BIG RIVER BED CASE IS SUBMITTED ON APPEAL IN AUSTIN

SMALL'S BILL IS ARGUED BY BAR MEMBERS

Important Litigation Is Near End Now in Austin

LAND INVOLVED WORTH MILLIONS

Intense Interest Will Continue Thru Decision

AUSTIN, Dec. 2.—(P)—The case involving title to about 74 miles of the stream bed of the North Fork of the Red River in Gray and Wheeler counties and validity of the Small bill...

The state took the case up from the Travis county district court where judgment was rendered for the defendants, C. W. Bradford and 600 others. It has been estimated the land involved, $50,000,000.

Some of it oil-producing, is worth $100,000,000. The bill of which Senator C. C. Small was author validated title to land in stream beds where the surveys cross streams that are not navigable but which are more than 30 feet wide. The old law classed these streams as navigable and vested title in the state.

Senator Small's bill created a furor in the capitol. The attorney general held the bill unconstitutional and Governor Moody vetoed it. It was re-submitted and passed by both houses over the executive veto, this requiring a two-thirds affirmative vote. The voting over Governor Moody's veto was witnessed from galleries by several hundred West Texas land owners who were directly affected.

Judge S. D. Stennis of Pampa is in Austin for the argument on the "navigable stream" case presented on appeal today. He represents C. W. Bradford. A decision may be handed down at any succeeding Monday, but will likely not be returned for several weeks, it is believed here.

Wound Inflicted by Woman Will Not Prove Fatal

Mrs. Orville Thornburg of White Deer, 32, is recovering in Pampa hospital from a pistol wound said to have been inflicted by herself in the left lung last Thursday afternoon in the garage of her home one-half mile west of White Deer.

Mrs. Thornburg had been in bad health for the last three years, friends said. She is the mother of six children. The mother was in the house with her children throughout the day, but about 5 o'clock went to the garage at the rear of the house. A pistol shot was heard and her husband was summoned.

District Docket Still Jammed at End of Session

The September term of the 31st district court adjourned last Saturday with a total of 155 cases disposed of leaving about 300 on the docket. At the beginning of the term Sept. 23 there were 385 cases on the docket for trial, and 64 indictments have been returned since then.

Judge W. R. Ewing and District Attorney Clifford Braly opened a two-week court session in Lipscomb today. The next term of court will convene in Gray county next March.

Cases involving violations of prohibition laws still outnumber all other classes on the docket. Eighty-one liquor cases were continued until the next term of court, five were dismissed, and 11 were tried and verdicts rendered.

The court was occupied largely during the 10-week term in trying 35 jail cases, one man on a charge of murder, and two on statutory offenses. The last three cases required three weeks for trial. One week of the four set aside for civil suits was used in the Todd suit against the City of Pampa. A judgement was reached in this case for the second time and a new trial was granted the defendant by the court. The third trial is scheduled to be held in the next term. The court tried to dispose of most of the 63 indictments made by the grand jury in which the indicted were being held in jail. However, the jailcase list was not entirely erased and the term ended with a number in jail, their cases continued to the next session.

There were 27 criminal cases disposed of, 13 men being sentenced, four acquitted, and 10 cases dismissed or settled otherwise. These cases involved theft, burglary, forgery, and swindling. Fifty-three civil cases were continued, 17 were made in nine, and 21 dismissed. Of the non-jury cases, 13 were continued, six were settled, and nine were dismissed. Sixty appearance cases were continued, 14 were dismissed and judgment were delivered in 17.

Greatest progress was made by the court in the disposal of divorce cases. A total of 42 divorce decrees were granted, while four were refused. Forty-eight suits of divorce were continued.

The last act of the court before adjourning Saturday was to appoint D. M. Massey as receiver with authority to sell at a public sale land in litigation in the suit of Laura Carter and others versus E. D. Hooper and others. The judgment was entered by agreement and by default according to the interest claimed.

In the case of International Supply company vs. George W. Bilbo, plaintiff's petition for appointment of a receiver was granted. The defendant accepted and gave notice of appeal.

Seniors and fourth year players who received their letters were: Bob Mullen, Oran Barnard, Henry Ayres, Dillard Buckingham, Ray Weedman, Roy Lester, and Tom Braly. Others given sweaters were: Captain Don Saulsbury, John Pafford, Carl English, Murl McFarland, Lloyd Moore, Albert Lard, Ray Chastain, Jim Ayres, Dick Benton, Lee Benton, Ralph Poe, Gerald Schmidt, Alie Barnett, and Don Reno.

SPEAKER WILL MAKE ADDRESS DAILY IN CITY

'Challenge of World's New Day' Topic Tonight

PUBLIC URGED TO BE PRESENT

Oklahoman Endorsed by Local Schools and Churches

One of the foremost lecturers of the Southwest, Dr. Dean Dutton, head of the extension department of the University of Oklahoma, will give the first of a series of lectures at the First Methodist church at 7:45 o'clock tonight. The subject of his lecture will be "The Challenge of the World's New Day." The public is invited.

Dr. Dutton will be here a week beginning today, talking to high school students and citizens of the community. He comes here under the auspices of the high school and the various churches of the town.

He addressed students this morning at the auditorium and will deliver other lectures before them during the week. While each lecture is complete in itself, the series are known as "Life-Building Lectures."

Dr. Dutton was at Borger week before last and at Elmore, Okla., last week. Previous to that, he spent a week each at Spearman, Johnston, Leveland and Fort Morgan, Colo. He is the author of several books, among them, "Heart Throbs," "Gems of Life," and a new book soon to be published is "Quest and Conquest." S. G. Jones of Oklahoma City, superintendent of the National Health and Reform association, is accompanying him on the lecture tour. Dr. Dutton has been head of the extension department at the University of Oklahoma for the last seven years. He has delivered his series of lectures in almost every town in Oklahoma, West Texas, New Mexico, and Colorado.

His coming to Pampa has the approval of the school faculty, the school board, and pastors of all the churches. His lectures were attended by capacity houses in Borger.

Announcement of his subjects for the week and the place where he will talk will be made tonight. School officials had planned for him to lecture in the gymnasium, but as other entertainments are scheduled for presentation there this week, the Methodist church will be used throughout the week.

Last Rehearsal for Minstrel to Be Held Tonight

Dress rehearsal for the big minstrel show to be staged tomorrow evening and Wednesday evening by a cast of fifty persons, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters lodges, will be held this evening at Central high school auditorium, where the performance will be given. "Happy Doc" Holland, director in charge, announced more than a week ago that his show was ready for presentation, and that remaining days would be spent in brushing it to a fine polish and a professional perfection. He has been most enthusiastic about the "class of talent afforded by the personnel of his show. The show will be given in three big acts, beginning at 8:15 each evening.

He was returning from the State Teachers meeting in Dallas. The body will be sent to Klondike, Texas, for burial.

Architect to Plan City Buildings May Be Chosen at Session Tonight

Selection of an architect to draw plans for the new city hall-auditorium, fire station, street improvements, and city park has not been made, although discussions with prospective buyers are being held every few days. The city refused offers as too low when the bonds were offered in formal bidding. Although street paving in the new program was begun a few weeks ago in the Cook-Adams addition, but freezing temperatures have prevented laying of concrete.

Theatre Patrons Walk Out When Building Ignites

ATLANTA, Iowa, Dec. 2.—(P)—Fire which broke out in the Atlantic theatre during a performance last night, causing damage estimated at between $50,000 and $65,000, destroyed the building, but did not gain headway until its patrons, numbering around a thousand, had quietly walked out. A panic was believed to have been prevented when Hilton Frost, first person to notice the blaze, told the crowd the theatre was on fire but urged them to walk quietly to exits. Clarence Lay, machine operator, continued showing the picture until the screen crumpled. He was partly overcome by smoke. The fire is believed to have been caused by an overheated furnace.

Texarkana Man Held in Slaying

TEXARKANA, Dec. 2.—(P)—L. G. Ragland, 30, was in jail here today on a murder charge in connection with the fatal shooting yesterday of Jack Chilcote, 33. The shooting was said to have resulted from an argument over ownership over a gun. Both men, according to statements made to the district attorney by witnesses, were armed, but Ragland was not wounded. Chilcote, with nine bullet wounds in his body, died shortly after the shooting.

Special Grand Jury to Convene Next Monday

AMARILLO, Dec. 2.—(P)—Bonds ranging from $5,000 to $10,000 were granted a number of Hutchinson county residents, charged with violating the prohibition laws, in federal court here today.

Among those granted $10,000 bonds were Glen A. Pace, former mayor of Borger; Jim Crane, Cal Baird, Sam Jones, D. T. Blessingame, Joe Ownbey, and Bill Millhollon. Jones, Pace and Ownbey immediately made the bond, the latter two men's being signed by A. P. Borger.

Those granted $5,000 bonds were John Harkness, C. A. Mitchell, Jack Payne, Johnny Jones, Lewis Crim, H. O. Taylor, Louis Weitzman, and E. L. Lantron.

Three of those granted $5,000 bonds also secured bondsmen and were released. They were Crim, Weitzman, and Lantron.

Ownbey and Millhollon were on a hunting trip and were not in court. Blessingame also was absent.

Jones, former deputy constable, regained his liberty that was cut short Saturday upon his arrest on the federal charge after he had just completed making bonds on a charge in connection with the death of District Attorney John A. Holmes in Borger Sept. 13 and on a state liquor charge.

Sailor Prevents Stampede When Train Is Wrecked

ONLEY, Va., Dec. 2.—(P)—Salvage crews today were removing the last of the wreckage of a train that left the rails, piling up eight coaches with a death toll of nine persons and an injured list of twenty-four. The train was bound from Cape Charles, Va., on the Pennsylvania railroad for New York with excursionists.

Calm orders, "save the women and children first," dictated by Karl F. Chenoweth, boatswain's mate, attached to the battleship Oklahoma, probably saved scores from death in the stampede that started in an overturned third car, said A. V. Kemp of Norfolk, a survivor. Chenoweth was injured himself.

SEVEN MINERS KILLED

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., Dec. 2.—(P)—Charred bodies of six coal miners, killed in an explosion yesterday in Old Ben mine No. 8, near here, had been recovered today, but rescuers still sought the body of a seventh. The explosion was localized in one drift by safety devices which automatically released shale dust to extinguish the flames. This is believed to have saved the lives of fifteen other miners.

THE OLD ORDER PASTH—THE VICTORS OF YESTERDAY ARE GOING, BUT THE PRESENT CARRIES ON.

And after all, the measure of a life is not merely what it is able to accomplish, but what it leaves behind in achievement and influence that keeps the old world moving and tends to result in better and nobler things.

It is not sufficient to be "as good as the average man". The average is happy to be a good follower, while progress is made by leaders in the myriad channels of human endeavor.

Destinies sometimes fall in inferior hands, and progress is slowed. But crises have always produced leaders where peoples strove for progress, freedom, and liberty.

LUBBOCK IS MAKING HER GIVING A "FEATHER IN THE CAP" PROPOSITION. IT IS A CLEVER IDEA.

It is a feather in any city's cap to put over a worthy enterprise, such as a Community Chest drive. Subscribers to the chest fund will be given tiny red feathers to wear, showing that they are donors to the $30,000 fund required by six agencies.

The idea is apropos of the Christmas season. Actually, all the troubles in Pampa would not make the junk man rich, but the imaginary ones would load him down until he could not budge an inch.

A mental junk man should be part of every person's thinking equipment. Ability to sift out the relevant from the inconsequential and base and to worry only over essentials is the key to a well ordered and poised personality.

There is room for thought and planning in any community, but there is very little cause for worry in Pampa. A talk with visitors from other parts of the nation will con-

Second Marriage Must Be Made

NEW YORK, Dec. 2. (AP)—A bride and groom today were en route to Los Angeles to be remarried. A wedding ceremony performed here was declared invalid by a Brooklyn clergyman in the midst of the wedding feast.

After uniting Edward Tannous of Los Angeles and Miss Basseemie Kati-bah of Brooklyn, the Rev. Lauriston Castleman, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, was informed the license had been issued under a misrepresentation.

The minister said Tannous, who had been married before, was refused a marriage license here Friday, when he said his divorce papers had been left behind in Los Angeles. On Saturday he applied for the license a second time and obtained it, according to Mr. Castleman, by saying he had not been previously married.

Canyon Chamber Re-Elects Officers

CANYON, Nov. 30. (Special)—The Canyon Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night re-elected its officers and board of directors to serve a second year without a single change. The reason for this step is that here are unfinished projects on hand which the members believed could best be handled by the officers who had begun the work.

SORE THROATS AND COUGHS

Here's a doctor's prescription that is really throat insurance. Sore or irritated throats are relieved and soothed almost instantly with the very first swallow. About 90 per cent of all coughs are caused by an irritated throat; consequently for most coughs there is nothing better than this famous prescription—it goes direct to the internal cause.

PAWNEE, Okla., Dec. 2.—(AP)—Tom Vernon, 43, erstwhile cowboy, rodeo rider, fireman, and five times a convict, awaited in the Pawnee county jail here today the outcome of efforts of Wyoming and California to claim him for interrogation as to the wrecking and robbing of two passenger trains.

Officers from both states declared passengers of the Portland Limited of the Union Pacific, derailed and robbed near Cheyenne, Wyo., last Monday, and of the Pacific Coast Limited of the Southern Pacific railroad, similarly derailed and plundered near Saugus, California, Nov. 10, had identified Vernon's photographs as those of the man, who single-handed lined them up and took their money. Approximately $100 was alleged to have been taken in California and $239 in Wyoming.

It was Thomas J. Higgins, deputy sheriff of Los Angeles, who found Vernon's trail. Higgins had known Vernon for nearly a decade, during which Vernon was in and out of the California penitentiary at Folsom, where he had been confined. Higgins said "for larceny and other felonies." Vernon had been committed to penitentiaries in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and California. Higgins said, five times.

"I had a hunch," said Higgins, who with Sheriff Allen Jones of Pawnee and Sheriff G. H. Ronsa of Cheyenne, arrested Vernon in a hotel here last night, "that Vernon had wrecked the Southern Pacific train. I knew he had been freed from the Folsom penitentiary August 8. I submitted his pictures to passengers of the train who immediately recognized him."

December Calendar Crowded With Varied and Interesting Activity

Closing an exceptionally busy November with a week of rushing holiday activity, Pampa individuals and organizations have torn a leaf from their calendars to find an even more crowded December schedule. To the usual number of events for holiday visitors and the college students' home for Christmas, will be added a long list of public programs and entertainments, benefit social affairs, church socials, and club parties, filling almost every day and evening of the month.

A home coming for all those affiliated with the First Christian church will be held tomorrow evening at the church, sponsored by the Senior Intermediate Christian Endeavor society. Each department of the Sunday school, each of the Christian Endeavor societies, the church board, and members of the young peoples' societies will have part on the program, which is to start at 7:30 o'clock. Plans are being completed to make this one of the largest, as well as one of the most enjoyable social gatherings in the history of the church.

Many Church Affairs

Various other affairs for church and Sunday school groups dot the calendar. The Azar class of the First Baptist church will have a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. D. Z. Oil Leases Canceled

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2. (AP)—Cancellation of oil leases in Kern county, California, said to be valued at $15,000,000, is sought in the suit of the United States against the Pan-American Petroleum company called today before Judge Frank H. Norcross in federal court here. The suit involved three oil leases totalling 600 acres. The government charged the leases were made through asserted fraud between Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, and Edward L. Doheny, head of the Pan-American company.

TITLE CLAIMS RAGE AT END GRID SEASON

By ALVIN GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor.
 NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP)—The football frenzy is over for 1929 except for a few flourishes in the south and far west, but the picture of a campaign of sparkling individual achievements is vivid, and the argument over championship claims is far from settled.

The season that was brought to an arctic climax Saturday by Notre Dame's ninth straight triumph, at the expense of the gallant army team, was in many respects the most remarkable in the history of the great American college sport.

The tumult from early October to the last day of November was punctuated by the famous Carnegie report on commercialism, by astounding individual performances and long-run thrills despite the new fumble rule, by record-smashing crowds, by an unprecedented epidemic of so-called "breaks" in the big games and by the development of an unusual number of high class teams.

For sheer drama, Yale and Notre Dame topped the list under circumstances of the most extraordinary variety. Trampled by Georgia in October, the Elis came back to whip Brown, Army and Dartmouth in successive Saturdays with Abbie Booth cutting capers across the historic turf of the Yale bowl such as no one at N W Haven had seen in a blue moon. In successive Saturdays Booth outplayed two of the game's stars, Cagle of the Army and Masters of Dartmouth, to become the most talked about ball carrier since Red Grange, even though the "mighty atom" went into something of an eclipse against Princeton and Harvard.

Knute Rockne, on a sickbed most of the season as the result of an infected leg furnished the inspiration for one of Notre Dame's greatest teams, the first unbeaten Irish array since the famous four horsemen dismounted in 1924.

Rockne, stricken just before the Navy game, was able to be on the sidelines for only two of the remaining six games but his boys went out and played with even greater spirit for the ailing "Rock" than they might have for a perfectly healthy coach, directing them from the bench. In next to their last game, the star center, Tim Moynihan, broke his leg, but the team kept on winning, even though it took a break and a one hundred yard dash by the fastest man on the team Jack Elder, to beat the Army. Notre Dame was among the five major teams that finished their seasons unbeaten and untied.

Purdue's mighty Boilermakers made it two votes for state of Indiana. Pitts-burgh in the east, Tulane in the south and Utah in the Rocky mountain zone completed the big five of this group. Based upon the calibre of opposition and performance over the whole campaign, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh and Purdue established the strongest claims to national championship honors. No one of this trio could possibly be picked out for the main award, however, without the loudest kind of a roar from the others.

Three others in the major flight—Tennessee, Texas Christian and St. Mary's of California—showed only a single tie to mar otherwise perfect records. Until their latest games, Tennessee and Texas Christian were up in the very top flight, but the volunteers were tied by Kentucky on Thanksgiving day and the Christians held to a 7-7 deadlock by Southern Methodist Saturday. St. Mary's was tied early in the season by California, but came along afterward to hang up the most consistent record of any team on the Pacific coast, while the "big three" Stanford, Southern California and California, cut each other down.

Here's how the situation may be summed up in the major areas:

East Pittsburgh only major team unbeaten or tied, but with Colgate also showing a clean slate against eastern opposition. Fordham, tied twice, and Davis-Elkins of West Virginia, tied once ranking high, along with Western Maryland, unchecked in 10 games and facing Maryland this week in the last test.

Missouri Valley—Nebraska champion of the Big Six for the second straight year and Drake repeating in the Valley conference.

South—Tulane with best record in Southern conference a shade better than Tennessee with Chattanooga repeating in the Southern I. A. A.

Southwest—Texas Christian champion of the conference after a season marked by sensational play and unusually high-class team production in this sector.

Rocky Mountain—Utah champion of the conference for the third time in four years, acclaimed the finest team the district has yet turned out.

Pacific Coast—St. Mary's showing the best record, although outside the big conference group, tying California and trouncing Oregon, two teams which figured with Southern California and Stanford in quadruple tie for conference leadership.

Salmon eggs for hatching purposes numbering 73,888,700 were taken from the Columbia river this year.

Highball—And Lowball

By O. E. KEELER
 The statisticians were having their accustomed session, along in the cool of the evening, in the commodious press quarters at the Pebble Beach golf course, the day of the first qualifying round of the last national amateur golf championship. This is always a good day for statisticians. In addition to squabbling about what it will take to qualify the next day, they can dope out the best-ball of the entire field and compare it with par, and pick out the holes on which the most birdies were made, and the fewest, and so on.

We had pretty well come to an agreement on what it would take to get in the charmed circle of 32. After a considerable wrangle we had rather compromised on a score of 158 for the two rounds—a safe conclusion which later was exploded when several ambitious competitors played off at 160 for one place, next day. A wind had blown across the Monterey Peninsula, that second day.

 Anyway somebody had just checked up the best-ball for the opening day, against a par of 36-36-72, and the best ball for the field was a very decent 26-27-53.

A stroke better than 3's is never bad. And on such a perilous course as Pebble Beach, it seemed exceptionally good. For there were some fearful penalties exacted for wild play; there (said somebody) was Charlie Black's 10 at the fourth hole; and Harold Thompson's finish of what started to be a very good round, of about 77. Mr. Thompson needed a par 5 at the eighteenth for that total, indeed. And after he got thru with that part of the Pacific-Ocean included in Carmel Bay, Mr. Thompson had an 11 on No. 18, and a ruinous card of 83.

So I said:
 "Well, what's the matter with working out the worst-ball for the field today?"

So we did. And here is, against a par of 36-36-72:
 Out 8 8 7 10 7 8 5 9 8-70
 In 8 7 6 6 9 7 6 6 11-66 136
 That ought to be height of something or other for the duffers.

Iowa's Status Is Grid Hang-Over of Present Season

CHICAGO, Dec. 2. (AP)—With the football season over and the basketball season only in the preliminary practice stage, "what will become of Iowa" is the big topic for discussion in the Big Ten.

Iowa's petition for reinstatement to compete in the Western conference will be presented to the faculty committee on athletics in Chicago Friday and Saturday.

Out of the discussion of whether Iowa will be reinstated have grown numerous rumors. One says Iowa will not be forgiven and taken back into the group as an athletic opponent, because athletic directors of three universities, A. A. Staggs of Chicago, Fiedling H. Yost of Michigan, and George Huff of Illinois, are opposed to readmitting Iowa.

Another report, also lacking substantiation, says Iowa will be returned to good standing because several other schools are equally guilty and the whole matter will be hushed.

Jacksonville, Fla., has a jaller who is 6 feet and 6 inches tall.

RETURNS TO PAMPA

Miss Gracey J. Russell, who recently was graduated from St. Anthony's School of Nursing, Amarillo, has returned to Pampa to make her home with Dr. and Mrs. V. E. Brunow. Miss Russell was a member of the 1926 graduating class of Pampa high school.

BASKETBALL IS CHIEF INTEREST OF HARVESTERS

Basketball now claims attention at Central high school, with prospects for both girls and boys seemingly bright.

The girls, under Coaches Sims and McFarland, already have defeated Mobeetle.

Coach Odus Mitchell will be without the services of Kahl, Stalls, and Waldstad of last year's brilliant aggregation, but has a promising group of men who have been out for football. Filling the post abandoned by graduation of the giant Stalls at center is not going to be easy. It is probable that Salsbury, normally a guard, will be tried at the pivot post. He has height, but his jumping potentialities have not been discovered.

Plans are being completed for the annual invitation basketball tournament, which likely will be held early in February. Last year's tournament, which dedicated the new gymnasium was a great success.

Interest in the sport this year will be stimulated through matching of games with a number of Class A teams. Challenges are being sent the major high schools of the Southeast, including Amarillo, Oklahoma City, and Norman.

Coach Mitchell is a former T. I. A. A. all-star center, and considers basketball one of his chief interests.

CLARK HINKLE LEADING SCORER OF FOOTBALL NOW

By The Associated Press
 The national football individual scoring crown seems destined to rest on the head of Clark Hinkle, fullback of the Bucknell Bison.

Hinkle broke loose for 50 points against Dickinson on Thanksgiving day to boost his season's total to 128, superseding Al Marsters, injured Dartmouth star, as the national, as well as eastern, leader.

The only player in the country with even an outside chance of overthrowing Hinkle is Gene McEver of Tennessee. Hinkle has completed his season's work but McEver and Tennessee have yet to meet South Carolina. McEver has 97 points to his credit thus far.

TO FIGHT FOR TITLE

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Jackie Field's ten round bout with Billy Light of St. Paul at Chicago tonight is the high spot in this week's national boxing schedule. The welterweight title which Fields holds will not be at stake, as the bout is at 149 pounds.

Invention of a crude oil engine for motor cars has been reported to the department of commerce.

Nearly half of the fatal mine accidents in the United States are caused by falls of mine roof and coal.

HORNED FROGS NOT TO PLAY ANOTHER TILT

By the Associated Press
 Deprived of a claim to the national football title, but deliriously happy in possession of their first Southwest conference crown, the Texas Christian university Horned Frogs were content today to rest upon their laurels.

Unless an attractive offer is received within the next few days and is met with the unanimous approval of the purple athletic counsel, the mighty team that swept through ten games this year without defeat has been seen in action for the last time. As it is, the Frogs have perhaps a stronger claim to national recognition than any team the conference has produced.

As far as Coach Francis Schmidt is concerned, the football season is over. He wants to get acquainted with his basketball squad as quickly as possible, which is today. It is his aim to give the Christians two major sport titles in his first year. Basketball, not football, his specialty.

By virtue of their 7-7 deadlock with Southern Methodist in Saturday's bitter battle at Fort Worth, the Christians finished their schedule with nine victories and a tie. Their pulsating scoring machine, featuring Cy Leland and Howard Grubb, scored 100 points. Their stout line, built about the battering Ming Brumblow, held the opposition to 33 points.

Most of the 25,000 faithful who shivered and shook through the climatic tilt at Fort Worth were convinced the Frogs deserved the championship, won after seven years of persistent battling. They saw the grey eleven play cautious football for almost three quarters, apparently content to accept a scoreless tie as long as it carried the championship with it. Then, when the wiry Mustangs had struck suddenly to score by the aerial route they saw the fighting Frogs come back like a whirlwind and battle their opponents off their feet and push across the tying touchdown late in the final period. They had the power when disaster stared them in the face.

That final desperate rally of the Frogs was a fitting climax to their story-book career this season. Three months ago the Christians were regarded as third or fourth place possibilities by a majority of critics. It was known the school had a nice bunch of football players coming up, but few believed that Francis Schmidt would be able to whip them into title contenders.

Throughout the season the Christians had the punch at the critical moment. They apparently were predestined to win. Cy Leland, came through with a pair of glorious gallops to defeat Texas university and the Texas Aggies. When he was checked, Grubb always was ready to step into the starring role, as in the final bout Saturday. Harlos Green, sophomore who had been only a mediocre placement kicker until this year, blossomed into the conference's deadliest in that department. His ability to add the extra point turned the tide in several bouts, and he did not fail when he was called upon to plant one through the bars to tie the Mustangs.

Leland's failure to get loose in the big tussle cost him conference scoring honors. While he was being hog-tied by the Methodists' more or less, Jake Wilson, Baylor quarterback, was scoring two touchdowns to lead his team to a closing victory over Rice, 19 to 0, at Houston.

Wilson finished with 14 touchdowns and one extra point for a total of 85 points. Leland had 13 touchdowns for 78 points. Miller of Arkansas took third place with 12 touchdowns, 72 points. Seventy-two players got their names in the scoring record. There was not a single field goal all season.

Final conference standing:
 W. L. T. Pci Pts Ag
 T. C. U. 4 0 1 900 83 53
 S. M. U. 3 0 2 800 78 20
 Arkansas 3 2 1 600 98 77
 Texas 2 2 2 500 78 28
 Baylor 2 2 1 500 63 79
 Aggies 2 3 0 400 66 45
 Rice 0 5 0 000 6 14

Tie in conference counts half game won and half game lost.

Horned Frogs to Graduate Stars

DALLAS, Dec. 2. (AP)—Fifty-six more or-less major gaps in Southwest conference football lineups will have to be plugged up in 1930 due to graduation this school year.

Hardest hit are the champion T. C. U. Horned Frogs, who lose nine members of their team, including Howard Grubb, quarterback. The runner-up S. M. U., loses only three players, two of them reserves.

Arkansas seven graduates include Schoonover, outstanding end, and five other members of the famous one-ton line. Texas and Rice loses nine each; Texas Aggies seven, and Baylor only two.

DIEGEL LOOMS TO REPEAT IN GOLF MATCH

BY PAUL B. ZIMMERMAN
 Associated Press Sports Writer
 LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2. (AP)—Sixty-seven wanderers of the nation's fairways today will cast their hopes that only thirty-two will come out of the test with the privilege of entering match competition tomorrow for the national professional golf championship.

Leo Diegel, defending champion, with the self-confidence of many victories instilled in him, stands out in the group of those classed as favorites.

Walter Hagen, from whom the Agus Caliente pro wrested the championship last season, is only slightly less popular as the choice to regain the title which he has held on five previous occasions.

Both the great Hag from Detroit, and "Larruping Leo" from Baja, California, have been turning in fancy cards for the troublesome course which will be the scene of the tourney. Diegel especially has found it much to his liking. He holds the record of 69 strokes.

No small amount of trouble is expected by the chief contenders from Horton Smith, professional from Missouri Ozarks region, who, in the three open championships he has competed in this winter, has finished first twice and in a tie for second on the other occasion.

COLD WEATHER RUSHES SOUTH IN TEXAS TODAY

By the Associated Press
The second cold snap within half-a-dozen days pushed into Texas today with at least two points reporting mercuries several points below freezing.

Early this morning, Amarillo citizens saw a reading of 18 degrees on the temperature indicators, one of the coldest of the season. At Wichita Falls the mercury slid to 25 degrees just after midnight, while at Dallas it stood just two degrees above freezing.

One automobile accident in which there were two fatalities, and a near-serious airplane accident were attributed to the weather. Two Dallas hunters were killed near McKinney when their car skidded on a pavement made wet by the rain and overturned on a concrete bridge.

CHAPTER VII
"MR. DOWD, sir," a uniformed policeman announced to Lieutenant Strawn. "Just a minute, Boyle. Is Payne around?"

"Talking to Mrs. Rhodes in the hall, sir."
"Send him in," Strawn ordered curtly. "I'll see Dowd in a minute."
When Payne, the detective who had notified the boarders of Mrs. Hogarth's death, appeared Strawn gave him his instructions in a low rapid voice:

"I'm going to be questioning the boarders, Payne, and I want you to search each room while my own party is here with me. I've got a blanket search warrant that will cover the case technically. Do a thorough job—waste-baskets, trunks, desks, closets, everything. Use my bunch of skeleton keys if you find anything you can't open let me know and we'll ask the owner to produce the key. The murdered woman was robbed, apparently, if the murderer found what he was looking for. She was supposed to have a pretty big wad of cash hidden in this room, and if she did have it's gone. Look for it. Did she say anything to you about Liberty bonds, stocks or any other kind of negotiable paper, Dundee?" he called to the young detective stationed behind the wash basin screen.

"No, chief. She used the word 'money' several times, but didn't mention any stocks or bonds," Dundee answered.
"Ah, right, Payne. Look for money, and if you find any, besides petty cash, let me know, but don't touch it. Now, tell Boyle to bring Dowd in."
With Mrs. Hogarth's tablet of cheap, lined writing paper on his knee and a pencil poised, Bonnie Dundee watched through one of the joints of the three-panel screen as Henry Dowd was ushered into the room.
To the diffidence which had characterized this very commonplace looking man of near middle-age when Dundee had observed him at the dinner table that evening, was now added a mild, almost apologetic mixture of apprehension and excitement.

"WELL, Dowd, you know what happened here tonight. That's your room next door, isn't it? Did you hear or see anything tonight that might throw light on the tragedy?" Strawn asked briskly.
The pale man's eyes blinked twice, before Henry Dowd carefully adjusted the glasses upon his nose. "No, sir," he answered. "That is, nothing to speak of."

Morrow to Be Made Senator in New Jersey

ATLANTA CITY, N. J., Dec. 2.—(AP)—Undismayed by finding himself opposed by Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow and a powerful organization, Joseph S. Freilighuysen has expressed his determination to continue in the race for United States senator from New Jersey.

"I have announced my candidacy, and I certainly shall run," he said at his home at Far Hills, N. J., after learning that Governor Morgan F. Larson intended to appoint Ambassador Morrow to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Walter E. Edge.

At the same time David Baird, Jr., who has already been appointed to the vacant senate seat, announced he would resign in favor of Mr. Morrow as soon as the latter returns from the naval reduction conference in London.

Mr. Morrow is expected to be a candidate for re-election.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow will leave here Friday for the United States, not to return until after he has finished as a delegate to the five power naval conference in London in January.

That over, he is expected back in this capital to wind up almost three years as ambassador before returning to his New Jersey home and accepting the senatorial toga worn recently by Senator Edge, just appointed ambassador at Paris.

Friends believe political conditions in the United States may govern the length of his stay in Mexico after the London naval conference. In the event of a long congressional session or a special session, it is expected he will retire as ambassador early in the summer or sooner.

British Lord and Nurse Are Married

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 2. (AP)—The marriage of Lord Chylesmore, ranchman, to a nurse was disclosed today.

He came to Alberta six years ago, took up 4,000 acres of land at Alix, near Calgary, and established the Happy Valley ranch. On July 25 last he was married to Miss Margaret Pearl Sundberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sundberg of Alix.

Lord Chylesmore is generally known in Alberta as Captain Francis Henry Ormand Eaton. Miss Sundberg came to Vancouver early in 1927 to take up nursing and was graduated from the general hospital.

Lord Chylesmore, who is 36, succeeded his father in his title in 1925. He was cited in dispatches during the World war, and won the D. S. O. He once said: "I wouldn't exchange my life as a farm hand in Canada for a king's ransom."

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Hollywood Movie Truly Dazzling in Its Showing Here

New songs, new dances by stars of screen and stage, lots of "gags" and abundant laughs, tuneful melodies and sparkling dialogue—and don't forget the girls.

"The Hollywood Revue," a huge musical spectacle, staged and screened by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, which had its first showing in Pampa Sunday at the Rex theatre, has them all. It has everything.

It is a radical departure from the motion pictures to which we have become accustomed, even in this talkie epoch.

It is a revue, a huge vaudeville show for young and old alike, staged with gorgeous settings, twenty musical numbers, a huge dancing chorus and a galaxy of stars in the greatest cast ever assembled for one motion picture.

Marion Davies appears as a singer and dancer in a highly amusing sketch called "Tommy Atkins on Parade." Who knew before that she was an expert tap dancer? But she is, rivaling the best that the musical comedy stage has to offer. She is supported by a male chorus of six-footers.

John Gilbert and Norma Shearer are also on the bill. They do a romantic bit from Shakespeare and then jazz it up to modern tempo.

Bessie Love appears in her own Love. One of the hit songs of the show is her's. It couldn't be anything but a hit when Bessie sings it.

Conrad Nagel makes his screen singing debut and is the interlocutor of a minstrel number.

Congress Opens Regular Session This Morning

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—(AP)—A new session of congress began at noon today facing the task of passing on President Hoover's first full legislative program, which will be placed before it tomorrow in a 12,000-word message dealing with almost every national and international activity of the federal government.

It was not a new congress, for its members had been engaged in work of the special session thru the hot months of summer. In going to the capital today the members had to travel over sleet covered pavements.

Although the work today consisted largely of formalities and preparation, Chairman Hawley of the house ways

Returns Home in Time to Donate to Burglar Pair

CHICAGO, Dec. 2. (AP)—Archibald Dearsie arrived home yesterday in time to avoid disappointing two burglars.

A search of Dearsie's quarters had revealed nothing of value. The crooks were preparing to go when Dearsie walked in.

"Ah," said one of the crooks. "You are just in time. Have you any money?"

Dearsie had $38.

"Gimme, gimme, gimme," said one burglar. "Except for your opportune return, the evening would have been a disappointment."

It was disappointing to Dearsie.

Two Hunters Killed

DALLAS, Dec. 2. (AP)—Thrown from their car when it skidded and overturned on a cement bridge near McKinney, Raymond Pruitt, 34, and Shannon Cook, 26, both of Dallas, were killed yesterday. The men were returning from a day's hunting in Oklahoma.

Another of the big issues to be faced; the tariff, was already before the new session, a legacy from the special session.

Both houses convened at noon, Vice President Curtis pounding for order in the senate and Speaker Longworth wielding the gavel in the house. Despite the weather the usual opening day crowd was in the galleries. Nearly all the members of both houses also were in their seats before opening prayers by the chaplains.

Before and after the meeting the members, none too rested from the months of tariff debate, conversed in groups on the floor. Senator Watson of Indiana, Republican leader, returned to the chamber after an absence of three weeks in quest of rest. He was the center of a circle of well wishers.

The Rev. Z. B. Phillips, chaplain of the senate, offered prayers, and Vice President Curtis ordered the secretary to call the roll. The roll call showed sixty-four members present.

Watson offered a resolution to notify the house that the senate was in session and to authorize appointment of a committee to advise President Hoover congress was in session.

Vice-President Curtis appointed Watson and Senator Robinson of Arkansas, Democratic leaders, as senate members of the committee to wait upon the chief executive.

The four "great killers of mankind," as listed by the U. S. Public Health service, are heart disease, kidney disease, cancer and pneumonia.
