CONCESSION MAN BEATEN AT HOUSTON

W. B. Boyd Believed to Be Fatally Injured

HOUSTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—W. B. Boyd, 35, owner of several concessions at the South Texas exposition, was beaten in the head with a claw hammer while he slept early today. Police were at his home for several hours, but they had never known him to drink intoxicants.

He was found unconscious lying on his back on an army cot by C. L. Cassidy, one of his employes. Boyd's skull was fractured and his head badly beaten.

On the ground nearby was a bloody hammer. A key ring, also found lying on the ground, bore the keys to Boyd's trunk and automobile. In the trunk officers found $100.00 in money and a watch with a $20 gold piece for a charm.

Investigators also found a bottle containing whiskey on the ground. Carnal workers, some of whom had known Boyd for years, said they had never known him to drink intoxicants.

F. Tatchell, a weight guesser employed by Boyd, said he went to Boyd's living quarters about 1 a. m. Boyd was asleep and Tatchell awakened him to talk business, he said. They talked for a few minutes and Tatchell left.

Carnal workers told officers that Boyd went to Besant's yesterday to see about renting space for his concessions there after the exposition closes here. Police were questioning a woman who went to Besant with him.

Woman Jumps From Steamer

GALVESTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—A verdict of suicide was returned by a justice of the peace in the case of Mrs. Gray Leavelle, 45, said to have jumped from the steamer Moscow and drowned about 10 miles off Galveston today.

Captain B. W. Mook, master of the ship, told Justice of the Peace R. M. Kupsa, the woman jumped into the sea. He said she left notes which asked that a sister, Mrs. George R. Gillette of San Antonio, and John H. Leavelle of Tulsa, Okla., be notified. She had booked passage from New York to Galveston.

Woods to Use Telephone in His Relief Program

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—The long distance telephone has been pressed into service by Chairman Woods of the President's employ ment committee in an effort to lighten activities everywhere.

He put in a call to each state capital yesterday, talking to 44 governors and the representatives of four more, to advance the use of his office as a clearing house for information on how unemployment and suffering are being fought in different localities and under different conditions.

Woods obtained the clearing news that a great many states already had exchanged this information and were fully prepared to meet every angle of the eventualities which face them during the winter. The governors agreed, he said, to limit in to him accounts of the measures they were taking and results obtained, for use in guiding states which are just now seeking to establish relief measures.

The director appointed two more regional heads of federal employment work, placing William Phillips of Boston, former minister to Canada in charge of the New England work and Captain J. P. Lacey, of Dallas, at the head of government activities in the southwest.

He also chose Lewis H. Brown, New York president of the John Hancock life insurance company, at the head of the group correlating the employment work of the large industries.

Woods said information obtained from his estimates that unemployment was primarily a problem for the larger cities and industrial centers. Except for regions where the summer drought had serious conditions agricultural unemployment is not so severe.

Dr. V. E. von Brunow, county health officer, was in Lufkin Wednesday in connection with the scarlet fever epidemic.

ARRAIGNMENT NEXT MONDAY

Trial of Cattlemen Will Be This Term

Arraignment for Emmett Thompson and Carl Hefer, under indictment for murder in connection with the slaying of Homer L. Crabtree, was set for Monday morning at 10 o'clock by Judge W. R. Ewing this morning.

Trial for one of the men will probably begin Nov. 24, the court announced. However, the definite date of the trial will be set at the arraignment proceeding Monday. Bond for the two cattlemen, now being held in the county jail, is also due to be determined. Whether the nature of the offense charged against the two men would warrant bail is also a question now being discussed by state and defense attorneys and the court. In the event bail is denied the defendants are expected to institute habeas corpus proceedings.

Fred Weeks, special prosecutor retained by Crabtree's relatives and District Attorney C. G. Eagles, said this morning that they would demand a speedy trial and would strenuously fight any attempt to have the case continued until the next term of court, which does not convene until next spring. Judge Ewing announced that the case would be set for trial this term of court. Thompson and Hefer were indicted jointly by the grand jury yesterday on murder charges. Judge Ewing expressed the opinion that trials for the two men would require the last two weeks of this term.

Counsel for the two men have not yet been announced, although they have been negotiating with two prominent Panhandle lawyers.

Funeral services for Crabtree, attended by many of his Pampa friends and acquaintances, are being held this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, McLean, at 3 o'clock with the Rev. W. A. Erwin in charge.

Santa Fe Is Asking Building Permit on Plains

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—The Panhandle and Santa Fe railway, a subsidiary of the Santa Fe system, has filed application with the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to build 20 miles of new railroad in Hansford and Hutchinson counties, Texas, and to operate by trackage rights over the line of the Rock Island in Hutchinson and Moore counties with which it would connect.

The proposed construction is part of the Santa Fe extension which will give it its own route from Spearman, the present terminus of its line, to Amarillo territory.

Negro Is Killed and Eight Other Persons Badly Hurt at Rusk

RUSK, Nov. 7. (AP)—One person was killed and eight were hurt, some of them probably fatally, when a two-story frame building, being converted into a ward for negro patients, collapsed at the Rusk State hospital today.

Wade Foreman, of Rusk, a negro, was killed outright, and the injured were: John L. Cook of Rusk, construction foreman. Stan Cook, Rusk. Tom Harriot, Rusk. J. D. Tannehill, Austin. Mr. Lowden, Austin.

B. J. Johnson, Rusk. Lee Callahan (negro), Rusk. Weber Haynes (negro), Rusk. John L. Cook's condition was said to be critical and Stan Cook's injuries were serious.

About 3 men were working on the building, said to have been built more than 4 years ago.

E. B. Snelling, general contractor on the work, said concrete was being poured on the second floor when the south wall fell in and the North wall fell out. A number of the workmen saved their lives when they ran away from the building after the first wall crashed.

The most severely injured were taken to a hospital at Jacksonville.

Murray's Father Will Give Oath To Governor Son

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 7. (AP)—When W. H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray is inducted officially into the office of governor next January his 91-year-old father, Uriah Dow Thomas Murray of Bethany, will administer the oath of office.

Murray applied to the secretary of state today for a notary of public commission for his father.

"I am asking the commission for the express purpose of having my father swear me into office as governor," he told newspapermen.

Mine Blast Will Be Expensive

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 7. (AP)—The explosion at Millfield Wednesday in which 79 persons were killed and 20 injured, will cost the state of Ohio between $800,000 and $750,000, the state industrial commission estimated today.

The commission started at once the payment of death awards. Under the compensation law the state will pay the maximum award of $6,500 to the families of each person killed, which will cost $513,000. In addition, the cost of the funeral of each victim is paid from the state compensation fund.

After flying formation over the funeral procession for J. A. Cliff, Art Daves, plotting Dutch Swartz's Swallow biplane, was forced down north of the cemetery this afternoon by engine trouble.

SWITCHMAN TO BE TRIED

A. C. Dale Will Go to Trial on Theft Charge

Trial of A. C. Dale, former Santa Fe switchman under six indictments for theft in connection with the Phillips Petroleum company, was set for Nov. 19 this morning by Judge W. R. Ewing in 31st district court.

Dale was indicted jointly with H. J. Shadwick, also former Santa Fe switchman, who was convicted on theft charges and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by a jury yesterday. The punishment assessed was the minimum allowed by the law and the maximum asked by Fred Weeks, special prosecutor retained by the Phillips Petroleum company.

Will Saunders, attorney for Shadwick, announced this morning that the case would be appealed to the higher court. Shadwick is expected to seek release by posting bond under the Court of Criminal Appeals decision on his case.

After conferring with state and defense attorneys, Judge Ewing announced that Walter Moon will probably not be brought to trial this term of court. It was suggested that his bond be placed at $1,500. Total amount of his present bond is $4,800, or $1,000 per case. Shadwick may be tried on five other indictments charging him in connection with the theft of gasoline. Total amount of his bond at present is $5,000, or $1,000 per case. State and defense attorneys are considering reducing the bonds of both Moon and Shadwick.

The indictment against Dale shows that, the same witnesses that testified in the Shadwick case for the state will be summoned to testify against Dale. Both men were indicted for the same offense and the evidence will be practically the same.

As far as cases are concerned, the end of the present court term was in sight this morning when Judge Ewing set a number of cases for trial during the next ten days. These will keep the court busy until the Dale trial opens, and at the conclusion of the latter case, Emmett Thompson and Carl Hefer are due to go on trial on charges of murder. These two cases are expected to consume the remainder of the present term.

Cases set for trial next week: Bill Colner, robbery; W. B. Probst, burglary; C. C. Weeks, burglary; C. C. Langley, possession of liquor; Lester L. Smith, forgery, and any other jail cases overlooked.

The court adjourned this afternoon until Monday.

REPUBLICANS GET BARE MAJORITY IN HOUSE BUT CONTROL THREATENED BY INDEPENDENTS

By the Associated Press. The Republican party retained a bare majority of one in the house in Tuesday's elections on the basis of complete, but unofficial returns.

The reelection of Richard Yates as congressman-at-large from Illinois brought the Republican total, barring upset caused by recounts and contests to 218, the exact figure necessary for a majority.

The Democratic total was 216, with one Farmer-Labor completing the membership of 435.

Meanwhile, Senator Brookhart, Independent Republican, Iowa, threatened the narrow Republican margin in the senate with an announcement he would vote with the Democrats on organization, if that party supported a legislative program satisfactory to him.

Other midwestern senators, he said, have adopted the same attitude, including Senator Shipstead, Farmer-Labor, Minn.

DR. PROVENCE AT CROCKETT DURING NIGHT

Mental Condition Is Blamed For His Trouble

CROCKETT, Nov. 7. (AP)—Dr. E. W. Provence, president of the Burleigh college of Greenville, who disappeared in Dallas Monday, waited here late today in a hotel for Mrs. Provence, who was en route to join him.

Dr. Provence was found by Will L. Ellis, Houston insurance man, walking along the highway towards Houston, six miles from Crockett, and brought here about noon. He had spent the night at a hotel here, but left early this morning after telling guests he probably would go to Palestine.

Ellis had heard about the missing educator's leaving Crockett and when he overtook him on the road recognized him as the man sought. "Come and get in the car with me. Mrs. Provence is en route to Crockett to meet you," Ellis told Dr. Provence. Ellis said the doctor entered the car readily and said he was "perfectly willing" to join Mrs. Provence. He had little to say en route to town, Ellis said.

"I am very tired," Dr. Provence replied to those who sought to question him.

CROCKETT, Nov. 7. (AP)—Expressing the belief that if he could not "get away from teaching" he would have a nervous breakdown, Dr. E. W. Provence, president of Burleigh college at Greenville, missing since Monday when he disappeared while on a trip to Dallas, spent last night in a hotel here.

Delicious and unable to make known his identity, Dr. Provence appeared at a farm house near Crockett and asked for something to eat. The report said. He was taken to a hotel where he was recognized from pictures and a description published in newspapers.

Mrs. Provence and Dr. E. F. Goode left here early today to bring the college president to his home here. Dr. Goode expressed the opinion Dr. Provence suffered a slight attack of aphasia.

Dr. Provence was last seen in Dallas. (See PRESIDENT, Page 8)

Downs Warns Against Leaving Things in Cars

Thieves were busy last night rifling automobiles, stealing a bicycle, and anything else they could get their hands on, according to police.

Two valuable diamond rings belonging to E. L. Reeves, 312 E. Brown street, were stolen out of a Ford coupe parked on North Tyler. Albert Roby of McLean suffered the loss of his overcoat which he left in his car.

The bicycle which was stolen belonged to R. L. Speck.

Chief J. I. Downs today urged all residents and visitors to lock their cars before leaving them parked on the streets. "If you have any valuables in your car, thieves will take them, and if you haven't anything worth taking, they'll take your car," he said.

Cal Farley of Amarillo was a visitor here last night.

He Ate Goldfish and a Canary

The peculiar appetite of 18-month-old Floyd Foght of New Orleans has given his mother, Mrs. Charles Foght, and New Orleans doctors some uneasy moments. First Floyd swallowed a three-inch live goldfish from the family goldfish bowl. He was hurried to a hospital and his life was saved; but after he got out he opened the family bird cage and tried to swallow the canary whole, his mother getting to him just in time. Mrs. Foght and her son are shown here.

ANGERED BY NEW HIGHWAY, FARMER BLOCKS IT WITH SHOTGUN-ERECTS FENCE

FORT WORTH, Nov. 7. (AP)—Carl Yates had promised to come to Fort Worth today to talk with Walter Morris, assistant district attorney, before resuming his vigil with a shotgun over state highway No. 121, which he barricaded yesterday with two wire fences to afford a passageway for cattle between two pastures on his farm near Grapevine, Tarrant county.

Yates rolled up the fences last night, because he had no red signals to warn motorists, and retired to his home. There deputy sheriffs served him with a warrant on a charge of obstructing a public highway. He made bond.

The farmer put up the fence on the newly constructed highway because of what he termed the "injustice of the commissioners' court" in not paying him a fair price for his land and damages incident to opening the new road through his land.

"I will put up the fence again unless they pay me," he said.

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—All state highways are now open and will remain open.

That was the rejoinder of Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, when asked what he was going to do about the threat of Carl Yates, Grapevine farmer, to resume his blockade of route 121 between Dallas and Fort Worth.

Asked what course he would follow should Yates again establish his shotgun and wire offensive, Gilchrist said he "would cross that bridge when I come to it."

The attorney general's department stood ready to back Gilchrist. Rice Tilley, assistant attorney general, said that he would advise the highway department, if asked, to dispatch patrolmen to the scene and open up the road.—This action would be followed by an injunction to prevent anyone blocking the highway.

Tilley said this practice had been followed in a similar case in Denton county a few weeks ago.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7. (AP)—Judge Walter Olsson in civil district court today held that the city could legally assess a private automobile for impact taxes without filing a civil suit or giving formal notice of seizure. The suit was considered of far reaching importance. It was given in the suit of Max Blanchard, whose automobile was seized by police to satisfy delinquent taxes. His counsel gave notice of an appeal.

SHIPMENT OF CASH TAKEN FROM MAELS

Roads Are Blocked As Officers Hunt Robbers

OAKLAND, Calif., Nov. 7. (AP) Southern Pacific passenger train No. 36, bound from Oakland to Tracy, Calif., was held up by five armed men at Nobel today and robbed of an undetermined amount of cash and valuable mail. The amount was reported variously at $40,000 to $55,000 in cash and 10 to 15 bags of registered mail.

Nobel, a small settlement a few miles north of Berkeley, is not a regular train stop.

A train boarded the train at Berkeley as a passenger and held up the engineer and fireman at Nobel and stopped the train. There he was joined by four other men waiting in a motor car. While one man held train officials at bay, the others rifled the mail and baggage car.

The sedan carried two mounted machine guns. One of the robbers had a shotgun and the others carried automatic pistols. After taking all they considered of value they escaped in the automobile.

Peace authorities broadcast an appeal for aid and closed all roads for miles around.

On the train was reported to be $40,000 to $55,000 in cash consigned by the Federal Reserve bank in San Francisco to the American Trust company branch in Pittsburgh for the Columbia Steel works there to use in meeting its payroll.

The sedan used by the robbers was stolen last night from an Oakland garage. Two men held up Robert Layton, attendant, and picked out a large car. Layton gave police good descriptions of the men.

Brazil Has Bright Prospects

Dr. Getulio Vargas, who became head of the Brazilian government following the revolution which he led, has announced he would step out of the office as soon as he has effected a substantial government to the nation could hold a Democratic election.

Altho Dr. Vargas has caused considerable money to be spent on munitions and has brought about a number of deaths during the three weeks the revolution lasted, we see that he is keeping his promise to the Brazilian people.

The present administration is attempting to establish a representative form of government and to clean out any corruption found in the government offices. As soon as this is done, the leader plans to step out of the office and let the people choose their own chief executive.

We did approve of the revolutionary method of gaining the end but the outcome and the prospects of the future of the South American nations look good. We hope our Southern neighbor will settle down and develop the country in a proper and orderly manner.

CITIES ARE CURSED WITH NOISE

Driven to the wall by the incessant pounding of riveting machines, the rattle of overhead trains, the clinking and screeching of motor traffic, the whistling of ocean liners and tug boats, New York has begun a drive to reduce the noises in that city.

A survey has been made by sound experts and these men have determined the per cent that each kind of noise contributes to the din.

Buildings are being made more sound proof so that the office workers may get more work done. It is said that one cannot be heard talking in a natural tone on the streets in some parts of that city.

That city is now devising means to bring about a reduction so that the nerves of the city workers will not be thrown to such a high pitch.

We who live out here on the Plains may not have all the finest things that the metropolitan centers in the east do but we can lay our heads down at night and sleep in peace without being wakened by the rattling of a street car. We can talk in the natural tone on our street corners and be heard and we don't have to put up with a riveter next to our window while we work.—C.G.

A RESOLVE FOR DRIVERS

There is nothing particularly new in the statement that a tremendous number of people are killed by American automobile traffic every year. The exact figure is sufficiently startling, but all of us, when we get in our cars, reassure ourselves with the notion that we, at least, will never hit anyone; and so we go ahead, driving as we always have driven, secure in our belief that it is only the wildly reckless and selfish driver who ever runs down a pedestrian.

However, there is another way of looking at it that is rather wholesome.

The other day a man was sitting on his front porch, looking out at his little boy, who was playing with some other children in the front yard. The street was a fairly quiet one, not overburdened with traffic as city streets go; but autos passed fairly frequently, and they seemed, to this watcher to be going rather fast. The children ran and skipped about the lawn, and now and then one would carelessly dart out into the street to pick up a ball, or to chase a puppy dog or to evade some other youngster in a game of tag; and the man who was watching them got more and more nervous. "Those autos," he mused to himself, "are traveling pretty fast. Suppose that one of those kids—my kid, for instance—should happen to dart out there at just the wrong time. What would happen? The best driver in the world wouldn't have time to stop, or turn out. And nobody can keep a kid from accidentally getting out in the street once in a while."

So, as he mused, the father got more and more worried about the speed of the autos that dashed by constantly; and then he happened to think that these motorists, after all, probably felt that they were not driving so very fast. They were not exceeding the speed limit. He himself often drove that fast on quiet residential streets.

And then this man formulated a new resolution, to govern his own conduct behind the steering wheel. He resolved that whenever he drove along a street beside which children were playing he would drive as slowly and as carefully as he would want other motorists to drive where his child was playing.

And that isn't a bad resolution for every driver. You never know what a child will do. A speed that is perfectly safe on a clear street can be hazardous on a street lined with playing children. When you drive along such a street try copying this man's resolution—and see if it doesn't make you go a little more slowly.—NAB.

Sixty of the remaining precincts were in down state Illinois, where Yates has been running strong, while the other 29 were in Cook county where a Democratic landslide gave Nesbit his earlier lead.

Probe of Mine Blast Follows Large Funeral

MILLFIELD, O., Nov. 7. (AP)—Millfield today laid its dead back in the earth that killed them while officials began investigations to determine the cause of the mine explosion which claimed at least 79 lives.

Federal, state and county officials each sought to learn what caused the blast in the number six mine of the Sunday Creek coal company and the release of gas which filled the underground tunnels Wednesday afternoon. Their actual inspections, however, probably will not be started before late today or tomorrow, when the last traces of the fatal fumes are expected to be cleared from the depths of the mine.

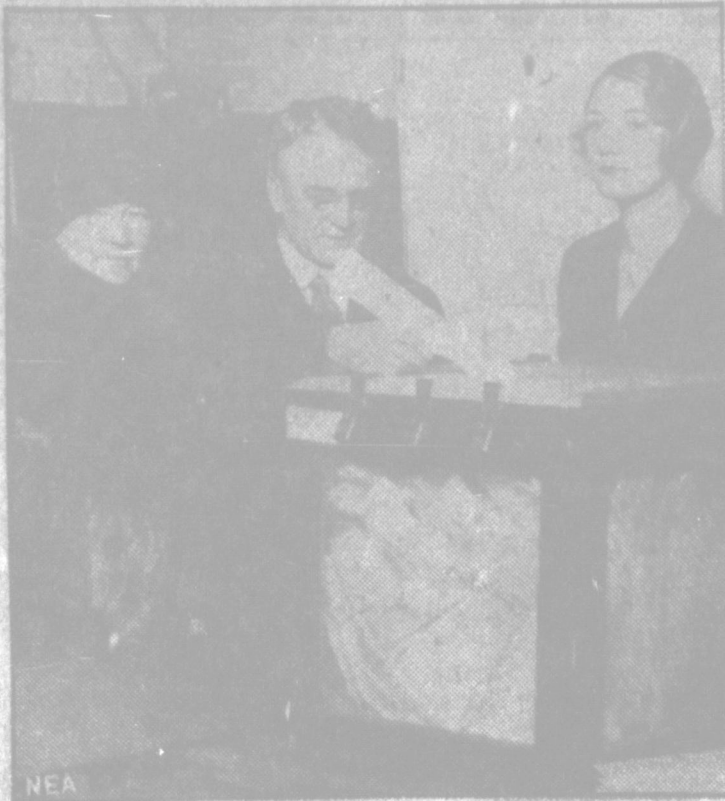

Scores of hushed funeral processions were the only evidences of the disaster today. The feverish activity of the last two days, the constant work of rescue crews, patrols of the national guard, dispensing of coffee and blankets and tension of the waiting crowds had given way. The guardsmen withdrew last night together with most of the Red Cross Salvation Army and other relief workers as their tasks were ended.

W. E. Smith, head of the Ohio bureau of mines said there were two possible causes of the explosion—ignition of either gas or coal dust. An open flame could ignite the gas, while coal dust could be set off only by an arc light, he said.

Smith also asserted that most of the dead succumbed from black damp rather than directly from the gas.

There still was a possibility that the toll would be increased today. Some of the 20 injured miners were not expected to live and it was feared a few more bodies that might never be recovered remained in the mine. All of those recovered had been identified and claimed last night by their relatives, who were permitted to pass through the three make-shift morgues late yesterday.

Medical Minds Fail in Effort To Save Girl

MT. CLEMENS, Mich., Nov. 7. (AP)—The best minds of the medical profession and the volunteer aid of hundreds of persons who offered home remedies failed to save Virginia Mae Coppins, 19-year-old high school girl who is dead here of the hiccoughs after more than a year of suffering from the malady.

In September, 1929, she was seized with her first attack while in a Detroit hospital for an operation. The malady apparently was checked after 33 days of almost constant hiccoughing. During one of her attacks in succeeding months she was visited by thousands of physicians who were in Detroit to attend the national convention of the American Medical Association. Her case was regarded by no less than 3,000 medical men.

Four weeks ago an attack began which lasted two weeks, and the attack which brought death yesterday began a week ago. During her final fight against the baffling malady her temperature reached 107, with a pulse of 140 and respiration of 40.

The hiccoughing was caused by a spasmodic contraction of the diaphragm brought about through the peculiar reaction of a nerve. Physicians believed that an operation might bring relief but did not perform one because of the girl's generally delicate health and a weak heart which induced inflammation of the brain.

During the girl's illness her parents received hundreds of telegrams and letters from persons who offered "sure cures" ranging from sudden fright to liberal dosage of snuff, salt sugar and raw clay. One man came in a taxicab from Cleveland to her home in East Detroit with a patent medicine he was certain would cure her.

Heavy Fog on Pacific Coast Is Hurting Shipping

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Bad weather harassed Pacific Coast shipping from Alaska to the Central California coast yesterday and today. A tanker and a freighter grounded in heavy fog near San Francisco. A liner was disabled in the rough water of the gulf of oil tanker Tamalpais grounded inside Alaska.

Lost in a dense fog, the Richfield a reef a quarter of a mile off Rocky Point, 50 miles south of San Francisco, last night. The tug Sea Ranger was standing by early today. The tanker was "beaching" and was forced to shut off her own power last night when plates in the boiler room began to buckle.

The Alaska steamship liner North-western, carrying 81 passengers and crew, lost her rudder in southeastern Alaskan waters early yesterday. Four small fishing boats took her in tow for sheltered anchorage in Dundas bay.

The Matson line freighter Golden Cross grounded at Point Reyes, 30 miles north of San Francisco, in a fog. She was refloated under her own power and returned to San Francisco.

Alleged Lynchers Are Acquitted in South Carolina

WAHALLA, S. C., Nov. 7. (AP)—Ten men charged with murder, conspiracy and assault in connection with the lynching last spring of Allen Green, 52-year-old negro, were acquitted early today.

The jury deliberated two hours. Directed verdicts of not guilty were ordered for seven other indicted on the same charges.

Kansas Race Still In Doubt

TOPEKA, Kans., Nov. 7. (AP)—Election boards in 105 Kansas counties today were engaged in canvassing the regular votes cast in the state general election with little hope of determining the outcome of the most spirited gubernatorial race in years.

The fate of the two candidates, Harry Woodring, Democrat, and Frank "Chief" Haucke, apparently rested with the absentee ballots. Complete unofficial tabulation of Tuesday's vote last night gave Woodring a margin of 28 votes, and it seemed unlikely that today's canvass would so greatly alter the totals as to eliminate as the determining factor approximately 3,500 cast by persons away from their home precincts.

The complete unofficial count last night gave Woodring 214,478 votes; Haucke 214,450; and Dr. John Brinkley, Independent, who ran on a vindication platform, 140,000.

Blind Senator Weathers Storm

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 7. (AP)—Thomas D. Schall, blind since 1907, has guided himself through another political storm to re-election as United States senator from Minnesota.

Loyalty of rural regions, which had saved him in close contests before, packed in the small but safe margin of votes which today insured him victory over Elmer Holdale, Democrat.

Holdale's early lead was built up in the cities. When 3,840 precincts of 3,700 in the state reported, Schall had a lead of 8,265. His aggregate was 285,802, compared with 277,537 for Holdale. Ernest Lundeen, farmer-labor candidate, ran far behind with 175,008 votes, while Charles Lund, an independent dry, received only 19,777.

In the house of representatives, Minnesota's entire list of nine Republicans and one Farmer-Laborite was returned.

Severe Snow Falls in Ontario

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 7. (AP)—The first severe snow storm of the season today found traffic badly hampered in many parts of Ontario. Snow plows worked through the night in an attempt to keep highways open.

The heavy fall was accompanied by a biting northwest wind.

Near London, 14 inches of snow fell and emergency calls were issued for snow plows and workmen to keep streets and highways open. While motor traffic met with difficulty, trains maintained normal schedule.

Wets Have No Immediate Plan To Seek Recall

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Congressman John Garner, Democratic minority leader in the house, said yesterday that newly elected wet members of the house and senate may talk about prohibition a good deal individually but they will not do much legislatively for two or perhaps four years.

Garner, who voted against the 18th amendment, said he believed that wet leaders would have to confer something better to change it or have it repealed, although in two or perhaps four years he thought that modification of the Volstead act would be taken up as a party program.

"For the present," he said, "leaders of both party organizations will be thinking too much about the elections of 1932 and especially those of 1934 to start anything radical. They will treat until sentiment is shown more definitely than it was in the election just ended."

Boy Flier Is Off to Chicago

AMARILLO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Staley Boynton, 18, trying for a new junior transcontinental record, left here at 11 a. m. (CST) today for Chicago, in his plane from the west coast to the east coast. He hoped to spend the night in Chicago.

Former Harvester Loses 3 Fingers

The youth was taken to Worley hospital where an operation was performed yesterday. He is improving at the hospital.

RICE OWLS HAVE SURPRISE PACKAGE FOR HORNED FROGS

HEAVY FIRE NO OBSTACLE TO THE BIRDS

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS, Nov. 7. (AP)—Texas Christian university, undefeated since 1926 and with only two ties to mar its record in eighteen consecutive games, will encounter a serious obstacle in its path to a second straight Southwest conference title tomorrow at Houston. The Rice Institute Owls, surprise package of the current campaign, are primed to give the Horned Frogs a working-over.

Victorious over the mighty University of Texas eleven a fortnight ago and last week easy winners over Sewanee, the Owls promise to supply Cy Leland & Co. with all the opposition the champions can handle. The fact that the Frogs' seven victories so far this season have been scored over comparatively weak opposition while the youthful Rice eleven has been under some heavy fire was expected to react to the Owls' advantage.

The game will bring together the two youngest teams in the conference. Rice, coached by Jack Mesinger and employing a shift to mask a hard running offense, probably will have only two lettermen in its starting lineup. Captain Morgan at guard and Jones at fullback. The Frogs will have three veteran backs, including the illustrious Leland. But an almost complete sophomore line.

The other leading contenders for the 1930 crown, University of Texas and Baylor, clash in the day's second headline attraction at Waco. Texas has one defeat against its record and Baylor must not lose, but either could capture the title by winning its remaining games. The loser tomorrow will be out of the running.

While the day's two major battles are being waged, the Texas Aggies and Southern Methodists will tie up at Owenby Stadium, Dallas. There will be a little at stake. The Aggies, defeated by two conference opponents, have been counted out. The Mustangs, led by Baylor, and beaten by Texas, have only the barest mathematical chance of getting back in the title scramble.

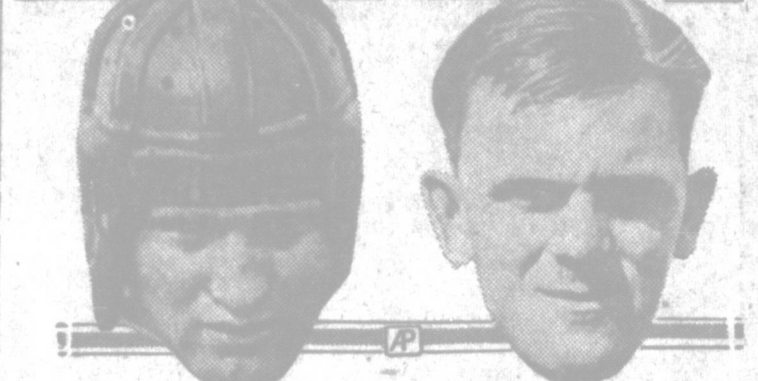

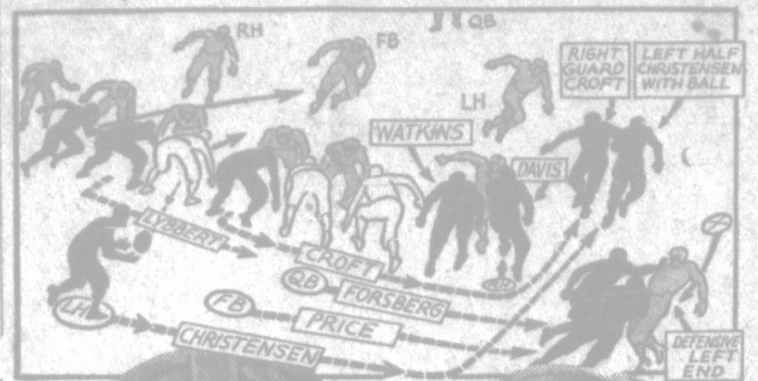

Arkansas for the second week play non-conference, engaging the Oklahoma Aggies at Fayetteville.

Cubs Sign for Irving Jeffries

CHICAGO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Irving Jeffries, young White Sox infielder, has been signed by the Chicago Bruins of the national basketball league, as a forward.

Jeffries was a baseball and basketball star at the University of Kentucky.

OFF-TACKLE PLAY CROWNS UTAH AS KING OF ROCKIES

CAPT. RAY PRICE, fullback, and George Watkins, end, do large share of the blocking in the University of Utah's most successful play—the off-tackle dash.

BY OSSIE SOLEM
DES MOINES (AP)—The strongest play in football is the off-tackle dash. It is the basic play of every running attack. Coaches have different opinions as to how the blocking should be done, but the general theory is the same with them all. Ike Armstrong's Utah teams have swept the Rocky Mountain conference for several years, mostly due to the use of the off-tackle play. The Utes' variation is an off-spring of the old Minnesota off-tackle drive. The Utes come out of a huddle and a shift to land in an unbalanced line with the backs in a Z formation to the strong side. Christensen, left half, is five yards back. The center leads him with a job pass. Davis, right half, teams with

HORNSBY IS EAGER TO BUY ED BAECHT

CHICAGO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Rogers Hornsby, one of the shrewdest of baseball men, has admitted he missed one when he thought Ed Baecht wasn't much of a pitcher, when Baecht asked the Rajah for a job four years ago.

Hornsby yesterday approved a deal with the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast league, in which Baecht, a right-hander, will come to the Cubs in exchange for a bundle of cash and seven players. Catcher John Schulte, infielder, Eddie Farrell, pitcher Al Shenry, outfielder pitcher to be named later, will be turned over to the Angels; at once, and three more will be sent on option.

While Hornsby was leading the St. Louis Cardinals to the 1926 national league title, Baecht asked him for a trial. He said he was a pitcher, but Hornsby was busy and said he didn't have time to bother with the youngster. But for that, Baecht might be a Cardinal, working to make life miserable for Hornsby.

Baecht worked in 40 games last season, winning 26 and losing only 12 decisions. His strikeout record was 187 in 362 innings. He is the fourth pitcher to be obtained since Hornsby assumed charge of the Cubs, Jackie May, Lester Swoelland and Bob Smith having been purchased or procured in trades.

Former Coach Is Held for Bigamy

IOWA CITY, Ia., Nov. 7. (AP)—Charles E. Brooks, former assistant-track coach at the University of Iowa, was at liberty on $1,500 bonds today after being charged with bigamy in justice of the peace B. I. Carter's court.

The former Hawkeye hurdler waived preliminary hearing and posted his own cash bond.

Brooks was discharged Tuesday from his coaching post by E. H. Lauer, director of physical education, when it became known that he had been married twice within the last sixty days. His marriage to Miss Dorothy Coby of Oskaloosa, was performed at Valparaiso, Ind., last Friday. Later it was learned that he had married Mrs. Ethel Held of Iowa City, at Aledo, Ill., Sept. 4.

Failures Fewer in Texas Lately

AUSTIN, Nov. 7.—Number of commercial failures in Texas increased by only one during October as compared to September, though the seasonal tendency is toward an increase of 27 per cent, according to the bureau of business research of the University of Texas. Total liabilities decreased as compared to the previous month.

Comparison with September is not entirely accurate index, however, since defaults during that month though normally the smallest of the year were much greater this year in both number and total indebtedness than in the preceding 30 days. Total liabilities of defaulting companies during October showed approximately a normal increase over August, but the number was 47 per cent greater. August failures were unusually small in number with high average liabilities.

Commercial failures through 1930 have frequently been out of line with normal seasonal developments. As compared to 1929, October defaults were somewhat greater in number and 50 per cent greater in total indebtedness. The ratio of listed assets to liabilities was higher than in 1930, however. One bank failure brings the total for this year up to eight, compared to only two during the same period of 1929.

Insurance Plea Is Before Courts

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—Right of the state insurance commission to fix the commission of fire insurance agents at 20 per cent of the premiums, has been taken under consideration by the third court of civil appeals. The appeal was taken by the Commercial Standard Insurance company of Dallas from an order of the commission fixing this percentage as the basis for paying agents.

Former Attorney General M. M. Crane and other insurance company attorneys attacked the flat rate commission order as illegal. They contended the insurance commission had no power to issue the order or to interfere with administration of the internal affairs of the companies. It was argued that adherence to the order would check competition between the companies.

Crane asserted that if the order is held legal, the state would have practical power to take over and operate fire insurance companies and their kinds of business.

The order of the commission was upheld by the district court of Travis county.

Slayer of Three Goes to Chair

HUNTSVILLE, Nov. 7. (AP)—For having slain three men, a storekeeper and his two sons, who sold him a bottle of milk he claimed was sour, Luz G. Argos went to his death in the electric chair at 12:05 a. m. today. The prison orchestra, at his request, played a concert of popular airs for him before he went to the death chamber. He paid with his life for the slaying of Joe Barrientes, storekeeper, and his two sons in Medina county on Christmas day, 1928.

The Mexican went smilingly to the chair. A moment before the current ended his life, he passed and said, "Well, I want to say that I am well prepared. I am ready to meet my God."

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 7. (AP)—The four masted schooner Rose Mary, believed by naval strategists to be from Mobile, burned after an explosion in the vessel off Key West today. The crew and two women aboard were rescued by the U. S. S. Hannibal.

Clingman Again Takes Charge of Wrestling Arena

Otis Clingman once more is in command of Pampa wrestling laurels. Last night he defeated Teddy Waters in one of the most terrific exhibitions of speed and science ever seen here. He won the first and third falls, taking the last one with a drop toe hold after it appeared that Waters might headlock him into submission as he did in the second period. It was Otis' airplane spin and slam which ended the first period of action.

Waters demonstrated some of the most terrific headlock-slams ever executed in Pampa, and he also proved that the most excruciating splits and toe holds could not make him get the mafe or crawl for the ropes.

Won't Be Stopped in Railroad Plans

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 7. (AP)—J. L. Lancaster, president of the Texas and Pacific railroad, will keep right on filing applications until the Abilene and Southern is extended from Ballinger to San Angelo, W. K. Lence, general manager of the Abilene and Southern, said here recently.

Mr. Lence said neither he nor Mr. Lancaster were discouraged by the temporary delay met before the Interstate Commerce Commission, characterizing the battle thus far as a draw.

"We have won two votes and the Santa Fe two," he said. "We received the vote of the examiner who said we would be allowed to build here. Then we got the vote of one member of Division B of the commission. The Santa Fe got the votes of two of the commissioners. We received the vote of the chairman, and we feel he will be helpful in getting a hearing before the entire body."

He declared this city must have the direct outlet to the north and west to become a large city, adding that the Texas and Pacific was the only line that could give San Angelo the service needed.

On Exhibition Flight AMSTERDAM, Holland, Nov. 7. (AP)—The DO-X, Germany's 13-motored airplane, took off at 12:15 p. m. today on a brief exhibition flight to Rotterdam and the Hague. The ship will fly to Calcutta, Ind., tomorrow on the next leg of its trans-Atlantic flight to New York.

LEVINSKY IS WINNER OVER OLD MASTER

CHICAGO, Nov. 7. (AP)—King Levinsky, former fish peddler, wielder of the devastating right hand, hasn't yet caught up with Jimmy Slattery, former light heavyweight champion, but he has a 10-round decision over the Buffalo boxing master.

Levinsky, whose blasting right hand accounted for knockouts over Leo Lomski and Tom Kirby in his last two fights, received the decision of the referee, Norman Garrity, and one of the judges, Livingston Osborne, last night in the Chicago stadium, a decision that caused the loudest, longest demonstration of approval since boxing was revived in Illinois. The other judge, Fire Marshall M. P. Corigan, cast his vote for Slattery.

Slattery, crafty defensive boxer and operator of an unerring left hand, was credited with seven of the 10 rounds by ringside observers, and only once was in real danger of falling a victim of the King's right. Levinsky staggered him with a right to the mouth in the sixth but Slattery remained on his feet, and appeared none the worse when he came out for the seventh.

Levinsky made the fight and the mighty right never stopped banging away, seeking a vital spot. Slattery gave away nearly 10 pounds, scaling 167 3-4, to 162 for the King.

In the other 10-rounder Otto Von Forstner, Chicago heavyweight, won an impressive decision over the Canadian veteran Jack Renault.

Barnes Ross, clever young Chicago lightweight, disposed of Pety Mack, Jersey City veteran, in less than a round.

A crowd of 18,700 paid approximately $52,000 to watch the show and 40,000 and over for more than 10 minutes over the decision in favor of Levinsky.

With this view of the matter, when you saw three of those luminous pills into the lid, and saw them take Able away on a stretcher, you might have wondered if things hadn't been planned that way.

But, of course, they weren't. The Army plays a hard game of football, but I do not like to think they slugged-down this chap with the same motive a murder has when he precipitates the sitting of an enemy's throat.

Maybe the Army was merely too anthropic in its intention to stop Able Booth. Football players, you know, can be goaded into a pretty fine sort of frenzy by coaches, alumni, and others. But Major Ralph Chase wouldn't let them to stop Able Booth that way. The Major is too much of a sport.

Two Squads of Pampa Boys Are Now In Action

Pampa teams here and at Childress are surging down the turf this afternoon.

Pampa's Harvesters are carrying Pampa fight into the game at Electra, while the speedy little Gorillas are engaging the Childress second team here.

The Gorillas hoped to set a precedent for the Harvesters by turning back the reputedly powerful visitors. The first string from Childress will play here Armistice day. Another element encouraging the locals is the fact that today is the first time the Gorillas have played on the home field. W. O. Workman is the coach.

No Foundation For Sports Splits Professor Says

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 7. (AP)—There is no foundation for the report that a split in the southwestern conference has been discussed, Dean Charles E. Friley of Texas A. & M. college said today. Dean Friley is secretary of the Southwest Athletic conference.

The comment was evoked by press reports that the possibility of separation of state schools in the conference from church schools and the formation of a new conference was being considered.

"The whole thing probably started as the result of a chance conversation here recently between myself and an alumnus of the college," Friley said. "In the conversation I mentioned the reports of a split in mid-western conference which brought the state schools together. In addition, I said reports—not official, however—had reached me that something similar might be done in the southwest conference. This was in no wise a prediction, but simply conversational mention of rumor.

"There has been no official consideration or discussion of the matter between any two members of the southwest conference, so far as I know, and there is no official contemplation of the matter within my knowledge. Any other construction of the conversation was in error."

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 7. (AP)—Election of Sen. Thomas D. Schall, Republican, will be contested "on every possible ground," his opponent, Einar Hoidal, Democrat, announced today.

California Oil Program Changed

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7. (AP)—A revolutionary step in the operation of California oil fields was announced here today for the operation of the rich Kettleman hills fields by A. L. Weil, chairman of the oil control committee.

The plan calls for formation of a corporation to operate the area as a unit, distributing products among the owners in proportion to the acreage held. The corporation will be "the Kettleman north dome association."

While unit operation is authorized under a recent congressional act, Weil said this would be the first instance in which oil operators have shared the output in proportion to the acreage.

The plan, he explained, means that operators who have not yet sunk wells will share proportionately with those whose acreage is fully developed.

Most of the 5,000 acres or more in the field is held by the Standard Oil company of California. About twenty other operators are in the field, all of whom were represented in the move.

The operating company was decided upon recently as a means of further conserving oil and gas resources.

To Be Buried in Coffin He Picked
TEXARKANA, Nov. 7. (AP)—Craven Wilson, 85, Confederate veteran, will be buried here today in a coffin he picked one year ago.

After selecting the coffin he ordered it placed in storage until his death, which occurred yesterday.

"When a fellow buys an overcoat he wants to see it, doesn't he?" Wilson had commented when questioned about his early purchase.

Soviet Populace Stages Gigantic Anniversary

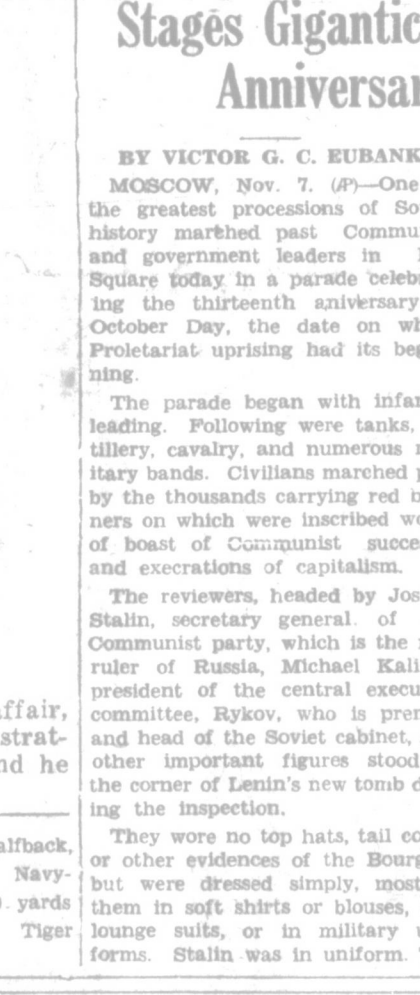

BY VICTOR G. C. EUBANK
MOSCOW, Nov. 7. (AP)—One of the greatest processions of Soviet history marthed past Communist and government leaders in Red Square today in a parade celebrating the thirteenth anniversary of October Day, the date on which Proletariat uprising had its beginning.

The parade began with infantry leading. Following were tanks, artillery, cavalry, and numerous military bands. Civilians marched past by the thousands carrying red banners on which were inscribed words of boast of Communist successes and execrations of capitalism.

The reviewers, headed by Joseph Stalin, secretary general of the Communist party, which is the real ruler of Russia, Michael Kalinin, president of the central executive committee, Rykov, who is premier and head of the Soviet cabinet, and other important figures stood at the corner of Lenin's new tomb during the inspection.

They wore no top hats, tail coats, or other evidences of the Bourgeois, but were dressed simply, most of them in soft shirts or blouses, and lounge suits, or in military uniforms. Stalin was in uniform. The

Louisiana State Executives Will

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7. (AP)—Two mortal political enemies, Gov. Huey P. Long and Lieut. Gov. Paul N. Cyr, will make a trip out of the state together and will sleep together to make sure that one does not put anything over on the other.

Governor Long had promised his followers that Lieutenant-Governor Cyr would never become governor for a minute while he was in office. But Long was anxious to attend the flood control meeting at St. Louis and if he went out of the state, Lieutenant Governor Cyr automatically would become governor.

The governor mentioned his predicament in the presence of the lieutenant-governor. Cyr suggested that the problem could be solved by both going together.

"Fine!" said the governor. "And I think it would be best of we bunked together. We don't want to get out of each other's sight."

When they go Alvin King of Lake Charles, president pro tempore of the state senate will be governor during their absence.

MENU for the FAMILY

BY SISTER MARY
NEA Service Writer

Dates lend themselves to many delicious concoctions and have a definite place in autumn cookery.

Stuffed with a mixture of cream cheese and nuts, they make a good salad. They combine well with orange sections and nuts in another salad.

Cooked breakfast cereal gains interest if a few chopped dates are added just before serving. Three dates add approximately 100 calories of food value to a dish of cereal.

Dates and nut bread is excellent for children or will prove popular with grown-ups.

Date and Nut Bread
One egg, 2 tablespoons granulated sugar, 4 tablespoons molasses, 2 cups Graham flour, 1 cup white flour, 1-2 cups sour milk, 1-2 teaspoons soda, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup stoned and chopped dates, 1 cup chopped nut meats.

Beat egg until light. Beat in sugar, molasses and salt. Add Graham flour and white flour, but do not stir mixture. Add fruit, and nuts, dropping them into the flour. Mix thoroughly. Add sour milk and stir until smooth. Add soda dissolved in 1 tablespoon cold water. Stir for one minute. Drop from spoon into an oiled and floured deep bread pan and bake one hour in a moderate oven.

Date pie is rich dessert to serve for Sunday night supper or any light meal.

Date Pie
Two cups stoned and coarsely chopped dates, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 cup milk, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla.

Four boiling water over one package of date. Drain, dip in cold water and remove stones. Chop and stew in a very little water until soft. Stir well and add well beaten egg. Mix well and add milk and vanilla. Turn into a deep pie dish lined with plain pastry and bake about 40 minutes in a moderate oven. When firm to the touch the pie is done. Serve cold with whipped cream.

Dates and nut-pudding is another rich dessert popular for special occasions.

Date and Nut Pudding
One egg, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla.
Three eggs, 1 cup granulated sugar, 4 tablespoons bread crumbs, 15 dates, 1 cup walnut meats, 1-4 teaspoon baking powder, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla.

Beat yolks of eggs until thick and lemon colored. Add sugar and baking powder mixed and sifted. Then add bread crumbs, finely chopped dates and nuts and mix. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Turn into an oiled deep-dish pan and bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven. Cut in squares and serve with whipped cream. This pudding can be made several days before wanted.

Committee Will Work For Relief Of Hungry Men

HOUSTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—A committee of nine men, whose names were withheld, to plan ways of relieving Houston's unemployed was appointed after a conference between Mayor Walter Monteith, R. O. Kuldell, president of the chamber of commerce, and others.

Three steps already have been suggested. They would involve:

A special employment agency where every person able would be asked to supply one day's work a month at a minimum wage of $4, the jobs to be registered at the agency.

Use of the unemployed in cleaning parks and bayou lands at salaries from $1.50 to $2 per day.

Designation of one week in each month as "prosperity week," the merchants to offer special inducements to shoppers and property owners to have all necessary repair work done.

The second tentative plan was given a blow when the mayor declared the city had no available money to carry it out.

Big Class Room Will Be Built

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—Bids for the construction of a $400,000 classroom building will be taken at a meeting of the board of regents of the University of Texas November 26. The plans for the building were approved at a recent meeting.

Bids also will be taken on landscaping the grounds around Gregory gymnasium and on the sewage and drainage system for the new women's activity building.

Old shacks on the campus were being torn down to make room for the new class room building. It was expected to have the structure completed by the opening of the 1931 fall term.

Jake Hess Not To Be Eligible

HOUSTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—Jake Hess, captain elect of the Rice institute basketball team and high scorer in the Southwest conference last year, was missing when the squad began practice here. Hess, rule 1 scholastically ineligible, got out his uniform a bit sandy, nevertheless, and is assisting Coach "Frog" Daugherty in training the squad.

Ray Hart, runner-up in last season's scoring record was seen as the Owls' best bet at forward, while Harry Norman, center, the only other returning letterman, seemed assured of a place, though it was believed Blake Sellars, six feet six inches tall, would crowd him.

Carl Sphack, Howard Banner and Pete Wolf were the other squad men to come back.

The varsity five will take a 10-day trip through the middle west during the Christmas holidays, taking on such teams as Oklahoma City university, Illinois Wesleyan, Bradley Tech and DePaul university.

WOMEN ARE FAVORED

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—The board of regents of the University of Texas believe women should have the finer things of life. And they are going to give one of the finer things to women students when the present bell system is reconstructed.

A loud and sonorous siren will warn male gymnastic students of the approval of a change in classes, but the regents have ordered that a softly toned bell be installed in the women's gymnasium to herald the advance of another class.

Bids on the new system, which involves reconstruction throughout all the buildings, will be taken November 26. The present bell system was held inadequate.

THE LONGEST FORWARD STEP IN MOTOR OIL!

SOCONY MOTOR OIL

DEWAXED...PARAFFINE BASE...POURS AT ZERO

THE Magnolia Petroleum Company has worked two and a half years developing this finer lubricant. We have had at our disposal the most highly trained engineers and the most modern research laboratories. We have had the pick of the choicest crude oils and the most up-to-date refineries. We have had the benefit of years of experience in the manufacture of lubricating oils.

5 reasons for changing today to the new SOCONY MOTOR OIL

- 1. Perfected Lubrication... Refined by the new and exclusive Socony process, which gives additional lubricating value, the New Socony reduces wear on your motor.
- 2. Easy Starting in Coldest Weather... It will flow more freely at zero temperature than asphalt base oils do that have the same consistency at like atmospheric or operating temperature.
- 3. Fuel economy and Increased Power... Maintains proper "body" at all engine temperatures. Result: perfect piston seal, maximum power and minimum fuel consumption.
- 4. A Clean Motor... A minimum of sludge and carbon, insuring more oil and a clean motor.
- 5. Minimum Oil Consumption... No engine heat or pressure severe enough to break this new oil. Gives 25% to 50% greater mileage, with subsequent saving in money.

We have produced the new Socony Motor Oil in which full lubricating value takes on a new significance. For in it we have put not one or two, but all and every characteristic a motor oil should have.

Supply Still Is Matched Against Demand Factor

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—The law of supply and demand still is the main factor in determining the price of staple articles openly traded in on the world markets, and these laws cannot be arbitrarily set aside even by an agency of the richest government in the world, according to A. B. Cox, international authority on cotton marketing and a member of the faculty of the University of Texas. He said responsibility for the decline in the prices of farm products cannot be placed altogether on the federal farm board even though the "results accomplished by the board have been a disappointment to many persons."

Mr. Cox said it was impossible for the farm board to have prevented the drastic declines in prices and the ineffectiveness of the board bears out the theory that prices are determined largely by the supply and the demand.

He said the efforts of the board to induce farmers to reduce the cotton acreage was "futile." The normal reaction to price declines this year indicated an increase of one per cent more acreage than actually occurred. The economist also said farmers are realizing less on their 1930 crop than they would have had the market been permitted to take its natural course without inside interference.

If the past experiences of the farm board have proven useful and enable it to find its real field of service, then the cost to the government and the farmers has been worth while, Mr. Cox said.

He said his survey of the cotton market indicated it was unsafe to buy and hedge undervalued cotton, that full staple premiums cannot be paid for cotton longer than seven-eighths of an inch and the fact that a large amount of the cotton cannot be hedged safely is causing it to be sold at ridiculously low prices.

He expressed the opinion that as long as the farm board continues to base its operations on the futures market, merchants and spinners will have no faith in the market as a hedge and price-making basis.

The fact that the farm board has about 60,000 bales of certified cotton in the futures market, which

The Rev. E. W. Marshall of San Antonio is president of the conference.

WILL APPEAL CASE
DEL RIO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Del Rio's segregation case will be taken to the supreme court if plans under consideration here are carried out. Counsel for the Mexican colony has indicated that a motion for a rehearing will be submitted to the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals in San Antonio.

The new move was planned as a result of a reversal of a Del Rio district court ruling granting injunction against segregation of Mexican school children by the appellate court.

The appellate court ruled that the proposed plan for construction of additional buildings to take care of the Mexican children was legal because it tended to improve the school system and was not intended primarily for separation of the Mexican children from the American children.

The case was brought to the appellate court after a Del Rio court had granted injunction halting construction of a five-room addition to the Mexican school.

Forty Class A Teams To Play

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—With 13 teams still presenting unimpaired records, 40 "A" eleven's of the Texas Interscholastic league will swing into action this week-end with almost as many more scheduled to take the field Armistice day. The 13 teams that have not been beaten are Austin, Amarillo, Breckenridge, Corsicana, Tyler, Athens, Beaumont, Highland Park, John Reagan of Houston, Greenville, Denison, Sherman and Oak Cliff of Dallas.

With the season more than half over, interest in the interscholastic league race is more than luke warm and the leaders in the various districts are girding their loins for some terrific battles. They are seeking the title now held jointly by Breckenridge and Port Arthur, the result of a tie game at Waco last year.

The Austin high school Maroons are favored to cop the title in the headquarters area on the strength of their past record. The chase in the other districts, however, is not so clear cut. Amarillo seems to have the inside track in the first district with Breckenridge leading in district two and Oak Cliff and Highland park leading contenders for honors in the third area.

Corsicana is given a slight edge in the fourth district while Greenville, Denison and Sherman are holding the spotlight in the fifth district. Tyler and Athens are leading the race for the sixth district flag with Beaumont and John Reagan of Houston out in front in the seventh.

Games this week include: Vernon at Amarillo; Plainview at Wichita Falls; Pampa at Electra; Quanah at Lubbock; Breckenridge at Abilene; Comanche at Brownwood; Eastland at San Angelo; Forest Avenue at Sunset (Dallas); North Side at Fort Worth Central; Belton at Temple; Waxahachie at Waco; Malakoff at Palestine; San Jacinto at John Reagan (Houston); Ball (Galveston) at South Park (Beaumont); Orange at Milby (Houston); Bryan at Jeff Davis (Houston); Main Avenue at Alamo Heights (San Antonio); Kerrville at Austin; Corpus Christi at Laredo; Robstown at Harlingen.

Temple Will Be Host To BYPU

DALLAS, Nov. 7. (AP)—More than 5,000 members of Baptist Young People's Unions are expected to attend the state convention in Temple Nov. 27-28, it was announced at state B. Y. P. U. headquarters here. A number of the outstanding ministers and leaders of the southern convention will be on the program.

The convention will open at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving morning with a song service. Dr. W. R. White of Dallas, secretary of the Texas Baptist convention, will make the principal address. The Baylor college choral club will give a musical program that night, following an address by Dr. M. M. Wolf of Houston.

The seventeen district B. Y. P. U. conventions will meet in connection with the state convention beginning Friday, Nov. 28.

BULLDOGS DEER
SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Bulldogging of a pet buck deer at the edge of a pool of water on a cold day with the lady friends looking on is not in the best of tastes, according to findings of a visitor to the quadrangle at Eighth Corps area headquarters.

The visitor, a large man from out of town, was standing by the pool with two women when the buck approached the party. The man, fearing that the buck might molest his companions, caught the deer by the antlers. That was not quite the end of it.

Ike Pendleton, who has charge of the birds and animals at the quadrangle, made the rescue.

LIVESTOCK AUTHORITY
HOUSTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—One Texan, Frank Scofield of Hillsboro, will be among the 47 "world's foremost livestock authorities" who will serve as judges in the International Livestock Exposition opening Nov. 29 at Chicago, the exposition press bureau announced. Mr. Scofield will judge in the shorthorn class.

Full Program Awaits Women

HOUSTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—Delegates to the convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs here Nov. 10-14 will find a full program awaiting them.

On Monday, the first day, the executive board will meet for discussions and a luncheon, and in the afternoon there will be tea and a drive to the San Jacinto battle grounds. In the evening the city's official program and reception will be held.

Tuesday morning will be occupied by reports from officers and committees and recognition of new clubs, at evening of the same day reports of district presidents, junior memberships chairmen and delegates representing the high scoring clubs will be heard.

On Wednesday, reports from special committees will be heard and a "publicity luncheon" given. Judge W. O. Huggins, editor of the Houston Chronicle, and J. J. Taylor, "State Press" of the Dallas Morning News, will be among those attending. In the afternoon the cultural departments will be heard from, and there will be a reception and tea at the Museum of Fine Arts. "Southern dinner" will be provided in the evening.

The department of the American home will top the program for Thursday, and Ross S. Sterling, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, will address the delegates. In the afternoon the federation president will address the assembly, and in the evening the "pioneer dinner" will be had.

TO OPEN AIRPORT.
TAYLOR, Nov. 7. (AP)—The new Taylor municipal airport, some two and a half miles from the city, will be opened formally early in February.

The city, in providing it, leased nearly 39 acres of land for five years at $600 a year.

A four-plane hangar and a filling station will be erected.

Completion of the project will end two years of effort by its proponents.

Abilene To Be Host To Pastors

ABILENE, Nov. 7. (AP)—Methodist pastors of the Northwest Texas conference, all of whom are postponing date for the annual conference nears, may take consolation in the fact that this year the bishop is being encouraged by his cabinet of presiding elders to make as few changes in pastoral appointments as possible, according to the Rev. E. E. White, presiding elder of the Abilene district.

The conference meets formally November 12, at Sweetwater, although the preceding day will be taken up by committee meetings and conferences of the Bishop and his cabinet, composed of presiding elders in the eight districts in the conference, joined by the Rev. Ed Wallace, presiding elder of the "Oklahoma strip" that is expected to be taken into the conference, thus creating a ninth district.

The re-districting proposal will be one of the major matters to face the conference, which embraces all the northwestern part of the state and the Panhandle.

Nine churches in the "Oklahoma strip", formerly part of the Oklahoma conference, are involved in the re-districting plan that probably will change boundaries of practically all present districts. The plan is now in the hands of a committee composed of the Rev. W. M. Pearce of Amarillo, the Rev. M. M. Beavers of Plainview, and the Rev. W. M. Murrell of Glendon, all of whom are presiding elders in their respective districts. The committee will make recommendations to the conference, but church officials have not divulged any proposed boundary changes pending official action.

A matter of particular interest to the conference, involving the executive administration at McMurry College here, a senior college founded and maintained by Northwest Texas Methodism, will be thrashed out. This includes action on the resignation of Dr. J. W. Hunt, who founded the institution, which opened its doors in 1923 and the possible consolidation of the offices of president and dean. The board of trustees declined to accept Dr. Hunt's resignation, and immediately on the heels of this refusal came announcement from Boyd M. McKeown, dean who has been at the head of the educational department since the school was founded, that he desired to retire from the college "in the interest of consolidating the two executive departments." The board has announced it will not act on Dean McKeown's resignation before November 11.

WILL TEST LAW.
HOUSTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—The Houston school board will join 38 other independent school districts in testing validity of a state law authorizing county boards to levy a five to ten per cent tax on the state fund for independent districts. The board voted to give financial aid to allied independent districts making a test case of the Travis county board's recent eight per cent levy on the Austin independent district fund. The case first will be heard by the state board of education and if the act is upheld there the independent districts will go to the courts.

LONGVIEW, Nov. 7. (AP)—W. M. Welch, 71, well known business man for the past 16 years, died today after a heart attack late yesterday.

Forty Class A Teams To Play

AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—With 13 teams still presenting unfinished records, 40 "A" eleven of the Texas Intercollegiate League will swing into action this week-end with almost as many more scheduled to take the field Armistice day. The 13 teams that have not been beaten are Austin, Amarillo, Breckenridge, Corsicana, Tyler, Athens, Beaumont, Highland Park, John Reagan of Houston, Greenville, Denison, Sherman and Oak Cliff of Dallas.

With the season more than half over, interest in the interscholastic league race is more than lukewarm and the leaders in the various districts are grinding their loins for some torrid battles. They are seeking the title now held jointly by Breckenridge and Fort Arthur, the result of a tie game at Waco last year.

The Austin high school Maroons are favored to cop the title in the headquarters area on the strength of their past record. The chase in the other districts, however, is not so clear cut. Amarillo seems to have the inside track in the first district with Breckenridge leading in district two and Oak Cliff and Highland park leading contenders for honors in the third area.

Corsicana is given a slight edge in the fourth district while Greenville, Denison and Sherman are holding the spotlight in the fifth district. Tyler and Athens are leading the race for the sixth district flag with Beaumont and John Reagan of Houston out in front in the seventh.

Games this week include: Vernon at Amarillo; Plainview at Wichita Falls; Pampa at Electra; Quanah at Lubbock; Breckenridge at Abilene; Comanche at Brownwood; Eastland at San Angelo; Forest Avenue at Sunset (Dallas); North Side at Fort Worth Central; Belton at Temple; Waxahachie at Waco; Malakoff at Palestine; San Jacinto at John Reagan (Houston); Ball (Galveston) at South Park (Beaumont); Orange at Milby (Houston); Bryan at Jeff Davis (Houston); Main Avenue at Alamo Heights (San Antonio); Kerrville at Austin; Corpus Christi at Laredo; Robstown at Harlingen.

SPECIAL PARACHUTES
FORT CROCKETT, Nov. 7. (AP)—The "heavies" of the Third Attack Group here have special parachutes to fit their sizes.

Three Third Attack group fliers have been issued "super" parachutes which have a diameter of 28 feet as against 24 feet for the regulation type.

Temple Will Be Host To BYPU

DALLAS, Nov. 7. (AP)—More than 5,000 members of Baptist Young People's Unions are expected to attend the state convention in Temple Nov. 27-28. It was announced at state B. Y. P. U. headquarters here. A number of the outstanding ministers and leaders of the southern convention will be on the program. The convention will open at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving morning with a song service. Dr. W. R. White of Dallas, secretary of the Texas Baptist convention, will make the principal address. The Baylor college choral club will give a musical program that night, following an address by Dr. M. M. Wolf of Houston.

The seventeen district B. Y. P. U. conventions will meet in connection with the state convention beginning Friday, Nov. 28.

BULLDOGS DEER
SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Bulldogging of a pet buck deer at the edge of a pool of water on a cold day with the lady friends looking on is not in the best of tastes, according to findings of a visitor to the quadrangle at Eighth Corps area headquarters.

The visitor, a large man from out of town, was standing by the pool with two women when the buck approached the party. The man, fearing that the buck might molest his companions, caught the deer by the antlers. That was not quite the end of it.

Ike Pendleton, who has charge of the birds and animals at the quadrangle, made the rescue.

LIVESTOCK AUTHORITY
HOUSTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—One Texan, Frank Scofield of Hillsboro, will be among the 47 "world's foremost livestock authorities" who will serve as judges in the International Livestock Exposition opening Nov. 29 at Chicago, the exposition press bureau announced. Mr. Scofield will judge in the shorthorn class.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

BY HERBERT FLUMMER
WASHINGTON—The lad who sent you, and yes, maybe you, to the trenches in France back in the days of '17 is still in Washington—but you would hardly call him a lad now.

Michael James McDermott, or "Mack" as he is known to the hundreds of newspapermen in the capital, is chief of the division of current information at the state department.

It was "Mack" who actually picked out of the glass bowl in the provost marshal general's office the most of those 10,000 number-filled capsules which fixed the order of service for some millions of draftees in the world war.

This sturdy-shouldered, efficient, prematurely white-haired man was then just a stenographer in the office of Provost Marshal General Enoch H. Crowder while the first draft machinery was being prepared. He had come down to Washington from a Massachusetts shoe town prompted by a desire to see the show.

CONFIDENTIAL

He still remembers the glass bowl and the capsules. But more firmly fixed in his mind is what happened after he had finished the job of picking them out.

General Crowder walked into the auditing office where "Mack" and several others were at work one morning. He ordered all those within the draft age to stand up. And as they stood, the general smiled at them a bit ironically.

"Well," he said, "we're about to set a shining example for other government agencies to follow. I shall ask exemption for none of you."

Immediately "Mack" and his colleagues started out to enlist. But before "Mack" could, he was assigned to the White House to open thousands of letters which had swamped President Wilson. Then came the chance to fill the job of field clerk in the army, and he enlisted.

Soon he was sent overseas on a mysterious mission—confidential stenographer for General Tasker Bliss, American member of the supreme war council over which Foch presided.

ELBOW-VIEW

It was from this position that he saw the show, and later at Bliss' elbow got an inside look at the peace conference.

From that time "Mack" was destined to look in on many important international gatherings.

Back in the United States after being mustered out of the army, he was invited by Ethel Root to become his secretary at the international court of justice at The Hague. He didn't know Root, but accepted with alacrity to learn later that James Brown Scott had recommended him. He had done some typing for Scott when working in Crowder's office.

His work with Root placed him in the state department. He accompanied President Harding as confidential clerk on the Alaskan trip that ended with the president's

Walthall To Regret Giving up State Position

BY PAUL BOLTON
Associated Press Staff Writer
AUSTIN, Nov. 7. (AP)—It will be with considerable regret that R. B. Walthall, retiring member of the state board of control, turns over his office to that successor who has kept the political forecasters busy for the past several months.

Walthall has served in the post a six-year term, under appointment of Gov. Pat M. Neff, and nearly an additional year, pending appointment of his successor by Gov. Dan Moody. Many speculations have been made as to his probable successor, with Adrian Pool of El Paso and John Wallace of Teague, both members of the legislature, the two most frequently mentioned.

Walthall's regret will be because he has not been able to do all the things he wished to do while a member of the board. His chief concern has been the institutions maintained by the state for unfortunates, and while the state has made many improvements in Walthall's six year tenure, many more still are to be made.

Enlarged facilities, many additional employes and more scientific methods of treatment have been made. When Walthall came on the board the methods of treatment of the insane were not the most efficient. They have been improved immeasurably in the last half decade, and Walthall believes that Texas institutions will compare favorably with those of any other state.

Completion of the new psychopathic hospital at Galveston, and furnishing a laboratory for students of medical science will aid in modernizing the Texas system, Walthall said.

Perhaps the two greatest present needs, he said, are fire-proofing of all buildings and additional employes. When Walthall retires from the board of control it is likely he will get another state post under Neff, now chairman of the railroad commission. He served in two other appointive posts—secretary to the governor and oil and gas supervisor for the railroad commission—before his appointment to the control board.

The board of control boasts of one of the most faithful state employes—J. D. Hall, chief of the budget. Hall was stricken with appendicitis a few weeks ago, while at work. He died at San Francisco. Kellogg made him "publicity man" for the state department, the job he now holds.

was taken to the operating room in critical condition. Now he is back at his desk, having allowed himself a very short time to recuperate.

The reason for his hurry to get back to work was the necessity for completing the budget by the present date, Dec. 1. This voluminous document, which gives recommendations for appropriation for every department of state, must be gone over two and three times by him, checked and re-checked for possible error.

Like Walthall, Hall once served in the executive department, as assistant secretary to the governor.

No one could be found to pledge the accuracy of the following story which concerns an error such as Mr. Hall so assiduously tried to avoid—but his retainer deposes his belief that it is true. Once there was an error made, so the story goes, in an appropriation bill by which a stenographer's salary was made to read "$15,000" instead of $1,500. The error passed through both houses of the legisla-

Chain Gangs Will Be Used To Halt Hoboes

SWEETWATER, Nov. 7. (AP)—Convinced that the only practicable way of discouraging the increasing number of hoboes would be widespread adoption of the chain gang system, peace officers of West Texas planned today to request commissioners of their counties and town to adopt this system. They voted unanimously to do so at a meeting here yesterday.

They also agreed to urge motorists to "let the hitchhikers walk." Action of city authorities on the proposal will be forwarded this month to the Police Chief W. R. Sibley of Abilene named chairman of the area extending from Ranger west to El Paso and from Plainview south to Coleman.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
Adventure enters the life of CELIA MITCHELL, 17, when she learns the father she has supposed dead is alive and wealthy. She leaves her unpretentious home in Baltimore for a home in New York with her father JOHN MITCHELL, and her aristocratic grandmother.

MARGARET ROGERS, her mother, divorced Mitchell, remarried and is now a widow. BARNES SHIELDS, young newspaper photographer, is in love with the girl, and before leaving Baltimore Celia promised to be loyal to his love.

She is lonely in her new home. Mitchell asks EVELYN PARSONS, beautiful widow, to introduce the girl to other young people. Mrs. Parsons considers Celia a means to win Mitchell's affection and agrees. She invites the girl to her Long Island home for a week-end.

TOD JORDAN, fascinating but with a dubious reputation, is attentive to Celia. Mitchell joins the house party on Sunday. Mrs. Parsons, seeing the father and daughter together, becomes jealous. She tells Mitchell her pearls are missing and casts suspicion on Celia.

NOV. 10 GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXI
"Oh!" Evelyn's hand flew to her mouth. "Oh—I didn't think I mean it couldn't have been—"

Mitchell eyed her gravely. "You say you're sure you had the necklace yesterday?"

"Yes," Mrs. Parsons nodded emphatically. "It was before the others arrived. I was showing Celia about the grounds and the house and then I thought she might like to see the view from the windows of my room. It's quite unusual. We went upstairs and while we were there Rose, my maid, came in with the pearls. They'd just come back from a shop where I sent them to have the clasp repaired. I remember I put them down—"

She stopped and the shocked expression on her face deepened.

"No, no!" Mrs. Parsons went on. "Of course it couldn't have been—"

"But Celia was with you when you put them away?"

The woman nodded slowly as though she dreaded the admission. "I've looked everywhere," she said. "I wouldn't have thought about them, but I was in my room a little while ago and saw that the drawer where I kept them was partly open. The pearls are gone! I've looked everywhere!"

She was an excellent actress. Evelyn Parsons' expression and tone of voice protested against this horrifying truth.

"We must investigate this thing at once," Mitchell said firmly. "I'll call Celia—"

"Oh, please! No!" Mrs. Parsons begged. "I couldn't do such a thing. I mean I won't believe—"

"It's the only way to get the matter straight," the man insisted. "My daughter's name must be cleared."

"Wait!" Mrs. Parsons implored. "There's—there's no reason why I should suspect Celia. It's only that she was with me. We mustn't humiliate the child."

"Humiliate? That's hardly the word. If Celia did this thing—"

He was interrupted by Lisl Duncan. She came dancing into the hallway of the living room.

"Oh, Mr. Mitchell!" Lisl cried. "I've been looking for you! Come on—you have to be my partner. The others are all making fun of me, and I won't have it."

She had caught Mitchell's arm and seemed determined to pull him after her by force, if necessary.

"Come along!" Lisl demanded. "They're all ready to start. And I won't be without a partner. Come along!"

Casting back protesting glances at Evelyn, Mitchell was led away. The widow, alone, tapped one foot angrily and bided her time.

She was still standing in the hallway when Celia Mitchell appeared, rounding the curve of the stairway. Her face was pale. As soon as Celia saw Mrs. Parsons she ran down the remaining steps.

"Oh, Mrs. Parsons!" Celia said. "The queerest thing has happened. I can't understand it. I went upstairs a while ago to see that all my things were packed and ready to leave. I was putting a pair of hose I'd forgotten into my traveling bag when I found this! Look—"

She held up the dazzling strand of pearls.

"Why, Celia!"

"It's the beautiful necklace you showed me yesterday, isn't it? But how in the world did it get into my traveling bag?"

Evelyn Parsons' face was burning. For a moment her poise deserted her. A queer muffled sound issued from her throat. Then she captured command of the situation.

"In your traveling bag?" she echoed. "Why—how curious!"

Celia's cheeks were still white.

"Mrs. Parsons, you wouldn't think you couldn't think—I mean I didn't put them there! It must have been that someone meant to take your necklace!"

Evelyn was holding the pearls in her hand. "Now she looks down at them."

"There must be something more to this," she told Celia slowly. "I won't say."

"But why would anyone hide the pearls in my bag?"

Evelyn Parsons had been thinking quickly.

"Listen, Celia," she said. "I think perhaps I know what happened. I can't tell you about it now, but I'm going to be watchful. You must promise me not to say one word about this to anyone. I have my reasons—"

Celia agreed. "I won't mention it to a soul," she said, "only it makes me feel dreadful!"

"Never mind. Run along and forget all about it."

Celia went out to join the crowd on the porch. Mrs. Parsons turned to mount the stairs. She hesitated on the first step, her face thoughtful. She was about to continue when she heard footsteps. John Mitchell appeared.

"Evelyn—you've found them?"

She had forgotten that she was holding the pearls.

"Why—why, yes."

"Oh, I'm so glad. You don't know how upset I've been. It was such a terrible thing—"

"There, there, John! You see it's all right. Yes, I found the pearls. I—I went upstairs again and made another search. And anyway, you know I didn't believe for a single minute that your daughter had anything to do with their disappearance."

Mitchell smiled. Evelyn Parsons, standing above him, looked everything that was womanly and sweet. The man's eyes raised to Lisl.

"You wouldn't!" he said fervently.

"Evelyn, I hope she'll be as fine a woman as you are."

She excused herself and went on upstairs to put away the necklace. The plan had not worked. Never mind, there would be other ways!

When Celia reached the porch she found that the group there had diminished. Lisl with Jimmie Webster and Walter Carr was displaying card tricks. The others were not in sight.

The moonlight was as glimmerous as it had been the night before. Celia walked over to the porch railing, seated herself and leaned her head back. The garden in the distance was a pattern of petty shadows and pools of silver light. Fire flies flashed past. The night breeze, faintly stirring, cooled her cheek. Celia closed her eyes and thought she was living again those moments after he and Jordan danced.

Celia's eyes opened. Someone was coming along the garden path. A man and a woman. From the shadows of the porch Celia could see them clearly, but they could not see her.

They walked very slowly, close together, the man's arm about the woman.

Celia shrank back, but in that instant she had recognized them. Jordan and Eve Brooks!

Eve Brooks was a married woman. She had no right to be flirting as she did with any man in sight. But Jordan—Celia winced. He had tried to make Celia believe he cared for her. He had said it in words and in a thousand other ways.

Celia kept to her hidden recess. She could not bear to let the others know she had seen. Jordan and Eve came up on the porch. They were laughing and casual now.

Music from a distant radio studio began to pour forth from the living room. Two couples began dancing. Celia arose and started to enter, but Walter Carr detained her.

"Dance this one with me, won't you?" he said.

They danced and Celia, carried her head very proudly. She laughed more at Carr's jokes than she had before. Then Courtney Brooks came from somewhere and asked her to dance with him. Brooks was an expert at the tango. He showed her some of the steps and Celia, though she was slow at learning, was laughing and her cheeks were flushed when at least she gave up the attempt.

Tod Jordan stepped beside her. "I've been waiting for you," he said.

For a moment Celia was about to frame an excuse. Then she thought better of it, raised her arms and let him lead her in a fox trot. She was glad it was a fox trot instead of a waltz. In particular Celia did not want to hear again that melody about "stars and steel guitars." That was the song she and Jordan had danced to the night before.

They danced without talking. Jordan watched the girl curiously. She seemed disinterested.

"Tired?" he asked.

"Not at all. Do I look tired?"

"Oh, I just thought you might be."

It was not very exciting conversation. (See STORY, Page 16)

'An Unpleasant Subject'
All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some others refuse to think that such symptoms as restless sleep, loss of flesh, lack of appetite or itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by round or pin worms. Many mothers have proven, however, that few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, that sure and harmless worm expellant, will make these symptoms disappear. You can get White's Cream Vermifuge from any drug store or by mail from the manufacturer, White's Cream Vermifuge Co., 1110 North Cuyler St., Pampa, Texas.

ration. Presently he tried again. "Celia, what have I done?" "What do you mean?" "You know what I mean. Something's wrong. You're different to-night."

"I didn't know it." "But you are. Listen, if I've said or done anything that offended you, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to do anything like that. Honestly, I'm terribly sorry!"

It was almost too much to feel his dark eyes imploring her. But Celia bent her head. She had seen him with Eve Brooks with her own eyes.

"I haven't any idea what you're talking about," she told him glibly. "If you've done something you're sorry for it's too bad, but I don't see what I can do about it. Sorry, but I must run now and see when father wants to drive home."

It was a somewhat disconcerted young Mr. Jordan who watched Celia's blue chiffon back disappear through the French window. Celia met John Mitchell in the living room.

"I was just coming for you, Celia," he said. "Mrs. Parsons has persuaded me a few more days here in the country will be good for you. I'm driving back into town immediately, but you're to stay on and she'll bring you up Wednesday or Thursday. Give you a chance to swim and drive and fool around the garden to your heart's content. Like the idea?"

"Why—I think it's wonderful!" "I thought you would. Wouldn't stay in town myself if there was any way to avoid it. I'm glad Evelyn made the suggestion."

Celia was relieved. It was so much pleasanter at Mrs. Parsons' home than in the dreary Grammercy Park house. She went to tell her hostess how pleased she was.

One by one the week-end guests departed. There was not another opportunity for Jordan to talk to Celia alone. She avoided him purposely. There was only his formal "good night" as they shook hands. Kate Duncan and Mrs. Parsons were nearby.

Celia went upstairs as soon as she could excuse herself. She undressed and got in bed immediately. She was awakened by a tap on the door. (To Be Continued)

Hawks Thought To Have Record

HAVANA, Nov. 7. (AP)—Cuban air-men believed today that Captain Frank M. Hawks, who breakfasted yesterday in New York and dined last evening in Havana, had set a record for flight between the two cities which will be hard to beat.

Setting out from Curtis field, Long Island, at 8:50 a. m. (EST) Captain Hawks, who holds most of the major American long distance speed records, flew southward, along the Atlantic seaboard, and crossing to Cuba from the Florida peninsula, arrived here at 8:11 p. m., 8 hours and 21 minutes after his departure.

He estimated that, allowing for a 25-mile headwind, he averaged almost 182 miles an hour for the trip, for which he used a small mystery monoplane bearing the name "13". His actual flying time was 8 hours and 38 minutes. There were two stops en route, one of 23 minutes at Jacksonville and one of 30 minutes at Miami.

He beat by nearly 8 hours the previous record of 14 hours, set March 5, 1928, when the late Wilmer Stultz flew here with Charles Levine and Miss Mabel Boll in a non-stop trip in the airplane Columbia.

Liquor Conditions Abroad Studied By Hoover Law Enforcement Group

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. (AP)—Moving on toward completion of a report on prohibition now the election is out of the way, the president's law enforcement commission today was engaged in a study of liquor conditions abroad.

Besides considering the mass of documentary data accumulated in past months, the commission yesterday began again to hear witnesses. The first, John M. Morehead, American minister to Sweden, gave the members his views regarding the operation in Sweden of the Pratt system of liquor control. After him the superintendent of Pennsylvania state police, Lynn G. Adams, went in to tell the committee about conditions in his state. What the two said was kept secret, and so will the testimony of others who are to be heard.

Morehead's appearance and information that the Pratt system was under discussion caused a flurry of excitement and speculation outside the commission rooms until it was learned the Canadian control systems and other plans of

Talks To Parents

OVER-SOLICITOUS
By Alice Judson Peale

Occasionally one sees parents who are over-solicitous about their children's health.

No detail of their physical well-being is too small to arouse an anxious concern.

To such excessive solicitude the child responds in a number of unfortunate ways.

He may become self-centered, preoccupied with his health, exaggerating and exploiting any indisposition to gain an end. He may be so irritated and frustrated that he becomes rebellious, expressing his defiance by all sorts of wilful disobedience and unconscious acts of revenge.

Why is it that parents are frequently thus over-solicitous when the use of only average intelligence must give them a fair idea of its evil effects? The answer lies in the fact that men and women bring to their role as parents all their faults as human beings.

The over-solicitude of parents shows itself under scrutiny in an unfavorable light. Objectively understood, it may appear as a result of their wish to dominate and to derive a sense of importance through their children, which other relaships have denied them. Sometimes it is a response to their desire to keep their children dependent upon them and hold their unreciprocated childish love. Occasionally, even, excessive solicitude is but a compensation for the resentment they feel against the limitations and sacrifices of parenthood.

The parent who prides herself on her great concern for her child's well-being will be helped to acquire a more sane attitude if she is able to admit at least some part of her motivation and modify her conduct in the light of it.

Jumps to Life Nets

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 7. (AP)—Several persons were injured when they jumped from windows into life nets and it was feared that one or two others may have burned to death in a fire which swept the Miller block in the heart of the business district here today.

Firemen abandoned hope of saving the structure and gave their attention to saving Christ church cathedral and a department store adjoining the burning building.

Held For Forgery

LAREDO, Nov. 7. (AP)—Cases against C. R. Williams, alias Chas. McWilliams, charged with forgery and passing a forged instrument, were continued to Dec. 29, in district court here. Williams formerly resided in Amarillo.

Detroit Bank Robbed

DETROIT, Nov. 7. (AP)—The Berkeley State bank in the suburb of Berkeley, was robbed of nearly $2,000 today by two men who kidnaped the assistant cashier, Maurice G. Cole, and then left him tied to a tree in Royal Oak.
