PAMPA AND GRAY COUNTY ARE HAVING NO FAIR THIS YEAR TO SHOW LOCAL PEOPLE AND THE SECTION AT LARGE WHAT IS RAISED AND MANUFACTURED IN THIS AREA.

The reason is obvious, of course. The B. C. D. at Pampa has been too busy in the railroad "war" to think of the million details connected with managing a sizeable fair. And Gray county has no county agricultural agent and no home demonstration agent who might have rendered valuable aid.

The News has the idea that a combination agricultural and manufacturing exposition would open the eyes of natives. One cannot realize how many things are being grown, manufactured, or assembled right here in Gray county. Oil products alone could be made into an exhibit worth going miles to see and study. Many of the oil company superintendents and carbon black plant executives would enter exhibits, we believe, if given the proper encouragement.

An exhibit of this kind should be taken to the Tri-State fair next year. It would be worth more in publicity and interest than a competitive entry relating to agriculture solely. Together with literature and large maps showing Pampa's central location and listing her factories, it would make an unforgettable impression on those who studied it.

WAS AIDE TO HOOVER
His first close contact with Hoover came when he served as assistant secretary of commerce. Hoover had a big program of reorganization and expansion on, and that was Huston's meat. Huston spread out, too, and since leaving the Commerce Department in 1923 has been operating as a business doctor and banking expert mostly from New York, where he lives on Paris avenue. He is six feet tall and weighs about 185. His hair, parted in the middle, is gray, and his eyes are gray and piercing. He smiles engagingly and often has a large human side. He mixes equally well with plutocrats, politicians and pugilists. His adaptability and amiability mate with a great energy and an active mind. He has no oratorical ability, but speaks slowly and evenly with a clear, concise choice of words.

It begins to appear that Huston had much more to do with the nomination and perhaps the election of Hoover than he has commonly been credited with. For several years before the Kansas City convention he had been leading politicians to the Hoover home and in those years Hoover needed nothing more than those acquaintanceships.

He Found the Money
It was Huston, one understands, who raised most of the money in the larger Hoover pre-convention campaign fund and his ability at that game will be one of his principal assets in the national chairmanship. He is regarded as a practical politician.

In the closet of his hotel room at Kansas City Huston had a direct telephone line running to the Hoover home in Washington. The line was often used and after the presidential nomination the sagacious Huston was heard to tell the candidate: "Keep out of the vice-presidential contest. All your friends are in it."

During the election campaign, he came to be regarded as the political godfather of Col. Horace A. Mann, the politician who had more to do with breaking up the solid south than any other Republican through his aid and direction of the anti-Smith Democrats.

Huston made himself. He was born in Harrison County, Indiana, 54 years ago, attended a one-room rural school and became a country school teacher. Working on a farm in summer, he picked up enough money to attend Valparaiso University and later worked with a cousin in Chattanooga, Tenn., who had started the Chattanooga Normal University. Later he bought a small business college there and came into contact with business men and manufacturers.

He branched into the work of reorganizing and refinancing corporations and became one of the big business men of Chattanooga. He reorganized the Trans-Continental Oil Company and recently resigned as chairman of its board. For two years he has had the management of the banks and other properties of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. These and other business concerns he is now dropping to devote himself to his new job in national politics.

TWINKLES

Lots of violence is caused by circumstances. We would not be surprised if, on one of these muddier days, some motorist doesn't leave the Pampa-Carson county highway and start down John Santa Fe's all-weather ties.

Current bromide: "Am I right or Amarillo?"

Quite a few counties with poor farms are nevertheless reported to be in need of a poor farm.

It's a pity that we have no modern motoring expression comparable to "Hold your horses!"

Interest in many things warms as it gets colder.

Twink is going to be forced to take up this game of golf. Every meeting he attends is dominated by hard-luck stories centering on rough spots in neighboring cow pastures.

Several persons have been seen driving on the wrong side of local boulevards lately. It is our ambition to be driving a 10-ton truck some day when this stunt is tried.

All Grain Crops in United States Well Short of Normal in Reports

Grain crops for the United States and Canada inclusive are reported 1-305,000,000 bushels short as compared to last year's crop. In the United States alone, the wheat crop is reported 117,000,000 bushels short to date. Estimation of the shortage is made on the basis of the 1928 crop, and reports on the first of September for 1929. The reports show U. S. winter wheat 10,000,000 bushels short, spring wheat 67,000,000 bushels short, and durum wheat 40,000,000 below normal.

Canada's wheat shortage is nearly 50 per cent of last year's crop. The 1928 estimate was 545,000,000 bushels, as compared to 269,000,000 bushels for 1929. The shortage was 276,000,000 bushels, lacking a little over 4,000,000 bushels of being 50 per cent short under the 1928 crop. The total wheat shortage for the U. S. and Canada is 393,000,000 bushels.

The greatest grain shortage in the U. S. is in corn, which is 380,000,000 short of the 1928 crop. U. S. oats and barley are 244,000,000 and 33,000,000 bushels short respectively. The grain sorghums such as kafir, milo, etc., are about 50,400,000 short.

Foreign reports indicate 24,000,000 bushels less than last year's crop. Argentina reports estimates for a crop 20 to 75 per cent of last year, while Australia reports a similar estimate for her 1929 crops. China's rice crop is reported heavily short.

Though the U. S. and Canada are extremely short this year, the two countries have a carry-over in wheat of 137,000,000 bushels more than last year.

EPISCOPAL SUNDAY SCHOOL

All Episcopalians are urged to be present, and others not having church or Sunday school affiliations elsewhere in the city are cordially invited to join this Sunday school.

New Athletic Field Will Be Ready in Week

The Harvesters' new athletic field will be ready for use in a week. The school board bought 10 acres north of the old ball diamond just north of town, for an athletic field. Construction of the grand stands is going forward rapidly. The old stands, which were removed to the American Legion rodeo field, are being moved to the new site. By selling advertising space on the fence, the board expects to pay running expenses on the new field.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Sebort of Clinton, Okla., argues in the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell.

Pampa Gorillas Meeting Amarillo This Afternoon

Pampa's enthusiastic young Gorillas this afternoon are attempting to take the measure of the Amarillo Yarnigans. The game was scheduled to begin at 3:30 o'clock at the field north of the city. Line-ups were uncertain this morning, and many of the younger members of both squads were certain of getting a chance at the enemy.

Enthusiastic Initial Meeting of Central Parent-Teacher Association Indicates Year of Progressive Effort

A large and enthusiastic group of teachers and patrons of Lamar school and Junior high school greeted officers of the Central Parent-Teacher association as they opened the initial meeting of the fall term, yesterday afternoon, at the Central high school.

Mrs. Joe Smith, who was beginning her second year as president of the organization, welcomed the new members and the old, and outlined a plan for further enlarging the membership. Her plan for enlisting the aid of pupils in securing a large attendance for every regular meeting was received with interest.

Mrs. Alice Cookston was elected secretary, to succeed Miss Kathleen Beatty who has been transferred to East Ward school. Mrs. Smith named the following committee chairmen for the year: Entertainment, Mrs. R. E. Kinser; program, Mrs. E. Bass Clay; hospitality, Mrs. McKinney; historian, Mrs. Homer Kees; membership, Mrs. James Saunders. Sub-chairmen, or school mothers were appointed to assist in the membership drive, with Mrs. T. B. Solomon for the Lamar school and Mrs. Fred C. Fisher for Junior high.

The program of the afternoon consisted of an excellent talk by Supl. R. B. Fisher on "P-T. A. Cooperation," and a discourse on the purposes of the City Council of Parent-Teacher associations by Mrs. V. E. Fatheree, president of the high school association. Following Mrs. Fatheree's address, the members voted unanimously to retain affiliation with the council.

Bridge-Tea Given Yesterday Features Distinctive Detail!

Copies of beautiful little etchings ornamenting bridge tallies and tinted etchings awarded as trophies in card games gave unusual distinction to the party with which Mrs. A. B. Zahn and her daughter, Mrs. A. D. McNamara, entertained more than thirty guests yesterday afternoon. The entertaining rooms of their home on North Somerville street were gay with late garden flowers. Floral arrangements and the menu of a two-course luncheon served after the playing featured a color scheme of yellow and white.

The invitation list included three guests from Elk City, Okla.—Mrs. William Henke, Mrs. John Forsythe, and Mrs. J. R. Dennis. Other players were: Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, Mrs. Wm. M. Craven, Mrs. Floyd Smith, Mrs. C. M. Bryson, Mrs. Dan Gribbon, Mrs. William McKernin, Mrs. J. M. McDonald, Mrs. W. H. Nichols, Mrs. F. M. Culbertson, Mrs. C. S. Boston, Mrs. Frank Beaudoin, Mrs. R. ### Few Grid Games Set For Tomorrow in Big Conferences

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. (AP)—For a scattered few colleges, the football season in the East will open tomorrow.

The annual clash at Morgantown between West Virginia and West Virginia Wesleyan heads the card. Most colleges will wait until Sept. 28 to begin their seasons. In the meantime, much remains to be done in the way of conditioning, training in fundamentals, shifts in the lineup to gain a maximum of strength in every position, and in all other departments of the game.

Yesterday's New York university workout at Farmingdale, Long Island, saw Herman La Mark, former Coraopolis, Pa., high school youth, take the spotlight from older heads. While Yale's varsity was having something of an off-day against the Scrubs, four Harvard squads went through the first Crimson scrimmage of the season.

WICHITA FALLS ON EVEN STAND WITH DALLAS

DALLAS, Sept. 20. (AP)—Still deadlocked for Texas league supremacy after two days of strife at Wichita Falls, the Spudders and Steers had a short "breather" here today before clashing in the third game of their play-off series at Steer stadium tomorrow. Both clubs planned to work out at the field.

Where the Mavericks were overwhelming favorites after their brilliant victory in the first game, the contenders looked like a standoff as they arrived here. The manner in which Hal Wiltse, southpaw, set the Steers down with five hits and subdued them, 5 to 2, in yesterday's combat caused a sudden shifting of sentiment. Enjoying its first epidemic of baseballitis since 1926, Dallas prepared to set season attendance records at the concluding games here. It was announced all reserved seats had been taken for the games Saturday and Sunday, and an additional 5,000 bleacher seats were being installed. At least 12,000 were expected to witness Saturday's contest.

A duel of righthanders was on tap for tomorrow, with Whitey Glazne slated to take the hill for Dallas, and George Payne, he of 28 victories during the past season, ready to do the chores for Wichita Falls. Payne worked only briefly in the series opener and should be in fine shape.

Behind Wiltse's superb hurling, it was no trick for the Spudders to square the series count. The veteran portlander gave up only five blows, scattered through as many innings. Si Rosenthal gave the Steers a run in the fourth when he was hit by a pitched ball, went to third on Randy Moore's single and counted on an infield out. Country Davis propelled one of Wiltse's shots out of the lot in the ninth. Outside of that the Steers were puny with the willow. Sixteen of them were tossed out at first.

The Spudders were not particularly explosive, themselves, collecting only six safeties off three Mav flingers, but they bunched them where they did the most good.

Mack Dean of Pilots; In Harness 35 Years; Has Won Seven Flags

CONNIE MACK

By JOHN H. REITINGER
Associated Press Staff Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Had Tennyson lived in the days of Connie Mack, he could have applied the words of his song of the brook "for men may come and men may go, but I go on forever," to the tall and slender tutor of the Philadelphia Athletics.

No manager in baseball has been the directing head of a team as long as the Philadelphian, nor has any manager been the guiding genius of one team as long as this master of the national game.

Only a little more than three years short of the Biblical three score and ten, this veteran of the ball and bat keeps everlastingly at it, developing finished ball players from the raw material, worrying other managers, and winning pennants.

Connie Mack, whose name was whittled down from Cornelius McGillicuddy by the hard working sports writers in the dawn of modern baseball, will be 67 years old in December.

He has no thought of quitting the game. Every once in a while he is asked when he is going to retire and replies he has no present intention of so doing. Recently he said he would leave the bench only when his health fails and there is no present sign of such an unfortunate happening.

The master builder of ball teams has been managing players since 1894, a stretch of thirty-five years. In the last 29 years he has piloted seven teams to the American league championship and three world's series titles. His teams have been the runner-up six times.

It is his greatest ambition to again win the baseball classic. He has the best aggregation of ball players he has handled in 15 years, and while he does not boast that it is a world beater there is reason to believe that he thinks he will again sit on the top of the baseball world.

He is mild mannered, but firm. He never "bawls" out a player unnecessarily in the presence of others for some misplay, but manages to convey his displeasure without wounding the feelings of the man. His voice is never heard on the field, nor is he seen in open protest against the judgment of the umpire. He is for clean baseball and his teams have always borne good reputations for gentlemanly conduct on the field.

GREAT HURLING MARKS GAMES OF YESTERDAY

Whatever trepidation the strange antics of Messrs. Grove, Bush, Carlson and others may have incited in the breasts of Connie Mack and Joe McCarthy, these forthcoming world's series rivals could pick no flaws in the work of Rube Walberg and Pat Malone yesterday.

With a team of rookies at his back, Walberg whipped his fast one at Shibe park with such effectiveness the Bengals from Detroit were able to get only four safe blows. He won, 5 to 4.

Since the Cubs no longer need to win, they broke a losing streak behind the six-hit pitching of Malone, who defeated the Giants 5 to 0.

Boston continued its fast work in Pittsburgh, defeating the Pirates 6 to 3 in the third game of the series. The Bostonese now are one up in the three games.

Ray Kolp splashed the Phillies with a 5 to 0 coat of whitewash at Cincinnati, giving the Reds two straight and a tie for sixth place.

Along the American league front the most interesting secondary development was Washington's further success in entrenching its forces in fifth place. The Senators took a thriller from the Browns 2 to 1, and at night-fall Walter Johnson held the top place in the second division by two and one-half games.

Fewer than 500 fans turned out to see the White Sox blank the Yankees 7 to 0. Hal McKain gave the larrupping Hugmen just four blows, all singles, as the Sox drove Pipgras from the mound.

Milton Gaston pitched the Red Sox to a 3 to 2 victory over Cleveland in a close battle with Willis Hudlin.

ATTEND CONFERENCE

The Rev. J. Hodge Alves returned last evening from Sweetwater, where he attended a four day conference of the Episcopal clergy of the Northwest Texas diocese. He reported a meeting of unusual interest.

NIGHT CLUB—

theatre had just settled themselves to the enjoyment of the entertainment which was offered by the club when the cry of "fire" came.

In the struggle to escape the flames and smoke, clothing was torn from men and women, preventing immediate identification of some of those taken to the morgue.

Stairway Blazes

The fire which according to all accounts started in the dining room, was worst about the stairway, the flames burning down into the front entrance on Vernon highway. For several minutes passers-by made futile efforts to enter, and then several taxicab drivers, led by Fred Sweet, braved the flames and got into the room. They carried a number of men and women of the door and tried to establish a rescue line through one available window.

In addition to receiving hospital, city institution, St. Marys hospital and the nearby Savoy hotel were pressed into service to care for the injured. Forty-eight physicians and three score nurses cared for victims.

Woman Describes Fire

DETROIT, Sept. 20. (AP)—Beatrice Heath, clerk in the check room of the Study club, which burned here today said she saw the flames leap down the stairway, licking the decorations. She said she heard screams and the pounding of feet in the dining room. She made her escape through the main door with several men behind her.

The few men and women who got down the stairway before the flames cut off that means of escape became panic stricken at the doorway and fought and milled there for several minutes before police literally hurled them into the street.

Al Handler, leader of the orchestra, was one of the first to reach the only open window. He helped several women through the opening, holding them by the hands and dropping them to the alley. Then a sudden rush of men carried him through, and he fell to the pavement below.

Sandwich Boy Talks

Louis Kanta, sandwich boy, from his bed in receiving hospital, gave a clear account of what occurred as the panic broke.

"I was just getting ready to close up," he said. "I was reaching upon the ice box for my keys when a porter ran yelling through the room back of the dining room where I was working. I looked into the dining room. Flames were shooting from the private rooms at the front. They spread rapidly and swept toward the kitchen. Every one was cut off from escape. The only place left to run was the dressing room."

"Everyone went wild. Women were screaming and men yelling. Everyone was tearing around the room, knocking over everything that got in their way. I ran toward the dressing room with a lot of others. We were packed in so tightly we could hardly move. We shut the door and could hear the flames outside."

"I laid down on the floor, but people began trampling me, and I stood up. The smoke choked me, and I laid down again. There was a woman lying next to me. I heard her calling, 'Rose, Rosie we'll die together.' I think she did die. There was another woman lying on the other side of me."

Hadn't Seen Well Day for 6 Years

"I can tell suffering people something about Sargon that will open their eyes."

"I hadn't seen a well day in six years until I began taking this wonderful medicine. My stomach was in such bad condition that I ate nearly everything I ate would tear my digestion all to pieces. I was forever dosing myself for constipation and sometimes I thought rheumatism would almost drive me distracted. I used to have such terrible headaches I couldn't do my work."

"Now, after taking Sargon, I can't go out on the street without some friend asking me what I had done to look so well. I can't get enough to eat and my stomach is sound as a dollar. I've gained several pounds and have more strength and energy than I've had in years. All the rheumatic pains are gone and Sargon Soft Mass Pills have regulated my liver perfectly and ended my constipation."

R. M. Arnold, 1917 Merlin St., Dallas. Fatheree Drug Co., Agents.

DETECTIVE'S STORY MAY HELP YOUNG SLAYER

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 20. (AP)—The captain of detectives who obtained the first confession of Earl Peacox that he had killed his wife admitted on the stand in Peacox's trial today that he had not told the jury part of that confession which might conceivably save the prisoner from the electric chair.

The part of the verbal confession omitted in direct testimony and brought out in cross examination was that Peacox told the detective he had not meant to kill his wife, that it was just the accidental result of a "family row."

She testified the first she knew of the trouble between Williams and her husband was when they started to leave the rodeo grounds and Williams approached her husband, swearing.

Williams advanced slashing, she testified, and her husband tried to ward off the attack. A moment later blood gushed from her husband's side.

"And whatsoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him a twain." While the old law referred to has passed away, the idea is incorporated into several laws of our own land. There is still in the statement of Our Lord a wonderful lesson for us today.
The message at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, "The Second Mile," will be based on the above saying of Jesus.
Rally day brought the Sunday school back to normal attendance. Let us keep up good attendance through the fall and winter.

First Christian Church
At 8 o'clock Sunday evening the Jewish-Arabian controversy in Jerusalem and Palestine will be discussed. This is an event in which all Bible students should be interested. A number of questions naturally arise which will be answered in the light of Biblical and secular history. One question that seems to attract attention is the possibility of another world war growing out of this controversy. What affect does it have on the Christian world?
At the morning hour, 10:45, the congregation will be asked to act upon the resignation of the minister. The official board last Wednesday evening did not accept the resignation and passed it on to the congregation. The minister will preach a brief sermon dealing with a special article appearing in one of the leading papers of the Southwest, proving that the teachings of Christ are still timely and needed in the lives of men today.

Bible school at 9:45 with classes for all, and young peoples meetings at 7 p. m. A very cordial welcome awaits you at the First Christian church to all services.

Baptist W. M. U. Circles Convene in General Session

A joint meeting of all circles of the Baptist Women's Missionary union was held Wednesday afternoon at the church for the discussion of business of common interest and for the presentation of a program from the mission course, "Loyal Service." Twenty-two members and two visitors were present.

Mrs. W. B. Barton presided and conducted the devotional service which preceded the business session. The organization assumed the purchase of a piano for the church parlor as the main financial project for the coming months. An all-day meeting for the observation of a week of prayer was scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 1, to be held at the church.

The program theme for the afternoon was "Women's Responsibility in the New World." Mrs. C. L. McKinney was leader. Special topics discussed were as follows:

- "The Historical Attitude Toward Women"—Mrs. D. H. Truhite.
- "The Attitude of Jesus Toward Women"—Mrs. E. R. Hungate.
- "Women in the New World"—Mrs. W. B. Henry.
- "The American Woman and Her Responsibility"—Mrs. S. L. Anderson.

Church Auxiliary Membership Has Recent Additions

Five new members were received by the Woman's auxiliary of the Episcopal church at a meeting of the organization in the home of Mrs. Wm. M. Craven. They were: Mrs. Don Wake-man, who has returned after several months to make her home here; Mrs. F. G. Suratt, Mrs. A. C. Lovell, Mrs. J. T. Griffin, and Mrs. Morgan. The auxiliary, which meets semi-monthly, will devote the first Wednesday afternoon of each month to Bible study, and business. On the third Wednesday afternoon, the members will do guild work to assist in church financing. A course in church history will be studied, in addition to a Bible course, according to the decision of the members.

Mrs. Craven was hostess to the members and visitors present at the meeting for a delightful tea hour following adjournment.

Installation and Initiation Next Tuesday Evening

The installation of officers of the Order of the Rainbow and an initiation service will be held next Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall. Miss Alice Ingram, recently installed as worthy adviser, will be installing officer, and will conduct the following into office:

Chaplain, Miss Dorothy Doucette; drill leader, Miss Louise Walstad; sister of love, Miss Louise Hill; sister of religion, Miss Ester Plank; sister of nature, Miss Oletta Jones; sister of immortality, Miss Dorothy Jane Adams; sister of fidelity, Miss Wanda Barnard; sister of patriotism, Miss Wilma Washburn; sister of service, Miss Pauline Barnard; confidential observer, Miss Dorothy Dodd; outer observer, Miss Ruth Reynolds; musician, Miss Inez Barrett. Mrs. Roy Sewell will act as sister marshal.

Miss Majorie Buckler will be initiated. The meeting will open at 8 o'clock. All members of the Order of the Eastern Star and all Masons have been invited to attend the meeting and all others of the Order of the Rainbow.

"Jesus Our Ideal" Subject of W. M. S. Circle Programs

Chapters from the Bible study guide, "Jesus Our Ideal," were studied by members of the Methodist Women's Missionary society at their unit meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. R. C. Campbell, chairman of Circle 1, conducted the business session of her group at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Henry Thut Jr. The Lord's Prayer, said in concert, preceded a talk by Mrs. W. Purviance on "Jesus Our Ideal in Prayer." Mrs. Campbell's discussion was on "Jesus Our Ideal in Love." Mrs. C. T. Hunkapiller talked on "Jesus Our Ideal in Optimism." "Jesus Our Ideal in Death" was Mrs. Thut's topic.

Mrs. W. F. Nicholson presented the lesson to members of Circle 2, who met at the home of Mrs. R. G. Harrell. Her discussions of the various thoughts were exceptionally interesting.

Circles 3 and 4 convened jointly at the church where the program was given with the assistance of the pastor and the educational director. Mrs. Tom W. Brabham, superintendent of Bible study for Circle 4, was in charge of the program. She introduced Grady Morton who sang "I'm Going Home." "Jesus Our Ideal in Death" was the subject of an inspiring talk by the Rev. Tom W. Brabham. Two readings in dialect by Harold White were in harmony with the theme of Mrs. R. W. Lane's discussion on "Our Ideal in Optimism." Mrs. C. C. Dodd conducted the devotional service.

Cheyenne Hopes to Be Oil City

CHEYENNE, Okla., Sept. 19. (Special)—Drilling operations to test Roger Mills county's possibilities as an oil producing area will begin shortly, upon the completion of a rig on the Coleman White farm southwest of Cheyenne, on section 23, township 12, range 24.

The well to be drilled at that site will be 4,500 or more feet deep, unless the pay sand is struck at shallower depth, according to the drilling contract. Rumors of the formation of other blocks for drilling are current in Cheyenne.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic—Malachi Foretells a New Day.
Scripture Lesson—Mal. 3:1-12.

1. Behold, I send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me; and the Lord, whom ye seek, will suddenly come to His temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom ye desire, behold, He cometh, saith Jehovah of hosts.

2. But who can abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when He appeareth? for He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

3. And He will sit at a refiner and purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer unto Jehovah offerings in righteousness.

4. Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto Jehovah, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years.

5. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the sojourner from his right, and fear not Me, saith Jehovah of hosts.

6. For I, Jehovah, change not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

7. From the days of your fathers ye have turned aside from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto Me, and I will return unto you, saith Jehovah of hosts. But ye say, Wherein shall we return?

8. Will a man rob God? yet ye rob Me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed Thee? In tithes and offerings.

9. Ye are cursed with the curse; for ye rob Me, even this whole nation.

10. Bring ye the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and prove Me now herewith, saith Jehovah of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your wine east its fruit before the time in the field, saith Jehovah of hosts.

12. And all nations shall call you happy; for ye shall be a delightful land, saith Jehovah of hosts.

Golden Text—Behold, I send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me—Mal. 3:1.
Time—Malachi prophesied (Beecher) about B. C. 428. In Athens, at that time

Socrates, Aristophanes, Alcibiades, The Peloponnesian war was in progress. Artaxerxes was king of Persia.
Place—Jerusalem.

INTRODUCTION

The book of Malachi belongs to the period of Ezra and Nehemiah; and after the temple had been rebuilt and dedicated; somewhere between 445 and 432 B. C. The abuses that are attacked are those that Nehemiah found upon the occasion of his second visit to Jerusalem in 432. Yet he is evidently not the governor mentioned in 1:8.

It is a gloomy picture that this last book of the Old Testament cannot present to us, of the religious and social life of the Restoration: selfishness, mean ideals, lack of faith in and low conceptions of God, carelessness of the Law and in worship—were found not only among the people, but what was worse, among the priests, their religious leaders. The prophet warns of the day, that comes, with its awful retribution (chapter 4).

The book has, however, more hopeful notes: there is a pious, faithful minority (3:16-17) that God will splendidly look out for, and "the great and terrible day of Jehovah" will come with healing and joy in its rays for those that fear His name (4:2). Accordingly, for all its gloom, the book closes with a definite bright outlook toward the New Testament gospel four centuries farther on.

Malachi's Message

The burden of Malachi's message is "the love of the Lord." Malachi is the Sunset book. Its key-word is "Heal." Its key-text is Malachi 4:2, "But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings." Malachi was the last voice before the long silence. And like all the prophets he spoke faithfully, partly in rebuke of Israel's sins, partly in reminder of Israel's redemption.

"Malachi brings Sabbath and weekday, the temple and the city streets, the altar and the home, into perfect spiritual harmony."—Prof. Alexander R. Gordon. "Malachi is a mighty re-soner. If his be not the inspiration of poetry, eloquence or action, it is the inspiration of logic. He wields the sledge-hammer of argument."—Rev. George L. Petrie, D. D.

Rebukes the People

"Your homes are ruined," says Jehovah. "Your men dismiss their wives with thoughtless gestures of disdain. Children are deserted, households are shattered, every part of the nation's life is poisoned by this vile contagion. Foreign women are enthrallened in the places of your faithful wives. Remember the bride of thy youth. Remember the promise of thy goodly seed. Remember the beauty of a Godly home. The laws of divorce in Malachi's day were tragically lax. The morals of his day were tragically lame. Malachi held before his people the picture of a home at its best, and the luring temptations of loose morality, seemed like the sordid, bitter things they really were. One of the most tragic facts of modern life is the gradual disappearance of the American home. All the ills of our life can be traced to the ills of the modern home."

God Requires Our Best

But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing; for I am a great king, saith the Lord of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen." 1:14. When we offer him our left-overs, what we don't want, our second or third best, the thing that we wouldn't think of offering to a man whom we wanted to honor—we are polluting God's altar.—The Prophet doesn't mince matters: "Give of your best to the Master. Naught else is worthy his love."

"The prophets of the early years of restoration exulted in the thought that Israel's sin had been purged away by her exile and that now her glorious hopes were to be realized in fullest measure. In Malachi's day, the years have shown that sin still dwells in the people, and the new prophet of righteousness sees that the process of separation between the righteous remnant and the sinful must go on. The day of Jehovah's judgment, the day that shall consume the wicked, root and branch, is yet to come."—Prof. Henry T. Fowler.

"In tithes and offerings." v. 8. "(1) Provision is made (Deut. 14:22-29) for the paying of tithes to the sanctuary, there to be eaten by the offerer and the Levite. But or those who lived at a great distance from the sanctuary, the gift might be commuted into money to be spent in a sacrificial banquet.

"But who can abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when He appeareth?" Who is so pure, so true, so noble as to endure the scrutiny of the Infinite Judge when He appears? The Psalmist asks, "If thou, Jehovah, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?" (Ps. 130:3). We cannot begin too soon to prepare ourselves for that perfect judgment.

Will a Man Rob God?

"Will a man rob God? Yet ye rob Me." It seems incredible that any one should rob God. It is terrible enough that one man should ever rob another man; and how can any one rob God? Yet the Lord said these ancient people of His had been robbing Him. How? They had not broken into heaven and stolen the gold, silver, and precious stones from the walls and streets. They had robbed God by keeping back from Him the gifts they ought to have brought to Him. They had not paid their tithes, they had not brought the required offering. Not paying what we owe is robbery.—J. R. Miller. "But ye say, Wherein have we robbed Thee? More pretended ignorance and injured innocence. It is like the question which Christ said would be addressed to Him at the last day, 'Lord, when saw we Thee hungry or athirst or a stranger or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto Thee?' (Mat. 25:44).

A Divine Command

"Bring ye the whole tithe into the storehouse," Malachi had just charged the Jews with presenting inferior offerings, animals blind and lame; now he charges them with keeping back part of the offerings that are due, giving only part of the tithe and not the whole. Since few would know just how much was being tithed, this form of cheating was easy. It is equally easy in our modern churches, for few indeed make public what their incomes are! The storehouse in the temple court is meant

Every third year the tithe was to be distributed to Levites, strangers, and the fatherless. (2) Tithes are prescribed as a means of support for Levites (in Numb. 18:21ff.), i. e., apparently as remuneration for services in lieu of a share of the land. But the Levites themselves are required to give of this tithe to the priests (Numb. 18:26-28). Both these forms are pure land taxes, and do not include a tithe from the flock or herd. (3) Hence such a tithe is introduced in a third form (Lev. 27:32, 33; 2 Chron. 31:5, 6).

The Whole Tithe

"Bring ye the whole tithe into the storehouse," Malachi had just charged the Jews with presenting inferior offerings, animals blind and lame; now he charges them with keeping back part of the offerings that are due, giving only part of the tithe and not the whole. in our day the church treasury, the treasury of the mission board and of all other Christian undertakings.

This wonderful prophecy ends with a splendidly hopeful and inspiring passage. First the assembly of the wicked is pictured, while over against it "they that feared Jehovah spake one with another," taking counsel for the promotion of the kingdom of God. All their righteousness God will set down in His "book of remembrance." A day is coming which will burn up the wicked as stubble in a fiery furnace; it is as to those that fear God's name, of them "shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings."

The closing words of the Old Testament of "Elijah the prophet," who will appear before the coming of "the great and terrible day of Jehovah"—a prophecy fulfilled in the work of John the Baptist, Christ's herald who came "in the spirit and power of Elijah."

Freshmen Are Guests of Honor in Teachers College

CANYON, Sept. 20. (Special)—Freshmen are swarming the corridors of the West Texas State Teachers' college. Appearances seem to indicate that the freshmen classes will be larger than ever before.

The administrative officers of the college, with Registrar D. A. Shirley and Dean R. P. Jarrett in charge of the enrollment, are doing everything possible to make the first days as easy as they can be made for the freshmen. At 11 o'clock Thursday morning all freshmen who had enrolled assembled in the college auditorium and were introduced to the twenty-five members of the faculty who will be the program advisors for them during their freshman year. At 4:30 o'clock, a watermelon feast on the campus convinced freshmen that formalities are not predominant in college life at Canyon.

Today enrollment of freshmen continues, and Miss M. Moss Richardson of the English department and J. A. Hill, president, were to address the new students on problems of college life.

The college plant is so much larger than any with which most of the freshmen are familiar that the Y. W. C. A. is conducting small parties through all the buildings every hour during enrollment days.

Morse Well Is Making 60 Barrels

After being cleaned out, the No. 4 J. S. Morse, Danciger well, is making 600 barrels a day according to last reports. It is located in section 1, block 36, in the northwest corner of the southwest quarter. This well is due east of LeFors, about two miles from the east side of the county line. The well was completed July 20, at a total depth of 2,544 feet, and made 42 barrels a day. There is a considerable amount of gas coming from the well along with the oil. Sharp's No. 1 finally came in for 120 barrels, swabbing and flowing, for the first two hours after a 140-quart shot of nitroglycerin. The pay was struck at 2,841-3,008 feet. This well is located 3,416 feet south, and 330 feet from the west, of the B. F. Chaney survey.
