TOP O' TEXAS FIESTA TO OPEN TOMORROW

RODEO QUEEN TO BE NAMED FRIDAY NIGHT

Beautiful girls of the Top O' Texas area will have their place on fiesta programs Thursday and Friday. From entries of towns outside Pampa will be selected the queen of the rodeo, and she will be crowned at 8:45 p. m. Friday at the rodeo at Recreation park.

Among those entered in the contest up to noon yesterday were Mabel Grogan of McLean, Mary Kathryn Sims of Mobeetle, Sidney Yokley and Maxine Ownes of Canadian. Pampa girls will act as hostesses to contestants.

In the case of the Canadian entries, Miss Owens will appear in the parade, Miss Yokley at the rodeo, where selection of the queen will be made by three out-of-town judges. Clarendon's entry was being chosen Tuesday in a contest at the Donley county capital, a telephone message Tuesday from J. B. Gillham, Clarendon chamber of commerce secretary, informed Garnet Reeves, Pampa BCD manager. Mr. Gillham also notified Mr. Reeves that Clarendon's band would participate in the Top O' Texas Fiesta.

Contestants are to meet at the La Nora theater between 8 and 9 o'clock Thursday to receive instructions from Joe Burrow, chairman of the rodeo queen committee. The girls have been invited to be in the parades Thursday afternoon. They are to be at the rodeo where they will be honored guests, will as a group occupy box seats, and will ride horses in the rodeo parade which opens the rodeo. They will also be honored guests Thursday night.

Friday afternoon at the rodeo, the contestants will ride before judges, who will then make selection of the queen. Announcement of the winner and coronation will occur Friday night.

Entrants have been invited to have a part in the parades and have been asked to wear suitable riding costumes for appearances at the rodeo, summer print dress for the parades.

APPEALS COURT JUDGES TO BE HONORED HERE

Members of the state court of civil appeals at Amarillo will be honored in Pampa Friday night at a banquet to be attended by lawyers from over the entire Panhandle.

Attorneys John Sturgeon, John Osborne and Clifford Braly are members of a committee appointed to arrange for the program in honor of Chief Justice M. J. Jackson of Amarillo, and the recently appointed members of the state court, A. J. Foley, of Floydada, and W. N. Stokes, of Vernon.

The Hon. H. L. Atkins, of Amarillo, will be the principal speaker at the banquet which is expected to be attended by between 200 and 250 lawyers from various Panhandle cities and towns.

The banquet will be held at 8:15 p. m. Friday in the Hotel Schneider. Entertainment will be supplied by the Pampa Lions club quartet composed of A. E. Hickman, Dude Balthorpe, Bob Rose, and Jack Dunn.

AMARILLO BOYS ENTER MARBLE TOURNAMENT

Two additional entries were made in the marble tournament of the Top O' Texas fiesta Tuesday. The total number of entries now represents 18 schools. Entries Tuesday were the champion and the runnerup of Wilson school, Amarillo, A. D. McGregor and Jack McGee.

MANY SEEK TO FIND AIRLINER ON PEAK

ALPINE, Utah, June 2 (AP)—A "gold rush" of tragic origin—the race for a $1,000 reward for the finder of a long-missing plane and seven occupants—developed today along the forbidding slopes of 11,000-foot Lone peak.

Flooding Creek Traps Train In Dalhart Area

DALHART, June 2 (AP)—Hard rains east and west of here threatened additional harm today to the Texas Panhandle's northwestern section, where an estimated $100,000 damage has been done by flooded creeks and rivers.

Still marooned, with no expressed hopes of immediate rescue, were 36 passengers on a passenger train, clutched by the unruly Rita Blanca creek in the sparsely settled country between here and Texline on the New Mexico border.

The Rita Blanca, normally bearing but a tiny burden, flooded at record heights after an eight-inch deluge at Mount Dora, N. M., 70 miles northwest of here.

Thirty miles southeast, a fall of 1.75 inches was reported at Channing by A. J. Denman, who said the Rita Blanca was at an all-time peak and that the Canadian river was within four inches of a 30 year mark.

Repair crews Work These facts, combined with reports of a half-inch rain from Liberal, Kas., 111 miles east, to Santa Rosa, N. M., 155 miles west, augured further damage to highways, railroads, farms and ranches and livestock.

Repair crews worked feverishly on bridges. Division Superintendent J. W. Mode of the Amarillo-Port Worth and Denver lines, said he could make no estimate when the passenger train, trapped by the creek since Monday night, might be released.

W. J. Van London, Amarillo division highway engineer, hoped to aid in transporting the passengers by automobile to Clayton, N. M., where they could proceed by rail.

That, however, also depended upon the whim of the creek. A rise would prevent the rescue.

Supplies Obtained Supplies from nearby farms were requisitioned to supply the marooned passengers with food and drink. The train was stalled between two bridges disabled by the suddenly rising, usually dry Rita Blanca. Only the rails and ties were left in position over one of the bridges.

Residents awaited a rise on the Punta De Agua stream on hearing reports torrential rains were falling around Clayton, N. M., near which the creek has its head.

In the San Angelo section the North Concho river bore the burden of a six inch rain which fell in three hours yesterday. The heaviest fall came at Water Valley and the river surged from its banks at Carlsbad, 16 miles from San Angelo. Damage was not estimated.

Power and communication lines were crippled in a section of the county. In the Dalhart region flood damage included the washing out of an earthen dam but no great danger was envisioned since the waters roared toward a thinly settled section.

Texas highway department and railway workers rushed repairs to bridges. On highway 54, paralleling the railroad, approaches to bridges went out, halting all traffic. The railroad bridges, eight and 33 miles from here, suffered about $25,000 damage, J. W. Mode, Amarillo official of the Fort Worth and Denver line, estimated.

LABOR PARSON WILL PERFORM NUPTIAL RITES

By MELVIN K. WHITELEATHER. MONTS France, June 2 (AP)—A fighting North England parson, braving the opposition of the Church of England, will give the Duke of Windsor and Wallis Warfield his religious blessing at his wedding tomorrow.

The middle-aged, "labor" preacher, the Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, vicar of St. Paul's church, Darlington, Eng., will perform the religious ceremony after the civil service is read in the Chateau de Candie music room by Mayor Charles Mercier of Monts.

It came about this way: Edward was called to the telephone last night, after all hope for the desired religious consecration of his marriage had been given up.

An unfamiliar voice said firmly: "I am coming down to marry you."

It was the small town vicar, the Rev. Jardine, known for his work among the laboring class.

The preacher gave his former monarch no opportunity to protest. "I am coming," he insisted.

Today he taxied to Candie and bowed to the duke.

"I prefer to die rather than see my king married outside the church," proclaimed the Rev. Jardine.

Burglar Takes $24 From Shirt

Pampa's "cat-footed" burglar swung into action again last night but in a different section of the city from where he operated several weeks ago. Last night he entered the home of O. L. "Pete" Qualls, 435 N. Starkweather street, and stole $24 in cash.

The burglary took place during the rain. Officers found tracks in front of the house which showed that they had been made after the rain started. Mud was on the front porch but none was found in the house which led officers to believe that the man moved his shoes. He entered through the front door which had been left unlocked.

The money was removed from a folding check book in Mr. Qualls' shirt pocket. The shirt was on a chair close to the bed where Mr. Qualls slept. Other members of the family were out of the city. After removing the money, the burglar folded the check book and placed it back in the shirt pocket.

A few weeks ago several homes on North West street were entered.

LAKE AT PARK FILLS RAPIDLY THIS MORNING

Continued rains have filled many lakes and draws in the Panhandle, and this morning after a hard downpour the city lake was filling up at the rate of 5,000 gallons a minute.

Another nine-tenths inch of rain was added early this morning to the already generous precipitation of the last ten days in the Pampa area.

Clear skies were replaced with rain clouds shortly after midnight and by 2 a. m. today a heavy downpour was falling generally over this section of the Top O' Texas.

Shamrock received 34 inch and good rains also were reported at Borger, McLean, Canadian, Groom, Panhandle and the El Dorado area.

Top O' Texas Fiesta officials today were hoping for a cessation of rain until after the fiesta which opens in Pampa tomorrow morning for a two-day run.

The official weather forecaster said nothing of rain in his prediction today, promising only that it would be warmer in this area tonight and tomorrow.

Today's rainfall boosted Pampa's total precipitation since Jan 1 to 7.5 inches. Of this amount 4.01 inches fell during May.

FOOD PLANE CRASHES

WARREN, Ohio, June 2 (AP)—A plane carrying food to workers in the strike-closed plant of the Republic Steel Corporation here crashed into a line of box steel cars in landing inside the plant enclosure today, but the pilot was not injured.

Frank Flynn, manager of the plant, said Flynn did not identify the pilot and the extent of the damage to the plane could not be learned.

Steel Company Defies Pickets With Munitions

He said 21,061 of 50,081 Republic employees still were working in face of heavy picket lines at units in Chicago, Buffalo, Canton, Warren and Niles, Ohio.

Statements Closer Western and eastern sectors of the widespread strike front were reportedly promising quiet a bit although Chicago had 1,000 policemen ready for any recurrence of Sunday's bloody rioting which cost six lives.

"The mob consisted overwhelmingly of imported pickets and out-of-state agitators and communists," Republic declared in a statement. Leaders of John L. Lewis' Steel Workers Organizing committee went into a period of verbal combat after Lewis' declaration that Republic and the police were "guilty of planned murder."

Tons of food, White claimed, were being landed at the Warren plant by plane despite reported sniping by gunfire. He added that company officials were having great

HUGE CROWDS EXPECTED AT MANY EVENTS

RODEO, RIDES, DANCES PARADES HOLD SPOTLIGHT

With streets and buildings decorated, tickets being put on sale this afternoon, last of the loads of rodeo stock arriving today at Recreation park, committees to-day were checking final details to see that all is in readiness for the opening of the Top O' Texas Fiesta tomorrow.

Recent rains will not hamper the arena for the rodeo, General Chairman W. B. Weathered believes. Mr. Weathered said that rodeo grounds were well drained and that he did not anticipate any difficulty on that account.

Roping calves, the last load of the rodeo stock, was due to arrive today. Horses and dogging steers have already been received. Floodlights at Recreation park will be focused tonight. There are 14 lights mounted on four poles. The arena has been dragged and enclosed.

Riding Devices Set Up The Broadbeck Amusement Company of Kingsley, Kas., arrived in Pampa last night and have set up their merry-go-round, loop-plans, ferris wheel, and other riding devices on a location south of the entrance gate of Recreation park. The show will be open tonight and during the Fiesta.

Chief Baldwin Parker and his group of Indians arrived in Pampa at 11 o'clock last night. They are scheduled to be introduced at 10:45 p. m. tonight at the oldtimers dance in the high school gymnasium.

Rodeo tickets were to go on sale this afternoon. The following officers: Father Joe, Harvester, Creney, Perkins, and Wilson, with box seat tickets available at Pampa Drug.

General admission tickets will sell at 75 cents for adults, 25 cents for children. General admission tickets are good for any seat in the grandstand, first come, first served. General Chairman Weathered said.

Box seats may be obtained at an additional charge of 25 cents per performance, or 75 cents for all performances of the rodeo. A block of 200 seats in price reserved. These are located in front of the grandstand.

Cup For Marchers

Tickets to the oil men's dance and to the Top O' Texas Fiesta ball sell at $1.10 a couple for each ticket. The dance ticket price includes the tax. Chick Hickman is chairman of the committee making the arrangements for these dances. Tickets to the oldtimers dances will sell at 40 cents. Allen Hodges is chairman of the pioneers roundup committee. The fiesta ticket committee is headed by R. R. Watson.

A cup will be awarded for the best marching of a ward school band in the parades during the celebration and another cup will be given the best out-of-town band. Visiting bands will be given a feed at the Lamar school building following the parade tomorrow.

LEGION TO MAKE FINAL FIESTA PLANS TONIGHT

Final plans for the American Legion post's participation in the Top O' Texas Fiesta and the parade will be made tonight at 8 o'clock at a meeting at the Legion hut where a Dutch lunch with "plenty of Dutch" will be served to members.

Final plans for holding the finals of the marble tournament which the Legion is sponsoring will be made and Paul Hill, chairman, asked all of his committeemen to be present. The American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, as color bearers, will lead the parade tomorrow and the next day.

The marble tournament finals will be held at the fairground in front of the grandstand tomorrow and Friday. Play will take place in five rings. Prizes will be free trips to the Pan American exposition for the champion and runner-up.

I Saw . . .

Chief Baldwin Parker, son of Quannah Parker and grandson of Cynthia Ann Parker, and his entourage this morning. The chief who still wears his hair in two braids, and his son played pool at the American Legion hut where the Indians are staying until midnight last night. The chief keeps scrapbooks of his clippings and has two he says are worth $100 each. In his shirt pocket were a fountain pen, a pencil, a pair of reading glasses. This corner and sight of his "mob" will be personal attendants to the Indians while they are in Pampa. . . . First thing the Chief did today was get a quarter of beef to make "jerred" beef out of.

MISS PICKENS AND MR. MIXSON MARRY AT BRIDE'S HOME

CANDLES LIGHT LOVELY SCENE FOR CEREMONY

Friends of Several Cities Attend Wedding

A wedding read by candlelight at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max B. Pickens, near White Deer, united Miss Allene Max Pickens and Wendell H. Mixson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mixson of Waco, last evening.

Fern and tamarack covered the fireplace, where an altar was formed. Six white candles and a bouquet of roses, snapdragon and daisies stood on either side of the large mirror. Bouquets on the piano and in other parts of the house were of pink carnations and roses.

New Member Is Initiated Into Rainbow Order

Initiation of Mildred Martin to membership in the Order of Rainbow for Girls featured the meeting last evening in Masonic hall. Refreshments were served after a business meeting.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. W. Hogue, Mrs. E. R. Sunkel, and Mrs. Katie Vincent.

Members present were Hazel Bath, Freda Dowell, Dorothy Burton, Charlotte Malone, Helen Shella-barger, Naomi Sunkel, Mary Adams, Elaine Murphy, Pauline Hogue, Dorothy Jo Moore, Pauline Leverett, Lois Foster, Frances Coffey, Loraine Murphy, and Mattie Brown.

Small Girls in Party

Mrs. Carmen White of Waco, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. Max Helen Pickens, Charmin Mae and Sula Mae Stovall, flower girls, preceded the bride who entered with her father. Her gown was of white satin made on princess lines with a fitted jacket which had full sleeves and a roll collar embroidered with seed pearls. The veil was held to her head with a Juliet cap hung in tiers, flaring at the bottom to cover the train of her dress. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Quarterly Class Election Is Held

Mrs. W. B. Holder was elected president of the Althean class to serve the next four months when officers were named at a luncheon in First Baptist church yesterday.

Mrs. M. A. Jett is to be first vice president. Mrs. R. L. Young, chairman of class ministries, Mrs. Charles Miller, chairman of stewardship, Mrs. L. L. Allen, secretary and Mrs. Edie Gray, reporter.

Group captains named for the period were Mmes. C. W. Windom, W. N. Shaid, Max Robinson, and H. L. Simpson.

OES Banquet Is To Be Postponed

A banquet planned to honor Mrs. Madge Murphy, retiring worthy matron of the Eastern Star chapter, has been postponed because of Mrs. Murphy's illness. It was announced today.

A large number of members have already made reservations for the dinner. A later date for the banquet will be set soon.

Supper For Attendants

The wedding party and a group of out-of-town guests had been served an informal buffet supper before the wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lawson.

Mr. and Mrs. Mixson left immediately after the reception on a trip that will take them to their home at Canajoharie, N. Y. The bride's traveling suit was of beige wool with fox fur collar worn with lace blouse and British tan accessories.

Miss Pickens Attended School at White Deer

Miss Pickens attended school at White Deer high school and then from Baylor university, Waco. She has taught the past two years at Grandview school, Gray county and is well known in that area.

Mr. Mixson was graduated with

Summerize YOUR CAR

REMEMBER that the light motor and gear oils you used for quick winter starting are not made to stand the blistering heat of Southwestern summers. Anti-freeze should be drained and your radiator cleaned. A Magnolia Summerize job includes all these important points, plus a thorough inspection of your battery, tires, lights and other services you may need to prepare your car for safe, economical summer driving. Stop at the sign of the "Flying Red Horse."

INVITING A NATIONWIDE PICNIC WITH DEATH

It takes, as somebody once remarked, all kinds of people to make a world. And since our world is infinitely various, it follows that we have some queer fish masquerading as adult human beings.

Here is a little news story that got on the wires from Galena, Mo., a few days ago:

"The carnival spirit of a rural hanging to-night drew hundreds of persons to the death watch over Roscoe (Red) Jackson, 33, confessed slayer, who will be executed at 6 a. m. tomorrow.

"The lawn of the Stone county courthouse was sprinkled with groups of women who chattered as if at a picnic. Small boys ran across the board gallows platform and into the jail to peep at the condemned man."

It would be easy enough to dance around those two paragraphs briefly, conclude that the people of Stone county Missouri, are somehow more calloused and heartless than all the rest of us, and then go on to something else. The only trouble is that it wouldn't be true.

For this sort of thing has happened before, in other places than Missouri, and it will happen again. It is not unusual, for modern America. And it provides a good insight into the odd moral atmosphere of a land which can't seem to understand why it has such a crime problem.

The thing that hits you in the eye, about that carnival crowd that stayed up all night to enjoy a good hanging, is that it has no conception whatever of the sacredness of human life.

Inside that jail there was a man who was living through his last hours on earth; a man whom society, for good and sufficient reasons, was about to put out of existence. No one with any sensitivity to the infinite mystery of life and death can even think of a man in that situation without feeling sobered and humble.

And when people can make a picnic out of such a thing, the only possible conclusion is that they lack that saving sensitivity. They simply cannot understand that any life, even a bad one, is a part of the same tremendous riddle that underlies their own lives. Unless death strikes close to them they remain unmoved by it.

Now a country which can muster such picknicking crowds is a country in which life is considered cheap. And such a country, because it has that attitude, is just naturally going to have a high homicide rate, with shootings and stabbings and mob violence enough to make the angels weep. How can it have anything else, if it has no inkling of the sacredness of life?

Of course, not all of us go to hangings. But most of us do it by proxy. We insist that our newspapers describe executions in grim detail, sparing us nothing. We feast our morbid curiosity on stories of the death house, the "last mile," the grim paraphernalia and routine of death. And we do it for the same reason that that Missouri mob flocked about the scaffold.

As long as we have that attitude we have no right to wonder at the appalling commonness of homicide in our country.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—This man Wallace of agriculture, with the shy, cornfield grin, is foxy.

He has been talking for a long time about his "Joseph Plan" of crop insurance, to be coupled with crop control and soil conservation legislation in a new agricultural program. But his special baby, the crop insurance plan, is not to the liking of all farmers. They have felt he was perhaps slipping a fast one over on them by which they would be compelled ultimately to pay their own crop control bills instead of taking it from the treasury. Congress has known the farmers' position all along.

But what was the surprise of congress recently to find the whole program boiled into one bill by the farmers themselves? The American Farm Bureau federation had put the thing together, the public was told, and the department of agriculture professed to have a hands-off attitude, although being willing to go along.

Wallace and H. R. Tolley, AAA administrator, kissed the thing off as in the hands of the farmers and pointed to Edward A. O'Neal, farm bureau president, as the source of all information about it.

It was a neat trick, but there had been a slip. A day or so before a White House conference farm bureau leaders came to Washington and spent several hours listening to Wallace and Tolley explaining the contents of the legislative draft of the bill, just then being put together.

But farmers talk loud and reporters waiting outside to get a report heard everything.

Wallace and Tolley did the explaining. The farm bureau men who later would take credit were doing all the listening. When the conference broke up, Wallace and Tolley shifted roles and let the farmers do the talking.

Best information is that the bill was drawn

TEX'S TOPICS

On this Fiesta eve, as on Christmas Eve, we shall hang up our sock and ask whoever it is that bats for Santa Claus in June, to fill it with sunshine and balmy breezes for Thursday and Friday, fiesta time at the Top O' Texas.

A great throng, we understand, is expected at the pre-Fiesta dance to be held tonight in the High school gymnasium, and Chairman Allen Hodges has prepared a bang-up program for the old timers all the way through the two big days of celebration.

Somewhere between 30,000 and 50,000 persons are expected to throng downtown Pampa and the rodeo grounds at Fairgrounds park within the next two days, we are told. . . . The Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce members have been hard at stint to make a success of the Fiesta and there is nothing that hasn't been done to make the trip of visitors to Pampa tomorrow and Friday an enjoyable one. . . . Among the throngs in the streets you probably will find roaming aimlessly around, one, Bob Castle, KFDN radio announcer, who is so thick-headed he thinks you have to be a dog-catcher to enter the bull-dogging contests.

It was Longfellow, Winchell or Bobby Burns who once said that the best laid plans of mice and men oft go biooey. . . . And, that's just what has happened to our vacation plans which were supposed to take effect in a few days. . . . This, that and the other thing have developed within the past 24 hours to cause postponement, much as we would like to tear away now. . . . Perhaps it is a good thing, though, due to the fact we have been experiencing difficulties in getting copy in from the guest columnists who were to have taken over this space during vacation time.

This convinces us more than ever that the fellow who said nothing is certain but death and taxes, knew what he was talking about. . . . Tax Collector Ewing Leech is of the opinion that you could almost exclude taxes from the list and be safe. . . . At least the collection of taxes is no certainty. . . . So, that takes care of that, and we shall try to weave in the columns already written for us. . . . There's a great deal of interest in the queen to be selected at the Fiesta rodeo on Friday afternoon. . . . The winner will not be announced until Friday night's rodeo performance when the coronation ceremonies will be held. . . . Beauties from surrounding towns are entered, even an auburn-haired beauty from as far away as Boise City, Okla.

One thing important about tomorrow's parade program is that it will start on time no matter if only one float is in position to move say Charlie Maisel and Claude Motley of the parade committee. . . . The parade is scheduled to form at 9:30 a. m. each morning at the Five Points on South Cuyler. . . . And that doesn't mean 9:45, say the co-chairmen. . . . Joe Burrow has a form of humor that's hard to top. . . . We like it even better than the Bob Burns' form. . . . Ina May Dean, Miss Pampa of 1937, will leave Friday afternoon for Fort Worth. . . . She is to compete with other Texas beauties for the title of Texas Sweetheart No. 1.

We dropped off at the Magnolia warehouses yesterday afternoon to look over some of the floats that are being constructed for the fiesta parade. . . . Now, if you think there aren't going to be some beautiful floats in the parades, then you have another guess coming. . . . The float they have built for Miss Pampa of 1937 and other Top O' Texas beauties who will be in the city, is one of the most attractive we have seen. . . . W. B. Weathered, general fiesta chairman, has his fingers crossed this evening, praying for no more rain.

KFDN will do night broadcasts of all fiesta activities, beginning tonight, by authority of the FCC. . . . The full-time schedule will last through Friday night, according to Sid Patterson, station manager. . . . Monte (that's what I say) Rosenwald is the only Pampa to go completely native for the fiesta. . . . And, of all things, he has only lived here two months. . . . which should make some other faces red.

Well, everything's set for the opening in the morning—so hop on your pony and gallop to town tomorrow. . . . Better keep an eye out for Indians. . . . They'll be on the warpath, according to our best grapevine information. . . . Meanwhile, we'll be seeing you tonight at the pre-fiesta dance. . . . Whoopee! Let's go—and ride 'em cowboy!

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY A delegation of Pampans went to Mobeette for a celebration of the 52nd anniversary of the founding of Fort Elliott. Speakers included Mayor Reid of Pampa, Congressman Marvin Jones, and Judge Alexander Baldwin.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY Boy Scouts from five Pampa troops were registered at a camporee north of Morse. Troop 15 of Pampa, sponsored by the Presbyterian church and directed by Delbert Hoskinson, assistant scoutmaster, won first place in field day contests.

Judge S. D. Stennis was drafting a county budget to be submitted to the commissioner's court for approval in compliance with a new state law.

up by attorneys of the agricultural department and the farm bureau.

Not all farmers like the bill. Parity payments and commodity loans are in great favor. Penalty taxes and quotas set up to prevent the surplus growing too large under the Joseph plan are less popular.

CAN'T THIS BE SETTLED SOME WAY

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—New Yorkers at large:

Marjorie Hart, in a new sponge-wave coat and an off-the-face, banded hat, is slipping a confection in the tea room of a 53rd St. hotel. . . . She is the strip dancer whose interest in clothes away from the theater is even more fervent than her disinterest in them on the stage. . . . Albert Stevens Crockett has seen all the coronations in the last 50 years, and there isn't another New Yorker who can claim that distinction. . . . A grizzled, former correspondent abroad for the late James Gordon Bennett, Crockett is an authority on globe-trotting personalities and is frequently consulted by writers on New York as it was in the old Waldorf days.

Irving Brown, the professor of romance languages, who has devoted several decades to a study of gypsy life. . . . "Deep Song," his book, is in reality holding a mirror up to Andalusia. . . . From Seville to Algeciras to the Danube and throughout Europe he has journeyed with these nomads and studied their philosophy of life. . . . One of the gypsy songs (there are hundreds) which he recites is this one, which explains why even a gypsy singer is never poor: I have four great palaces. . . . Though you call me Beggar Knave; I've the hospital, the prison, The cathedral, and the grave. . . . Big ugly Eddie Davis, of Leon and Eddie's who used to be a hack driver and who, as a very lucid m. c. likes to amuse his guests with risqué songs. . . . You'll find him in 52nd St. from sundown until 3, 4 or 5 a. m. seven nights a week, purveying hilarity and contributing abundantly to the gaiety of Manhattan's insomniacs.

Irving Berlin, the composer, who has the blackest hair I ever saw. . . . Almost always he wears dark, well-tailored, double-breasted suits, soft collars and dark ties. . . . You will see him wending his way through the town's night life if you look sharply, but he never carries in one place long. . . . Only long enough to have a bite to eat, or to say a few words in his gentle, soft-spoken way to some friend or acquaintance. . . . One moment he is there, and the next he is on his way out again. He is, perhaps, the most self-effacing and unobtrusive celebrity you will meet in all his wanderings about New York.

Quite often, I'm afraid, I don't manage to "cheer hello" the telephone company advertises, although I try. I know I'm no good at it when the calling party uses that established Hollywood custom of having his secretary get you on the line and then keeps you waiting there while he decides to pick up the instrument. It went like this: "No, he isn't in. This is Mars Coons; may I take a message? No, I don't know where he is at the moment. He said he was going to the office first, then to Paramount, and later he had a date with Pat O'Brien. You've tried the office? Let me see—why not try Paramount? . . . Oh, no trouble at all. Goodbye. . . ."

SENATE RECESSES TO STUDY REPEAL BILL

AUSTIN, June 2 (AP)—The fate of the "sport of kings" in Texas today again rested squarely in the state senate with horse racing enthusiasts fighting to block repeal of the law which legalized betting.

Both houses had recessed, the Senate until tomorrow and the House until Friday. Yesterday the House, by a vote of 113 to 18, sent the Senate a repeal bill.

The Senate, where the same proposal died on the calendar in the four-and-a-half month session just closed, had a similar measure from its criminal jurisprudence committee with a favorable recommendation.

In the regular session, the House endorsed repeal 109 to 26, and the vote this time surprised many who expected passage by less than 100 ayes.

The player piano, which had a great vogue in the early 1900's, was patented in 1899.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

May has gone and there is something missing in the sky and in the wind. One goes outside in a place and waits for someone or something that cannot appear. . . . One walks down the street and, unaware, looks behind to see one that is missing, but it is only a man, carrying home a sack of groceries. You sit outside in the car a minute before you drive off, and you are in a hurry too, and then you say to yourself, "what am I waiting for?" Then you go with the strange conviction that you have left behind something you wanted very much; that something is irretrievably gone. Do you know what it is that is missing? It is not the scent of lilacs that drugged the wind, for the picture and breath of those lilacs are locked up in the heart for days when no lilacs bloom. It is not the sight of violets, nor yucca blooming in vacant lots all over town, nor the clouds of apple blossoms on McClellan creek. Then what is it that is missing? From Seville to Algeciras to the Danube and throughout Europe he has journeyed with these nomads and studied their philosophy of life. . . . One of the gypsy songs (there are hundreds) which he recites is this one, which explains why even a gypsy singer is never poor: I have four great palaces. . . . AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By MRS. ROBBIN COONS

(Guest columnist for her husband)

HOLLYWOOD—A Hollywood correspondent's wife can paraphrase Milton: "They also serve who only stand—and answer the telephone."

Hollywood correspondents are nomads by day. So the home telephone becomes the eventual clearing house for more than half the calls. It's a maliciously psychic thing, and seems to know when I am in the tub, or trying to deal in approved nursery school manner with my almost-three-year-old who is covering his toy animals for their "naps" instead of undressing for his own.

Quite often, I'm afraid, I don't manage to "cheer hello" the telephone company advertises, although I try. I know I'm no good at it when the calling party uses that established Hollywood custom of having his secretary get you on the line and then keeps you waiting there while he decides to pick up the instrument. It went like this: "No, he isn't in. This is Mars Coons; may I take a message? No, I don't know where he is at the moment. He said he was going to the office first, then to Paramount, and later he had a date with Pat O'Brien. You've tried the office? Let me see—why not try Paramount? . . . Oh, no trouble at all. Goodbye. . . ."

That was a press agent. I have a very good telephone acquaintance with that particular one. I know very well that it was NOT important, as she said. She has a new client, some hanger-on in pictures probably, and she will pursue my poor husband by telephone until she hears from him, always politely, that he is not interested.

My "secretarial duties" include playing larm clock after middle-of-the-night calls from the news office. There was the time, for instance, when the office called at 3 a. m. My husband mumbled into the mouthpiece that replaced the receiver, and went back to sleep. "Somebody Eloped" I turned on the light, shook him.

What—uh—what? He stared at me indignantly. "The telephone! What was it?" "Oh, he was turning over again now. . . . Somebody eloped—Jean Harlow. . . . Silly time to elo—"

"I shook him violently. 'Listen! JEAN HARLOW ELOPED!'"

"What?" He was astonished. "Great grief! Quick, my clothes. Call the office back, willya? Great grief!"

WRONG PINK TRAIL. DES MOINES—With tears falling on her neat blue dress, Beverly Ann Roberts, 6, stood on a crowded street corner here after becoming separated from her mother in a downtown department store.

A policeman came to the aid of the child and finally ran across the excited mother, engaged in a frantic search of store aisles.

"I was following mamma's pink dress through the stores," Beverly Ann said, "but after I followed the dress for two blocks I found out it wasn't mamma's."

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

Q. What was the beginning of the motion picture industry in Hollywood? F. S. H.

A. In 1907, Selig opened the first California studio in Los Angeles. The first picture was the Count of Monte Christo in 1,000 feet. Soon after that time other motion picture studios in New York opened California studios.

Q. Is there any relation between the size of the crop and the size of oranges and grapefruit? H.P.M.

A. The larger the crop, the smaller the fruit.

Q. What ingredients are used in making lipsticks? D. L.

A. Among the materials used in high grade lipsticks are beeswax, dye, ceresine, petrolatum, perfume, spermaceti, paraffin, and lanolin. A. Most domestic Christmas trees are used in the United States? C. J. H.

A. About 10,000,000 trees are used in the United States each year.

Q. How many people have their lives insured? E. J.

A. There are 64,000,000 life insurance policy holders in the United States.

Q. Why was Columbus anxious to find another route to India? V. W.

A. The capture of Constantinople by the Turks seriously affected the trade of the other Mediterranean countries, particularly that of Italy. The Turks put a fleet of ships to sea, which constantly harried the vessels of other nations. Since a large volume of their trade was with Asia and the accustomed routes were cut off, it was necessary for them to try to find some other practical route to the Indies. This no doubt influenced the decision of Christopher Columbus.

Q. What percentage of the income should be expended for rent, clothing, and savings? E. M.

A. Most domestic economists agree that rent should not exceed 25 per cent, nor clothing 15 or 20 per cent, while a saving of 10 per cent is necessary for financial security.

This, That and Everything

BY WILLIAM HUSLEY CLARK

Strange as it may seem, it is hard for scientists to come to any agreement with regard to the amount of sleep necessary for a man. One Chicago scientist declares that eight hours is required for the best results, while certain German scientists say only four hours are sufficient. One fellow goes so far as to state that sleeping is not necessary, but it is only a habit. This matter of how much sleep is best for a person is obviously a difficult one.

The phenomenon of sleep has been the subject of much speculation. Some psychologists have tried to establish evidence that a person can add to his store of knowledge while asleep. If some method could be devised whereby one could master mathematics, history, English, etc., while asleep, the inventor no doubt would make a fortune by revealing his secret to students who have a distaste for some particular subject. Most every student finds at least one subject in the required curriculum a "pain in the neck." In such cases he would pay well for the privilege of taking the course under a general anesthetic. Maybe this is too much to expect from our educators, but if psychologists make as much progress in treating the mind as medical experts have made in treating the body, we may expect something like that to happen.

BOOK A DAY

By BRUCE CATTON

"American Frontier," by Elisabeth Peck (Doubleday-Dorland Co.) is a fine, eminently readable book of verse on the vanished people, customs and scenery of the country's extreme youth.

In its feeling for the raw, vital and occasionally wistful spirit of early America, this book is reminiscent of Paul Eagle's "American Song." In many ways I think it is a better book. The feeling seems, somehow, less forced and more genuine, the touch a little surer, the evocation of the pioneer atmosphere more effective because it is more restrained.

But comparisons are futile. "American Frontier" can stand on its own feet. The point is that it is a book of verse which—even if you "don't care much for poetry"—you are very likely to enjoy deeply.

It is not a narrative poem. Rather, it is a collection of short pieces, loosely linked together, depicting various phases of American life from 1780 or thereabouts to the middle 1800's. Some of it is free verse, and some rolls along in a loosely-swinging meter; and all of it seeks to show what men and women felt like when they were opening the wilderness and experiencing the conquest of an untamed continent.

A Kentuckian, Miss Peck is said to have delved extensively in old diaries, letters and other pioneer records to get the factual basis for her poems. That is easy to believe. They sound authentic, somehow—by which I mean that they have the honest, unadorned sound of genuine folk songs.

Altogether, "American Frontier" is a welcome addition to our literature.

'SLINGIN' SAM' HITS HOMER AND SINGLE AS OILERS DOWN CLINTON

PAMPAN GIVES FIVE HITS IN 12 TO 2 ROUT

"Slingin' Sam" Baugh made his baseball debut before a Pampa audience last night by bashing out a home run and a single and making some nice fielding plays as the Pampa Oilers downed Clinton, Okla., 12 to 2 at Road Runner park.

Behind the five hit pitching of Carl Stewart, the Oilers hit the ball far and often in a 13-hit barrage which included a homer by Brickett and doubles by Summers and McLarry. Stewart sent 10 of the Oklahomans back to the bench after watching the third one go by.

Little Al Summers continued to hit the ball, adding a single and double to his average on three official trips to the plate. He dived for the other two occasions. Ben McLarry also continued to shine at the plate with a single and double on three trips up.

Clinton's chief willow-wielder was Hoemer, shortstop who begged a pair of singles off Stewart. O'Toole, a righthander, started on the mound for Clinton but was wild and also hit freely. Milspaugh, a kid left-hander with a nice breaking curve, finished in Herring, third baseman. Clinton has a promising ball player. He packs a hot peg and can throw from any position.

Pampa's Summers had springs in his shoes in the second inning when he went high in the air to make a one-handed stab of O'Toole's line drive over second.

It was Clinton's first time to play under the lights and they were at a disadvantage. The team might give the Oilers a tussle in nature's own light.

On Friday night the Oilers will be in Duncan, Okla., and on Saturday and Sunday afternoons they will be in Wichita Falls.

GRIMES CAMPAIGNS FOR RETURN OF SPITBALL

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Burling Grimes is ready to lead a one-man campaign for the return of the spitball.

The fiery manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers thinks the batters now have a big edge on the pitchers and that the return of the spitball would help to even up a bit.

"The spitball should come back to the major and minor leagues," Burling said today, "and I'm going to see what can be done about it."

"The spitball was less dangerous than many of the pitches that are being made today. I understand some umpires rub the gloss off new balls with emery powder. A ball may come into a game with so much emery powder on it that it sails. The ball that fractured Mickey Cochrane's skull sailed.

"If pitchers were allowed to throw spitballs again they would be better equipped to stand up before the hitters."

HOME RUNS WIN.

CHICAGO, June 2 (AP)—The second place Minneapolis Millers used the home run method yesterday in the only American Association game of the day to whip St. Paul, 6 to 5, and crowd a half game closer to Milwaukee. Trailing by three runs going into the ninth inning, the Millers snatched the decision when Carl Reynolds, Red Kress and Andy Cohen exploded homers, each with the bases empty. Until the big attack, Whitey Wilshire had pitched effectively for the Saints.

PROMINENT GOLFERS FAIL TO QUALIFY FOR OPEN TOURNEY

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Old Man Par took one of the worst beatings in his career, but he managed to whittle an entry list of 1,404 golfers—on all time record for the United States Open championship—down to a field of 170, which will start play a week from tomorrow at the Oakland Hills club, Birmingham, Mich.

Topping the par-shooting yesterday in 30 district qualifying tests were 36-hole courses of 136 registered by Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Stuttgart, Ark. A single round of 64 by Orville White, Champion Tony Manero's successor as pro at the Sedgefield club, Greensboro, N. C., also stood out.

He was close behind with 138. Three of the Ryder cup candidates had 140's for their 36-hole tests, Craig Wood at New York and Byron Nelson and Ed Dudley at Philadelphia, while Jimmy Hines shot 146.

Two former open champions, Sam Parks Jr. and Willie MacFarlane, passed the tests while the veterans, Chick Evans, and Freddie McLeod, 1908 winner, failed. Parks shot 147 while MacFarlane had 149. Evans wound up with 155 and McLeod with 162.

Other prominent players who failed to qualify included Leo Diegel, Sammy Byrd, Reynolds Smith, Al and Abe Espinosa, Johnny Lehman, Gene Kunes, Charley Yates, Roland MacKenzie, Sam Perry, Lester Bostad, Joe Turnesa and Mike Brady.

WOMEN START QUALIFYING IN TRANS-MISSISSIPPI TOURNEY

SAN ANTONIO, June 2 (AP)—Most of the nation's top women golfers, fighting a case of "nerves" after being penned indoors two days by inclement weather, set out today over a rainsoaked course in the qualifying round of the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament.

Two successive years winner of the title, tanned Marion Milley of Lexington, Ky., stood idly on the sidelines and watched a field of 150 start battling for 31 other places left open in the championship flight.

It was the last time, however, that a defending champion could be exempt from the medal test, for directors voted yesterday to require holders to meet the qualifying test.

Effective next summer at the Oak Hurst Country club, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Water still stood in some spots on the course after two days of flooding rains, but the bunkers had been "baked out." Greens were in good condition.

Heavily backed for medal honors was stocky Mrs. Dan Chandler of Dallas.

She had competition however, in freckled Patty Berg of Minneapolis; Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, Texas, all Curtis cup team members, and two former champions, Miss Phyllis Buchanan of Denver and Mrs. Patti Newbold of Wichita, Kas.

Miss Helen Hoffman of Fort Douglas, Utah, champion of her home state, the leading "dark horse" contender, she had the gallery gasping yesterday with a 241-yard wallop in the driving contest on a water-soaked fairway.

First and second round matches will be played tomorrow, the quarter-final play, finals Saturday and the 36-hole championship till, Sunday.

EXTENSION OF CONNALLY OIL ACT EXPECTED

AUSTIN, June 2 (AP)—The Petroleum industry kept one eye on Washington this week in expectation of House action on extension of the Connally hot oil law.

Supporters pressed for immediate congressional approval as the act would expire June 15 unless extended. The law prohibits movement in interstate commerce of oil produced in excess of state allowances and is the only means of federal control endorsed by officials of Texas and several other producing states.

Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the interstate oil compact commission and member of the Texas Railroad commission, stopped in the national capital to join in the movement for quick passage of the extension bill. He was en route to Paris, France, for the World Petroleum Congress June 14-19.

The Texas also requested President Roosevelt to ask Congress to approve extension of the interstate oil compact for two years from next September 1. Authorities of the signatory states, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico, consider the compact a valuable weapon in preventing oil wastage and forestalling federal control.

Producers in districts other than East Texas were keenly disappointed that the 8-cent crude raise given that area ten days ago was not general. They attributed the absence of a general increase to large overproduction this spring.

With a record amount of vacation motoring expected and several of the major producing states showing more inclination to hold output fairly well in line with demand estimates of the United States Bureau of Mines, some still believed higher prices might be forthcoming a little later.

Texas this month set its basic allowable as low as the recommendation of the Bureau of Mines for the first time since last fall. The allowance was approximately 352,000 barrels a day, compared with the bureau's demand estimate of 1,354,000. Allowed production will increase during the month because of well completions.

Oklahoma officials voiced determination to keep production down virtually to the level recommended by the Federal Bureau.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—That you see taking bows out in Cleveland is Joe DiMaggio of the Yankees. He predicted before the 1936 world's series that "Hubbell ain't invisible." You were right, Joe, he ain't. They are sitting pretty out at South Dakota State where 33 of the 36 members of last year's football squad will be back on the job. What's become of Tommy Bridges' fast one? Ralph Guldhall was the first pro big shot to tune up at Oakland Hills for next week's U. S. open.

Says Madison Square Garden's publicity department: "Betting on the bout shows that Braddock is the favorite, but there is plenty of Schmeling money in evidence." 250 letters a day since he was beaten a week ago. The Dodgers always were poison for Carl Hubbell, at that, with 23 decisions over the screwball king in their 39 meetings. Incidentally, the Brooks have picked up a good looking young catcher in this Paul Chervinko from Columbus.

The boys down at Washington swear this one is true: Jack Elder, the former Notre Dame football and track star, is now doing some work for the Catholic youth organization. He was in Washington the other day and someone took him down to A. F. of L. headquarters for a courtesy call. Jack's escort introduced him as "Jack Elder of the C. Y. O." The A. F. of L. reception committee thought the guy said "C. I. O." and Jack had to get his hands up right quick.

BRITAIN PLANS JOINT ACTION AGAINST SPAIN

LONDON, June 2 (AP)—Great Britain was reported today to be considering a plan for joint naval action against Spain to offset the establishment of a virtual Italian blockade of ports held by the Spanish government.

Convinced of the necessity of preventing any new critical incidents in the civil war, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden was understood to have taken under advisement the plan which would grant Italy's and Germany's demands for guaranteed protection of their fleets in Spanish waters.

The British admiralty was reported to be considering dispatch of additional ships to the troubled area. The battle squadrons of both Italy and Germany already off Spain were being reinforced.

Under the proposal, the warships of Britain, France, Germany and Italy would unite as an international fleet against Spain in the event of any further molesting of vessels of the "hands off Spain" committee.

The foreign office was said to be convinced speedy action was necessary to bring Italy and Germany back within the non-intervention set-up. They quit the committee Monday after Germany's swift retaliatory bombardment of Spanish Almeria, following the bombing of the German warship Deutschland by Spanish government planes.

Twenty-six German sailors were killed in the attack.

A JOINT RESOLUTION
 proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 52, of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 52d; providing that the Legislature may authorize by law, after a majority vote of the resident qualified electors owning taxable property therein, the adoption of a plan for the construction of paved roads and bridges or both in Harris county and in road districts therein; providing for the levy of a tax to pay for such construction; providing for the necessary proclamation; and appropriating funds to defray the expenses of the proclamation, publication, and election.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
 Section 1. That Article III, Section 52, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding thereto another section to be known as Section 52d, which shall read as follows:

"Section 52d: Upon the vote of a majority of the resident qualified electors owning taxable property therein so authorizing a county or road district may collect an annual tax for a period not exceeding five (5) years to create a fund for constructing lasting and permanent roads and bridges or both. No contract involving the expenditure of any of such fund shall be valid unless, when it is made, money shall be on hand in such fund.

"At such election, the Commissioners' Court shall submit for adoption a road plan and designate the amount of special tax to be levied; the number of years said tax is to be levied; the location, description, and character of the roads and bridges; and the estimated cost thereof. The funds raised by such taxes shall not be used for the purposes other than those specified in the plan submitted to the voters. Elections may be held from time to time to extend or discontinue said plan or to increase or diminish said tax. The Legislature shall enact laws prescribing the procedure hereunder.

"The provisions of this section shall apply only to Harris county and road districts therein."
 Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State on the fourth Monday in August, 1937, at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the amendment to the Constitution providing that Harris county and any road district therein may upon a vote of the people therein adopt a road plan and levy taxes for road and bridge construction in lieu of the issuance of bonds"; those voters opposing said amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the amendment to the Constitution providing that Harris county and any road district therein may upon a vote of the people therein adopt a road plan and levy taxes for road and bridge construction in lieu of the issuance of bonds."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. The sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

The above is a true and correct copy.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adopting a new section to be known as Section 51d, which shall provide that the Legislature shall have the power to provide, under such limitations and restrictions as may be deemed by the Legislature expedient for assistance to destitute children and for the payment of same not to exceed Eight Dollars ($8) for one child or Twelve Dollars ($12) for the children of any one family per month; further providing that the Legislature may impose such restrictions and regulations as it may seem expedient; providing that the amount to be expended out of State funds in any one year for such assistance shall never exceed the sum of One Million, Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000); and providing that the Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for assistance to destitute children; providing for an election on the question of adoption or rejection of such amendment and making an appropriation therefor; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof, and prescribing the form of ballot.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
 Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a section to be known as Section 51d, which shall read as follows:
 "Section 51d. Subject to the limitations and restrictions hereinafter contained, and such other limitations, restrictions, and regulations as may be provided by law, the Legislature shall have the power to provide for assistance to destitute children under the age of fourteen (14) years; such assistance shall not exceed Eight Dollars ($8) per month for one child nor more than Twelve Dollars ($12) per month for such children of any one family; provided that the amount to be expended out of State funds shall never exceed the sum of One Million, Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000) per year. The Legislature may impose residential restrictions and such other restrictions, limitations, and regulations as to it may seem expedient."
 "The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States such financial assistance to destitute children as that Government may offer not inconsistent with the restrictions herein above provided."
 Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Monday in August, 1937, at which election all voters favoring the proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:

 "FOR the Amendment to the State Constitution providing for assistance to destitute children under the age of fourteen (14) years not to exceed Eight Dollars ($8) per month for one child nor more than Twelve Dollars ($12) per month for such children of any one family, and providing for acceptance from the Government of the United States of America financial assistance for such payment."

Those voters opposing said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:
 "AGAINST the Amendment to the State Constitution providing for assistance to destitute children under the age of fourteen (14) years not to exceed Eight Dollars ($8) per month for one child nor more than Twelve Dollars ($12) per month for such children of any one family, and providing for acceptance from the Government of the United States of America financial assistance for such payment."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of said voters cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.
 Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

IOWA FARMER BRINGS FARM TO PAMPA FIESTA

A Gifford, an Iowa farmer, also had a hobby for carving small animals and people out of wood. Then he proceeded to make them do things just like real folk. People got for miles to see them. So when the depression came, Mr. Gifford made a complete little farm, with tiny chickens, ducks, cows drinking, an old sow with four tiny pigs nursing, their little tails and heads wiggle just like they were alive, a tiny threshing machine working. In fact most everything one sees on a real farm—121 figures all moving. It's a sight to see. He has brought it here for the Fiesta and no one should miss seeing it. It's called "The Little Farm" and you can see it for the small sum of 10c. Located at Rodeo grounds. Open from 10 a. m. to 12 p. m. Adv.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an amendment to Section 16, Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas; providing that the Legislature shall authorize the incorporation of banking bodies and provide for the supervision and regulation of same; providing for all of the capital stock to be subscribed and paid for before charter issued; restricting foreign corporations from doing banking business; restricting corporate business to one place.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 16, Article XVI, of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 16. The Legislature shall by general laws, authorize the incorporation of corporate bodies with banking and discounting privileges, and shall provide for a system of State supervision, regulation and control of such bodies which will adequately protect and secure the depositors and creditors thereof."

"No such corporate body shall be chartered until all of the authorized capital stock has been subscribed and paid for in full in cash. Such body corporate shall not be authorized to engage in business at more than one place which shall be designated in its charter."

"No foreign corporation, other than the national banks of the United States shall be permitted to exercise banking or discounting privileges in this State."

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Monday in August, 1937. At this election all voters favoring the proposed amendment shall write, or have printed, on their ballots the following words:

FASCISTS SEEK RUSSIAN SHIPS WITH SUPPLIES

By ANDRUE BERDING. ROME, June 2 (AP)—Italians warships established a virtual blockade of eastern Spain today to prevent Russian vessels from carrying war supplies to the Madrid-Valencia government.

A reinforced German battle fleet was understood here to be cooperating with the Italian men of war to stop Soviet ships bringing in munitions.

Italian political circles considered the sudden decision of Premier Mussolini as, in effect, clamping down the ineffectual blockade which Insurgent General Francisco Franco had attempted to establish on the Mediterranean coast of Spain.

It was understood here, although without confirmation, that the blockade units would use such force as was necessary to keep contraband of war from reaching the armies which are fighting to put down Franco. The insurgent Franco regime is recognized by both Germany and Italy.

The ports, including the important centers of Valencia itself and Barcelona, blocked by the warships of Italy and Germany are the same ones which they were assigned to patrol as part of the international non-intervention committee's effort to end the flow of arms and munitions to both sides in the civil war.

This action would go beyond the function exercised by the Italian and German warships as part of the non-intervention committee's effort to end the flow of arms and munitions to both sides in the civil war.

Six officers aboard the Italian auxiliary ship Barletta were killed in a bombing and 26 German sailors died Saturday when the German cruiser Deutschland was attacked by bombing planes in the Balearic Isles off Ibiza.

The blockade, it was thought, would last only until adequate salvage had been given for the wrecked Deutschland and Barletta incidents.

CONTRACT WIFE

BY LOUISE HOLMES © 1937, NEA Service, Inc.

Chapter VI. A week followed long lazy days, long, startle nights. Don was absorbed in his work and Pats, for the moment, blissfully content. She was Don's wife and that was enough. She slept and walked and dreamed. Boston she dreamed on the way when she could cast aside her hideous disguise and Don would love her because she was herself. Often she marveled at his blindness. He was, it seemed, almost unaware of her, absolutely without curiosity concerning the woman he had married. Beautiful Pats' bedroom door her mirror told a story of fragrant, beautiful youth but the mirror had no box of telling secrets and the make-up boy lied convincingly.

After ten days of luxurious peace and quiet they went back to the Avalon. Driving down Don said: "You must dress a little better. Patricia." And at her startled upward glance he added "Heaven knows you're a relief to my eyes just as you are. I'm so fed up with women who trade on their beauty." And Pats' bedroom door her mirror told a story of fragrant, beautiful youth but the mirror had no box of telling secrets and the make-up boy lied convincingly.

Don added another room to his suite. It was a front room opening into a narrow hall which connected with the main hotel corridor. Pats sighed over the accumulation of fat mail and engaged a quiet young man as secretary. Pats dreaded the first meeting with Rosie but when she appeared her attention committee's effort to end the flow of arms and munitions to both sides in the civil war.

Why of course? Pats held her breath. Suppose Don should suggest meeting her cousin. "I may be able to come late, in time for the unmasking." She hastened to forestall any such suggestion. "I'll make it if I can."

Don nodded agreeably. "I'll be fairly safe in dining and mask." Pats never ceased to marvel at Don's innate bashfulness. Fate had played a queer trick when it made him a feminine idol.

She was in a quiver of excitement all day. If Don had been even partially aware of her he could not have noticed her restless activities. Time and again she shut herself in her bedroom, opened boxes and fairly gloated over the contents. With chilly, trembling fingers she lifted shimmering garments to gaze at them with a burning and frightful thought she was to come to the ball. If at all, royally unveiled as Queen Elizabeth. The plan was fitting together like a well-arranged puzzle.

By 5 Pats' mouth was dry, and despite constant reassurance she was beginning to tremble and shudder. She scarcely touched her dinner and went immediately to her room, declining Don's offer of the car. Throwing herself on the bed she lay there in the dark, listening, her heart beating wildly.

At last she heard Don depart and knew that Sims was off on business of his own. Almost hysterically thrilled she dressed. Such joy she had not known in many months.

"I don't know what I'm supposed to represent," she said in her thoughts. "The point is, how am I going to attract Don's attention? That's the important thing." She was putting on cowhide hose, high-heeled silver sandals with glittering rhinestone heels. The dress was misty white over silver, a tight little basque, draped for style. Small flat medals, designed to be worn over one eye. Pats' sat flat on the top of her head. It became a game, a despicable game, of seeing how impossible she could appear without seeming to do so.

It was a strange life. She went everywhere with Don and was introduced as his wife. Out of his hearing she allowed her quiet cleverness to rise to the surface and gained a certain popularity despite her appearance. "Terrible looking fellow," was given here. "She dances like an angel. Must have something—old Don seems content," added the men.

And through it all Pats stuck to her resolution. She so thoroughly effaced herself so satisfactorily protected Don from pushing, crowding, curious world that when he thought of her at all it was with a wave of gratitude. As one is grateful for a perfect timepiece and pineapple juice chilled exactly to the taste so Don was grateful for Pats. Rarely she spoke to him unless he started the conversation. Never did she impose her personality upon him!

But as time went on the situation gradually became intolerable to Pats. After all she was only 21 and made in love with her husband. To sacrifice her loveliness, her longing for beautiful clothes, her perfectly normal joy in being admired—it was asking a bit too much. Sometimes she went early to her room, jerked off the offending disguise, creamed and massaged her weary face until it glowed with renewing freshness, shampooed her hair and glided in its spun gold softness. At these times she donned a lacy negligee and frivolous slippers and sat before her mirror. It wasn't that Pats was particularly vain; she was soul weary of playing the game of drabness, spiritual as well as physical.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

DONATI'S COMET WAS BELIEVED, BY THE PEOPLE OF FRANCE, TO HAVE BEEN RESPONSIBLE FOR THE RARE FLAVOR OF THE FRENCH WINES PRODUCED IN 1858.

EVEN TODAY, SOME OF THE "COMET WINES" STILL ARE IN EXISTENCE, AND ARE USED ONLY ON SPECIAL OCCASIONS.

IN THE EARLY DAYS, A MUSHROOM GROWING NEAR A DEN OF SNAKES WAS CONSIDERED POISONOUS.

PLINY seems to have been responsible for a belief that exists, even up to today, that rusty iron, rotten cloth, or other "noxious objects" in the soil will produce poisonous mushrooms. Equally erroneous is the belief that a bright coin, dropped in a stew of mushrooms, will turn black if the plants are poisonous, but will remain bright if the species is edible.

OUTSIDER WINS EPSOM DOWNS 158TH DERBY

Midday Sun, an outsider, owned by Mrs. C. B. Miller, today won the 158th derby before a crowd of between 250,000 and 500,000, including the king and queen. Mrs. P. Nagle's Sandsprite was second and the Aga Khan's Le Grand Duc third.

Ridden by Mike Beary, veteran English jockey, Midday Sun finished the one and a half miles in front of Sandsprite, a rank outsider. Le Grand Duc was another one and a half lengths back.

William Woodward's Perifox, only American-bred horse in the race and the last minute favorite, was fourth in the field of 20 colts and one filly.

The American-bred son of Gallant Fox just managed to beat Marcel Boyssac's Goya 2nd out of fourth place.

In winning the purse of about $50,000, Midday Sun ran the distance in the comparatively slow time of 2:37.3-5.

Mrs. Miller was the first woman owner to win England's most famous flat race. Her colt went to the post at the odds of 100 to 7.

Sandsprite, given practically no chance in the wagering, was quoted at the long odds of 100 to 1. Le Grand Duc was held at 100 to 9.

CHICAGO, June 2 (AP)—Newly constructed barbed wire fence stretched across the main entrance of the Republic Steel corporation's south Chicago plant formed a second line of defense today in the strike-torn zone here six persons lost their lives in a riot.

Almost a thousand men who patrolled the mill in eight-hour shifts constituted the first bulwark against further attempts to close the plant, lone major independent operating unit in the Calumet area of Illinois and Indiana.

Six companies, totaling 949 officers, were assigned to the area on reports unionists and sympathizers planned another demonstration. At the same time plant workmen erected the barbed wire, closing the gap in the 10-foot wooden fence which surrounds the mill.

CHICAGO, June 2 (AP)—Late tumbles of wheat values today carried the market down 3/8 cents a bushel maximum.

Sharpest setbacks of values were in the July delivery, which plunged to $1.10 1/2, against $1.14 in yesterday's final dealings.

Much of today's selling resulted from automatic execution of orders to stop losses on the part of traders unable or unwilling to furnish additional margins to protect brokers.

At the close, wheat was 3/8-3/4 cents under yesterday's finish, July 1.10 1/2-1 1/4, Sept. 1.09 1/2-1.09 3/4, and Oct. 1.08 1/2-1.08 3/4, and oats showing 1 cent to 1 1/4 decline.

Killebrew Girl, 17, Taken By Death

Thea Belle Killebrew, 17, died in a local hospital this morning after an illness of several months. She attended grade school here but moved to Abilene where she attended high school until Christmas. She came to Pampa early this year.

Born in Canadian, Miss Killebrew moved to Pampa with her parents 15 years ago. She was a member of the Church of Christ. She resided at 520 North Doyle street with her father.

Survivors are her father, Jack Killebrew, her mother, Mrs. Sidney Killebrew of Abilene; three sisters, Mrs. Francis Cook, Pampa; Mrs. J. T. Hammond and Miss Mary Sue Killebrew, Abilene; a brother, J. L. Killebrew, Pampa, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Simmons, Pampa, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Killebrew, Canadian.

The body lies at rest at Duennkel-Carmichael Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements are pending arrival of relatives.

NEGRO CONVICTS SLAIN IN PLOT TO ESCAPE PEN

HUNTSVILLE, June 2 (AP)—Two negro convicts were killed, three recaptured, and a sixth made good his escape from the Darrington farm in Brazoria county last night, Texas prison officials were notified today.

The convicts shot their way out of their barracks with pistols stolen by one of them from the arsenal at the guard's quarters. Rifle and shotgun fire from line guards felled two of them. None of the guards was wounded in the sharp exchange of gunfire.

Sol Van Dern, sentenced from Tarrant county for robbery and Nathaniel Slaton of Dallas county, up for burglary, were killed as they tried vainly to start an automobile and truck in which to flee.

GRAY COUNTY SCHOOLS CLASSIFIED BY BOARD

Classification of Gray county schools was made at a meeting of the school board with County Superintendent W. B. Weatherhead.

Beydlers Started Number of 'Firsts'

An impressive list of firsts has been credited to Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Beydler, of San Jose, Calif., who were pioneer citizens of Pampa, and are in the city this week to attend the Top O' Texas fiesta.

Mr. Beydler started the Tepe-Hoover Lumber company, which was later named the White House Lumber company.

He started the first ice business, motion picture theater, electric plant and was the first Pampa undertaker.

Mrs. Beydler had the first millinery business in Pampa, organized the first public library club, was Pampa's first art teacher, and organized the Knights of Security lodge.

ROSWELL DIGS OUT OF MUD, FLOOD DEBRIS

ROSWELL, N. M., June 2 (AP)—Roswell dug into mud and flood debris today at the end of a week of deluging rainstorms that have taken a toll of ten dead and more than a million dollars damage.

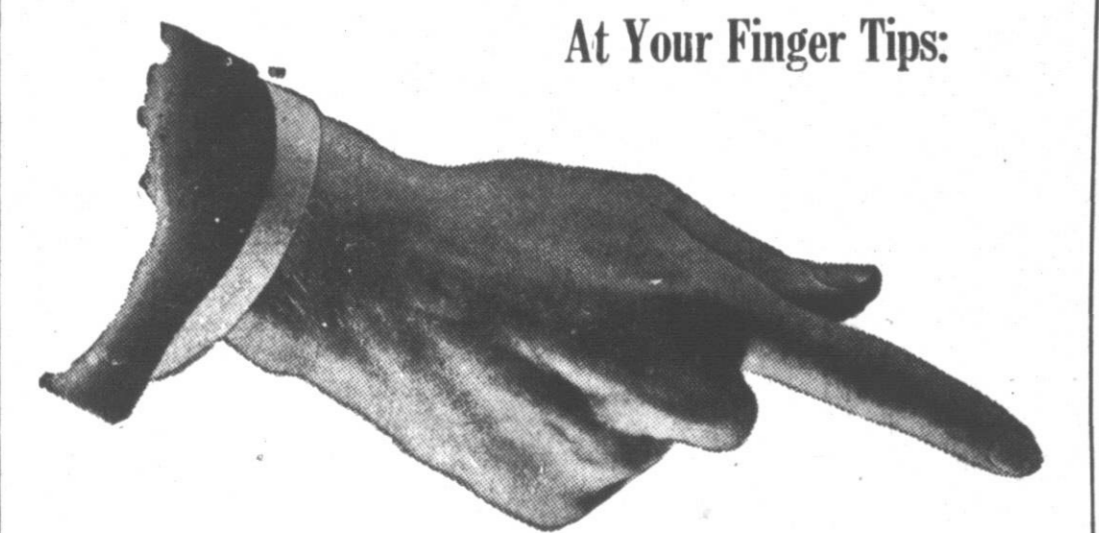

Water ran back into the Berrenda and Hondo rivers, leaving a heavy layer of silt over most of Roswell. The flood here last night was higher than that of Saturday when damage was estimated at half a million to the city and surrounding farm area.

Just as Roswell felt relief from the waters, furious rains struck the north part of the state, sending the Pecos down to the Alamosordo dam with a 14-foot head of water. Highway bridges at Dilla and Anton Chiken were swept out in the flood. Officials in charge of the $2,000,000 reclamation dam prepared to meet the sharp rise and said no danger was threatened.

At Your Finger Tips: Cold Colder Coldest

It's as simple as tuning the dial to your radio . . . yet the Electric Refrigerator enables you to regulate as you please the time required to freeze ice and desserts.

Let's consider what an Electric Refrigerator is going to mean to you when it is delivered.

Suppose it's a long hot summer day. Of course you will want sparkling, full size ice cubes and lots of them. You'll also want a delicious frozen salad or dessert for dinner. And then at the last minute guests drop in unexpectedly.

Just set the temperature control on your refrigerator to fast freezing and use all the ice cubes you want.

Until you have seen the wonderful features offered only by Electric Refrigerators actually in use, it's almost impossible to realize the added joy and satisfaction in Electric Refrigeration.

Your local dealer invites you to be his guest for just a few minutes and see for yourself all the advantages of an Electric Refrigerator, and while there, you can get the new low prices and see how a small deposit will place one in your kitchen.
