TO THRESH OUT WHOLE MATTER

Briggs, Pampa, Heads Committee From Panhandle

BORGER, Feb. 25. (AP)—The Borger Daily Herald today quoted Representative Phil L. Sanders, Nacogdoches, author of a bill pending before the Texas legislature to tax natural gas, as saying that the proposed measure would probably be abandoned if it could not be "threshed out" without crippling anybody.

Sanders made this statement, the Herald said, in a long distance telephone conversation with Grady Thompson, formerly of Nacogdoches, who attended a protest meeting of nearly 200 Panhandle citizens at Amarillo yesterday.

"Tell the people not to be worried," Sanders was quoted, "the bill is not meant to cripple any one, and as soon as we can get the gas committee to work, we will thresh the question out to the satisfaction of everyone."

At a big meeting of landowners and oil men in Amarillo yesterday afternoon, George Briggs was elected chairman of a permanent organization to fight for the interests of the oil and gas producers.

Several members of the committee left for Austin today to direct the fight on the natural gas tax, which

Taft Is "Losing Ground"—Alarm Not Immediate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Physicians attending Former Chief Justice Taft said in a bulletin today it was felt "he has lost ground."

The bulletin, issued at the White House, said Mr. Taft had shown no improvement for several days although there was no cause for immediate alarm.

The bulletin, signed by Doctors Thomas A. Clayton and Francis P. Hagner, read:

"The former chief justice has shown no improvement for several days. While there is no immediate alarm, it is felt that he has lost ground."

Lyceum Number Is Much Enjoyed

The Brown-Meneley entertainers presented the last of the five programs of the lyceum course of the season last evening at Central auditorium to a large audience.

Their program of readings, piano solos, and duets, vocal selections, character sketches and cathedral chimes numbers was considered one of the best of the season, and was received with much enthusiasm. An encore followed almost every group of numbers.

WASHINGTON (AP)—There is a Santa Claus. It is a town in Indiana and letters from children arrive there all the year round, so many that Representative Rowbottom is seeking a raise in pay for one of the busiest postmasters of his district.

Now If Spring Isn't Here, What About Violets?

BY A. F.

Last night a red-headed poet on Albert Square, who writes sonnets and plays a saxophone, delivered himself of this argument:

"If spring is not just around the corner what business have those two rows of violets in DeLea Vears' yard blooming? Not one bloom but perhaps a hundred. They're not the color of pale lavender either, but a deep royal purple, just like violets are supposed to be in the spring."

"Of course, it's likely to be cloudy and the scent of rain might be in the air in the morning, but I ask you, what about those violets?"

"If spring isn't in the offing what business did two flocks of wild geese have flying north Saturday? Of course you can't go by women's hats, because they begin wearing spring hats right after Christmas, but a high school teacher of long experience tells me she noticed the first signs of spring among her students yesterday—sighs, sly glances, notes. 'All of which,' she said, 'will soon develop into puppy love.'"

"I tell you spring 'business' is picking up."

BUSINESS AREA ELECTRIC LINES TO BE BIGGER

All electric lines in the business district will be increased in size, according to W. H. Curry, local manager for the Southwestern Public Service company.

The regular construction crew began this work yesterday. The step is being taken, according to Mr. Curry, in anticipation of the normal annual increase of about 15 per cent in the load.

The business district also will be placed in a separate circuit. The special line to the city water wells will likewise be increased in capacity. The concrete foundation has been poured for the big Diesel engine which will generate power at the local plant in the near future.

County League Meet Is Planned —to Be Displays

Department directors for the Inter-school league meet will be held in Pampa March 28-29 were announced today by County Supt. John Hessey.

The directors met here last Saturday and made preliminary plans for the meet. At the meeting it was decided to have a display of all the school of the county in which the work of the pupils will be on exhibition in booths. Prizes will be given to winners in the various classes of schools.

The directors are as follows: John Hessey, director general; R. E. Page, director rural schools; E. G. Sanders of LeFors, debating; H. C. Robinson, superintendent of the Alameda school, declamation; Mrs. H. G. Gill of Alameda, spelling; R. A. Selby, arithmetic; Bernice Whitley, essay writing. The essay writing contest will be held one week in advance of the meet at LeFors on March 22.

Coach Odus Mitchell is director of all the athletic events. He will choose his own assistants.

Miss Arless O'Keefe is secretary. Other directors include Miss Clarice Brigham of McLean, picture memory; Miss Iva June Willis, music memory.

Perry Morgan, a freshman in Texas Tech at Lubbock, spent the Washington anniversary holiday and the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Morgan. He was accompanied to Lubbock by Albert Doucette and Vernon Lawrence, who spent Monday there and returned home this morning.

FUTURES ARE BELOW DOLLAR AT MARKETS

Grains Close Slightly Under Monday's Finale

FARM BOARD ACTION HURTS

National Body to Buy Only From Co-Operatives

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (AP)—Wheat futures crashed won below the dollar mark today in a panicky drop 5 cents below yesterday's figures and then as sensationally rebounded in the last hour of trading to finish at 5-8-cent decline to 5-8-cent advance.

The trade generally attributed the spectacular break to the refusal of the Farmers' National Grain corporation to purchase cash wheat from other holders than cooperatives affiliated with it. Quoted statements by Alexander Legge, chairman of the Farm Board, were construed as indicating the Board was unconcerned with grain after it passed from the hands of co-operatives into the hands of operators.

Corn, oats, and rye tumbled along with wheat to new bottoms, but all climbed back near yesterday's closing levels in the final spurt.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 25. (AP)—Wheat futures broke under $1.00 a bushel here today as values collapsed on the nation's grain exchanges. May wheat sold down to 97 cents a bushel, after closing yesterday at $1.01. July touched 99 cents.

Club President Here Conferring on Convention

Mrs. J. T. Whitmore of Snyder, president of the Seventh district of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, held a brief but important conference this morning with Mrs. Tom E. Rose, president of the Pampa Council of Clubs and chairman who will comprise the general convention committee for the approaching district meeting in this city.

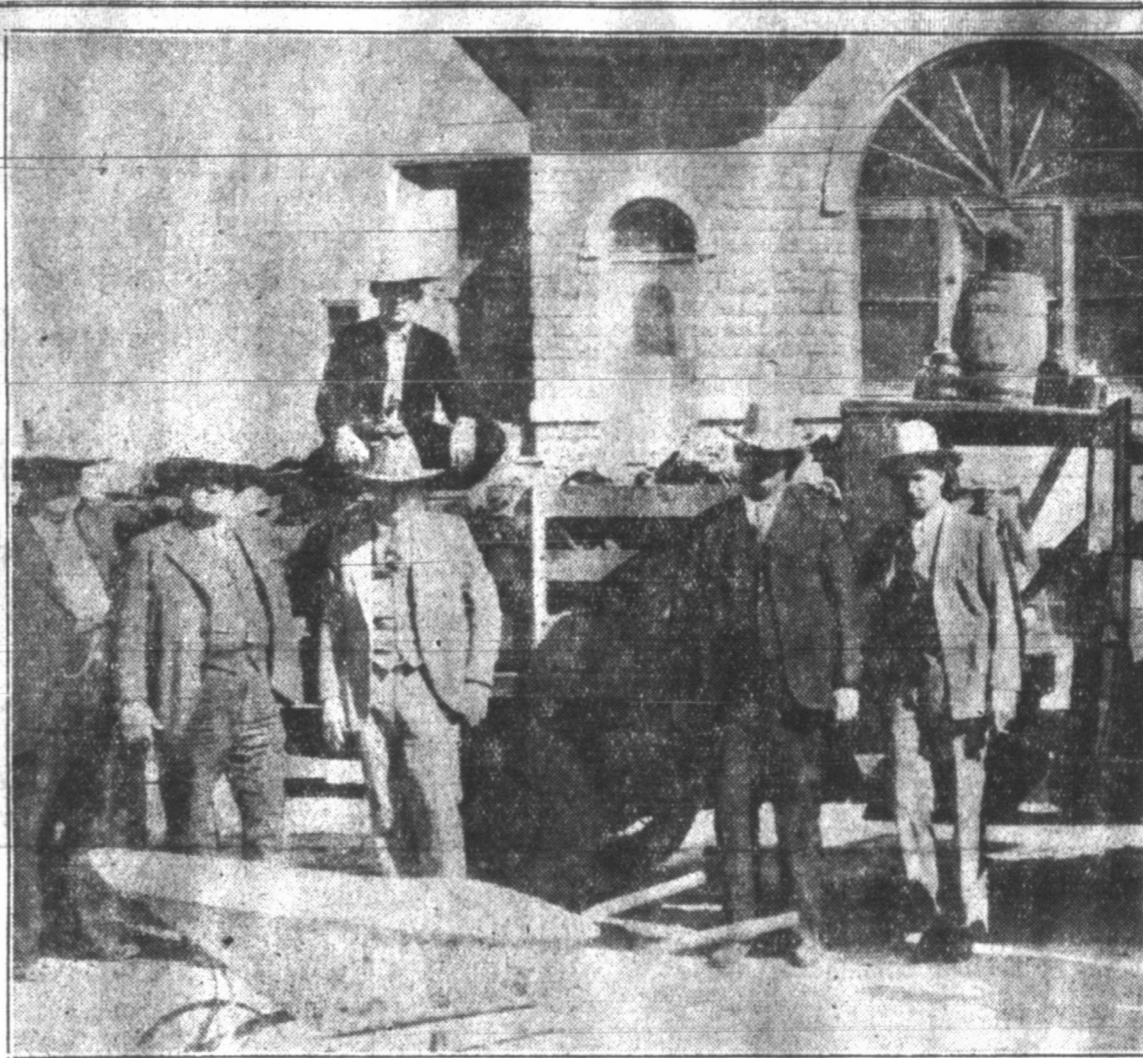

Offering a broad outline of the three-day convention, details of which were to be planned by local committees, in conjunction with divisional chairmen of the district, Mrs. Whitmore commended the women of this city upon their well-organized committees and early preparations for the district gathering. She answered questions and gave valuable suggestions for all chairmen.

She urged that emphasis be placed upon orderly business sessions, rather than upon the social phase in plans for the approaching meeting. Too many or too elaborate social functions exhaust the delegates and guests quite as much as they do the hostesses, and hinder rather than aid in the realization of the fundamental aims of the annual convention.

Mrs. Whitmore was to be the honored guest of the Council of Clubs at a tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ivy E. Duncan, between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock. All members of clubs affiliated with the Council were invited to meet the district president on that occasion. Mrs. Whitmore was to speak to the gathering, and little else was planned for the program. Mrs. Whitmore will leave tonight for Amarillo on an official visit.

Marriage License Issued
Application for a marriage license was filed today by W. G. Williams and Miss Zaida B. Webb. Under the present law, the license cannot be issued until three days after date of filing. Since the law went into effect the license-buying business at the court-house declined 60 per cent.

When the Ground Was Damp With Booze

—By Hester's Studio

There should be future historic interest in this picture, which shows $42,000 worth of liquor of all sorts against the background of the old Baptist church, temporarily used as the Gray County courthouse. The liquor was confiscated in raids by county and precinct officers and destroyed on court order. In the picture, left to right are C. E. "Tiny" Pipes, chief deputy; Sheriff E. S. Graves, Deputy Herman Wachtendorf (on truck), Deputy Jeff Guthrie, Constable G. H. Parrish, Deputy Weldon Wilson.

Rural Clubs Formed

Demonstrator Visiting Schools—Activity Popular

In the week since Miss Myrtle Miller, county home demonstration agent, arrived in Pampa she has organized girls' 4-H clubs at Laketon, Grandview, Hopkins, and Phillips Camp, and she is to organize clubs at Eldridge and Alameda tomorrow.

Women's clubs have been formed at Grandview and McLean and plans made to organize similar groups at school communities which have 4-H clubs. Membership in the 4-H clubs included 100 per cent of the girls in each of the schools. County Supt. John Hessey accompanied Miss Miller to each of the schools and introduced her to the teachers and pupils. Mr. Hessey says that Miss Miller has made a fine start and that the club members are joining with enthusiasm and anticipation.

No 4-H clubs will be organized at McLean and Pampa, as demonstration work is already being provided in the school systems of these towns. Thus she will be able to devote all of her time to rural children for whom demonstration and expert training in home-making have not been available. However, Miss Miller will meet with women's clubs at McLean.

In several of the rural school communities, women's clubs already exist, as at Laketon. Miss Miller will attend these clubs regularly as a member. She is in McLean today meeting with the women's club at that place.

Pampa Girls Praised

MIAMI, Feb. 25. (Special)—The Pampa girls walked away with the second prize of the Miami girls' tournament. They have an excellent team and deserve the prize they fairly won. The forwards, Heiskell, Stone, and Brown, showed great skill in the goal-tossing business.

Boy Scout Leadership Course Is Growing—Troop Formed Last Night

An adult scout troop with 25 members was organized at the Methodist Church last night in the second of a series of eight meetings which comprise a training course for scout leaders.

Dr. R. A. Webb was elected scoutmaster and C. B. Akers, assistant scoutmaster. Ray Wilson was elected scribe. Patrol leaders are Chris Martin, Dr. H. H. Hicks, H. L. Friedman, John Bradley, and Bert Curry. Selection of all the leaders has not been completed but will be at the next meeting, March 3.

"By becoming scouts the men learn what is expected of a Boy Scout and are equipped to intelligently train him,"

Salvation Army Goal Nears as Work Continues

More than half of the $2,500 goal set by the Salvation Army for the drive for the year's funds had been raised at noon today.

Solicitor chairman reported that $1,500 had been received, and that a number of workers had not reported since the drive began. It was believed that $2,000 had been collected.

The total budget of the Salvation Army is $4,500. Approximately $1,500 was raised previously by the Pampa Daily News and a group of business men.

Mrs. Tom E. Rose left at noon today for Dallas, where Mr. Rose is a patient in Dallas Medical clinic. He is to have a tonsillectomy Friday.

Young Husband Held—Wife Found Dead at Home

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 25. (AP)—Evelyn Frances Edgington, 19, wife of an oil cloth company employee, was found in her bed slain at her home here today. Her throat had been slashed by a piece of milk bottle that authorities found near the body.

The body was found by Lawrence Edgington, 20, her husband, when he returned from work early today. He had been working at night and told police he last saw his wife alive about 3 p. m., yesterday.

Police said stains were found on the floor of the bathroom and that stains were also on a faucet. The couple lived in a one-room apartment. Edgington was taken to police headquarters for questioning.

Mrs. Grace Higgins returned today from a business trip to Oklahoma City.

HOUSE HALTS HEARING WHEN STEP IS TAKEN

Little More Could Be Accomplished by Probe

SUCCESSOR TO BE APPOINTED

Vacancy Is Caused by Activity of Auditor

AUSTIN, Feb. 25. (AP)—H. Terrell, comptroller, today sent his resignation to Governor Moody. General W. A. Keeling, one of the attorneys for Terrell in the impeachment proceedings against the comptroller, read the resignation into the records of the hearing on the charges at noon today.

The resignation brought the hearing to a sudden end. The house accepted recommendations of their attorneys developing the case that no further action be taken except to postpone further consideration of the charges indefinitely.

This turn in the hearing came after a conference between attorneys on both sides which lasted about 30 minutes.

Testimony before the house yesterday and today revealed that Terrell had attempted to replace in the treasury and remit to other sources a total of $11,522.48, representing escrow items which had been placed in a local bank, but never released to the treasury or returned to the payees.

The resolution postponing further consideration of the charges recited that "by virtue of said resignation one of the objects of this investigation has been accomplished, namely the removal of Mr. Terrell from the office."

The resolution said: "By virtue of said fact a legal question arises as to whether or not the legislature of Texas continues to have jurisdiction of this matter."

"In the opinion of your attorneys, the facts have been brought to the attention of the people of Texas, and the record has been made, and a final action by the legislature on this matter could not accomplish anything additional except the entering of judgment disqualifying Terrell from holding office in Texas hereafter."

Terrell, pale and worn, picked up his brief case and walked hurriedly from the hall after General Keeling had read his resignation.

J. M. Edwards, chief clerk of the department, will become acting comptroller pending appointment of Terrell's successor by Governor Moody.

It will be the third elective office Governor Moody has been called upon to fill within a year. The others were commissioner of the general land office and attorney general.

Land Commissioner J. T. Robinson was removed by death and he named J. H. Walker, chief clerk, to the vacancy. Attorney General Claude Follard resigned and Governor Moody appointed E. L. Bobbitt of Laredo.

Impeachment charges were preferred against Terrell after Moore Linn, state auditor, appointed to the newly-created office of auditor and efficiency expert last September, filed a report of a partial audit of the comptroller's department and Governor Moody transmitted it to the legislature.

It was alleged that approximately $60,000 in public funds had been unaccounted and that at least a portion of this amount had been misappropriated by Terrell and diverted to his personal use.

It was charged also that he had directly or indirectly benefited from profits from operations of the Texas Tax Record company, organized by his wife and two employees of his department for the purpose of collecting delinquent county and state taxes.

He was also accused of a number of other alleged violations of the law having to do mostly with the bookkeeping.

Social Calendar

TUESDAY

Mrs. J. T. Whitmore, Snyder, president of the Seventh district Federation of Women's clubs, will confer with chairmen of the district convention, at the Methodist church parlor at 9:30 o'clock, upon plans for the approaching meeting.

A tea honoring Mrs. Whitmore will be given by the Council of Clubs at the home of Mrs. Ivy E. Duncan, 1115 North Christine street, at 2:30 o'clock. It is to be a social and informal affair. All members of women's clubs affiliated with the Council of Clubs are invited to be present.

Lorraine Murphy Is Honored Saturday with Birthday Celebration

Mrs. W. B. Murphy gave a delightful birthday party Saturday afternoon for her little daughter, Lorraine, who was six years old. Many games were played, and prizes awarded. Elsie Johnson and Opal Kretz.

Colorful decorations in the Washington day motif for a festive and delicious refreshment were served.

The guests were the following: Jeanine Lyndell and Gene May, Mary Anne Hubert, Vivian Baker, Russell Roof, Billie Kretz, Clara Simmons, Wanda Hatcher, Elaine and Peggy Murphy, Annie and Revena Johnson, and Kit Martin May.

Colonial Silver Tea For Episcopal Church Generously Supported

More than a hundred guests attended the Colonial silver tea given yesterday as the first benefit toward the building fund of the Episcopal church. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Buckler's home was opened for the affair, appropriately decorated in American flags, American Legion banners, and cut flowers emphasizing the patriotic color theme commemorating George Washington's birthday.

Officers of the Woman's auxiliary in the receiving line and members in the house party were charmingly costumed in the hood skirts, panthers, and powdered wigs of the Colonial era.

The refreshments were composed of Mrs. Wm. M. Graven, auxiliary president; the Rev. John Lecher, pastor of the Episcopal church; and the following other auxiliary officers: Mrs. E. H. Hamlett, Mrs. E. T. Aubrey, Mrs. S. G. Surratt, Mrs. John L. Poole, and Mrs. James Daily.

Mrs. Henry Thut, Sr., and Mrs. Palmer poured tea. The table was laid with Normandy lace, and centered with a bowl of pink and orchid sweet peas on a spray of fern. Tall silver candle sticks matching the service held pink tapers. Mrs. E. Loyell, Mrs. C. C. Cook, and Mrs. P. J. Morgan assisted in the dining room.

Mrs. Don Wakeman presided at the guest book. Other members of the house party were: Mrs. M. K. Brown, Mrs. Arthur Swanson, Mrs. R. C. Gowen, Mrs. L. M. Williams, and Mrs. A. Johnston.

Mrs. Johnston was in charge of the entertainment, with which several friends of the auxiliary graciously assisted. The Rev. Lecher opened the program with an excellent discourse on Washington.

Successing numbers included vocal selections by Mrs. A. H. Doucette and Mrs. L. N. McCullough; piano solos by Miss Madeline Tarpie and little Miss Anne Buckler; and readings by Mrs. Johnston and Anne Buckler. The girls' quartet of Central high school, composed of Ruth Wakeman, Audrey Noel, Yvonne Thomas, and Doris Price, sang two selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Thomas Fannell.

The generous response of the those who attended made the tea a marked financial success and an auspicious beginning for building program. A silver offering of $64 was received. Hostesses were delighted with the results of their efforts, and expressed their appreciation for the assistance of those who appeared on the program or made contributions of any sort.

Here's a Story of Make-Believe Land—and Why Jack Got Spanked

Some children, especially the highly imaginative ones, love to live in the Land of Make Believe.

If this making a hero of one's self is carried to excess, it very often ends in a spanking for the child and embarrassment for the parents.

As in the case of little 5-year old Jack Evans this morning. A very handsome child, with hazel eyes and peach blossom skin, he was brought to the sheriff's office this morning with a ghastly tale about how he had been kidnapped in Oklahoma City by a strange man. The sheriff and his deputies got busy and sent telegrams to the Oklahoma town. The child gave an Oklahoma City street and number which he claimed was the address of his mother, and which later proved to be correct.

When he finished his tale the county officials were ready to believe that some hard-hearted villain had kidnaped the youngster.

"Aren't you hungry?" queried Deputy Pires.

"No, I had a glass of milk this morning and I've got an orange here in this pocket. That'll last me the rest of the day."

At any rate Ray Wilson took him home with him to lunch. Old Twink heard about it and being a camera bug immediately thought of a photograph. The child's picture was taken in three poses.

You have guessed it: about that time his father came to the courthouse looking for the boy.

"I brought him from Oklahoma City here Sunday," he said. "His mother and I are separated at present but don't expect to be for very long. Jack learned that kidnaping business from his mother and grandmother. They told him he'd be kidnaped if he didn't stay off the streets—I just got through spanking him for telling that little fib."

Mr. Evans is an oil field worker here.

Anti-Pro Society Formed in Texas

AUSTIN, Feb. 25. (AP)—A charter has been applied for by the Texas Prohibition Against Prohibition, organized for the purpose of campaigning for repeal of the prohibition laws. Lawrence P. Bates of San Antonio, one of the incorporators, announced today.

Other applicants for the charter were George W. Stone and J. S. Nepper, of San Antonio.

The secretary of state referred the application for a charter to the attorney general's department.

Bates said his organization advocated the manufacture and sale of light wine and beer under supervision of the state. He said it was opposed to the saloon, speakeasy and bootlegger.

Mrs. James Todd was a visitor in Amarillo yesterday.

The house which Oglethorpe, who colonized Georgia, occupied in Savannah, is to be marked by a bronze tablet.

Hoover Attacked for Tariff Stand, or Lack of It

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Hoover leadership was the target of an overnight attack from Democratic spokesmen based partially upon the president's conference with congressional and departmental leaders and his warnings against excessive appropriations.

Representative Garner of Texas, Democratic leader, termed the conference "a move to divert the attention of the public from the chaotic economic and unemployment conditions brought on by lack of leadership of the president."

"It is simply the setting up of a straw man to be knocked down," said Senator McClellan, Democratic member of the appropriations committee. "Bills for large appropriations are always introduced, but congress doesn't appropriate more than we can afford. It's an attempted scare. It's all pollyanna."

Speaking at Kansas City, James Shouse, chairman of the Democratic National executive committee, asserted that during the night debate the only "pertinent utterance" of President Hoover "was a well of displeasure because the senate sought to take away from him authority to alter tariff rates and to restore that revenue-raising provision to the full dominion of congress where it originally resided."

He termed the tariff efforts of the regular Republicans an attempt to impose "a super-structure of extortion on the already towering tariff rates of the existing Fordney-McCumber inquiry." He added that "but not so much as a word has" Mr. Hoover ever indicated his disapproval of the monstrosity.

The result has been, he continued, that "the Democrats have had to fight the bill in detail at the expenditure of an inordinate length of time that should have been devoted to numerous articles of legislation that the country requires."

LeFors Shows Evidence of Growth As New Buildings Opened—Phone Exchange to Be Ready Very Soon

(Give your news to C. E. House, City Drug store, LeFors.)

Building and remodeling now under way in LeFors are indicative of the steady growth of this community. The Grayco Gasoline company opened its beautiful new station, southeast of the square, last Saturday, by selling eight gallons of gasoline for the usual price of five.

Mr. Thornberg is putting up a building 25 by 40 feet in which he will open an up-to-date furniture store. The building is on east first street.

The Panhandle Power & Light company has rented the building formerly occupied by the B. & C. company next door to the City Drug store, and is preparing to fit a handsome show room for the display of all kinds of electrical goods. The power company will move into the building Friday, Feb. 28.

The new store room of the Self-Service Cut-Rate system has been completed. The building is 22 by 80 feet.

A long-felt hope of this community will be realized upon the completion of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company's commodious building and the installation of a complete telephone exchange, some time within the next two weeks.

A Carpenter recently purchased a house in Panhandle, which he is moving to LeFors to fit up as a rent house. The two room cottage is to be placed back of the Yukon cafe.

Five boys stole a barrel of lubricating oil from the Texas company. They sawed the lock to the station. After being kept in jail 24 hours, they were released on bond.

Mrs. Joy Thompson had a narrow escape from serious injury, or possibly death, when she fell off the running board of a moving car. She was thrown in front of the car as the vehicle jolted on a crossing. The car was stopped as quickly as possible, but not before Mrs. Thompson was pushed several feet in front of the wheels. Although not seriously injured, she is still ill from bruises and slight cuts.

W. R. Combs of the Combs Mercantile company went to Sanford

Thursday to see about an ice box for his fast growing establishment.

George Cluts attended the meeting of oil and gas operators, and interested citizens conferring in Amarillo Saturday on the oil tariff.

Deputy John Combs and Night Watchman Robert Walls confiscated several hundred bottles of beer in a raid southeast of LeFors Thursday night.

Two boys eleven years old stole and butchered a hog. They were arrested and placed in jail.

Many at P.-T. A. Meeting
Ninety-three patrons and teachers of the LeFors school were present at the most recent meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, and the report of the membership committee indicated that at least 30 additional members would be enrolled in the near future.

The meeting was marked by a short program on which Supt. E. G. Sanders made a short talk. A play was given by the third grade, and group singing was enjoyed. The president, Mrs. J. G. Williams, presided.

PUPPET SHOW MUCH ENJOYED

The two performances of the Jean Gros French Marionettes at Central auditorium last Friday, which were highly popular with both juvenile and adult audiences, proved to be far more important as a contribution toward artistic entertainment than as a financial venture for the Council of Clubs, sponsor of the local appearance.

Rated as mechanically the most elaborate and perfect Marionette theatre in the world and one of the two most artistic, the Jean Gros Marionettes gave two plays that were distinctly different from anything ever shown here before, and the value of the exhibition was appreciated by both afternoon and evening audiences. "The Adventures of Uncle Wiggly" was given at the children's matinee before a delighted audience of several hundred boys and girls. "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," from the book by Mark Twain, was shown in the evening, followed by a beautiful illuminated ballet.

Despite the gratifying reception given the show, the Council of Clubs realized only about $75 in profits, it was estimated by Mrs. S. A. Hurst, chairman of the finance committee for the approaching district federation convention. That sum will be placed in the convention treasury.

Oil Man Killed in Planned Fall

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—Richard H. Jones, director of the Tidewater Oil corporation of New Jersey, was killed today from a fall from his eighth floor apartment on Park Avenue. Police listed the case as a suicide, and said Jones jumped to his death after striking his wife on the head with an electric lamp.

Employees of the apartment house heard the body strike the courtyard. An ambulance surgeon pronounced Jones dead. The surgeon attended Mrs. Jones for lacerations of the scalp.

Mr. Jones, 35, was graduated from the United States Naval academy at Annapolis in 1916 and was a member of the Army and Navy club, Washington, and the Engineers club. Mrs. Jones is the former Louise H. Conkey.

Credit Men Form Panhandle Group

Carson Loftus, local manager of the Pampa Business Men's association, is a director of the Panhandle-Plains Credit Bureau association recently formed in Shamrock.

Other officers are: President, R. O. Walkup, Amarillo; vice-president, Mrs. Daisy Burton, Quanah; secretary, Guy Hill, Shamrock; directors, Garnet Reeves, Lubbock, and Carson Loftus, Pampa.

The purpose of the new organization is to form a closer alliance between the similar bodies of the Panhandle. The next meeting will be in Amarillo May 6.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cockrell are leaving today for Oklahoma City where Mr. Cockrell will attend a sales meeting of the Central States Power and Light company.

East Ward School Using Radio Now

East Ward school now has the radio given the city school a few months ago by the several Parent-Teacher associations, and, according to the plan being followed, will use it for a month.

The first program was received yesterday morning from an Amarillo station, and to the delight of the ward school pupils, two selections were dedicated to the students and teachers of East Ward school of Pampa. Pupils of all the grades assembled in the hall, where the radio was set up.

Ransom "Racket" Being Broken Up

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 23. (AP)—Officers of two states today searched for the master minds of a daring kidnaping ring which abducted Charles W. Pershall, wealthy Granite City, Ill., chain grocer and banker, within two blocks of his home last week, held him captive two days and released him on payment of a sum reputed to be $40,000.

It was the second gang playing the ransom racket to be uncovered here within a week, the other, described by police as the "gas house mob" being broken up through 12 arrests which followed a raid on a St. Louis county re-

Houston Motorman Severely Stabbed

HOUSTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—With severe stab wounds in the stomach and shoulder, W. A. Callaway, 40, motorman on a Port Houston street car, was in a serious condition at an infirmary today as a result of an encounter about midnight with two Mexicans who attempted to rob him.

At the end of the line, the pair got on the trolley as the motorman was counting his change preparatory to making a return trip to town. When one struck the motorman in the stomach with a long bladed knife, at the same time reaching for the currency and silver.

Although nearly doubled up with pain, Mr. Callaway grappled with the men, finally throwing them through the front glass and door. They escaped.

BAXTER'S WINFIELD NEWS

517 South Cuyler Pampa, Texas February 25

ATTENTION OF FLEET OWNERS IS CALLED TO WORLD'S BEST CARBURETER

Beyond a doubt Baxter's Auto Repair have the most attractive proposition and best carbureter on the market for power, performance and economical operation. The Winfield carbureter is positively guaranteed to give more miles per gallon of gas, more power, and smoother operation on heavy trucks than any other carbureter. Throw your throttle wide open and note the power your motor has, then take a look at the gasoline gauge and be surprised at the small amount of gasoline you have used after a long haul with a heavy load.

Read of the experience of others with the Winfield carbureter.

"WE ARE EQUIPPING OUR ENTIRE FLEET"
Dorchester Battery & Ignition Station, Sirey, Mo.

In reply to your request of results obtained from Winfield Carburetor which you installed on our White truck No. 12, Model '29, will say that over a period of 30 days it showed a saving of approximately 4 gallons per day, along with increasing power of 20 per cent. In other words, we saved the price of the Carburetor during the 30-day trial period.

We are equipping our entire fleet with Winfield. WHITE BROS. Sept. 5, 1929 Geo. W. Derby, Auditor

"CONDEMNING SHADOWS"
[Shakespeare, 1564-1616]

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—you men who would keep that trim, proper form, eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky Strike instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain that lithe, youthful, modern figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette a man ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

"It's toasted"
Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quick "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

JOKES ROUNDS INTO FORM OF CHAMP PERIOD

ATLANTA, Feb. 25. (AP)—Down to his best playing weight, tanned, hardened and shooting better golf than usual this early in the season, Bobby Jones, national open champion, is ready for his most extensive campaign of recent years.

A program of indoor and outdoor sports, intermingled with a little golf, has kept the Atlanta ace in near perfect trim throughout his winter. He now tips the scales at 175 pounds.

The stocky champion, who has won every major crown golfdom offers except the British amateur, plans to get in at least four rounds of golf over the East Lake Country club course here—his home course—every week until he sails for Europe April 30 as captain of the Walker cup team. He may enter the Augusta, Ga., open on March 21 and April 1.

Jones has his eyes set on the British amateur title this year. His tentative schedule also includes the British open in addition to the Walker cup matches and the American open and amateur.

With only a few chances to test his clubs this year, Bobby finished a 72-hole grind at Savannah one stroke behind Horton Smith, and six strokes ahead of Bobby Cruickshank.

His showing at Savannah served to inform the golfers of this country and Britain that Bobby needs only a little more practice before he reaches the great form that has brought him many championships.

Glenn Wright Going Strong

CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—News was strictly bullish at the opening session of the Brooklyn Dodgers spring training session.

Three invalids of 1929, Glenn Wright, Del Blissonette, and Sumbo Jim Elliott, all apparently have recovered from the ailments that made them practically useless to the Dodgers last year. Wright was snapping the ball to first base with freedom and speed, and there was no trace apparently of his lame arm that kept him on the bench in 1929. Blissonette, who underwent two operations during the winter, hit the first home run of the season. Elliott, the big lefthander, tossed the ball in practice and appeared in better condition than he has been at any time since the end of the 1928 season.

BROADCASTING OF BIG BOUTS TO BE BARRED

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—Although the strongest kind of pressure had been brought to bear, the Madison Square Garden corporation today apparently had resisted all efforts to bring about a reversal of its decision not to broadcast the Sharkey-Scott and Campolo-Risko fight show Thursday night.

Impression that the Garden magnates would change their minds and permit the fistfights to be wafted to the rest of the world gained circulation after information was received that the National Broadcasting company was sending two men from New York.

It was learned, in addition, that strong influence had been brought to bear, not only by American radio interests, newspapers and listeners-in, but also by foreign broadcasting concerns anxious to obtain hookups.

England, represented by Phil Scott, and Argentina, by Victorio Campoio. In the two main bouts of the evening, especially have been anxious to arrange for the blow-by-blow returns by radio.

However, William F. Carey, president and spokesman for the Garden directorate, said before taking a train for New York, that there would be no broadcast.

"We made our decision and will stick to it," Mr. Carey declared. "We have advertised in newspapers and by other means throughout the country that there will be no broadcast. We have sold tickets on that understanding. Manifestly, it would be unfair to put it mildly, to change our minds now."

Otherwise, the second battle of the palms is only three days off, with the box office making a gallant struggle to get the enterprise "out of the red" and the principal combatants, through with intensive training.

Nothing has happened thus far to alter the one-sided aspect of the Anglo-American main event. If anything, the impressive character of Jack Sharkey's last workout with the gloves yesterday strengthened belief he would polish off the lanky Scott. Betting has been conspicuous by its absence. Roughly, the odds today were at 4 to 1 that Sharkey wins by a knockout inside four rounds.

There was a strange and somewhat pathetic contrast to the conclusion of glove workouts by the two principals. Sharkey went at his sparring mates with an especial display of savagery. Rather than appearing stale, he seemed on edge. The crowd watching him at the Miami Beach kennel club was enthusiastic and so were the experts.

A while later, over in Miami, as Scott finished his drill and climbed a fire escape to his improvised dressing room, onlookers, undemonstrative, straggled out. Only the trainer was upstairs to greet Phil, along with one newspaperman.

Phil monosyllabically replies to a few questions and sat in a chair with a somewhat blank and emotionless air. No crowd, no joshing, no spirit of impending conquest was there. It may not be significant, but the comparison between the rival camps seemed typical of just how the fight is regarded.

Knight Declares He Is Rougher Than Mr. London

Of the wrestling match between Otis Clingman and Billy London last Thursday night, Bill Knight of Skellytown says, "Hub, that wasn't a rough match. Anyway, not half as rough as I'm going to get with Oscar Dotson Thursday night." That's why I didn't stop the rough stuff. These people around here have never seen any rough wrestling. I'm going to introduce them to a little Thursday night."

Sheriff Graves felt that Knight was so negligent in stopping toe-kicking, slapping, and finger holds that he replaced Knight with Sam Penberg as referee. Knight weighs 220 and Dotson 206.

The main event will be a finish match between Tiger Taylor and Otis Clingman. Taylor is noted as a fast, clean wrestler who relies on science and skill rather than roughing.

Clanman is wrestling in Chicago tonight, but will start home when the match is over. Taylor comes to the Panhandle from Fort Smith, Ark., and expects to make his home in this section.

Dotson, hero of many a mat match here, is well-known as the "Pampa Blacksmith." He has been out of the game for about six months, but so has Knight, and each is planning to work off about 15 or 20 pounds by the middle of this week.

"Konjola First Medicine That Benefited Me"

St. Louis Railroad Man Says Kidney Trouble Vanished When He Took New Medicine

MR. M. J. SMITH
"Konjola is the first medicine that benefited me," said Mr. M. J. Smith, a railroad man residing at 2343 Rutger street, St. Louis. "I lost much time from my work for three years because of a kidney ailment. Dull pains across my back, frequent bladder actions, and a listless and weakened feeling generally, made work a burden and a drudgery. I tried many medicines and treatments without avail.

"A fellow employe induced me to try Konjola. I felt improved from the first week I began taking this medicine. I continued until I had taken four bottles and my weakness gradually disappeared. Today the dull ache has gone from my back, my bladder functions normally and the listless tired feeling has passed. I am gaining steadily in weight, strength and energy. I owe new health to this great medicine."

Konjola is sold in Pampa at the City Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—(Adv.)

ARKANSAS HAS TITLE IN FIFTH STRAIGHT YEAR

HOUSTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Although the tag ends of the season still were to be gathered in, the University of Arkansas basketball team today was eligible for the Southwest conference crown.

The victory, 30 to 26, over the Rice Owls last night clinched the title for the Porkers—not that it was an unexpected victory. Their claims had been recognized for the last several weeks since the University of Texas was eliminated.

It was an old story to followers of the circuit, 1930 being the fifth straight year the Razorbacks had proved themselves the best in the Southwest.

Rice and Arkansas meet again tonight, but regardless of the outcome, it is just another game. No so the game between Southern Methodist university and the University of Texas tonight, for the Ponies journey to Austin with a fighting chance to tie with the Longhorns for second place. To win the honor, the Mustangs must take their two remaining tilts.

Rookie Is Wearing Babe's Uniform

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—A deep and dark plot to force Babe Ruth to put his signature to a New York Yankee contract has been scented by baseball reporters covering the Yankees training here.

At the first workout of the season yesterday, it was discovered that Babe's famous uniform, with its well known "3" hemstitched on the back, was being worn by a rookie, Allen Cooke, who may or may not play left field for the Yanks this year. Sports writers, with a facetious turn of mind, believed the Babe would never stand for having his uniform worn by anybody, much less by a rookie.

Connie Mack Is Directing His Boys

PORT MYERS, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—Connie Mack, major dome of the Philadelphia Athletics, ordered a fair sized squad of athletes to the ball yard today for the first spring practice.

Counting regulars and rookies about 35 players were in camp, with another delegation that has been conditioning at Hot Springs expected by the end of the week. Some of the regulars, eager to get going, have been in the South more than a week, and a half dozen others, including Lefty Grove, arrived yesterday.

DO YOU WANT A BABY?

Regular $1.00 Treatment sent free—one for each family. "I was married and longed for a baby every day with all my heart, but was denied," writes Mrs. L. Scheller, Indiana. "So I sent for your prescription. While taking the second box I was unable to express my happiness. I never had a sick day. I became the mother of a fine 8 1/2 pound baby. God only knows our joy. I hope every woman longing for motherhood will take your medicine."

Baby Scheller: You are welcome to 4 1/2 months. If you use this letter and picture for publication. Thank you. Married 11 years and doctors told me I would never have any children," writes Mrs. White, Pa. "I tried your medicine. Now I am to be a mother in October. My dearest wish realized."

Dr. DePew's treatment, a non-specific based on Glandular activity, has been used with such results by thousands of women that for the next 30 days he offers to send a full dollar treatment, postpaid, no C. O. D., no cost, no obligation, free to every woman who writes.

Dr. DePew has set aside 1000 free treatments for this month, so be sure and write today. He will also send a free booklet "Childless Marriage Explained."

Simply send name, a postcard will do, and remedy will be mailed in plain wrapper. Dr. DePew believes you will be surprised and delighted. Address: Dr. DePew, Suite DW, Coates House, Kansas City, Mo.

Tunney Carries Cane for Support

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 25. (AP)—Gene Tunney has arrived here for an indefinite stay. He plans to be at the ringside for the Sharkey-Scott fight Thursday night in Miami, to mark his first appearance in a boxing arena since he retired as undefeated heavyweight champion in the summer of 1928.

Tunney, friends said, appeared strong and well on the road to recovery from an operation in New York six weeks ago. He said however, he tired rather easily and felt the need of rest. He carried a cane for support.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25. (AP)—Farmer Lodge of Minnesota is the seventh victim of Primo Carnera's campaign through American prize rings. The mammoth Italian knocked out Lodge in the second round of their scheduled ten-round bout here last night. Lodge was the fourth of Carnera's opponents in this country to last two rounds, Cowboy Owens, Buster Martin, and John O. Erickson were the others while Big Boy Peterson, Eliear Rioux, and Big Jim Sigman failed to survive the first round.

SEVEN CONVICTS ESCAPE BUT ARE RECAPTURED

HUNTSVILLE, Feb. 25, (AP)—Back in their cells at the Ferguson state prison farm, seven convicts today had little to show for a break for freedom except black marks on their record sheets and insect bites on their legs.

Sawing through the bars of a window, the seven fled early yesterday morning. The separated as soon as shelter was reached, and each man sought freedom on his own. Twelve hours later all were behind bars again, having wandered aimlessly about in the Trinity river swamps, never more than three miles from their prison.

Bloodhounds ran them down.

GIRL STILL UNCONSCIOUS

DENTON, Feb. 24, (AP)—Helen Hare, 7, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Hare, remained in a critical condition here today resulting from injuries she received when struck by an automobile last Wednesday as she was returning home from school. At 8 p. m. yesterday she had been unconscious 106 hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Clayman have moved to their new home at 1117 East Francis avenue.

BEGIN HER TODAY

JUDITH CAMEKON, New York typist marries ARTHUR KNIGHT, executive of the publishing house in which she is employed. Knight is a widower with a daughter, TONY, 16, in Paris and a son, JUNIOR, 16, at school. Their Bermuda honeymoon is interrupted by news that Tony is on her way back to America. Tony arrives and denounces Judith as a gold digger for which her father makes her apologize.

Tony is secretly contemplating a flirtation with MICKEY MORTIMER, wealthy and married. When Junior comes home for the Christmas holidays he also treats Judith coldly.

ANDY CRAIG, a young man whom Knight has helped through college, takes a position with the publishing firm. He has been in love with Tony for a long while. In a fit of anger Tony tries to convince her father that Judith and Andy are carrying on an affair. Knight denies this but Tony tricks the pair into a compromising situation. Estrangement, then reconciliation between Judith and Arthur follow.

Tony's flirtation with Mortimer is revealed when they are arrested at 3 a. m. for reckless driving. At length Tony wins her father's forgiveness and promise of a trip to Miami. Preparations for the trip are interrupted when Knight comes home seriously ill. Dr. SHEPHARD, the family physician, makes an examination and a nurse is installed in the household. Later that evening Dr. Shephard is again summoned to the house.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXXI

Arthur Knight lay gravely ill with pneumonia. In the upstairs bedroom of the suburban home two nurses—one on night and one on day duty—walked softly, spoke in whispers and watched their patient anxiously. Dr. Shephard came frequently and spent long periods at the bedside.

The house was quiet, depressing, and smelt of hospital supplies.

At first mention of the dread malady Judith Knight had been terrified. "Pneumonia!" she repeated hopelessly. "Oh, doctor!"

"Now, now!" Dr. Shephard's low tones came assuringly. "You must take this calmly. Mrs. Knight. Upstairs there's a sick man but he's fighting! He's putting up a great battle. We're all going to do what we can. This is no time for hysterics!"

The physician spoke brusquely as though he were quite out of patience. Judith Knight might have retorted that she had never shown a tendency toward hysterical outbursts, but she did not. This was the man who was to be her husband! She must follow his directions.

"I'll do anything you say," she told him, making obvious efforts to control her voice.

"Then I'm going to ask you as the first thing to keep out of that room upstairs. You can't help in the least there. Miss Mallory knows her duties. The slightest deviation—the very slightest—might at this stage be critical. In a few days, if things go as I hope, you can see your husband. Meantime you are to stay away and keep the rest of the household away."

"Yes, doctor."

Mrs. Wheeler and Harriet and even Cora received their instructions at once. On no account were they to enter Arthur Knight's room. Miss Owens was the night nurse. She and Miss Mallory had arranged a schedule so that at all times of the day and night one of them was on duty. Trays were arranged and sent up with the nurses' meals. It was exactly as though the residence had ceased to become a home and was now a hospital.

Explaining the situation to Tony Knight was more difficult. It was a time when one might have supposed common suffering would draw these two young women into sympathetic understanding. Not so!

Judith found her stepdaughter in the sunroom staring gloomily out upon the March landscape.

"The doctor's just gone," she said by way of introduction.

The younger girl raised her eyes. "What's he say?"

"He says it's pneumonia."

"Then he'll die! He isn't going to get well. My daddy—my own daddy! Oh, how dare, how DARE you tell me such a terrible thing? I won't believe it. It isn't true! Father—FATHER—"

"The girl was on her feet. Her words came in a gasping torrent. She had started for the door when Judith caught her arm.

"Tony!" she said firmly. "You mustn't talk that way. And you can't go upstairs now!"

"I will go! I will!"

Judith had taken the girl's arm. Tony wrenched to get it free. The girls struggled but Judith held firm. "But you mustn't!" she insisted. "Dr. Shephard says no one is to be allowed today. He wouldn't let me go. It's critical, he said. The slightest disturbance—"

Tony was sobbing now. She kept pulling and twisting. Her voice had risen in pitch. Suddenly she let go of Judith's arm, gave her one quick, malicious glance, brought her hand back and sent it sharply against Judith's cheek.

The shock was effective. With a little cry the older girl drew back. Tony made for the door.

"Here—what's going on here?"

A man's voice, curt and authoritative, cut the air.

"Miss Knight!" In voice, continued severely, "we must have quiet!"

"But Doctor, she won't let me see my father—"

Doctor Shephard eyed Tony Knight over the rims of his spectacles. He had not been the family physician of the Knight household for eight years without learning a thing or two about this girl.

"Nothing of the sort!" he said, impressively. "She hasn't got anything to do with it."

Tony brightened.

"Then I CAN go?"

"No, you can't. You're going to stay out of your father's room—and want him to have a relapse, do you? Want to make him worse?"

"But you said—"

"I said Mrs. Knight didn't have anything to do with issuing orders around here. I'm giving 'em. Understand? If you want to make your father a lot sicker than he is now start that screaming again! Are you going to stop it?"

It was really surprising how ferocious Dr. Shephard, ordinarily a meek man, could become.

Tony hung her head.

"Yes—"

"See that you do it!"

Judith had been silent through this conversation, but her cheeks were scarlet. Had Dr. Judith Knight was struck here! Judith Knight was startled and ashamed. She looked more ill at ease than Tony.

The doctor glanced from one girl to the other. Then with a final "H-m-m!" he turned on his heel and disappeared.

There were no more open arguments. Tony went about the house silently and sullenly and Judith was soon so anxious about Arthur she forgot the girl.

Miss Owens was more talkative than Miss Mallory. When the night nurse came downstairs at eight o'clock in the morning, after being relieved from duty, Judith took care to have an immaculate table ready and a hearty breakfast ready. After she had finished her toast Miss Owens could usually be persuaded to sit a few moments and chat.

Judith herself did not eat breakfast. She scarcely nibbled at food all those days, complaining that it choked her. She drank coffee when Mrs. Wheeler sent it to her and would have been surprised if she had realized how often this happened throughout the day.

When Miss Owens said: "Fairly good night. He's holding his own in Judith smiled a vague, hurried smile in gratitude. When the nurse looked sober and admitted her patient was troubling her the girl's eyes closed in pain, and her lips pressed firmly together.

Two mornings in succession she heard that her husband's condition was dubious. The second day Dr. Shephard came downstairs and told Judith it would be well to send for Junior.

"I think you owe it to the boy," he said shortly. "Twenty-four hours ought to tell the tale."

Doctor Shephard made three trips to the house that day. Judith sent a telegram to the director of Arthur Junior's school saying the boy's presence was desired at home at once.

She had to keep busy. She had to be doing something and so she walked Back and forth, back and forth through the downstairs rooms. Sometimes she counted her steps. When she did this she always broke off, realizing after a long period that she had forgotten where she stopped counting.

"Mrs. Knight," the housekeeper appeared to her timidly, "don't you think it would do you good, ma'am, to get out of the house for a while? Just a little walk down the street for fresh air—"

Judith shook her head resolutely.

"I'm all right, Mrs. Wheeler. Quite all right."

Sandy sniffed at his mistress's skirts as though he wanted to express sympathy. The dog followed Judith about the house and when she paused or sank into a chair he wedged close to her, nudging his cold nose against her hand. Sandy's dirty eyes seemed to say he was terribly sorry things were going so wrong and wished he could help.

Was Arthur Knight going to get well?

Judith dared not face the question directly, yet always it was there, in the back of her mind, a specter haunting each moment. Was Arthur going to get well? Oh, of course, OF COURSE he must pull through his horrible ordeal! But—would he?

Judith arose and began pacing through the rooms again. She was waiting for Doctor Shephard's footsteps on the stairs. "This waiting was becoming intolerable. She must have some comfort!"

Five minutes, 10 minutes passed. At last she heard a door open. Yes, he was coming down the stairs. The slightest sound was audible now in this silent house.

"Oh, doctor!"

"Yes?"

"Quick, let me go to him! Let me see him—just for a moment! Oh, I can't stand this any longer! I'll go mad."

The gray haired physician took the girl's two hands in his. Slowly he shook his head.

"You are not going to give up now, Mrs. Knight," he said. "You've been a brave young woman. Very brave. Tomorrow—perhaps we can let you see him. It is a great strain, I know, but you are making yourself ill. Find a room that is quiet somewhere. Pull the shades and try to rest."

"I can't rest!"

"You must try, my dear. You must try."

"Doctor—I will try."

He patted her shoulder soothingly.

"That's a good girl," he said as a father might try to speak. "I'll be back later. Good afternoon."

Eight hours after the telegram had been sent Arthur Junior arrived home. It was eight o'clock in the evening. Dinner had been finished. The household routine had been entirely rebuilt since Knight's illness.

Tony and Judith were in the living room when a noise on the steps broke the stillness. The door opened and simultaneously Judith reached the hallway.

"Junior," she said softly. "I'm glad you're here."

"What's happened?"

Passionate, boyish eyes met the girls. Tony appeared beside Judith.

"Oh, Junior," she cried and ran to throw her arms about her brother.

Judith touched the boy's sleeve.

"Come in by the fire," she said quietly. "We'll tell you everything."

Arthur Junior looked from one to the other. Then he moved forward and all three entered the living room. "Something's happened to father!" The boy pronounced his words definitely, as though he dared either of them to deny the statement.

Judith nodded. In her pale face and dark-dirted eyes, if from no other source, the boy could read tragedy.

"Where is he?" Junior demanded.

"Briefly, gently," Judith told the story. Tony clung to her brother, weeping. He could not see his father now, Judith assured Junior. Tomorrow, perhaps!

They were there together when Dr. Shephard entered the house and later when he came downstairs. The doctor paused on the threshold of the room.

"How're you, Junior? Glad to see you, Mrs. Knight, may I have a word with you, please?"

Judith arose and followed the doctor into the hall.

The Truth About Fat

Science has found that excess fat is largely due to a weakened gland. Now physicians the world over, in treating obesity, combat that major cause. Starvation is not advised.

The chief factors they use are embodied in Marmola's prescription tablets. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. In late years, excess fat has been fast disappearing, as everybody knows.

The method and formula are explained in every box of Marmola's. As you gain new slenderness, beauty and vim, you know why. Go try the method which has done so much. Watch the amazing results. All drug stores supply Marmola's at $1 a box.

Gets Complete Relief From Terrible Gas Pains That Cut Like a Knife

Are Your Symptoms Like Hers?

HE is the story of a woman that every sufferer of stomach troubles ought to make it a point to read. A victim of terrible gas pains for 10 years, she tells about the simple treatment that ended all her troubles in just a short time.

Like many local women, Mrs. Mary Ogle is so grateful for her release from a life of pain she wants everyone to be helped and so tells her story: "I have always said and always will say that 'Lancet' saved my life. Few people have suffered as I have with stomach troubles in the last 10 years. The gas nearly kills me. I would be deathly sick and in bed sometimes for weeks at a time. My stomach was sore all the time, the gas would form and collect right in the side and cut like a knife. I had to call in doctors. They said gall stones and gall bladder. Sour stomach and gases almost choked me to death and bothered my heart. Meat and potatoes were forbidden. I spent lots of money but my suffering increased instead of getting better. Certainly a harder task could not have been found for Lancet, yet this medicine has succeeded and as I said, saved my life. My stomach troubles have yielded. I have a good digestion and feel of all it is really my gas. I eat everything and gained so much in strength that I look like a different person. In fact health in 10 years, that expresses it and tells the story of what Lancet has done for me." Just the first dose on Lancet will settle her with a firm will assure you. Lancet is a real medicine based on modern medical science. It is every bit as good as any and outlasts the rest. It is not a secret and safe. Lancet must help you get your life back. At all drug stores.

Home Cooking Is Rare in Maracaibo Declares Visitor

H. W. Murphy, who has been with the Shell Oil company at Maracaibo, Venezuela, South America, for the last three years, is visiting his sister, Mrs. John T. Glover and Mr. Glover this week.

He will spend four months in the United States before returning to South America for another three-year period. His home was Clarksville, Texas, before taking up the foreign work.

The states of customs there are unusually interesting to those who have never been out of the states. When asked if he could get a good American "hot dog" in Maracaibo he replied "No" but that you could get a good glass of cold beer. The advent of home cooking is also noticeable there, he says.

When asked if there were very many people there from the States, he replied that there were some three or four thousand. "Except for this you wouldn't know you were in a foreign country," he says, as a gust of Panhandle wind fills your eyes with dust.

Rail Boosters Leave on Trip

A group of local citizens left for Dallas yesterday where they will discuss with railroad and state officials a plan they believe will assist in securing the Childress-Pampa railroad.

GAS TAX

is called confiscatory. The group names is composed of Terry Thompson, Amarillo; J. E. Williams and Mel Davis, Pampa; Frank DuBois, Shamrock; E. P. Bryan, Amarillo; R. B. Masterson, E. T. Ware, W. H. Fuqua, Ray C. Johnson, Miles Elvins, Chancellor Weymouth, and W. M. Melroy, representing Amarillo interests; and Ed Mayer and Mack Sanford, representing Hutchinson county.

It was planned to join other sections of Texas in preventing the proposed Sanders and Mauritz measures from becoming laws. A hearing on the bills will be held tomorrow, when the Panhandle men will make their claims.

Resolutions adopted yesterday at Amarillo follow:

Resolutions adopted, were:

BE IT RESOLVED by a mass meeting of Land Owners and Independent Gas Producers of the entire Panhandle of Texas, now assembled at Amarillo, Texas, that it hereby enter a vigorous and solemn protest against the passage of any law which places an additional tax upon natural gas produced in the State of Texas for the following reasons:

1. A tax on natural gas will be confiscatory, and will seriously hinder production and development of gas in the state, and the development of our natural resources for the welfare of all our people.

2. To place an additional tax on natural gas in the State of Texas is unfair, discriminatory and contrary to the best interests of the state as a whole.

3. That while it is proposed to levy such tax against the producer, such proposed tax would necessarily be passed to the ultimate consumer many times increased in amount, and will tend to destroy present manufacturing industries within the state, and certainly tend to prohibit the further influx into the state of those great industries which will add to the employment of our people and prosperity of the state.

4. That such a tax, if levied, would materially affect contracts already made, tend to destroy the value of the land owner's product, bankrupt the small producer, and ultimately place an unjust burden upon the consumer.

5. That such a proposed tax in the very nature of things does not represent a fair and equal taxation as guaranteed by the Constitution, and such tax would be wholly without justification for such reason.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we most respectfully petition the legislature against the levy of such proposed tax, and look with confidence to the Legislature of Texas, to protect our property against confiscation or great depreciation, which necessarily follows if such tax is levied.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of these Resolutions be given to the Press, and a copy furnished to our Senators and Representatives.

New Court Bill

Is Introduced
AUSTIN, Feb. 25. (AP)—A bill to create a new court for Carson, Gray and Hutchinson counties was introduced by Senator C. C. Small of Wellington. The bill intended that the court shall have general jurisdiction, but its primary motive is to provide greater facilities for hearing civil cases. Since Gray county is in the 31st judicial district, and Carson and Hutchinson counties are in the 84th district, the bill does not provide for the appointment of an additional district attorney. The new judiciary would be known as the 116th district court.

An Army of American Motorists has Changed to CONOCO

Germ-Processed Motor Oil

Have you noticed that Conoco stations have been busier in the past few months? The reason is, of course, that amazing new oil, Conoco Germ-Processed.

Introduced only last November, this revolutionary motor lubricant has startled even its makers by its instant public acceptance. At times it was difficult to complete refinery runs in time to supply demands from distant districts.

There's a moral for you in this wholesale change of oil-buying habits by the motoring public. Everyone realizes now that something happened in the motor oil business when this new oil was announced. When you start using this oil you'll realize the truth of our statements that a new age in lubrication began with the Germ Process.

By providing more economical car operation, by guaranteeing a radical reduction in motor wear, and particularly, by penetrating metal surfaces and providing constant lubrication under every conceivable operating condition... Conoco Germ-Processed oil sets up a new gauge of motor oil merit.

Only Conoco has the right to make Germ-Processed oil in North America. No other oil on the American market can offer you these advantages. We firmly believe that you will buy no other oil except Conoco Germ-Processed oil after using it for a fair period of time. Won't you make that trial-to-day? Every station bearing the Red Triangle is now prepared to serve you.

The Seven Claims in Conoco's Challenge that Brought this Amazing Public Acceptance of Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil

- 1 Combines with metal surfaces and never leaves bearings and other working parts, due to its "PENETRATIVE LUBRICITY." That means Constant Lubrication.
- 2 Refined from carefully selected paraffin base crudes by patented processes. That means stability and low oxidation and evaporation.
- 3 Positively increases gasoline mileage by reducing friction. That means economy.
- 4 Will not break down under intense cylinder wall heat. That means decreased oil consumption.
- 5 Substantially reduces motor wear in starting because this oil penetrates metal surfaces. Other oils require 15 to 20 minutes to reach all moving parts. Conoco Germ-Processed Oil prevents the 40% to 60% of motor wear that engineers agree would otherwise occur.
- 6 Crankcase dilution does not seriously impair its "oiliness" value. That means greater motor protection.
- 7 Will lubricate efficiently at sub-zero temperatures. That means thoroughly de-waxed oil.
