Toughs Make Wild Whoopee During Night

BOSTON, Oct. 8. (A)-The Naconvention of the American Legion turned again to business today after its spectacular parade of yesterday.

Selection of the scene of the next convention was one of the important matters on the day's calendar A brisk fight was waged by Los Angeles and Detroit for the honor. Several distinguished guests were to speak, including Admiral William enson, Gen. Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans' affairs at Washington, Gen. Henri Gouard, French war hero, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Major Geneal Sir William Hickie of Ireland.

Reports of several committees were ready for action and awards for membership drives and history contests were to be awarded.

BOSTON, Oct. 8. (/P)-City and the downtown streets today after a night of disorder by mobs of Overturned automobiles, ashes of scores of bonfires that had been built in downton in downtown thoroughfares and on Boston Common, and here and there a battered head, marked the passing of the rowdies, who took advantage of privileges extended the Legionnaires on a night of frivolity after the annual parade in connection with the National convention.

At one time it seemed that the melee in Park Square might gain the proportions of a vicious riot. Dennis J. Lorden, heading a detail of Federal agents, had arrested four local men for peddling liquor in uare. As he started marching en away, the crowd, composed nostly of toughs, who ranged in age rom 14 to 20, moved on him.

Fists began to fly and the agents squad of police forced their way had their backs to the wall when a through the crowd to rescue them. Legion police, or "co-ops", held a lane open while the agents and their prisoners were brought to the comparative safety of a nearby

At the corner of Stuart and Temont streets a decrepit automobile caught fire. One of its 10 occupants was rescued by pedestrians One had his trousers burned. None of the automobilists was a Legion

Boxes and crates that were not burned and tin cans that would not burn were hurled at passing automobiles by the toughs. Tops of the machines were dented and torn and one or two crushed. Automobiles were seized and jounced until their springs gave way. Now and then an automobile was overturned. A few missiles were thrown from hote windows.

Incensed veterans took matters into their own hands several times when ruffians were found sporting Legion uniforms they had no righ wear. The preienders were quickly divested of their uniforms and sent on their way.

It means that 93 per cent of the accidents are caused by men! A staggering figure! The ladies are to be complimented, and I hereby compliment them.

'The school for women drivers wasn't started because of any lack of feminine ability to drive. Rather, it was because of popular demand, the women being eager and anxious to learn how to drive better than they already do.'

It was mighty nice of Mr. Kreml to say that—and doubtless it greatly reduce his mail.

Athletics Lambast Hallahan and Are No Easier on Sylvester Johnson and Jim Lindsey

SHIBE PARK, Philadelphia, Oct. 8. (AP)—Behind the wonderful pitching of big George Earnshaw, Connie Mack's Athletics today won their second successive world's baseball championship, crushing the St. Louis Cardinals 7 to 1 in the sixth game. It gave the A's, the series, four games to two.

The Athletics hammered the offerings of Wild Bill Hallahan, their previous conqueror, as well as the pitching of his successors, Sylvester Johnson and Jim Lindsey, with the most sustained and spectacular batting attack of the world's series. The world's champions made their seven hits count

You can't help admiring the charm of natural beauty, any more than you can help enjoying the natural mildness of a Camel Cigarette.

Camel's mildness starts in the sun-drenched fields where the tobaccos grow. Only the choicest of the golden Turkish and mellow Domestic leaves are selected for Camels. Through every step of their cure and manufacture the delicate, sun-ripe fragrance of these tobaccos is scientifically preserved. And so Camels come to you mild and delightfulnot flat and flavorless.

Swing with the crowd to Camels. Learn the happy difference between true mildness and insipid flatness. Smoke without fear of throat-discomfort or after-taste-just for pleasure!

ALONEY EARNS CLEAR POINT VICTORY OVER

EASY TO HIT

BY BILL KING Associated Press Sports Writer BOSTON, Oct. 8. (P)—The fistic capabilities of Primo Carnera, heretofore either under or over estimated, were accurately gauged last night by Jimmy Maloney, Boston's favorite but unreliable heavyweight. Giving away 65 pounds to the Italian behemoth, the Boston "fat boy" clearly outpointed him in a furious 10round slugfest at the Boston gar-

Maloney proved that Carnera does not possess a killing punch. He digested exactly 195 of the giant's blows and the only time he fost his footing was when he fell against the ropes after missing a wild 'round house" right to the Italian's jaw-late in the bout. The Boston attler's performance, at least to the 12,000 who witnessed the exciting setto, also indicated that it would be sound judgment to disregard the 23 consecutive victories that the "Ambling Alp" has piled up against carefully selected opponents since he started his American ring invasion early this year.

The Boston battler also proved that Carnera was easy to hit. Maloney scored 192 times to the head op body of his huge opponent and o per cent of them landed cleanly. Most of Carnera's punches were short left or right shops to the head and body, struck after his brute force had pushed his 195-pound rival against the ropes or into a Malonev was on the short end of the 4-1 betting odds but he fought the greatest battle of his long ring career and his victory was honestly earned.

Anne opened her eyes then and looked at him, and in alarm she glanced at the speedometer and called his attention to it.

Dan smiled and released the ressure of his foot somewhat. He thanked her then for singing. "Just like old times." Ond then he talked in many years is being rapidly on rapidly, told her how much her voice had improved. "I wouldn't have believed it. That fellow must coming through in June. The crop be a marvel."

He said he wondered when production would start on his bicture. What do you think of Lester Moore? Think you'll get along with him all right? Phillips tells me he's a regular guy-no temperament or anything—so you're gqing to get one-half to three-fourth bales to a chance to do something.'

To all of this Anne, knowing that he was acting unnaturally, and worrying about him, murmured short replies, but when they reached the bungalow she was strangely reluctant to let him go, and she found things to say that would serve as an excuse for him to linger.

And when he did leave, with a promise to see her at the studio on the morrow, she waited at the open door until he had climbed into the car, and then she waved to him and alled goodby to him again.

Mona was not yet home and the place suddenly was cheerless. Anne sat down to wait for Mona and she found herself, for some strange reason, wondering what she would have done if Rorimer had again kissed her. She had not expected him to try it, but she wondered nevertheless, because Dan had said something about "old times", referring to their first evening at Santa Monica, and she had not forgotter
