DRY AGENTS JAIL 10 IN BORGER GRAND JURY DECLARES ACCUSATIONS WITHOUT BASIS CHURCHMEN WHO OUSTED MINISTER LOSE DAMAGE SUIT

JURY VERDICT SURPRISE FOR MANY PRESENT

Five Men Must Pay
$20,000 to John
Warren

IMMORALITY WAS THEIR CHARGE

Conspiracy Is Alleged by Plaintiff in His Suit

ROCKFORD, Ill., Nov. 30. (AP)—Five officers of the Methodist church at Duran, Ill., were ordered by a jury to pay $20,000 damages to their former pastor, John G. Warren for the alleged besmirching of his name with charges of immorality.

The jury verdict manifestly surprised the courtroom audience which had heard the parents of a former domestic in the preacher's home support her sworn story of familiarity with Warren. The jury, asked by the unfrocked minister for $50,000 redress for libel, returned its verdict before Judge Arthur E. Fisher after two hours of deliberation. The jurors made no comment on their finding.

The five church officers who ousted their pastor from his pulpit and later from the Rock River Methodist conference were Albert E. Swinson, president of the State Bank of Durand; Henry Graham, grain company official; Postmaster George Fritz; Judd Van Sickle and Edgar Best. Warren accused them of trumping up the defaming story as a means of driving him from their parish.

Another count charging slander was stricken by the court on a defense motion today, and two other defendants were excused earlier in the trial on a motion of their attorneys.

The girl involved did not appear during the trial. Now Mrs. Hazel Lathery of Kansas City, as Hazel Lamb in 1927 she had signed an affidavit accusing the Rev. Warren of immoral relations with her and declaring Mrs. Warren, then an invalid, had threatened him with divorce proceedings and attacked him with a poker. He was ousted from his pulpit and later dropped from the roll of Methodist clergy at a secret trial. He fought the charges, protesting he was the victim of a conspiracy among his parishioners.

During the libel trial Warren, who has worked on rubbish and coal wagons and in Rockford factories since his eviction, denied in detail the girl's allegations. Attorneys for the five convicted of libel today gave notice of appeal.

Carl Williams Is Spudder Pilot

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 29. (AP)—Appointment of W. Carl Williams as manager of the Wichita Falls league club for 1930 was announced tonight by William E. Huff, president of the club. Williams, who resigned as manager during the 1928 season because of ill health, piloted the Spudders to their first championship and a clean sweep in the Dixie Series in 1927.

He succeeds Jim Calloway, who resigned at the end of the last campaign. Williams will be a bench manager.

Williams has been connected with the club in various capacities since 1925, serving last year as the Spud farm club at Athlone. He has made a number of scouting trips during the past two years and once was brought in during an emergency to play first base.

RABBIT SHOW TO BE FEATURE EVENT

Inquiries concerning the poultry and rabbit show to be held here December 5, 6, and 7 are increasing in number, according to George Briggs, secretary of the show.

The Poultry Breeders' association purchased 100 coop fronts, and ends and partitions to match were made by boys of the Central high school vocational agriculture classes under the direction of Prof. J. L. Lester.

The association expects to announce tomorrow a list of special prizes offered by local merchants, aside from the usual cash awards and ribbons.

The Pampa Rabbit and Fur Breeders' association has rented a number of coops and this show is expected to be one of the features of the event. Rabbit fanciers are many in number and are reported to be very enthusiastic about their show.

The combined show will be held in the new Studebaker garage.

MAN IS KILLED AS TRAIN PLOWS SMALL ENGINE

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 30. (AP)—One trainman was killed and five persons were injured late today when the Syracuse, a Cincinnati to Chicago Big Four passenger train, plowed into a "light" engine which had stopped on the track between Beech Grove and Acton, southeast of here. George Kern, of Indianapolis, the engineer of the passenger train, was the dead man. Brakeman Arnold was one of those slightly injured. The other were passengers.

The locomotive standing on the tracks had been taken from the big four shops at Beech Grove on a test run. Its smoke was believed to have obscured the red stop light of the block signal, causing Kern not to see it.

Kern died of his injuries before an ambulance arrived to take him to a hospital. The injured were brought to hospitals here.

Officers Watch For Burglars in Matador Looting

MATADOR, Nov. 30. (AP)—Officers of Northwest Texas have been asked to be on the lookout for burglars who early today entered the postoffice here and escaped with $5,000 in currency from the safe.

All but $500 was from the federal reserve bank in Dallas and had been received yesterday for delivery to a Matador bank. The other money was postoffice receipts. No stamps or silver were taken.

Officers were working on the theory that perpetrators of the crime were responsible for several store burglaries in this section within the past few weeks. Marks left on the postoffice door by a small Jimmy resembled those left in the store robberies.

63 Indictments
on Felonies

Exonerated of county officers on charges by Miss Beulah Allred in "letters and circulars distributed throughout the county" was placed in the report of the 31st district grand jury to Judge W. R. Ewing.

The report, signed by B. E. Finley as foreman, stated that "we find no evidence to support her charges and believe that said charges were entirely unwarranted and unfair to the officers of the county."

The charges referred to specifically mentioned alleged irregularities in liquor law enforcement, and stressed purported evidence of the existence of a criminal ring. Miss Allred was called before the grand jury and was questioned for a total of about twelve hours. The nature of the testimony was not revealed.

The grand jury report follows: "To the Honorable W. R. Ewing, district judge:

"We, your grand jury for the September term, 1929, of the district court of Gray county, Texas, wish to submit this our final report. We have made diligent inquiry into all matters coming before this body and have returned indictments in all cases where the evidence was sufficient to warrant same, having returned 63 felony indictments and one misdemeanor indictment.

"We have also examined all the evidence and investigated all reports given by Miss Beulah Allred in connection with the letters and circulars distributed throughout the county. We find no evidence to support her charges and believe that said charges were entirely unwarranted and unfair to the officers of this county.

"We also desire to thank the court and other officers for assistance rendered and the courtesy shown, and respectfully ask to be discharged.

"B. E. Finley, foreman of the grand jury."

Texas and Pacific Bridge Is Burned

PORT WORTH, Nov. 30. (AP)—A fire tonight damaged the Texas and Pacific railroad bridge over Mountain creek between Grand Prairie and Dallas.

Damage to the 875 foot span caused rerouting of trains over the Rock Island until the bridge could be rebuilt. The loss and cause were not determined.

Climbs Tree and Gets Shot Wounds

WAXAHACHIE, Nov. 30. (AP)—Tree climbing during the squirrel season provides good exercise, but nevertheless sows poor judgment in the opinion of Edward Goodwyn of Maypearl, near here.

T. S. Middleton, Goodwyn's father-in-law, was hunting with him today and saw a squirrel in a tree. He fired, not knowing Goodwyn had climbed the tree. Goodwyn suffered flesh wounds on the arm and head which were not considered serious.

B. H. Armstrong who was gassed while cleaning out a Magnolia Petroleum company well last Tuesday left McKean and Connor hospital Wednesday night.

Coming Here

REV. O'MALLEY
The Rev. F. W. O'Malley of Dallas has accepted a call from the First Christian church of Pampa and will arrive in the next few days to take up his work as minister here. He will occupy the pulpit next Sunday for the first time.

Rev. O'Malley is not a stranger to the people of the Panhandle, having been for four years minister of the First Christian church of Amarillo. He resigned at Amarillo to accept a call from the Oak Cliff Christian church at Dallas, one of the large churches of that city. He made a trip to Pampa a few weeks ago, and while here appeared on a Rotary program. He is considered an outstanding member of the Christian Church Brotherhood, and members of the local church have said they consider the local congregation fortunate in securing him.

Double Killing Is Revealed at Farm Near Pilot Point

DENTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Three young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bowman, returning to their home near Pilot Point after a Thanksgiving holiday in Dallas, found their father dead and his throat cut and their mother beaten to death.

Both bodies were in the kitchen of their farm home, that of the father lying across the mother. A razor was found beside Bowman's body.

The daughters were accompanied by the Rev. T. C. Harris of Pilot Point when the bodies were found.

Three blood spattered rooms and back porch indicated a long struggle and a desperate attempt by the woman to save her life. The instrument with which she was beaten to death was not found by Sheriff Ted Lewis, who made the investigation. He believed that the woman had died Friday night and Bowman the next morning.

The three children who found the bodies were Doris, 16, Lorene, 12, and Freda, 9. The family came here about a year ago from Dewey, Okla.

Justice of the Peace E. C. Barton, who conducted the inquest, returned a verdict that Bowman killed his wife and slashed his own throat.

Bootleg Liquor Valued at $42,000 Will Be Destroyed by Sheriff Soon

In a small room adjoining the sheriff's office in the courthouse are stacked and piled 1,800 gallons of illegally distilled intoxicating liquors in bottles, flasks, jugs, and kegs. In the next week, on Tuesday, probably, Sheriff E. S. Graves and his deputies in the presence of "two credible witnesses" will "destroy" the wet goods by emptying it upon the ground, according to a statement from the sheriff's department.

The assorted liquors represent a sum of at least $43,500, estimating the whiskey at the current price of $3 a pint (assuming it is bootleg), and not computing the value of the choice wines, beer, gin and "bonded" liquors, the last of which is usually sold by reticently boastful bootleggers for $6 and $7 a pint.

Conforming to a legal precedent established in 1926 by Texas district Judge that all intoxicating liquor in the possession of the sheriff be destroyed at the end of a court session, W. R. Ewing, district judge, in the 31st district, issued this order yesterday: "In re 1,800 gallons of intoxicating liquor."

SHUT-DOWN IS TO CONTINUE FOR 60 DAYS

Only Necessary Wells to Be Drilled in Interim

NEXT MEETING IS SET FOR JAN. 28

Better Conditions for Industry Are Seen

Agreement to continue the shut-down for another 60 days in all drilling wells except those in which drainage has taken place or will take place, was unanimously favored by 40 officials of major oil companies in a meeting at the Schneider hotel Friday afternoon.

An opinion that the crude oil market will be in such a healthy condition by Feb. 1 that the curtailment program may be abandoned was expressed by H. M. Stalcup, vice-president in charge of production of the Skelly Oil company, who presided at the meeting.

Mr. Stalcup believes that although the daily production has decreased none in the last thirty days, the biggest loss since the shut-down began Aug. 28 will be felt in Gray county in the next 60 days. Most of the offsets Finley pool and conditions are now have been completed in the Marland-right for the beginning of a big decline in production that will favorably affect the industry as a whole. Mr. Stalcup said.

The next meeting for discussing curtailment will be held here Jan. 28 at 10 o'clock.

Approval of the operators to drill in two wells in the Coombs-Worley area was asked by J. L. McMahan, division manager of the Texas company. He intimated that if the approval were not given, his company may feel compelled to drill in the wells anyway. Mr. McMahan said that his company had followed the shut-down regulations to the smallest detail, while some other companies had continued to make completions in the area that was supposed to have been affected by the agreement. He said his company now feels that it must make two completions in order to protect its property. Bringing in of the two wells would require the completion of two wells by Operators' Oil company and two by Magnolia Oil and Refining company. However, Mr. McMahan stated that his company had not definitely decided to complete the two wells, which are now

PIPELINE RUN BY TEXAS CO. TO BE CUT

Two small completions failed to offset declines in old wells in the Marland-Finley pool, and the daily production of Gray county was forced down to 62,163, a decrease of 2,243 barrels over that of the previous week.

Climaxing a decision of major operators to continue the drilling shutdown in Gray county for another 60 days, Texas Pipeline company announced another 20 per cent cut in pipeline runs, effective Dec. 1. The company announced their first 20 per cent cut of crude oil a month ago. In stating that it will buy only 60 per cent of the oil it was buying a month ago, the Texas company anticipated that biggest results of the shutdown will be seen in the next two months, it is understood. At the operators' meeting Friday, Texas company officials expressed the opinion that some other companies had drilled wells contrary to the shutdown agreement, taking advantage of its strict adherence to the agreement.

The two completions this week were Texas company's No. 3-B Chapman in section 69, block 25, had an initial production of 600 barrels at a depth of 2,700 feet and Magnolia Petroleum company's No. 8 Bowers in block B-2 which produced 775 barrels at 3,003 feet.

Wells and production by counties compared with the previous week:

Carson—194 wells, producing 10,080 barrels, an increase of 485 barrels.
Gray—486 wells producing 62,163, a decrease of 2,243 barrels.
Hutchinson—980 wells, producing 27,492 barrels, a gain of 474 barrels.
Moore—19 wells producing 679 barrels, a loss of 152 barrels.
Wheeler—38 wells producing 788 barrels, a gain of 90 barrels.
Total production, 101,202 barrels, a decrease of 1,400 barrels.

SAM JONES IS AGAIN CHARGED

Warrants Sworn Out
at Amarillo Before
Raids

BORGER, Nov. 30. (AP)—Former Mayor Glen A. Pace and four former peace officers of Borger were among ten persons in jail here tonight following arrests on federal dry warrants, which were understood to have been sworn out in U. S. district court at Amarillo by federal agents of Kansas City.

With Pace were former Chief Deputy Sheriff Jim Cane, former Deputy Sheriff Cal Baird, and former Constable C. A. Mitchell, all ousted during martial law; Jack Payne, one-time deputy constable; Louis Weitsman, hotel manager; Curley Lantron, town bus line operator; and Lewis Crim and H. O. Taylor, who were held without bond during martial law under General Order Six.

Cases are not duplicated by ones filed in district court, it was said. Federal Agents Fred R. Harpole and G. H. Allen, who swore out the warrants, were said to have been making investigations here for several months.

Baird, after getting some clothing, himself opened the jail door he had opened for many prisoners. "Come close it somebody," he said. His wife obliged.

Former Deputy Constable Sam Jones who succeeded today after a week of effort in making bonds on a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of District Attorney John A. Holmes and a charge of bribery, was one of the ten men named in the federal warrants. Jones finally succeeded in making bond yesterday of $7,500 on the murder indictment and today posted a bond of $1,500 on the bribery charge. He was arrested immediately on the federal warrant.

Bonds for those arrested were expected to range from $5,000 to $10,000 according to the nature of the cases, Mrs. Mary K. Hartly, United States commissioner at Amarillo said tonight.

CARNEGIE TECH STUDENT VICTIM OF SOME POISON

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 30. (AP)—The aid of a chemist was secured tonight in an effort to reveal the circumstances surrounding the death of Paul Ott, 19, of Baltimore, Carnegie Tech student who was found dying at a dormitory entrance early today as the temperature neared zero. He died in an hour without regaining consciousness while fellow students and a doctor tried to revive him.

A coroner's post mortem examination was said to have revealed the cause of the death as "acute gastro enteritis," which might have resulted from ptomaine or other poisoning. The poison will not be known until completion of the stomach analysis in three or four days.

Detectives conducted a futile search of the youth's room and examined pots and pans in the dormitory kitchen in the hope of finding something that might aid in solving the case. A metal pot in which Ott was believed to have prepared coffee a few hours before he was found dying was among the utensils scrutinized.

Wisconsin Bank Robbed

BLACK HAWK, Wis., Nov. 30. (AP)—The Black Hawk State bank was robbed of $4,000 late today by two men who locked Cashier L. R. Srecher in the vault and escaped apparently without being seen.

THE HIGHWAY ROUTING SITUATION HAS BEEN FURTHER COMPLICATED BY A REQUEST FROM MIAMI AND MOBBETIE CITIZENS THAT HIGHWAY 4 BE ROUTED THROUGH THOSE TOWNS FROM WHEELER, THENCE TO PERRYTON.

The existing route of Highway 4 is from Wheeler to Canadian to Perryton. The need for a shorter route to the upper plains section is widely recognized, but the state has frowned upon steps to add more roads to maintain.

The bridge, when built, should be so placed that it will not only serve Highway 4, but an extension northward from Pampa, such as No. 88.

BIG BUSINESS AND LITTLE BUSINESS HAVE JOINED HANDS IN CREATING CONFIDENCE AND OPTIMISM SINCE THE STOCK MARKET COLLAPSE.

The desire for business stability is non-political. Republicans and Democrats, and Socialists and those of other political affiliations have contributed to the general effort to restore confidence in the nation's business.

While the crisis was largely imaginary, the effects of the public's reaction might have been damaging; indeed, there was an immediate tendency to cut production of certain articles, especially luxuries. But that the resources of the nation can be mustered to offset any rift in the financial world is indicative of the modern tendency to cooperate for mutual benefit.

Business cannot life itself by its bootstraps when real trouble comes, but it can step into other boots; i. e., make up in public and corporation expansion and building for what is lacking in other lines.

Business is learning to prevent panics, just as individual industries are learning to control production within the reasonable consuming demands. It is singularly fortunate that when the stock market runs to such absurd heights that public improvement bonds are not saleable, the stocks tumble, bonds are restored in desirability, and building goes ahead to maintain a business balance.

Record-Breaking Movie Classic, "The Hollywood Review" Now Here

Several records are claimed for "The Hollywood Review", the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer musical production which recently made its bow at Grauman's Chinese Theatre, Los Angeles, and which will open at the Rex Theatre today.

In the first place "The Hollywood Review" is the screen's first revue. It differs from such musical sound successes as "The Broadway Melody", "On With the Show", "The Fox Follies", and "The Desert Song" in that it contains none of the ingredients of musical comedy nor operetta but is strictly of the revue type of entertainment.

Secondly the new musical production presents more stars "under one roof" or at least within one strip of celluloid than ever before. The number and the salaries of the celebrities assembled for the first cinema revue might make a Carroll or a Ziegfeld perspire more than his wont, and it appears that bankruptcy would be the inevitable fate of the average producer who tried to bring Marion Davies, John Gilbert, Norma Shearer, William Haines, Joan Crawford, Buster Keaton and the various other luminaries involved together in one Broadway legitimate show.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham of the Skelly Oil Company flew to Oklahoma City Thursday morning and returned late Friday after transacting important business.

Sermon of Interest on Thanksgiving

"Father, I Thank Thee," was the theme of the address delivered by the Rev. A. A. Hyde, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, at the community Thanksgiving service held Wednesday evening at the Methodist church. The sermon was brief, but one of much interest to the audience, which was somewhat larger than that in attendance at last year's Thanksgiving morning service.

The Rev. James Todd presided. The Scripture for the evening was read by the Rev. D. H. Truhitte, pastor of the First Baptist church. A choir composed of singers from each of the church choirs of the city sang the anthem, "Praise the Father." Grady Morton, educational director of the Methodist church, directed the choir and sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God." The Rev. Tom W. Brabham, pastor of the Methodist church, took an offering for the Pampa Welfare associations.

ABOUT FOLKS

By A. F.

This is Charlie Duenkel's manchild, Junior. His photograph speaks louder than words, but take a look at those eyes, that smile, those teeth, that left-hand gesture. Note how his masculinity is already asserting itself in those wide-spread legs—he stands like Sir Francis Drake. Drs. V. E. Brunow and C. D. Hunter have examined him and their reports say he is a perfect baby. Junior is now a little over nine months old, having been born Feb. 16 last. He is just on the verge of walking but can't quite make it. He's always happy when he's standing up—that's why he is so happy in this photograph. Mrs. Duenkel can tell you the cute things he says and Charlie knows the clever things that he does—but we've never heard anyone imitate an ambulance siren better than Junior.

And speaking of tiny tots, Shirley Mae Sone, the two-year old daughter of Principal and Mrs. L. L. Sone, say she's going to belong to the pep squad when she grows up.

Does anyone in town have a building which can be used at nights for basketball practice? The versatile pastor, Rev. Tom W. Brabham, and several other devotees of basket ball are intent on organizing a team and they want some place to practice.

Otto Studer reports he has not received any more mash letters.

Postoffice Inspector M. B. Johnson left the local postoffice in a hurry Saturday morning after he was told in a long distance conversation that the Matador postoffice had been robbed.

County Treasurer Mabel Davis has not seen a prize fight in two years but she's going to the next one she said.

Sheriff Graves is one man in town who never misses a football game, a wrestling match or a prize fight. The sheriff was very much put out the other night when he had to leave the fights to make a liquor raid.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Patterson were glad to learn the other day that they are moving back to Pampa. Before her marriage, Mrs. Patterson was Miss Dee Breeding. Miss Louise Miller seemed particularly glad that Mrs. Patterson will live in Pampa again. "Pat" will be associated with Mr. Shaw at the Richards Drug company. He sold his drug store at Pampa last week.

P-T-A To Present Radio Won in Contest to Schools of City

Announcement was made yesterday that the Parent-Teacher associations of the city had won second place with an R. C. A. radio as the prize, in a popularity contest sponsored by the radio wholesale dealers of Oklahoma City. The prize, on which all associations of the city concentrated their efforts, will be presented the Pampa City schools, according to Mrs. V. E. Fatheree, president of the High School P. T. A.

First prize, a baby grand piano, was won by the Northwest Texas Children's home at Amarillo. During the period of the contest, music stores and radio shops throughout the territory included in the Oklahoma City sales area held open house giving each visitor a ballot at every establishment, which he was free to cast for his favorite organization or individual in the contest. The Oden Music Shoppe and the Finkle Electric Shop were the local business houses which participated.

A radio has long been wanted by the teachers of music and musical appreciation, particularly in the grammar grades. Miss Iva June Willis, music supervisor, said that much of value in the musical education of children is being broadcast, such as the Walter Damrosch symphony orchestra concerts, with graded music for the various ages.

First Baptist Church
 We are looking forward to one of the greatest services today that we have had this year. Notwithstanding the fact that the attendance last Sunday was far greater than the Sunday before, and we had eight additions to the church we are expecting even a greater service today.

The pastor will speak Sunday morning on the subject "The Kind of a Revival the World Needs" and will no doubt ask and answer some questions of interest to the entire city. Sunday evening the pastor will speak on the subject, "Playing the Fool," and he will endeavor to show that some of recent date have been playing the fool. Many people have an exalted or whole-some view of religion. Some regard religion as one does a spare tire; they carry it around in hopes that it will some day come in handy in case of an unexpected emergency. A stenographical report of both sermons will be taken.

Don't forget Sunday school at 9:45, sermon at 11. "The Kind of a Revival the World Needs." B. Y. P. U. at 6:15. Sermon at 7:30, "Playing the Fool."

The pastor has been misquoted and misrepresented over last Sunday's service and we hope to expose "Art thou

Beaumont Woman Swallows Poison

BEAUMONT, Nov. 30. (AP)—Miss Jennie Morris, 35, swallowed a slow acting poison a moment after she had been sentenced to three months in jail on a narcotic charge in federal district court here today. She was walking with a group of prisoners to be taken to jail when she took the poison and fell to the floor of the courtroom in pain.

Officers rushed her to the hospital where physicians said it was impossible to tell how serious her condition was, due to the slow action of the substance she swallowed.

COLDER WEATHER IN SIGHT NOW IN SOUTHWEST AREA

Texas thermometers, which have vacillated up and down for the past two days, were promised another round of see-sawing Sunday and Monday, with colder weather in the offing. After last night's cold snap with which Texas escaped the central cold wave, sunny skies brought relief to many cities and tomorrow's prediction was warmer, but cloudy and unsettled. Monday the cold was expected to set in again.

Texas' warmest day of all cities reporting cold Saturday with a minimum of 17 early this morning. San Antonio was one of the state's coldest places at 8 o'clock this morning when the mercury sank to 33; while many other cities in farther north areas spent unpleasantly chilly nights.

As the sun climbed the sky today, most cities enjoyed a respite. Brownsville, on the southern tip of Texas, predicted fair and warmer tomorrow. A way up the coast, Corpus Christi looked forward to rain with moderately low temperature. A bit farther north, Houston forecasters predicted a frost before morning, while in far north, Amarillo skies were cleared and the weather was moderate.

Anne Austin, author of "The Black Pigeon, Rival Wives", etc. "As not today as my future home will be; that is, if I go where some of my good friends expect me to." Mrs. Hogarth had written, with grim humor. "The moths and light nidges are a nuisance. If that useless Dusty doesn't put my screen in Monday, I'm going to shake his teeth down his throat. Something very strange about his putting off that job, lazy as he is. I more than half believe E. S. or G. B. has bribed him to leave my window unscreened. It's been five years since I've had such a strong presentiment of disaster as I've had today. Wrote the police commissioner to send a plainclothes detective. on top of the pay.

In opening the session, Mr. Stalcup stated that the crude oil market had continued to rise; itself through the natural decline in production. Just now, he said, it is not as healthy as it might be, but it is in the best condition in years. The crude oil purchasing companies admit that they are still buying more oil than they can arrange to take care of, he said. "The Gray producers have done less than any other group in the country toward curtailing production, but they have made no pretence at actual proration or curtailment of production," he stated.

Mr. Stalcup termed "almost unbelievable" but "wonderful" the petition of the Oklahoma operators to the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association to move up the date of proration to Dec. 10. He mentioned that formerly the knowledge that the country has much untapped oil in the ground was looked on as a disastrous situation, while now a reserve oil supply has a stabilizing effect on the industry.

AIRPORT NOTES

FLIES TO DANCE HERE

It is reported here that Cupid has taken "to the air" and from now on will wear flying clothes instead of his former pleasant smile. Last week a lady in Oklahoma desired to attend a dance in Pampa but her pupils were so bad that day that it was nearly 6 o'clock before she could leave the school, and it was a sad leaving because she could not get to Pampa.

But, on her arrival home, an airplane was parked in her back yard ready to fly to Pampa and one hour and forty minutes after leaving the ship, piloted by Ray Shifflett, daredevil of the clouds, dropped upon the local field in the dark.

A car soon had the lady at the dance and a grand time was had by all.

USED PLANE ON HUNTING TRIP

B. L. "Buzz" Hoover of Cree & Hoover returned Friday from a successful hunt in the Sacramento mountains of New Mexico. Mr. Hoover flew back to Pampa in the Cree & Hoover plane, piloted by Dutch Bartgis, veteran airman, who is piloting the company's new biplane.

The local man had deer bear, and turkey stored in the plane on the return trip, the result of the hunt in New Mexico.

RETURN FROM OHIO

George Cree and Mrs. B. L. Hoover returned Friday from Woodfield Ohio, where they were called by the serious illness of their father, who is slowly recovering. They made the trip by train from Ohio to Oklahoma City, where they were met by the Cree & Hoover plane piloted by Dutch Bartgis.

They landed on the local field early in the evening after a fast trip from Oklahoma City.

FLEW TO BIG GAME

Dr. J. C. McKean and his nephew, Nolan McKean, flew in Dr. McKean's new Stearman biplane to attend the T. C. U.-S. M. U. football game Saturday. The trip was piloted by Ray Shifflett of Mangum, Okla., who was in the city. Dr. McKean is a licensed pilot and planned to fly the ship part of the way.

FLIES TO SEE WELLS

While dancing in Coconut Grove, Hollywood, California, a man who has several wells in Gray county, and whose name could not be learned, learned that one of his wells was to be drilled in that same evening. The time was 4 a. m.

He immediately drove to the landing field of the Western Air Express and boarded a tri-motored ship bound for Amarillo. That night at 7 o'clock he was telling the story of his flight to friends in the lobby of the Schneider hotel. He had seen his well drilled in.

Rhinelanders in Ecstasy as French Troops Evacuate

COBLENZ, Germany, Nov. 30. (AP)—The French tricolor that replaced the stars and stripes over the famous old fortress of Ehrenbreitstein after the evacuation of American troops from the Rhineland was hauled down for the last time today, as the French soldiers began to evacuate the second Rhineland zone.

Most of the French soldiers marched to the Moselle railway station and entrained for Metz. An automobile column of sixty cars left for Mayence. The lowering of the tri-color and the hoisting of the German Republica standard on the castle above the historic Rhine was the signal for celebrations throughout the Rhineland tonight.

The evacuation proceeded quietly, but the people later gave vent to their joy at being free from the yoke of foreign occupation that has lasted for 11 years. Only a few Germans watched the French soldiers depart. There were numerous cameramen present.

Hundreds of bonfires were lighted tonight on the Rhine and Moselle hills.

Fireworks displays burst from the bridges over the Rhine and from Ehrenbreitstein, where the American army hoisted the Stars and Stripes in 1918.

DIES IN STABLE FIRE

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30. (AP)—One man, believed to be Hank S. Savage, Chicago horseman, and four horses burned to death tonight in a fire which destroyed the Thomas Marullo stable near the Jefferson park race track.
