Order On Prison Stirs Legislature

TALK OF 'BIG STICK' HEARD THIS MORNING

Resignation of Board Is Suggested Today

MOODY DENIES PLANNING STEP

Counties Must Bear Expenses of Keeping Prisoners

AUSTIN, Mar. 4. (AP)—The senate today voted to table a resolution by Senator W. D. McFarlane of Graham to direct a committee of three to investigate claimed "crowded conditions" and the situation generally in the prison system. The vote was 14 to 8.

McFarlane's resolution was presented after a telegram from County Attorney Gordon M. Burns of Walker county and others of Huntsville suggesting resignation of the board had been read. The board previously had said no more prisoners would be accepted by the system until the convict population had been decreased.

Burns declared action of the board was unlawful and that the members were incompetent and "trying to use a big stick on the legislature."

Governor Moody said he had been advised of the prison board's action last night after the order had been issued and that he did not know any such move had been contemplated. He returned today from Houston, where he attended a grand opera performance.

Gray county officials viewed with apprehension today the announcement that the state penitentiary was overcrowded and could receive no more prisoners.

Continuance of this policy would make it mandatory upon Gray county to feed and guard the men convicted here. There are about twenty men now in jail on felony charges, and about sixty others similarly charged are out on bond. With the March term of 31st district court soon to begin, the jail will likely be crowded beyond capacity. Although the new jail in the new courthouse will be occupied soon, its advantages over the old structure are of comfort largely, and not of size.

Should the county have to feed two score state prisoners for several months, the cost would amount to a large sum. Counting all expense, including that for bedding, laundry work, and the like, it costs near $2 per day to keep a prisoner.

Local officials, although admitting the crowded conditions at Huntsville, were inclined to regard the prison board's announcement as one of Dan Moody's political moves.

"The first I heard of it was when I was told the board had decided there was not room for any more men," Governor Moody said.

The manager of the prison farms informed me there was no room. I was told that the system could not possibly take care of any more than 1,000 convicts. We had almost 5,200 behind the wall at Huntsville and on the farms."

The governor said the same situation existed that obtained when the issue

School Girl Is Held in Shooting Involving Triangle

ALAMO, Ga., Mar. 4. (AP)—Miss Grace McDaniels, 26, of Chaucery, Ga., was in a serious condition in a hospital today suffering from a pistol shot fired by Miss Marion Bullard, 18, high school senior, said by authorities to have declared the wounded woman "took my father away from me."

Miss Bullard's father and mother have been separated for more than a year. A divorce suit is pending.

"SCIENTIFIC TOY" NOW GREATEST BUSINESS

NEW YORK, Mar. 4. (AP)—A "scientific toy" of doubted commercial value was the popular verdict of an incredulous world when Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone.

The scientific toy of 1875 has become the greatest commercial enterprise of 1930.

Fifty-five years later, a generation that regards the telephone more as a necessity than a luxury greets the four billion dollar corporation that was made possible by Bell's creative genius that gave wings to the human voice.

A lineal descendant of the first Bell company, the American Telephone and Telegraph company, parent organization of the present Bell system, became the world's first four billion dollar corporation in 1929.

In a year of phenomenal growth, the concern spent $600,000,000 expanding its facilities and boasted of assets of $4,228,000,000 at the end of the year. That is a new high figure for the wealth of an American corporation, and, so far as A. T. and T. officers know, is not equalled by any private enterprise in the world.

The A. T. and T. is only 45 years old. It succeeded the American Bell Telephone company, then the parent organization of the Bell system, on March 3, 1885. It started life with Theodore N. Vail as president and to link the lines of the various companies was its main purpose.

Proration Cuts Oil Production by 79,898 Barrels

TULSA, Okla., Mar. 4. (AP)—While independent operators of the nation were losing the first engagement with congress in the matter of an oil tariff during the week ending March 1, the estimated daily average production of light and heavy crude in the United States was losing a total of 79,898 barrels, due to proration and other forces.

The major portion of this, 66,000 barrels, was reported from California through the Oil & Gas Journal here. The total daily average production for the week was 2,619,198 barrels as compared to 2,699,096 barrels for the week ending February 22. The total decrease in light oil production was 84,146 barrels.

Decreases in Oklahoma City and St. Louis-Pearson pools and particularly in the Seminole area lowered the Oklahoma production by 29,475 barrels. West Texas gained 3,229 barrels and lowered the Midcontinent area decrease to 22,161 barrels in light oil. Heavy oil in this area remained virtually constant.

Kansas climbed slightly more than 4,000 barrels, registering 114,520 barrels, while Gulf Coast heavy crude production continued to climb, adding 6,208 barrels. The Eastern area dropped 2,000, and the Rocky Mountain area gained 5,000.

Chief loss in the California fields was 50,000 barrels registered in Santa Fe Springs, deep drilling area. Long Beach dropped 7,000 barrels. Seal Beach 5,000 and Ventura avenue 10,000. Slight increases were recorded in other areas. California heavy crude dropped 1,000 barrels.

Cattlemen Are Very Optimistic

AMARILLO, Mar. 4. (AP)—Expressions of optimism concerning the cattle industry outlook for the Southwest were heard today at the 14th annual convention of the Panhandle Livestock Association, which nearly 1,500 cattlemen are attending.

Grass was put in good shape by recent rains, the cattle population is at the lowest ebb in fifty years, and the market promises to be excellent, several of the leaders said.

Principal events on today's program were the annual auction sale of registered Herefords and the third annual baby beef show sponsored by 4-H clubs.

AMENDMENT IS TO CARRY OIL IMPORT TARIFF

Senator Thomas Is to Re-Open Fight to Get Duty

HOOVER BODY MAKES REQUEST

Texas Company Raps Bill to Control Pipelines

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4. (AP)—Senator Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma, today informed the senate lobby committee that he would introduce another amendment to the tariff bill providing a duty on oil.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4. (AP)—Curtailed of gasoline production was suggested to the industry today by the federal oil conservation board.

Operation of refineries six days a week instead of seven was proposed by the board, which is composed of four of President Hoover's cabinet members.

The board also called on the governors of the oil states of Texas, Oklahoma and California to point out to the industry the danger of waste that lies in increasing gasoline stocks.

AUSTIN, Mar. 4. (AP)—Disasters which he said would overtake the oil industry in this state if the regulatory bill proposed by the independent oil producers were to become a law were outlined today before the house committee on oil, gas and mining by General Jacob F. Wolters, of Houston, attorney for the Texas company.

General Wolters was on direct testimony when the committee recessed until tonight. Independents will cross-examine him then.

Ernest May of Fort Worth, attorney for the independents, stressed the main reasons why passage of the bill was necessary. They were: Need for state supervision of oil storage prices which the independents consider unfair at this time; need for state authority to compel the pipeline companies to extend facilities to all wells; need for legislation which would compel the pipelines to take the same percentage of independent oil as they handle for their own producing companies.

General Wolters said the need for oil and gas legislation at this time was not the proposed bill, but one which would compel the conservation of oil and natural gas. He was emphatic about the latter, pointing that billions of cubic feet are allowed to blow into the air daily which should be repressed back into the wells.

He said the bill would stimulate production through its clause to compel storage companies to store oil.

General Wolters explained that the Texas Pipeline company is engaged only as a carrier of oil, and that the production, refining, and marketing was carried out by the Texas company. "You cannot force the Texas Pipeline company into the storage business when it would not be profitable, and the experience of years shows that the business of storing and warehousing oil for hire is not profitable," he said.

General Wolters termed the clause which would force pipelines to post prices a "nuisance," the only benefits of which would be reaped by the man just a "few jumps ahead of the sheriff."

May told the committee that state regulation in West Virginia set the maximum price for storage at one cent per barrel, and that in Texas many are paying as high as three cents per barrel.

CHILD STAYS WITH HER CHUM AS POSSES SEARCH

GREENVILLE, Mar. 4. (AP)—While hundreds of men searched the city for her during the night, Miriam Carlack, 10, believed to have been kidnaped, was spending the night with a playmate and returned to her home today as a second searching party was being organized. Miriam disappeared soon after she left home to get the evening paper. A search was instituted immediately but in vain.

Elks Officials Deny Jurisdiction Over Booze Bar

BOSTON, Mar. 4. (AP)—Federal prohibition agents today had a large assortment of liquor in their possession, and three men faced liquor law violation charges after a raid last night on a room connected with the quarters of the Boston Lodge of Elks at the Elks hotel.

The room in which the liquor was found, together with a 40-foot bar, booths, and tables, was on a mezzanine floor between floors five and six. Both the manager of the hotel and officials of the Elks club, which is on the fifth floor and is connected with the raised room, denied jurisdiction over the room or the seized property.

Major Henry E. Goodnough, acting prohibition administrator, led the raid with a squad of 15 men. He said entrance was gained easily.

Manila Students Out on Strike

MANILA, Mar. 4. (AP)—More than 7,000 high school students struck here today, joining those of Manila high school who have walked out twice in the last few days as the result of a controversy growing out of their resentment against an American teacher, Miss Mabel Brummitt.

Demands of the striking students broadened as the ranks of the strikers grew. The original strike at North High School a few days ago sought the removal of Miss Brummitt from the teaching staff. Miss Brummitt was removed and four students suspended.

Yesterday the North High students struck again, demanding reinstatement of their four expelled classmates. As the strike spread today, the students demanded dismissal of the acting secretary of public instruction, the director of education and the principal of North High school.

Two students were mobbed this morning for refusing to join the walkout, and two were attacked yesterday. Seven strikers were arrested.

SUCCESS HERE IS NEGLIGIBLE OIL MEN SAY

Railroad Commission Requested to Have Hearing Soon

SESSION HELD THIS MORNING

Hutchinson and Carson Counties Would Be Included

Admitted that proration and drilling restriction plans had failed to remedy over production conditions in Gray county oilfields, oil operators meeting in the Schneider hotel this morning unanimously approved a motion to ask the railroad commission to take charge of proration in the flush areas of Gray, Carson and Hutchinson counties.

The motion also included a request that a hearing to review evidence on why the commission should issue proration orders be held in Pampa immediately.

Representatives of the Gulf Production and Magnolia Petroleum companies did not vote. Companies not represented at the meeting were Champlin Refining company, Gibson Oil Company, Sun-Ray Oil company, and the Wilcox Oil and Gas company.

For the first time since drilling restrictions and the proration program were adopted, every operator who expressed himself during the meeting admitted that while these curtailment measures had relieved the situation to some extent, they as a whole had brought failure.

"A week after each proration meeting," said a representative of the Prairie Pipe line company, "word would trickle into the offices of each company that a big well had been drilled in the most unexpected area. We were kidding ourselves when we talked proration. Since we have failed to remedy the situation ourselves, it is high time we turned the proration over to the railroad commission."

The flush areas referred to in the motion which was made by Mr. Clark of the Midwest company, included the whole of Gray county, the Pan-Texas area of Hutchinson county, and the Cuyler district of Carson county.

Before he offered his motion, Mr. Clark explained the proration system now in force in the Yates, Big Lake, Hendryx, and Darst Creek pools of West Texas, all of which are being proration by the railroad commission. It was the opinion of the operators that the evidence which will be presented at the hearing will warrant the railroad commission in establishing proration and enforce it here.

Mr. Pratt, representative of the Gulf Production company, one of the companies that has never cooperated in the curtailment program, stated that he had no statement to make relative to any proration plan.

Mr. McMahon of the Texas company said that if the railroad commission issued orders for proration this area "it is the tendency of the oil companies to comply with the orders. The oil companies like to be on good terms with the railroad commission for various reasons. Only the commission can correct the bad situation existing here."

H. M. Stalcup, vice-president of the Skelly Oil company, who presided at the meeting, stated that the details of the plan, the amount of oil to be taken from each lease and each well would be determined at the hearing. However, he said, it was his opinion that every well with a daily production of 100 barrels or more should be proration.

Mr. Dewar, a Phillips Petroleum company representative, said he was not sure that the commission should be asked to take charge of the proration. Answering a question asked by Mr. McMahon, he said that Phillips is laying a 6-inch line from the Faulkner area to Borger, but denied that it would be used to run oil to the Borger refinery.

Mr. McMahon said that the commission could be appealed to on the ground that the railroad body should take steps to eliminate waste in this area. He stated that the commission

DEAN C. M. M'CONN OF LEHIGH UNIVERSITY SAYS SOME THINGS THAT SEEM TO US VERY PERTINENT AT THIS TIME.

The cost of higher education has been mounting at such rates that states are having difficulty in finding tax sources for the support of colleges and universities.

But, as Dean M'Conn emphasizes, not all pupils are alike in motives and capacity. He adds: "The only way to develop better standards of scholastic achievement in this country is by giving higher education only to those who are capable of receiving it and who wish to be taught."

Men are not created equal either physically or mentally, and there is no way of equalizing their differences. We cannot give higher education to those students to whom colleges mean only fraternities, sports, hip flasks, and hot dates.

We cannot give higher education to those whose mental equipment is not adequate and who have no interest in it. We can achieve high standards of education only by carefully selecting students of such education, and yet, according to the present theory and those who continually cry about democracy, every student must be treated alike and carried along until he is at least a bachelor of arts, that is, if his father can afford it.

Every youth, regardless of his social or financial circumstances, is entitled to an education, but an education fitted to his ability and up to the limit of his ability—not one step further.

We would like to add that ability is not to be measured entirely by performance. Were standards made more rigid, pupils brought face to face with danger of expulsion would show more ability and would assume a more serious aspect in their work.

Colleges in striving continually for big enrollments have not merely placed a big financial burden upon the state, but have made college standards too easy and have encouraged the tendency to concentrate on the frivolous. The states have encouraged this trend by basing appropriations upon enrollments instead upon scholastic achievements and high standards.

There is no denying that college product has deteriorated in recent years. College training does not mean what it once did, and it has ceased to be a negotiable quantity in the business world. One reason for this, of course, is the vast increase in number of pupils who go to college. Another is the steadily lowering age average of college graduates. At one time a college graduate was likely to be a person of maturity, of judgment, and of settled habits. Today youth does not finish its thing in college, but merely whets its appetite.

The American college system is in need of a thorough revision in keeping with the new conditions which have arisen.

TWINKLES

P. (Pure) Hokum, local politician, stands strictly for women's rights. (He has had to stand for them at home ever since he was married.)

It is to be hoped that the Sharkey-Scott controversy will have no adverse effect upon the London naval reduction conference.

Dempsey seeks to find out how his physical machinery will function in a come-back attempt. It is a wise idea; too many disregard the ravages of time and attempt to cavort without first testing the old heart, et cetera.

We do not, evidently, have the faith that moves mountains, but if we did we would put up a row of Rockies on our north to shut off these late winter breezes.

It appears to be G. O. P.

propaganda—this charge that many interests are trying to block Hoover plans in order to discredit him and defeat his prosperity program. In the first place, the program has not been very startling, and in the second place to defeat steps to bring about prosperity would rebound to the discredit and loss of any agency which tried it.

Our fire truck hit a car the other day while dashing to a blaze. That is one way to get rid of fire chasers, but the idea of sprinkling those who hinder the firemen is more appealing.

It may be a dangerous slogan, but "Step on More Gas" seems about as logical as "Reach for a Sweet" or "Eat More Luckies". If we cannot get a tariff, maybe we can encourage higher consumption. At any rate, it is illogical to take more oil out of the ground than silver tanks will hold.

Evidently the foreign lecturer has been replaced by the foreign fighter. And both are equally punk.

Nature's thunder can be heard fifteen miles, but every politician hopes that his will be heard round the world.

INJURED MAN IMPROVES: R. E. Cass, who was severely injured Sunday afternoon when the car in which he was riding was struck at the Starkweather street crossing by a passenger train, was said at the McKean-Connor hospital to be much improved today.

Hoover's Health Is Good at End of First Year

WASHINGTON, March 4. (AP)—President Hoover today reached the end of his first twelve months as chief executive of the nation, paused not at all to celebrate the anniversary of his induction into office, and with his characteristic energy swung vigorously into the work of his administration's second year.

"Work," the one word formula which he advanced several months ago as the solution for the nation's business problems, he prescribed for himself as the principal feature of the day's observance.

His schedule for the anniversary hardly differed from those of other days. Exercises with the "medicine ball cabinet" upon arising, a hearty breakfast and arrival at his desk by 9 o'clock constituted the morning routine. An hour for lunch, additional conferences with department heads and the regular Tuesday press conference completed the day's program.

A few lines about his eyes and a fifteen-pound reduction in his figure are the only changes that a year in the White House has brought to the chief executive. His smile is as warm and spontaneous as ever, and his affability, his friends say, if anything, increased.

PURDUE WINS BASKET TITLE OF WESTERN

CHICAGO, Mar. 4. (AP)—Riveted to the Purdue Hoop next to the 1929 national championship banner is the national symbol of the undisputed 1930 Western Conference basketball title.

Cochs Ward Lambert's small, but high-powered, team last night swept a Michigan team from its path for the victory necessary to clinch the championship—its second solo title in the last 10 years, along with three ties for the top position.

Purdue arose to its greatest heights of the season to overwhelm the Wolverine, 44 to 28, at Ann Arbor, leaving only the formality of defeating Chicago Saturday night at La Fayette, to make this season a perfect one.

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 4. (AP)—Primo Carnera, man mountain from Italy, had another knockout victim in his growing list today and was some $10,000 richer by reason of his victory over Roy (Ace) Clark, Philadelphia negro.

Clark, an inch and half taller than the Ambling Alp, though 37 pounds lighter, was rocked to sleep in the sixth round last night when Primo's ponderous right crashed against his jaw. Twice in the fourth Carnera found the range, and Clark went down for counts of eight and nine.

Carnera found Clark tougher than any of his seven preceding opponents, all of whom he knocked out inside of two pounds. Primo took a considerable pasting himself from the hard-hitting negro.

Ruthian Fans Are Few—Weather Cold

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 4. (AP)—If Babe Ruth's first baseball workout of the year was something of a "flop" the weather man can be held responsible.

Although unimpaired, Ruth reported for practice at the New York Yankees camp yesterday, and that usually a sign for big crowds. So cold was it, however, that only the hardiest of fans were on hand, and Ruth's workout was more or less perfunctory.

The Babe was taking no chance of injury, especially to his hands, and he tried no long drives.

WRIGLEY AND M'CARTHY FEEL CERTAIN THAT CUBS WILL WIN CHAMPIONSHIP NEXT SEASON

By PAUL R. MICKELSON, Associated Press Sports Writer

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND, Cal., March 4.—(AP)—When two such conservatives as William Wrigley, Jr., and Manager Joe McCarthy come out with flat statements that the Cubs will repeat their National league championship in 1930, it looks as if the Heidler circus will be a one-ring show this year.

Never before have these two baseball minds been so certain of winning, and from past performances and the successful raids they have made over the winter on the ivory markets, they have just cause for their optimism.

"It will take a world war with plenty of conscription to beat us out of the pennant this year," said Wrigley as he watched the team finish its first week of practice on his magic island. "My players have everything that makes a super-championship club—pitching, batting, fielding and a fighting spirit seldom seen in baseball. They are all youngsters, too, averaging around 25 years, we are twenty per cent stronger than in 1929."

In addition to the fact that they won the championship last season by a large margin, two big developments came in favor of the Cubs over the winter. They were the purchase of Lester Bell, who is expected to make the club several games stronger at third base and in the batting lineup; and the return to form of Leo "Gabby" Harnett, whose loss all but wrecked their pennant hopes last season.

Harnett has surprised even the most optimistic during spring practices. The big catcher's arm appears to be as strong as ever and a week's test finds him throwing the ball almost perfectly to second where as he couldn't send an accurate toss to first a year ago when his salary wing suddenly went limp and failed to respond to treatment. Not only is Harnett welcomed by McCarthy behind the plate as a mate of the reliable Zach Taylor, but he wields a heavy bludgeon at the plate.

If McCarthy has any worries this year, they rest on the pitching staff, which he is attempting to strengthen with a few finds out of eight rookies gained by Wrigley's big-bank roll.

But even should all of them fail, he will have the two leading pitchers of the league in 1929, Charlie Root and Guy Bush, in addition to Pat Malone, the league's strike-out king; Sheriff Blake, victim of a lot of miserable breaks last year, and Hal Carlson, veteran who McCarthy believes is about to burn up the circuit.

Malcolm Moss, obtained from Louisville of the American association, and Bud Teachout, from Indianapolis, are two southpaws who may fulfill his wish for capable porters. Among the most promising right handers are Lynn Nelson, who won 15 and lost 6 for the championship Kansas City Blues; Ed Lauthenbacher, 22-year-old giant recalled from Reading, Pa., farm and Al Shealy, who cost a big slice of Wrigley coin to get away from St. Paul.

The infield and outfield carry no worries for the Bruins as the same performers—Rogers Hornsby at second; Captain Charlie Grimm at first; Elwood English at shortstop; Hack Wilson in the centerfield; Kiki Cuyler in right, and Riggs Stephenson in left, along with Bell at third, are expected to do even better than last year. Hornsby had a bothersome growth on his heel removed during the winter and with more familiarity with Cub policies should be as good as at least as his first season with the McCarthy clan.

Cardinals Will Be on Deck Soon

Thirty-seven were in uniform yesterday, getting a light double workout while a seven-hour session split between morning and afternoon, was on the program for today.

AL GETS LONG HIT

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Mar. 4. (AP)—The boys in the Pittsburgh Pirate training camp here are still talking today about the one Al Bood socked over the fence yesterday. It takes a mighty wallop to lift one over the wall here, and Al's drive was by far the longest of the training season. Ervin Brame hit one over the fence several days ago.

It Is Easy To End Fat

That is, in the right way, used by modern physicians. No abnormal exercise or diet, but help to a gland that is weak. The recent large reduction in excess fat has been largely due to that method.

This modern method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. In almost every circle you can see the amazing change it brings.

If ever, you ever yourself a trial of Marmola. Don't remain abnormal. All druggists supply Marmola at $1 a box. Each box states the formula and tells the reasons for results. Start growing thin, as your friends have done, at once.

Senators Termed "Tough" by Texan at Washington

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4. (AP)—United States senators today were described before the senate lobby committee as much "tougher" than "a 24-inch bit," the largest drill used in oil fields.

A telegram to that effect, sent by Earl Calloway, member of the Independent Oil Producers association which unsuccessfully sought a tariff on crude oil, was read to the committee. It was addressed to Tex McIlroy of Amarillo, Texas.

"A 24-inch bit is a tough proposition," it said, "but, compared with a United States senator, it is a feather bed."

Wirt Franklin, president of the Producers association, on the stand at the time, said it was just "a telegram from one Irishman to another," adding Calloway was fond of "cracking jokes."

He said if the senators understood what "a 24-inch bit was" they would consider Calloway's reference a compliment.

Eliminations in Music Memory of Great Interest

The first of a series of elimination contests to be conducted in the fifth grade classes of the city schools in the music memory division of the Interscholastic League contest was held yesterday afternoon among the fifth grade pupils of Lamar school, under the direction of Miss Iva June Willis, public school music supervisor, and Mrs. Sam Irwin, Lamar music instructor.

The interesting process of examining the large group of children on their knowledge of musical compositions, composers, theme, type, and measure was viewed by a score or more of school patrons.

Tests in recognition of instrumental tone, theme, type of composition, and rhythmic measure were made with unfamiliar selections played on a phonograph. Seventeen records of familiar masterpieces which the classes had studied during the last two months, were played for the recognition of selection and their composers. Score sheets were filled out by the contestants.

The selections chosen for the elimination contest were taken from a group of 24 prescribed by the Interscholastic League. In view of the fact that Pampa grade pupils have not had public school instruction in music until the current term of school and that the contest yesterday was their first experience in music memory tests, surprisingly accurate results were secured. Seven pupils made perfect scores, and 23 made scores of 90 or above.

Students who made 100 per cent on their tests were: Foster Kinzer, J. L. Cooper, Richard Wilkes, Robert Burba, Claudine Frazier, Katherine Snell, and Evelyn Balch.

Those who scored 90 or above were as follows: Myles Hardin, Clyde Flowers, Robert Surratt, Albin Denebein, John Dowell Lawson, Joseph Hodge, LeRoy Johnson, Cal Pearce, Noah Stanley, George Lane, Bernice Noz, Juanita Hall, Sybil Ward, Jesse Graham, Claudia Atteberry, Mary Price, Cleo Benton, Jaunita Moore, Beulah-May Ford, Inez Routon, Ruth Evelyn Lary, Evelyn Nash, and Lorene Swafford.

Further eliminations will take place at Lamar, and other ward schools will hold similar contests on the remaining days of this week. Judges in the first contest were: Mrs. C. S. Wortman, Mrs. Lynn Boyd, Mrs. B. E. Finley, Miss Willette Cole, and C. P. Buckler.

PRISON—

asylums were full and it was necessary to let the insane persons stay in jail awaiting room in the state institutions.

"The penitentiary transfer agents simply have been notified that no more prisoners are to be accepted until some of those now in have served their terms or have been furloughed," Governor Moody stated. "The counties will be required to keep the prisoners until the penitentiary can handle them. That is all there is to it."

He stated that about 250 men were now furloughed and that he was releasing on furlough all convicts deserving of clemency. He said a farm manager told him that of more than 400 men on his farm not more than 30 were worthy of furloughs.

AUSTIN, March 4. (AP)—Until the population of the Texas penal system is reduced to normal, no more prisoners will be accepted at the prison and its units, the state prison board decided.

Terminating the overcrowded condition of the main prison at Huntsville and its units as dangerous, carrying threat of riots, mutiny, and disastrous epidemic, the board decided at its regular meeting at Houston yesterday to take this step. W. A. Paddock, chairman of the board, denied the order was issued because of the present apparent deadlock in the legislature over prison reform, declaring the move had been contemplated for some time and had been taken at this time because members of the board unanimously believed it necessary for public safety.

The order became effective immediately, with only prisoners in transit when it was promulgated.

Despite Paddock's statement, some legislators interpreted the move as an "administration axe" to force the legislature to solve a problem which has baffled two extraordinary sessions.

Comments were not slow in coming from the legislative halls. "A master political stroke" was the characterization of Representative A. H. King, leading opponent to Governor Dan Moody's plan to centralize the system near Austin. J. C. Duvall of Fort Worth another opponent of the Austin site plan, commented "they will finally get the screw on us and force us to move the penitentiary to Austin." Rep. Coke R. Stephenson of Junction declared the action "plainly illegal, and child's play."

Comment was awaited, meanwhile, from scores of county officials over the state who will be forced to feed and care for all state prisoners until room can be made for them.

Paddock pointed out that normal maximum capacity of the system is 5,000 and that it confines 5,125; that the Huntsville prison was built to hold 5,000 men, and it houses 990.

Lenten Season Will Be Observed Here—Public Invited to Attend

Wednesday morning the Lenten season will begin for the members of Holy Souls congregation, with the blessing and distribution of the ashes preceding the 8 o'clock mass in the morning.

The word "Lent" comes from the Anglo-Saxon word, "Lenchten," meaning spring. It is a period of special devotion and prayer of forty days duration, in commemoration of Christ's forty days fast in the desert. It is always observed preceding Easter, and as a preparation for this great feast which comes in the spring, and from this fact takes its name.

The observance of the Lenten season not only appeals to the religious instinct of all Christians, regardless of their denomination, but it likewise can be traced back to Apostolic times, for it is mentioned by writers of the first and second century as a solidly established custom.

The ceremony at Holy Souls church Wednesday morning will consist of the blessing of the ashes of the palm branches left over from the distribution of the preceding Palm Sunday. The forehead of each one is marked with the sign of the cross and the words are repeated: "Remember man that thou art dust and unto dust thou shalt return." These were the words that God spoke to Adam and Eve after their act of disobedience in the garden of Paradise. By these words He made known to them the sentence of death that He decreed as the result of their disobedience.

Father Wonderly, the pastor, has announced a series of sermons to be preached each Friday evening during Lent. They are, in order: The Necessity of Penance; Kinds of Penance; Holy Eucharist; Sacrifice of the Mass; Death and Judgment; Heaven and Hell; Passion of Jesus Christ.

A feature of the service will be the use of a question box. A box will be installed at the entrance of the church, into which anyone may deposit the questions he may wish to ask concerning the matter treated in the sermons or on kindred subjects. Nothing of mere controversial nature will be dealt with, either in the sermons or the responses to the questions.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public at large to attend the services and to make use of the question box feature.

REV. JOSEPH WONDERLY, Pastor.

Texas Ex-Students Will Have Round-Up

AUSTIN, March 4. (Special)—Invitations have been sent to 10,000 former students of the University of Texas, urging them to attend the huge Texas Round-Up April 11, 12 and 13. The celebration, sponsored by the State Ex-Students Association, will be three-fold in nature, combining the annual ex-students reunion, the formal dedication of the new $500,000 auditorium-gymnasium and the annual meeting of the Dads' and Mothers' Association.

For the first time, the ex-student reunion will be held at a time when the university is actually in operation, and it is believed by ex-student officials that the change in date from commencement time in June to a date earlier in the spring will be welcomed by former students who wish to renew their ties with their alma mater and see the school functioning as an educational institution.

Baseball games between Baylor university and Texas will be the feature entertainment both Friday and Saturday afternoons, April 11 and 12. On Friday evening, the Round-Up ball and social pageant will be held, at which the beauties of 1929-30 Cactus, University yearbook, will be presented. On Friday evening, the annual power show of the University College of Engineering will be held, as well as the final speeches in the annual Luther Stark debate contest. Business meetings of both the Ex-Students' Association and the Dad' and Mothers' Association will be held Saturday, while for Saturday evening has been scheduled the Texas Round-Up banquet and program and the dedication service for the new auditorium-gymnasium.

Four Arrests in Death of Farmer

TEXARKANA, Mar. 4. (AP)—Four men were under arrest today and police said other arrests were imminent in connection with the slaying of Lloyd Elliott, 22, farmer, whose body was recovered yesterday from the Sulphur river after an all day search.

Blood-stained clothes and shell of the caliber which killed the young farmer led to the arrests. They were found hidden in the home of one of the men, alleged "moonshiners" with whom Elliott had had trouble over the loss of some hogs.

WHEAT IS UNSTEADY

CHICAGO, Mar. 4. (AP)—Material fresh setbacks in wheat values formed the rule early today. Favorable reports about domestic wheat crop conditions had a bearish influence, and so likewise did persistent slackness of export demand for wheat from North America.

Opening unchanged to 1 3/8 off, wheat futures underwent downturns afterward all around. Corn, oats and provisions were easier, too, with corn starting unchanged to 5-8 down, and subsequently continuing to sag.

PRORATION—

can prevent pipeline companies from making connections.

"Proration has been more of a joke than anything else," Mel Davis, who was present said. Mr. Davis contended that proration was futile as long as foreign oil was being shipped into the United States. He described proration as an attempt on the part of the big companies "to squeeze out the little fellows."

Mr. Davis thinks that any proration of pipeline connections orders that might be issued by the railroad commission would be unconstitutional. Mr. Stalcup stated that proration by the commission had been very successful in West Texas pools. He said that the operators could only attempt to govern the situation here as far as they could.

Pointing out reasons why proration has failed in the last six months, Mr. McFarlin said that it was not fair for the pipeline companies to run 100 per cent of their own oil and prorate the wells of companies that have not pipelines.

Bringing in the Magnolia gusher in the Finley-Marland pool greatly upset the curtailment program in the last month, Mr. Stalcup said. "I am dumfounded at the amount of drilling going on in the oil producing counties of the Panhandle," he stated. "The present plan has been very unsatisfactory to many. We must have a change to cope with the new problems. The condition is as serious now as it was two months ago."

In his report Umpire Ed Daly said that proration as a whole had been satisfactory. Twenty wells in Gray

Business Expected to Become Better

WASHINGTON, March 4. (AP)—A prediction that American business activity would speed up to a normal rate within two months was made today by Secretary of Commerce Lamont, who said a slowing down in the last three months had not been as extensive as has been feared, and that the approach of spring and warm weather would increase employment.

"My own opinion is that during the forepart of this year American industrial enterprise has had inevitably to slow down," he asserted.

"That slowing down seems to be passing over and with the usual increase of out of door work in the northern states as weather conditions moderate we are likely to find the country as a whole enjoying its wonted state of prosperity."
