SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS THE MANTLE GETS THE STOCKING AND DAD GETS THE SOCKING

WELLS FLOW WILD TO ADD MORE CRUDE

But Increase Is Too Late to Prevent Decline

HUTCHINSON HAS 325-BARREL GAIN

Texas Company Well Is Sensation of Gray County

Three gushers in the Coombs-Worley area that came in the latter part of the week for a total initial production of 7,180 barrels ran wild yesterday, increasing their total flow to 17,760 barrels daily.

While the total daily production for the week was 100,865 barrels, a loss of 537 barrels over the previous week, next week's average is scheduled to be considerably higher in view of the added production from the three wells.

The Texas company's No. 5 in section 36, block 3, was completed for an initial production of 900 barrels daily at 2,878 feet. The next day the flow increased to 4,835 barrels while yesterday the well was flowing 550 barrels an hour, or 8,400 barrels daily.

The company's No. 3 nearby was completed for an initial production of 60 barrels an hour, or 1,420 barrels daily. The next day it produced 2,400 barrels and yesterday ran all over the place while it produced 150 barrels an hour or 3,600 barrels daily.

The other well, Phillips Petroleum company's No. 6 Palmer, section 81, block B-2, was drilled into pay at 2,775 feet and had an initial production of 4,800 barrels. Yesterday, its production increased to 5,760 barrels.

Hinerman Brothers' No. 1-A Taylor in section 8, block H. A. W. Wallace survey was plugged and abandoned at 3,325 feet. Shamrock Oil and Gas company's No. 2 McCutcheon-Saunders on the J. G. Eustis survey came in at 3,798 feet, producing 100 barrels of oil and 450 barrels of water.

There were no completions in Hutchinson county during the last week. The three wells in the Coombs-Worley area are three of that are scheduled to be shut-in immediately. All are offsets to good producers that have been brought in. Phillips company has ample tank storage to take care of its production but Texas company is reported to be running part of the oil from two gushers on the ground.

Wells and production by counties compared with the previous week: Carson—194 wells, producing 9,835 barrels, a decrease of 245 barrels.

Gray—498 wells, producing 61,485 barrels, a loss of 651 barrels.

Hutchinson—983 wells, producing 27,817 barrels, a gain of 325 barrels.

Still Doesn't Choose NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Dec. 7. (AP)—Calvin Coolidge, former president, remained uncommunicative tonight regarding published reports that he would be a candidate for the United States senate in 1930.

Coolidge's comments of "I have nothing further to say" was delivered by his secretary, who called attention to the former president's recent statement that "any reporter that wants to get a scoop may do so by denying any published rumors regarding my intentions."

Borger to Try Again to Obtain New Officials

BORGER, Dec. 7. (AP)—Attempts to obtain a new city government for Borger to replace the one installed, during martial law, by state authorities had resolved themselves into circulation of a petition for an election to name a charter committee tonight. This effort apparently had replaced the one launched at a mass meeting last night at which a charter committee of 15 was appointed.

Proponents of a new deal in city government here have insisted that they had nothing against the present administration but that they merely wanted officials elected by the people.

The present administration was placed in power after the assassination of District Attorney John A. Holmes last September had resulted in a reign of martial law. Military and state authorities announced that they would not raise the rule of martial law until the old city and county administrations were replaced by officials satisfactory to the state. This led to the resignation of most of the county and city officers.

COLD WAVE RETURNS CHICAGO, Dec. 7. (AP)—A fresh cover let of snow drifted down over the West today as the latest onslaught of winter drove temperatures down 12 degrees below zero in North Dakota and Minnesota.

CHINESE SITUATION VERY GRAVE

BUSINESS MEN PESSIMISTIC IN WARRING LAND

Nationalist Chief Has Task to Hold Position

MARTIAL LAW IS BEING DECLARED

Loyal Troops Quit As Leader Ordered Dismissed

SHANGHAI, Dec. 8. (Sunday 10 a. m.)—All sources this morning agreed that General Chiang Kai-Shek, president of the council of the Nationalist government, was still continuing to direct affairs at Nanking. There had been reports that he had already withdrawn from office because of the widespread revolt.

There were sporadic and isolated disorders during the night in Chinese towns of Shanghai.

The British owned North China Daily News in commenting on the situation this morning said: "Local political and business circles view the situation as extremely grave, the worst since 1927. Responsible Chinese take a pessimistic attitude."

The British cruiser Suffolk ordered to Nanking to protect British Nationals and possibly evacuate women and children, sailed from here at 7 a. m.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 7. (AP)—China Nationalist government staggered tonight as the armed revolt against its authority became widespread.

President Chiang Kai-Shek, the generalissimo who three years ago led the Cantonese northward in a great march that subjugated all elements into a unified government, was the special object of the attack.

Shanghai, Nanking, Canton and Hankow were placed under martial law by the harassed government as they were depleted of troops to engage the rebellious forces threatening them.

Railroads leading west from Shanghai to Nanking and south from Shanghai to Hankow were cut by rebel troops as the demoralization progressed. Reports, hampered by severed wires and government censorship, filtered in giving accounts of increasing defections to government troops as the magnitude of the rebellion grew.

Against the Pukow mutineers who had moved northward to form a mobilization base of other rebels, the government was said to be planning to send 70,000 soldiers. To do this, other areas had been drawn upon, and in these weakened areas revolt sprang up.

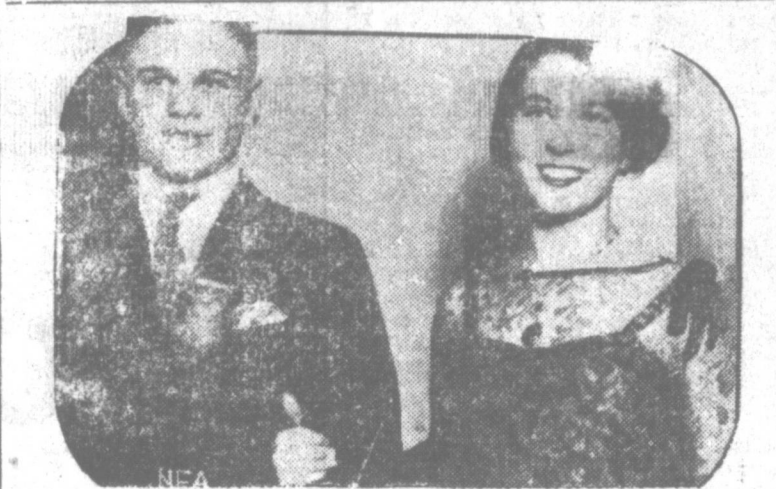

General Tang Seng-Chi, leader of the government forces against the Kuomintang (People's army) troops recently active in Honan and Hupei provinces, was ordered dismissed and arrested for circulating a telegram criticizing government policies and expressing sympathy with rebels. The order of arrest was said to have turned 10,000 more soldiers against the government in Honan province.

Salvation Army to Assist Santa Claus This Year

The Salvation Army is planning to see that no poor or needy family in Pampa goes without a good Christmas dinner and that Santa Claus does not miss a boy or girl this Christmas. To make sure of this, Essign Edgar King, officer in charge of the local corps, will make a canvass of the city and investigate the needs of the poor families.

To avoid duplication of efforts, the Salvation Army will cooperate with other organizations of the city. It is the custom of the Salvation Army to give Christmas baskets to the needy families and, in addition, a tree for the poor children; but owing to the fact that some of the other organizations have not yet definitely decided the extent of their Christmas activities, the Army cannot announce yet just what its program will be.

ANGERED BY REPRIMAND, BOY AT ITALY, TEXAS SLAYS HIS PARENTS AND WOUNDS BROTHER

DR. DUTTON TO END LECTURES THIS EVENING

ITALY, Dec. 7. (AP)—Confronted with blood stains on his clothes, Herman Riley, 16, confessed to Assistant County Attorney John M. Hatter he shot and killed his middle aged parents and wounded his brother in their home near the Cedar community, 4 miles southwest of here, last night. A parental reprimand was said to have preceded the tragedy.

Riley was placed in jail at Waxahachie, where a charge of murder was filed.

Although the shooting was alleged to have been done about 10 o'clock last night, the bodies and the wounded boy were not found until early this morning.

The mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Riley, were found slain in their bed room. Riley's body bore two wounds in the head and side, while that of his wife had two wounds in the head. The couple apparently had retired for the night, the man's body being found in bed and Mrs. Riley's on the floor at the foot of the bed. Both were dressed in night clothes.

The wounded son, Walter, 17, suffered a bullet wound through the nose. He was sent to a Waxahachie hospital. He was expected to recover, although he was weak from the loss of blood.

The alleged confession was obtained after the accused boy first told officers he discovered the bodies of his parents and his wounded brother when he returned home last night. After questioned regarding the blood stains, officers said he confessed, saying he shot his mother and father because of a reprimand given him Wednesday night.

The brother was said to have been shot when he attempted to interfere.

Twelve Planes Are Destroyed in Love Field Fire

Mayor Meacham of Fort Worth Dies

DALLAS, Dec. 7. (AP)—Fire destroyed the number one hangar at Love field and twelve airplanes in it tonight doing damage estimated by attendants at the field at $200,000.

The planes belonged to private operators and transport companies.

Two smaller structures one used as an office for a transport company and the other as a telegraph office, were burned.

Burton Dedmon, manager of the company, estimated the property destroyed was worth at least $200,000 and could not be replaced for less than $300,000. For a time it was thought that the towers of the United States army radio station would be damaged by officers said they believed the heat had done them no harm.

It was the third fire at the field in a week, a warehouse and a building filled with paint having burned since last Saturday. Firemen from Dallas and Highland Park answered the call.

MARINES WILL JOIN THOSE IN SMALL ISLAND

Killing of 5 Natives Made Known to Hoover

SITUATION NOW IS DISTRESSING

President Asks Right to Send Group for Probe

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. (AP)—President Hoover dispatched more Marines to Haiti today to quell widespread disturbances and asked congress for authority to send a commission there to obtain facts upon which to base the future policy of the American government with respect to the island republic.

Dispatches from the Haitian capital that 20 marines killed five and wounded twenty in repulsing 1,500 Haitians at Aux Cayes were scanned closely by President Hoover. He already had confidential reports from the American authorities indicating that the situation had become serious. Some of these arrived before he prepared his message to congress yesterday, but the more serious news of the situation at Aux Cayes was received subsequently.

While the disturbance in Haiti had its inception in a strike of students, official information from the island indicated some political leaders have seized upon the situation to start a widespread revolt aimed at least in part at Americans.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 7. (AP)—A battalion of 490 marines in command of Major Louis F. Hagan 2nd, sailed from the Hampton Roads naval operating base today at noon for Port-Au-Prince Haiti, to act as reinforcements for the 700 marines already on duty in the little West Indian republic.

The U. S. S. Wright, flagship of the aircraft squadrons of the scouting fleet, is serving as marine transport to carry the marines to Haiti.

The battalion is composed of 125 officers and enlisted men from Parris Island, S. C., who arrived by special train at 7:30 o'clock this morning; a detachment of 300 officers and enlisted men, arriving shortly afterward by special steamer from Quantico, and 75 officers and enlisted men from the marine barracks at the Norfolk navy yard.

The major portion of the Haitian contingent which sailed aboard the Wright is made up of veterans who have seen service in Nicaragua or in Haiti. The Parris Island group, however, was composed almost exclusively of first enlistment men, all of whom were looking forward with eagerness to their initial service "beyond the seas."

The battalion which sailed aboard the Wright is composed of a headquarters staff, headquarters company, three rifle companies and a machine gun company. In addition three observation planes of the aircraft squadrons were taken aboard the Wright to work in conjunction with the land troops.

Under good weather conditions, the Wright should arrive at Port-Au-Prince Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

Cattle Demand in 11 Markets Strong

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 7. (AP)—(United States Department of Agriculture)—Livestock trade around the 11-market circuit this week, was featured by a fairly broad demand for most classes of cattle, except medium weight and heavy fed steers. Light weight steers and yearlings generally firm to slightly higher as compared with a week ago. Matured steers at several points show losses of 25 to 50c. Slaughter-cows at most markets strong to unevenly higher. Chicago scored $16.25 on choice yearlings and obtained $14.75 for the best heavy steers. Choice big weight steers late in the week at Chicago $13.25 and $13.50. Receipts 223,300, an increase of 37,500 over last week and about the same as the corresponding period a year ago.

Hogs opened the week materially higher, were sharply lower at mid-week, and strengthened on the close. Current values as compared with a week ago were slightly higher at some centers while other markets steady to 15c higher. St. Louis had a closing top of $9.40, and on the high spot early in the week $9.65 was realized in Chicago. Offerings 700,000 as compared with 540,120 last week and 714,891 a year ago.

The sheep supply approximated 257,400, an increase of 62,500 over last week and 9,500 more than a year ago. Fat lambs are strong to 25c higher with Saturday of last week, and a few points reported strength on aged stock. Closely sorted lambs in Chicago made $13.65.

(AP)—War on "extracts" known as "intoxication extracts" was declared here today by district attorney Henry Pharr who declared that he would take steps to restrain the sale of the liquids in Hunt, Raines, Hopkins and Delta counties. Elderly Banker Gets Suspended Sentence

GALVESTON Dec. 7. (AP)—Ed McCarthy, 72, Galveston banker, was convicted of a charge of receiving deposits while insolvent and given a five-year suspended sentence by a jury in the 58th district court this afternoon. The verdict came as a bitter blow to McCarthy. Trembling from head to foot, his face haggard with anguish and with tears in his eyes he stood by the side of D. D. McDonald, one of his attorneys, as Deputy District Clerk Williams, Ham Worst read the jurors' verdict and as Judge M. S. Scumson of Angleton pronounced sentence upon him. His face brightened when Judge Munson expressed his sympathy for him. No motion for a new trial was made by McDonald as is the usual custom following a conviction in criminal cases. No appeal from the verdict and sentence can be taken, it was said.

Wheat Again in Slump Saturday

CHICAGO, Dec. 7. (AP)—Confronted by an apparent total stoppage of wheat export business from North America, wheat traders here flocked to the selling side of the market today. Prices gave way and at the last were bumping hard against the bottommost level reached.

Notice taken on a statement by the United States department of agriculture that from now until spring the problem of marketing wheat will loom large. Chicago closing quotations on wheat were shaky, 2c to 2.5-c per bushel lower than yesterday's finish. Corn closed 1-2c to 1c down, with oats 3-8c to 5-8c off and provisions unchanged to a rise of 7c.

General selling, which widened out in the final hour especially, included large scale unloading of speculative holdings of wheat future deliveries. Owners showed particular discouragement after failure of the market to hold a brisk rally which had taken place as a result of talk that a big export house here had dispatch estimating the new Argentine wheat crop at only 140,000,000 to 150,000,000 bushels.

Russell Middleton of Amarillo is a business visitor here today.

Operation by New Drug Is Success

The latest in anaesthetics, sodium amylal, that promises to revolutionize that phase of surgery which requires that the patient be insensible for operation, was used for the first time in Pampa this week and perhaps for the first time in Texas by Dr. Walter Purviance in Pampa hospital.

Several weeks ago, Dr. Purviance, who has made a special study of anaesthetics, visited Mayo's clinic at Rochester, Minn., the general hospital at Chicago and the University of Wisconsin hospital at Madison. At all of these places he found surgeons talking of the new anaesthetic sodium amylal. He observed several operations where it was used. Another thing, he found that gas which was popular a few years ago was seldom used in the famous hospitals of the Middle West.

Last week Dr. Purviance had a patient who was not able to withstand either ether or gas. He used sodium amylal with great success. The drug was administered intravenously, that is, in a vein as a hypodermic. Complete insensibility and profound sleep was obtained within three minutes and before the patient was carried to the operating room. There was complete relaxation of the muscles and loss of the common reflexes except the pharyngeal. The respirations were those of the patient in a profound sleep.

Blood pressure maintained its regular level. The pulse rate remained unchanged. After surgery the patient slept ten hours. During this time there was an absence of nausea, retching, and vomiting which usually accompanies ether or gas. However, the patient was a little restless before becoming fully conscious. About 20 grams of sodium amylal (sodium iso-amyl-ethyl barbiturate) was injected in the wrist vein. As the patient had no knowledge of the coming operation, apprehension, and excitement was avoided, as were also the usual sickness and sweating. The anaesthetic was first used in Germany and in America at John Hopkins university, but it had been used widely for hypnotic purposes.

However, Dr. Purviance says, the anaesthetic may have a short-lived popularity as Dr. Waters at the Methodist hospital and surgeons at John Hopkins are now just beginning to use one they claim is superior to sodium amylal; it is tribromethanol. It purports to eliminate the riskiness that patients have before becoming fully conscious from the effects of sodium amylal. Dr. Purviance plans to observe the use of the new tribromethanol in the near future to determine its value and the type of cases to which it is best suited.

Part of Winning Flock for Sale

One of the winners in the Pampa Poultry show, J. G. Christy, plans to sell a portion of his flock in the hope that this step may increase interest in the show and lead to more entries next year.

Mr. Christy pointed out that he won either a first or second ribbon for every exhibit he made, winning first and second on Ringlet Plymouth Rocks, first and second on Old Pen White Leghorns, and a first on young pen. Competition was particularly strong in the Ringlet division, where his fowls competed against imported birds.

About New York

By RICHARD MASSOCK

NEW YORK—Reminded by their servants' extraordinary care and courtesy that Santa Claus is soon due, a Park avenue couple began making the Christmas gift list.

They frowned a long while over the problem of what to give a couple of similar affluence. There was nothing they could think of that these friends did not already possess, or might not prefer buying themselves.

Finally they hit upon the idea of sending the most expensive greeting card they could find. This "card," with the greetings attached, happened to be an etching costing $250.

GORGEOUS GREETINGS

The highest priced Christmas cards on Fifth avenue, though, sell for $5.
These super-cards, in case you don't anticipate one on your own mail, are usually in booklet form, 10 by 12 inches, and are hand colored etchings.

One shop reports a steady demand, although they are seldom ordered in quantities, usually being bought singly for recipients to whom good form prohibits an actual gift.

A saleswoman explained that there still are old-fashioned people, especially in more conservative society, whose strict etiquette forbids an exchange of jewelry and such between unmarried young folk. The flowers, books or candy of tradition lack for them, however, any seasonal significance, so they send cards that cost as much and furthermore can, if the recipient fancies, be framed.

It's not the gift, but the sentiment.

MIRACLE

Taxi-drivers never seem to have change for anything larger than a $1 bill. Even reducing currency to cigar-coupon size didn't help the situation.

Couples, already late for the theater, are kept waiting while drivers futilely fumble in pockets, apparently hopeful that if they finally drag out four crumpled dollars and a stray dime the passenger will let them keep the remainder of the $5 in payment of perhaps a 55-cent fare. The scheme, if such it is, works best on night club parties who are past counting anyway.

The other night, therefore, an experienced citizen, returning home quite late, was annoyed to find that he had only a $50 bill in his purse.

"I don't suppose you can change this," he said gloomily, already resigned to more riding in search of an all-night restaurant that might have that much money.

"What is it?" asked the driver. "Only a fifty? Sure" And he left his surprised fare counting a handful of bank notes for the second time to make sure it really happened.

OPTIMISM

A group of Wall Street men to relax their minds after several weeks of frenzy arranged a poker game on a Saturday night. The players were all directors in corporations whose stocks were way down.

One of them began to lose in the game too. As his pile dwindled the corners of his mouth sank lower and lower.
Finally pushing out the last three chips, he remarked grimly, "Conditions are fundamentally sound."

Alpha Epsilon, Latin Club of Central High, Initiates Eleven

Eleven first-year students of Latin were initiated Thursday evening by Alpha Epsilon, Latin club of Central high school, enduring all the exquisite tortures devised by twenty members of the second year. Frances Finley was hostess to the club for the occasion, entertaining at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Finley.

Well un-nerved by a trip through an ingeniously devised chamber of horrors, the initiates were forced to examine the "remains" of Caesar, the white listening to a weird discourse by the murdered emperor's ghost.

The night's activities served, however, only as a beginning of the initiate with Friday bringing the candidates the humiliation of being forced to bow to their superiors and address them as "Sir" and "Madame." Under pain of exclusion from the club, the girls were compelled to attend school with their hair uncombed and their faces guiltless of powder or the faintest hint of rouge, while the boys were forced to wear liberal supplies of rouge, lipstick and powder, and keep their hair faultlessly brushed.

New members of Alpha Epsilon, granted recognition at the end of the exercises were: Margaret Bryson, Fred Johnson, Christine Cook, Louise Walstad, Jonnie Davis, Josephine Lewis, Jean Hyde, Marjory Buckler, Lucille
Cole, Dean Washmon, and Naomi Roundtree.

Older members of the club, who participated in the initiation service, were: Miss Anna Esta Goerner, teacher and sponsor; Yvonne Thomas, president; Lillian Jamison, Marion Brunley, Floy Stanard, Lorens Qualls, Bobby Jean Robinson, Eloise Lane,
Eleanor Bradley, Wanda Barnard, Ethel Hamilton, Leona Leddom, Frances Finley, Virginia Rose, Frances Campbell, Willard Hughey, Autry
Holmes, John Croust, Turney Mullinax, Lowell Fendrick, and Ray McNeill.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS ENTERTAIN FOUR CLASSES

Twenty-eight members of four girls' classes in the Junior department of the Methodist Sunday school were entertained Friday evening by their teachers with a theatre party at the Rex. The hostesses were: Mrs. Tom W. Brab-ham, Mrs. Joe Shelton, Mrs. E. Wood, and Mrs. J. G. Stroup.

Clay. Members present were: Dorothy

HORNSBY AGAIN SELECTED MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

NEW YORK, Dec. 7. (AP)—Rogers Hornsbey, slugging second baseman of the pennant-winning Chicago Cubs, has been voted the national league's most valuable player for 1929.

The announcement of his selection by the vote of a baseball writers' committee, of which James Crisberry of Chicago was chairman, came from the National league offices Saturday. It is the sixth and last official award by the league, carrying with it a bronze medal and cash prize of $1,000.

Doctors Assert Clay Hester Has Form of Insanity

LUBBOCK, Dec. 7. (AP)—Testimony from three physicians that Clay Lester was insane and from three relatives that he had acted strangely all of his life was in the record tonight when court recessed for the week end in trial of the alleged wife slayer.

Doctors V. V. Clark and G. G. Castleberry, both of Lubbock, testified that Lester was a victim of paranoia, a type of insanity which usually does not become pronounced until middle age.
This testimony corroborated that of Dr. M. M. Walker of Wichita Falls yesterday.

Under cross-examination the prosecution succeeded in getting Dr. Castleberry to say that Lester acted as a normal man might act when he argued with his wife after finding an alleged love letter and when he quarreled over the fact that she had gone out with another man to collect a bill.

D. P. L. Lester, 72, father of the defendant, and Mrs. Vida Cline and Mrs.
D. Timberlake, his sisters, agreed on the stand that Lester had been "unruly" since childhood and that they believed his frequent derelictions were due to an abnormal mind. Defense counsel announced tonight that Lester would not be put on the stand.

arms, was uninjured.

Bridges Retires As Simmons Coach

ABILENE, Dec. 7. (AP)—Leslie W.
(Fats) Cranfill, athletic coach of athletics at Stripling high school in Fort Worth, has been elected head coach at Simmons university to succeed Frank Bridges, whose two-year contract expired Dec. 1.

Cranfill has accepted the position, and will take up his new duties immediately. Bridges was said to have gone to his home, Arlington, and had not announced his future plans.

PLEAD TAX REDUCTION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. (AP)—Stars of the stage and men active in the business, civic and religious life of the country paraded up historic Pennsylvania avenue today to plead for a reduction of taxes at the doors of congress.

Gathered from many sections by the Hearst newspapers, the celebrities spoke before a sizeable throng in front of the capitol as legislative leaders gave attention to their pleas and promised relief so far as possible.

On the fringe of the crowd stood a big truck bearing this slogan "taxes and interest on earned incomes can and should be substantially reduced below the rate on unearned incomes."

INSURANCE CHANGES MADE

AUSTIN, Dec. 7. (AP)—The State Insurance board today announced changes in premium and policy forms of title insurance to become effective January 1.

Members of the board said they granted a small increase in rate on policies up to $5,000 but eliminated certain extra hazards in the nature of exceptions, which, when paid for under the old schedule with the hazards eliminated.

On policies of more than $10,000 a "substantial" reduction was said to have been granted in the amount of premiums. Board members said that they thought the changes would meet the objections made by title companies, mortgage companies, real estate boards and the public.

THE NAMING OF GLENNA COLLETT

BY O. B. KEELER

It was a long pleasant drive through the California twilight, from Santa Cruz to whatever little station it was. I was in the same car with Glenna's mother and several other people and we were talking about the girl who is the national champion for the fourth time. Glenna's name was mentioned a number of times, and then somebody added the surname—Glenna Collett.

"That's a wonderful name," I said to Mrs. Collett. "There's a spirited ring to it, and a sort of character, that makes it one of the most unforgettable names in the world. And what a name for a great champion!"

"You think so?" said Glenna's mother. "Well, I'll tell you how it happened. Three weeks after Glenna was born she was without a given name. I couldn't seem to think of any family names that appeared to fit. I wasn't in any hurry to name her; but I did think about it a lot.

"And then, one afternoon, I was thinking about my own school days and school friends, and one of them in particular popped into my head—Glenna Bigelow. And suddenly I tried her name on my baby daughter, on a sort of impulse; Glenna Collett. "And then I said to myself, 'That's it!'"

CONTRIBUTES TO FUND

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 7. (AP)—Just prior to leaving for the United States Thursday, Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow contributed $125 to the fund of the newspaper El Universal in raising for erection of a monument to Captain Emilio Carranza, Mexican airman killed in a crash at Mt. Holly, N. J., last year.

Ambassador Morrow will sail from New York in January as one of the American delegates to the naval limitation conference at London.

MAN ASPHYXIATED

PORT ARTHUR, Dec. 7. (AP)—Joseph J. Smith, 46, proprietor of the Nederland Amusement club at Nederland, 10 miles north of here, was found asphyxiated in the bathroom of his home by friends late Saturday. They said Smith was lying on a pallet on the floor. The gas was turned on, and the hose was disconnected from a heater.

Nine hours' sleep, four hours off duty every day, and special inspectors for food and sleeping accommodations will be compulsory for German domestic servants if a bill to go before the German Parliament becomes law.

ASKED TO SEARCH

NEW YORK, Dec. 7. (AP)—Graham B. Grosvenor, president of the aviation corporation, said tonight that the army and navy air services had been requested to aid in the search for Carl Ben Eielson, Arctic flier, who disappeared on Nov. 9, while on the way from Teller, Alaska, to North Cape Siberia.

AMARILLO NOT ALERT ENOUGH TO HOLD PAGE

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

BRECKENRIDGE, Dec. 7. (AP)—Breckenridge high school's victory over the schoolboy championship of all West Texas and the Panhandle by defeating a heavier, but less alert Amarillo eleven 13 to 0 here today before 10,000 spectators.

Immediately after the game Breckenridge won the toss with Waco and the semi-final game with that team, also a bi-district winner, will be played here Saturday.

Led by their brilliant halfback, Boyce Magness, the Buckaroos converted two Amarillo fumbles into two touchdowns in the second period. On three other occasions the oil belt champions carried the ball inside the Golden Sandies' twenty-yard line. Amarillo's closest approach to a score was in the third quarter when the Sandies got as far as their opponents' 26-yard mark.

It was the tenth straight victory for the speedy Buckaroos. Amarillo had the heavier team today, but that was all. Breckenridge was the smarter eleven and was better drilled in football fundamentals. The Breckenridge team blocked better, tackled more viciously and carried the ball harder.

Magness went over for the Buckaroos' initial touchdown on a twenty-two-yard dash around end after Amarillo's fumble had been recovered by Captain Cary. Graham gave Magness outright interference on the play. Magness booted the extra point.

Breckenridge counted again within three minutes when the Sandies again fumbled and Wohlford recovered for the Buckaroos on the thirteen yard line. This time a pass over the line, B. Magness to Graham was the medium. The try for extra point was missed.

While Boyce Magness was the powerhouse of the winner's backfield he had some capable assistance from his brother and from Graham. Wohlford and Cox played sterling ball for the Buckaroos at tackle. Amarillo displayed two accomplished backs in Bulkin and Gibson and a great line star in Nicklaus, center and captain.

The Sandies ran seven first downs, only two less than Breckenridge, but their efforts mostly were in midfield. They could not crack the Breckenridge line once they backed them into their own territory.

MIDDLE-WEST RANKS HIGH IN ALL-AMERICAN CONCENSUS OF COACHES, ASSOCIATED PRESS

By ALAN GOULD
NEW YORK, Dec. 7. (AP)—As a tribute to the fertile football plains that produced such consistently brilliant teams as Notre Dame and Purdue, the Middle West takes the lion's share of honors in the Fifth Annual All-American consensus, compiled by THE ASSOCIATED PRESS from expert nationwide opinion and made public today.

On the first team, the "shock troops" of an All-American squad of 33 players five represent the Middle West, four the East, one each the South and Pacific Coast.

Pittsburgh and Notre Dame, two of the finest aggregations of the year, each gained two places on the mythical eleven, a distinction no team in the country has been accorded in the consensus since Dartmouth placed three men on the first team in 1925.

The East manifested strength in the squad as a whole by collecting 12 out of the 33 places with nine going to the Middle West, six to the South, five to the Far West and one to the Southwest.

In the nation-wide poll of opinion taken by THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, 215 experts contributed their views. They represented newspaper sports editors and writers, Associated Press Staff observers, officials and coaches in every section of the country. There was not an important game anywhere, scarcely a spectacular feat recorded in any note worthy college contest which was not "covered" or studied by some one or more of these experts.

The results of the consensus show a distinct drift in the "class" of football talent for the season of 1929 at least, to Middle West, in contrast with the powerful showing of the Far West in 1928. On the whole it was distinctly a "Mid-Western Year," with such teams as Purdue and Notre Dame leading the parade most of the way, while Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois and Minnesota registered noteworthy intersectional triumphs to add to the prestige of the Big Ten group.

Star players of one of the most spectacular of all college campaigns stood out as conspicuously as did the select few teams. No All-American selective process is safe from debate of the grogliest variety; nevertheless the consensus indicated little doubt about the majority of contenders for honor positions.

Three of the players on the team were overwhelming choices—Frank Carideo, Notre Dame's great quarterback; Bronko Nagurski, the powerhouse of Minnesota's team; and Joe Donchess, lean hard-hitting end of the Pittsburgh Panthers. Toby Dams of Pittsburgh was by far the leading halfback in the balloting.

Carideo was the choice of 123 experts for the position of field general, outdistancing such Eastern aces as Al Marsters of Dartmouth and Albie Booth of Yale, each of whom faded at the finish largely through injuries, after dazzling starts.

Donchess was selected for one of the end positions by 121 voters, but his running-mate and fellow townsman, rangy Wesley Fesler of Ohio State was not far away with a total of 99. Youngstown, Ohio, thus has the rare distinction of furnishing both All-American ends.

Nagurski presented the problem of being a leading candidate for fullback as well as tackle. He received 115 votes altogether but he is placed in the line because a majority of his supporters, 65 preferred him in that position with the understanding that he might be brought back for ball carrying purposes in a pinch. The Big Nag was clearly one of the greatest all-around players produced in many a season.

At the flanks, Francis Tappan, most consistent player on the Southern California eleven, was the only man who gave Donchess and Fesler any sort of a contest. He polled 61 votes. Vernon (Catfish) Smith of Georgia and Frank Baker of Northwestern had a close contest which Smith won by a narrow margin, 29 to 27.

The Southwest Conference unquestionably produced one of the best ends of the year in the giant Wear Schoonover of Arkansas, a great pass receiver as well as blocker and tackler, but his total of 16 votes was not enough to give him higher rating than a place on the third team.

"Red" Slight, 203-pound dynamo of the great Purdue line, led all the tackle contenders with 82 votes. He has the fiery 210-pound Nagurski as his running mate, with Sam Wakeman of Cornell and Ted Twomey of Notre Dame ready for emergencies. The latter two, with 55 and 56 votes, respectively, easily clinched the second team positions over such steady performers as Douds of Washington and Jefferson, Sington of Alabama and Vincent of Yale. Douds polled 43 votes.

Notre Dame furnished the outstanding guard on the list in Jack Cannon who, with 88 votes, led his nearest rival, Bert Schwartz of California, by 30. Schwartz carried off the first team prize in a close contest with Ray Montgomery of Pittsburgh, called the "perfect guard" by his coach, and "Firpo" Greene, Yale's big captain. Montgomery polled 53 and Greens 51, with Johnny Law, Notre Dame captain, not far behind with 42.

Brownsville Is Eliminated—Port Arthur Wins 13-12

HOUSTON, Dec. 7. (AP)—The stout fellows of Port Arthur high school muffled the scream of the Brownsville Golden Eagles today to enter the semi-finals in the Interscholastic league title race. The score was 13 to 12.

Port Arthur went out on the Rice field here a heavy favorite—to lose. The experts and other right thinkers could not see any conceivable result of the fracas except a sound, round beating administered by Brownsville. But, as sometimes happens, the experts were wrong.

The Yellow Jackets spotted the Eagles to a two-touchdown lead, the opposition reverse plays having them slightly dizzy at first.

In the second period, though, Tom Dennis' coastal boys began to get busy and the goal point which Domingue added to Barfield's touchdown proved the margin of victory. Dumesnil went across for the other Port Arthur touchdown in the fourth period.

by spectacular football.

The Indians trailed until three minutes before time for the game to end, when Louis Weller, Haskell halfback, uncorked a sensational 55-yard run. This run, followed by a 22-yard pass, and then after a line plunge, a three-yard pass to Weller, gave the Indians the necessary points to win after they were behind by 14 to 13.

Iowa Is Barred After Wrangle

CHICAGO, Dec. 7. (AP)—The University of Iowa today was definitely barred from western conference athletic competition, beginning Jan. 1, 1930.

After 14 hours of wrangling in secret session, the conference faculty committee turned down the Hawkeye petition for reinstatement to good standing and voted to censure its action or last May by severing all athletic relations with the institution.

The decision, in effect, makes the Big Ten become the "Big Nine."

In a resolution adopted by the committee, it was announced the decision was unanimous, which clearly indicates Iowa did not vote. The committee's reason for refusing to restore Iowa to good standing was that the reform within the institution's athletic department had not been sufficiently complete.

Hereford Downs Lamesa to Grasp Bi-District Title—White Faces to Play Olney for Bigger Stake

LAMESA, Dec. 7. (Special)—The Hereford White Faces blew up the Lamesa Tornado here today, 6-0, to win the Class B football championships of districts 1 and 2.

Hereford's score came near the end of the first quarter on straight football. After that the game was hard fought to the finish. Lamesa failed to score from Hereford's one-yard line as the first half ended, and several times recovered possession of the ball on Hereford fumbles within the 20-yard line.

Hereford made 13 first downs and Lamesa nine. Hereford next week will meet Olney for the title to districts 1, 2, 3, and 4.

GREAT TEAM IS FORMED BY MYTHICAL II

DALLAS, Dec. 7. (AP)—An All-South-west conference football team, based upon fancy and the combined opinions of the section's coaches, officials and sports writers, is presented herewith by The Associated Press.

Koch, left guard, Baylor.
Atkins, center, Texas Christian.
Sanders, right guard, Southern Methodist.
Brumbelow, right tackle, Texas Christian.
Schoonover, right end, Arkansas.
Grubbs (c), quarterback, Texas Christian.
Leland, left halfback, Texas Christian.
Wilson, right halfback, Baylor.
Shelley, fullback, Texas U.

There was the usual difficulty in settling upon the outstanding man at several positions; but, on the whole, the team shaped like" as the season progressed. Those whose names appear in the mythical line-up played a high brand of football consistently. They did not star in one or two games. Banded together they would make a great football team.

Four stalwarts from the champion Texas Christian university eleven made the grade: two each from Southern Methodist, Texas University and Baylor; one from Arkansas university. It is a representative team. For the first time in many a moon, the Texas Aggies did not have a player of championship calibre, in the opinion of this medium's committee. Neither did the Rice Owls.

Three players who were placed on a majority of all-conference teams last year were deemed worthy of a repeat order. They were Captain "Choc" Sanders of Southern Methodist and Boehey Koch of Baylor, guards, and Wear Schoonover, sensational Arkansas end. Koch and Sanders, on the whole, were no better than last year, if as good, but Schoonover blossomed into one of the greatest ends the conference has seen. He was a stand-out all year.

Six of the team have played their last game of college football. They are Grubbs of the backfield and Schoonover, Rose, Brumbelow, Sanders and Atkins of the line. The other five are juniors and will be back next season to blaze their way through another campaign.

Platter Scores K. O. Victory at Roswell Friday

Luther Platter scored his seventh knockout Friday night at Roswell, N. M., where he stopped one George Mitchell of Port Worth in the fourth round. Platter has fought only eight bouts.

This was not good news for Cyclone Bonos with whom he is scheduled to go 10 rounds next Thursday night in the Plator, for Mitchell is said to have plenty of stuff. Nevertheless, Cyclone is continuing a rigid training course, confident that he will give Platter what Platter gave him Thanksgiving night—a knockout. The big boys fans say that if he keeps improving, Bonos won't last four rounds next time. While Bonos is bending an extra effort to condition himself so he won't prove another disappointment to people Thursday.

Just a mere non-partisan fight fan, J. D. McKernon of McKernon-Murphy Oil company, Tulsa, who saw the last fight between Bonds and Platter, will fly down from Tulsa to see the forthcoming bout. He says he saw more action in the last than he saw at the Dempsey-Tunney fight. He has reserved ringside seats for himself and party, according to Jack Rogers, promoter.

K. O. Kitchens came to town yesterday afternoon, and he reports he's ready for his scrap with Pug Grubbs. K. O. tells of another boxer over in Miami that can whip him and Pug in a dozen different ways. He's been sparring with him. K. O. declares that he going to change Pug's name to "Rug," and then use him as one.

The prelims feature a four-round fight between Sammy Squires and Gene Meroney, and a wrestling match between Red Michael and Tommy Riley.

The world's largest lock will shortly be opened for use on the ship canal between Ymuland and Amsterdam. It is 1312 feet long by 164 feet wide. This is larger than the Panama Canal locks, which are 1000 feet in length and 110 feet in width.

Army Aviators Killed in Crash as Engine Stalls

MIAMI, Ariz., Dec. 7. (AP)—Two United States army aviators Lieut. R. H. Gilley, 25, of Houston, Texas, and Lieut. J. Q. Adams, 24, of Inglewood, Calif., stationed at March field Riverside, Calif., were killed shortly after noon today when their open cockpit biplane crashed and burned near the inspiration mine, four miles north of here.

The wrecked ship was burned, witnesses said, when an unidentified Mexican who ran to the scene immediately after the crash, lighted a cigarette and threw the burning match to the gasoline saturated ground. The biplane was enveloped in flames and it was believed Gilley burned to death. Adams was thought to have died in the wreck.

Service Officer of Legion Likely to Be Employed

A meeting of all the adjutants and commanders of American Legion posts in the 18th congressional district will be called in the near future by Dr. Roy A. Webb to consider the employment of a service officer in this district to work for the Oklahoma City veterans bureau. This announcement was made yesterday by John Bradley who with J. A. Pearson, grand chef de gare of the Forty and Eight of Texas, returned Thursday night from Austin where they attended a meeting of state legion officers last Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Bradley says the district now contributes about $5,000 to the veteran's bureau each year, and that the sum should be raised to $7,000.

The meeting in Austin was attended by post adjutants, commanders, the national commander O. Lee Bodenhamer and the state commander, Ernest O. Cox. While there Mr. Pearson presided at the initiation of 33 members of the Forty and Eight. Tuesday at Waco, he and Mr. Bradley were guests of the Forty and Eight, initiating 12 members.

On Wednesday at Fort Worth, Mr. Pearson, with Sam McCarty, field representative of the American Legion, installed officers of the Legion and Forty and Eight at the Blackstone hotel.

Literary Pessimism Destructive of Good Work in Current Writing Says Dr. Grant McColey in Talk Here

An analysis of present tendencies in literature was made by Dr. Grant McColey, head of the English department of Canyon Teachers college, in speaking at the Saturday luncheon of the A. A. U. W. and College club in the New Schneider.

First establishing the premise that current best writings are seldom optimistic he expanded at length upon his subject: "Rocks of Literary Pessimism." He pointed out that Sinclair Lewis, Upton Sinclair, and Theodore Dreiser, novelists, are notably iconoclastic, while lesser authors tend to be so. The beginnings of pessimism in literature, he pointed out, might be traced back to Thackeray, Butler, and Walpole.

Contrasted with this trend, however, are the works of Whittier, Lowell, Longfellow, Emerson, and Bryant. In seeking to determine the causes of present-day literary pessimism, the speaker declared that it was induced, at least in part, by the failure of civilization of this time to adapt itself to philosophical and economic changes. The class of science and religion, especially over the theory of evolution, was mentioned as one disturbing element.

Dr. McColey said that the literary world was similarly deluged with doubt when the modern theory of the universe was advanced. When the theory was expanded and accepted, it spurred the thinkers to optimism and resulted in the literary outburst of the eighteenth century. The speaker said that as soon as the writers and thinkers are able to reconcile their doubts and their beliefs, the pessimism so typical of this period will disappear. He expressed doubt that great literature will be produced before that time.

Regarding the economic roots of pessimism, he said that the world war, largely fought by so-called Christian nations, tended to break down optimism. Machinery, too, has resulted in unemployment in some instances and miserable working conditions in others.

The mind, if not the heart, of America is divided, in the opinion of Dr. McColey, until more unity of thought and faith in ideas and institutions and in the future are achieved. Literature is likely to be handicapped by lack of a thought system upon which to base creative work which has nearly always been idealistic.

Dr. and Mrs. McColey made the trip here by car. They were much impressed by the size and apparent assets of Pampa, this being their first visit here since coming to the Panhandle from the University of Arkansas last fall.

The luncheon was opened by Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, president of the club. The program was in charge of Mrs. Tom Rose. An amendment to the constitution limiting eligibility to membership to those having had at least one full year of work in an accredited college was voted.

Mrs. W. A. Duerr, appointed to have charge of the Founders' day program January 24, announced that Harold White would direct the staging of that event, to be entitled "The Birth of Texas." Mr. White, who was present, said that the program would consist of a musical comedy. Scene will depict pioneer and modern development, including the cowboy, cotton, wheat, oil, carbon black, and Blue Bonnet phases. There will be four choruses, two from

The Pampa Independent school system has a daily enrollment of 2,400 pupils, but if all who withdraw were counted the total for the year would probably be 3,000. Supt. R. B. Fisher told members of the A. A. U. W. and College club at their luncheon Saturday.

He said the system had 91 teachers and a total of 105 employees. The expense is approximately $12,000 per month. The valuations in the school district are about thirteen millions. The pupils are in the Central high school, junior high school, four wards, and three other schools, which are Kingsmill with two teachers and Hoover and South Pampa with one teacher each.

The system needs more buildings, particularly at the Central campus, where 1,400 pupils are concentrated in two buildings. He praised the school board as alert to the needs of the school and doing all possible to meet crises as they arise.

The Green Jacket club, one of children, and one of women. Mr. White said that plans were to make the revue the best amateur performance ever seen here.

Entertainment at the luncheon included numbers by the Rotary Ann trio, composed of Mrs. Lynn Boyd, Mrs. T. W. Brabham, and Mrs. P. L. Elliott. Mrs. Tom Rose was accompanied.

clivities at the recent games tournament held by the club.

Miss Fannie Florence Sims, chairman of the fellowship and scholarship committee, and co-director of the recent benefit tournaments, reported to the club that profits from the two meets were $284.63, a sum which raised the scholarship fund to $464.76. She announced, also, that Mrs. W. Purviance and Mrs. Tom W. Brabham had made donations of $5 each.

Previous club projects she said, included the initial tournament of last July, which inaugurated activity toward the raising of a $500 fund and itself brought a sum of $33.13, and a benefit dance given at the Schneider hotel in October, with a profit of $137.

She announced, as the final benefit project for the scholarship, a dance on Feb. 14, at the Schneider, when she said her committees hoped to clear more than $100. She pointed out that the marked financial successes of the year would enable the club either to increase its scholarship for this year or to set aside the nucleus of next year's.

Members of Child Study club attended Dr. Dean C. Dutton's lecture to mothers and daughters at Central high school auditorium last Friday afternoon before assembling at the home of Mrs. J. C. Phillips for their regular semi-monthly study program.

Mrs. Joe M. Smith was director of a program on the themes, "Self Culture and Its Results of Greatness," and "Morals and Manners." Mrs. B. E. Finley gave an excellent discourse on "Our Debt to Franklin." The career of Benjamin Franklin was discussed in three topics, Mrs. T. H. Barnard talking on his experience as a printer; Mrs. W. A. Crawford, on his work as a founder; and Mrs. S. A. Hurst, on his success as an economist. "How to Promote Higher Culture" was the subject of a talk by Mrs. Tom W. Brabham.

Final plans were made for the club's Christmas party, which will be given next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Coffee, featured by a shower of children's books for the Pampa Public Library. The child welfare committee, comprised of Mrs. W. Purviance, Mrs. Lee Harrah, and Mrs. Coffee, requested that all club members donate to the collection, and stated they would gladly accept donations of children's books from others of the city who wished to contribute.

Members attending the meeting were: Mrs. B. E. Finley, Mrs. H. D. Lewis, Mrs. A. H. Doucette, Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. H. W. Johns, Mrs. Lee Harrah, Mrs. J. E. Murfee, Mrs. Floyd McConnell, Mrs. Walter E. Coffee, Mrs. A. Cole, Mrs. W. Purviance, Mrs. Tom W. Brabham, Mrs. T. H. Barnard, Mrs. Ivy Duncan, Mrs. S. A. Hurst, Mrs. Roy Wiley, Mrs. J. M. Turner, Mrs. R. S. McConnell, and Mrs. W. A. Crawford.

Miss Mary Stocking, teacher in the Panhandle schools, is spending the week-end here as the guest of Miss Anna Esta Goerter at Haggard apartments.

Their guests were as follows: Mrs. Paul McNamara, Miss Wilma Behrens, Miss Kathleen Beatty, Miss Louise Miller, Miss Orene Huggins, Miss Clarice Fuller, Miss Elizabeth Corson, Miss Fannie Florence Sims, Miss Mildred Stewart, Miss Hazel Bulla, Wm. Wisdom, Jack Dunn, Ben Tucker, Ted Spencer, B. E. Chaney, Clifford Whitmore, Harry E. Hoare, Weller, Tom Doswell, Lee Furnas, Robert Sylvester, John Hines, and the complimented guests.

Bowls of roses and red carnations lent the entertaining suite a lovely color note. The quartet tables were laid for dinner with covers decorated in the poinsetta motif, and centered with tall red tapers. A menu reflecting the traditions of Yuletide hospitality included as its last course ices moulded in red and green Christmas bells.

Game accessories also stressed the holiday note in a color scheme of red and green. An attractive gift was presented the bride. Score favors went to Miss Miller and Mr. Tucker, high; and Miss Kinard and Mr. Doswell, low.

Among the enjoyable events of the week-end was a party given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Barrett, 521 East Francis avenue, with Miss Cornelia Barrett hostess to other members of the Senior B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church.

Games, candy making, and corn popping were diversions of the evening. Miss Kate Anderson assisted the hostess in entertaining.

The following were present: Miss Mildred Mason, Miss Bonnie Tidwell, Miss Flo Elliott, Miss Claudine Haynes, Miss Florence Bolar, Miss Helen Anderson, Miss Jewell Binford, Miss Ruth Binford, Miss Blanche Anderson, Miss Elizabeth Barrett, Miss Euriha Henry, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meek, Jack Erwin, Jack Wood, Parker Hodge, Harold Holmes, and Clifford Solomon.

Have Dinner Guests
Dr. and Mrs. W. Purviance had as guests at dinner Friday evening, Dr. and Mrs. A. Cole, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar.

Club Hears Lecture and Program and Plans Library Book Shower

Members of Child Study club attended Dr. Dean C. Dutton's lecture to mothers and daughters at Central high school auditorium last Friday afternoon before assembling at the home of Mrs. J. C. Phillips for their regular semi-monthly study program.

Mrs. Joe M. Smith was director of a program on the themes, "Self Culture and Its Results of Greatness," and "Morals and Manners." Mrs. B. E. Finley gave an excellent discourse on "Our Debt to Franklin." The career of Benjamin Franklin was discussed in three topics, Mrs. T. H. Barnard talking on his experience as a printer; Mrs. W. A. Crawford, on his work as a founder; and Mrs. S. A. Hurst, on his success as an economist. "How to Promote Higher Culture" was the subject of a talk by Mrs. Tom W. Brabham.

Final plans were made for the club's Christmas party, which will be given next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Coffee, featured by a shower of children's books for the Pampa Public Library. The child welfare committee, comprised of Mrs. W. Purviance, Mrs. Lee Harrah, and Mrs. Coffee, requested that all club members donate to the collection, and stated they would gladly accept donations of children's books from others of the city who wished to contribute.

Members attending the meeting were: Mrs. B. E. Finley, Mrs. H. D. Lewis, Mrs. A. H. Doucette, Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. H. W. Johns, Mrs. Lee Harrah, Mrs. J. E. Their guests were as follows: Mrs. Paul McNamara, Miss Wilma Behrens, Miss Kathleen Beatty, Miss Louise Miller, Miss Orene Huggins, Miss Clarice Fuller, Miss Elizabeth Corson, Miss Fannie Florence Sims, Miss Mildred Stewart, Miss Hazel Bulla, Wm. Wisdom, Jack Dunn, Ben Tucker, Ted Spencer, B. E. Chaney, Clifford Whitmore, Harry E. Hoare, Weller, Tom Doswell, Lee Furnas, Robert Sylvester, John Hines, and the complimented guests.

Bowls of roses and red carnations lent the entertaining suite a lovely color note. The quartet tables were laid for dinner with covers decorated in the poinsetta motif, and centered with tall red tapers. A menu reflecting the traditions of Yuletide hospitality included as its last course ices moulded in red and green Christmas bells.

Game accessories also stressed the holiday note in a color scheme of red and green. An attractive gift was presented the bride. Score favors went to Miss Miller and Mr. Tucker, high; and Miss Kinard and Mr. Doswell, low.

Among the enjoyable events of the week-end was a party given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Barrett, 521 East Francis avenue, with Miss Cornelia Barrett hostess to other members of the Senior B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church.

Games, candy making, and corn popping were diversions of the evening. Miss Kate Anderson assisted the hostess in entertaining.

The following were present: Miss Mildred Mason, Miss Bonnie Tidwell, Miss Flo Elliott, Miss Claudine Haynes, Miss Florence Bolar, Miss Helen Anderson, Miss Jewell Binford, Miss Ruth Binford, Miss Blanche Anderson, Miss Elizabeth Barrett, Miss Euriha Henry, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meek, Jack Erwin, Jack Wood, Parker Hodge, Harold Holmes, and Clifford Solomon.

Return From Honeymoon Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Thomas, above, have returned from a short wedding trip and are at home in Pampa. Their marriage was solemnized on Thanksgiving even in Fort Smith, Ark., at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown. Mrs. Thomas formerly was Miss Helen Brown.

Mrs. Ferdinand Kemp, Bride, Is Complimented with Shower of Gifts

A bridal shower for Mrs. Ferdinand C. Kemp, the former Miss Elva M. Hayes, whose marriage of three weeks ago was announced Friday, was given yesterday afternoon by the bride's friends and fellow-workers at the Southwestern Bell Telephone company office. Many attractive gifts were presented at an informal gathering in the lounge of the telephone company building.

The following friends were present: Mrs. Mary Zello, Mrs. Violet Berentz, Mrs. Bessie Black, Mrs. V. Meacham, Mrs. Agnes Wilson, Mrs. K. Thomas, Mrs. B. M. Walcott, Miss Lily McMillan, Miss Gladys Cooper, Miss Nora and Miss Cora Murray, Miss Thelma and Miss Pearl Hughes, Miss Ina Rae Faulk, Miss Joyce Martin, Miss Agatha Mahone, Miss Ruth Kennedy, Miss Eloise Coolbaugh.

Miss Mabel Harrold, Miss Anne Pennington, Miss Frances Olsen, Miss Irene Creekmore, Miss Irene Williams, Miss Edna Johnson, Miss Kathleen Hill, Miss Cora Elliott, Miss Thelma Taylor. Dainty refreshments were enjoyed after the presentation of the shower.

Mrs. Kemp, who has been an employee in the local telephone office for almost three years, will leave this week to make her home in Borge, where Mr. Kemp is associated with a brother in a truck line company. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hayes of this city. Mr. Hayes was, until recently, in the employ of the Haliburton Cement company, and lived here. The wedding took place in Oklahoma City.

Methodist Classes to Banquet Tuesday Night

The Young Men's Bible class of the Methodist church, defeated in a recent attendance contest with the young ladies' class, will entertain the winners Tuesday evening with a banquet at the church. Following the banquet, a series of vaudeville acts will be given by the hosts.

The two classes comprise the Young People's department of the Sunday school. They frequently have joint social affairs that are greatly enjoyed.

THOSE WHO ARE GENUINELY INTERESTED IN CULTURAL PROGRESS OF PAMPA'S YOUNG FOLK MUST BE GRATIFIED BY THE MUSICAL OPPORTUNITIES WHICH HAVE BEEN BROUGHT TO LOCAL SCHOOLS.

Friday evening's program, for instance, was a fine illustration of developing young folk. It showed the stages of progress from the rough, awkward beginners' status to that of the advanced pupils who, secure in their technique, enjoy their performance while at the same time entertain their listeners.

Modern music teaching progresses rapidly to the recital point in order to hold the pupil's interest and to show his parents that he is making strides forward. It should be understood, of course, that pupils' recitals are to be judged as units, comparing the individual with his own progress rather than with some abstract criterion.

It would be unfair to point out here any particular individual who excelled in the ensemble concert. Perhaps the "best" effort was that of someone, to the writer unknown, who recently took up music and who practiced faithfully in order to appear on the program.

The writer does not recall having ever heard as much alto from a Panhandle group of girls. The alto voice has been noticeable by its absence in most of the performances heard in this section, with the exception, of course, of particular voices. Many will remember that Madame Schumann-Heink said in her Amarillo concert that she was seeking to "discover" a great American contralto voice in some girl whom she would make her protegee.

The senior orchestra is achieving the precision and sparkling execution which makes it pleasurable to hear. It will go to Amarillo next Thursday evening to broadcast over a radio station here.

Pampa cannot have too much in her schools. The school system which makes it possible for its children to learn music is laying the basis for much adult enjoyment. One of the finest pictures in

TWINKLES

Percy, the office mouse, says that the spirit of Christmas may be a great thing, but that he wants but little here below and wants it regularly, not in spasmodic quantities.

It's good that we have many extremes to help us strike a happy balance of things. For instance, some speakers would convince us that "every element that contributed to the fall of Rome we have in America today," and Dr. Dutton subscribes to the theory of "the majesty of man". We need some of both attitudes. One of the strangest things about the English language in argument is that you can slightly change a view point and make opposites equally truthful and wholesome.

Hoover largely passes the responsibility for prosperity on to the people. Looks like we just can't elect any body who will solve all our problems while we twiddle our thumbs.

Congratulations to the Pampa birdmen. They excelled in numbers at Roswell, and to excel is the aim of every progressive community. And Pampa, by the way ought to be thinking of a similar airport dedication for some good day in the future.

When the country gets so bad that motives in crime are not necessary, the ultimate in wickedness will have arrived. But only a few persons are so devilish that no apparent motives determine their actions.

Today's definition: Boys—what it takes to make men of. That is an old saying, but it is true enough to be repeated, and sometimes we need such a slogan to justify the existence of the little rascals.

Life is that of an old gentleman or an old lady who is a master of some instrument, and who mingles with young folk on the common plane that music, the universal emotional language, makes possible.

We have in mind "Uncle Tommy" Clark, professor of languages at West Texas Teachers college—white haired, scholarly, but ever young as he takes his violin in hand and sits with the college orchestra made up largely of students. Or perhaps he finds solace in playing some of his own compositions at the piano or organ. Enjoyment of a fine art is not limited by any consideration of age. Fortunate is he who has one or more interests unchanged by the onslaughts of time.

CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning preaching service, 11 a. m. Amara service, 2:30 p. m. Service for men and boys, conducted by Dr. F. C. Dutton, 3 p. m. Training service, 6:15 p. m. Evening preaching service, 7:30 p. m. Our Sunday school work goes on apace. This month we hope to have the best record made in the history of the church. To do this for the glory of God, we need you. Nothing can take the place of your presence in your class on Sunday morning. Come today and bers and visitors ever find here a cordial help us reach the 400 mark! New members welcome.

At the morning preaching service the pastor will bring a message on the subject: "The Christian Soldier." This sermon will be reported stenographically. Interest in the preaching services and blessings because of the preaching services have been increasing. You are missing something worth-while each Sunday if you do not hear the messages the pastor brings at the preaching hours.

Dr. D. C. Dutton will speak in the auditorium this afternoon at 3 to men and boys only. Indications are that this will be a service of benefit to every man and boy in Pampa. People of all churches or of no church are invited to hear him. He will occupy the pulpit of this church at the regular preaching hour this evening, and all the other churches are dismissing their services so that their members may attend this service here.

D. H. TRUHITE, Pastor. JOHN LEE HARRIS, Ass't Pastor

THE METHODIST CHURCH Sunday school will open promptly 9:45 a. m. A real good program has been prepared and we promise you an interesting discussion of the lesson in all departments. We have a class for every age.

The Rev. Tom W. Brabham, will speak at the 11 o'clock hour: theme "The Call of God." This is an age of new thought, Big Business, and great inventions: Just what place should the church occupy in the minds and hearts of the people? You will be interested in this message at the morning hour.

Special music has been arranged. Mrs. F. L. Elliott will be at the organ. Epworth League and young people will meet at 6:45 p. m. We will join with the other churches of the community in the union service at the First Baptist church for the evening hour. We are anxious that every member of the church hear Dr. Dutton. Spend an hour at church today.

It takes all sorts of people to make a world, so the saying goes, or to form the news of a day, as a perusal of the 22-page Friday issue of the Pampa Daily News would show. All sorts of people doing all sorts of things—

Preachers, teachers, lecturers, architects, builders, merchants; men forming paces to hunt down dangerous criminals; baseball managers resigning; inventors; feted by metropolitan chambers of commerce.

Little boys and girls who can attend school every day in a term, with never a "lardy mark" against their records; heroes who brave the Antarctic in search of knowledge and adventure; bootleggers labeled "bad pay—no credit." New citizens with new jobs; managers opening new stores; managers expanding their businesses; opera singers; stage stars; screen stars; movie directors.

Jurists, famed and unfamed; sheriffs and policemen; motorists terribly injured in car collisions; motorists dying in accidents. Profligate princes who throw away crowns; titan-haired beauties for whom crowns are cast aside; high school boys and girls singing and playing in public; music teachers arranging concerts. Oil operators bringing in new gushers; college professors; defeated Mexican presidential candidates in revolt; Chinese generals quelling mutinies. Men who commit murder; men who commit suicide; prize fighters; referees; hunters; breeders of fine poultry winning prizes; men offering millions for race horses, owners refusing.

University and college women creating scholarships; dissenting senators; baseball idols paying fines for speeding; aviators plunging to death in headlong crashes; citizens donating to public causes.

All these, and more, figure in the new if a not exceptionally eventful day. Names of 409 different Pampa citizens or persons important in local activities of the day appeared in the Friday issue of the Daily News. Names of another forty Pampa residents figured in the classified advertisements which, by the way, carry much of news interest and in the directories.

Three hundred and fifteen persons outside the immediate locale were named in dispatches of the day—some of them as near as Amarillo in Mexico, Haiti, Cherbourg, Paris, Nanking, and the South Pole.

Nor did the personalities of the day end those at home and those at distant points. From the pages of history there marched into the day's affairs a Colonial American ancestor of the founder of a present day fortune, then Napoleon Bonaparte, Queen Victoria, and George Washington, the latter figuring in two entirely different stories.

we preach. It must be the word of God. If it is not the word of God that we preach then it is a false doctrine. Some think it does not matter what one believes or preaches, but Paul was not that way. He put as much stress on what to preach as he did to preach. Let us then be satisfied with nothing more or less than the word of God. Services Sunday: Bible study, 9:45 a. m. Preaching, 11 a. m. Communion, 11:45 a. m. Young People's Bible study, 6 p. m. The sermon for the morning will be "Why Remember Christ." The evening lesson will be "Preach the Word." Come and bring your friends, you are always welcome. JESSE F. WISEMAN, Minister.

HOLLYWOOD — Paralleling the short-lived glory of most movie stars, Hollywood's far-famed cafes and restaurants also seem to have their rise and fall.

There is one such establishment here which ascended to prosperity because it became a favorite rendezvous of the cinema twinklers, but the very brilliance of its success now is leading to a decline in popularity!

Certain occasions which it "dedicates" to the movie people—and incidentally to the villagers and tourists who troop along to stare at them—have become so extremely popular that it is next to impossible to force a way through the crowds to one's table, even though a reservation has been made days in advance.

And Evelyn Brent makes her starring debut in "Darkened Rooms," in which Nell Hamilton, only featured, gallops away with the mealy role. But Cooper's name, and Brent's, will draw the crowds and once in, the audience is free to pin the medals where it will.

Rumor reports a certain star's voice causing concern in her studio's inner offices. Gary Cooper was considered by Buddy Rogers' part of the young acrobat in "Halfway to Heaven"—until they took a test of the elongated Mountain in tights!

And rather than bother with such annoyances, many flicker folk are betting themselves elsewhere, to the newer resorts making bids for their patronage, or to the dignified seclusion of the swank hotels.

The "new" places, making deep inroads on the income of their rivals, are riding high on the crest of the wave. And riding perhaps to a fall. The pendulum may swing again. The new may become overworked and the patrons drift back to their first love to escape the selfsame inconvenience which led them away.

Hollywood old-timers recall that 10 years ago a certain hotel, alone in its grandeur, was the social hub of the colony, with its Thursday evening dances and the like. Today, with its broad porches, and lawns, it resembles an old folks' home. Grandeur places have encroached on its glory and it stands rejected, like a forgotten star, reminiscing on her days of fame and bewildered at the rush of "new faces" which have plumed her into the backwaters of oblivion.

BRILLIANTS and TWINKLERS Ironical, this movie starring system. Gary Cooper, recently elevated to that honor, is given an initial starring vehicle in which stellar honors inevitably go to Beryl Mercer, who is only featured in "Medals."

Clarence Kennedy has given his boy the smooth-sounding name of Mansell—Also, the checking up we have been able to do reveals that Clarence has kept his resolution not to smoke any more cigarettes. He abandoned Lady Nicotine the day Mansell was born to set an example for him.

Yesterday was Charlie Thut's birthday. His age was guessed to be 32 by courthouse occupants, but he says he is 35.

Alex Schneider reports that more Pampans were successful on their deer hunts this year than ever before. Hunters have brought about 15 deer to the Schneider to be cut up since the beginning of the season, he said.

The 300 ex-service men in the veterans' hospital at Muskogee do not talk much about their war experiences of 1917-18; they are not fond of reminiscences, and memories of trench warfare put into words is distasteful to them. Their minds most of the time might be on the incidents that gave them their injuries but they never let anyone know it. These are some of the observations Judge C. E. Cary made at the Muskogee hospital while there for five weeks this fall. "The men realize how futile it is for mere words to describe the horror of war—they need a new language. Some of them are embittered—and who would not be embittered after 10 years of suffering? They might not talk about it, but that's about all they can think about it. The injuries make them always aware. Some of them wish they had never come back; they feel they have lived too long... America can't do too much for those veterans."

M. D. Oden tells a good hunting story of the quail season which opened last Sunday. During the last week he went hunting with a man from McLean. It seems this man knows the shifting locations of about every covey of quail in the county. The two men would be driving down the road when the McLean friend would stop the car, walk out in the pasture and jump a bunch. This happened throughout the afternoon. It was easy for them to get their dozen. Mr. Oden is guarding the name of the quail scout.

It's high time that Buster, a rather distinctive cat owned since Heck was a pup by Mrs. C. Herbert Walker, made his debut in this newspaper—as well as Twink's Percy, sophisticated office mouse, and Gordon's Shetland ponies. Bustah, as Mrs. Walker calls him, demands an apartment in the basement of the Walker home. Toothless, he is a vegetarian, is fond of carrots, and cereal with cream and sugar. Sitting up, he resembles an owl. In temperament he is a despot. Cultured, he hates radios. He worked his way from rags to riches in his present station by starting as a vehement mouser in the office of the Dalhart Texan. He has only to remember those first 500 mice and survey his dish of carrots to reassure himself that he deserves a pension. However, he's happiest when he hears, "Bustah, come to Mothah!"

Sheriff E. S. Graves has been sick this last week but that didn't keep hundreds from wanting to know when he is going to empty those 1,800 gallons of bootleg. "You'd think they believe they might accidentally get some of it."

There's a local man very interested in the matrimonial instincts of his neighbors who says he knows about most marriages before they "come off" just by hanging around the Diamond shop and observing the men who go in to meet Sam.

Canyon Chamber Claims Record in Its Achievements

CANYON, Dec. 4 (Special)—The Canyon Chamber of Commerce believes that it has made a record of achievements during the past year on its budget of $2,858.

The report of the secretary-treasurer shows an expenditure of $2,185.50 with $672.38 on hand with which to start the new year's work.

Not a cent of the money of this chamber of commerce was spent to pay officers all of them giving their services for the upbuilding of the city.

The most notable achievement of the year was the completion of a deal which removes the Santa Fe stock pens from the east end of town where they are an eyesore to the west end of town where they will be more accessible to the railroad and away from the residential section. This deal involved many hours of work by members of the chamber of commerce and an expenditure of approximately $13,000 aside from incidentals. The land which was involved has been sold to a realty company and is already divided into lots ready for speedy development into a select residential district.

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce of which W. A. Warren is president and O. W. Gano, secretary has assisted with a great variety of activities. In the summer a weed cutting, and flower campaign resulted in a town notable for its beauty; this cost the organization only $85.

Advertising in county newspapers throughout northwest Texas came in for $135. The Buffalo Band of the West Texas State Teachers College, the Canyon high school band and the Umbarger band, received help totalling $438, the deficit of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce came in for a donation of $100 from Canyon.

The Panhandle-Plains Inc., received $200 from Canyon. Printing and advertising cost $194.

The Panhandle-Plains Teachers Institute, which met at Canyon in September was allowed $200 in order to bring the best possible group of speakers to its meeting. The sum of $125 was furnished to the first district Texas Interscholastic League, thus rendering a service, indirectly, to the high school boys and girls of twenty Panhandle counties.

The members of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce recently re-elected their entire staff of officers in order that they might complete some projects which are now under way.

A Persian cat in Saskatchewan puzzled its owner by yowling and squirming. He found that some wild oats blown by the wind into the cat's fur, had gotten under the skin, had taken root, and were sprouting.
