Woman Leads Officers to Slain Man's Body

BALTIMORE, Jan. 3. (AP)—A negro who had killed his companion and assaulted her forced Mrs. Dorothy Burgess to sit with him in an automobile while he took poison and told her his name, address and life history while waiting for death to come, she told detectives today.

The man fled when headlights of another car appeared on the lonely road after they had sat for three quarters of an hour, and the driver of the other machine brought her back to the city.

Mrs. Burgess tried to write the negro name and address on the back of a photograph of Reuben Heyman, her friend who was slain, but her fountain pen worked badly, she told Captain Burns of the detective bureau before retreating in a police car the route she said Heyman had been forced to drive to the spot where his body was found.

After checking the address, police began a state-wide search for Alonzo Price, 25-year-old chauffeur and world war veteran, with a cork leg. His wife said he took a $50 war bonus and disappeared yesterday.

The man who assaulted her showed her a bottle marked poison, took a tablet from it and said, "I might as well meet my wife in heaven," Mrs. Burgess told the police.

Mrs. Burgess told police she and Heyman were sitting in his parked automobile when a negro approached with a pistol and forced them to drive to the road where Heyman's body and automobile were found by officers. He assaulted, refused offers of money, she said, and when they tried to fight him off, Heyman was killed.

The girl walked for a while then got a lift from motorists, but did not tell them of the attack.

MAN JAILED HERE IS SUING FOR $100,000

SWEETWATER, Jan. 3. (Special)—Sheriff Jess Lambert and Deputy Sheriff John Parks, Nolan county officers, have been named defendants in a $100,000 damage suit filed in district court here by John Buzbee of Ahlenc who alleges that he was arrested and placed in a local jail September 20 and held for two days without a warrant.

Sheriff E. S. Graves and Deputy C. E. Pipes of Gray county and the Humble Oil and Refining company are other co-defendants.

The plaintiff is asking $25,000 actual and $75,000 punitive damages.

Buzbee was arrested here on complaint of F. L. Hamer, special agent of the Humble company, who wired Sheriff Lambert to hold the man for Gray county officers, it is stated in the petition. Deputy Parks made the arrest and held Buzbee in jail for two days until Deputy Pipes of Pampa came after him and transferred him to Pampa, it is alleged.

Hamer alleged that Buzbee had been forging checks and drafts on the Humble company for a month prior to his arrest. No indictment was returned against him, however, and he now charges that the entire affair was the result of maliciousness on the part of Hamer.

Buzbee charges in the petition that he was abused during his confinement in the Gray county jail. He was finally released on $1,000 bond, the petition states. The plaintiff alleges that at the time of the arrest he was working regularly, but that since that time he has been unable to get steady employment.

Because of Hamer's alleged part in the affair, the Humble Oil and Refining company is asked to pay the entire $75,000 punitive damages and the $25,000 actual damages by the other defendants.

SEVEN BODIES IN PLANE ACCIDENT NOT RECOVERED

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Jan. 3. (AP)—The placid Pacific rolled gently today over the republics of seven of the ten men who yesterday met a flaming death three thousand feet above the sea. The charred and shattered bodies of the other three were in a morgue.

They were making a motion picture thriller. Had they succeeded, the world would never have seen or known them, for they were behind-the-scenes-directors, cameramen, property men and airplane pilots.

Yesterday they soared out above the sea—two plane loads of men and cameras and equipment. They hovered over a third plane, waiting for a "stunt man" to drop toward the water with his parachute. They were to make a thrilling sequence in a story based on disappearance of Captain Alfred Lowenstein, Belgian financier, from a plane crossing the English channel on July 5, 1928.

The cameras were grinding and nerves were tensed for the final swoop when either a pilot erred, a flashing sun ray blinded, or a vagrant air current played a role as a messenger of death. No one lived to tell what it was.

Suddenly the planes whipped together almost head on. Wings splintered, crumpled and folded back. Cabins ground together, telescoped. Gasoline tanks burst and flared. In the twinkling of an eye the interlocked wreckage shot seaward.

Three bodies were catapulted from the blazing hulks during the plunge, and fell into the water away from the mountain of spray, fire and smoke which marked the crash of the planes on the surface.

Within a few minutes only a thin film of oil bore evidence of the tragedy. No more bodies appeared, and no wreckage came to the surface.

The dead:

Kenneth Hawks, 32, Hollywood, motion picture director. Husband of Mary Astor, film actress. Body not recovered.

—AND A SMILE

Max Gold, 29, Hollywood, assistant director, married. Body recovered.

Conrad Wells, 31, Hollywood, cameraman, married. Body recovered.

George Eastman, 29, Santa Monica.

INJUNCTION IS SURE NOT TO BE DISSOLVED

Court Is Expected to Hold Ordinance Void

DALLAS CASE IS RULING FACTOR

Property Owners Only Ones Able to Restrict

Possibility of segregating the negro race in Pampa is very remote, it appeared yesterday when Judge Henry S. Bishop declined to dissolve the injunction restraining city officers from interfering with T. M. Tullis, who had been arrested and charged with violating a city ordinance.

While the ordinance in question probably will not be passed upon until the next term of district court here, there appears little doubt but that the defendant will win his contention that the city statute is unconstitutional. The ordinance is based upon a state statute which has been held void by an appeals court. In a Dallas decision, that city lost its court battle to bar negroes from certain portions of the residential districts.

Having that decision in mind, Judge Bishop said that it was impossible for him to dissolve the injunction granted several days ago.

The only way to keep negroes out of a white residential or business section is through public opinion, which usually prevents white residents from selling or renting property to the black race.

The property in dispute here has been advertised for sale.

Pampa's Brief in Rail Case Is Nearly Complete

Pampa's brief of exceptions to the L. C. C. examiner's recommendation in the railroad "war" is practically complete according to Attorney Chas. C. Cook, and will be printed within a few days for submission to the Washington department.

Originally given 20 days in which to file exceptions opponents of the recommendation favoring the Rock Island proposal had until January 3 to take action, but on petition of Judge J. H. Barwise of Fort Worth, general counsel for the Fort Worth & Denver, the time limit was extended to January 20.

Fort Worth & Denver attorneys are likewise preparing their exceptions. Childrens, another intervenor, forfeited her right to file exceptions by not filing a brief following the Fort Worth hearing and that city may henceforth be of little assistance in the fight to obtain the Pampa-Childers permit for the Fort Worth & Denver Northern.

Those favoring the Rock Island's Shamrock-Quanah, project will have ten days in which to file answers to the exceptions referred to above. Unless they are granted a time extension, all briefs will be in the hands of the Interstate Commerce Commission by February 1.

It is expected that the oral arguments will be made in February, and the final decision may be made about March 1. Fort Worth & Denver officials are still confident that their pleas will be effective, regardless of the adverse recommendation of Examiner Sullivan.

World Quest for Oil Is Civilizing Force

Weather Menaces Are Battled in Many Countries

NEW YORK, Jan. 3. (AP)—Under pressure of world-wide competition the great oil companies of America and England have developed a race of modern Drakes, Magellans and Pizarros.

The Standard Oil company of New Jersey, whose field of operations has come to include the whole planet, has an army of prospectors, scientists and engineers trained to fight the company's battles against climate, adverse physical conditions and disease in remote sectors.

These men have inherited all the pioneering hardship-ignoring traditions of the sixteenth century conquistadores.

The world's quest for oil has scattered hundreds of little patches of civilization in tropical jungles, inaccessible mountain areas and sandy deserts. A record of the difficulties of road building, construction and sanitation overcome by American oil companies could be duplicated by big concerns of every nation.

Parent of the Standard Oil group, the New Jersey company was formed in 1811 when the old Standard Oil trust was dissolved by court action under the Sherman anti-trust law. Its affiliated concerns in 15 countries now number 45 companies engaged in the production and distribution of oil and products derived from oil.

Its chief domestic producing subsidiaries are the Humble Oil & Refining Co., operating in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas; extensive holdings in Mid-Continent and units operating in other parts of the country, particularly Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio.

It controls the Imperial Oil company Ltd., of Canada and through that organization controls the International Petroleum company Ltd. The latter concern has important producing operations in Peru, Colombia, and properties under exploration or development in other South American countries.

Through subsidiaries it operates properties in Europe and the Dutch East Indies and controls a wide variety of activities including 3,000 miles of pipeline in the Mid-Continent field, refineries in New Jersey, Maryland, South Carolina, and West Virginia, auxiliary plants producing many oil-by-products, rolling stock, marine tankers and an international system of storage and distributing facilities.

Diphtheria Is Cause of Child's Death in City

Bernice Laverne Potts, eleven-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Potts, 111 North Gray street, died of diphtheria at 7:15 o'clock last night.

She is survived by her parents and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Potts, of this city. Funeral services were to be held at Fairview cemetery at 3 o'clock this afternoon, with Rev. James Todd, chaplain of the G. C. Malone Funeral Home, in charge of the last rites.

Democratic Debt Is Half Million

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. (AP)—A balance of $154,000 in the treasury of the Democratic national committee, and outstanding obligations totaling $449,686 on December 31, 1929, were reported today by James W. Gerard, treasurer.

J. R. Nutt, treasurer of the Republican national committee, filed a report showing a balance of $136,363 in the Republican treasury and no outstanding obligations on the same date.

The reports were filed with William Tyler Page, clerk of the house in conformity with the federal corrupt practices act.

BANKER'S SLAYER HANGED

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Calif., Jan. 3. (AP)—Louis Lazarus, 37, died on the gallows here today for the killing of William McFarlin, Oakland bank teller. The trap was sprung at 10:01 a. m. and at 10:14 a. m. he was pronounced dead.

American business pioneers in foreign lands have had to take their home environment and products with them in many instances. At the left is an American development in Sumatra. WELFARE ASSOCIATION TURNS AFFAIRS OVER TO SALVATION ARMY AFTER TWO YEARS WORK

E. C. D. Activities in Many Phases of Civic Growth

Editor's note: Below is the concluding installment of the annual report of Manager George W. Briggs on Board of City Development and Chamber of Commerce activities. The first portion was printed yesterday.)

MISCELLANEOUS ACTIVITIES: The activities of a Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development, involve a multitude of matters. They cannot be covered in a report. We have tried to make it a service organization. Some of the matters, separate from regular committee work are listed below.

Pampa received its first city directory in January, 1929, through the work of the Chamber of Commerce. Business men realize the value of such a book. A new one is now on the press.

During the year, more than 6000 letters of various kinds were written.

While the Chamber of Commerce does not run a regular employment bureau, yet, more than a hundred men and women were assisted in getting work.

The organization assisted in the Boy Scout, the Red Cross, and Welfare association drive, and cooperated with these groups in many ways.

The Chamber of Commerce leaders have been active in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, reorganization, and the work of this city, in cooperation with other Panhandle cities, did much to change the plans of this organization, we hope for the better.

For Better Relations

Much has been done by visits and other methods, to make friends for Pampa, over this entire territory, and today, Pampa is recognized as one of the outstanding leaders of the Panhandle.

This organization, through fostering the Panhandle Highway association, and the Oilfield Highway association No. 41, has done much to stir up more interest in a good highway system for the Panhandle, and incidentally this work has enhanced the leadership of Pampa.

One line of service rendered to the people of Pampa has been through an information bureau maintained. Literally hundreds of calls have been made upon this organization each month, ranging from hunting up lost relatives and friends, the adoption babies, the locating of bound dogs for sale, information on poultry, to the location of Hill street.

The Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the postmaster and others has worked for a new post office. We now have assurance that

(See ACTIVITIES, page 8.)

Pampa Welfare association, after more than two years of service to the community, was dissolved yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Board of directors at the E. C. D. auditorium.

A more effective and far-reaching service would be rendered the city through the Salvation Army, permanently established here with Ensign Edgar King in charge, than by the Welfare association, with funds too limited to permit a full-time worker, according to the belief of officers and directors, and it was largely through a desire to see welfare work effectively done with greater economy to the citizenship, it was said, that the directors dissolved the local organization.

In recommending the dissolution of the Welfare body and concentration of funds upon the local work of the Salvation Army, the Rev. James Todd, president of the association, cited the international reputation of the Salvation Army for expert and far-reaching work in charitable and uplift endeavor.

George Briggs, manager of the Board of City Development, appeared before the board, and recommended Ensign King as welfare worker who had done outstanding service in Eastland, where the speaker had been in close touch with his efforts. Mr. King, he said, had the complete confidence of the citizenship of Eastland.

Between the time of the organization of the Pampa Welfare association and the time of dissolution, a total of $4,686 was collected all of which, except $300 remaining in the treasury, was expended in community work. For a period of more than a year, Mrs. M. P. Downs, trained nurse, was retained as welfare nurse and worker.

Through her efforts and the assistance of officers of the association more than 500 individuals were given aid. Provision of food, clothing, and medicine, assistance in finding employment, aid in problems of sanitation, and aid in time of sorrow were some of the services extended through the association. Several hundreds of dollars worth of clothing was collected and distributed, aside from amounts for which money was expended.

J. O. Gillham, treasurer, announcing the expenditures and financial status of the organization requested that all persons holding vouchers or claims against the association place them in his hands as soon as possible, and at all events, before Feb. 1.

LINDBERGH AT WAYNOKA

WAYNOKA, Okla., Jan. 3. (AP)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh arrived here from Wichita, Kans., at 11:56 a. m. today and took off nine minutes later for Clovis, N. M. While Mrs. Lindbergh remained in the plane, the colonel alighted and made a brief inspection of the Transcontinental Air Transport's field.

NEWSPAPER IS HEAVY LOSER IN FIRE TODAY

Flames Spread Rapidly Driven by Hard Wind

STORE BUILDING AND GOODS BURN

Business Section Is Saved by Fast Work

STAMFORD, Jan. 3. (AP)—Burning for more than two hours, fire which for a time endangered the south side of the business square here was brought under control shortly before noon today with loss estimated at $50,000.

The fire originated in the top of a store building spreading from there to the offices of the Stamford American, weekly newspaper. The American offices and building were badly damaged, while the store and stock were almost completely destroyed.

A brisk norther, which blew steadily all morning, led to fear for surrounding structures, but the fire was controlled with only the two buildings damaged by fire, and a theater damaged by water and smoke.

T. W. Barnes to Offer Services as Tax Collector

T. W. Barnes, well known resident of Gray county and at present located in the tax office with Sheriff E. S. Graves, announces as being in the race for tax collector of Gray county subject to the Democratic primary July 26.

Mr. Barnes has a wide acquaintance in the community, first coming to the plains in 1902 and since that time having made his home here. For the last two years he has been closely associated with the public offices in and near Gray county.

Mr. Barnes says, "I have had five years experience in tax offices and I feel fully qualified to serve the people in a fair and just manner. My motto is 'Courtesy always, together with careful service to the people of my community.' In case the people see fit to elect me, it will be a pleasure to serve you to the best of my ability."

Mellon in Defense of Coast Guard

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. (AP)—Secretary Mellon today asserted the coast guard had nothing that was not justified and authorized under the law in firing on the liquor smuggling boat, Black Duck, which resulted in the death of three men.

Mr. Mellon's statement was in line with those previously made by Rear Admiral Billard, Coast Guard commandant, and Assistant Secretary Lowman.

The secretary of the treasury said the shooting was regretted, but reports to him indicated the Coast Guard was acting "entirely within their instructions and observing their duty in what they did."

"They gave warning, the boat was endeavoring to escape and they could not do less than they did," he said.

The secretary, who returned to Washington today from a sea trip in Behama waters, said the Coast Guard had information that the smugglers were attempting to run liquor into the United States and concentrated Coast Guard boats in that vicinity. The Black Duck, he said, was near the coast off Newport.

"The Coast Guard," Mr. Mellon said, "is authorized under the law to use force to stop boats. If they could not shoot, they could not carry out their instructions. They give warning and pursue and if a boat does not stop it is necessary to use force. In these cases the men were violators of the law. They were smuggling liquor, and it was the Coast Guard's duty to capture them."

PATRONS OF PAMPA SCHOOLS WILL BE INTERESTED IN KNOWING THAT THE CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL HAS BEEN AGAIN APPROVED ON THE ALL-SOUTHERN LIST OF ACCREDITED INSTITUTIONS.

The public probably little understands the real meaning of this All-Southern affiliation. In brief, it is recognition of the high grade of work done—a form of recognition that is accepted by all secondary schools and colleges belonging to the association.

All-Southern affiliation lends dignity to a system, and teachers like to say that their experience has been in such a school. And now that Pampa has achieved Class A rating in the Interscholastic League by reason of having more than 500 pupils in high school, All-Southern rating is even more vital.

To hold this rating, Central high must maintain a high standard of teachers and teaching, and must lighten the teaching load. Neither of these requirements should be difficult to meet.

Pampa will be represented at a meeting of Class A school officials in Quanah next February 1, when inter-institutional relations, including athletics, will be discussed. Pampa has no more important institution than her schools, which she must keep up to accepted standards of excellence.

REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE FORT WORTH & DENVER WINS IN THE FIGHT FOR A PERMIT TO ENTER PAMPA FROM THE SOUTH, IT IS PRACTICALLY CERTAIN THAT SOME RAILROAD WILL GET SUCH AUTHORITY WITHIN A FEW YEARS.

Texas needs more railroads, as Governor Moody emphasized in predicting phenomenal development in this state in 1930. The Upper Plains area needs a north-south line which the rich traffic possibilities will eventually attract.

Railroads do much to help cities locate industries. Sweetwater has a population of 12,000 almost solely because of her rail assets. She boasts that she is now getting "what Abilene wants": that is, industries, wholesale houses, and air-line stops.

The great possibilities for development in the Panhandle will not be realized until rail service is improved. Pampa will not be the city it is destined to become until markets at Fort Worth, Dallas, Galveston and other points are made accessible. But as often stated in these columns, the Fort Worth & Denver may yet win the right to build from Childress to Pampa.

A LAWYER'S ATTITUDE TOWARD LAW

(From the Vernon Record)

The other day a member of the legal profession took offense at a criticism of lawyers for using their ability to obtain the freedom of persons whom they knew were guilty of violations of the law. The lawyer took refuge behind the overworked "loyalty to client" and the right of every man to a fair trial.

This particular lawyer is a young man, and extremely ambitious. However, the making of money seems to be given a preponderance of attention in his ambitions. He frequently refers to cases in which he has obtained acquittal or a surprisingly light sentence for a criminal whose guilt was beyond question; so it was surprising to find him resenting criticism for something that he freely admitted doing.

It is rather obvious that many members of the legal profession, particularly the less experienced who are faced with the necessity of making a living, overlook their obligations to society. It is unfortunate that our legal system without conscience or regard for the principles of right to prevent justice, but such is the case, and because it is true too much cannot be said of the necessity of strengthening moral standards wherever possible in the legal profession.

The Record is not inclined to argue the point of a fair trial for a criminal. Even though he is a criminal beyond any question of a doubt, he is entitled to a fair hearing. However, it should be pointed out that the shyster lawyer too frequently does not want a fair trial. He wants, and puts forth every effort to gain, acquittal, not hesitating to take advantage of technicalities and legal subterfuges left in our system of justice in order to fully guarantee the individual's rights.

Much has been said about loyalty to client, and far too little is ever said and thought of loyalty to society. We may be certain that the attorney is going to put forth a great effort to protect the rights of his client, and he has a right to do it, but he also has certain obligations to society—the society whose institutions have educated him and prepared him for the profession which he practices for gain, and which maintains conditions favorable to the pursuit of his profession and the many other activities that go to make up happiness. Does the lawyer, particularly the young attorney, stop to think that every time he makes it possible for a criminal to evade the law he strikes at the very foundation of that society and all it guarantees him?

We have progressed a long way since the days of Socrates, but there is no doubt that the world would be a better place if we viewed law with respect equal to that he held for it. Compare the attitude of the young attorney with that of the philosopher who, when imprisoned and sentenced to death unjustly, would not avail himself of an opportunity to escape because he considered any act that tended to evade the laws an attempt, insofar as it went, to overturn the government. He asked himself the question, "Do you imagine that a state can subsist and not be overthrown, in which the decisions of law have no power, but are set aside and overthrown by individuals?" The course he took hardly is in harmony with that of the young attorney who boasts of the number of guilty persons he has freed.

The position of the philosopher is unassailable.

The two-party system has its faults—but it certainly results in hotter political races beginning about this time of the year.

TWINKLES

Perhaps it is well that Percy has disappeared, perhaps permanently. Right on the heels of an accusation that he was a bigamist came a Lions club decision to buy a pound of rat poison to feed Percy at a special banquet in his honor (?). Percy disappeared at the same time as Bustah, the fat and lazy feline who has a place of honor at the C. H. Walker home. Bustah has returned, but not, alas, has Percy.

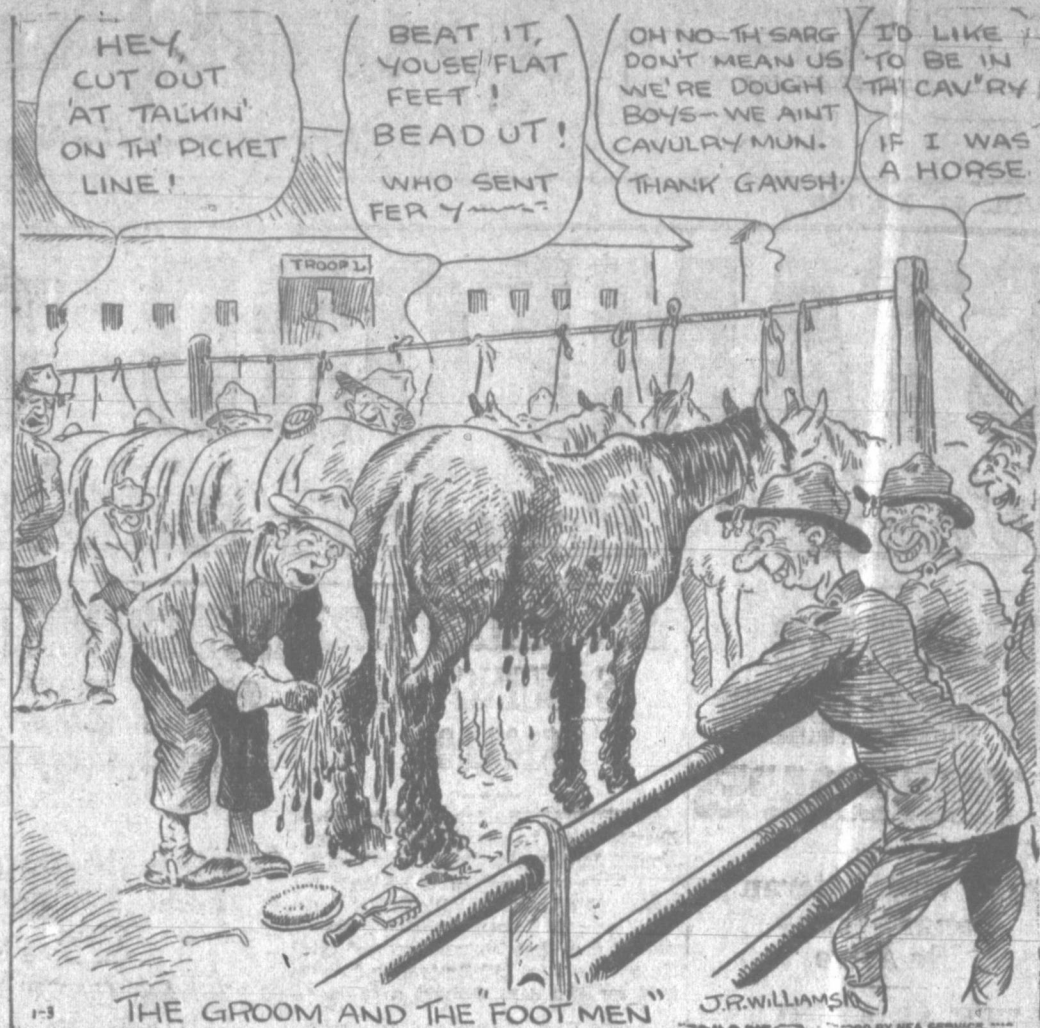

It is reported that Pampa children rather scout the idea of a real Santa Claus, but that they prefer givers of gifts to come dressed in the traditional garb, anyway.

Seen: Too many Holier-Than-Thou expressions evidently based only on the fact of having kept New Year's resolutions for a couple of days.

It is pretty hard on our presidents to shake hands with 6,000 persons in a single afternoon, but we had rather this should happen than that a single knee should bow to our nation's chief.

It seems strange—we wonder why a plane crashes up so badly after falling 200 feet, yet we would not be surprised if a car went over a 200-foot bluff.

She Esme Howard, retiring British ambassador, who befriended her when the controversy over her social rank was at its highest, will be the guest of honor.

Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, wife of the speaker of the house, who has been at odds with Mrs. Gann on the question of social precedence, will not be present, since custom forbids invitations to those outranking the guest of honor.

Murfee's Store to Be Enlarged

Announcement of plans for remodeling the store formerly used by the Amarillo Furniture company in the Duncan building, for occupancy by Murfee's, Inc., was made today.

The partition dividing the store from the section of the building now occupied by Murfee's will be removed, increasing the floor space of the dry-goods store to almost double its present size. The front of the building also will be suitably changed.

J. N. Duncan, owner of the building, will start remodeling work at once, it was announced. Managers of Murfee's expect to have the added space by late February.

Eielson's Plane Reported Heard in Isolated Section

NOME, Alaska, Jan. 3. (AP)—A dog team driver today brought word to Nome that a plane was heard soaring over Pilgrim Springs, 75 miles north of here in a mountainous district, at midnight on November 9, the day Pilot Carl Ben Eielson and mechanic Earl Borland disappeared while flying to the fur trading ship Nanuk, ice bound at North Cape, Siberia.

Arrangements probably will be made to send a plane to scout the area, if weather conditions permit, those in charge of the Eielson search said.

If the plane heard was Eielson's, it would indicate he had turned back for Alaska after finding it impossible to land at North Cape and had been unable to effect a landing because of darkness and fog. It was said he carried sufficient gasoline to have made the return trip easily.

House Demand in Pampa Is Constant

Good homes are in very great demand in Pampa, with the need for the better type of dwellings as acute as it was at any time last year, according to E. C. Workman, realtor, who estimates from the applications coming to his office that at least 100 more houses and apartments of the class renting for between $40 and $75 per month would be required to satisfy the demand.

On Tuesday, closing day of the year, Mr. Workman's office had 23 calls for substantial, modern homes. The continued and increasing demand for the better type of home Mr. Workman attributes to Pampa's apparent permanence as an oil and wheat center, to the recent arrival of many officials of oil and carbon companies and their families, and to the prospect of much public work in the future including building, paving, and road work.

Physicians said if she survived it probably would be because her son, Jack, 15, threw a bucket of water upon her when he discovered her plight. She could not be taken to a hospital because of her condition.

A general meeting of the Baptist Women's Missionary union was held Wednesday afternoon at the church, with Mrs. C. E. McKinney, vice-president, presiding.

A discussion of means of raising the annual fund of $100 for the support of a native missionary in China was held, and a collection was taken among those present.

Plans were made for furnishing the church kitchen with utensils.

Under a system recently adopted by the organization, two general meetings will be held each month, and two unit meetings, the first general session being used for business transactions, and the second devoted to mission study.

The condition of T. E. Dellarhede, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia the last several days, was much improved this morning, according to the report from Pampa hospital, where he is a patient.

ATHENS HORNETS WIN FIRST BASKETBALL GAME, 31-23

HARVESTERS IN CLOSING SPURT GIVE THRILLS

With a superior short-shot game and a powerful Harvester defense, the Athens high school Hornets last night defeated Central high 31 to 23 before the largest basketball crowd of the season.

The highly-touted visitors were successful in penetrating the Pampa goal net, but, rushed by the fighting Harvesters, they missed shot after shot only at times flashed the form that made the Athens quintet national champions last year. In the last half Athens boys made 42 shots, scoring 4 field goals, while over the same period the Harvesters made 20 casts for 7 field goals.

Score by periods last night:

The Pampa five thrilled the fans in the final quarter in a flashing offensive that scored 9 points to 4 for Athens. Saulsbury, Ayres, Lard, and Webb were "right" for a few moments, sweeping up under the goal and dropping the ball neatly through the hoop.

For the most part, however, Pampa scoring was by long distance shooting. The tall Athens lads made it difficult to work close to the basket, and particularly so to hold the ball after missed throws. Lard failed in most of his long attempts, but gives promise of becoming a greatly needed long distance threat. He played a fine defensive game, as did all of the Harvesters, showing twice as much basketball instinct as they had previously displayed. Braly played his best game, and against lesser opposition probably would have scored very effectively. Henry Ayres at center surprised the Athens center by upsetting the latter's calculations often, and Henderson failed to score after making a lone field goal in the first quarter. If the Harvesters improve in the next few games as they have recently, and learn the fine art of working through a defense, they will go far in the league eliminations.

The Athens line-up included two men, Reynolds at center and H. Owen at forward, who made the trip to the national tournament last year, but none who was in the 1928 first string. The Tompkins brothers, Fred and Ben, All-American and All-State forward and guard, respectively, were called home by the serious illness of their mother before they played a single game of the present tour.

Henderson, forward, was high point man last night, with 8 points, and H. Owen, his running mate, was second high with 6. The Athenians predicted they would have their eyes better trained on the basket for the second game tonight. They drove by ear from Trinidad, Colo., yesterday. After playing the Athens sharpshooters tonight, the Harvesters will go to Amarillo to meet the Sandies Saturday night in a game scheduled before the down-state team was invited here.

The nine-day-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis, placed in Pampa hospital a few days ago for treatment, today was thought to be slightly improved.

LAREDO MORE HOPEFUL NOW AS MOODY MOVES

LAREDO, Jan. 3. (AP)—Laredo today awaited with rising hope the arrival of Attorney General R. L. Bobbitt for investigation of difficulties with the Mexican government which resulted in the closing of the Mexican consulate after the Calles-Valls episode.

Bobbitt will be sent to Laredo immediately, Governor Moody announced in Austin after hearing a citizens committee from Laredo bearing petitions asking removal from office of District Attorney John Valls. Governor Moody will take no action until Bobbitt reports the results of his investigation, the executive said.

Bobbitt preceded Valls as district attorney. Valls was made judge of a new district court created for Webb county by Moody, and Bobbitt was appointed district attorney. When the latter resigned to become attorney general, Valls returned to his former office of prosecutor, but the appointment by Moody has not been confirmed by the senate, to which the appointment will be submitted during the next session, should Valls retain his office.

AUSTIN, Jan. 3. (AP)—Attorney General R. L. Bobbitt said today he was undecided when he would leave for Laredo to conduct an investigation of charges brought against District Attorney John Valls by O. W. Killam and Hal Brennan of that city with reference to his attitude toward the Mexican government.

Governor Moody requested Bobbitt to make the investigation and announced he would not act on the petition of Laredo citizens to withdraw the appointment of Valls to the district attorneyship until the inquiry was completed.

'PEST' WELCH HAS NO EQUAL IN SOUTHWEST

By GAYLE TALBOT JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

The Southwest will do well to see that no more of its "Pest" Welchs go north to receive higher education. The boy from Sherman convinced 15,000 fans on New Year's day that he deserved all the nice things the sport writers have said about him the last three years. When he went to Purdue the Southwest lost a remarkable athlete, one who might have added materially to the football prestige of this section.

Fans of the Southwest this year felt the section deserved strong representation on All-American teams. They believed there were backfield stars down here just as good as could be raked up anywhere. One of their principal arguments has been that Welch, a Texas boy, made numerous "all" teams on the strength of his performance with the Lone Star state.

They argued, that there were other just as good in the Lone Star state? The idea seems sound until one has seen this Welch in action. If there are three other backs as capable as he in the nation, the Southwest has a no ball-carrier this year with any business in an All-American backfield.

There were any number of players in the Southwest during the past seasons in the Southwest during the past seasons that could pass rings around Welch son, but they couldn't hold a candle and he is only an average punter, but how he can carry that ball! He doesn't need to do anything else. He is not particularly elusive, but when he sets his 210 pounds in motion something is going to break loose. The referee of the New Year's day struggle at Dallas apparently had worked games in which Welch played before. Instead of blowing his whistle the instant a tackler hit Welch as has become customary with officials of the Southwest he withheld his whistle until Welch was down, or stopped. It usually made a difference of from five to ten yards. The Purdue star frequently whanged into four or five tacklers, bouncing from one to the other, before he was subdued.

The chief impression that 15,000 spectators derived from the game was the terrific punch of the Mid-West backs. All of them—Rebholz, Gembis, Holman, Walker—struck with the same abandon as Welch. It took a mighty tackle to bring them down. Once during the game, Power, gritty little end from Rice, managed to hook his fingers in Rebholz's belt as the big Wisconsin fullback went tearing by. If his mates had not gone to his assistance he might have been dragged to death.

All of which leads to the observation that the Southwest has not been producing that particular breed of backs in recent years. The section is second to none when it comes to passing and weaving through a broken field, but there is a paucity of straightway power as measured by those giants who played in the Midwest backfield. Green and Griffith of T. C. U. and Benlar of Texas probably were the best plunkers in the Southwest for the past season, but they couldn't hold a candle to Welch and his fellow bruisers. Shelley of Texas, when going at his best, probably was the closest approach. Off-hand, this observer can think of no one since Oscar Eekhardt ripped 'em up for Texas university who might have stepped into Welch's shoes.

GREAT SHIRES SUSPENDED BY BOXING CHIEF

DETROIT, Jan. 3. (AP)—Arthur (The Great) Shires, White Sox soccer, is under suspension by the Michigan boxing commission. The charge, which Shires denies indignantly, is that his representatives sought to have Shires' opponent in a scheduled fight here take a "dive."

The commission acted yesterday after receiving a statement from Vance Gildersleeve, manager of battling Criss, in which Gildersleeve said Shires' representatives told him Criss would have to "take a dive" or Shires would not go through with the fight.

The bout, which was to have taken place last night, was called off when physicians for the commission found Shires was suffering from a severe cold.

"If anyone approached Criss, he did so without my knowledge," said Shires. "I can flatten Criss on the level, and I wasn't worrying about him."

Shires will not be permitted to go through with scheduled fights at Flint, Jackson, and Grand Rapids, James M. Brown, chairman of the boxing commission, said. The suspension also will be reported to the National Boxing association, which will be asked to suspend him in the 31 states it governs.

"We are satisfied," Commissioner Brown said, "that Shires does not belong in the boxing game."

In Chicago, Nelsie Blumenthal, Shires' manager, denied any attempt had been made to fix the fight with Criss.

The suspension was indefinite, but Commissioner Brown said it would probably be made permanent when the commission meets at Lansing Jan. 9.

Kenesaw M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, said he had no intention of taking any action in the Shires case on the basis of present information.

Republican Almost Chosen As Speaker in Jackson Event

DALLAS, Jan. 3. (AP)—Crestfallen sponsors of the annual Jackson day dinner in Dallas were scouring the city today for another speaker—one who wouldn't at the last minute, turn out to be a Republican.

They had started to get Joe Leopold, manager of the local office of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Then, at the last minute, it was learned a staunch Republican had almost been selected for the prime Democratic event of the year.

BIG VENIRE IS CALLED IN TRIAL OF JUDGE BRADY

AUSTIN, Jan. 3. (AP)—District Attorney H. H. Brooks today asked Judge J. D. Moore of district court to summon a special venire of 250 men from which to select a jury to try John W. Brady, former court of civil appeals judge, for the murder of Miss Lehlia Highsmith, supreme court stenographer.

Brady's trial is set for January 20, and attorneys have indicated there will be no delay in its start.

Miss Highsmith was stabbed to death in front of her apartment on the night of November 9, and Brady has been in jail since.

Two of the best known criminal lawyers in Texas will participate in the trial, assisted by a corps of attorneys on each side. They are Dayton Moses of Fort Worth, for the defense, and John M. Mathis of Houston, for the prosecution.

Brady's attorneys have made no effort to obtain his release on bail.

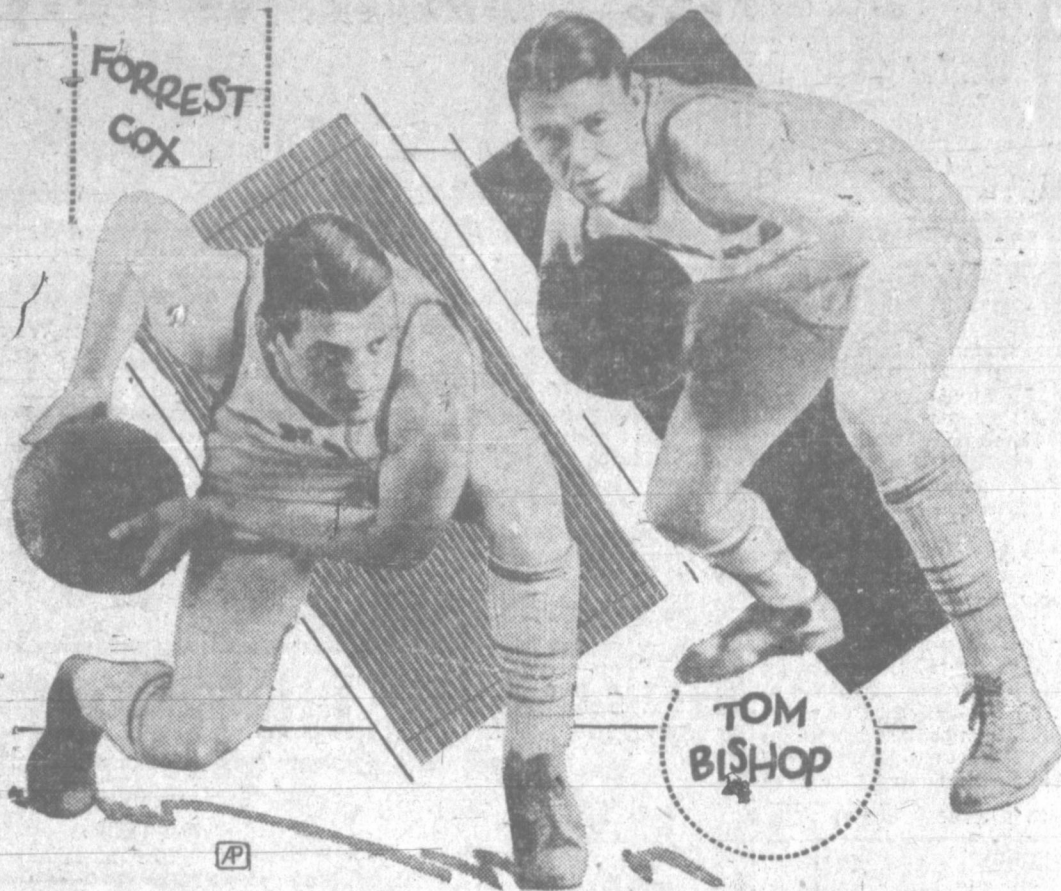

WILL HONOR ROBISON
SAN ANGELO, Jan. 3. (AP)—As tribute to the man they regarded as their friend, a memorial in some West Texas town is planned for the late J. T. Robison, land commissioner of Texas for many years. A meeting here February 1 was called yesterday by a committee of Sonora citizens. Representatives from many West Texas towns are expected.

PRISON ROTER HANGED FOLSOM STATE PRISON, CALIF.

JAN. 3. (AP)—Anthony Brown, sentenced from San Francisco for robbery, was hanged here today for the part he played in the 1927 Thanksgiving day murder riot in Folsom prison. The trap was sprung at 9:02 a. m., and he was pronounced dead at 9:14.

Whitely Burke, victim of a traffic accident of Christmas eve, is recovering from fractures to collar-bone and ribs at Pampa hospital, where it was said his condition was greatly improved.

THESE JAYHAWKS MEAN BUSINESS

You won't wonder why these boys appear so determined when you learn that Kansas, their alma mater, won only three of 18 games played last year. The Jayhawks hope to begin right by stopping California in a trio of tussles, opening January 2.

LAWRENCE, Kans. (AP)—"Phog" Allen's Kansas basketball outfit hopes to use California as a means of breaking a losing spell unprecedented in the history of Jayhawk athletics. Victor in only three of 18 games played last season, the Kansas quintet steps into a three-game series with the Golden Bears, beginning January 2, determined to wallop the jinx and also get set for a successful Big Six season.

It was California that ruined the start of the 1929 season for the Jayhawks. In a three-game program, staged on the west coast, "Nibs" Price's five took two of three from the med-westerners. The latter squad was never quite right after that and finished its conference season tied with Kansas State for last place.

Coach Allen has four veterans back. They are Tom Bishop and Russell Thomson, forwards; Forrest Cox, guard, and Floyd Ramsey.

only defeats met in those years but the Stuhldreher-Miller-Crowley-Layden quartet got some revenge with a 34 to 6 victory in 1924. Nebraska then wound up with the series by trouncing the Hoosiers, 17 to 0, in 1925.

The Huskers thus captured three of the last four games from the Irish in a four-year period in which the Rockne forces lost only one other contest, to the Army in 1925.

This column gave the erroneous impression in summing up the Rockne record that Rockne was head coach in 1917, the year Jimmy Phelan captained the team. Rockne was an aide to Jess Harper that season before taking full command in 1918.

"A great record, beyond the slightest doubt," writes Cy Sherman, the sage of Lincoln, Neb., apropos of this column's recent summary of Notre Dame's football achievements under Professor Knute Rockne, "but you might mention that during the years set forth in this record, Nebraska played Notre Dame nine games, the count standing four to four, plus the 1918 tie. The series of 11 games between the two schools ended in 1925, the count being five and five and one tie. In other words, Nebraska was alone in its ability to break even with Rockne-coached teams."

tornia have the offensive stuff with which to strike hard, fast and often, which may produce a free-scoring melee when these football rivals meet in the mellow atmosphere of the Rose Bowl New Year's day.

Southern California ran up some tremendous scores during the season with sweeps that seemed irresistible once they gathered headway. The Trojan whirlwind twice struck Notre Dame in the big battle at Chicago with "scorers" that produced touch-downs. Anything can happen with either Duffield or Saunders directing the attack. These two are as versatile as they come and Saunders' charge resembles the dash of a wild buffalo.

Pittsburgh likewise has all season possessed the habit of quickly demoralizing its foes. One of the pet Panther tricks is to shake Toby Uansa loose at the outset, usually on slants outside tackle. Toby is equally adept at dodging through a broken field, or gridding passes.

It is a coincidence that the three West Pointers most conspicuous as head coaches in recent years all were on the same Army team in 1915. Two of them, Captain-Biff Jones and Captain John McEwan, wind up four-year jobs with the close of 1929. Jones at West Point and McEwan at Oregon. The third, Major Bob Neyland, will continue at Tennessee, where his coaching has given the Volunteers the best record of any team in the country over the past five years.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic—Childhood of Jesus.
Scripture Lesson—Matt. 2:10-23.

Matt. 2:10. And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11. And they came into the house and saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and they fell down and worshipped Him; and opening their treasures they offered unto Him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh.

12. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13. Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young Child and His mother and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him.

14. And he arose and took the young Child and His mother by night, and departed into Egypt.

15. And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt did I call My Son.

16. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the Wise-men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children, that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had learned of the Wise-men.

17. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

18. A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; and she would not be comforted, because they are not.

19. But when Herod was dead, behold an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying,

20. Arise and take the young Child and His mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young Child's life.

21. And he arose and took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned of God in a dream he withdrew into the parts of Galilee.

23. And came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, that He should be called a Nazarene.

Golden text—Thou shalt call His name JESUS: for it is He that shall save His people from their sins.—Matt. 1:21.

Time—Christ was born B. C. 5 (according to tradition) on December 25. The visit of the wise men January, B. C. 4. The flight into Egypt, January or February, B. C. 4. The return to Nazareth, B. C. 2.

INTRODUCTION
The lesson committee has given us this year a superlatively interesting and helpful series of lessons. The first half of the year is occupied with studies in Matthew, appropriately entitled "The Gospel of the Kingdom," and passing in review the entire life of Christ. This is the third of the Gospel studies we have enjoyed in the present six year cycle of lessons, for we had John in 1926, and Mark in 1928. We are to have Luke next year, the last year of the cycle.

The last half of this year is occupied with studies of the representative men and women of the Bible, the first quarter (summer) being spent in the Old Testament and the second quarter (autumn) in the New Testament. In these rich courses we study of the men of the Bible, Abraham, Jacob, Moses, Saul, Jonathan, David, Amos, Josiah, Jeremiah, Jonah, Zacharias, Simeon, Peter, Thomas, the centurion of Capernaum, the rich young ruler, Zacharias, Stephen, Paul, and Timothy. Of the Bible women we study Deborah, Naomi, Ruth, Hannah, Elizabeth, the Virgin Mary, and Anne.

Gospel of Matthew

Matthew's name was originally Levi, but when he was called to be an apostle it was changed to Matthew, which means "the gift of Jehovah," equivalent to "Theodora," the latter being of Greek origin. Matthew's home was in Capernaum, the city of Hesus and Andrew, a fishing town on the north-west shore of the Sea of Galilee, where Christ made his headquarters. Matthew's occupation was that of a publican, or tax-collector. Men of that calling were hated and despised by the Jews.

Matthew's call to discipleship came later than that of the very earliest disciples, Peter and Andrew, James and John, Nathanael and Philip. These were all followers of John the Baptist, which Matthew apparently was not. The predominant aim of Matthew is to show how Christ's life, even in minor details, fulfilled the Old Testament prophecies of the Messiah, and to this end he introduces about forty proof passages from the Old Testament.

The Visit of the Wise-Men

"There came wise men from the east to Jerusalem." Matt. 2:1. One of the most picturesque incidents in the Bible is the visit of the wise-men to the infant Jesus. "St. Matthew calls them magi. A title is more or less, a description. Their title introduces them as Persians of the sacred or priestly order of Persia."—Francis W. Upham, L. D. Magi, not kings as the legend makes them; but having influence with kings, and intermeddling much by astronomical lore with the fortunes of individuals and peoples. "The exile, partly under Persian rule and two hundred years of Pagan supremacy in Judaea, and the lasting connection between the Jews of the East and their brethren in Palestine, must have created a deep interest, on both sides, in faiths which had so much in common. Among the Jewish ideas diffused far and near none would find so easy and wide a circulation as that which above all others, filled the mind and heart of every Jew in that age—the expected appearance of a great prince, of whom they spoke as the Messiah or 'anointed.'—Cunningham Gekke. The magi were astronomers, or, rather, astrologers; and when the wonderful sign appeared in the sky, they at once interpreted it as indicating the birth of the long-expected Messiah.

Find the Christ-Child

"And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy." As out of the heart of the East the wise-men turned to Bethlehem to find their Savior, so out of the heart of all humanity—seeking, aspiring, groping, sometimes falling—men turn to that same Christ, if only they can learn the way to find Him.—Rev. Walter Russell Bowie, D. D. They followed the star until it stood above the Christ-child. How important it is that we turn our eyes steadfastly toward the one true, guiding Star. Many false lights spring up in the sky of the human imagination that, like the mirages of the desert, allure only to deceive. But he who follows the Star of Bethlehem with faithful gaze may be sure that the outcome of life will be peace.—Rev. Louis Albert Banks, D. D.

"And they came into the house." This was several weeks after the birth of Christ. Joseph and Mary spent forty days in Bethlehem, and would not remain in the stable, but soon would be able, the rush of the census being past, to find more comfortable lodgings. "And saw the young Child with Mary His mother." No mention is made of Joseph, and he may not have been in the house at the time. "And they fell down and worshipped Him." They did homage to the infant Jesus after the Oriental fashion, kneeling and touching the ground with their heads. "They offered unto Him gifts." The gold indicated Christ's kingship, the myrrh His mortality, the frankincense His deity.

Flight to Egypt

"And flee into Egypt." They would find caravans going to Egypt and might easily join one of them. "Egypt was at all times the readiest place of refuge for the Israelites, whether from famine or from political oppression. It had sheltered many thousands of Jews from

SORE THROATS AND COUGHS

Quickly Relieved by this Safe Prescription

Here's a doctor's prescription that is really throat insurance. Sore or irritated throats are relieved and soothed almost instantly with the very first swallow. About 90 per cent of all coughs are caused by an irritated throat; consequently for most coughs too there is nothing better than this famous prescription—it goes direct to the internal cause. It is put up under the name Thoxine and is guaranteed to stop coughs and relieve sore throats in 15 minutes or your money will be refunded. Singers and speakers find Thoxine very valuable.

The remarkable thing about Thoxine is that while it relieves almost instantly, it contains nothing harmful, is pleasant tasting and safe for the whole family. Ask for Thoxine, 35c., 60c., and $1.00 bottles. Sold by Pampa Drug Co.

the tyranny of the Syrian kings. Consequently large settlements of Jews were to be found in various cities of Egypt and Africa. In Alexandria the Jews numbered a fifth of the population. Wherever therefore the infant Saviour's home was in Egypt, it would be in the midst of His brethren according to the flesh. At this time Egypt was a Roman province. This incident of Christ's stay in Egypt would be regarded as a pre-eminence memory by the African church—the church of Cyriacus, Origen, and Augustine."

Herod, Murderer

"Then Herod sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem. The massacre of the innocents is the most detestable crime, save one, in all history. The number slain was probably not more than ten, or twenty, at most, but the inherent cruelty of the deed, the practice of arbitrary royal power upon innocent and helpless babes, and yet more, the intended regicide of the Lord of glory, have excited intense horror in all Christian times and realms."—Noah K. J. David, Ph. D. It was thoroughly in harmony with the character of the hated tyrant who, feeling that his end was near, ordered representatives of the chief families of Judaea to be shut up in the hippodrome at Jericho, and slain as soon as he himself died, so that his funeral might not lack mourners.

It lies sixty miles north of Jerusalem, twenty miles east of the Mediterranean, and sixteen miles west of the Sea of Galilee. The Avenging Parrot ©1929 by NEA Service, Inc. Anne Austin, author of "The Black Pigeon, Rival Wives," etc.

THIS HAS HAPPENED Between 11:45 and 12:15 Saturday night, June 29, old Mrs. EMMA HOGARTH, said to keep a money box in her room on the second floor of Mrs. RHODES' boarding house, is strangled to death by a man named SEVIER, a detective, analyst LIEUT. STRAWN in the investigation. Police suspect EMIL SEVIER, former boarder, whose Mrs. Hogarth had been trying to "rob her" and who has disappeared.

CORA BARKER, boarder also accused, thought to have had an affair with Sevier, is arrested as a material witness against him, but is released on bail. Other boarders under suspicion are: HENRY DOWD, NORMAN PAIGE, WALTER STEVENS, near bankrupt, who had quarreled with Mrs. Hogarth; BERT MAGNUS, amateur secretary who is heard typing in his room until 12:15; DAISY SHEPHERD, absent from her room during the murder, and whose removal from the Rhodes' house and subsequent return within 30 hours causes wonder.

From papers secreted in Mrs. Hogarth's trunk, it is learned that the SALLY GRAVES who wrote her once a month was her daughter and that the "Dove" mentioned in her diary is DAN GRIF-FIN, non-in-law, quarrelsome, whose "training up" she lives in dread. Recalling the mysterious details of Sally's murder in New York, June 3, Dundee concludes: "One murdered both women. It turns his attention to Doves and Magnus, new boarders. An old envelope which had held a red ticket, with "On it, and showing he left New York, June 3, adds to the evidence against Doves. Additional evidence that Sevier was on the premises on the murder night appears in police on his hat. Word comes at last that Sevier has been captured.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIV

HIS first sight of a murder suspect undergoing the piteous third-degree at the hands of the police gave Dundee Dundee, novice detective, no thrill. Curiously, his first emotion was a mixture of anger and pity. And then he remembered Mrs. Hogarth—as he had seen her alive and as he had seen her dead. If this was the man who had strangled her, creeping up behind a defenseless old woman, then even the third degree was too good for him.

Emil Sevier was crouching in an uncomfortable straight chair in the center of the small room, his hands cuffed behind his back, his eyes were already red-rimmed, either from sleeplessness or from that pitiless glare of electricity. It was hard to imagine this tormented wretch as Cora Barker's lover.

Around the captured suspect were clustered nearly a dozen plain-clothes detectives and three uniformed patrolmen, and planted wide-legged, truculent, menacing, before him was Sergeant Turner. "I'm asking you again, Sevier, and I've got ways of making you sorry if you don't answer—where have you been hiding yourself since you killed and robbed Mrs. Hogarth?"

"I have not had time to question Sevier yet, sir," Dundee answered with this wide, boyish grin, "and I'm afraid I'm an awful dub at the third degree."

HE did not speak for a long minute, but held Sevier's eyes with his own until some of the wild fear and anger had faded out of them. "Your name is Emil Sevier?" he asked at last, as cordially and easily as if he were addressing a fellow-guest at Mrs. Rhodes' table.

"You know it!" Sevier retorted sullenly, but without violence. "Your full name is Emil Sylvester Sevier, I believe?"

"How the devil do you know that?" the prisoner demanded startled. "Sylvester is my middle name, all right, but I don't like it, so I don't use it—I sign my name Emil Sevier, or E. S. Sevier."

"I got the information from this," Bonnie Dundee told him, and drew from the envelope the accord-completed theater program on which Sevier had scribbled his name in all its variations. "This is your signature, isn't it?"

The man's hands reached for the program, which Dundee politely permitted the prisoner to examine. "Yeah, that's my writing—but what of it?" Sevier still held the program, and as Dundee watched the nervous brown fingers began to re-rip the double sheet, as if from force of habit.

"Sevier," Dundee began quietly. "I see no use in wasting time. I know you want to get this business over with as badly as we do. Now listen to me, courteously please, without interrupting, and I promise you courtesy in return."

"There was a sort of contempt from Sergeant Turner and an answering chuckle from one of the uniformed policemen. But Dundee went on as calmly as if he had not heard.

"I am not going to ask you, Sevier, if you were at the Rhodes House last Saturday night, for I know you were, and as I said, I don't want to waste time. . . . No, please! There's no use trying to protest, Sevier, for I have proof, and I am willing to show you the proof when the time comes. For several weeks you planned to rob Mrs. Emma Hogarth of the money she had, or was supposed to have, hidden in her room. . . . By the way, Sergeant Turner, was any large sum of money found in this man's possession when he was arrested?"

"He was too smart to be carrying it around with him," the detective sergeant answered, with poorly veiled contempt for the questioner. "I never —"

"All right, Sevier," Dundee interrupted. "As I said, you planned for weeks to rob Mrs. Hogarth and you tried to get Cora Barker to help you to do the job. She refused several times, the last occasion being Saturday night, at the Little Queen Theater. Once you tried alone—entering Mrs. Hogarth's room from your own room by means of a loosened door in the clothes closet. Mrs. Hogarth saw you and later warned the police that you were trying to rob her, and that her life as well as her money was in danger."

AS Dundee spoke, very quietly, almost soothingly, the prisoner appeared to be shriveling up. But he obeyed Dundee; he did not speak. Only his eyes—held as if hypnotized—alternately denied, agreed, or pleaded.

"On Saturday you announced

About New York

BY RICHARD MASSOCK

NEW YORK—As far as New York life's concerned, 1930 will find conditions, in the words of Wall Street, fairly stable.

The town is just as smoky, or foggy, and as noisy as it was on the eve of 1929.

Traffic perhaps is more congested, the buildings a little higher, Fifth avenue store fronts a little more moderne.

But theatre ticket speculators still operate on Broadway and the New York Times is still getting reports from one of the earth's poles.

Normalcy Eighth avenue, drilled to pieces by subway diggers, has been repaired and is more passable again, but blocks of other streets are not.

Airplanes continued to be commoner in 1929 and the L. Berber's taking an apartment in town indicated that even here the home is still an institution.

Mayor Walker, having been given a raise in pay, is preparing to give and the lack of a Ziegfeld glorification on Broadway is probably only temporary.

Ruth Draper, the one-woman show, is back with her monologs and dramatic impressions, and vo-deo-deo has become boop-boop-a-deep.

College boys are still in demand for significance of import, is the designation that is prophetically given to the Messiah in Isa. 11:1, where He is represented as a lowly sprout from the stump of Jesse. Hence when it was predicted by the prophets that He should be despised and esteemed not (see Ps. 22:6-8; Isa. 53:2-4; Ps. 69:11, 19, etc.), their prophecies were but a peculiar way of saying, "He shall be called a Nazarene."—James Morrison.

debutante dances. The Army-Navy football impasse is unbroken. A year ago women were lengthening short hair. Now they are doing the same to short skirts. Bridge is being played, plays are still produced despite the talkies, and scientific marvels are recurrent.

All in all, it looks from a spot midway, the East and North Rivers, like a normal year in the offing.

After January 1, Mayor Walker's salary will be $40,000 a year. High as that is for a public official outside Washington, it still is less than his police commissioner, Grover Whalen (who, incidentally, is paid $10,000 a year), is said to have earned as general manager of a department store.

And the mayor of New York is chief boss of 116,000 employes in the city's service, whose salaries and wages aggregate more than $234,000,000 annually. Carrying statistics further, the city cost each of its 8,000,000 citizens (theoretically) about $34 a year.

Heretofore the mayor's salary has been the same as that of the governor of New York state—$25,000. Unlike Governor Roosevelt, however, Walker compares his own mansion.

Comparing James J. Walker's income with those of fellow citizens in the amusement field (Walker, remember, was once a vaudeville act and is still a good gag-man) he earns less than several contemporary celebrities. Babe Ruth, for instance, draws $70,000 a year and Eddie Cantor gets $5,000 a week.

Of course, like both of his friends, the mayor's salary continues when he is on a tour.

Mrs. Elgin Masters underwent a major operation this morning at Pampa hospital. Her condition was considered satisfactory in the early afternoon.

Pampa will get this much needed public buildings. Incidentally new free mail delivery, and express delivery were inaugurated this past year, both of which have helped facilitate business to a great degree.

The Chamber of Commerce went on the Board of City Development plan on January 1, 1929, and in March a Chamber of Commerce was added, both to assist in keeping in closer touch with the business men, and also to add sufficient funds to finance the work since this organization monthly functions have been held, in which the various phases of Chamber of Commerce work was discussed. This has been valuable to Pampa in many ways.

The accomplishment mentioned in the above report, have been brought about through a good organization, through close cooperation of the citizenship of Pampa, and especially through a fine, hard working Board of Directors, and Committees. President Keim did everything that a president could do. He has been a wonderful man to work under. And Vice-President Fatheree, who took over the work during the illness of Mr. Keim, went to the job in a competent manner. Twenty-five regular and special meetings were held by the board, and a very large number of committee meetings.

All these men, both on the Board and on Committees, have given of their time freely. They have earnestly put forth their best efforts at all times for the betterment of Pampa.

The new board will consist of one year men, F. D. Keim, W. B. Saulsbury, Paul Shepherd, Tom Rose, T. F. Smalling, Two year men, M. K. Brown, J. M. Dodson, Chas. C. Cook, Roy McMillen, Scott Barcus. Three year men, Clyde Fatheree (re-elected), DeLain, Vicens, W. H. Curry, W. A. Duerr, Sam Fatheree.

Just a few words as to 1930. Of course, the various committees, and the board of directors will work up the program for the new year, but there are a few outstanding matters to which I wish to call your attention.

THE RAILROAD. We have a hard fight ahead of us. It is the opinion of those who have studied this matter, that we have not lost the battle, and have a good chance to win. Regardless of the outcome of the final hearing, this does not necessarily mean that we have heard the last of the railroad question.

But this railroad scramble has emphasized to Pampa an outstanding need—paved highways in every direction. Pampa has become in 1929, a large trade center. In fact people are coming from greater distances than ever before. A good system of hard surface highways will bring hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of trade to Pampa, as well as increase the tourist business immensely. Paved roads through the oil fields will not only serve to keep, but enlarge this line of business. And Gray county has many years of oil and gas development before it.

Need More Farmers. Much attention should be paid to our agricultural interests. For the past several years, there has been so many things of importance to do to start Pampa off right, that there has been little time to devote to this very valuable asset. Also, with no county agents to take the lead, the work has been difficult.

However, the organization is now in position to best, greater effort in this direction. We are promised county agents for Gray county soon and thru these agents, the Chamber of Commerce forces can vastly increase their value in this line. Short courses are being planned, a vocational judging contest, a pig show for these boys. And many other activities will be fostered in cooperation with these agents and the vocational department of the high school.

While the experience of a fair for Pampa has not been encouraging, yet there is a plan in the way of a free fair which, with the help of the county agents, can be worked out as it has been elsewhere. In conjunction with the agricultural department and the publicity department, Pampa and Gray county should have one or more agricultural exhibits at one or two district fairs.

More attention should be paid to aviation in 1930. Pampa, today, with a temporary airport, has probably more private owned planes than any other city many times its size in the country. Many towns and cities outclass us in landing fields, and much thought must be given to this, if we are to maintain our leadership, and develop along these lines.

In closing, I wish to emphasize something mentioned in the report above, that is our increasing trade area. Pampa, today, is one of the best trade centers in the Panhandle. People are coming from far and wide to trade here. In addition to the good road program advocated, LET'S MAKE PAMPA AN EVEN MORE DESIRABLE PLACE IN WHICH TO TRADE AND IN WHICH TO LIVE.

Need More Friendships. It can be done. The business men of this city should acquaint themselves with just as many people as possible within a radius of one hundred miles. Through the Chamber of Commerce and in other ways, a system of visits should be worked out. Pampa is a real friendly city. Oil drilling may slow up, other activities may quiet down, but Pampa should be in 1930 one of the two big trade centers of the Panhandle.

There are many things to do in Pampa next year. Its up to the citizenship to say just how much is done. Your Board of City Development and Chamber of Commerce with its organization can go so far, but it needs the united support of the citizens to make Pampa what Pampa can be.

Jacob Triebwasser, parachute jumper, who had expected to risk his life in a leap into the sea, had not entered the scene. He and his pilot, Lieut. Col. Roscoe Turner, and two companions, Fred Osborne and Bert White, motion picture technicians, soared away unscathed.

Triebwasser was posing for his jump, when a cry came through the roar of the motors:

"They're crashing!"

Turner, five hundred feet below the doomed camera planes, wheeled his ship well into the clear before the wreckage plunged by.

"I saw the planes," White said, "one of which was settling, come together. Their wing tips touched. Then the wings telescoped and the cabins crashed together. There was an explosive flash, and bodies were hurled out. The ships began to fall like rockets into the sea. No one could have lived in those planes before they struck the water. They were enveloped in fire."

DALLAS CHILD KILLED BY GUN IN BROTHER'S HANDS

DALLAS, Jan. 3. (AP)—While he and his five-year-old brother, Kurth, sat on a bed playing, four-year-old Herbert Sturckmiller was shot through the head with a bullet from a .38 calibre pistol and killed today.

Kurth had obtained the pistol from beneath a pillow on the bed. He ran to his mother and told her Herbert was shot. The mother ran screaming to the room. A while later Kurth told his father he held the pistol. "I did go to do it, Daddy," he said.

did more for me than everything else I have tried put together.

"My stomach was out of order and my digestion was so bad that often I had to get rid of undigested food through a rubber tube down my throat. For a long time had to practically live on milk. My color was bad and I was weak, rundown and nervous. I had taken six bottles of Sargon, eat anything I want, my digestion is perfect and all my stomach trouble is over. I am well and strong and full of new strength and energy. Sargon Pills stimulated my liver and cleansed my system of all poisons."—Dan J. Hollywood Sights

BY ROBBINS COONS

HOLLYWOOD — Humorists who have smart-cracked about their inability to escape hearing Graham McNamee's ever-present radio voice will find their "troubles" increased soon. They won't be able to sink into a talkie cathedral as a retreat from the popular announcer of the air. The McNamee voice, it is quite likely, will leap at them from the screen.

McNamee will become the "talking reporter" for one of the large newsreels. As scenes of current events are flashed on the screen, McNamee's voice will be heard in terse description of what is happening and why.

Movie Leaven

In their efforts to familiarize movie audiences with the names of their new actors imported from the stage, many movie producers have followed the example of the arboriculturist who "crosses" different varieties of trees to produce a new fruit. They are using movie names as box-office leaven in the wheat of stage casts.

New stage names which mean nothing to the average American box-office are given greater drawing power when accompanied by the names of noted screen actors.

Recently an exhibitor "starred" Grant Withers and Patsy Ruth Miller in "So Long Betty," merely featuring Charlotte Greenwood, the real star, to attract film fans.

Fox, which more than any other company has gone to the stage for talkie talent, made an unusual concession the other day by borrowing Jack Mulhall from First National as a strong screen name for "The Golden Calf."

They're Even Now

Jobyna Howland, newly arrived comedienne from London, convulses the colony with her comic chatter on screen and off, but sometimes the joke is on her.

She was introduced to a handsome young movie star the other day. It is related.

"Young man," she said innocently, never having heard of him before, "you should be in the movies, too!"

The star said nothing. But then someone asked, "And how long have you been on the stage, Miss Howland?"

"Oh," lightly, "since before the war. How long ago was that?"

The movie star overheard. "What war?" he asked.

Salvage Sale Is to Be Held Soon

The stock of Gordon's store recently damaged by water and smoke when nearby buildings suffered fire damage, will be turned over to a salvage company for sale, according to August Gordon. The sale in which the regular sales force will assist, will begin in a few days.

Following the salvage sale, the store will be closed while it is completely remodeled. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will go to eastern markets and buy a stock of new goods to replenish the remodeled store. Desire to re-open with new goods caused sale of the old stock at reduced prices, said the merchant, who closed his store following the recent blaze nearby.

Through an error in the Thursday issue of The Daily News, it was stated that Tom Jackson had been removed from the hospital to his home. He had, as a matter of fact, been taken from his home, 840 South Reed street, to Pampa hospital, after being ill the last three months.

CHURCHES

Church of Christ
 Many think that because we have such things as airplanes, automobiles, and radios that we also should make such progress in religion, to the extent that it should be revised, and improved upon. If this is the teaching of the Bible we should do all that is within our power to make it progressive. If it is not the teaching of the Bible we should not do it with all our strength. Those who propose to believe in such progressive religion, preach, saying "old-time religion is good enough for me." However, they do this not with the spirit and the understanding. If your religion is so progressive that it changes every year or two, do not call it old-time religion because it is not. Some think the religion practiced by their grandparents is old-time religion, and such it may be but it is not old enough. We should practice the religion of the apostles and the early Christians because we know that this meets with the approval of the Lord. Sunday evening we will study more about progress in religion. Services for Sunday: Bible study, 9:45 a. m. Preaching, 11 a. m. Communion, 11:45 a. m. Young people's meeting, 6 p. m. Preaching, 7 p. m. Communion, 7:45 p. m. The subject for the morning lesson will be "Redeeming Time," the sermon for the evening will be "Progress in Religion." Come, your presence will be appreciated, and hospitality will be shown you.
JESSE F. WISEMAN,
 Pastor.

First Methodist Church
 The old year with its successes and failures is now a matter of history. The new year with all its possibilities is before us. Just what will we do in a spiritual way during the year 1930? Start toward the goal of spiritual success by attending church Sunday! Sunday school starts promptly at 9:45 o'clock. Every department is well organized, and there is a class for every age.
 The Rev. W. M. Murrell, presiding

elder of the Clarendon district, will preach at the morning hour. He will bring a message that will stir your soul. Special music will be given by Mrs. F. L. Elliott, organist. The Rev. Tom W. Brabham, pastor, will bring a special message in song.

The first quarterly conference for this conference year will be held in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. Every member of the conference is urged to be present. Welcome to every service of our church, and best wishes for every member of the church and every citizen of Pampa for a year filled with prosperity, happiness, and peace!
TOM W. BRABHAM,
 Pastor.

Episcopal Church School
 Episcopal church school will be held at 9:45 o'clock in the music cottage on Central high school campus. There is a class for every age, including a Bible class taught by Mrs. Wm. M. Craven for adults. R. C. Sowder is the superintendent. You are invited to attend.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
 The prayer and praise and Bible study inaugurated at this church for Thursday night of each week began most auspiciously, with one of the largest rooms in the new building crowded, and a fine interest manifested. The pastor, F. W. O'Malley, gave a brief address showing the importance of the Book of Acts of Apostles, which will be the study course of the season. The Christian churches throughout the world are emphasizing evangelism for this year, which is the nineteenth hundredth anniversary of Pentecost, on which day the first full gospel sermon was preached and 3,000 converted and baptized, and the Christian church established.

Special sermons will be preached at the First Christian church 500 East Kingsmill avenue, at 11 o'clock and 7:30 o'clock Sunday, outlining the task of the local congregation for the year. All members and friends are urged to be present, bringing visitors. Bible school assemblies at 9:45 o'clock, with classes for all. Everybody is welcome.
F. W. O'MALLEY, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church
 "Keys," a sermon for the new year, will be delivered at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Start the year spiritually right. "Render unto God that which is God's." You are welcome in any of our services. Sunday school, 10 a. m. "Keys—Used and Unused," 11 a. m. Junior Christian Endeavor, 3 p. m. Intermediate Christian Endeavor, 4 p. m. "Something Different," 7:30 p. m.

Fight to Save Youth
 EASTLAND, Jan. 3. (AP)—Attorneys for Clyde Thompson, under death sentence for the murder of Lucian Shook, today planned the next step in their fight to save the youth. Thompson yesterday was denied a new trial by Judge Elzo Bean in district court, and notice of appeal was given.
