

ROBBER IS SHOT DOWN

Complete Jury Near in Trial of Carl Hefner

TALESMAN IN CASE REPORT IN AFTERNOON

Defense Exhausts Its Challenges on Tuesday

J. E. Albright, Kingsmill merchant, was accepted as the eleventh juror at press time.

After combing the Kingsmill, Laketon, and east Groom communities for three hours this morning, Deputies Ray Ballard, C. T. Lindsay and Frank Jordan brought in 50 talesman from whom two jurors to try Carl Hefner are being selected this afternoon.

The first prospective juror examined, W. C. Archer, 25-year-old resident of this community, was excused by the defense. Since the defense has left only one more challenge-without-cause, having already used 14, it is believed that the jury will be completed by mid-afternoon. The state has five such challenges left, but as the prosecution has already exercised twice as many as the defense, it is estimated that the panel will be quickly completed as soon as the defense uses its remaining challenge.

Judge W. R. Ewing announced this morning that court will be held tomorrow and probably tomorrow night. Hearing of testimony may begin late this afternoon. Judge Ewing is considering holding a session tonight.

The courtroom and gallery was packed with spectators when court opened this afternoon. Scores of people filled the aisles and stood around the wall. Many of the spectators are from McLennan.

Judge Ewing forbade smoking in the courtroom, saying that he couldn't see what the lawyers were doing for the smoke. If I had a quill I would sit here and eat a good second-handed smoke," he said.

Duck Hunters Are Rescued From Missouri River

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 26. (P)—Exhausted and suffering from nearly 40 hours of exposure, four duck hunters marooned yesterday on two sand bars 20 miles below here while a high wind lashed treacherous waves in the Missouri river were rescued early today.

Orvil Beck, operator of a hunting camp who set out in his motor boat yesterday afternoon to bring them to shore, succeeded after whilecaps nearly foundered his boat and imperiled him with one hunting party.

Beck and Clifford H. Robinson and John L. Moore, railroad men of Kansas City, bailed out the boat and awaited an opportunity to make the crossing. The sand bar gradually was being cut away by the waves. Finally, the three decided to attempt to pilot their craft through the rough water.

A land searching party equipped with a powerful searchlight of the Excelsior Springs fire department aided them in rescuing Wilbert F. Imbe and N. Coates, both of Kansas City, from the sand bar where they lay shivering in a duck blind.

Farmer of Taylor County Is Killed

ABILENE, Nov. 26. (P)—John Kling, 55, Taylor county farmer, died on the way to an Abilene hospital today after an automobile crash on the Texas and Pacific had struck the truck he was driving over a crossing west of the city. His back was broken and he was injured internally.

Kling was hauling cotton to a gin. The truck was demolished and the cotton widely scattered.

More Companies in Protest on Proration

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 26. (P)—Two more oil companies joined the Champion, Julian and Marco companies today in their attacks upon state proration of production.

Oils, Inc., and Century Petroleum company filed motions with the proration commission asking that the state-wide proration order be rescinded. Hearing was set for Dec. 1.

Turkeys Lure Two Men to Their Deaths

CHICAGO, Nov. 26. (P)—Tempting turkeys, police said, lured two men to their deaths last night. Both were fatally shot.

First to die was a man who tried to cut his way through the window of the butcher shop of William Bransa, where there was $2,000 worth of dressed turkeys. Bransa lay asleep in the rear of the place with a rifle with which to protect his stock. When he was awakened by the intruder, he fired the gun. The man died in a hospital after police had been forced to break the glass to estimate his body.

A few minutes later, in the same district, two policemen shot and killed a man as he fled from a butcher shop with an arm load of dressed turkeys, taken from the window of the place. He had broken the glass with a rock. He died in the same hospital to which the first had been taken.

NATION WILL BE THANKFUL

Words of Hoover Are to Be Stressed on This Thanksgiving Celebration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26. (P)—Depression, unemployment — national misfortunes there is, but still tomorrow is Thanksgiving day.

Aid without using a microscope, many of the 123,000,000 Americans are finding reason for being thankful. The national turkey will be on the board — maybe some pounds smaller and not in such great numbers as in the past few years, but the same token several valuable things are on the table.

Do you remember how President Hoover asked that the day be observed?

"That we make sure every person in the community, young and old, shall have cause to give thanks for our institutions and for the neighborly sentiment of our people."

In echo to those words in his proclamation have come reports from even the hard hit sections of the country—special baskets for those who need food; extra efforts that all possible cheer and cause for thankfulness be distributed.

Still another story is told of great caravans of Thanksgiving birds moving to market, accompanied by equally abundant supplies of glistening red cranberries.

And even though the financial news of the day tells of less money in circulation and less buying going on, the same columns report lower prices on many of life's necessities.

The president's proclamation reminded the country of other blessings, too:

Freedom from civil and industrial discord.

Progress upon the enduring structure of our institutions.

Education further extended.

Gains in the prevention of disease and protection of childhood and internationally, a strengthening of the outlook for peace.

Thanksgiving to Be Observed This Evening at Church

At 7:30 p. m. the First Presbyterian church will be the scene of the union Thanksgiving service to be presented by the ministers association and by singers from the various churches of the city.

The service will open by the singing of the old hymn, "All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name." Rev. N. C. Smith, pastor of the St. Matthew's Episcopal church, will read the scripture and lead in prayer.

Mrs. J. M. Dodson will sing a solo and Rev. Tom Washburn will present the community chest for which the offering will be taken.

Rev. F. W. O'Malley will bring the message of Thanksgiving.

The closing hymn by the choir, "Come, Thou Almighty King," will be followed by the benediction by Rev. A. A. Hyde.

The ministers urge the people to show the spirit of thankfulness in uniting for worship and in supporting to the limit the community chest drive soon to be held.

DISAPPEARANCE OF TEACHER STILL UNSOLVED AND THREE KIDNAPING SUSPECTS FREED

Officers Convinced Girl Was Killed After Being Abducted at Wiggins, Colo. Body is Hunted

FORT MORGAN, Colo., Nov. 26. (P)—Arthur Gray, arrested Monday for investigation in connection with the disappearance of Miss Edna Marriot, 20-year-old Wiggins, Colo., school teacher, was released today by Sheriff R. A. Johnston.

The officers said Tom Schoplin and William Hech, also held for investigation, will be given their liberty later today.

Investigators checked apparent discrepancies in accounts of the men regarding their whereabouts at the time of the girl's disappearance, but learned the two were not involved in the kidnaping.

In announcing release of the men, Sheriff Johnston said he now was convinced the teacher was kidnaped and slain and unless unexpected developments provided new leads, further investigation would amount to search for the body.

A closed car beside which stood a man, was on the platform at Wiggins as the Miss Marriot alighted from the train. This has been the only clue with which officers have had to work in their attempt to solve the strange disappearance.

Two persons told officers they heard a shot and a woman's scream just as the train departed from the Wiggins station. These reports have given strength, officers said, to their growing belief that the teacher was slain and her body hidden somewhere in the now blanketed region near Wiggins.

The commission yesterday purchased 500 feet of new fire hose. This was necessary to bring the equipment to the new fire station up to standard. City Manager F. H. Crum was instructed to advertise bids for the city printing. Paving around the new city hall on Frost and Russell streets was accepted.

Grading, trenching and removal of dirt on the city park will be started soon.

Recently the commission rejected all bids for a contract to do this work. The city then decided to be its own contractor. Clair L. Sibley, civil engineer in the employ of A. H. Doucette, city engineer, is for a local labor and local tradesmen.

Radio Program Will Be Presented By City Tonight

Pampa will be on the air again tonight with a varied musical program through the remote control studio of KCHS.

Letters have come from distant states commending the program of last week. They came from Wisconsin, New York, Arizona, California, and other distant points.

The program tonight will include contributions by the following artists:

Vocal selections, Mrs. R. A. Webb and Mrs. W. H. Lang.

Solo, F. C. Gonzales.

Tom Jennings' dance orchestra.

Madeline Taylor's piano pupils (Madeline Woodward, Virginia Lee Bechtelmeier, Loris Bryson, Carolyn Surett).

Mrs. Mary Foreman Carr and trio.

Mrs. Harry Kelly, bass.

Tommy Hammond, popular songs.

John Cochran, violinist.

Malcolm Carr, haritone.

The federal government annually purchases approximately $1,000,000 worth of tires and tubes.

Senator Clint C. Starns believes Roosevelt will make a good governor "if he doesn't listen too much to those peanut politicians of Houston." The senator who was hoodlum of the second primary and thereby missed an excellent chance of becoming governor, is a Pampa resident this week while standing court here.

"Mr. Sterling is primarily a business man. He can stick to business and be a good governor, and he can play politics and be a bad governor," Senator Starns declared. "But I honestly believe Mr. Sterling will place his primary on a paying basis. J. J. Maple Will Die Tonight

Only Governor Moody Can Save Man Convicted in Policeman's Death

AUSTIN, Nov. 26. (P)—Unless Governor Dan Moody or some court intervenes, Jess J. Maple, convicted of killing a Houston policeman, will go to his death in the electric chair at Huntsville early Friday. The court of criminal appeals today overruled a motion for a rehearing on his application for a writ of mandamus to restrain prison officials from carrying out the death sentence.

Maple was originally sentenced to be executed Nov. 28 for the murder of E. D. Fitzgerald, one of two policemen killed in a gun fight with Maple and a companion. He was granted a 10-day reprieve by Governor Dan Moody a few hours before the time set for the execution to permit the court of criminal appeals to pass on the motion for a rehearing in the mandamus action.

The governor has indicated he will not grant Maple a second reprieve.

Maple's attorneys have sought to write on the ground that Maple had no right to interfere with the efforts to perfect an appeal to the higher court. At the time sentence was imposed, his attorneys gave notice of appeal but Maple withdrew the notice and accepted the sentence.

The court in its opinion today held a sane defendant had the right to accept the sentence and dispense the notice of appeal. The opinion pointed out that if a defendant could accept a light sentence, he also could accept a heavier penalty, if sane.

Rev. Todd Talks At Rotary Club

The Rev. James Todd explained the true significance of Thanksgiving day at the Rotary club meeting today. Emphasizing the fact that too many people think of Thanksgiving only as a day of a big dinner he explained that it is more of a day on which one should consider those things for which he is thankful, and that he should express his gratitude for his health, happiness and success.

"Even the animals express their gratitude for kindness, and it is only in man, after he grows up, that gratitude is not always expressed," he said.

The talk was preceded by two musical readings by Mrs. T. P. Morton with Mrs. Tom Washburn at the piano and two solos by T. C. Evans accompanied by Miss Ruth Anne Mitchell.

Empire's Sullivan Well Which Was Recently Ordered Shut Down Now Is Being Deepened—Showing Appears

Orders to shut down Empire Gas and Fuel company's No. 1 Sullivan section 136, block 3, and cement the hole were rescinded by officials last week-end. Drilling in the well started again Sunday.

Early last night a showing of oil was struck from 3,225 to 3,232 feet. The well is drilling ahead today at 3,235 feet. The test is an east offset of the Graham-Cree-Hoover pusher.

Empire Gas and Fuel company has completed its No. 1 Frasher section 177, block 3, for 34 million cubic feet of gas from a total depth of 2,810 feet.

Last week the company brought in No. 1 Cantrell, section 136, block 3, for 38 1-2 million cubic feet of gas from a total depth of 3,110 feet.

The same company's No. 1 McCullough, section 153, block 3, is drilling at 1,863 feet. No. 1 Bell, section 111, block 3, is drilling at 2,778 feet.

Gulf Productions company's No. 2-A Faulkner, drilling at 2,800 feet is due to be brought in this week. It is located in section 33, block B-2.

Prairie Oil and Gas company's No. 1 Reynolds, section 84, block 3, is drilling at 3,180 feet.

More Than Two Hundred Workers to Take Part in Drive for Community Chest, Beginning On Next Monday

Following a meeting of all Community Chest workers at the Rex on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the drive to raise $15,000 for Pampa's charity group will begin. It was announced at a session of the campaign committee last night at the chamber of commerce.

The list of workers was extended last night to include more than 200 names. These will be notified by telephone and by letter, or in person of the meeting Monday. The committee will make intensive efforts to have every worker attend the preliminary meeting Monday morning.

In order to prevent fraud and eliminate unauthorized workers, each of the solicitors will wear identification badges which will show that the person was appointed by the Chest committee to take donations. Citizens will be urged to give their contributions only to workers wearing these badges.

According to the plan of the drive, one or more workers will be assigned to each city block. The campaign will continue a week or until the necessary funds are raised. Organizations which will be financed in the drive include the Boy Scouts, Children's Day nursery, Girl Scouts, Welfare board, Salvation Army. The largest amount, a total of $8,000, will be apportioned to the Welfare board. Most of this is due to be used for family relief. The Salvation Army will get $2,400; the Boy Scouts, $2,300; the Children's day nursery, $2,500; Red Cross, $750; Camp Fire girls, $250; and executive fund, $900.

Chorus Will Practice Sunday

Rehearsal of the Messiah chorus will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Methodist church in order that all Pampans who care to attend the evening of opera at Amarillo, Dec. 1, may do so. Each Monday evening is the regular time for rehearsal.

Presentation of the famous oratorio has been set for Friday evening, Dec. 12. It promises to be a musical event of prime importance. Six of the choruses, including the famous Hallelujah chorus and symphony of the best-known solos will be given. The chorus here will be aided by 50 singers from the Amarillo choral club and 10 soloists.

An orchestral accompaniment will include 10 instruments, besides two grand-pianos to be played by Mrs. Emil F. Myers, head of the piano department of the Amarillo College of Music, and Mrs. May Foreman Carr, dean of the Pampa School of Music.

The Pampa chorus will assist the Amarillo chorus on Sunday afternoon in Amarillo in the same manner.

The patent office received more than 75,000 applications for patents in 10 months.

COACH AT EL RENO ALSO IS BADLY HUR

El RENO, Okla., Nov. 26. (P)—A bank robber and Doc Follett, assistant coach at El Reno high school, were probably fatally wounded today following an unsuccessful attempt to rob the First National bank of El Reno.

First reports were to the effect that two robbers had been shot. The robber, George Lovett, 36, Chickasha, was shot four times on through the chest, and death was expected momentarily. Follett, a customer, also was shot through the chest and his condition was critical.

Both men were taken to the area hospital, giving rise to first reports that two robbers had been shot. An accomplice of Lovett could be found nor could officers locate any automobile in which the robber might have planned to escape.

Lovett was shot first by J. M. Burge, assistant cashier, after he had held up the eight persons in the bank. George Adams, proprietor of a tire shop across the street from the bank, shot three times at Lovett emerged, and brought his own.

Lovett fired three shots in the bank, one tearing out the bar of window behind which was Burge. Another struck Follett, former wrestling star of the University of Oklahoma.

Mrs. Burge, who was in the front end of the bank, ran out the door and called for help.

The robbers, entering the bank during the noon hour, apparently were surprised to find three employees on duty and three customers in the building. Their escape was without attempting to carry out the robbery, and was shot as they tried to escape.

Led by George Adams, employ of a tire shop next to the bank, who saw the robbers backing from the building with smoking arms, neighboring merchants seized five arms, trapped the bandits in an alleyway and sent a rain of lead to their direction.

J. M. Burge, assistant cashier, also joined in the pursuit and believed to have fired the shot which killed the first robber.

Other shots brought down the second robber.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 26. (P)—Five heavily armed men held up the State bank at Kincaid, a mining town, today and escaped in an automobile with $3,000.

Four of the gunmen were captured by Springfield policemen at the edge of the capital within an hour after the robbery.

An alarm was flashed to nearby cities from Kincaid and the robbers were soon surrounded.

At the police station three of the four were identified as Jack McCoy, 23, Kansas City; Arthur Brown, 21, Chicago; and Ted Mooney, 26, Springfield.

Disgusted at missing the $90,000 Peabody mine payroll at Kincaid which was nearly all paid out yesterday, the gang stopped at Cochester in their flight and scooped up all available cash at the Rochester State bank. This delay made their arrest easy.

Currency found in a grip at the bottom of the car totaled $2,925.

THE WEATHER

The Army Disclaims Privilege of Starting World's Wars

Perhaps the most interesting address made at the Texas Managing Editors' association meeting in Lubbock this week was by Major Holcombe of San Antonio, whose talk was largely of the confidential and "not for publication" variety.

The army, Major Holcombe pointed out, does not start wars. It has little or nothing to say with the selection and activities of office holders and diplomats. Its aim is service, which means hardships and willingness to go anywhere to protect the flag and those who live under its influence. There must be a real sense of duty to die for one's country in Haiti, Nicaragua, or China while the folks at home are waxing fat and prosperous.

The army necessarily operates with the possibility of war in mind. It must know what could and would be done in case of a foreign war or in defense of this country's boundaries. It must keep up with developments in aviation, chemistry, photography, transportation, and engineering.

Today Texas, and especially the San Antonio district, has the distinction of being the air capital of the nation. Were war declared, Texas skies would be filled with planes and many additional training camps would be established. And of course attacks from abroad would be aimed at our air bases.

The minimum of preparedness in a nation of this size is, technically, far above present standards. Disarmament on the seas is making some progress, but internal defense is another matter. Sword rattling has been too frequent in the ranks of the big navy enthusiasts and manufacturers of ships and munitions, while the interior army divisions have been given too little attention and financial support.

Daily WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON.—There are 47,847,206 young Americans under 18 years of age. As the next generation, civilization is to be literally in their hands.

One-fourteenth to one-twelfth of their total time is spent in school. A third is spent at home in sleep. Varying small amounts beyond that are spent daily in the home. Probably 99 per cent of children are in homes, though "samplings" indicate that one home in four is a broken home. And over 40 per cent of the first 18 years is spent outside home and school.

So says the Committee on Youth Outside the Home and School of the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection, a committee headed by James E. West, chief executive of the Boy Scouts. The committee selected 14 organized agencies and influences which boys and girls met in that 40 per cent of their time. It gives some interesting figures in naming them.

The churches "deal with probably 25,000,000 persons." The girl agencies touch 1,500,000 girls during their leisure time. The boy agencies enroll 2,100,000. The neighborhood agencies attract 1,400,000.

Motion pictures catch the eye of 115,000,000 customers a week, of whom one-third are under 16.

Other commercial amusements lure 2,000,000 persons daily.

Radio, with its 13,478,000 sets, probably has more than 60,000,000 listeners.

Playground facilities serve 2,250,000 children every day.

Most children read, but 20,000,000 have no public library facilities.

Camping is indulged in by probably 8,000,000 persons, including 3,000,000 young ones.

Other conditions and factors encountered by youth industry, with its 4,000,000 youth employed full time and 2,000,000 part time. Rural life, with 55 per cent of youth living in rural territory. Institutions, which stand "in loco parentis" for about one per cent.

Four Million Work
 Of the approximately 48,000,000 persons under 18, 27,000,000 are in school and 4,000,000 have "gone to work." There are 23,760,000 such girls, 14,600,000 at school and 1,400,000 have "gone to work." There are 23,760,000 such girls, 14,600,000 at school and 1,400,000 employed. Of 27,087,000 boys, some 14,000,000 are in school, a little more than 2,600,000 work regularly and another 1,000,000 part time.

The church shows a tendency to relate itself to young people, "not only in matters of worship, but in various ways, aiding in adjustment to the actual everyday experience of younger folk." Sunday schools have 23,000,000 members. There are 10,200,000 church members under 13 years of age.

The committee says the possible effects of movies on children is a matter of concern. Unfortunately, it finds, the finer types of pictures are not as a rule the most profitable. But children's tastes "reveal a pleasing sanity."

Sixth graders want heroism and spurn cheap melodrama and torrid triangles. High school youngsters demand a plot with action, girls leaning toward romance and boys toward comedy. The committee recommends more "family programs" of suitable pictures, more careful selection of films and better regulation of juvenile attendance, public relations activities between producers and citizens, organizations and encouragement of amateur dramatic groups.

The influence of commercial amusements under business auspices are in the main unwholesome, the committee declares.

It recommends adequate educational radio broadcasting as a youth influence, elimination of any pernicious programs by active expression of public opinion and good taste and more consideration of any younger listeners.

And more public libraries, it says, are needed for the 20,000,000 children and 34,000,000 adults who now go without.

"We hear considerable criticism of youth," the committee says finally. "We are unanimously convinced that, in spite of the conditions and difficulties they face, youth today are cleaner, finer, steadier of purpose and sturdier of character than any generation we have known."

Hotel Is Smashed in Strikers' Raid

DANVILLE, Va., Nov. 26. (P.)—Five hundred paraders, protesting renewal of activities in two textile mills last night assaulted a hotel and threw bricks into the rooms of non-union workers. Police arrested 40 on charges of unlawful assembly.

The Riverside and Dan River mills resumed activities last Monday. Twenty-eight hundred workers walked out in September. Only about 900 have returned.

Police said virtually every window in the hotel, situated in Schoolfield, a suburb, was broken. Guns were fired and explosions were heard over the city. In Virginia it is a capital offense to set off an explosive in a residence.

Arrested by police that they had the situation in hand, Governor John Pollard issued orders for state troops to stand in readiness in the event of future disorders.

Mrs. George Main and daughters of Los Angeles, Calif., arrived in Pampa Tuesday night, and will visit Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Hill.

Trees on half the total forest area of the United States were damaged by the drought this year.

Luncheon Served To Class Group

Luncheon was served at noon and the day was spent in quilting when the Friendship class, First Methodist church, met at the church Monday.

The resignation of Mrs. Edwin Vears as historian was announced and Mrs. Roy Bourland was elected to the position.

Those attending were the Rev. and Mrs. Tom Brabham, Mrs. A. W. Bablone, Mrs. T. C. Lively, Mrs. Frank Murray, Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, Mrs. C. S. Boston, Mrs. W. P. Moss, Mrs. Jack Mason, Mrs. Jack Goldston, Mrs. O. W. Ferguson, Mrs. Porter Beck, Mrs. W. J. Foster, Mrs. C. H. Hancy, Mrs. I. W. Spangler, Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. Robert Morris, Mrs. Roy Bourland, and Mrs. J. D. Kidwell.

Four-Table Bridge Party Held Monday

Chance bridge was the diversion when Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kitchings entertained a group of friends Monday evening in their home on East Francis.

Four tables were in progress in rooms attractively decorated in fall flowers, and a plate dinner was served at the close of the playing. High score prizes went to Mrs. Dude Balthrop and Lucy Bennett, and consolation went to Mrs. Guy Farrington and Rufus Sewell.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Dude Balthrop, Mr. and Mrs. John Tate, Mr. and Mrs. "Hamp" Brown, Mr. and Mrs. H. Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Farrington.

WILL GIVE DANCE
Mrs. Mattie Castlebury is giving a dance tonight at the Tokio club in Borger. Music will be by the Amarillo Sugar Stompers. A new crystal ball from Los Angeles has been received and placed in the hall.

Several turkeys will be given away. The dance will begin at 9 o'clock and will last all night.

Three Thousand Are Expected At Borger Singing

Three thousand persons are expected to be present at the Fifth Sunday Singing convention to be held in Borger Nov. 30, said Frank Bennett, secretary-manager of the Borger board of city development, in inviting citizens of Pampa and surrounding territory to attend. Six counties will be represented and a free dinner will be served on the ground.

Several well-known singers will be present, including the Stamps quartet from Dallas, and the Wheeler Brothers quartet, Victor artists.

A copper still captured in a liquor raid near Sweetwater, Tex., is to be used for mixing poisoned food in a campaign against prairie dogs.

MRS. GANN DOES HER OWN THANKSGIVING MARKETING

BY SUE McNAMARA
WASHINGTON, (AP) — Groceries for Vice-President Curtis' Thanksgiving dinner will be selected personally by his sister, Mrs. Edward E. Gann.

Holiday preparations are no exception to her daily custom of doing her own marketing for the vice-presidential household, which also includes herself and her husband.

Several gift turkeys usually arrive, but the day before Thanksgiving Mrs. Gann will drive to market bright and early. Her chauffeur will follow with a big basket to carry the things she selects.

On her jaunts to the big marketplace in Washington the vice-president's sister always stops for friendly chats with the butcher, the vegetable woman and the florist.

These red-checked folk in white aprons probably know Mrs. Gann even better than statesmen who meet her at formal social functions. When they see her approaching, it's the signal for a pleasant stir.

Cassard Schroth has been waiting on Mrs. Gann at the meat counter for five or six years.

"She's sometimes down here as early as 7:30," he says. "She's one of the best customers I have and one of the nicest. Knows just what she wants, never finds any fault, often stops for a friendly chat, always interested in my family."

"Market row," exchanging gossip among its piles of apples and grapes, will tell you how Mrs. Gann sent flowers last winter to 10-year-old Mary Kengla, the butcher's daughter, when the child was sick.

And not only the Kenglas and the Schroths but little Mrs. Anselma, the vegetable woman, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reed, who deal in butter and eggs, have framed autographed pictures of the vice-president and Mrs. Gann on their walls at home. They were gifts of last Christmas.

Social Washington knows the Mrs. Gann of trailing velvet robes and sparkling jewels, but the market folk know her as just a friendly, human woman who is much interested in their family joys and sorrows.

Refreshments were served at tea time to Mrs. M. J. Cash, Mrs. Binford, Mrs. E. F. Brake, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. H. H. Simmons, Mrs. John McKamy, Mrs. Clyde H. Garner, and the hostess.

Bring Cookies Cookies to be given children at the Pampa day nursery were brought to a meeting of Circle 3 in the home of Mrs. E. L. Anderson. Plans also were made to give baskets to the poor at Christmas.

Mrs. Hamilton led the devotional for the afternoon, and in the business session which followed she was elected as co-chairman to take the place of Mrs. Ernest Fletcher, who resigned because of illness.

Mrs. Charles Gilmore then taught a lesson from the book "Things We Should Know."

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon to Mrs. Gilmore, Mrs. J. B. Rose, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Fred Throckmorton, Mrs. R. E. Lantz, old members, Mrs. Ed Foran and Lee Murry, new members, Mrs. J. P. Reid and Mrs. O. J.

BEGIN HERE TODAY - Adventure enters the life of CELIA MITCHELL, 17, when she learns the father she has supposed dead is alive and wealthy... MARGARET ROGERS, Celia's mother, is now a widow, having divorced Mitchell and remarried later...

Oh, but we can't now. How do we find Tod? She had to make excuses quickly, keeping one eye on Barney... "Hello, Barney," the girl said. "Why-hello! Say, this is a surprise! Barney Shields whipped off his straw hat. His face was one ruddy, delighted grin...

It's me, all right," she told him, smiling. "I saw you from where I was sitting. At first I wasn't sure, but then you turned around. Barney, I'm awfully glad to see you... "Do you really think so?" she asked softly. "I'll say I do!"

agitating happily. "But it wasn't the horse you be on," Celia reminded her. "No, but what a race! My dear, I haven't been so thrilled for days. Jordan was checking. 'Well, my tip was good!' he declared. 'Ought to pay pretty well, too.'"

Celia had begun to wonder what Barney Shields had to tell her. It was going to be a problem to meet Barney. For some curious reason she did not want to confide in Mrs. Parsons. It was probably because Evelyn had so frequently praised Tod Jordan. Celia had not yet thought through the complications that were to arise with Barney's arrival.

They stayed for two more races, but neither proved as exciting as the last. Jordan was his exalted spirit when he came away from casting his winnings. Lisi opened her purse and held up a single dollar bill. "They all got wings," she murmured mournfully. On the drive back to Larchwood Celia was quiet. The other girl's chatter kept this from being noticed. When they arrived Lisi changed into her own clothes and departed. Jordan remained to dine with Evelyn and Celia.

They spent the evening on the veranda just as they had often before. Celia was aware of a feeling of restraint when she was alone with Jordan, but she let him kiss her good night. "I think I'll go to bed at once," she told Evelyn after he had gone. "Feeling sleepy?" "Then you'd better go along. Good night."

Celia went to her room. She undressed, turned out the light and got into bed, but she could not sleep. An hour later Celia had reached a decision. (To Be Continued)

CHURCHES - BAPTIST REVIVAL - The interest grows in the meeting at the Central Baptist church, with a greatly increased attendance. Tonight, Dr. McCall will speak on "How Ras the Dead." Services at 7:45 p. m. Last night he spoke on "Rivers of Living Water," illustrating with reference to irrigation in the West. As the river is to the desert, so is Christ to the world, he said. The desert can be made beautiful and fruitful if only the river can be turned on it. So God is looking for channels to send the Gospel over a desert world. He would use the smallest and humblest, if we lend ourselves. We can be a channel or a sinkhole of God's blessings. Galilee takes in the Jordan, fills itself, then passes it all out again. It is a beautiful lake, full of fish, and surrounded by populous towns. The Dead Sea takes in the Jordan but has no outlet, and its stagnant waters are bitter with salt, have no life in them, and nobody cares to live near. The one lake is a channel and the other a sinkhole. These are parables of life. We can share our blessings and be sweet and useful and beautiful, or we can selfishly hoard our good things and they spoil in our hands and we become a dead sea. We are all either Galilees or Dead seas; channels or sinkholes. Ohio river traffic showed an increase during October over the same month last year.

Middle West Suffering From Severe Cold

CHICAGO, Nov. 26 (P) - A cold wave, sweeping from the northwest, brought death and suffering today to the middle west, many sections of which were blanketed with snow. At least six deaths were attributed, directly or indirectly, to the storm. Two were in Chicago, where a railroad switchman slipped from the icy top of a car in a fatal fall and exposure accounted for another victim. At West Bend, Iowa, a woman was killed when her automobile skidded on an icy road and turned over, and another man died at Lebanon, Ind., where a blinding snow prevented her from seeing an approaching train.

Minneapolis reported one death from exposure, as temperatures throughout Wisconsin ranged from 20 above to near zero. Peoria, Ill., also reported one death from the same cause. In Chicago, more than 2,500 men sought protection in police stations and shelters for the unemployed as plans went forward to make further provision for their comfort. By nightfall, another shelter, the largest in the city, was to be put in service by the Salvation Army, acting for the state commission on unemployment relief, with capacity for 1,000 men. The temperature sank as low as 16 above yesterday, with snow flurries and colder weather predicted for today for Chicago and other parts of the middle west.

At Cleveland, police and charitable organizations were host to hundreds of jobless, driven to shelter by temperatures around 20 above. Ohio was covered by a thin blanket of snow. A tale of loyalty and courage during Tuesday's storm was related in Lincoln, Neb., by Warden Fenton of the Nebraska penitentiary. During the gale which whipped a large section from the prison shirt factory roof, the prison authorities called for volunteers to make repairs to the supporting beams. Inmates and guards responded, climbing to the attic and wiring the beams into place.

The snow was general in Minnesota and eastern North Dakota, reaching blizzard proportions at Grand Forks and Fargo. Some schools were forced to abandon classes in Fargo. Other sections of the middle west experienced high winds, which caused some property damage at Lincoln, Neb., and at Creston, Iowa. Sioux City, Iowa, reported a 50-mile gale.

LOYOLA CLAIMS LAURELS OF INTERSECTIONAL PLAY - NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 26 (P) - There may be other football teams that do more traveling, but Loyola of New Orleans, claims the 1930 laurels for the most intersectional play. Coach Clark Shaugnessy's Catholics started the outside competition by walloping Daniel Baker of Texas, 39-0. The annual clash with Loyola of Chicago followed and the southerners won 25 to 6. The Loyolians dropped their first game of the year to the rambling Petrels of Oglethorpe university, Atlanta, then came the victory over Xavier at Cincinnati.

Bizzell To Probe Student Flogging

WORMAN, Okla., Nov. 26 (P) - Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the University of Oklahoma, will make a personal investigation of the reported flogging of a student by a masked band, said to have been members of the E. D. M. C. outlaw secret society, he said today. Sam Kaplan, an engineering student, Monday reported he had been beaten last Wednesday night. Kaplan, whose home is in Brownsville, Tex., said five or six masked men came into his room and told he had been tried, and found guilty of being a "University stool pigeon." Kaplan showed red and blue welts on his back and shoulders to W. W. Kraft, superintendent of University utilities, in whose office he works. Forced to withdraw from school last year because of lack of finances, Kaplan obtained full time employment, checking cars operating about the campus without student permits in violation of the "no car" rule. When school ended, he quit and this fall began work as Kraft's secretary.

Hunt County Farmer Is Shot To Death

GREENVILLE, Tex., Nov. 25 (P) - Will Williams, 29, farmer, was shot to death today in the Stringtown community in southern Hunt county. Will Aikin surrendered to officers. Both men were farmers residing in the Stringtown neighborhood. In a statement to County Attorney G. C. Harris, Aikin said he fired three times with a single barrel shotgun. He mentioned family trouble. The shooting occurred not far from Aikin's home. Aikin said in his statement that he was returning from a squirrel hunt in his pasture when he met Williams. Both men were riding horseback and stopped to converse. Aikin said he started shooting when Williams jumped from his horse.

INDIANS OF QUANAH HIGH WILL ARRIVE THIS AFTERNOON

TRICKS WILL PLAY PART IN FINAL GAME

The Indians are coming. The most suggestive of the age before west and the Harvesters arrived on the scene, the Red Men will journey to Pampa with serious intentions. Coach Stallworth of Quanah has one of the trickiest of fellows in the conference and he has been all season developing it. The basis of the Indian attack is the famous Waco spin play perfected by Paul Tyson, whom Stallworth formerly assisted. It has not been stopped since the team became accustomed to the new coach's system. Last week Electra found it puzzling and lost to Quanah 13 to 0. Several touchdowns made by the Indians were called back by officials and other reasons.

Yesterday the Harvesters used dummy offensives and defensive practice. They took it easy on the whole, watching the reserves defeat the Gorillas 31 to 6 in a practice game. The Gorillas were handicapped by the absence of Bill Ragsdale, their scoring fullback.

Coach Olin Mitchell has much respect for Olin Starnes boys and their capable mentor. He predicts that his own team and the fans will see a much better effort from them than they are expecting.

The Thanksgiving game, which will end Pampa's first Olin A season, will begin at 2:30 p. m. on Harvesters field.

Albie Booth to Captain Yale in Season of 1931

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 26. (AP) For the first time in five years, Yale will have a back as football captain next season. Albert J. Booth, Jr., or Albie as he's known to football fans, was elected as 1931 captain last night.

Albie is a quarterback and his selection breaks a tradition that line men shall be picked to captain Yale teams. The last backfield man to break the charm was P. W. Bunnell in 1926.

Booth is a junior in the Sheffield Scientific school of Yale. His home is in New Haven and he prepared at New Haven high school and Milford Preparatory school. As a Yale freshman he was captain of the football, baseball and basketball squads and he starred for the varsity in all these sports this year. He is 22 years old.

Clingman Will Leave Saturday For Mat Tour

Olin Clingman will be seen in action tonight for the last time in several weeks when he will give a 15-minute exhibition with Napoleon DeVora at the Elks carnival in the Pampa auditorium.

Clingman will leave Saturday on a tour of several weeks, during which he will wrestle some of the best men in the southwest.

DeVora is the opposite of Clingman in build. Whereas the local man is smooth muscled and has a slightly stent appearance, DeVora looks like a page from Physical Culture magazine.

DeVora is matched with Jack Ross for Friday night, and all who see him tonight will be moved to pity for the Shreveport dude. Without exaggeration, the newcomer is the most powerful looking man who ever came to this city, and his facial makeup qualifies him to rank with Dutch Mantel in ferocity. Those who think this is ballyhoo have an incomplete education in what woodchopping does for the human anatomy.

EAST GAMES NOT VITAL ON TURKEY DAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 26. (AP) An even dozen games comprise the eastern football slate for Thanksgiving day, but only four of them involve major eleven.

Heading the list by right of age will be the 37th clash at Philadelphia between Pennsylvania and Cornell. Penn., because of the Indian sign it has had on Cornell in recent years, perhaps will be a slight favorite but the "big Red" eleven from Ithaca is conceded a good chance to upset the Quakers.

Ranking not far behind this game will be the duels of Columbia and Syracuse at New York; Brown and Colgate at Providence and Pitt and Penn State at Pittsburgh. Word that Ralph Hewitt probably will not get into the Columbia lineup except in an emergency has made Syracuse a favorite over the Lions. Colgate seems to have an edge on Brown as does Pitt on Penn State.

Among the smaller college attractions are contests between Lehigh and Lebanon Valley; Canisius and T. Thomas; Penn Military and Delaware; Springfield and Vermont; Gettysburg and Franklin and Marshall; Grove City and Thiel; and Marshall and West Virginia Wesleyan. Johns Hopkins looks to be in for a bad beating from Maryland of the Southern conference.

Jack Oakie To Be In Preview at The Rex Tonight

Here's a laugh! Jack Oakie in "The Sap From Syracuse" at the Rex theatre, starting with the 11:45 preview tonight and lasting for two days.

Those who saw Jack Oakie in his first starring picture, "The Social Lion," will need no introduction to the grin and chin boy, nor any other inducement to set a date to see this hilarious highlight of the movie season in town.

Oakie is the "cheerful giver" of fun whose first appearance in "Close Harmony" was an instantaneous signal of joy to come. In "The Sap From Syracuse," he has, by far, his best role to date, as the native son who "thinks the world is his oyster." Off to see Europe, he meets a lovely charmer in distress, in the person of Ginger Rogers, the cuddlesome cutie of "Foghorn Man of Manhattan." Mistaken for a prominent engineer, traveling engineer, Oakie cannot convince Ginger of his real identity. He is feebly and rescued by everyone on the ship.

Ginger engages him to rescue her from two fake engineers who are trying to obtain possession of her mine the owner in the Balkans. How Oakie proves his sincerity, and helps and wins the girl is a rousing series of bright moments.

"The Sap From Syracuse" is adapted from the stage comedy of the same name that kept New York theaters going in spasms of mirth during the run of the play last season. Many supporting players in the screen version of the fun-bit were members of the original New York stage cast. And a Edward Sutherland, who played Oakie in "The Social Lion," directed this one too.

No Oakie starring picture is complete without a song put over by the star in his own inimitable way. Those who remember his singing of "Alma Mammy" in "Sweetie" will look forward to hearing him sing "I Wish I Could Sing a Love Song" in "The Sap From Syracuse."

They play golf too much and they do not play enough stiff competitive golf.

There is a curiously interesting composite view of the failure of the California ladies to get a representative farther than the third round in the recent national championship at the Los Angeles Country club after a brace showing in the qualifying test, in which 19 of the 32 were Californians.

The latter half of this composite opinion is the expression of a very thoughtful young professional, Harry Pressler, of the San Gabriel Country club, and husband of the feminine golfer generally regarded as the best on the Pacific Coast—Mrs. Leona Pressler.

In an interesting article in "The Country Club Magazine," Harry says, among other things:

LONGHORNS IN SERIOUS MOOD —TITLE LOOMS

AUSTIN, Nov. 26. (AP)—The Longhorns of the University of Texas today continued light work preparing for their game tomorrow with Texas A. & M.

Should the Steers defeat the Aggies, it will give them a clear title to the 1930 flag but if the Aggies bulldoze the Steers, it again will throw the race into a muddle.

Coach Clyde Littlefield, head mentor of the Bovines, said he would depart from the time-honored custom observed at Texas of starting seniors in the final game, and would start only those last year men who have earned a place on the regular eleven. The only seniors expected to begin the fray were Dexter Shelley, captain, and Peterson and Vining, ends. The rest of the team will be composed of juniors and sophomores with the possible exceptions of Perkins, halfback, who may replace Stafford, sophomore.

University officials said that if the weather was clear, every one of the 48,000 seats in the huge horseshoe would be occupied. Warning is broadcast to all fans to be on their guard against peddlers of counterfeit tickets. Last Saturday several spurious "passbooks" were sold to unsuspecting fans at the T. C. U. Baylor game and it was feared similar attempts might be made at the game tomorrow.

The game will be called at 2 o'clock.

the tournament, and the ablest player of the "short game," unless it was Mrs. Dorothy Caspary Hurd.

"If I were to rate the players on their performance in the national championship," said Harry, "I would put Mrs. Collett first; Miss Mavis Leonard, Miss Van Wie third, Mrs. Maureen Osgitt, Mrs. Bill and Mrs. Pressler in a tie for fourth, and Mrs. Hurd next in line."

Old Mystery Solved
SAN PEDRO, Calif., Nov. 26. (AP)—An old mystery there might have been as to what happens to old silk stockings was cleared up today at Los Angeles harbor after an inquiring reporter had watched the Japanese motor liner "Tatsuta" near take on her cargo.

Five tons of old stockings in burlap sacks were taken into the hold. In Japan the stockings will be unraveled, wound on bobbins and re-manufactured into other wearing apparel.

"Butte Beauty"

His deeds on the fourth or fifth team might have gone on unnoticed by anyone save Knute Rockne but Joe Savoldi withdrew from the university and now Dan Hanley, above, the "Butte Beauty," is in there "taking his cuts" at fullback for Notre Dame. Hanley rose to stardom in one game, that with Drake. With Larry (Moon) Mullins, this 195-pound youth of 6 feet 11-2 inches will handle Notre Dame's fullbacking in the remaining games.

Much Humor In Gibson Picture

Humor is an essential part of all good western pictures, according to Hoot Gibson, whose latest Universal thriller, "The Long, Long Trail," comes to the State theatre Thursday only.

Gibson has created his own type of western picture, which is always well spiced with humor and free from melodramatic exaggeration.

"The old west had its own peculiar brand of humor," said Gibson, "and we are merely serving the interests of reality when we inject it into pictures. Western humor is a rule was of a dry nature, well illustrated, for instance, in Owen Winstone's 'Virginian'."

"Foreplay also had its part in cowboy life, the jests being blithesome, but harmless. Many of them may sound childish when scrutinized," said Gibson, "but they all go to make up the general atmosphere."

In addition to humor, there is plenty of action in "The Long, Long Trail." Gibson is at his hand-on-jaw best in this picture. On the romantic side there is charming Betty Eilers, and the strong cast includes Kathryn McGuire, James Mason, Archie Rice, Walter Brennan and Howard Trussell.

The picture was directed by Asa Gray. It is spot's first picture.

City Bowling League To Be Ready To Open Schedule by End of Week

Bowling 831, 855, and 835, the Gordon's stores team made it three straight from the Cabot company team in the matches played Tuesday night at the Pampa Bowling alley. The Diamond Shop team won two out of three games from Cal Farley's bowlers, and the Foxworth-Galbraith team did likewise to the Schneider hotel bowlers.

It was announced Tuesday night that the City League would be organized and ready to go by Friday. To date, only three teams have signed in this league. A match that will create interest is slated for 8 o'clock Friday night when Kahl and Thompson play Powell and Husak.

SOUTH GRID MENU TO BE VERY TASTY

ATLANTA, Nov. 26. (AP) — The South will find both traditional tests and championship conflicts in its Thanksgiving football fireworks.

Surging toward a second perfect conference season, Tulane's wave will charge against a Louisiana State eleven at New Orleans primed for its best effort of the season.

Alabama is reported in rare trim to repulse Georgia at Birmingham and keep its slate unstilled by defeat.

Kentucky is en route to Knoxville to throw Shipwreck Kelly and a confident team against its ancient foe, the Volunteers of Tennessee, who showed stanch Saturday in trimming Vanderbilt.

Virginia Military is making sweeping line-up changes for the Virginia Poly classic at Roanoke. Virginia will meet North Carolina at Charlottesville, where the series of its struggle with Georgia Tech as a major factor in determining the success or failure of its 1930 campaign. Duke is resolved to pull a comeback and trounce Washington and Lee. Mississippi will meet the Mississippi Aggies and Auburn.

Haley Writes for Nature Magazine

CANYON, Nov. 26. (Special) — The December issue of "Nature Magazine" is devoted to Texas and one of the principal articles in it is written by J. Evetta Haley, a member of the class of 1925 of the West Texas State Teachers college.

Haley is well known throughout the entire Panhandle region because of his work as field secretary of the Panhandle-Plains Historical society.

"Longhorn, Lasso and Lariat" which is the subject of the current article which deals with the picturesque phases of the cattle industry in Texas. Photographs of scenes on the X. I. T. and Mustang ranches, of Colonel Charles Goodnight standing by a magnificent buffalo head, and the Panhandle's windmills, illustrate the article.

MUSEUM IS INSPECTED

CANYON, Nov. 26. (Special) — Fifteen visitors from Dawn, Texas, were conducted through the museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical society here this week. They were school children and their teachers and they made the excursion as a part of their study of Texas history and government.

They were Paul Bagwell, Doyle Christian, T. H. Weatherhead, Rufus Mayfield, Myrtle McGovern, Louis Mayfield, Vivian Bowers, Lois Barby, Lois Anderson, Lois Smith, Billy Harris, Reuben Mayfield, Ed Brown, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Morris and Ojasa Morris.

Following their inspection of the museum, the visitors were conducted over all parts of the plant of the West Texas State Teachers college, in order to understand something of the purposes for which the Texas legislature appropriated money.

GOLF EVENT CANCELED BY PROMOTER

AVALON, Santa Catalina Island, Calif., Nov. 26. (AP) — The annual Santa Catalina Island open tournament, substantial link in Southern California's golden trail of winter golf, has been canceled by William Wrigley, Jr., chewing gum manufacturer, who had posted $7,500 prize money for the Dec. 11 to 13 contest.

"There is a definite lack of interest in open golf," the Chicago sportsman said last night in announcing the cancellation. "Which this can be attributed to the present unrest, to too much open tournament competition in the past, or to disagreements between professionals, I am not prepared to say. But there is a lack of interest and rather than have a tournament that is not a success, I prefer to drop the plans entirely for this year."

Cancellation of the Glendale and Long Beach tournaments recently also was a moving factor in calling off the Catalina open, Wrigley said. With the Glendale and Long Beach contests off the board, a full month would have elapsed between play at Catalina and in the season Long Beach open.

Salem College Boys Will Have To Shave Beards

SALEM, W. Va., Nov. 26. (AP) — Being ready to die for dear Old Rutgers is all right under certain circumstances and in certain places, but the Salem college boys have got to shave.

That, substantially, was the view expressed by irate and shocked college officials yesterday, when they were confronted in class by a score or more of bearded grid players. After another defeat Saturday, the players pledged not to shave until a victory was won. They have one more game this season—Thanksgiving day.

Today, on strict orders from the faculty, they were helping to relieve unemployment among Salem barbers.

Bomb Plotter Makes Confession

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26. (AP) — Thomas E. Boyle, 24, San Francisco bookkeeper, was being held here today for Spokane, Wash., officers after confessing he had transported a trunk containing 300 sticks of dynamite from San Francisco to the Washington city as an accomplice of Henry A. Rice in the unsuccessful plot to blow up the Spokane Chronicle building.

Boyle surrendered here yesterday to police who had been hunting Isle's alleged accomplice. He, a bank night watchman, who in 1927 was acquitted of plotting to bomb the Spokane newspaper, was arrested here Monday after ownership of a history in the dynamite trunk had been traced to him.

Boyle told officers that he had hired him for $250 and expenses to plant the bomb in the Spokane newspaper building. The bookkeeper was quoted by officers as saying he had confided that the one had operated a prosperous bootlegging establishment in Spokane but that a campaign by the newspaper had put him out of business. Boyle said he had furnished the bomb plot for revenge.

Efficient Girls Just Will Wed Lawmaker Finds

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26. (AP) — Representative Otis Schuyler Bland is discouraged.

Five years ago the Virginia democrat brought Miss Russell Palmer Burcher of Newport News, to be his secretary. She was efficient; but shortly she was married to Paul Kvale, the Minnesota farmer-labor representative, who then was his father's secretary.

So Miss Marie Clerk, also of Newport News, took her place. She was competent; but last summer she wedded Republican Representative Murphy of Ohio, who had an office a few doors down from Bland's corridor.

Friends today were informed the Virginian was returning this session with a masculine secretary.

TROUSERS ARE MIXED

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 26. (AP) — A bunch of the boys were whooping it up in a Curritville pool room last night. It was pay day! Suddenly six bandits, each armed with two pistols, bounded through a side door with the course demand that "everybody stick 'em up!"

Twenty-five patrons were lined against a wall and forced to disrobe trousers, shirts, shoes—all were "mixed" tied in bundles and scattered about the place. Then the bandits took $500 from their victims and fled in an automobile.

City Gets Into Court
HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 26. (AP)—It is a cat a domestic animal or a beast of prey?
Jacob Roome, who killed R. L. Mooreman's cat to protect a brood of chicks; and was fined $10 in magistrate's court, contended it was a predatory animal.
Mooreman, who had him arrested, said it was a domestic pet.
Now means not applied and the question is to be decided in appellate court.

Eastern Area Has First Bit Of Real Winter

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. (AP)—The first real cold snap of the season, accompanied in many places by snow, prevailed today throughout the eastern states.

Temperatures began to fall yesterday when a bitter west wind, which at times reached a velocity of 45 miles an hour, swept the seaboard.

A drop of 16 degrees from a comfortable 50 to 34 brought the mercury in New York City to the lowest point for the season.

Brief snow flurries occurred in some parts of the metropolitan area.

Many sections of upstate New York experienced snow or cold rains with temperatures at or near freezing.

At Jamestown snow filled the air for 14 hours but melted as it fell.

Three inches of snow fell in south central Pennsylvania in a sudden storm during which the temperature fell to 14 degrees above zero.

In many counties highway departments were taxed to keep roads open.

At Westerly, R. I. Walter J. Brown, a fisherman, was drowned in the Pawcatuck river when the high wind capsized his sailboat.

ATLANTA, Nov. 28. (AP)—Winter inaugurated in the South today.

Virginia experienced stiff breezes on the coast, a scattering of snow and a temperature drop in the southwest to 31, the season's low.

Near-freezing readings ruled in the Carolinas and the mercury was drifting through the low thirties in Georgia and Tennessee.

After a night in which frost was predicted for the extreme northern sector of the state, Florida anticipated a return to normal temperatures today.

Police at Ludlow, Ky., entered the name of a man known only as "Riley" on their records as the first victim of the winter in northern Kentucky.

He was found dead of exposure in a shack along the Ohio river.

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT OONROE, Nov. 28. (AP)—District Judge S. W. Dean of Navasota today gave an instructed verdict for the defendant in the Ouster trial here of County Judge A. W. Morris, charged with official misconduct.

Judge Dean said the evidence produced against Morris was insufficient to remove the suspended judge from office.

Notice of appeal was filed by attorneys for the plaintiffs.

Prisoner Burned LIBERTY, Nov. 28. (AP)—Fire which broke out last night in a cell on the third floor of the Liberty county jail burned one prisoner severely and for a time threatened the entire building.

Firemen who rescued the prisoner said he had set fire to a mattress.

ROGER W. BABSON SAYS NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING PAYS CLEVELAND, Ohio—A newspaper advertisement published in five cities at a cost of $3,000 brought 222 inquires to the Babson statistical organization for every single reply received from a $3,000 half hour on the Columbia Radio network, Roger W. Babson, business statistician and forecaster, told an audience here recently. The broadcast was from 8:30 to 9:00 p.m., Saturday, May 18, Babson said. A well known orchestra played and there was a five-minute talk on the Babson service. The result was 16 inquires. Thus the same money spent in newspaper advertising brought 3552 replies as compared to 16 replies from radio advertising. SYLVESTER McCARTY, NATIONALLY KNOWN ADVERTISING AUTHORITY, MAKES THIS COMMENT ON THE BABSON TEST. "As a matter of fact, there are many kinds of advertising which have paid tremendous dividends, but after all, newspaper advertising—the old standby—is the most effective of all. It is so common that many of us at times forget its great virtues and think of something more theatrical. Actual figures show that there is more money spent by wise advertisers in newspaper advertising than in any other kind. These facts make quite convincing the test of Roger W. Babson."
