderantly.

Returns, largely from cities and relatively populous towns; as compiled early this morning, showed 9,011 Texans favored the salary increase, while 5,490 opposed it. The court amendment had found 9,922 friends and 5,431 enemies.

Thus, to the traditionally conservative country sections professional and opponents looked for the verdict.

"RANGER" EDITOR IN UNIVERSITY SUSPENDED

AUSTIN, July 17. (AP)—Publication of questionable material in the "Texas Ranger," University of Texas humorist publication, resulted today in the placing on probation for one year of John Canaday, acting editor of the comic during a period of last year.

H. V. Crowder, who succeeded Canaday, was relieved of his duties by the faculty discipline committee more than a month ago. He has announced he will not return to school this year. Faculty members condemned the Ranger for publishing jokes termed too risque.

Caraway Flays Hoover Chairman on Crime Talk

WASHINGTON, July 17. (AP)—Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, declared today that George W. Wickersham had "sacrificed his usefulness" as chairman of the Hoover law enforcement commission through his failure to prohibit enforcement road yesterday to the governors' conference at New London, Conn.

Local Veterans Organize Post in Shamrock Monday

Shamrock now has an American Legion post. Members of Kerley-Crossman post of Pampa motored to Shamrock Monday night to the organization meeting of the Shamrock post. Commander Frank Culbertson of the Pampa post was in charge of the meeting. About 35 of the local members made the trip.

The Pampa auxiliary also sent a delegation of twelve members in the interest of organizing an Auxiliary in Shamrock. That work will be taken up after the Legion post has been officially recognized.

There was a large attendance at the meeting and much enthusiasm was shown Commander Culbertson says.

Whether the rural electorate would pile up sufficient votes to back down the commanding lead given the amendments and dissipate it to less than the necessary simple majority appeared to be the vital issue.

Generally speaking, the farm vote had been unfavorable to such changes, but some observers professed to note a perceptible swing, as compared to bygone years, of the hamlets and communities toward the proposal, while others thought that the collective rural answer again would be "no."

The lethargic exercise of suffrage was looked on as an aid to the amendments.

Houston had given them the biggest majority reported early today from any city. There, with complete returns from 86 to 135 boxes, the vote stood: for salary amendment, 1,727; against, 296. For court increase, 1,749; against, 280.

MANY BANKS IN FLORIDA CLOSE THEIR DOORS

Ten Institutions Are in Charge of Examiners

UNWISE GOSSIP IS GIVEN BLAME

Mediterranean Fly Is Partial Cause of Unrest

TAMPA, Fla., July 17. (AP)—Fourteen state banks in Southwest Florida closed their doors today, bringing to twenty-two the number of financial institutions to fail within the state in the past two weeks.

TAMPA, Fla., July 17. (AP)—The Citizens Bank and Trust company, a state institution, and nine other branch banking institutions, failed to open their doors today.

Besides the Citizens, four of the depositories were in Tampa. Notices posted at the Citizens' bank by a state examiner said the institution was in his hands.

The branches affected were: The bank of Arbor City on which a run was made Monday. The Lafayette bank; Citizens' Nebraska avenue bank; Franklin bank and the Bank of Plant City; Bradenton Bank and Trust company; First Bank and Trust company, of Sarasota; First State Bank of Fort Meade and the Bank of Pasco county at Dade City.

E. P. Jackson, state examiner, has been here since Monday checking up conditions.

The board of directors of the Citizens Bank and Trust, at a meeting today issued a statement explaining conditions as due to "unwise gossip and continued adverse conditions following the appearance of the Mediterranean fly which was responsible for a feeling of unrest and fear developed on the part of the people."

Prisoner's Tie Prevents Break

FREDERICKSBURG, July 17. (AP)—Gillespie county officers today prevented the escape of five criminals from the jail here through a tie given them by a prisoner.

Officials learned the escape had been planned for midnight. They surrounded the jail at the appointed time and apprehended a man and a woman giving names as Verda Durst and E. A. Morris as they entered the jail yard and called to the prisoners. The pair was grilled for several hours.

Floyd Bectal, alias Pentz, who has a record of serving time in five federal and state penitentiaries and under a burglary sentence in Colorado county, admitted sawing the bars of the cell from which the five prisoners intended to escape.

The "Boerenbond," cooperative organization of Belgian farmers, handled business transactions amounting to $18,000,000 last year.

A negro farm hand, employed by L. P. Byrne at Columbus, Miss., ran a tractor 32 hours with only a half-hour break.

F. E. Lowery of Oxford, Kan., found an old facsimile of the Declaration of Independence, the exact size of the original, while rummaging in a chest of family papers.

Tiny Keith, a 326-pound life guard at an Indianapolis bathing pool, claims to have rescued 1,133 persons from drowning.

New York City has nearly as many telephones as all of Great Britain and more than half the number in Germany.

CONCERT WILL BE SPONSORED BY LEGION

The Pampa post of the American Legion will sponsor a big concert to be held August 21. The Legion band will furnish music.

Local entertainers will be featured and a noted speaker will be brought here to make an address. After the concert, an automobile will be given away. Plans for the concert were discussed at a luncheon meeting of the executive board at the Schneider hotel at noon today.

Proceeds from the concert will be used to purchase uniforms for the Legion band.

A special called meeting of the Legion, auxiliary, 40 and 8, 8 and 40, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and ex-service men will be held in the Pla-Mor auditorium Monday night at 8 o'clock. Commander Frank Culbertson has issued a call that every eligible man and woman be present promptly.

The Legion band will give a program as part of the special meeting. Legionnaires are asked to wear their caps to the session.

Elks Will Meet This Evening at the New Schneider

Every Elk in Pampa and the surrounding territory is urged to be at the Schneider hotel promptly at 8 o'clock tonight. A meeting of the proposed Elks lodge will be held.

All Elks, who have paid-up membership cards will be charter members of the Pampa lodge upon its formal organization. P. B. Mooney, temporary secretary, said today.

Whether dues are paid up or not, every "Bill" is urged to attend to-night's meeting, he said.

Local Salesman Leads His Area

Leo R. Martin, used car manager and salesman for the Culbertson-Small Chevrolet company here, led the Southwest territory in sales during the first six months of this year, a statement from the Chevrolet head office announced yesterday.

Mr. Martin sold 55 new Chevrolet sixes and 140 used cars the first half year.

Included in the district which Mr. Martin lead were Dallas, Fort Worth, Oklahoma City, New Orleans, El Paso, Houston and other cities in Louisiana Texas and Oklahoma.

PUBLISHER INDICTED ON GAME LAW VIOLATION

NEWTON, Ga., July 17. (AP)—Judge Robert W. Bingham, publisher of the Louisville Times and the Courier Journal, and several of his guests at his hunting lodge near here last January, today were indicted by the Baker county grand jury on charges of shooting doves over a baited field.

MURDERER OF CO-ED TO HAVE SANITY HEARING

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 17. (AP)—Attorneys for Dr. James H. Snook, confessed slayer of Theora K. Hix, 25, his co-ed paramour, demanded a sanity hearing at a conference with Common Pleas Judge Henry L. Scarlett today, and he immediately named the superintendents of three state hospitals as alienists to examine Snook.

MEXICANS MAY RETURN

MEXICO CITY, July 17. (AP)—Representatives of Mexicans living in Texas as have arrived here and will confer with President Portes Gil with reference to repatriation of their countrymen. They hope to obtain government aid in procuring agricultural facilities for those who wish to earn a living in their own land.

City employees who do not pay bills promptly cannot remain on the National, Ill., payroll, Mayor S. A. Hubbard has decreed.

HUGE LOSS IN CANADA CROP MAIN FACTOR

Buying Orders Almost Swamp Chicago Market

ADVANCE OF OVER 8 CENTS

Local Offering Passes $1.15-Cent Mark Today

CHICAGO, July 17. (AP)—Another wild outburst of buying carried wheat prices up more than 8 cents a bushel today, and December contracts swept past the $1.15 level in the sensational, spurt. Closing prices, again were at or near the top figures for the day, with the December delivery at $1.14 5/8 to 7-8 a bushel.

The day's advance for wheat was from 7 7/8 to 5 5/8, and other grains scored strong advances, too.

The flood of orders to buy wheat almost submerged the pit as world markets skyrocketed. Fear that weather would inflict almost a total loss to spring wheat growers in Canada and the domestic northwest was increased today as reports came of 100-degree temperatures. Prices mounted spectacularly at Winnipeg and at Liverpool as well as in this country, and heavy buying was reported here for export to Europe.

Wheat closed feverish, 7 3/4 cents to 8 5/8 cents above yesterday's finish. Corn closed 3/4 to 3 3/4-c up, oats 3/4 to 2 3/4-c advanced, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 7c.

Cash grain had gone to $1.15 per bushel early this afternoon at Pampa elevators, which were awaiting for reports from export buyers before finally determining the price level for the day.

Postal Clerks Added to Staff

Two more clerks have been added to the general delivery department at the local post office in an effort to handle the situation. Because so many persons get mail through general delivery, being unable to secure boxes, another general delivery window will be made and another clerk used.

Miss Minnie Cole and Harry Kelly are the new clerks already at work in that department.

M. B. Johnson of Amarillo, postal inspector, has been here since Monday working to relieve the situation.

OIL WELL FIRE RAGES IN RUMANIA 48 DAYS

BUCHAREST, Rumania, July 17. (AP)—A raging fire in an oil well at Moreni has defied the efforts of workmen and firemen to extinguish it for forty-two days. Two men were burned to death last Saturday in an attempt to choke the well.

The fire was believed to be the greatest ever reported in any oil field in the world, and the damage so far is put at $1,000,000.

UNDERFLOW IS SERIOUS MENACE TO HUTCHINSON

HUTCHINSON, Kas., July 17. (AP)—A new menace carrying a threat of additional property damage confronted this city today with appearance of the Arkansas Valley underflow, which is sending seepage into basements of buildings hitherto untouched by flood waters from Cow creek, which went on a rampage last Friday. The underflow was reported to be close to the surface of the ground.

Miss Nada Flockett of Miami underwent a major operation yesterday at Pampa hospital. Her condition today was satisfactory.

It's Like This

AMARILLO HAS OFTEN ANNOUNCED HER WEDDING to the far-flung country about her. She is the city of roses—bridal roses, and she imagines that every train which leaves her stations is toiling "Here Comes the Bride".

Amarillo is a city of many civic assets, among which are many good citizens who attend to their own business and do not try to stop the antics of the domineering leaders of that place.

It looks very much like she has put blind bridles on many of her good people and is trying to play god-mother to most towns and high lord executioner to Pampa.

When the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce was considering the action of her directors in the railroad "fight", applause was given the statement that it was one of the most vital issues Amarillo ever faced.

That Amarillo is a manufacturing, jobbing, and commercial center serving a large trade area extending over Northwest Texas, Western Oklahoma, and Eastern New Mexico, and is intensely interested in the further development of said area.

That your petitioner, by reason of this fact, is vitally interested in the construction by the Clinton-Oklahoma Western Railroad company of Texas of a line of railroad from Heaton, Texas, southward a distance of approximately 8 miles.

Amarilloans do not know that the C. & O. W. branch would be in reality a private line, serving one or two industrial plants of relatively small tonnage and providing amusement for the jackrabbits and coyotes along the range traversed.

know what adequate service demands, the Amarillo Chamber, being "vitaly interested" in the development over here, is asking the privilege of telling Pampa and LeFors what this community must have.

Of course no one is deceived. Amarillo wants to block a northsouth railroad on the Upper Plains, and she believes the spur line might help to null that road.

The keynote of the fight, as concerns the North Plains, is in the phrase, "Open up the North Panhandle to Texas." The East-Ward railroad opens the way to Amarillo on the west and Wichita, Kansas City, and other eastern points in the other direction.

There is, indeed, an element of state loyalty in wishing to have a line into the heart of Lone Star commonwealth.

If this column has championed the cause of railroading to the exclusion of other important matters, it is because the rail fight must be won or lost this month while other projects are not so pressing.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
WASHINGTON — The Problem of what to do with our ex-presidents may remain baffling and poignant, but the ex-secretaries of president are never in any doubt concerning their future after they leave the White House.

Comfortable law offices and fat fees await them in Washington, where hundreds of lawyers get along wonderfully well without ever practicing any law at all.

The several presidential ex-secretaries now doing business here have all practiced law in their time and are not unwilling to go into the court, but they have joined the large, happy family of ex-cabinet members, ex-senators, ex-congressmen and other ex-government officials whose prosperity here has been largely dependent on a widespread belief that they are specially qualified to wrangle things out of the government.

Very rarely is it specifically charged that one of these gents has used his official contacts improperly. It is probably quite natural that they should go into business where they are best known and where their most favorable opportunities appear to lie—that's not unethical. In doing so, doubtless no unworthy thought ever enters their heads.

But it is only natural that they are promptly sought out by an outside interests for legislative or administrative favors. Little or no knowledge of law is essential for such business. These boys know the ropes. They know the people to see. And in cases of ex-members of Congress they have the precious privilege of the floor.

Of course there is no sense in going out and calling people lobbyists unless everyone is agreed as to just what a lobbyist is. The dictionary says a lobbyist is one who solicits legislators for votes. It is hard to draw a line between lobbyists and "fixers", who seek to influence official decisions, as in tax cases. Many do both.

If a lobbyist is one who seeks tariff favors for special interests, then at least two presidential ex-secretaries qualify.

C. Bascom Slemp, former secretary to President Coolidge has been representing firms interested in metal schedules. Slemp and his law partner have frequently been concerned in big money cases here in which the government had some sort of an interest, including alien property matters, the fight against the inheritance tax and Muscle Shoals. Very recently a Capt. Barlow, after unsatisfactory experience with the State Department in his attempt to collect some hundreds of thousands of dollars of which the Cubans are supposed to have robbed him, employed Slemp and Everett Sanders, another Coolidge secretary.

Sanders entered the Washington office of the law firm of Secretary of War Jim Good, which specializes in income tax cases and has represented the Pampa Power Co. Lately Sanders has represented the plate glass interests which want a tariff increase.

Ted Clark, Coolidge's erstwhile private secretary, has installed himself in one of the big new office buildings and is now said to represent the Liggett drug interests.

Joseph P. Tumulty, Woodrow Wilson's famous secretary, has had a law office here for eight years. He has practiced in contact with government departments and attended the hearings on the Walsh public utilities resolution. The name "Tumulty" was mentioned in one of the telegrams of the head of the power lobby here, but Tumulty has never been accused of lobbying.

TWINKLES

Since the precipitation isn't very prominent these days, we suppose current irritability must be charged to the simple heat. But our nights are wonderful, even if we do not have any parks to glorify them with.

The West Point superintendent is hunting for relatives of eight civil war generals. He probably won't have to advertise very long.

Edison has been granted more than 1,000 patents, but still we have no device to effectively shut off long-winded speakers.

It is said a 12-year-old girl, dumb from birth, regained the power of speech while witnessing a murder. That ought to increase the movement toward Chicago.

Our weather predicting ability is warped. How are we going to tell a norther from the clouds of smoke that fasten themselves across our horizons? We have not seen any smokes near enough to Pampa to annoy anyone, but the sky is often "banke-l" up with it.

Our election proves that it isn't totals which count—it's the ratio.

A florist sprinkles itching powder on his flowers to prevent thefts. Maybe nature had that in mind when she invented chiggers.

Not wishing Kansas any bad luck at all, we nevertheless choose to remind partisans from that state that it is flooding quite successfully up there, and that the wheat crop isn't all it might be.

Despite our flair for criticizing things in general, we cannot censure the action of the Los Angeles boy who burned down a school because he was tired of the summer term.

This might be a better world if people could take as lightly as do wrestlers the criticisms changed.

The latest hitch-hiking method is to use the airplane. It would be a hitch sure enough if some pilot should be slugged by his passenger, and dropped overboard.

In Japan automobiles have to be lighted inside as well as out. And over here, how would you find room for light rays in many of our coupes?

Thinner pigs are advocated by butchers. So we may have diets for the swine and also not be able to say "as fat as a pig".

A regular meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star will be held at 8:15 o'clock.

Mrs. M. A. Finney left this morning for Fort Smith, Ark., where she will spend a few weeks with her parents. She was accompanied by little Miss Lucille Cole, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. Cole. Mrs. Finney will later go to Odessa, where Mr. Finney was recently transferred as district superintendent of the Pure Oil company.

B. & P. Members and Guests Enjoy Picnic at LeFors

The Business and Professional Women's club entertained Monday evening with a picnic at LeFors, with 17 members and an equal number of guests attending. Swimming in the natatorium was followed by a basket supper in the grove.

The gathering was the last meeting of the club for the summer. Monthly business meetings of the board of directors will be held, and the membership will reconvene on the first Tuesday in September.

Night Owl Club Entertained at Williams Home

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Williams entertained last evening with four tables of bridge for the Night Owl club. High scores were made by Mrs. J. H. Lutz and R. S. McConnell. Mrs. McConnell and J. H. Hulme scored low. Each received a favor, as did Mrs. W. M. Murphy and Miss Helen Murphy, who drew high and low, respectively, in the general cut. Tees were served.

Players were as follows: Mrs. J. G. Christy, Mrs. Alma Swanson, Mrs. J. H. Lavender, Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Murphy and daughter, Miss Helen of Berger, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hulme, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McConnell.

Mrs. Arthur Jaynes Hostess to Club

Gibraltar Bridge club members were guests yesterday of Mrs. Arthur Jaynes, who entertained with two tables. Those present were: Mrs. Roy Kilgore, Mrs. W. E. Taylor, Mrs. G. W. Sherrod, Mrs. Art Jaynes, Mrs. Carl Jaynes, and Mrs. O. R. Smith, members; Mrs. C. L. Hunter and Miss Opal Gaylor, special guests.

A pink and green color scheme effectively developed in all details, including luncheon covers and tea hour refreshments, gave the meeting a gala note. The score awards were charming. A pretty boudoir pillow was given Mrs. Hunter for high guest score. Mrs. Sherrod received a hand-decorated serving fork and spoon of rosewood for club high. Consolation favor was an incense burner, which went to Mrs. Smith.

Earl Phelps, employe of the Phillips Petroleum company, is at Pampa hospital for treatment of injuries received last Friday. His condition today is better, hospital officials said.

H. L. Turner of Miami has been at Pampa hospital for treatment since last Friday. His condition was considered much improved today.

Mrs. C. N. Brewer and her week-old son left Pampa hospital today.

Mrs. O. L. Davis of Noletto, who has been at Pampa hospital for treatment since July 12, has showed marked improvement, officials of the hospital reported.

Higgins Is Making Many Improvements

HIGGINS, July 17. (Special)—With old landmarks giving way for new structures, a new brick school building approaching completion, a paving program for Main street just starting, and a sewerage project before the people for consideration, Higgins is experiencing an unprecedented period of building activity.

A brick and tile theatre building, with a seating capacity of 500, is being erected. A two-story brick hotel building will replace the Higgins hotel, which has stood at the head of Main street since 1888. The new building will have a frontage of 75 feet on main street, and will have 40 modernly equipped rooms. Excavation for another hotel building has been started.

It is expected that the school building will be ready for occupancy the first week in September. Several new residences also are under construction.

Resolution Passed on Immodesty by Catholic Women

SALEM, Ore., July 17. (AP)—A resolution urging women to wear dresses of sufficient length to cover their knees when sitting as well as when standing was adopted last night by the Catholic Women's society in its national convention here.

Birth control and the new freedom for women were dealt with in other resolutions. Preceding the adoption of these, delegates to the society and to the Catholic Central Verein of America heard addresses deploring the alleged immodesty of present fashions in dress and the practice of birth control.

Resolution on feminine skirts deplored "the trend on the part of girls and women who display too much of their physical form have become a source of temptation to all men, young and old."

Mrs. E. E. Hutchins had a minor operation this morning at Pampa hospital.

LEADERS DROP HOT GAMES IN THE NATIONAL

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Under dogs had their day in the National league yesterday as all of the leading teams tumbled in a heap, preventing any contender from gaining.

In the American league, the Athletics retained their lead of eight games by defeating Cleveland, 7 to 5, in 10 innings as the Yankees coasted home by 11 to 7 at Detroit.

In the general annihilation of contenders along the National league front, the defeat of the Pirates was most notable. The Buccaners had a record of eight straight in the East until Bob Smith pitched the Braves to a 4-to-1 decision yesterday. Brame was pounded for all the Boston runs in the very first inning, and Smith clinched the decision by stopping the Corsairs with four hits.

Klein's two homers ran his total for three games to five, tying the major league record held by Babe Ruth and several other players. Klein also established a new modern mark by ringing up three homers in three successive times at bat, the last time up on Monday and the first two yesterday.

Sylvester Johnson hit winning form at the Polo Grounds when he let the Giants down with seven scattered hits, and won his own game by 5 to 0, by smacking out a home run with one on in the fourth. Fred Fitzsimmons had an off day, and the Giants missed a chance to shave something from both of the teams ahead of them.

Jack Hendricks continued his campaign to escape from the cellar, and approached to within three points of his goal. The Reds took both ends of a doubleheader from the Robins in Brooklyn, 5 to 3 and 7 to 2.

The White Sox worked hard to edge out the Senators by 6 to 5 in 10 innings, and the Browns consolidated their collapse by yielding another game to the Red Sox. Milton Gaston hurled a three-hit game to win by 11 to 2. It was the second three-hit performance against the Browns in the three games of the series played thus far.

Longhran Will Tackle Heavies If He Wins Tomorrow

NEW YORK, July 17. (AP)—Tommy Longhran, bustiest of all fistie champions, will defend his light heavyweight crown against James J. Braddock of Jersey City, at the Yankee Stadium tomorrow night in what may prove to be his last fight as a 175 pounder.

"Winner or loser in his battle with 'Jersey Jimmy,' Longhran is authority for the statement that he will engage in few if any more bouts as a light heavyweight.

Despite his frequent title defenses and non-title bouts, Longhran has made little money out of the title he won from Mike McTigue in October of 1927. The big money lies with the heavyweights and Tommy is convinced he can more than hold his own with any of the current crop in that division.

He has said that if he beats Braddock he will fight again as a light heavyweight in September and then cast his lot with the heavyweights. If he loses he has said he expects to take a vacation and see what he can do in the way of putting on more weight and adding a punch to his fistie repertoire so that when he meets the big fellows he will not be under such a handicap.

Setting odds on the day before the fight favor Longhran at 7 to 5 but an expected rush of Braddock money may tighten the odds before ring time.

BRUSHING UP SPORTS

By Laufer

Somewhere in his baseball career, Walter Johnson, manager of the Washington Senators, must have walked under a ladder.

Or, maybe he carelessly tossed his hat on a hotel bed. . . Or perhaps he exchanged stares with a cross-eyed colored boy in the full of the moon.

Anyhow if baseball's code of voodooism can be taken seriously, Old Joshua P. Jinx seems to have picked out Walter for the buggy ride.

Consider his fate since he has taken charge of the Nats. On paper this spring his team was picked to run one, two, three by the majority of dopsters. The Senators appeared a most classy dail club in pre-season games and stories of what the Washington pitchers were displaying in the Southland filled columns of sports page space. But soon after the season opened, Mr. Jinx started to do his stuff.

Illness and injuries hit the team like a Kansas twister hits an up and coming wheat field. Even old Barney had to leave the bench for a hospital bunk. Ad Liska, the sensational newcomer, of whom much has been written and of whom so much was expected, flivvered after a nice start. Bump Hadley, who pitched as nice a brand of ball as most pitchers who were running up win columns, couldn't beat anybody.

Goose Goslin, last year's batting champion, acted like an Appalachian League recruit at the plate. Garland Braxton, who the year before led the American League pitchers in effectiveness, was off his stride due to illness and injuries. Firpo Marberry, whom ball players like as one of the best pitchers in the game, seemed destined to go back to his role of bull pen pitcher.

In short, the first division pick of the experts looked like the team the Red Sox would have to beat out for the coal hole championship. And to date there has been no striking reversal of form.

BEAUMONT AT TOP FOR ONCE IN TEN YEARS

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

It might never happen again, so look sharply. The Beaumont Exporters topped the Texas league pennant procession today by 12 points, the first time in some 10 years a Shipper nine has led the race at this stage of the game.

Claude Robertson's hearties accomplished the modern miracle yesterday by scoring their sixth straight triumph at the expense of the truculent Wichita Spudders. The count was 6 to 3, and Big Elmer Hanson had the Spuds on his hip all the way, so to speak.

By battling their way into the van after a weak start in the second half, the Exporters have proved themselves an appreciative lot. It is said on good authority that friendship for Rube Stuart, general owner of the club, caused at least one magnate to vote for the split. Nobody seemed to think it would make much difference to the somnolent Shippers one way or another, but it now appears the Magnolia entry needed just a little encouragement to get mean. What happened to the Spudders also happened to two other northern clubs that launched campaigns in the Southland. San Antonio greeted the Steers with a 7-to-6 reverse and the Buffaloes blanked the Cats, 7 to 0, as Jim Lindsey finally marked up his thirteenth victory. Only the Shreveport nine was able to bump the homelings, Waco succumbing to Oscar Turner's splitter, 8 to 2. There was a feeling that the south end of the circuit had taken a brace in recent weeks, and results of the opening skirmishes bear that out.

At Beaumont it simply was a case of Hanson having another of his spacious days. He can look very ordinary for weeks, then get hot as a firecracker. He did not allow a Spudder to reach first in the last four innings. Three Spud chumpers were roughed up, Dutch Wetzel, San Antonio cast-off, jarred one of them for a homer.

It took Lindsey five tries to win his thirteenth, but he did it right when he finally succeeded. Six singles was the sum total of the Cats' attack, and five fanned. In snapping a losing streak that had reached six straight, the Buffs pounded McCabe and Devaney for 10 hits. Roy Moore had a big day, his homer and single driving in four runs.

The Indians drove Charlie Barnabe, league mound ace, to the showers in shading the crippled Steers. Frazier took it over just in time to be charged with the same thing having happened in four of his last six efforts. Ray Flaskamper, sterling Dallas short-fielder, returned to the game after two weeks' absence and was stationed in the outfield.

Home runs by Mellano and Warwick gave the Cubs their only runs off Turo, their former teammate. The Cuban veteran allowed but seven hits and was never in danger. Bernie Devoteros, Sport shortstop, was a target for Cub batsmen. Twelve lammed the ball at him, but none reached first.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

By HENRY L. FARRELL

THEY HAVE THAT STUFF

The gunmen of Chicago have the interest of their Cubs at heart according to a story that came out several days after the battle in the Cub ball park between Hack Wilson and Ray Kolp.

It will be recalled that Wilson, the Chicago outfielder, left first base and rushed into the Cincinnati dugout and slammed Kolp, the Cincinnati pitcher and the chief jockey of the club.

The Cincinnati players on the bench milled around the two players and the Chicago players thought they were ganging Wilson and started across the field.

HERE COMES THE MOB

At this moment a group of young men well dressed and all that, sauntered down to the railing of the stand near the Cincinnati dugout and yelled at the Cubs:

"Get back over there. If you want them handled we'll handle 'em for you. And that is said to be the reason that prompted the Cincinnati officials to complain to the league president. They were afraid of cannon the next time.

they visit Chicago.

THEY SAY HACK CAN'T GO

The Reds claim for all his size and his strength that Wilson can't fight and that he didn't hit Kolp when he ran into the dugout.

They say that, on the other hand Kolp smacked him and that Wilson caught Pete Donohue with a sucker punch in the railroad station.

In the general discussion of fighting ball players it may be noted that the best fighters among the players are not the bolshierous ones who strut around kissing their right hands.

WHOD A THUNK IT

When he was in the American League the best fighter among the players was said to have been a man you would never guess—Wally Pipp.

Pipp was one of the quietest fellows in the league and he was rather frail in build, but the players said he sure could go when he got mad.

Babe Ruth made him made in the Yankee dugout one day. Pipp up and smacked him and that's all there was to it. And the Babe was said to be a fighter.

BIG FRANK GOOD, TOO

At the same time the best fighter in the National League was said to have been Frank Snyder, the big catcher of the New York Giants. Snyder also was a quiet fellow. They say he averaged about ten words a day, even to his roommate.

We don't know much about the scrapping ability of the players in the majors today. But Bob Meusel of the Yankees and Burleigh Grimes of the Pirates are said to be two very dangerous men to get in a corner.

YANKEE DOODLE CAME TO TOWN

The owners of the A's are flirting with the baseball fates and inviting what is said to be the worst jinx in baseball.

They are making arrangements to enlarge their park.

"No, not for the world series. We need more room for regular business," Connie Mack said.

Several years ago when his club was way up there in July Barney Dreyfus bought a carload of lumber for extra bleachers and when Thanksgiving came, he still had his lumber. His Pittsburgh Pirates blew the lead and left him with the lumber.

Two Ohio Editors Ordered to Jail for Contempt

CLEVELAND, O., July 17. (P)—Louis B. Seltzer, editor of the Cleveland Press and Carl K. Matzen, chief editorial writer, were held in contempt of court by common pleas Judge Luther P. Walther today. They were sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $500 each.

Judge Walther, who heard the charges brought by himself as a result of an editorial in The Press criticizing his granting of an injunction to racing interests, ordered immediate execution of the sentence.

The jurist denied a motion for a stay of execution, saying there was no statute to support it. Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war and chief attorney for the newspaper men, hurried to the court of appeals to attempt to obtain bond for the men pending further efforts for a stay.

Moody to Accept New Money Bills

AUSTIN, July 17. (P)—Although sine die adjournment has been put off until Saturday noon, the third special session of the 41st legislature had virtually completed its work today.

With all appropriation bills, totaling $47,792,895, having gone to the governor, as well as the measure withdrawing from the market unsurveyed public school lands and beds and channels of rivers, only minor business remained unfinished.

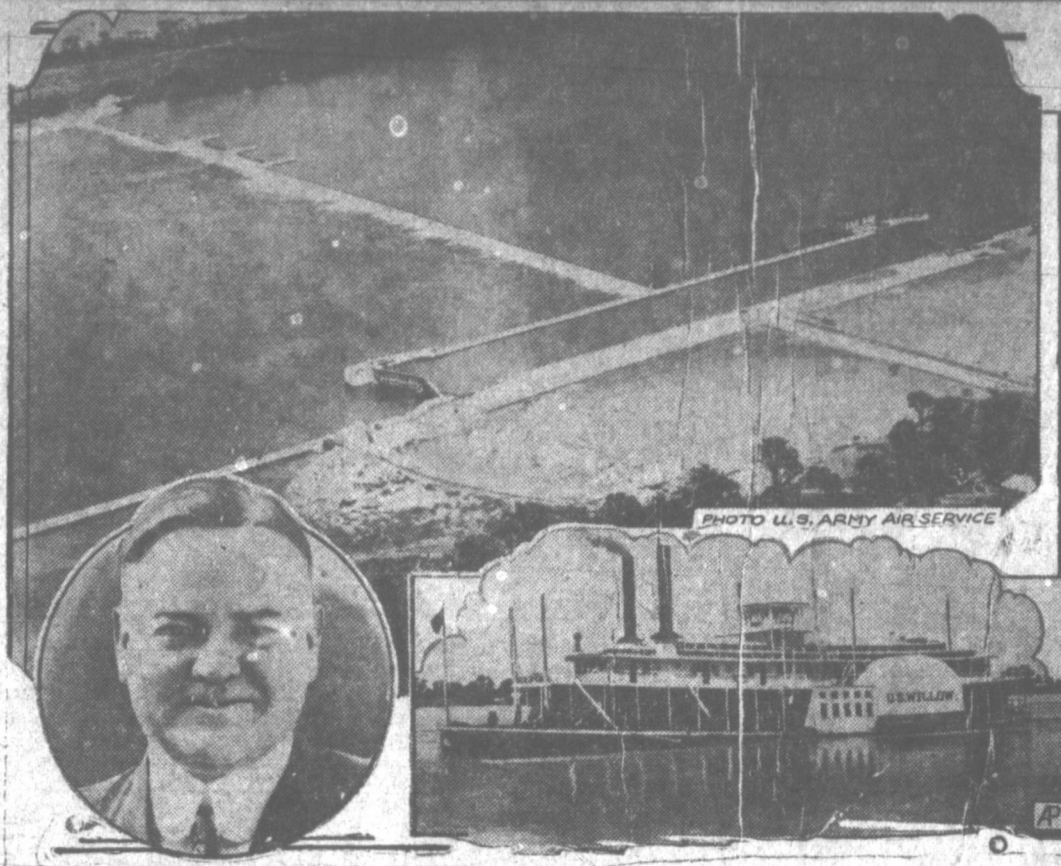

It will be almost solely a matter of adjourning from day to day until Saturday in order to save bills introduced yesterday and today from the constitutional prohibition that they be not considered if introduced within three days of final adjournment.

Governor Moody has indicated he would accept the appropriation bills as repassed with totals more than $3,000,000 under the measures disapproved by him at the end of the second special session, on July 2. He intimated he would veto some items from the bills to reduce the total of all appropriations authorized by the regular and special sessions of the 41st legislature to approximately $50,000,000.

RESCUED FROM FIRE

HOUSTON, July 17. (P)—Two men in their night clothes were rescued by ladders, a sick man was carried out on a cot and three other occupants of a downtown rooming house were forced to flee for their lives early today when a fire threatened the building.

President To Dedicate New Navigable Ohio

The Ohio river canal system, 1,000 miles long, will be dedicated by President Hoover (lower left) October 15. Dan No. 36 (above) just below Pittsburgh will control the flow of water. Below is shown one of the river boats which may take the chief executive to Memphis.

Rex to Present Famous "Trial of Mary Dugan" Soon

The first presentation in Pampa of "The Trial of Mary Dugan," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer all-talking screen version of Bayard Veiller's melodramatic stage hit, has been set for Sunday at the Rex theatre.

"Mary Dugan" ran for more than a full season at the National theatre in New York City, concluding its engagement on Broadway last summer. Before the end of its run, however, four domestic road companies had been organized and the success of the play outside of New York was fully as striking as its Broadway popularity. At the present time there are four road companies still touring the United States, with two in England, four in Germany, four in Holland, two in Norway and Sweden and one in France.

Mr. Veiller, whose earlier dramatic successes include "Within the Law" and "The Thirteenth Chair," signed a contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to direct personally the all-dialogue film version of his play. This was by no means his first cinema experience, since he had been director-general of the old Metro company for three years. It was his first encounter with the "talkies," however, and he returned to New York from Hollywood an enthusiastic advocate of the new entertainment medium.

A cast combining screen and stage talent, with Norma Shearer in the title role, was selected by Mr. Veiller, in conference with M-G-M, for the picture. Miss Shearer had never appeared before a microphone or had any talking film experience, yet her voice was said to be one of the best so far discovered among Hollywood's erstwhile silent players.

Raymond Hackett, who succeeded the late Rex Cherrymen in the role of Mary's brother on the stage, has the same part in the picture, while other important roles are played by H. B. Warner, Lewis Stone, Olive Tell, Lilyan Tashman, DeWitt Jennings, Mary Doran, Adrienne D'Ambricourt, Wilfrid North, Landers Stevens, Mary Dorne, Myra Hampton, Westcott Clarke, Charles Moore and Claud Allister.

TRYING FOR RECORD

SHREVEPORT, La., July 17. (P)—The Ryan monoplane, KWKH, piloted by Van Lear Leary and William Saunders, both of Shreveport, took off at 10:29:32 a. m., central standard time, today in an effort to establish a new refueling endurance mark. The refueling plane will be piloted by E. B. Redline of Shreveport and Buck of Eldorado, Ark.

Slight Hope Is Held For Berger

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 17. (P)—Rallying briefly from the coma in which he has lain since he was struck by a street car last night, Victor L. Berger, national socialist leader and former congressman, early today gave physicians hope he might recover despite his critical injuries.

Keeping watch with two doctors at the bedside through the night and today were Mr. Berger's wife, and his daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Welles, as well as several intimate friends and business associates.

Mr. Berger was hit by a street car while walking from the office of his newspaper to his home. Witnesses said he apparently became confused in the traffic and after dodging several automobiles seemed not to see the oncoming trolley.

Mr. Berger was taken to a hospital where doctors declared he had suffered a skull fracture and internal injuries in addition to a severe scalp wound and minor cuts and bruises.

FLYING TO PARIS

LITTORIO, Italy, July 17. (P)—The American trans-Atlantic aviators, Captain Lewis A. Yancey and Roger Q. Williams, took off in their airplane, the Pathfinder, for Paris at 8:15 a. m. (2:15 a. m. E. S. T.) today. They expected to reach Paris in the early afternoon.

Old Texas Indian Fighter Is Dead

LOS ALTOS, Cal., July 17. (P)—The death here Monday of Col. William Graston Austin, 61, former army officer and Indian fighter of Texas, became known last night. He settled here a few years ago after his retirement from the army.

Col. Austin held the congressional medal of honor for his campaigns against the Indians in the Southwest. In addition to his widow and two daughters, a sister, Miss Susan Austin, and a brother, Andrew Austin, both living in Texas, survive him.

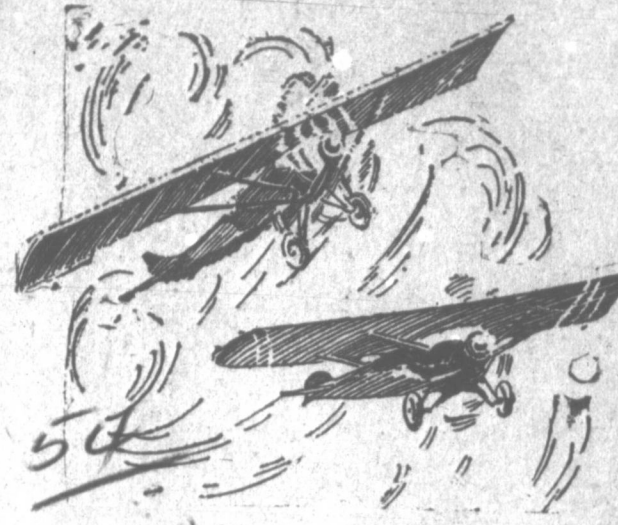

C. J. Jackson is seriously ill with typhoid. He is a patient at Pampa hospital, having entered yesterday afternoon.

H. E. Castleberry of Borger was a business visitor here yesterday.

Water Rates in White Deer Cut

WHITE DEER, July 17. (Special)—Much of the planting which has been done in White Deer this summer, on both public grounds and private lawns was the result of the reduction of water rates two months ago, according to J. C. Jackson, secretary of water revenues.

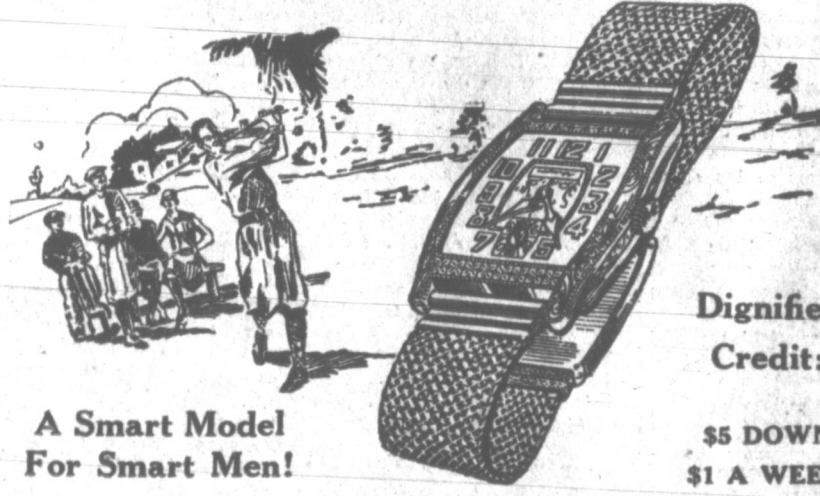

Since the new rate went into effect, allowing 4,000 gallons of water for the minimum charge of $2.50, instead of the old allowance of 1,500 gallons, water consumption has increased 50 per cent, with an increase of between 25 and 35 per cent in cost of pumping for the city, Mr. Jackson said. He believes the returns in city beautification were well worth the cost, inasmuch as lawns and yards are in better condition than ever before. Many new trees, shrubs, and flowers would not have been planted had the water rate not been lowered, Mr. Jackson believes.

Counter Demands by Chinese Given to Soviet Russia

NANKING, China, July 17. (AP)—China's nationalist government has replied to Soviet Russia's ultimatum growing out of Manchuria's seizure of the Chinese eastern railway, the Nanking government's answer being dispatched just within the three-day time limit named by Moscow.

The Nanking note, after seeking to justify events in Manchuria, contained three points of salient importance:

- (1) That Nanking "very soon" will send Chu Zao Yang, former ambassador at Moscow who is now in Nanking, to Moscow to discuss matters pending between the two governments.
- (2) A demand—which was emphasized as not a counter demand—that the Soviet release all Chinese imprisoned in Russia.
- (3) A similar demand that the Moscow government protect adequately Chinese nationals in Russia from aggression and repression.

Almost coincidentally with dispatch of the government's reply to Moscow it was revealed that 15,000 Manchurian troops had been mobilized with the past 48 hours for strategic positions on the border, principally at Manchull, terminus of the Chinese eastern railway.

In justifying seizure of the Chinese Eastern and expulsion of its Russian officers and employees, the note declared that Russia had not abided by the agreement of 1924 fixing the relationship of the two countries with regard to the railroad and the actions taken were necessary to preserve order in Manchuria.

The charge was made that Soviet Russian agents in Manchuria had spread communist propaganda so as to endanger the Chinese government and its social system.

Dawes Roars at English Banquet

LONDON, July 17. (AP)—Ambassador Dawes today is in the English public eye more spectacularly than ever, with the English press carrying highly colorful accounts of his appearance yesterday noon at a luncheon at the famous old Vintner's hall.

He indulged there in a vocal outburst on Anglo-American relations which brought him the characterization "oratorical volcano" in some papers and caused others to revert to his sobriquet, "hell and Maria."

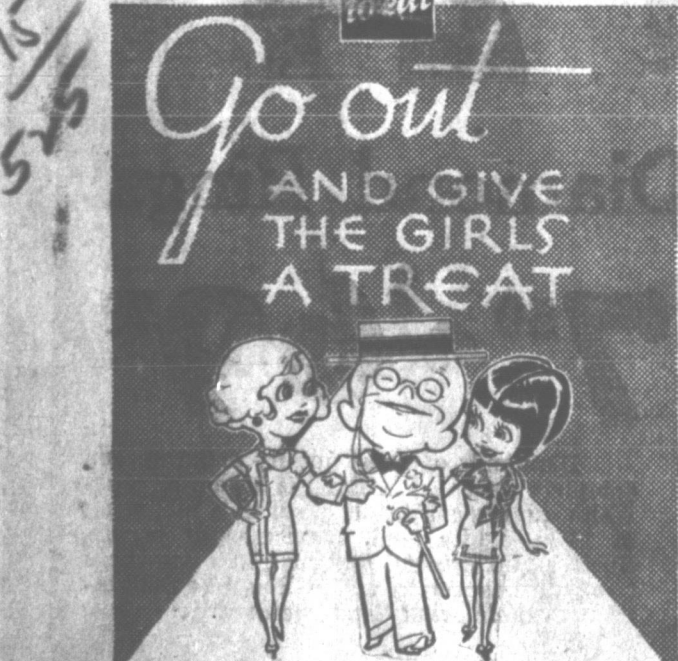

"Hell and Maria Dawes roared as if he were on parade ground," the Daily Mail said, "while his audience sat silent, mesmerized, almost embarrassed, as the crescendo came."

"He shattered the ancient peaceful atmosphere of Vintner's hall and kept Lord Derby and Lord Riddell, who sat on either side of him, dodging his crashing fists."

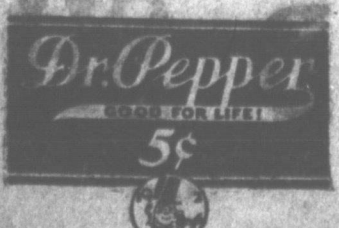

BUM RUNNER KILLED

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y., July 17. (AP)—An attempt to smuggle liquor from Canada has taken the life of the second Plattsburgh youth within a month. Elijah E. Helms, 21, was killed yesterday when his automobile overturned while attempting to elude border patrolmen. The patrolmen said they found 10 bags of ale in the machine.

Andy Bourland Coming to Pampa With Motorcade

Tomorrow afternoon President Andy Bourland of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and 20 members of that organization will arrive in Pampa about 4 o'clock. They will be entertained at the Chamber of Commerce and shown the city.

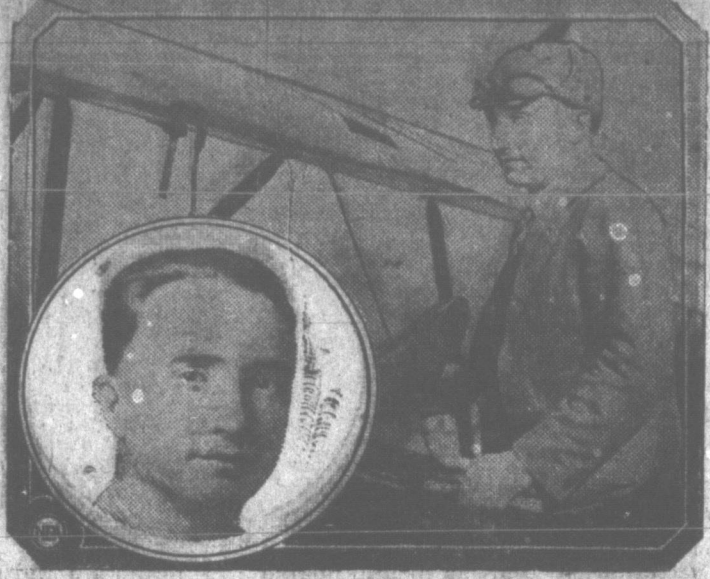

The motorcade has been visiting the Panhandle and West Texas for the last three days on a good-will tour. They will go from here to Miami and Canadian, and from that point will return to Abilene where the cavalcade started. Local citizens are asked to join in welcoming the members of the W. T. C. C. George Briggs, manager of the local chamber said this morning.

Perryton Starts Chamber Drive

PERRYTON, July 17. (Special)—A membership campaign has just been launched in Perryton, and judging by the response and enthusiasm already encountered, more than 90 per cent of the local business men will become members by the end of the week. With a $120,000 paving project under way, and a number of brick business buildings going up, Perryton is one of the fastest growing towns on the North Plains right now.

Motorcade Will Pass This City Next Thursday

CANADIAN, July 17. (Special)—Thursday will find the W. T. C. C. motorcade at Canadian, the guests of the Chamber of Commerce and H. E. Hoover, one of the directors of the organization, at his ranch.

The nature of the entertainment at the ranch will be a business and ice cream social. The party will be met before they arrive at Canadian and directed to the ranch. All of the speaking and program will be at the ranch. Afterwards they will be expected to drive from the ranch after the exercise to Canadian where they will be assigned homes for the night.

The motorcyclists will be on their way from Panhandle, White Deer, Pampa, Miami and other towns in that territory when they drive to Canadian to spend the night and will go on to Mobeetle and Wheeler, when they leave.

PREMIERS TRIP NOW DIPLOMATIC SUBJECT

LONDON, July 17. (AP)—Informal conversations between Premier Ramsay MacDonald and Ambassador Charles G. Dawes on naval reduction issues reached the point where the question of the premier's visit to the United States is the subject of diplomatic negotiations, it was learned today.

RIVA WIVES

by Anne Austin
Author of The Black Pigeon

Curts exclaimed at last, "Guess it's so. Grown folks are always having secrets from kids. It ain't what broke the spell. Laughter followed with bright blazes of embarrassment. Nan was about to make some sort of attempt to the child when Estelle looked in from the kitchen with a plate of bean mornins.

"Mamma! Have they got Estelle in bed, Estelle? Have they?" Curts was happy again; his eyes sparkled greedily.

"Currants," Estelle grinned. Then, "Oh, there's the doorbell. Excuse me, mamma. Wonder who it can be at the front door this time of the morning? Looks like they wouldn't let a family have their breakfast in peace."

NAN wondered, too—aloud. "Oh," her husband shrugged, "probably a magazine subscription solicitor whose future college course depends on our kindness of heart—"

Why, Estelle! What's the matter? He broke off to demand of the maid who had run into the dining room, her hands clasped and handspring in pitiful distress.

"With a painful glance over her shoulder toward the hall door which she had just closed upon herself, Estelle darted to the breakfast table, her face quite white, her pale blue eyes rolling.

"She—she's back, sir!" the maid gasped hoarsely.

Both Nan and her husband rose from their chairs, like a pair of Horionettes jerked by unseen wires. No need to ask who "she" was. Again their eyes met, but this time they did not cling. Simultaneously they glanced away, neither able to bear what was to be read in the other's eyes.

But as Nan's eyes fell themselves away from her husband's, they swept downward over his face. It was like the face of a man suddenly smitten with death—ghastly, pale, pinched. Lips, caught and frozen in the whimsical smile with which he had speculated on who his caller might be, had gone blue-gray in that sudden draining of blood from his face.

Nan saw that for the moment he was unable to speak. Estelle's eyes were rolling wildly from one to the other, importing help in such a crisis as no maid had ever had to deal with before.

"Show Mrs. Morgan into the drawing room and tell her that Mr. Morgan will join her." Nan began in a queer, strained voice that seemed to come from a great distance.

"But she was not allowed to finish. Before the frightened maid could start to carry out the order the door into the hall was torn open and Mrs. Morgan was swept into the room on the rising tide of her own anger.

"How dare you try to keep her from seeing my own husband, Estelle!" The insolent voice, usually so musical, now sprang with anger, curled like a whip about the cowering maid. "I certainly needn't keep you another day! You never heard anything so impudent in your life, Jack!" she rushed on, as exultation took its place. Curts exclaimed at last, "Guess it's so. Grown folks are always having secrets from kids. It ain't what broke the spell. Laughter followed with bright blazes of embarrassment. Nan was about to make some sort of attempt to the child when Estelle looked in from the kitchen with a plate of bean mornins.

Afterwards, Nan could never remember what she said or did during those few ghastly minutes after Iris' arrival. She retained only a dim picture of herself moving as if in a nightmare, giving strange, incoherent answers to a terror-stricken child who had no idea why he should be terrified. She remembered one question and the answer:

"Will my other mother let me keep Cop, Nan? Will she? She don't like dogs. She says they eat too much and scratch up the furniture. Will I have to sell Cop? Will I, Nan?"

"No. You shall keep Cop, Curtis," she remembered answering, with grim determination.

At last the boy was gone, almost happy again because of that promise, but with a lingering backward glance toward the closed dining room door. Did he love Iris, too?—Nan asked herself, and did not even realize that she had added truth betraying "too."

ESTELLE found her standing on the last step of the stairs—a tiny, white-faced, blind-eyed little thing.

"Please, ma'am, Estelle whispered, coming close enough to touch Nan's loosely clasped, cold hands. "The mister sent me to find you. He wants you in—there, and she jerked her head toward the dining room. "Listen, ma'am; don't you let her get away with nothing! Stand up for your rights, Miss Nan! You're his wife now, and she ain't got no more right in this house than a cockroach. Don't you take a word outta her, Miss Nan."

Blindly, but with odd dignity, Nan made a slight gesture of dismissal toward the maid, then walked with stiff, jerking steps toward the dining room door. Her dropping hand found the knob, was about to turn it, before Estelle's words penetrated into her dazed mind. "You're his wife now—"

She passed an uncertain hand before her eyes as if to dispel the mists through which she had been moving. Of course, what a fool she was to be so frightened! She was John Curtis Morgan's wife!

Estelle, watching from the stairs, saw the little brown head go up, the slim, boyish shoulders straighten, then Nan turned the knob. With a sob of relief, the maid darted around the staircase to the kitchen, to pour the latest news bulletins into Maudie O'Brien's avid ears.

"She's going to fight for her man, Maudie—God bless her!" Estelle exclaimed. "Fair knocked her out, it did. I thought for a minute that the poor little dear would pack her things and beat it, leaving that hell-cat to get her claws into the poor man's again."

"What stumps me," Maudie O'Brien marveled, "what prodigiously and characterizing the flames in the sink to keep her words from penetrating to the dining room, 'is why the high and mighty Lady Iris come back? Anyone that was blind in one eye and couldn't see out of the other could see she didn't care a snap of her finger for the poor dear man' when she had him—"

"He's not angry with you, Curtis," Nan said in a cold, steady voice. "He's just surprised to see your mother. Come. We must hurry or you'll be late for school."

"You don't look sparkly any more," Curtis mourned, tears slipping down his cheeks. "All those electric lights have gone out inside your head, Nan. Are you mad, Nan? Are you?"

"Hush!" Estelle snorted, dabbing the tears from her eyes with her apron. "That's none of your business, Maudie. That crook Crawford said she run off with give her the air—Oh, Lordy! Listen!" she gasped, as a scream rose and rose till it reached unaccommodating crescendo; then broke abruptly.

being on the Burlington system.

"... We are much interested in the country north of Pampa. Mr. Oates has just returned from a trip as far north as Kansas and Nebraska, and he has returned with a lot of information. I am making no promises, but I will call your attention to the fact that the Denver overlooks no opportunities.

"Our interest in the proposed Pampa-Childress route is not new. We surveyed it more than two years ago; we have been considering it for 10 years. Just as soon as we finished the South Plains project we started work toward this one.

"When the Rock Island asked for a permit which would parallel our proposed route, we did not try to block that road, but we told them we wished to build to Pampa. We proposed that joint trackage be used from Wellington to Shamrock along our route from Childress to Pampa. We are not trying to stop any railroads in this section—we say build both of them, just so we get to Pampa. It is going to be a splendid occasion when Pampa and the Fort Worth & Denver Northern stage a joint celebration as the first Denver train enters this city. I am going to be on that train on that proud day.

Brief remarks were made by Mr. Clarity and Judge McCoy, and Mr. Hogsett, who has been here often, reiterated his belief that the prospective tonnage justifies a first-class railroad.

"You belong to Texas, and you should have better railroad connections with the heart of this state," declared Mr. Lupin of the Dallas News.

Special praise for the assistance rendered by the Pampa Board of City Development was accorded by Denver officials.

"We have never had in any railroad undertaking more intelligent, loyal, and effective support than that given by Pampa's representatives," Judge Barwise asserted.

The railroad party arrived here soon after 4 o'clock from LeFors, by which they came on a trip from Wellington by

Newspaper Woman Starts Race For Governorship Of Texas

AUSTIN, (AP)—A newspaper woman has announced her candidacy for the governorship of Texas—a year in advance of the 1930 primaries.
Miss Katie Daffan's campaign will mark her debut in the political arena. It may be the climax to an active literary career and many years of leadership in Texas women's organizations. Sponsoring her candidacy is the Texas division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, of which she has been president four times.

This third woman to seek the rank of chief executive in the Lone Star state may be opposed by Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, who was governor before Dan Moody, the incumbent. Some political prophets say that Mrs. Ferguson again will be a candidate. She was defeated for reelection last year.

The state's men politicians, true to tradition, do not take Miss Daffan's candidacy seriously. Neither did they take Mrs. Ferguson's aspirations to mean anything a few years ago.

At present Miss Daffan is literary editor of the Houston Chronicle. She has been state president of the Texas Women's Press association, state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution, state secretary of the General Federation of Women's Clubs

Reduction in Cost of Marketing Plan of Farm Body

WASHINGTON, July 17. (AP)—Reduction of the marketing costs of agricultural products will be sought by the federal farm board as a means of boosting the farmer's returns without adding a corresponding increase to the consumer's expenses.

To accomplish this objective, the board has set itself to the task of organizing the farmer's marketing facilities on a gigantic national scale, working all the time "with and through established groups of farmers who are organized or who may be organized on a basis of specific farm commodities."

way of Shanrock. They were in Childress Monday. The Denver officials spent the night in Amarillo, where they took a special car back to Fort Worth. The "war" will reach a climax July 29 in an I. C. C. hearing at Fort Worth. In preparation for that hearing, the local B. C. D. is compiling traffic facts from freight bills obtained from business men.

About New York

By RICHARD MASSOCK
NEW YORK—Every summer the youngest son of Gabriele D'Annunzio closes his New York apartment and returns with his wife to his father's Italian lake to do his annual flying.

For this son of Italy's fierce poet-soldier, Capt. Ugo V. D'Annunzio, is no longer an Italian aviator. He now is an American business executive, with two offices in Manhattan and a factory on Long Island.

Captain D'Annunzio came to America to sell airplanes. He has stayed because it offered him the opportunity to make a reputation of his own. Here he seldom is referred to as the son of an illustrious parent.

WINGED SON OF POET
Born in Rome 42 years ago, young D'Annunzio developed a temperament quite different from that of his father. It is true he wrote verse in his childhood, but what schoolboy does not? These mere flights of imagination were soon over and he took up what was more alluring—actual flying, when, in 1909, he was graduated from the Polytechnical institute in Zurich, Switzerland.

Designing and building airplanes attracted him from the start. Then came the war and in 1915 he was chief engineer of the Caproni factory in Italy. D'Annunzio first came to America in 1918 to obtain army aircraft contracts for his employees. He had barely succeeded in this when the armistice was signed and aviation slumped.

For a brief period he became an automobile racing driver, but again he was sent to America, this time as representative of Isotta-Fraschini motors.

Now he is president of the Isotta-Fraschini company, president of the American Aeronautical Sales corporation and vice-president of the American Aeronautical corporation, builders of flying boats. An American citizen for the past five years, his business has been to raise and use American capital in the development of amphibian planes.

FLY'S FATHER'S PLANES
Just now the first American factory of D'Annunzio and his associate, Enes Bossi, another naturalized American, is rising at Fort Washington. By October they expect to be producing more than 30 amphibians a month.

With all this activity, D'Annunzio has no time for flying and little time to read the poetry of his father, whom he closely resembles.

That is why he returns to Milan for six months of each year, to pass the 50 hours in the air necessary to retain his pilot's license and to visit his oldest brother, Mario, who is a political and Roman congressman, and Gabriele the Second, who is an artist. For his flying he uses the boats of Gabriele Senior, who lives two hours away at Gardone, an island in a lake between Milan and Verona.

FASHION NOTE
The newest fad along Broadway is the polo shirt. The boys are wearing them without the horses, which they probably couldn't ride anyway. At least it gives them an excuse to go without coats.

Plumbing Exams Will Be Given

An examination for local plumbers who have not taken the necessary examination for state recognition will be held tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the shop of the Ragsdale Plumbing company on East Foster avenue, F. E. Townsend, inspector, said this morning.

Examinations are conducted regularly for new men coming into the city without the necessary state papers.
