MOTHER SAYS BOWMAN HURT WHEN YOUTH TRIED TO KILL SELF

OKLAHOMANS ON WITNESS STAND

Slaying of Watkins Is Detailed to Jury
Today

While Johnnie Bowman, who is on trial for his life for the murder of E. B. "Bill" Watkins, slept in his chair last night and this morning, his mother, Mrs. J. G. Twiford, testified that she believed he had been periodically insane since he was a child.

The state's testimony was featured by the reading to the jury of Watkins' dying statement which was made to District Attorney Clifford Brady and Sheriff E. S. Graves in a local hospital last July 4. The statement, which was signed by the dying man, said that Bowman had come to Watkins' service station on the morning of July 4 to buy some whiskey. "He wanted to buy a half pint without any money and I would not sell it to him," the statement read. Bowman then left and came back with a gun and told Watkins "you have lived too long," immediately shooting him, according to the statement.

Youth Is Fined
Alfred J. Maze of Blackwell, Okla., defense witness, was fined $25 for contempt of court this morning by Judge W. R. Ewing after he admitted on the witness stand to the attorneys that he had been drinking before he was called to the chair last night. The youth was dismissed by defense counsel after he had answered a few questions in a dazed, uncertain manner. He told the judge he had been given the liquor by a man who had pulled his car out of the mud. In assessing the fine, Judge Ewing said, "this court will not permit a witness to go out and drink booze expecting to come back here and testify."

Had Attempted Suicide
She testified that he had attempted to take his life four times since 1926. The first, she told the jury, when he locked himself up in a bathroom and turned on the gas. Mrs. Bowman said he was unconscious when she rescued him before he was suffocated by the gas. A short time later, she testified, the youth had taken a dozen tablets of bichloride of mercury, almost dying.

Another attempt at suicide was made when he shot all the hair off his forehead and injured his head with a shotgun, she testified. Still later, he tried to cut his throat with a pair of scissors, Mrs. Bowman said. She told

NOTHING SAID BEFORE KILLING

Defendant Weeps As Brooks Tells of Reputation

WEATHERFORD, Oct. 31.—The only eyewitness to the fatal shooting of Tom Walton, Jr. 21, in his father-in-law's Amarillo law office last May 4, said today that Walton was slain after a scuffle with his father-in-law, R. H. Hamilton.

When she went on the stand, Miss Florence Hendricks, daughter of Harry Hendricks, Hamilton's law partner, declared she was in the office where Walton was slain when he entered. He asked for Hamilton and then she saw Hamilton "in the door with a gun in his hand."

On cross-examination Miss Hendrix declared she did not see Walton make a move of any sort before he grappled with his father-in-law and the first shot was fired.

"Who fired that shot?" District Attorney Thomason asked.
"I don't know."
"Well, who had the gun?"
"Judge Hamilton."
"Did you ever see Walton with the gun?"
"I don't believe I did."
"Did you see Tom Walton fall?"
"No, sir."

Hamilton Weeps
Hamilton, who wept when Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor university, told Waco was telling of Hamilton's reputation there, apparently was calm as the girl told of the shooting.

Miss Hendricks said she had not known Walton before the shooting, that she saw him when he came to the office. She was at her typewriter when he appeared.

Although she told Walton "good morning" he said nothing except to ask for Hamilton. At that moment her father entered, Miss Hendricks said.

Then Hendricks left, Hamilton entered and he and Walton were standing there.

"I heard some shots, and they were there wrestling and scrapping," she declared.

She said she did not leave the room. C. B. Reeder had difficulty getting Miss Hendricks to say the defendant and Walton were "grappling" and the state objected.

"They were going around," she would say.

"Were they facing each other?"
"Yes, Broooulo" "pRL etaoin shrdU"
"Yes, sir."
"Did they have hold of each other?"
"Yes, sir."
"Now, just tell the jury what happened."

Had Gun in Hand
"When I looked up I saw Judge Hamilton standing there with his gun in his hand, and then they began going around and grappling. Then there were some shots. That is all I know."

That ended her direct testimony.
"Did Walton and Hamilton have their hands on each other when the gun was fired?" the district attorney asked on cross-examination.

"Yes, sir, I think so."
"You don't remember having heard either one say anything?"
"Not that I remember."
"And you saw Judge Hamilton standing there with a gun in his hand?"
"Yes, sir."
"You didn't see Walton make a movement of any kind until you looked up and they were grappling?"
"That is right."

TWO ARE SHOT FROM BEHIND

Tragedy Stalks End of Drive Last Night

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 3.—(P)—Miss Belle Crow, 18, and her sweetheart, William Bird, 21, were shot to death in front of the girl's home about midnight last night.

As the couple walked arm in arm up a walk from their automobile to the front door of the house where the girl roomed, a stream of bullets was poured from a sedan parked nearby.

The girl and the boy fell to the ground, and died in an ambulance summoned by persons who heard the shots. The killers sped away.

Two men were arrested by officers, but one was released shortly. The other was held for investigation.

Officers mentioned jealousy as a motive for the shooting.

Miss Crow was employed in a cap-factory on the outskirts of the city. Bird was an employe of an oil refinery. They had been sweethearts for a considerable time.

When the girl was off duty at 11 p. m., she and Bird entered Bird's automobile and drove to the girl's home, followed, police believed, by the killer in his automobile.

Both were shot from behind, Bird three times, once thru the heart, once thru the right shoulder and once thru the left hand. Miss Crow twice, once in the neck and once in the breast.

Another theory was that the killer lay in wait near the girl's home until he saw the automobile of the couple approach and stop when he started his motor and drove slowly by the other car, shooting as he passed.

The lights of the slain couple's automobile were still burning when police and ambulances arrived, indicating, police said, that they had alighted from their automobile and were brightly outlined in the circle of light when the shots came.

The two bodies were found huddled together, their hands clasped, in front of the youth's car.

Bird has lived with a sister, Mrs. Vessie Gardemal, since the death of his mother and father several years ago. He is survived by two other sisters, Mrs. Clara Sear of Concord, and Miss Ida Bird of Port Arthur.

Miss Crow came to Port Arthur from St. Martinsville, La., several years ago. Surviving her are her father, J. S. Crow, four brothers, Frank, Lawrence, Clarence, and Francis, two sisters, Mrs. May Gaudoff and Miss Lillie Crow, all of Port Arthur.

Luther Berwick, 23, taken by police to view the girl's body, broke down and wept. Berwick admitted he had been in love with Miss Crow, but denied he killed her and Bird.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PROPOSED $200,000,000 STATE ROAD BOND ISSUE HAS BEEN MADE BY THE EAST, SOUTH AND WEST TEXAS CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE.

In the discussion of the proposal at El Paso, it was brought out that while interest on the bonds would be great, counties will go ahead under the same plan if the state does not. One speaker went so far as to show that maintenance of dirt highways amounts to much more than interest payments on concrete roads.

It will be necessary to amend the state constitution to make possible the bond issue. Ordinarily it is very difficult to pass an amendment. But so great is the agitation for good roads that several gubernatorial candidates are likely to make a campaign issue of the project. This will mean, of course, that some other candidates will oppose the amendment in political strategy. Jim Ferguson is already putting his influence against the bond plan, on the flimsy pretext that $10,000 per mile roads would be cheaper in the end than concrete ones.

Assuming that the bond proponents can satisfactorily show that the money could not be spent by a small group of men during a corrupt administration, and that the funds would be properly distributed over the state, it then would be a difficult task to overcome an ever present opposition to bond voting. It is proposed, however, to retire the bonds out of revenue from the gasoline tax.

It should be understood that the couple of hundred millions it is planned to vote would not be adequate for a very long period, probably not more than a decade unless Texas develops more slowly than appearances indicate. There should, moreover, never be a period when funds cannot be had for meritorious new construction. As new needs develop, state designations should be given and good roads built. While the present greatest need is for through highways virtually extending in straight lines for long distances, it must be recognized that the traveling public is not always heading from eastern points to the Pacific Coast. Short routes in well traveled sections are equally serviceable, and should be given consideration.

The bond issue plan is being used successfully in a number of states, not as one issue, but consecutive issues as the money is spent carefully enough to merit public confidence.

Women and Cooking
 Here's a subtle compliment for the women of Pampa. The News had the opportunity to bring either a culinary or a beauty expert to Pampa and we thought the former most needed—Pampa News.

And the Pampa News did a very diplomatic thing in giving preference to the culinary expert. Women, as a rule, want to appear at their best and spend much money as well as time in fixing up and mere men has complained more or less bitterly because beauty specialists have a way of appealing to the ladies at what seems to be a very big price to pay for producing artificial and perishable beauty. Now the males of the species at Pampa may profit greatly by the cooking expert's work if the women attend and pay more attention to the art of cooking and planning meals than they do the art of applying sticks to lips or little dabs of red dye to their cheeks. Great grandmother used to manage a meal cooked by the fireplace method with very appetizing results and the old dutch oven was about all she needed by way of utensils. But today the average woman has so many modern conveniences that much of the labor is done away with and it would seem as tho there would be much more time to devote to the welfare of the whole world and all the inhabitants thereof. But such is not the case. Therefore, if the culinary expert has a method whereby the homemaker may save time, she has done a praiseworthy thing for hungry mankind. The can opener and the vanity are so much in evidence these days that they seemingly go hand-in-hand, but for all that, the modern woman has found out by the experience of others that it no longer is a paying proposition to bake, fry and stew in the kitchen when the tin can and paper sack method of living is so much quicker and the products of scientific preparation are better and cheaper than the antiquated methods of former years. Therefore, when the cooking expert takes the lowly tin can full of pork and beans and transforms the canner's product into a tasty and appetizing meal, she has done something worthy of recognition from the males who have to settle the food bills and pay for the can opener. Taking this point of view, the editor of the Pampa News did well and made a good choice. Tho it may be just possible that he was paying the women of Pampa the compliment of being already pretty enough without the aid of the beauty specialist and needing no lessons along the line of making themselves more beautiful and good to look at.—Higgins News.

RED CROSS GIRL FOR 1929

Attractive girl artist poses for Red Cross Roll Call Poster for 1929, which is the work of Hayden Hayden

When Hayden Hayden, distinguished artist, prepared to submit a poster in the competition for use in the 1929 Red Cross Roll Call for members, he was confronted with the problem of finding a model for the typical American girl he wished to depict. He was fortunate in enlisting the co-operation of a young fellow artist, Miss Estelle Stokes, who had for some time been his assistant, but had graduated and after studying at the Art Students' League and with Pruett Carter, is now making a name for herself in the painting field. Miss Stokes, an athletic and outdoor girl, has transmitted her personality into some of the posters of which she is the artist, and which adorn the highways. The vividly colored poster of which Mr. Hayden is the artist, and which is pictured here, ranks with the best that have been accepted by the Red Cross in its annual Roll Call invitation.

Conoco Oil Now Being Advertised in Airplane Journey

Another evidence of the value of aviation to big business is found in the trans-continental tour of the Continental Oil company's six place Travelair cabin monoplane, "Conoco No. 2," which left Denver on October 25 on a trip that carries it through the Rocky Mountain states, across the middle-west to the Atlantic seaboard and back to Denver—a total of 8,000 miles.

The tour is planned for the purpose of acquainting the Continental company's sales forces with the details of a new oil prior to public announcement of the product, which will be known as "Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil."

Technologists of the Continental company authorize the statement that the new Conoco "Germ-Processed" motor oil will be a revolutionizing factor in automotive and general mechanical lubrication. They state that it is a highly refined oil, made from carefully selected crudes by an exclusive patented process. Details of the claims for the new oil are to be explained to sales groups at the various points of call of the "Conoco No. 2". A stop of approximately one day is being made at each city.

The ship is being piloted by Ray C. Shradec, chief of the company's aviation sales division. Passengers are J. E. Moorhead, sales promotion manager; Frank Moore, special representative; and G. K. Ludwig, marketing engineer.

Stock Break Is Believed Over

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—(AP)—With a three hour session today ending trading for the week, Wall Street felt confident the worst was over. Prices showed substantial recovery yesterday from their record-breaking decline. They were carried up in a rally accelerated by news that John D. Rockefeller, Sr., was buying.

Heavy buying rested in a turnover of 10,727,320 shares with gains of 1 to 30 points for leading issues. Frantic liquidation Tuesday had thrown 16,140,030 shares into the market and driver prices to record lows.

The rally yesterday began early but did not reach its greatest momentum until John D. Rockefeller, Sr., authorized a statement from his home at Pocantico Hills, N. Y., that he and his son, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., did not believe there was anything in the business situation to warrant destruction of values such as had taken place during the past week and that they

Red Cross Will Aid McLean Farmers Who Lost Crops

McLEAN, Oct. 31. (Special).—Farmers whose crops were destroyed by the terrific hail storm which laid waste a broad strip east of McLean will be aided by the McLean chapter of the American Red Cross, according to the decision of the organization at a meeting called by Chairman M. D. Bentley.

The number of farmers whose crops were a total loss being comparatively few, it was not deemed necessary to call upon the national organization of the Red Cross to send a relief worker. Instead, the local chapter will handle the problem, taking a collection among the business men for the relief fund. Upon the proposal of F. H. Bourland, it was decided the committee would ask each farmer who was fortunate enough not to be damaged by the hail storm to give 25c for every bale of cotton and each ton of feed he markets toward the relief work. Plans of the chapter were to extend special aid to tenant farmers whose losses were particularly great.

Members of the Red Cross who attended the meeting were: M. B. Bentley, chairman; O. G. Stokely, J. E.

Biggs, C. C. Bogan, W. B. Upham, F. H. Bourland, T. A. Landers, Claud McGowan, Jesse J. Cobb, J. R. Back, C. S. Doolen, John Martel, H. W. Brooks, and C. A. Strandberg.

BOSTON, Oct. 31. (AP)—New dress creations in the "cottons of 1930" will bedeck the ladies down to their very toes.

Capping everything else in the display, however, of rather footing it, was a new experiment of the industry, cotton shoes.

SHELLEY AND MASON WORRY TWO COACHES

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Both Texas and S. M. U. are concentrating on stopping one man in Saturday's battle at Dallas. The Mustangs figure that if they can handcuff Dexter Shelley, Texas' premier halfback, they have the game in the bag. The Longhorns are planning to put a quietus on Weldon Mason, Pony star, as the first step to victory. Each has the right idea, and the one that succeeds best probably will take the verdict. That is not to say there are no other sterling backs on both teams, but Mason and Shelley are mainstays of the rival offenses. In watching the Southern Methodist-Mississippi tussle at Dallas last week one got the impression this Mason fellow was almost the whole works for the Ponies. Coach Ray Morrison has built his attack around the nimble-footed lad from Waco, and the team that stops Mason will hold a chattel mortgage on the Mustangs. Stopping him is the big problem.

Shelley and Mason both are due to be back next season, and what stars they should be a year hence. Shelley was a brilliant star at Terrill school, Dallas, before entering the university, while Mason went direct to the Methodist school from the state champion Waco high school team of 1927, of which he was captain. Few sophomores are as polished performers as Mason. A football field is his element. Shelley is far the more powerful of the two, scaling 190 pounds to Mason's 165.

Louie Long, end, will call signals for the Mustangs Saturday. Coach Morrison has decided his youthful ball carriers will do better if not bothered with the task of selecting plays. Long, it is disclosed, engineered the team against Mississippi, and he did quite a job of it. The Ponies, however, do not possess as smart a field general as Nona Rees, Longhorn quarterback. Rees is fast gaining recognition as one of the circuit's outstanding pilots. If he jockeys the Steers to a conference title his name will come up for serious consideration in picking an "all" backfield. Rees, "Bull" Elkins and Frank Cheatham of the Longhorns were teammates at Brackenridge high school, San Antonio, four years ago. All were members of that year's state champion basketball quintet.

Fewer outright predictions are being made on the outcome of the Mustang-Longhorn tussle than on any previous conference tilt this year. Most of the critics are inserting a few "ifs." All agree that the Steers, on form, rate the favorite position, but there is the utmost respect for Ray Morrison's coaching genius. His teams do weird things with a football. Also, there is the well known fact that the Red and Blue has been pointing for Texas. And the forecasters can't forget a Texas eleven has not gained a verdict over the Mustangs since 1929.

"Gabby" Street to Manage Cards in Next Season

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 31. (AP)—Charles "Gabby" Street, who caught Walter Johnson's fast ball while a member of the Washington Senators from 1907 to 1911, was named manager of the St. Louis Cardinals for 1930 by President Sam Breadon last night. Street left his home in Joplin yesterday for St. Louis to sign a contract.

The former catcher, who once caught a ball tossed from the Washington monument, has been coach of the Cards for the past season and toward the end was acting manager in Bill McKenzle's absence. He started in professional ball in 1900 at the age of 16 and was in the majors for about ten years with the Cincinnati Reds, Washington Senators and New York Yankees. Through the 1920 to 1928 seasons he managed minor league clubs and finished out of first division only one time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sanders and Mrs. Clyde H. Garner spend Wednesday in Amarillo.

REVAMPED LINE-UP WILL BE SEEN IN GAME HERE FRIDAY

While no one doubts the ability of the 1929 Harvester squad to overwhelm the Wheeler eleven here tomorrow afternoon, there are many, including Coach Odus Mitchell, who are not convinced that the revamped line-up will "click" as did the original grouping promised to do before losses began to deplete the ranks of the regulars.

For one thing, inserting of reserve material to replace regulars lost by ineptness, injuries, and leaving school has weakened the squad on the bench and made it more difficult to groom capable subs for emergencies. It has been necessary to move Mullen from tackle to center on offensive plays, and to take McFarland from the backfield squad to a line position. To defeat the Perryton Rangers on their home gridiron will demand the highest efficiency, but it is regarded in local sports circles that an inspired eleven could do it. Part of this inspiration will come from the Green Jackets, who will be taken to Perryton to cheer the team. In addition, many fans will make the trip Nov. 11.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

SPORT SLANTS

Alan Gould

It is still a trifle early to label any combination another "Four Horsemen," even when it happens to be so compact and mobile a quartet as Carido, Elmer, Brill and Mulline or Savoldi, this year's first-string product of Prof. Rockne. The professor himself scarcely would encourage the comparison at this early stage of the gridiron proceedings, where it will take the November "push" to determine the ratings for 1929.

Great backfield combinations such as the Stuhldreher-Crowley-Miller-Layden quartet of Rockne's teams of 1922-23-24 are put together about once in a purple moon. A Nevers, Oberlander, Grange, Harley, Drury, Carroll, Cagle or Clark may come along oftener to set off the individual fireworks but it is rare when any combination develops the smoothness, co-ordinated action, power and versatility of the famous Norte Dame "Four Horsemen." They are in a class by themselves so far as post-war football is concerned.

Cornell had a great set of backs when Kaw, Pann, Cassidy and Ramsey were ripping opposing lines to shreds. Yale's 1923 team had super-power and drive with Richeson, Stevens, Pond, Neidinger, Neale, Cottle and Mallory. Stanford showed a great collection of ball-carriers against the Army last season with Hoffman, Elshaecker, Sims, Wilton, Lewis and others leading the charges. Georgia Tech had a fine quartet in Mizell, Thomason, Lumpkin and Durant in 1928 but they had also the aid of one of the finest lines in the country. The backfield talent usually looks good when the holes are being opened up on schedule or the secondary defense cleaned out.

It will be worth noting what Harry Heilmann, one of the last of the Old Guard of Detroit Slege Guns, can do against National league pitching next season in the uniform of the Cincinnati Reds. Old Hat led the American League four times his unique odd-year rampage and he was up around .350 this year even though he didn't lead the pack again.

In the senior circuit the American League batting king of 1921-23-25-27 will join the champion of 1929-22.

George Sisler, to make it look like a concerted drive on the National League boxmen. And the way the latter have been manhandled in the last three world's series, it would be rubbing it in for Heilmann to grab off the National League batting crown.

Ed Delehanty is the only slugger with the distinction of leading both major leagues at bat. Bi Ed, then with the Phillies, topped the National League with a mark of .408 in 1899. Three years later, with the Washington team, he led the American League with .376.

Hundred Golfers in Threesomes for Portland Tourney

PORTLAND, Oct. 31. (AP)—More than 100 golfers, including Walter Hagen, British open titleholder, and Dr. O. F. Willing, runner-up in the 1929 national amateur tournament, were grouped into threesomes here today for initial play in the $1,200 Oregon open event.

The Columbia country club course was the setting, with 18 holes of qualifying play on the day's program. Tomorrow another 18 hole round will result in elimination of all but fifty of the entrants. The qualifiers will go into the final round Saturday.

Among prominent entries are Abe Espinosa of Chicago; Billy Burket of New York; Tommy Armour of Detroit; Horton Smith, the hard driving contender from Joplin, Mo.; "Lighthorse" Harry Cooper of Buffalo, N. Y.; Al Watrous of Detroit, and Frank Walsh of Wisconsin.

COMISKEY IS PLANNING HIS CUB MACHINE

CHICAGO, Oct. 31. (AP)—Charles A. Comiskey has returned to Chicago to build plans for remaking his White Sox a contender for the American league championship.

First move of the "Old Roman" was to call Denis Bush, new manager of the Sox, for a conference next week to plan for obtaining material. Comiskey spent the summer at his farm in Wisconsin because of illness which forced him to retire from active participation in baseball affairs several years ago. His health apparently is improved.

Comiskey will discuss the case of Arthur Shires, and it is expected the recalcitrant first baseman will be retained. Bush shortly after he signed to manage the Sox, expressed admiration for Shire's ball-playing and said he expected no difficulty in handling the Texan. Bush also plans for trades which he will present to Comiskey.

Catholic World Fasts on Hallowe'en

ROME, Oct. 31. (AP)—While Hallowe'en connotes revelry and youthful pranks in America and in England, today in this center of the Catholic world was celebrated with fasting and abstinence.

It was the eve of All Saints' day, falling tomorrow; and inasmuch as it was one of the great fetes of the church, a penitential period must precede it, according to Catholic custom.

Tomorrow will see practically all the Romans who have relatives buried in the city cemeteries going there with wreaths and cut flowers. The churches will be filled with the faithful, for all Saints' is a Holy Day of obligation, meaning attendance at mass is compulsory, as on a Sunday. Nov. 1 is a recognized bank holiday in Italy, and the great majority of the commercial houses observe it as well.

H. A. McMillan of Calgary, Canada, is visiting in the home of J. G. Stroup.

MURDER CASE—

the jury that she had taken him with her everywhere she went until he was 18, and that until he married she had sleep with him to prevent him from killing himself.

She said she filed complaint for larceny against him at Newkirk, Okla., in 1926, but relatives forced her to withdraw the plea. She said that when he was at her home she took out all the weapons, even the bread knife and razor blades.

Has Married Recently

In cross examination Mrs. Bowman testified that he had made attempts on his life since he married. She said the defendant had one child, an infant. She stated she objected to the marriage because she believed her son was not sane.

Emma Bowman, 16, defendant's sister, corroborated her mother's testimony. Questions were asked by the state to elicit information from witnesses that the youth attempted to commit suicide because he was disappointed in a love affair. Emma testified that her brother's conversation was un-natural and "at times I think his mind is un-sound." She and other witnesses said they did not know anything about the defendant's being disappointed in a love affair. "There was nothing to make him gase himself," she said.

However, Johnnie Dunham of Blackwell said he "figured he tried to take his life because he was disappointed in love." He also testified that "there are times when he's in his right mind and times when he isn't." Maze said he was only emotional and easily vexed. Louie Baker of Pampa said he had known Bowman since he was 12 years old, and that he believed "there are times when Bowman doesn't know what he is doing."

W. W. Whitfield, a tool dresser and former school teacher, said he had been "in a position to study human nature and believed the order of the defendant's intelligence is not up to par. The boy at times does not know the difference between right and wrong." He also said Bowman talks "flighty" at times.

Art Whitfield said he had known Bowman for 10 years and that he is "sometimes all right and sometimes a little off. I don't believe any man in his right mind would kill a man."

State's witnesses who testified yesterday afternoon, described the shooting. Ben Bolton said Bowman had gone into his place of business on July 4 with a pistol in his hand, saying he wanted to "give up," and that he "shot Bill." The defendant refused to plead guilty or not guilty. About 40 witnesses were sworn, most of them coming from Blackwell, Okla. The court expects to give the case to the jury tonight.

On the morning Watkins was killed, Roy Holt, Murf Smith, and Bowman drove to Watkins' service station. Smith said that Watkins shut the door in their faces, and Holt testified that Watkins pushed him out the door. Both stated that a fight between Bowman and Watkins ensued which ended when Watkins "stood Bowman on his head." Neither of the witnesses knew who separated the two men and broke up the fight.

Got Smith's Gun

Smith, who is the proprietor of the Quaker rooms, testified that Bowman got the gun which killed Watkins from his room but that he knew nothing about it. He said he had known Bowman in Blackwell, Okla. Both Holt and Smith testified they believed Bowman was not sane part of the time.

Depositions from Oklahoma officers asserting the insanity of the defendant were read by the defense this morning. The state will call more witnesses to the stand this afternoon, while Mrs. J. Porter and Dr. O. York and Deputy Sheriff J. W. McCormick remain to testify for the defense.

nesses, attorneys for R. H. Hamilton today began introducing character witnesses for their client, charged with having slain his son-in-law, Tom Walton, Jr., 21.

When court opened, District Attorney Edward Thomerson of Amarillo asked District Judge J. E. Carter to instruct defense witnesses to make themselves available for questioning by the prosecution. Defense counsel promised to aid the state in its efforts to confer with all witnesses.

The first witness was Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne college at Brownwood. He said he had known Hamilton since the defendant was president of Howard Payne from 1910 to 1911 and that Hamilton's reputation was "absolutely good."

Big Tinkle and Charles H. DeLaforce both of Corsicana, said Hamilton's reputation as a "peaceful and law abiding citizen" in Navarro county had been good.

His Oath Good

The first witness to discuss Hamilton's reputation in Amarillo, the town where he allegedly slew his 17-year-old daughter's husband, was J. F. Riggs, who declared he met Hamilton in an Amarillo Baptist church. Hamilton, he said, was of such character he could be believed under oath.

Another resident of Waco, where Hamilton was a professor in Baylor university, Nat Harris, was the eleventh character witness.

Then the defense introduced its first fact witness of the day, Roy Slay, employee of an Amarillo Undertaking company. Slay said he went to the second floor of the Amarillo building, where Walton was slain May 4, shortly after the shooting. Slay said he did not make a thorough examination of Walton's body, but from what he saw he "believed the bullets all entered from the front."

On cross-examination, the district attorney asked whether a bullet which struck a bone as it pierced a body made a ragged hole as it emerged. The witness declared it would. Thomerson showed Slay two bullets, already introduced as evidence, asking whether they would make wounds of entrance and exit which differed much. Slay said there would be only a "slight" difference.

Had Stitched Wounds

Slay declared he had stitched up the wounds and covered them with a solution which hardens the flesh before other physicians had made a visit to the undertaking parlor to examine Walton's body. He "did not remember whether the stitches were cut during that examination."

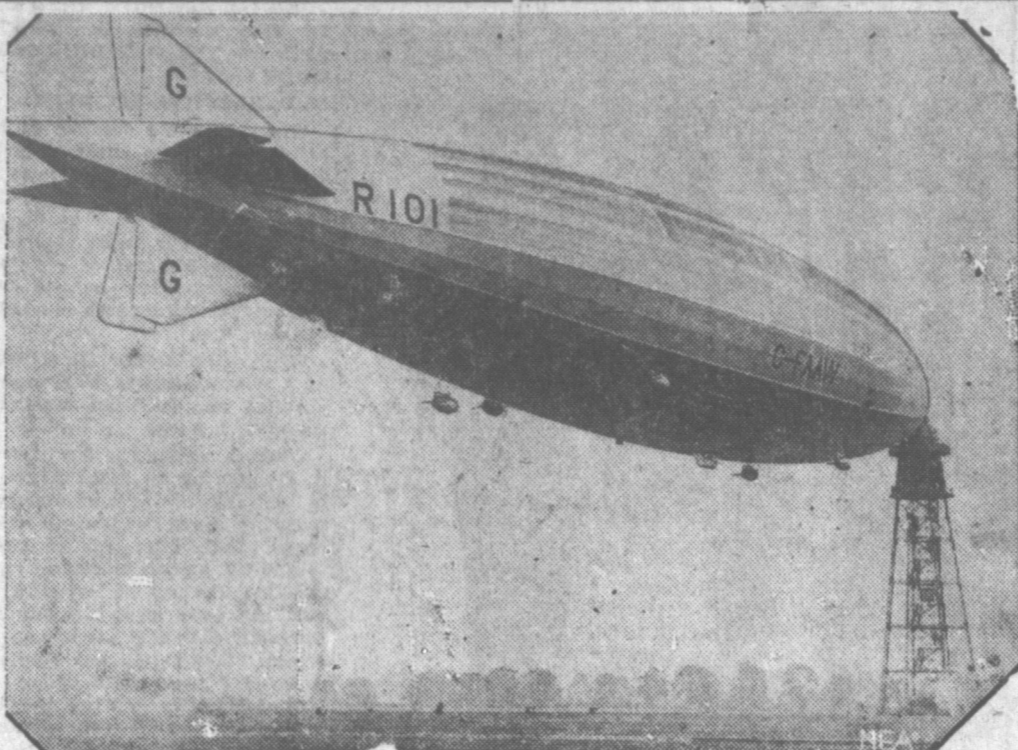

E. D. Holloway, fingerprint expert with the Amarillo police department said when he entered the east room of the Hamilton-Hendricks suite where he found Walton's body, the room was "full of smoke."

"Did you talk to Walton?"

"I tried to, but he couldn't talk."

Holloway later returned and made a sketch of the office, which he made at the instruction of the district attorney and defense counsel, E. A. Simpson, was exhibited to the jury. The prints showed the location of all furniture in the office, the spots bullets were said to have hit, and the location of Walton's body. When the jury had difficulty seeing the print it was tacked on the wall, the district attorney driving the tacks with Judge Carter's gavel.

Wheat Advances

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Active buying on the part of important houses brought about new upturns in wheat today after a ragged start. The fact that foreign markets reflected in full yesterday's sharp advance in wheat values on this side of the Atlantic helped to stimulate fresh speculative purchasing here.

Opening at 3-4 off to 1-4 up, Chicago wheat later showed material gains all around, with the price bulging to increased pressure to sell. Corn, oats and provisions were likewise firmer, corn starting at 1-4 cent decline to an equal advance, and subsequently scoring a general rise.

Justice Is Not Blind!

AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

Justice is no longer dispensed by ignorant and individual domination. Another ancient prejudice stands convicted by AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE which insists that a jury "twelve good men, tried and true" decide the facts.

"toasting did it" —

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's toasted"

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.
