MARTIAL LAW IS NEARING END

LIMITS OF EXPRESS DELIVERY ARE OUTLINED TODAY ATTEMPT TO BREAK COUNTY JAIL TODAY ENDS DISMALLY

SNUFF THROWN AT JAILER BY ONE PRISONER Hereafter Inmates Can Use Tobacco in Other Forms

CONVICTED MAN HURT IN AFFAIR Rheudial Uses Keys to Ward off Attack By Youth

Thirteen prisoners in the county jail will be denied snuff; they must take their tobacco in other forms.

A handful of snuff thrown in the face of Scott Rheudial by a prisoner at 11 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but proved ineffective as a method of breaking jail.

When the snuff-strewn of battle had cleared away, the snuff-chucker, John Rhoads, was seen to have a revolver which he used to shoot at Rheudial. Rheudial was shot in the back of the neck by the snuff-chucker when he was running away from the jail.

Simultaneously with Jones' rush several other prisoners made a rush for freedom but by that time Rheudial had his leg cut and fired a shot.

Then every prisoner ran back to his cell. Jones is 18 years old.

He had asked for the snuff several days ago, saying he could not get more without snuff.

Maker of Still Apparatus Freed

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 16. (AP)—Thomas A. Seagraves, operator of a sheet metal works here, was free today although he admitted he manufactured and sold a copper contraption which the state contended was a still.

Seagraves admitted he made the apparatus from specifications furnished him by a federal prohibition officer. The verdict left the exact nature of the apparatus in doubt.

Seagraves' lawyers argued he had a clear right to sell the apparatus as a proper had to sell malt and sugar and that the vendor was not required to determine what use was to be made of the commodities he sold.

Jim Ferguson May Be Candidate for Congress Post

DALLAS, Oct. 16. (AP)—The Dallas Times-Herald today will say that word has been circulated in local political circles by certain friends of James E. Ferguson that the former governor is being serious consideration to enter the next year's Democratic primaries as a candidate for congress from the sixth district against J. P. Buchanan of Sherman, incumbent.

Walker Opens His Mayoral Drive

NEW YORK, Oct. 16. (AP)—After a twenty rally of blaring bands and the fire Mayor James J. Walker today formally launched on his campaign for re-election on a platform of past performances with all "mud-slinging" taboos.

At a rally at Tammany Hall at which all Democratic candidates were roundly cheered, former Governor Alfred E. Smith, was given the greatest ovation of them all when he urged retention of the Walker administration to finish the public improvement program started by it.

Bachelors Form Club to Combat Femininity

Pampa's first authentic bachelor's club, dedicated to the purpose of promoting single bliss, has come into existence. Organization of the club was perfected at a midnight luncheon of six of Pampa's most eligible bachelors at the Canary Sandwich shop Tuesday evening.

It was decided that the club membership should be limited to lucky seven. The articles of incorporation and the by-laws of the club were drawn up and duly signed by each of the members present. It was decided to place these by-laws in a strong box to which several locks shall be attached, each member having a key to one lock. Only in the case of death or matrimony will the by-laws be taken out and read, and at each of these occasions the initiation of a new member will be in order.

Penalty for matrimony shall be a dinner for the club costing not less than $2 a plate, and all arrangements of the wedding to be left in the hands of the club members. That being the case, it looks like a hard winter for some of Pampa's female matrimonial prospects declare the club members.

Clarence Coffin, who dispenses mail at Uncle Sam's local office, was chosen chairman of the club and promises to reveal the names of other members, to any interested females.

The motto of all club members is "When Do We Eat." Mustaches, derby hats, and spats were taboos by the members. Their aim is to lead a single life in masculine environment unencumbered by femininity.

MERCHANTS TO PUT ADDRESSES ON ALL ORDERS Cooperation Necessary in Getting Fullest Benefit TWO TRUCKS TO BE USED HERE Zone Includes All of Business Area on Paving

Limits of the free express delivery zone in Pampa were announced today by L. W. Klein, local Santa Fe general agent.

At the beginning of service Nov. 1 the zone will include all of the business and wholesale district where there is paving, and a considerable portion of the residential district where concrete has been placed. The limits will be extended as the paving program is carried to completion.

The delivery limits furnished by Klein are as follows:

Commencing at the corner of Atchison avenue and Ballard street, northwest on Ballard to Francis avenue, southwest on Francis avenue to Gray street, southeast on Gray street to Kingsmill avenue, southwest on Kingsmill avenue to West street, southeast on West street to the Panhandle & Santa Fe right-of-way, northeast along the P. & S. F. to Cuyler, southwest on Cuyler to Thut street, returning northwest on Cuyler street to Tyng avenue.

Northeast on Tyng avenue to Gillespie street, returning southwest on Tyng avenue to Cuyler street, northwest on Cuyler to the north side of the P. & S. F. tracks, northeast along the tracks to Gillespie, northwest on Gillespie to Atchison, southwest on Atchison avenue to Ballard street.

Two new Ford trucks built to specifications will be shipped from Waco on October 17, according to information received here. Although more than one hundred applications for the two positions have been received, no appointments of drivers has been made by the company.

Merchants are advised that it will be necessary to have shippers show the street and number of local places of business.

The service if successful will require the cooperation of all business interests. Mr. Klein said. "We desire to operate so that everyone will be benefited, and suggestions as to the betterment of the service will be welcomed."

Efforts to obtain express-delivery were started more than a year ago by the Board of City Development. Numerous surveys and reports were made along with requests for the service.

Wolfe Named Mayor

Former Judge Is Choice of LeFors Folk Yesterday

LEFORS, Oct. 16. (Special)—T. M. Wolfe, formerly Gray county judge, yesterday was elected mayor of LeFors under the new articles of incorporation. He defeated W. R. Combs, 35 to 29 votes.

In the vote for alderman, five men to be chosen, the result in the balloting was as follows:

A. M. Clardy 57, C. W. Harkins 37, W. S. Beavers 29, George Thut 41, E. A. Nipper 22, N. C. Matteson 36, Ray S. Carter 35, E. W. McDonald 17, H. G. Blake 28.

Of these, Clardy, Harkins, Beavers, Thut, and Nipper were elected as aldermen.

E. Baclius, unopposed, was elected city secretary and John Cone, also without an opponent, was made city marshal. Sixty-nine votes were cast.

LeFors was organized last year under the commission form of government, which later was abolished as too expensive. The town has enjoyed a steady growth since the bill placed in Gray county. Formerly the county seat, LeFors was always without a mayor, but is now headed by the proposed Pampa-Childress line of the Port Worth & Denver.

Pantages Jury Loafs as Argument of Lawyers Rages

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16. (AP)—Arguments over the testimony of Dr. Hanshan-Bailey, which were interrupted by the close of court yesterday in the trial of a statutory charge against Alexander Pantages, theater, multimillionaire, were resumed today with the jury still excluded from the court room.

The dispute centered about efforts of Joseph Ford, defense attorney, to draw further testimony from the witness regarding the condition of Eunice Pringle after the alleged attack on her. The physician previously had given a detailed description and the court sustained the state's objection to additional questioning of this nature.

Ford asked permission to debate his stand in the absence of the jury and the request was granted.

District Attorney Eupon Pitts said Garland Biffle, defense witness who contradicted parts of the testimony of Miss Pringle yesterday and was arrested for perjury, would appear before the grand jury at two p. m., for possible indictment.

The basis of the charge was not disclosed, but Pitts said Biffle's testimony was heard by several members of the grand jury who were sitting in the courtroom when he took the witness stand.

Recover Arsenal From Hijackers

Even the run-runners on the Detroit river are glad this arsenal of machine guns, rifles, pistols and navy uniforms, stolen from the Naval Reserve Armory at Detroit, was recovered by Detectives Christian Nelson (left) and Fred Deschner of Detroit. Reasons: federal officers believe the four men arrested when the arsenal was seized were part of a gang who had planned use of the guns and uniforms to equip a fake coast guard boat and hijack run-runners.

ORDER SIGNED BY GOVERNOR MILLER SAYS But Officials Are to Be Appointed First

WHITE RESIGNS OFFICE TODAY

Representative Is to Be Candidate for Senator

EASTLAND, Oct. 16. (AP)—Hutchinson county will be free of martial law today if appointment of officials for the county and Berger is completed, acting Governor Harry Miller said today.

Before leaving for Mexico on a hunting trip, Governor Dan Moody signed a proclamation to lift martial law, the order to be dated and issued on completion of the appointments of the acting governor said.

BORGER, Oct. 16. (AP)—John Heran White, representative to the Texas legislature from the 16th district, has resigned. District Attorney Clem Gibson announced today.

In a statement to newspapers, White, elected last election, said his resignation was "not due to the acute political situation" which developed here subsequent to the assassination of District Attorney John A. Holmes on Sept. 13 and prior to the declaration of martial law on Sept. 30.

Income Is Too Small
White said he was resigning because his duties as representative decreased his income. He further said he never had been in sympathy with the present state government, adding he might be a candidate for state senator from this district. The resignation addressed to Governor Moody, asked that a special election be called immediately for the selection of White's successor.

Four other officials in the district where Governor Moody said investigations had found an "extraordinary general ring" have resigned since the declaration of martial law. Mayor George A. Pace has been replaced by W. A. Henderson; the county commissioner are considering a successor to Sheriff Joe Ownbey; appointees are to fill places vacated by Justice of the Peace Walter Broomball of Borger and City stable C. A. Mitchell.

White said his campaign for state senator would depend on whether Clint C. Small of Wellington present chief resigning.

Cathoun announced later James G. Moore is being considered for the sheriff's post. Discussing Moore, Moore said "Moore is an excellent man. I am afraid he will not get the job. Like Saul, Moore stands tall and shoulders above his fellow men. Literally, I can't see why the citizens of this county could find anything wrong with this man's record or that of Moore."

"There have been no complaints to me about Moore. As far as I am concerned, he has met with universal approval. I chose him over Ranger Berger. Whether, now, it is better, only he knows. I want men in office in Borger and Hutchinson county who have had no previous connections, politically or otherwise."

Moore was sheriff of Falls county for eight years. He also worked in Borger during hectic boom days and has been in Borger since 24 hours after the district attorney was assassinated.

BORGER, Oct. 16. (AP)—Well on its way to the complete renovation of the city and county administration of Pampa were in the big audience.

MANY LOCAL LIONS PRESENT TO SEE PANHANDLE CHARTER GIVEN IN BANQUET PROGRAM LAST EVENING

Nine Hunters for Every Duck Say Local Sportsmen

There's about nine hunters for every duck. This morning you could shake a weed around any of the lakes near here and three or four hunters would run out, according to Assistant Chief of Police W. J. Turpin.

Nevertheless, Turpin, Mr. T. J. Worrell and City Manager E. M. Gwin managed to bag nine ducks by sunrise, the first day of the open season on ducks. Turpin says every lake in the vicinity of Pampa had a fringe of hunters around it this morning. Many duck hunting parties are being organized now for the week-end while some are in progress now. Of the nine ducks, Turpin killed 4, Gwin 3, and Worrell two.

Miss Luellie Douglas has accepted a position in Clarendon. She will go to that city Saturday.

Mrs. Ihrig Gives Many Personal Recipes to Cooking School Class

Mrs. Leona Rust Ihrig, famous home economist and culinary expert who is conducting the Pampa Daily News free cooking school at the Pils-Mor auditorium, devoted Tuesday the second afternoon of the session, to a demonstration of luncheon dishes and a lecture on the finishing touches which can give interest and zest to even the most inexpensive meal.

In addition to demonstrating each step in the preparation of several main dishes which she introduced from her own stock of original recipes, Mrs. Ihrig told the audience of more than 300 women how a salad might be used to balance a meal; how to make new salad dressings and how to give variety to well known kinds; how to make their own timbales and patty shells from loaf bread and buns; how to give sauces and gravies the coveted flavor achieved by French and Swiss chefs in their meat dishes; and how to completely transform every-day dishes with a variety of seasoning.

Two dishes of particular interest were demonstrated and complete instruction given for their preparation. One was a Mexican entree not too highly seasoned for the American palate, and the other, a vegetable salad combining all the necessary elements of a balanced meal. A recipe for creamed shrimp was given during the simple process of its preparation. The recipes are repeated in (See COOKING, Page 8)

LEGION DRIVE TOMORROW TO LAST ALL DAY

Members of the American Legion and Auxiliary will be at the Legion hall on West Foster avenue all day tomorrow to accept contributions of clothing which they will distribute to the needy this winter.

Frequent calls are made to the organizations, and the clothing drive is intended to enable these to be answered. The Legion organizations maintain a clothing chest and fund throughout the year. Children and widows of veterans are first served, but other calls are heeded also. Last year part of the clothing given by the community was turned over to the Pampa Welfare society.

Persons having clothing to donate may either take it to the hall or telephone 206, the Legion phone, for someone to call for it. The Auxiliary has two committees involved in the work, the child welfare headed by Mrs. Harry Marbaugh (phone 190-W), and the community service group of which Mrs. Paul Hill (426-W) is chairman. Either of these women will be glad to send for clothing available at any time. Children's clothing is especially needed.

While no money is being solicited now, contributions will be gratefully received for use in connection with the welfare work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Johnston returned Monday evening, after attending the petroleum fair at Tulsa and visiting other points in Oklahoma.

Property Values Not to Be Hiked Much by Board

Although real estate and property values in Pampa have doubled in some instances and increased to a great extent in others during the past year, the city board of equalization now in session is endeavoring to keep next year's valuation at a figure that will not amount to a tax burden to the property owners.

The board in issuing this statement indicated that property valuation is being kept as low as possible but in some cases it was clearly necessary to raise the valuation considerably. The valuation as a whole will not be much larger than last year. The equalization board comprises: Siler Faulstich, C. P. Buckler, and A. A. Tiegan.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing, or reputation of any individual, firm, concern, or corporation that may appear in the columns of the Pampa Daily News, will be gladly corrected when called to the attention of the editor.

THERE MAY BE PLENTY OF FRIVOLITY CONNECTED WITH CURRENT PASTIMES, BUT THERE IS MORE ATTACHED TO THE SUBSTITUTES MOST CRITICS WOULD SUGGEST.

Human relationships would be better if every person could be seen not merely as a cog in the big machine of business, but as an individual doing such undignified things as making a flower bed, extracting a golf ball from a muddy ditch, or training his favorite pet.

Pampa's country club is new and unfinished, but in it there is the nucleus of a very much needed recreation center. Every city, large or small, ought to have one or more such places.

THE NECESSITY OF SAYING SOMETHING PROFOUND IN BEHALF OF FIRE PREVENTION WEEK WAS BEYOND US — AND WE HAVE LOST OUR FAITH IN WEEKS ANYHOW.

Fire prevention week was one of the first we recall, but since then nearly every week has been dedicated to some cause in hope of obtaining publicity.

The present method of cutting down fire losses is obviously inadequate, and it is a reflection upon this progressive age to let damage approximating $5,000,000 pile up yearly.

THE DAILY OKLAHOMAN FOR SUNDAY DEVOTED A HALF PAGE CARTOON CALLING ATTENTION TO THE PROBABLE SITUATION FORECAST FOR OCTOBER 16, OPENING DATE OF THE DUCK SEASON.

The Oklahoman visualized a veritable army, with trenches, look-out posts, machine guns, armored tanks, airplane observation facilities, ham-and-egg stands, balloons, ammunition trains—and two ducks.

As for us, we will take our hunting solo or with a friend or two, or we will wait until we can seek a place wild and inaccessible enough to provide more ducks than hunters.

Collingsworth Wins

The amazing development of the dairy business in Collingsworth county was shown conclusively in the winnings of all breeders of this county at the Tri-State Fair last week.

During the first six months of this year the airmails carried 3,400,000 pounds of mail. They can lose a lot of poundage without getting much unfavorable publicity, but the fact is that they don't.

Greer & Geesey's accomplishment in the Jersey division was the showing of Ray Walker by the Holstein division. He won first prize on bulls three years and older on his Flower Grove Prince Rorex, and won enough prizes on his other animals to come out second in a field of hot competition.

This showing is of importance to more people than the cattle breeders. It means that dairy herds in this community have some of the best blood lines as well as individual animals in the Panhandle.

TWINKLES

That Al G. Barnes elephant was, alas, not a human, or he could have pleaded "not guilty by reason of insanity."

Russia has done away with holidays. But how in the world will her bankers get any vacations?

Considering the effect of the argument in many instances, the law ought to recognize a plea of "not guilty by reason of illness" and be done with it.

Where there is smoke there is fire, and where there is much drunkenness there must be much selling of liquor, if two plus two equals what it did in our days of arithmetic.

We agree. With the Lubbock Avalanche spokesman who says the penning up of millions of criminals in this country is the most wasteful and illogical practice in the whole penal procedure.

Penney Exhibit at State Fair Advertises City

The J. C. Penney company's exhibit at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas brings out the fact that this organization spent $2,867,149.90 in Texas last year, thus contributing materially to the prosperity of the state, according to W. E. Jones, manager of the local show.

This year the J. C. Penney company has two displays at the fair. These are located in the exhibition building. In addition to the regular institutional booth, a continuous animated style show is presented. Moving model displays the new fall fashions, showing a number of different styles during the two weeks of the fair.

The company's main booth presents an educational display depicting the organization's activities in this state. This year the exhibit features the fact that the J. C. Penney company purchased merchandise from Texas manufacturers to the amount of $1,000,159 in 1928. Chief among these products are overalls, work and play suits, shoes and shoe cases, duck and canvas, and rubber goods.

A graphic arrangement of maps and charts tells the story of the company's share in the development of Texas. An itemized account of the company's expenditures within the state in 1928 reads as follows:

- Merchandise purchased in Texas — $1,000,159.
  - Rent and building upkeep — $325,414.
  - Advertising and donations — $179,747.
  - Salaries — $1,444,266.
  - Other expenditures — $217,563.
  - Total expenditures — $2,867,149.
- A chart of the company's civic interests in this state reveals that of 62 stores in operation in Texas in 1928, 189 managers and associates own their homes, 190 memberships are held in local chambers of commerce and commercial clubs, and all managers are active in civic development.
- An electric map of the state flashes the store towns in Texas, including Pampa, and a large map of the United States gives the number of stores in each state. The display also includes a miniature model of a J. C. Penney company store.

Houston School Lunch Battle Is Somewhat Quieter

HOUSTON, Oct. 16. (P)—All was comparatively quiet today along the student lunch-room battle front here while some sixty business men discussed what steps they would take next in their efforts to convince the board of education that eating without chaparrin is quite innocent.

Members of the board of education resisted both the pleading of the students and the pressure of the business men, held their ground yesterday under a verbal barrage seeking the downfall of the board's edict that students should eat either at the school cafeteria or in their own homes.

Whether legal steps will be taken against the board has not been ascertained. Meanwhile, some 15,000 students who fell within the restriction, are left without choice in the matter of meals.

Persistent reports of dice games and dice diversions at the noon hour led to the no-lunch-room proclamation which was protested by merchants, some of the parents and some students at a meeting Monday night.

Santa Fe and Frisco Lines to Be Strengthened

DALLAS, Oct. 16. (P)—A scheme to strengthen the Santa Fe lines and the Frisco system in Texas through an interchange of facilities was reported today, to be under consideration by the two roads.

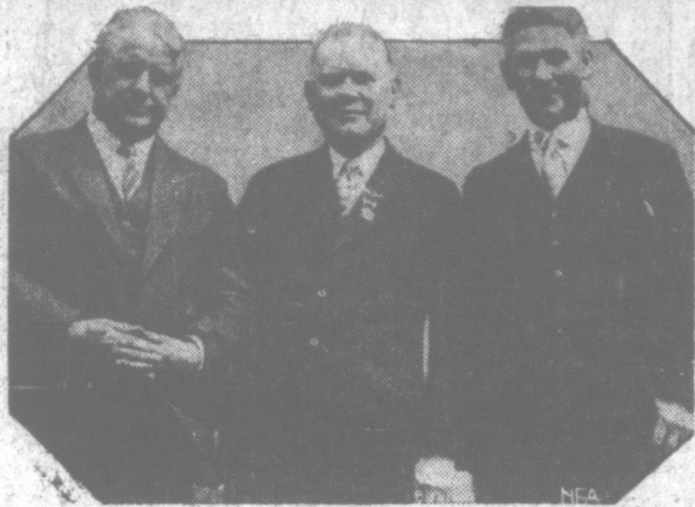

The scheme contemplates trading the use of 210 miles of Santa Fe track between Dallas and Paris for the use of 100 miles of Frisco track between Houston and Mineral Wells. This would give the Frisco a second trunk line into Dallas and Fort Worth and would strengthen its southern route to St. Louis 3 miles. The Santa Fe would save 100 miles between Dallas and Los Angeles and about the same distance between Dallas and San Angelo.

Grand Saline Is Hoping for Field of Broad Limits

GRAND SALINE, Oct. 16. (P)—Good showing of the discovery well, the W. B. Harman No. 1, has led residents of this vicinity to entertain high hopes for a new oil field here.

The discovery well yesterday had settled down to a steady flow of 63 barrels an hour and the output was said to be of exceptionally high gravity. The Pure Oil company, drillers of the well, announced there would soon be thirty storage tanks of 1,000 barrel capacity on their lease, and other companies are reported contemplating making leases in the vicinity.

Black Diamond, Killer Elephant to Be Shot With Machine Gun Today

KENEDY, Oct. 16. (P)—Black Diamond, killer elephant and lord of the jungle, began his last parade here this morning.

When the old familiar parade shouts from his trainers came to his ancient flopping ears at 11:30 a. m., the circus king got into the usual parade formation with other elephants.

He didn't know the parade was to end when his mammoth bulk, riddled with bullets from a machine gun, slumped into an already prepared grave grave in a meadow a mile from here.

The huge pachyderm was marched to a place west of this city to enjoy his last day of life in his old haunts, the woods.

Orders issued by circus officials after he had sun amuck at Corsicans, Texas, last week and killed Mrs. Eva Donohue called for his facing a one-man firing squad at twilight.

After many suggestions as to the best means of executing the huge beast had been received by officials, suggestions that included strangulation, drowning and poisoning, execution with a machine gun was decided upon as the safest and most merciful.

A crowd of 300 people, including the entire circus personnel, many of whom wept as the death march started, accompanied the animal to the scene of his execution.

Black Diamond's funeral cortege included three other elephants from the circus, Jewel, Babe and Ruth. The three clanked noiselessly beside the master on the long march to the execution grounds. Heavy chains bound Black Diamond to his mates to prevent possible repetition of the tragedy last Saturday.

The elephant seemed tractable today. As though aware of his impending and ignominious end, the mastodonic beast trumpeted shrilly several times during the long march.

Mrs. Chaplin Is Ill

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Oct. 16. (P)—Lita Grey Chaplin, vaudeville actress, was taken ill from an attack of ptomaine poisoning shortly after her arrival here today from Milwaukee. Mrs. Chaplin, whose engagement to Phil Baker, musical comedy actor, was announced in Milwaukee yesterday, refused to see newspapermen. Her manager would not comment.

Methodist Plans for Colleges Will Be Passed Upon

DALLAS, Oct. 16. (P)—Subject to approval by the five Methodist conferences, any new moves in the church's educational campaign hereafter must first pass muster of the Texas Methodist educational commission.

At a meeting here, the commission recommended that because the church has more institutions than present financial support justifies, the commission should be given the privilege of examining any proposal to establish a new institution, or to raise additional educational funds.

Recommendations of the body may be vetoed by any one of the conferences. They will first be considered by the North Texas conference at McKinney, Oct. 24.

The commission voted its approval of two campaigns for $1,500,000 each, for S. M. U. at Dallas and for Texas Woman's college at Fort Worth. Other recommendations were for a more unified program of "Christian education" and for consolidation of all colleges into one system.

Big Sum Spent by Beet Industry

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16. (P)—An annual expenditure of $70,000 by the United States Beet Sugar association with headquarters in Washington was listed today before the senate lobby committee by H. A. Austin, secretary and treasurer of the organization.

Appearing as a witness at the committee's second day of inquiry into reports of efforts to influence congress in drafting the tariff bill, he testified that during the first nine months of this year the association had expended approximately $56,000 and that of this much had been contributed to publications and pamphlets relating to sugar production.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, asked if "the real purpose" of the publications was not to spread the idea of a high tariff, but Austin insisted this was "only incidental."

The witness also said a number of "drip releases" had been sent to Washington newspaper correspondents and to newspapers throughout the country.

It was estimated by Austin that 90 per cent of the sugar production in the country was represented in the association.

Fall Bars Doctor

Personal enmity that dates back to 1919 when President Woodrow Wilson lay ill in the White House caused ex-Secretary Albert B. Fall, now reported ill as he faces trial for bribery at Washington, to refuse to permit Dr. Sterling Ruffin, above, to examine him at the court's order. Dr. Ruffin, then one of Wilson's physicians, and Fall, then a senator, are said to have had words when Fall, as a member of the senate committee appointed to investigate the president's health, drew the bed clothes from the patient. In 1924, when Fall was reported too ill for trial, Dr. Ruffin examined him and pronounced him able to face court.

Shawnee Man Is Held in Relation With Threats

SHAWNEE, Okla., Oct. 16. (P)—Arthur L. Fauble, Shawnee wholesale merchant, was in jail at Tecumseh today while officers pushed an investigation into mysterious threatening letters received by several prominent Shawnee business men.

Fauble is said to have related the story of his alleged kidnaping last Saturday night. He repeated his account of being taken to Wichita, Kas., held captive there until Sunday night, and then being "given a chance" to flee as his alleged kidnapers fired at him.

Fauble also told authorities he had been in the power of a "gang" for some time. He said that under a threat of death he had been forced to purchase a typewriter upon which threatening letters sent to the business men were written.

Cult Priestess' Bond Is $70,000

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16. (P)—Mrs. May Otis Blackburn, high priestess of "the divine order" of the royal arm of the great eleven, was held in jail today in default of $70,000 bail for trial in superior court on twelve counts of grand theft brought by Clifford Dabney, wealthy oil operator and former member of the religious cult.

The cult came under fire of city and county authorities recently when Dabney filed charges that Mrs. Blackburn and her daughter mulcted him of nearly $40,000 for publication of "the sixth seal," a cult book under preparation, which they asserted would reveal all the secrets of nature, including the location of precious minerals.

Morons are highly valuable to society and compose the class that does the mass of the world's important work, says Clarence Darrow, in denouncing the movement to sterilize mental and moral defectives.

Two fine cakes and a new cake-making secret

If you have been in the habit of using only butter in your cakes, it may, at first, be a little hard to understand how Crisco can make cakes that you simply can't tell from butter cakes. But it's true!

One taste of Crisco just as it comes from the can will tell you why. Did you ever imagine a shortening could be so sweet and fresh?

Now, don't you understand why more and more fine cooks are using Crisco alone in all their cakes? Especially so when you discover how quickly and thoroughly Crisco blends with the other ingredients, giving you lighter, more tender cakes with a nice, even texture.

Date Cake

$\frac{1}{2}$  cup Crisco
1 $\frac{1}{2}$  cups brown sugar
4 eggs
 $\frac{3}{4}$  cup flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup milk
Cream Crisco and sugar together. Add

1 teaspoon cinnamon
 $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
1 $\frac{1}{2}$  cups dates
Blend and cut in small pieces.
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup milk
Cream Crisco and sugar together. Add

well-beaten eggs and mix well. Mix and sift flour, baking powder, cinnamon, nutmeg and salt and add alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Beat thoroughly. Add dates and mix well. Pour into a greased tube or loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) 35 to 40 minutes. Cool. This cake may be frosted, if desired.

Featherweight White Cake

$\frac{1}{4}$  cup Crisco
1 cup sugar
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup milk
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon vanilla

$\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 egg whites

ingredients. Fold in thoroughly stiffly beaten egg whites. Add vanilla. Turn batter into 2 greased layer cake pans. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.), 15 to 20 minutes. (To make it into a Lady Baltimore Cake, use a filling of dates, figs and nuts moistened with lemon juice, and ice with boiled icing.)

These recipes have been tested and approved by cooking authorities. You will get best results by using level measurements and the ingredients specified.

CRISCO is used in the Cooking School now being conducted by this paper

Mrs. Leona Ruth Irtig, in the News Cooking School, makes a point of modern methods in cooking. Naturally, then, she uses Crisco, the modern shortening. Not only is Crisco easy to use; in addition, it helps you secure better, surer results.

Crisco is the synthetic trademark of a shortening registered by The Procter & Gamble Co.

Nadir Kahn Is Crowned as Ruler

TARMEZ, Russian Turkestan, Oct. 16. (AP)—There was a new crowned head in Afghanistan today. Advice to this border city from Kabul indicated that Baha Sakao, "water boy of the north," who made himself king after Amanullah's abdication, had bowed to defeat and adversity.

The new ruler is Nadir Khan, former supporter of Amanullah and leader of victorious Afghan troops in their drive to recapture Kabul from the usurper, Baha Sakao. Nadir became Emir in a Kabul ceremony yesterday. Amanullah, living in exile at Rome, expressed a willingness to return to his old throne when he was informed of Nadir's capture of Kabul, but opined Nadir might want the throne himself. He offered, if denied the crown again, to serve Nadir as ambassador at Rome.

Alleged Victim of Attack Tells Jury of Incident—Trial Likely to Keep Court Busy Entire Week

The story of T. C. Johnson's alleged relation with a Hardeman county girl was told in court last night and this morning by her during five hours of direct examination by District Attorney Clifford Braly.

Trial of Johnson for a statutory offense began at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Naylor Pogue of Chillicothe took the witness chair and remained in it for three and one-half hours of direct and cross examination. Judge Newton P. Willis and Clayton Hearse, counsel for the defense, are scheduled to occupy most of this afternoon's session cross-examining the girl.

Fifty witnesses for state and defense were administered the oath at the beginning of the trial yesterday. The case is expected to continue all of this week.

A venire of 70 men was exhausted yesterday afternoon before the 12 jurors were finally chosen. To complete the dozen, nine of whom were selected by yesterday noon, the attorneys chose G. E. Castlebury, D. E. Cecil, and F. T. Hugel.

Since the beginning of the trial, the courthouse has been packed, with both men and women, all the window seats and standing room being taken. Most of the testimony was necessarily unprintable.

The court ruled this morning after an hour's argument among the lawyers that the girl's statement against Johnson made to Raymond Allred, county attorney of Wheeler county, cannot be introduced as testimony or inserted in the record by a defendant, basing his decision on the ground that the statement is the personal property of District Attorney Braly. In making up his bill of exceptions, Judge Willis called Braly, Alfred, and Miss Louise Miller, deputy clerk, to the chair. Only one copy of the statement was made, according to testimony.

Three Hundred Persons Present to See One-Act Play

"Squaring It With the Boss," the one-act play presented by the dramatic department of the Epworth league of the First Methodist church Tuesday evening caused a riot of laughter. More than three hundred persons demonstrated their approval of the teachers' efforts to entertain them.

The play dealt with the difficulties of a young couple trying to fool their boss about the existence of their offspring by borrowing a neighbor's boy, 9 years old, and dressing him up for a baby nine months old. If he hadn't talked so much they might have succeeded in fooling the old man, played by Walter Harlin.

Miss Beulah Lane and Earl Smith played the young married couple to perfection, even to the point of demonstrating an old fashioned family fuss. Miss Violet Schaffer as Aunt Hortense, and Evelyn Zimmerman as Aunt Clarissa kept the audience amused with the antics of their cats and parrots. Thomas Brabham, Jr., as the boy next door acted like a professional in his character.

The Rotary Ladies' quartet, Mesdames Brabham, Rose, Boyd, and Elliott, made a hit with their rendition of "The Eticcut Blues."

The wandering minstrel turned out to be Grady Morton, educational director of the First Methodist church. He appeared in a typical Spanish costume. His songs were received with demands for more. W. T. Jessey and his violin pleased the audience with the rendition of several popular songs.

Prejudicial Injunction Against Union Organization Drawing Fire

By RODNEY DUTCHER NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—A federal judge in Philadelphia who has ruled that union labor must not attempt to raise Philadelphia wage scales to the levels prevailing elsewhere probably has done more than anyone else to insure passage of a piece of the various anti-union legislation which has been languishing in Congress for a long time.
If the opinion of Judge William H. Kirkpatrick of the U. S. District court against the right of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers to organize workers in Philadelphia is upheld by higher courts it will apparently mean that labor unions can be prevented from functioning in non-union territory at any time and under almost any conditions.
All Organizing Barred
The Amalgamated, one of the strongest unions in the country went into Philadelphia to clean up sweat shop conditions and raise wages. It met with marked success. On Sept. 9, however, Judge Kirkpatrick issued an injunction sought by eight employers seeking to prevent further union organization work.
The union continued the winning of its campaign and now claims to have organized 80 per cent of the Philadelphia market, but there have been repercussions in Washington because of the injunction's sweeping nature, which

Legal Experts to Survey Crime

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Under the authority of President Hoover's law enforcement commission, two prominent legal experts will conduct a survey of alleged lawlessness among enforcing federal statutes.
Professor Zechariah Chafee of the Harvard law school and Walter N. Pollak of New York City, who served as a special assistant attorney general, have been delegated to take over this phase of its work.
The commission, holding a session at its headquarters here, withheld public information as to details of activities for which Chafee and Pollak were appointed, but its announcement was regarded as evidence of a decision to face this problem squarely and give it adequate consideration as an important part of its general task.
"Although the inquiry includes lawlessness in the enforcement of all federal statutes, it was believed they would devote most of their time to the field of the Volstead law. Activities of prohibition agents, the coast guard and border patrols are expected to undergo a careful scrutiny."

The Innocent Cheat

THIS HAS HAPPENED
HELEN PAID her unhappy when her fiancée accused her of being in love with her hand- some guardian, LEONARD BRENT. But he represents all that she knows of home and family and she cannot help but feel...
CHAPTER XV
"WHAT'D you hit?"
The traffic officer rapped out the question abruptly when he again reached Helen's car. "Any one hurt besides that girl?"
"No," Helen said faintly. "I ran up a bank and broke through a fence."
Helen fumbled in her bag and got out the slip of paper. The officer examined it and made a note of the number of the license plates on her car.
He asked a few more questions and Helen answered them as accurately as she could in her overwrought condition.
Suddenly, while he jotted down some answer she had given him, she burst out with an appeal to be allowed to go on to the hospital.
"Let's be takin' a trip to the station first," he replied curtly.
"But I want to do something for that girl!" Helen protested.
"Plenty of time for that," he told her and stepped on the running board. "Can you drive all right?"
Helen nodded and started the motor.
"It's only a few blocks," the officer said, softening a trifle over her courageous effort to face the music without whimpering.
Helen went through the next half an hour in a daze. Questions, questions. They worried her. Her mind was with the girl she had hurt. Where was she now? On the operating table? Dead?
"PLEASE," she begged at last, without answering the latest question put to her, "call up the hospital and find out how she is."
"We'll have to do that," the sergeant at the desk informed her, "before we can decide what to do about you. By your own admission, Miss Brent, you are guilty of reckless driving."
"Then please do it at once," Helen entreated.
A few minutes later she breathed more freely. Word had come back from the hospital that the injured girl was not fatally hurt.
"Let me go to see her," Helen pleaded.
This time she was not refused, though an officer was sent to accompany her lest she be unable to drive safely.
At the hospital they were admitted into a ward where the girl, whose name they were told was manded by Governor Dan Moody, Borger expected definite word today as to the date martial law would be lifted.

BORGER-

Two-thirds of the city commission were replaced yesterday by men approved by District Attorney Glen Calhoun when W. A. Henderson, hotel owner, was selected as mayor by the two remaining members of the old commission, and Dyke Cullum, automobile agent, was selected to replace Commissioner J. W. Crabtree, who resigned as soon as Henderson was elected.

Calhoun, who came here as Governor Moody's representative to investigate the assassination Sept. 15 of District Attorney John A. Holmes, and who stayed to assume Holmes' office, approved Henderson and Cullum only on the condition they promised not to seek reelection. Investigators have accused Henderson of having "entrenched criminal ring" was responsible for Borger's lawlessness with their demands that city and county officials resign; Calhoun's insistence that the new administration promise to leave office at the end of its term was regarded as a move to prevent the formation of another criminal ring.

Considering Chief

A number of officers still waited appointment of approved men to fill their posts. Three business men were nominated for the city commission to succeed J. E. Higgins, only member of the old commission not replaced. Calhoun announced Albert Mace, former state ranger and one-time sheriff of Lampasas, would visit town today, and consider an offer of the job as chief of police.

The county was slower in replacing members of the old regime who resigned. A successor to Sheriff Joe Ownbey was sought, and it was thought a state ranger would be selected. Ranger Sergeant J. B. Whetley has acted as sheriff since martial law was suspended.

At least two officers will retain their posts. General Jacob Wolters announced last night. Constable Reeves and Justice of the Peace Miller at the county seat, Slinnett, are to be restored to office.

COOKING-

Prizes donated by merchants of the city and national distributors were given away. Cook books furnished by courtesy of national distributors also were placed where these attending might choose from them. Mrs. Ihrig uses recipes from all of these books in the course of her work.

A special feature of today's lecture-demonstration was to be a display of the proper service for dinner. The service of silver, china, and linen was to be complete. The demonstration itself was to be concerned with preparation of the meal and the balancing of a dinner menu.

Parties to Be Done

Tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. Ihrig will talk on parties, a topic which will be of forenoon interest to hostesses in search of new ideas for entertaining. Friday, the closing day, will be given over to answering special requests and giving requested menus. Each lecture opens at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and closes at 5 o'clock. The school is free, with no obligation whatsoever to those attending. The Pampa Daily News joined by the group of local advertisers and national distributors whose cooperation made it possible to extend the service and courtesy to the women of the community, extends a cordial invitation to all those interested in improving their household arts.

A necessary room, occupying a space in the rear of the Pla-Mor auditorium, has been moved to a more convenient location, where babies and small children will be taken following the arrival of their mothers at the school.

No Theatricals Coming Out of McDonald Trip

TORONTO, Oct. 16. (AP)—A visit to the convention of the American federation of Labor in session here was the first engagement today for J. Ramsay MacDonald, British premier. With his daughter Isabel, he arrived here yesterday from Niagara Falls for a stay of one day on his way to Ottawa.

In an interview, Mr. MacDonald emphasized the point that no "theatrical announcements" should be expected as a result of his visit to the United States. His informal discussions with President Hoover he said had created a proper atmosphere in which to conduct future negotiations.

Thousands were gathered at the station to greet the man cheered the prime minister as he made his way from the train to a motorcade. Before boarding the train, the MacDonalds spent several hours viewing Niagara Falls from various vantage points and made a trip on the small steamer, Maid of the Mist. They also inspected a hydroelectric plant at the falls.

CAMPUS WAR IS RAGING HOTLY UP IN KANSAS

MANHATTAN, Kans., Oct. 16. (AP)—Campus warfare between the University of Kansas and the Kansas State Agricultural college, stirred up as a prelude to the annual football game between the two institutions next Saturday, reached a high pitch today with hapless prisoners of war undergoing hazing in both camps.

In raids last night 18 University of Kansas students from Lawrence were captured and placed in the cage here of Touchdown II, wildcat mascot of the Aggie football team. The wildcat was removed from the cage recently following an attempt by student raiders from Lawrence to capture it.

Reports from the enemy camp were that two Aggie students were being held in Lawrence. They were captured after seven automobile loads of Aggie men invaded the university campus and carried away four prisoners after dousing paint on a campus statue.

Leland Chapin, an Aggie student, was taken prisoner here Monday by students for the university. After shaving his head, the K. U. men sent him back to Manhattan on a passenger train, attired in a gingham dress and with K. U. painted on his back.

Kicking Skill Plentiful on Many Teams

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
Jake Wilson, Baylor university's great triple-threat, was almost in a class by himself in booting the ball for long rides through the Ozone last season, but it already is evident he has a paid of strong rivals for kicking honors in the Southwest conference this year. Both Brooks Conover of the Aggies and Welson Mason, Southern Methodist sophomore, are punting high and far. Their educated toes already have proved of immense value to their teams. In Saturday's game against the Kansas Aggies, Conover got off one spiral that travelled 76 yards. Mason is averaging well over 50 yards. It will be a dual to watch Mason vs. Conover, when the Mustangs and Aggies clash. And Wilson and Mason will compare spirals when the Ponies meet Baylor. Both are former Waco high school stars. Wilson has the advantage of being a splendid quick-kicker, while Mason and Conover require more or less room and leisure to get their off.

The conference appears overloaded with fine passers this year. Texas has a quartet of capable tossers in Meadows, Sheeley, Rees and Perkins. Any one of the four is likely to cut loose with a peg at any time. Baylor has a brilliant passer in Jake Wilson. Mills and Zarafonets of the Aggies are long, accurate chunkers. T. C. U. has a sterling man on the throwing end of its overhead, Howard Grubbs. Southern Methodist's two Sophomores, Gilbert and Mason, can pass with the best of them. Arkansas has a capable passer in Miller.

There was a time when almost every eleven in the conference would have a field-goal threat and employ it frequently in an effort to pull closely fought games out of the fire. It appears to have become something of a lost art the last two seasons. Either the boys do not spend long hours perfecting their drop kicks and placekicks from the 35 and 40-yard marks, or the coaches have discouraged the specialty and its three points in favor of the touchdown and its larger dividends. Only one field goal was kicked in all the games participated in by seven conference teams last season. Joe Potter, Baylor end, propelled Dexter Shelley of Texas tried one in the Arkansas game last week, but missed.

Texas Christian, Southern Methodist and Rice appear to have harvested the finest corps of first year grid-iron talent. Those three schools have enrolled more outstanding high school stars than the other four conference teams. The Horned Frogs, for instance, have 15 former high school captains of their Polywad squad. Rice has over 70 on its Freshman squad, many of them recognized stars in last year's state academic race. Among others, the Owls drew Seamon Squyres from Cleburne, greatest punter among the high schoolers. Southern Methodist has its greatest Freshman class in history. Games against Navy and Notre Dame next year proved powerful magnets. One of the Ponies' Freshmen mentors vouchsafed the opinion the other day that his boys could battle the varsity on even terms.

The Texas conference grid race will open with two games this weekend. Howard Payne and Austin college are scheduled to meet Friday at Brownwood. St. Edward's and Southwestern will tie up at Austin the same day. Simmons university has a non-conference bout with Daniel Baker Saturday at Brownwood. Trinity, sixth conference member, is idle for the week.

HE WEARS NO SMOCK!

Although now modeling for a studio, Mahon! Young, noted sculptor, is not a movie fan. He seldom goes to a show and he has seen but one talkie, that months ago. He prefers prize fights, and spends much of his leisure time sketching the trainers in a downtown arena. In their workouts the sparring partners and rope-skippers give him ever fresh lessons in rhythm, movement and stance, his sculptural obsessions.

Young works feverishly but leisurely, and yet in 10 weeks here he has completed 17 pieces. He has no professionally "arty" pose as he labors in old trousers and shirt (no smock!) and he applies his clay as carelessly, to all appearances, as though he were a grocer perfunctorily measuring out a dime's worth of beans.

The art is, where it belongs, in the finished piece.

Tulsa U. Will Play Goldbugs Next Saturday

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 16. (Special)—Crippled shortly after the first few plays, the University of Tulsa Golden Hurricane fought valiantly in the losing battle against the Detroit Titans last Friday night, dropping the decision 21 to 6. But Monday afternoon found Blackman, Pilkington and Grapes, all of whom were out of the Detroit play, going through their paces on Harwell field with the others, in preparation for the invasion of the Oklahoma City Goldbugs at McNulty park Saturday afternoon.

The Detroit game brought out several points worth knowing by followers of the Hurricane. In the first place, Benefiel, the Coffeyville, Kans. wonder, is having a great season. After evading the entire Phillips team two weeks ago to run 85 yards, he creened through the Detroiters for 65 yards and another score, in addition to passing and bucking the line for about 150 yards.

And two others points: Tulsa has two splendid ends in Cholman and Howard, in addition to a newcomer, Littrell from Maud, who stopped the highly-touted Brazil when he was injected into the game in Michigan. Then there is Captain Pearson, whose injuries are healing enough to allow him to play, probably this week. Finally the Tulsa line is proving surprisingly powerful, especially on defense. Prospective "Big Four" Champions will have to beat Tulsa.

By ALAN GOULD

Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Oct. 16. (AP)—Lew Fonseca, Cleveland first baseman and new batting champion of the American league is the most valuable player of the league for 1929, based upon the decision of a committee of baseball writers representing each city in the circuit.

At the request of the sports editor of the Associated Press, this committee named by the baseball writers covering the world's series, cast its ballot in the absence of an official selection by the American league, which abolished this year the award it had made annually since 1922. The National league makes its last official selection this year, to be announced later.

The veteran Fonseca won the unofficial contest from contenders in the ranks of the world's champion Athletics because he was rated high on seven of the eight lists prepared by the baseball experts.

Jimmy Dykes, whose all-around infield play was a vital factor in the success of the A's, was the favorite among the Mackmen and finished second in the vote. Al Simmons, Jimmy Foxx and Mickey Cochrane also figured high causing "split ballots" that kept any one of the champions from heading off Fonseca.

Fonseca, although receiving only one vote for first place, had three votes for second place, two for third and one for fourth to make up his total of 46 points.

'EVERYBODY HITS!'—SO HE DID

The roar of the Athletics' big sticks pounding on horsehide had begun to echo through the stadium when this picture was taken in that history-making seventh inning of the fourth World Series game at Shibe Park, Philadelphia. Second Baseman Bishop is shown above as he contributed his bit to Philadelphia's mad clout carnival—a sharp single through the pitcher's box that scored Dykes for the fourth of the ten Philadelphia runs in that inning which downed the Chicago Cubs, 10 to 8.

Claude Eleven as Heavy as Locals And Gaining Power Says Borgerite

No less an authority than Borger high school's coach has let it be known that Claude's eleven may furnish the stiff opposition here Friday that the Harvesters have been desiring.

He says that Borger's victory over the Claude entry was largely of the fluke variety, in the sense that the breaks of the game went to the Hutchinson county boys. He opines that the Claude gridders, at least as heavy as Pampa's lads, may have improved enough in the last two weeks to put up a battle.

On the strength of this information, Coach Mitchell is telling the Harvesters that overconfidence on their part might be embarrassing, on even disastrous.

The second string Gorillas have matched a game with Canadian, which will be played there October 25.

Wrigley Will Add Strength to Cubs Next Year

CHICAGO, Oct. 16. (AP)—William Wrigley, Jr., owner of the Cubs, promises some interesting news items for the hot stove league this winter.

Back home from Philadelphia where his Bruins absorbed their final world series knock out punches, Wrigley is planning for 1930. He is after one or two established pitching stars and a third baseman who can hit as well as field.

Daddy Vance, speed ball king from Brooklyn, is reported to be one hurler Wrigley is desirous of buying, while third baseman Whitney of the Philadelphia Nationals also is linked in rumors in Cub circles.

Wrigley, who refused to discuss the Rogers Hornsby deal last winter until it was sealed, admits a move is on to strengthen the Cubs for another National league pennant dash in 1930 and another try for a world's title.

"We'll be back next year stronger than ever and maybe we'll have some breaks, too," he said.

The Cub team, which received a rousing homecoming reception yesterday, was scattered today.

A judge in Iowa recommended that four women, who had been engaged in a feud, be spanked.

A worker on the Pratt Municipal Building fell 25 feet to a cement floor below. He got up and went back on the job again. He had a rabbit's foot in his pocket.

ELEVENS HOPE FOR REVENGE ON SATURDAY

By HERBERT W. BARKER

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Oct. 16. (AP)—A half dozen eastern college football teams feel they've improved enough since last year to turn the tables Saturday on rivals who finished on the long end of the score in 1928.

In this list might be found such elevens as Harvard, Cornell, Columbia, Washington and Jefferson, Western Maryland and Brown.

Harvard lost to Army last year, 15-0, but has high hopes this year of stopping Cagle, chief army threat. Brown, which uncovered a great passing attack to nose out Princeton last week, takes on another "Big Three" team in Yale, and may avenge the 32-14 defeat of last season. Yale's offensive worked well enough against Vermont, but got no where against Georgia.

Columbia trailed Dartmouth by two touchdowns in 1928 but feels its turn is about here. Whereas Dartmouth has an Al Marsters, Columbia points with pride to Ralph Hewitt.

Cornell, after some years of football despondency, is looking up and may hand Bill Roper's Princeton Tigers a beating to match the 3-0 reverse it suffered at Princeton last season.

Washington and Jefferson may jolt a Carnegie Tech team that does not look quite so strong as the one that turned back the Presidents, 19-0, last fall.

Western Maryland dropped a 7-0 decision to Temple last season and although both teams are undefeated this season, the Maryland conquerors of Georgetown seem to hold the edge.

Pitt and Nebraska battled all through their game last season without a score but Pitt hopes to break the spell Saturday at Lincoln. LaFayette and Bucknell also played to a scoreless tie and may do so again.

Navy holds a big edge on Duke;

West Virginia should conquer Washington and Lee, although the score probably will be closer than the 22-0 of last year; Georgetown should experience no more trouble with West Virginia Wesleyan than it did last year.

Four leading eastern colleges meet opponents they did not face in 1928. Pennsylvania tangles with California at Philadelphia; Boston college meets Dayton in Ohio; Colgate goes still further west to try conclusions with Indiana at Bloomington, and Penn State and New York university put on their show at the Yankee stadium.

In Weymouth, N. J., a colony of old settlers only pay 10 cents a month for rent for their houses.

Strand D. Abrogast, 45, of Indianapolis, expected too much from lottery. He met his wife, Lucy, through a matrimonial agency and was recently refused a divorce.

By HERBERT PLUMMER
WASHINGTON—Things British are the main topics of conversation in Washington at the present because of the Ramsay MacDonald visit.

Out from the shelf of forgotten stories has been brought one centering around Speaker Nick Longworth and a visiting British journalist—one that does credit to that popular raconteur and so much like him that it rings true.

It seems that the journalist desired an "audience" with Speaker Nick. He had planned to remain in Washington only a week, but said that he would remain over if Longworth would "receive" him.

A Washington correspondent was found who agreed to arrange it for him.

"Come on up to the capitol and let's see what we can do," said the newspaperman.

NONFLUSSED

Arriving at the Speaker's room the Washington newspaperman walked in unannounced with his guest. Longworth was lounging in an easy smoking chair.

"This is Mr. Blank," he said "He wants an interview. How about it?"

"Shoot," replied the Speaker. Rather nonplussed, the Londoner paused long enough to get his second wind and proceed to extract an excellent interview. Things went splendidly until he propounded one particular question—the answer to which he is still pondering.

"I have read in the reports of congress," he said, "that quite often the house indulges in 'general debate.' I think we have no such thing in our house of commons. What is 'general debate,' Mr. Speaker?"

"General debate," in our house," replied Longworth, "is the occasion upon which the sweet singer sings his songs."

"Sweet singer, Mr. Speaker? Sweet singer. What is a sweet singer?"

"A sweet singer—well—I'll tell you. He is a good deal like the water that goes over the dam—make a racket of a racket, but has nothing to do with the grinding of the grist."

THE QUERY
And Premier MacDonald's visit also recalls the time when a few years before the world war, Josiah Wedgwood, maker of pottery and "radical" member of parliament visited Washington.

He was entertained at luncheon by a group of Americans who were crusading for political reforms then deemed visionary and far ahead of their day.

Gifford Pinchot was in the party. The then unheard of Newton Baker, mayor of Cleveland was another.

The conversation, naturally, ran to politics, English and American. The Britisher asked many questions about the liberal movement in the United States.

Suddenly he queried his listeners: "What are the qualifications, under your constitution, for membership in the United States senate?"

"That you shall be 25 years old and a resident of the state from which you are elected," replies Louis Bdownlow, who was also present.

The visitor looked thoughtful. "Then if that is all," he asked, "how can you be certain that your upper house will be the representatives of property?"

THE CLOCK DANCE

By Mary Graham Bonner

The Indian chief was painting his face with all sorts of bright colors. He was adding more feathers to his costume. The feathered head dress he wore hung way down his back.

The squaw was painting dots of red and yellow over her face and the children were painting their faces too.

Now they began painting the faces of John and Peggy! This was certainly wonderful.

Only the little black clock did not have its face painted.

The little clock was to be honored by the dance.

"Oh, small, but wonderful clock," said the chief, "you have accepted the magic offered to you. No longer do you have to tell the ordinary time. You can turn to any time you wish."

"It is to you, small but wonderful clock, we are going to do honor with a dance specially for you."

And now they all rushed out of the tepee. John and Peggy did not know what part they were to take in the dance, but as the Indians started beating a drum it made everyone want to leap and jump.

The little black clock took a place not far from the tepee, where he sat.

Other Indians joined them, and all about the little magic clock they danced.

"Ah-eh-eh-eh-heeh," they sang.

The drum was being beaten more and more quickly.

They jumped, they hopped, they took great steps and then little steps. And all the time the drum was being beaten with more force, then more softly.

"Ah-eh-eh-eh-heeh," they sang.

time! Clock of all the years! Clock of good luck!" cried the chief.

The clock was bowing low now. John and Peggy were bowing low. The Indians were saying goodbye to them. The dance was over, but they had been invited to come back again the next day.

The chief ordered horses to be brought—horses with handsome saddles, and decorated, too.

But the little black clock said one horse would do. So the clock and Peggy and John rode off along the prairie while the Indians sang a song.

SPORT SLANTS

—Alan J. Gould—

The ring has known a flock of queer happenings but two of Jack Sharkey's knockouts, with Jack Delaney and Tommy Loughran as the victims, ranks among the most unusual.

It was extraordinary that in each case a light heavyweight champion was the victim of the Boston sailor, who himself has yet to clinch his claim to any title, however high he may rank now on the heavyweight list.

The one-round knockout of Delaney at Madison Square Garden was an unpleasant aftermath, with quite a few of the experts convinced that Delaney "led with his chin." Nevertheless, for the few moments that the bout lasted, Sharkey handed Delaney plenty.

These clever light heavyweights apparently do something to arouse the fighting blood of Sharkey, for in knocking out Loughran in three rounds he bowled over an even smarter boxer than Delaney, perhaps the smartest in the ring, with a blow that landed on the chin or Tommy's temple or between the eyes, according to what side of the ring the expert was on.

The effect was even more startling as Loughran arose a count of five, walked gingerly along the ropes, his back toward Sharkey, until he reached a neutral corner, looking for all the world as if he was about to deliver a speech explaining to the customers that the unpleasantness was just temporary and that everything soon would be all right.

"I have known stranger knockouts than that of Loughran," Jimmy Bronson, who handled Gene Tunney in both his fights with Dempsey, told me afterwards. "I had a boxer in a semi-final once who was knocked out in a round. We went over to a club after the fight and after a little conversation, this boxer turned to me, looking at his watch and said: 'Jimmy, we had better gettin' over to the arena. It's time for that fight I got tonight.' He had been knocked out and didn't remember it."

"I recall another fight in which Alley Johnny Leonard, one of my boys, was knocked flat by Carl Duane in the first round. He was in his back, out cold, but in some manner his senses were partly restored by the impact of the knockdown timekeeper's mallet with the ring floor.

"Still in a daze, he rolled over, barely staggered to his feet at the count of nine and then tore into Duane. When he came to the corner, he looked at me and said: 'I'm all right, Jimmy.'"

HOME FUN

Night club buffoons, like Jackson, Clayton and Durante, those mad Cymnics, are the favorite tw etaino etad rano, or Bert Lehr, the mugging mimic are the favorite type of entertainers for private parties, says Eleanor Cotton Burden and Anita Damrosch Littell.

Mrs. Budren of the social leading Burdens, and Mrs. Littell, daughter of Walter Damrosch, are in charge of a new entertainment bureau sponsored by the New York Junior League to furnish worried hostesses with yawn-dispelling talent.

There are of course, some people who prefer the more artistic entertainers and for these Mme. Jeritta and others or grand opera or the concert stage are available at prices ranging up to $4,500 an evening. It is said that Jascha Heifetz fiddled for Clarence Mackay at a party about two years, although he doesn't make a practice of private playing.

APARTMENT INFLUENCE

In the grand days of the Astors, parties were bigger and more splendid, but less frequent. Hence they often became the talk of the town.

Nowadays as much money is spent, or more. One ball last season cost $10,000. But little is heard about opulence.

Apartment life and decline of the art of conversation are held responsible. Restaurants and hotel ball-rooms are hired for the more elaborate functions, but at home the guests haven't room to dance, so they have to be entertained in some other manner. And as every hostess wants something new or somebody different, providing entertainers has become a large endeavor.

Children's parties, too, have changed. In former times the little masters and misses could play games. But there isn't room in their present homes. For that reason, clowns and magicians are hired to keep the kiddies happy.

ART AND COMMERCE

The concert season is getting under way and the piano companies are lending instruments to the artists.

Forty years ago the piano manufacturers were among the chief patrons of music in America. They introduced to the United States such noted Europeans as Rubenstein and Adolina Patli and one firm has spent much on Paderewski.

The artists were paid a stipulated sum above expenses and were managed by the manufacturers, who collected whatever receipts the concerts brought in.

The old practices were abandoned about 20 years ago as independent managers took the artists under their direction. Some piano companies still guarantee expenses to the more prominent musicians, but for the most part they merely supply the instruments.

The phonograph companies also help lighten the concert tour expenses, one manager said, by contributing printed matter, programs, window cards and such.

The appointment of W. M. Fox of Pampa as agent in that place was announced here today by the Southland Life Insurance company. Fox will represent the company in Pampa and immediate surrounding territory.

It takes, to be more explicit, the man who does simply killing things

Talks To Parents

HAPPY MEALS
By Alice Judson Peale

Hunger is one thing, appetite is quite another. The average child in the well regulated home seldom has opportunity to learn what real hunger is, although as a rule he comes to table with a good appetite.

Appetite is a subtle thing. It is easily aroused or dispelled by psychological factors. The smell of new bread baking in the oven may arouse someone who has eaten well an hour before to develop suddenly an appetite for the bread which smells so deliciously and brings up delightful memories of past feasts. On the other hand, a distressing occurrence may take away one's appetite, and if a meal is eaten at such a time it brings on nervous indigestion.

It is, of course, not the food which is eaten but that which is digested and assimilated by the body which determines whether or not a child is being properly nourished.

Children age on the whole more emotional than adults. They are for more easily brought to extreme states of feeling. For this reason it is important that the circumstances under which they take their meals should be pleasant.

If your child is not eating well it may be that the situation in which he finds himself just before or during the meal hour is such that it takes away his appetite.
