Duty to Save Industry
From Economic Domination

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20. (AP)—Senator Sheppard, Democrat, Texas, announced today he would support duties on oil and gasoline.

He said in a formal statement the "interest of the consumer demands that the independents be preserved."

"The fight of independent oil producers, Sheppard added, is more than a tariff fight."

"It is the fight," he added, "of the smaller business units against the larger, the fight that is taking place in almost every branch of American business and industry, a fight which must be won by the smaller units if the country is to be saved from economic domination by the few. It is a fight to preserve competition and repress monopoly."

"The independents are asking as a measure of self-defense and self-preservation merely for a tariff on oil and gasoline which will equal the difference in production costs here and abroad, a competitive tariff such as is advocated by the last national democratic platform."

"Last year Texas led in the production of crude oil, producing over 300,000,000 barrels. This industry has been one of the most vital factors in the growth of Texas in the last decade."

Eielson's Body Recovered From Plane Wreckage

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Feb. 20. (AP)—Word that the body of Carl Ben Eielson, noted polar flier, had been recovered from the wreckage of his plane 90 miles southeast of southeast of North Cape, Siberia, Tuesday, was wired to Fairbanks last night by Joe Crosson, one of the American fliers who conducted the search for the lost explorer.

Eielson's body, together with that of Earl Borland's mechanic, were placed aboard an airplane at the scene while rescuers awaited favorable weather to fly out of the Siberian northland with them. Borland's body was found last Thursday. The two fliers met death last November 9 when their plane crashed on a little island in a frozen lagoon.

Crosson at the ice bound for trading motoplane Nanuk near North Cape, to which Eielson and Borland were flying when they crashed, reported that Eielson's body had been found more than 200 feet from the fuselage of his wrecked plane and under less than one foot of snow. Eielson's body was located about 150 feet from the place where that of Borland lay, indicating their ship crashed with terrific impact. Wreckage of the plane, located January 25 by Crosson and Pilot Harold Gilliam after a long hunt, was scattered over a wide area.

A searching party headed by Commander Shipniew, Russian pilot, located Eielson's body and word of the discovery was taken to the Nanuk last night by Crosson.

Merchants Minute Men Meet Tonight

A meeting of the Merchants Minute Men association will be held tonight at the Chamber of Commerce.

All members are urged to be present as important business will be transacted.

Bond Issue Will Be Discussed at B. C. D. Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of City Development and Chamber of Commerce will be held Monday noon in the basement of the First Methodist church. The luncheon and program will last an hour and fifteen minutes, Manager George Briggs said this morning.

The program will be under the leadership of the civic committee of which DeLea Vicars is the chairman. It will include an address by Supt. R. B. Fisher on the conditions of the local schools and the need for more space and class rooms. One of the members of the school board will discuss the coming bond issue. Other numbers will be included in the program which will be strictly civic in its nature.

School Piano Is Paid for in Ten Days by Pampan

Praising the generosity and the unflinching spirit of cooperation of Pampa citizens, not in one instance only, but in all public projects, Mrs. J. G. Stroup, West Ward Parent-Teacher association's active chairman of finance, today announced that the P-T-A. had been enabled to pay in full the cost of a piano which the organization recently bought for the West Ward school, all within ten days after the purchase.

The Parent-Teacher association, with the aid of the patrons and West Ward faculty, conducted luncheon sales at the West ward school for 10 days, each teacher taking charge for one day. Sandwiches, candy, and cocoa were sold every day last week and well balanced plate lunches were served the first three days of this week. Parents supported the sales by permitting their children to patronize the luncheons instead of coming home. A total of $80 was earned above expenses, Mrs. Stroup said.

The remaining debt on the piano was removed with cash donations from the board of trustees, Dr. W. Purviance, C. T. Henkapillar, and J. E. Murfee. A fund that the P-T-A. had expected to raise with much work during the remaining months of this school term and a part of next was thus raised in ten days. Mrs. Stroup and other members of the West Ward P-T-A. today were expressing their appreciation for the cooperation and generosity of the school patrons and citizens.

Nuns Permitted to Enter Old Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 20. (AP)—Prohibitions on the entrance of Roman Catholic nuns into Mexico, existing since the early days of the Calles administration, were lifted today with orders from the department of the interior to immigration authorities to permit entry of nuns of any creed. The permission of entry, however, is hinged upon agreement of the nuns not to violate religious laws forbidding community or convent life.

BANK RUN PROBED

FORT WORTH, Feb. 20. (AP)—Fourteen persons were called to testify today in the grand jury's investigation of rumors responsible for a run on the First National bank Tuesday.

District Attorney Stuart said others probably would be called later.

Among the witnesses were the proprietor of a cafe, the driver of a bakery truck, a cigar counter clerk, a barber and a druggist. These were traced by Stuart and his assistant, Elbert Hooper.

Italy exported 19,189 motor vehicles, of a total valuation of $14,763,320 during the first nine months of 1929.

Italy's 26 plants for the producing of artificial silk had an output of 62,855,448 pounds for the first nine months of 1929. A gain over the previous year's output of 44,481,855 pounds.

A Faulty Backbone A Rolling Pin A Divorce

CHICAGO, Feb. 20. (AP)—To those who understand the meaning of the words, this may mean something. The one point that seems absolutely clear is that Dr. William Parker, a chiropractor, was granted a divorce yesterday on grounds that his wife's backbone was faultily constructed.

The chiropractor stated his case to Judge Lynch this way:

"That part of the mesoblast near the notochord forming the primitive segments in Mrs. Parker's craniato, was so 'muscle-bound' that she was given to frequent impulses to strike me with missiles of varying proportions."

"On March 30, 1929, I was a rolling pin. On St. Valentine's day it was a hammer."

"Her verberal aponeurosis failed to respond to the touch of my finger tips."

"I told her when we separated last May," added the chiropractor, "that she might keep the neurocalometer in lieu of alimony, to which she agreed."

He was given a decree.

Salvation Army Drive for $2,400 Set for Monday

The Salvation Army drive for funds will commence Monday morning. It was decided at a meeting of the board yesterday afternoon in the Board of City Development rooms. Lieut.-Col. David Main, divisional commander in Texas, was a guest at the meeting. He was accompanied by Mrs. Main and Adjutant Harry Purdum, general secretary. The meeting was presided over by M. K. Brown, president of the board.

Lt. Col. Main in a short talk said that he was indeed surprised to find so many business men who would leave their business and lend a hand to the cause of the Salvation Army. "This attendance would look good in Texas cities," the speaker said. He told of the great work the Salvation Army was doing and that the work of the local post had been gratifying. He told many stories where the Army had helped "down and out" people.

Short talks were also made by Mrs. Main and Adjutant Purdum.

Following the addresses by the visitors leaders were elected for the drive to start Monday. The city will be divided into four districts with the following men as chairmen of the committees:

Rotary club, R. G. Hughes; Lions club, Roy McMillan; Labor union, Joe Bishop; and American Legion, C. C. Alexander.

The goal will be $2,400. There is already $1,500 on hand and the balance will be needed to bring the total to that $3,900 may be used for local charities and the balance for overhead expense. The funds will be placed in a local bank and will draw interest. Disbursement will be made through the Salvation Army advisory board.

Ensign and Mrs. Edgar King are the local representatives and it will be through them that the needy of this city will be helped.

Redemption Asked for 38-Year-Old Railway Tickets

DALLAS, Feb. 20. (AP)—Two tickets for a rail journey between Weatherford and Fort Worth purchased 38 years ago by a West Texas resident have been presented to the offices of the Texas & Pacific Railway company here for redemption.

The purchaser explained that he bought the tickets Dec. 20, 1892, at Weatherford and that while waiting for the train he received an urgent call from the station and missed the train. He didn't remember what he paid for the tickets, but thought it was about 95c each.

YEAR SPENT ON ICE BARRIER

Will Arrive at New Zealand in 21
Days

NEW YORK, Feb. 20. (AP)—The New York Times, the St. Louis Post Dispatch and newspapers affiliated with them in publishing reports from Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd's Antarctic expedition, announce that Admiral Byrd and the members of his expedition, after spending more than a year on the ice barrier of Ross Sea, broke camp and sailed homeward from the Bay of Whales aboard the bark City of New York at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Antarctic time, which was approximately 4:30 o'clock Wednesday to leave behind.

They are bringing back essential papers and gear, but their airplanes and much other material it has been necessary to leave behind.

(By the Associated Press)

The Byrd Antarctic expedition is expected to require about 21 days for the voyage out of Polar waters to Dunedin, New Zealand, on the first stage of its homeward trip. This estimate is based on the time required last year for the expedition's ship City of New York to reach Dunedin from the base at Little America.

The expedition, headed by Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd and including in its personnel aviators, scientists, mechanics and expert dog team drivers, left the United States in three ships late in 1928.

The little fleet consisted of the bark City of New York, the steamer Eleanor Boling and the whaler Larsen.

The equipment of the expedition included three airplanes, one a large three-motored plane, and two smaller aircraft, all fitted with skis for use on polar ice.

Georgia common schools, including four-year accredited high schools, cost the state $30 a year for each pupil.

French Marionettes To Play to Juvenile and Adult Audience

The Marionettes will be here tomorrow. Jean Gros' marvelous French Marionettes that perform tricks never before seen on even the Mettonette stage, where almost anything is possible, will be at Central auditorium, under the auspices of the convention committee of the Council of Clubs, to give a matinee performance and an evening show.

The special matinee for children will be "Uncle Wiggly at the Circus." It is the same Uncle Wiggly of the Howard R. Garis books and newspaper bedtime tales, only more real. Indeed, "Uncle Wiggly at the Circus" will be a fairy tale come true, when Uncle Wiggly, himself, Mrs. Twisty Tail, the celebrated Hollow Stump musicians, and the other animal friends perform their antics and talk about before their little people friends.

Because the Marionettes, or puppets, as they are often called, are something every girl and boy, from seven to seventy, should know about, the faculty of the school is going to dismiss the grade school in time for the matinee at 2:30 o'clock. Students in high school and Junior high school who wish to attend will be permitted to do so. Tickets for pupils through the fifth grade will be 25 cents; for those in Junior high school, 35 cents; and for those in high school, 50 cents.

"The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" will be given at 8 o'clock in the evening, followed by a performance of

FERGUSON'S ANNOUNCEMENT FOR GOVERNOR DOESN'T SOUND LIKE FARMER JIM—HE'S TO BE NICE

Radical Socialist
Succeeds Tardieu
As French Leader

PARIS, Feb. 20. (AP)—Chamille Chautemps, president of the radical socialist party, was called upon today by President Gaston Doumergue to form a new government, replacing the Tardieu ministry, which resigned Monday.

M. Chautemps left the Elysee palace and at once began consultations with his supporters and leaders of other groups in search of a cabinet combination which would give him a majority in the chamber of deputies.

The new premier-designate spent nearly an hour with the president discussing possible combinations of men which would bring him the support he needed. He spent most of yesterday and last night sounding out various leaders as to whom they would support and what representation they would demand in the cabinet.

M. Chautemps, besides being president of the radical socialists, the most important group of the left in the chamber, recently has succeeded former Premier Edouard Herriot as leader of the entire left side which Monday voted down Premier Tardieu and his minister of finance, Henri Cheron, on a trivial budgetary item.

Political observers thought the chances of M. Chautemps were slim because of disagreement within his own party. He was promised the support of the socialists, second largest group in the chamber, on condition that his program must be "satisfactory," a demand which may contain many jokers.

Tardieu to Refuse Cabinet Position

PARIS, Feb. 20. (AP)—Indications were this afternoon that former Premier Tardieu would refuse a portfolio in the Chautemps cabinet, thus greatly handicapping Chautemps' chances for success.

Well informed persons who are close friends of the former premier said that Tardieu categorically refused a cabinet post this morning but delayed official announcement until this evening, when he will meet Chautemps, out of deference to President Doumergue and Aristide Briand, who were pleading with him to accept.

AUDITOR SAYS HUGE AMOUNTS ARE INVOLVED

Impeachment Evidence
Heard by Bare
Quorum

MISSING MONEY TOTALS $18,000

Moore Lynn Is Chief
Witness Against Comptroller

AUSTIN, Feb. 20. (AP)—State Auditor Moore Lynn testified before the house today that state Comptroller S. H. Terrell had not accounted properly for $18,247.76 which had been withdrawn from two Austin banks and which it has been charged was misappropriated and fraudulently converted to the comptroller's personal use.

The hearing of the proposed impeachment charges proceeded before the house with a bare quorum in attendance.

Not included in this amount were two items of $600 each, which had been deposited by Terrell in a "special" account in the American National bank on August 13, 1928, and July 3, 1929, Lynn said, presenting photostatic copies of state warrants covering these amounts drawn by the comptroller on the state treasury, representing that they were for postage.

They were endorsed by Terrell and bore a notation "for deposit."

Another item included in the sum "unsatisfactorily accounted for" was represented by a check for $667.13 drawn from the Austin National bank and made payable to banker in Burleson, Lynn said.

"We are investigating that item at this time, trying to ascertain if it was personal or for the state," Lynn said.

Lynn testified that a copy of a report filed by an auditor privately employed by Terrell to check his department revealed a total of $12,255.19 state funds unaccounted for.

He said that his report and the report of Terrell's auditor virtually checked, except that Terrell's auditor considered certain items accounted for and he (Lynn) did not so accept them, as he satisfactorily explained.

AUSTIN, Feb. 20. (AP)—Moore Lynn, state auditor, who has been in office only since September as Texas' first official of that kind, continued his testimony today before the House of Representatives, hearing testimony on charges proposing impeachment of Comptroller S. H. Terrell.

He had detailed his activities in an effort to obtain information on bank accounts kept by Terrell and other state officials and had told especially of what he knew of operation of the Texas Tax Record company, which the charges alleged Terrell assisted in organizing. The company was engaged in collecting delinquent state and county taxes on commission.

Lynn identified a check made out by C. R. Parks, tax collector of San Patricio county on September 4, 1929, payable to A. P. Bagby, Jr., president of the company, for $692.12. It had been endorsed by Bagby to Mrs. Gladys Terrell, wife of the comptroller and signed by Mrs. Terrell and S. H. Terrell.

He said he found the check had been deposited to the credit of "S. H. Terrell, special," in the American National bank.

He also gave information of accounts in the name of Terrell, "special" and "comptroller," in Austin banks. He detailed conversation he had had with Terrell with reference to the accounts and said he had discovered some of them only after making a personal investigation.

Terrell filed an answer denying generally and specifically in some instances all allegations against him. His specific denials were directed at accusations that he had "fraudulently

AUSTIN, Feb. 20. (AP)—Former Governor James E. Ferguson, center of many political battles in Texas, was in the midst of the fray again today. He had announced his candidacy for governor, but the language he used in framing his announcement was "not typical of 'Farmer Jim's' aggressiveness."

"I have long since made my peace with God, and I shall not now permit the heat of politics to engulf me. In personal hatred," Governor Ferguson remarked after he had delivered himself of this piece of information to opponents: "If there be those who may find satisfaction in personal abuse and vicious criticism of me or my record let them be at once advised that they will have the field all to themselves without murmur or protest from me."

He also said he would not enter into "a frantic mental or physical struggle for election."

"I shall conserve my strength for the performance of the duties of the office to which I will be called," he said.

Ferguson stated his platform briefly, as follows:

For a business administration and the veto of any liquor legislation by pro or anti-something to eat and something to drink without a row over something to drink.

The reduction of public offices, notably the combination of the office of assessor and collector and the limitation of fees to $6,000 a year.

Preventing any bank from loaning over ten per cent of its capital and deposits outside of Texas.

The right of the borrower to redeem any home or other real estate within two years after foreclosure.

Abolishment of the landlord's lien, to that a tenant may mortgage his crop to his merchant for yearly supplies.

For an elective highway commission office, one at large, and one from North, South, East and West Texas.

Opposition to the issuance of any state road bonds, and for a three cent gasoline tax and the building and grading of less expensive roads which will give more roads to the farm and the mill.

Against the road hog and the banishment of the present bus and truck vehicles that use the public highways for profit to the exclusion of the traveling public.

A luxury tax on factory made cigars and cigarettes.

For putting the state convict farms in the hands of farmers and liberal issuance of pardons to meritorious prisoners.

Turman in Race
For Constable
Precinct No. 2

E. R. Turman this morning authorized The News to announce his candidacy for the office of constable of Precinct 2, Pampa. The new candidate will offer his name under the Democratic primary July 26.

A resident of Pampa and this vicinity for the last fifteen years, Mr. Turman is well known. It is his first time to announce for public office. He believes that he is capable to fill the important office or his announcement would not have been made, he said this morning.

"If I didn't believe that I could fill the office I would not announce," Mr. Turman said.

During Mr. Turman's residence in this city he was for eight years connected with the State Game Department and served under three administrations. His only service in law enforcement has been as special deputy on several occasions. The balance of his time he has worked on various ranches in the Pampa territory.

Mr. Turman is a native Texan. He was born in Pannan county 37 years ago. When a small boy he moved with his family to Wheeler county and later to McLean before moving to Pampa to make his home.

PAMPA WILL VOTE SOON ON $200,000 TO BE USED FOR SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

OF all bond issues, those for schools are most likely to pass. But the number of persons voting in such elections is usually very small.

But there is no reason why school bond issues should not command more general interest, and that the projects involved should not be closely scrutinized.

The News has kept in close touch with every expansion move of the local schools. The writer was present when the trustees mapped out the present building program.

The school bonds should and will be voted.

THE DALLAS NEWS, WITH THE COURAGE TO POINT OUT FAULTS IN THE EXISTING ORDER AND TO MAKE SUGGESTIONS IS ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL NEWSPAPERS IN TEXAS.

It is far ahead of its time when it predicts that the Texas constitution will be rewritten and many governmental changes made.

'Twas Merely a Dream! The recent constitutional convention in Texas was a great success. So vigorous was the interest throughout the State in the newer issues of the day that the voters retired the old-line politicians and sent to the convention sixty wide-awake, intelligent delegates.

There are several innovations in the framework of government that are sure to arouse attention throughout the United States, because they embody newer ideas in governmental organization.

The arrear of the State is divided into seven natural regions, each of which has a small local Legislature of one House and a regional Executive. County government is abolished, except that the counties become districts of their respective regions and have their representatives in the regional Legislature.

The Constitution provides for a thorough reorganization of the system of taxation, and for the gradual payment of the State debt, preparatory to the adoption of a pay-as-you-go policy.

Certainly the great organization of young Texans, who, irrespective of party, advocated and brought about the constitutional convention, deserves the highest commendation from their fellow citizens.

P. (Pure) Hokum, local candidate, has a clever line of palaver for the farmer. He tells the farmers they know as much about their business as anybody — therefore why should he attempt to tell them how to run their business—do anything for them either, he means.

Sometimes it is hard to tell whether the legislature was deadlocked after four special sessions—or just dead.

They are talking now of schools on wheels. That would be one way to speed up education to the gait of the present generation.

Colliers' point out that in baseball, tennis, golf—every sport except football—the players quit school while they are competing. Not a bad idea. The magazine also suggests that the big elevens be called "advertising teams", and divorced from the idea of being educational during the height of the season.

It seems a sort of mix-up—it is John Coolidge's instead of Lindbergh's father-in-law who got hurt recently testing out a glider.

The bloomin' talkie is 17 years old. And it does act more like an adolescent than a howling infant, now doesn't it?

PALMS BATTLE TO BE SOCIAL FETE, ANYWAY

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 20. (AP)—If the big heavy-weight fistie festival, featuring the Scott-Sharkey and Campolo-Risiko bouts, isn't a social success, it will not be the fault of the 600 millionaires, more or less, gathered under the chaperonage of "Big Bill" Carey and Frank Bruen, masters of Madison Square Garden.

The ballyhoo has made a strong point of the fact that the very best people have been buying ringside seats and to clinch matters today, Messrs. Carey and Bruen formed an expedition to the ultra-exclusive oasis club in Palm Beach. The program called for a mixture of punch-tossing, informal bouts, tea on the lawn and a dance in the patio—an elaboration of the "boxing teas" that have been a novelty of the season at this resort.

Perhaps on the theory that something should be done for Phil Scott, socially, even if not much hope is held out for him in a fistie way, the elongated British heavy-weight was trundled along for the party, with four sparring mates and his managerial staff, while Jack Sharkey stayed at Miami Beach for a day of rest.

Already reestablished at Palm Beach, Tommy Loughran, who boxes Pierre Charles in one of the preliminaries on February 27, also was scheduled for a port in the society program. Elaborate preparations were made for a very stylish introduction of Phil Scott and a manifestation of enthusiasm for the manly art by the folks who take up a lot of space in the social register.

The second annual battle of the palms is exactly a week off, but the experts now in training here have found very little to arouse advance excitement. Damage to one of Scott's fingers caused a flurry, but Phil seems to have survived that. Wagering on the main go is conspicuous for its absence, for Sharkey is held at least a 2 to 1, if not a 3 to 1 favorite. Speculation is more rife over the outcome of the semi-final between Victorio Campolo and Johnny Risiko, with the Argentine apparently gaining support.

The move on the part of the National Boxing association to put Jack Dempsey back in the heavy-weight spot, light, as a title contender, has not disturbed the program of the Madison Square Garden millionaires who plan to stage a championship final between the winner of the Scott-Sharkey affair and Max Schmeling in New York, the last week of June.

Dempsey, who promoted last winter's show for the Garden, will not be here for this year's fight. Those who profess to know do not consider the old man matter has any intention whatever of attempting a comeback.

PAMPA'S ROUGHEST MATCH PROMISED WHEN CLINGMAN AND LONDOS MIX TONIGHT

At first one saw only two huge bulls, then one saw that they belonged to a man and that the man was Billy Londos who arrived in town yesterday afternoon for his three-fall wrestling match with Otis Clingman tonight at the Pla-Mor.

Said Billy the Greek, "Clingman is a jolly fellow. I'm going to spoil his good looks. I've separated many a smart-aleck sailor and his wife. When I get through with 'em their wives file a divorce suit. If I don't throw that sailor, he'll be the first."

Londos frankly declared that he is going to get plenty rough. He led his hearers to believe that Pampanians are going to see something different. Meanwhile Clingman isn't making any threats but he says he's going to get just as rough as Londos tonight.

Londos' long suit is biting and slugging, says Clingman. "Why that dishwasher doesn't know how to wrestle." However we ran across a London fan yesterday who said that Billy knows the game from one end to the other. Londos predicts it's going to be the roughest match ever seen in Pampa.

Clingman has been getting some good practice this week down at Waco where he wrestled Monday night. Londos inspected the Pla-Mor ring yesterday and grunted his satisfaction. "They tell me," he said, "that Clingman has already ruined my reputation in this town. Well, that's just what I like. The more razzing I get the better I like it. But I'm going to get even with that little shrimp for telling the fans here I'm a dirty wrestler. Not dirty—just rough. Watch me tonight."

White, Londos and Clingman were hurling a verbal barrage at each other, Leo Chase has been getting in shape for Rob Roy. When Leo went to the mat last Thursday night with Tex Watkins it had been three months since he had worked out. He was badly out of condition but he reported this morning that he is ready to take on Roy who lost two out of three to Clingman last Thursday night.

The matches will start at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Clifford Brady has as her guests today, her mother, Mrs. T. J. Constine, and Mrs. Pem Denton, both of Amarillo.

SOLONS IGNORE PEN BILL FOR TAX MEASURES

AUSTIN, Feb. 20. (AP)—The fifth special session of the 41st legislature had all the earmarks of being a revenue-raising body today.

While the noise of representatives investigated charges against Comptroller S. H. Terrell and the senate was in recess until Monday, tax measures piled up, awaiting action of the house committee.

The house yesterday put its foot down on a plan of the revenue and taxation committee to invite 21 "representative citizens" to sit with it in considering tax measures. The committee during the fourth session had resolved to the effect it needed assistance of men representing diversified interest in an effort to work out a new tax system, but the house voted 65 to 15 to veto the committee's plans.

Proposals to tax sulphur, natural gas, thimble, chain (green tobacco) and gross cash value of assets of foreign and domestic corporations were on the legislative hoppers and others were on the way.

There were three bills proposing a tax on sulphur, fixing the levy at 50 cents, 75 cents and $1 per ton. There were two natural gas bills, one providing a graduated tax ranging from one-fourth of one cent per 1,000 cubic feet to two cents, according to volume, and the other fixing one tax at one cent flat per 1,000 cubic feet. Tobacco would be taxed one cent on each ten cents of the retail selling price. Penitentiary reorganization and concentration was back in the limelight with bills proposed by the two factions that fought to draw during the fourth session—centralization near Austin and rehabilitation of the Huntsville headquarters plant and improvement of farms.

Governor Moody, meanwhile, mapped his "no speaking campaign" to insure the passage of the bill. He arranged to speak to a group at Station KSAT in Fort Worth 8 p. m. to 10 p. m.; tomorrow night, 9:30 p. m., over Station WOAI in San Antonio and Sunday afternoon, 4 p. m., to 5 p. m., over Station KPRC in Houston.

BEGIN HERE TODAY JUDITH CAMELON, typist in a New York publishing house, marries ARTHUR KNIGHT, executive of the department in which she works.

Each day of Tony's voluntary withdrawal from the rest of the household had dropped in to talk with her.

"What in the world—what are you doing in here in the dark?"

"Tony!" the man called. "Wh—a-at?"

"It's I, Tony—your father," Knight said as he opened the door.

"Do I look better now?" she asked. "Much better. Very sweet, indeed! Tony, do you know I had completely forgotten what it was I came up to talk to you about?"

"Well, the fact is there's a young man down stairs and he's been waiting all this time to know if you'd go in town with him to see some show or other."

"What is it?" Tony asked sweetly. "Andy Craig?"

"How'd you know it was Andy?" "Oh, because he telephoned this morning and asked if he could come."

"But I mean it daddy. Really I do! Please tell Andy I'm not feeling well enough to go out."

"You're quite sure?" "Yes," she interrupted. "Quite sure. Tell him, daddy, and then come back upstairs and talk to me."

"I don't want to go, daddy," she said after a moment's pause. "I want to stay here with you!"

"Oh, now come, come! You can't expect your old father to believe a thing like that—"

"Glad to see you, Andy," said Arthur Knight. "Take this chair here by the fire."

"Listen, Arthur," interrupted Judith before either man had time to speak further.

Mrs. Jim White was elected president of the Women's auxiliary of the Presbyterian church for another year, at a semi-monthly meeting of the body yesterday afternoon. She has served for the last several months, having been raised from the vice-presidency upon the resignation of Mrs. J. M. McDonald.

Motion to Check Up on Campaign Expenses Made

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20. (AP)—Appointment of a senate committee to investigate campaign expenditures of senatorial candidates in the approaching primaries and election was proposed in a resolution introduced today by Senator Norris, Republican Nebraska.

The resolution was referred to the senate elections committee for consideration. It called for a far reaching examination into the expenditures and "influences" employed in the senatorial primaries and conventions. Senators up for re-election this year would be barred from membership on the committee which is to be named by the vice president.

Senator Norris himself is a candidate for re-election. So is Senator Ephah of Idaho, another leader of the western Republican independents, and Senators Walsh of Montana, acting Democratic leader.

A six-man committee was named four years ago and on the basis of its reports of expenditures in Pennsylvania and Illinois the senate refused to send Frank L. Smith, of Illinois, and William S. Vare, of Pennsylvania, both Republicans and certified as having been elected to the senate.

Konjola Frees Business Woman of Seven Ills

Well-Known Lady Enthusiastic Over Results Obtained by New Medicine.

MRS. MOLLIE F. VINSON

"I cannot begin to express my gratitude for Konjola," said Mrs. Mollie F. Vinson, well-known apartment house proprietor, 432A, East Broadway, East St. Louis. "When I began taking this great medicine I was practically a helpless invalid suffering from rheumatism, neuritis, stomach and kidney troubles. My fingers and hands and the points in my ankles and feet were frightfully swollen and painful. My kidneys were run down and my stomach weak."

"It required but six bottles of this marvelous medicine to banish every one of my ills. Today I have no sign of the pains of neuritis or rheumatism, nor are my joints either in hands or feet, the least bit swollen. My stomach and kidneys function as they should and I do not suffer the least discomfort after a hearty meal. My appetite is better and I am stronger, healthier and happier than I have been in many years."

Konjola is sold in Pampa at the City Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Shoes for Father of U. S. Lands John in Jail

CHICAGO, Feb. 20. (AP)—It remained for John Cain to reveal that man who would be well dressed should wear a smaller shoe Sunday than he wears week days.

"Ordinarily," he told Judge Immanuel, "I wear a size eleven. On Sundays I wear a ten. The smaller size is more suitable for dress."

"What size have you on now?" inquired the court.

"Tens," said Cain.

"But this," interrupted Judge Immanuel, "isn't Sunday."

"That is an account of George Washington," replied Cain. "I'm dressing up in memory of George Washington."

"And where did you get those size tens?" asked the court.

"I would rather not discuss such matters here," replied Cain, with hauteur.

"I believe these shoes are George Washington's, and that you took them from his feet without his knowledge," said the court. Ten days in jail, including Washington's birthday. Leave the number tens here for Niculita.

Chemist Says He Poisoned Houston Man and 7 Others

DETROIT, Feb. 20. (AP)—James Baker, 25, former employe of the Cogenheim Laboratory, New York, was held here today for New York police after he was said to have confessed the killing of eight men.

Baker's eight victims were dispatched by poison, and their homes were widely scattered about the world: Bombay, Hamburg, New York, Houston, the Philippines, and aboard a ship en route to South America.

Baker was arrested last night on a farm three miles west of Farmington. He had been working on the farm since last summer and was arrested when police learned he was wanted in New York.

The hidden Baker stated in his confession, gave him "a funny sort of mental satisfaction."

"I was always interested in poison, and usually carried some around with me," he said. "In 1924 I was in Houston, Texas. I happened into a callow home where a doctor was sitting at the counter. He had a cup of coffee in front of him. While he was looking away, I had a sudden impulse to put some poison in his coffee. He died almost at once. I learned afterward that his name was Honeycutt."

Baker said that after this first experience he had other impulses to poison persons.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20. (AP)—The murder of Henry Gaw, for which James Baker was arrested in Detroit, was one of the most unusual in New York history.

On the morning of December 27, 1929, Elmer Mayhew and Chester McCaully of Baltimore drove up in a truck to the doorway of the Guggenheim Brothers laboratory at 202nd street and Tenth avenue with a load of tear gas. They rang the bell at the gates, which were opened and they drove their truck in.

The man who opened the gates, however, once they were safely inside, drew a gun and after slugging them bound them and felt. They freed themselves.

2 Glasses Water, Not Too Cold, Help Constipation

One glass of water is not enough—take 2 glasses a half hour before breakfast. You get quicker and better results by adding a little simple glycerin, salin, etc., known as Adierka to one glass. Unlike other remedies, Adierka acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes old poisons you never thought were in your system. Adierka stops GAS and sour stomach in 10 minutes! Relieves constipation in 2 hours. Pampa Drug Co., and Fatheree Drug Co.—Adv.

searching the building police found the body of the night watchman, Gaw, slumped on the floor beside a table on which were two coffee cups. His hands were folded, and a torn telephone book was laid on his chest. The files of the laboratory had been rifled, but a check determined nothing of value was missing. It was apparently a "thrill" slaying.

It was apparent Gaw had been poisoned by someone he knew and with whom he had sat down to drink a cup of coffee.

TERRELL—

diverted state funds" to his personal use.

He said, however, that inheritance tax items of $4,195.86 and $1,382.97, which it was charged were "fraudulently misapplied" to his own use, had recently been deposited in the state treasury.

He declared the first he had ever heard of these items was when Lynn called them to his attention. He said that after an investigation satisfied him they had been collected by his department he immediately placed the money in the treasury.

Lynn told of sending out letters to Austin banks, about December 19, 1929, to all department heads a few days later, and to banks in all towns where state institutions were located, to determine what state accounts they contained. He found in all, he said, 80 such accounts.

"The first reply I had from the comptroller," he declared, "was dated January 6, 1930. It said that the money in the American National bank would be placed in the treasury to the several funds when finally cleared. The letter made no reference to the accounts in the Texas Bank and Trust company, nor to the two accounts in the Austin National bank."

The auditor said he then began a personal investigation of the situation, first sending an employee of his department to the comptroller's department without obtaining any information.

"I then asked J. M. Edwards, chief clerk to the comptroller, in the latter's presence, if it wasn't possible that there were some accounts of which I had not been notified," said Lynn. "Edwards said there were none and Terrell agreed with him, stating that any other accounts were personal."

"On January 18, I took Mr. Manning, from my department, and again asked Terrell about the other accounts. He told me then he knew all about the investigation of the accounts in the Austin National bank and that he meant to seek redress against the bank for disclosing his personal affairs."

"He refused to let me see a statement of the account on the ground that it was personal."

"There was no reference at this time to the account in the Texas Bank and Trust company."

"On January 22, I demanded these statements as state records. Terrell admitted that he might have, at some time or other, cleared state money through these accounts. He said Byrne, head of the oil and gas division, and Martin, deceased head of this department, had kept such records, but that he had not. Byrne told us that he kept a record of the so-called clearance account in penciled memorandums, in some cases, and that these were destroyed."

"Byrne said he didn't know where the account would be shown unless in the old audit book in Holden's office. "We found the account, money collected and checks held in escrow," in Holden's book. When we told Terrell about this account he seemed confused."

"The item of $6,312.74 of the Magnolia Petroleum company, Terrell told me was his personal account, although he did not say in what bank. Terrell said he thought the amounts were in escrow pending the settlement of a court decree on gasoline sold to the United States government. Later he said it was held by him under an agreement between Martin and the company that it was not to be returned and was not state money. He refused to give any further information about the agreement, stating he had a good reason for holding these funds. I traced all items in this account either to the Texas National Bank and Trust company or to the Austin National bank."

Petsch mentioned the item of $2,334.89 paid in by the Independent Oil company of San Angelo.

"Have either of these amounts been paid in to the state treasury?" he asked.

"They had not at that time," was the answer.

"Had either been returned to either company?"

"I can't say about the past few days, but at that time the Magnolia company said that theirs had not been returned."

Texas Wholesale Grocers to Fight Chains on Radio

DALLAS, Feb. 20. (AP)—Tentative plans for a radio educational campaign to combat the expansion of chain store systems in Texas were agreed upon at a meeting here today of members of the Texas Wholesale Grocers' association. Other groups of independent merchants will be invited to participate in the campaign, it was indicated.

The spirit of monopoly is walking boldly over the country, and it is safe to predict that opposition to the encroachment of the chains will become a national issue as well as a state issue. C. Y. Early of Brownwood said.

Another speaker, J. M. Radford of Abilene, declared opposition to the retail chains would be useless if chain banking was allowed to continue unchecked.

No Help in Sight for Doomed Woman in Arizona Cell

FLORENCE, Ariz., Feb. 20. (AP)—Found sane by a jury here, Mrs. Evan Dugan, 52-year-old housekeeper, today waited in the death cell of the state prison clinging to only faint hope that an appeal would spare her from mounting in the gallows tomorrow. She was convicted of the slaying in 1927 of A. J. Mathis, Tucson rancher.

Only one loophole remained through which she might escape being the first woman to die on an Arizona scaffold. Advised that the jury in their client's sanity hearing was divided in its verdict 9 to 3, attorneys for Mrs. Dugan prepared an appeal to the state board of pardons and paroles asking reconsideration of a recent refusal to commute the death sentence to life imprisonment.

Lin B. Orme, chairman of the board and attorney General K. Berry Peterson, member, said last night they could see no reason to intervene.

Mrs. Dugan was convicted for the slaying in January, 1927, of Mathis, her employer, in order to gain possession of his property. She testified that a 19-year-old youth known to her only as "Jack" had committed the actual slaying and that she ran away with "Jack."
