Sulphur Tax Bill Is Reduced by 50 Cents

Agreement May Be Possible in Fee Measure

AUSTIN, Feb. 17. (AP)—Hearings of charges proposing impeachment of Comptroller S. H. Terrell was postponed by the house today until tomorrow afternoon.

The special session ended by constitutional limitation tomorrow, indications were that the investigation would be deferred until the next special session, which Governor Moody was expected to call on the heels of this one.

Some of the legislators pointed out that even should Governor Moody decide against a special session at this time, the house could convene itself for the purpose of conducting the hearing.

The senate committee on state affairs reduced to 50 cents the proposed $1 tax on sulphur which would have been levied by the house bill of Rep. Phil Sanders of Nacogoches and reported the measure favorably.

The senate was working with a bare quorum, and the house quorum was uncertain, having flinched too soon after one was mustered long enough to postpone the Terrell hearing.

AUSTIN, Feb. 17. (AP)—The fourth called session of the legislature resumed its work today, the next to the last day of the 30-day period, with its program so badly muddled many predicted that insofar as action on pending problems was concerned the meeting was over.

The conference committee trying to adjust differences of the houses on penitentiary centralization and rehabilitation legislation was confronted with virtual pronouncement by Governor Moody that he would veto anything short of a proposition to centralize activities around an industrial plant near Austin.

Governor Moody had told his friends he had given up hope of getting his prison reorganization adopted, but intended to renew his radio appeal to the people to petition their representatives in the legislature to support Austin centralization.

Continuation of the governor's announced appeal to the people was accepted generally as meaning a fifth called session would follow this one when it expired Tuesday, and prison centralization together with other subjects would be resubmitted.

The senate state affairs committee bill by Representative Phil Sanders of had failed to act definitely on the house Nacogoches levying a $1 per ton tax on sulphur production.

May Delay Hearing
Some legislators had begun a movement to further delay start of a hearing on the proposed impeachment charges against Comptroller S. H. Terrell before

—AND A SMILE

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—It is not apparent whether three Yanks are crusading for dress reform or simply tried successfully to get into the papers. Johnny Nee, scout, George Pipgras, pitcher, and Benny Bengough, catcher, have had their pictures taken on the golf links in shorts and barelegs. In two cases they look like rolled up white flannels, but Benny's seem to be half a swimming suit of loud checks

Mister Godiva No. 20 Chatters Before Police

CHICAGO, Feb. 17. (AP)—The Messrs. Godiva are becoming regular customers at the police station.

A blonde girl and a male companion are back of it all. They employ their evenings robbing taxicab drivers, taking not only the drivers' money, but their trousers as well. The idea is to prevent immediate pursuit, for one must go a long way before finding a taxicab driver who will pry into the glare of street lights and the bite of the night air without his clothes.

It was the blonde herself who sounded the Godiva note. After Roy Robbins, cab driver, had been robbed and forced to disrobe, tossing his trousers and shoes out to the robbers, the young woman called to him, "goodby, Mister Godiva." Robbins drove to the nearest police station. He was No. 20 in the list of victims of such robberies within a fortnight.

He stood before the desk sergeant, and his teeth chattered. "Something terrible—" he began. The sergeant spoke wearily. "The blonde? Gimme your name, address and how much you lost."

BURGLAR SHOT TO DEATH BY POLICE CHIEF

DAVENPORT, Okla., Feb. 17. (AP)—A man believed to be Turner Barnes, who was released from the state penitentiary at McAlester February 5 after serving two sentences from Okmulgee county for burglary, was shot and killed in an encounter with Marvin Roberts, chief of police, here today.

Roberts was attacked by the man when the officer surprised him and a companion while apparently attempting to break into a dry goods store. The other man escaped.

When Roberts started to search the pair for guns, one of the men attacked him with an iron bar. Although "lazed," Roberts shot the man.

The rancher was reported planning to return to Pampa this afternoon.

Fire Drills Are Conducted in Schools

In accordance with a practice to be followed in all schools of Pampa Independent School district, Baker school this morning began a series of fire drills. Weekly and semi-weekly fire drills at all school buildings are being conducted in order to train the pupils and teachers to quick, calm action in emergency. Incidentally, the regular drills will considerably lower the city's fire insurance rate, it is said.

Why Catholics, Protestants Protest

This picture shows the actual demolition of one of Russia's most beautiful structures, the Seminover monastery, by the Soviet government, which announces that the ancient edifice will be replaced by a "palace of culture." Note the wrecked furnishings piled in front of the building. Widespread acts of desecration and destruction of church property, such as this, have drawn protests from Pope Pius and also from the Church of England.

Byrd's Rescue Ship Must Hurry to Reach Party

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, Feb. 17. (AP)—The captain of the ship Eleanor Boling, en route to take Rear-Admiral Richard E. Byrd's expedition out of the Antarctic, sent word here today that he was encountering strong gales with heavy seas and even with favorable conditions could not reach the ice-pack before the week-end. He gave his position as 440 miles south of the Origo heads.

Raymond Mercola, the Byrd expedition's supply officer, was here today and said that barely a week remained before the ice-pack was expected to freeze solid, possibly imprisoning the expedition's seventy members. He added the Eleanor Boling had not a day to waste if it was to reach the group in time.

LIQUOR 'LINE' CASE FINISHED THIS MORNING

Former Sheriff Among Those Awaiting Sentence

WEALTHY NEGRO GETS ACQUITTAL

County Attorney Fox Also Freed in Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 17. (AP)—Eight of the 12 defendants in the Pottawatomie county liquor conspiracy trial, including Frank Fox, former sheriff, were convicted by a jury in federal district court here today.

The other four defendants, including Randall Pitman, county attorney, were acquitted.

Forrest Anderson, millionaire negro, said by government witnesses to have provided whiskey to a liquor ring in the Earlsboro oil field, John Rogers, clerk in a drug store that allegedly sold whiskey, and Bud Greer, former drug store proprietor at Maud, were the others acquitted.

The other men convicted were: John Baugh, Chickasha insurance salesman, alleged to have helped finance a moonshining enterprise at Shawnee last year; Roy Booth, proprietor of "Blue Heaven" oil field resort; Virgil Church, druggist; Bill Collier, druggist; Boy Keys, druggist; Emory Lovette, Chickasha man, involved in the Shawnee distilling venture; and J. The defendants, including Fox, crowded about the county attorney to congratulate him after adjournment of court. All seemed in good spirits.

Hanna's new story, coming after 12 hours of continuous examination, sent authorities hurrying to the nearby village of Orrville, home of Melvin's parents, to dig up the back yard of Hanna's former home. No trace was found of the body immediately but authorities pointed out that Hanna was in a way as to the precise spot and the frozen ground made the work slow.

A SURVEY OF GRAY COUNTY RURAL SCHOOLS AT THE END OF THIS YEAR WILL SHOW COMMENDABLE PROGRESS IN PHYSICAL GROWTH, FINANCIAL STABILITY, AND SCHOLASTIC RECOGNITION.

Indeed, within a short time Gray county is expected to be among the leaders in excellence of rural schools. It is a fortunate condition. Comparison of conditions in this county with scores of other counties of the state would reveal the comparative prosperity and the relatively higher standards of living.

But there is always room for improvement. The new Gray county home demonstration agent, Miss Myrtle Miller, no doubt will find plenty to do through 4H clubs, demonstration clubs and the like. Her work will be in no sense a welfare program, but she will be at the service of the women and girls of the county who need and deserve a representative just as much as do the business men a B. C. D. manager.

Miss Miller, who is known to us as a former classmate, is a well trained and successfully experienced worker who should render valuable service to the rural people. She was educated in a Teachers college and has a permanent teaching certificate. Her understanding of and appreciation for the teaching profession should result in very amiable relations, and should raise still higher the standard of work in the schools of the county.

While the home demonstration agent's job is not that of county nurse, she will be able through her clubs to impress the importance of hygiene, special attention to vision, teeth, throat, posture, diet, and behavior is an essential part of the work of every worker who comes into contact with children.

An exchange item calls attention to the home demonstrator's work in Wheeler county. The Mobeetie News tells of a banquet given by the Homemaker's club of Allison and Zybach communities. The husbands were invited, and in all 59 persons were present. Miss Viola Jones, the agent, gave a demonstration on planning the ideal homestead. It is significant that the success of the Extension service of A. & M. college has demonstrated that fancy ideas and theories have not been advocated, but that rural peoples have been encouraged to use assets already possessed. So-called "book learning" is used in the practical programs only to the extent that conditions justify.

Gray county should welcome the new agent and give her the cooperation needed to make her work effective. She will be an important adjunct to the educational system of the county.

TWINKLES

Our children are making good progress in fire drills. Would that their elders used the same discretion in keeping away from the fire truck while driving to blazes.

Old Man Hokum is reported to be a candidate in nearly every county in Texas now. It is also said that he has allegiance with no particular office or party, but it apt to be cropping out in any race.

P. (Pure) Bunk is the chief rival of O. M. Hokum, and it is practically assured that one or the other will get into the run-offs. Each claims to be the candidate of the common herd, but both cannot be "it" and much confusion prevails.

The income tax men and the census takers will be around soon to ask rather personal questions. And unfortunately it does not pay to get rough with either of them.

Well, having had a special session to see what they could not do, the Legislature will now probably have another one to settle down to the things that can be done.

Our teachers must be physically sound and well educated in the future. Merely another application of the having-practiced what-you-preach theory.

Austin Man Is Severely Stabbed

AUSTIN, Feb. 17. (AP)—J. Oscar Saul, 40, was under treatment for serious knife wounds in a hospital today, and his 14-year-old adopted son, Rosalie Saul, was at liberty under bond.

Saul was stabbed after an altercation with Mrs. Saul and the boy. The blade of a long knife penetrated one lung.

Mrs. Saul's story was that the boy came to her defense, and she claimed he wielded the knife to protect himself as well. She stated she and a maid had attempted to take a pistol from Saul earlier in the day and the boy intervened. She said she struck Saul with the knife once, and when her husband turned on the boy the latter cut him the second time.

Believe 3 Killed in Still Explosion

READING, Pa., Feb. 17. (AP)—Activities today reached the climax of a three-story brick building for the bodies of two men and a woman believed to have been buried when a still exploded, causing the walls to collapse.

Two laborers were killed and several injured. They were passing the building yesterday when the first of three explosions sent the walls crashing to the street. Two other men and a young woman, who were near the building at the time, were not accounted for.

Chicago Bad Men Face Deportation

CHICAGO, Feb. 17. (AP)—The federal government has afforded police a new weapon for ridding Chicago of its bad men.

Immigration officers yesterday attended the police showup for the first time, scanning suspects to see if there were any subject to deportation. Investigation into the records of 20 men was a result.

The week-end crusade resulted in 1,124 arrests, bringing the total since the drive started nine-days ago to nearly 5,000. Only a small percentage have been held, but all have been put through the bureau of identification. Police found that 285 were men with records.

Commissioner William Russell expressed himself as "greatly satisfied" with the drive. He pointed to a marked reduction of crime, especially the virtual cessation of gang outbreaks.

G. O. P. Invitation Is Called "Gesture"

DALLAS, Feb. 17. (AP)—Jed Adams, national Democratic committeeman for Texas, today characterized the invitation if the republican state executive committee to Democrats to join the ranks of their party as "just a gesture."

"Of course, that party's doors always are open," Adams said. "I don't think there will be any flocking to the republican ranks by the Democrats. The invitation was more or less to be expected, and I see little in it to talk about."

Raise Hopes; Not Money

CHICAGO, Feb. 15. (AP)—A conference today between representatives of the city and of their Strawn citizens' relief committee, "raised the hopes" of the former, so they announced, but it raised no cash. The county announced it would wait no longer for succor from the committee and ordered issuance of $1,339,658 in tax anticipation warrants to pay salaries of 4,000 employees.

Boissere was arrested in complaint of his former wife, Mrs. Mildred Boissere.

RUBIO MUST NOT TALK

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 15. (AP)—After obliging President Ortiz Rubio to suspend all business conferences yesterday, the doctors attending him today forbade him to talk at all. They explained that this would hasten his recovery, because talking disturbs the wound in his jaw.

The medical bulletin tonight says the president's condition is satisfactory.

Young, superintendent of mails in the Dallas postoffice, today received the unanimous endorsement of the Dallas county Republican executive committee National Committeeman R. B. Philip resigned the office last year to accept an appointment as assistant postmaster general.

Mrs. George H. Wallace, Mrs. I. Baum, and the latter's son left this morning to visit in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Herbert Walker visited their daughter, Mrs. Lovell Munday, at Amarillo yesterday afternoon.

Democrats Fight to Lower Tariffs

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. (AP)—Democrats began another tariff slashing drive in the senate today as Republican and Democratic leaders joined anew in appeals to hasten action on the Hawley-Smoot bill.

During the first hour, the Democrats succeeded in eliminating proposed increases in duties on three commodities in the metals schedule—holow drill steel, wire rods, and wire rope.

Chairman Smoot, of the finance committee, suggested that the senate hold a night session or two this week and not meet on Saturday, but all the response they got was an assurance from the Democrats that they would do all in their power to speed the bill toward a compromise.

A compromise rate of 40 per cent was agreed to for four driner and cylinder wires suitable for use in paper making machinery and woven wire cloth suitable for use in the manufacture of four driner wires. The present rate of 40 per cent was boosted to 55 by the bill, and 40 per cent was suggested by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts.

An amendment by Senator Barkley to lower the duty on cast iron pipe from 30 per cent ad valorem as provided in the house bill, to 25 per cent, was adopted without a roll call.

Mrs. George Kelley is in Amarillo today.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

BABE RUTH IS MIGHTY HITTER AT GOLF, TOO

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 17. (AP)—The great man of baseball plays a great game of golf; when he rids himself of a bad habit of pushing his wood shots.

Babe Ruth's performances on the links justify no criticism from the duffer, or even the better-than-average player, for the big slugger can "bust 80" with considerable consistency. As a matter of fact, he won't be content until he "busts 70" on the well-trapped tricky Jungle course out on the border of Tampa bay.

His chief trouble, however, is a desire to whack the golf ball with all the gusto and enthusiasm with which he cracks a baseball. In fact, distance, with very little, if any direction was the Babe's chief difficulty a few years ago when his golf was in its infancy. Since then he has altered, developed, and improved his game.

"I don't bang him for distance any more," he remarked after a round over the Jungle club course that was somewhat erratic, but good enough to produce a score of 89, nine over par. "He has shot this particular course in 72 this winter."

"I still like to wallop 'em and see 'em ride, but I have found out that an extra 30 or 40 yards isn't the main thing. It's sticking the second shot up around the pin that counts. They don't pay off on those long drives, especially if they wind up in the rough or the woods."

Stories have circulated about the Babe's prodigious driving, probably for the reason that the ordinary golfer gets more satisfaction out of a long drive down the middle than any other shot, unless it's a long putt. The debate on this point isn't settled.

Ruth has carried over 360 yards from the tee. This is based on fact and actual measurement. He has several times driven into a ditch only 25 yards in front of the 360-yard fourth hole at the Jungle club. Beyond that the Babe cannot say definitely as his record for long hitting.

Any time he hits one "on the nose," it is good for close to 300 yards, but his average drives now are not much over 250 yards. He carries that far with a wooden cleek that he has just acquired, but has some difficulty in controlling.

Pythian Lodge Is to Celebrate Its Anniversary

Responding to a proclamation issued by Supreme Chancellor Alva M. Lumpkin, the local lodge Knight of Pythias will join with six thousand other lodges on the North American continent in celebrating the sixty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the order. The anniversary will be held Feb. 19, according to an announcement made by R. F. Hargate, chancellor commander of the lodge. A class will be given the rank of page.

In the announcement of the anniversary meeting Chancellor Commander Hargate made a brief survey of the order.

Justus H. Rathbone and twelve other men, mostly employees of the Government at Washington, founded the Order on February 19, 1864. Its ceremony of initiation is based upon the Grecian story of Damon and Pythias and it is founded upon friendship, charity and benevolence. It has lodges in almost every city in the United States and Canada with a combined membership of more than three quarters of a million.

The order is maintaining 24 homes for aged members and orphans. More than $10,000,000 is invested in these institutions and more than 5,000 aged and unfortunate members, widows and orphans are sheltered in these homes. The benefactions of the Order are not confined to these homes, but annually more than $2,000,000 is distributed for relief of the unfortunate. Many of the grand domains maintain educational funds to assist young men and women in obtaining college training.

The program will be as follows: Vexiling solos, J. A. King. Music, selected.

"Why I Prefer Basketball for Exercise"—Clarence Kennedy.

"Why I Do Not Prefer Basketball for Exercise"—R. C. Wilson.

"Why I Attend the Knights of Pythias Lodge Regularly"—B. S. Baldwin.

The Place the K. of P. Lodge Should Hold in the Life of the Community.—Tom W. Brabham.

What the Pythian Sister Lodge Stands For.—Mrs. R. K. Douglass.

Short talks by Knights for the good of the order.

Funeral services for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Meadows, who live north of White Deer will be held this afternoon at the Cemetery at White Deer. The child died Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Campbell had as their guests yesterday, Mrs. Campbell's mother, Mrs. E. S. Collins; her brother, J. C. Collins, the latter's daughter, Louise; and Misses Belle and Anna Burns, all of Channing.

Johnny Farrell Is Winner in Florida

PENSACOLA, Fla., Feb. 17. (AP)—Johnny Farrell has ushered in the winter campaign among the professionals in Florida by posting a score of 287 for 72 holes to win the second annual $3,500 Pensacola open golf tournament.

The former national open champion came from behind yesterday to stroke his way over the final round in 68, three under par, nosing out Gene Sarazen, who apparently had the crown safely tucked away with a 288.

Most of the visiting professionals plan to play over Florida courses before going to Savannah next week for the $3,000 Savannah 72-hole open.

Giants and Sox at San Antonio to Begin Training

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 17. (AP)—Two major league clubs, the New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox, were here today to start spring training. The teams arrived last night.

The Giants, making headquarters at the St. Anthony hotel, were to have their first workout this morning in league park, under direction of Davy Bancroft and Irish Meusel.

The White Sox, with headquarters at the Gunter hotel, awaited an inspection of the ball park at St. Mary's university before the word to start training. Here to pass on the condition of the field were Manager Donie Bush, Lou Comiskey, treasurer, Secretary Harry Grabner and Lou Barbour, traveling secretary.

Pitchers and catchers were among arrivals on both clubs, the players being expected about March 1.

"Tiger Rose" Is Current Feature at the Crescent

Grant Withers, in "Tiger Rose," the Warner Bros. and Vitaphone production which is now playing at the Crescent theatre, has a white horse shot from under him when he attempts to escape from the Northwest Mounted Police.

During the filming of this scene by Director George Fitzmaurice a trained horse was used which would take a spinning fall at a command from its master.

The horse took the fall all right, and Withers went right over the horse's head and was temporarily knocked out.

"Get back on the horse and we'll continue the scene," shouted Assistant Director Ben Silver. Still groggy, Withers mounted the horse.

Then Director Fitzmaurice came up and said: "Get down off that horse before you're thrown again. We got the shot of that fall, and it's okay." Withers dismounted and as he rubbed his head said:

"I wish somebody would decide what I'm going to do about this horse." An old cowman happened to be standing by, and remarked:

"Well, now, son, I had a hoss do that to me thirty year ago, and you know what I done? I just got behind that hoss and kicked it all around the neck."

"But Withers decided that inasmuch as this action might be reciprocal, he wouldn't try it."

"Tiger Rose," adapted from the famous Willard Mack stage success, costars Motie Blue and Lupe Velez. Harvey Thew and Gordon Rigby wrote the scenario.

Private Suites in Hotel Raided

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17. (AP)—The prohibition laws "are finding the rich and poor alike," Director of Public Safety Lemuel B. Schofield said today in discussing the raid on two private suites in the Benjamin Franklin hotel, in which 13 men and 11 women were arrested and charged with illegal possession of liquor.

The persons arrested were members, wives, and friends of members of the Philadelphia club of printing house craftsmen, who had gathered in the rooms early yesterday after a dinner-dance given by the club in the ballroom of the hotel.

The prisoners, all in evening clothes, were taken to a police station in motor patrols, and then released for hearings. Eight of them gave the names and addresses of executives of large printing and ink supply firms in or near Philadelphia.

Hoover and Winter Back at Capital

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. (AP)—Bronzed by Florida sunshine and rested by a week of fishing, President Hoover returned to Washington today.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover left their private car as soon as the train arrived and with their guests went immediately to the White House for breakfast. The train reached union station at 6:45 a. m.

The chief executive seemed much invigorated after his vacation. In sharp contrast with the tropical warmth of the Florida coast, Mr. Hoover returned to the city during one of the most severe spells of cold weather the winter has brought.

Pro Agents Will Make Survey for Crime Commission

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. (AP)—A research into all phases of prohibition enforcement to gather data which will be presented to President Hoover's law enforcement commission has been inaugurated by Prohibition Commissioner Doran.

Doran said today he had instructed Palmer Canfield, former prohibition administrator at Albany, and now a legal expert of the bureau, to gather the records of enforcement in all states and municipalities. He added Canfield had not progressed far enough to make any general conclusion possible, but his study this far had shown a wide variance of municipal and state statutes relating to prohibition.

When the study is completed the commissioner expects it will provide a fairly accurate picture of enforcement conditions throughout the United States and will enable the more equitable distribution of prohibition forces. When the prohibition bureau is transferred to the department of justice the data will be made available to Attorney General Mitchell for use as a basis of reorganization of the enforcement machinery.

Atlantic States Suffer in Storm

NEW YORK, Feb. 17. (AP)—Coldest weather of the winter, which came in the wake of a snow storm, brought death and suffering over the weekend to the North Atlantic states.

In New England the storm was accompanied by a gale. Four deaths in Boston and one each in Fall River, Lowell, Webster and Revere, Mass., and Providence, R. I., were attributed to the storm and the cold. Shipping in Boston harbor was hampered. On Cape Cod snow drifts stalled automobiles and snow plows. Northfield, Vt., had the lowest temperature recorded in New England, six degrees below zero.

In New York City the temperature reached a minimum of seven degrees above zero. The city had 3 1/2 inches of snow, the heaviest fall of the season.

Amarillo Team Coming Tomorrow For Hard Game

While the Central high school athletic program for the week is chiefly composed of week-end games away from home, the Harvesters tomorrow will play Amarillo's junior college five. The collegians are being taken seriously, since their team has some former high school talent which adds strength to the invaders.

On Friday and Saturday the Harvesters will be in Canyon for the District 1 basketball meet. At the same time, the Central high school girls will be in Miami competing in the girls' tournament there.

Baylor Wins in Extra Periods Over Fast Rice Owls

WACO, Feb. 15. (AP)—With only five seconds left to play in the game between the Baylor Bears and the Rice Owls here tonight and the Owls leading by one point, Bob Kiersky was fouled.

He made the free throw trial knotting the count at 27-all, as the shot rang out.

In the extra period Baylor got away to an early lead due to a field goal by Wells, who was fouled as he made it and he also made one of his free pitches and Baylor thereby crawled out of the cellar by taking the game by a score of 35 to 27.

Disarming Mexicans Will Be Difficult

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 17. (AP)—The job President Ortiz Rubio has set for himself in "depoliticizing" Mexico bids well to develop into a problem as intricate as that faced by the naval conference at London.

The Mexican president's program has much in common with that of the naval parity, contemplating not just limitation or armament, but "actual reduction." He would limit to the army and the police the right to carry pistols and would reduce the present armament by exactly the number of pistols now strapped to the belts of civilians.

A superficial knowledge of Mexico is sufficient to give an understanding of the vast proportions of the president's project and the difficulties it presents.

Pistol-toting has been common here for so long it has come to be regarded by the average citizen as his inalienable right. To convince him that he is entitled to no such privilege is expected to take considerable persuasion, and, perhaps, some force.

BUSH NOW MANAGER

CHICAGO, Feb. 15. (AP)—Donie Bush formally took over the managerial helm of the long tottering White Sox today, leading a small group of players to their spring training camp at San Antonio, Texas.

Only five players were in the white Sox vanguard of pitchers and catchers, many of them being in San Antonio already and other en route.

INVADERS WILL TRY AGAIN TO DEFEAT RIVALS

NEW YORK, Feb. 17. (AP)—A number of track stars, defeated earlier in the season, will try to come back tonight at the New York A. C. games at Madison Square Garden.

Dr. Paul Martin of Switzerland and Stanislaw Petkiewicz of Poland, lone European invaders of the year, were defeated recently in the Millrose meet, and tonight they try conclusions with their conquerors.

Petkiewicz, defeated by Paul Rekers, rising star of the Penn state college track team at two miles, will encounter the youngster again at the 5,000 meter distance, favorite of the Polish runner.

Martin was beaten by a hair's breadth in the Millrose half mile by Fred Veit, former New York university runner. He heads the field for the Balfour half-mile tonight with Veit, Phil Edwards, former N. Y. U. star, now competing for the Hamilton Olympic Central A. A. winner over Veit and Edwards at Boston Saturday, as his leading rivals.

George Simpson of Ohio State, who turned in the sensational 9 2/5 time for 100 yards last spring, will be against Jimmy Daley of Holy Cross, Sid Kieselhorst of Yale, Ben Hand of Princeton and a number of other consistent indoor sprinters in a 60-yard race.

District Attorney Clifford Braly and Bill Holmes, court stenographer, returned to Wheeler this morning to 31st district court, after spending Sunday in their homes here.

Rash Romance by NEA Service, Inc. by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JUDITH CAMERON, typist in a New York publishing house, marries ARTHUR KNIGHT, executive of the department in which she works. Knight is a widower with a daughter, TONY, 18, and in Paris, and a son, JUNIOR, 16, at school. A blissful honeymoon in Bermuda is interrupted by a cablegram that Tony is on her way to America. Judith and Arthur sail to meet her. When Knight brings his daughter to their Long Island home the girl ignores her stepmother. Later she tells Judith she must leave the house. Knight, overbearing, forces Tony to apologize. The girl spends much of her time with MICKEY MORTIMER, blasé amusement-seeker whom she met in Paris. As days pass a state of armed neutrality exists between Tony and Judith. Junior arrives home for the holidays and treats Judith with aloof politeness. Christmas proves to be a usual day with both children away from home and all Knight's eager preparations are unobserved.

"It's Tony," he said. "Arrested... Tony—oh, my God!"

Judith is uncomfortable until the boy returns to school. A letter comes from TONY HELENE, who had chaperoned Tony in Europe, telling Knight of the girl's affair with Mortimer. Tony easily persuades her father that her aunt has misjudged her. ANDY CRAIG, a young man Knight has helped through college, calls on Tony. Craig is to be employed in the legal department of publishing house. He has loved Tony for years—rather hopelessly. One afternoon Judith encounters Craig unexpectedly. She is annoyed at her embarrassment. Because time hangs heavily on her hands, Arthur suggests that Junia should have the house redecorated. Craig calls frequently and one evening when Tony refuses to accompany him to a dog show at Madison Square Garden, Judith goes. Tony, left alone with her father, tells him it is Judith and not herself whom Craig comes to the house to see. Knight denies this angrily.

Tony surprises Judith by asking her to have lunch in town with her next day. Judith keeps the appointment and is met by Andy Craig, who explains Tony asked him, too, meet her. The two are together when Tony arrives half an hour later with her father. She is artful enough to make Judith's and Craig's protests sound incriminating. After Knight has gone Judith goes to his office to explain. She is told by his secretary he cannot see her. There is a reconciliation after Knight arrives home. He tells Judith they are to entertain a group of his business associates next week at a theatre party. Judith buys a beautiful gown for the occasion. When she tries it on Arthur praises her extravagantly. Tony overhears and next day Judith finds the dress riddled to bits.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXIV For several moments Judith considered the ruined gown. There was no need to ask who had done this. It was perfectly obvious. Tony—of course.

One picked up the little pile of transparent stuff, so feathery light in weight, so glorious in coloring. The fabric felt apart as she lifted it, knowing how the scissors had gashed the frock. Tenderly she laid the bundle of cloth upon the bed. Yes, Tony had done it, of course. The beautiful gown, levelled still because of its memories, was a wreck. It was too late to do anything about it that evening. Tomorrow she would see.

Judith did not confide in Arthur Knight. She had her own ideas how to deal with Tony. And there was no need to add to her husband's worries. A trip to the shop the dress had been purchased from was Judith's first move. She drove into town early next morning and for nearly an hour consulted the proprietor of the dress-making salon. She left with a satisfied light in her eyes and the promise of a new frock in two days. That would be in time for Arthur's theatre party. Then Judith drove to a place where it was rather unusual for ladies to shop. She instructed Bert to wait and came out of the place 10 minutes later, a small parcel wrapped in brown paper under her arm. "I've a small job of carpentering I'd like to have you do," Judith told the chauffeur after he had brought the car to a stop in the driveway of her home. "After you have put the car in will you come into the house?" "Yes, Mrs. Knight."

showed him where the lock was to go. She tried it later, after the hammering was done. The lock worked. Judith closed the door carefully, turned the new key and took it from the keyhole. She did not anticipate another attack of vandalism but laid the key safely away with her others. Two evenings later when Bert brought the car around in front of the house for Mr. and Mrs. Knight to go into the city to join their friends, Judith looked as sweetly radiant as a sheath of dahlia-colored tulle as she had the previous evening. Arthur held the velvet and ermine wrap for her. "Prettiest girl in New York," he said softly. She smiled her thanks and together they went out of the house and down the steps. The theatre party went off smoothly. Gerald Johnston, the London representative of the firm of Hunter Brothers, paid Tony Mrs. Knight's flattering compliments. Judith was more pleased by the fact that Mrs. Hunter seemed to single her out for special attention. Playing hostess at such an affair involved few duties. The play was an amusing one. After it was ended they visited one of the most popular roof entertainments where there was more singing and dancing by professionals. Johnston seemed greatly diverted by what he referred to as "Americanism."

Midnight passed and it was after three o'clock before the party broke up. "Well," sighed Arthur Knight as he and Judith at last started homeward, "I couldn't stand this sort of thing every night in the year but it was a pretty good night after all!" He suppressed a yawn with one hand as he spoke. Judith glanced out of the car window at the quiet streets. They really were quiet, she noted. The only time she had seen the metropolis so deserted of course, there was still plenty of wakefulness in the brighter districts. "I think everyone enjoyed it," she said.

said grimly. Judith had been feeling drowsy for some time herself. She was still following the habit of arising at 7:30 and breakfasting with Arthur at eight. "They rode on in silence for a long while. "Wonder where Tony was this evening," her father said presently. Judith didn't know. Tony had refused an invitation to join the theatre party, frankly stating all those old fossils would bore her to death. "I guess she'll be home by the time we get there," Knight's thoughts seemed to console him for his chuckle. "Es a pretty good one on us, wouldn't it, to have Tony catch us getting in with the milk man! Don't you think would be a good one—after I made her promise not to stay out after midnight?" "Yes," Judith answered, "I guess it would."

She didn't think there was any great humor in the idea really. Nothing is apt to seem particularly humorous at four a. m. after a day and night of activity. But Judith was willing to be amiable. Bert seemed surprised when he finished.

ally let them out of the car and drove on slowly toward the garage. Knight had his latchkey, fumbled getting it into the keyhole and then swung the door back. Judith came after him. They had not been in the house two minutes before the strident jangling of a ringing telephone cut the silence. Arthur hesitated on the stairway. "What the dickens—?" "It must be a wrong number," suggested Judith. "No one would be calling at this hour." "Well, never know. Lord, I hope nothing's happened to Junior!" He went down the steps, through the living room and into his study. Judith carrying her wrap thrown over her arm followed. Knight picked up the telephone. "Hello," he called in a gruff voice. Judith could hear the faint answering "hello" from where she stood beside him. "Yes," said Arthur Knight. "Yes. This is Knight speaking." He was worried now, plainly anxious. "Yes, I told you so. Yes. What's that you say? WHAT'S THAT? Oh, my God! (this feebly) Yes—I'll be right down."

He set down the receiver. "Arthur," cried Judith, now thoroughly aroused. "Oh, what is it, dear?" Arthur Knight looked at his wife bitterly. "It's Tony," he said. "Arrested. Down at the police station now with some fool who's charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated. Tony—oh, my God!"

AUSTIN—

cause of the lateness of the session and under belief another session would be called.

It was pointed out that should the Terrell hearing be entered at this late day of the session a large number of local bills pending in both houses would be imperiled and that in view of the likelihood of another extraordinary session it would be best to confine the remaining two days to legislation and start the investigation of the charges in the succeeding session.

The penitentiary conference committee was to resume its task, meeting for the first time since last Thursday. Differences between the two houses, the senate for centralization near Austin and the house for rehabilitating existing properties without moving any part of them, seemed to be lasting.

It was pointed out that Governor Moody would probably refuse to approve any bill that did not direct a thorough reorganization of the system with centralization near Austin. Those close to him said he took the view that to try to rehabilitate the present properties to the extent of spending $550,000, the amount house consented to appropriate for the purpose, would be a waste of funds.

A warm fight on the floor of the senate over the sulphur tax bill was apparent, after a five-hour session of the state affairs committee Saturday night and Sunday morning. Discussion of a proposal by Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galveston to cut the tax to fifty cents, indicated the committee would not favor a levy greater than fifty cents if it recommended any at all.

Has Staunch Support

It was predicted that the committee would report the house bill back to the senate with recommendations that it either pass, or not pass, without amendments. Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman and others, staunch supporters of the house bill, were prepared to ask the senate to print it on minority report in event the committee gave it an unfavorable report.

The house had enacted the bill by a great majority, after Governor Moody had put the legislature on notice that if it cared to make emergency appropriations for educational and eleemosynary institutions and departments it must first create some revenue. The chief executive pointed out that all available funds had been appropriated.

Disregarding the governor's refusal to specially submit appropriations, until new funds had been made available, the senate passed a $1,500,000 money bill providing for maintenance of summer schools by state colleges, but the house had not taken it up because the governor had not presented the subject.

The conference committee created to bring together factions which disagreed on the nature of the bill amending the fee system statutes had tentatively reached an agreement. Under the compromise bill all persons would be required to account for their fees of office, filing sworn reports with the state auditor and county auditor or county clerk. The maximum earnings of any office holder would be fixed, according to population, as follows: Under 37,500 population, $4,350; 37,500 to 100,000, $5,500; 100,000 to 150,000, $8,000 or $9,000. This point yet in dispute, and 150,000, and over, $12,500.

Will and Ben Chamberlain and Misses Ethel Harvey and Lucille Pope of Clarendon visited with Miss Frances McKenzie Sunday.

Child Is Badly Hurt in Fall Off Frightened Horse

Little four-year-old Frankie Foster suffered a fractured skull yesterday afternoon when she fell to the ground from a frightened run-away horse on North Hobart street.

She was not critically injured, it was said at noon today at McKean & Connor hospital where the child is a patient. She is in no immediate danger, it was said.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Foster, 529 North Hobart street. Her skull is fractured in five places, doctors said. The child was riding a horse which was being led by her nurse when the animal became frightened, jerked the reins from the woman's hands and ran wildly down the street. As the horse turned a corner, the little girl was hurled to the hard ground.

She was unconscious for about six hours in the hospital following the accident.

MRS. MARTIN SENTENCED
FORT WORTH, Feb. 17. (AP)—Minnie G. Martin, one of four persons accused of conspiring to defraud Mrs. Maggie Hopkins of Pampa of $25,000, today was given a 5-year suspended sentence. Two previously were sentenced; one was acquitted.

White Way Will Be Extended Block
Pampa's white way is being extended this week to include the first block in Kingsmill west of Cuyler street. The city expects to have the lamp posts and lights installed by the end of the week.

Decision to place the bright lights on this street was made after investigation revealed that it is one of the busiest and most crowded streets in town.

Negroes Pay Fines on Vagrancy Charges
"Do you plead guilty to a charge of vagrancy?" was a question Police Judge C. O. Busby put to five negro men and five negro women at the city jail this morning.

And the response? "Yassuh, ah reckon so," was answered eight times. Those who pleaded not guilty were placed under a $100 bond and taken back to jail. "They'll plead guilty before it's over," said chief J. I. Downs. "It's easier to pay a $13.50 fine than it is to make a $100 bond."

In addition to the vagrancy arrests, city police arrested 10 men on charges of intoxication and disturbing the peace while drunk during the week-end. Police found that all of the ten had become intoxicated on "jake." The city is taking note of those who are charged with "jake" and those who make whoopee with whiskey.

New Hydrator on Display in Pampa

Wilted vegetables can be restored, fresh ones kept in prime condition for many days, and sandwiches held fresh and wholesome for long periods of time in a recently perfected moist air compartment for the electric refrigerator, it was explained today by Bert A. Howell, local Frigidaire representative, who has just returned from the convention of his company at Dallas, Texas, where the new product was presented.

"The device, known as the hydrator, is now on display at our showroom," he said, "and complete information concerning its use is available there. Announcement of this latest achievement of the electric refrigerator industry follows three years research work in the experimental kitchens and bacteriological laboratory of Frigidaire. The new product was subjected to very rigid tests in Dayton, O., home of the corporation, before being presented.

"The hydrator will be available for every Frigidaire owner at a nominal cost. The corporation is following the same policy used with the introduction last year of the Frigidaire cold control, one of the outstanding electric refrigeration achievements of 1929, so that present owners of this make of electric refrigerator may install a hydrator in their present cabinet."
